11-TIME MOUNTAIN WEST CHAMPIONS

SAN DIEGO STATE AZTECS
2018-19 Record: 21-13 (11-7 Mountain West)
Head Coach: Brian Dutcher (Third Season)
Career Record: 43-24, Record at SDSU: Same

PRESEASON NOTES

• San Diego State preps for the 2019-20 campaign after finishing runner-up in the 2019 Mountain West Championship. The Aztecs have captured a league-high 11 conference titles and have finished champion or runner-up in 11-of-20 Mountain West Tournaments.

• Entering the 2019-20 season, SDSU will look to return to the NCAA tournament after missing the postseason in 2019. The Aztecs' NCAA appearance in 2018 was their 12th postseason berth in the last 14 years (8 NCAA, 4 NIT).

• Head coach Brian Dutcher is set for his third season after guiding San Diego State to a 21-13 record in 2018-19 and a career mark of 43-24. He is the only head coach in program history to record 20+ wins in each of his first two season.

• In 2018, Dutcher was the only first-year head coach to lead his team to the NCAA Tournament and in the previous 96 seasons of SDSU basketball, no other coach has won more games and/or won a conference title in his initial season.

• Dutcher is the only coach in program history (since 1921-22) to lead his team to 40 or more victories in his first two seasons as a major college program (Tim Vezie (1974-75 & 75-76) ranks second with 30 wins). Dutcher and Vezie are the only coaches to lead their programs to the NCAA Tournament in their first season coaching at San Diego State.

• Dutcher welcomes back two returning starters in junior forward Matt Mitchell and sophomore forward Nathan Mensah. The pair played in all 34 games a year ago with Mitchell starting 33 times, and Mensah receiving the opening nod in each of the final 20 contests. The only other returners who have started a game for SDSU are junior guard Jordan Schakel, who got 16 starting assignments last year, and senior forward Nolan Narain, who made one start in 2017-18.

• Schakel returns as one of the team's top three-point threats. The Torrance, Calif., native ranked second on the team last year in three-point makes (44) and led the team in three-point percentage (.415; min. 40 3-PT FGA), while playing in 28 games (23.3 mpg). Schakel averaged 7.4 points and 3.8 rebounds, and took great care of the ball, committing 15 turnovers in 651 minutes. In two seasons, he has committed just 24 turnovers in 1,106 total minutes (less than one turnover (.086) per 40 minutes played).

• In 2019-20, SDSU will replace its leader in scoring average (Devin Watson - 16.0), rebounding average (Jalen McDaniels - 8.3), assists (Watson - 142), steals (Jeremy Hemsley - 38), and minutes (Watson - 1,155) from last year's team.

• SDSU has three Division I transfers on the 2019-20 roster. KJ Feagin (Santa Clara) & Yanni Wetzell (Vanderbilt) are grad transfers who will play immediately. Malachi Flynn (Washington State) sat out last season due to NCAA transfer rules and will have two seasons, beginning in 2019-20, to compete for the Aztecs.

• San Diego State has lost three starters (Jeremy Hemsley, Jalen McDaniels & Devin Watson) from its 2018-19 squad that reached the championship game of the 2019 Mountain West Tournament. The impact of the loss of trio can not be underestimated. They provided SDSU with 56.9 percent of its scoring last season (1,389-of-2,437 points), 56.2 percent of its assists (274-of-487), 53.5 percent of its steals (105-of-196) and 39.6 percent of its rebounds (487-of-1228). In addition, McDaniels and Watson were selected to the 2019 All-Mountain West Tournament Team.

• When the 2019-20 season tips off, the Aztecs will have seven players on the roster who have never played a game in a San Diego State uniform. Guards Malachi Flynn (Washington State) and Caleb Giordano, a junior and sophomore, respectively, utilized redshirt seasons in 2018-19. KJ Feagin (Santa Clara) and Yanni Wetzell (Vanderbilt) are grad transfers with one year of eligibility each. Trey Pulliam is a junior transfer from Navarro College in Corsicana, Texas and freshmen Keshad Johnson (San Leandro, Calif.) and Mike Pope (San Diego, Calif.)

