SDSU Women's Basketball Plays First Road MWC Contest Tuesday At UNLV

After a five-game homestand, the San Diego State women's basketball team plays its first road outing since Dec. 19, traveling to Las Vegas, Nev., for a Tuesday contest at UNLV at Cox Pavilion. Game time is set for a late 8 p.m. PT tip-off and will be broadcast live on The Mtn. with Tracy Warren (play-by-play) and Linda Sharp (analysis) calling the action. The match-up with the Lady Rebels is the second of three-straight nationally televised games for the Aztecs.

Both sides will take the court Tuesday looking for their first league victory of 2011. SDSU has dropped a pair of heartbreakers, losing to TCU last Wednesday and to Utah in overtime on Saturday. The Aztecs' two league losses are by a combined five points and gives the team four defeats by three or fewer points this season.

San Diego State, which is currently 6-8 overall, has owned an early double-figure lead in both MWC contests, only to find itself down by 12 or more points in the second half. In each instance, the Aztecs have then rallied to either take the lead (vs. Utah) or get to within a single possession (vs. TCU) in the final minutes, but still come up without the victory.

UNLV, meanwhile, is 7-9 on the year and played two conference road contests last week, falling 75-64 at BYU and 68-60 at TCU. The Lady Rebels just finished a five-game stint away from home and are 4-4 on the year on their home court with wins over two common opponents with the Aztecs in USD and Nevada.

Wednesday's 42nd all-time meeting between SDSU and UNLV will feature a live audio call by Chris Ello, as well as live stats on SDSU's official website, goaztecs.com.

Aztecs Drop Another Heartbreak In Overtime To Utah, 70-67

The San Diego State women's basketball team got a career-high 29 points from sophomore Courtney Clements and rallied from a 12-point halftime deficit to force overtime, but was unable to notch the game-winning bucket in the final seconds, falling to visiting Utah, 70-67, Saturday at Viejas Arena. The loss was the Aztecs' fourth this year and second in a row by three or fewer points and dropped them to 6-8 overall and 0-2 in conference play. The Utes, meanwhile, improved to 2-0 in league action and 9-7 on the season.

Clements (Long Beach, Calif.) had a career afternoon, making 12 of her 19 shot attempts from the field and finishing with 29 points, 10 more than her previous high of 19 in the season-opener with No. 16 UCLA. Clements' 29 points are the most by an Aztec this season and the guard also tallied a career-best four assists and pulled down five boards in 33 minutes of action.

SDSU senior Jessika Bradley (Sacramento, Calif.) notched her second double-double of the year and seventh of her career with 11 points and 11 rebounds. Center Paris Johnson (San Diego, Calif.) had eight points and four blocks, guard Sajoyia Griffin (San Antonio, Texas) also finished with eight points and guard Coco Davis (Sacramento, Calif.) had eight assists in playing all but one minute.

The Aztecs started strong for the second consecutive outing, running out to an 11-0 lead to start the afternoon before Utah was able to even get on the scoreboard at the 15:23 mark. The basket, however, only woke up the Ute offense as it reeled off an 8-0 run to close to within three at 11-8.

After missing her opening shot of the game, Utah's Iwalani Rodrigues did not miss for the remainder of the first half, making eight straight shots, including three from beyond the arc, to give the visitors a 12-point advantage at 39-27 heading into the locker room.

SDSU cut that deficit in half with three consecutive scores after the break and would eventually take the lead at 46-45 with 8:26 remaining. The Utes immediately countered with a Rodrigues triple and were up by five points with 1:58 left in regulation. Clements brought the Aztecs to within one point at 56-55 and was fouled on the made basket, but was unable to make the free throw and Utah went up by a pair on a free throw of its own with 38 seconds left on the clock.

Clements missed on a 3-pointer try, but sophomore Gabrielle Clark (Long Beach, Calif.) grabbed the rebound for SDSU and Bradley scored the tying bucket with 15 seconds to go to send it into overtime.

In the extra period, the two teams were tied once and traded the lead four times with the Aztecs going up by one on a Clements triple with 28 seconds left. After a timeout, however, Ute Michelle Plouffe made a jumper in the paint to give her team back the lead at 68-67, and on the ensuing possession, Davis' lay-up attempt with three seconds left caught the inside of the rim and Utah grabbed the rebound before hitting two free throws to close out the 70-67 victory.

Other Utah Notes

► SDSU advanced to overtime for the second consecutive meeting with Utah, as the Aztecs won a year ago in the MWC championship game, 70-60, in Las Vegas ... SDSU played its second overtime outing this season (also at USD), its first extra period at home since the Pepperdine loss last year and its first in an MWC regular-season contest since falling to Air Force in 2006.

► Utah is the 11th SDSU opponent to shoot less than 40 percent.

► The Aztecs have had their largest lead in a loss in back-to-back outings, going up in the first half by 10 points vs. TCU and running out to an 11-0 advantage against Utah.

► SDSU had a season-low for both turnovers with 13 and in fouls with 12. The Aztecs had only six giveaways in the final 25 minutes of the game.

► Utah's eight triples are the most allowed by SDSU this season and are one fewer than the Aztecs gave up in the previous four outings combined (9-for-50).

► The Utah game was Beth Burns' 400th career game as head coach of the Aztecs.

Another Close Call

The Aztecs have had their share of close calls this year with five contests decided by three or fewer points and nine by 10 or less.

Unfortunately, SDSU has lost four games by three points or less, including the last two outings vs. TCU (49-47) and in overtime with Utah (70-67). The Aztecs' three victories by a nine-point margin or less have come against Minnesota (two points) and vs. USD and Washington State (nine points each).

A year ago, San Diego State was 8-7 in games decided by 10 points or less.

Comeback Tale

The Aztecs have trailed by double figures and come back to win, take the lead or make it a one or two possession game in the second half five times this season, including in both contests last week.

On Saturday, SDSU trailed by 12 points at the break vs. Utah, before rallying to take the lead at the 9:20 mark of the second half with the score at 46-45. The Aztecs were also down by five points three times in the final five and a half minutes before ending regulation on a 6-1 run to force overtime.

On Wednesday, SDSU trailed by 14 with 8:49 left in the game against TCU and rallied to get to within only a pair with 1:06 remaining. The Aztecs also cut a 15-point deficit at the break down to only four at USC, came back from 12 down to beat USD in overtime and took the lead at Nevada after trailing by 11 points.

