SDSU Hosts Fleet Week Classic; Faces Long-Time Rival Brigham Young in Mountain West Home Opener

After recording its widest margin of victory in more than two years, San Diego State (1-3/0-1 Mountain West Conference) concludes a brief two-game homestand against longtime rival Brigham Young (1-2/0-1 Mountain West Conference) in the Fleet Week Classic on Saturday night at Qualcomm Stadium.

Game time is set for 7:05 p.m. PDT and the contest will be broadcast by SportsWest (tape delay in the San Diego market on Channel 4 San Diego) and is available nationally through ESPN's GamePlan package. The game can also be heard on XEPE-1700 AM (San Diego).

In celebration of the servicemen and servicewomen in the armed forces, 5,000 complimentary tickets are available for active, reserved or retired military personnel to attend the game and pregame tailgate party.

In addition, the pregame show will feature the U.S. Marines Leapfrog Precision Parachute group landing on the field, followed by a flyover by F-18 fighter jets.

San Diego State, which has faced the 21st most difficult schedule to date according to the Sagarin Ratings, claimed its first victory of the season on Saturday with a 52-21 victory over San Jose State in front of 55,868 fans, the third largest home crowd in school history. The Aztecs scored on their first possession and never trailed in the game in posting its highest point total since Oct. 11, 1996. The 31-point win was the largest for a San Diego State team since Sept. 13, 2003.

The victory marked the 19th consecutive non-conference home win against teams from non-automatic qualifying BCS conferences.

Sophomore quarterback Kevin O'Connell enjoyed the best game of his collegiate career as he went 23-of-29 with a career-high 271 yards, a career-high four touchdowns and no interceptions. Senior wide receiver Jeff Webb posted the seventh 100-yard receiving game of his career and became just the 11th Aztec player in school history to accumulate 2,000 career receiving yards, as he hauled in eight catches for 133 yards and a touchdown.

Defensively, senior Freddy Keiaho continued to shine as he recorded nine stops, including six solo tackles and two tackles for loss. Keiaho ranks 10th nationally and first in the Mountain West Conference with an average of 12.0 tackles per game. The Aztec defense allowed just 233 yards of total offense and held San Jose State without a third-down conversion (0-for-17).

Brigham Young is coming off a heartbreaking 51-50 overtime loss to TCU last Saturday in Provo, Utah. The Cougars led 34-16 late in the third quarter and 41-29 midway through the fourth quarter, before falling to the Horned Frogs. Brigham Young accumulated 614 yards of offense in the game, including 517 through the air. The Cougars enter Saturday's game ranked fourth nationally in passing yardage per game at 367.3.

This is the 30th meeting between Brigham Young and San Diego State with the Cougars owning a 22-6-1 series lead. BYU has won the last four meetings between the teams, has come away with a victory in its last four visits to San Diego and is unbeaten in its last six games in Qualcomm Stadium (5-0-1). SDSU's last win in the series was a 16-15 victory in Provo on Oct. 21, 2000. The last time the Aztecs defeated the Cougars in San Diego was a 27-15 win on Nov. 5, 1988. All time in San Diego, the Aztecs are 4-9-1 against the Cougars.

Next week, the Aztecs travel to Sin City to face UNLV in a Noon PDT start. San Diego State has defeated the Rebels each of the last three seasons.

Aztecs Claim First Win of the Season with 52-21 Victory Over San Jose State

SAN DIEGO -- Sophomore quarterback Kevin O'Connell was 23-of-29 with career highs of 271 yards and four touchdowns and the Aztec defense limited the Spartans to 233 yards as San Diego State defeated San Jose State 52-21 on Sept. 24 at Qualcomm Stadium.

The Aztecs defeated the Spartans for the seventh straight time and kept San Jose State winless in San Diego since 1952. The game was played in front of 55,868 fans, the third largest home crowd in SDSU history.

San Diego State produced its highest point total since 1996 and the defense limited the Spartans to just 161 yards after their opening drive of the game. The Aztecs, which never trailed, enjoyed at least a two touchdown lead the final 31:42 of the game.

O'Connell found seven different receivers and had touchdown strikes to three different targets. Senior split end Jeff Webb became the 11th player in San Diego State player to pass 2,000 career yards receiving with eight catches for 133 yards and a touchdown against San Jose State. Senior slot receiver Robert Ortiz caught six passes for 77 yards and added two touchdown receptions.

The Aztecs got touchdown drives of 78 and 80 yards on its first two possessions but were tied at 14 after one quarter. The San Diego State defense stepped up in the second quarter, limiting the Spartans to just eight yards and no first downs while the offense struck for two more touchdowns. Sophomore running back Lynell Hamilton scored his fourth rushing touchdown of the season and later in the frame, Ortiz hauled in his second touchdown pass of the game to give the Aztecs a 28-14 halftime lead.

On its first possession of the second half, San Diego State converted a fourth-and-goal at the Spartan's two when sophomore tight end Lance Louis caught a two-yard pass from O'Connell to open up a three touchdown lead.

San Diego State-Brigham Young: The Series

► Saturday's game marks the 30th meeting between San Diego State and Brigham Young. The Cougars lead the all-time series 22-6-1 and have won the last four meetings between the teams. San Diego State's last victory in the series came on Oct. 21, 2000 in Provo (San Diego State 16, Brigham Young 15).

► In San Diego, the Cougars own a 9-4-1 series lead. Brigham Young has won four straight in San Diego and is unbeaten in its last six trips (5-0-1) to Qualcomm Stadium. San Diego State's last home victory over Brigham Young came on Nov. 5, 1988 (San Diego State 28, 20th-ranked Brigham Young 15).

► During the current four-game Cougar win streak, Brigham Young has had a decisive edge. In the last four games combined, BYU has outscored San Diego State 186-83. That is an average victory for the Cougars of 46.5-20.8. BYU has scored 34 or more points in each of the last four games in the series.

► In the previous 29 games in the series, only three have been decided by less than a touchdown. In 1991 in San Diego, the teams played to a 52-52 tie. In addition to that game, the teams split a pair of one-point games with the visiting team winning each. In 1993, Brigham Young claimed a 45-44 decision in San Diego, while in 2000 the Aztecs returned the favor with a 16-15 win in Provo.

► The average margin of victory in the 29 series meetings is 19.7 points.

► LAST MEETING: Brigham Young 49, San Diego State 16 | Nov. 6, 2004 | LaVelle Edwards Stadium | Provo, Utah
 PROVO, Utah -- San Diego State held the ball for more than 10 minutes of the first quarter and still trailed 7-3 at the end of the period.

It was not a good sign.

Brigham Young fought off the Aztecs to hold a 13-3 halftime lead and then used a 23-point third quarter to cruise to a 49-16 victory and send SDSU to its sixth straight loss.

The Aztecs opened the game with five freshmen on offense, but still trailed just 7-3 with five minutes left in the first half. The Cougars, however, tacked on a pair of field goals to lead 13-3 at intermission. BYU then took the opening kickoff of the second half 73 yards for a touchdown to gain complete control of the game. The key play came on a third and goal when an incomplete Cougar pass was turned into a first and goal via penalty.

