The UNLV men's basketball team, winner of three of its last four games and eight of 10, is coming off a 73-65 win at Wyoming on Saturday. UNLV will close the regular season with three of its final four games at the Thomas & Mack Center, starting with a home game against San Diego State on Tuesday, Feb. 26, at 7 p.m. The game will be televised live to a national audience on CSTV (Cox Digital Cable 333 in Las Vegas) and may be heard live in Southern Nevada on ESPN 1100 AM or anywhere in the world online at UNLVRebels.com through the All-Access feature. UNLV is alone in second place in the Mountain West Conference standings and also has won 13 of its last 16 games and 16 of 20.

THE UNLV RUNNIN' REBELS

UNLV is 20-6 overall this season and 9-3 in MWC play ... the Runnin' Rebels are in second place in the MWC, one game behind BYU (10-2), one-half game ahead of third-place New Mexico (9-4) and one and one-half games ahead of fourth-place San Diego State (8-5) ... the Runnin' Rebels won a season-high tying five straight games before losing at Utah on Feb. 6, 81-73 ... UNLV bounced back with two straight wins - both at home - defeating Colorado State, 68-51, on Feb. 9, and Air Force, 58-51, on Feb. 12 ... UNLV lost at BYU on Feb. 16, 74-48, but again bounced back on Saturday, this time at Wyoming, 73-65 ... UNLV has won three of its last four games, eight of 10, 13 of 16 and 16 of 20 ... UNLV is 13-2 at home this season, 6-4 on the road and 1-0 in neutral games ... UNLV has won nine straight home games ... UNLV has six players averaging 6.9 points per game or more and is led by junior Wink Adams (15.9), junior Joe Darger (12.0) and senior Curtis Terry (10.4), who are all averaging double figures in scoring ... junior René Rougeau (5.4) leads the team in rebounding, followed by Darger (5.0) and sophomore Matt Shaw (4.5) ... Terry is the team's assist leader with 4.7 apg (also leads the MWC), followed by Adams (3.4) ... Rougeau leads the team and the MWC in steals with 2.2 per game, while Adams is second on the squad (1.6) ... the Runnin' Rebels entered the season with eight returning letterwinners, including one starter ... Head Coach Lon Kruger is in his fourth year with UNLV with a record of 84-40 and is in his 22nd year as a collegiate head coach with a career mark of 402-273.

THE SAN DIEGO STATE AZTECS

San Diego State is 18-9 overall this season and 8-5 in MWC play ... the Aztecs are alone in fourth place in the MWC, one game back of New Mexico, which is in third place, and one and one-half games behind UNLV, which is second ... San Diego State has won each of its last two games (at Wyoming on Feb. 19, 79-68, and at home against BYU, 69-65, on Saturday) ... overall, SDSU has lost three of its last five games, however ... the Aztecs lost three straight (at TCU, 68-62, to New Mexico at home, 73-63, and at Utah, 72-66) before winning at Wyoming ... SDSU is led in scoring by junior Lorenzo Wade's 15.5 ppg and junior Ryan Amoroso's 10.7 ppg ... junior Kyle Spain, who was averaging 13.2 ppg, is suspended ...

UNLV has won two of the last three meetings, but SDSU has won four of the last six ... UNLV is 17-4 all-time against San Diego State in Las Vegas and is 11-3 all-time against SDSU at the Thomas & Mack ... UNLV has only won one of the last three meetings against the Aztecs at the Thomas & Mack Center ... UNLV is 163-85 all-time against teams that currently make up the Mountain West Conference.

KRUGER ERA - YEAR FOUR

Head Coach Lon Kruger is in his fourth season with the Runnin' Rebels and has an overall record of 84-40 (.677). Last year's Sweet 16 run was UNLV's first NCAA Tournament appearance under Kruger. That team was 30-7 overall, while his team was 17-13 in 2005-06 and turned in a 17-14 overall mark in his first season (2004-05) as UNLV's head coach. His first team was invited to the National Invitation Tournament where it advanced to the second round. He came to UNLV after a four-year stint in the NBA where he was the head coach of the Atlanta Hawks (2000-03) and was an assistant with the New York Knicks (2003-04). Prior to making the jump from the college ranks to the NBA, Kruger spent 18 seasons as a head coach at Pan American (1982-86), Kansas State (1986-90), Florida (1990-96) and Illinois (1996-2000). With last season's 30 wins at UNLV and this year's 20 victories, Kruger has led all five of the college programs he has coached to 20-win seasons. He also became just the fifth coach in NCAA history to take four different schools to the NCAA Tournament (one of two active) and is one of just three coaches in NCAA history to win an NCAA Tournament game with four different schools (only active coach). Additionally, Kruger is one of just four coaches to lead three different schools to Sweet 16 appearances in the NCAA Tournament. Kruger has led his teams to the postseason on 13 different occasions, with 10 appearances in the NCAA Tournament and three in the NIT. He has compiled nine 20+ victory seasons, was a two-time SEC Coach of the Year (1992 and 1994) and led his 1993-94 Florida squad to the NCAA Final Four. This year marks his 22nd season overall as a collegiate head coach and he has a career record of 402-273 (.596).

