Aztecs Continue West Coast Classic Action on Monday with Road Contest at Old WAC Rival Fresno State

San Diego State, 2-1 on the season and 1-0 in West Coast Classic action, will continue its tour of California with a road game at longtime foe Fresno State (2-1) on Monday night. The non-conference game is the second of four West Coast Classic outings for the Aztecs, who beat Santa Clara in the opener, 86-53, on Thursday night at Viejas Arena.

Game time is set for 7:00 p.m. PT at Save Mart Center and can be heard in Southern California on AM 600 KOGO with Ted Leitner providing the play-by-play.

SDSU, which has already played in Moraga, will start its two-game road swing at Fresno State before heading to Pacific and Stockton, Calif., for another West Coast Classic contest. The Aztecs and Bulldogs are meeting for the third straight season and will play their 102nd game against each other. Fresno State is, by far, San Diego State's most common opponent. UC Santa Barbara, another team on this year's schedule, ranks second with 89 all-time get-togethers with the Scarlet and Black.

Following the game, the Aztecs will travel the 127 miles it takes to get to Stockton to prepare for Wednesday's date with the Tigers before returning to San Diego for the Thanksgiving holiday. San Diego State will wrap up the West Coast Classic with a Saturday, Nov. 28, home game vs. Northern Arizona, which is slated for 3 p.m. PT.

Game Tidbits

- ▶ After dropping 10 straight decisions to the Bulldogs from 1996-2000, San Diego State has rebounded of late to win the last three meetings, including a pair the last two years.
- ▶ SDSU is in search of its fourth straight win the series. The last time the Aztecs had a winning streak of at least four in a row vs. Fresno State was back in the 1970s. San Diego State was victorious in eight straight beginning with the last meeting in 1971 to the first meeting in 1976 when both were members of the Western Athletic Conference.
- ▶ The Aztecs will make their second-ever appearance at Save Mart Center on Monday. In SDSU's first trip, it won the 2007 World Vision Classic by winning three games in three days, including an 89-72 win over Fresno State in the finale.
- ▶ San Diego State will look to continue its solid play during the month of November as the team has posted a record of 21-3 since the beginning of the 2006-07 season. Two of the losses came on the road (at California in 2007-08, at Saint Mary's in 2009-10) and the other was to 15th-ranked Arizona State last year at home.

San Diego State-Fresno State: The Series

▶ The game between San Diego State and Fresno State will mark the 102nd in the series. The 101 previous meetings is the most against any opponent in school history, easily outdistancing itself from the 89 all-time meetings between UC Santa Barbara and SDSU, which is the second most in program history.

▶ Overall, the Aztecs hold a slim edge over the Bulldogs in the all-time series, 53-48. In games played in Fresno, SDSU is 17-29, but won the last meeting in 2007 at the World Vision Classic.

▶ The two old Western Athletic Conference members will be playing one another for just the third time since Dec. 8, 2001, when the Aztecs defeated then No. 21/16 Fresno State, 93-78, inside Cox Arena. The win snapped SDSU's six-game losing streak to ranked opponents thanks to 25 points from Al Faux. Another note on the game ... it was the Aztecs' second victory over a nationally ranked team in their last 31 games against ranked opposition.

▶ The last time these two old rivals got together was in 2007 at the World Vision Classic. The Aztecs got the better of Bulldogs on that afternoon, winning 89-72 at Save Mart Center.

▶ The series has been one of streaks. The Aztecs started the series in 1940 by winning the first eight meetings and 15 of the first 16. As the series progressed, SDSU went on to win 29 of the first 33 contests, going up to 1956. Beginning with the second game of the season series in 1956, the Bulldogs won three straight and 15 of the next 18. During that 18-game span, Fresno State ran off six consecutive victories as well. After trading wins for a few seasons, in 1969, the Aztecs lost five in a row and then won the next eight. It wasn't until 1985 that another streak began as the Bulldogs won seven straight and 17 of 18 before SDSU pulled the upset in 2001.