The Cougars utilized the big play with Todd Watkins scoring on a 68-yard pass on BYU's second play from scrimmage. In the fourth quarter, Austin Collie caught an 82-yard touchdown pass from John Beck for another score.

Kevin O'Connell started his third consecutive game at quarterback and became the first player in San Diego history to rush and pass for more than 100 yards in the same

▶ LAST SDSU WIN: San Diego State 16, Brigham Young 15 | Oct. 21, 2000 | LaVelle Edwards Stadium | Provo, Utah

PROVO, Utah -- San Diego State exorcised a host of demons by coming from behind to defeat Brigham Young, 16-15, Saturday in Provo. The win was the third straight conference road victory for the Aztecs and marked the second time in two games that the Aztecs upstaged a Mountain West opponent celebrating Homecoming.

Nate Tandberg's 36-yard field goal with one second remaining brought down the curtain on a game that took 3:44 to play and much longer to celebrate. SDSU's dramatic final points came just 45 seconds after the Cougars had taken the lead on a 50-yard field goal by Owen Pochman. He had missed three previous attempts in the game as SDSU nursed a 13-12 lead for much of the second half.

However, amid the Cougar celebrations, Lon Sheriff found Derrick Lewis for a 39-yard pass to set up San Diego State's second win in 13 tries in Provo.

The Aztec defense was again impressive, limiting the Cougars to just 15 points (and only one touchdown) on 92 offensive plays. BYU had possession for over 37 minutes, but managed just three points after intermission.

After a pair of Pochman field goals had given Brigham Young a 6-0 lead, SDSU broke through on a 19-yard TD jaunt by Larry Ned just 3:46 before halftime. The Cougars went the locker room with a 12-7 lead after Margin Hooks hauled in a two-yard TD pass with eight seconds left in the second quarter.

Ned's second TD of the game, from two yards out, put the Aztecs back up by the 13-12 count, setting the scene for the frantic final minutes of the game.

It's The Schedule

According to the Sagarin Ratings, San Diego State, which has opened the season with games against UCLA, at Air Force and at ninth-ranked Ohio State, has played the 21st-most difficult schedule in the nation to date.

How difficult is it playing that type of schedule? The teams with the 25 most difficult schedules to date own a collective record of 28-49 (36.4 percent).

The Division I-A non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference schools among the top 25 most difficult schedules, which includes 11 teams, is a collective 5-28. Those wins have been posted by San Diego State, Boise State, Bowling Green, Colorado State and Hawai'i.

Only 10 teams have faced at least two teams in this week's Associated Press top 20 teams (released Sept. 25). The Aztecs have faced 20th-ranked UCLA and eighth-ranked Ohio State, joining Arkansas (top-ranked USC and 15th-ranked Alabama), Duke (third-ranked Virginia Tech and 19th-ranked Virginia), Hawai'i (top-ranked USC and 11th-ranked Michigan State), Illinois (11th-ranked Michigan State and 12th-ranked California), Michigan (13th-ranked Notre Dame and 17th-ranked Wisconsin), Rice (20th-ranked UCLA and second-ranked Texas), South Carolina (seventh-ranked Georgia, 15th-ranked Alabama), Temple (14th-ranked Arizona State and 17th-ranked Wisconsin) and Washington (12th-ranked California and 13th-ranked Notre Dame) as the only teams to face two schools in this week's AP Top 20. Of the 10 teams that have faced two teams currently in the top 10, only three (San Diego State, Rice and Temple) come from non-automatic-qualifying BCS conferences.

Two of the Nation's Top Rated Quarterbacks to Dual

Two quarterbacks who rank highly in the national offensive stats will battle Saturday at Qualcomm Stadium. Brigham Young junior quarterback John Beck and San Diego State sophomore quarterback Kevin O'Connell have posted impressive numbers through the first month of the season. Both enjoy lofty national rankings with O'Connell placing 23rd nationally in passing efficiency and 36th in total offense, while Beck is fourth in total offense and 42nd in passing efficiency.

Below is a quick look at the statistics of two of the top signal callers in the conference.

	A-C-I	Pct.	Yards	TDs	Eff.	Rush Yds
O'Connell (SD)	111-78-3	70.3	861	7	150.83	142
Beck (BY)	151-97-4	64.2	1,102	8	137.73	-31

Young at Heart

San Diego State is one of the youngest teams in the nation. Through four games, only 32 of a possible 88 starting positions have been filled by seniors and just 50 of 88 starting spots have been logged by upperclassmen.

The future looks bright for the Aztecs, who through four games have had 10 players total, including eight defensive players, make their first career start this season. The list of Aztec players who have made their first career start this season includes defensive tackle Nick Osborn, strong-side linebacker Andrew Schantz, middle linebacker Freddy Keiaho, strong safety Reggie Grigsby, cornerback Terrell Maze, linebacker Russell Allen, right tackle Eric Rouser, flanker Chazeray Schilens, free safety T.J. McKay and weak-side linebacker Brett Martin.

The Aztecs went with three freshmen starters against Air Force with linebacker Russell Allen and right tackle Eric Rouser making their first career starts and linebacker Andrew Schantz making his second straight start. San Diego State started two freshmen against Ohio State with Rouser starting his second straight game and free safety T.J. McKay getting his first career start. Schantz was back in the starting lineup against San Jose State.

Other lineup tidbits:

► The freshmen and sophomore classes have already accounted for 38 starts, including 24 starts on the offensive side of the ball.

► Through four games, 11 freshmen (redshirt and true) have seen the field for the Aztecs. The freshmen class has already accounted for eight starts.

► 7 redshirt freshmen played in their first career game (Allen, Fifita, McKay, Mougey, Rouser, Schantz, Ulibarri).

► 4 true freshmen played in their first career game (Robles, Sampson, M. Schmidt, Soto).

► 6 transfers played in their first career SDSU game (Amaral, Barbier, Fiapai, Metroka, R. Nelson, S. Schmidt).

► San Diego State has 44 players who have seen action in each of the first four games. Of the 44 players, more than half (24) are underclassmen and 32 will have eligibility remaining at the end of this season. The breakdown by class is: 12 seniors, eight juniors, 16 sophomores and eight freshmen (including one true freshman, wide receiver DeMarco Sampson).

Forever Young

In the season opener against UCLA, San Diego State started the fewest number of upperclassmen in a decade. SDSU started a mere eight seniors and five juniors in the starting offensive and defensive units. The last time an Aztec squad started 13 or fewer upperclassmen was Sept. 2, 1995 against California when SDSU started seven seniors and five juniors.

SDSU defeated the Golden Bears 33-9 that night at home and went on to post an 8-4 season. Included in the starting lineup that night were future NFL players Will Blackwell, Kyle Turley, Az Hakim and La'Roi Glover. The complete starting lineup from the game is listed below.

Youth Movement

Another example of how young San Diego State is can be found in the number of senior starts. The Aztecs started eight seniors in the opener against UCLA. A survey of sports information directors showed that only 13 schools in the country expected to start fewer seniors in the season opener.