Courtney's Big Day

San Diego State sophomore Courtney Clements had her best game as an Aztec thus far against Utah, notching a career and team season-best 29 points on 12-for-19 shooting (63.2).

The guard, who entered the afternoon with a 36.9 season field-goal percentage, also posted a career-high four assists compared to only one turnover, was 3-for-6 from beyond the arc and pulled down five rebounds in 33 minutes.

Clements' scored 20 or more points twice in her first collegiate season at Arizona, highlighted by a 21-point effort vs. Louisiana Tech,

Aztec Blockade

Over the last three games, San Diego State has combined to post 28 blocked shots and moved into sixth nationally in that category with 6.4 a contest.

The Aztecs have actually tallied at least eight rejections in a game seven times this year with a high of 12 in the loss to TCU last week, which were the team's most in a single outing since 2009.

SDSU continues to lead the MWC in blocks and has 25 more than Wyoming, which is in second place with 64. The squad boasts two of the top three individuals in the league. Senior Jessika Bradley is in second with her 32 rejections, while Paris Johnson, who swatted four vs. Utah, is third with 27.

The Aztecs have led the MWC in blocks average two straight years and in three of the last four campaigns. They had a conference and school-record 195 rejections in 32 games in 2008-09, and are currently on pace to just beat that record.

Double-Double

San Diego State senior forward Jessika Bradley tallied her second double-double of the year and the seventh of her career with 11 points and 11 boards against Utah.

The Aztecs have seven double-doubles in 2010-11, including at least one each by all three seniors. SDSU also had two double-doubles in the same contest at Pepperdine by Coco Davis and Bradley.

Notes With A 'W'

An SDSU victory over UNLV will mean:

►SDSU wins its first MWC road game of a season for the second year in a row and only the third time in league history.

►SDSU improves to 20-22 all-time vs. the Lady Rebels and has won eight of the last nine meetings.

►SDSU jumps to 8-15 overall against UNLV in games played in Las Vegas.

UNLV Tid-Bits

UNLV is 7-9 on the year and is 0-2 in conference action thus far ... The Lady Rebels have played three common opponents with the Aztecs in TCU, USD and Nevada ... UNLV is led by sophomore guard Kelli Thompson who is the only player on her team to average in double-figure points with 14.9 a contest ... Thompson is also her team's best three-point threat and has 21 steals ... Junior Jamie Smith is the top rebounder with 8.4 a game, while sophomore Mia Bell has a team-best 71 assists ... UNLV ranks in the top 35 nationally in rebounding margin (+8.3), free-throw percentage (74.7) and field-goal percentage defense (35.3) ... The Lady Rebels and Aztecs split the regular-season series a year ago with each side winning on its home court ... The UNLV win snapped a seven-game SDSU win streak, the Aztecs' longest in the all-time series ... SDSU average margin of victory during that seven-game stint was 17 points.

Record Watch

San Diego State's senior trio of Coco Davis, Paris Johnson and Jessika Bradley are well on their way toward making a dent in the Aztec record book.

Johnson needs just 15 more blocks to become the school's all-time leader, surpassing current record-holder Michelle Suman, who had 251 from 1992-95.

Johnson is also fifth in the SDSU record book in career points (1,418) and rebounds (794), and is one of only five Aztecs to post 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and 100 blocks in their careers. She is third in free-throw attempts (468), fifth in free throws made (269) and 10th in games played (111).

Davis, meanwhile, moved into seventh in school history with 348 assists, is eighth in career 3-pointers attempted (265) and ninth in career triples (78).

After only 48 games in the Red & Black, Bradley is tied for seventh in career blocked shots with 95, including a squad-best 63 as a junior and 32 in the opening 14 games in 2010-11.

Other 2010-11 In Season Notes Thus Far

- Courtney Clements' 19 points vs. UCLA are the most by an Aztec in a season-opener since Michelle Strawberry had 29 points against Wichita State in November 2005.

- Paris Johnson's 18 rebounds vs. Cal State Bakersfield is a career high (prev. 15, twice) and most by an Aztec in a single outing since Ashlee Dunlap also had 18 in a win against American University in Dec. 2002.

- SDSU played its 1,000th contest in program history on Nov. 26, downing Minnesota, 61-59, in Reno, Nev.

- San Diego State's win at USD is its first in overtime on an opponent's home court in program history. The Aztecs had been 0-5 in that category entering the night and are now 7-14 all-time in outings requiring the five-minute extra period.

- SDSU overcame a 12-point second-half deficit to defeat USD. It is its largest deficit in a win since being down by 14 points with just under 12 minutes remaining in a 63-59 win vs. Eastern Washington on Jan. 7, 2005. Prior to that, SDSU's largest comeback was 17 points on Feb. 13, 1994, in a 67-65 win at UTEP.

- The Aztecs are 3-0 this year and 12-1 overall when Paris Johnson scores 20 or more points in a game, winning 12 straight since 2007.

- SDSU has hauled in more than 50 rebounds in a game three times this season after not doing so in any of its 34 contests a year ago.

- The Aztecs are 4-0 when scoring more than 70 points in a game in 2010-11.

- Each of the team's three seniors have garnered all-tournament honors this season. Center Paris Johnson has been tabbed twice, including her fourth consecutive honor at the Surf 'N Slam, and seven times overall in nine career non-conference events.

Guard Coco Davis picked up honors at the USC tournament and the Surf 'N Slam, while forward Jessika Bradley earned a spot for the first time in her career in Nevada.

- SDSU completed a 4-2 month of December and improved to 23-6 overall during that time frame in the

Aztecs Fall Recruiting Class Ranked 20th

San Diego State women's basketball's fall 2010 recruiting class has been rated 20th nationally and first in the Mountain West Conference according to Espn.com's HoopGurlz national rankings. The Aztecs moved up 11 spots from last year's No. 31 final ranking, after inking five high school seniors to National Letters of Intent during the early signing period, Nov. 10-17.

For the second campaign in a row, the Aztecs are easily the top ranked school among Mountain West Conference members, as TCU is the only other team listed in the top 40 at No. 38. San Diego State's recruiting class is rated higher than several notable programs including LSU (No. 22), Notre Dame (No. 25), Ohio State (No. 26), Georgetown (No. 27), West Virginia (No. 28), Nebraska (No. 34) and Michigan State (No. 51). The Aztecs are also the only school in a "non-automatic BCS qualifying" conference rated in the top 30.