KRUGER NOTCHES 400TH CAREER WIN

With UNLV's 68-51 win over Colorado State at the Thomas & Mack Center on Feb. 9, head coach Lon Kruger won the 400th game of his career (He currently has 402 career wins). Kruger's journey to the accomplishment is unique. He cemented his place in history as college basketball's greatest change agent last March when his UNLV squad advanced to the Sweet 16 in just his third season at the helm of the program. Five times Kruger has taken over a program and five times – within at least four years each time – his programs have reigned victorious. It is arguably the most-proven track record of raising programs by one coach. However, that career path makes getting to landmarks such as 400 wins that much more challenging. Of the 22 seasons Kruger has served as a head coach, a majority of the seasons were spent in the early stages of building programs.

- A 20-win season in his fourth year at Texas-Pan American. He also served as Pan American's athletics director – the youngest AD in the nation at the time (he was 29 when he was hired) – while also serving as a first-time head coach. The team had won only four games the year prior to Kruger taking over in 1982.

- An Elite Eight appearance in his second season at Kansas State and four NCAA Tournament appearances in his four seasons coaching his alma mater. The Wildcats had failed to reach the tournament in the four seasons prior to Kruger taking over the program in 1986 and were just a combined one game over .500 in the three previous seasons. His 1987-88 team still holds a tie for the school season-single record of 25 wins. The run under Kruger also marks the only time the Kansas State program went to the NCAA Tournament four consecutive seasons.

- A Final Four appearance and a then-team-record of 29 wins in his fourth season at the University of Florida. The Gators were under investigation by the FBI and NCAA when Kruger took over the program in 1990, with the team coming off of a seven-win season. The unofficial expectations were simple at the time – keep the Gators out of trouble and out of the headlines. In addition to cleaning up the program off of the court, his teams went on to win over 100 games in the next six years with four postseason appearances, including a magical run to the Final Four in 1994.

- A Big Ten title for Illinois in his second season with the Fighting Illini and three NCAA Tournament appearances in his four seasons. The Fighting Illini had not captured a Big Ten title in 12 years (and only one in 33 years) when Kruger took over in 1996. Illinois had also won just one NCAA Tournament game since it had advanced to the Final Four in 1989. In Kruger's three NCAA Tournament appearances in the four seasons, the Illini advanced to the second round each time.

- A Sweet 16 appearance, a Mountain West Conference Tournament title and a 30-win season in just his third year at UNLV in 2007. The once proud Runnin' Rebels had not won a game in the NCAA Tournament since 1991 (with just two appearances in 15 years) and had not been ranked nationally since 1992.

- The names keeping company with Kruger tell more of the story. Only four coaches ever have led three different schools to the Sweet 16 since the NCAA Tournament expanded to 64 teams – Kruger, Rick Pitino, Bill Self and Tubby Smith.

UP NEXT

After hosting San Diego State on Tuesday, UNLV will remain home to host TCU on Saturday, March 1 at 4 p.m. The game will be televised live on the Mtn.

RUNNIN' REBELS' 9-3 CONF. MARK BEST SINCE 1992-93

UNLV's 9-3 MWC record is its best 12-game conference mark since the 1992-93 season. UNLV started out 10-2 in the Big West Conference that year.

UNLV WINS 20TH GAME OF THE SEASON

UNLV's win on Saturday at Wyoming was its 20th of the season. It is the second straight year that UNLV has notched 20 or more wins (the Runnin' Rebels won 30 games last season). Prior to the 2006-07 season, the last time UNLV won 20 or more games in a season was in 2002-03. UNLV has won 20 or more games in a season 31 times in its 50 years of existence as a program.

RUNNIN' REBELS HAVE WON 29 OF 36

Before the Nov. 21 loss to then-No. 6 Louisville, dating back to the end of last season, UNLV had won 12 of its previous 13 games. The only loss during that span came to then-No. 10 Oregon in last year's NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16. With their six losses this season, the Runnin' Rebels have gone 29-7 over their last 36 games.

UNLV 50-13 LAST TWO YEARS

With last year's 30-7 overall record and this year's 20-6 mark, UNLV is 50-13 over the last two years.

UNLV BOUNCES BACK

The last two seasons, after a UNLV loss, the Runnin' Rebels are 11-1 in their next game. UNLV has not lost two games in a row since it lost at Air Force on Jan. 6, 2007, and at Wyoming on Jan. 10, 2007 (last season).

18 STRAIGHT AT HOME OVER MWC OPPONENTS

Including postseason competition, UNLV has won 18 straight games against MWC opponents at the Thomas & Mack Center, dating back to the 2005-06 season. The streak includes 15 consecutive wins against league foes in regular-season action.

