STORYLINES

The San Diego State Aztecs return home for their biggest challenge of the season Saturday night when they host the No. 9/10 (Associated Press/ESPN-USA Today Coaches Poll) Utah Utes. Kickoff is set for 6:07 p.m.

The Aztecs will be looking to end a four-game losing streak and snap their 0-3 conference start. The Utes are 7-0 and 3-0 in Mountain West play after trouncing UNLV, 63-28.

The Utes won last year's game, 27-6 after San Diego State led at the break. Two years ago, in Mission Valley, the Aztecs ran away with a 36-17 victory for the Aztecs' lone win over Utah since the start of the Mountain West Conference (1999).

NOTELINES

► It would be virtually impossible to find a series more closely contested than that of the Aztecs-Utes.

► The Aztecs will be looking to pick up a victory over a ranked opponent for the first time in eight years when the Utes hit town.

► Don't plan on many of the Aztec offensive players to have an impact on the upcoming election. They're probably too young to make a difference.

► The numbers get more impressive by the week for the San Diego State defense.

The Series

Tied, 11-11-1

The Utes and the Aztecs will break their deadlock Saturday night at Qualcomm Stadium. Utah holds a 4-1 series advantage since the Mountain West was formed in 1999. The lone Utah loss came on its last visit to San Diego State, in 2002. San Diego State owns a 6-4-1 advantage when the teams play in Mission Valley. The series dates back to 1978 when SDSU joined the WAC.

TEAM NOTES

The Game

The San Diego State Aztecs, now 2-5 overall and 0-3 in the Mountain West, will try to get their first league win Saturday night when they host the 9th/10th-ranked (Associated Press/ESPN-USA Today Coaches Poll) Utah Utes in SDSU's 2004 Homecoming game. Utah enters the game a perfect 7-0, including a perfect 3-0 mark in conference play. Utah was 6-1 in league play last season on its way to the Mountain West Conference title and a Liberty Bowl victory. SDSU has lost four straight games. The Aztecs have not dropped five games in a row since opening the 2002 season with an 0-5 record. Utah is No. 6 in the BCS poll.

Homecoming On Montezuma Mesa

San Diego State returns to Qualcomm Stadium on Saturday to host Utah in the 2004 Homecoming game. The Aztecs own a Homecoming record of 43-20-2 with 13 wins in the last 16 Homecoming games. The Aztecs dropped last year's Homecoming game to New Mexico, 30-7.

Homecoming And Utah

Saturday's game will mark the fourth time in which Utah has served as the Aztec Homecoming opponent. SDSU holds a 2-1 advantage in those games. The Aztecs' 66-14 Homecoming win over Utah in 1990 represents the Aztecs' largest victory over any Mountain West opponent. The last time Utah visited San Diego for Homecoming (1998), SDSU was a 21-20 overtime winner. The Aztecs have not played an overtime game since that contest.

Breaking The Tie

The San Diego State-Utah series dates back to 1978 when the Aztecs joined the Western Athletic Conference. After 23 meetings, the series is even at 11-11-1. In San Diego, the Aztecs hold a 6-4-1 lead. The two teams tied in San Diego back in 1984 (24-24). SDSU was a 21-20 overtime winner in 1998. That game was also played in Mission Valley. Utah holds a 4-1 advantage over SDSU since 1999 when the two schools moved into the Mountain West Conference. That one Aztec win came in 2002 when the two squads last played in San Diego. The Aztecs won that game, 36-17. Aztec coach Tom Craft is 1-1 vs. Utah while Utes boss Urban Meyer is 1-0 against the Aztecs.

This Series Is So Close....

It can't be much closer than the San Diego State-Utah series. Not only is the all-time won-loss record dead even at 11-11-1, but the scoreboard numbers are nearly identical as well. After 23 meetings, between the schools, San Diego State has scored 589 points to Utah's 588 for a one-point difference after 23 games. Thirteen games have been decided by seven points or less, 12 games have been decided by four points or less and nine games have been decided by three points or less. One game was decided in overtime and another ended in a tie.

Top 25 Utes

During the course of the series, San Diego State has faced just one ranked Utah team. Back in 1994, Utah was No. 25 when it defeated the Aztecs, 38-22, in San Diego.

Poll Sitters

San Diego State will be looking to break a 16-game losing streak against ranked opponents when the No. 9 Utes come to town. SDSU's last win over a ranked foe came in 1996 when the Aztecs dumped No. 16 Wyoming, 28-24. During the current losing streak, the Aztecs have had some near misses. San Diego State dropped a 24-18 overtime decision at No. 25 Air Force in 1997. In 1999, the Aztecs were last-second losers to No. 17 Southern California and Carson Palmer, 24-21. Last year, San Diego

State came up just short in a 16-13 loss at No. 2 Ohio State. And this season it was the tantalizing 24-21 setback at No. 17 Michigan.

Against The Top Ten

This week's game against the Utes will mark San Diego State's 13th against a member of the Top 10. The most recent was last season's 16-13 loss at No. 2 Ohio State. San Diego State has never knocked off a member of the Top 10. Along with the loss in Columbus last season, the Aztec also came close in 1990. That year, No. 2 Miami (Fla.) held off State, 30-28.

Biggest To Fall

The highest ranked team to fall to the Aztecs is No. 12 Iowa State. The Cyclones were 52-31 losers to San Diego State on Oct. 10, 1981. In 1977, the Aztecs knocked out No. 13 Florida State, 41-16. Both of those upsets took place in San Diego.

Conference Call

While the Aztecs are not celebrating an 0-3 conference start, it is certainly far from panic time on Montezuma Mesa. The Aztecs are 0-3 in league play for the second straight season. Last year, San Diego State rallied for three conference wins in its final four games to finish fourth in the league, marking the Aztecs' second straight upper division finish in the Mountain West.