San Diego State signed three, four-star recruits according to HoopGurlz, including forward Chairese Culberson, who was the No. 7 rated wing and 46th overall, forward Deajanae Scurry (No. 31 forward) and point guard Ahjalee Harvey (No. 32 point guard). Forwards Khristina Hunter and Erimma Amarikwa rounded out the Aztec fall signing class.

Preseason Points

The reigning MWC champion San Diego State women's basketball team has been picked to finish second in the league in 2011 in a vote by the nine head coaches and select media members released Oct. 13, at the conference's annual media day in Denver, Colo.

The Aztecs received three first-place votes and 147 points overall, trailing only TCU, which had 16 first-place votes (174 points). SDSU, which has been picked first or second each of the last three years, just edged out Brigham Young for second place, as the Cougars had 145 points and garnered the other two first-place votes. Utah was picked fourth, followed by Wyoming, New Mexico, UNLV, Colorado State and Air Force.

San Diego State has posted its two highest finishes in conference history the last two seasons, tying with Utah for first place in 2009, and for third place in 2010.

Aztec Individual Accolades

Aztec senior center Paris Johnson was tabbed to the five-member preseason all-league squad for the third straight year at the MWC's annual media day. In addition, sophomore guard Courtney Clements, who red-shirted after transferring from Arizona, was picked as the MWC's newcomer of the year and guard Melissa Sweat was chosen preseason freshman of the year.

Clements is the second SDSU player in a row to pick up the MWC's preseason newcomer of the year distinction, as senior Jessika Bradley was honored and went on to win the award last March.

Sweat, meanwhile, is the second Aztec on the current roster to earn the league's preseason freshman-of-the-year award, joining Johnson, who was honored in 2007.

Poll Watching

For the second consecutive season, San Diego State received votes in both national preseason top-25 polls. The Aztecs garnered the 34th-most votes (22 total) in the USA Today ESPN coaches edition, while they had the 37th-most votes (8 total) in the Associated Press Top 25.

SDSU earned votes in the coaches' poll eight times in 2009-10, including on Nov. 23, when it reached the No. 24 slot. The Aztecs finished the campaign at No. 20, the first time they had been ranked in the coaches' poll to end a season since it began in 1986.

The team also broke through in the AP poll a year ago, earning its first top-25 ranking (23rd on Nov. 23) since March 1995, when the team ended up 22nd following a 24-6 campaign.

SDSU is joined by TCU as the only two Mountain West Conference schools to receive votes in either poll thus far in 2010-11. The Aztecs garnered one vote in the first regular-season AP poll released Nov. 16, and had two in the Nov. 22 edition.

Strength Of Schedule

In 2010-11, SDSU has potentially six regular-season games against teams receiving votes in the AP preseason poll, which included the match-up with No. 16 UCLA to open the campaign on Nov. 12. Besides No. 23 TCU, who the Aztecs play twice, No. 8 Texas A&M (Dec. 30), Dayton (Dec. 18) and USC (Dec. 19) were all ranked or receiving votes.

Other Things To Watch For In 2010-11

Coming off one of the most successful seasons in Aztec basketball history, here are a few other things to look for in 2010-11:

- ♦ SDSU senior center Paris Johnson has started all 111 career contests since coming to Montezuma Mesa in 2007-08. She needs to start the next 12 outings to beat the school record for consecutive starts of 122, set a year ago by Quenese Davis.

- ♦ SDSU is a combined 27-3 at home over the last two campaigns entering this season. The Aztecs have 10 or more wins at Viejas Arena in three of the last four years.

- ♦ The Aztecs have 34 Mountain West Conference wins in the last five seasons after having only 19 in the league's first seven years.

- ♦ SDSU has advanced to the final of the Mountain West Conference Championships three years in a row, after not winning a single game in the MWC tournament's first eight years of existence.

2009-10 Rewind

The San Diego State women's basketball team made a remarkable run in 2009-10, highlighted by its first Mountain West Conference tournament title and a trip to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen.

Below are a few of the accomplishments of last year's team:

ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll (No. 20), becoming the first MWC school to do so since 2006. The No. 20 spot ties as the program's highest-ever final ranking in a national poll (No. 20 in AP in 1985).

- ♦ Earned the program's first AP top 25 regular-season ranking since 1995 (Nov. 23 – No. 23)

- ♦ Posted back-to-back seasons with at least 23 wins for the first time since 1994-95 (24) and 1993-94 (26) ... Logged the program's 13th, 20-win campaign with six of those coming under coach Beth Burns ... Had an eight-game win streak, the team's longest since 1996-97

- ♦ Recorded three wins over AP top 25 teams (No. 10 West Virginia, No. 17 Texas, No. 23 TCU) ... Eight of 11 losses were to teams advancing to the NCAAs, including three vs. teams advancing to the Sweet 16

- ♦ Earned the program's first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance (64-team bracket) and won two NCAA games in the same season for the first time in school history.

- ♦ Garnered the program's eighth NCAA tournament bid and made back-to-back NCAA appearances for the first time since 1994-95

- ♦ Was the lowest seed to advance to the Sweet 16 since 2007, was the first No. 11 seed to advance to the Sweet 16 since 2004, and the first MWC team to advance to the Sweet 16 since 2006 ... Was the 12th double-digit seed all-time to advance to the Sweet 16

- ♦ Won its first MWC championship title and advanced to the third consecutive MWC championship game.

Last Year's Numbers

The Aztecs' success also translated into big numbers in the stat columns. Here are some of the 2009-10 team's statistical highlights:

- ♦ SDSU led the MWC in field-goal percentage (44.5), three-point field-goal defense (27.0), blocked shots (5.4), offensive rebound percentage (40.7), victories (23 – tied)

- ♦ SDSU ended the year ranked eighth nationally in three-point field goal percentage defense, 18th in blocks per game, 22nd in field goal percentage and 25th in assists per game.

- ♦ The Aztecs limited 18 of its 34 opponents to under 60 points a game, including a 55-spot by No. 10 West Virginia. Eight foes scored 50 or fewer points and three didn't reach the 40-point barrier.

- ♦ Twelve of the Aztecs' 23 wins were by 19 or more points, after posting only six such victories in 2008-09.

- ♦ SDSU held opponents to three or fewer 3-pointers in a game 20 times last season, including a combined 3-for-22 mark in the NCAA First & Second Rounds.

- ♦ The Aztecs shot at least 40 percent from the field in 26 of 34 outings, topping the 45 mark on 14 occasions. The team's final season field-goal percentage of 44.5 is its best since the 1995-96 squad shot 45.6 percent.

