San Diego State encountered obstacles not seen around these parts in several years, but rallied to win the Mountain West regular-season title for a third straight season by an unprecedented three games. The Aztecs' conference-high 10th league title and an MW championship game appearance, however, would not get them into a seventh consecutive NCAA tournament. SDSU instead accepted an NIT invitation, played in front of three raucous Viejas Arena crowds and earned a trip to the semifinals at the World's Most Famous Arena, Madison Square Garden.

A Look at the 2015-16 Aztecs

Head coach Steve Fisher has taken San Diego State to sights unseen on Montezuma Mesa since arriving on campus prior to the 1999-2000 season. The two-time national coach of the year has guided the Aztecs through the good times and bad, and has SDSU positioned as the premier program in the Mountain West. So when things got hairy in the form of a 7-6 non-conference record, Fisher did not panic and neither did his team.

San Diego State split the first four games of the season. There was no shame in losing at No. 16/16 Utah, but eyebrows raised at a six-point home loss to Little Rock, which eventually went on to win 30 games and reach the third round of the NCAA tournament.

The Aztecs responded with a home win over East Carolina and rallied from 15 points down to defeat No. 14/13 California in Las Vegas before falling to No. --/22 West Virginia less than 24 hours later.

After dismissing Long Beach State on the road in their first game back from Thanksgiving, the Aztecs suffered a five-point loss to crosstown foe San Diego at Petco Park.

SDSU looked to gain some momentum as the calendar moved toward 2016 with victories over Biola and Nicholls. But everything came to a halt after another disappointing loss to Grand Canyon, followed by a 13-point defeat to No. 2/3 Kansas.

Winston Shepard led San Diego State to 28 wins in 2015-16, which represented the third most in a single season in school history. Over his four seasons, SDSU advanced to four postseason tournaments and won three Mountain West regular-season titles.

The loss to the Jayhawks, however, did not dampen the Aztecs spirits after a second-half effort that saw them compete at a level not seen to that point in the season.

San Diego State used that second-half performance and used it to fuel an 11-0 start in the Mountain West. During the streak, there were games won with ease and others where the Aztecs created their own luck and had bounces go their way unlike the non-conference portion of the schedule.

SDSU wound up finishing the MW season with a 16-2 record and winning its league-best 10th Mountain West title by an unprecedented three games. The Aztecs' effort marked their third straight regular-season championship and third outright title in the history of the league (2006, 2014, 2016).

As the No. 1 seed in the Mountain West Championship, San Diego State had no trouble getting to the title game after moving aside ninth-seeded Utah State and fifth-seeded Nevada. Awaiting the Aztecs in the final was second-seeded Fresno State, a team SDSU split two games with. The game was a close affair like the previous meetings, but Aztecs failed in their bid to earn an automatic bid to the NCAA tournament, falling, 68-63.

The Aztecs ended up not receiving an at-large invitation to NCAAs and instead went to the NIT and blew through IPFW, Washington and Georgia Tech, the last two in front of sold-out crowds at Viejas Arena. As a result of its three wins, SDSU earned a trip to Madison Square Garden and the semifinals, but were upended by George Washington.

Below are some notes on the 2015-16 squad:

► San Diego State finished the campaign with a 28-10 record, extending the school record for consecutive 20-win seasons to 11.

► The Aztecs extended a school record by winning at least 23 games for the eighth straight year. SDSU has also won a minimum of 27 games three consecutive seasons.

► The Aztecs advanced to the postseason for the 11th consecutive year, which extends the school record.

► SDSU reached the semifinals of the NIT for the second straight time, joining the 2009 team.

► The Aztecs won their Mountain West-leading 10th conference title. It was their third straight regular-season championship.

► SDSU finished the campaign ranked in the top 10 in the nation in field-goal percentage defense (1st; .373), scoring defense (3rd; 60.6), total blocks (5th; 207), total rebounds (6th; 1,475), three-point field-goal percentage defense (7th; .300), blocked shots per game (10th; 5.4); free-throw attempts (10th; 892).

► The Aztecs finished the year ranked 46th in the final KenPom ratings and were first in effective field-goal percentage defense (.425). They also finished second in three-point percentage defense (.294), third in adjusted defensive efficiency (.907), fourth in block percentage (.150) and fifth in two-point percentage defense (.416).

► SDSU set a school record with its 11-game conference winning streak, which helped it jump out to an 11-0 league start.

► The Aztecs won the Mountain West by three games, which was the largest winning margin in conference history.

► Last season marked the 12th time a Steve Fisher-coached San Diego State team recorded 20 or more wins.

► Prior to the start of the campaign, SDSU sold out the entire home slate, attracting 12,414 fans to each one of its 17 home dates. The Aztecs attracted 8,324 to their first-round NIT game with only 48 hours to prepare and then sold out their final two NIT home games. For 20 home dates, San Diego State averaged just under a sell-out at 12,210.

► Senior Skylar Spencer became the all-time leader in career victories in San Diego State and Mountain West history with 109. He also set school and conference records with 303 career blocked shots en route to being named MW Defensive Player of the Year by the coaches and media.

► Senior Winston Shepard was a second-team all-Mountain West performer, MW all-tournament selection and an NABC all-district choice after averaging 11.3 points and a team-high 6.4 rebounds and 3.1 assists. Shepard posted the school's first triple-double with 10 points, 10 rebounds and a career-high 12 assists vs. IPFW in the first round of the NIT. The 12 assists were a Viejas Arena record.

► Sophomore Trey Kell enjoyed a breakout campaign as he led the team in scoring at 12.6 per outing. At one point in the season, he scored in double figures in 20 straight games, which was the seventh-longest streak in program history dating back to 1975-76. He was a first-team all-conference selection by the coaches and a second-team NABC all-district player.

► True freshman Jeremy Hemsley carried the load for the Aztecs in the first month of the season and led the team in scoring and assists before Kell and Shepard came on during the middle part of the season. The MW coaches voted him the freshman of the year and was a third-team selection by the coaches and the conference media. He finished the season averaging 12.0 points and 1.8 assists.

► Sophomore Malik Pope played an intergal part in SDSU winning its third straight Mountain West regular-season title. The forward averaged 7.3 points and 5.0 rebounds for the season, but was particularly effective in the final 13 games of the season, posting averages of 11.7 points, 6.9 rebounds and 1.2 assists. He also shot 47.5 percent from the field, including 50.0 percent from three-point distance, during that span. In his final nine outings, however, he upped his scoring and rebounding to 12.3 and 7.3, respectively, and added three double-doubles, including a 19-point, 11-rebound effort in the MW championship game, which helped him earn all-Mountain West tournament accolades.

Game 1

San Diego State 71
Illinois State 60

Nov. 13, 2015 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State opened the campaign with a 71-60 victory over visiting Illinois State in the very first game on Steve Fisher Court at Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs received major contributions from two unlikely sources. True freshman point guard Jeremy Hemsley earned the starting nod to become just the 14th freshman to start a season-opening game under Fisher and he did not disappoint. He exploded for a game-high 20 points to go with six rebounds and a team-high five assists.

The other source was junior Dakarai Allen. The guard came into the game with a career high of eight points. That was soon erased as he had 12 points in 13 first-half minutes before closing with 16 for the game.

Allen and Hemsley combined to score 20 points in a half where the Aztecs finished the frame ahead, 37-34. SDSU was carried by Allen's aforementioned 12 points, while Hemsley battled through foul trouble to add eight.

In the second half, the Redbirds hung tight with the Aztecs and found themselves trailing, 54-49, with just under eight minutes to play. A free throw from Zylan Cheatham, who was making his Aztec debut as a red-shirt freshman, put SDSU up by six, but Roland Griffin nailed a three-pointer.

The game went over a minute without any scoring until Allen made a free throw, which led to three consecutive layups (Hemsley, Skylar Spencer and Winston Shepard), putting San Diego State up, 62-52.

Illinois State knocked down another three, but Hemsley and Allen combined for the next seven points to put the game away.

Griffin led Illinois State with 13 points on 5-of-10 shooting.

Game 2

No. 16/16 Utah 81
San Diego State 76

Nov. 16, 2015 ♦ Salt Lake City, Utah
Huntsman Center ♦ Att.: 13,587

SALT LAKE CITY - San Diego State overcame an early nine-point second-half deficit, but could not seal the deal as it dropped an 81-76 road decision to No. 16/16 Utah at Huntsman Center.

The Aztecs looked poised to run away with the game late in the first half when they received four consecutive three-pointers, a trio from Dakarai Allen and one from Malik Pope. The 12-5 SDSU run put the visitors ahead, 30-24, with 3:54 left.