In addition, entering the season, three SDSU senior starters had combined to start just 10 games and currently own just 13 starts. Middle linebacker Freddy Keiaho made his first career start against the Bruins and classmates left tackle Chris Pino (five career starts) and defensive end Kurt Kahui (seven career starts) are relatively new to the starting lineup.

Although starting just 13 upperclassmen is unusual by SDSU standards, starting only eight seniors is not. Six times in the last 11 years (including this season) the Aztecs have had eight or fewer seniors on the field. In fact, in 1998, just four seniors opened the game against Idaho (a 40-21 SDSU victory).

Progress as Promised

Now in his fourth season at the helm, Tom Craft has breathed life into the football program at his alma mater.

Craft has won four more games and more than double the amount of wins at home as the Aztecs had in the three seasons before Craft (1999-00-01).

Below is a look at the before and after:

	Record	Conf.	Home	Away	Close Losses
Craft Era (4th Season)	15-25	9-13	10-8	5-17	7
Previous 3 Seasons	11-22	8-13	4-12	7-10	5

Close losses are those games lost by eight points or less.

Of the 25 losses since 2002, six have come to nationally-ranked teams (at Colorado, Colorado State, at Ohio State (twice), at Michigan and Utah). Take those games away and the Aztecs have played near .500 football the last three-plus seasons (15-19).

Also, SDSU opened the 2002 campaign with five straight losses, meaning the last two-and-a-half years the Aztecs are 15-20 against all teams, and 15-15 against non-ranked teams since Oct. 12, 2002.

In his first three seasons at the helm, Craft has guided the Aztecs offense to upper-half NCAA finishes in total offense, including a ranking of 29 in 2002. He has been equally impressive on the other side of the ball, posting two upper-half NCAA finishes in total defense, including a number eight national ranking in 2003. Last season, despite near catastrophic injuries, the Aztecs finished in the top-half of both total offense and total defense charts for the first time since 1999.

Full House

In its first two home games of the season, San Diego State has drawn 106,578 fans for an average of 53,289. The Aztecs have posted crowds of 50,000+ for its each of its first two home games and have now reached that figure in three of their last seven home games dating back to last season.

The current average is nearly 10,000 above the record average of 45,399 set in 1992. Although it may be difficult to hold that pace and break the school record, it is still impressive when compared to just two seasons ago. In 2003, SDSU averaged 22,626 fans for six home games. In fact, with a crowd of 29,177 on Saturday, the Aztecs can surpass in its third home game of the season the attendance count of the combined six home games in 2003.

Last season, San Diego State enjoyed the third largest attendance increase nationally, jumping from an average of 22,626 in 2003 to 35,995 in 2004.

No Big 10 Hangovers Here

This marked the third consecutive season that San Diego State has performed better than expected playing at a nationally-ranked Big 10 schools and shook off the long flight back to dispose of a Western Athletic Conference team at home.

In 2003, San Diego State shook off a 16-13 loss at Ohio State by claiming a 34-0 win at Texas-El Paso the following week. In 2004, the Aztecs followed a 24-21 setback at Michigan with a 27-10 victory over Nevada. This season, following a 27-6 loss at ninth-ranked Ohio State, the Aztecs recorded a 52-21 victory over San Jose State.

Defensive Numbers Are A Bit Skewed

San Diego State, which ranked eighth in total defense in 2003 and 52nd in total defense last season, is off to a bit of a slower start this season, playing a younger, less experienced unit against one of the nation's most difficult schedules to date. The Aztecs have started just three seniors on the defensive side of the ball in the first four games and eight players have already made their first career start this season on that side of the ball.

Nonetheless, the yardage totals are a bit misleading as SDSU has allowed 14 plays of 22 yards or more. In total, those 14 plays have accounted for 465 yards. That means 31.8 percent (465 yards of 1,460 total yards allowed) of SDSU opponent's total yardage have come on those 14 plays.

If you factor out the first play from scrimmage against UCLA, the Bruins had just 285 yards on 52 plays. On four of the final seven series in the game, the San Diego State defense limited UCLA to six yards or less.

Against Air Force, the Aztecs allowed 503 yards of total offense, marking just the third time in the last 25 games SDSU has allowed 500 or more yards. Despite the large total, the Aztec defense continued to make plays, recording six tackles for loss, two sacks and four forced fumbles. San Diego State also held on downs once, keeping the Falcons from picking up a first down off of a fake punt.

At ninth-ranked Ohio State, the Aztec defense played outstanding, allowing just 375 yards despite being on the field for 82 snaps and 38:14. The Buckeyes scored three touchdowns on just 53 yards of total offense (drives of 20, 32 and one-yard). The Aztecs forced two turnovers, including one when the Buckeyes had first-and-goal on the one-yard-line. The young defense clearly played its best game of the season and limited Ohio State to two plays of 22 yards or more.

After allowing touchdowns on two of San Jose State's first three drives of the game, the Aztec defense settled down on Saturday and was impressive. The Aztecs allowed 233 yards of total offense, and just 161 yards after the Spartans first drive. The Aztecs held San Jose State to 0-for-17 in third down conversions marking the first time since the statistic started being kept in 1982 (273 games) that SDSU has held an opponent without a third down conversion.

San Jose State	335.67	233	-102.67	San Jose State 0-for-17 on third downs

Current is teams current yards per game average.

Although the points against won't turn any eyes (San Diego State is currently allowing 33.2 points per game to rank 98th nationally, it is only fair to point out that due to a variety of circumstances (namely turnovers and long returns), opponents have scored 33 points off drives of 24 yards or less. The opponent offense has needed a total of 80 yards on those seven drives to score 33 points. Factoring out the short drives for scores and the SDSU defense would be allowing a much more manageable 25.0 points per game.

Playing the Money Downs

As previously mentioned in the note above, the San Diego State defense held San Jose State without a third down conversion as the Spartans went 0-for-17 in third down situations. That marked the first time since the beginning of the 1982 season, a span of 273 games, that the Aztecs defense had held an opponent without a conversion.

The streak grows to 0-for-18 if you count Ohio State's failed third down conversion attempt in the waning moments of that game (it should be pointed out that the Buckeyes were still attempting to advance the ball and did not just take a knee).

For the season, SDSU opponents have converted just 22-of-62 attempts, for 35.5 percent.

Come on Ride The Train

Sophomore running back Lynell Hamilton is back. After breaking his ankle in the 10th game of his 2003 freshman season, the Stockton, Calif., product is back after more than a full year off to recover from a broken right ankle and right fibula suffered in the game at UNLV on Nov. 8, 2003.

Hamilton rushed for 1,087 yards on 234 carries in 2003, he averaged 108.7 yards per game and had four rushing touchdowns.

This season he is one of 47 candidates and one of only 10 sophomores up for the Doak Walker Award.

Hamilton proved he is back following the injury by getting 29 touches in the opening game. He carried 24 times for 82 yards and two touchdowns and added five receptions for 35 yards versus UCLA. He followed that up with a solid performance against Air Force, carrying 15 times for 65 yards and one touchdown.

