San Diego State (15-11/6-7)
at UNLV (18-9/7-6)

Saturday, March 8, 2003
3:03 p.m. PST (announced)
Thomas & Mack Center (18,500)
Las Vegas, Nev.

Tip Time: Tip time is set for 3:03 p.m. PST.

Television: The game will be televised regionally by ABC. Chris Marlowe (play-by-play), Jimmy Dykes (color), Eric Swaringen (producer).

Radio: XTRA 690-AM. Jim Stone (play-by-play), Mike McGregor (producer).

SDSU Coach Steve Fisher: Fisher (Illinois State '67) is in his fourth season at San Diego State with a record of 55-60. Now in his 12th full season as a head coach, he has amassed a 239-142 mark. Fisher led Michigan to the 1989 national championship and made three trips to the national championship game in his eight full seasons in Ann Arbor. The 1991-92 national coach of the year, he led the Aztecs to a 21-12 mark last year en route to the NCAA Tournament. Fisher has helped the Aztecs increase their win total in each of his first three seasons (from 4-to-5-to-14-to-21).

UNLV Coach Charlie Spoonhour: Coaching his second season at UNLV and 18th overall as a Div. I head coach, Spoonhour (Coll. of the Ozarks '61) holds a career head-coaching record of 358-191, including a 39-20 mark at UNLV. Spoonhour and the Rebels are looking for a second straight post-season trip and the program's first NCAA bid in three seasons.

The Series: San Diego State and UNLV will meet for the 30th time, with the Rebels having compiled a 23-6 lead in the series. UNLV has won 12 of the 14 all-time meetings in Las Vegas. The Rebels won this season's earlier meeting 79-64 in San Diego, but in their last trip to Vegas the Aztecs defeated UNLV in last season's MWC Tournament final to earn a 2002 NCAA Tournament berth.

The Tickets: Tickets are available for the game through the UNLV ticket office (702-739-FANS or unlvtickets.com). Tickets range in price from $8-26.

2002 NCAA Tournament ♦ 2002 Mountain West Conference Tournament Champions

Aztecs Return to Site of MWC Tourney Championship; End Regular Season at UNLV

San Diego State (15-11 overall/6-7 Mountain West Conference), winner of three of its last four games, travels to the desert and the site of the school's magical 2002 Mountain West Conference championship run when the Aztecs conclude the regular season Saturday afternoon at UNLV.

Tip time is set for 3:03 p.m. PST and the game will be televised by ABC. The contest will be seen in 16 percent of the country with coverage in eight western states. Every ABC affiliate in Alaska, California, Hawaii, Nevada, Oregon and Washington will carry the Aztecs-Rebels game. The game can be heard along the West Coast on XTRA-AM 690 (San Diego).

One year ago Sunday (March 9), the Aztecs ended a 16-year postseason drought by claiming the 2002 MWC tournament championship at the Thomas & Mack Center with a 78-75 victory over UNLV.

The Aztecs, who had been playing their best basketball of the season after recording three straight double-digit league victories for the first time since 1982, saw their three-game winning streak snapped last Monday in Fort Collins in a 102-89 loss to Colorado State.

San Diego State was led by senior guard Tony Bland's 25 points. Bland has scored 19 or more points in four consecutive games. Senior center Mike Mackell added 13 points while freshman Evan Burns recorded his third straight double-digit scoring game with 12 points.

In similar fashion, UNLV saw its three-game winning streak snapped on the same night as Wyoming defeated the Rebels, 69-66. UNLV was led by Marcus Banks' 23 points.

This is the 30th meeting between the teams with UNLV owning a 23-6 series lead. The Rebels have won 12 of the last 14 games between the schools, including a 79-64 decision on Feb. 11 at Cox Arena. The 15-point margin of defeat represents the Aztecs' worst loss of the season.

When the league tournament begins next Wednesday in Las Vegas, these two teams could very likely be facing one another in the quarterfinal round. The Rebels will be seeded either fourth or fifth (losing the tiebreaker to Wyoming), while the Aztecs could still finish fourth, fifth or sixth.

The only way the Aztecs would not face UNLV in the opening round of the league tournament is if UNLV defeats San Diego State and Colorado State wins at Brigham Young on Saturday. That would drop the Aztecs to the sixth seed and they would face third-seeded Wyoming in the opening round.

Storylines and Sidebars

► Saturday's game marks San Diego State's third network television appearance ever, with all three coming since December 2001. The Aztecs are still looking for their first victory on a network broadcast, having fallen at Cameron Indoor Stadium against Duke on ABC Dec. 29, 2001, and losing to Illinois in the first round of the NCAA Tournament last season on CBS. The Aztecs played their first 2,016 games before appearing on network television but will have their third network appearance in the last 50 games on Saturday. SDSU is no stranger to live broadcasts this season, as Saturday's contest will mark the 13th consecutive TV appearance and 21st overall of the season.

► The Aztecs' Mountain West record of 6-7 ties last season's squad for the best MWC mark through 13 games in the four years of the league. Previous MWC starts: 1999-00 - 0-13; 2000-01 - 3-10; and 2001-02 - 6-7.

► San Diego State is looking for consecutive .500 or better conference records for the first time since the 1981-82 and 1982-83 seasons. In 1981-82 the Aztecs went 11-5 in the WAC and followed that up with an 8-8 mark in 1982-83. Last season, SDSU finished MWC play with a 7-7 record.

Media Press Conferences

Once again this season, San Diego State coach Steve Fisher and selected players will be available for interviews at weekly press conferences.

The next installment of the weekly press conference is set for Monday, March 10, at Cox Arena. The event will take place in the Mezzanine Level of Cox Arena (enter Cox Arena via the back lot and take the elevator to level two). SDSU personnel will direct you to the room.

► The Aztecs, and the Rebels for that matter, have been a victim of bad luck during the conference season. Both teams have posted 1-3 records in games decided by four points or less. The Aztecs' three losses in games decided by four points or less in league action tying Air Force for the most losses by any Mountain West Conference school in this category. Records in the aforementioned games (ranked by winning percentage): Wyoming 5-0, Colorado State 3-2, Utah 2-2, Brigham Young 1-1, New Mexico 1-1, UNLV 1-3, Air Force 1-3, San Diego State 1-3.

► Freshman guard Steve Sir has been unconscious from behind the arc of late, connecting on 11 of his last 12 attempts (91.7 percent) from three-point range over the last four games.

► Freshman forward Evan Burns continues his strong play. The reigning MWC player of the week has scored in double figures in three straight games and the Aztecs are 8-1 when he scores 10+ points this season. In his last three games, Burns has 55 points, 23 rebounds, six blocked shots and four steals while connecting on 23-of-34 (67.6 percent) from the field.

► The Aztecs and Rebels played three times last season and produced a pair of overtime games and a title game for the Mountain West Conference Tournament championship, won 78-75 by the Aztecs. The Rebels' 15-point win earlier this season in San Diego surpassed the combined margin of last year's games (11 points).

► Three of the last six games (and three of the last five regular-season meetings) between the teams have gone to overtime, including both regular season meetings last season. The Rebels have won all three, as the Aztecs have yet to win an overtime game under Steve Fisher at 0-6 and have lost their last seven extra-period games overall. Of the team's last seven meetings, three have gone into overtime, one was decided by three points and another was decided by five points.

► Tony Bland and Mike Mackell both have produced solid numbers in their career against UNLV. Mackell averages 16.3 ppg, 5.0 rpg while connecting on 61.9 percent from the field. Bland has averaged 14.5 ppg and 3.5 rpg. Bland has shot 50.0 percent from the floor against UNLV.

Burns Named MWC Player Of The Week

Aztec freshman forward Evan Burns was named Mountain West Conference Men's Basketball Co-Player of the Week for his play in San Diego State's wins over New Mexico and Wyoming. The Inglewood, Calif., native averaged 21.5 points and 8.5 rebounds while shooting 72.0 percent from the field in his best week of his brief collegiate career.

In sharing the award with UNLV's Marcus Banks, Burns earns his first career player of the week honor and the second for the Aztecs this season. Junior forward Aerick Sanders garnered the Feb. 10 award, also after an Aztec win over Wyoming.

Burns had his best game of the season in SDSU's 89-73 win over New Mexico Feb. 24. The 6-8 forward registered the second double-double of his career with personal-bests of 31 points and 13 rebounds. The 31 points were the most by an Aztec this season and the second-most ever in a MWC game. He connected on 12-of-15 field-goal attempts - including 4-of-6 three-pointers - and blocked two shots. The frosh had half (18) of SDSU's 36 points at halftime in stealing the spotlight from the Aztec seniors in San Diego State's 2002-03 home finale.

In propelling the Aztecs to their fourth straight win over Wyoming with an 86-73 victory on Saturday, Burns scored 12 points and added four rebounds and three blocked shots. Burns shot 6-of-10 field goals and also added two steals. He helped SDSU to a third straight conference win by double-digits for the first time since 1982. The Aztecs are now 8-0 when Burns scores 10 or more points.

Final Stretch For Three Seniors

Three Aztec seniors - Tony Bland, Deandre Moore and Mike Mackell - play the final regular-season game of their San Diego State careers at UNLV on Saturday.

Tony Bland is in his second season at San Diego State after transferring from Syracuse following his sophomore campaign. Each of Bland's first three collegiate seasons resulted in a 20-win campaign and a trip to the NCAA tournament. A Los Angeles native, Bland currently ranks fourth in scoring (16.8), fourth in assists (3.42), second in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.62) and 12th in steals (1.08) in the Mountain West Conference. He has played in 123 career games (including 59 at SDSU) and posted 1,312 points, 320 rebounds and 307 career assists. His collegiate teams have gone 83-41 (66.9 percent).

Deandre Moore is in his third season at San Diego State after transferring from Vanderbilt following his freshman campaign. Moore enters Monday ranked among the top 10 in six different SDSU career charts, including sixth in assists (325), seventh in games started (68), seventh in three-point field goals made (77), eighth in minutes played (2,312), ninth in three-point field goal percentage (35.6) and ninth in steals (110). This season, he ranks in the top 12 of five Mountain West Conference stat categories and is one of three Aztec players to start all 26 games.

Mike Mackell is in his second season at San Diego

Head Coach: Charlie Spoonhour (Univ. of the Ozarks '61) - 39-20 in second season at UNLV/ 358-191 overall in 18th season

Assistant Coaches: Deane Martin, Jay Spoonhour, Derek Thomas

State after being named the California junior college player of the year at Porterville JC. A native of Washington D.C., Mackell is ninth in the league in scoring (15.1), fifth in field-goal percentage (55.6) and 17th in rebounding (4.5). He has scored in double figures in 25 of 26 games this season.

The three seniors have helped guide the Aztecs to a 36-23 record since the beginning of the 2001-02 season as well as the '02 MWC tournament championship.

The CSU Game: An Aberration?

The Aztecs rang up some impressive statistics during their three-game conference winning streak, outscoring the opposition by an average of 14.4 points per game in registering three straight double-digit league wins for the first time since 1982. But after the recent outstanding play (which could actually be traced to a pair of near-misses in the Beehive State against Utah and BYU Jan. 18 and 20), SDSU suffered its third-worst point loss of the season Monday at Colorado State (89-102) and allowed a season-worst 61.8 percent shooting to the Rams. The following is a look at SDSU's stats during the three-game win streak compared to Monday night's loss at CSU.

Statistic	3-gm Win Streak		Mar. 3 at CSU
	SDSU	Opp.	SDSU	CSU

Deja Vu?

The similarities between last season's Mountain West Conference tournament championship team and this season's squad are starting to add up.

Both teams suffered disappointing home losses in February, with last season's squad using that as the catalyst toward winning five of its final six regular-season games, a sweep in the league tournament and a trip to the NCAA tournament.

Both losses occurred after the Aztecs posted impressive wins - last season at New Mexico, this season over then-conference unbeaten Wyoming.

In fact, you could make a case that San Diego State is better off this season. After suffering this season's home loss, SDSU was 3-4 as opposed to 2-6 last season and 12-8 overall compared to 13-10 in 2001-02.

Below is a detailed look at the comparison.

	2001-02 Season	2002-03 Season

Aztec Cliff Notes

Steve Fisher, who has authored one of the nation's most remarkable turnarounds at San Diego State, has the Aztecs playing some of the best basketball in school history.

The Aztecs have won 15 of their last 24 games in posting a 15-11 overall record and a 6-7 mark in Mountain West Conference play. Two of the Aztecs' eight losses have come to nationally ranked opponents in top-ranked Arizona and then-No. 23 Texas Tech and two others occurred prior to sophomores Travis Hanour and Chris Manker and freshman Evan Burns being cleared to play.

Statistically, solid defense and rebounding have been the Aztecs' two major weapons this season. San Diego State has only been out-rebounded four times this season and boasts a +5.2 rebound margin. Meanwhile on defense, the Aztecs have limited their opposition to 43.9 percent field-goal shooting with only two opponents shooting better than 50 percent against the Aztecs this season.

The Aztecs sport one of the nation's most experienced backcourts in seniors Tony Bland and Deandre Moore. Both have played in more than 100 career games and are among the conference leaders in many categories.

Bland, who last season became the first player in MWC history to rank among the league's top 10 in points and assists and the top 20 in rebounds, ranks among the conference leaders in four statistical categories - points, assists, assist-to-turnover ratio and steals. Bland is averaging a team-high 16.8 ppg and is third in the league with a 1.62 assist-to-turnover ratio.

Moore, the quintessential point guard, is the second-leading assist man in the league and has become quite a threat from long range. He has connected on 39.8 percent from bonus distance and is 12th in the conference in three-point percentage and 11th in three-point field goals made (1.35 per game). Moore is averaging 8.2 ppg, 4.2 apg and 3.5 rpg.

San Diego State's inside game is led by one of the conference's premiere low-post players in Mike Mackell. The senior is ninth in the MWC in scoring, averaging 15.1 ppg, and is 17th in rebounding at 4.5. He is also connecting on 55.6 percent of his shots from the field, fifth-best in the league.

Aerick Sanders has started all 26 games this season at the power forward spot. The junior is third in the league in rebounding and posting 6.3 ppg and 7.9 rpg. He has produced 13 games with nine or more rebounds. He was named the Mountain West Conference Player of the Week on February 10.

The fifth starting spot has largely been determined by match-ups and filled by wing players in freshman Evan Burns and Steve Sir, and sophomores Tommy Johnson and Travis Hanour. All contribute in different ways: Sir (5.9 ppg, 1.2 rpg) is an unbelievable three-point shooter who has made 43 treys and is connecting on 42.2 percent of his long-range attempts this season; Johnson (5.1 ppg, 2.5 rpg) is an athletic wing with the ability to beat people off the dribble; and Hanour (3.1 ppg, 3.1 rpg) is perhaps the most athletic but has fought tendinitis in both knees throughout the season.

When the Aztecs choose to go with a bigger line-up, the fifth starting slot goes to athletic 6-8 freshman Evan Burns. After coming off the bench since making his long-awaited Aztec debut on Dec. 7 against top-ranked Arizona, the McDonald's All-American started two straight games before returning to the bench for five straight. He reentered the starting line-up for the Laramie-Fort Collins road trip. He made his first collegiate start against Wyoming and produced 17 points, eight rebounds and a career-high five assists in 29 minutes. Coming off the bench for the fifth straight game, Burns propelled the Aztecs to a 50-5 bench scoring advantage against New Mexico by producing his second career double-double with career-highs in points (31) and rebounds (13). Having scored in double-figures in three straight games while emerging as a viable third offensive option, Burns is third on the team in scoring with 8.8 ppg and second in rebounding at 4.8 rpg despite averaging only the fifth-most playing time at 20.4 minutes per game.

Fisher's bench is deeper than it has been in the past with three of the group of Burns, Sir, Johnson and Hanour coming off the bench and and sophomore center Chris Manker and freshman walk-on John Sharper ready to contribute.

Manker, the Aztecs' tallest player at 7-0, has shown guard-like skills. He can run the floor and pull up and shoot the three. He is averaging 3.3 ppg and 1.3 rpg and has played in 21-of-22 games since he became eligible.

Sharper, who was originally recruited to back up Moore at the point guard position, has proven he can play both guard spots. He has averaged 1.9 ppg in 24 games and has turned the ball over just 10 times in 212 minutes of action, including just six turnovers in his last 158 minutes.

Last Time Out: Colorado State Snaps SDSU's Three-Game Win Streak, 102-89

FORT COLLINS, Colo. - Colorado State scored the most points ever by an Aztec opponent in MWC play and ended San Diego State's three-game MWC win streak 102-89 at Moby Arena. The Rams led by as 22 points in the second half en route to shooting the highest percentage by an Aztec opponent this season, connecting on 61.8 percent of its field-goal attempts.

With the loss, the Aztecs can finish in no better than a tie for fourth place in the conference. SDSU came no closer than within nine points in the second half as the season's worst defensive performance negated SDSU's 55.4 percent field-goal shooting and most points ever in a MWC contest (matching the 89-73 New Mexico win one week earlier).

Six early points by Mike Mackell helped propel the Aztecs to a 15-14 lead with 12 minutes, 8 seconds to go in the first half. But SDSU could not stop several Ram scoring bursts, including a Matt Nelson dunk at 11:11 that gave CSU the lead for good and helped jumpstart an 8-0 Rams run.