Utah, however, was unfazed as Jakob Poeltl scored five straight points to jumpstart a 14-2 first-half-ending run. The Utes capped the period with consecutive triples from Jordan Loveridge and Brandon Taylor, the last of which just beat the halftime buzzer. All of a sudden, Utah went into the locker room up, 38-32.

Winston Shepard opened the second half with a jumper, but Taylor hit another three and was followed by a Kyle Kuzma bucket as Utah took a 43-34 lead. Much like the Utes were earlier in the game, the Aztecs were unfazed themselves, going on a 12-0 run to regain the lead and a three-point cushion.

The game see-sawed back and forth until Utah started to pull away and led, 70-62, with 3:16 to go in the contest. The Aztecs were able to get stops down the stretch to go with a couple of three-pointers and easy layups to get back into the game. Down by four points with 16 seconds left, Trey Kell was fouled while attempting a three-pointer. Unfortunately for SDSU, the sophomore was only able to make 1-of-3 and Utah made a pair of free throws on its next trip down to provide the final margin.

Shepard led the Aztecs with 19 points and seven rebounds, and surpassed the 1,000-point plateau in the process. Allen and Kell each had 15 points apiece.

Utah had all five starters reach double figures in scoring, led by Loveridge's 21.

Game 3

San Diego State 71
San Diego Christian 61

Nov. 18, 2015 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State rebounded from its first loss of the season with a 71-61 victory over San Diego Christian on Steve Fisher Court at Viejas Arena.

SDSU had three players reach double figures in scoring and was led by Malik Pope and Jeremy Hemsley's 14 points. Zylan Cheatham completed the trio with 13 points and a team-high eight rebounds.

San Diego State played nine players, all of whom logged at least 20 minutes with the exception of Skylar Spencer (19), D'Erryl Williams (17), who scored a career-high nine points, and Trey Kell (13). SDSU was also without the services of Winston Shepard (ankle) and Kell in the second half (knee).

The Aztecs without Shepard had no problem in the first half, leading by as many as 20 points before settling for the 36-20 lead at intermission.

The Aztecs without Shepard and Kell in the second half saw the Hawks make a late run at the home team thanks to a barrage of three-pointers. After making just one of eight from behind the arc in the first 20 minutes, San Diego Christian went nuts and made 8-of-16 in the second half. Trevor English went 5-for-7 from deep and ultimately finished by connecting on 6-of-10.

SDSU's lead, however, was insurmountable as it was never truly threatened and held a double-figure lead for the final 30:38. Pope had 10 of his 14 points in the second half, including both of his three-pointers. His performance was a welcome sight for a player who came into the game having made just one of his previous 12 shots. His final shooting line: 6-for-12.

As for the Hawks, they were led by English's game-high 21 points, while Dalante Dunklin registered a double-double with 15 points and 11 rebounds.

Game 4

Little Rock 49
San Diego State 43
Nov. 21, 2015 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State opened the Continental Tire Las Vegas Invitational with a non-bracketed 49-43 home loss to Little Rock.

The Aztecs were unable to overcome 28.3-percent shooting and 16 turnovers despite holding the Trojans to 35.3-percent from the floor. The 43 points allowed were also the fewest SDSU had given up all year and the fewest Little Rock had scored in 2015-16.

San Diego State scored two of the first three baskets of the game to take a 5-3 lead and it was all Little Rock for the rest of the half. The Trojans took a 19-8 lead as the Aztecs struggled to find the bottom of the net against Little Rock's zone defense.

SDSU trimmed its deficit to six with over five minutes to play, but the Trojans answered with five straight points before settling on a 26-19 lead at halftime.

The second half started like the first with a Jeremy Hemsley bucket, but this time the Aztecs were able to get themselves rolling, eventually taking a 30-29 lead thanks to a Ben Perez three-pointer.

Perez wound up giving SDSU the lead two more times down the stretch with threes, including a 41-38 advantage with 4:14 left in regulation. The Aztecs' shooting woes, however, continued as they scored just once more and were eventually outscored 11-2 to provide the Trojans' winning margin.

Hemsley and Dakarai Allen led San Diego State with 11 points apiece. Allen and Chol, meanwhile, led the Aztecs with seven rebounds.

Josh Hagins scored 14 points to lead all players and had six rebounds for the Trojans.

Game 5

San Diego State 79
East Carolina 54
Nov. 23, 2015 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - SDSU raced out to a 16-0 lead and never looked back in dismissing East Carolina, 79-54, in a non-bracketed Continental Tire Las Vegas Invitational game at Viejas Arena.

Head coach Steve Fisher started a brand-new lineup that featured Angelo Chol, Zylan Cheatham, Dakarai Allen, Trey Kell and Jeremy Hemsley, and the move proved fruitful.

The Aztecs went Allen three-pointer, jumper by Kell and a triple by Hemsley to start the game. Cheatham added a layup and Kell made back-to-back three-pointers to jump out the aforementioned 16-0 lead.

SDSU's advantage ballooned to 23 points after a Winston Shepard basket put the home team up, 32-9. The Pirates whittled their deficit to 16 points, but the Aztecs finished the final 5:18 of the half on an 11-4 spurt to regain their 23-point margin at halftime.

The second half was much like the first with the Aztecs ahead comfortably. East Carolina opened the frame on a 12-5 run to close its gap to 16 points, but it never got closer than 16 the rest of the way.

Hemsley finished with a game-high 16 points on the strength of a career-high four three-pointers. Shepard, who came off the bench, also scored 16 despite taking only three shots, all of which he made. He reached his total after knocking down a career-high 10 free throws.

Kell chipped in 15 points, while Allen had 11. Cheatham, who made his first career start, nearly missed a double-double with nine points and a game-high eight rebounds.

Game 6

San Diego State 72
No. 14/13 California 58
Nov. 26, 2015 ♦ Las Vegas, Nev.
Orleans Arena ♦ Att.: 3,125

LAS VEGAS - San Diego State rallied from a 15-point second-half deficit to upset No. 14/13 California, 72-58, in the semifinal round of the Continental Tire Las Vegas Invitational at the Orleans Arena.

The Aztecs' successful second-half rally was the second-largest overcome in a victory since 1996-97 and extended their non-conference winning streak over California schools to 43.

SDSU found itself in the unfavorable position in large part to it missing 17 of its final 18 shots of the first half, which put it down, 36-28, at halftime.

Coming out of the locker room, the Aztecs missed their first shot, while the Golden Bears made three of their first four shots and added a pair of free throws to go up by 15 points.

Then the comeback started. Angelo Chol started the rally with a layup and it was followed by a Jeremy Hemsley three-pointer. Then Winston Shepard took over by scoring nine straight points to cap a 14-0 run, but the Aztecs still trailed, 45-44.

California stopped the run with a three-pointer from Jordan Mathews, but it hardly halted SDSU's momentum as it answered with two Skylar Spencer dunks and another Shepard basket. The Golden Bears tied the score at 50 on a tip-in from Ivan Rabb, but San Diego State finished the final 8:17 by going on a 22-8 run to complete the upset.

Shepard and Spencer each scored 15 points off the bench (career high for Spencer) and Hemsley added 14 points and a career-high six rebounds. Zylan Cheatham posted his first double-double with a career-high 13 points and 10 rebounds.

Rabb led all players with his 18 points, while grabbing nine rebounds. Tyrone Wallace, meanwhile, scored 16 points.

Game 7

No. rv/22 West Virginia 72
San Diego State 50
Nov. 27, 2015 ♦ Las Vegas, Nev.
Orleans Arena ♦ Att.: 3,245

LAS VEGAS - San Diego State could not handle the full-court pressure that No. rv/22 West Virginia applied for the full 40 minutes and fell, 72-50, in the championship game of the Continental Tire Las Vegas Invitational at the Orleans Arena.

The Mountaineer press gave the Aztecs fits as they turned the ball over 21 times, which led to 30 West Virginia points. Couple that with SDSU's inability to connect from the perimeter (0-for-9 from three-point distance) and the result was its largest defeat of the season.

The game started off on a good note for the Aztecs as they took a 3-0 lead in the opening minutes and led, 6-4, over four minutes into the game. West Virginia, however, forced four turnovers and the Aztecs into missing four straight shots while scoring 15 consecutive points to take a 19-6 lead.

SDSU whittled its deficit to single digits, but never got closer than seven points before heading into the locker room down, 34-26.