Scouting Utah

Utah enters the San Diego State game as one of just seven unbeaten teams in Division IA college football with a 7-0 record. The Utes are second nationally in scoring (42.57 ppg) and fourth in total offense (488.9 yards per game). Utah quarterback Alex Smith, a Helix High School graduate, is fifth in the country in passing efficiency and 13th in America in total offense. The Utes are ranked 10th in the ESPN/USA Today coaches poll, No. 9 in Associated Press and No. 6 in the BCS poll.

Matching Up With The Utes

San Diego State's heavyweight defense will face its greatest challenge of the season in Utah. The Utes lead the Mountain West in scoring offense and total offense, and rank second in passing offense and rushing offense. The Utes also lead the league in pass efficiency, turnover margin and kickoff returns. See page 10 of this update for a complete look at the statistical matchup of the teams.

Last Year Vs. Utah

San Diego State sparred with the Utes for a half before falling in last season's game, 27-6. The Aztecs held a 6-0 lead at intermission after limiting the Utes to just 87 yards of total offense. Utah responded, however, by scoring on its first five possessions of the second half to pick up the victory. Jeff Webb had five catches for 61 yards, Devin Pitts caught four passes for 53 yards and Jeremy Justice caught three passes for 58 yards in the loss.

Last Time In San Diego

San Diego State receiver J.R. Tolver ripped up Utah for 16 catches and 185 yards and SDSU rolled up 410 yards of total offense in a 36-17 Aztec victory. San Diego State intercepted four passes, including one throw by then-freshman Alex Smith, who played late in the game. That pass was returned 29 yards for a touchdown by SDSU's Ricky Sharpe. Kassim Osgood, now a member of the San Diego Chargers, caught a 36-yard touchdown pass.

Fresh Faces

Just when it seems San Diego State can't get any younger, the Aztecs get a little younger. At New Mexico, redshirt freshman quarterback Kevin O'Connell made his first start. He became SDSU's first freshman starter at quarterback since Spencer Britton closed the 1997 season by starting the final five games of the year.

Don't Vote

No political candidates will be hanging out around the Aztec offensive or special teams meeting rooms any time soon. Very few players on those units are old enough to vote. Against New Mexico, eight freshmen saw significant playing time, including three offensive starters (Kevin O'Connell, and offensive linemen Mike Kravetz and Will Robinson). SDSU's leading passer (O'Connell), leading rusher (Brandon Bornes) and two offensive line starters are freshmen. Also seeing action were freshmen offensive lineman Brandyn Dombrowski and receiver Brett Swain.

Special Teams, Too

However young the offense may be, its players still have seniority over the special teams crew. San Diego State's long snapper is true freshman Tyler Schmitt, its ranking punters are redshirt freshman Michael Hughes and true freshman Sean Henschel. Redshirt freshman Garrett Palmer handles the kickoff and placekicking duties and redshirt freshman Brandon Bornes is on the kickoff return team. Bornes is now second in the league in kickoff returns with an average of 20.8 yards.

The Dark Side Moves Up

San Diego State's defense, known as The Dark Side, has been so effective in Mountain West play that the unit is beginning to reach the neighborhood of last year's record numbers for stingy-ness. In three Mountain West games, the Aztec defense is allowing an average of 226.7 yards per game. Those league numbers have helped propel SDSU to No. 27 nationally in total defense, allowing 310 yards per game. SDSU's conference numbers are over 100 yards per game better than New Mexico, which is second, allowing 327 yards to league foes. Last season, The Dark Side finished eighth nationally in total defense, allowing 289 yards per game.

The Dark Side Vs. The Mountain West

Despite the 0-3 conference start, the Mountain West Conference is once again have its hands full with The Dark Side defense. New Mexico became the fourth straight Mountain West offense, dating back to last season, limited to less than 300 yards by SDSU. Against Wyoming, the Aztecs allowed 264 total yards (98 yards fewer than the Cowboys generated last season vs. SDSU) and two touchdowns. One of the TDs came on a 29-yard drive. Over the last seven conference games, San Diego State's defense has limited Mountain West opponents to an average of just 251 yards of total offense. To put that number in perspective, consider SDSU allowed 289 yards of total offense per game to rank eighth in the nation in that category in 2003. San Diego State has allowed just 10 offensive touchdowns in its last 28 quarters of league play (including two scoring drives that combined to cover 39 yards). Four of SDSU's last seven MWC foes have been held below 250 yards. The Lobos managed 220 yards of total offense last week.

Dark Siders

Members of The Dark Side are racking up impressive numbers this season. Kirk Morrison continues to lead the league in tackles (10.3) for the season. In conference play, he is averaging 11.3 tackles per game. Heath Farwell, who is coming off a career-best nine-tackle effort at New Mexico, leads the Mountain West in fumbles caused with three. He ranks third in the league in quarterback sacks, where he is tied with fellow Aztec Blake Lobel (five each). Matt McCoy is eighth in the league in tackles with 8.7 per game. He led the Mountain West in that category last season (10.6).

Red-Faced Zone

The numbers just keep coming for The Dark Side. Through the New Mexico game, Aztec opponents had started a drive in San Diego State territory 17 times. But those golden opportunities have resulted in just five scores and only two touchdowns. One of those TDs came on a 10-yard drive and another from just 29 yards out. Those 17 drives on the Aztec end of the field have resulted in a total of just 23 points for the opposition.

Less For Moore

New Mexico running back Dontrell Moore entered the San Diego State game averaging 101.2 yards per game. His career rushing average was 99.4 yards entering the Aztec game. Against San Diego State, Moore rushed for 70 yards on 22 carries for an average of just 3.2 yards per rush.

