Aztec Head Coach Steve Fisher

Overall: 289-188 (15 Full Seasons) • San Diego State: 105-106 (Seven Seasons)

NCAA National Championship • Three NCAA Final Four Appearances • National Coach of the Year
Nine NCAA Tournament Appearances • 12 Postseason Appearances

Steve Fisher has guided the Aztecs to postseason play in three of the past five seasons.

Steve Fisher has guided the Aztec basketball program to unparalleled heights. In seven seasons he has taken a program that regularly missed out on the conference postseason tournament, to one which has become of the best programs on the West Coast and has the Aztecs knocking on the door of the elite teams in the country.

The best news for SDSU fans is that Fisher signed a new five-year contract prior to the start of practice in October that will keep the national championship coach in San Diego for the foreseeable future.

When Fisher arrived on the scene in March of 1999, he found a basketball program that wasn't good enough to be called average. The Aztecs had suffered through 13 losing seasons in 14 years. Members of the school's last NCAA team were in the early stages of middle age. The expectations were set. The Aztecs were expected to lose. The year before Fisher's arrival on campus, San Diego State won just four games.

Now those days are a distant memory. Fisher guided San Diego State to the NCAA Tournament in 2002, the postseason NIT in 2003 and the NCAA Tournament last season. In addition, the Aztecs may have their best team in school history entering the 2006-07 campaign with four starters returning off a team that won a Division I school-record 24 games, won the conference regular season and postseason championships and was just a minute away from claiming their first Division I NCAA Tournament victory in school history.

Collegiate Coaching Experience

1979-82 Assistant Coach, Western Michigan University

Coached under Les Wothke, the same coach that hired him for his first coaching position at Rich East (Ill.) High... Team won the 1981 conference championship.

1982-89 Assistant Coach, University of Michigan

In six full seasons as an assistant, Michigan made four trips to the NCAA Tournament and claimed the 1984 NIT championship... Michigan won Big Ten titles in both 1985 and 1986.

1989-97 Head Coach, University of Michigan

Claimed Michigan's only national championship to date in men's basketball (1989)... Guided the Wolverines to three of the school's five national championship game appearances... In eight full seasons, he compiled a 184-82 record (69.1 percent)... His teams made seven NCAA appearances and two postseason NIT trips... One of six coaches to win both an NCAA and NIT championship... Recorded five 20-win seasons, including a 31-5 record during the 1992-93 campaign... Basketball Times National Coach of the Year in 1992.

1999-Present Head Coach, San Diego State University

Authored one of the greatest turnarounds in college basketball history by taking a San Diego State program that won four games the year before his arrival to a pair of Mountain West Conference Tournament championships, an MWC regular season title, two NCAA tournament berths and an appearance in the postseason NIT... Team went from 5-23 his first season (1999-00) to post four .500 or better seasons: 14-14 (2000-01), 21-12 (2001-02), 16-14 (2002-03), 24-9 (2005-06)... Won 14 or more games in five of the last six seasons... Top four single-season home attendance marks have been set in last five seasons.

The ingredients for a successful basketball program seemed to have arrived at San Diego State at approximately the same time Fisher did.

Cox Arena is one of the glaring athletic upgrades on the west side of campus, and its opening signified the new-placed emphasis on basketball in the Aztec athletic department. The program moved from the aging San Diego Sports Arena on the west side of the city to an on-campus home located just steps away from fraternities and sororities.

After the arrival of Cox Arena, one important ingredient was lacking.

On March 26, 1999, San Diego State announced its arrival on the basketball scene in a news conference to introduce its new coach, Steve Fisher. Fresh from a stint with the Sacramento Kings and with three appearances in the Final Four and a national championship in his pocket, he rolled up his sleeves and went to work. And work was needed. It looked to be a daunting challenge and yet the man with one of the highest winning percentages in NCAA Tournament history had no reservations.

"We have everything here that we need to be successful at the highest level," Fisher said. "We have a great campus in a great city. Cox Arena is as good of a facility as you can find. Our league is very good and getting better. Who wouldn't want to play here?"

Coming off a 4-22 season, not much was expected of the Aztecs in the new coach's first year. The Aztecs finished 5-23 but never stopped working. The last game of the season was a near upset of UNLV in the first round of the MWC Tournament. The eventual champions bested the Aztecs in the final minutes.

"We worked hard - we just weren't good enough," Fisher said of his first group of Aztecs. "They tried to do everything we wanted, but we spent the year dodging bullets."