Player/Coach Anecdotes

► Tony Bland

Bland, an all-conference performer on the court, spends hours of his time donating to different causes... He attempts to volunteer at least every other week, frequently visiting area hospitals and feeding the homeless.

► Brian Dutcher

The Dutchers' home was featured in a 12-page spread in the February/March issue of Mary Engelbreit's Home Companion magazine... Brian's wife, Jan, did a majority of the interior decorating that was described as unique and ambitious with bold its colors.

► Deandre Moore

Nobody worked harder in the off-season than Deandre Moore and it has paid off... Moore, who has played through injuries each of the last two seasons (shoulder separation his sophomore season and shin splints his junior season) lost 16 pounds during the off-season... The result has been a quicker point guard who has missed only a handful of practices this season... His efforts resulted in coach Fisher naming him a co-captain on Oct. 12 (first official day of practice).

► Aerick Sanders

A local television station did a feature on Sanders' long arms... The 6-8 forward has a wing span of 84 inches... That is the wing span of a typical 7-0 man.

► Steve Sir

On Friday, Nov. 15, Sir capped a two-and-a-half hour practice by making 23 consecutive three-point field goals... He needed to make 10 straight to keep the team from running, and went on to make 23 in a row... He capped the following Monday (Nov. 18) practice by making 42 straight free throws.

► Chris Walton

Although he is redshirting this season, he continues to make an impact on the court and in the community... Walton organized a food drive that culminated Dec. 7, when Aztec fans viewing SDSU's battle with Luke Walton (Chris' brother) and the top-ranked Arizona Wildcats brought donated items to the game.

29-25, but CSU responded by reeling off nine of the next 10 points and the lead grew to double-digits where it would remain until the waning moments of the game. Derrick Stevens scored five points in the last 29 seconds of the half and SDSU was faced with its largest halftime deficit of the season (52-36).

The Rams shot 65.6 percent from the field in the first half (21-32) and connected on 6-of-8 three-pointers.

CSU maintained its large margin for the first 12-and-a-half minutes of the second half before a 10-4 Aztec run cut it to 83-73 with 5:33 to go. However, CSU scored six straight points and the teams would trade short bursts the rest of the way. The Aztecs came as close as nine points after a 6-0 run with 1:05 left, but CSU answered with six straight points before a Bland layup finalized the margin at 102-89.

Nelson was 8-for-8 from the field and 14-of-19 from the line for a 30-point night. He led four other Rams in double-figures, including 17 points (and 10 rebounds) from Brian Greene.

Bland led the Aztecs with 25 points. Mackell returned to his double-figure scoring form with 13 points after having his streak of 26 straight 10-plus point games snapped the previous outing by Wyoming. Evan Burns had 12 points to reach double-figures for the third straight game, while Deandre Moore added 10.

NOTES OF THE GAME: SDSU allowed 100-plus points for the first time since a 101-66 loss at Wyoming on Feb. 3, 2001... San Diego State had just 12 assists on its 31 baskets compared to Colorado State's 27 assists and 34 field goals... The Aztecs were out-rebounded (31-25) for the second straight game but only the fifth time this season... CSU's bench shot 87.0 percent (20-of-23) and outscored SDSU's reserves 61-23... Steve Sir connected on all three of his three-point attempts and has made 11 of his last 12 from long range.

the Mountain West Conference Tournament championship, won 78-75 by the Aztecs. The Rebels' 15-point win earlier this season in San Diego surpassed the combined margin of last year's games (11 points).

► Three of the last six games (and three of the last five regular-season meetings) between the teams have gone to overtime, including both regular season meetings last season. The Rebels have won all three, as the Aztecs have yet to win an overtime game under Steve Fisher at 0-6 and have lost their last seven extra-period games overall. Of the team's last seven meetings, three have gone into overtime, one was decided by three points and another was decided by five points.

► Three of the Aztecs' top seven points allowed totals in MWC games have come against the Rebels, two of which happened in 2000 (64-85 on March 2 at home and 55-83 on Jan. 22 at UNLV) and the 76-83 overtime loss at Vegas last season. However, the Aztecs' second-largest MWC victory ever came in the 2001 season's second meeting on Feb. 24, an 83-66 win at home in which the Aztecs set a team MWC single-game record with 13 made three-point field goals.

► SDSU has faced UNLV three times in NCAA tournaments, more than any other opponent. The Aztecs are 1-2 in those games, earning a victory in the 1967 NCAA Div. II Tournament regionals but dropping first-round decisions to ranked Rebel teams in the 1975 and '85 NCAA Div. I Tournaments.

► Barring an Aztec loss in Saturday's regular-season finale combined with a Colorado State sweep of its season-ending Utah-BYU road trip, SDSU and UNLV will likely meet again in Thursday's first-round of the Mountain West tournament. It would mark the third time that the Aztecs have faced the Rebels on UNLV's home floor in the Mountain West tournament. SDSU lost a narrow five-point decision in the 2000 quarter-finals before beating the Rebels in the tourney final last season.

San Diego State Players vs. UNLV

► Senior guard Tony Bland: Bland averaged 12.3 points in the three games vs. UNLV last season and shot 46.7 percent from the floor. However, he'd probably like to forget his free-throw shooting as he made just 8-of-16 attempts, including an 0-for-6 in the overtime loss on Feb.23 at Vegas. He grabbed a season-high eight rebounds in the Mountain West title game.

Bland had his best game against UNLV in this season's first meeting, scoring 21 points on 10-of-18 shooting and registering four rebounds and five assists.

This season, Bland is not only the team's top scorer at 16.5 points per game, he has also become the Aztecs' top defensive stopper. Head coach Steve Fisher has regularly tabbed Bland to match up with the opposition's top wing player and he has regularly held in check some of the nation's top players at the two or three positions. He will have his choice of match-ups against the athletic Rebels, likely switching off assignments on scoring guards like 6-2 Demetrius Hunter, 6-2 Marcus Banks and 6-4 Jermaine Lewis, as well as multi-talented 6-10 forward Dalron Johnson.

The first turn through the conference, Bland primarily locked up man-to-man on players like New Mexico's Ruben Douglas (MWC-low 21 points and 4-of-17 shooting in the Albuquerque meeting) and Wyoming's Donta Richardson (lowest output in last 10 games with 7 points on 2-of-11 shooting); the second time around Bland spearheaded more of a team defensive effort in which Aztec defenders switched off more often. The following is a look at how the Los Angeles native has helped to hold several of the nation's top players in check and below their season shooting percentages and scoring averages.

► Senior center Mike Mackell: In his first trip through the Mountain West last season, Mackell put up perhaps his most impressive numbers against UNLV. He made 65.4 percent (17-26) of his shots against the Rebels and averaged 14.3 points and 4.7 rebounds. Mackell scored in double-figures each game, including 15 points on a season-high seven field goals as the Aztecs defeated Vegas in the title game of the MWC tourney.

However, as he was want to do last season in adjusting to the Div. I game out of junior college, Mackell fouled out of the first two UNLV contests, two of nine disqualifications for the Washington, D.C., native last year.

In this season's first meeting, Mackell matched his career-high with 22 points. Add in Bland's 21 points and the two seniors combined for 67.2 percent (43-of-64) of the Aztecs' scoring in the loss. Mackell also chipped in six rebounds, including a season-high five boards on the offensive end.

For his career, Mackell has averaged 16.3 points, 5.0 rebounds and 61.9 field-goal shooting against UNLV.

► Senior guard Deandre Moore: With six games and five starts against UNLV, Moore has played and started more times against the Runnin' Rebels than any other active Aztec. He has also saved some of his best Mountain West play for UNLV, averaging 7.5 points and 3.5 rebounds. He has registered three of his 24 Aztec career double-digit scoring outputs against the Rebels, including 11 points propelled by perfect 4-of-4 shooting from the free-throw line in the Mountain West title game last season.

► Junior forward Aerick Sanders: After missing both UNLV contests as a freshman due to a stress reaction in his right foot, Sanders played in all three games last year against the Rebels and totaled seven of the Aztecs' 12 blocks in just 42 minutes of action en route to finishing seventh in the league with 0.88 blocks per game.

In this season's earlier meeting, Sanders grabbed a game-high 11 rebounds, including a career-high nine on the offensive end. He also added eight points in that game.

The Last Meeting► UNLV 79, San Diego State 64*Feb. 11, 2003 (Cox Arena - San Diego, Calif.)

SAN DIEGO - UNLV became the first Aztec opponent to shoot better than 50 percent from the field en route to a 79-64 win over San Diego State at Cox Arena. The Rebels' win put UNLV and SDSU into a three-way tie for fourth place along with Colorado State to finish the first half of the conference season.

A game after turning the ball over 34 times in a blowout loss to USC, the Runnin' Rebels took care of the ball (14 turnovers) and performed efficiently on the offensive end, shooting 52.8 percent. The Rebels hit 8-of-13 three-pointers to negate SDSU's 32 points in the paint and 20 offensive rebounds.

UNLV never trailed in the game in jumping out to an 11-3 lead. The Aztecs pulled to within 20-18 on a Mike Mackell jumper, but UNLV outscored SDSU 23-9 the rest of the way to take a 43-27 halftime lead.

Tony Bland shot 6-of-12 field goals and had 13 points in the first half compared to the rest of the Aztecs' 6-of-23 shooting and 14 points.

SDSU played much better for the first 12 minutes of the second half and cut the lead to 60-55 on a Bland layup with 8 minutes, 24 seconds remaining. However, Jermaine Lewis came back with one of his seven three-pointers and after Mackell missed a breakaway dunk, the Rebels embarked on a game-breaking 15-2 run and ended up with the 79-64 win.

Lewis ended up with a game-high 24 points while Marcus Banks added 21. Mackell matched his career-high with 22 and Bland had 11, as the duo combined for 19-of-34 shooting and 43 points while the rest of the SDSU roster shot 7-for-29 and had 21 points.

NOTES OF THE GAME: Despite the loss, SDSU still has its best-ever Mountain West start at 3-4 after Fisher led Michigan to the 1989 national championship and made three trips to the national championship game in his eight full seasons in Ann Arbor. The 1991-92 national coach of the year, he led the Aztecs to a 21-12 mark last year en route to the NCAA Tournament. Fisher has helped the Aztecs increase their win total in each of his first three seasons (from 4-to-5-to-14-to-21).

Aztec MWC History: Winless in its first two Mountain West Tournament appearances as #8 seed in 2000 and a #6 seed in 2001, San Diego State swept through the event last season as a #5 seed defeating #4 BYU, #1 Wyoming and host #3 UNLV en route to its first MWC title and third-ever conference tournament championship. In receiving the MWC's automatic 2002 NCAA bid, SDSU made its fourth NCAA Tournament appearance since joining Div. I in 1970.

The Tickets: Tickets are available for the Mountain West Tournament through the SDSU ticket office (619-283-SDSU) or through host UNLV's ticket office (702-739-FANS or unlv/tickets.com).

The Last Meeting In Las Vegas

► San Diego State 78, UNLV 75
March 9, 2002 (MWC Tournament Championship - Thomas & Mack Center - Las Vegas, Nev.)

LAS VEGAS -- Deandre Moore hit two free throws with 3.3 seconds remaining as fifth-seeded San Diego State beat third-seeded UNLV, 78-75, to win the Mountain West Conference tournament and advance to the NCAA tournament for the first time since 1985.

The Aztecs led by as many as 16 points in the second half, but UNLV got within one point on two free throws by Marcus Banks with 4.8 seconds remaining. Moore was fouled with 3.3 seconds left, and went on to convert both free throws to clinch the win for the Aztecs. Tournament MVP Randy Holcomb led SDSU with 20 points and 11 rebounds. Al Faux added 16 points and Mike Mackell had 15.

Lou Kelly paced the Rebels with 24 points. Dalron Johnson had 23 and Marcus Banks scored 18.

The Aztecs led 68-53 with five minutes left to play, but turned the ball over five straight times as the Rebels rallied to cut the lead to 68-62 with 3:55 left.

Banks and Johnson scored all nine points for the Rebels in that run. Mackell ended the streak with a layup to put the Aztecs ahead 70-62.

The Aztecs extended their lead to 74-68 on two free throws by Moore, but Banks made a three-point play to bring the Rebels to within 74-71 with 1:06 remaining. With 30 seconds left, Kelly connected on an inside jumper to pull the Rebels within two, 75-73.

Banks converted two free throws with 4.8 seconds left to bring the Rebels within one point of catching the Aztecs, but Moore's two free throws in the final seconds thwarted the Rebels' chances of a come-from-behind win.

ing the program's best in MWC play after 13 games.

One has been positive and would lead you to believe SDSU is better than 6-7, while two are negative and lead you to wonder how SDSU has won a league game.

On the positive side, the Aztecs own a league-best +6.4 rebound margin in conference games with an average of 12.4 offensive boards per game to their opponents' 8.5.

In the negative ledger, San Diego State's turnover margin is -1.54, sixth in the conference, while the Aztecs are averaging only 18.3 free-throw attempts per game compared to their opponents' 22.0.

For the season, these statistical categories have obviously played a role in the outcome, with the Aztecs' record listed below when registering an advantage or deficit in the below categories.

Field Goal Percentage	11-1	2-10

Bland Earns NABC All-District Honors

San Diego State senior Tony Bland has been selected as a second team Division I All-District honoree by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC).

Bland, a co-captain on the Aztec team, leads San Diego State in scoring at 16.8 points per game. He also leads the team in minutes played (34.7 mpg), is second in assists (89) and fourth in rebounds (93). A native of Los Angeles, the 6-5 guard is ranked among the Mountain West Conference top five in four different statistical categories - second in assist-to-turnover ratio, fourth in scoring, fourth in assists and 12th in steals.

Only 10 players were selected to each district team. Joining Bland on the District 13 team were Ruben Douglas (New Mexico), Travis Hansen (Brigham Young), Britton Johnson (Utah), Jermaine Boyette (Weber State), Brian Greene (Colorado State), Donta Richardson (Wyoming), Carl English (Hawai'i), Uche Nsonwu-Amadi (Wyoming) and Kirk Snyder (Nevada).

This is the second consecutive season that an Aztec has been named to the District 13 team. Last year, Randy Holcomb earned first team honors.

Selected and voted on by member coaches of the NABC, the All-District honorees are now eligible for the NABC Division I All-American Team, which will be announced at the end of the 2002-03 season.

Baby Aztecs Makin' An Impact

San Diego State's freshman class of Evan Burns, Steve Sir, John Sharper, Trimaine Davis and Markee White have made quite an impact in their inaugural season wearing the scarlet and black.

The class has combined to average 16.5 ppg, 7.1 rpg, 2.6 apg and 47.3 minutes through 26 games this season. That is even more impressive when considering McDonald's All-American Evan Burns missed the first four games of the season.

Of the nine players that saw action in each of the four games this season, four were freshmen - Trimaine Davis, John Sharper, Steve Sir and Markee White (one other was a sophomore - Tommy Johnson). Additionally, freshman Evan Burns and sophomore Chris Manker debuted against Arizona and against Hawai'i sophomore Travis Hanour joined the mix. The three received significant minutes even as they adjusted to game action.

The five newcomers have given the Aztecs the most productive freshman class of the Steve Fisher era.

More on this season's freshman crop:

► Evan Burns: One of two true freshmen on the SDSU roster, Burns produced his breakout game of the season against Florida Atlantic Dec. 28... In only his fifth collegiate appearance, Burns produced 21 points, four offensive rebounds and four steals in only 18 minutes of action... He shot 7-of-11 from the field and 7-of-8 from the free-throw line in becoming the only current Aztec to surpass the 20-point mark in a game in his freshman season... He registered his first career double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds vs. Loyola Marymount in scoring in double-figures for three straight games, a career first... Despite reaching 20 minutes only 10 times in 22 games and being held scoreless against Hawai'i, Burns is the squad's third-leading scorer at 8.8 points per game... He supplied instant offense off the bench for his first 14 games, as he entered the Air Force game with the Aztecs trailing by five six-and-a-half minutes in and promptly reeled off eight straight points to give SDSU the lead... He scored a game-high 14 points vs. the Falcons... Then against Utah, Burns scored all five of his points in the Aztecs' game-breaking 18-4 run in the second half... Earned his first collegiate start vs. Wyoming and ended up with 17 points, eight rebounds and a career-high 5 assists... And if the FAU contest was his breakout game, Burns served notice to the MWC of his increasing comfort level at the Div. I level with his second double-double of career-highs in points (31) and rebounds (13) against New Mexico... He made his first three three-point attempts against the Lobos en route to a 12-for-15 field-goal shooting performance in a career-high 34 minutes... He now has nine double-digit scoring games for the season, including three straight... He is averaging 18.3 points, 7.7 rebounds and 31.3 minutes over the last three games... Burns' stats averaged over 40 minutes per game translate to 17.2 points, 9.4 rebounds, 2.1 assists, 2.4 steals and 2.0 blocks.

► Trimaine Davis: A redshirt freshman, Davis appeared in the first 12 games this season (22 overall) and has accumulated 33 points and 23 rebounds in 157 minutes of action... He is averaging 7.1 minutes per contest... Davis, who made all 15 of his shots during the preseason, went 3-for-3 from the floor in scoring a career-high six points against UCSD... He is 4-for-4 from the floor in conference play.

