San Diego State Postgame Notes vs. Nevada

Score: San Diego State 3, Nevada 1

Records: SDSU: 6-6 | Nevada 7-4

Next Game: Saturday, March 9 vs. Nevada – 6:00 p.m. – Tony Gwynn Stadium

Notes

- SDSU snapped a four-game losing streak – the team’s first four-game losing streak since April 26 – May 1, 2016 – and improve to 36-9 in games following a loss since the start of the 2017 season.
- SDSU recorded their seventh 10+ strikeout game of the season.
- SDSU has won six of their last 10 meetings with Nevada.
- SDSU improved to 23-1 in its last 24 games when holding their opponent to two or fewer runs.
- Adrian Mardueno maintained his 0.00 ERA with his sixth consecutive appearance without allowing an earned run this year. Mardueno, who was an All-Alaska Baseball League First Team honoree last year as the Anchorage Bucs closer with a 0.00 ERA, has not allowed an earned run to score in his last 31.1 innings pitched when combining the end of the 2018 season, the 2018 summer season in Alaska, and the start of the 2019 season.
- Angelo Armenta extended his hitting streak to a team season-best seven games.
- Jacob Maekawa extended his on-base streak to a team season-best eight games.
