PREVIEW

Nevada earned one of the most impressive victories in program history this past Tuesday, a 77-63 commanding victory over #22 Utah State, in which the Pack put on a masterful performance on both ends of the court.

Nevada was nearly flawless on defense, limiting the Aggies to just 63 points, their second fewest scoring output this season, on clips of just 39.3 percent shooting from the field and 23.8 percent from behind the arc.

The Pack did a particularly excellent job of containing Karl Malone Award finalist Great Osobor, limiting the forward to just 11 points and four rebounds, well below his season averages of 19.0 points and 9.5 rebounds per game entering the contest.

Utah State commenced the game as one of the most prolific teams in the country in transition; yet, Nevada held the Aggies to just six fast break points throughout the game.

Offensively, Nevada was tremendous, as they scored 77 points on 52.9 percent shooting from the field, 40.0 percent from behind the arc, and 76.0 percent at the free throw line. The Pack recorded 17 assists on 27 made field goals, and Nevada completed the contest with 38 points in the paint.

Individually, Nick Davidson was sensational, as he scored a career-high 25 points on 10-14 shooting from the field, topping his previous career-high of 22 points which was set in Nevada's previous game against San Jose State. Davidson also pulled down 10 rebounds, as he recorded his second consecutive double-double and fourth of the season.

The redshirt-sophomore has been playing the best basketball of his career as of late. Over Nevada's past five games, Davidson is averaging 16.4 points and 8.0 rebounds per game, while shooting 64.6 percent from the field and 50 percent from behind the arc.

Davidson continues to rank as one of the best rebounding forwards in the conference, as he ranks sixth in the Mountain West in rebounds per game (7.0 RPG). Davidson also ranks 16th in the conference in field goal percentage (54.9%) and 18th in blocks per game (0.8 BPG).

Kenan Blackshear was phenomenal in the victory over the Aggies, particularly in the second half, as the fifth-year senior scored 18 points, 12 of which came in the second period. Blackshear also dished out four assists, pulled down three rebounds, and recorded two steals.

Blackshear continues to rank as one of the elite point guards on the West Coast this season. Entering Tuesday's contest, Blackshear ranks seventh in the Mountain West in assists per game (4.7 APG), eighth in points per game (15.7 PPG), ninth in steals per game (1.4 SPG), 20th in rebounds per game (4.8 RPG), and 22nd in field goal percentage (50.6%). The fifth-year senior has been instrumental in Nevada's success this season, as he is averaging 16.9 points, 4.8 assists, 4.8 rebounds, and 1.4 steals per game, while shooting 53.5 percent from the field in the Pack's 18 victories this season. In Nevada's five losses, Blackshear is averaging just 11.0 points, 4.4 assists, and 4.4 rebounds per game, while shooting 38.9 percent from the field.

Jarod Lucas did not have his typical scoring output against Utah State, posting nine points in the contest; however, he matched a career-high by dishing out four assists and recording one steal.

Despite not reaching double figures in scoring against the Aggies, Lucas continues to rank as one of the premier scorers on the West Coast. Lucas currently ranks seventh in the nation in free throw percentage (91.2%).

BRAND USAGE
For the purpose of athletics branding, please do not refer to the team as Reno, Nevada Reno or UNR. Also, pronunciation of the state should be stated in the following way: neh-VA-duh.

The fifth-year senior ranks fourth in the Mountain West in scoring (17.0 PPG), eighth in made 3-pointers (49), and 16th in 3-point field goal percentage (38.9%).

Like Blackshear, Lucas has been critical to Nevada's success this season. In Nevada's 18 victories, Lucas is averaging 18.2 points per game on 44.3 percent shooting from the field, 42.6 percent from behind the arc, and 92.9 percent at the free throw line. The fifth-year senior is also averaging 2.2 made 3-pointers and 5.1 made free throws in the Pack's victories. In Nevada's losses, Lucas is averaging 12.4 points per game on 34.4 percent shooting from the field, 28.1 percent from behind the arc, and 78.6 percent at the free throw line. He is also averaging just 1.8 made 3-pointers and 2.2 made free throws per game in losses this season.