When play resumed, the Mountaineers picked up where they left off, pressuring the Aztecs and forcing them into tough shots. At the time of the first media timeout, West Virginia completed a 12-4 run to take a 16-point lead.

By the time the eight-minute media timeout occurred, San Diego State was looking at 21-point deficit and an uphill battle it could not overcome unlike its performance the night before when it rallied from 15 down in the second half against No. 14/13 California to win.

Jeremy Hemsley was the only Aztec in double figures as he scored 14 points. Skylar Spencer, meanwhile, blocked a career-high seven shots and tied the all-time Mountain West record for most blocked shots in a career (244).

Game 8

San Diego State 76
Long Beach State 72
Dec. 1, 2015 ♦ Long Beach, Calif.
Walter Pyramid ♦ Att.: 4,365

LONG BEACH, Calif. - Trey Kell hit four of his five three-point attempts in the second half to help San Diego State regain a lead it would ultimately keep in a 76-72 road victory at Long Beach State.

The Aztecs, who led at halftime, 40-32, kept the 49ers at a safe distance in the opening minutes of the second half. Long Beach State, however, turned a 10-point deficit into a three-point lead thanks to 17-4 run that covered nearly nine minutes.

The 49ers took a 53-50 lead with 8:31 to go thanks to a Nick Faust triple, but right after is when Kell caught fire. The sophomore answered on the next possession with a three-pointer of his own and two possessions later, added another to give SDSU a 58-56 advantage.

The Aztecs eventually extended their lead to four, but Justin Bibbins got the home side back to within one with a three-pointer. Kell responded with this third trey of the night, which was followed by two 49er free throws.

With Long Beach State down, 65-63, with 4:41 to play, SDSU put the game just out of reach as a result of a Dakarai Allen triple and yet another Kell three-pointer, which spurred an 8-0 run.

The 49ers were not done, scoring six straight points to make it a 73-69 game with 22 seconds left, but the Aztecs made three free throws down the stretch to provide the final margin.

Kell led San Diego State with 13 points on the strength of his career-high four three-pointers. Allen chipped in with 11 points, while Ben Perez and Jeremy Hemsley added 10 point apiece. Skylar Spencer, meanwhile, had one blocked shot, which set the Mountain West career shot-block record (245).

Faust led all players with 20 points, but was assessed a technical foul that led to a pair of Winston Shepard free throws and a four-point SDSU lead with 6:08 remaining.

Dec. 6, 2015 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Petco Park ♦ Att.: 10,086

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State made only three field goals in the first half and nearly overcame its inaccuracy in a 53-48 loss to cross-town foe San Diego in the first-ever college basketball game played at Petco Park, the home of the San Diego Padres.

The Aztecs missed 17 of their 20 first-half attempts and trailed, 31-13, at halftime. The Toreros, on the other hand, knocked down seven three-pointers in the first 20 minutes, including four from Olin Carter III and three by Duda Sanadze.

After halftime, the second half started poorly for the Aztecs as they missed two shots and committed a turnover. Sanadze, meanwhile, opened the scoring with another three-pointer to extend USD's lead to 21 points.

Trey Kell answered a triple of his own, but the Toreros led by 21 points twice more before SDSU began to slowly chip away at its deficit. The Aztecs scored eight straight points and trailed by 13 with just over 12 minutes to play.

USD responded with consecutive baskets only to have San Diego State storm back with a 19-3 run, which got the Aztecs to within one point at 46-45 with 1:16 left in regulation.

Down the stretch, San Diego State had four empty possessions and USD went 5-for-6 from the free-throw line to take a 51-45 lead with 18 seconds left. Kell snapped the Aztecs' drought with a three-pointer with 11 seconds remaining in the game, but Brett Bailey put a stamp on the victory with a dunk as the Toreros snapped SDSU's nine-game series winning streak.

For the second straight game, Kell led the team in scoring with 14 points and added six rebounds. Angelo Chol, meanwhile, added seven points and a game-high seven rebounds.

For San Diego, it was led by Sanadze's 15 points, all of which came on three-pointers. Carter III went scoreless in the second half, but still managed 12 points and five rebounds.

Game 10

San Diego State 73
Biola 53

Dec. 7, 2015 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State bounced back from a loss just over 24 hours earlier to defeat Biola, 73-53, at Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs, who lost to USD at Petco Park the day before, received 16 points apiece by a pair of freshmen in Zylan Cheatham and Jeremy Hemsley.

Cheatham, a redshirt freshman, made 5-of-8 attempts from the field and grabbed six rebounds. Hemsley, who is in his first year, was 6-for-9 shooting and had a game-high two steals.

The Eagles stayed with the Aztecs for nearly 11 minutes on the strength of four three-pointers, the last of which tied the game at 18 with 9:38 left in the first half. San Diego State, however, scored nine straight points to pull away for the time being. Biola stopped the run with a pair of Dakari Archer free throws and he added a triple to cut the Eagles deficit to six.

With 4:33 left in the frame, Sherman Vernon II nailed another three-pointer to get his team to within five points. The Aztecs ended up closing the half on a 14-2 run with the final two coming on a Skylar Spencer tip-in right before the buzzer to give SDSU a 45-28 halftime lead.

In the second half, the Aztecs continued to dominate the Eagles in all facets, but SDSU had to hold off one last mini-rally. With San Diego State ahead, 54-33, after a Hemsley three-pointer, Biola scored six consecutive points to get within 15, but that would be as close as it would get the rest of the way.

Winston Shepard joined Hemsley and Cheatham in double figures with 11 points, while Angelo Chol finished with eight points and a career-high eight boards.

Game 11

San Diego State 84
Nicholls 47

Dec. 10, 2015 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State received a solid effort from its starting backcourt of Jeremy Hemsley and Trey Kell in an 84-47 home victory over Nicholls.

The duo combined for 35 points on 13-of-19 shooting (4-6 3FG), seven rebounds, five assists and five steals. Leading the way was the true freshman Hemsley, who tied a career high with 20 points and added a game-high four assists. Kell, meanwhile, matched his career high with 15 points and led all players with three steals.

The Aztecs held a 7-4 advantage early in the game until Hemsley jumpstarted a 15-2 run, one in which he scored eight points. Kell ended the scoring binge with a jumper and later made a three-pointer with 48 seconds left in the half, giving SDSU a 24-point lead before settling on a 23-point cushion going into the locker room.

When the second half started, Kell and Hemsley were at it again, beginning with a Kell three-pointer. Later, Kell assisted on a Hemsley layup and the freshman, who was fouled on the play, converted the three-point chance, which put the Aztecs up, 50-21.

San Diego State was never threatened the rest of the way and had its lead swell to 37 twice midway through the half before ultimately winning by the same margin.

Joining Hemsley and Kell in double figures was Winston Shepard, who posted his first double-double of the season with 13 points and 10 rebounds in 19 minutes. Ben Perez, meanwhile, scored a career-high 11 points off the bench.

Game 12

Grand Canyon 52
San Diego State 45

Dec. 18, 2015 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State held a two-point lead with under three minutes to play, but could not hold on as it fell to visiting Grand Canyon, 52-45.

Both teams struggled to find the bottom of the net with neither shooting above 34 percent. The Antelopes shot 33.9 percent, while the Aztecs connected on just 31.5 percent.

The first half was tight throughout as the teams traded baskets for a good portion of the 20 minutes. GCU led, 13-8, but then San Diego State went on a 7-1 run to take a 20-14 lead with 5:57 to go.

The Antelopes, however, answered with their own spurt, scoring eight unanswered points to take a 22-20 lead just before halftime, but Jeremy Hemsley knocked down a jumper to level the score with four seconds left as the teams headed for the locker room.

When play resumed, no team led by more than four points until Grand Canyon started to pull away with under three minutes left in regulation. SDSU led, 45-43, with 2:59 on the game clock and the Antelopes finished the contest by scoring nine consecutive points to provide the final margin.

In the final 2:59, the Aztecs did not do themselves any favors. They missed the front end of a 1-and-1 and did not connect on five straight field-goal attempts, including four from behind the three-point arc.

Hemsley led SDSU with 13 points and two assists. Zylan Cheatham had seven points and a career-high 11 rebounds. Trey Kell also set a personal record for rebounds with seven to go with seven points.

Game 13

No. 2/3 Kansas 70
San Diego State 57
Dec. 22, 2015 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State's second-half rally fell short in a 70-57 defeat to No. 2/3 Kansas at Viejas Arena.

With the loss, the Aztecs had two lengthy streaks broken. The decision snapped a 23-game winning streak in the game immediately following a loss and stopped a string of 94 consecutive games without suffering two losses in a row.