In his last outing against San Jose State, Hamilton rushed for game-high 72 yards and picked up his fourth rushing touchdown of the season. He also caught four passes for 25 receiving yards.

In addition to leading the team in rushing, Hamilton is all the third leading receiver on the squad with 14 catches through four games. His four touchdowns, all by way of rushing, also give a team-high 24 points on the season.

Despite an injury cutting his season short, Hamilton earned first-team freshman All-America honors by The Sporting News and Rivals.com in 2003. He was the only freshman offensive player that season named to a conference first team and he became just the second player in Mountain West Conference history to earn first-team all-league accolades as a freshman.

A look at some of the more impressive numbers Hamilton has compiled in just 12 career games:

- The Aztecs are 4-0 when he reaches 100 yards rushing, averaging 28.8 points in those games. In games in which Hamilton has played, SDSU is 5-0 when he rushes for 94 or more yards and 1-8 when he is held below 94 yards rushing.

- Hamilton has enjoyed his playing time at Qualcomm Stadium. In seven career games in the Q, the sophomore has three 100-yard games and two 200-yard contests. In all, he has averaged 119.3 yards rushing per game on 4.7 yards per carry, with seven of his eight career rushing touchdowns coming at home.

- Of the 53 quarters in which he has recorded a rush, he has seven quarters with at least 50 rushing yards, including a remarkable 108 yards in the first quarter of the game against Samford.

- Despite playing only 10 games as a freshman, his 1,087 yards rushing is the 11th highest total in school history and the second best total by a freshman trailing only Marshall Faulk (1,630).

- Hamilton has gotten the tough yards this season, with 11 of his carries and four of his receptions picking up first downs.

- His numbers this season are somewhat misleading because the Aztecs have played from behind the majority of the season (the Aztecs have been ahead 54:43 of a possible 160 minutes this season). In the first quarter of the first four games this season, Hamilton has 96 yards rushing, in the rest of the game combined he has 130 yards.

O'Connell Takes the Reigns

Sophomore Kevin O'Connell, who started the final five games of 2004 season, emerged from a quarterback duel with freshman Darren Mougey and was named the Aztecs' starting quarterback on Sunday, Aug. 21, following the second scrimmage.

O'Connell played in nine games as a redshirt freshman, and started the final five games of the campaign. For the season, he passed for 1,328 yards and the dual-threat quarterback added 347 rushing yards.

The learning curve was quick for O'Connell who produced veteran type numbers in the final two games last season and his four three game this season. In the last six games, he is 114-of-168 (66.1 percent) with 1,268 yards, 10 touchdowns and four interception.

This season the sophomore is putting up all-conference caliber numbers. He is 78-for-111 (70.3 percent) with 861 yards, seven touchdowns and 3 interceptions. His quarterback rating of 150.83 is the 23rd best nationally and the seventh best by an underclassmen.

Other impressive tidbits from his career to date.

O'Connell is coming off his best game of the season. Against San Jose State, he completed 23-of-29 passes for a career-high 271 yards, a career-high four touchdowns and had no interceptions. He did not throw consecutive incomplete passes the entire game. Furthermore, his completion percentage of 79.3 percent was the highest by an Aztec quarterback with at least 25 attempts, since Tim Gutierrez completed 84.0 percent (21-of-25) against Navy on Sept. 3, 1994. He also became the first Aztec to throw for at least four touchdowns without an interception since Sept. 21, 2002 when Adam Hall tossed five touchdowns with no picks at Idaho.

O'Connell had a streak of 53 passes without an interception broken in the second quarter of the UCLA game (currently has a streak of 46 consecutive pass attempts without an interception). After throwing eight picks in his first 189 attempts (one interception every 23.6 attempts), he has four interceptions in his last 168 attempts (one interception every 39.0 attempts).

Has a touchdown pass in 10 consecutive games. In his career, he has a touchdown pass in every game when he has at least 14 attempts.

His current passing efficiency rating of 150.83 would rank as the sixth best single-season rating in history behind only Billy Blanton (twice), Dennis Shaw, Rod Dowhower and Tim Gutierrez.

He is second on the team in rushing and has 142 yards on the ground this season. If you take out his negative yardage (mostly due to sacks), O'Connell has rushed for 245 yards.

Rushed for 101 yards against Brigham Young last season to become just the third quarterback in SDSU history to rush for 100 yards (joined Matt Kofler 102 vs. New Mexico on 11-22-80 and Joe Turpin 116 vs. Cal Poly SLO on 9-30-67).

In that game against Brigham Young, he became the first player in SDSU history to pass for 200 yards and rush for 100 yards in the same game.

His quarterback rating of 101.0 last season ranked fifth among all freshmen nationally, trailing only Oklahoma State's Donovan Woods, Michigan's Chad Henne, Iowa State's Brett Meyer and Washington State's Alex Brink. Of the four freshmen in front of O'Connell last season, three went to bowl games.

How well did O'Connell play in the final two starts? His 131.73 quarterback rating would have ranked 45th nationally and second in the Mountain West (behind Alex Smith) for the season.

Harvey Going for Hardware

San Diego State senior center Jasper Harvey is one of 39 players who have been named to the Rimington Trophy watch list. This is the second consecutive season that Harvey has been named to the national list.

Harvey is one of 30 seniors on the list and is one of six Mountain West Conference centers to be considered for the award.

The six-year old trophy, named after former two-time Nebraska All-American and Cincinnati Bengals center Dave Rimington, is awarded annually to college football's top center in the country.

The Rimington Trophy recipient is determined by a consensus of The Walter Camp Football Foundation, America Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America and The Sporting News.

This is the third time in four seasons that a SDSU player has been named to the Rimington Trophy watch list as former Aztec Johnathan Ingram was recognized in 2002.

COMING OF AGE

It didn't take long for Kevin O'Connell to get acclimated to college football. As a freshman, he showed dramatic improvements from his first four games (all in a relief performance), to his first three starts and his six most recent games.

Webb Climber

Senior split end Jeff Webb is coming off his best game of the season as he recorded season highs with eight catches for 133 yards and a touchdown. He became just the 11th player in school history to record 2,000 career receiving yards. A native of Pontiac, Mich., he became just the seventh player to record more than 150 receptions and 2,000 receiving yards, joining the likes of former standouts Will Blackwell (1994-96), Tim Delaney (1968-70), Monty Gilbreath (1986-89), Patrick Rowe (1987-88, 90-91), Scott (1991-93) and J.R. Tolver (1999-02).

He is sixth on the school's all-time reception chart with 167 and is 11 catches away from jumping up a spot, as Darnay Scott is fifth all-time with 178 receptions.

Webb also needs nine yards to enter the Aztec top 10 for career receiving yards, trailing Haven Moses' two-year total in 1966-67 of 2,103 yards. He is a mere 94 yards away from joining Gary Garrison in eighth place on the Aztec chart.

So far in 2005, Webb has caught a team-best 25 catches for 313 yards and two touchdowns. He is tied for 33rd nationally in receptions and is 46th in receiving yards per game.