Snake Bite Kit

Statistical victories and scoreboard losses are getting less fun by the week for the Aztecs. The loss to Colorado State marked the seventh straight Mountain West game in which the Aztecs held a total offense advantage over the opposition. That streak ended at New Mexico. In the loss to Colorado State, the Aztecs limited the Rams to 196 yards and owned a 170-yard advantage in total offense. At Wyoming, SDSU had the punting yips with three straight boots covering a total of 25 yards. Against CSU, it was a fumble in the last two minutes that gave the Rams possession of the ball at the Aztec 10 with SDSU nursing a 17-14 lead. CSU's offense total was the lowest by an Aztec opponent since UNLV was limited to 175 yards last season. It was the lowest offensive total by the Rams since the 2002 Liberty Bowl loss to TCU. And at New Mexico, San Diego State limited the Lobos to just 220 total yards, registered a safety, four quarterback sacks, eight tackles for loss, but lost 19-9.

By The Numbers

SDSU would seem to be one of the least likely candidates to be off to an 0-3 Mountain West start when comparing the numbers. In three league games, SDSU has a sturdy statistical advantage over Wyoming, Colorado State and New Mexico. In league play, 24 of the MWC opposition's 60 points have come on a TOTAL of 47 yards of offense.

ADVANTAGE SDSU (2004 MWC)

Team	SDSU	MWC Opponents
First Downs	51	44
Rushing Yards	177	239
Passing Yards	698	431
Total Offense Avg.	291.7	226.7

These Are Losses?

San Diego State enters the Utah game with a 2-5 record. No asterisks allowed. But if there were...In the five losses suffered by the Aztecs, SDSU has outgained the opposition by a total of 171 yards and has four more first downs than Michigan, UCLA, Wyoming, CSU and New Mexico combined. However, SDSU did lose the turnover battle (-5 total).

Total Tallies

San Diego State has outgained the opposition in nine of its last 12 games and in 13 of 19 games since the start of the 2003 season. SDSU has lost six straight games in which it has been outgained in total yards, dating back to a 38-34 win at Air Force on Nov. 23, 2002. SDSU is 8-7 when outgaining the opposition during that same time frame.

Butkus Please

San Diego State senior linebacker Kirk Morrison was named as one of 12 Butkus Award semifinalists on Oct. 14th when the watch list was trimmed from 68 names. The Butkus Award is presented annually to the nation's top linebacker. With his 10 tackles against New Mexico, Morrison reached double figures in tackles for the fifth straight game. Against the Lobos, he also recovered a fumble for the ninth time in his career. Morrison was named Mountain West Conference defensive player of the week after his 14-tackle effort against Colorado State.

Semi-Good

Kirk Morrison's selection as a Butkus semifinalist marks the third time since 2001 that the Aztecs have had a semifinalist for a national honor. In 2001, Larry Ned's 1,549 rushing yards landed him on the Doak Walker Award semifinalist list. And in 2002, J.R. Tolver was a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award, presented to the nation's top receiver. Tolver's year included 128 catches and 1,785 yards.

Kirk's Climb

Kirk Morrison continues to climb SDSU's career tackle charts. Thanks to his fifth straight game in which he reached double figures in tackles, Morrison now has 353 for his career, to rank third all-time at San Diego State, behind Whip Walton (407) and Rico Curtis (355). Morrison entered the season as America's No. 11 active tackler. Morrison leads the Mountain West Conference with an average of 10.3 tackles per game. Fellow Aztec Matt McCoy led the league last year with 10.6 tackles per game.

Behind The Line, Too

Kirk Morrison now has 40 tackles for loss in his career. He is seventh all-time at San Diego State in that category.

Musical Linemen

The Aztecs are an improved offensive bunch and that is an accomplishment since they did not start the same group of offensive linemen in consecutive games until week six and seven. Even that group is shorthanded. Starter Chris Pino has missed the last two games due to a concussion and preseason starter Brandyn Dombrowski is still not fully recovered from two ankle sprains. Center Taylor Schmidt is the only offensive lineman who has opened all six games at the same position. There have been five different starting groups in the seven games.

Webb Gems

The proud tradition of Aztec receivers is poised to add a new member. Junior Jeff Webb enters the Utah game with 49 catches for 594 yards. He leads the Mountain West and ranks 11th nationally with seven catches per game. He is third in the league and 22nd nationally with 84.9 receiving yards per game.

Countdown To 1,000

Jeff Webb needs to average 101.5 receiving yards over the final four games of the season to reach 1,000 yards. J.R. Tolver and Kassim Osgood were the last Aztecs to accomplish the feat when both players broke the 1,000-yard mark in 2002. Webb had a career-best 706 receiving yards last season. His year was cut short by a shoulder injury at UNLV, the same game in which the Aztecs lost Lynell Hamilton for the season (and for 2004 as it turned out).

Webb's Place

As Jeff Webb continues to evolve into one of the top receivers in the west, he is beginning to carve his niche in Aztec history. The junior is closing in on the Aztec all-time top 10 in catches. Webb has 120 for his career while the No. 10 all-time spot is occupied by Darius Durham with 125.

Ortiz, Please

San Diego State's second-leading receiver is Robert Ortiz with 35 catches for 483 yards. His yardage total this season is already the best in his Aztec career and he has already surpassed his best season total for catches.