SDSU looked poised to erase a 39-27 halftime deficit when it opened the second half with consecutive dunks by Skylar Spencer and Zylan Cheatham. The buckets started a 12-4 run to help the Aztecs trim their deficit to 43-39 with just under 15 minutes to go in the game.

After Cheatham made two free throws, San Diego State forced a Kansas turnover thanks to a Jeremy Hemsley steal and the Aztecs were off and running. The freshman, however, missed a fastbreak layup and Winston Shepard had his put-back dunk rim out and the momentum slowly shifted.

The Jayhawks answered with two missed shots, but corralled the offensive boards each time, which later led to a pair of Jamari Traylor free throws. Spencer responded with another dunk for SDSU, but KU came back with 11 straight points to effectively put the game away.

The Aztecs were in the position to make a comeback thanks to a first-half-ending 8-4 run, six of which were credited to Hemsley. The spurt helped cut a 16-point hole down to a manageable 12-point deficit.

Cheatham led SDSU in points (12), rebounds (8) and assists with a career-high four. Hemsley added 10 points.

Perry Ellis led all players with 20 points and Frank Mason III chipped in 12 for Kansas.

Game 14

San Diego State 67
Wyoming 55
Dec. 30, 2015 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State, the two-time defending Mountain West regular-season champions, stopped a two-game losing streak with its ninth straight MW-opening victory, a 67-55 decision over visiting Wyoming.

The Aztecs allowed a Josh Adams jumper to start the game, but then responded with a game-changing 10-0 run to lead, 10-2, before the clock hit 16:00.

Wyoming briefly slowed SDSU with a basket coming out of the media timeout, but San Diego State answered once again with seven unanswered points.

The Cowboys, however, ended the first half on a 16-10 run to close their gap as the Aztecs entered the locker room ahead, 35-25. In the first 20 minutes, Adams led all players with 13 points, while Trey Kell poured in 12 for SDSU.

In the second half, Wyoming scored the first five points and ultimately trailed, 44-40, with 10:17 left after Jason McManamen knocked down a three-pointer. Jeremy Hemsley, however, returned the favor and then some by hitting consecutive threes in consecutive possession to push SDSU's lead back to 10.

The Cowboys cut their deficit to nine, but Winston Shepard converted a three-point play and San Diego State led by double figures the rest of the way save for the time when Alan Herndon hit a trey with 1:11 in the game to help Wyoming get to within nine.

Shepard, Hemsley and Adams each scored 16 points to lead all players with Hemsley scoring 14 of his points in the second half. Shepard added a career-high 11 rebounds to post his second double-double of the season.

Kell chipped in with 14 points, while Skylar Spencer posted eight points and a season-high 12 rebounds, which led to SDSU's 50 boards, an MW single-game school record.

Game 15

San Diego State 70
Utah State 67
Jan. 2, 2016 ♦ Logan, Utah
Dee Glen Smith Spectrum ♦ Att.: 8,626

LOGAN, Utah - San Diego State nearly had a 13-point second-half lead slip away, but made plays down the stretch to fend off homestanding Utah State, 70-67.

SDSU had four of its five starters score in double figures for the first time this season and received a second straight strong effort from Winston Shepard. The senior forward finished with 18 points, six rebounds, five assists, one blocked shot and five steals.

Joining Shepard in double figures was Zylan Cheatham and Trey Kell, who each had 13 points, and Jeremy Hemsley, who registered 10 points and five assists.

The Aztecs led, 39-36, at halftime and came out firing on all cylinders when play resumed. San Diego State scored 10 unanswered points with the last four coming from Shepard to put the visitors ahead by the aforementioned 13 points with 17:08 left to play.

In less than three minutes, the Aggies were down by six, but the Aztecs kept them at a safe distance for the next several possessions.

As the game was winding down, Utah State faced a 65-64 deficit with 1:04 left in regulation. Cheatham, however, answered on the other end of the court with a layup, putting the Aztecs in front, 67-64, with 38 seconds to go.

On the ensuing possession, the Aggies went to Shane Rector, who had his layup blocked by Shepard. The rebound when to USU, but Chris Smith could not convert his field-goal attempt and Shepard corralled the carom and was fouled. He ultimately made one of two free throws, which proved to be crucial in what would end up as a three-point win.

Lew Evans led all players with 22 points and 11 rebounds for Utah State. Jalen Moore had 13 points, and Smith and Rector had 12 and 11 points, respectively.

Game 16

San Diego State 77
San José State 62
Jan. 6, 2016 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State continued to roll in Mountain West action and won for the third time in three outings, this time defeating San José State, 77-62.

The Aztecs received huge contributions from their starting lineup, beginning with point guard Jeremy Hemsley. The true freshman scored SDSU's first eight points and ultimately finished with a career-high 20. He started the game by knocking down his first six shots from the field, including a career-high four three-pointers, before turning in a 7-for-9 shooting line (4-6 3FG).

Winston Shepard was also very good as he filled the stat sheet with 17 points, five rebounds, a game-high six assists and two steals. Zylan Cheatham matched Shepard with 17 points and Trey Kell added 10. The fifth member of the lineup, Skylar Spencer, grabbed a game-high eight rebounds.

The fivesome started the game and helped the Aztecs enjoy an 11-point lead with 3:36 left in the first half. The Spartans, however, closed the frame on a 14-5 run, which cut their deficit to two points, 37-35, at intermission.

SJSU took a 40-39 lead in the opening minutes of the second half, but a 12-0 SDSU run bumped the Aztecs ahead by 11. The Spartans scored the next three points to trail by single digits only to have San Diego State respond by scoring 14 of the next 19 points to take a commanding 65-48 lead.

San José State got to within 10 points of the Aztecs with 6:17 left in the game, but would not get any closer as SDSU won for the 155th straight time when leading with five minutes to play.

The Spartans were led by Ryan Welage and Princeton Onwas, who both scored 23 points. Welage was 9-for-18 from the floor and Onwas made half of his 16 attempts.

Game 17

San Diego State 69
Colorado State 62
Jan. 13, 2016 ♦ Fort Collins, Colo.
Moby Arena ♦ Att.: 4,018

FORT COLLINS, Colo. - San Diego State received a pair of strong performances from a pair of sophomores to help defeat Colorado State, 69-62, at Moby Arena.

Trey Kell was aggressive from the start and found his groove en route to a game- and career-high 19 points to go with a personal-best five assists and zero turnovers. Classmate Malik Pope, meanwhile, came off the bench and matched his season high with 14 points, a year after exploding for 22 points against the Rams in Moby.

The game was won in the final minute after CSU's Fred Richardson III made two free throws with 1:05 left in the game. With the score level at 62, Kell knocked down a shot in the paint and the Aztecs got a stop on the defensive end, one that ended with Pope grabbing the rebound and getting fouled himself. Pope made both free throws on the other end to give the visitors a 66-62 lead.

On the next possession, San Diego State got yet another stop, this time highlighted by a steal from Kell. Skylar Spencer followed suit on Colorado State's next trip down the floor, which led to Winston Shepard knocking down the second of two free throws to give the Aztecs a 67-62 advantage with 14 seconds left.

Then for good measure, Jeremy Hemsley picked the pocket of John Gillon with six seconds left in the game and made a pair of free throws after being fouled to provide the final seven-point margin.

Hemsley finished his 33-minute outing with 14 points with Shepard adding eight points. Spencer grabbed a game-high eight rebounds, marking his fourth straight game with at least that many.

CSU was led by Joe De Ciman's 16 points on 4-for-6 shooting from behind the three-point arc. Tiel Daniels scored 15 points.

Game 18

San Diego State 56
Boise State 53
Jan. 16, 2016 ♦ Boise, Idaho
Taco Bell Arena ♦ Att.: 10,421

BOISE, Idaho - San Diego State put an end to Boise State's 10-game winning streak and 17-game home winning streak with a 56-53 victory over the Broncos inside Taco Bell Arena.

The game started off with both teams having trouble finding the bottom of the net. The Aztecs missed their first seven attempts from the floor before Zylan Cheatham ended the drought nearly 2:30 into the game. Boise State, meanwhile, missed its first four shots, but got on the board with a pair of Chandler Hutchinson free throws after 5:53 had passed. Zach Haney made the Broncos first basket 7:10 into the game, which tied the score at 6-6.

The Aztecs led by as many as five points in the first half, but Boise State fought its way back and eventually took a three-point lead with under two minutes remaining. Dakarai Allen, however, scored SDSU's final four points and the visitors went into the locker room down, 26-25.

