THE SET-UP

San Diego State looks to become bowl eligible for a third consecutive season and claim its sixth victory of the season on the earliest date in 19 years this Saturday when the Aztecs play host to UNLV at Qualcomm Stadium. Game time is set for 5 p.m. PT with television coverage provided by Time Warner Cable SportsNet and radio coverage on KOGO 95.7 FM & AM 600.

Last Saturday, the Aztecs ran their winning streak to three games, rallying from a 10-point fourth quarter deficit to defeat Nevada, 39-38, in overtime. San Diego State handed the Wolf Pack just its third loss in the last 22 home games behind backup quarterback Adam Dingwell. Dingwell, who entered the game in the first quarter when Ryan Katz suffered a season-ending fracture to his left ankle, was 14-of-23 with 177 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions. The sophomore, who entered the game with just two career completions, also rushed for 26 yards and led the Aztecs to four touchdowns and a game-tying field goal on the final play of regulation on SDSU's final five drives of the game.

The Aztecs also received stellar performances from the special teams unit. Chance Marden converted on all three of his field goal attempts, including a career long of 46 yards and a game-tying make from 35 yards at the end of regulation. Seamus McMorrow punted four times, averaging 52.5 yards and a net average of 41.5 yards.

San Diego State, which was picked to finish in fifth place in the preseason media poll, is looking to advance to a bowl game for a school-record third consecutive season and keep hope alive for the 19th conference championship in program history. The Aztecs are currently tied for second in the Mountain West, one game behind Boise State.

STORYLINES

- San Diego State is looking to advance to a bowl game for a school-record third consecutive season. The Aztecs can become bowl eligible on Saturday by winning their sixth game of the season. SDSU has a chance to claim win the number six on Oct. 27, which would be the fifth-earliest date for a sixth win in the Division I era. It would be the earliest date for a sixth win by San Diego State since 1993.

San Diego State Division I Era (since 1969) Earliest Date of Sixth Victory

Season	Date of 6th Win	Final Record	Bowl Game	Head Coach
1975	Oct. 11	8-3	none	Claude Gilbert
1970	Oct. 17	9-2	none	Don Coryell
1993	Oct. 23	6-6	none	Al Luginbill
1991	Oct. 26	8-4-1	Freedom Bowl	Al Luginbill
1995	Oct. 28	8-4	none	Ted Tollner
1972	Oct. 28	10-1	none	Don Coryell
1977	Oct. 29	10-1	none	Claude Gilbert
2010	Oct. 30	9-4	Poinsettia Bowl	Brady Hoke
1976	Oct. 30	10-1	none	Claude Gilbert
1969	Nov. 1	11-0	Pasadena Bowl	Don Coryell

- San Diego State has won three consecutive games, in large part because of the improvement of the defense. Below is a look at SDSU's numbers through the first five games compared with those from the last three contests.

San Diego State Defense	First 5 Gms. (2-3) / (Rk.)	Last 3 Gms. (3-0) / Rk.	+/- Per Gm.
Points / Game	31.8 (93)	22.0 (39)	-9.8
Total Offense / Game	432.4 (86)	329.3 (27)	-103.1
Yards Allowed / Play	6.1 (94)	4.5 (11)	-1.6
Passing Yards / Game	306.4 (112)	210.0 (52)	-96.4
Passing Efficiency	155.74 (116)	128.56 (63)

- Another area in which San Diego State has been outstanding this season and particularly of late is in ball security. The Aztecs have just 11 turnovers this year (tied for 41st nationally). After a turnover free game last Saturday at Nevada, SDSU now has just one turnover in its last three games. Since the game of the Oct. 6 weekend, San Diego State's one turnover is tied for the third lowest (Kentucky and Navy have played turnover free ball since that date). SDSU's last turnover was in the second quarter of the Colorado State game. Since that time, San Diego State has scored 60 points, had 19 possessions and 74 offensive snaps. Aztec quarterbacks have combined to throw 89 consecutive passes without an interception, dating back to the third quarter of the Fresno State game (Sept. 29). The Aztecs are one of 22 teams nationally not to throw an interception this month.

NCAA Most Passing Touchdowns Among Teams That Have No Interceptions in October

1.	Louisiana Tech	3	147-107	1,197	8	0
	Mississippi State	3	105-69	796	8	0
3.	San Diego State	3	83-50	596	7	0
4.	Arkansas	2	64-46	628	6	0

- For the second consecutive week, San Diego State assistant head coach and running backs coach Jeff Horton faces a school in which he served as the head coach. Last week, Horton helped the Aztecs best his former employer Nevada, where he served as head coach in 1993. This week, Horton will face UNLV, where he was head coach from 1994 through 1998 and claimed the program's last conference championship, the 1994 Big West title.

OBSCURE NOTES OF THE WEEK

- On Saturday, San Diego State rallied from a double-digit fourth quarter deficit for just the fifth time in the Division I era. Since 1969, the Aztecs are now 5-175-1 when trailing by double digits in the fourth quarter. It was the first such comeback since rallying from 11 points down in the final quarter to win at Utah, 24-21, on Oct. 26, 1991.
- That was just the second time in school history that San Diego State has won a game in which it never led in the fourth quarter. The Aztecs rallied to defeat Utah, 21-20, in overtime on Oct. 24, 1998.
- San Diego State has committed a total of three turnovers in five home games this season. That figure is tied for the eighth-lowest number in the nation entering games this week and is tied for first among schools that have played at least five home games. In case you are curious, Indiana is the only team in the nation not commit a turnover at home this season.

- Adding the success of the women's basketball program at SDSU, which has advanced to NCAA Tournament play in two of the last three seasons, further demonstrates the department's overall success. Combining football, men's basketball and women's basketball records since the beginning of last season, San Diego State owns the seventh-best winning percentage in the country, trailing only Baylor, Stanford, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Kentucky and Brigham Young. See chart above
- The Aztecs have posted a 22-12 record since the beginning of the 2010 season after needing 71 games to claim 22 victories prior to 2010 (SDSU went 22-49 during that stretch from the beginning of the 2004 season through the end of 2009 campaign). The 22-12 record since the beginning of the 2010 season is tied for the 30th-best mark in the country and is the third-best in the state of California during that time.