Star Search

The changes in the Aztec offense are not limited to the offensive line. Preseason prognostications for the Aztecs might not have been as lofty if the prophets had known SDSU would play the entire season without freshman All-America running back Lynell Hamilton, or a Rimington Award candidate in center Jasper Harvey. SDSU has also been missing returning starter Wesley Williams at wideout, who has missed the last six games with a hip injury. Outland Trophy Watch List member Mike Kracalik did not play at UCLA due to a knee sprain and freshman offensive lineman Brandyn Dombrowski, who won a starting job during fall camp, has been sidelined virtually all season with two ankle sprains. Returning starter Devin Pitts returned from injury to catch six passes in Laramie and is full strength.

One Less Weapon

Lynell Hamilton, the 2003 Freshman All-America (The Sporting News, Rivals), Mountain West freshman of the year and first-team all-league running back, will sit out this season as he continues to recover from the broken ankle that prematurely ended his 2003 season in game 10 at UNLV. Hamilton, who ran for 1,087 yards in less than 10 full games, would have been the nation's 10th leading returning rusher in 2004. He will return to the squad as a sophomore next season.

Double Figures

San Diego State's decorated linebacking corps continues to stockpile statistics. Kirk Morrison's 10-tackle effort against New Mexico marked the 12th time in the last 14 games (dating back to last season) that an Aztec linebacker reached double figures in tackles. Morrison has accomplished the feat 17 times in his career and Matt McCoy has reached double figures seven times. Morrison has reached double figures in tackles in five straight games, a career first for the Oakland senior.

Linebacker You, You, You and You

Forgive opponents if they feel the SDSU linebacking corps has been together forever. The foursome of Kirk Morrison, Matt McCoy, Heath Farwell and Stephen Larsen have combined to start 92 games during their Aztec careers and they have also combined for a total of 866 career tackles, 100.5 tackles behind the line of scrimmage, 37 quarterback sacks, 22 forced fumbles, 18 recovered fumbles, 30 pass break-ups and six interceptions.

They Know Nagurski

Kirk Morrison and Matt McCoy, perhaps the most productive linebacking duo in the America, have been named to the Bronko Nagurski Watch List, presented to the nation's top defensive player. McCoy was the Nagurski national defensive player of the week after his 18 tackles in the 24-21 loss at No. 17 Michigan.

Beginning To The End Zone

San Diego State has scored 15 touchdowns entering the New Mexico game with six players doing the damage. Those six players, Michael Franklin, Jeff, Webb, Wesley Williams, Brandon Bornes, Ramal Porter and Robert Ortiz had scored a combined 10 career touchdowns entering the season.

INT-eresting

The Aztecs now have 10 interceptions through seven games this season after corraling just 12 all of last year. Seven players have combined for the picks with Reggie Grigsby becoming the latest to join the club. Grigsby's first career interception set up SDSU's go-ahead field goal in the fourth quarter against Colorado State.

First Things First

San Diego State has already scored 61 points in the first quarter this season. Last year, the Aztecs managed just 60 points in the first period for the entire 12-game season.

Good Morning, Aztecs

San Diego State is likely the only program in the country that will practice in the mornings throughout the football season. Due to class conflicts in the afternoon, SDSU will have morning practices, beginning at 7 a.m., throughout the season. Players will return to the football offices for late afternoon film and meetings. Only the Friday walkthrough is scheduled for a traditional mid-afternoon time.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

After earning the distinction of being one of the nation's top defensive units a year ago, The Dark Side defense is having an impressive 2004 as well... San Diego State has held five of its seven 2004 opponents below their average scoring output: Idaho State (scored 21 points, averages 25.2 against non-SDSU opponents), Michigan (24, 31.0), Nevada (10, 31.4), Wyoming (20, 30.3), and New Mexico (19, 20.4) (exceptions were UCLA which averages 32.3 ppg and scored 33 and Colorado State which average 20.0 ppg and scored 21)... SDSU has allowed 148 points this season but that is a bit misleading, Idaho State tallied 21 second-half points after the Aztecs had built a 38-0 lead, Michigan scored seven points on a fumble return, UCLA scored on an interception return and started a drive inside the Aztec 20 that resulted in a field goal, Wyoming started five drives in Aztec territory and kicked a field goal following an eight-yard drive and Colorado State also had an interception return and started the game-winning drive at the SDSU 10-yard line ... The defense has been sensational when put under pressure... Aztec opponents have started 17 drives on SDSU's side of the field and have scored a total of 23 points off the strong field position ... Since the beginning of the 2003 season, opponents have started in SDSU territory 38 times but were able to come away with points on just 16 occasions and touchdowns just six times... During that time, opponents have just a 17.7 percent touchdown percentage when starting inside Aztec territory... Through seven games, The Dark Side has 63 tackles for loss, 22 sacks, 10 interceptions and has forced 14 turnovers... The Aztecs have allowed just 172 points in their last 10 games (17.2 ppg)...In addition, opponents have been able to cross the goal line in just 20 of their last 57 opportunities when at or inside the Aztec 20 (TD conversion percentage of just 32.7 percent) ... The Aztecs have allowed just five rushing touchdowns this season to rank 14th nationally... SDSU is 11th in the country in interceptions with 10... The Dark Side is limiting opponents to a stingy 2.8 yards per rush this season... In six of the last 11 games, SDSU opponents have failed to rush for more than 85 yards... Last year San Diego State allowed 17 offensive touchdowns, tied with co-national champion Louisiana State for the best figure in the country... In 2003, SDSU held four opponents to nine points or less marking the first time an Aztec squad had done that since 1977... Last season the Aztecs allowed 207 points, the fewest SDSU has allowed since 1977... In the 25 seasons between 1977 and 2003, the Aztecs allowed more than 300 points 14 times and more than 400 points twice... The Dark Side defense scored four touchdowns last season off turnover returns and helped the Aztec offense to five scores on drives of four yards or less setup by turnovers deep in opposition territory.