• Junior Matt Mitchell and sophomore Nathan Mensah, both forwards, are back for their respective seasons after receiving starting nods throughout the 2018-19 campaign. Mitchell (10.3 ppg, 4.1 rpg) played in all 34 games, starting 33 times, and enters 2019-20 with 65 starting assignments in 67 career games, which is the most on the active roster. Mensah started the final 20 games of the season and led the team in blocks (39) and field goal percentage (.541), while scoring 5.6 points and ranking second with 5.5 rebounds-per-game.

• SDSU also welcomes back sophomores Adam Seiko (guard), Aguek Arop (forward), and Joel Mensah (forward) as well as senior Nolan Narain (forward). In 2018-19, Seiko averaged 2.2 points and 1.0 rebounds in his initial season on The Mesa. Arop (3.1 ppg, 2.7 rpg), Mensah (1.1 ppg, 1.0 rpg) and Narain (2.9 ppg, 2.2 rpg) are all forecast to play larger rolls and make larger contributions in 2019-20.

• The Aztecs bring in two freshman, Kesahd Johnson and Mike Pope, to make up the second smallest freshman class in more than a decade. The true freshman classes of 2011-12 (Ryan Staten) & 2016-17 (Jalen McDaniels) are the only smaller classes since the 2008-09 season.

- Of San Diego State's 13 losses last season, four came in games in which SDSU was tied or led at halftime, two came by five points or fewer, and two came when SDSU led with five minutes to play in the game.
- San Diego State did a good job in close games last season, going 4-2 in games decided by five points or less. In addition, it was 10-4 in games where the margin of victory was 10 points or less.
- Six Aztecs (Jalen McDaniels, Jeremy Hemsley, Devin Watson, Matt Mitchell, Nathan Mensah and Jordan Schakel) made 169 of a possible 170 starts last season. Entering the 2019-20 season, San Diego State will have to replace 100 of those starting assignments (34 each from McDaniels and Watson, 32 from Hemsley and one from Michael Sohikish).
- The Aztecs were once again one of the top defensive team in the Mountain West last season, ranking second in both field-goal percentage defense (.410) and three-point field goal percentage defense (.324). In addition, SDSU ranked third in the league in scoring defense (67.4 points per game). In conference games only, San Diego State ranked second in both scoring defense (66.7 points per game) and field goal percentage defense (.413).
- SDSU has posted at least 20 wins 13 times in the last 14 years, 16 times in its Division I history (48 years) and 23 times overall. Head coach Brian Dutcher has been on the San Diego State bench for 14 of those seasons.

He is the fifth Aztec to be drafted by an NBA team since Brian Dutcher has been on the SDSU bench and is the 19th player overall coached by Dutcher who has gone on to be drafted by an NBA franchise.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

- San Diego State returns two starters in junior forward Matt Mitchell and sophomore forward Nathan Mensah from the 2018-19 squad. The duo figures to be inserted into the first five from the outset of the 2019-20 season. Mitchell started in 33 games last season, and 65-of-67 in his career, while Mensah finished 2018-19 with 20 straight starts. Both saw action in all 34 games last season.

- Matt Mitchell had a strong sophomore season that saw him average 10.3 points (.405 FG, .328 3FG), 4.1 rebounds and 1.8 assists, while holding top-three team rankings in 11 statistical categories. Built like a two-sport star, standing at 6-6 and 240 pounds, Mitchell has scored in double figures 37 times in his career. He has averaged 10.4 points per game in his two seasons as an Aztec and if he continues at that scoring pace in 2019-20, would become the 34th player in program history to reach the 1,000-career point plateau.

- Nathan Mensah returns after a solid freshman campaign. Initially coming off the bench, the Labadi, Accra, Ghana native started the final 20 games and averaged 6.1 points, 5.9 rebounds and 1.1 blocks during that span. He is just the second SDSU freshman to have a 10-point, 10-rebound, three-block and two-assist game in the last 23 years (the other to accomplish the feat was Kawhi Leonard in 2009-10). Mensah led the team in field goal percentage (.541), offensive rebounds (80) and blocks (39). His 187 total rebounds and 39 blocks ranked second among Mountain West freshman. He is not related to teammate Joel Mensah.

- After a sound freshman season, Jordan Schakel returned in 2018-19 and improved in every statistical category. The sharpshooter made 41.5 percent of his three-point attempts (44-of-106) as he cemented himself as the team's top shooting guard coming back in 2019-20. He made at least one three-pointer in 21 games, and four in a game three times including a 4-of-6 effort in a home win over Brigham Young. Schakel, who committed 15 turnovers in 651 minutes last year, has 24 in two seasons and 1,106 total minutes (less than one turnover (.086) per 40 minutes played).