- Through 21 games, Rocky Long has an 13-8 record as SDSU's head coach. That is the best 21-game start to a coaching career at San Diego State since Claude Gilbert opened his tenure with a 16-3-2 record in the 1973 and 1974 seasons.
- SDSU opens the 2012 campaign after advancing to bowl games each of the last two seasons (Poinsettia Bowl in 2010 and New Orleans Bowl in 2011). San Diego State has never gone to bowl games in three consecutive years.
- The Aztecs play seven home games in 2012, which ties for the program's highest number since 1976. SDSU concluded a three-game homestand in September, its longest in a decade, against San Jose State.
- Despite serving as an assistant coach at San Diego State for two seasons (2009-10), Rocky Long is currently the second-winningest coach in Mountain West history. Long has 75 wins while a member of the league, trailing only TCU's Gary Patterson (77 wins). With TCU no longer in the league, Long needs two victories to tie the record and three to break it. The other nine active coaches in the league entered the season with a combined 75 wins while their teams have been a member of the conference.
- The Aztecs have played 68 student-athletes through eight games, with 40 of those seeing action in all eight contests. Only 11 seniors saw action in the opening contest at Washington and two of those (quarterback Ryan Katz and wide receiver Brice Butler) were playing in their first game with SDSU. San Diego State only started more than seven seniors twice this year (the past two games vs. Colorado State and at Nevada) and as few as five seniors (vs. Army).
- The Aztecs have seven seniors listed as starters on the current depth chart, five on offense (RG Nike Embernate, LG Riley Gauld, C Alec Johnson, WR Brice Butler, WR Dominique Sandifer) and two on defense (CB Leon McFadden and CB Josh Wade).
- To date, SDSU has had 25 players make their first appearance in a San Diego State game, 13 players on the offensive or defensive side of the ball make their first start with the Aztecs and 11 make their first Division I start.

OFFENSIVE QUICK HITS

- San Diego State returns seven starters on offense from last season's 2011 team that scored 387 points, the second-highest total for an Aztec squad in the last 15 seasons.
- Through eight games this season, San Diego State is averaging more points (38.2 in 2012, 29.8 in 2011) and nearly the same total offense (410.8 in 2012 and 427.4 in 2011) as last season.
- SDSU has four offensive players appearing on preseason watch lists for the top player at their position in the country - junior tight end Gavin Escobar (John Mackey Award Watch List (TE), Rotary Lombardi Award Watch List (lineman)), senior center Alec Johnson (Rimington Trophy Watch List (center)), senior running back Walter Kazez (Doak Walker Award Watch List (RB)) and sophomore wide receiver Colin Lockett (Biletnikoff Award Watch List (WR)). Last week, Escobar was named to the Midseason John Mackey Award Watch List (TE).
- San Diego State has scored 255 points in the last seven games combined. It is the highest seven-game output since midway through the 1996 season (a span of 189 games).
- SDSU's 306 points is the highest scoring output for an Aztec squad through the first eight games of a season since 1996 when Ted Tollner's squad scored 327 points in the first eight contests.
- San Diego State's 52 points against Hawai'i earlier this season represented its highest output since posting 52 against Portland State (Sept. 22, 2007) and the most points against a FBS opponent since scoring 52 points against San Jose State on Sept. 24, 2005.
- The Aztecs produced a pair of 100-yard rushers against North Dakota as sophomore Adam Muema (124 yards) and senior Walter Kazez (105 yards) each reached the century mark. It is the 15th time in school history that two players rushed for 100 or more yards in the same game and the first time since Oct. 17, 1998. SDSU is 14-1 in those occurrences.
- San Diego State has 19 drives this season of 70 or more yards.
- Although San Diego State entered the year looking to replace third-round NFL Draft selection Ronnie Hillman, the Aztecs have proven they have quality depth at the position. Sophomore Adam Muema is off and running, with 749 yards, nine touchdowns and a 6.0 yards-per-rush average through eight games. Also in the backfield is senior Walter Kazez. A career 1,000-yard rusher, Kazez's season was cut short in 2011 when he suffered a knee injury at Colorado State. In eight games this season, Kazez has 539 rushing yards and six rushing touchdowns, and is averaging 5.6 yards per carry.
- The Aztecs have had just four student-athletes start at quarterback since Nov. 18, 2006. During that 73-game stretch, Kevin O'Connell (15 games during the 2006-07 seasons), Drew Westling (1 game; vs. Air Force on Oct. 11, 2008) and Ryan Lindley (49 games during the 2008-09-10-11 seasons) have all taken snaps. In the season opener, senior Oregon State transfer Katz became the fourth SDSU player to start over the 66-game stretch (now 73 games). On Saturday, Adam Dingwell will become the fifth player to start at the position in the last 74 games.
- Last season due to graduation and injury, the Aztecs' combined receiving corps entered the campaign with four career catches for 39 yards. That has changed significantly in 12 months as SDSU entered the 2012 campaign with a Biletnikoff Award candidate and preseason all-Mountain West selection in junior Colin Lockett (13 catches, 198 yards, two touchdowns this year), a former walk-on who had five or more catches six times last season, including three times in his final four games, in junior Dylan Denso (49 catches, 634 yards and 3 TDs in 2011) and highly decorated USC transfer senior Brice Butler (15 catches, 247 yards and four touchdowns this season). Making his long-awaited collegiate debut in the opener was Ezell Ruffin, who already has 13 catches for 256 yards this season. And don't forget the tight end, Gavin Escobar, who has a team-high 26 catches for a team-best 317 yards and four touchdowns this year.
- San Diego State has gone 72 games without suffering a shutout (Nov. 18, 2006 at TCU). That is the only time the Aztecs have been shutout in their last 167 games.

DEFENSIVE QUICK HITS

- SDSU returns six starters off a squad that has continually gotten better under the direction of second-year head coach Rocky Long, who is in his fourth season as the defensive coordinator. Statistically one of the nation's worst units less than five years ago, Long has transitioned the San Diego State defense into one of the most feared units on the West Coast. Below is a look at the progress made under Long's direction.

