San Diego State Ends 2005 Home, Conference Slate Saturday At Qualcomm Stadium Against Wyoming

The San Diego State football team closes out its 2005 home and Mountain West Conference schedule Saturday against Wyoming with a lot still on the line. The Aztecs (4-6 overall, 3-4 in the MWC) are coming off an impressive win at Colorado State and with a victory this week over the Cowboys, can finish as high as third in the final league standings.

Game time for the SDSU-Wyoming contest is set for a 5 p.m. PST start and it will be televised by SportsWest. The match-up can be seen locally on Channel 4 San Diego and can be heard on SDSU's flagship station, The Mighty 1090 AM. It marks the 21st consecutive San Diego State game that has been available either on television or nationally via broadband.

The Aztecs put themselves in position for an upper-division MWC finish by downing Colorado State in Fort Collins, 30-10. SDSU led from wire-to-wire, as two touchdown passes from Kevin O'Connell to Chaz Schilens and Jeff Webb, along with a pair of Garrett Palmer field goals led to a 20-3 Aztec advantage at the half.

A third-quarter touchdown by the Rams got them to within 10 points, but SDSU got a third Palmer field goal and the defense ended three straight CSU possessions with interceptions from safety Marcus Demps, cornerback Terrell Maze and linebacker Russell Allen. Maze's takeaway in the endzone on fourth and eight made sure there would be no Ram comeback, as did Aztec running back Lynell Hamilton's 47-yard touchdown with 50 seconds remaining.

The SDSU victory ended Colorado State's three-game winning streak in the series, and was the first loss at home this season for Rams. Along with its 28-19 win at Utah last month, the Aztecs claimed back-to-back wins on the road for the first time since the 2000 campaign.

Wyoming, which began the season with four wins in five outings enters its final contest of 2005 having lost each of its last five contests. Excluding a 43-13 defeat to Utah in Salt Lake City, the Cowboys have dropped the other four games during that span by a combined 39 points, including 35-21 loss at home versus BYU last Saturday. Wyoming's MWC victories this year have come at Air Force (29-28) and at home against UNLV (42-17).

Wyoming leads the all-time series between the two schools by a slim, 14-12 margin. The Cowboys' claimed the most recent match-up in Laramie a year ago, 20-10, ending a five-game Aztec win streak. SDSU's streak in San Diego remains in tact, however, and currently stands at four, dating back to a 34-31 Wyoming victory in 1995.

With just two games left on their 2005 schedule, San Diego State can still tally its second .500 finish overall in the last three years. As previously mentioned, the Aztecs can finish as high as third, but no lower than fifth in the final MWC standings with a victory Saturday. Win or lose, SDSU can't fall below a tie for sixth place.

The odds already seem to be in favor of an Aztec victory Saturday, as the team is 6-3 in their last nine games against non-ranked teams and 5-3 in its last eight contests against unranked MWC foes. SDSU has also won each of its last two home finales and is a combined 5-2 overall in games played during the month of November the last three seasons.

Saturday's game is the final home contest for SDSU's 18 seniors, while the newest class to be inducted into the Aztec Hall of Fame will be honored at halftime.

San Diego State Downs Colorado State, 30-10, in Fort Collins; Moves to 3-4 in Mountain West Conference

Kevin O'Connell threw for 179 yards and two touchdowns and San Diego State made Colorado State look like anything but a bowl team with a 30-10 victory over the Rams.

Chaz Schilens had six catches for 85 yards, Jeff Webb had a pretty touchdown catch in the back of the end zone and Lynell Hamilton ran for 108 yards to help San Diego State (4-6, 3-4 Mountain West) hand CSU its first home loss of the year.

The Aztecs intercepted three passes, stopped CSU twice on fourth down and forced the Rams to settle for field goal tries on two trips inside the 10. They kept their hopes alive for a .500 season and improved on an up-and-down year in which they had already swept Utah and BYU for the first time since 1986.

While San Diego State was looking for things to build on, Colorado State (5-5, 4-3) came in hoping to make something out of this season. A win would have ensured the Rams a winning record and qualified them for a bowl game, but it was the Aztecs who got off on the right foot.

