MAR. 17: UCI is shut down in the first half vs. Harvard, an eight-goal fourth period leads to a 15-8 win. MAR. 31: UCI snaps No. 17 CSUN's 25-match home win streak with an 11-10 win.

APR. 8: UCI's 14-2 win over Pacific earns it the Big West regular season title, Kate Avetoom records her 100th save of the season, Danielle Warde sets an Anteater record with six steals, Hillary Estrada and the 'Eaters set field block records with three and six, respectively.

APR. 14: UCI took a lead into the half, but 12 saves from Jillian Yocum could not hold back the No. 2 UCLA Bruins in a 10-6 defeate of the Anteaters.

APR. 19: Katie Croghan finishes her senior season with a hat trick in 8-5 win over LBSU.

APR. 29: The Anteaters close out their fourth straight Big West Tournament title defeating host UC Davis, 10-5, to clinch an NCAA berth.

LOYOLA MARYMOUNT LIONS: LMU returns to the Anteaters' focus in San Diego. UCI battled with the Lions in back-to-back weeks back in February. UCI took down LMU in the first matchup for its first-ever win at LMU, 12-9. LMU returned the favor the following week by ruining UCI's own invitational shutting them down, 9-6

UCI jumped on the backs of Danielle Warde and her first period hat trick and Jessy Cardey, who joined Warde in scoring a five-goal match. LMU answered back with a defensive effort in the 9-6 win. Cardey had four more goals, but LMU began to pull away in the second period which included a goal with one second to go in the half. In both matches, LMU had four players with two goals.

The Lions are led by sophomore Alexandra Honny who netted 77 goals on the season. She also led the team with 51 steals. Kimberly Benedetti is the next big scorer with 55 goals. Six other players have scored at least 20 goals.

Elisa Ponce has been huge in net playing every minute of every match. In 29 matches, she has a goalsagainst-average of 6.72 while stopping 287 shots.

THE COMPETITION: UCI will take on either Stanford or Pomona-Pitzer in its second match. UCI was pummeled by the Cardinal, 17-5, in their only meeting. UCI took down the Sagehens, 15-4, in the Claremont Convergence Tournament.

The other side of the bracket includes UCLA, USC, Princeton, and Iona. UCI will play one of these schools in its final match. The 'Eaters met up with USC and Iona in last year's NCAA Tournament falling, 14-9, to USC, and defeating Iona, 15-4. UCI tussled with UCLA losing 10-6 a few weeks ago. The Anteaters haven't played Princeton since 2005.

HEAD COACH DAN KLATT

Dan Klatt is entering his eighth season as head coach of the UC Irvine women's water polo team, and is 128-79 during that time.

Klatt continues to lead UC Irvine through their ascent toward the top of the water polo landscape. Klatt earned Big West Coach of the Year honors for the third straight year following his sixth consecutive winning season in 2011, going 23-9, tying a UCI record. The team claimed their second Big West regular season title and third consecutive Big West Tournament title and the team's first berth in the NCAA Tournament. The 2011 Anteaters finished fifth in the NCAA Tournament and a No. 7 ranking in the year's final poll.

Klatt and the 'Eaters have made waves since joining the Big West with a 12-3 record in the three years and the Tri-Big West champion crown in 2009.

The Anteaters spent his first four seasons in the MPSF conference finishing 6-6 in the conference twice and finishing as high as seventh in the conference tournament, the school's best finish during its time in the MPSF.

During the summer, Klatt served as an assistant coach with the U.S. Women's National Team and guided them to titles in both the FINA Women's World Cup and the FINA World League Super Finals eliminating Australia both times.

Klatt's playing history is just as impressive. He was a member of the 2004 U.S. Olympic Water Polo team that competed in the Athens Games. He's been a member of the national team since graduating from UC Irvine in 2001 where he played his college water polo career.

In addition to being an assistant coach, Rowe is general manager and head coach of the 18-High School Girls at Socal Water Polo Club. He has also been an aeronautical engineer and been involved in the aerospace industry as both an engineer and in a managerial role for the last 16 years.

Director of Operations 2nd Season

Jillian Kraus

Volunteer Assistant Coach 1st Season

Jillian Kraus is entering her first season with the UC Irvine women's water polo team. She was a member of the USA water polo squad after an extensive career at UCLA. Kraus helped the UCLA women's water polo team to four consecutive NCAA Championships, including the latest title in May 2008.

During the 2008 season, scored 57 goals on 141 attempts, with 41 steals and 10 assists as a defender. The 178 goals in her four seasons placed her as the fourth-highest career goals total in program history, according to the university. Kraus was named to the All-MPSF Academic Team for three straight years and was selected as the MPSF Co-player of the Year this season with teammate Courtney Mathewson. She was on the All-American First team.

She was a finalist for the 2008 Peter J. Cutino Award, which is presented annually to the outstanding female and male collegiate water polo players in the United States. Kraus and UCLA's national champion teams of 2007-2008 visited the White House Tuesday, June 24, 2008. She received a kiss on the cheek from President George Bush.

Kraus was a four-year letterwinner in water polo and swimming at Foothill High School under coaches Dan Klatt and Dave Mikesell (water polo) and Jim Brumm (swimming). She served as water polo team captain in 2004 and earned MVP and scholar-athlete honors. Kraus captured CIF Division I co-Player of the Year in 2004, and also competed for the SoCal club team and the USA National Youth Team.

Bruce Reynolds returns for his second year with the team.

Reynolds has been around UCI water polo since he was 5 years old where he learned how to swim from UCI Men's Coach Emeritus Ted Newland. He played for Newland at Corona del Mar High School and UC Irvine.