It was year two, the 2000-01 campaign, when Fisher and SDSU served notice that better days were ahead and some, in fact, had arrived. The Aztecs were one of the nation's most improved teams, finishing the year at 14-14 and in the process, ending several less-than-flattering streaks, including a long road losing streak, a long conference losing streak and an overall losing streak. Attendance jumped by an astounding 73 percent and by spring, the stars of tomorrow became more receptive when Fisher and his staff came calling to talk about Aztec basketball.

And then came year three. An indifferent start gave way to a downright slow beginning to conference play. But the Aztecs then unveiled a trait that has become synonymous with Steve Fisher teams. They played their best when it mattered most.

The Aztecs roared down the stretch, winning eight of their final 10 games and climbing to .500 in Mountain West play, a major step for San Diego State basketball.

Then came March, a month that has always been magical for Steve Fisher.

The Aztecs headed to Las Vegas and picked up three straight wins to claim their first Mountain West title, including victories over top-seeded Wyoming and home-standing UNLV.

The season ended with a 21-12 record and continued the upward surge of the program. And SDSU was close to so much more. The Aztecs dropped three overtime games, lost a hard-fought battle at Utah and went on the road to push Duke. San Diego State reached 21 wins for the first time since the 1984-85 season and returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since that same '84-85 team.

Along the way there were more glaring landmarks. SDSU picked up its first win at New Mexico since 1984 and swept the Colorado State-Wyoming swing, considered one of the toughest in college basketball, for the first time ever.

However, it is what lies ahead and not the past that continues to drive the energetic Fisher.

"I have never said I wanted the program in a certain place by a certain time," he said last year. "You just work hard, prepare well and try to get lucky. We have probably done a little bit of each."

The Aztecs proved that they were more than a one-hit wonder in 2002-03 by returning to the postseason and claiming their first postseason victory in 33 seasons at the Division I level. San Diego State concluded its third straight season with a .500 record or above, by going 16-14 and advancing to the second round of the NIT. Along the way, the Aztecs played before two sellout crowds in Cox Arena en route to shattering the home attendance average (7,172).

Although the Aztecs struggled the following two seasons, Fisher and the Aztecs enjoyed one of the best seasons in school history in 2005-06. Expectations were high from the outset as the conference media picked SDSU as the team to beat in the MWC, something that had never happened in the scarlet and black's Division I history. In addition, the league media also bestowed on SDSU the titles of player of the year (Marcus Slaughter), first-team all-conference (Slaughter and Brandon Heath) and newcomer of the year (Mohamed Abukar).

And that was just the beginning. San Diego State won a Division I school-record 24 games, the regular season conference crown and the league tournament title en route to a bid in the NCAA Tournament. At season's end, Heath had been named an AP honorable mention All-American, the MWC player of the year and a first-team all-league selection, while teammates Slaughter (MWC tournament MVP, first-team all-MWC) and Abukar (second-team all-conference) also garnered attention.

The immediate future looks just as bright with four starters returning (Heath, Abukar, Kyle Spain and Richie Williams), the addition of highly-touted transfer Lorenzo Wade and a recruiting class many feel is the best in the conference.

Steve Fisher arrived in San Diego after spending one season as an assistant coach with the Sacramento Kings. However, he is best known for his efforts at the collegiate level. He became a household name at Michigan, where he transformed a prominent program into a perennial national championship contender and winner. Returning to the college game was returning home.

"I enjoyed the NBA," Fisher said. "It was all basketball all the time. But I always felt I belonged in the college game. If I have a calling, it is as a teacher. I enjoy teaching basketball. I think it is what I do best."

That point would be hard to argue. No head-coaching career, at any level, started quicker than that of Steve Fisher. Six games into his head-coaching career he was undefeated and sporting a national championship ring. And the success didn't stop with the national title.

Fisher spent eight-plus seasons, won an NCAA title and an NIT championship and carved out one of the most glamorous periods in college basketball history during the Fab Five years.

Under Fisher, the Wolverines won at least 20 games four times and finished among the top three in the powerful Big Ten Conference five times. In 1995, Michigan set a league record by holding opponents to just 39.4 percent shooting from the floor.

In November of 2002, the University of Michigan chose to vacate a number of games from the 1992-1999 time period. Because of this, the NCAA no longer recognizes those contests and thus lists Steve Fisher's career coaching record differently. ## The Steve Fisher File

Birthdate: March 24, 1945

Hometown: Herrin, Ill.