UNLV HAS WON 6 OF LAST 9 MWC ROAD GAMES

Dating back to the end of last year, UNLV has won six of its last nine MWC road games. UNLV won at Utah and at New Mexico in its final two true road games of the 2006-07 season, and this year, UNLV is 4-3 on the road in MWC play with victories at CSU, at SDSU, at TCU and at Wyoming, while the losses have come at Air Force, at Utah and at BYU.

STILL UNBEATEN AT HOME IN MWC PLAY THIS YEAR

UNLV (5-0) and BYU (6-0) are the only teams who remain undefeated vs. league opponents in their home venues this season.

OVERALL SUCCESS ON THE ROAD

With a 6-4 road record this season and an 8-5 road record last year, UNLV has gone 14-9 in road games over the last two seasons. And over its last 16 road games, dating back to last year, UNLV has gone 10-6 in those contests.

UNLV IN THE RPI

Through games of Sunday, Feb. 24, UNLV's Rating Percentage Index is 32nd in the country (The Collegiate Basketball News Men's RPI College Basketball Ratings), which is second in the MWC behind BYU's 26th. The Runnin' Rebels are followed by New Mexico at 44th, San Diego State at 67th, Utah at 84th, Air Force at 174th, TCU at 195th, Wyoming at 210th and Colorado State at 258th. UNLV's non-conference strength of schedule is 46th, which makes UNLV the only team in the conference with a non-conference strength of schedule higher than 117th, which is BYU's NCSOS.

IN THE POLLS - RECEIVING VOTES

UNLV is again receiving votes in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' Poll. UNLV received two points in the coaches' poll on Monday, Feb. 25, which puts the Runnin' Rebels ranked at the equivalent of tied for 36th. UNLV did not receive any points in the Associated Press poll. Last year, UNLV finished the season ranked 14th in the coaches' poll and 19th in the AP.

UNLV 20-6 DESPITE NOT HAVING FOUR PLAYERS

Along with losing five seniors off last year's 30-7 NCAA Sweet 16 squad, what also illustrates the great coaching job that UNLV head coach Lon Kruger has done with this group, is the fact that the team is without four players that were expected to be big contributors to this year's squad. In October, 7-foot freshman recruit Beas Hamga was granted qualifier status with a restriction by the NCAA, which means that he can practice with the team this year and be on scholarship, but he can't compete in games until the 2008-09 season. Also, gone from this year's team are 6-10 junior Emmanuel Adeife, who was dismissed after one game, 6-8 sophomore Lamar Roberson, who was dismissed after playing in 13 contests, and 5-11 point guard Marcus Lawrence, who was dismissed in February, after playing in 23 games. All three dismissed players left for different reasons.

JUST TWO TURNOVERS

On Jan. 23 against Wyoming, UNLV committed just two turnovers for the game, which marked its lowest turnover total in a game since playing at Wyoming on Jan. 4, 2006, when that Runnin' Rebel team also turned it over just twice. UNLV's previous season low for turnovers in a game this year was six (done twice - against Arizona at the Thomas & Mack Center on Dec. 19 and against Fresno State at the Orleans Arena on Dec. 8). The Runnin' Rebels again had just six turnovers on Feb. 9 against Colorado State. UNLV is currently averaging just 10.8 turnovers per game, which ranks fifth in the country.

ADAMS ECLIPSES 1,000TH CAREER POINT, 19TH ON LIST

With his 20th and final point against UT Martin on Dec. 22, Wink Adams scored his 1,000th career point as a Runnin' Rebel to become the 33rd player in UNLV history to amass at least 1,000 career points. Adams is currently 19th on the list with 1,254 career points, Jackie Robinson is 18th with 1,258, Lewis Brown is 17th with 1,289, Greg Anthony is 16th with 1,301, Glen Gondrezick is 15th with 1,311 and J.R. Rider is 14th with 1,372.

MORE UNLV CAREER CHARTS

In addition to being No. 19 on the all-time UNLV career scoring list, Wink Adams is fifth in career 3-pointers made with 151 (leader is Anderson Hunt with 283) and sixth in career steals with 159 (leaders are Greg Anthony and Stacey Augmon, each with 275). Curtis Terry is sixth in career 3-pointers made with 141.

UNLV HAS WON 30 OF 32 AT HOME, WAS 19-1 AT THOMAS & MACK LAST SEASON AND HAS GONE 128-31 IN LAST 159 HOME GAMES

The Runnin' Rebels are playing their 25th season in the 18,500-seat Thomas & Mack Center in 2007-08. UNLV has posted an all-time record of 340-68 (.833) in the arena since it opened in 1983. Over the last nine seasons, UNLV has won 128 of its last 159 games at home (.805). The Runnin' Rebels were 12-4 at home in 2005-06, 19-1 at home in 2006-07 (including 17 straight wins to close the year) and are 13-2 at home this year, which makes UNLV 44-7 (.863) at home over the last three seasons and 32-3 (.914) at home over the last two seasons. The Runnin' Rebels had a 19-game home win streak snapped on Nov. 21 against then-No. 6 Louisville and have now won 30 of their last 32 games at the Thomas & Mack Center (including a current streak of nine games). Additionally, UNLV has the best all-time home-court win percentage in the MWC. Utah is second at .824, while New Mexico is third at .809.

