Troy leads series 1-0

BY THE NUMBERS

13

Nelson Phillips made history in the 118-61 win over SUNO with 13 steals in 27 minutes. This stat marks the most steals in Troy program history and ties the NCAA record set by Daron Blaylock in 1987 and 1988.

15

Troy has been pests on the defensive end in the season's first month. In eight games, Troy ranks 15th in the country in steals, with 10.2 per game and 93 total.

3

Troy has been quick to crash the boards all season long on the offensive end. When the first attempt doesn't go in, count on Troy to seize the offensive rebounds. Through nine games, Troy ranks third in the SBC with 13 offensive rebounds per game.

4

Zay Williams has cemented himself as a generational talents in Troy program history. In his five year career Williams ranks in the top-10 in D-I career field goal percentage (8th - .491), free throw attempts (8th - 274), blocks (sixth - 87), and rebounds (5th - 631).

EDWARDSVILLE, Ill. – The Troy men’s basketball team falls for its second straight loss, 78-72, in the program’s first-ever meeting with SIU-Edwardsville on Saturday afternoon in the First Community Arena.

The Trojans (6-3) suffer their first losing streak of the season with back-to-back losses on the road, while the Cougars (7-2) extend their win streak to six.

Aamer Muhammad shined in the loss with a team-high 13 points on 5-of-7 shooting. Zay Williams (10), Kieffer Punter (11) and Christyon Eugene (10) also finished in double figures in the loss.

Ray'Sean Taylor led the Cougars with a 21-point performance, including nine from the free throw line. Damarco Minor wasn't far behind Taylor, as the guard had 17 points in 37 minutes.

3-Point Assassins

The second half saw the Trojans wrestle their way back into contention, tying the ballgame on multiple occasions. But with everything the Trojans dealt, the Cougars responded with more.

Williams finished a quick 6-0 run for Troy to trim the deficit to one, 65-64, after a four-point play for the Trojans with 4:59 remaining. First, Eugene drove into the lane for the tough layup. Then, a bad pass from Minor led to another bucket by Williams in the paint.

SIUE gave itself some comfort room in the following four minutes until Phillips hit the step-back fadeaway 3-pointer to cut the margin down to one possession, 75-72, with 1:00 left.

Fouls and missed shots kept Troy from doing any more, as Phillips, Darius McNeill and Turner fouled out as the Cougars made their final three free throws to secure the victory, 78-72.

SIUE's Hot Start

Troy looked solid to start, executing for the easy slam by Christian Turner to open the ballgame, 2-0 in the first 0:20.

The Cougars quickly responded with a long-lasting hot start that saw Minor erupt for nine points. Minor opened the 11-2 run with a quick lay-in with 18:06 left in the first.

A layup by Taylor followed up Minor's on a fastbreak by himself after crashing the boards. Minor would finish what he started, responding immediately to Turner's make with a jump shot from outside the paint to push the lead to seven, 11-4, at the 4:54 mark of the first.

The early run forced Troy to play catchup the entire first half, with the lead extending to as much as 12 points before Lydell Geffard hit a hook shot to close out the first, 41-34.

By the Stats

- For the first time this season, every Trojan that checked into the game put multiple points on the board – nine players played.
- Troy remains undefeated at 9-0 after today with the tip-off, with the opening tip going to Williams over Jonathan Kurtas.
- The Trojans fall to 1-3 when they allow their opponent to score 70-plus points in a game – 5-0 when their opponent scores under 70.
- Despite the loss, Troy shot better than the Cougars at the charity stripe (85.7-63.3) and from deep (45.5-42.9) – hit a season-high 85.7 percent from the line.
- Foul players fouled out (Williams, Turner, Phillips and McNeill) after having just one the entire season.

TEAM NOTES

PRESEASON NODS

Senior Zay Williams joined the Preseason All-Sun Belt Third team for the first time in his career. Williams comes off an elite season that saw him average 7.8 points and 6.5 rebounds on a team-high 24.9 minutes. He was also the most efficient 3-point shooter for Troy (min. 10 shots) at 41.5 percent while leading the team in blocks at 17.

REVAMPED REVOLVING DOOR ROSTER

Despite the team having its first 20-win season in five years, the Trojans are hitting the reset with a brand-new roster. Troy lost six key players to the transfer portal and two to graduation. In response, the team has brought in nine new faces, including three transfers (Darius McNeill, Amer Muhammad, Nelson Phillips), three freshmen (Randi Ovalle, Andre Young, Jackson Fields) and three walk-ons (Remy Graham, DJ Jamerson, Kamryn Mitchell).