The start of the second half was much different than that first as the teams combined to shoot 8-for-11 out of the gate. The eighth field goal was a three-pointer by Malik Pope to give the Aztecs a 37-35 advantage.

The score remained close and SDSU found itself ahead, 41-40 with over 10 minutes to play. It was at this point the Aztecs began to take over, outscoring the Broncos, 13-6, over a 4:28 span to take a 54-44 lead.

Boise State would not go down quietly, scoring the next six points and forcing six turnovers. But with under a minute to go, SDSU was able to break BSU's press that produced the turnovers and Trey Kell found Pope for a dunk put the Aztecs up six.

The Broncos, who missed their first 14 three-point attempts, finally got one to fall with 21 seconds left and had two chances in the final six seconds, but Pope blocked the first one and the other was off the mark securing the SDSU win.

Game 19

San Diego State 73
Fresno State 67 (ot)

Jan. 19, 2016 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State let a seven-point lead with 3:30 left slip away, but rebounded in overtime to defeat visiting Fresno State, 73-67.

The Aztecs led, 53-46, after Winston Shepard made the second of two free throws and then went scoreless for the next 4:16. During that same time frame, the Bulldogs scored five points to get within two points before Trey Kell ended SDSU's drought with a three-point play.

With the Aztecs up by five, Fresno State's Marvelle Harris came down the floor on the next possession and nailed his only three-pointer of the game after missing his first six from behind the three-point arc. Kell gave San Diego State a 57-54 lead after he made the front end of a 1-and-1 situation, but following a scramble play in the final seconds, Cezar Guerrero made a one-footed off-balance three from the corner to push the game into overtime.

In the extra session, the Aztecs won the tip and Kell promptly made two free throws after being fouled by Guerrero. SDSU owned a 62-61 lead with 2:57 left until Kell knocked down a three from 30 feet away to create some separation.

The Aztecs opened up an eight-point lead after Skylar Spencer and Winston Shepard combined to make four straight free throws on back-to-back possessions and the cushion was enough to send SDSU to its sixth straight victory.

Kell led all players with a career-high 27 points on 9-of-13 shooting. He also added five rebounds, a team-high four assists and a career-high three steals.

Zylan Cheatham and Jeremy Hemsley each scored 11 points, Spencer had 11 rebounds and Shepard finished with nine points and nine rebounds.

Fresno State's leading scorer on the season, Harris, had 12 points on 4-of-20 shooting.

Game 20

San Diego State 70
Utah State 55

Jan. 23, 2016 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State went on a 31-7 second-half run to turn a two-point deficit into a 22-point lead as the Aztecs downed Utah State, 70-55, at Viejas Arena. The win was SDSU's seventh straight.

After going into halftime ahead, 37-32, the Aggies opened the second period on a 9-2 run to take a 41-39 lead. The Aztecs, however, responded with a 12-0 run of their own, which was helped by 10 points from Trey Kell.

Utah State briefly stopped San Diego State with a three-pointer, but the Aztecs answered again, this time with a 15-2 run to open up a 20-point lead with 6:10 left in regulation. Three minutes later, Angelo Chol knocked down a jumper to give SDSU the aforementioned 22-point cushion.

The Chol basket would be San Diego State's final points of the game, but its advantage was plenty even with the Aggies scoring the last seven points of the game.

Jeremy Hemsley led all players with 18 points, while adding three assists and two steals. Kell, who only had three points in the first half, finished with 15. Chol, meanwhile, came off the bench and scored a career-high 12 points and grabbed a personal-best nine rebounds.

Joining Chol off the bench was Matt Shrigley, who was making his first appearance of the season after rehabbing a right ACL injury suffered in July. The junior played nine minutes, missed all three of his attempts from the field and grabbed one rebound.

Utah State was led by Shane Rector's 15 points, four assists and six steals in 29 minutes off the bench. Darius Perkins scored 13 points and Jalen Moore chipped in 11 points and five rebounds.

Game 21

San Diego State 57
Nevada 54

Jan. 26, 2016 ♦ Reno, Nev.
Lawlor Events Center ♦ Att.: 6,250

RENO, Nev. - San Diego State rallied from a seven-point hole with just over six minutes to play to defeat Nevada, 57-54, in Lawlor Events Center to stay undefeated in the Mountain West.

SDSU trailed the Wolf Pack, 51-44, with 6:10 left in the game, but began its winning rally with a Winston Shepard layup, which led to nine additional points. During the Aztecs' 11-0 run, Shepard scored four points and Trey Kell poured in five to help move SDSU out in front, 55-51, with 1:41 left.

In the time it took San Diego State to take the lead, Nevada missed six straight shots and two free throws before Marqueze Coleman made a layup with 59 seconds remaining on the clock.

On SDSU's next possession, Kell missed a three-pointer and Coleman made the first of two free throws to get the Wolf Pack to within one of the Aztecs. Zylan Cheatham grabbed the rebound and Shepard was fouled, but left the door open for Nevada after he missed the front end of a 1-and-1.

San Diego State, however, forced a Wolf Pack turnover and Cheatham made both of his free throws to put the visitors ahead, 57-54. Nevada, meanwhile, had one last chance to tie the game, but Coleman's last-second heave was off the mark and inside the three-point arc, allowing the Aztecs to win the game.

Before San Diego State's successful rally, it appeared Nevada was going to hand the Aztecs their first conference loss. The Wolf Pack limited SDSU to 24.0 percent shooting in the first half and owned a 17-3 advantage in points off turnovers en route to a 33-26 lead at halftime. In fact, San Diego State only led for 6:36 for the entire game.

SDSU had three players record double-doubles, something that had not been done at the school since Jan. 29, 2008. The Aztecs also tied the MW record for longest conference road win streak (7) and matched the school record for most consecutive MW wins (10).

Game 22

San Diego State 67
UNLV 52

Jan. 30, 2016 ♦ Las Vegas, Nev.
Thomas & Mack Center ♦ Att.: 15,243

LAS VEGAS - San Diego State ended the first half of conference play with a 67-52 victory over UNLV at Thomas & Mack Center. The win was SDSU's ninth in a row and seventh straight over the Rebels.

The win also marked the Aztecs' eighth consecutive road victory over conference foes, which set the new standard in the Mountain West, and their 11th straight in conference, which established a school record.

The first half was a classic SDSU-UNLV contest with both teams matching one another. Just past the midway point, the Aztecs took a 19-12 lead on a Zylan Cheatham layup, but the Rebels answered with five straight points. SDSU looked poised to take a 28-27 lead into halftime, but Skylar Spencer's tip-in right before the horn was good, giving the visitors a three-point cushion.

San Diego State increased its lead to 39-33 with 14:29 left in the second half, but UNLV cut its deficit to one point. Dakarai Allen, however, answered with a scoop shot, but Ike Nwamu kept the Rebels close with a dunk. On the next trip down the floor for SDSU, Jeremy Hemsley found Allen in the corner and the junior knocked down a three-pointer to spur a 7-0 run and the Aztecs were never threatened in the final nine minutes.

Trey Kell led San Diego State with 14 points and his backcourt teammate, Hemsley, scored 13. Winston Shepard added 11 points and Allen finished with 10. Spencer chipped in seven points and a team-high nine rebounds.

SDSU outrebounded the Rebels, 44-27, which helped it post its largest margin of victory in the series since 2007 and the largest margin in games played in Las Vegas.

For UNLV, it was led by Stephen Zimmerman Jr.'s 14 points and 10 rebounds. Derrick Jones Jr. scored 12 and Patrick McCaw added 10.

Game 23

San Diego State 69
Colorado State 67

Feb. 2, 2016 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State rallied late in the first half to take the lead and ultimately hung on in the end to defeat visiting Colorado State, 69-67, at Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs trailed, 25-15, with 8:16 left in the first half after the Rams made three-pointer after three-pointer. But San Diego State clamped down defensively and forced Colorado State to miss its final 13 shots. SDSU, meanwhile, outscored the Rams, 17-3, during the same time frame to take a 32-28 lead into the locker room.

The Aztecs made their first two attempts from the field to open the second half, but Colorado State did as well. It was a sign of things to come as the rest of the game was a two-possession game or less.

With under three minutes to play, Antwan Scott made the second of consecutive three-pointers for Colorado State to put it up, 65-62.

On the next possession, Malik Pope found himself with the ball and the shot clock running down. The forward swept to his right and made a running mid-range jumper and then answered with a blocked shot. The defensive stop allowed Jeremy Hemsley to connect on a driving layup and it was followed by one free-throw apiece from Kell and Hemsley.