13 OF LAST 17 OPPONENTS HELD TO 65 PTS OR LESS

UNLV has held 13 of its last 17 opponents to 65 points or less. UNLV had a streak of eight straight games where it held its opponent to 65 or fewer points, but that came to an end on Jan. 23 against Wyoming when the Cowboys tallied 71 points. The Runnin' Rebels rank second in the league in scoring defense (61.9 ppg) and rank 35th in the country in that category. Over its last 17 games, UNLV has held nine of its opponents to 60 or fewer points, including two games in the 40s (BYU scored 41 and Nicholls State scored 42).

KRUGER COACHES 650TH CAREER GAME THIS SEASON AND 100TH WITH THE REBELS

On Nov. 9 in UNLV's season-opener, head coach Lon Kruger coached his 650th collegiate game. Nov. 13 against Dixie State marked his 100th game as UNLV's head coach. He is in his fourth season at the school with a mark of 84-40 (.677). Kruger won his 80th game on UNLV's bench Jan. 30 at TCU.

"3-POINT GOAL..."

UNLV holds the NCAA record for most consecutive games with a made 3-pointer. Since the 3-point field goal was adopted by the NCAA in 1986-87, UNLV has converted at least one 3-pointer in all 694 games played. Entering the 2007-08 season, Vanderbilt was four games behind UNLV in consecutive games with a made 3-pointer. The Big West Conference experimented with the 3-point shot in the 1982-83, 1984-85 and 1985-86 seasons. During that period, UNLV connected from 3-point range in 53 of the 64 games (the 3-pointer was used in some non-conference games). With the experimental years included, the UNLV streak for games in which it has made at least one 3-point shot stands at 711. The last time the Runnin' Rebels failed to make at least one 3-pointer came against Long Beach State on Jan. 25, 1986. So, UNLV has made at least one shot from behind the arc in 747 of the 758 games in which the rule was used.

ADAMS WINS 2ND MWC PLAYER OF THE WEEK AWARD

UNLV junior Wink Adams was named the Mountain West Conference Co-Men's Basketball Player of the Week on Feb. 4, marking his second weekly honor of the season and third for his career. Adams shared the week's award with BYU's Lee Cummar. Adams led UNLV to a 2-0 mark during the previous week with wins at TCU (70-58) and at home against New Mexico (79-60), which were the squad's fourth and fifth consecutive victories. Against TCU, Adams scored a game-high 25 points, 18 of which came in the second half. He also tallied five assists, three rebounds and one steal against the Horned Frogs. He made three 3-pointers in the second half and helped UNLV hold off every rally the Horned Frogs made. After a 7-0 run that pulled TCU to within 53-47, he made a 3-pointer with 8:10 left and his last 3-pointer gave UNLV its biggest lead of the game at 66-49 with 4:46 left. He finished the game 8-of-17 from the field, including 5-of-10 from 3-point range and made all four of his free throw attempts. In the Runnin' Rebels' win over New Mexico, Adams scored 17 of his game-high 24 points in the first half, shooting 6-of-9 from the floor, including making three 3-pointers before the intermission. He finished the game shooting 9-for-14 (64.3 percent) from the field to go with four rebounds, three steals and an assist. His jumper with 10:05 left in the game gave UNLV its biggest lead of the game at 64-34. For the week, Adams averaged 24.5 points, 3.5 rebounds, 3.0 assists and 2.0 steals per game, while shooting 54.8 percent (17-for-31) from the floor and 47.1 percent from 3-point range (8-for-17).

FROM THE FREE THROW LINE

Wink Adams leads UNLV and the MWC in free throw percentage with 87.3 (103-of-118) and ranks 22nd in the nation. He has been perfect from the charity stripe in 14 of 26 games this season. Entering the season, Adams had a career free-throw percentage of 74.5 percent. Joe Darger is second on UNLV and second in the MWC in free throw percentage with 85.5 (71-of-83).

ADAMS NETS CAREER-HIGH IN SCORING

Jan. 23 against Wyoming, Wink Adams scored a career-high 33 points marking the only time this season a UNLV player broke the 30-point barrier in a game. The last time a UNLV player scored 30 in a game was Wendell White's 30 points at Wyoming last season. The last time a UNLV player scored 33 in a game was Odatry Blankson's 33 points against BYU in 2004-05. Adams has scored at least 20 points in four of his last seven games and five of his last nine.

TERRY DISHES OUT CAREER-HIGH 11 ASSISTS

For the first time in his career, Curtis Terry recorded double digits in assists in a game when, on Feb. 9 against Colorado State, he dished out 11 of UNLV's 21 assists. His previous career high was nine assists. Terry leads UNLV and the MWC in assists with 4.7 per game.