I WOULD WALK 6,055 MILES AND I WOULD WALK 6,055 MORE

Troy hits the road for some long trips while in nonconference play. The team travels an estimated 6,055 miles between seven venues and nine opponents. The team will travel as far south as Florida State, north as Montana and west as San Diego State.

TEXAS RECRUITING PIPELINE

With head coach Scott Cross being a native of Arlington, Texas, where he formerly coached and played, Troy has opened a direct recruiting pipeline to the second-largest and second-most populated state of Texas. Currently, the Trojans have four players from the state in Christyon Eugene (Spring, Texas), Christian Turner (Grand Prairie, Texas), Darius McNeill (Houston, Texas) and Jackson Fields (Missouri City, Texas).

ADAPTING TO THE NEW TRANSFER PORTAL

The NCAA has reinvented the transfer portal, allowing easier access to players to come and go from programs. As a result, the Trojans lost Sun Belt Newcomer of the Year in Efe Odigie to SMU and Sun Belt Freshman of the Year in Duke Deen to Bradley, among four others. However, Troy adapted quickly with the acquisition of Darius McNeill from UTSA, Nelson Phillips from defending SBC champions Georgia State and Amer Muhammad from Lubbock Christian. Together, they have a combined 125 starts, 16 games with 2+ blocks, 91 with 2+ steals, 54 with 3+ assists, 18 with 20+ points and 106 with 20+ points.

HOME-COURT ADVANTAGE

Last season's historic numbers drew an even more historic crowd in Troy program history and the Sun Belt. Through 13 home games last season, Troy broke the highest average attendance at Trojan Arena with 2,758 per game, which was the most in the Sun Belt Conference. They also brought three of Troy's highest-attended individual games with South Alabama (third – 4,546), Texas State (fifth – 4,438) and Little Rock (sixth – 4,128). This helped the team finish 10-3 at home.

RISING IN THE RECORD BOOKS

Zay Williams has competed as a Trojan for four seasons and is arguably one of the best shot blockers and rebounders in Troy Division-I history. Entering the 2022-23 season, Williams sits fifth all-time in career rebounds at 576 (242 behind Jordon Varnado at first) and tied for seventh all-time in blocks at 81 (70 behind Rob Lewin at first).

SWIPER NO SWIPING

The Troy defense was a menace on the court last season, with the promise of being even peskier this season. In 31 games, the Trojans ranked 53rd nationally and second in the conference with 252 total steals for 7.9 per game.

TROY IS A SUCKER FOR THE HOLIDAY SEASON

Troy's success came straight out of the gate in nonconference play. The best months in terms of record came during the holiday months of November and December. In those two months with Thanksgiving and Christmas, the Trojans feel jolly with victories, going 10-4.

LUCKY NUMBER 70

A big key to Troy's success last year was on the defensive end. Through 31 games, the Trojans limited their opponents to 65.6 points per game. The key number was 70 for Troy. If the team could keep their opponent under 70 points, the Trojans finished 17-5 rather than 3-6 when the opponent had 70 or more.

STRIKE EARLY, STRIKE OFTEN

Troy's ability to put a tally in the win column was largely determined in the first 20 minutes. When the team entered the locker room for halftime with the advantage, Troy would win 93 percent of the time with a 14-1 record. Meanwhile, if Troy found itself down or tied through the opening 20 minutes, the team would struggle, ending 6-10 in that scenario.

OFF TO THE MOUNTAINS

This season, Troy travels to 11 different states outside of Alabama. One of those states is Montana, where the team participates in the UMontana Tournament from Nov. 17-19 with three opponents in Merrimack, St. Thomas and Montana.

FOREIGN TOUR 2022: COSTA RICA

With nine new faces, team chemistry is of the utmost importance heading into the new season. Luckily, the team was due for their foreign tour, which saw them head overseas to Costa Rica for a 10-day excursion. In Costa Rica, the group participated in three games while being brought into the Costa Rican culture through whitewater rafting, zip lining, hiking, ATV riding and trying the local cuisine.

SENIOR STARTING FIVE

The senior night starting lineup looks to already be decided with five seniors on the roster in Darius McNeill, Nelson Phillips, Zay Williams, Lydell Geffrard and Kieffer Punter. Unlike last season, the team gains a veteran presence with all five seniors taking on large roles this season on and off the court.