► Steve Sir: A redshirt freshman, Sir started the first six games of the season and the Aztecs' game at New Mexico... He registered a career-best six threes on Dec. 2 against UCSD... He has a team-high total of 43 three-point field goals and was a perfect 9-for-9 from the free-throw line before missing his only attempt against USD... Sir is now 17-of-20 from the free-throw line for the season... The sharp-shooter from Minnesota, who made at least two treys in each of his first five games and has multiple threes in 14 contests, boasts the conference's ninth-best three-point percentage of .422 and is averaging 5.9 points per game... He has made 11 of his last 12 three-point attempts in the last four games after going 2-for-15 over the previous six contests... Sir has multiple threes in each of the last four contests and three three-pointers in each of the last three games.

Streak Buster

Streaks that San Diego State has broken in Steve Fisher's three-plus seasons.

Overall:

- ▶ - 17-game losing streak
- ▶ - 17-game conference losing streak
- ▶ - 24-game road conference losing streak
- ▶ - 30-game road losing streak

Teams and Locations:

- ▶ - 6-game losing streak to Wyoming
- ▶ - 8-game losing streak at Wyoming
- ▶ - 8-game losing streak to Brigham Young
- ▶ - 9-game losing streak to UNLV
- ▶ - 10-game losing streak to New Mexico
- ▶ - 10-game losing streak to Fresno State
- ▶ - 14-game losing streak to Utah
- ▶ - 16-game losing streak at New Mexico
- ▶ - 17-game losing streak at Colorado State.
- ▶ - First win at Las Vegas since 1979
- ▶ - Beat BYU twice in the same season for the first time since 1940

Seasons:

- ▶ - Ended string of four consecutive seasons without a .500 record
- ▶ - Ended a string of 16 consecutive seasons without a postseason trip (NCAA or NIT)
- ▶ - Ended 16 consecutive seasons without winning a conference postseason tournament
- ▶ - Ended a string of 17 consecutive seasons without consecutive .500 or better records

▶ John Sharper: A walk-on freshman, Sharper has played 212 minutes including several at the point guard position... Sharper has looked solid handling the ball and has committed just 10 turnovers in 212 minutes of action, including a career-high turnover-free 20 minutes against Colorado State Feb. 1 largely spent spelling a flu-plagued Moore... He also played 16 minutes without a turnover against LMU, 15 turnover-free minutes vs. Wyoming and 14 miscue-free minutes against New Mexico... He has committed just six turnovers over his last 158 minutes... Sharper grabbed a career-high five rebounds in 12 minutes and contributed a three-pointer to SDSU's record-setting barrage of 16 treys against UCSD, and his three-pointer capped the Aztecs' game-breaking 20-6 run in the win at Long Beach... He set his career high with eight points and hit two three-point field goals in a game for the first time against Florida Atlantic... Of his 32 field-goal attempts, 26 have come from three-point range, and his .462 three-point field goal percentage tops the team.

▶ Markee White: A redshirt freshman, has seen action in six games this season and scored the first points of his collegiate career on a pair of free throws against UCSD.

SDSU Sets Attendance Record In 2002-03

SDSU set its all-time total attendance mark this season by eclipsing the 100,000-fan mark for the first time ever. The Aztecs also set a school record for average attendance by playing before average crowds of 7,284. Aztec teams under Steve Fisher own three of the top five season attendance marks in SDSU history.

San Diego State's home attendance has shown dramatic growth, posting increases of 73.0 percent from the 1999-2000 to 2000-01 season, 36.2 percent from the 2000-01 to 2001-02 season and 18.2 percent from last season to this season. In all, San Diego State's attendance is up 178.2 percent over the last three seasons.

The Air Force game crowd of 6,950, the 15th-largest ever in Cox Arena, marked the 10th game to break into SDSU's top 20 single-game Cox Arena attendance chart this season. The Aztecs played before the first two sellout crowds of 12,414 in the six-year history of Cox Arena - against then-No. 1/1 Arizona (Dec. 7) and No. 23/21 Texas Tech (Jan. 6) - as well as crowds of: 8,554 vs. Colorado State (fifth); 8,497 against BYU (sixth); 8,078 vs. San Diego (ninth); 7,575 vs. UNLV (10th); 7,102 against Utah (13th); 6,184 against Wyoming (18th); and 6,183 against Eastern Washington (19th).

Senior Dominant

San Diego State's senior class of Tony Bland, Mike Mackell and Deandre Moore held the shorthanded Aztecs together early in the season when SDSU was thin on reserves. Through the first four games of the season, the trio averaged 46.3 points, accounted for nearly 60.1 percent of San Diego State's scoring, and also combined for 17.0 rebounds and 10.8 assists per game.

But even though the Aztecs have 11 players averaging at least 7.1 minutes per game, the seniors are no less important, especially in conference play. Against Air Force, the trio combined for 32 of the Aztecs' 63 points, 15-of-29 rebounds and 8-of-12 assists. Then as the Aztecs snapped a 14-game losing streak to Utah, the seniors tallied 34-of-58 points, 19-of-38 rebounds and 6-of-9 assists. Against Colorado State: 45 of the Aztecs' 69 points. Those performances recalled the Nov. 30 contest at Cal Poly, perhaps the seniors' most important game of the season, when the Aztecs rallied from behind to gain their first victory of the season as the triumvirate accounted for 26 of the Aztecs' 31 second-half points.

In home games, the trio accounted for 55.0 percent of SDSU's points (648-of-1,179), 30.8 percent of rebounds (175-of-568 rebounds) and 56.8 percent of assists (142-of-250), translating to averages of 40.5 points, 10.9 rebounds and 8.9 assists in 90.5 minutes.

The numbers are equally as impressive when isolated to road games, in which the Aztec rotation has been tightened and the veterans have been depended upon for greater stretches. Bland, Mackell and Moore have combined for 396 points (54.6 percent of the Aztecs' 725 points on the road), 124-of-347 rebounds (35.7 percent) and 76-of-134 assists (56.7 percent). That works out to an average of 39.6 points, 12.4 rebounds and 7.6 assists in 97.3 minutes per game on the road.

Bench Points

When the Aztec roster received reinforcements beginning with the Dec. 7 Arizona game, the SDSU bench has stepped up its productivity and relieved some the scoring slack from the seniors and starting five. Through the first four games of the season, the Aztec bench had accounted for only 48 of the Aztecs' 308 points (15.6 percent), an average of 12 points per game. Since freshman Evan Burns (NCAA Initial Eligibility Waiver Committee ruling) and sophomore Chris Manker (NCAA 4-2-4 transfer rule) became eligible for the Arizona game and sophomore Travis Hanour (NCAA 4-2-4 transfer rule) joined the fold against Hawai'i, the Aztec reserves have stepped up their production by averaging 21.5 points per game (29.9 percent of SDSU's scoring) over the past 22 contests.

Aerick the Great

Forward Aerick Sanders got his junior campaign off to a fast start by registering 11 or more rebounds in a span of 5-of-6 games. For the season, Sanders has tallied nine or more rebounds in 13 games.

Sanders was an impressive presence in the post against Houston Dec. 21, as he recorded his first career double-double with career-bests in points (12) and rebounds (14) as well as a career-high four assists. He surpassed the points figure by scoring 14 and matched his career-high rebound total with 14 in the home win over Wyoming, a performance that netted him conference player of the week honors.

Sanders is third in the Mountain West with 7.9 rebounds per game, including a league-leading 3.58 offensive rebounds, as well as the conference's ninth-most blocks at 0.9 per contest.

The 40 minutes of action for Sanders against Eastern Washington was not only a career-high, but was more court time than the junior saw in any two games last season (last season's high was 20 minutes, with his previous career mark of 24 minutes set during his freshman campaign).

Last season, Sanders blocked 29 shots to rank seventh in the Mountain West Conference, and just missed cracking the school's all-time top-10 list. He currently stands eighth on SDSU's career blocked shots list with 67.

Sanders Named MWC Player of the Week

Aztec junior forward Aerick Sanders was named Mountain West Conference Men's Basketball Player of the Week for his performance in the Aztecs' win over Wyoming Feb. 3. The Carson, Calif., native registered career-high totals of 14 points and 14 rebounds as the Aztecs upended the then-first place Cowboys for the third straight time, 80-70.

The honor marks the first career player of the week award for Sanders and the first for the Aztecs this season.

Sanders shot 7-of-10 from the field - hitting at least 50 percent of his field-goal attempts for the 13th time in 14 games - en route to his second career double-double. He hit 5-of-7 shots in the second half while the rest of the team went 9-for-22 as the Aztecs extended a 41-39 halftime lead into their second-largest victory (10 points) ever over the Cowboys.

Of Sanders' 14 boards against Wyoming, six came on the offensive glass as SDSU built a 39-23 rebound advantage over a Cowboy team that had fewer cars than its opponent for only the third time this season. His 24 boards over the last two games has propelled the Aztecs to a 79-53 rebound advantage over the conference's top two rebounding teams, Colorado State and Wyoming. He also registered two blocked shots.

Moore is Better

Healthy for the first time since becoming an Aztec, Deandre Moore has overcome previous season injuries such as a separated shoulder and shin splints to participate in every practice this season.

That, coupled with a rigorous off-season workout schedule, has the Aztec point guard 16 pounds lighter than a season ago and playing some of the best basketball of his career.

Moore is averaging a career-high 8.2 points through 26 games this season while dispensing an average of 4.2 assists, second in the MWC. He has also been one of the Aztecs' most indispensable player thus far, playing the team's second-most minutes (780) minutes for an average of 30.0 per contest.

The Compton, Calif., native produced his best game of the season to date against the best competition. Against top-ranked Arizona Dec. 7, Moore scored 16 points and dished out eight assists while limiting preseason Wooden Award candidate Jason Gardner to nine points on 1-of-10 shooting.

Moore has played 35 or more minutes in six games in 2002. Last season, due to nagging injuries, Moore logged 35 minutes in only three of 33 games.

The senior guard broke the 300-assist barrier for his career against Portland and the Vanderbilt transfer entered the Aztecs' career top-10 list against Arizona. He has since entered the 300 assist club as an Aztec in moving into sixth place with 327 assists with SDSU.

Top Two Scorers Gone, No Problem for Fisher

Some might see the departure of the Aztecs' top two scoring averages from the 2001-02 season - Al Faux (17.0 ppg) and Randy Holcomb (16.9 ppg) - as a problem, but Steve Fisher has overcome scoring departures in the past to produce big seasons.

Three times in his coaching career Fisher has had his top two scorers depart, but all three times he has led his team back to the postseason the following year.

In the 1990-91 season, Fisher lost his entire starting five, including Rumeal Robinson and Terry Mills, off a squad that went 23-8 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. That season, Fisher guided his squad to the NIT.

In 1994-95, Fisher overcame the losses of Jalen Rose and Juwan Howard to put the Wolverines in the NCAA Tournament.

Most recently, in 1995-96, Fisher lost Ray Jackson and Jimmy King but still put together a 20-win season and guided Michigan to the NCAA Tournament.

The Great Turnaround

Steve Fisher and the Aztecs' journey from perennial basement dweller to NCAA Tournament team is made all the more remarkable by the speed at which the turnaround was achieved.

Just three years ago in 1999-2000, the Aztecs won only five games, and two years ago in 2000-01, San Diego State finished seventh in the conference.

As if going from 5-23 in 1999-00 to 14-14 in 2000-01 wasn't enough, in the 2001-02 season the Aztecs went 21-12 for the second-highest win total in the school's Division I history.

Other accomplishments of the 2002 NCAA Tournament team:

- San Diego State made it to the post-season for just the fifth time in the school's 33 Division I seasons. The Aztecs advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 1975, 1976 and 1985 and to the postseason NIT in 1982, prior to participating in the Big Dance in March of 2002.

- The RPI is one barometer that shows the program's dramatic rise. For the seven seasons from 1993-94 to 1999-00, San Diego State had an average final RPI of 190. In the 2000-01 season, the Aztecs jumped to 154 in the final RPI. In 2001-02, the Aztecs jumped more than 100 positions in the ratings and ended the regular season at number 39 in the RPI, ahead of perennial powers such as Notre Dame (41), Villanova (43), Arkansas (46), Virginia (50), UNLV (51), Missouri (54), Louisville (61), Fresno State (64), Purdue (100), North Carolina (119), Seton Hall (125) and Michigan (142).

- With 21 victories last season, San Diego State posted its highest single-season victory total since the 1984-85 team went to the NCAA tournament and finished 23-8. This marked the third consecutive year, all under Steve Fisher, that the Aztecs bettered their win total from the previous season (4 to 5 to 14 to 21). The 21 victories are the second-highest victory total of the Division I era (beginning with the 1970-71 season) and surpasses the school's total in the previous two seasons combined.

- The Aztecs posted consecutive .500 or better seasons for the first time since the 1983-84 and 1984-85 seasons. The Aztecs, who went 14-14 in 2000-01, were 21-12 in 2001-02. Prior to the last two seasons, SDSU went 147-280 in the 15 seasons between the two winning stretches. The Aztecs averaged 9.8 wins between the 1985-86 and the 1999-00 seasons.

- The Aztecs finished league play with a 7-7 record, marking the first time SDSU finished .500 in conference action since the 1984-85 team claimed second in the WAC with an 11-5 mark. In the previous 15 seasons, the Aztecs averaged 3.9 league wins. After finishing no better than sixth place in a conference (Western Athletic or Mountain West) since the 1984-85 campaign and having an average finish of 7.7 in the previous 16 seasons, the Aztecs claimed a share of fourth place in the MWC in 2001-02.

- San Diego State set a school record in the 2001-02 season in both total home attendance (92,475) and average home attendance (6,165). In 15 home games, San Diego State shattered the previous school record for highest average, set back in 1981-82 when SDSU averaged 4,824. The 2001-02 average was a 36.1 percent increase over the previous season and a remarkable 135.4 percent increase over Steve Fisher's first season (1999-2000).

- The success on the court has generated media coverage unparalleled in the program's history. The Aztecs made a school-record 25 appearances on live television during the 2001-02 season, a marked increase over the year before Fisher's arrival, the 1998-99 campaign, when SDSU was on television nine times. In addition, San Diego State made the first two network television appearances in the program's history. In 2002-03, the SDSU regular-season schedule includes 20 live television appearances.

- Below is a look at the Aztecs' records since the start of the 2000-01 campaign. The record on the right shows how many games it took San Diego State to win the same number of games prior to the 2000-01 season.

Sometimes there are no adjectives. Sometimes the phrases don't do justice. Sometimes you just stick with the basic facts and let them tell the story.

A five-win season followed by a 14-win season. A 14-win season followed by 21 wins, a conference championship and a trip to the NCAA Tournament.

In three short seasons, Steve Fisher has changed the outlook, fortunes and expectations of San Diego State basketball. The Aztecs have been transformed from the ugly duckling that muddled through the first-ever Mountain West Conference campaign with an 0-14 record into a conference champion. It is a school that now regularly goes toe-to-toe with the West's best basketball programs on the court and in the recruiting wars. It may be the new program on the block but seniority rarely matters in the changing world of college athletics.

It is now Steve Fisher's program.

When Fisher arrived on the scene, he found a basketball program that wasn't good enough to be called average. The Aztecs had suffered through 13 losing seasons in 14 years. Members of the school's last NCAA team were in the early stages of middle age. The expectations were in place all right. The Aztecs were expected and expecting to lose. The year before his arrival San Diego State won just four games.

The hiring only dates back to March of 1999, so referring to the "Steve Fisher Era" at San Diego State might be considered a bit premature. But with the Aztec banner now flying over the Mountain West Conference, there is little doubt that San Diego State basketball has reached a new level.

On March 26, 1999, San Diego State announced its arrival on the basketball scene in the form of a news conference to introduce its new coach, Steve Fisher. Fresh from a stint with the Sacramento Kings and with three appearances in the Final Four and a national championship in his pocket, he rolled up his sleeves and went to work. And work was needed. It looked to be a daunting challenge and yet the man with one of the highest winning percentages in NCAA Tournament history had no reservations.

No head-coaching career, at any level, started quicker than that of Steve Fisher. Six games into his head-coaching career he was undefeated and sporting a national championship ring. And the success didn't stop with the national title.

Fisher's eight-plus seasons at the University of Michigan produced a 184-82 (.692) record, nine post-season tournament berths and three trips to the NCAA championship game, including the magical run to the 1989 national title.

Under Fisher, the Wolverines also claimed an NIT championship, won at least 20 games four times and finished among the top three in the powerful Big Ten Conference five times. In 1995, Michigan set a league record by holding opponents to just 39.4 percent shooting from the floor.

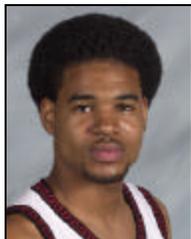

Fisher and Company raised the bar even higher in the postseason. His seven NCAA Tournament teams at Michigan combined for a 20-6 record, ranking him fourth among active coaches and ninth in NCAA history with a winning percentage of .769 in the national bracket. Only 13 coaches have taken more teams to the Final Four, including just five that are still active. He is one of three coaches to take three squads to the Final Four in the first five years of a head-coaching career, and one of just six coaches to lead a team to the championship of the NIT as well as the NCAA.