game 1 - San Diego State 35, Idaho State 21

Game Notes

With the Aztec win: SDSU has claimed victories in two straight season-openers for the first time since claiming five straight from 1993-97 ... Aztecs have won 15 straight non-conference home games against teams from outside the BCS Conferences ... SDSU is 1-0 all-time against Idaho State and improves to a perfect 9-0 versus schools in the Big Sky Conference ... The Aztecs moved to 44-33-5 all-time (9-4-1 in last 14 years) in season openers and 2-1 under Tom Craft ... In home openers, SDSU is 27-7-1 in its last 35 home openers ... SDSU has won four of its last five games dating back to 2003 ... The Aztecs have won three straight home games for the first time since the 1998 squad won its final four contests at Qualcomm... The announced attendance of 57,216, is an SDSU record for a home game... On the opening play of the game, Aztec Michael Franklin ran 67 yards for a touchdown ...the 67-yard run was the longest by an SDSU player since Larry Ned ran for 77 yards at Utah on Oct. 23, 1999 ... the 67-yard run is the longest of Franklin's career, topping his previous high of 55 yards in 2002, at Hawaii'... The Aztec defense kept Idaho State off the scoreboard in the first quarter, marking the fifth straight game in which an SDSU opponent has failed to score in the first quarter. Aztec opponents have also gone scoreless in the first 15-minute period in six of the last seven and nine of the last 11 outings dating back to the 2003 campaign... SDSU's Robert Miller blocked Idaho State kicker Jaret Johnson's field-goal attempt to close out the first half. The block was the Aztecs' first since Jeff Shoate blocked kicker Scott Parker's 32-yard attempt at Wyoming on Oct.19, 2002. The block is Miller's first of his career.

SAN DIEGO - In front of a record crowd of 57,216, the 2004 Aztecs made a stirring debut as they systematically disposed of Idaho State, 38-21, at Qualcomm Stadium.

Aztec running back Michael Franklin scampered 67 yards for a touchdown on the first play of the season and San Diego State was on its way to a near-perfect first half. The Aztecs jumped to a 24-0 first quarter lead and extended the advantage to 31-0 at the break and eventually 38-0 before ISU dented the scoreboard. SDSU completed the first half without a turnover and without a penalty.

The first quarter was the prolific for SDSU since it scored 24 points in the second quarter of a 1995 romp over UTEP.

The game would last just over four hours, thanks in part to an Idaho State offense that attempted 69 passes while rushing for just 46 yards.

Junior Matt Dlugolecki won the fall camp quarterback derby and he was strong in his debut, completing 16 of his 27 attempts for 233 yards and two touchdowns, one each to Robert Ortiz and Wesley Williams.

The star of the game, however, was Franklin. He rushed for 101 yards, marking his third straight game over the 100-yard mark. He also led the Aztecs with 84 receiving yards. Franklin ended the game with 233 all-purpose yards despite seeing limited action in the second half.

The Dark Side was its dominating self in the first half when the game was being decided. The first 14 Idaho State possessions resulted in just one drive that lasted more than six plays. The Aztec defense forced four turnovers, including interceptions by Heath Farwell, Josh Dean and Donny Baker. Farwell was also credited with a quarterback sack and caused a fumble.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Kevin O'Connell saw his first collegiate action and found Robert Ortiz for a 32-yard touchdown pass. Ortiz, who entered the game with two career TD grabs, had two more against the Bengals.

The home crowd was the largest in San Diego State history and the 20th largest crowd in college football on the first full Saturday of the weekend.

game 2 - No. 17 Michigan 24, San Diego State 21

Game Notes

For the second consecutive season

San Diego State played a nationally-ranked Big Ten team to the final moments before losing... Last season, the Aztecs lost at second-ranked Ohio State, 16-13, on Sept. 9... This season, the Aztecs fall to 17th-ranked Michigan, 24-21... Two weeks after setting a school-record for home attendance with 57,216 vs. Idaho State at Qualcomm Stadium, San Diego State played in front of the largest crowd in school history.

Today's attendance at Michigan Stadium of 109,432, eclipses the crowd of 104,433 that witnessed the Ohio State-SDSU game last season in Columbus... The Aztecs' last two losses to nationally-ranked teams (last season Ohio State and Michigan today) have been by a total of six points... San Diego State's 1-1 record matches its best mark after two games in the last 10 seasons. The Aztecs have not opened 2-0 since victories over Navy and California to open the 1994 campaign... Despite the loss, SDSU has still won four of its last six games dating back to last season... Although not outgained by much 327-311, the Aztecs total yardage disadvantage of 16 yards, snaps a streak of six consecutive games in which SDSU has outgained its opponent... Prior to today, the last time an Aztec opponent had more total yardage was at Utah on Oct. 11, 2003... San Diego State's Dark Side Defense put on another impressive showing... Despite allowing 24 points, the defense yielded just one scoring drive of more than 51 yards on the afternoon... The defense also forced four turnovers, two of which set up short scoring drives for the Aztec offense (17 and 39 yard touchdown drives). The Aztecs had seven tackles for loss.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. - Another reigning Big Ten champion as an opponent resulted in another near miss for the San Diego State Aztecs Saturday afternoon.

With a national television audience watching (ESPN), SDSU and No. 17 Michigan went toe-to-toe for more than three hours before the Wolverines escaped The Big House with a 24-21 win over up and coming San Diego State.

In the process, SDSU appeared to show dramatic gains on offense and special teams and The Dark Side defense showed a new taste for creating turnovers.

Michigan shocked the Aztecs early, scoring on a 54-yard touchdown pass on its first play from scrimmage. Following an interception, the Wolverines looked to be in total control with possession deep in SDSU territory. However, safety Josh Dean flattened UM quarterback Chad Henne on a pass attempt and Antwan Applewhite picked the ball out of the air and returned it 75 yards, setting up a Michael Franklin TD.