DOUBLE-FIGURE SCORING

Wink Adams is tied for third in the MWC for most games this season with double figures in scoring. Adams has scored double figures in 23 games this season, while Lee Cumard from BYU and Brandon Ewing from Wyoming have both scored in double figures in 24 games this year. Adams had his consecutive-game double-figure scoring streak of 12 games snapped when he scored five points against BYU on Jan. 15. He had another string of seven straight games scoring in double figures broken when he scored nine at BYU on Feb. 16. Adams has scored 10 or more in a game in 20 of his last 22 games.

MARGIN OF VICTORY AT HOME

UNLV, which is 13-2 at home this season, has an average margin of victory of 18.0 ppg in its home wins. UNLV is 5-0 this year in MWC home games and has recorded an average margin of victory in those games of 15.8 ppg.

SHAW RECORDS UNLV'S FIRST DOUBLE-DOUBLE

After 14 games, UNLV finally had a player record a double-double. Matt Shaw's 14 points and 10 rebounds against Minnesota on Dec. 30 marked his first career double-double and also the first time a UNLV player recorded a double-double this season. In UNLV's next game - at Colorado State on Jan. 5, René Rougeau recorded his first career double-double with 10 points and a career-high 11 rebounds. Rougeau had his second on Jan. 23 against Wyoming with 10 points and 10 rebounds, while Joe Darger recorded his first career double-double at San Diego State on Jan. 26 with game-highs of 19 points and 10 rebounds. Wink Adams had his first double-double of the season at Wyoming with 23 points and 10 rebounds. It was the second of his career. Those are UNLV's only five double-doubles this season.

19-GAME HOME WIN STREAK SNAPPED

Before losing to then-No. 6 Louisville on Nov. 21, UNLV had won 19 straight games at the Thomas & Mack Center, which was the sixth-longest home win streak in program history and was the 10th-longest active home win streak in the country (as of Nov. 20th). UNLV has now won 30 of its last 32 games at the Thomas & Mack Center. The Runnin' Rebels were 19-1 at home last season, including winning its final 17 games on its home court. The 19-1 home record was UNLV's best mark at the Thomas & Mack Center since going 14-0 in 1991-92 in the middle of a 59-game home win streak. UNLV is 13-2 at home this season and is 32-3 at home over the last two seasons. UNLV has a current home win streak of nine games.

TWO WITH 20

On Dec. 1 against UTEP, two UNLV players scored 20 or more points in the game. Joe Darger had a career-high 23 points, while Curtis Terry scored 20. It marked the only time this season two players had 20 or more in the same game and also was the first time since Jan. 13, 2007 against BYU when Wink Adams had 27 and Wendell White had 21.

BALANCED ATTACK

UNLV has had seven different players score in double figures in a game this season. Additionally, three UNLV players have scored 20 or more points in a game this season. Wink Adams has scored at least 20 points in a game seven times this season, Curtis Terry has three 20+ scoring games and Joe Darger has one game over 20 points. Wink Adams scored over 30 points once (33 vs. Wyoming on Jan. 23).

FROM WALK-ONS TO TEAM LEADERS

Senior Curtis Terry and junior René Rougeau both entered the program as walk-ons in 2004-05. Terry was awarded a scholarship following his freshman year and Rougeau has been on scholarship for a couple of semesters, but both players are in the starting lineup for UNLV and have emerged as team leaders this season. Terry has started all 26 games and is third on the team in scoring with 10.4 ppg and leads the team and the MWC in assists with 4.7 per game. Rougeau has started 18 games, has two double-doubles and has played in all 26 games for UNLV this season. He leads the team in rebounding with 5.4 rpg and leads the team and MWC in steals per game with 2.2, while leading the team in field-goal percentage with 51.6 percent.

400TH TMC GAME DEC. 22

UNLV has played 408 games at the Thomas & Mack Center and has an all-time record of 340-68 in the arena. UNLV's game vs. UT Martin on Dec. 22 marked UNLV's 400th contest in the building.

TAKING CARE OF THE BALL

Prior to the Jan. 23 performance of just two turnovers against Wyoming, UNLV had committed a then-season-low six turnovers in two games this year (vs. then-No. 19 Arizona on Dec. 19 and vs. Fresno State on Dec. 8). UNLV again turned the ball over just six times on Feb. 9 against Colorado State. The Runnin' Rebels are averaging 10.8 turnovers per game, which ranks fifth in the country, while they are forcing their opponents to give it back 15.6 times per contest. UNLV has had eight other games with single digits in turnovers: eight against Nevada, Reno, eight vs. BYU, nine against Montana State, nine at Colorado State, nine vs. New Mexico, nine at Utah, nine vs. Colorado State and nine at Wyoming. UNLV has forced its opponent to turn the ball over at least 15 times in 17 of its 26 games this year with the season-high of 23 turnovers coming from Dixie State on Nov. 13. New Mexico turned the ball over 22 times on Feb. 2, including 16 in the first half. Last year, UNLV ranked seventh in the country with 11.1 turnovers per game.