His accomplishments may be even greater at San Diego State. Last season he led the Aztecs to the post-season for the first time since 1985 and for just the fourth time ever. The 21 wins are second most for the school as a Division I program and the most since 1985. The fact that those numbers came after just three seasons signifies what is one of the great recent turnarounds in college basketball.

Los Angeles, Calif. (Crenshaw High)

Played in 24 of 26 games this season, playing 10 or more minutes in each of the last eight games, including consecutive career highs in the category with 28 at Utah (2-15-03) and 29 at Brigham Young (2-17-03)... In 24 games he has produced far more statistically than in his entire freshman campaign (this season vs. last season: points: 122-31, rebounds: 61-18, assists: 43-7, minutes played: 394-120)... Made a three-point field goal in nine of his last 17 games... Pulled down a career-high seven rebounds and added eight points in 18 minutes against IPFW (12-30-02)... Connected on 18-of-23 (78.3 percent) free-throw attempts this season after hitting 1-of-4 all of last season... Had seven points, two rebounds and three assists in 13 minutes of action against New Mexico (2-24-03)... Tied a career high with three steals in 17 minutes against Air Force (2-22-03)... Made his seventh start of the season at BYU, and first since the Texas Tech (1-6-03) game... Had five points, five rebounds and three assists at Utah and followed that up with eight points, three rebounds and two assists at Brigham Young... The eight points tied for his second highest output of the season... Played 12 minutes against UNLV (2-11-03) with three points and two rebounds... Saw 10 minutes of action contributing two points and one rebound vs. Wyoming (2-3-03)... Prior to that game, he played one minute vs. Colorado State (2-1-03), the fewest minutes he has logged in any game he has played after seeing 12 minutes of action at New Mexico (1-25-03)... Had four points, three rebounds and a team-high four assists against the Lobos... Missed the game against the Toreros because he arrived late to the arena and was a coach's decision versus the Utes... Came off the bench to score four points and add three offensive rebounds in just six minutes against Brigham Young (1-20-03)... Following his first DNP of the season against San Diego (3-8-03), he played 10 minutes against Air Force (1-11-03) scoring three points and adding two rebounds in 10 minutes off the bench... Prior to not playing against USD, Johnson had started the last six games at the wing position... They represent the first six starts of his career... Scored at least three points in the first 15 games in which he has played this season prior to being shutout against Colorado State (2-1-03)... Contributed two three-pointers to SDSU's record-setting barrage of 16 treys against UCSD (12-2-02)... Has the uncanny ability to make the big play at the big moment... Last season, he got a key offensive rebound and subsequent lay-in late in the second half as the Aztecs went on to defeat NCAA Tournament-bound Hawai'i (12-14-01)... Started his first career game against Hawai'i (12-14-02)... Played 21 minutes against the Rainbow Warriors scoring six points... Made the most of his opportunity against top-ranked Arizona by scoring five points and adding four assists in 17 minutes of action.

1 • DEANDRE MOORE

Guard • 5-10 • 191 • Sr.-2L

Compton, Calif. (Compton High/Vanderbilt Univ.)

MWC Rankings: 2nd in assist-to-turnover ratio, 2nd in assists, 2nd in steals, 11th in three-point field goal percentage, 11th in three-point field goals made. Ranks in the top 11 of four different MWC statistical categories... In league games only, Moore ranks among the leaders in five different categories... Played 189 minutes (31.5 mpg) in the last six games after playing just 85 minutes in the previous four games (21.3 mpg) due to the flu and foul trouble (had four or more fouls in three of those four games)... Made 20 of his last 50 (40.0 percent) from three-point range... Career SDSU ranks 6th in assists (327), 7th in games started (69), 7th 3-point field goals (78), 8th 3-point field goal percentage (35.5), 8th in career minutes played (2,343) and 9th in the steals list (112)... In his final regular season home game against New Mexico (2-24-03), dished out seven assists, the most since recording seven assists vs. IPFW (12-30-02)... Has five games with seven or more assists this season... Tied a season-high with 16 points and added three rebounds and three assists with no turnovers in 34 minutes at Brigham Young (2-17-03)... Also led the team in scoring against the Cougars for the second time this season and the third time in his career... Had 10 points, three assists and two rebounds in 30 minutes of action at Utah (2-15-03)... Despite playing just 21 minutes, he still recorded a career-high seven steals and added 11 points and three assists vs. Colorado State (2-1-03)... Had a career-high nine rebounds in the win vs. Utah (1-18-03)... In fact, posted then back-to-back career highs for rebounds with eight against Air Force (1-11-03) and nine vs. Utah... Played 36 minutes and posted 11 points, eight rebounds, four assists and no turnovers at Air Force (1-11-03)... Played 35 or more minutes in five of the first seven games this season after failing to play more than 35 minutes in any contest last season... Averaging 30.0 minutes per contest... Already scored 214 points this season after tallying 119 all of last season when he averaged 3.6 ppg... Made a three-point field goal in the first eight games of the season and is 35-of-88 from three-point range this season (39.8 percent)... Led San Diego State in scoring for just the second time in his career, posting a season-best 16 points and adding a game-high eight assists against top-ranked Arizona (12-7-02)... Won the head-to-head battle with preseason All-American choice Jason Gardner (1-10 FGS, nine points, six assists) in that contest... Pulled down seven rebounds in the game at Cal Poly (11-30-02)... Worked incredibly hard during the off-season resulting in a stronger, leaner, more efficient point guard... Lost 16 pounds over the summer and begins a season healthy for the first time in his San Diego State career (separated shoulder his sophomore season and shin splints his junior season)... 11 double-digit scoring games this season, 26 in his career... Led SDSU in assists 15 times this season and 33 times in his career... Led Aztecs in rebounding twice this season and four times in his career.

Los Angeles, Calif. (Westchester High/Syracuse Univ.)

MWCRankings: 3rd in assist-to-turnover ratio, 4th in assists, 5th in scoring, 15th in steals. Co-captain of the 2002-03 Aztecs... One of 10 player named to the NABC District 13 second-team on 2-20-03... Each of his first three collegiate seasons has resulted in a 20-win season and a trip to the NCAA tournament... Became the first player in Mountain West Conference history last season to rank in the league's top 10 in scoring and assists and the top 20 in rebounding in the same season... Ranks in the top five of three MWC statistical categories... Regularly faces the opponents' top offensive threat... Has scored at least 20 points in three of his last four games... Scored 25 points on 8-of-15 shooting at Colorado State (3-3-03)... That marked his seventh 20+ scoring game of the season and the 18th of his career... Produced 21 points, five rebounds and three assists vs. New Mexico (2-24-03)... Had one of the best games of his career with 28 points on 11-of-13 shooting from the floor vs. Air Force (2-22-03)... Made 129 of his last 255 FGs (50.6 percent) after connecting on just 30 of his first 83 (36.1 percent)... Shooting 52.7 percent from the floor in 12 Mountain West Conference games... Has 1,312 career points, 956 have come while a member of the Aztecs... Started 58-of-59 games on the Mesa since transferring from Syracuse (one non-start was senior night last season when coach Fisher started the five seniors)... Made 10-of-18 field goal attempts en route to 21 points, five assists and four rebounds vs. UNLV (2-11-03)... Scored a game-high 19 points on 7-of-12 shooting from the floor, adding four assists and three rebounds in 37 minutes against Wyoming (2-3-03)... Had a 19-point performance on 8-of-15 shooting against Colorado State (2-1-03)... At New Mexico (1-25-03) he overcame the flu to connect on 6-of-9 shooting en route to 14 points, while holding Ruben Douglas, the nation's third leading scorer, to 4-of-17 shooting from the floor... His 12 league performances are the latest in a string of quality games the senior has put together... Tied for team-high honors with 13 points on 5-of-9 shooting and added five rebounds and two assists vs. Utah (1-18-03)... Had 11 points, five rebounds and three assists in 35 minutes of action at Air Force (1-11-03) after a great all-around game with 17 points, eight assists and six rebounds in the victory over USD (1-8-03)... Scored a season high 29 points on 11-of-18 shooting against Loyola Marymount (1-3-03)... Scored his 1,000th career point against Florida Atlantic (12-28-02)... In that same game against the Owls, he recorded his 250th career assist... Team rankings: first in minutes (824), first in scoring (16.4), second in assists (3.5) and fourth on the squad in rebounds (3.7)... Hit a trey in his final attempt against USD (1-8-03) to snap an 0-for-13 from three-point range in the last five-plus games after making 11 of his first 26 attempts (42.3 percent) from three-point range... Led SDSU in scoring a team-high 16 times this season and 25 times in his career... 10 times this season and 24 times in his career he has been SDSU's assist leader in a game... Has 22 double-digit scoring games this season and 67 in his career.

5 • TRAVIS HANOUR

Guard • 6-7 • 198 • So.-TR

Laguna Beach, Calif. (Laguna Beach High/ Univ. of Arizona)

Played in 18 games this season and has drawn the starting assignment eight times... Has only missed two games (sick vs. Loyola Marymount, 1-3-03 and injured at Colorado State, 3-3-03) since being eligible per the NCAA's 4-2-4 transfer rule (missed first six games of the season)... His starts were against San Diego (1-8-03), at Air Force (1-11-03), vs. Utah (1-18-03) vs. Brigham Young (1-20-03), vs. Colorado State (2-1-03), at Utah (2-15-03), vs. Air Force (2-22-03) and vs. New Mexico (2-24-03)... Those eight games represent the first starts of his career... Had four rebounds and an assist in 10 minutes at Brigham Young (2-17-03)... Drew the start and posted three points and two rebounds in seven minutes of play at Utah (2-15-03)... Left the game against the Utes with a sprained ankle and was doubtful for the contest against the Cougars before seeing 10 minutes of action... Had a strong performance with three points and three rebounds in 13 minutes vs. UNLV (2-11-03)... Played only six minutes vs. Wyoming (2-3-03), but pulled down three rebounds and dished out an assist... Had a tough shooting night against the Rams when he connected on 1-of-11 from the field, including 1-of-7 from three-point range... Despite the tough shooting night, Hanour played well recording five points, four rebounds and two assists in 26 minutes of action... Connected on 1-of-2 field goal attempts against New Mexico... Prior to that game, he suffered his first scoreless game as a member of the Aztecs, grabbing one rebound in 14 minutes of action against Brigham Young (1-20-03)... Had a career-best 35 minutes against Utah (1-18-03) which resulted in four points and a career-high seven rebounds against the Utes... Scored three points and added six rebounds in 20 minutes of action against San Diego... Returned from a one-game hiatus due to the flu with a strong performance against Texas Tech (1-6-03)... Played 22 minutes, with five points, two rebounds, two steals, one assist and two blocked shots against the Red Raiders... Continues to play better and is becoming more efficient as his game experience increases at San Diego State... In his first three games at San Diego State his playing time increased (16-18-21), his point production increased (4-6-11) and his rebound total increased (2-4-4)... That trend changed slightly in the Aztecs blowout victory against IPFW (12-30-02), when he scored three points, tied a career-high with five rebounds and added two assists in 19 minutes of action... Scored 11 points in 21 minutes of action against Florida Atlantic (12-28-02)... The 11 points tied a career high in 21 minutes... Played 16 minutes in his debut against Hawai'i (12-14-02) and scored four points while adding two rebounds and two assists... As an example of his all-around abilities, Hanour recorded a basket, a rebound, an assist and a blocked shot in his first 100 seconds on the court... Was a projected to be a starter at Arizona last season before electing to transfer... Reunited with high school teammate Chris Manker after competing against him in the Pac-10 while at Arizona and Manker was at Oregon State.

Minnetonka, Minn. (Cretin Derham Hall High)

MWC Rankings: 9th in three-point field goals made, 11th in three-point field goal percentage. Broke out of a shooting slump by posting great numbers in the last four games... In his last four games, he has connected on 11-of-12 (91.7 percent) from three-point range... Prior to that he was in a 2-for-15 (13.3 percent) slump from three-point range which covered six games... Prior to that he had connected on nine of his last 19 attempts (47.4 percent) from bonus distance... Made all three of his three-point field goal attempts en route to nine points and a career-high tying three assists at Colorado State (3-3-03)... Scored 17 points, going 3-for-4 from bonus distance at Wyoming (3-1-03)... Went 3-for-3 from three-point range with nine points, three assists and two rebounds in 18 minutes vs. New Mexico (2-24-03)... Scored six points on two treys against the Falcons in 13 minutes of action... Despite struggling from the field, the freshman did contribute three rebounds in 26 minutes of action at New Mexico (1-25-03), his second highest playing total of his career... Although his college career has consisted of just 26 games, his shooting skills are already the stuff of legend... A redshirt freshman, Sir's shooting skills reached near legendary status last season through his practice shooting... At the first team workout this season he connected on 99-of-100 free throws... Earlier this season, he capped a two-and-a-half hour practice by making 23 consecutive three-point field goals (he had to make 10 straight to keep the team from running)... He capped another practice last month by making 42 straight free throws... Before the season started, Sir tried to make 300 three-pointers outside of practice... Regularly the first person on the court and nearly always is the last one to leave... Connected on two treys en route to six points against Brigham Young (1-20-03)... Made two treys in five attempts ending the game with eight points at Air Force (1-11-03)... Had a great game against USD (1-8-03) when he connected on 3-of-6 three-point attempts en route to a nine-point, career-high tying four rebound and career-high tying two assist performance in 19 minutes of action... Broke out of a two-game shooting slump by connecting on 2-of-5 three-point field goals for six points in 18 minutes against IPFW (12-30-02)... Added two assists and two rebounds in that contest and his 18 minutes... Made multiple treys in the first five games of the season and 14 times this season... Has at least one three-point field goal in 18-of-26 games this season... Has connected on 43-of-102 three-point field goals (42.2 percent) and on 17 of his 20 free-throw attempts this season... 43 of his 47 made field goals and 102 of his 112 attempts are from behind the arc... Has committed just 23 turnovers in 390 minutes of action and is averaging one foul per 21.7 minutes of court time... Has a three-point field goal-to-turnover ratio of 1.87-to-1... Averaging 15.8 points per 40 minutes.

Pittsburg, Calif. (Pittsburg High)

Played in 22 of the 26 games this season after sitting out the the San Diego (1-8-03), Air Force (1-11-03), at Utah (2-15-03) and at Brigham Young (2-17-03) games... Averaging 7.1 minutes per contest, the fourth-highest total on the team among freshmen (Evan Burns 448 minutes, Steve Sir 390 minutes, John Sharper 212, Trimaime Davis 157 minutes)... One of only four post players on the active roster joining Mike Mackell, Aerick Sanders and Chris Manker... Played at least 10 minutes in the first six games of the season and eight time in 22 games... Connected on 15-of-24 attempts from the field in the regular season (62.5 percent) after hitting all 15 of his field goal attempts during the exhibition games... Made the last five attempts from the field and has not missed a field goal attempt Dec. 30, 2002... Had three points and a rebound in 16 minutes against IPFW (12-30-02)... Scored three points and had a monster dunk in five minutes of action against Florida Atlantic (12-28-02)... Scored 10 points and pulled down three rebounds in games against UC San Diego and Arizona (30 minutes of action)... Went 3-for-3 from the field and scored six points in 19 minutes against UC San Diego (12-2-02)... Came off the bench to score four points in 11 minutes against top-ranked Arizona (12-7-02)... An enthusiastic player who was the Aztecs' biggest cheerleader on the bench while redshirting last season.

Inglewood, Calif. (Fairfax High)

MWC Rankings 9th in steals, 9th in blocked shots, 13th in field goal percentage, 14th in defensive rebounding, 15th in rebounding. He is coming of age quickly after the NCAA Initial Eligibility Waiver Committee declared him eligible to play on Dec. 5, two days before the Arizona game (12-7-02). His averages per 40 minutes: 17.2 points, 9.4 rebounds, 2.1 assists, 2.4 steals, 2.0 blocks... Had the best game of his career with his second double-double vs. New Mexico (2-24-03)... Posted career-highs against the Lobos with 31 points, 13 rebounds in 34 minutes of action... Aztecs are 7-1 when he scores in double figures, which he has done in three straight games... In his trip to the Beehive State (at Utah (2-15-03) and at Brigham Young (2-17-03), he played 37 minutes with 11 points, 10 rebounds and two assists... Made his first career start against Wyoming (2-3-03) and responded with 17 points, eight rebounds, five assists, three steals and a blocked shot in 29 minutes... Foul problems kept his productivity down against Utah (1-18-03), Brigham Young (1-20-03) and New Mexico (1-25-03) as he has ended all three games with four fouls while averaging 17.3 minutes... Overcame the flu to play 14 minutes against Colorado State (2-1-03), recording five points, four rebounds and two blocked shots... In 15 minutes at New Mexico, he scored seven points on 3-of-4 shooting from the floor, while adding three rebounds against the Lobos... In 15 minutes he posted five points and three rebounds against the Utes while in 22 minutes against the Cougars he had two points and four rebounds... Talled 14 points, connecting on 6-of-7 attempts from the field and added five rebounds in 26 minutes at Air Force (1-11-03)... Had nine points and seven rebounds in 26 minutes in the game against San Diego (1-8-03)... Posted his first career double-double against Loyola Marymount (1-3-03)... Line vs. the Lions: 10 points, career-high 10 rebounds, three blocked shots and four steals in 22 minutes against the Lions... Recorded a blocked shot in his first five games, a streak that was snapped against IPFW, but he bounced back with three blocks against Loyola Marymount (1-3-03)... His four steals against FAU and LMU are the most in his brief career... Scored in double figures in six games... Foul trouble limited his minutes against IPFW (12-30-02)... Scored 10 points on 3-of-5 shooting from the floor and 3-of-3 from the free throw line in 11 minutes of action against the Mastodons... That effort followed the best game of his young career when he scored 21 points on 7-of-11 shooting and added four rebounds and four steals in 18 minutes against Florida Atlantic (12-28-02)... Made likely the most anticipated debut in Aztec basketball history against Arizona... Played 17 minutes and posted seven points, three rebounds and three assists against top-ranked Arizona... Scored his first points on a dunk off a 30-foot alley-oop pass from Deandre Moore in transition... Followed that up with a 10-point, four-rebound performance at Long Beach State (12-10-02)... An ankle sprain in the Texas Tech (1-6-03) game limited his productivity against the Red Raiders... Was unable to practice with the team until Oct. 30, when the NCAA received the initial eligibility waiver request from San Diego State.