- ♦ SDSU posted a school-record 155 three-pointers for the second season in a row and improved its team free-throw percentage from 61.2 in 2008-09 to 69.9 in 2009-10.

Aztec In The WNBA

Guard Jené Morris became San Diego State's first-ever WNBA Draft pick on April 8, 2010, going in the first round (11th pick overall) to the Indiana Fever. Morris, who was one of 14 players invited to the Draft announcement in Secaucus, N.J., also is the first Aztec to ever don a WNBA jersey.

became the 11th player in Mountain West Conference history to be tabbed in the WNBA Draft and the fourth selected in the first round. She is the league's highest pick overall since 2006, and third highest in MWC history, trailing only Utah's Shona Thorburn (7th overall) and TCU's Sandora Irvin (3rd).

A two-time honorable mention All-American and Mountain West Conference defensive player of the year, Morris was the first Aztec to ever lead the MWC in scoring (17.1 ppg.), is the conference's all-time leader in career steals (293) and ranks third in the SDSU record book in career points with 1,499, despite only playing three seasons in the Red and Black.

She played 25 games during her rookie campaign for the Fever, before moving to Poland after the WNBA season to play professionally for CCC Polkowice.

In addition, fellow 2010 graduate point guard Quenese Davis is currently competing for the Flying Foxes in Austria.

TV Time

The Aztecs will have seven regular-season televised games in 2010-11. After the UCLA contest that was carried by The Mtn., SDSU will have six of its' MWC regular-season games on TV, including three straight in January. In all, the Aztecs will have six games on The Mtn. and one on CBS College Sports.

Listen/Watch Live

For the 10th straight year, Aztec women's basketball fans will have an opportunity to listen to live play-by-play of nearly every regular season game (home and away) over the internet at www.goaztecs.com.

SDSU alum Chris Eilo will have the play-by-play duties both at home and on the road for the fourth straight season.

Again in 2010-11, all regular season Aztec home contests, with the exception of the televised games, will also feature a live video feed to go along with the audio call from Viejas Arena on www.goaztecs.com.

Burns Named To WBCA Board

This past June, San Diego State head coach Beth Burns was reelected to a three-year term on the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Board of Directors. She continues to serve as a Division I at-large representative on the 23-member board.

Burns had been serving a one-year term in the same position before she was elected in 2010. She is an active member of the WBCA, having previously served as a committee member for the Jostens-Berenson Lifetime Achievement Award and being on the voting panel for the WBCA/USA Today Coaches Top 25 national weekly poll.

SDSU Head Coach Beth Burns

The winningest coach in SDSU women's basketball history, Beth Burns returned to Montezuma Mesa in April 8, 2005, and enters the sixth season of her second stint with the Aztecs.

Burns took the program to new heights in 2009-10, as the Aztecs advanced to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen for the first time since the field was expanded to 64 teams. SDSU notched victories over a pair of top 25 foes in No. 10 West Virginia and defeated No. 17 Texas on the Longhorns' home floor. The 11th-seeded Aztecs were the lowest seed to advance to the Round of 16 in 2010, and lowest overall since 2007.

In the last two seasons, San Diego State has posted a combined record of 47-19, including a 27-3 mark on its home court, with Burns at the helm. The Aztecs claimed the program's first-ever MWC tournament championship in 2010, after earning a share of the regular-season crown in 2009. SDSU has made two consecutive NCAA appearances, going 2-0 in first-round games, after not earning a postseason bid in the 11 previous years.

In her first stint as Aztec head coach from 1989-97, Burns took the SDSU women's basketball program full circle, going from 7-23 her first year to 23-7 in her final campaign. During her eight seasons, she compiled a 151-83 record and a 64.5 winning percentage, the best in school history. The Aztecs went to the NCAA tournament on four occasions (1993, 1994, 1995, 1997), won a pair of tournament championships and three regular-season titles.

A four-time conference coach of the year, Burns was the head coach at Ohio State for five seasons (1997-02). She has a 19-year overall head coaching record of 318-228, while her school record stands at 237-163 over 13 seasons.

Earlier this fall, Burns signed a five-year contract extension to stay as SDSU's head coach through the 2014-15 campaign.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 1-2

No. 16/15 UCLA 55, San Diego St. 48

Game 1 ■ Nov. 12 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team scored only four points in the final 6:58 of the game, as the Aztecs were unable to pull off the upset of 16th-ranked UCLA in front of 2,196 fans at Viejas Arena. The Bruins rallied from an eight-point halftime deficit to claim the 55-48 victory in both schools' season-openers.

SDSU sophomore Courtney Clements had a game-high 19 points, despite missing her first nine shots from the field. Clements also added six rebounds in her first outing as an Aztec, while senior center Paris Johnson pulled down a team-best 10 boards to go with her eight points. Senior Coco Davis chipped in nine points and seven assists in her first start at point guard.

UCLA scored the first five points of the game, before San Diego State notched its first bucket of the 2010-11 campaign by freshman Melissa Sweat at the 17:41 mark. The Bruins went up by seven at 9-2, but the Aztecs went on a 7-0 run to tie the contest at 9-9.

The squads would be tied twice more in the first half, including at 16-16. Davis then hit a jumper and Clements scored seven points in a row to put the Aztecs up by nine at 25-16. After UCLA cut its deficit to five twice in the final two minutes, SDSU's Gabrielle Clark hit a 3-pointer with 23 seconds remaining to give the home team a 32-24 advantage heading into the locker room.

The Aztecs' shooting woes from the field continued into the second half, as the Bruins scored the first eight points to tie the score at 32-32. San Diego State finally got on the scoreboard with a Davis triple to stay ahead, but the lead changed hands five times, including at the 5:53 mark when UCLA hit a pair of free throws to put it up 45-44.

SDSU would manage only four more points the rest of the way as UCLA ended the evening on a 10-4 run to secure the 55-48 victory.

Cal State Bakersfield 73, San Diego St. 62

Game 2 ■ Nov. 17 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - Cal State Bakersfield outscored San Diego State 12-3 in the final four minutes of the game to earn a 73-62 victory over the host Aztecs at Viejas Arena. With the loss, SDSU dropped to 0-2 on the season, while the Roadrunners improved to 3-0 following the two schools' first-ever meeting.

San Diego State senior center Paris Johnson led the Aztecs both offensively and on the glass, tallying her 16th career double-double with a career-best 18 rebounds and 19 points on 7-for-8 shooting.

