THE CHICAGO STATE GAME

- San Diego State and Chicago State are meeting for the first time in the history of both schools. It is also SDSU's first meeting against a school from the Great West Conference.
- SDSU faces a Chicago State team coached by a former Aztec in Tracy Dildy. The second-year head coach played on Montezuma Mesa for two seasons (1985-86, 1986-87) and averaged 3.0 points and 1.1 rebounds, while playing in 57 games (13 starts).

- The Aztecs are playing their final non-conference game of the season. The contest, however, is the fifth of a season-long six-game homestand. SDSU opens MW play on Saturday against UNLV.

No. 22/22 SDSU Plays Host to Chicago State in Final Non-Conference Tilt

- No. 22/22 San Diego State puts the finishing touches on its non-conference schedule on Tuesday as it welcomes Chicago State to Viejas Arena. Game time is set for 7 p.m. PT and tickets for the game are half-off. Channel 4 San Diego will televise the game live locally. The Mtn., meanwhile, will simulcast the first-ever meeting between the schools on a national scale.
- The Aztecs have won a season-best six straight games and are off to the second-best Division I start in school history at 13-2. Last year's record-setting squad won at least seven games in a row three times, including 20 straight to open the campaign.
- San Diego State played only once last week and defeated San Diego Christian, 83-52, at Viejas Arena. The Aztecs, who have not suffered a setback since Nov. 30, had five players score in double figures led by DeShawn Stephens' career-high 18 points. The junior connected on a career-high six free throws (6-8 FT) and grabbed eight rebounds. Frontcourt teammate Garrett Green added 14 points - his third straight double-figure scoring game - on a career-best 10-for-14 showing from the charity stripe.

A San Diego State Win Would...

- Extend San Diego State's winning streak to 55 games against foes not ranked the USA Today/ESPN Coaches' Top-25 Poll.
- Extend SDSU's winning streak to seven games, which would match the ninth-longest winning streak in school history.
- Extend SDSU's non-league home winning streak vs. teams not ranked in the Coaches' poll to 33 games.
- Give the Aztecs a 14-2 record, which would extend the second-best start to a season in the school's Division I history. The 2010-11 squad started its campaign with a 20-0 record.
- Give San Diego State an overall record of 48-5 since the start of the 2010-11 season.

Defense Wins

■ After giving up a season-high 85 points to nationally ranked Creighton, San Diego State has buckled down defensively and not allowed more than 63 points. Since the loss, the Aztecs have allowed an average of 55.0 points per game. The last six games, all of which have been Aztec victories, SDSU has allowed, in order, 63 points to nationally ranked California, 62 to San Diego on the road, 55 to UC Riverside, another 55 to Elon, 43 to Redlands and 52 to San Diego Christian.

Offense Wins, Too

■ As good as SDSU's defense has been, its offense has been producing big numbers.
 ■ In the last four games, the Aztecs have scored at least 80 points and are averaging 84.5 points and shooting 53.0 percent from the field.
 ■ Over the last five games, SDSU is averaging 82.4 points and shooting 52.4 percent from the floor.

Tough Out

■ San Diego State has had great success over the years inside Viejas Arena. Since 2005-06, the Aztecs are 91-12 (.883) at Viejas, including 38-3 (.927) since the beginning of 2009-10.
 ■ San Diego State has won 40 straight against unranked teams at home.
 ■ SDSU has won 32 of its last 33 home games vs. non-league foes.

One of the Big Boys

■ After its win against San Diego Christian, San Diego State improved to 98-24 since the beginning of the 2008-09 season.
 ■ The 98 victories are the seventh-most in Division I (through games of Jan. 8) trailing only Duke (110), Kansas (107), Syracuse (102), Kentucky (101), Brigham Young (101) and Ohio State (100).
 ■ SDSU's .803 winning percentage during that same time is sixth-best behind Kansas (.863), Duke (.853), Syracuse (.816), Brigham Young (.815) and Ohio State (.806).
 ■ Starting with the beginning of the 2010 football season through games of Jan. 8, San Diego State ranks first in the nation in combined football and men's basketball victories. The Aztecs lead the pack with 64 combined wins and is ahead of second-place Brigham Young (63).
 ■ San Diego State's combined men's basketball and football winning percentage of .821 is also tops in the nation ahead of second-place Ohio State (.809).

Among the Nation's Best

■ San Diego State has seen its name associated with the AP Top 25 for the last 29 polls, which is re-

SDSU-CHICAGO STATE SERIES HISTORY

Date	Location	Score

First Meeting

markable considering it had never been ranked prior to the 2010-11 campaign.

- The Aztecs were in all 19 polls a season ago, peaking as high as No. 4 in 2010-11, and have seen their name in the preseason and weeks 1-9 polls.
- SDSU is receiving 313 votes in the AP, which is good for 22nd, and 131 in the Coaches' poll, which puts them also in 22nd place. The Aztecs moved up two spots in the AP and three spots in the Coaches' from a week ago.
- San Diego State has been in both major top-25 polls for two consecutive weeks. A complete poll tracker is available on page 6.

Improved Free-Throw Shooting

- Prior to the San Diego Christian game, Garrett Green and DeShawn Stephens were a combined 21-for-62 from the free-throw line (33.9 percent). The extra practice time at the line, however, has paid dividends as the duo was a combined 16-for-22 (72.7 percent) vs. the Hawks. Green finished by going 10-for-14 from the line, while Stephens made six of his eight attempts. Both totals were personal bests.