Lucas has been sensational at Lawlor Events Center this season. In the Pack's 12 home contests, he is averaging 18.3 points per game on 43.5 percent shooting from behind the arc. Lucas has had his two highest scoring outputs at home, dropping 30 in Nevada's win over Portland before putting up 28 points in the Pack's victory over #24 Colorado State.

Nevada is 12-0 when Lucas and Blackshear combine to score 30+ points this season, and the Pack is just 6-5 when the duo fails to reach 30 combined points.

Nevada received tremendous production from Tre Coleman, Daniel Foster, and Tyler Rolison in the victory over #22 Utah State.

Coleman was outstanding on both ends of the court. The senior scored eight points, grabbed four boards, dished out two assists, recorded two steals, and tallied one block. Coleman has been stellar throughout conference play for the Pack, as he is averaging 9.7 points per game on 46.9 percent shooting from behind the arc, in addition to grabbing 4.2 boards, dishing out 3.1 assists, and recording 1.8 steals per game.

Foster also had a solid performance on both ends of the court, and he completed the contest with seven points on 1-2 shooting from the field and a perfect 5-5 at the free throw line.

Rolison had one of his most impressive performances of the season against Utah State, as the freshman guard was not fazed by a raucous road environment in Logan. Rolison scored five points, pulled down four rebounds, dished out four assists, and recorded two steals. The freshman played an instrumental role in a 12-2 run by the Pack during the first half, which helped Nevada take complete control of the contest.

As a team, Nevada continues to rank as one of the elite defensive squads in the country. Entering Friday's contest, the Pack ranks 42nd in the country in scoring defense (66.1 PPG) and 46th in the nation in opponent field goal percentage (40.1%).

Nevada has been particularly exceptional on defense at home, as they are holding opponents to just 61.2 points per game on 38.4 percent shooting from the field and 32.2 percent from behind the arc at Lawlor Events Center this season. Nevada has held all 12 of their opponents at Lawlor Events Center to less than 50 percent shooting from the field.

Offensively, Nevada continues to rank as one of the premier teams in the country at taking care of the ball. The Pack ranks 11th in the nation in fewest turnovers per game (9.4), 23rd in the country in assist/turnover ratio (1.54), and 35th in the nation in turnover margin (+3.1).

Friday's contest will mark Nevada's first rematch of the season, as they fell to San Diego State at Viejas Arena just over three weeks ago by a final score of 71-59.

The Pack was dominated on the glass in the game, as they were outrebounded by the Aztecs 44-25. Nevada surrendered 20 offensive boards to San Diego State, and the Aztecs scored 30 points in the paint.

Coleman and Blackshear led the way for Nevada in the previous matchup. Coleman scored 16 points on 6-10 shooting from the field, including 4-7 from behind the arc, while Blackshear dropped 14 points and dished out seven assists.

Nevada will have to keep the Aztecs off the glass and have another stout defensive performance on Friday evening in order to make program history by earning their second consecutive victory over a ranked opponent.

SCOUTING SAN DIEGO STATE

San Diego State, the 24th ranked team in the country in both the AP and Coaches Polls, enters Friday's matchup with an overall record of 18-5, including a mark of 7-3 in conference play, as they are tied for first place in the Mountain West standings.

The Aztecs have back-to-back games ahead of Friday, earning an 81-67 win over #17 Utah State last Saturday before picking up a 77-64 road victory over Air Force on Tuesday.

San Diego State ranks as one of the most prolific defensive teams in the conference and in the country entering Friday night's showdown. The Aztecs rank first in the Mountain West and 43rd in the nation in opponent field goal percentage (40.9%), while also ranking third in the conference in scoring defense (67.2 PPG) and fourth in opponent 3-point field goal percentage (30.5%).

San Diego State has not shot the ball at an incredibly high level this season, as they rank tenth in the Mountain West in both field goal percentage (45.2%) and 3-point field goal percentage; however, the Aztecs are fifth in the conference in scoring this season (76.3 PPG).