Up three with eight seconds to play, Hemsley fouled John Gillon, who made both free throws. Then CSU countered by fouling Winston Shepard, who made only one free throw setting up Gillon's coast-to-coast layup attempt that he missed right before the final horn.

Kell led the Aztecs with 19 points and Hemsley added 16 points and five assists. Shepard nearly had a double-double with 14 points and nine boards, while Pope turned in 10 points, five rebounds, three assists and three blocked shots.

Game 24

San Diego State 78
New Mexico 71 (ot)

Feb. 6, 2016 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State rallied from five down with 22 seconds left to force overtime and then ended the extra session on a 10-0 run to beat New Mexico, 78-71, to improve to 11-0 in the Mountain West.

The Aztecs led, 56-52, with 3:40 left in the second half before the Lobos scored nine of the next 10 points to move ahead, 61-57. Jeremy Hemsley answered with four again, but New Mexico went out ahead by four again, only to have the freshman respond with another basket.

Trailing 63-61, San Diego State forced UNM's Tim Williams into missing a mid-range jumper, but Zylan Cheatham could not grab the rebound and the Lobos had another chance. After running down the shot clock, Elijah Brown made an off-balance three-pointer to put the visitors ahead, 66-61, with 14 seconds left.

Winston Shepard cut the deficit to three on a put-back off a Hemsley miss. After a timeout, the Lobos turned the ball over on a misplayed inbounds play. With 12 seconds left, SDSU inbounded the ball and Malik Pope found himself wide open at the top of the arc and knocked down the game-tying three with eight seconds left. The Aztecs successfully defended the rest of the clock and the game went into OT.

In overtime, New Mexico led by three with 2:10 left, but a tip-in by Shepard jumpstarted a 10-0 run to finish off the Lobos. During the spurt, Hemsley scored six points with Shepard adding four.

Hemsley finished with a career-high 23 points and six rebounds, and Shepard added 15 points, seven rebounds and a season-high six assists. Trey Kell contributed 12 points and Skylar Spencer narrowly missed a double-double with eight points and 10 rebounds.

Fresno State 58
San Diego State 57
Feb. 10, 2016 ♦ Fresno, Calif.
Save Mart Center ♦ Att.: 6,476

FRESNO, Calif. - San Diego State was undone by 18 turnovers and eight missed free throws in a 58-57 loss at Fresno State, which snapped the Aztecs' 11-game winning streak.

Even with its misfortune, SDSU found itself with a chance to win the game in the final seconds. Down 58-57 with seven seconds left, the Aztecs had the ball after calling a timeout. When play resumed, Trey Kell went to his right and missed a fall-away mid-range jumper. Winston Shepard attempted to tip the ball in, but was called for offensive interference and the Bulldogs hung on for the win.

San Diego State twice held double-digits leads in the game, leading by 12 in the first half and 11 in the second. In the first half, the Aztecs led, 26-14, but Fresno State closed on a 15-4 run to trail SDSU, 30-29. During the time the Bulldogs went on their run, the Aztecs were 0-for-6 from the field (0-5 3FG) and committed five turnovers.

Then when San Diego State enjoyed a 42-31 lead with 16:19 to play, Fresno State scored seven straight points to trail by four. The Bulldogs finally scaled their second uphill battle to tie the score at 50 with 6:44 to play.

From that point forward, SDSU was 1-for-7 from the floor, 4-for-6 from the free-throw line and committed three turnovers. Shepard went 1-for-2 from the stripe to level the score at 54, and Zylan Cheatham was 3-for-4, which ultimately brought the score to 58-57 with 42 seconds remaining, setting up the final sequence.

Jeremy Hemsley scored a team-high 18 points and Kell chipped in with 16. Cheatham added nine points and nine rebounds for an Aztec team that outrebounded Fresno State, 41-29.

Marville Harris finished with a game-high 20 points for the Bulldogs, who were without two starters and lost another during the game due to injury.

Game 26

San Diego State 70
Air Force 61
Feb. 13, 2016 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - Malik Pope and Matt Shrigley made their first six three-pointers combined in a span of 4:07 in the first half to help San Diego State defeat Air Force, 70-61.

The duo entered the game with 15:46 left in the first half and the game tied, 4-4, only to have the Falcons' Jacob Van make a trey. On the ensuing possession, Pope made a three and then Shrigley, who was 0-for-14 from the floor (0-13 3FG) in his first six games, went three, three, three, three. Pope added a three-pointer before Shrigley's fourth triple and the Aztecs led, 22-14.

Shrigley missed his fifth attempt, but Pope connected on his third to lift SDSU to an 11-point lead with 10:18 to play. The Aztecs would lead by as many as 14 points in the half before settling for a 38-32 advantage at intermission.

San Diego State stretched its lead back to 11 points, moving ahead, 50-39, on a Dakarai Allen three-pointer with 13:16 left. Allen started the game in place of Jeremy Hemsley, who dressed but did not play due to a bruised right foot.

The Falcons, however, answered by scoring six straight points and made it a 54-52 game after going on 13-4 run. SDSU gained a little breathing room when Pope tipped in an Angelo Chol miss and the basket jumped started an 8-0 run highlighted by back-to-back Trey Kell three-pointers.

Air Force made it a game down the stretch, taking advantage of missed free throws by the Aztecs, who made 1-of-4 from the charity stripe. During that span, the Falcons outscored SDSU, 7-1, to get within four points with 43 seconds left.

After Winston Shepard connected on the second of two free throws, SDSU made six in a row to put the game out of reach.

Kell led the Aztecs with 16 points, while Pope and Shrigley had 13 and 12, respectively. Shepard also scored 13 for SDSU.

Game 27

San Diego State 78
San José State 62
Feb. 21, 2016 ♦ San Jose, Calif.
The Event Center ♦ Att.: 3,317

SAN JOSE, Calif. - San Diego State surged past San José State in the second half to post a 78-56 victory at The Event Center to clinch at least a share of the Mountain West regular-season title.

In the first half, SDSU turned a close game into what looked to be a runaway. With 13:01 left on the clock, SJSU's Frank Rogers made a jumper to cut San Diego State's lead to 13-9. The Aztecs, however, responded by going on a 12-2 run to extend their lead to 25-11.

But like the Aztecs, the Spartans had an even more impressive run, scoring 16 of the game's next 19 points, helped by four three-pointers, including three from Cody Schwartz. The scoring barrage cut SJSU's deficit to one before San Diego State ended the half with a 33-29 lead.

In the second half, the Aztecs used a 17-2 run to turn a two-point game into a 17-point one thanks to easy buckets caused by suffocating pressure. And unlike the first half when SDSU let SJSU back into the game, the Aztecs kept the pedal to the metal, turning a 17-point cushion into a 24-point gap between the teams. San Diego State would eventually lead by as many as 25 points on two different occasions before winning by 22 points.

Four Aztecs reached double figures in scoring and were led by Winston Shepard and Malik Pope's 17 points apiece. Shepard added seven rebounds and a game-high seven assists, while Pope chipped in a career-high 11 rebounds and three blocked shots.

Trey Kell made all four of his three-point attempts and finished with 15 points. Jeremy Hemsley scored 13 points off the bench.

Game 28

San Diego State 73
Wyoming 61
Feb. 24, 2016 ♦ Laramie, Wyo.
Arena-Auditorium ♦ Att.: 5,408

LARAMIE, Wyo. - San Diego State won the outright Mountain West regular-season title for the third time in school history with its 73-61 victory at Wyoming.

SDSU led, 32-30, with 1:47 left in the first half before Trey Kell single-handily gave the Aztecs breathing room going into halftime. After consecutive free throws from Josh Adams, Kell successfully converted an and-one opportunity and nailed two three-pointers to cap a 9-3 spurt, which gave the visitors a 41-33 lead at half-time.

In the second half, Adams nearly brought the Cowboys all the back from a 10-point hole with 11 minutes to play. The senior scored five straight points and eight of Wyoming's next 11 points to help the Cowboys get to within, 56-51, with 6:23 left on the game clock.

But the trio of Kell, Jeremy Hemsley and Winston Shepard put the Aztecs back on top by 10 with four free throws and a jumper. Adams answered with a basket of his own, but the eight-point deficit at the time would be as close as Wyoming would get the rest of the way.

With under two minutes to play, Kell matched his career high with his fourth three-pointer to put SDSU ahead by 14 points. For Kell, it was his third straight game with four triples and the guard put the finishing touches on the win with three consecutive free throws.