Williams Producing

- In his first consistent minutes since the first three games of the season, Alec Williams has produced some solid numbers of late.
- In his last five games, Williams is averaging 8.6 points and 4.4 rebounds in 16.8 minutes. The junior is also shooting 65.2 percent from the field, 42.9 percent from beyond the arc and 90.9 percent from the charity stripe.
- In his last four games alone, Williams is averaging 9.8 points on 68.4 percent shooting.
- In his first nine games of the year, Williams' averages were: 2.3 points, 1.6 rebounds, 32.0 percent shooting, 28.6 percent from three, 42.9 percent from the charity stripe.
- For the first time in his career, Williams scored in double figures in three straight games (10.0 ppg) and grabbed a career-high seven rebounds vs. Redlands.

Frontcourt Efficiency

- San Diego State's frontcourt may have had its most productive outing of the season against Elon and it could not have come at a better time with starting point guard Xavier Thames out of the lineup with a strained MCL.
- The frontcourt of Garrett Green, Tim Shelton, Alec Williams and DeShawn Stephens combined for 35 points on 16-of-20 shooting, 19 rebounds, seven assists, two blocked shots and just two turnovers.

Unlikely Contributor

- Narbeh Ebrahimian, from Glendale Community College in Glendale, Calif., was just a walk-on who came to open tryouts and was invited to workout with the team when practices began in mid-October with no guarantees.
- The junior from Glendale, Calif., then found himself suited up for the game vs. California and made the trip across town to San Diego. It was not until the game vs. UC Riverside that he had his name called. It was not garbage time either. Ebrahimian entered the game with 11:06 remaining in regulation and ultimately finished with a point and a rebound in five minutes.
- Ebrahimian has played in the last four games and is averaging 1.8 points and 2.3 rebounds.

Rahon Being Rahon

- Since injuring his left foot just prior to the season opener, James Rahon struggled with his perimeter shot. In the eight games leading up to the UC Riverside game, the junior was just 6-of-28 from beyond the arc (21.4 percent). Everything changed against the Highlanders, however, as he hit a career-high-matching five threes (5-8 3FG) and finished with a game-high 19 points. His scoring output was just his fifth double-figure scoring game of the campaign.

Charge!

- Steve Fisher has said the charge is this year's team's blocked shot. To date, Tim Shelton has taken a team-high 16. A game-by-game breakdown is located in the statistics section of these game notes.

Dropping Dimes

- Xavier Thames had an incredible game in the road game at San Diego with his second career double-double. What made it more impressive was the fact it was a points-assists double-double. The sophomore had 11 points and a career-high 11 assists.
- The 11 dimes were tied for the most in the Steve Fisher era. Deandre Moore accomplished the feat twice, while Lorenzo Wade and Richie Williams did it once apiece.
- The points-assists double-double was the first since Wade went for 25 points and 11 assists vs. Colorado State on March 1, 2008.
- The 11 assists were the most by an Aztec in a road game since Dec. 1, 1986, when Tracy Dildy had 11 at UC Santa Barbara.

Breakout Game

- Junior DeShawn Stephens had his finest game as an Aztec at San Diego when he went for a then-career-high 16 points and a career-high-matching nine rebounds. He played a personal-best 32 minutes.
- The double-figure scoring performance was his second of the season and his 7-of-8 shooting exhibition was a personal-record.

Thames Makes History

- At UC Santa Barbara, Xavier Thames exploded for a then-career-high 20 points and a personal-record 10 rebounds. With his performance, Thames became the first point guard during the Steve Fisher era, which is in its 13th season, to record a 20-point, 10-rebound game.
- Thames was the first SDSU point guard to register a double-double since Richie Williams went for 14 points and 11 rebounds at TCU on Feb. 28, 2009.
- Thames followed his historic performance with a career-high 21 points the next game vs. No. 22 Creighton.

Making an Early Case for Sixth Man of the Year

- Jamaal Franklin is certainly making his case as one of the top sixth men in the country despite starting the last four games. The sophomore is averaging 15.1 points, 6.0 rebounds, 1.3 assists and 1.4 steals in 25.6 minutes. His scoring, rebounding and steals averages rank second on the team.
- Franklin has scored at least eight points in all but one game this season and has reached the double-figure scoring plateau 11 times. To date, he already has scoring efforts of 31, 26 and 21 points this season.

20-Point Efforts

- So far this season, San Diego State has received 11 20-point scoring efforts from four different players, which is a lot through 15 games considering last year's 34-3 squad enjoyed 21 such performances by five different Aztecs.
- The Aztecs had at least one 20-point scorer in a season-long four straight games before the streak was broken vs. UC Riverside. In the game vs. UCR, James Rahon finished with a game-high 19 as did Jamaal Franklin in the very next game vs. Elon.
- Chase Tapley has five 20-point games, Jamaal Franklin has three, Xavier Thames has two, and James Rahon has one.

Winning the Close Ones

- San Diego State has lived on the edge at times this season as it has played six games that have been decided by four points or less, with two going into overtime. Additionally, the Aztecs had one road outing, at San Diego, where they were forced to rally from a 12-point first-half deficit.
- Since the beginning of last season, the Aztecs have been hard to beat in games decided by three points or less, posting an 9-1 record.
- San Diego State's overtime record over the last 13 games has been quite impressive as well. The Aztecs have won three consecutive OT games and are 12-1 in their last 13.