Following a Michigan field goal, the Aztecs turned the ball over again when Lawrence Reid picked up a fumble and returned it five yards for a touchdown.

With SDSU trailing 17-7 and on the ropes, Robert Ortiz turned the game. His 61-yard reception set up a Jeff Webb touchdown and the 109,000 plus in Ann Arbor settled in for nailbiter.

By halftime, SDSU had taken the lead when Matt Dlugolecki found Ortiz for a 14-yard score. That drive was set up by a Kurt Kahui fumble recovery. In all, SDSU forced four turnovers after Michigan entered the game second nationally in turnover margin.

The final lead change of the day took place on the first drive of the second half as the Wolverines drove the field and registered the last lead change of the day.

It was SDSU's second three-point loss in two years to the reigning Big Ten champion. In 2003, SDSU was a 16-13 loser to No. 2 Ohio State.

game 3 - San Diego State 27, Nevada 10

Game Notes

With the SDSU victory: San Diego State has won five of its last seven games dating back to last season. That is the best seven-game mark for SDSU since posting a similar seven-game mark from Oct. 24, 1998 through Sept. 4, 1999 ... San Diego State is 2-0 at home this season and has won four straight games at Qualcomm Stadium. The four-game home field winning streak is the longest since claiming five straight in 1998-99 (last four home games of '98 and first game of '99). From the end of the five-game winning streak in 1999, until the current four-game winning streak, the Aztecs were 7-17 at Qualcomm ... San Diego State is 2-1 after the first three games of the season for the second consecutive season. The last time SDSU had a winning record after the first three games of consecutive seasons was 1993 and 1994.... With tonight's attendance of 33,429, SDSU has surpassed the 30,000 mark in back-to-back home contests for the first time since the 1999 season. SDSU drew 30,508 versus New Mexico (Oct. 9, 1999) and 40,836 fans against Brigham Young (Nov. 6, 1999).... SDSU linebacker Kirk Morrison became just the fourth player in SDSU history to record more than 300 career tackles. Morrison, who tallied his 13th career game in double-figure tackles, now has 308 tackles in his career to rank fourth in the Aztec record books. Morrison's 15 tackles tonight matches his career high (15 vs. BYU in 2003, vs. Utah in 2001), while he had a career best for most solo tackles in a game with 10 (prev. nine at Hawai'i)... With nine catches for 101 yards tonight, SDSU's Jeff Webb has at least one reception in each of his last 13 outings and at least two catches in his last nine games. Webb also recorded his fourth career game with 100 or more yards.

SAN DIEGO - On a dangerous night against a dangerous opponent, San Diego State went to work in business-like fashion to dismiss Nevada, 27-10, Saturday night at Qualcomm Stadium in front of 33,429 fans.

A week before the UCLA game and a week after a near-miss at Michigan, the more than capable Wolf Pack were in a position to derail SDSU's early-season momentum. However, Michael Franklin rushed for 100 yards for the second time this season and The Dark Side kept the visitors out of the end zone until their final possession of the night to cruise to the win.

As they have all season, the Aztecs were effective in the first half. The Aztecs led 17-3 at intermission thanks to a 23-yard TD reception by Jeff Webb and a 35-yard touchdown run by Brandon Bornes.

Both of those scoring drives were of the cross-country variety, covering 79 and 81 yards with both taking 12 places to execute.

The youth movement continued for SDSU with sophomore Ramal Porter scoring his first career touchdown and redshirt freshman Brandon Bornes scoring on a career-best 35-yard touchdown run.

The Aztec special teams had a good night as well with Garrett Palmer connecting on field goals of 50 and 43 yards, and punt returns by Franklin and Kyle Conerly that covered 29 and 23 yards, respectively.

Senior linebacker Kirk Morrison reached a new milestone with his 15 tackles, pushing him over 300 for his career. In all, it was a strong night for The Dark Side with three quarterback sacks, two interceptions, 12 pass break-ups, and two forced fumbles. Senior playmaker Heath Farwell continued to show up in the stat column. He had all three Aztec sacks and forced both fumbles.

game 4 - UCLA 33, San Diego State 10

Game Notes

With his 45 yards on 11 carries, Aztec junior Michael Franklin reached the 1,000-yard plateau in career rushing with 1,002 yards. Franklin had 346 yards as a red-shirt freshman in 2002, 371 yards as a sophomore in 2003, and has 285 yards as a junior in 2004. Franklin also tallied a career game high in receptions with 10 (45 yards), besting his previous high of eight at Wyoming in 2002... Linebackers Kirk Morrison and Matt McCoy both reached double-figures in tackles tonight. Morrison had 11 tackles and reached double-figures for the second straight game and the 13th time in his career. Morrison's 11 tackles included eight solos and two tackles for loss. McCoy, meanwhile, had 10 tackles (6 solo) and reached double-figures for the second time this season, the fourth time in the last six games and the eighth time in his career.... With the 402 yards tonight, SDSU has reached the 400-yard mark in total offense three times in four games in 2004... The Aztecs were outgained in total offense (410-402) for the second time this season and the second time on the road. But in those two games, SDSU has been outgained by just a total of 24 yards (vs. Michigan - outgained by 16 (327-311)) ... In the four games this season, SDSU has combined to outgain its opponents by 212 yards... SDSU rushed for 139 yards tonight, despite being tagged for -23 yards on the muffed punt in the first half... Seven players combined for the 139 yards and four accumulated at least 12 yards... The Aztecs ran for 137 of those yards in the second half after recording 2 net yards in the first half... With his 23 completions on 42 attempts for 215 yards, SDSU quarterback Matt Dlugolecki logged his third straight game with at least 23 completions and at least 40 attempts.