Washington, D.C. (Eastern High/Porterville College)

MWC Rankings: 3rd in offensive rebounding, 4th in field goal percentage, 9th in scoring, 17th in rebounding. San Diego State's second leading scorer at 15.1 points per contest and second in rebounding at 4.5 per game... Scored in double figures in 27 of his last 28 games and 38 of his last 45 games... Had a 26-game double digit scoring streak, the third longest since 1981 and the longest of the Steve Fisher era, broken when he scored nine points at Wyoming (3-1-03)... Scored at least 15 points in the first 10 games of the season and 15 times in 26 games... Shot 50 percent or better from the field in 20 of his 26 games this season... More than half (61) of his 116 rebounds this season have come on the offensive glass... Numbers are improved this season in comparison to what was a very successful junior campaign at SDSU... This Year-Last Year: points per game 15.1-10.6, rebounds per game 4.5-4.4, field goal percentage 55.6-52.4, minutes per game 28.5-22.2... Had 16 points on 7-of-9 shooting from the field against Air Force (2-22-03)... Team-high and career-high tying 22 points on 9-of-16 shooting against UNLV (2-11-03)... Had 17 points on 8-of-15 shooting against Wyoming (2-3-03)... Scored 15 points, all in the second half, and added seven rebounds against Colorado State (2-1-03)... Connected on 5-of-8 attempts from the floor and 8-of-10 from the free-throw line en route to 18 points and six rebounds vs. Brigham Young (1-20-03)... Made 5-of-9 attempts from the floor and had 13 points and five rebounds vs. Utah (1-18-03)... Made 5-of-7 field goals and scored a season-low 10 points in 32 minutes of action at Air Force (1-11-03)... Did not start against San Diego (1-8-03) marking the first time this season he has not been in the starting five... Came off the bench to score 15 points on 6-of-8 shooting from the field in 20 minutes of action... Scored 20 or more points in consecutive games for the first time in his career (22 at Houston and 20 vs. Florida Atlantic)... Scored a career best 22 points on 9-of-12 shooting from the field in the victory at Houston (12-21-02)... Followed that up with 20 points on 6-of-9 shooting from the floor against Florida Atlantic (12-28-02)... 25 double-digit scoring games this season and 42 in his career... Led the Aztecs in scoring seven times this season and 10 times in his career.

32 • BEN WARDROP

Guard • 6-2 • 198 • Jr.-SQ

Anaheim, Calif. (Loara High)

Hard-working walk-on who has seen action in seven games this season... Has scored in three of the last four games in which he has played... Converted a breakaway lay-up against Loyola Marymount (1-3-03), marking the first time he has made a two-point shot in his career... Tied a career-high when he sank a three-point field goal against IPFW (12-30-02)... Played a career-high nine minutes dishing out a personal best two assists against UC San Diego (12-2-02)... Tied his career-high in scoring when he connected on a trey against New Mexico (2-24-03)... Fan favorite for his work ethic, as he is know to work out after practice... Scored the first points of collegiate career on a three-pointer against Eastern Washington last season... Played one minute in the game against Air Force (2-22-03).

34 • AERICK SANDERS

Forward • 6-8 • 204 • Jr.-2L

Carson, Calif. (Gardena Serra High)

MWC Rankings 1st in offensive rebounding, 3rd in rebounding, 6th in defensive rebounding, 7th in blocked shots. Named MWC Player of the Week on 2-10-03... The Aztecs starting power forward in all 26 games this season, Sanders is averaging 26.2 minutes per game... Playing the best basketball of his career... Has 10 or more rebounds in four of the last 11 games... Shot 50 percent or better from the field in 17 of the last 21 games... In the last 19 games he has connected on 50-of-92 field goal attempts (54.3 percent) after connecting on 13-of-31 (41.9 percent) to open the season... Posted his second career double-double with career-high 14 points and 14 rebounds vs. Wyoming (2-3-03)...

Had a six-point, 10-rebound performance vs. Colorado State (2-1-03)... Posted a 5-for-6 shooting night en route to 10 points in 24 minutes at New Mexico (1-25-03)... Has reached double figures in scoring six times this season and eight times in his career... Had an 11-point, six rebound performance in 19 minutes against USD (1-8-03)... Has 26 assists in the last 20 games, that surpasses what he had in his entire freshman and sophomore seasons, combined... Had a string of 11 consecutive games with a blocked shot snapped at Houston (12-21-02)... Has 23 blocked shots in 26 games, increasing his career total to 67, good for eighth place in school history... His role has increased dramatically this season due to the departure of last season's first-team all-Mountain West Conference performer Randy Holcomb and the decision of junior Chris Walton to redshirt... Had a career game when he had 12 points and added career highs with 14 rebounds and four assists at Houston (12-21-02)... Posted a 12-rebound performance at Long Beach State (12-10-02)... Played a career-high and team-best 40 minutes in the opener against Eastern Washington, which was more than he played in any two games last season.

Eastern Wash. 75, San Diego State 70
 Nov. 23, 2002 • San Diego, Calif.
 Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 6,183

SAN DIEGO - Eastern Washington outscored San Diego State 52-37 over the final 24 minutes to spoil the Aztecs' season opener, 75-70, on Nov. 24.

While the Aztecs shot just 22 percent from behind the arc, the Eagles connected on 8-of-14 three-point shots, including three each by Brendon Merritt and Danny Pariseau, and overcame a 10-point deficit at the final media timeout of the first half. EWU (2-1) also won the battle of scoring runs in the second half, taking a nine-point lead early and as much as an eight-point advantage late in the game while holding off SDSU's rally.

SDSU (0-1) went on a 13-3 run, propelled by five points from senior guard Tony Bland, to take its final lead at 47-45 with 12 minutes remaining. But Merritt connected on a three-pointer on the next possession to give the Eagles the lead for good.

The Aztecs closed to within 71-70 on three free throws by freshman guard Steve Sir with 18 seconds remaining, but the Eagles converted all four of their attempts from the charity stripe to close out the game.

SDSU senior center Mike Mackell scored a game-high 19 points on 7-of-11 shooting, while Bland added 16. Junior forward Aerick Sanders collected a career-high 11 rebounds.

The Eagles received a balanced scoring effort with four players in double-figures, led by Chris Hester and Alvin Snow with 15 apiece. Merritt and Pariseau each added 13 points.

A record season-opening crowd of 6,183, SDSU's 10th-largest attendance figure at Cox Arena, watched the Aztecs raise the 2002 Mountain West Conference tournament championship banner before the game.

NOTES OF THE GAME: Aztec coach Steve Fisher had a personal streak of 10 consecutive victories in season-openers snapped. It was his first career loss in 12 November home contests, including a 6-1 mark with SDSU. The loss stopped SDSU's non-conference home winning streak at 13 games, the third longest in program history and second longest in the Div. I era.

Game 2

Portland 91, San Diego State 86
 Nov. 27, 2002 • Portland, Ore.
 Earle A. Chiles Center • Att.: 947

PORTLAND - Portland took advantage of a foul-plagued game, converting 38-of-53 free throws to overcome a 10-point second-half deficit and claim a 91-86 victory.

The game featured 66 fouls, eight disqualifications and 89 free throws, forcing both teams to empty their benches out of necessity with each side losing three starters to foul trouble. The Pilots registered only one more field goal attempt (54) than free throw attempts (53).

The Aztecs held leads of 51-41 with 14 minutes, 13 seconds remaining and 61-52 with 11:05 left. The Pilots then scored nine straight points to tie the game at 61 and a 7-0 run gave them a 69-67 advantage.

A four-point play by freshman guard Steve Sir briefly gave the Aztecs a lead with five minutes remaining, but the Pilots converted 10 free throws over the final 4:47 to claim their second victory and send SDSU to an 0-2 start.

Portland's Casey Frandsen led all scorers with 20 points before fouling out. The Aztecs had five players in double-digits, led by Sir's career-high 18. Mike Mackell registered 17 points, Tony Bland had 15, Deandre Moore 14 and sophomore Tommy Johnson scored a career-high 13 points.

Game 3

San Diego State 65, Cal Poly 62
 Nov. 30, 2002 • San Luis Obispo, Calif.
 Mott Gym • Att.: 2,859

SANLUIS OBISPO - San Diego State seniors Tony Bland and Mike Mackell scored 21 points each as the Aztecs overcame a 13-point first-half deficit en route to a 65-62 victory over Cal Poly at Mott Gym on Nov. 30.

The victory was the first of the season for San Diego State (1-2) which had opened the campaign with consecutive five-point losses and marked just the third defeat in the last 15 home games for the Mustangs (1-2).

The Aztecs trailed 20-7 out of the gate and were down 36-24 with 4:29 remaining in the first half but ended the period with a 10-0 run. Mackell, who tied a career high with 21 points, tallied five points in the spurt that cut the Aztec deficit to two points at the break.

The Mustangs built the lead to nine points when Steve Geary connected on a three-point field goal with 13:08 to play. Geary tied for team-high honors with 16 points in the contest.

But the Aztecs battled back with a 16-2 run. Deandre Moore gave San Diego State the lead for good with a lay-up by Deandre Moore and capped the run on a Tony Bland jumper.

San Diego State sealed the victory by making 4-of-5 free throws in the final 56 seconds of the contest.

The Aztec senior class of Bland, Mackell and Moore accounted for 52 points, 20 rebounds and eight assists in the contest. The trio accounted for 26 of San Diego State's 31 second-half points.

San Diego State won despite just shooting 34.9 percent from the field marking just the fifth time in the Steve Fisher era the Aztecs have won a game shooting less than 40 percent from the field.

The Aztecs made up for the rough shooting night by out-rebounding the Mustangs 43-38 and holding Cal Poly to 37.5 percent shooting from the field.

NOTES OF THE GAME: Mike Mackell tied a career high with 21 points, he scored 21 points in the Aztecs victory at New Mexico (2-2-02) last season... It was the third 20-plus scoring game of his career and he has 10+ points in five straight games... Tony Bland scored a season-best 21 points, marking his 11th 20+ scoring game while at San Diego State and his 12th overall... With 14 points against Portland and 10 points vs. Cal Poly, Deandre Moore scored in double figures of consecutive games for the fourth time in his career but the first since his sophomore season... The senior point guard has never scored in double figures in three consecutive contests... Moore has 13 assists in his last two games, his highest two-game total since his sophomore season when he had 14 in consecutive games against Wyoming (11) and Colorado State (3)... His highest two-game total is 20... Aerick Sanders pulled down nine rebounds, narrowly missing his third double-figure rebound performance for his career... The Aztecs are 31-8 in the Fisher era when holding opponents below 70 points and 26-16 when out-rebounding opponents... San Diego State avoided what would have been its first three-game losing streak since the 2000-01 season.

Game 4

San Diego State 87, UC San Diego 57 Dec. 2, 2002 • San Diego, Calif. Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 4,401

SAN DIEGO - Redshirt freshman sharpshooter Steve Sir connected on a career-high six three-point field goals and scored 18 points as San Diego State set a school record with 16 three-pointers in an 87-57 defeat of cross-town foe UC San Diego on Monday night.

Senior guard Tony Bland, who made 4-of-7 from three-point range, also scored 18 as the Aztecs won their second straight after an 0-2 start.

SDSU has won the five all-time meetings with UCSD by an average of 29.4 points.

The Aztecs came out with a flourish against their Div. II city counterparts, running out to a 21-7 lead by the second media timeout. The score was 36-24 before SDSU closed out the first half with an 11-0 run, highlighted by Sir three-pointers on consecutive possessions, over the final 1 minute, 59 seconds to take a 47-24 halftime lead.

UC San Diego never led and was harassed into 39.7 percent shooting, including 7-of-30 from three-point range, as the Aztecs held an opponent under 60 points for the first time this season. Led by junior forward Aerick Sanders' 11 boards, the Aztecs enjoyed a 44-27 rebound advantage over the shorter Tritons.

SDSU, which shot an identical 16-of-33 from behind the arc and from two-point range, broke the previous team record of 13 three-pointers and came within one of the Mountain West record of 17 treys.

The Aztecs received tremendous scoring balance, as four players scored in double-figures and nine of the 10 players who dressed for the game found their way into the scoring ledger.

Jordan Watkins and Sean Crawford led the Tritons with 15 apiece.

NOTES OF THE GAME: The victory was the ninth straight home win in December for the Aztecs... Sanders' four blocks on the night give him 53 for his career, placing him 10th on the school's all-time list... Redshirt freshman Trimaime Davis registered the best scoring output of his young career with six points, while redshirt freshman Markee White and true freshman John Sharper scored their first points as collegians on a pair of free throws and a three-pointer, respectively.

Game 5

No. 1/1 Arizona 89, San Diego State 81 Dec. 2, 2002 • San Diego, Calif. Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 12,414 (c)

SAN DIEGO - A capacity crowd and a national television audience witnessed San Diego State supply top-ranked Arizona with its toughest challenge of the season. The Aztecs thrilled the first-ever sellout crowd at Cox Arena and served notice to the national audience by challenging No. 1 Arizona for the full 40 minutes before finally succumbing, 89-81.

For the second consecutive season, the Aztecs harassed the nation's top-ranked team throughout the game. But just as they did last year in holding No. 1 Duke to its lowest margin of victory at home, SDSU fell shy of pulling off the upset in the ESPN-televised contest.

The top-ranked Wildcats, who won their first three games of the season by an average of 35.7 points, were playing their first road game in front of the raucous 12,414-spectator capacity crowd and had trouble shaking the Aztecs' pesky effort. SDSU held a 10-7 lead after a Trimaime Davis layup with 13 minutes, 21 seconds remaining in the first half.

Freshman Evan Burns and sophomore transfer Chris Manker, who were eligible to play for the first time this season, sparked the Aztecs and ignited the crowd when they entered the game at the 12:04 mark of the first half. A half-minute later, Burns had his first points as an Aztec on an alley-oop dunk, while Manker drained a three-pointer at 10:47 to tie the game at 17-17.

Burns finished with seven points, three rebounds and three assists in 17 minutes, while Manker added five points and five rebounds in 13 minutes.

The game was tied at 21-all before Arizona took command with a 23-14 run to close out the half. Arizona, the popular preseason national championship pick, displayed its superior depth as eight different players scored during the run.

Arizona picked up in the second half where it left off in the first, running its lead to as many as 19 points. The Wildcats led by 17 with six minutes left before the Aztecs made things interesting by scoring the next seven points. However, SDSU could not climb past the 10-point barrier until there was too little time left in the final minute.

SDSU held preseason Wooden Award candidates Luke Walton and Jason Gardner to a combined 16 points on 3-of-16 shooting, but Will Bynum came off the bench to score a game-high 19 while Rick Anderson added 17. The senior trio of Deandre Moore, Tony Bland and Mike Mackell combined for 47 points to lead the Aztecs.

NOTES OF THE GAME: The capacity crowd of 12,414 was the first sellout in the six-year history of Cox Arena and the Aztecs' second-largest home crowd ever, trailing only the 13,106 fans who watched SDSU play North Carolina at the Sports Arena on Dec. 29, 1988... The game was the first match-up between active championship coaches in 2002-03, as Arizona's Lute Olson, who guided the Wildcats to their first-ever championship in 1997, gets the win over SDSU's Steve Fisher, who won the first six games of his head-coaching in leading Michigan to the 1989 title.

Game 6

San Diego State 64, Long Beach St. 55
Dec. 10, 2002 • Long Beach, Calif.
The Pyramid • Att.: 2,542

LONG BEACH - San Diego State utilized a 20-6 run early in the second half to claim a 64-55 decision over Long Beach State on Tuesday night at The Pyramid. Senior center Mike Mackell scored 17 points and senior guard Tony Bland added 11 as the Aztecs recorded their second road win of the season, marking the earliest SDSU notched a second road win in 31 seasons.

With their best defensive effort of the season in holding the 49ers to 34 percent shooting, the Aztecs won for the ninth time in their last 10 meetings with Long Beach dating to 1980.