Wily Veteran

- Tim Shelton has been around the block being a fifth-year senior and his court savvy proves it.
- His effectiveness will never be shown on the stat sheet as he does things that head coach Steve Fisher says, "Wins games for you."
- Fisher's statement was never more true than in the game vs. Long Beach State as Shelton took four charges, which changed the complexion of the game, especially in the second half.
- If you thought the four charges taken vs. LBSU was impressive, Shelton one-upped himself at No. 23/23 Arizona by taking six more charges and adding six points, six rebounds and three assists in 33 minutes.
- To date, Shelton has taken 16 charges, which is an average of 1.33 per game.

Shooting the Lights Out on the Road

- Chase Tapley has been lights out on the road this season averaging 20.3 points. The junior is shooting 51.1 percent from the floor and a remarkable 58.3 percent from beyond the arc (14-for-24). More impressive is the fact that two of the three games have come against two nationally ranked foes in Baylor and Arizona.

Taking the "Free" in Free Throws Literally

- Jamaal Franklin is making a living at the free-throw line and is a major reason why he is averaging 15.1 points an outing.
- The sophomore started the season by missing his first two, but since then, he has been nearly automatic as he has gone on to sink 52 of his last 66, including 20 in a row at one point, to get his average up to a team-best 76.5 percent (min. 30 att.).
- Entering the Chicago State game, 24.6 percent of his scoring production has come from the charity stripe.

Held in Check

- San Diego State is pretty much a lock to win when holding opponents to less than 60 points. The Aztecs extended their winning streak to 40 games when they limited San Diego Christian to 52 points.
- SDSU is 113-10 in the Fisher era when its opponent scores less than 60 points.

Wearing Out the Nylon

- Junior Chase Tapley, the lone returning starter, has been a consistent scoring option for SDSU, averaging 16.9 points on 52.0 percent shooting and a pretty good 51.3 percent from beyond the arc.
- Tapley has five 20-point efforts already this season, including a career-high 28 at No. 11/12 Baylor, 25 vs. No. 24/23 California and 23 at San Diego.

■ Tapley, who had three 20-point games in four games earlier this season, was the first player to accomplish the feat since Kawhi Leonard did it in the first four games of last season, while averaging 20.5 points. Tapley and Leonard arrived at San Diego State together in time for the 2009-10 campaign. Leonard went on to become the 15th overall pick in the 2011 NBA Draft.

Green Giant

- Garrett Green has been huge in the middle for the Aztecs as he is averaging a team-best 6.6 rebounds.
- His top performance to date include a game-high 11 rebounds vs. Bryant and Southern Utah. Against No. 24/23 California, Green finished with a game-high 10 boards.
- He has had at least seven rebounds eight times this season and in six of his last 10 outings.

Tapley Named Co-MW Player of the Week

- Junior Chase Tapley is a two-time Mountain West Co-Player of the Week this season.
- Tapley earned the award on Dec. 5, after he averaged 20.0 points, 4.0 rebounds, 1.0 blocks and 2.5 steals, while shooting 53.3 percent from the floor and 55.6 percent from three-point distance in games vs. nationally ranked Creighton and California.
- On Nov. 14, Tapley won his first career weekly award after averaging 19.7 rebounds, 5.0 rebounds, 3.7 assists and 5.0 steals, while shooting 54.3 percent from the field, 50.0 percent from three-point range and 77.8 percent from the charity stripe. The Aztecs defeated Bryant, Southern Utah and UC Davis that week.

Holding Its Own

- San Diego State went 10-73 in its first 83 games vs. teams ranked in the AP Top-25. Things have certainly turned as SDSU is a respectable 10-11 in its last 21 against AP-ranked squads. In home games vs. Associated Press Top-25 squads, SDSU is 5-3 in its last eight, which includes the decision over No. 24 California. In road/neutral games vs. AP-ranked foes, meanwhile, the Aztecs have gone 4-4 in their last eight, which includes this season's victory at No. 23 Arizona.

The Lowdown on the Arizona Game

- San Diego State defeated No. 23/23 Arizona earlier this season at McKale Center to snap the Wildcats' 22-game home winning streak. The Aztecs never trailed in the 61-57 victory.
- As a ranked team, Arizona had won 62 straight games at McKale Center against unranked competition until San Diego State held them to a season-low 33.3-percent shooting performance.
- SDSU defeated Arizona for the second consecutive time for just the second time in school history.
- SDSU made eight of its 12 three-point attempts. The 66.7-percent accuracy marked a season high.

California Livin'

- San Diego State has been one of the best programs in the West, having won 20 or more games six straight seasons, including three consecutive with 25 or more, and advancing to the postseason in each of those years as well.
- Last year's 34-3 record and NCAA Sweet 16 appearance solidified its spot as one of the top West Coast programs and the top team in the state of California. The Aztecs have currently won 23 straight games against California universities, a streak that spans two-plus seasons. SDSU was 9-0 this season vs. schools that call California their home.

Duo With Diplomas

- Seniors Tim Shelton and Garrett Green are in their final year having already obtained their degrees.
- The duo is enrolled in graduate school and pursuing their master's degrees in education leadership.
- Shelton graduated from San Diego State last May, while Green earned his degree from LSU in August.

Coaching Stability

- Steve Fisher is the longest tenured head coach in the 13-year history of the Mountain West. In fact, he is the only men's basketball coach to be in the league from the conference opened its doors.
- Associate head coach/head coach in waiting Brian Dutcher has also been with Fisher for all 13 years.