NCAA Rank in parenthesis

- In the 20 drives prior to the North Dakota game, San Diego State's defense allowed a total of seven points. At one point, the Aztecs went 16 drives (last seven of the Washington game and first nine of the Army game) without allowing an offensive point.
- SDSU is led on defense by Mountain West preseason defensive player of the year, senior cornerback Leon McFadden. McFadden is on the preseason watch list for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy (best defensive player) and the Jim Thorpe Award (DB). McFadden, who has been a first-team all-Mountain West selection the past two seasons, is looking to become the school's fourth three-time first-team all-league selection, joining Marshall Faulk, Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila and Kirk Morrison.
- Plenty of other defensive players received preseason attention from at least one publication. Junior Aztec back Nat Berhe and sophomore linebacker Jake Fely were among the players getting attention. Berhe is the top returning tackler of the 2011 squad, and has a team-high 62 stops this season. Fely is second on the squad with 48 tackles and eight tackles for loss and leads the squad with five sacks.
- McFadden recorded an interception in three straight games (Sept. 15-29) and has eight career picks.
- SDSU has forced three or more nine times in the last 20 contests.
- San Diego State has allowed a total of 1,067 yards rushing in its last 10 games combined (106.7). The Aztec defense has held its opponent to 100 yards or less on the ground in six of the last 14 games.
- In the opener at Washington, the SDSU defense allowed just 14 points (the Huskies had a fumble return for touchdown) and 328 yards of total offense against one of the most potent offensive attacks in the country. In 2011, Washington averaged 33.38 points to rank 25th nationally and 409.85 yards (38th in the nation).
- The Huskies scored 21 points off three drives that accumulated a total of 97 yards of offense.
- The Aztecs held Washington without a point on its final seven possessions of the game. That is something no team did against the Huskies in 2011.
- Against Army, SDSU held the Black Knights scoreless until there was 5:54 left in the third quarter.
- San Diego State held Army well below its 2011 season averages in rushing yards (282 allowed, 346.50 average in 2011) and total yards (332 allowed, 396.92 average in 2011).
- Against North Dakota, Leon McFadden intercepted a pass on UND's first offensive play of the game and took it 28 yards for the touchdown. It was the Aztecs' first defensive touchdown since Nov. 13, 2012, at No. 3 TCU and their first interception return for a score since Luke Laolagi returned one 55 yards at UNLV on Nov. 28, 2009.
- At Fresno State, both Eric Pinkins and Leon McFadden intercepted a pass for a touchdown. The Aztecs now have two interceptions returned for a touchdown in the past three games. They had gone 28 games in between without returning an interception for a touchdown. McFadden became just the second player in program history with two interception returns for a touchdown in a season (Tory Nixon in 1984).
- San Diego State allowed just 173 yards of total offense in the victory over Hawai'i and allowed an average of just 2.98 yards per play. That is the lowest per play average allowed by an SDSU squad since Nicholls State (2.71 ypp) on Sept. 4, 2010, the lowest against a FBS opponent since Colorado State (2.97 ypp) on Oct. 16, 2004 and the 33rd lowest average in the Division I era.

SDSU VS. UNLV

- Saturday's game marks the 22nd meeting between San Diego State and UNLV, with the Aztecs owning a 13-8 lead in the series. SDSU has won eight of the last 10 encounters with the Rebels.
- The Aztecs own an 8-3 record against the Rebels and have won the last five games between the teams in Qualcomm Stadium. The last time San Diego State lost a home game to UNLV was Nov. 25, 2000. In the last five meetings in San Diego - all Aztec wins - SDSU has outscored the Rebels, 163-66.
- San Diego State has two losses during the past 10 meetings and both have come in Las Vegas (2005 and 2009).
- The 21 previous meetings are far and away the fewest encounters for San Diego State against any member of the Mountain West against any team that has been in the league for an extended period of time (excludes Boise State). The teams first met on Oct. 22, 1977, a 37-7 SDSU victory in San Diego, but did not start playing regularly until 1980. This will mark the 14th straight season the teams have played and the 16th time in the last 17 seasons UNLV and San Diego State have faced off.

- The team with more rushing yards has been victorious in 13 of the last 14 games in the series with the lone exception coming in 2007, when the Aztecs escaped Las Vegas with a 38-30 triumph on Nov. 10. Last season, SDSU rushed for 239 yards, while UNLV had 141 yards.
- San Diego State head coach Rocky Long owns an 8-3 record as a head coach against the Rebels, including a 4-1 mark vs. UNLV in home games.
- SERIES TIDBITS: UNLV overcame a 17-point deficit to win the 2009 game, the largest margin either team has overcome to win a game in the series... Since 2003, San Diego State has outscored UNLV, 66-28, in the first quarter of the last nine games... The Aztecs have scored a touchdown in the second quarter in each of the last eight meetings... Last season, the Rebels have led after the first quarter (UNLV 7, SDSU 0) for the first time since the 2001 game... San Diego State has completed 70 percent or more of its passes in four of the last six games between the teams, going 128-for-198 (64.6 percent) during that time... The Aztecs have picked off 15 passes in the last nine games... In the last five meetings, the teams have combined to produce at least 800 yards of total offense four times... Walter Kazee has carried 31 times for 169 yards in his career against the Rebels... Gavin Escobar has eight catches for 110 yards against UNLV... Leon McFadden has a team-high 13 career stops against the Rebels.

SDSU VS. UNLV - CONNECTIONS

- UNLV head coach Bobby Hauck and offensive coordinator Rob Phenicie, and San Diego State head coach Rocky Long and cornerbacks coach Tony White both have ties to UCLA. Long served as defensive coordinator from 1996-97 and White was a graduate assistant in 2007 as well as a linebacker for the Bruins. Hauck, meanwhile, served as a grad assistant in 1990-91 and assistant recruiting coordinator in 1992. Phenicie was also a graduate assistant with the Bruins from 1991-92.
- SDSU assistant head coach/running backs coach Jeff Horton twice worked at UNLV, serving as an assistant in 1990-91, and then as head coach from 1994-98.
- UNLV defensive tackles coach Michael Gray and several Aztec coaches share ties to Oregon State. Gray was the defensive line coach from 1997-2002, while SDSU head coach Rocky Long (defensive coordinator, 1991-95), wide receivers coach LeCharls McDaniels (special teams, tight ends, 2003-04) and defensive line coach Osia Lewis (linebackers, special teams, 1991-96) also coached for Oregon State.
- Former San Diego State tight end Alston Umuolo and UNLV senior linebacker Reggie Umuolo are brothers. Both played at Centennial High in Phoenix.