Family: wife Angie, sons: Mark (28), Jay (19).

Education: Illinois State Univ. (B.S. in 1967 and M.S. in 1968)

Fisher and company raised the bar even higher in the postseason. His seven NCAA Tournament teams combined for a 20-6 record on the court for a winning percentage of .769 in the national bracket. Three of his teams advanced to the Final Four.

Just seven head coaches have led schools to the championship of the NIT as well as the NCAA. The others to accomplish that feat are Bobby Knight, Adolph Rupp, Joe B. Hall, Al McGuire, Dean Smith and Jim Calhoun.

Add to the accolades the fact that Fisher coached perhaps the most famous group of players in modern NCAA history. In 1991, Fisher and Aztec assistant head coach Brian Dutcher inked a recruiting class that would later be known as the "Fab Five." The group included Ray Jackson, Jimmy King and NBA stars Juwan Howard, Jalen Rose and Chris Webber. They were the heart, and indeed the starting five, of two consecutive NCAA runner-up teams in Ann Arbor. For his efforts with that group, Fisher was named the 1992 national coach of the year by Basketball Times.

During his stay in Michigan, Fisher coached seven players that would be taken in the first round of the NBA draft, including the three members of the Fab Five.

His accomplishments may be even greater at San Diego State. In 2001-02 he led the Aztecs to the postseason for the first time since 1985 and for just the fourth time ever. The 21 wins were second most for the school as a Division I program and the most since 1985.

That was followed by an appearance in the NIT in 2002-03 and the Aztecs' first Division I postseason victory.

The fact that those numbers came in his first four years at San Diego State signifies what is one of the great recent turnarounds in college basketball.

Steve Fisher was born March 24,

1945. He grew up in Herrin, Ill., and played his college basketball at Illinois State University, where he earned two varsity letters. He was a member of the university's Division II Final Four team as a senior. In 1967, he completed work on his bachelor's degree at ISU in physical education and math. The following year he earned a master's degree in physical education.

Fisher began his climb up the coaching ladder in Park Forest, Ill., where he served as an assistant coach and later became head coach at Rich East High School. In eight years at the helm of the program, he built Rich East into one of the top programs in the Chicago area.

"I probably could have stayed in the high school ranks my entire career and been happy," Fisher said. "I coached basketball and taught math and that was fine with me."

In 1979, Fisher moved into the collegiate ranks at Western Michigan. He spent three years as an assistant under Les Wothke, who had hired him at Rich East. He helped build the Bronco program into a conference champion in 1981.

In 1982, he moved across the state to Michigan where he helped Bill Frieder lead the Wolverines to a pair of conference titles. As he was in high school, Fisher was happy sitting in the middle of the bench, removed from the spotlight. A career as an assistant would have worked just fine.

Seven years after his hiring and on the verge of the NCAA Tournament, Frieder accepted the head-coaching job at Arizona State and Michigan athletic director Bo Schembechler quickly moved Fisher to the end of the bench. Fisher then moved himself into the national spotlight.

Big games have become the norm under Steve Fisher at San Diego State. The four largest home single-season averages have come in the last five seasons. Above, Fisher and Texas Tech coach Bobby Knight, two of the 12 active national championship coaches talk prior to the game at Cox Arena.

He assumed the role of interim head coach with no promise of a future. However, he made a strong case for the job when he promptly led a team that finished third in the Big Ten race to the national title. Included in that run was a win over Illinois in the national semifinals. The Illini were considered by many to be the best team in the country. The title was the first and remains the only championship in Michigan history.

The 1991-92 and 1992-93 seasons were the fanatical years of the Fab Five. Not only did the Wolverines achieve cult-like status, but they were the most successful group of underclassmen in the history of college sports.

In the years before the early entries into the NBA and before high school stars spent their lunch hours with agents, Michigan's successes were even more impressive. Two straight trips to the NCAA title game with five freshmen and then five sophomores in the starting lineup marked an incredible accomplishment. Michigan set a school record in 1992-93 by going 31-5.

In all, Steve Fisher carved out the most successful period in Michigan basketball history. His final club in Ann Arbor won the NIT. However, he is now clearly planted in Southern California.

"My family and I are elated to be at San Diego State," he said. "This program has unlimited potential. I have a responsibility to make sure the potential is realized."