Behind a balanced first-half effort that saw eight different Aztecs score and nine assists recorded on 12 SDSU baskets, San Diego State held a 31-26 halftime lead. Long Beach opened the second half with a 12-2 run to take a 38-33 lead, but the Aztecs capped their game-breaking run with a John Sharper three-pointer to claim a nine-point lead with seven minutes, 54 seconds remaining.

Tony Darden's jumper with 2:23 left brought Long Beach within 58-54, but SDSU scored the next five points and made enough free throws down the stretch to close out the 64-55 win.

For the second straight game, the Aztec bench recorded a season-best scoring output. Sparked by 10 points from freshman forward Evan Burns and eight from sophomore center Chris Manker, who were playing in only their second game as Aztecs, SDSU reserves outscored LBSU's bench, 25-2. The Aztecs also claimed a 38-30 advantage on the boards, as junior forward Aerick Sanders grabbed a career-high 12 rebounds.

LBSU's Darden led all scorers with 20 points, including three 3-pointers, while Kevin Roberts added 13 points and grabbed 9 rebounds.

NOTES OF THE GAME: With the win, SDSU improved to 11-10 in its last 21 road/neutral games... Before the current stretch, it took the Aztecs 60 games to record 11 such victories... San Diego State recorded a victory the game after playing the nation's No. 1 team for the second straight season... Mackell has scored at least 15 points in all six games this season, while Bland scored in double-figures for the 35th time in 39 games as an Aztec... Freshman guard Steve Sir was held without a three-pointer for the first time in his six-game Aztec career... The game was a homecoming of sorts for SDSU, as 10 of the 14 players on the Aztec roster come from a 35-mile radius of Long Beach.

Game 7

San Diego State 60, Hawai'i 49
Dec. 14, 2002 • San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 6,138

SAN DIEGO - Behind a stifling defensive effort that held Hawai'i to its lowest point total in three seasons, San Diego State defeated the visiting Rainbow Warriors for the second straight season, 60-49, at Cox Arena. In the battle of 2002 NCAA Tournament teams, SDSU (4-3) limited the two-time defending WAC champions to 34.0 percent shooting while holding three Hawai'i starters scoreless.

Hawai'i (2-1), which has rung up an impressive 29-7 record over the past two seasons, has suffered losses in back-to-back seasons at the hands of the Aztecs. The Rainbow Warriors were held below 50 points for the first time since a 53-49 loss to Bowling Green on Nov. 21, 1999, while the Aztecs held a Division I opponent other than Air Force below 50 points for the first time since an 80-47 win over CSU Northridge on Jan. 30, 1996.

Senior guard Tony Bland scored a game-high 19 points on season-best 6-of-8 shooting, registering double-figure points for the 36th time in 40 games as an Aztec. However, Bland's best effort in the game may have come on the defensive end, as he helped harrass preseason Wooden Award candidate Carl English into 4-of-15 shooting, five turnovers and only four points after halftime.

The game was tied at 22 at halftime, as both teams struggled to under-35 percent shooting. The Aztecs scored 10 of the first 15 points in the second half, but the Rainbow Warriors fought back to take a 33-32 lead on Nkeruwem Akpan's jumper with 13 minutes, 26 seconds remaining.

The game was tied at 36 with 11:18 left before sophomore Tommy Johnson, who earned his first career start, converted a layup and the Aztecs forced three consecutive Hawai'i turnovers to spark a game-breaking 13-4 run. SDSU, which shot 60 percent from the floor in the second half, registered an equally impressive 11-for-15 from the free-throw line over the last 4:31 to seal the 60-49 win.

Senior center Mike Mackell scored 15 points, hitting that mark now in all seven games this season. Junior Aerick Sanders grabbed nine rebounds and registered a career-high three assists.

English led the Rainbow Warriors with 16 points, while Phil Martin added 14 points.

NOTES OF THE GAME: With the win, San Diego State improved to 4-3, equalling the Aztecs' best start since the 1996-97 squad started 5-2... The 4-3 mark also equals last season's NCAA tournament squad out of the gate... The Aztecs matched their season-low with 12 turnovers while forcing a season-high 21 miscues... Sophomore guard Travis Hanour played his first game for SDSU, entering with 10 minutes, 30 seconds remaining in the first half... The transfer from Arizona connected on his first basket, a jumper from the left baseline, at the 8:09 mark

Game 8

San Diego State 71, Houston 61
Dec. 21, 2002 • Houston, Texas
Hofheinz Pavilion • Att.: 3,444

HOUSTON - Mike Mackell and Aerick Sanders recorded career highs as San Diego State rallied from an eight-point deficit to defeat Houston, 71-61, on Dec. 21 at the Hofheinz Pavilion.

The Cougars led 42-38 with 15:23 to play, but a 20-3 Aztec run put San Diego State on top to stay. The Aztecs led the final 13:09 of the contest.

Trailing by two points at the half, the Aztecs completely dominated the second 20 minutes of play, connecting on 15-of-27 field goal attempts (55.6 percent) and out-rebounding the Cougars 22-12 after intermission.

Mackell, the Aztec senior center, scored a career high 22 points on the strength of 9-of-13 field goals. Sanders, a junior forward, tied a career high with 12 points and added career bests with 14 rebounds and four assists.

Deandre Moore added 10 points for the Aztecs while Tony Bland, scored seven points and added a game-high six assists. The Senior guard now has 998 points in his career.

Houston was paced by Louis Truscott who posted team-highs with 16 points and 12 rebounds.

NOTES OF THE GAME: San Diego State improves to 5-3 overall and has won three straight games and five of its last six. SDSU plays its next five games at home where the Aztecs have posted a 14-5 record since the beginning of last season... San Diego State has won three of its first four road games in a season for the first time since the 1984-85 campaign when SDSU opened the season with victories in its first four road games. This is the first time in 18 seasons that SDSU won at least three of its first four road games of the season.

Game 9

San Diego State 91, Florida Atlantic 76
Dec. 28, 2002 • San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 5,566

SAN DIEGO - Evan Burns produced the breakout game of his young collegiate career, scoring a game-high 21 points, and Mike Mackell added 20 as the Aztecs ran their win streak to four straight with a 91-75 win over Florida Atlantic at Cox Arena.

In matching its best start in six seasons at 6-3, SDSU scored its most points since a 93-78 upset of No. 21/16 Fresno State last season. The Aztecs, playing the first contest of a five-game homestand, also reeled off 51 first-half points, the most since 57 points in the first half of a win over UC San Diego last season.

Burns matched his previous high of 10 points with 10 minutes, 54 seconds remaining in the first half. Despite playing only 18 minutes, the freshman forward became the only current Aztec to produce a 20-point game in his freshman season.

Mackell scored 16 of his 20 points in the first half, including a three-point play with 11:34 left in the first stanza that gave the Aztecs the lead for good against their fellow 2002 NCAA Tournament opponent.

SDSU controlled the up-and-down game with its defensive pressure, forcing the Owls into almost as many turnovers (26) as made field goals (27). The Aztecs also held a 20-attempt advantage at the free throw line, converting 24-of-39 to FAU's 13-of-19.

Senior Tony Bland scored his 1,000th career point by connecting on his first shot of the game. He finished with nine points, giving him a career total of 1,007, and also dished out a season-best eight assists.

Chris Thomas led the Owls with 19 points.

NOTES OF THE GAME: With the season-best 91-point outburst, three Aztecs set career scoring marks. In addition to Burns' career-high 21 points, sophomore Travis Hanour set his SDSU high and matched his career high with 11 points and freshman John Sharper produced a personal-best eight points... Junior Aerick Sanders grabbed 11 rebounds for the fifth time in six games... Sanders' effort on the boards allowed the Aztecs to out-rebound or match their opponent on the boards for the eighth time in nine games this season.

Game 10

San Diego State 74, IPFW 58
Dec. 30, 2002 • San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 5,094

SAN DIEGO - The Aztecs ran out to a 10-0 lead and led by as many as 29 points in cruising to a 74-58 victory over IPFW at Cox Arena.

SDSU ran its season-best winning streak to five games in improving to 7-3, equaling its best record after 10 games in the last six seasons. In posting a five-game victory streak for the third straight season, the Aztecs closed the month of December with a 6-1 record for their best record in the holiday month since the 1996-97 squad racked up an identical record.

The Aztecs left little doubt about the outcome early, scoring the first 10 points of the game on layups and follow-up shots. After the Mastodons' first basket, the Aztecs followed with a 15-2 run sparked by three-pointers from three different players. All five SDSU starters had scored by the first media timeout and nine different Aztecs entered the scoring column by the second media break.

The Aztecs put up 45 points in the first half, their third-most prolific scoring first period of the season, despite having only two players (Tony Bland and Evan Burns) with as many as seven points. The 24-point lead at the half (45-21) was the Aztecs' largest of the season. At the same time, SDSU set a season-low for points allowed in a half by holding the Mastodons to just 21 first-half points thanks to 14 forced turnovers.

After leading by 29 at one point in the first half, the Aztecs built their second-half lead to as many as 28 points before settling for the 16-point margin, SDSU's largest win over a Division I opponent this season. When junior walk-on guard Ben Wardrop scored his second career basket on a three-pointer with 34 seconds remaining, 12 of the 13 Aztecs who appeared in the game had broken into the scoring ledger.

Mike Mackell was held below 15 points for the first time this season, but he still scored in double-figures for the 12th straight time in an Aztec uniform with a team-high 11. Evan Burns added 10 points, while Tommy Johnson and Aerick Sanders each grabbed a team-high seven rebounds.

Jim Kessenich led IPFW with 13 points.

NOTES OF THE GAME: SDSU improved to 16-5 at Cox Arena since the beginning of last season and has won 17 of its last 19 home games against non-conference competition... Tommy Johnson (seven rebounds) and Travis Hanour (five rebounds) had career-best nights on the boards as the Aztecs owned a 41-30 advantage on the glass.

Game 11

San Diego State 79, Loyola Marymount 69 Jan. 3, 2003 • San Diego, Calif. Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 5,269

SAN DIEGO - Senior guard Tony Bland scored an Aztec season-high 29 points as San Diego State overcame a seven-point second-half deficit to win its sixth straight, 79-69, over Loyola Marymount at Cox Arena.

The win, coming in head coach Steve Fisher's 100th game at the helm of the Aztec program, extends SDSU's victory streak to six straight and matches the squad's best run since the 2000-01 season. At 8-3, the Aztecs have equaled their best start since the 1996-97 campaign.

Bland, who had been held to single-digit scoring in the three previous games for the first time in his Aztec career, connected on four of his first five shots and hit his first two free throws to reach the 10-point mark with 12 minutes, 42 seconds remaining in the first half. He hit a pair of free throws with 2:01 left in the first period to reach his previous season high of 21 points. The senior from Los Angeles was the only Aztec with more than four points at intermission.

Bland's offensive prowess kept SDSU in the game, as a 15-point first-half performance by Keith Kincade had propelled the Lions to a 39-35 halftime lead.

The Aztecs trailed by as many as seven points in the second half, but senior center Mike Mackell, who was held scoreless in the first half, tallied 13 points after intermission as the Aztecs mounted their comeback.

With the visitors ahead by three, 60-57, with 8:55 left, freshman Evan Burns, who registered his first career double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds, hit a jumper to pull the Aztecs within one. Following a Kincade turnover, Mackell converted a layup to give the Aztecs the lead for good, 61-60. SDSU then closed out the game by hitting its free throws on a 25-11 run to earn its third victory of the season after trailing at the half.

Junior forward Aerick Sanders scored in double-digits for the fourth time in his career with 10 points and grabbed nine rebounds.

Kincade led the Lions with 22 points on 8-of-12 shooting and a perfect 5-for-5 effort from the line.

NOTES OF THE GAME: SDSU closed out the Lions with its proficiency from the free-throw line, shooting a season-best 83.3 percent on 25-of-30 shooting from the charity stripe... Freshman guard Steve Sir hit both of his free throws, his first attempts since the second game of the season against Portland Nov. 27, and is a perfect 9-for-9 from the line this year... Junior guard Ben Wardrop, whose brother Wes scored five points in 17 minutes for LMU, entered the game with 13.5 seconds remaining and converted his third career basket, a layup with half a second left, to finalize the score at 79-69.

Game 12

No. 23/21 Texas Tech 75, San Diego State 63 Jan. 6, 2003 • San Diego, Calif. Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - No. 23/21 Texas Tech held the Aztecs scoreless over the first six minutes, three seconds of the second half and broke open a four-point halftime lead with a 10-0 run en route to snapping San Diego State's six-game win streak with a 75-63 win on Big Monday at sold-out Cox Arena.

The Aztecs had their longest win streak since the 2000-01 team also won six straight ended before a capacity crowd of 12,414, SDSU's second second sellout this season and in the six-year history of Cox Arena.

The Red Raiders used an 11-0 free-throw advantage, thanks to 12 first-half fouls whistled against SDSU opposed to six for Texas Tech, to offset the Aztecs' 6-of-13 three-point shooting in the first half in taking a 42-38 halftime lead. Kasib Powell picked up the Red Raiders' scoring slack for teammate Andre Emmett, who was held in check in the first half by the Aztecs with only four points, and scored 19 of his 22 points in the first 20 minutes.

After being down eight points with three minutes, 14 seconds left in the first half, SDSU pulled within one point with just under two minutes left and thanks to six straight points by Tony Bland, the Aztecs closed out the period by outscoring Texas Tech 13-9. However, the Red Raiders forced seven turnovers in their game-breaking and second-half opening 10-0 run and then never let SDSU come within 10 points the rest of the way to close out their fifth straight win.

In shooting a perfect 8-of-8 while propelling Texas Tech to a 16-2 point advantage from the free-throw line, Nick Valdez scored a career-high 21 points and grabbed nine rebounds. He also had four of Texas Tech's 16 steals as the Red Raiders harassed the Aztecs into a season-worst 24 turnovers.

Bland sank six of his last nine shots while producing a team-high 13 points. Mike Mackell added 11 points, reaching that scoring mark for the 12th straight time this season.

NOTES OF THE GAME: SDSU coach Steve Fisher and Texas Tech coach Bob Knight, former Big Ten rivals at Michigan and Indiana, respectively, met for the 18th time with Knight improving to 12-6... The Aztecs lost for the first time in six outings when Aerick Sanders, Mackell, Tommy Johnson, Bland and Deandre Moore made up the starting lineup... The Aztecs were out-rebounded for only the second time this season, 36-31.

Game 13

San Diego State 78, San Diego 72 Jan. 8, 2003 • San Diego, Calif. Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 8,078

SAN DIEGO - The 2002-03 edition of the city showdown went to San Diego State, which jumped out to a 17-point lead and held on down the stretch to defeat San Diego, 78-72.

In winning their ninth straight game over unranked opponents in a season for the first time since moving to Division I prior to the 1970-71 season, the Aztecs snapped a four-game losing streak against their crosstown rival. SDSU caps off the non-conference season with a victory for the third straight season and improves to 9-4 against non-MWC opponents, a record that keeps pace with the start of last season's NCAA Tournament team after 13 games.

The Toreros jumped out to an 8-2 lead after the first two minutes, 32 seconds, but the Aztecs ran off the next nine points to take a lead they would never relinquish. And despite going without a field goal for a 7:41 stretch of the first half, the Aztecs held on to their seven-point lead as they forced USD into 26.7 percent shooting (8-of-30) in the first half.

The lead was cut to four before SDSU went on a 21-8 run over a 5:42 span early in the second half to take a 17-point lead. The Aztecs converted five three-pointers over that stretch, including three in a little over three minutes by Steve Sir, to take command.

USD trailed by 10 with a just over one minute left and whittled SDSU's lead down to four over the next 34 seconds, but the Toreros could not get another shot off and suffered their fourth straight loss.

On the strength of combined 10-of-12 shooting from the frontcourt tandem of Aerick Sanders and Mike Mackell, the Aztecs shot a season-best 49.1 percent (26-of-53) from the floor. Conversely, SDSU harassed USD into a season-low 22 first-half points in holding their sixth opponent to sub-40 percent shooting.

Tony Bland led the Aztecs with 17 points and eight assists, while Mike Mackell added 15. Aerick Sanders scored in double-digits for the fifth time in his career with 11 points, while Evan Burns came off the bench to tally nine points and seven rebounds in a career-high 26 minutes.

Roy Morris led the Toreros with 22 points on 8-of-11 field goals. Subtract Morris from the box score and the Aztecs would have held USD to 16-of-50 shooting (32 percent).

NOTES OF THE GAME: SDSU recovered from a five-rebound deficit at the half to out-rebound its opponent, 38-37, for the 10th time in 13 games this season... Travis Hanour made his first career start and pulled down a career-high six rebounds in 20 minutes... Chris Manker made his first SDSU start and registered three three-pointers... The game was the 100th of senior Deandre Moore's career.

Game 14

San Diego State 63, Air Force 48 Jan. 11, 2003 • Colorado Springs, Colo. Clune Arena • Att.: 3,131

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. - Freshman Evan Burns came off the bench to score a game-high 14 points as the Aztecs opened Mountain West Conference play with a 63-48 victory over Air Force at Clune Arena.