SDSU VS. NEVADA - PLAYER CONNECTIONS

- Two current SDSU players call Nevada home. Sophomore offensive lineman Garrett Corbett attended Reed High School in Sparks, Nev., Aztec redshirt freshman defensive back Brandon Wright, meanwhile, is from Las Vegas, Nev., where he played with current junior Rebel defensive back Sydney Hodge.
- UNLV has two San Diego products on their roster, including junior defensive lineman Jordan Sparkman (Point Loma HS) and freshman defensive back Kenny Keys (Helix HS). Current Aztecs Josh Wade (Sr., DB) and Sam Meredith (So., DT) also played at Point Loma HS and Helix HS.
- The two teams have numerous players who attended the same college or high school. SDSU senior wide receiver Brice Butler and UNLV junior defensive end James Boyd each spent time at USC and Aztec junior linebacker Scott Graves and Rebel senior quarterback Sean Reilly both attended Saddleback JC.

LAST MEETING: SDSU VS. UNLV

■ San Diego State 31, UNLV 14 | Nov. 26, 2011 | Sam Boyd Stadium | Las Vegas, Nev.

LAS VEGAS, Nev.— With the help of Ronnie Hillman's 192 yards and two touchdowns, San Diego State outscored its opponent in the second half for the seventh time this season en route to a 31-14 victory against UNLV at Sam Boyd Stadium.

After allowing the Rebels to put up 233 yards of offense and two touchdowns in the first half, the Aztec defense held UNLV to just 28 yards of total offense and shutout an opponent in the second half for the third time this season.

The Rebels jumped out to a fast start against SDSU, scoring back-to-back touchdowns on their second and third drives of the game. UNLV running back Tim Cornett accounted for both scores, one of which was a 54-yard run.

SDSU struggled at the start of the game, as two of its first four drives resulted in losing the ball. The Aztecs' first drive resulted in a turnover on downs at the Rebels' 25-yard line and then SDSU threw an interception early in the second quarter.

The Aztecs found their spark midway through the second quarter though, as Hillman scored on a 44-yard touchdown run to cut the deficit to 14-7.

After the SDSU defense forced a three and out on UNLV's first drive of the second half, the Aztecs drove 53 yards to tie the contest at 14-14 as Ryan Lindley found wideout Colin Lockett for a 15-yard touchdown pass.

On the next Rebels' next drive, SDSU once again forced a three and out and responded with an 11-play, 52-yard drive that resulted in a 27-yard field goal by Abel Perez to give the Aztecs their first lead of the game, 17-14.

UNLV turned the ball over on downs on its next possession despite driving to the SDSU 36-yard line. SDSU responded with a clock-draining 12-play, 64-yard drive that resulted in a 6-yard touchdown pass from Lindley to Dylan Denso on fourth down.

After another three and out by UNLV, the Aztecs ran three minutes off the clock on a 31-yard drive capped off by a 1-yard touchdown run by Hillman.

SDSU then put the icing on the cake as they picked off Rebel quarterback Caleb Herring with less than a minute remaining to seal the 31-14 victory.

LAST TIME OUT: SAN DIEGO STATE 39, NEVADA 38 (OT)

■ Oct. 20, 2012 | Mackay Stadium | Las Vegas, Nev.

RENO, Nev. -- Backup quarterback Adam Dingwell threw three touchdown passes and a two-point conversion in overtime to San Diego State a 39-38 victory over Nevada.

Dingwell, who replaced an injured Ryan Katz after the team's second drive of the game, completed 14 of 23 passes for 177 yards. He came into the contest with two career completions for 28 yards.

After Nevada went up 38-31 in overtime on a 3-yard TD pass from Cody Fajardo to Brandon Wimberly, the Aztecs needed two just plays to pull to within 38-37, scoring on a 21-yard pass from Dingwell to Gavin Escobar. The Aztecs elected to go for the win and Dingwell sealed it with a pass to Adam Roberts in the corner of the end zone for the successful two-point conversion.

San Diego State trailed, 31-28, and tied it on a 35-yard field goal by Chance Marden as time expired in regulation to force overtime.

Nevada's Stephon Jefferson, the nation's leading rusher finished was held to 108 yards on 32 carries, and scored on a 1-yard touchdown run that put the Wolf Pack up 31-21 with 7:46 left in the game.

Dominique Sandifer had five catches for 60 yards and a touchdown, while Escobar caught five balls for 39 yards and two scores. Walter Kazee (15 rushes, 58 yards) also scored a rushing touchdown for the Aztecs.

After allowing two touchdowns on the first two Husky possessions, the Aztecs did not allow a point on the final seven UW drives... In no game last season did UW go seven consecutive possessions without a point... Of Washington's 328 yards of total offense, 97 came on its first two possessions... The Huskies' 21 points (including a fumble return for a touchdown) came on a total of 97 yards of offense... San Jose State's first 17 points came on 24 yards of total offense... - RUSH DEFENSE: San Diego State is 33rd nationally in rushing yards per game (123.50), 26th in average yards allowed per rush (3.4) and 41st in fewest rushing touchdowns allowed (9)... Only one opponent this season (Army) has averaged more than 3.67 yards per rush... Two opponents (North Dakota and Colorado State) have been held below 2.05 yards per carry... Opponents are averaging 3.4 yards per carry through the first eight games this season... San Diego State has 59 tackles for loss this season from 19 different players... At 7.38 tackles for loss per game, the Aztecs rank 18th nationally in the category... Three of SDSU's last six opponents have failed to rush for 100 yards and the Aztecs have held an opponent to under 100 yards rushing in five of the last 10 games.
- PASS DEFENSE: San Diego State is 103rd nationally in pass defense (270.25) and 102nd in pass efficiency defense (145.89)... The Aztecs intercepted two of Army's nine pass attempts and picked off a pass against North Dakota, San Jose State and a pair passes at Fresno State... With eight interceptions this season, the Aztecs rank 32nd nationally in the category... The Black Knights' passing efficiency of 35.56 was the lowest for a San Diego State opponent since Nov. 29, 1986 against Brigham Young... The Aztecs had three sacks and three PBU in the season-opening game against Washington... Leon McFadden has an interception in three of his last six games and returned an interception for a touchdown against North Dakota, the program's first defensive touchdown since Nov. 13, 2010, at No. 3 TCU, and the first interception return for a score since Nov. 28, 2009 at UNLV... LONG HAS BEST DEBUT SEASON IN PROGRAM HISTORY