Mountain West Preseason Predictions

- San Diego State was picked to finish in third place in the 2011-12 preseason Mountain West media poll. The Aztecs received 158 points to finish behind New Mexico (203 points; 22 first-place votes) and UNLV (183; 4).
- Sophomore Xavier Thames was selected as the preseason Mountain West Newcomer of the Year by the league's voting media. Thames is eligible this season after sitting out 2010-11 following his transfer from Washington State.

STEVE FISHER

21st FULL SEASON • 13th SEASON AT SDSU • ILLINOIS STATE, 1967

Steve Fisher has guided the Aztec basketball program to unparalleled heights. In 12 seasons, he has taken a program that regularly missed out on the conference postseason tournament, to one which has become of the best programs on the West Coast and has the Aztecs routinely mentioned among the elite teams in the country.

The best news for SDSU fans is that the school exercised its contract option on Fisher prior to the 2011-12 season, which keeps the coach on Montezuma Mesa through 2014-15.

When Fisher arrived on the scene in March of 1999, he found a basketball program that wasn't good enough to be called average. The Aztecs had suffered through 13 losing seasons in 14 years. Members of the school's last NCAA team were in the early stages of middle age. The expectations were set. The Aztecs were expected to lose. The year before Fisher's arrival on campus, San Diego State won just four games.

Now those days are a distant memory. Fisher guided San Diego State to the NCAA Tournament in 2002, 2006, 2010 and 2011, the last of which culminated with a 34-3 record and an appearance in the Sweet 16. Fisher has also taken the Aztecs to the NIT in 2003, 2007, 2008 and 2009. In 2009, SDSU advance to the national semifinals. San Diego State has currently been to the postseason six straight years.

On March 26, 1999, San Diego State announced its arrival on the basketball scene in the form of a news conference to introduce its new coach, Steve Fisher. Fresh from a stint with the Sacramento Kings and with three appearances in the Final Four and a national championship in his pocket, he rolled up his sleeves and went to work. And work was needed. It looked to be a daunting challenge and yet the man with one of the highest winning percentages in NCAA Tournament history had no reservations.

No head-coaching career, at any level, started quicker than that of Steve Fisher. Six games into his head-coaching career he was undefeated and sporting a national championship ring. And the success didn't stop with the national title.

Fisher's eight-plus seasons at Michigan produced a 184-82 (.692) record, nine postseason tournament berths and three trips to the NCAA championship game, including the magical run to the 1989 national title.

Under Fisher, the Wolverines also claimed an NIT championship, won at least 20 games four times and finished among the top three in the powerful Big Ten Conference five times. In 1995, Michigan set a league record by holding opponents to just 39.4 percent shooting from the floor.

Fisher and Co., raised the bar even higher in the postseason. His seven NCAA Tournament teams at Michigan combined for a 20-6 record, which put him fourth among active coaches and ninth in NCAA history with a winning percentage of .769 in the national bracket after his stint in Ann Arbor. Only 13 coaches have taken more teams to the Final Four, including just five that are still active. He is one of three coaches to take three squads to the Final Four in the first five years of a head-coaching career, and one of just six coaches to lead a team to a NIT title as well as the NCAA.

His accomplishments may be even greater at San Diego State. In 2001-02 he led the Aztecs to the postseason for the first time since 1985 and for just the fourth time ever. The 21 wins were second most for the school as a Division I program and the most since 1985. The fact that those numbers came after just three seasons signifies what is one of the great recent turnarounds in college basketball.

He followed that up with a third consecutive season with a .500 or better record in 2002-03 and led SDSU back to the postseason for the second consecutive season for only the second time in the school's Division I history. In addition, SDSU claimed its first Division I postseason victory with a win in the NIT.

In 2006-07, he led SDSU to the MWC regular season and tournament crowns and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. That team finished with a Division I then-school-record 24 wins. And the last five seasons, Fisher has led the Aztecs to five additional 20-win seasons and postseason appearances, including a school-record 34 wins, both the MWC regular season and tournament championships, and a NCAA Sweet 16 berth in 2011.

Game 1

rv/- San Diego State 75
Bryant 63

Nov. 11, 2011 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 11,734

SAN DIEGO - On a night where San Diego State unveiled its 2011 Mountain West regular-season championship banner, its 2011 MWC tournament title banner and its NCAA Sweet 16 appearance banner, the Aztecs ultimately treated 11,734 fans to a 75-63 season-opening victory over Bryant at the Basketball Travelers Classic inside Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs dressed just seven scholarship players as projected starters Jamaal Franklin and James Rahon were out due to a team suspension and foot injury, respectively. With all the emotion surrounding the banners and the short bench, SDSU started the game sluggishly.

The contest was tied at 4-4 with just under two minutes having gone by. The Bulldogs, however, caught fire and stymied the Aztecs to lead, 22-15, with 6:32 remaining in the half. A 13-5 run to end the frame got San Diego State back into the game and it carried a 28-27 lead into the locker room.

The Aztecs continued their surge as play resumed and promptly went on a 15-7 run to go up 43-35. All told, SDSU used a 28-12 spurt to take control of the game.

San Diego State's offensive attack was grounded momentarily when Frankie Dobbs hit back-to-back three-pointers to bring the Bulldogs to within four. SDSU, however, went on another 13-5 run to move ahead by 12 and Bryant failed to get any closer than eight points the rest of the way.

The Aztecs received three stellar efforts, including two double-doubles by Garrett Green and Chase Tapley. Green finished with 14 points and 11 rebounds, while Tapley racked up a game-high 20 points, a career-high 11 rebounds, six assists and three steals. Xavier Thames added a career-high 16 points, four rebounds and eight assists. Between Tapley and Thames, they combined for 14 assists and two turnovers.