PASADENA - In 2002, UCLA generated 23 points off of Aztec miscues to blow out SDSU, 43-7. Last year it was a 3-3 game at the half when two interceptions helped the Bruins to a 20-10 victory.

Saturday night, Spencer Havner's 52-yard interception return for a touchdown gave the homestanding Bruins a 14-3 lead. And for good measure, SDSU dropped a snap on a punt inside its own 15 to provide the Bruins with three more points and an insurmountable 20-3 halftime lead. The Bruins would eventually win by a 33-10 count.

After UCLA scored on its first possession (64-yard drive), the Aztecs limited the Bruins to 62 yards of total offense on five possessions, before the two critical second-quarter mistakes.

Any hopes of an Aztec comeback ended on the first series of the third quarter when UCLA marched 65 yards for a touchdown that staked UCLA to a 27-3 lead.

Two more field goals would close the scoring for UCLA.

SDSU grabbed some momentum with its own touchdown drive, covering 80 yards on seven plays and capped by Brandon Bornes' third rushing TD of the season. However, after holding UCLA on its next possession, SDSU gave up the ball on an interception and UCLA cruised through the final quarter to defeat SDSU for the 19th time in 20 all-time meetings.

Michael Franklin ran for 45 yards in the game and crossed the 1,000-yard rushing mark for his career.

game 5 - Wyoming 20, San Diego State 10

Game Notes

With his seven receptions today, junior wide receiver Jeff Webb has now caught at least one pass in 15 straight games... The Matt Dlugolecki to Jeff Webb 47-yard TD play was the longest scoring pass of the season. The longest play through the air was the 61-yarder from Dlugolecki to Robert Ortiz at Michigan... The game featured the fifth different offensive line combination to start a game this season... Wide receiver Devin Pitts' six receptions for 60 yards were both season highs... With the loss, San Diego State had its five game winning streak snapped, including two consecutive in Laramie. SDSU has never won three in a row at War Memorial Stadium... The Aztecs are now 4-9 all-time in Laramie... San Diego State falls to 3-3 in Mountain West openers and 1-2 in conference openers under head coach Tom Craft.

LARAMIE, Wyo. - San Diego State's five-year domination of Wyoming came to a screeching halt Saturday afternoon in Laramie.

The Aztecs found a way to lose a game in which their quarterback set a career high in completions and passing yards, the opposition was limited to just 264 yards of total offense, a full 99 shy of SDSU's total, and the opposition was just 3-of-16 on third-down conversions.

Here is how it happened. The Aztecs suffered four meltdowns in the kicking game, some red-zone misfires and eventually wilted in the fourth quarter to fall to the Cowboys by a 20-10 count in the Mountain West opener for both schools.

SDSU held a 10-3 lead at halftime, thanks to a 47-yard touchdown pass from Matt Dlugolecki to Jeff Webb. The TD pass was the only exclamation point in a game that saw SDSU hold a tiny advantage in total offense, 161-126 at the break. At intermission, the two teams had combined for 45 rushing yards.

In the third quarter, the Aztec wheels came off in a most unconventional fashion. On the first possession of the third period, SDSU's three-and-out offensive possession was followed by a 10-yard Sean Henschel punt. One play later, Wyoming had a 29-yard touchdown pass to draw even in the game and wipe out SDSU's halftime advantage.

SDSU's second possession lasted just one play as SDSU suffered its first turnover on a fumble. This time, The Dark Side limited the Cowboys to a missed field goal.

But the quarter wasn't over. Another three-and-out by SDSU was followed by a seven-yard punt to set up the Cowboys at the SDSU 33.

Wyoming managed just eight yards but was close enough to result in a field goal and suddenly SDSU was down 13-10 despite virtually no offense by the opposition.

SDSU turned the ball over again on an interception on its next possession but the Cowboys again found the going tough and was forced to punt.

SDSU's next possession resulted in just an eight-yard punt by stand-in Adam Gray-Hayward, who punted for the first time.

SDSU was trailing 20-10 midway through the fourth quarter when the offense found its rhythm for the first time. A 37-yard field goal attempt by Garrett Palmer, however, missed to the right. It ended SDSU's 74-yard drive and effectively killed the Aztecs' chances to win the game.

SDSU would penetrate the red zone again late in the game but was held on downs.

game 6 - Colorado State 21, San Diego State 17

Game Notes

Colorado State defeated SDSU for the fifth straight time in San Diego ... the Aztecs suffered their first loss at home this season and their first in their last five opportunities in San Diego ... SDSU's three home games in 2004 have each exceeded the 30,000-mark in attendance ... The last time the Aztecs had three straight home games with 30,000 or more fans was in 1999 ... SDSU limited Colorado State to a season-low 196 yards of total offense, the second straight game in which the Aztecs have kept their opponent to under 300 yards ... The 196 yards by CSU is the fewest allowed by SDSU since the 2003 UNLV game, when the Rebels had just 175 yards ... With a 366-196 advantage in total offense, SDSU has outgained its opponent by more than 90 yards three times this year ... This was the seventh straight MWC game in which the Aztecs have owned an advantage in total offense ... The Aztecs converted their first two-point conversion opportunity of the year (first conversion since 2002) ... SDSU linebacker Kirk Morrison recorded double-figure tackles (14) for the fourth straight game and the 15th time in his career ... Aztec Jeff Webb has caught at least one pass in each of his last 16 games and has at least three catches in each of his last 11 outings. Webb went over 100 yards receiving (7 catches, 129 yards) for the third time this season and the fifth time in his career ... the 58-yard TD is the Aztecs' longest scoring pass of the season ... SDSU's Garrett Palmer connected on a pair of 48-yard field goals in the first half, marking the second straight season in which an Aztec kicker has converted on two, 45+-yard field goals in one game ... Brandon Bornes' 40-yard kick-off return is the Aztecs' longest since 2001 ... SDSU had a season high 15 tackles for loss and six sacks.