- Rocky Long, the school's 18th head coach, became the first San Diego State coach to lead the team to a bowl game in his inaugural season.
- Long is 13-8 in his first 21 games at San Diego State. He has produced the best 21-game coaching record since Claude Gilbert opened his tenure with a 16-3-2 record. Long's win total through 21 games is two higher than his predecessor, Brady Hoke (11-10).
- Rocky Long posted an 8-5 record in his first season as head coach of the Aztecs. That is the highest victory total in a SDSU head coaching debut season since Denny Stolz finished 8-4 in his first year in 1986.
- With eight first-year wins, Rocky Long had one more coaching victory in his inaugural season than the previous two San Diego State coaches combined (Brady Hoke went 4-8 in 2009 and Chuck Long was 3-9 in 2006).
- Last season marked the third time in Rocky Long's head coaching career that his team won at least eight games (also 2007 and 2003). His squads have won six or more games in eight of his last nine seasons as a head coach.
- Last year, Long helped guide the Aztecs to their first 3-0 start in 30 years, ended the program's 19-game losing streak to Pac-10/12 foes, snapped SDSU's 23-game losing streak to automatic-qualifying BCS teams and gave the program its first win in the Eastern Time Zone since 1972, all in the opening month of the season.
- San Diego State finished the 2011 season above .500 for only the second time in the last 13 seasons.
- The Aztecs won eight games in a campaign for just the second time in the last 15 seasons.
- Long has 75 victories while coaching teams in the Mountain West. That is the second-highest total in the history of the conference.

KATZ ESTABLISHING HIMSELF AS ONE OF THE TOP QBs IN WEST

- Senior quarterback Ryan Katz suffered a season-ending fracture to his left ankle in the first quarter of the game against Nevada (Oct. 20). Despite having his season cut short, Katz proved to be of the top quarterbacks in his abbreviated season.
- Katz made the most of his one season on The Mesa. After transferring from Oregon State prior to the 2012 spring semester, Katz was named the starter following the first week of fall camp.
- A dual-threat quarterback, he has made the most of his opportunities in the first seven games.
- San Diego State has its highest point total through eight games since the 1996 campaign. Senior quarterback Billy Blanton was in his third season as a starter during that season.
- Katz posted a career-high three-touchdown performance in which he was 11-of-18 for 241 yards with no interceptions against North Dakota. He recorded a passing efficiency rating of 228.58, which is the seventh highest in school history.
- At Fresno State, Katz rushed for a career- and team-high 89 yards.
- Katz was responsible for a career-high five touchdowns in the victory over Hawai'i. Katz rushed for three scores and 57 yards on 10 carries, and added a 15-for-29, 190-yard, two-touchdown performance through he air.

- His 13 touchdown passes this season were thrown to seven different receivers. He had a pass completion to 12 different receivers through the first seven games of this season.
- He had a streak of 91 consecutive pass attempts without an interception earlier this season and went three straight games without throwing a pick.
- Katz enters this week's game ranked 22nd in passing efficiency in the nation and second in the Mountain West at 151.61. That is the sixth-highest passer rating in school history.

SDSU FOOTBALL ACCEPTS INVITE TO JOIN THE BIG EAST

- The BIG EAST Conference announced in December 2011 that San Diego State University has accepted an invitation to join the league in the sport of football beginning with the 2013-14 academic year.

SDSU joins Boise State, Houston, Southern Methodist and Central Florida as the newest members of the league. The aforementioned five will join a football league that also consists of Cincinnati, Connecticut, Louisville, Rutgers and South Florida.

"I am extremely excited about our prospects for joining the BIG EAST in football," San Diego State University President Dr. Elliot Hirshman said. "This new conference affiliation will provide extraordinary opportunities for our student-athletes, our coaches and staff, our alumni and supporters and the entire University."

"This is a very important day in the history of the San Diego State athletic department," SDSU Athletic Director Jim Sterk said. "This affiliation with the BIG EAST Conference allows us to compete at the highest level in college football. This will give the athletic department and University attention on a national stage that we have not had before."

The BIG EAST is one of six conferences with an automatic berth to one of five Bowl Championship Series (BCS) games. The BCS includes the Rose Bowl Game, Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, Allstate Sugar Bowl, Discover Orange Bowl and the Allstate BCS National Championship Game.

In addition to the BCS automatic berth, the BIG EAST has tie-ins to the Champs Sports Bowl (Orlando, Fla.), Belk Bowl (Charlotte, N.C.), New Era Pinstripe Bowl (Bronx, N.Y.), BBVA Compass Bowl (Birmingham, Ala.), AutoZone Liberty Bowl (Memphis, Tenn.) and Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl St. Petersburg (St. Petersburg, Fla.).

The move to the BIG EAST provides San Diego State's football program with national television exposure through ABC, ESPN, BIG EAST Network, SportsNet New York (SNY) and the BIG EAST/IMG Sports National Radio Network.

San Diego State, which led the Mountain West in average home attendance this season (39,865), has a storied football tradition having won 18 conference championships and participated in nine bowl games, including last season's Poinsettia Bowl, which resulted in a 35-14 victory over Navy. A year after posting a 9-4 record, the Aztecs finished the 2011 season with an 8-4 mark and recently accepted an invitation to the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl where they will face Louisiana-Lafayette on Dec. 17. The back-to-back bowl appearances mark the first time San Diego State has accomplished that feat in its Division I history.