Game 2

rv/- San Diego State 70
Southern Utah 37

Nov. 12, 2011 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 11,765

SAN DIEGO - Chase Tapley led a group of four Aztecs who scored in double figures as San Diego State built a huge first-half lead en route to a 70-37 rout of Southern Utah in front of 11,765 fans at Viejas Arena at the Basketball Travelers Classic.

Southern Utah scored the first basket of the game and San Diego State took over from there going on a 15-0 run to take a commanding 15-2 lead. The run was halted briefly by a Ray Jones, Jr., free throw with 9:40 remaining in the first half. The Aztecs ultimately took a 20-3 lead less than a minute later.

Two straight baskets by Southern Utah cut the deficit to 13 with eight minutes to go in the frame, but that was as close as the Thunderbirds would get as San Diego State dominated the rest of the first half to take a 41-15 lead at halftime.

Southern Utah scored the first two baskets of the second half, but the Aztecs responded with an 11-2 run to increase their lead to 35. The Thunderbirds managed to get the score to 55-26 as a result of a 7-2 run, but San Diego State answered right back with an 11-3 spurt to extend its lead to a game-high 37 points before earning the 33-point decision.

Tapley led all scorers with 16 points, while Jamaal Franklin scored 13. LaBradford Franklin and DeShawn Stephens, meanwhile, scored 12 and 11 points, respectively.

Jones, Jr., led Southern Utah with nine points and Wade Collie led the team with five rebounds.

Game 3

rv/- San Diego State 89
UC Davis 74

Nov. 13, 2011 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 11,792

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State wrapped up its home tournament, the Basketball Travelers Classic, with its third consecutive double-figure victory, this time an 89-74 victory over UC Davis.

Chase Tapley continued his outstanding play by scoring 23 points and adding a career-high seven steals. As good as Tapley's performance was, Jamaal Franklin's was equally impressive. The sophomore came off the bench to score a career-high 31 points on 10-of-17 shooting, including a 4-for-7 performance from beyond the arc and a 7-for-7 effort from the charity stripe.

The Aggies scored the first four points of the game and it was all Aztecs after that. Franklin fueled an 11-3 scoring run, which included back-to-back threes, to give SDSU a 15-9 lead with 12:25 left in the first half.

San Diego State would end the period by outscoring UC Davis by 13 points, which gave the Aztecs a healthy 48-29 lead at halftime.

SDSU held the Aggies in check for the first five-plus minutes of the second half before Franklin caught fire and scored five straight points. Franklin's points led to the Aztecs' 18-4 run and a 24-point lead.

UC Davis, however, slowly chipped away at its deficit and suddenly San Diego State's lead was down to 12 points after a Ryan Sypkens three-pointer with 3:34 left in regulation.

Franklin nailed a jumper and Xavier Thames added a free throw to thwart the comeback as the Aztecs emerged with the 15-point victory.

At the end of the game, Tapley was named most valuable player and to the all-tournament team. Thames joined Tapley on the all-tourney squad along with UC Davis' Josh Ritchart, Bryant's Alex Francis and Southern Utah's Ray Jones, Jr.

Game 4

#11/12 Baylor 77
rv/- San Diego State 67
Nov. 15, 2011 ♦ Waco, Texas
Ferrell Center ♦ Att.: 6,941

WACO, Texas - San Diego State, playing its fourth game in five days, had its rally come up short in falling to No. 11/12 Baylor, 77-67, at Ferrell Center. The mid-afternoon game was a part of ESPN's College Hoops Tip-Off Marathon.

The Aztecs received a game- and career-high 28 points from Chase Tapley, who made 10-of-17 shots, including 8-of-10 from three-point distance. The eight three-point field goals were a career high, one off the school record and equaled the Steve Fisher-era record.

The game was the first of the season for James Rahon, who missed the first three games of the campaign due to an injured left foot. The junior scored 10 points and added a career-high seven rebounds. Also scoring in double figures for SDSU was Jamaal Franklin (11 points) and Xavier Thames (10 points).

SDSU led by five midway through the first half thanks to eight unanswered points. Minutes later, Tapley hit a three to give the Aztecs a 23-21 lead, but an 11-1 Bear run put the home side up by eight with 1:42 left in the half.

Just when the game could have got out of hand, Tapley hit a three and Thames added two free throws to help SDSU pull to within two, 32-30, at halftime.

Tapley tied the game with the first bucket of the second half, but Baylor used a fullcourt press, which rattled the Aztecs.

San Diego State trailed, 36-34, with 15:45 to play and in just 2 minutes, 23 seconds, Baylor enjoyed a 10-point cushion. The Bears' lead eventually swelled to 16 with 9:20 left in regulation.

SDSU used a 9-2 run, with the final seven coming from Franklin, to trim the deficit to seven with 93 seconds left in the game. The Bears, however, went on to score seven straight points to put the game out of reach and improve to 3-0.

Game 5

USC 54
Nov. 17, 2011 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - Xavier Thames went the length of the floor and scored the game-winning lay-up with 1.8 seconds remaining in the game to lift San Diego State past USC, 56-54, in front of a sold-out Viejas Arena crowd.

The victory was just the second over the Trojans in 12 tries and snapped a five-game losing streak vs. USC. It was SDSU's first win in the series since Dec. 9, 1989.