- With the graduation of Devin Watson and Jeremy Hemsley, who combined in their careers to average 12.3 points, 3.0 assists and 2.5 rebounds, head coach Brian Dutcher will replace his starting backcourt for the 2019-20 season. Look for transfers Malachi Flynn, a junior from Washington State, and senior KJ Feagin, from Santa Clara, to fill those rolls. The two have combined to average 13.6 points, 3.8 assists and 2.9 rebounds in their college careers.

- Malachi Flynn sat out the 2018-19 season after transferring from Washington State, but is ready to go in 2019-20. The high-scoring guard from Tacoma, Wash., averaged 15.8 points, 3.4 rebounds and 4.3 assists in 2017-18, his last season with the Cougars. He had 10 games with at least 20 points in 2017-18, including a 30-point effort vs. Colorado and a 24-point, five-rebound and six-assist performance vs. the Aztecs in November of 2017, at the Wooden Legacy in Fullerton. For his career, he has averaged 12.8 points, 3.2 rebounds and 3.6 assists in 62 games (61 starts).

- KJ Feagin is a graduate transfer from Santa Clara who has one year of eligibility and will compete for the Aztecs in 2019-20. Rated the #2 point guard by ESPN and STADIUM as well as #17 (ESPN) & #19 (STADIUM) overall on their lists of transfers who are immediately available to play, Feagin finished a four-year career at Santa Clara in 2018-19 ranked 26th on that program's scoring list (1,182 points) and third in both three-point field goal (.398) and free throw (.840) percentages. He earned All-Freshman Team, as well as second and first-team West Coast Conference (WCC) honors in his first three seasons with the Broncos. A starter in 81 of the 83 games in his career, he has averaged 14.2 points gand 4.0 assists, while shooting .443 from the field, including .398 from beyond the three-point line.

• Adam Seiko, who utilized his redshirt in 2017-18, appeared in 32 games last season. Known for his defense, the 6-3, 195-pound guard showed he can shoot the ball from the perimeter making 42.5 percent of his shots from the floor (17-of-40), as well as 14-of-33 from three-point range (42.4 percent). He set career-highs of 13 points and five rebounds against Cal State Dominguez Hills. The Boston. Mass., native committed just 19 turnovers in 389 minutes of action and 14-of-17 made buckets last season (82.3 percent) were three-pointers.

• Aguek Arop returns for his sophomore season after appearing in 31 games in 2018-19. The native of Omaha, Neb., averaged 3.1 points, 2.7 rebounds and 1.0 assists in 14.6 minutes of action per contest. His 18 blocks were the second most on the team and he ranked third in offensive rebounds (34) and fifth in assists (30). Among the non-starters he led the team in minutes, points, steals, blocks and rebounds, including offensive and defensive boards. Arop scored a season-high 11 points and grabbed five rebounds against Brown and contributed 10 points against New Mexico.

• Yanni Wetzell is a graduate transfer from Vanderbilt who has one year of eligibility and will compete for the Aztecs in 2019-20. The Auckland, New Zealand native averaged 5.9 points and 3.8 rebounds in his lone season of competition in the SEC and graduated with a degree in economics last Spring. Wetzell is a 6-10 forward who can score with his back to the basket, step out and hit from the three-point line, and run the floor.

• Joel Mensah, no relation to teammate Nathan Mensah, appeared in 15 games off the bench in 2018-19. He averaged 1.1 points and 1.0 rebounds and in 81 total minutes did not commit a turnover. Twice, vs. Texas Southern and at Boise State, scored a season-high four points. He is expected to take on a bigger roll in his sophomore season.

• Nolan Narain enters his senior season as the only Aztec who is a three-year letter winner. In 2018-19, the 6-10 forward played in a career-high 31 games and set career-bests in minutes (12.3/g), rebounds (2.2/g), blocks, assists and steals. Against Jackson State he scored 11 points on 3-of-4 shooting from the floor, including a three pointer, and hit each of his four free throw attempts in 12 minutes of action. For his career, he is a .577 shooter from the field and 55.6 percent of his rebound (69-of-124) have come off the offensive glass.