SDSU took advantage of a 15-yard CSU penalty to extend its first scoring drive of the afternoon, which ended with a 20-yard touchdown pass from O'Connell to Schilens.

Late in the first quarter, CSU recovered a fumble at the San Diego State 20, but had to settle for a short field goal.

In the second, O'Connell avoided the rush and found Webb in the back of the end zone for a 24-yard touchdown strike that made it 17-3.

SDSU led 20-3 at the half, before the Rams would make it interesting with a touchdown in the third quarter on a 16-yard scamper by Kyle Bell, who would end the afternoon with 176 yards on 33 carries.

Garrett Palmer's third field goal gave the Aztecs a 23-10 cushion with 13:27 left in the game, but it was the SDSU defense, which limited the Rams to only 89 yards of total offense in the first half, that would secure the victory.

Each of CSU's final three possessions ended with Aztec interceptions. The first was by safety Marcus Demps at the San Diego State 12-yard line, while the second and most critical, came in the end zone when Terrell Maze intercepted a Justin Holland pass on fourth and eight and five minutes remaining.

After a 47-yard TD run by Hamilton, SDSU's third takeaway of the quarter, this time by linebacker Russell Allen at the Aztec five-yard line, added an exclamation point to the 30-10 victory.

CSU Postgame Notes

► The Aztecs won consecutive road games (at Utah (10/15/05) and at CSU (11/12/05)) for the first time since the 2000 campaign when San Diego State won at Brigham Young (10/21/00) and at New Mexico (11/4/05).

► SDSU has won 14 straight games when owning at least a 14-point lead at any point during the game.

► The Aztecs improve to 17-2 in the Craft era when leading after three quarters.

► San Diego State has won on three of its last four visits to Hughes Stadium, claiming victories in 1999, 2001 and 2005. Since the beginning of the 1999 season, Colorado State is 26-10 at home, including a 1-3 mark against the Aztecs and a 25-7 record against all other teams. Since 1999, no other visiting team has won twice at Hughes Stadium.

► Of the 22 starters in the game for San Diego State, there were seven seniors, five juniors, eight sophomores and two freshmen. Of the 22 starters on offense and defense, 15 are scheduled to return next season.

► San Diego State has won four of its last six road games during the month of November.

► SDSU's 17-point halftime lead is the largest the Aztecs have had in 2005 and is the largest for San Diego State since Sept. 4, 2004, when the Aztecs owned a 31-0 advantage over Idaho State (SDSU won the game 38-21). The 20-point halftime lead over a conference opponent is the largest since Oct. 7, 2000 vs. Wyoming. The Aztecs led 24-0 at intermission and eventually won 34-0.

► SDSU is 10-3 since 2003 when owning an advantage in turnover margin.

► Sophomore wide receiver Chazeray Schilens' 20-yard touchdown reception was the first of his career. He also set career highs in receptions (6) and receiving yards (85).

► Senior Michael Franklin had a career-best 38-yard kickoff return in the 2nd quarter.

► Senior wide receiver Jeff Webb has at least three receptions in 26 consecutive games and has at least one catch in 31 consecutive games in which he has played. With his reception yardage on Saturday, Webb moved in front of Az Hakim and into fifth place on the SDSU career receiving yardage list.

► Webb's 29-yard second quarter TD reception is his 16th of his career and 8th in 2005.

► Sophomore kicker Garrett Palmer's 48-yard field goal is a season-long and he is now 12-of-14 on the season. His three field goals ties his career high.

► SDSU had three interceptions in the fourth quarter... Marcus Demps intercepted his team-best third pass of the season and Russell Allen and Terrell Maze both had their second INTs of the year.

► Lynell Hamilton rushed for 108 yards. It was second 100-yard rushing game this season and the sixth of his career. His fourth quarter rushing touchdown was his first since the BYU game (Oct. 1, 2005).

► Joe Martin tied a career high with 12 tackles and has 38 stops in the last four games.

Palmer Earns MWC Player of the Week

San Diego State sophomore placekicker Garrett Palmer (Rialto, Calif.) has been named the Mountain West Conference Football Special Teams Player of the Week for his performance in the team's 30-10 win over Colorado State, the league office announced Monday.