San Diego State has been one of the premier rebounding teams in the conference this season, as they rank third in the Mountain West in rebounds per game (37.0 RPG) and offensive boards per contest (11.0 per game).

Individually, the Aztecs are led by one of the premier players in the country in Wooden Award Midseason Watch List honoree Jaedon LeDee. LeDee ranks first in the conference in scoring (20.0 PPG), third in rebounding (8.6 RPG), and 15th in field goal percentage (55.1%). LeDee has reached double figures in scoring in all 23 games this season for the Aztecs, including scoring 20+ points in 11 games. The senior forward has accumulated nine double doubles this season. LeDee has been instrumental in the Aztecs' success, as he is averaging 20.8 points per game on 56.5 percent shooting from the field, as well as 8.9 boards per contest in San Diego State's victories; while averaging 17.2 points on 50.7 percent shooting, in addition to grabbing in 7.6 boards per game in SDSU's losses this season. LeDee relies heavily on getting to the free throw line, as he is averaging 6.9 made free throws in San Diego State's victories, and just 3.2 made free throws in the Aztecs' losses.

6-foot-6 junior guard and USC transfer Reese Waters has been exceptional in his first season with the Aztecs. Waters is averaging 11.8 points per game on 44.4 percent shooting from the field, 43.8 percent from behind the arc, and 92.7 percent at the free throw line for the Aztecs. Waters has reached double figures in scoring in 15 games for SDSU, and he has knocked down multiple 3-pointers in 12 contests for the Aztecs this season.

Butler is putting up 9.5 points per contest, in addition to leading the team in assists per game (3.3) and steals per game (1.4 SPG).

Senior guard Darrion Trammell has provided a significant offensive spark off the bench for the Aztecs this season. Trammell is scoring 7.9 points per game, and he has scored in double figures in eight contests for the Aztecs.

Nevada defeated San Diego State at Lawlor Events Center last season, and they will have to play one of their most complete games of the season on Friday night in order to earn their second straight victory over the Aztecs at Lawlor, as well as their second consecutive victory over a ranked opponent.

ALFORD CONTINUES TO ECLIPSE NEW MARKS
Last season, Coach Alford eclipsed the 650-win mark for his career, and after the Pack's victory at Utah State this past Tuesday, he currently ranks 11th among all active Division I Coaches in career wins with 675. Alford also reached 114 career wins in Mountain West play following the Pack's win over Utah State. He currently ranks third all-time among Mountain West coaches in conference victories, and second among active coaches. With Nevada's 2023 NCAA Tournament berth, Alford also achieved another incredible feat, as he became just the fourth coach all-time to take five different programs to the NCAA Tournament. Tuesday night, Alford will have the opportunity to reach the 675-win mark for his career with a victory.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME
Nevada has been exceptional at Lawlor Events Center since the commencing of the 2022-23 season. Since the start of last season, Nevada is 25-2 with an average scoring margin of +15.4 points per game. This season alone, Nevada is 11-1 at home with an average scoring margin of +18.6 points per contest. Nevada is limiting their opponents to just 61.2 points per game at Lawlor Events Center this season, and the Pack has held all 12 of their opponents at home to less than 50 percent shooting from the field.

FAST START
Nevada is undefeated this season with a mark of 17-0 when leading at halftime, while in turn holding a record of 1-5 when trailing at the half. Fast starts have been a significant key in the Pack's success this year.

LUCAS + BLACKSHEAR = KEY
Nevada boasts one of the best back courts in the country in 2023 Mountain West Newcomer of the Year as well as Second Team All-MW honoree Jarod Lucas alongside 2023 All-MW Second Team and All-MW Defensive Team honoree Kenan Blackshear. Blackshear and Lucas rank as the highest scoring duo in the Mountain West, and are the two most critical pieces of the Pack's offense. When Blackshear and Lucas combine to score 30+ points, Nevada is a perfect 12-0. When the duo does not reach 30 points, the Pack is just 6-5 on the season.

NCAA Champion, All-American, and Olympic Gold Medalist Steve Alford enters his fifth season at the helm of the Wolf Pack program in 2023-24. Alford has completed 32 seasons overall as a head coach, boasting a career record of 675-354.