• Trey Pulliam begins his Aztecs career after two seasons at Navarro College in Corsicana, Texas, where he averaged 11.6 point, 4.9 assists and 3.6 rebounds in 58 games, of which 52 were starts. The 6-3 guard finished his career ranked second in assists (283), fifth in steals (101) and 11th in scoring (671) at Navarro College. After leading the team to the NJCAA Division I Region XIV championship game in 2018-19, his squad finished the year ranked 24th in the nation. He had 37 double-digit scoring games with a single-game high 30 points. He also dished out a career-high 10 assists on three occasions.

• Caleb Giordano, a 6-3 sophomore transfer, took a his redshirt season in 2018-19. The La Mesa, Calif., native spent one season at San Diego Miramar College, playing in 28 games with 14 starts. He averaged 9.1 points, 2.8 rebounds and 1.3 assists, while shooting 44.8 percent from the floor, 73.4 percent from the free-throw line and 30.6 percent from behind the arc.

• Keshad Johnson, a 6-7 forward, was rated by ESPN as a four-star prospect and one of the top-25 high school players in California last year. He led San Leandro (Calif.) High with 14.4 points, 8.0 rebounds, 3.0 assists, 2.3 blocks, 1.9 steals and had nine double doubles. Johnson was named the West Alameda County Conference-Foothill League's Most Valuable Player and a San Francisco Chronicle All-Metro Boys performer in 2018-19 for guiding his team to a 24-6 overall record, a West Alameda County Conference-Foothill League title and the CIF State Boys Basketball Division I playoffs. BRIAN DUTCHER

Head Coach
Third Season • 21st Season Overall at SDSU • Minnesota, 1982

Brian Dutcher, a long-time San Diego State men's basketball assistant coach, begins his third season as head coach. Dutcher completed his first year at the helm in 2017-18, following Steve Fisher's retirement announcement on April 11, 2017. Dutcher, who was on Montezuma Mesa for all of Fisher's 18 seasons, held the title of associate head coach/head coach in waiting the previous six years and is the program's 15th head coach.

Last season, Dutcher guided San Diego State to a 21-13 record which included multiple victories over nationally ranked Nevada. He is the only head coach in program history to record 20+ wins in each of his first two seasons and for the second year in a row directed his squad to the championship game of the Mountain West Championship tournament.

In his first season, Dutcher led the Aztecs to the 2018 Mountain West tournament title and the NCAA tournament, the program's first appearance in three seasons. He was the only first-year head coach in the NCAA tournament and SDSU ultimately finished the year with a 22-11 record.

Over the course of his 20-year career at San Diego State, Dutcher has helped the Aztecs reach the post-season 14 times, including nine trips to the NCAA tournament, win a conference-best 11 Mountain West titles and record 14 seasons of at least 20 victories.

Since 2008-09, Dutcher and SDSU twice advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 (2011, 2014) and NIT semifinal round (2009, 2016), won at least 25 games seven times and captured eight MW championships (five regular season, three tournament).

Dutcher arrived at SDSU shortly after Fisher was hired on March 26, 1999. In his first year in "America's Finest City," the Aztecs won only five games, but improved upon their win total from the season before. After that, San Diego State posted a 14-14 record in 2000-01, before winning the 2002 MW Championship, earning an NCAA tournament bid and finishing with a 21-12 record. The 2002-03 campaign saw SDSU receive an NIT invitation, which culminated in the program's first Division I postseason victory.

After helping attract the first McDonald's All-American to the 2002-03 squad, Dutcher assisted in securing the signatures of future starters and all-league performers Brandon Heath and Marcus Slaughter. The duo started their first two seasons on The Mesa, leading to the 2005-06 season that produced the school's first Mountain West regular-season and tournament title sweep.

The Aztecs advanced to the NCAA tournament and ultimately won a then-school-record 24 games. That appearance led to a string of 10 consecutive postseason berths.

From the 2006-07 campaign through 2008-09, San Diego State registered 20 or more wins and went to three straight NITs. In 2009, the Aztecs advanced to the NIT semifinals and broke the previous school record with 26 victories.

The run to the NIT semifinals was a springboard to the most successful run in SDSU basketball history. Led by future NBA first-round draft pick and NBA champion Kawhi Leonard, the 2009-10 Aztecs won the MW Championship, advanced to the NCAA tournament and fell four points shy of moving on to the second round before finishing with a 25-9 record.