▶ San Diego State will see a familiar face on Monday in Fresno State head coach Steve Cleveland. The fifth-year coach held the same position at Brigham Young for eight years before arriving in The Valley. His Cougar teams terrorized SDSU, posting a record of 11-5 vs. the Aztecs. However, against Steve Fisher-led teams, Cleveland is just 7-7 with Fisher guiding his team to seven wins in their last 10 encounters.

White Playing Like a Preseason All-MWC Player

Billy White, a preseason all-Mountain West Conference pick, is playing up to the billing after suffering from a wrist injury that limited his practice time and kept him out of the season opener vs. UC San Diego.

Since going 0-for-4 in the first half at Saint Mary's, which was his first game of the season, White has gone 12-for-18 from field (.667 FG) and has scored 27 points in his last three halves of basketball. He is also averaging 7.5 rebounds per game after posting seven at Saint Mary's and eight vs. Santa Clara.

Nice All-Around Game

Kawhi Leonard put together his best all-around game of the season vs. Santa Clara on Thursday. The Riverside, Calif., native nearly missed his first double-double after finishing with career-high totals of nine points, 13 rebounds, four assists and two steals. The freshman is the team's No. 1 rebounder (9.3), ranks second in assists (2.3), third in steals (1.3) and is one of eight Aztecs averaging 7.0 points or more entering Monday's game.

Last Year's Meeting

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State beat Fresno State at home in convincing fashion, 80-56, improving its record to 2-1.

Kyle Spain led the way with a career-high tying 22 points and was one rebound shy of matching his career-high with 11 rebounds. His double-double effort was the third of his career.

The game started off close as the Aztecs managed just a five point lead with 9:40 remaining in the first, until an offensive surge gave San Diego State a commanding 17-point lead as they went into halftime ahead, 40-23.

Fresno State couldn't find an answer in the second half as the Aztecs increased their lead to 22 points, thanks to a 14-5 run to open the second half.

SDSU went on to win comfortably by 24 points, which was the second-largest margin of victory in the history of the series.

Fresno State's Sylvester Seay led his team with 13 points and Dwight O'Neil added 12 points.

Ryan Amoroso scored 11 points, while Kelvin Davis and Mehdi Cheriet both scored nine points a piece.

The victory against Fresno State was SDSU's third straight win over the Bulldogs in the series and marked San Diego State's fifth consecutive win against the Western Athletic Conference.

Notes from the Game:

► The Aztecs won their third straight game over Fresno State. The last time SDSU won three straight in the series was in 1974-75, when the Aztecs swept the series in 1974 and took the first game in 1975. The two teams have played 28 times since then. ... The 24-point margin of victory is the largest in the 101-game series history since Jan. 19, 1946, when SDSU won by the same margin, 57-33. It is the second-largest margin of victory in the history of the series only to the 62-24 triumph back on Jan. 6, 1940.

► San Diego State won its fifth consecutive game against a Western Athletic Conference (WAC) school. The Aztecs' last loss against a WAC opponent was the same Bulldogs on Feb. 25, 1999.

► The Aztecs led wire-to-wire for the 27th time in the Steve Fisher era.

Effort on the Boards

We just talked about Kawhi Leonard's nice game vs. Santa Clara, but it is his effort on the boards that is most impressive this season. So far, the CalHiSports.com Mr. Basketball has gathered the most rebounds on the team en route to his 9.3 average. Against UC San Diego, Leonard grabbed eight rebounds and followed it with seven at Saint Mary's despite being plagued with foul trouble. Against Santa Clara, Leonard had a game- and career-high 13 boards. In the Mountain West Conference, the pre-season freshman of the year is second in the league in rebounding and defensive rebounds (7.7) and is the top freshman window wiper.

Davis and Tapley Quietly Going About Their Business

Guards Kelvin Davis and Chase Tapley are quietly having solid seasons in the early going. Both are tied for fourth in points scored (26) and sport a scoring average of 8.7, while reaching the double-figure plateau in two of the team's three games. The duo is shooting a combined 55.6 percent from the field (20-36), including 52.6 percent from three-point distance (10-19). In fact, the pair is responsible for 10 of San Diego State's 15 three-pointers through three games. Individually, Davis is 9-for-16 from the field (.563) and 6-11 from behind the arc, while Tapley is 11-for-20 (.550) and 4-for-8 (.500) from the land of three.

hometown for the second time in three seasons. A native of Fresno, Calif., Shelton played at Save Mart Center as a true freshman in the 2007 World Vision Classic and averaged 10.7 points and 5.7 rebounds. Against Fresno State, the Clovis West High product finished with 11 points, a season-high eight rebounds and a career-best four assists.