Individually, SDSU has produced 144 NFL draft picks, including 52 top-100 selections, and 104 All-Americans, including 19 first-teamers. In 2011 alone, San Diego State had the nation's third-leading rusher and had seven all-conference first-team picks, two second-teamers and one honorable mention choice.

MCFADDEN NAMED PHIL STEELE MIDSEASON ALL-AMERICAN

- San Diego State senior cornerback Leon McFadden was named to Phil Steele's 2012 Midseason All-American team on Oct. 11 as a fourth-team selection. The Inglewood, Calif., native has enjoyed a stellar first eight games of the season, tallying 39 tackles along with a team-high three interceptions that he notched in three straight games (Sept. 15-29).

On the season, McFadden leads the Aztecs in interceptions (3) and PBUs (8), and is one of seven with a forced fumble. He also has 39 tackles, including 31 solo stops. McFadden is tied for 24th in the country in passes defended per game (1.38) and is tied for 37th with 0.38 interceptions per game.

McFadden has been instrumental to SDSU's defense this year as two of his three interceptions in 2012 have been returned for a touchdown. He is just the second Aztec with two interceptions returned for a touchdown in a season (also Tory Nixon in 1986). McFadden's two career interceptions for a touchdown trail only Ricky Parker's three from 1993-96.

MARDEN NAMED MW SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK

■ San Diego State football player Chance Marden (Fremont, Calif.) was named the Mountain West Special Teams Player of the Week, the league announced Oct. 22. It is the first career weekly award for Marden and the fourth by an Aztec this season (also Nat Berhe (defensive POW on Sept. 10), Ryan Katz (offensive POW on Oct. 8) and Jake Fely (defensive POW on Oct. 15)).

Marden, a senior in his first year with the football program after spending four seasons (one redshirt) with the men's soccer team, scored a career-high 11 points to help SDSU to a 39-38, come-from-behind overtime victory at Nevada on Saturday. Marden was 3-for-3 on field goal attempts and made both of his PAT opportunities. He connected on field goals of 39, 46 and 35 yards with the latter coming as time expired in regulation, forcing the game into overtime. The 46-yarder in the second quarter was a career long for Marden.

Marden has now made seven consecutive field goal tries after missing the first three of his career (7-for-10). He's also made 35 of his 36 PATs (.972) this season. Marden ranks in a tie for 53rd in the country in scoring (8.00 points per game) and a tie for 27th in scoring among kickers. Among the league leaders, Marden is third in field goals per game (1.00), fourth in scoring (first among kickers) and tied for fourth in field goal percentage (.700).

JAKE FELY NAMED MOUNTAIN WEST DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK (OCT. 15)

■ San Diego State football player Jake Fely has been named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Week, the league announced on Oct. 15. A linebacker, Fely had a career-high 13 tackles (his previous best was eight) in the Aztecs' 38-14 victory over Colorado State on Saturday. He also set career highs with 2.0 sacks and 3.5 tackles for loss, while recovering his second fumble of his career (and season). The 2.0 sacks were the most by an SDSU player since Miles Burris had 2.0 vs. Fresno State on Dec. 3, 2011, while his 3.5 TFL were the most since Burris had 3.5 vs. UNLV on Nov. 27, 2010.

It was the first Mountain West weekly award for Fely.

Fely was joined by Rutgers' Khaseem Greene as the CFPA Defensive Performers of the Week. Fely was also chosen as a linebacker performer of the week (along with Greene), while teammate Derek Largent (eight tackles, two interceptions) was an honorable mention selection on the linebacker list.

NAT BERHE EARNS MOUNTAIN WEST DEFENSIVE POW HONORS (SEPT. 8)

■ San Diego State junior football player Nat Berhe has been named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Week, for his efforts in the Aztecs' victory over Army on Sept. 8. It is the second career weekly honor for the Colton, Calif., native.

Berhe, a defensive back, had a career-high 14 tackles, including 10 solo stops, to lead SDSU to a 42-7 victory over Army on Saturday. He also had one tackle for a loss and a pass breakup while anchoring a defense that forced three turnovers and limited the Black Knights to just 50 yards passing.

Berhe and the San Diego State defense held Army without an offensive score for its first nine possessions of the game before a Black Knight scored with 5:54 left to play in the third quarter. The touchdown snapped the Aztecs' streak of not allowing an offensive score at 16 possessions (also last seven at Washington), which was a total of 86:41 of clock time.

FIVE AZTECS ON PRESEASON WATCH LISTS

■ San Diego State has placed five student-athletes on preseason national award watch lists in 2012. Junior tight end Gavin Escobar, senior center Alec Johnson, senior running back Walter Kazee, junior Colin Lockett and senior Leon McFadden are on the initial short list for their positions' top honors.

Escobar (Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif.) is one of 33 players on the John Mackey Award Watch List (most outstanding tight end) and one of 145 on the Rotary Lombardi Award Watch List (top lineman). Last season, the Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif., native reeled in 51 catches for 780 yards and seven touchdowns. His 51 receptions and 780 receiving yards were the second most by a tight end in school history. Escobar averaged 60.00 receiving yards per game, which were the third most in the country among tight ends. He ended up earning all-Mountain West honors for the second consecutive season (first team in 2011, second team in 2010). Escobar is on the preseason all-conference team for this year. This season, Escobar leads the Aztecs with 26 catches and 317 receiving yards.

Johnson (Denver, Colo.) is one of 51 players on the Rimington Trophy Award Watch List (best center). Johnson, one of SDSU's two returning starters on the offensive line, entered the 2012 campaign having made 29 career starts and is slated to start at center for the second consecutive year. Last season, Johnson never missed a game despite breaking his snapping hand (right) in the Aztecs' season opener. The MW academic all-conference honoree also helped SDSU rush for nearly 2,400 yards as well as finish among the nation's leaders in fewest sacks allowed (T-7th, 0.85 per game) and in fewest tackles for a loss allowed (15th, 4.46 per game).

Kazee (San Bernardino, Calif.) is one of 52 candidates on the Doak Walker Award Watch List (top running back). Last year, Kazee rushed for 339 yards and four touchdowns on 74 carries (4.6 yards per rush) before a knee injury in the ninth game sidelined him for the rest of the season. Kazee also caught eight passes for 89 yards. For his career, Kazee has 1,569 rushing yards and 15 touchdowns on 324 rushes (4.8 yards per carry). Additionally, Kazee has 212 yards receiving on 24 catches. This year, Kazee has career highs of 539 yards, 97 carries, 5.6 yards per carry and six rushing touchdowns.