Below is a look at a couple of Webb's many accomplishments.

▶ Webb, along with teammate Robert Ortiz, has caught a pass in 25 consecutive games in which he has played. Entering last week, they tied for the 13th longest active streak in the country (Wyoming's Jovon Bouknight leads the nation at 39 straight games). Equally impressive, he has caught at least three passes in 20 straight games.

▶ Webb ranks in the top 10 among active players in career receptions and receiving yards. He is eighth in receptions and ninth in receiving yards among active Division I-A players.

Another Year, Another League-Leading Linebacker

Freddy Keiaho is having a breakout year in his final season on Montezuma Mesa.

The senior linebacker who was originally recruited as a running back has made the switch to the defensive side of the ball look easy.

His 12.00 tackles per game (26 solo, 22 assisted, 48 total) ranks 10th in the country and he is the only Mountain West Conference player listed in the top 25. Keiaho is also tied for 27th nationally in solo tackles per game with 6.50.

The Ventura, Calif., native has recorded double-digit tackles in two of the last three games. At Air Force he made a then career-best 13 tackles and followed it up at Ohio State where he set a new career high with 18 stops. He made nine tackles against San Jose State, including seven tackles that stopped the Spartans for a gain of two yards or less.

The 18 tackles against the ninth-ranked Buckeyes is the third most by a player in the Tom Craft era and is 11th most in San Diego State history. Last season, his linebacker teammates Kirk Morrison and Heath Farwell each made 19 tackles at Air Force (Nov. 13, 2004).

Keiaho's performance is also the second best in school history against a ranked opponent. Alan Dale made 21 tackles versus 12th-ranked Iowa State back in 1981.

Recording Tackles Like They are Going Out of Style

Despite losing the top seven tacklers off last season's team, San Diego State's fresh-faced defense has produced two of the top five and four of the top 20 tacklers in the Mountain West Conference.

Senior MIKE linebacker Freddy Keiaho, who started his Aztec career in the offensive backfield, has excelled in the place of two-time Mountain West Conference defensive player of the year and current Oakland Raider Kirk Morrison. Keiaho posted a career-high 18 stops in the game at Ohio State. As previously mentioned, he is 10th in the nation and first in the Mountain West Conference at 12.0 stops per game.

Right behind him is junior strong safety Reggie Grigsby who has 31 stops, including 18 solos, to rank fifth in the league. Sophomore defensive end Antwan Applewhite (6.2 tackles per game) is 16th and senior free safety Marcus Demps is 18th (6.0 tackles per game).

Fourth in the conference in sacks is Applewhite with 2.5 sacks.

Junior cornerback Donny Baker is second in the Mountain West Conference in passes defended with five. He also has an interception and a fumble recovered.

Red Zone Wizards

San Diego State is close to being automatic in the red zone. The Aztecs have converted 11-of-12 red zone opportunities for points this season, including eight touchdowns. The 91.7 percent success rate is first among Mountain West Conference schools.

The Aztecs have not failed in a red zone opportunity since a second quarter turnover in the season-opening game against UCLA. Since that time, the Aztecs are 10-for-10 with seven touchdowns and three field goals.

SDSU Offense Quick Hits

SDSU is first in the MWC in red zone offense, scoring in 11 of its 12 opportunities (91.7 percent), including eight TDs... The Aztecs have scored on 10 consecutive red zone opportunities (seven touchdowns, three field goals)... Twelve of the Aztecs' 17 scoring drives have gone for at least 60 yards, while five are for 80 or more yards... The Aztecs' 52 points against San Jose State are their most points in a game since 1996, when it beat Hawai'i, 56-8... The 31-point margin of victory against the Spartans (52-21) is the Aztecs' best since blanking UTEP 34-0 in 2003... SDSU had 513 yards of total offense on 90 plays versus SJSU, its best performance since the 2004 opener with Idaho State (581 yards on 92 plays)... The 90 offensive plays are tied for eighth-most in NCAA Div. I in 2005... SDSU has run 80-plus offensive plays in two of its four games... The Aztecs 36:08 time of possession is the team's best since the 2003 game with UNLV (37:29)... SDSU's 28 first downs vs. SJSU are the team's most since 2001, when it had 30 versus Eastern Illinois (W, 40-7)... SDSU had eight plays for 20 or more yards versus SJSU... The Aztecs' 80-yard touchdown at Ohio State is their first completion of at least 80 yards since an 87-yard toss in 2002 at Hawaii... The 80-yard pass play is tied for fourth-longest in the nation in 2005... SDSU has 400-plus yards of total offense in three of four outings, including the first two... The last time SDSU had over 400 yards of total offense in the first two games of a season was in 1996... The Aztec offensive line did not allow a sack against Air Force, the first time the team has turned the trick since Nov. 8, 2003, at UNLV... Ten different receivers caught at least one pass in each of the Aztecs' first two games of 2005... Kevin O'Connell has a touchdown strike in 10 consecutive contests... Jeff Webb has caught a pass in 25 straight games and has three receptions or more in 20 straight... Robert Ortiz has at least one reception in 25 straight games.

SDSU Defense Quick Hits

San Diego State boasts two of the top five tacklers in the Mountain West Conference... Senior linebacker Freddy Keiaho ranks 10th nationally and leads the league with 12.0 per game, including a career best 18 at No. 9 Ohio State...

Safety Reggie Grigsby is tied for fifth (7.8/g)... Eight different Aztecs have made their first career start on defense in 2005... Six players on the SDSU defensive two-deep are freshmen, including two true freshmen... Out of the 21 players listed on the current defensive two-deep, only three did not begin his college football career at San Diego State... The defense allowed San Jose State only 233 yards of total offense, including 101 through the air... The 233 yards are the fewest by an opponent since New Mexico (220 yards) in 2004 and the 101 passing yards are the fewest since 2003 at Air Force (95 yards)... Opponents have thrown for 200 yards or less in three of four games this season... The defensive gave up only 12 first downs (fewest since 2003 vs. UNLV) and the Spartans were 0-for-17 on third-down conversions... That marked the first time since figures were kept beginning in 1982 that the Aztec defense has kept an opponent from converting a first down... Brett Sturm returned his first career interception 44 yards for a touchdown versus SJSU, the team's first defensive score since the 2004 season finale... The Aztecs forced four fumbles against Air Force in 2005, after also forcing four in the 2004 match-up with the Falcons... Twelve Aztecs recorded career game-high tackles against Air Force... In the opener, the Aztec defense limited UCLA to six yards or less of total offense on four of 10 possessions... UCLA scored 20 points on 32 yards of total offense... Following the first play from scrimmage, UCLA gained only 285 yards the rest of the game... SDSU is 6-0 in its last 27 contests when keeping its opponent to 10 points or fewer... The Aztecs forced 26 turnovers last season, good for 30th nationally... In 2004, The Dark Side had 80 tackles for loss, 29 sacks, 14 interceptions and forced 26 turnovers... In addition, opponents were able to cross the goal line in just 31 of their final 79 opportunities when at or inside the Aztec 20 (TD conversion percentage = 39.2 percent)... In 2003, San Diego State allowed 17 offensive touchdowns, tied with co-national champion LSU for the best figure in the country... That same season, SDSU held four opponents to nine points or less marking the first time an Aztec squad had done that since 1977... In 2003, the Aztecs allowed 207 points, the fewest SDSU has allowed since 1977.