Palmer converted all three of his field-goal attempts and three extra point attempts in windy conditions Saturday in Fort Collins, Colo. Palmer tied his career game-high with the three field goals from 22, 47 and 48 yards out. The latter two came during the second quarter, helping SDSU to a 20-3 advantage at the half. The 48-yarder was a season long for the sophomore, who improved to 12-for-14 on field-goal attempts in 2005.

It is the second career honor for Palmer, who was also tabbed MWC Special Teams Player of the Week in 2004, after he hit all three of his field-goal attempts in snowy weather in the Aztecs' 37-31 victory at Air Force.

He is the third SDSU player to be tabbed for conference honors in 2005.

San Diego State-Wyoming: The Series

▶ Saturday is the 27th meeting between the schools, with Wyoming owning a 14-12 advantage. The Aztecs had claimed five straight before the Cowboys' 20-10 victory in Laramie a year ago. SDSU has won sixth of the last eight and each of the last four meetings in San Diego. The Aztecs are 8-5 all-time at home versus the Cowboys.

▶ The two schools have met in each of the last six years as members of the Mountain West Conference.

West Conference. The two sides did not face one another in 1998, but the game was an annual affair from 1978 to 1997, when both played in the Western Athletic Conference.

▶ The two schools have met in each of the last six years as members of the Mountain West Conference. The two sides did not face one another in 1998, but the game was an annual affair from 1978 to 1997, when both played in the Western Athletic Conference.

▶ Wyoming has scored exactly 20 points against the Aztecs each of the last three seasons. SDSU has outscored Wyoming 170-83, since the Mountain West Conference's inception in 1999.

▶ LAST MEETING: Wyoming 20, San Diego State 10 | Oct. 9, 2004 | War Memorial Stadium | Laramie, Wyo.

LARAMIE, Wyo. - San Diego State's five-year domination of Wyoming came to a screeching halt last October 9. The Aztecs found a way to lose a game in which their quarterback set a career high in completions and passing yards, the opposition was limited to just 264 yards of total offense, a full 99 shy of SDSU's total, and the opposition was just 3-of-16 on third-down conversions.

Here is how it happened. The Aztecs suffered four meltdowns in the kicking game, some red-zone misfires and eventually wilted in the fourth quarter to fall to the Cowboys by a 20-10 count in the Mountain West opener for both schools.

SDSU held a 10-3 lead at halftime, thanks to a 47-yard touchdown pass from Matt Dlugolecki to Jeff Webb. The TD pass was the only exclamation point in a game that saw SDSU hold a tiny advantage in total offense, 161-126 at the break. At intermission, the two teams had combined for 45 rushing yards.

In the third quarter, the Aztec wheels came off in a most unconventional fashion. On the first possession of the third period, SDSU's three-and-out offensive possession was followed by a 10-yard Sean Henschel punt. One play later, Wyoming had a 29-yard touchdown pass to draw even in the game and wipe out SDSU's halftime advantage.

SDSU's second possession lasted just one play as SDSU suffered its first turnover on a fumble. This time, The Dark Side limited the Cowboys to a missed field goal. But the quarter wasn't over. Another three-and-out by SDSU was followed by a seven-yard punt to set up the Cowboys at the SDSU 33.

Wyoming managed just eight yards but was close enough to result in a field goal and suddenly SDSU was down 13-10 despite virtually no offense by the opposition.

SDSU turned the ball over again on an interception on its next possession but the Cowboys again found the going tough and was forced to punt.

SDSU's next possession resulted in just an eight-yard punt by stand-in Adam Gray-Hayward, who punted for the first time.

SDSU was trailing 20-10 midway through the fourth quarter when the offense found its rhythm for the first time.

A 37-yard field goal attempt by Garrett Palmer, however, missed to the right. It ended SDSU's 74-yard drive and effectively killed the Aztecs' chances to win the game.

SDSU would penetrate the red zone again late in the game but was held on downs.

► LAST MEETING IN SAN DIEGO: San Diego State 25, Wyoming 20 | Oct. 25, 2003 | Qualcomm Stadium | San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - Behind freshman Lynell Hamilton's 218 yards rushing, San Diego State claimed its first Mountain West Conference victory of the season, ending a four-game skid by defeating Wyoming 25-20.