Thomas Proving His Worth

San Diego State newcomer and junior Malcolm Thomas has proven to be a solid addition this season. The San Diego City College transfer, by way of Pepperdine, leads SDSU in points scored (40), blocked shots (1.7) and field-goal percentage (.652), free throws (10) and free-throw attempts (16). He also ranks second in scoring average (13.3) and rebounding (9.3).

In the opener vs. UC San Diego, Thomas had a game-high 20 points (8-11 FG), nine rebounds and two blocks and followed it with a team-best 14 points and eight boards at Saint Mary's. Against Santa Clara, Thomas came off the bench to record season highs in assists and blocked shots with three apiece.

Gay Handling the Point Guard Duties Just Fine

With the departure of all-time MWC assist and steals leader Richie Williams, many questioned whether junior D.J. Gay could handle the point guard responsibilities. After two games, the answer is yes.

Gay is currently averaging 3.7 assists, which is up from his 1.7 career mark. Despite having five turnovers against UC San Diego, many of which were mishandled by teammates, Gay dished out a game-high four assists and has a positive assist-to-turnover ratio (1.22) for the season. More impressive is the fact the junior was credited with a team-high three assists and committed just one turnover in a hostile environment at Saint Mary's.

Better Late Than Never

Preseason all-MWC pick Billy White and Pepperdine transfer Tyrone Shelley made their regular-season debut at Saint Mary's and both played significant minutes despite coming off the bench.

White, who suffered a wrist injury in the opening days of practice, returned to the court and logged 25 minutes, the third-highest total on the team. Held scoreless in the first half, White came out aggressive in the second and went 5-for-7 from the field en route to 10 points. He was also a beast on the boards picking up seven, which tied Kawhi Leonard for second-most on the squad.

Shelley, meanwhile, returned from a foot injury to play 23 minutes. The sophomore struggled shooting the ball (1-7), but still managed to score six points and contribute six rebounds, two assists and two steals. Both he and White also shared the team lead with one block apiece.

Davis Makes Complete Comeback

Toward the end of the 2007-08 season, Kelvin Davis did not feel like himself. After the Aztecs' first-round NIT loss at Florida, Davis was diagnosed with Hodgkin's lymphoma and went through chemotherapy and radiation treatments that extended into the 2008-09 campaign. The illness limited him to just eight games last year and the Waterbury, Conn., native was awarded a sixth season of eligibility by the NCAA.

Against UC San Diego, the 2009 USWBA Most Courageous Award recipient made his comeback complete as he started the season opener and finished as the game's third-leading scorer (10). The starting assignment was his first since Feb. 13, 2008, vs. New Mexico, while his 10-point effort was his first double-figure scoring performance since Feb. 9, 2008, at TCU.

Dominant on the Boards

The Aztecs dominated the glass against UCSD finishing with a 43-28 advantage on the glass. All nine players grabbed at least one rebound, while seven had three or more. Malcolm Thomas led the way with nine and was followed by newcomers Kawhi Leonard (8), Alec Williams (7) and Brian Carlwell (5). Then in its next home game vs. Santa Clara, SDSU outrebounded the Broncos, 45-37, to match the fifth-highest rebound total in Viejas Arena history. With its work on the Viejas boards, San Diego State improved to 37-11 in its last 48 games when outrebounding its opponent.

Defense a Priority

Defense has become a staple of San Diego State, especially last season when it set school records for lowest opponent scoring average (59.6) and lowest opponent field-goal percentage (41.0). In fact, the Aztecs finished 2008-09 ranked 15th in Division I in scoring defense.