In three seasons at the helm of the San Diego State football program, Tom Craft's list of accomplishments are lengthy, his list of goals remains long and his overall blueprint for program continues to take shape.

On all fronts, San Diego State football seems poised to take a leap forward. The academic side has been shored up, attendance has jumped dramatically and the depth chart now features a mixture of battle-tested veterans and fleet-footed underclassmen who have been part of the Mountain West's top recruiting effort over the past three season, and earned Craft the title of the best recruiter in the league by The Sporting News.

Two of Craft's three teams have finished in the upper division of the Mountain West Conference, something SDSU had never achieved prior to his arrival. His offensive and defensive units have made some of the biggest improvements in the country since he returned to his alma mater and he has coached some of the Mountain West's most outstanding players.

And the really good news is that he is just getting started.

The changing of the guard at the top of a college football program is one of the most scrutinized processes in all of sports. The experts are numerous and the expectations are downright scary.

But it is also a chance to re-invent a program.

That opportunity presented itself following the 2001 football season and San Diego State officials set out to find the right man for the job.

It was a simple edict.

All the Aztec brass had to do was sort through the pretenders and contenders for the job to find the person to lead San Diego State's recovery. It had to be someone who could recapture the imagination of the Aztec fans who hungered for the offensive firepower that the San Diego State faithful feel is their heritage. It had to be someone aware of San Diego State's past but with a strong vision of the program's future - as well as the future of college football. It had to be someone with a proven track record as a winner and with the confidence to turn around a program heavy in potential but lacking in recent successes. It had to be someone who could evaluate talent and at the same time take on the sport's heavy hitters for a player's signature.

It had to be Tom Craft.

A San Diego State graduate, a former Aztec quarterback and a former offensive coordinator on Montezuma Mesa, Craft was introduced as San Diego State's 15th head football coach on Dec. 6, 2001.

In his first season as the Aztec head coach, he led a mini-revival. San Diego State showed the biggest improvement in the country in passing offense. After ranking 89th in that category in 2001, Craft's first offense was fifth nationally with an average of 330 passing yards per game.

The Aztecs also made a monumental jump in total offense, rising from 98th to 29th with virtually the same lineup that had sputtered the year before. Only Purdue, Southern California and Oklahoma State showed more improvement.

But the improvement was more than cosmetic.

The Aztecs finished third in the Mountain West Conference after being picked for last. It was SDSU's first upper-division finish in the new league and its first winning record in league play since the 1998 Las Vegas Bowl team. The Aztecs picked up their first-ever Mountain West wins over Air Force and Utah, pushed Colorado into the fourth quarter and lost on the last play of the game in Craft's debut at Fresno State.

Along the way, the moniker of "Air Craft" was developed by the media, playing off of the most successful period in San Diego State history, known as "Air Coryell" as well as Craft's love for throwing the ball. Craft's first team saw wide receivers J.R. Tolver and Kassim Osgood set NCAA records for productivity by two teammates. Both players now collect checks from the National Football League after earning all-conference honors.

The first year of the Craft era ended with a recruiting class ranked as one of the school's best ever, as the Mountain West's top class and among the nation's top 40. "Aztecs Make Their Move" heralded SuperPrep magazine after the recruiting dust had settled.

Craft's second season provided more highlights.

The Aztec defense came to be known as "The Dark Side" and was launched into national headlines when it limited second-ranked and defending national champion Ohio State without an offensive touchdown and just 196 yards of total offense in a 16-13 down-to-the-wire loss. The unit ended the season as the eighth best defense in the country and tops in the Mountain West. It was also the nation's most improved defensive unit in 2003.

The Aztecs overcame numerous injuries down the stretch to win three of their final four games and earn a .500 season for the first time since 1998. SDSU finished its regular season without its starting quarterback, leading rusher or leading receiver.

Craft's third team scared another national foe when Michigan escaped the Aztecs, 24-21. SDSU achieved a first when it defeated Air Force for the third consecutive season and it did so with a roster depleted by injury. In fact, six freshmen were starting on the offensive side by the season finale.

In just three seasons, Craft has coached the Mountain West freshman of the year (Lynell Hamilton) and the league's defensive player of the year in Kirk Morrison, who became the first conference player to earn that award in consecutive season. Seven players have been named first-team all-Mountain West during Craft's tenure.

Tom Craft is the first San Diego State graduate to lead the football program since Bob Breitbard in 1945 and is one of just 18 coaches in Division I employed by his alma mater. His hiring is a true return to San Diego State's historic past, when SDSU was among the nation's most successful programs in the 1960s and 1970s. His philosophies are near and dear to the hearts of the Aztec faithful.

Kevin O'Connell

Quarterback

6-6, 220, So.-1L

Carlsbad, Calif. (La Costa Canyon High)

Was named the starting quarterback the day after the second scrimmage of the fall (Aug. 21) ... Had a strong freshman season in which he eventually took over starting quarterback duties ... A dual-threat quarterback ... Has a rare signal-caller combination of size and athleticism ... Did not participate in spring drills due to off-season shoulder surgery but was cleared for fall practices months ago ... Suffered a separated shoulder in the win over Idaho State in the season opener, but returned to the squad to become the starter down the stretch ... Ended the season as team captain, despite his youth.

2005: Ranked 23rd nationally and second in the conference in passing efficiency (150.83) ... 36th in Division I in total offense per outing (250.75) ... Has thrown at least one TD in each of the last 10 games ... Career high 271 yards passing (23-for-29), four touchdowns and no INTs in the rout of San Jose State Threw for 204 yards and ran for 50 more in the season-opener with UCLA ... Completed 19-of-26 passes and had a 27-yard touchdown to Jeff Webb.

2004: Started the final five games of the season and led SDSU to a 2-3 record ... Got his first start at New Mexico, becoming the first freshman quarterback to open a game for the Aztecs since Spencer Brinton in 1997 ... Against BYU, he became just the second Aztec quarterback to rush for 100 yards since 1980 and the first player in SDSU history to rush for 100 yards (101) and pass for 200 (229) in the same game ... Nearly turned that trick again when he rushed for 82 yards at Air Force ... Tossed a touchdown pass in each of the last six games of the season, including two against Utah and Air Force ... Lone rushing touchdown of the season came against the Utes ... Came off the bench to rally SDSU to 11 fourth-quarter points and a late lead against Colorado State ... Finished third in the league in total offense for conference games (215.9 yards) and fifth in passing (174.9) and passing efficiency (102.0) ... Had a season-best 252 passing yards against undefeated Utah ... In the two season-closing wins over Air Force and UNLV, he was 33-of-57 for 407 yards with three touchdowns and one interception ... Finished third on the team with 347 rushing yards, including a 31-yard run vs. Brigham Young and a 30-yard scamper against Colorado State ... Tossed a 58-yard touchdown pass to Jeff Webb against the Rams ... Did not play against Nevada or Michigan.