Holding a 54-45 lead with 2:46 left in regulation, the Aztecs looked as if they were going to cruise to the win. The Trojans, however, received back-to-back three-pointers from Garrett Jackson to bring USC to within three with 97 seconds left.

After two empty San Diego State possessions, the Trojans came out of a timeout and promptly received a banked-in three-pointer from Maurice Jones to knot the score.

Then with seven seconds remaining, Thames took the ball the length of the court, with the help of a Tim Shelton screen, and connected on the game-winner.

SDSU trailed, 25-21, at halftime and took the lead with 11:44 left in the game when Chase Tapley knocked down a three. The Aztecs, who trailed by as many as six, never trailed the rest of the way en route to their sixth straight win over the Pac-12 Conference.

Jamaal Franklin led San Diego State with 14 points and Thames finished with 12 of his own. DeShawn Stephens, meanwhile, grabbed a game-high nine rebounds. As a team, led by Franklin's 5-for-5 effort from the free-throw line, the Aztecs made 13 of their 14 free-throw attempts.

Jones led all scorers with 15 points and was one of four Trojans in double figures. Jackson added 13 points, Aaron Fuller chipped in with 12 and a team-high seven rebounds, and Dewayne Dedmon contributed 10.

Nov. 19, 2011 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,094

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State rallied from a halftime deficit, but could not hold off Long Beach State as the 49ers forced overtime in the final seconds of the second half. The Aztecs, however, responded in overtime to defeat upstart LBSU, 77-73.

The Aztecs were led by Jamaal Franklin's 21 points and nine rebounds off the bench and James Rahon's 20-point effort. Xavier Thames, meanwhile, added 12 points.

Long Beach State, which was coming off a road win at No. 9 Pittsburgh, jumped out to a 10-point first-half lead less than five minutes into the game. The 49ers held a 40-30 lead with 1:50 left in the first half before the Aztecs closed the frame on a 7-0 run.

In the second half, LBSU hung on to its lead for the first 10 minutes. SDSU, however, was able to take its first lead of the game with 9:37 left in regulation. Long Beach State momentarily took the lead back, 51-50, 14 seconds later, but the Aztecs received back-to-back threes from Franklin and Tapley to take a five-point lead.

Down the stretch, LBSU rallied and was down 65-63 with three seconds remaining in regulation and Franklin fouled Casper Ware before the ball was inbounded. Ware, who finished with a game-high 26 points, stepped to the free-throw line and calmly made both free throws to send the game into overtime.

In the extra session, Thames hit three straight baskets at one point, the third of which resulted in a five-point Aztec lead. Then with SDSU ahead by two with four seconds left, Franklin sealed the game with a pair of free throws to send the Aztecs home with a win.

Game 7

rv/rv San Diego State 61
#23/23 Arizona 57

Nov. 23, 2011 ♦ Tucson, Ariz.
McKale Center ♦ Att.: 13,761

TUCSON, Ariz. - San Diego State jumped on No. 23/23 Arizona early and never looked back as it snapped the Wildcats' 22-game homecourt winning streak with its 61-57 decision at McKale Center.

The Aztecs won in Tucson against Arizona for just the second time in the history of the series, but won for the third consecutive outing overall. A year ago, SDSU won its 2011 NCAA Tournament second- and third-round games inside the building.

San Diego State scored first and the Wildcats responded on the next trip down. Chase Tapley returned the favor and the Aztecs were on their way to a 16-2 lead and ultimately a 21-4 advantage with 13:24 left in the first half. During its game-opening surge, SDSU received four three-pointers, including a pair from Tapley, who finished with 17 points.

Later with San Diego State ahead by 15 on an Alec Williams basket, Arizona stormed back with seven consecutive points while keeping SDSU scoreless for 4 minutes, 34 seconds. James Rahon stopped the drought with two free throws and the Aztecs were clinging to a 31-29 halftime lead.

In the first 8 minutes, 38 seconds of the second half, San Diego State, again, pounced on the Wildcats, outscoring them 23-12 to open a 13-point lead. The lead was pushed to double figures thanks to back-to-back threes by Jamaal Franklin to up the cushion to 11.

Arizona rallied and the Aztecs went cold as time wound down. The Wildcats trimmed the lead to six with 3:41 left in regulation and they found themselves down nine with 34 seconds to play. But a series of missed SDSU free throws and baskets by Arizona made the game close before the Aztecs eventually emerged with the four-point victory.

Game 8

UC Santa Barbara 75 (ot)

Nov. 26, 2011 ♦ Santa Barbara, Calif.
The Thunderdome ♦ Att.: 5,011

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. - For the second time in three games, San Diego State was pushed to overtime, but like its previous outing, came out on top as it emerged with the 76-75 decision at The Thunderdome.

The Aztecs were carried by an outstanding performance by Xavier Thames. The guard posted career-high numbers in points (20) and rebounds (10), while adding a game-high six assists and one turnover.

San Diego State looked like it would cruise as everything was clicking with a 17-10 lead, with more than nine minutes left in the first half. The Gauchos, however, went on a 13-3 run to take a three-point lead. They ultimately led by six at halftime.

SDSU briefly took a one-point lead with 17:38 to go in regulation, but UCSB answered with seven straight points to go ahead by six. The Aztecs could not seem to get over the hump as the game continued and the Gauchos seemed poised to upset SDSU. The visitors, however, kept plugging away and went on an 11-0 run to take a 62-59 advantage with 85 seconds left in regulation.