Alford's career-win total of 675 victories places him 11th among all active Division I coaches in career wins. Alford also ranks third all-time and second among active coaches in career Mountain West victories (114).

Over his four seasons at the Wolf Pack helm, Alford has mentored three Mountain West Newcomers of the Year (Jarod Lucas, 2022-23; Grant Sherfield, 2020-21; Jalen Harris, 2019-20), the program's first Mountain West Freshman of the Year (Darrion Williams, 2022-23), a Mountain West Sixth Man of the Year (Nisré Zouzoua, 2019-20), two Mountain West All-Defensive Team selections (Tre Coleman, 2022-23; Kenan Blackshear, 2022-23), and nine All-Mountain West selections, including first-teamers Harris and Sherfield.

The 2022-23 campaign displayed Alford's ability to tap the full potential of his roster. After losing 58.1 percent of the scoring output from the previous season to the transfer portal, and losing seniors K.J. Hymes and Hunter McIntosh to injury at the beginning of the season, Alford led the Pack to a 22-11 overall record, fourth-place finish in the Mountain West, and the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance since the 2018-19 season. The 22 wins marked one of the biggest turnarounds in all of Division I, as the Pack increased their win total by nine from the previous season.

Nevada had an impressive outing at the 2022 Cayman Islands Classic at the beginning of the season, claiming a third-place finish in the outstanding field. Nevada earned victories over Tulane and Akron, while only suffering one defeat at the hands of Kansas State, an 87-96 overtime loss in the semifinal round to the Wildcats who went on to win the tournament.

Nevada produced an exceptional record of 14-1 on their home court, and the team earned back-to-back victories over ranked opponents at Lawlor for the first time in program history, beating #25 New Mexico (1/23/23) before taking down #22 San Diego State (1/31/23).

Nevada also had a stellar season in Mountain West play, securing a conference record of 12-6, earning a fourth-place finish at the conclusion of the regular season.

The Pack matched a program record following the completion of the regular season, as five different players earned All-MW recognition. Nevada also set a program record by obtaining seven different All-MW awards by players only.

Lucas, an offseason transfer from Oregon State, was named the Mountain West Newcomer of the Year, in addition to garnering All-MW Second Team honors after producing the best season of his collegiate career. Lucas scored in double figures in 28 of 33 contests for the Pack and he finished the season ranked tied for second in made 3-pointers, and fifth in points per game.

Blackshear, playing point guard for the first season in his entire life, was named to the All-MW Second Team while also being recognized as a member of the All-MW Defensive Team. After making the transition to point guard in the offseason, Blackshear had a breakout year under Alford's guidance. He finished the season ranked fourth in the Mountain West in assists per game, sixth in steals per game, ninth in free throw percentage, 13th in points per game, and 13th in minutes per game.

Center Will Baker garnered Third Team All-Mountain West honors after averaging 13.6 points per game on 56.0 percent shooting from the field, 35.5 percent from behind the arc, and 84.2 percent at the free throw line.

Darrion Williams was named the Mountain West Freshman of the Year for the first time in program history. Williams played in all 33 games while making 30 starts, and he finished the season ranked first on the team and third overall in the Mountain West in rebounding, averaging 7.3 boards per game.

Tre Coleman earned All-MW Defensive Team honors, marking the first time in program history that all five Wolf Pack starters garnered All-MW recognition.

Nevada earned their 10th NCAA Tournament berth in program history following the completion of the regular season, marking Alford's 12th career appearance in the tournament. The selection also signified the fifth different school that Alford has taken to the NCAA Division I Tournament, making him just one of four coaches throughout history to accomplish the feat (Lon Kruger, Rick Pitino, Tubby Smith).

Alford was named the NABC District 17 Coach of the Year at the end of the season, and Blackshear garnered First Team All-District honors while Lucas was named to the All-District Second Team.

In the 2020-21 campaign, Alford also showcased his ability to make the most of his roster. Entering the season returning just 20 percent of the scoring output from the previous year's team, Alford's young Wolf Pack squad opened up by capturing the Golden Window Classic title, highlighted by a last-second victory over Nebraska on the Cornhuskers' home court.