2003: Redshirted his first year on campus.

High School: A football and basketball standout ... Had a big senior season after losing part of his junior year to injury ... An all-region selection by SuperPrep and an honorable mention all-region pick by PrepStar ... Passed for 1,950 yards and 19 touchdowns for the 7-4 Mavs ... Also ran for 310 yards ... An all-league, all-North County and all-San Diego selection ... Team MVP ... Earned three letters in football and two letters in basketball ... Threw for 980 yards and seven scores as a junior on 56 completions.

Personal: Born May 25, 1985, in Knoxville, Tenn. ... Son of Bill and Suzanne O'Connell ... Father is employed by the FBI ... Majoring in business ... Took a visit to Colorado before deciding on SDSU.

game 1 - UCLA 44, San Diego State 21

GAME NO. 1

Game Notes

* The attendance of 50,710 is the sixth-largest crowd in Aztec history and the third-largest in a season-opening home game for SDSU.

* With the loss, SDSU falls to 0-20-1 all time versus UCLA ... the Aztecs are now 44-34-5 in season openers and 58-21-4 in home openers.

* SDSU started just 13 upperclassmen against UCLA. The last time an Aztec squad started 13 or fewer upperclassmen was Sept. 2, 1995, against California when SDSU started just seven seniors and five juniors ... five Aztecs made their first career starts tonight, all on the defensive side (Osborn, Schantz, Keiaho, Grigsby, Maze).

* Quarterback Kevin O'Connell has thrown a touchdown pass in seven consecutive games. O'Connell tied his career high with 15 rushing attempts. He also had 15 attempts versus BYU in 2004.

* The Aztecs converted just their second two-point conversion in the last three seasons when O'Connell found wide receiver Robert Ortiz in the third quarter. The duo also paired up for SDSU's lone two-point conversion a year ago against Colorado State.

* San Diego State's 15-play, 70-yard, 6:44 time of possession scoring drive in the first quarter was the team's longest scoring drive in terms of number of plays since Oct. 26, 2002, vs. UNLV, when the Aztecs used 18 plays to score a fourth quarter TD. It was also the longest time of possession since Sept. 7, 2002, at Colorado (15 plays, 80 yards, 7:08 TOP).

SAN DIEGO -- For the first time in the last eight series meetings, San Diego State posted more total offense than UCLA (402-349), but the Bruins cashed in on two turnovers and put on a special teams clinic in defeating San Diego State, 44-21, last Saturday at Qualcomm Stadium.

With 50,710 people, the sixth largest home crowd in school history watching, the Aztecs enjoyed statistical advantages in total offense, passing offense, time of possession and third down conversions (see right column). UCLA countered by forcing two key second quarter turnovers, one which gave the Bruins the ball at the SDSU 11 and one that came on a second-and-goal play for SDSU.

The game featured two of the nation's top backs in Doak Walker candidates Maurice Drew (UCLA) and Lynell Hamilton (SDSU) and neither disappointed. Drew carried 11 times for 114 yards and two touchdowns. Hamilton, playing in his first game since November of 2003, carried 24 times for 82 yards and two touchdowns.

UCLA struck first on its first play from scrimmage as Drew turned the left side for a 64-yard touchdown run. The Aztecs got on the board late in the first quarter when Hamilton went in from one-yard out to make it 7-6 Bruins.

In the second quarter, UCLA used a 72-yard punt return for a touchdown and the two key aforementioned turnovers to score 17 points and take a 24-6 lead at intermission. The Bruins took the opening kickoff of the third quarter and drove 74 yards to jump ahead 31-6, before eventually winning 44-21.

UCLA increased its lead in the all-time series to 20-0-1, however, SDSU claimed its first advantage in total offense in the series since 1989. That year the Aztecs outgains the Bruins 437-425, but UCLA scored a touchdown with 2:39 remaining to claim a 28-25 victory.

game 2 - Air Force 41, San Diego State 29

GAME NO. 2

Game Notes

* - San Diego State saw its three-game win streak against Air Force snapped... the Aztecs are now 3-4 in Mountain West Conference openers.

* - San Diego State has struck first against Air Force in each of the last five meetings (four touchdowns and one field goal).

* - San Diego State first-quarter fumble recovery was the first turnover gained this season for the Aztecs.

* - One week after having 10 different players catch a pass, San Diego State had 10 players make at least one catch against the Falcons.

* - San Diego State redshirt freshman Eric Rouser (right tackle) and redshirt freshman Brett Martin (linebacker) both made his first career starts today.

* - Aztec receiver Jeff Webb has caught a pass in 23 straight games in which he has played, while fellow senior Robert Ortiz has turned the trick in 18 straight outings.

* - Webb now has 18 consecutive games, in which he has played, with three or more catches. Webb moved into a tie for sixth place on the school's all time reception list with 155.

* - Antwan Applewhite recorded his first forced fumble and his second recovery in the first quarter of today's game. He previously recovered a fumble against Michigan on Sept. 18, 2004.

*- Freddy Keiaho (13 tackles), Reggie Grigsby (12 tackles) and Antwan Applewhite (9 tackles) all had career-highs in tackles.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. - For the second straight week San Diego State amassed over 400 yards of total offense, but Air Force brought its own high-octane offense along with an opportunistic defense to overpower the Aztecs 41-29 in the Mountain West Conference opener for both teams.

Jacobe Kendrick rushed for 128 yards and scored four touchdowns as the Falcons rolled up 503 yards of total offense and converted three SDSU turnovers into 21 points, helping to snap the Aztecs' three-game winning streak in the series.

Things looked good for the SDSU in the early going as the Aztecs jumped to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter. After an unsuccessful Air Force fake punt, SDSU marched 64 yards in six plays, scoring on a Kevin O'Connell quarterback keeper. Garrett Palmer then added a 40-yard field and the Aztecs appeared in control.

The Falcons, however, owned the second quarter, scoring 20 straight points to seize the momentum. After a long touchdown drive, the Falcons capitalized on two Kevin O'Connell fumbles near midfield and quickly converted the first Aztec miscue of the day.

The Aztecs stopped the Falcon uprising when Garrett Palmer connected on a 29-yard field goal to cut the Falcon lead to 20-13 at halftime.

Air Force stretched its lead to 27-13 after Robert McMemony hauled in 38-yard touchdown pass from Shaun Carney.

The Aztecs whittled into the Falcon lead on a 47-yard Palmer field goal and a 12-yard scoring strike from O'Connell to Robert Ortiz, and suddenly it was 27-22 with 9:59 left.

game 3 - Ohio State 27, San Diego State 6

GAME NO. 3

Game Notes

* - SDSU middle linebacker Freddy Keiaho reached double-figures in tackles in the first half alone with 11 (5 solo, 6 assists). Keiaho finished with 18 total tackles. The school's all-time top 10 list is below ... it is Keiaho's second consecutive game this season and his second career game with 10 tackles or more (he had a career-best 13 vs. Air Force)... the 11 tackles by Keiaho at the half already matched the most by an Aztec player in any complete game against Ohio State (11 by Will Demps in 2001).