In winning the finale of a six game, 15-days stretch, SDSU extended its longest road winning streak since 1985-86 to four games and won its school-record 10th straight over an unranked opponent. Head coach Steve Fisher earned his 50th victory at San Diego State and 100th conference victory in his career as the Aztecs snapped a five-game losing streak in conference openers and began league play with a road victory for the first time since the 1984-85 season.

The Falcons jumped out to a 12-7 lead at 13 minutes, 31 seconds in the first half, but when Burns entered the game, the momentum swung to the side of the Aztecs. The Inglewood, Calif., native, playing in his first MWC game, scored the next eight points and Mike Mackell added a layup and Deandre Moore a three-pointer as SDSU took a 20-12 lead.

Air Force followed with a 13-4 run of its own to regain the lead at 25-24, but the Aztecs outscored the Falcons 10-4 the rest of the way to take a 34-29 halftime lead. After the first 5:50 of the second half, the Falcons never came closer than six points the rest of the way as the Aztecs held the nation's fifth-ranked three-point attack to 1-of-12 second-half shooting from behind the arc and 38.5 percent field goals for the game.

Senior guards Moore and Tony Bland led the way as the Aztecs shot a season-best 57.5 percent from the field, including 45.5 percent (5-of-11) from three-point range, and hit all 12 free throws. Moore tallied 11 points, a career-high eight rebounds, four assists, three steals and no turnovers in 36 minutes, while Bland added 11 points, five rebounds and three assists.

Mackell scored 10 points and Burns grabbed five rebounds to go along with his 14 points on 6-of-7 shooting.

Tim Keller led the Falcons with 13 points.

NOTES OF THE GAME: SDSU has won six of its last seven conference games and nine-of-10 overall against MWC opponents (counting the 2002 MWC Tournament)... The Aztecs owned a 29-13 rebound advantage and registered their season-low for points allowed (48)... Steve Sir has registered multiple three-pointers in the last three games and made 7-of-14 from three-point range.

Game 15

San Diego State 58, Utah 56
Jan. 18, 2003 • San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 7,102

SAN DIEGO - The Aztecs utilized an 18-4 second-half run as well as clutch free-throw shooting and baskets from Tony Bland and Mike Mackell in the waning minutes to hold on for a 58-56 victory over Utah at Cox Arena.

The victory enabled San Diego State (11-4 overall, 2-0 Mountain West) to become the first MWC team to two conference wins this season, giving the Aztecs their first 2-0 start in league play since the 1995-96 season. The Aztecs ended eight seasons of futility and a 14-game losing streak to Utah (12-4/0-1 MWC) in the process of earning their school-record 11th straight victory over unranked opponents.

Utah had opened up a six-point lead, its largest margin of the game, with 16 minutes, five seconds remaining in the second half. The Aztecs then went on their game-breaking run over a 7:01 span, receiving six points from Mackell and five each from Deandre Moore and Evan Burns in the run to take a 49-41 lead with 6:27 left.

Utah responded with a 9-1 run on points by four different players to knot the game at 50. The Aztecs then called timeout and on the ensuing possession, Tony Bland hit a running jumper to put the Aztecs up by two.

After a Britton Johnsen free throw cut it to one, Mackell tipped in an Aztec miss to put the Aztecs up 54-51. Marc Jackson hit one free throw to bring the Utes within 54-52 before Travis Hanour connected on a pair of free throws to give the Aztecs a four-point lead with 1:21 left.

A Nick Jacobson layup and an Aztec turnover gave the Utes the ball down by two points with 27 seconds remaining, but Johnsen's three-pointer rimmed out and SDSU's Aerick Sanders grabbed the rebound and made both free throws to give the Aztecs a four-point lead with six seconds left. Tim Frost's follow shot at the buzzer finalized the score at 58-56.

SDSU has now won 7-of-8 conference games and 10 of its last 11 games against conference opponents (counting the 2002 MWC Tournament).

Mackell and Bland, who helped hold Utah leading scorer Nick Jacobson (12.9 ppg) to 4-of-16 shooting, led the Aztecs with 13 points each. Moore and Hanour each recorded career-high rebounding totals of nine and seven, respectively.

Johnsen scored a game-high 16 points and Frost added 15 for the Utes.

NOTES OF THE GAME: The 56 points allowed were the Aztecs fifth-fewest given up to a MWC opponent... SDSU is 19-6 (76 percent) over its last 25 games, with three losses coming to nationally ranked opponents.... The Aztecs won the rebound battle, 38-30, out-rebounding their opponent for the 12th time in the last 14 games.

Game 16

Brigham Young 80, San Diego State 69
Jan. 20, 2003 • San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 8,497

SAN DIEGO - BYU opened the game with a three-point barrage, connecting on its first seven attempts from beyond the arc, to claim the MWC's second conference road victory of the season 80-69 over San Diego State at Cox Arena. Brigham Young (13-4 overall/2-0 MWC) finished with 10 three-pointers, including five by Mark Bigelow, to hand SDSU (11-5/2-1) its first conference loss of the season.

The Aztecs had a four-game regular-season conference winning streak snapped and a Division I school-record 11-game win streak over non-ranked opponents ended. Despite the loss, SDSU is off to its best start in six seasons going back to the 1996-97 team which also won 11 of its first 16 and started 2-1 in league play.

BYU shot a season-high 48.9 percent by an Aztec opponent this season, propelled by an 11-for-16 start from the floor in running out to a 30-11 lead with 9 minutes, 28 seconds remaining. Of the Cougars seven three-pointers during the stretch, Terry Nashif, who entered the game with a total of five three-point field goals in averaging 2.7 points per game, had three en route to a career-high 11-point night.

Sparked by 12- and 11-point first-half efforts from seniors Tony Bland and Mike Mackell, respectively, SDSU scored the next seven points and had cut the Cougars lead to 41-31 at half-time.

The Aztecs continued to chip away at the lead, whittling the margin to six points on a Steve Sir (six points) three-pointer with 15:16 left and seven on two other occasions, but Travis Hansen scored eight of his 14 points over the last nine minutes and the Cougars hit 18-of-20 free throws down the stretch to close out the victory.

Bland scored a game-high 25 points, his second 20-plus point performance of the season, while Mackell finished with 18. Junior Aerick Sanders grabbed 11 rebounds as the Aztecs matched or out-rebounded the opponent for the 14th time in 16 games.

Bigelow led the victors with 21 points, while

Hansen scored 12 of his 14 points in the second half.

NOTES OF THE GAME: Despite the loss, SDSU has still won 10 of its last 12 games against MWC teams, including 7-of-9 league games and three straight in the 2002 MWC tournament... The Aztecs had their longest January win streak (three games) in 18 years ended... The crowd of 8,497 was the fifth-largest in Cox Arena history.

Game 17

New Mexico 66, San Diego State 62 Jan. 25, 2003 • Albuquerque, N.M. The Pit/Bob King Court • Att.: 15,003

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - New Mexico thwarted a late Aztec rally and used significant advantages from the free-throw line and three-point range to send San Diego State to its second straight conference loss, 66-62, at The Pit/Bob King Court.

SDSU (11-6/2-2 MWC) suffered its second consecutive MWC loss after winning seven of its last eight conference games and 9-of-10 games overall. It was also the second straight loss to an unranked team after an NCAA Division I school-record 11-game win streak over nonranked foes. The loss snapped a four-game road winning streak, the second-longest such streak in the Aztecs' Div. I era.

The Lobos (7-9 overall/1-2 MWC) outscored the Aztecs 19-4 from the free-throw line and 27-12 from behind the arc, large margins that helped withstand SDSU's 55.1 percent shooting and 16-4 run going into the waning moments of the game. After leading 37-30 at halftime, New Mexico had built a 59-46 margin with 8 minutes, 56 seconds remaining on one of Javin Tindall's career-high five three-pointers.

The Aztecs then responded with 10 straight points over the next four-plus minutes, highlighted by four Tony Bland points and three-pointers from Steve Sir and Evan Burns.

Another Tindall three-pointer put the Lobos up 63-58, but Mike Mackell scored the game's next four points to get the Aztecs within one at 63-62 with 46 seconds remaining, the closest SDSU had been since midway through the first half.

The Aztecs regained possession and had a chance to take the lead, but Mackell's pass from the right side went through Burns' hands on the left baseline and out of bounds. New Mexico then iced the game on a Mark Walters break-away lay-up and Walters' steal of the subsequent full-court inbounds pass and free throw.

Bland led the Aztecs in scoring for the third straight game and 10th time this season with 14 points. Mackell and Aerick Sanders each scored 10 points, while Deandre Moore and Burns, in 15 second-half minutes, both added seven.

Ruben Douglas, the NCAA's fourth-leading scorer at 25.7 points per game, totaled a game-high 21 points but was held below his average and harassed into 4-of-17 shooting thanks to an SDSU defensive effort led by Bland. Douglas picked up nearly half of his points at the free-throw line, where he went 10-of-10 as part of the Lobos' 19-for-24 effort from the charity stripe. Tindall (17 points) and Williams (13) were the Lobos' other double-digit scorers.

NOTES OF THE GAME: SDSU lost despite shooting better than 50 percent (55.1 percent) for the second time this season... The Aztecs were out-rebounded (24-25) for only the third time in 2002-03... UNM was whistled for only 12 fouls compared to SDSU's 21.

Game 18

Colorado State 72, San Diego State 69 Feb. 1, 2003 • San Diego, Calif. Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 8,554

SAN DIEGO - Colorado State survived 16 lead changes, four ties and a late San Diego State attempt to send the game to overtime in handing the Aztecs their third straight loss, 72-69, at Cox Arena. Sophomore center Matt Nelson came off the bench to score a game-high 21 points and freshman guard Micheal Morris added 11 points, six rebounds and five blocks as the Rams (14-5 overall/3-1 MWC) earned their first road victory of the season.

The Aztecs (11-7/2-3 MWC) dropped their third straight conference game after starting 2-0 in the MWC and winning 11-of-12 against league foes. SDSU had its three-game winning streak over Colorado State snapped, the Aztecs' longest win streak ever against a MWC opponent.

Colorado State came out firing, hitting a pair of early three-pointers, and held the lead for most of the first half. SDSU went through a stretch of more than four-and-a-half minutes without a field goal and missed the front ends of three consecutive one-and-one free-throw opportunities, propelling CSU to take an 11-point lead at one point and end up carrying a 37-31 lead into halftime.

The second half was a much different story, as the Aztecs used a 28-15 rebound advantage over the second 20 minutes, including 16-4 on the offensive glass, and 15 second-half points from Mike Mackell (after being held scoreless in the first half) to make their run. From the 14:36 mark and over the next seven minutes, the margin was never wider than two points as the teams traded baskets eight times.

Nelson's score with 8:23 remaining gave the Rams the lead for good, but it was tenuous at best in the waning moments. Ram free throws put CSU up five at two different times in the final minute, but Tony Bland answered the first time with a pair of free throws and the second time on a layup.

Following a timeout, CSU turned the ball over on the ensuing inbounds pass, but Deandre Moore's potential game-tying three-pointer was blocked. Time ran out on the clock and the Aztecs before they could grab the ball for another shot.

SDSU out-rebounded the conference's top rebounding team (+8.7 margin) 40-30, including 22-9 on the offensive glass. The Aztecs reeled off 17 more shot attempts than the Rams (69-52) but registered only two more field goals (27-25) as CSU blocked 11 shots and used an 18-9 made-free throw advantage to gain the win.

Bland led the Aztecs with 19 points, while junior Aerick Sanders grabbed 10 rebounds. Despite suffering from the flu Moore added 11 points and a team MWC-game record seven steals in 21 minutes.

NOTE OF THE GAME: SDSU lost for the first time this season when committing fewer turnovers than its opponent (12 to the Rams' 15) and is now 6-1 in such instances.

Game 19

San Diego State 80, Wyoming 70 Feb. 3, 2003 • San Diego, Calif. Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 6,184

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State led for all but the first 77 seconds of the contest en route to a 80-70 victory over Wyoming on Big Monday at Cox Arena. The Aztecs snapped a three-game losing streak and defeated the first-place Cowboys behind a balanced scoring effort of four players in double-figures and a plus-16 advantage on the boards over the NCAA's 14th-best rebounding team.

Of Wyoming's last three losses to Mountain West teams, three have come at the hands of the Aztecs, who won their third straight in the series. At 3-3 in the MWC and 12-7 overall, SDSU earned its best-ever Mountain West start after six games and its best overall beginning after 19 games since the 1984-85 NCAA Tournament-bound Aztecs began 15-4.

Wyoming (16-4 overall, 4-1 MWC) trailed from the 18:43 mark of the first half on en route to only its second loss in its last 15 games. SDSU utilized a 14-2 run early in the first half and held a lead of 11 points once and margins of 10 points at five different times before Uche Nsonwu-Amadi's 6-for-6 shooting had the Cowboys back in it at 41-39 by halftime.

The teams battled back-and-forth for the first six minutes of the second half with the Cowboys coming within two points on four occasions. However, a 17-4 Aztec run sparked by six Mike Mackell points and capped by an Evan Burns three-pointer as he recovered a loose ball and faded out-of-bounds with the shot clock expiring gave the Aztecs their largest lead at 69-53.

A 13-2 run brought the Cowboys within 71-66 at 1:34, but the Aztecs converted 7-of-10 free throws (including 6-for-6 by Burns) to claim a 10-point victory, their second-largest margin ever against Wyoming.

With a 39-23 rebound advantage including 23-13 in the second half and a 14-6 edge on the offensive glass, SDSU out-rebounded its opponent for the 14th time in 18 games. The Aztecs also set a season-low for turnovers in MWC play with 11 as they won for only the fourth time in the Steve Fisher era when the opposition shot 50 percent from the field.

Senior Tony Bland led the Aztecs in scoring (18 points) and shot better than 50 percent from the field for the fifth straight game. Mackell added 17 points as did Burns, who also recorded eight rebounds and career-highs in assists (five) and minutes (29) in his first collegiate start. Junior Aerick Sanders registered career-best figures of 14 points and 14 rebounds, the Aztecs' highest-ever rebound total by an individual in MWC play.

Nsonwu-Amadi and David Rottinghaus led the Cowboys with 14 points despite each being held to just two second-half points. Donta Richardson, who came into the night averaging 20.1 points over his last 10 games, was harassed into 2-of-11 shooting and seven points by an Aztec defensive effort headed by Bland.

NOTES OF THE GAME: In its past two games, SDSU out-rebounded the MWC's top two rebounding teams (and two of the NCAA's top 14) by a combined margin of 79-53... The 13 made free throws, seven of which came in the final 1:09, matched SDSU's total free-throw makes from past two games... The Aztecs' three-game win streak over the Cowboys matches their longest against a MWC opponent since the league's inception.

Game 20

UNLV 79, San Diego State 64 Feb. 11, 2003 • San Diego, Calif. Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 7,575

SAN DIEGO - UNLV became the first Aztec opponent to shoot better than 50 percent from the field en route to a 79-64 win over San Diego State at Cox Arena. The Rebels' win put UNLV and SDSU into a three-way tie for fourth place along with Colorado State to finish the first half of the conference season.

A game after turning the ball over 34 times in a blowout loss to USC, the Runnin' Rebels took care of the ball (14 turnovers) and performed efficiently on the offensive end, shooting 52.8 percent. The Rebels hit 8-of-13 three-pointers to negate SDSU's 32 points in the paint and 20 offensive rebounds.

UNLV never trailed in the game in jumping out to an 11-3 lead. The Aztecs pulled to within 20-18 on a Mike Mackell jumper, but UNLV outscored SDSU 23-9 the rest of the way to take a 43-27 halftime lead.

Tony Bland shot 6-of-12 field goals and had 13 points in the first half compared to the rest of the Aztecs' 6-of-23 shooting and 14 points.

SDSU played much better for the first 12 minutes of the second half and cut the lead to 60-55 on a Bland layup with 8 minutes, 24 seconds remaining. However, Jermaine Lewis came back with one of his seven three-pointers and after Mackell missed a breakaway dunk, the Rebels embarked on a game-breaking 15-2 run and ended up with the 79-64 win.

Lewis ended up with a game-high 24 points while Marcus Banks added 21. Mackell matched his career-high with 22 and Bland had 11, as the duo combined for 19-of-34 shooting and 43 points while the rest of the SDSU roster shot 7-for-29 and had 21 points.

NOTES OF THE GAME: Despite the loss, SDSU still has its best-ever Mountain West start at 3-4 after seven games... The game's 15-point margin was four points more than the combined total margin of last season's three games which were decided by a total of 11 points with two of the three going to overtime... Nine of junior Aerick Sanders' 11 rebounds came on the offensive end and he has provided the Aztecs 20 extra offensive chances in the last three games.

Game 21

Utah 76, San Diego State 62
Feb. 15, 2003 • Salt Lake City, Utah
Huntsman Center • Att.: 11,762

SALT LAKE CITY - Utah opened the second half with a 15-4 run en route to a 76-62 victory at the Huntsman Center. It was the 21st consecutive victory for the Utes over the Aztecs in Salt Lake City.

The Utes, which led 31-28 at intermission, shot 60 percent from the floor in the second stanza, and led by as many as 19 points.