On UCSB's next possession, Orlando Johnson converted a three-point play to tie the game at 62. Then, SDSU's Jamaal Franklin and the Gauchos' Jaime Serna both made the front end of a one-and-one in the final 37 seconds as the contest went into overtime.

In OT, UC Santa Barbara enjoyed a 70-66 lead with 3:39 to go, but the Aztecs went Garrett Green bucket, Chase Tapley three and a Franklin dunk to go up by three. Franklin later would make three free throws to put San Diego State up by four with four seconds left. UCSB made a three on the next trip down, but the effort proved to be not enough.

Game 9

#rv/22 Creighton 85
rv/rv San Diego State 83

Nov. 30, 2011 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State suffered a rare home defeat at the hands of No. 22 Creighton, 85-83, in a Mountain West-Missouri Valley Challenge game at a sold-out Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs had their 27-game non-conference home winning streak snapped and had their 10-game November home winning streak halted after relinquishing a 17-point first-half lead and a four-point advantage at halftime.

SDSU was absolutely on fire for the better part of the first 13 minutes of the game. The Aztecs raced to a 6-0 lead early and the lead eventually grew to 10 with 11:32 left in the half.

Creighton scored five straight points and went on a 7-2 run to cut its deficit to five, but the Aztecs answered with 12 consecutive points to move ahead, 31-14. The Bluejays, however, went on a 21-9 run of their own and scored the final eight points of the half thanks to Doug McDermott to get within four at halftime.

In the second half, the Aztecs led by as many as eight with 12:54 to play in regulation and still owned a 62-57 lead with 8:38 to go. An 8-0 CU run gave the Jays a 65-62 lead, but Jamaal Franklin scored five points in SDSU's 5-2 spurt to tie the score at 67.

Down the stretch, San Diego State was forced to play from behind and trailed by six with 1:59 left in regulation. The Aztecs knocked down three three-pointers in the final minutes and ultimately got to within one with seven seconds left.

With five seconds on the clock, Jahenns Manigat hit his first free throw to put the Jays up by two, but missed the second. The loose rebound, however, went to CU and it called timeout and eventually won the game.

Game 10

rv/rv San Diego State 64
#24/23 California 63

Dec. 4, 2011 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State continued its dominance over the Pac-12 Conference, this time defeating No. 24/23 California, 64-63, in front of a sold-out Viejas Arena crowd.

The victory was SDSU's ninth straight over the league and improves its record to 3-0 vs. the conference this season. Two of this year's wins against the Pac-12 were against nationally ranked programs.

After California scored the first six points of the game, rest of the first half was a back-and-forth affair. It was not until the final five minutes of the half the game opened up. Chase Tapley scored four straight points and fueled SDSU's 12-2 run, including the final eight points of the half, to help the Aztecs take a 33-25 lead at halftime.

In the second half, California made a couple of runs, tied the game on two occasions and took a one-point lead with 6:33 to go in regulation. The Aztecs responded with five straight points, but a Golden Bear three-pointer cut the lead to one.

In the final moments of the game with San Diego State up by two, Garrett Green, who had a game-high 10 rebounds, missed a jumper and Tapley stepped in and grabbed the rebound only to have Jamaal Franklin be fouled by California. Franklin then stepped to the line and knocked down two free throws to give SDSU a four-point lead with 15 seconds left.

The Bears answered with a basket and then with eight seconds remaining, Tapley, who was fouled, knocked down both free throws to put San Diego State up four before settling for the one-point victory.

Tapley finished the game with 25 points on a career-high 10 field goals. The junior also added a game-high three steals.

California was led by Allen Crabbe's 23 points and nine rebounds.

Game 11

rv/rv San Diego State 74
San Diego 62

Dec. 7, 2011 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Jenny Craig Pavilion ♦ Att.: 4,708

SAN DIEGO - Behind three impressive individual performances, San Diego State was able to rally from a 12-point first-half deficit to upend San Diego, 74-62, at Jenny Craig Pavilion.

For the second straight game, Chase Tapley scored more than 20 points as he finished with a game-high 23. Xavier Thames, meanwhile, registered 11 points and a career-high 11 assists to post SDSU's first points-assists double-double since 2008. DeShawn Stephens added a career-high 16 points and nine rebounds to help the Aztecs defeat USD for the sixth consecutive time.

SDSU's winning streak looked to be in jeopardy in the first half after it fell behind, 14-2, after five-plus minutes of action. The Aztecs were being outplayed in every facet of the game early before finding any type of rhythm. Even when they were successful on offense, San Diego found ways to score and led by five with 2:47 left in the first half.

The Aztecs then scored seven straight points to take a 35-33 lead and finished the half on a 9-3 run head to the locker room up, 37-36. Tapley spearheaded the San Diego State rally with 16 first-half points.

SDSU opened the second period on a 9-2 run to open an eight-point lead, but USD chipped away and eventually took a 54-53 lead with 12:35 remaining.

San Diego State answered with eight consecutive points to retake the lead, 61-54, and never looked back. The Toreros got as close as five points with 4:11 to play, but a three-pointer by Jamaal Franklin, who finished with 11 points, sealed USD's fate as the Aztecs went on to record the 12-point win. The final margin was SDSU's largest at San Diego since winning by 23 on Feb. 25, 1975.

The Toreros were led by Chris Manresa's 14 points and 10 rebounds off the bench.

Game 12

UC Riverside 55

Dec. 19, 2011 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 11,555

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State led wire-to-wire and enjoyed a lead as large as 27 points before settling for an 80-55 victory over UC Riverside at Viejas Arena.