Reynolds is still an active player for the Newport Water Polo Foundation and Tri-Valley Water Polo, who are the current Senior Games and USA Water Polo Master 60+ National Champions. Reynolds was awarded USA Water Polo Masters First Team All-American in 2009 and 2010.

Reynolds is married to his wife, Lynn, who was a New York State champion swimmer, and has two sons, Patrick, who coaches high school and club water polo in Santa Barbara, and Lucas, who currently plays water polo for UCLA. He is part of a four-generation water polo family that includes his grandfather, father, himself, and his sons.

'We cannot get complacent'

Klatt has UC Irvine poised to become an elite program Trevor Freeman, NCAA.com

Last Updated - May 4, 2012 2:02 GMT

UC Irvine Athletics - Dan Klatt was a standout water polo player for UC Irvine in the early 2000's.

UC Irvine returns to the NCAA Tournament for a second year in a row after winning its fourth consecutive Big West Tournament. Leading the Anteaters to prominence in the pool is Dan Klatt. The head coach is wrapping up his eighth season at his alma mater.

UC Irvine is the fourth seed in this year's tournament. The Anteaters have dominated the Big West in recent years. What does the program need to do to move into the next tier and challenge a UCLA, Stanford or USC?

Klatt: We need to keep getting better every day and keep our focus. We can't afford to look forward to anything beyond that. We have plenty of things improve upon between now and then. We cannot get complacent and be satisfied with where we are today.

Jessy Cardey has been your offensive leader as she already has fifty-eight goals in the regular season. What makes her a special offensive player?

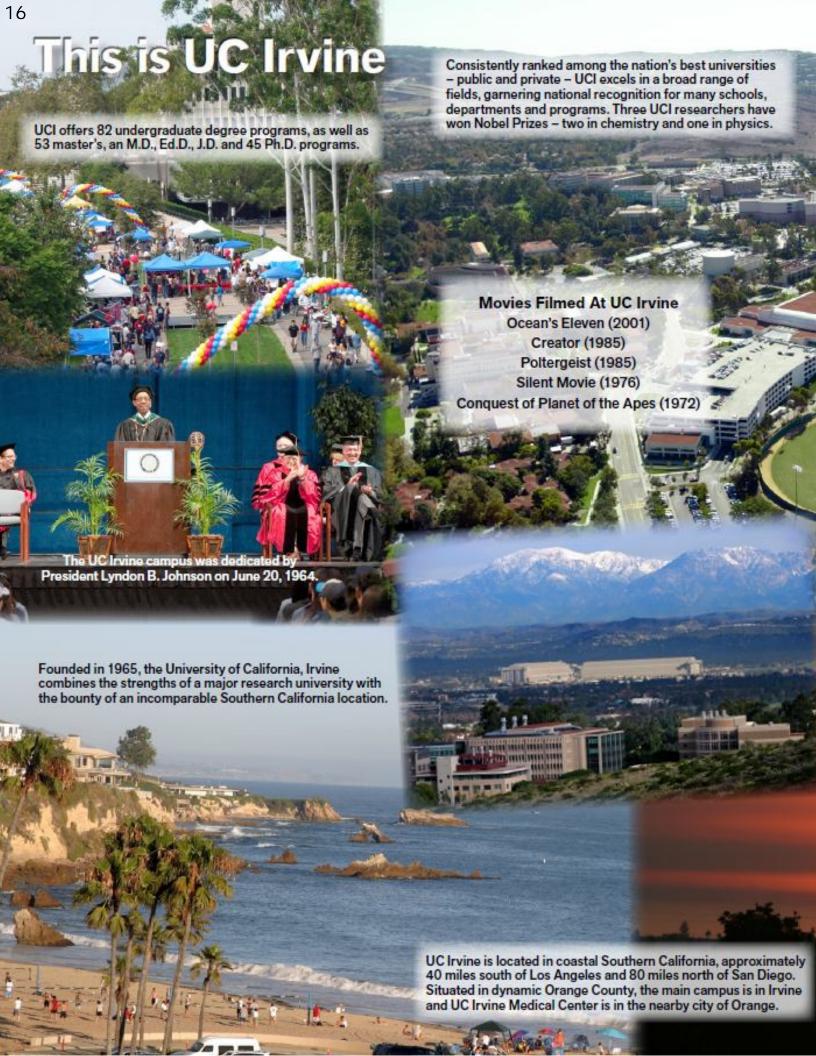

Klatt: Jessy has great vision and an excellent arm. She sees the cage very well and has been the recipient of some outstanding passes from her teammates. She often returns the favor as she is one of our team's leaders in assists as well.

Hannah Croghan and Danielle Warde are both stuffing the stat sheet. What makes them such dangerous players for the Anteaters?

Coach Klatt: Hannah has had a really good season. While not big in stature, she is an aggressive player who is plays with a lot of confidence. She is very creative and assertive and she applies and understands everything she is taught. Danielle is probably our most well-rounded player. She produces a lot of steals defensively and is very active on the counter. Danielle draws the toughest defensive matchup every game and has proved she is willing to do whatever is necessary to help the team win.

Kate Avetoom and Jillian Yocum are splitting time in the cage for your team and it is working out. Can you tell us a little about that? There is that old saying 'if somebody is playing two goalies it means they don't have one.'

Coach Klatt: Both goalies are performing on an equal level. Both have stepped up to help our team win. It can be tough to share the role, but the players and coaches have confidence in their ability to perform when it is their time to command the defense.