The NCAA experience from the 2009-10 squad proved fruitful in 2010-11 when it returned all five starters, including Leonard, and a freshman named Jamaal Franklin, who would turn out to be a future MW Player of the Year and NBA draft selection. With Dutcher on staff, SDSU won its first 20 games of the year, shared the MW regular-season title and captured the MW tournament crown. The Aztecs moved on to the NCAA tournament as a No. 2 seed and won the program's first Division I NCAA tournament game. San Diego State, which was ranked as high as No. 4 and received first-place votes at one point in the season, advanced to the Sweet 16 and fell to the eventual national champion, finishing with a school-record 34 wins, a mark that still stands today. The Aztecs' also found themselves in the final top-25 polls, ranking sixth in the AP and 11th in the USA Today Coaches Poll.

Five months after SDSU's record-setting 2010-11 campaign, the University elevated Dutcher from associate head coach to associate head coach/head coach in waiting.

In his first season with his new title, Dutcher and the Aztecs advanced to the 2012 NCAA tournament as an at-large team and recorded 26 wins. The next year, SDSU was an at-large selection to the 2013 NCAA tourney, moved on to the round of 32 for the second time in three years and finished with 23 victories.

Another NCAA Sweet 16 run was in the cards in Dutcher's third season as the head coach in waiting. The Aztecs opened the season by winning 21 of their first 22 games, including 20 in a row at one point, and were led by seniors Xavier Thames, who would become an NBA draft pick, and Josh Davis. SDSU won the program's second outright Mountain West regular-season title and later swept through two games in Spokane, Washington, to secure its second Sweet 16 appearance in four seasons. San Diego State compiled 31 wins and finished the season ranked 13th in the AP and 12th in the Coaches after rising to as high as fifth nationally in both polls.

The 2014-15 campaign saw the Aztecs spend their fifth straight season in the top 25. In the process of winning 27 games, San Diego State grabbed its second straight MW regular-season crown and earned an at-large invitation to the NCAA tournament where they defeated St. John's in the round of 64. One season later, the Aztecs found themselves in the NIT after winning the MW by three games with a 16-2 record. Nevertheless, SDSU won three games and qualified for the NIT semifinals, eventually logging 28 victories.

In his final season as associate head coach/head coach in waiting (2016-17), San Diego State posted a 19-14 record despite experiencing a rash of injuries.

Before Dutcher arrived at San Diego State, he served as assistant coach and later associate head coach at Michigan under Fisher. He spent 10 seasons on the Wolverine staff, establishing himself as one of the nation's top assistant coaches. His first year in Ann Arbor was 1989 and resulted in a national title for Michigan as he assisted then-interim head coach Fisher on the bench.

The Bloomington, Minn., native led UM's recruiting efforts in 1990-91 when the Wolverines inked Juwan

Howard, Ray Jackson, Jimmy King, Jalen Rose and Chris Webber. The "Fab Five" is considered perhaps the best recruiting class in NCAA history. Dutcher helped lead that group to nearly 100 wins, two berths in the NCAA championship game and a regional final over a four-year period. He was also on the Michigan staff for an NIT championship (1997).

Dutcher's recruiting prowess, however, was demonstrated by more than just the "Fab Five" haul. Michigan had the nation's top-ranked recruiting class in 1993-94 and in 1994-95, with a group that included Maurice Taylor and Jerod Ward. The accomplishment marked the first time that a university had the nation's top class in consecutive years, according to recruiting analyst Bob Gibbons.

Dutcher was born Oct. 30, 1959, in Alpena, Mich. He attended Jefferson High School in Bloomington, Minn., and went on to earn a bachelor's degree in physical education from Minnesota in 1982. While an undergraduate, he worked for his father, then-Gopher head coach Jim Dutcher. He then spent one season in the prep ranks at Apple Valley (Minn.) High School before becoming a graduate assistant at Illinois, where he earned his master's degree in physical education and athletic administration.

While in Champaign, Dutcher helped Lou Henson lead the Illini to a Big Ten championship, two appearances in the Sweet 16 and one regional final.

Dutcher's first full-time coaching job came at South Dakota State, where he spent three seasons helping turn around the Division II program before departing in 1988 for Michigan.

His final season in Ann Arbor ended with the Wolverines claiming the first-ever Big Ten Tournament championship.