FORCING TURNOVERS AND STEALING THE BALL

UNLV has forced 14 or more turnovers in a game in 20 of its 26 games this year. UNLV is averaging 8.1 steals per game and has recorded eight or more steals in a game 15 times this season. UNLV's opponents are stealing the ball on average 4.7 times per game.

3-POINT DEFENSE

In eight of UNLV's 26 games, the Runnin' Rebels have held their opponents to 20.0 percent or less shooting from 3-point range. Montana State was 3-of-21 (.143) from 3-point range, while San Diego was 3-of-20 (.150), UNR was 2-of-12 (.167), UTEP was 3-of-22 (.136), UT Martin was 4-of-26 (.154), Nicholls State was 4-of-23 (.174), BYU was 3-of-21 (.143) and San Diego State was 4-of-20 (.200). UNLV is holding its opponents to 29.6 percent from 3-point range on the season, which is tops in the MWC.

MORE DEFENSE

UNLV has given up more than 69 points in a game just six times this season. Utah scored 81, NAU and BYU each scored 74 (all three games on the road), while UTEP, Fresno State and Wyoming all scored 71. Every other UNLV opponent this season has scored in the 40's, 50's or 60s. UNLV held Nicholls State to a UNLV-opponent then-season-low of 42 points on Dec. 29 before holding BYU to just 41 points on Jan. 15. UNLV has held three opponents this year to under 50 points in a game (UT Martin was the other with 48). UNLV is out-scoring its opponents this year on average 70.4 to 61.9.

ADAMS ALSO EARNED MWC'S WEEKLY AWARD FOR DEC. 31

Wink Adams was also named the Mountain West Conference Co-Men's Basketball Player of the Week on Dec. 31, which marked his second career weekly honor (he now has three) and first of the season for a UNLV player. Adams shared the award with San Diego State freshman forward Billy White. Adams led UNLV to a perfect 3-0 mark during the previous week and its second-consecutive Duel in the Desert tournament on Dec. 30. He was named the tournament's most valuable player after leading the Runnin' Rebels in points per game (15.3), free-throw percentage (93.8, 15-for-16 overall), assists (14, 4.7 apg) and steals (seven, 2.3 spg) during the three-game span. Adams began the tournament with a 13-point, five-assist, five-steal performance in 21 minutes of action in a 78-55 win over Kennesaw State. He followed with another 13-point outing (team-high) vs. Nicholls State (W, 64-42), shooting 5-for-11 from the field and collecting five rebounds and two assists in 22 minutes of action. Adams concluded the tourney scoring a game-high and then-season-best tying 20 points on 5-of-10 shooting from the field, including 2-of-4 from 3-point range against Minnesota (W, 81-64), which entered the game with a 10-1 mark on the season. He was 8-of-9 from the charity stripe and also had seven assists, five rebounds and no turnovers in 32 minutes of action as UNLV defeated the Gophers to win the tournament.

DUEL IN THE DESERT MVP AND ALL-TOURNEY TEAM

After UNLV won its Duel in the Desert tournament with a 3-0 mark, Dec. 28-30, with wins over Kennesaw State, Nicholls State and Minnesota, Wink Adams was named the tournament's MVP, while Matt Shaw and Curtis Terry were named to the all-tournament team from UNLV. Dan Coleman and Lawrence McKenzie from Minnesota and Anatoly Bose from Nicholls State were the other all-tournament selections.

THE EPICUREAN CHARITABLE FOUNDATION STUDENT-ATHLETE OF THE GAME

The Epicurean Charitable Foundation of Las Vegas will make a $1000 per game scholarship contribution to the UNLV men's basketball program in the name of the Runnin' Rebel student-athlete who in each game best exemplifies the competitive spirit and determination in giving UNLV its best chance for victory. The program for 2007-08 started on Dec. 1.

2007-08 ECF Student-Athlete of the Game

UNLV PICKED SECOND IN 2007-08 MWC POLL; ADAMS SELECTED PRESEASON ALL-MWC

The UNLV men's basketball team was picked to finish in second place in the Mountain West Conference this season and junior guard Wink Adams was selected to the preseason all-conference team when the league announced the 2007-08 preseason media poll at MWC Media Day held at The Mtn. studios in October. Conference media selected defending regular-season champion BYU to repeat as the MWC men's basketball champion. Five teams earned at least one first-place vote, with BYU capturing 15 of 22 first-place votes and 181 points for the top spot in the poll. 2007 MWC Tournament champion UNLV (146 points) and Utah (142 points) each earned two first-place votes to finish second and third, respectively, while New Mexico garnered two first-place votes and 128 points to tie for fourth with San Diego State, who received one first-place vote and 128 points. Wyoming collected 120 points to finish sixth, followed by TCU in seventh with 58 points. Air Force was chosen eighth with 54 points, while Colorado State rounded out the poll in ninth place with 33 points. Five institutions were represented on the preseason All-MWC team. Wyoming's Brandon Ewing was named the Top Returning Player, while San Diego State's Ryan Amoroso garnered Top Newcomer accolades. BYU's Jimmer Fredette received Top Freshman kudos. One senior and four juniors made up this year's preseason All-MWC team: BYU's Trent Plaisted, New Mexico's J.R. Giddens, UNLV's Adams, Utah's Luke Nevill and Wyoming's Brandon Ewing.