SAN DIEGO - For two teams in dire need of a victory, Saturday's San Diego State-Colorado State match-up seemed like a good place to start for the Aztecs.

After all, SDSU had claimed both of its wins in 2004 by easy margins in the safe confines of Qualcomm Stadium and had come out victorious in each of its last four home conference match-ups. Plus, traditional MWC power Colorado State also found itself in a similar place in its season, dropping four of its first five games.

Saturday, however, would not be the start of a new chapter for SDSU in 2004, as the Aztecs rallied from an eight-point, fourth-quarter deficit to surge ahead, 17-14, only to have the win fall out of their grasp in the final minutes.

Following Garrett Palmer's third field goal of the night which gave SDSU the lead, the Aztec defense held firm, forcing a Colorado State punt from its own 44-yard line with only 2:13 left in the game. The SDSU offense then took over with the mission of keeping the ball safe, gaining a first down and running out the clock. On its second play of the drive, however, CSU recovered a fumble at the Aztec 10-yard line.

Two plays later, the Rams took advantage of the fumble as Jimmy Green scored from one-yard out and just 1:10 remaining in the game. A stunned SDSU offense was forced to try to go 79 yards to get the win back, but was only able to get as far as the Colorado State 45-yard line as quarterback Kevin O'Connell's final desperation heave into the end zone fell to the ground.

SDSU opened the game with a 3-0 lead on one of two 48-yard Palmer field goals on the day. The lead would last only a tad over four minutes, as CSU's Luke Adkins intercepted SDSU quarterback Matt Dlugolecki's pass and ran it back for a touchdown. The interception return marked the second straight season in which the Rams had returned one for a score against the Aztecs.

Palmer had his second field-goal chance of the day blocked, but made up for it with another 48-yarder on the team's next drive to draw the Aztecs to within one point, 7-6, at the 7:52 mark of the second quarter.

Colorado State back-up quarterback Caleb Hanie, playing for injured starter Justin Holland, then engineered a 12-play, 80-yard drive capped by a four-yard pass to Joel Dreessen to increase the Ram lead to 14-6 entering the half.

After a scoreless third, O'Connell hit Jeff Webb on a 58-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the fourth quarter and then tacked on the two-point conversion on another O'Connell pass, this time to Robert Ortiz, to knot the score at 14-14.

An interception by Reggie Grigsby set up the go-ahead Palmer field goal from 27 yards out and 5:36 left on the clock.

game 7 - New Mexico 19, San Diego State 9

Game Notes

Both teams recorded a safety in the game, marking a first for the Aztecs and their opponent in two years, since SDSU last visited New Mexico...Kirk Morrison had 10 tackles, marking his fifth straight game in double figures in tackles...Kevin O'Connell became the first freshman to start at quarterback at San Diego State since Spencer Britton started the final five games of the 1997 season...New Mexico became the fourth consecutive Mountain West opponent to be held to less than 300 yards of total offense...Lobos running back DonTrell Moore was limited to 70 yards rushing after entering the game with an average of 101 yards per game...Robert Ortiz caught seven passes to give him 35 for the season, one year after he caught 33 passes in 12 games...Eight freshmen saw action on the offensive side of the ball, including three linemen...SDSU has now scored just two touchdowns in the last 15 quarters of play against New Mexico.

ALBUQUERQUE - In a battle of swarming defenses, the New Mexico Lobos held off San Diego State, 19-9, before 37,287 fans at University Stadium.

The Lobos struck first with an impressive 65-yard opening drive, capped off by a 21-yard touchdown pass from Kole McKamey to DonTrell Moore.

Kevin O'Connell got his first start as the Aztec quarterback and his first effort was impressive but did not result in any points. The Aztecs drove 58 yards on nine plays with their first possession. However, a missed field-goal attempt by Garrett Palmer ended SDSU's best chance at first-half points.

The Lobos added 10 points in the second quarter to take control of the game. Those points were set up in part by field position. San Diego State twice started drives inside its own five. New Mexico, after gaining possession in Aztec territory, picked up a field goal on a drive that covered just 15 yards. However, the Lobos also covered 80 yards for a score, capped by a McKamey run.

The 17-point lead seemed safe as SDSU struggled with the aggressive Lobos defense. But momentum changed just a bit when Matt McCoy nailed DonTrell Moore for a 14-yard loss and an Aztec safety to get SDSU on the board.

In the fourth quarter, O'Connell got the Aztecs serious about a comeback. The freshman supervised a 10-play drive that covered 51 yards in the fourth period. It ended with the quarterback finding receiver Robert Ortiz for a 14-yard touchdown pass on a fourth-down play.

That score, with 8:02 remaining in the game, drew the Aztecs to within 10 at 19-9. The ensuing defensive possession kept Aztec hopes alive when New Mexico was forced to punt from deep in its own territory.

The Aztecs took over on the New Mexico 28 following a Kyle Conerly punt return and after a first-down scramble by O'Connell for nine yards, the Aztecs came up empty on three straight snaps.

The final play saw O'Connell throw a pass to Devin Pitts in the end zone that went off the senior's fingertips and squelched SDSU's comeback hopes.

The Lobos, although limited to a total of just 220 yards, managed to milk the final 5:53 off the clock to clinch the victory.

The Aztecs managed just 146 yards of total offense and were held to minus-19 rushing yards.