Nine of 10 Aztecs who saw the floor scored and seven recorded at least six points. SDSU was led by James Rahon's 19 points. The junior matched his career high with five three-pointers and ultimately finished 7-for-11 from the floor. Chase Tapley, meanwhile, added 17 points on 7-of-8 shooting.

San Diego State came out with its third starting lineup of the season as Jamaal Franklin was inserted into the rotation for Tim Shelton, who was given the night off due to a sore knee. The move paid off as Franklin got his teammates involved and had four assists in a first half where the Aztecs found themselves up 13-2 before the first media timeout. SDSU led by as many as 21 in the first half before entering the locker room ahead, 45-25.

The Highlanders scored seven straight points at the start of the second period to get within 13 points, but Aztecs would not allow the visitors to get any closer the rest of the way.

Midway through the second half, San Diego State went on an 11-0 run highlighted by five Rahon points and the Aztecs were up by 25 points and were well on their way to victory No. 10.

Franklin finished with a career-high five assists and most of the starters were on the bench in the final minutes, which gave two walk-ons, Narbeh Ebrahimian (1 points, 1 rebound) and Jeremy Castleberry (1 minute), the opportunity to play.

Elon 55

Dec. 22, 2011 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 11,370

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State survived an early first-half scare, but went on to defeat Elon, 81-55, at Viejas Arena. The Aztecs won despite playing without starting point guard Xavier Thames, who strained his MCL the day before the game.

The Phoenix hit five shots in a row, including three consecutive three-point field goals, to take a 13-9 lead less than five minutes into the game. The visitors connected on another three to take a 19-17 lead, but that is when San Diego State began to find its rhythm.

Garrett Green tied the game with a bucket and the Aztecs took a 22-19 lead after Chase Tapley buried one of his two three-pointers. Elon stopped the 5-0 run with a basket, but SDSU continued its offensive efficiency by closing the half on a 13-7 spurt to take a 37-28 lead.

Elon scored the first five points of the second half to cut the Aztec lead to four, but SDSU answered with a 13-0 run, which included nine straight Jamaal Franklin points, to move ahead by 17 points.

The 13 unanswered points was too much for the Phoenix to overcome as it never got closer than 15 points the rest of the way. San Diego State, meanwhile, continued to hit from all areas of the floor and its lead grew into the 20s as a result of shooting 55.7 percent from the floor.

Nine of the 10 Aztecs who saw the floor scored. Franklin led all players with 19 points and Tapley finished with 14. Green and Alec Williams added 10 points apiece, while DeShawn Stephens chipped in with eight points and a career-high nine rebounds.

Game 14

#25/rv San Diego State 94
Redlands 43

Dec. 30, 2011 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - Six Aztecs scored in double figures as San Diego State had no trouble with Redlands, a Division III school, and emerged with a 94-43 victory at a sold-out Viejas Arena.

SDSU was led by Jamaal Franklin who enjoyed his best all-around game in just his third career start. The sophomore scored a game-high 26 points, grabbed a career-high 10 rebounds and added personal-record numbers of five assists, three blocks and six assists.

In the first half alone, Franklin had 20 points, five rebounds, three assists, one block and five steals to help San Diego State to a 58-24 lead at halftime.

SDSU continued to overwhelm the Bulldogs in the second half despite the ever-changing players on the floor. The Aztecs had eight players play 21 or more minutes and had all nine score a minimum of two points and grab at least one rebound.

Joining Franklin in double figures was Chase Tapley (16 points), LaBradford Franklin (11 points, career-high five rebounds), Garrett Green (10 points), James Rahon (10 points) and Alec Williams (10 points, career-high seven rebounds). DeShawn Stephens, who made his first career start, added six points and a career-high nine boards.

Ultimately, San Diego State won by 51 points and the margin of victory was SDSU's largest in the Steve Fisher era, tied for the fourth largest in program history and was the largest since defeating Southern Cal College by 54 (103-49) on Dec. 2, 1998.

Game 15

#24/25 San Diego State 83
San Diego Christian 52

Jan. 5, 2012 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 10,857

SAN DIEGO - No. 24/25 San Diego State extended its winning streak to a season-long six games by defeating San Diego Christian, 83-52, at Viejas Arena.

It was another balanced effort by the Aztecs, who had five players score in double figures and all 10 players score at least a point. SDSU, which was without the services of starters Xavier Thames (knee) and Tim Shelton (rest), outrebounded the Hawks by 21 and shot 53.8 percent from the field.

The game was tied at 2-2 when SDSU took control of the contest. DeShawn Stephens scored two straight buckets and the Aztecs never looked back. In less than seven minutes, SDSU led by double figures and increased its lead to as much as 22 points with 2:36 to go in the half.

After carrying a 44-26 lead into the second half, San Diego State continued to roll and enjoyed a 23-point lead thanks to Jamaal Franklin's three-pointer. The Hawks, meanwhile, scored seven unanswered points to cut the SDSU lead to 55-39.

The game was scoreless for the next three minutes, but Alec Williams ended the drought with a layup that spurred a 7-0 Aztec run to push the lead back to 23. From that point forward, San Diego State cruised to the victory, which saw two walk-ons in Aaron Douglas and Ryan Staten see their first career action.

Stephens finished with a career-high 18 points and grabbed eight boards. Garrett Green added 14 points, while Franklin and Chase Tapley each had 11. Williams chipped in with 10 points and career-high eight rebounds.