Sophomore Courtney Clements was the only other Aztec in double-figure points with 15 to go with eight rebounds and three assists. Freshman Melissa Sweat had eight points and was a perfect 2-for-2 from beyond the arc, while senior Jessika Bradley had nine rebounds and three assists. Senior Coco Davis had a team-best eight assists, but was 1-for-11 from the field.

Cal State Bakersfield jumped out to an early 10-point lead, taking advantage of SDSU's five turnovers in the first three minutes, and the hot shooting of Roadrunner guard Britney McGee, who had 10 points during that same span. The Aztecs finally were able to put some offense together, scoring six straight points to get to within four at 14-10 at the 13:07 mark.

CSUB, however, pushed its lead back up to nine points until a late run, including a pair of triples by junior Sajoyia Griffin, put the home team down by only three at 33-30 heading into the locker room.

San Diego State came out of the break and tied the game at 35, before pushing out to its largest lead of the night at 44-37 less than four minutes into the second half. That advantage quickly disappeared when the Roadrunners converted two more Aztec giveaways into points and a 44-44 tie.

After another tie at 48-48, SDSU had another turnover and missed two free throw attempts which ignited a 7-0 CSUB run. The Aztec deficit would grow to 10 with 1:33 remaining and left too little time for another rally, as the Roadrunners came away with the 73-62 win.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 3-4

UC Irvine 68, San Diego St. 66

Game 3 ■ Nov. 23 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - A pair of turnovers in the final 1:33 of the game proved costly, as the San Diego State women's basketball team was unable to record its first victory of the season, falling to visiting UC Irvine, 68-66, at Viejas Arena. With the loss, the Aztecs, who rallied to tie the score after a pair of seven-point deficits, dropped to 0-3 overall and the Anteaters improved to 1-3 on the year.

SDSU sophomore guard Courtney Clements posted a team-best 16 points on 7-of-15 shooting, while seniors Jessika Bradley and Paris Johnson both chipped in 13 points apiece. Bradley was one rebound short of a double-double with nine boards and senior guard Coco Davis matched her career-best with five of the Aztecs' 13 steals on the night.

San Diego State got off to a good start, scoring eight straight points within the first two minutes of the contest for an 8-0 lead. The Anteaters finally got on the board with a jumper by Jade Smith-Williams, followed quickly by a 3-pointer by Kassandra McCalister to cut their deficit to just three.

The Aztecs continued to hold a two possession advantage until going up by seven points twice, including at 22-15. UC Irvine didn't back down, eventually knotting the game at 22 and again at 24 points, and taking the lead for the remainder of the first half with an 18-11 run and a 42-35 advantage at the break.

SDSU quickly erased the UCI lead by scoring the first six points of the second half and tying the game for the third time at 44-44. The Aztecs, however, were never able to jump ahead, as the game was knotted three more occasions, but the Anteaters continued to score the very next bucket.

The final tie came at 63-63 with 3:58 left in the game. UC Irvine got a fast-break basket off a steal, followed by a miscommunication on a hand-off between Clements and Davis that resulted in another giveaway, which the Anteaters converted into two free throws with 18 seconds left. Davis hit a long 3-pointer to close the gap to just two, but too little time was left as the Anteaters came away with the 68-66 victory.

Game 4 ■ Nov. 26 ■ Lawlor Events Center ■ Reno, Nev.

RENO, Nev. - Behind Paris Johnson's 27 points and 12 rebounds, the San Diego State women's basketball team claimed its first victory of the season, defeating Minnesota, 61-59, in its first contest of the Nugget Classic at the Lawlor Events Center in Reno, Nev. The Aztecs moved to 1-3 on the year following 1,000th game in SDSU program history, while the Gophers dropped to 3-3 on the season in the first meeting between the sides in 25 years.

Johnson dominated the paint, scoring 15 of her game-high 27 points in the first half, while also adding 12 rebounds for her second double-double of the campaign. The 6-4 center was 11-of-17 (64.7 percent) shooting for her biggest offensive output since 2008, and the 11th, 20-point scoring game of her career.

Jessika Bradley, was the only other Aztec in double-figure points with 12 to go with her seven rebounds and season-best four blocked shots. Johnson had three of SDSU's other eight rejections on the night, while sophomore Courtney Clements added nine points and Coco Davis contributed eight assists.

San Diego State held a two-point lead at 61-59 with only 20 seconds remaining, as the Gophers ended up getting a pair of chances to tie or win the game. Minnesota guard Leah Cotton missed a jumper on her team's first opportunity, but the rebound resulted in an alternate possession which gave the ball back to the Gophers with 12 seconds left.

Coming out of a timeout, Minnesota's Micaella Riche got the ball in the low block, but then tried to muscle her way to the basket, knocking over a defender and was called for an offensive foul and a turnover. The Aztecs then just had to inbound the ball, which they did, to secure the victory.

The game was tied five times in the first half, before an 18-4 run gave SDSU its largest lead at 39-25. Minnesota, however, would close that gap all the way down to only five points at the break at 39-34 on a lay-up at the buzzer.

The Aztecs started the second half quickly, moving their advantage back up to 11 points twice and later 10 points at 57-47 with 8:39 to go in the game. The Gophers staged yet another rally as SDSU struggled to find the basket, scoring only two points over a more than six-minute span to allow Minnesota to get to within two points twice, including in the final minute.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 5-6

Nevada 63, San Diego St. 61

Game 5 ■ Nov. 27 ■ Lawlor Events Center ■ Reno, Nev.

RENO, Nev. - The San Diego State women's basketball team rallied from an 11-point second-half deficit to take the lead, but couldn't come away with the victory, falling in the championship game of the Nugget Classic to host Nevada, 63-61, at the Lawlor Events Center. With the loss, the Aztecs dropped to 1-4 on the season, while the Wolf Pack improved to 5-1.

Senior Paris Johnson once again led SDSU with 19 points on 8-for-13 shooting, while also tallying seven rebounds and a pair of blocked shots. Johnson was one of two Aztecs named to the all-tournament squad along with classmate Jessika Bradley, who had eight rebounds and three blocks. Sophomore Courtney Clements added 11 points, while junior Sajoyia Griffin had her best performance of the year with a career-high nine points, five rebounds and seven assists, compared to just one turnover.

There were four ties and six lead changes in the first 10 minutes of the game as each side boasted a four-point advantage. Nevada went on a 9-0 run to go up 28-19, but the Aztecs responded with two buckets by Clements and one by Candace Chambers to close the gap to 28-26.