* - Aztec senior split end Jeff Webb has caught at least one pass in each of his last 24 games and has three receptions or more in 19 straight contests... Webb moved into sixth place by himself on the SDSU career receptions list.

* - San Diego State's last three meetings with Big Ten opponents have all been closer than expected. A year ago, No. 17 Michigan held a slim 21-17 lead on the Aztecs at the half in Ann Arbor, and went on to win 24-21. In 2003, No. 2 ranked Ohio State was up on SDSU by just six points (13-7) at the half and later claimed a three-point victory, 16-13. In 2001, the Aztecs led by Buckeyes 12-6 at the half in Columbus, but still fell, 27-12.

* - The Aztecs' 80-yard touchdown from Kevin O'Connell to Brett Swain is SDSU's first completion of at least 80 yards since Kassim Osgood found J.R. Tolver on an 87-yard toss on Dec. 7, 2002, at Hawaii... the 80-yard pass is the longest throw of Kevin O'Connell's career (prev. 58 yards vs. Colorado State (10/16/04)) ... the 80-yard reception is Swain's longest of his career (prev. 31 at Wyoming (10/9/04)).

COLUMBUS, Ohio - San Diego State started off on the right note scoring on its first play from scrimmage, but could not overcome a stifling Ohio State defense as the ninth-ranked Buckeyes defeated the Aztecs, 27-6, before a crowd of 104,533 at Ohio Stadium.

SDSU quarterback Kevin O'Connell, who threw for 159 yards on 12-of-17 passing, silenced the crowd when he hit wide receiver Brett Swain on the sideline for an 80-yard touchdown. The scoring drive, which took all of 11 seconds, was the Aztecs' longest single play of the season.

After taking an early lead for a second consecutive week, SDSU would never see the scoreboard again as the Buckeyes came with defensive pressure early and often. For the game, San Diego State only recorded three first downs, 13 rushing yards and 166 passing yards.

Despite SDSU's offensive struggles, the Aztec defense kept the visiting side in the game as it kept Ohio State to only 375 yards of total offense. The 179 yards the Buckeyes earned on the ground was the fewest allowed by SDSU this season.

Leading the way for the Aztecs was Freddy Keiaho. The senior linebacker totaled 18 tackles, 10 of which were of the solo variety, a tackle for a loss of eight yards and a pass break up. Cornerback Donny Baker also had an impressive game with 12 tackles, a forced fumble, a pass break up and the team's first interception of the season. Safeties Marcus Demps and Reggie Grigsby each chipped in nine tackles apiece.

The Buckeyes matched SDSU's opening touchdown with 26 seconds left in the first quarter when quarterback Troy Smith scored on a 14-yard TD run after beginning their drive on the San Diego State 20. Ohio State was kept in check for most of the second quarter until Smith scored from one yard out with 5:15 left in the first half giving the Buckeyes a 14-6 advantage.

OSU then took its initial second-half drive 62 yards into Aztec territory and posted another three points on a Josh Huston 25-yard field goal.

Then as the third quarter winded down, Ohio State punted to the SDSU 13 with an Aztec penalty to follow as time expired. With no time left on the clock and the ball at the SDSU 7-yard line, O'Connell rushed to his right, fumbled the ball and Buckeye linebacker Anthony Schlegel recovered it on the one-yard line.

Both teams marched to the other side of the field to begin the final quarter and Brandon Schnittker ran it in from a yard out effectively ending any chance of an Aztec rally. OSU would later tack on another field goal to give the game its final score.

game 4 - San Diego State 52, San Jose State 21

GAME NO. 4

Game Notes

* The attendance of 55,868 is the third largest in San Diego State history. The Aztecs have broken the 50,000 milestone for the second time this season, marking the first time since the 1992 campaign that SDSU has had a pair of 50,000-plus crowds in the same season (also vs. UCLA 50,710). It is also the third time in the last seven home games that the Aztecs have surpassed 50,000 fans.

* With tonight's win, the Aztecs are 15-16-2 all-time against the Spartans. San Diego State improves to 9-5-1 vs. San Jose State in games played in San Diego and have now won seven straight in the series... The Spartans are now 0-8 in Qualcomm Stadium and have not left "America's Finest City" with a victory since 1952... The last 29 of 33 contests between SDSU and SJSU, the margin of victory has been over 10 points... SDSU has won its 19th straight non-conference home game over a team from a non-automatic qualifying BCS conference.

* SDSU scored 52 total points against SJSU, its most points in a game since 1996, when it beat Hawai'i, 56-8... the 31-point margin of victory is the Aztecs' best since beating UTEP 34-0 on Sept. 13, 2003.

* SDSU surpassed 500 yards of total offense for the first time since Opening Night last year when the Aztecs rolled up 581 yards against Idaho State.

* The Aztecs ran 90 plays and held the ball for 36:08. The last time the Aztecs surpassed 80 plays came three weeks ago when SDSU ran 81 plays against UCLA on Sept. 3, 2005.

SAN DIEGO -- Sophomore quarterback Kevin O'Connell was 23-of-29 with career highs of 271 yards and four touchdowns and the Aztec defense limited the Spartans to 233 yards as San Diego State defeated San Jose State 52-21 on Sept. 24 at Qualcomm Stadium.

The Aztecs defeated the Spartans for the seventh straight time and kept San Jose State winless in San Diego since 1952. The game was played in front of 55,868 fans, the third largest home crowd in SDSU history.

San Diego State produced its highest point total since 1996 and the defense limited the Spartans to just 161 yards after their opening drive of the game. The Aztecs, which never trailed, enjoyed at least a two touchdown lead the final 31:42 of the game.

O'Connell found seven different receivers and had touchdown strikes to three different targets. Senior split end Jeff Webb became the 11th player in San Diego State player to pass 2,000 career yards receiving with eight catches for 133 yards and a touchdown against San Jose State. Senior slot receiver Robert Ortiz caught six passes for 77 yards and added a pair of touchdown receptions.

The Aztecs got touchdown drives of 78 and 80 yards on its first two possessions but were tied at 14 after one quarter. The San Diego State defense stepped up in the second quarter, limiting the Spartans to just eight yards and no first downs while the offense struck for two more touchdowns. Sophomore running back Lynell Hamilton scored his fourth rushing touchdown of the season and later in the frame Ortiz hauled in his second touchdown pass of the game to give the Aztecs a 28-14 halftime lead.

On its first possession of the second half, San Diego State converted a fourth-and-goal at the Spartan's two when sophomore tight end Lance Louis caught a two-yard pass from O'Connell to open up a three touchdown lead.

QB Efficiency is drives that resulted in scores or missed field goals divided by number of drives minus drives ended by the clock.
 When two quarterbacks are involved in a drive, the quarterback that began the drive will receive credit for points yielded.