A new season began over a week ago and things were the same for the Scarlet and Black. SDSU held UC San Diego to just 52 points, on 34.4 percent shooting (6-30 3FG; 20.0), and forced 14 turnovers, which led to 17 Aztec points. San Diego State opened the second half by scoring the first 16 points and held UCSD without a point until there was 12:25 remaining in the game.

The story was very similar in the Aztecs' next home outing vs. Santa Clara as they limited the Broncos to only 53 points and forced them into shooting 27.7 percent from the field, including 21.1 percent from beyond the arc (4-19). In fact, SDSU opened the second half on a 20-4 run to open up a 32-point lead, which eventually swelled to 40 on a pair of occasions as the Aztecs cruised into the win column.

Not in Our House

San Diego State owns one of the top homecourt advantages not only on the West Coast, but in the entire nation. Since the beginning of the 2005-06 season, the Aztecs are 55-9 in their last 64 home games. Of those nine losses, three were to Pac-10 Conference schools and five were to Mountain

West Conference clubs. Only once has a non-Pac-10 or MWC school escaped with a victory (Northern Colorado - Jan. 9, 2008).

Aztecs Make Second Straight Appearance in ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll

Coming off an impressive 2008-09 campaign, San Diego State found itself in the first two ESPN/USA Today Coaches Polls of the season.

In the poll released Nov. 13, San Diego State earned four points to rank tied for 42nd along with Utah State, Southern Illinois and Texas A&M. In the preseason poll, the Aztecs received eight points and was ranked 44th in nation. SDSU's preseason point total was its most since Dec. 4, 2006, when it earned 17 points and was ranked 32nd nationally. Overall, it was the first time San Diego State has appeared in a poll since Feb. 9, 2009, when it garnered three points (No. 38).

SDSU Picked to Finish Second in MWC

San Diego State was picked to finish in second place in the Mountain West Conference 2009-10 preseason media poll released in October during the league's media day in Denver, Colo. Below is the balance of the poll:

Rk.	Team	1st place votes	Total points
1.	Brigham Young	23	215
2.	► San Diego State	1	166
3.	UNLV	-	161
4.	Utah	-	143
5.	New Mexico	-	141
6.	Wyoming	-	89
7.	TCU	-	82
8.	Colorado State	-	58
9.	Air Force	-	25

In conjunction with the announcement of preseason poll results, the MWC released its preseason honors. Junior Billy White was voted to the five-man preseason all-conference team and was joined by TCU's Zvonko Buljan, BYU's Jimmer Fredette and Jonathan Tavernari and Tre'Von Willis of UNLV. The two-time all-MWC performer returns as the team's top returner in scoring average (8.8), field-goal percentage (.663), blocked shots (26) and steals (31). He also returns as the Mountain West leader in field-goal percentage and is among the conference leaders in blocked shots.

Kawhi Leonard, meanwhile, became San Diego State's first Mountain West Preseason Freshman of the Year after a senior season at King High School in Riverside, Calif., that saw him earn Los Angeles Times Player of the Year honors and CalHiSports.com Mr. Basketball State Player of the Year accolades. Leonard, who had at least 20 points and 20 rebounds six times as a senior, averaged 22.6 points, 13.1 rebounds, 3.9 assists and 3.0 blocks, while leading King High to the CIF-Southern Section Division I-AA title, a runner-up finish in the Southern California Regional and a 30-3 overall record. In addition to earning the highest honors from the L.A. Times and CalHiSports.com, Leonard was a CalHiSports.com all-state first-team selection, was one of seven Los Angeles-area players to receive the John R. Wooden High School Player of the Year award (CIF-SS Div. I) and finished the year ranked No. 56 on ESPNU's Top 100.

Fisher Extended Through 2012-13

San Diego State University exercised its option on Steve Fisher's two-year contract extension that will keep the men's basketball head coach on Montezuma Mesa through the 2012-13 season, it was announced in September. The two-year option was part of his five-year contract signed in 2006, which was set to expire in 2010-11.

Fisher, who is entering his 11th season at San Diego State, has guided the school to one of the most dramatic turnarounds in NCAA history and has molded the program into one of the most successful programs over the last four seasons.