The Wolf Pack began to pile up trips to the free-throw line using a 13-for-16 performance at the stripe to head into the break up by six points at 39-33.

After the two sides combined for only six points in the first four minutes, the Wolf Pack broke their stalemate first, building its largest lead of the game at 51-40 at the 13:59 mark.

The Aztecs, however, wouldn't go down easily, answering with a 9-2 run to close to within four points twice, before a fast-break bucket made it a one-point game and two free throws put the visitors ahead 58-57 with 3:03 to go.

Coming out of a timeout, Nevada's Tahnee Robinson hit a 3-pointer, but Johnson tied it at 60 with a lay-up. Robinson struck again the next time up the floor, making what would turn out to be the winning basket with 25 seconds remaining to give her squad another two-point advantage at 62-61.

Bradley was fouled on the Aztecs' next possession, but was only able to make the first of her two free throws, as Robinson secured the rebound and was then fouled herself. She made one of two shots at the stripe and Coco Davis attempted to get the ball down the court with only four seconds left, but was unable to make the final shot near half court, as the Wolf Pack survived for the 63-61 win.

Game 6 ■ Nov. 30 ■ Jenny Craig Pavilion ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team outscored host University of San Diego 15-6 in overtime to cap a dramatic rally, as the Aztecs came away with a 72-63 victory. SDSU, which trailed by 12 points with just 8:25 left to play, improved to 2-4 overall and won for the first time at Jenny Craig Pavilion since the annual series restarted in 2002.

Senior Paris Johnson and sophomore Courtney Clements combined for 40 of the team's 72 points. Johnson posted her fourth game with 19 or more points, finishing with 22, including a 10-for-12 effort at the stripe. Clements, meanwhile, had 18 points, six rebounds and a career-high three steals.

Johnson also had nine boards, matching the team game-high also put up by her front court classmate Jessika Bradley. Senior Coco Davis had nine points and five assists, while junior Kalena Tutt had a career-best eight rebounds.

The Aztecs had three turnovers in their first four possessions of the night, as the host Toreros raced to a 5-0 lead and later went up by seven at the 14:52 mark, but the Aztecs then kept it to within two possessions before gaining their first lead of the night on a lay-up by Melissa Sweat at 21-19.

The Toreros scored their first points after an over five-minute drought to tie the contest at 21 apiece and the two sides traded leads before heading into the break with the home side up 25-22, after SDSU failed to score for the final 4:25.

The second half began much the same way as the first with the Aztecs turning the ball over, while USD once again went up by seven at 31-24. Clements scored each of San Diego State's first seven points, helping to close the gap to only two, before the Aztecs' shooting woes began to catch up with them as USD reeled off a 14-4 run to gain its largest lead at 47-35 heading into a timeout.

San Diego State finally began to hit some shots with the help of point guard Sajoyia Griffin, who notched a 3-pointer and two free throws followed by a Clements jumper to get the deficit down to five at 47-42.

It was only a three-point game heading into the final two minutes, as Davis converted a three-point play to tie the score at 55-55. USD went up by two after a steal in the backcourt, but Johnson equalized with two free throws. The Aztecs had the final possession in regulation, however, Bradley's hook shot hit off the back of the rim forcing overtime.

Bradley struck back on the first possession in overtime, hitting a reverse lay-up as SDSU opened the extra period with a 6-0 run. The Toreros cut that deficit in half with a 3-pointer until Johnson matched that with a three-point play and the Aztecs made all six of their free-throw attempts in the final 25 seconds to secure the 72-63 victory.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 7-8

San Diego St. 75, Pepperdine 61

Game 7 ■ Dec. 7 ■ Firestone Fieldhouse ■ Malibu, Calif.

MALIBU, Calif. - The San Diego State women's basketball team got double-doubles from seniors Jessika Bradley and Coco Davis to help propel the Aztecs to a 75-61 victory over host Pepperdine at Firestone Fieldhouse. SDSU avenged an overtime loss to the Waves last season to claim its' second win in a row and improve to 3-4 on the year, while Pepperdine dropped to 5-5.

Several Aztecs had career nights with Bradley posting a career-high 16 points to go with 10 rebounds for her first double-double of the year and fourth of her career. Davis found her shooting touch recording 10 of her 14 points in the first half, while matching her career high with 10 assists to tally her first double-double in the Red & Black. Junior Kalena Tutt notched her first career double-figure scoring outing after going a perfect 4-for-4 from the field and 3-for-3 at the line for 11 points, and senior Paris Johnson was the fourth Aztec in double-figures with 16 points on 8-of-11 shooting.

San Diego State trailed just once in the game, when Pepperdine hit the opening basket of the night. Davis and Johnson then combined to record all 12 of the Aztecs' first points. SDSU would go up by six on a Davis triple at 16-10 and later built a nine-point advantage following an 8-1 run.

Pepperdine took advantage of several Aztec turnovers in the back court to climb all the way back to within four on three occasions. SDSU, however, headed into the locker room with a six-point lead at 35-29, as the Waves were unable to convert a last-second jumper.

The Aztecs got each of their first six points after the break from Johnson and Bradley and later utilized a pair of nifty passes on the baseline to push ahead 45-33, as the Wave offense went dormant for nearly four minutes.

After Pepperdine cut it to a 10-point deficit, San Diego State turned on the after burners, more than doubling its advantage at 68-47 over the next seven minutes. The Waves made a late run with the Aztec starters already on the bench, getting to within 14 points, including the final score, 75-61.

Game 8 ■ Dec. 18 ■ Galen Center ■ Los Angeles, Calif.

LOS ANGELES - Despite an 11-day layoff between games, the San Diego State women's basketball team returned to action and never trailed a strong Dayton squad, using a 50.9 field-goal percentage to earn a 74-62 victory at the Women of Troy Basketball Tournament at the Galen Center. With the win, the Aztecs evened their record at 4-4 on the year, while the Flyers, who advanced to last year's NCAA second round, dropped to 5-5 in 2010-11.

SDSU got another outstanding outing from a pair of seniors in guard Coco Davis and center Paris Johnson. Davis notched a career-best 19 points, including three triples, to go with a season-high seven rebounds and six assists, while Johnson scored 16 of her 19 points in the second half and also pulled down a game-high 10 boards for her third double-double of the year.

The Aztecs reeled off six quick points, hitting three of their first four shots, while the Flyers were 0-for-5 before finally scoring at the 16:08 mark. SDSU would build an eight-point advantage, but Dayton closed the gap with consecutive rebound baskets and continued to hit the glass to negate the Aztecs' hot shooting start.