Kell led the Aztecs with 24 points, while Shepard scored 10 of his 14 points in the second half. Hemsley chipped in with 13 points and a career-high four steals.

Adams, who left the game in the first half due to an injury and returned minutes later, led Wyoming with 27 points, but committed half of the team's 12 turnovers.

Game 29

Boise State 66
San Diego State 63
Feb. 27, 2016 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State let a nine-point lead with 1:40 left in the second half slip away as Boise State earned a 66-63 victory inside Viejas Arena.

In the final 100 seconds, the Aztecs went 1-for-8 from the free-throw line and missed their final seven from the charity stripe to leave the door open for the Broncos.

Boise State, meanwhile, made all six of its free-throw attempts and received two three-pointers from Nick Duncan, the last of which gave the Broncos a 64-63 lead with 23 seconds left. Prior to his pair of treys, Boise State was 1-for-11 from behind the three-point arc.

After Duncan's second three-pointer, the Aztecs called timeout and Trey Kell ended up dribbling the ball off his foot, turning the ball over to the Broncos with two seconds left. Anthony Drmic made two free throws to put Boise State up by three and a Malik Pope desperation three before the buzzer came up short.

A 16-3 run by the Aztecs helped turn a five-point deficit into the aforementioned nine-point lead. Trailing, 52-47, with 8:32 to play, San Diego State scored nine unanswered points before Paris Austin temporarily stopped the scoring spree. The Aztecs went on to score seven more points, including five from Kell to get SDSU out in front, 63-54, before giving up the lead.

The Aztecs needed a couple of runs to get themselves in a position to win, including one in the first half. After trailing by eight points with 1:37 to go, San Diego State received three free throws from Zylan Cheatham and a Pope three-pointer before the buzzer to get within two points at intermission.

Kell finished with a game-high 17 points and Jeremy Hemsley added 11 points off the bench. Cheatham, who battled foul trouble, contributed 10 points in 14 minutes.

Game 30

San Diego State 83
New Mexico 56
March 1, 2016 ♦ Albuquerque, N.M.
WisePies Arena ♦ Att.: 14,540

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - San Diego State rallied from an early 16-4 deficit before the second media timeout and blew open the game to ultimately post an 83-56 road win at New Mexico.

The Lobos led by the aforementioned 12 points and in trailing, 16-4, the Aztecs were 0-for-3 from the floor with three turnovers. Matt Shrigley stopped the bleeding with a three-pointer that jumpstarted a 16-0 run to propel SDSU to a 20-16 lead.

New Mexico answered with five consecutive points to move ahead, 21-20, with 8:01 left and that would be the last time the Lobos would lead. The Aztecs ended up finishing the first half on a 22-10 run to enter the locker room at halftime ahead, 42-31.

The Lobos scored the first four points of the second half, with the last two coming on a Sam Logwood jumper with 18:52 left. The basket was UNM's first since there was 8:52 remaining in the first.

The Aztecs responded with seven straight points to take a 14-point lead and would lead by double digits until there was 9:28 left. At that moment, Matt Shrigley fouled Elijah Brown hard and was ejected from the contest. Brown went on to make four straight free throws to cut the Lobos' deficit to six. SDSU responded with six unanswered points and never looked back.

In the final 7:03, San Diego State outscored New Mexico, 21-4, to hand the Lobos their worst home loss since 2002.

Malik Pope led all players with a season-high 20 points on 6-for-7 shooting. Trey Kell added 15 points and Dakarai Allen chipped in 11 points off the bench. Allen also helped hold Brown to 2-of-14 shooting and six turnovers.

Game 31

San Diego State 92
UNLV 56

March 5, 2016 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State overwhelmed UNLV with its depth and shot 48.5 percent from the floor in defeating the Runnin' Rebels, 92-56, in the regular-season finale at Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs, who posted the largest margin of victory in the 64-game history of the series, shot 55.2 percent from the field in the first half and was 13-for-28 from behind the three-point arc. That combo, plus 52 rebounds, which was a school Mountain West record, was a recipe for success in winning their eighth straight game in the series.

The Aztecs struggled early and did not score until Jeremy Hemsley scored with 17:24 left in the first half. UNLV later led, 16-12, before SDSU went on a game-clinching 25-6 run, which put it up, 37-22.

The Aztecs led, 40-27, with 45 seconds left and held for the last shot as the clock wound down. SDSU ended up turning the ball over and UNLV called a timeout. When play resumed, Dakarai Allen stole the inbound pass and Malik Pope finished the play with a dunk to put SDSU ahead, 40-27, at halftime.

The second half was all Aztecs as the shorthanded Rebels had no answer. UNLV only played eight players and its three subs combined for three points, two rebounds and one assist in 23 minutes.

Winston Shepard and Trey Kell led all Aztecs with 18 points apiece. Shepard added six rebounds, three assists and two steals. Malik Pope posted his second double-digit scoring effort in as many games with 12 points and Allen contributed 10 of his own. Zylan Cheatham, meanwhile, grabbed a team-high 10 rebounds and led the Aztecs with two blocked shots.

Game 32

[1] San Diego State 71
[9] Utah State 65

March 10, 2016 ♦ Las Vegas, Nev.
Thomas & Mack Center ♦ Att.: 8,279

LAS VEGAS - Top-seeded San Diego State overcame a poor shooting night to defeat ninth-seeded Utah State, 71-65, in the quarterfinal round of the 2016 Mountain West Championship.

SDSU missed numerous shots from a few feet away from the hoop, while the Aggies were making everything over the outstretched arms of the Aztecs.

That combination made for an interesting finish for the regular-season champions and a Utah State squad that had never beaten the Aztecs since it joined the league prior to the 2013-14 campaign.

The Aggies led by as many as five points, 59-54, with 5:59 left in the second half before free throws gave the Aztecs life. Winston Shepard made two, Trey Kell hit a jumper and then Dakarai Allen's one free throw tied the game at 59-59 with 3:22 to go.

USU's Lew Evans answered with a pair of free throws to put the Aggies ahead by two, but the Aztecs answered with a Malik Pope jumpshot, a jumper from Kell and one free throw from Shepard. With San Diego State up, 64-61, the Aggies got two more free throws from Evans only to have Kell knock down a pair himself. USU's Shane Rector brought the Aggies within one with two additional free throws, but the Aztecs made 5-of-6 from the charity stripe in the final three seconds to put the game away.

Kell, who was under the weather, finished with a game-high 17 points after scoring just two in the first half. Pope had a solid game with 15 points and seven rebounds, marking the first time he reached double figures in scoring in three straight outings. Shepard, meanwhile, put up 12 points, eight rebounds and three assists.

Utah State was led by Evans' 15 points and seven boards, and Jalen Moore added 14 points and nine rebounds. In all, four Aggies scored in double figures. The others were Julian Pearre (12) and Rector (11).

Game 33

[1] San Diego State 67
[5] Nevada 55

March 11, 2016 ♦ Las Vegas, Nev.
Thomas & Mack Center ♦ Att.: 8,036

LAS VEGAS - Top-seeded San Diego State closed the first half on an 11-6 run to open a 10-point lead at halftime, one in which it held onto in defeating fifth-seeded Nevada, 67-55, in the semifinal round of the Mountain West Championship.

The Aztecs opened up a 22-12 lead after a Trey Kell fastbreak dunk, which was started by a Dakarai Allen rejection. The throwdown capped a 10-3 spurt. Nevada answered with a 6-1 run to get the Wolf Pack to the aforementioned five-point lead for SDSU. After that, San Diego State closed by scoring 11 of the game's next 17 points to take a 34-24 lead into halftime.

The Aztecs could not carry their momentum as the second half began as Nevada tied the game at 38-38 as a result of the Wolf Pack's 14-4 scoring run. But just when things appeared to be dicey, Kell took over by scoring seven of the Aztecs' next eight points and all of a sudden, SDSU was ahead, 46-40, with 9:12 left in regulation.

Twice the Wolf Pack cut its deficit to four and each time San Diego State had an answer. The second time, Kell went on to make four straight free throws and Shepard made 1-of-2 to propel the Aztecs to a nine-point advantage.

San Diego State ended up opening a pair of 10-point leads down the stretch, but Nevada got to within six after an Eric Cooper Jr. three-pointer with 1:19 to play.

In the final 54 seconds, however, SDSU made eight of its final 10 free-throw attempts to seal a spot in the championship game.