Fisher's first full recruiting class was ranked among the nation's top 40. His second group was a consensus top-25 crop and the Aztecs keep moving up the chart. Potential no longer seems like a bad word.

The season-ticket base is rapidly swelling. The community has an interest even in the off-season. Steve Fisher has led the Aztecs from the wasteland to the throne room.

Fisher, the 14th head coach in Aztec history, is married to the former Angie Wilson, another former teacher at Rich East High School. They have two sons. Mark, 28, is a Michigan graduate who is in his fifth year as San Diego State's director of basketball operations. Jay is a junior at the University of Southern California.

Brian Dutcher

Assistant Head Coach - 8th Season at San Diego State Minnesota '82

One of Steve Fisher's first moves as head coach at San Diego State was to hire Brian Dutcher as his top assistant. Dutcher, 47, was a regional scout for the Sacramento Kings before assuming the role of assistant head coach at San Diego State.

Dutcher served as assistant coach and later associate head coach at Michigan under Fisher. He spent 10 seasons on the Wolverine staff, establishing himself as one of the nation's top assistant coaches. His first year in Ann Arbor was 1989 and resulted in a national title for Michigan as he assisted then-interim head coach Steve Fisher on the bench.

The Bloomington, Minn., native headed up UM's recruiting efforts in 1990-91 when the Wolverines inked Juwan Howard, Ray Jackson, Jimmy King, Jalen Rose and Chris Webber. The "Fab Five" is considered perhaps the best recruiting class in NCAA history. Dutcher helped lead that group to nearly 100 wins, two berths in the NCAA championship game and a regional final over a four-year period. He was also on the Michigan staff for an NIT championship and a Big Ten tournament title (1998).

Dutcher's recruiting prowess, however, was demonstrated by more than just the "Fab Five" haul. Michigan had the nation's top-ranked recruiting class in 1993-94 and in 1994-95, with a group that included Maurice Taylor and Jerod Ward. The accomplishment marked the first time that a university had the nation's top class in consecutive years, according to recruiting analyst Bob Gibbons.

His efforts at SDSU have quickly gained accolades as well. The first full-year recruiting effort by Steve Fisher, Brian Dutcher and Company resulted in a class that was a consensus top-40 group. Their second effort resulted in a top-25 recruiting class without counting a pair of high-profile transfers. Four seasons ago, Dutcher helped the Aztecs attract SDSU's first McDonald's All-American. Three years ago, Aztec freshmen Brandon Heath and Marcus Slaughter earned starting spots en route to earning all-league recognition and this season, once again, the Aztecs have a much talked about incoming class.

Dutcher is firmly entrenched as one of the nation's top recruiters after showing that his rapport is as strong with potential student-athletes on the West Coast as it was in the vaunted Big Ten Conference.

Dutcher was born Oct. 30, 1959, in Alpena, Mich. He attended Bloomington (Minn.) Jefferson High School and went on to earn a bachelor's degree in physical education from Minnesota in 1982. While an undergraduate, he worked for his father, then-Minnesota head coach Jim Dutcher. He then spent one season in the prep ranks at Apple Valley (Minn.) High School before becoming a graduate assistant at Illinois, where he earned his master's degree in physical education and athletic administration.

While in Champaign, Dutcher helped Lou Henson lead the Illini to a Big Ten championship, two appearances in the Sweet 16 and one regional final.

Dutcher's first full-time coaching job came at South Dakota State, where he spent three seasons helping turn around the Division II program before departing in 1988 for Michigan.

His final season in Ann Arbor ended with the Wolverines claiming the first-ever Big Ten Tournament championship.

Dutcher and his wife, Jan, have two daughters, Erin (18) and Liza (16).

Gregg Gottlieb

Assistant Coach - 8th Season at San Diego State
UCLA '95

Gregg Gottlieb begins his eighth season at San Diego State and his fifth as an assistant coach and the team's recruiting coordinator. Gottlieb is instrumental in player instruction, skill development and also assists in all areas of the program.

His numerous responsibilities include recruiting, on-court coaching and opponent scouting.

As recruiting coordinator, Gottlieb has played a major role in SDSU's nationally ranked recruiting classes each of the last three seasons. In addition to bringing in high-level recruits, he is also in charge of arranging unofficial, official and home visits.

