- SDSU is looking to even the all-time series with the Thunderbirds at 2-2. In games played in San Diego, the series is knotted at 1-1.
- This is the first meeting between the two teams since 1993 when they faced across the street at Peterson Gym.
- The Aztecs are in search of their second consecutive 2-0 start.
- San Diego State has won eight of its last nine games dating back to last year.

Aztecs Welcome Thunderbirds to Montezuma Mesa

- San Diego State, which is receiving votes in the preseason AP Top-25 Poll, looks to stay undefeated in the early going as it plays host to Southern Utah at the Basketball Travelers Classic. The Aztecs and Thunderbirds each won their respective season-opening games on Friday at Viejas Arena.
- SDSU won its seventh straight season-opening contest thanks to, in part, a scorching 19-for-25 shooting performance in the second half.
- The Scarlet and Black received a pair of double-doubles from two upperclassmen. Senior and LSU transfer Garrett Green made his official Aztec debut and promptly recorded 14 points and a game-high 11 boards. Junior Chase Tapley, meanwhile, went off for a game-high 20 points, career-high 11 rebounds, six assists and three steals.
- Sophomore and Washington State transfer Xavier Thames made a nice debut as well, posting 16 points, a career-high-matching four rebounds and a personal-record eight assists.
- Sophomore guard Jamaal Franklin (suspension) is expected to suit up for the Aztecs Saturday.

Nation's Best Coach

- As the Celebration of Championships continues at Viejas Arena, San Diego State will present head coach Steve Fisher with his 2011 Naismith National Coach of the Year Award. The ceremony comes 24 hours after the school unveiled its 2011 MWC regular-season title banner, its MWC tournament championship banner, and a third recognizing its Sweet 16 appearance.

In-Season Events

- The Basketball Travelers Classic represents the seventh straight season in which the Aztecs have participated in a multi-team in-season event.
- The Aztecs have won six straight in these type of events and 18 of their last 19. Since 2005, SDSU is 19-2 in multi-team in-season events.

- Extend the Aztecs' home winning streak to 34 vs. teams not ranked in the AP Top 25.

November Reign

- The month of November has been good to the Aztecs as they have won eight straight in the month.

- The Aztecs have won 15 consecutive November home games against unranked opponents. San Diego State has not dropped a November home game to an unranked foe since Nov. 19, 2004 (ot-L to UC Santa Barbara).

Nice Debut

- The game vs. Bryant represented the first official contests for Garrett Green (LSU), Xavier Thames (Washington State) and DeShawn Stephens (Santa Monica College) in a San Diego State uniform.
- The trio went a combined 17-for-27 from the floor (62.9 percent), scored 39 points, grabbed 21 rebounds, had 11 assists and just three miscues.
- Green had 14 points, 11 rebounds and three assists. Thames added 16 points, four rebounds and eight assists. Stephens chipped in with nine points and six rebounds.

Mountain West Preseason Predictions

- San Diego State was picked to finish in third place in the 2011-12 preseason Mountain West media poll. The Aztecs received 158 points to finish behind New Mexico (203 points; 22 first-place votes) and UNLV (183; 4).
- Sophomore Xavier Thames was selected as the preseason Mountain West Newcomer of the Year by the league's voting media. Thames is eligible this season after sitting out 2010-11 following his transfer from Washington State.

STEVE FISHER

21st FULL SEASON • 13th SEASON AT SDSU • ILLINOIS STATE, 1967

Steve Fisher has guided the Aztec basketball program to unparalleled heights. In 12 seasons, he has taken a program that regularly missed out on the conference postseason tournament, to one which has become of the best programs on the West Coast and has the Aztecs routinely mentioned among the elite teams in the country.

The best news for SDSU fans is that the school exercised its contract option on Fisher prior to the 2011-12 season, which keeps the coach on Montezuma Mesa through 2014-15.

When Fisher arrived on the scene in March of 1999, he found a basketball program that wasn't good enough to be called average. The Aztecs had suffered through 13 losing seasons in 14 years. Members of the school's last NCAA team were in the early stages of middle age. The expectations were set. The Aztecs were expected to lose. The year before Fisher's arrival on campus, San Diego State won just four games.