Kell led the Aztecs in scoring with 15 points after another two-point first half for the second game in a row. Shepard posted 13 points and seven rebounds, while Allen and Zylan Cheatham each scored 11 points apiece.

For Nevada, it was led by Cameron Oliver's 21 points and 10 rebounds.

[2] Fresno State 68
[1] San Diego State 63

March 12, 2016 ♦ Las Vegas, Nev.
Thomas & Mack Center ♦ Att.: 8,132

LAS VEGAS - Top-seeded San Diego State came up short in becoming just the third Mountain West team to claim the outright regular-season title and win the conference tournament crown in its 68-63 defeat to second-seeded Fresno State at the MW Championship.

The Aztecs looked poised to turn the trick as they led, 52-46, with 12:50 to go in the second half. Then in the final nine-plus minutes, the game totally flipped thanks to Jahmel Taylor's three-pointer, which leveled the score at 52-52.

Each team had an answer for each other down the stretch and Winston Shepard gave the Aztecs a 62-61 lead with 3:27 to play. Then with under 1:45 left in the game, Julien Lewis canned a three-pointer, giving the Bulldogs a two-point edge.

The basket looked like the dagger Fresno State was in search of, but SDSU held on the defensive end and Dakarai Allen was fouled, sending him to the line for two shots. The junior made the first and missed the second, leaving FS in the driver's seat.

A foul on Winston Shepard sent Lewis to the line and he made both of his 1-and-1 attempts to put the Bulldogs up by three with 23 seconds left.

On the Aztecs' next possession, Jeremy Hemsley drove the lane, but was met by a wall of Fresno State defenders. The Bulldogs recovered the ball and Lewis was fouled one more time prior to him making another two free throws to ice the game.

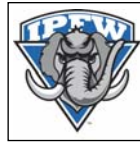

Malik Pope, who made his first five shot attempts, including two from behind the three-point arc, finished with a game-high 19 points and 11 rebounds. Shepard, meanwhile, flirted with a triple after posting 15 points, eight rebounds and a career-high seven assists.

Marvelle Harris was the lone Bulldog in double figures with 18 points.

Game 35

[2] San Diego State 79
[7] IPFW 55

March 15, 2016 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 8,324

SAN DIEGO - Second-seeded San Diego State received a triple-double from Winston Shepard to help defeat seventh-seeded IPFW, 79-55, in the first round of the NIT.

Shepard had a career-high eight assists in the first half en route to a game-high 12, and then finished with 10 points and 10 rebounds to post SDSU's first triple-double in school history.

The forward was responsible for eight of the Aztecs' 10 first-half assists, which helped San Diego State jump out to a 40-22 lead at halftime. In the first half alone, SDSU made 53.3 percent of its attempts from the field, while holding the Mastodons to 27.6-percent shooting.

In the second half, San Diego State matched its first-half shooting effort, making an identical 16-of-30 shots from the field. Defensively, IPFW made a few more shots than it did in the first, but it was not enough as the Aztecs enjoyed a lead no smaller than 19 points in the final 20 minutes.

Joining Shepard in double figures in scoring was Malik Pope, who had 15 points and eight rebounds, and Dakarai Allen, who finished with 10 points. The trio was a part of a group of 10 players that saw the ball go through the hoop.

For IPFW, it was led by John Konchar's 10 points and game-high 18 rebounds, while Max Landis posted 14 points on 5-of-15 shooting after coming in averaging 19.5 points (.457 FG).

The Aztecs held the Mastodons to 55 points, their third-fewest points in a game on the season. On the flip side, SDSU outscored IPFW in points in the paint (40-24), points off turnovers (24-2), fastbreak points (13-7) and bench points (36-12).

Game 36

[2] San Diego State 93
[3] Washington 78

March 21, 2016 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State ended the first half on an 18-5 run, turning a three-point SDSU lead into a 16-point cushion and then fended off a second-half Washington run to defeat the visiting Huskies, 93-78, in front of a sold-out Viejas Arena crowd.

The Aztecs led by 11 points midway through the first half only to have Washington embark on a 12-4 run to trail, 27-24, with 5:19 left. SDSU, however, answered with a three-pointer from Malik Pope and a dunk from Skylar Spencer to jumpstart the aforementioned 18-5 run, which was punctuated by a Matt Shrigley trey with five seconds left to give the Aztecs a 45-29 lead at halftime.

San Diego State kept its double-digit lead intact for more than the first 10 minutes of the second half. It was when the clock dipped under 12 minutes to play, however, when the Huskies made their run at the Aztecs.

After Angelo Chol made two free throws, Marquese Chriss threw down a dunk to pull Washington to within 16 points. Eight combined misses from both teams heightened the next minute and a half before DeJounte Murray made a layup to end the drought for both teams.

Washington's four unanswered points turned into an 11-0 run that made it a 69-64 game with 7:21 left in the second half. The Aztecs weathered the storm and had an answer for each Huskies basket and eventually built an 11-point lead with 3:28 to go before winning by 15.

Six Aztecs scored in double figures led by Winston Shepard's season-high 20 points and 10 rebounds. Malik Pope had 10 points and a career-high 12 boards, while Trey Kell had 16, Jeremy Hemsley had 13 and Matt Shrigley had 12 thanks to four three-pointers. Dakarai Allen, meanwhile, added 10 points.

Game 37

[2] San Diego State 72
[4] Georgia Tech 56

March 23, 2016 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - Second-seeded San Diego State went on a 12-4 run that took five minutes off the clock midway through the second half, which opened a 13-point lead, to defeat fourth-seeded Georgia Tech, 72-56, in the quarterfinal round of the NIT inside a sold-out Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs led the Yellow Jackets, 50-45, with 9:57 to go in the game and the score held for the next 1:31 until Dakarai Allen made one free throw. The point was the beginning of the previously mentioned 12-4 run, which helped create the separation SDSU needed to earn a trip to Madison Square Garden.

The Allen free throw led to a jumper from Jeremy Hemsley and a three-pointer from Trey Kell to push the lead to 11. The end of the run culminated in a pair of Allen free throws, which put San Diego State up, 62-49, with 3:30 to play. The Aztecs led by double digits the rest of the way in winning their 28th game of the season.

The game was as close as it was midway through the second half thanks to a late first-half surge by Georgia Tech. San Diego State found itself leading, 21-11, with 10:17 left before halftime, but the Yellow Jackets managed to stay close, scoring eight straight points to get within a pair. SDSU jumped ahead, 28-23, with 5:06 left, but Georgia Tech closed the half on an 8-3 run to knot the score at 31.

Kell led the Aztecs with 18 points on the strength of a career-high four three-pointers. Winston Shepard added 12 points, while Malik Pope chipped in 10 points and 10 rebounds for a San Diego State team poised to make its second straight NIT semifinal appearance (2009).

For Georgia Tech, which played two days earlier at South Carolina like SDSU did vs. Washington, it was led by Marcus Georges-Hunt's 18 points.

Game 38

[4] George Washington 65
[2] San Diego State 46

March 29, 2016 ♦ New York, N.Y.
Madison Square Garden ♦ Att.: 8,298

NEW YORK - Second-seeded San Diego State saw its season come to an end as it fell to fourth-seeded George Washington, 65-46, in the NIT semifinals at Madison Square Garden.

The Aztecs struggled shooting, which denied them a trip to the championship game for the second straight time in the NIT. San Diego State last played in the NIT in 2009 and also reached the semifinals.

SDSU's woes from the outside put them in a tough position at halftime as it trailed the Colonels, 35-20. In the first 20 minutes, the Aztecs connected on just 6-of-25 from the floor, including a 1-for-9 effort from three-point distance. On the other end of the floor, San Diego State did an admirable job, holding GWU to 38.9 percent from the field.

The second half was just a tad bit better offensively for SDSU, but a lot better for George Washington. In the final 20 minutes, the Aztecs shot 32.4 percent from the field, but allowed the Colonels to knock down 12 of their 25 attempts or 48.0 percent.

San Diego State was only outscored by four points in the second half, but its first-half deficit was too much to overcome.

The loss marked the end for three Aztec seniors in Winston Shepard, Skylar Spencer and Angelo Chol. Shepard finished with seven points, three rebounds and a team-high three assists. Spencer had two points, six boards and a game-high three rejections. Chol, meanwhile, posted two points and three rebounds.

For the game, SDSU was led by Dakarai Allen's 13 points, including a 6-for-6 effort from the free-throw line. Zylan Cheatham led the Aztecs on the boards with a team-high 10.

George Washington's Tyler Cavanaugh led all players with 20 points and 11 rebounds.