Some of the players he has helped land at San Diego State straight out of high school include former all-MWC performer Marcus Slaughter, and current team members Brandon Heath, Kyle Spain and Richie Williams. Gottlieb has also landed high-profile transfers from other Division I programs such as all-MWC honoree Mohamed Abukar (Florida), Ryan Amoroso (Marquette) and Lorenzo Wade (Louisville).

This past year, Gottlieb was instrumental in the signing of Jerome Habel, one of the top junior college players in the nation. One publication rated Habel as the second-best junior college player in America.

When Gottlieb is not recruiting he is heavily involved with player development especially with the squad's younger players. One of his greatest accomplishments was the scoring increase of former Aztec Aerick Sanders. Gottlieb helped Sanders, who averaged 3.8 points his freshman season, average 16.1 by the end of his senior campaign.

Gottlieb became an assistant coach in the summer of 2002, when former assistant Jim Tomey left to take the head coaching reigns of San Diego State's women's program. Gottlieb had served as the program's director of operations since October of 1999.

Gottlieb was a standout performer at El Modena High School in Orange County and followed that up as a two-year letterman at Drake. After his playing career, he returned to California and earned his degree in history and picked up a minor in business at UCLA in 1995.

Gottlieb moved into the collegiate coaching ranks at Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo. He was part of the staff that was responsible for one of college basketball's biggest turnarounds. The Mustangs' win total jumped from one in 1994-95 to 16 in 1995-96.

While at San Luis Obispo, Gottlieb completed work on his master's of business administration.

In July of 1997, Gottlieb became assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Cal State Sacramento. His first recruiting class in the Big Sky Conference ranked 43rd nationally.

After two years as an assistant coach at Cal State Sacramento, he joined the San Diego State staff in 1999.

Gottlieb comes from a basketball family. His father, Bob, is a former college coach who worked under Hall of Famer Jack Hartman at Kansas State and under Eddie Sutton at Creighton. His father was also head coach at Jacksonville and Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

His brother, Doug, led the nation in assists while at Oklahoma State and currently is co-host of ESPN Radio's GameNight. His sister is the former marketing director for the Oakland Raiders.

Gottlieb and his wife, Mandy, have a newborn son, Gage.

Justin Hutson

Assistant Coach

Birthdate

Oct. 16, 1971

Education

1994 – B.S. degree from CS Bakersfield. 1995 – teaching credential from CS Bakersfield

Justin Hutson

Assistant Coach - 1st Season at San Diego State CS Bakersfield '94

Justin Hutson enters his first year at SDSU after serving as an assistant coach at Cal Poly the last two seasons. The Mustangs went 10-19 in 2005-06, doubling their previous season's win total, and were tied with NCAA Tournament participant Pacific with 3:19 to play in the semifinal round of the Big West Conference tournament. He was responsible for recruiting the 2006 Big West Conference Freshman of the Year to San Luis Obispo and two of his Mustang recruits were named to the Big West all-freshman team.

"We are excited to add Justin to the San Diego State family," Fisher said. "He brings tremendous enthusiasm and passion for the game as well as the unique ability to communicate with student-athletes. He won a national championship as a player, had a very successful high school coaching career and recruited extremely well at Cal Poly the last two seasons. He has great contacts all over the West and is a wonderful addition to our staff."

Prior to arriving at Cal Poly, Hutson served as the head varsity coach at Bakersfield High where he led them to a CIF Central Section Championship and four appearances in the playoffs in four seasons. His 2004 team was ranked as high as No. 22 in the nation and fourth in California and his 2003 squad finished the season with a 25-5 record and won the section title. Before entering the high school ranks, he was an assistant coach at his alma mater, CS Bakersfield, for two seasons (1999-00).

"I am excited and very eager to work for a great coach and a great university," Hutson said. "I admire what Coach Fisher and his staff have been able to accomplish at San Diego State. I want to help this program continue to grow and I will work hard to accomplish that."

Hutson had a storied college career, winning two NCAA Division II championships at Cal State Bakersfield. In the 1993 championship season, the Roadrunners were undefeated with a 33-0 record and followed that up with a 27-6 record during the 1994 season.

"The thing that really attracted me to this position was Coach Fisher and his experienced staff," Hutson said. "Everyone had good things to say about him and once you meet him you know why. He has a wealth of experience, has won a national championship and has done it the right way. The other thing that struck me is the commitment San Diego State has to winning. The resources this university has put into athletics, from personnel to facilities, is impressive."

A native of Bakersfield, Hutson earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1994 and teaching credential in 1995 from Cal State Bakersfield.