The Flyers later closed to within one on two occasions with the first coming after a 10-5 run. SDSU then got consecutive triples from Davis and Clements and a three-point play from junior Kalena Tutt for its largest lead thus far at 32-23. Dayton's Justine Raterman kept her team within striking distance with a pair of triples and her squad ended up tying the score for the first and only time at 35 with 1:18 left until the break.

The Aztecs owned a slight 38-35 advantage heading into the locker room following a three-point play by 6-6 center Malia Nahinu. Scoring continued to come from the interior on both sides as SDSU went up by seven to start the second half courtesy of Johnson, who scored eight points in a row.

Dayton was within four following a three-point play at 50-46, until the Aztecs got a pair of free throws from Gabrielle Clark, which kick started an 8-0 run to move out to a 58-46 lead. The Flyers closed once again to within seven, but was never able to get any closer as SDSU ended the game on a 14-9 run over the final 6:08 to secure the first ever meeting between the two foes at 74-62.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 9-10

Southern California 74, San Diego St. 64

Game 9 ■ Dec. 19 ■ Galen Center ■ Los Angeles, Calif.

LOS ANGELES - The San Diego State women's basketball team cut a 15-point halftime deficit down to just four points, but could not get any closer as the Aztecs saw their three-game win streak come to an end with a 74-64 defeat to the host Trojans in the championship game of the Women of Troy Basketball Tournament at the Galen Center. With the loss, SDSU dropped to 4-5, while USC, which is a perfect 5-0 on its home court, improved to 7-3 overall.

Aztec senior Paris Johnson had a team-high 18 points on 6-for-11 shooting and a 6-for-6 performance at the free-throw line. Classmate Coco Davis, who was named to the all-tournament team for the first time in her career, scored in double-figures for the third outing in a row with 16 points and seven assists in playing all 40 minutes. Davis and Johnson finished the weekend by combining for 72 of the team's 138 points in the two outings.

SDSU's third senior, Jessica Bradley, had a game-high 11 rebounds, while Johnson added nine to fall just short of her second consecutive double-double. Sophomore Courtney Clements and freshman Melissa Sweat each tallied seven points for the Aztecs, who owned a slight advantage over the Trojans on both the boards (39-36) and shooting from the field (41.4 to 40.3 percent).

USC junior guard Ashley Corral made each of her first five attempts from the field, including three triples, in the first 4:18 alone to give the Trojans a 15-4 lead heading into the first timeout. The Aztecs closed it to single digits at eight points on three occasions, but USC continued to make nearly all its shots coming down the floor, hitting on 16-of-35, including 4-of-7 from beyond the arc, to go up by as many as 15, including at 42-27 at the half.

SDSU held the Women of Troy without a point for the first three and a half minutes coming out of the locker room to cut the deficit to eight and later got to within six points following a 6-0 run. A 3-pointer by Briana Gilbreath following a long offensive rebound, however, quickly restored the Trojan lead out to 52-43.

The Aztecs trailed by just four on four separate occasions, including at 62-58 with 4:34 left, and had the ball on offense to cut it to a single possession. Instead, USC erupted with an 8-0 run, capped by consecutive triples from Corral and another by Christina Marinacci following a steal to go up by 12 points at 70-58. A late triple by Davis cut the margin to single digits, but the Trojans ended the evening with four more points to the Aztecs' three to garner the 74-64 win.

Game 10 ■ Dec. 21 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - Playing its first home game in the last 28 days, the San Diego State women's basketball team got 26 points from senior Paris Johnson, including 17 in the first half alone, to lead the Aztecs to a 66-57 victory over Washington State. SDSU came out ahead for the first time at Viejas Arena this season and evened its record at 5-5, while the Cougars dropped to 2-10.

Johnson was 8-for-11 from the field in the first 20 minutes and ended up 11-for-21 for 26 points, her seventh outing with 18 or more points in 10 total contests this season. Johnson also tallied 15 rebounds for her fourth double-double of the year and second in the last three games.

Jessica Bradley was the only other Aztec in double-figure points with 11 and pulled down seven rebounds. Senior guard Coco Davis recorded a season-best eight boards and contributed nine of the team's 18 assists on the night, while sophomore Courtney Clements notched nine points on 4-for-9 shooting.

The two sides combined for five lead changes in the first four minutes of action, until SDSU turned a one-point advantage into a nine-point lead via an 8-0 run, featuring three consecutive buckets in the paint at 19-10. WSU would climb back to within five on three occasions, but the Aztecs outscored the visitors 8-4 in the final five minutes to go into the locker room up 11 points at 36-25.

After a Cougar bucket to open the second half made it just a nine-point game, SDSU went on a 12-0 run, highlighted by its only 3-pointers on the evening by center Malia Nahinu and Clements, to jump ahead by 21 points at 48-27.

After a timeout, WSU took a huge bite into the deficit, cutting it down to only nine points with just under eight minutes remaining, as SDSU missed several chances around the rim to put the game out of reach. The lead was nine on two more occasions before the end of the game, including at the 2:52 mark at 61-52, but the Aztecs pushed the advantage back out to 13 points with a jumper by Gabrielle Clark and three free throws. The Cougars finished out the night with two lay-ups in the final 31 seconds to round out the 66-57 SDSU victory.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 11-12

San Diego St. 72, UTSA 52

Game 11 ■ Dec. 28 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team recorded a season-best nine 3-pointers and had four players score in double-figures to lead the Aztecs to a 72-52 win over visiting Texas-San Antonio in the first game of the San Diego Surf 'N Slam at Viejas Arena. With the victory, SDSU moved to 6-5 and advanced to a tournament championship game for the third time in as many tries this season, while the Roadrunners dropped to 4-8 overall.

San Diego State got a 3-pointer from six different players, including senior Paris Johnson, whose first career triple gave her a team-best 14 points on the night to go with three blocked shots. Senior guard Coco Davis contributed 13 points and seven assists, freshman Melissa Sweat reached double-figures for the first time in her career with 11 points and sophomore Courtney Clements added 11 points and three steals.

Aztec senior Jessika Bradley logged a career-best seven assists, hauled in a game-high 11 boards and rejected three shots in 34 minutes of action.

SDSU never trailed in the game, bouncing out to a quick 8-0 lead on a jumper by Bradley and consecutive triples from Clements and junior Sajoyia Griffin. The Roadrunners trimmed their early deficit down to only a pair at 17-15 following two free throws and trailed by three points at the 6:40 mark. From there, the Aztecs got eight straight points from Sweat in a span of less than a minute to push the home team's lead into double-figures for the first time at 29-18.