Lockett (Diamond Bar, Calif.) is one of 48 athletes on the Biletnikoff Award Watch List (most outstanding wide receiver). Lockett led SDSU in receiving last year with 970 yards and his 74.6 receiving yards per game ranked fourth in the conference. Lockett also tallied 678 yards on special teams in 2011, including a 94-yard kickoff return touchdown in the season opener against Cal Poly. He's also on the 2012 preseason all-conference team. Lockett has 13 catches this season for 198 yards and two touchdowns. He also has 22 kickoff returns for 532 yards (24.2 average per kickoff return), including a career-long 96-yard return for a touchdown vs. Army.

McFadden (Inglewood, Calif.) is one of 84 players on the Bronco Nagurski Trophy Award Watch List (best defensive player) and one of 35 on the Jim Thorpe Award Watch List (best defensive back). McFadden, who became the first San Diego State player to be named a preseason player of the year (offense, defense or special teams) in July, is looking to become the fifth Aztec in program history to earn first-team all-conference honors in three consecutive years. Last year, McFadden led the league in passes defended (17), while recording 46 tackles (35 solo), two interceptions and a sack. This year, McFadden has recorded 39 tackles, eight pass breakups, three interceptions, two interceptions returned for a score and a forced fumble.

SDSU TABBED TO FINISH FIFTH BY LEAGUE MEDIA

■ The San Diego State football team is picked to finish fifth in the Mountain West preseason poll, which was released on July 24. The Aztecs had 173 points in the 2012 preseason poll, which is voted on by media representatives who cover the conference.

The fifth-place projection is SDSU's second highest in the last eight years. Last season, San Diego State was selected fourth and finished fourth. It marked the sixth time in the last seven years that the Aztecs finished at or higher than their projected finish. SDSU also picked up one of the 30 first-place votes, a first in its 14-year history of the MW.

Boise State was picked to win the league with 296 points, including 27 first-place votes. Only 74 points separated the second-place team (Nevada, 244 points) and the sixth-place team (Air Force, 170 points). Fresno State was third with 231 points and two first-place votes, while Wyoming (213 points) and SDSU (173 points) rounded out the top five at fourth and fifth, respectively.

MCFADDEN NAMED MW PRESEASON DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

■ San Diego State defensive back Leon McFadden has been selected as the Mountain West Preseason Defensive Player of the Year, the league announced in July. McFadden was joined on the preseason all-conference team by tight end Gavin Escobar and wide receiver Colin Lockett.

McFadden became the first San Diego State player to be named a preseason player of the year (offense, defense or special teams). McFadden, who is looking to become the fifth Aztec in program history to earn first-team all-conference honors in three consecutive years, is on the preseason watch list for the Nagurski Award (top defensive player) and the Thorpe Award (top defensive back). He's also the third player in the last 11 years (also Kirk Morrison and Lynell Hamilton) to be named to the preseason all-conference team for a second time. The Inglewood, Calif., native led the league in passes defended (17) last year, while recording 46 tackles (35 solo), two interceptions and a sack.

Escobar, who is on the preseason watch list for the Lombardi Award (top lineman) and the Mackey Award (top tight end), had 51 catches a year ago for 780 yards and seven touchdowns. His 60.00 receiving yards per game in 2011 were the third most in the nation among tight ends. A member of the Biletnikoff Award Watch List (most outstanding wide receiver), Lockett led SDSU in receiving last year with 970 yards. Lockett, who also had 58 catches and eight touchdowns, averaged 74.6 receiving yards per game, which ranked fourth in the conference. # GAME #1 RECAP: WASHINGTON 21, SDSU 12

GAME #1
San Diego State	12
Washington	21

Sept. 1, 2012 | Seattle, Wash.
CenturyLink Field | 53,742

SEATTLE -- San Diego State was unable to overcome an early deficit and three turnovers in a 21-12 loss at Washington in the 2012 season opener for both teams.

The Aztecs threw an interception on their first drive and punted on a three and out on their second, and the Huskies took advantage with touchdowns on both possessions.

UW, which took over on the SDSU 35 after the interception, got in the end zone on a two-yard run by Bishop Sankey.

Quarterback Keith Price drove Washington 62 yards on the team's next drive, culminating in a 8-yard pass to Kasen Williams.

After the slow start, the San Diego State defense stood tall the rest of the way, limiting the Huskies to 231 yards and no points on their final seven drives.

The Aztecs got on the scoreboard on the first play of the second quarter when quarterback Ryan Katz found a wide-open Tim Vizzi on the left side, who ran 47 yards for the touchdown. SDSU, however, failed on the 2-point conversion.

Early in the third quarter, UW safety Will Shamburger returned a fumble 44 yards to give the home team the 21-6 advantage.

Adam Muema completed an 11-play, 71-yard drive in the fourth when he pounded it in on a 4th and 1. But once again, San Diego State was unable to convert the 2-point conversion and trailing, 21-12.

After forcing Washington to punt, the Aztecs tried to mount another scoring drive. They went 76 yards, highlighted by a 26-yard run by Walter Kazee and a 32-yard pass from Katz to Colin Lockett. SDSU got to the Huskies' 8-yard line on third down, but missed on consecutive pass attempts, giving the ball back to UW.

Washington ran most of the 4:44 left on the clock and San Diego State's last-ditch effort fell short in the 21-12 setback. It was the Aztecs' first season-opening loss since 2009.

Kazee, who missed the end of last year with a knee injury, ran for a game-high 86 yards on nine carries, his highest total since the first game of the 2009 season and the first game of his career.

Katz added a career-high 77 yards on the ground and passed for another 128. Lockett led all Aztecs with four catches and 48 yards in the loss.

SDSU had multiple turnovers for only the second time in its last nine games, dating back to last year. San Diego State finished the 2011 season with just one turnover over its final three games.