As the longest-tenured coach in the Mountain West Conference, Fisher has led the Aztecs to postseason play the last four years, a first in SDSU's Division I history, and in six of the last eight campaigns. Fisher has also coached the team to four consecutive 20-win seasons and five overall in his previous 10 years. In 2008-09, San Diego State won a school-record 26 games and advanced to the NIT national semifinals. In the eight seasons prior to his arrival on The Mesa, SDSU averaged just 9.3 wins a year.

At SDSU, Fisher has compiled a record of 173-140 in 10 seasons. He has posted a .500 or better mark in seven of his 10 years after the Aztecs had just one break-even record in the 14 seasons before his arrival. Fisher is currently the third-winningest coach in school history and is just 18 wins shy of moving into second place on the SDSU all-time victory chart.

Interest in program is at an all-time high as the Aztecs averaged 7,023 fans per home game last year, the third-highest total in San Diego State's Division I history. In fact, SDSU has produced the top-eight season attendance marks in the Division I era under Fisher. On the television side, 200 of 257 San Diego State games have appeared on local, regional or national TV the past eight seasons, an average of 25 televised contests per year during that span.

What They're Saying

ON SAN DIEGO STATE

* "Sure San Diego State lost Kyle Spain, Lorenzo Wade and Richie Williams, but after some early-season bumps and hiccups, expect Steve Fisher to have one of the most talented yet least heralded clubs in college basketball. Kelvin Davis should be the team's best shooter as he returns from a season lost to recovering from Hodgkin's lymphoma. And remember the name Kawhi Leonard. He's the best incoming frosh on the West Coast, period. If his attitude holds up, he could have a monster season. Malcolm Thomas played really well in junior college after having a good year as a freshman on a bad Pepperdine club. Tyrone Shelley, another former Pepperdine player, should be a scoring machine, and Brian Carlwell, who never was great at Illinois, is massive and in better shape than he was while playing for Bruce Weber. The Aztecs' fortunes may ride on returners Billy White, who is a great slasher, and point guard D.J. Gay. Gay must beat out scoring point Chase Tapley and keep everyone happy. Everything needs to click, but the Aztecs are loaded." - Doug Gottlieb, ESPN.com (Aug. 18, 2009).

* "San Diego State, Utah, New Mexico and BYU will be the best teams...." - Jay Bilas, ESPN.com (Sept. 8, 2009)

* "The Aztecs won't sneak up on anyone with one of the best recruiting classes in the country...." - Justin Goodrum, SLAM ONLINE

ON KAWHI LEONARD

* "SDSU has several transfers; a couple of former juco players; and Leonard, who one Pac-10 coach told me is better than anyone else who signed in the Pac-10 this year. Simply a killer as a competitor, Kawhi is an undersized 4 who can wear a defense out in the midrange and on the boards. With Malcolm Thomas back putting up big numbers on the wing, Leonard can work both inside and out to do damage." - Doug Gottlieb, ESPN.com (May 21, 2009)

ON SDSU'S TRANSFERS

* "(Tyrone) Shelley is a wing, and (Malcolm) Thomas is a post, and together they formed a clique that left Pepperdine and arrived on the Hill back home in San Diego. Shelley redshirted last season, and Thomas dominated California juco ball, averaging 21 ppg and 12 rpg in preparation for reuniting at Cali's new Transfer U. Steve Fisher has had a ton of success with transfers, and this duo, along with Illinois transfer Brian Carlwell, will make a major impact in the Mountain West." - Doug Gottlieb, ESPN.com (Sept. 22, 2009)

ON SDSU'S RECRUITING CLASS

* "San Diego State signed Kawhi Leonard, who Rivals.com ranked as the No. 8 small forward in the 2009 class. He will join junior college transfer Malcolm Thomas to form a combination that will be expected to contribute immediately." - Jason Scheer, Rivals.com in Sporting News College Basketball 2009-10

Game 1

San Diego State 77
UC San Diego 52

Nov. 14, 2009 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 5,520

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State overcame a sluggish first-half showing and shot nearly 65 percent from the field in the second half to defeat UC San Diego, 77-52, in the Aztecs' season opener.