San Diego State had its largest lead of the first half heading into the locker room up by 13 points at 40-27, and moved out to an 18-point advantage on another triple at 47-29 with 14:50 left to go in the game. UTSA cut it to 13 points once, but was never able to get any closer as the Aztecs posted its biggest margin of victory this season, 72-52.

Game 12 ■ Dec. 30 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The seventh-ranked Texas A&M Aggies claimed the San Diego Surf 'N Slam title in dominating fashion, shooting nearly 60 percent from the field and causing 31 Aztec turnovers to earn the 96-52 win over host San Diego State at Viejas Arena. SDSU dropped to 6-6 on the year with two losses to top-25 opponents, while the Aggies improved to 11-1 to round out 2010.

Only one Aztec scored in double figures, as senior Paris Johnson notched 12 points with seven of those coming at the free-throw line. Guard Coco Davis had eight points, forward Gabrielle Clark notched seven points and senior Jessika Bradley posted three blocked shots.

Texas A&M's pressure defense had San Diego State off-balance all evening, as the Aztecs made only four of their 20 first-half shots from the field and committed 20 turnovers in the first 20 minutes. The Aggies, meanwhile, were nearly unstoppable on the other side of the floor, as three players reached double-figures in points and the visitors had a 29-11 rebounding advantage to lead 54-14 at the break.

The Texas A&M advantage moved out to 50 points at the 15-minute mark of the second half and would go as high as 56 points at 82-26. SDSU finished the game on a 12-7 run over the final six minutes to round out scoring at 96-52.

The Aggies had 21 giveaways themselves, but more than doubled up the Aztecs on the boards (46-21) and had 14 steals. SDSU scored 19 of its 52 points from the line, tallied five 3-pointers and registered eight blocked shots.

Texas A&M was led by tournament MVP Danielle Adams who was 11-of-15 from the field for 23 points in only 17 minutes of action.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 13-14

TCU 49, San Diego St. 47

Game 13 ■ Jan. 6 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team held visiting TCU without a field goal for the final six minutes of the game, cutting a 14-point second-half deficit down to only a pair, but the Aztecs came up just short, falling 49-47 in both teams' 2011 conference openers. With the loss, SDSU dropped to 6-7 on the season, while the preseason league favorite Horned Frogs improved to 9-6 following the contest at Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs were led offensively by junior forward Kalena Tutt, who had 10 points on 4-of-5 shooting. Seniors Paris Johnson and Coco Davis and junior Courtney Clements all tallied nine points apiece, while forward Jessika Bradley had seven rebounds, five assists and five blocked shots.

San Diego State had the hot hand early in the first half, racing out to a 10-point lead at 19-9 by making eight of its first 11 shots from the field. TCU answered back with a 10-0 run over the next three minutes to tie the score at 19-19. The two sides were knotted once more at 23, before the Horned Frogs earned their first advantage of the night on a pair of free throws.

Both teams went scoreless over the next four minutes, before TCU got a jumper and a lay-up to carry a six-point lead at 29-23 into the locker room.

The Aztecs cut their deficit in half after the break, but the Horned Frogs used six baskets in the paint and raced out to a 14-point advantage at 45-31.

From there, San Diego State held TCU to only one field goal the remainder of the half and came all the way back to within two at 49-47 capped by 3-pointers from Johnson and junior Sajoyia Griffin. With only a minute left to play, the Horned Frogs stayed on the offensive side with the help of two consecutive offensive rebounds, before the Aztecs were forced to foul to put TCU on the line.

Horned Frog Helena Sverrisdottir, however, missed the front end of the 1-and-1 and SDSU grabbed the rebound before heading into a timeout with just seven seconds remaining to set up a final play. The Aztecs got the ball in the hands of Davis, who raced down the court, but her long distance pass intended for Johnson was intercepted by Sverrisdottir who wrapped up the ball as the buzzer sounded for the 49-47 TCU victory.

Utah 70, San Diego State 67 (OT)

Game 14 ■ Jan. 10 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team got a career-high 29 points from sophomore Courtney Clements and rallied from a 12-point half-time deficit to force overtime, but was unable to notch the game-winning bucket in the final seconds, falling to visiting Utah, 70-67, at Viejas Arena. The loss was the Aztecs' fourth this year and second in a row by three or fewer points and dropped them to 6-8 overall and 0-2 in conference play. The Utes, meanwhile, improved to 2-0 in league action and 9-7 on the season.

Clements had a career afternoon, making 12 of her 19 shot attempts from the field and finishing with 29 points, 10 more than her previous high of 19 vs. No. 16 UCLA. Clements' 29 points are the most by an Aztec this season and the guard also tallied a career-best four assists and pulled down five boards.

SDSU senior Jessika Bradley notched her second double-double of the year and seventh of her career with 11 points and 11 rebounds. Paris Johnson and Sajoyia Griffin each had eight points and Coco Davis posted eight assists.

The Aztecs started strong, running out to an 11-0 lead before Utah was able to get on the scoreboard at the 15:23 mark. The basket, however, only woke up the Ute offense as it reeled off an 8-0 run to close to within three at 11-8.

After missing her opening attempt of the game, Utah's Iwalani Rodrigues did not miss for the remainder of the first half, making eight straight shots, including three from beyond the arc, to give the visitors a 12-point advantage at 39-27 heading into the locker room.

SDSU cut that deficit in half with three consecutive scores after the break and would eventually take the lead at 46-45 with 8:26 remaining. The Utes immediately countered with a Rodrigues triple and were up by five points with 1:58 left in regulation. Clements brought the Aztecs to within one point at 56-55 and was fouled on the made basket, but was unable to make the free throw and Utah went up by a pair on a free throw of its own with 38 seconds left on the clock.

The next time down the floor, Clements missed on a 3-pointer, but Gabrielle Clark grabbed the rebound for SDSU and Bradley scored the tying bucket with 15 seconds left to send it into overtime.

In the extra period, the two teams were tied once and traded the lead four times with the Aztecs going up by one on a Clements triple with 28 seconds left. After a timeout, however, Ute Michelle Plouffe made a jumper in the paint to give her team back the lead at 68-67, and on the ensuing possession, Davis' lay-up attempt with three seconds left caught the inside of the rim and Utah grabbed the rebound before hitting two free throws to close out the 70-67 victory.