In the first half, San Diego State used a spirited defensive effort in a game that was tied four times and featured nine lead changes in the first 20 minutes.

Mike Mackell capped a 7-0 Aztec run in the first half with a free throw to put San Diego State up 22-17 with 9:15 remaining in the first half. The Utes responded with a 10-2 spurt, and led by three at the break.

Utah took control early in the second half, scoring the first seven points in a 12-2 run. The Utes built the advantage to 19 points, before a 15-4 Aztec run cut the Utah advantage to eight points with 3:35 to play.

Utah became the third straight Aztec opponent to shoot 50 percent or better from the field. In addition, thyme Utes limited the Aztecs to 38.1 percent from the field.

Utah placed four players in double figures led by Britton Johnsen's 21 points. Marc Jackson added 17 points off the bench.

San Diego State was paced by Tony Bland with 16 points. Mike Mackell added 13 points and a team-high six rebounds, while Deandre Moore added 10 points, all in the second half.

NOTES OF THE GAME: Despite the loss, SDSU still has its best-ever Mountain West start at 3-5 after eight games... Travis Hanour made his sixth career start and first since the Colorado State game on Feb. 1... San Diego State enjoyed a 39-33 rebound advantage, marking the fourth straight game and the 17th time in 21 games this season SDSU has had the edge on the boards.

Game 22

Brigham Young 66, San Diego State 64
Feb. 17, 2003 • Provo, Utah
Marriott Center • Att.: 10,665

PROVO, Utah - San Diego State held Brigham Young to two field goals in the final 9:30 of the game but it was not enough as the Cougars completed a sweep of the season series with a 66-64 victory at the Marriott Center.

The Aztecs had two shots in the final 10.5 seconds but Deandre Moore missed a three-point field goal and Mike Mackell's follow shot was blocked to secure the Cougar victory. The victory was the 47th in the last 48 games for Brigham Young, which recorded their second smallest home victory during that streak.

San Diego State opened the game up quickly. Moore and fellow guard Tony Bland scored five points apiece in the Aztecs' 15-5 run to open the game. The Aztecs led 28-23 with 7:25 to play in the first half when Brigham Young scored the next 12 points to build a seven-point advantage. The Aztecs chipped away at the lead and trailed by four at intermission.

The Cougars pushed the lead to double figures and led by 14 points, 58-44 with 10:37 remaining. San Diego State would hold Brigham Young to three field goals and just eight points the rest of the way.

San Diego State responded to their biggest deficit of the game with an 18-5 run. Evan Burns connected on an acrobatic lay-up out of transition and followed that up with a long jumper to cut the lead to 63-58. The Aztecs converted on four straight free throws - two by Aerick Sanders and two by Burns - to pull within 63-62 with 1:33 to play.

Brigham Young responded with a three-point field goal from Travis Hansen to push the lead back to four points with 1:33 to play.

A put back off an offensive rebound by Sanders with 38 seconds and a defensive stop by the Aztecs gave San Diego State the ball with 10.5 seconds to play.

Bland brought the ball up and gave the ball to Moore off a brush screen for a three-point attempt from the right side. It missed but Mackell got the offensive rebound and attempted a short fade away that was blocked as time expired.

Travis Hansen led the Cougars with 19 points and eight rebounds. Mark Bigelow added 16 points.

Moore's season-tying high 16 points on the strength of four three-point field goals paced San Diego State. Mackell added 14 points and Sanders contributed 10. Bland had seven points, seven rebounds and four assists.

NOTES OF THE GAME: Brigham Young defeated San Diego State in Provo for the fifth straight time; however the Cougars average margin of victory in the previous four games was 18.5 points... Deandre Moore tied a season-high with 16 points... The Aztecs made more free throws (15-9) than their opponent for the first time since winning at Air Force on Jan. 11... The Aztecs enjoyed a rebound advantage (33-28) for the fifth straight game and the 18th time in 22 games this season... Travis Hanour, who was questionable for the game because of a sprained ankle suffered in the Utah game, played 10 minutes and collected four rebounds... The Aztecs held Brigham Young to 38.5 percent shooting in the second half... Bland's string of double-digit scoring games was halted at 11, but the senior had his highest rebound total since pulling down eight boards at Portland on Nov. 27... Mackell reached double figures for the 24th straight contest... Sanders scored 10+ points for the sixth time this season.

Game 23

San Diego State 67, Air Force 53
Feb. 22, 2003 • San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 6,950

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State shredded the NCAA's top scoring defense with a season-best 61.4 percent shooting performance and snapped a three-game losing skid with a 67-53 win over Air Force at Cox Arena. The Aztecs completed the season series sweep of the Falcons behind a 28-point performance from Tony Bland while making 27-of-44 field goal attempts for the highest percentage yielded by Air Force this season.

Mike Mackell chipped in 16 points as SDSU gained its third straight win over the Academy and improved to 7-0 this year when holding the opposition to fewer than 60 points. The Aztecs have won nine of the last 10 meetings between the schools in San Diego and is now 35-13 all-time against Air Force.

The teams traded the lead 10 times and were tied on seven other occasions as the Falcons hit 8-of-10 three-pointers and the Aztecs shot the ball at a 66.7 percent clip in the first half. Neither team led by more than three points over the first 17 minutes, 18 seconds until the Aztecs went on an 8-0 run of five straight Bland points and capped by a Steve Sir three-pointer en route to taking a 39-32 lead.

SDSU maintained at least a seven-point lead the rest of the way as the Aztecs never yielded back-to-back baskets to the Falcons in the second half. Air Force cut the lead to 55-48 with 6:19 left, but the Aztecs responded with a 12-2 run highlighted by an alley-oop dunk from Trimaime Davis.

The Aztecs forced the Falcons into a season-worst 20 turnovers, the most by an SDSU conference opponent this season. The 14-point win was SDSU's fourth-largest margin of victory in Mountain West play.

Bland and Mackell combined for 44 of the Aztecs' 67 points (65.7 percent of SDSU scoring) and shot 18-for-22 (81.8 percent). Bland also had a team-high four assists while Tommy Johnson came off the bench to provide a defensive spark with a career-high three steals.

Joel Gerlach led the Falcons with 15 points, while Tim Keller and Antoine Hood each added 13.

NOTES OF THE GAME: SDSU improves to 5-3 in Mountain West play against Air Force, its best record against a conference opponent... Three of the Aztecs' last five MWC regular-season wins have come against the Falcons... The five three-point attempts was the fewest by the Aztecs in three seasons... Sir had made just two of his last 15 three-point attempts before connecting on both attempts in this game... He snapped a personal streak of three straight scoreless games... Bland's 28 points (on 11-for-13 shooting) was second-most by an Aztec in a MWC game.

Game 24

San Diego State 89, New Mexico 73
Feb. 24, 2003 • San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 6,117

SAN DIEGO - With the spotlight aimed on the Aztecs' three seniors in their final home game, it was a freshman who shined the brightest in San Diego State's 89-73 win over New Mexico at the season's last game Cox Arena. Frosh Evan Burns came off the bench to set career highs with 31 points and 13 rebounds and help negate a career high-tying 43 points from the nation's scoring leader, the Lobos' Ruben Douglas.

Burns's effort led SDSU's reserves to a 50-5 scoring advantage over New Mexico's bench. And not to be out-done in their last appearance at Cox Arena, seniors Tony Bland (21 points), Mike Mackell (12 points) and Deandre Moore (7 assists) helped the Aztecs to their highest point total ever in a Mountain West game and third-largest margin of victory in a MWC contest.

The Aztecs had trouble defending Douglas early, as he scored the Lobos' first 11 points and had 13 as his layup gave UNM a 17-16 lead with 7 minutes, 28 seconds remaining in the first half. However, on the ensuing possession, Burns hit his third straight three-pointer to give the Aztecs the lead they would never relinquish.

Burns had half (18) of the Aztecs' points and shot 7-of-9 in the first half compared to 8-of-24 by the rest of the team as SDSU took a 36-30 lead into the half. But the rest of the team caught up to Burns's hot start by reeling off a 20-8 run to start the second half. After missing his first shot of the second stanza, Bland made seven straight shots to lead the run in scoring 19 of his 21 points in the second half.

The Aztecs led by as many as 18 points on four different occasions in the second half and the Lobos never came closer than nine points the rest of the way. The home crowd, which helped set SDSU's all-time attendance records of 116,536 total fans and 7,284 fans per game, was brought to its feet when Burns blocked Douglas's shot and turned it into a breakaway dunk with 5:31 left and when Ben Wardrop hit a three-pointer with less than a second left that finalized the score at 89-73.

At 55.7 percent field-goal shooting, the Aztecs shot better than 50 percent for the fifth time this season and in back-to-back games for the first time this year. SDSU, which is averaging a school-record +6.2 rebound margin, out-rebounded the Lobos 37-25.

With the win, the senior trio of Bland, Mackell and Moore has helped guide the Aztecs to a 35-22 record since the beginning of the 2001-02 season, including the 2002 MWC Tournament championship and an NCAA Tournament appearance

NOTES OF THE GAME: SDSU avenged a four-point loss to the Lobos in Albuquerque earlier this season and won for the third time in four tries vs. New Mexico... Three of the Aztecs' last 11 Mountain West wins have come against New Mexico... The win keeps the Aztecs on pace with last season's team for the best-ever Mountain West record after 11 games at 5-6... Freshman Steve Sir connected on all three of his three-point attempts and is 5-for-5 over the last two games after going 2-of-15 over his previous six games.

Game 25

San Diego State 86, Wyoming 73 Mar. 1, 2003 • Laramie, Wyo. Arena-Auditorium • Att.: 12,863

LARAMIE, Wyo. - Senior guard Tony Bland scored a team-high 19 points and led four Aztec players in double figures as San Diego State defeated Wyoming 86-73 in Laramie.

The Aztecs led wire-to-wire in picking up their third straight victory overall and claiming SDSU's fourth straight win against the Cowboys.

San Diego State got out of the gate quickly, scoring 15 straight points after the game was tied at two to give the Aztecs a 17-2 lead. After the lead was cut to three points, San Diego State ended the half on a 22-12 spurt to lead 42-29 at intermission.

A 9-0 Wyoming run to open the second half cut its deficit to four points and the Cowboys pulled within 52-50 with 9:58 to play.

But freshman Steve Sir responded with a three-point basket and ignited a 15-6 run that put the Aztecs back in control of the game.

San Diego State shot 52.0 percent from the field, marking the third straight game SDSU has cleared 50.0 percent from the floor. Meanwhile, the Aztecs held Wyoming to 35.8 percent field goal shooting.

Sir came off the bench to score 17 points on the strength of 3-4 shooting from three-point range. Freshman Evan Burns tallied double figures for the second straight game with 12 points and Deandre Moore posted his second career double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds.

NOTES OF THE GAME: San Diego State won its third straight game with the victory at Wyoming on Saturday... It marks the second time in the four-year history of the Mountain West Conference that the Aztecs have won three straight conference games... The three game win streak overall ties the second longest win streak of the season for SDSU (won six straight from Dec. 10-Jan. 3 and won three straight Jan. 8-18)... All three Aztec victories during the streak have been by double digits, making this the first time that SDSU has won three straight conference games by double figures since winning four straight by double figures on Jan. 28, 30, Feb. 4, 6, 1982.... With Saturday's win, the Aztecs have now defeated the Cowboys four consecutive times to close Wyoming's series advantage to 30-22... This marks the first time in the 52-game history of the series that San Diego State has won four straight over Wyoming... The Aztecs now own a 4-19 lifetime record against Wyoming in Laramie. The Aztecs have posted consecutive wins in Arena-Auditorium for the first time in school history. SDSU's wins in Wyoming have occurred in 1985, 1991, 2002 and 2003... This is the first time San Diego State has defeated a conference opponent at least four times in a row since posting seven straight victories over Air Force from Jan. 20, 1996-Feb. 7, 1998 (broken: Jan. 20, 2000)... This marks Wyoming's third loss at home this season. The Aztecs have inflicted two of Wyoming's last four home losses at Arena-Auditorium... San Diego State becomes the first team to win consecutive games at Arena-Auditorium since Colorado State pulled the trick in 1999 and 2000... With their final regular season meeting between the teams complete, Aztec seniors Tony Bland and Mike Mackell end their career with a 2-0 record in Laramie and are currently 4-1 against the Cowboys overall. Senior Deandre Moore owns a 2-1 record in Laramie and is 4-4 against the Cowboys overall... The 14-point margin of victory is the largest ever for SDSU at Wyoming. The previous three wins in Laramie by SDSU were by a combined 19 points... San Diego State has now won five of its last six games in the month of March dating back to last season. Steve Fisher coached teams are 44-22 during the month... San Diego State has now won 24 consecutive games when holding its opponent to 40 percent or less from the floor... San Diego State shot 52.0 percent from the floor marking the third straight game that SDSU has shot 50 percent or better from the floor. That is the first time that SDSU has done that this season... TONY BLAND scored a team-high 19 points while adding three rebounds, three steals and two assists in 39 minutes of action. The senior narrowly missed his third consecutive 20+ scoring game, but did lead the Aztecs in scoring for the 15th time this season and the 24th time in his career. For the week, Bland had 40 points, eight rebounds, five assists and four steals, while connecting on 12-of-24 shots from the floor... DEANDRE MOORE recorded his second career double-double with 11 points and a career-high 10 rebounds. His other double-double, a point-assist double-double, was recorded on March 1, 2001 against Wyoming when he went for 11 points and 11 assists. The senior now has 12 assists in his last two games. Moore has now tallied in double figures in three of the last five games, 10 times this season and 25 in his career... EVAN BURNS recorded his eighth games in double figures this season with 12 points, four rebounds and three blocked shots in 31 minutes. The Aztecs are now 8-0 when Burns scores 10+ points. The freshman now has scored double figures in consecutive games for the first time since Dec. 30 and Jan. 3. His stat line for the two games this week: 43 points, 18-of-25 FGs, 17 rebounds and five blocked shots... STEVE SIR scored 17 points, one off his career high, and his highest offensive output since tying a career-best with 18 points against UC San Diego on Dec. 2. It is the third double-digit game of the season and he has now connected on 8-of-9 attempts from three-point range. The 17 points tonight are more than the freshman had in his previous five games combined... MIKE MACKELL had nine points and five rebounds prior to fouling out of the game. His double-digit scoring streak of 26 consecutive games dating back to last season is snapped. It is the third longest streak by an Aztec player since 1981... CHRIS MANKER came off the bench to play his second-highest minute total of the season. The sophomore had nine points on 15 minutes of action.

Game 26

Colorado State 102, San Diego State 89 Mar. 3, 2003 • Fort Collins, Colo. Moby Arena • Att.: 3,752

FORT COLLINS, Colo. - Colorado State scored the most points ever by an Aztec opponent in MWC play and ended San Diego State's three-game MWC win streak 102-89 at Moby Arena. The Rams led by as 22 points in the second half en route to shooting the highest percentage by an Aztec opponent this season, connecting on 61.8 percent of its field-goal attempts.

With the loss, the Aztecs can finish in no better than a tie for fourth place in the conference. SDSU came no closer than within nine points in the second half as the season's worst defensive performance negated SDSU's 55.4 percent field-goal shooting and most points ever in a MWC contest (matching the 89-73 New Mexico win one week earlier).

Six early points by Mike Mackell helped propel the Aztecs to a 15-14 lead with 12 minutes, 8 seconds to go in the first half. But SDSU could not stop several Ram scoring bursts, including a Matt Nelson dunk at 11:11 that gave CSU the lead for good and helped jumpstart an 8-0 Rams run.

A Tony Bland jumper brought the Aztecs within 29-25, but CSU responded by reeling off nine of the next 10 points and the lead grew to double-digits where it would remain until the waning moments of the game. Derrick Stevens scored five points in the last 29 seconds of the half and SDSU was faced with its largest half-time deficit of the season (52-36).

The Rams shot 65.6 percent from the field in the first half (21-32) and connected on 6-of-8 three-pointers.

CSU maintained its large margin for the first 12-and-a-half minutes of the second half before a 10-4 Aztec run cut it to 83-73 with 5:33 to go. However, CSU scored six straight points and the teams would trade short bursts the rest of the way. The Aztecs came as close as nine points after a 6-0 run with 1:05 left, but CSU answered with six straight points before a Bland layup finalized the margin at 102-89.

Nelson was 8-for-8 from the field and 14-of-19 from the line for a 30-point night. He led four other Rams in double-figures, including 17 points (and 10 rebounds) from Brian Greene.

Bland led the Aztecs with 25 points. Mackell returned to his double-figure scoring form with 13 points after having his streak of 26 straight 10-plus point games snapped the previous outing by Wyoming. Evan Burns had 12 points to reach double-figures for the third straight game, while Deandre Moore added 10.

NOTES OF THE GAME: SDSU allowed 100-plus points for the first time since a 101-66 loss at Wyoming on Feb. 3, 2001... San Diego State had just 12 assists on its 31 baskets compared to Colorado State's 27 assists and 34 field goals... The Aztecs were out-rebounded (31-25) for the second straight game but only the fifth time this season... CSU's bench shot 87.0 percent (20-of-23) and outscored SDSU's reserves 61-23... Steve Sir connected on all three of his three-point attempts and has made 11 of his last 12 from long range.