TEAM NOTES

* San Diego State had a pair of 100-yard rushers for the first time since 1998 and the 15th time in program history. The Aztecs are 14-1 all-time when having multiple 100-yard rushers.

* SDSU and North Dakota combined for 90 points tonight. That was tied for the eighth-most total points in a San Diego State game in program history and matched the most since Nov. 26, 1994 when the Aztecs and Fresno State combined for 91 points (Fresno State won, 49-42).

* San Diego State defeated a team with a six-game winning streak for the first time since at least 2002. The Aztecs were 0-8 against teams (since 2002) with a six-game winning streak heading into today (0-2 under Tom Craft, 0-3 under Chuck Long and 0-2 under Brady Hoke).

* SDSU has now won eight straight September home games, which is the second-longest September home winning streak in the Division I era. The team's last loss in a September home game was a 52-23 setback to 24th-ranked Cincinnati on Sept. 29, 2007. The school record is 23 consecutive home wins during September, spanning the 1962-1979 seasons (12 consecutive in the Division I ERA (1969-79)).

* San Diego State has posted a winning record after three games for the third consecutive season (2-1 in 2010, 3-0 in 2011, 2-1 in 2012). Prior to 2010, the Aztecs did not have a winning record after three contests for the five seasons from 2005 through 2009.

* Leon McFadden's interception return for a touchdown in the first quarter was San Diego State's first defensive touchdown since Nov. 13, 2010 at No. 3 TCU.

* McFadden's interception return for a touchdown was the team's first since Nov. 28, 2009, when Luke Laolagi returned one at UNLV.

* North Dakota's passing touchdown in the first quarter was the first allowed by the Aztecs since the first quarter of the Washington game. There was 114 minutes, 25 seconds (114:25) of game time in between the two touchdown passes.

WEATHER NOTES

* Tonight's game time temperature of 97 degrees is tied for the second-warmest contest (also Sept. 8, 2001 at Arizona

State) San Diego State has played in the Division I era (since 1969). The only warmer game was 99 degrees at Arizona on Sept. 16, 2000.

* It is the warmest home game for the Aztecs in the Division I era (previous warmest was 93 degrees against UCLA on Sept. 8, 1984.)

TRENDS

The Aztecs are now 0-19-1 when owning a 15-yard margin in average field position or worse in a game.

* SDSU had won eight consecutive September home games prior to tonight, which was the second-longest September home winning streak in the Division I era. The team's last loss (before tonight) in a September home game was a 52-23 setback to 24th-ranked Cincinnati on Sept. 29, 2007.

* Through 17 games, Rocky Long is now 10-7 as San Diego State's head coach. That is still the best 17-game start to an Aztec coaching career since Claude Gilbert opened his tenure with a 14-2-1 record in the 1973 and 1974 seasons.

* San Diego State had a fumble on a punt return in the first quarter. It was the team's first turnover since the third quarter of the opening game at Washington. SDSU went 160 minutes, 10 seconds (160:10) of game time without a turnover until the Tim Vizzi fumble.

* San Diego State later fumbled on offense. The Aztecs had gone 164 offensive plays without a turnover prior to the Walter Kazez fumble.

* SDSU allowed a kickoff return for a touchdown. It was the first allowed by San Diego State since Oct. 28, 2000 vs. Colorado State.

TEAM NOTES

* San Diego State rallied from a 10 or more point deficit in the fourth quarter to win for just the fifth time in 188 tries. The other times were Oct. 26, 1991 at Utah, Nov. 26, 1977 at San Jose State and Nov. 29, 1969 vs. Long Beach State.

* The Aztecs won their fourth consecutive overtime game and improved to 4-1 all-time in overtime games. Their last overtime game was Oct. 24, 1998.

* San Diego State picked up its second win over a team that entered the game with at least a five-game winning streak since 2002. The Aztecs were 1-8 overall (with their lone win against North Dakota earlier this season) and 0-8 vs. FBS teams since 2002 when playing a team with at least a five-game winning streak.

* SDSU handed Nevada just its third loss in its last 22 home games. San Diego State joins South Florida (2012) and Louisiana Tech (2011) as the only visiting teams to win in Mackey Stadium since Oct. 3, 2009.

* The Aztecs have won three straight games, which matches their second longest winning streak contained in the same year in the last 14 seasons (does not include win streaks carried over from season to season).

* SDSU has won four consecutive road games in the month of October dating back to Oct. 9, 2010. That is the longest October road winning streak since a six-game winning stretch from Oct. 5, 1991-Oct. 9, 1993.

* San Diego State's Derek Largent earned his first career start. He's the 13th different player to make his first start as an Aztec this season and 11th to earn his first Division I start.

* SDSU has received the ball first in all eight games this season.

* San Diego State held Nevada to 10 points in the first half, its lowest first half point total all season. The Wolf Pack came in averaging 16.57 points in the first half prior to tonight.

* The Aztecs converted a 2-point conversion for the first time since last year vs. Boise State (Nov. 19, 2011).

TRENDS

* SDSU has now scored a touchdown in 72 consecutive games.

* San Diego State has scored 30 or more points in 12 of the last 13 games.

* The Aztecs had scored in eight consecutive quarters prior to being shut out in the first quarter tonight.

* SDSU has at least one rushing touchdown in 16 consecutive games (dating back to the Oct. 8, 2011 contest vs. TCU), its longest stretch since a 19-game streak from Nov. 25,

SERIES NOTES

* SDSU has won three consecutive games in the series with Nevada and is 3-2 all-time.

* San Diego State improved to 1-1 all-time against the Wolf Pack in Reno (last meeting there was in 1945).

COACH ROCKY LONG NOTES

* Is now 13-8 as head coach with the Aztecs. The .619 winning percentage is the third highest in program history, trailing only Don Coryell (.840) and Claude Gilbert (.697).

* The 13-8 mark as head coach by Rocky Long is the best 21-game start by an SDSU head coach since Claude Gilbert went 16-3-2 during the 1973 and 1974 seasons.

* Picked up his 75th win while coaching in the Mountain West. Long had 62 wins with New Mexico in the Mountain West (1999-2008) and has 13 over the past two years with SDSU. Long's 75 Mountain West wins only trails Gary Patterson of TCU, who had 77.