Newcomer Malcolm Thomas carried San Diego State on this afternoon with his 20 points on 8-of-11 shooting, nine rebounds and two blocks. Fellow newcomer Chase Tapley, meanwhile, finished with 11 points and Kelvin Davis had 10 in a starting role.

Despite shooting 53.8 percent in the first half, the Aztecs were nursing a 31-28 lead at halftime mainly due to their 12 turnovers and 2-for-8 performance at the free-throw line.

In the second half, it was a significantly different story as San Diego State came out on fire, scoring the first 16 points to increase its lead to 19.

With the game comfortably in hand, the Aztecs went on another scoring binge, this time an 11-3 run, to move ahead by 23 with less than four minutes left and eventually cruised to the finish line.

For the game, SDSU shot 59.3 percent from the field, including 64.3 percent in the second half, and outrebounded the Tritons, 43-28. The Aztecs also dominated points in the paint (46-16) and fast-break points (10-0).

UC San Diego was led by Tyler Acevedo, who had 14 points off the bench. Jordan Lawley finished with nine points, while Casey Ryan added eight points and eight rebounds.

Game 2

Saint Mary's 80
San Diego State 58

Nov. 16, 2009 ♦ Moraga, Calif.
McKeon Pavilion ♦ Att.: 2,774

MORAGA, Calif. - San Diego State dropped an 80-58 decision at Saint Mary's in what could have been the latest tip time in school history, 11 p.m. PT, as the Aztecs and Gaels participated in ESPN's College Hoops Tip-Off Marathon.

SDSU opened the game with a 1-0 lead on a free throw by Malcolm Thomas and never led again as Saint Mary's and more specifically, Mickey McConnell, came out on fire and never looked back.

McConnell went 5-for-5 from three-point range in the first half alone to lead a Gael attack that featured three players with eight points or more at halftime. McConnell finished the half with 17 points, while Matthew Dellavedova and Omar Samhan each had eight. Samhan also had 12 boards as his team enjoyed a 42-21 lead at the break.

With a steep hill to climb, San Diego State chipped away at the lead and came within 12 points with 7:34 to go after Thomas and Billy White took over the game. The duo scored all of SDSU's 14 points in a six-plus minute stretch, with White scoring 10 of the 14.

But like most of the game, the Gaels had an answer for the Aztecs and responded with a 14-3 run to increase their lead to 23 with 3:24 to go to effectively put the game away.

Thomas finished with 14 points and eight rebounds, while White and D.J. Gay each had 10. For Saint Mary's, McConnell had a game-high 24 points and seven assists. Dellavedova and Samhan, meanwhile, had 17 apiece with Samhan adding 16 rebounds, four assists and five blocked shots.

Game 3

San Diego State 86
Santa Clara 53

Nov. 19, 2009 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 5,401

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State was a completely different team from its performance in its previous game at Saint Mary's as the Aztecs thoroughly dominated Santa Clara, 86-53, in the first game of the West Coast Classic.

Five players scored in double figures and were led by Billy White's 17. D.J. Gay, Tyrone Shelley and Chase Tapley each had 12, while Kelvin Davis had 11. Kawhi Leonard, meanwhile, narrowly posted a double-double after finishing with nine points and a career-high 13 rebounds.

The game was a tight affair with the margin never rising above four points for the first 10-and-a-half minutes. But a 17-0 Aztec run opened the game up and soon SDSU found itself ahead by 17 with six minutes to play in the first half. The Aztecs wound up going into the locker room up 38-22.

In the second period, both teams traded a pair of buckets with Gay knocking down San Diego State's second field goal. The junior's basket spurred what would be the deciding run as the Aztecs ran off 18 straight points and 23 of the next 25 to pull ahead, 61-28 with 11:34 remaining in regulation.

Nearly seven minutes later, SDSU enjoyed the first of its two 40-point leads after Gay connected on a jumper. The second 40-point advantage came with 3:55 left in the game when Tapley knocked down a three off a feed from Bryan Horton.

In the final minutes, Santa Clara outscored the Aztecs, 11-4, to provide the final margin.

While San Diego State had five players score in double figures, Santa Clara had three, led by Niyi Harrison's 14.