Mark Fisher

Director of Basketball Operations - 5th Season at San Diego State Michigan '01

Mark Fisher, the son of San Diego State head coach Steve Fisher, enters his fifth season as the director of basketball operations at the school. He replaced Gregg Gottlieb, who was named an Aztec assistant coach in June 2002.

Fisher handles many of the day-to-day operations, including scheduling, camps and organizing all aspects of team travel. He represents the basketball program with the athletic administration.

During his time supervising scheduling, the Aztecs have played high-profile games against California, Providence, Iowa State, Washington and Washington State among others.

In previous years, when San Diego State had two assistant coaches, Fisher officially took on coaching responsibilities, including conducting individual workouts and off-campus recruiting.

Fisher, the oldest of Steve Fisher's two sons, graduated from the University of Michigan in December of 2001. A member of Psi Chi, a psychology honors fraternity, he graduated with a bachelor's degree in psychology with a 3.73 grade-point average.

Around basketball a majority of his life, Mark Fisher has amassed a variety of experience in a short period of time.

From 1998-2001, Fisher worked in a variety of capacities for Lincoln High School in Ann Arbor, Mich. He served as the varsity assistant head coach, head junior varsity coach and the head freshman coach during his tenure, assisting in all areas of the program.

He served as associate head coach for an Ann Arbor AAU team in the summer of 2001. Many of the players on that squad went on to play college basketball. He has also assisted in numerous camps, including the Steve Fisher Basketball Camps - both in Ann Arbor and in San Diego.

Fisher is single and lives in Carmel Valley.

Matt Soria

Matt Soria

Director of Player Development
7th Season at SDSU (San Diego State '02)

Matt Soria begins his seventh year with the San Diego State basketball program and his third as the director of player development.

Soria assists the basketball coaching staff with video breakdown, travel, community service and handles many of the day-to-day office duties.

A three-year manager for the Aztecs, Soria graduated with a bachelor's degree in political science in December, 2002. He served as the team's head manager for the 2001-02 and 2002-03 seasons.

Soria played collegiate basketball for two seasons at Cabrillo College in Aptos, Calif., before transferring to San Diego State.

Soria, 27, is married to the former Melissa Schuetz and resides in San Diego.

Jon Francis

Jon Francis

Strength and Conditioning Coach
3rd Season at SDSU (Appalachian State '93)

Jon Francis is in his third year as the strength and conditioning coach of the Aztec basketball and football teams after spending the previous three years as head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Idaho.

Francis' philosophy includes "run first" sprint-oriented programs that emphasize change-in-direction and position-specific training.

Before arriving in Idaho, Francis was the assistant strength and conditioning coach at Appalachian State in Boone, N.C. He worked with the football, basketball, baseball, wrestling, volleyball and men's soccer programs.

Francis is a 1993 graduate of Appalachian State and completed his master of arts in sport management at the school in 2001. He is a member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association and is Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified (SCCC).

Marty Malano

Kristie Smedsrud

Academic Counselor
4th Season at SDSU (Texas A&M '00)

Kristie Smedsrud enters her fourth season as an academic counselor at San Diego State. Smedsrud works with the men's basketball program and is responsible for monitoring each student-athlete's academic progress.

In addition to advising players, Smedsrud works one-on-one with members of the team on a daily basis to assist the student-athletes with tutors, professors, monitoring deadlines and exams. She also oversees the study hall and tutorial services for the team - both in San Diego and on the road.

Smedsrud came to San Diego State from Butler University, where she was the Assistant Athletic Director for Compliance and Academic Support. Prior to her stint at Butler, she was in academic advising at Texas A&M for one year. A 2000 graduate of Texas A&M, Smedsrud also earned her master's degree at the school in 2001.

Marty Malano

Administrative Assistant
7th Season at SDSU

Marty Malano enters her seventh season as the administrative assistant for the San Diego State basketball program and her eighth year at SDSU.

Malano handles administrative duties in the day-to-day operations of the San Diego State basketball office. She works closely with Steve Fisher to organize the schedule of the eighth-year head coach.

In addition to assisting Fisher, Malano assists the coaching staff with schedules, travel and recruiting responsibilities. She also serves as the basketball staff liaison to the Big 64, the booster support group for men's basketball.

The Malano name is a familiar one to all Aztec Fans. Marty's son, Mike, was an All-America football player at San Diego State in 1999.