Now those days are a distant memory. Fisher guided San Diego State to the NCAA Tournament in 2002, 2006, 2010 and 2011, the last of which culminated with a 34-3 record and an appearance in the Sweet 16. Fisher has also taken the Aztecs to the NIT in 2003, 2007, 2008 and 2009. In 2009, SDSU advance to the national semifinals. San Diego State has currently been to the postseason six straight years.

On March 26, 1999, San Diego State announced its arrival on the basketball scene in the form of a news conference to introduce its new coach, Steve Fisher. Fresh from a stint with the Sacramento Kings and with three appearances in the Final Four and a national championship in his pocket, he rolled up his sleeves and went to work. And work was needed. It looked to be a daunting challenge and yet the man with one of the highest winning percentages in NCAA Tournament history had no reservations.

No head-coaching career, at any level, started quicker than that of Steve Fisher. Six games into his head-coaching career he was undefeated and sporting a national championship ring. And the success didn't stop with the national title.

Fisher's eight-plus seasons at Michigan produced a 184-82 (.692) record, nine postseason tournament berths and three trips to the NCAA championship game, including the magical run to the 1989 national title.

Under Fisher, the Wolverines also claimed an NIT championship, won at least 20 games four times and finished among the top three in the powerful Big Ten Conference five times. In 1995, Michigan set a league record by holding opponents to just 39.4 percent shooting from the floor.

Fisher and Co., raised the bar even higher in the postseason. His seven NCAA Tournament teams at Michigan combined for a 20-6 record, which put him fourth among active coaches and ninth in NCAA history with a winning percentage of .769 in the national bracket after his stint in Ann Arbor. Only 13 coaches have taken more teams to the Final Four, including just five that are still active. He is one of three coaches to take three squads to the Final Four in the first five years of a head-coaching career, and one of just six coaches to lead a team to a NIT title as well as the NCAA.

His accomplishments may be even greater at San Diego State. In 2001-02 he led the Aztecs to the postseason for the first time since 1985 and for just the fourth time ever. The 21 wins were second most for the school as a Division I program and the most since 1985. The fact that those numbers came after just three seasons signifies what is one of the great recent turnarounds in college basketball.

He followed that up with a third consecutive season with a .500 or better record in 2002-03 and led SDSU back to the postseason for the second consecutive season for only the second time in the school's Division I history. In addition, SDSU claimed its first Division I postseason victory with a win in the NIT.

In 2006-07, he led SDSU to the MWC regular season and tournament crowns and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. That team finished with a Division I then-school-record 24 wins. And the last five seasons, Fisher has led the Aztecs to five additional 20-win seasons and postseason appearances, including a school-record 34 wins, both the MWC regular season and tournament championships, and a NCAA Sweet 16 berth in 2011.

Game I

rv/- San Diego State 75
Bryant 63

Nov. 11, 2011 ♦ San Diego, Calif.

Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 11,734

SAN DIEGO - On a night where San Diego State unveiled its 2011 Mountain West regular-season championship banner, its 2011 MWC tournament title banner and its NCAA Sweet 16 appearance banner, the Aztecs ultimately treated 11,734 fans to a 75-63 season-opening victory over Bryant at the Basketball Travelers Classic inside Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs dressed just seven scholarship players as projected starters Jamaal Franklin and James Rahon were out due to a team suspension and foot injury, respectively. With all the emotion surrounding the banners and the short bench, SDSU started the game sluggishly.

The contest was tied at 4-4 with just under two minutes having gone by. The Bulldogs, however, caught fire and stymied the Aztecs to lead, 22-15, with 6:32 remaining in the half. A 13-5 run to end the frame got San Diego State back into the game and it carried a 28-27 lead into the locker room.

The Aztecs continued their surge as play resumed and promptly went on a 15-7 run to go up 43-35. All told, SDSU used a 28-12 spurt to take control of the game.

San Diego State's offensive attack was grounded momentarily when Frankie Dobbs hit back-to-back three-pointers to bring the Bulldogs to within four. SDSU, however, went on another 13-5 run to move ahead by 12 and Bryant failed to get any closer than eight points the rest of the way.

The Aztecs received three stellar efforts, including two double-doubles by Garrett Green and Chase Tapley. Green finished with 14 points and 11 rebounds, while Tapley racked up a game-high 20 points, a career-high 11 rebounds, six assists and three steals. Xavier Thames added a career-high 16 points, four rebounds and eight assists. Between Tapley and Thames, they combined for 14 assists and two turnovers.