RUNNIN' REBELS SIGN TWO FOR 2008-09

The UNLV men's basketball program received signed national letters of intent from DeShawn Mitchell and Darris Santee on Wednesday, Nov. 14 - the first day of the early signing period - to enroll at UNLV next fall and play for the Runnin' Rebels starting with the 2008-09 season. Mitchell, a 6-foot-5-inch, 205-pound forward is from Monmouth Academy in Howell, N.J. He attended Oak Hill Academy in Virginia the past two years and averaged 24 points, 10 rebounds and seven blocked shots last season. He will be a freshman when he enrolls at UNLV next year. Santee, a 6-foot-8-inch, 225-pound forward from Midland (Texas) College, averaged 8.5 points and four rebounds per game last season for his team, which finished the year 29-8 and won the NJCAA national championship. Santee, who will enroll at UNLV as a junior, attended Marshall High School near Houston.

RETURNING ALL-MWC PERFORMER

UNLV returns one player who earned All-Mountain West Conference honors in 2006-07. Junior Wink Adams earned second team All-MWC last season. He was named honorable mention All-MWC as a freshman. In 2006-07 Adams was second on the team in scoring with 13.9 ppg and scored in double figures in 27 of UNLV's 37 games, leading the team in scoring in 12 of those contests. He scored 20 or more points in a game five times and was the only Runnin' Rebel to start every game last year. His 67 3-pointers made last season ranks 10th in UNLV history for most 3-pointers made in a season. He was also named to the All-MWC Tournament team and was named MWC Co-Player of the Week on Jan. 29 last season. He was eighth in the MWC in steals with 1.49 per game and 11th in 3-pointers made per game with 1.81. He also had averages of 2.3 assists per game and 3.8 rebounds per game. He was named to the preseason All-MWC squad before the start of the 2007-08 year.

LAST SEASON - 2006-07

In 2006-07, UNLV won the Mountain West Conference Tournament Championship, finished with a 30-7 overall record and made a NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 appearance - the program's first in 16 years ... UNLV was 19-1 at home in 2006-07, including ending the season with 17 straight wins at the Thomas & Mack Center, which tied for the 10th-longest active streak in the country heading into 2007-08 ... UNLV was ranked 14th in the nation in the final edition of the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' Poll ... UNLV's 30 wins on the season tied for sixth in the country in most wins ... UNLV won nine straight games before ending its season with a NCAA Sweet 16 loss to Oregon ... UNLV's 30-7 record was its best since finishing the 1990-91 season 34-1 ... The 2006-07 squad was just the fifth in school history to win at least 30 games and the 30 wins is the most ever for a Lon Kruger-coached team ... UNLV closed the season by winning nine of 10, 11 of 13 and 16 of 19 ... UNLV's win in the first round of the NCAA Tournament marked the first for the Runnin' Rebels since 1991 ... UNLV earned the Mountain West Conference's automatic bid by winning the league's tournament in Las Vegas on March 8-10, with wins over Utah, Colorado State and BYU ... Senior guard/forward Wendell White (14.4 ppg), sophomore guard Wink Adams (13.9 ppg) and senior guard Kevin Kruger (13.5 ppg) all averaged double figures in scoring for UNLV ... White was the team's leading rebounder with 6.1 rpg, while Kruger led the team and the MWC in assists with 5.1 apg ... Senior center Joel Anthony led the team and the MWC in blocks with 109 (3.0 bpg) ... UNLV was 19-1 at home, 8-5 on the road and 3-1 in neutral-site games ... The Runnin' Rebels finished second in the MWC at 12-4, one game back of regular-season champion BYU ... In conference play, UNLV was 8-0 at home and 4-4 on the road.

49 YEARS OF BASKETBALL

The 2007-08 season marks the 50th season of Runnin' Rebel basketball at UNLV. Since the program's inception in 1958-59, the Runnin' Rebels have posted an all-time record of 1,056-426 (.713). In 1969-70, UNLV made the move to Division I and has since posted a record of 869-322 (.730) while competing at that level. In addition, UNLV has an all-time mark of 1,017-403 (.716) against Division I competition.

IN OVERTIME

UNLV is 45-22 (.672) all-time in overtime games. The Runnin' Rebels have not had any games go extra periods this season. UNLV was 2-1 in overtime in 2006-07 (W, 97-94 over Utah in double overtime, L, 86-76 at Wyoming in single overtime and W, 76-72 over New Mexico in single overtime) and did not have an OT games in 2005-06. The Runnin' Rebels were 2-1 in overtime in 2004-05. UNLV is 36-19 (.655) all-time in single overtime games, 7-3 (.700) in double overtime and 2-0 (1.000) in triple overtime. The Runnin' Rebels have a record of 10-4 all-time in overtime games at the Thomas & Mack Center. UNLV has won nine of its last 13 games overall that have been sent to overtime.