Nevada would navigate the challenges and turns of a season operating under the increased safety protocols as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, going 16-10 overall and reaching the Mountain West Championship semifinals.

Sherfield, an offseason transfer from Wichita State, was named the season's Mountain West Newcomer of the Year as well as to the All-Mountain West First Team, while fellow guard Desmond Cambridge, Jr., in his debut season with the Pack after transferring from Brown, earned a spot on the Third Team.

Sherfield paced the Mountain West in assists (158 total and 6.08 apg) and steals (42 total and 1.62 per game), while finishing second in scoring (18.6 ppg) and assist-to-turnover ratio (2.16), and third in free-throw percentage (85.5 percent). He was also in the conference's top 10 in field-goal percentage (43.3 percent, eighth).

He posted 12 20-point games this season, with 15 performances of at least six assists.

Sherfield also created key moments for the Pack in his debut season, hitting game-winning shots in the final seconds in wins over Boise State (74-72) on Feb. 5 and Colorado State (85-82) on March 5.

Cambridge, Jr. scored in double figures in 19 of 26 games, including eight 20-point performances and a season-high 31 points in the Mountain West Tournament quarterfinal win over Boise State.

He averaged 16.4 points a game, fifth-best in the Mountain West, and also ranked in the top 10 in 3-point field-goal percentage (34.8, fourth), 3-pointers made (69, third), and field-goal percentage (40.9, 10th).

The 2019-20 campaign was highlighted by Alford winning his 600th-career game Jan. 25, 2020, when Nevada defeated New Mexico 96-74 at Lawlor Events Center. The win made him, at the time, the 16th active NCAA Division I coach to reach the 600-win mark.

Alford became the first coach to win two Paradise Jam titles as the Pack swept the field, winning all three games by double figures in the U.S. Virgin Islands. In 2012, he led his New Mexico squad to the title. Junior Jalen Harris was the MVP and was joined on the All-Tournament Team by Jazz Johnson.

 Four members of Alford's first Nevada team garnered postseason honors led by Harris. Harris was named to the NABC and USBWA all-district teams after leading the Mountain West in scoring at 21.6 points per game. He was also a Mountain West coaches and media first team selection. Three times he was named the Mountain West Player of the Week, and on Feb. 9 was the Oscar Robertson Player of the Week. He scored 30 or more points six times including becoming the first Pack player with four-consecutive games of 30 or more points.

Johnson was named to the Mountain West coaches second team and media third team. Senior Nizre Zouzoua was the Mountain West Sixth Man of the Year as selected by the coaches and media. Johnson earned the Sixth Man of the Year honor in 2019. Another of the Pack seniors, Lindsey Drew, was named the Mountain West All-Defensive team for the second time in his career and was an honorable mention pick by the coaches and media. He was named the Mountain West Player of the Week the first week of the season.

On April 11, 2019 University of Nevada director of athletics Doug Knuth announced the hiring of Alford as the head coach of the nationally-ranked Wolf Pack men's basketball program.

Alford, a highly successful coach with 11 NCAA Tournament berths and four Sweet 16 appearances, signed a 10-year deal to lead Nevada.

"There is no better coach than Steve Alford to continue the rise of Nevada basketball and we are excited for the next chapter," Knuth said. "To get a leader of Coach Alford's caliber is a testament to the support of our community and our University. There is a great tradition of Wolf Pack basketball and the future is even brighter."

Alford is the 19th coach in the history of the Nevada program. Alford has a career record of 622-320 (.660) in 29 seasons as a collegiate head coach and is 544-290 (.652) in 26 seasons as a Division I head coach. Over his 25 previous seasons as a Division I head coach, Alford's teams have averaged 21 wins per year with only two losing seasons.

"To be able to continue my career in a tight-knit community that has demonstrated its support for the basketball program is exactly the opportunity that Tanya and I were looking for, and we are thrilled to be in Northern Nevada," Alford said. "I can't wait to get to work as we look to build off the established tradition and momentum of this great program. I want this to be the last stop of my coaching career."