ONE OF THE WINNINGEST DIVISION I PROGRAMS

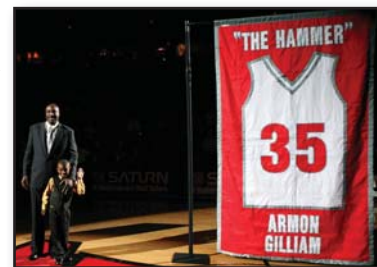

With an all-time record of 1,010-410 (.711) against four-year American institutions entering the 2007-08 season, UNLV is the third-winningest program by percentage in NCAA Division I history (min. 25 years in Div. I). Kentucky's record of 1,948-608-1 (.762) placed the Wildcats as the all-time leader.

School	Years	Record	Pct.
Kentucky	104	1,948-608-1	.762
North Carolina	97	1,914-696	.733
UNLV	49	1,010-410	.711
Kansas	109	1,906-782	.709
Duke	102	1,818-802	.694
UCLA	88	1,611-713	.693

GILLIAM HAS JERSEY RETIRED

Former Runnin' Rebel great Armon Gilliam had his jersey retired at halftime of the Nov. 6 Washburn exhibition game. Gilliam's No. 35 was the eighth player jersey retired by UNLV. He played at UNLV from 1984-87 and was a key member of UNLV's second NCAA Final Four team in 1987. A second-team All-American selection in 1987, he is sixth on the all-time UNLV career list in scoring with 1,855 career points. The 1987 Big West Conference Player of the Year, Gilliam was also named first team all-conference in 1987 and second team in 1986. Gilliam holds the UNLV record for most points in a season with 903 in 1986-87 and most field goals made in a season with 359 that same year. He is also in the top 10 in program history in the following categories: fourth in career field goal percentage with .580, fifth in seasonal rebounding with 363 in 1986-87, fifth in most free throws made in a season with 185, fifth in career free throws made with 429, sixth in career rebounding with 890, sixth in seasonal scoring average with 23.2 ppg in 1986-87, sixth in career field goals made with 716, eighth in seasonal field goal percentage with .621 in 1984-85 and 10th in seasonal field goal percentage with .600 in 1986-87. Gilliam was selected in the 1987 NBA Draft with the second overall pick by the Phoenix Suns. He played in the league for 13 seasons with six teams. For his career he averaged 13.7 points per game, 6.9 rebounds per game and shot 48.9 percent from the field. He appeared in 929 games during his NBA career.

LEGENDS RETURNED TO THE THOMAS & MACK

For the second straight year, many of the players who were part of the UNLV men's basketball program's rise to glory were back on the floor at the Thomas & Mack Center. About 45 former players were present for the event and those who played in the alumni game on Nov. 6 before UNLV's Washburn exhibition game included Freddie Banks, Jevon Banks, Robert Berkey, Eric Booker, Richard Box, Bruce Chapman, Jeff Collins, Mike Curtis, Chancellor Davis, Gary Graham, Eldridge Hudson, Tyrell Jamerson, Keith James, Kaspars Kambala, Jon Knoche, Reggie Manuel, Chris Richardson, Warren Rosegreen, Patrick Savoy, Moses Scurry, Jermaine Smith, Robert Smith, Sam Smith, Donovan Stewart, Leon Symanski and Anthony Todd. Jerry Tarkanian and Keith Starr served as coaches.

RUNNIN' REBELS IN THE NBA

Since 1998, the UNLV program has had three players drafted with lottery picks in the annual NBA Draft. Most recently, Marcus Banks was selected 13th overall in the 2003 draft by the Memphis Grizzlies and moments later was traded to the Boston Celtics. Banks is now with the Miami Heat. The UNLV program had back-to-back lottery selections in 1998 and 1999 with Keon Clark (13th overall by the Orlando Magic - 1998) and Shawn Marion (ninth overall by the Phoenix Suns - 1999). A total of 13 Runnin' Rebels have been selected in the NBA's first round since 1975. Ricky Sobers was UNLV's first player to be selected in the first round in 1975 by the Phoenix Suns. UNLV currently has four players in the NBA: Banks, Marion and Joel Anthony with Miami and Louis Amundson with the Philadelphia 76ers.

WALKIN' REBELS - GRADUATION

In December of 2006, two Runnin' Rebels walked in graduation ceremonies at the Thomas & Mack Center. Former student-athletes Michael Umeh and Joel Anthony both earned their degrees and became the fourth and fifth Runnin' Rebel players to take the court since 2005-06 with degrees in hand. The others: Louis Amundson, Dustin Villepigue and Kevin Kruger (graduated from ASU). Those five players all earned degrees before their athletic eligibility expired. From this year's team, seniors Curtis Terry and Corey Bailey, and junior René Rougeau are all scheduled to graduate before the end of the academic year. Rougeau will play his senior season in 2008-09 with his undergraduate degree in hand.