The Aztecs used four, first-half field goals and followed that with two touchdowns in the final 30 minutes to beat the Cowboys for the fifth straight time.

The game began as a battle of field goals with the two sides combining for five in the first half alone. After having to punt on its first possession, SDSU put points on the board on its next three as senior kicker J.C. Mejia connected from 35, 44 and 36 yards out to give SDSU an early 9-0 lead.

The two sides then traded field goals with Cowboy Deric Yaussin notching his team's first points of the night with a 21-yarder in the second quarter.

The Aztecs recovered the three points on the final play of the first half as Mejia put his record-tying fourth field goal of the game through the uprights, capping a 10-play 43-yard drive in just 1:23.

SDSU's first turnover of the night, a fumble by Hamilton, led to the sixth and final field goal of the night when Yaussi connected from 26 yards out to make the score 12-6 with 10:05 remaining in the third quarter.

Wyoming wasn't the only team to capitalize on its opponent's turnovers, as interceptions by Aztecs Kirk Morrison and Brandon Rager each led to touchdowns and a 25-6 SDSU lead.

The Cowboys tried to rally in the fourth quarter when Casey Bramlet tossed a pair of touchdown passes to close the gap to 25-20.

San Diego State, however, recovered the ensuing onside kick and ran out the final 3:39 to preserve the 25-20 victory.

Aztec Adam Hall finished the game 14-for-26 for 191 yards and his first career rushing touchdown. Ten of Hall's 14 completions went to Jeff Webb, who logged his second career game with over 100 yards receiving and also added one touchdown.

► SDSU-WYOMING CONNECTIONS: SDSU assistant head coach/defensive line coach Jim House was an offensive line/linebackers coach at Wyoming from 1974-1985... House is a Laramie native, who was a two-time all-conference player for the Cowboys. During his playing days (1966-68), House competed in the Sun Bowl and the Sugar Bowl... In 1999, House and SDSU linebackers coach Andy Buh coached at Nevada with Wyoming tight end coach Harvey Patton Jr., who was the running backs coach for Nevada...SDSU's Eder Arosemena, Chris Pino, Taylor Schmidt, Alex Thompson played at Palomar College along with Wyoming's Brandon Bell, Corey Mace and Ron Rockett.

Round Up

In the Tom Craft era, SDSU is unbeaten in three-straight Mountain West Conference finales, defeating Air Force on two occasions (2002, 2003) and UNLV (2004) once. The Aztec streak actually extends to four years overall, as SDSU downed Wyoming, 38-16, in San Diego in 2001. Overall, SDSU is 5-1 all-time in its final MWC game of a season.

In home finales, the Aztecs carry a two-game win streak into Saturday's match-up. The Aztecs posted a pair of convincing victories on senior night, with a 24-3 win over Air Force in 2003, and a 21-3 victory against UNLV in 2004.

SDSU has come out on the winning side in four of its last six final home games of a season.

So Long, Farewell

Saturday's game will be the final home contest for 18 San Diego State seniors. Among the group is a pair of record-breaking receivers, three starters on the offensive line, a safety with 164 career tackles, a running back with over 1,000 career yards and SDSU's career leader in blocked kicks. Legends At The Half

Besides being senior day, the Wyoming football game is also part of Hall of Fame Weekend at San Diego State. The official induction ceremony will take place Friday night with the Aztec Hall of Fame Class of 2005 to be recognized at halftime of the football game.

This year's class includes includes a pair of former football players in All-American offensive lineman Henry Allison (1969-70) and running back Kern Carson (1961-63), former basketball standout Bernie Finlay (1958-60), former track and field star and Olympic medalist Lynn Kanuka (1979-82) and the 1987 national collegiate rugby championship team.

Jekyll and Hyde

San Diego State has been a tough team to figure out this season, winning four games (San Jose State, Brigham Young, at two-time MWC defending champion Utah and at Colorado State) by an average of 20.3 points, while suffering six losses (UCLA, at Air Force, at Ohio State, UNLV, New Mexico and TCU) by an average of 14.2 points. Only two Aztecs games have been decided by less than nine points, a 13-10 loss at UNLV and a 23-20 loss to then 20th-ranked TCU.

One reason why the numbers in the loss column are skewed is because of the level of competition. San Diego State has suffered losses to UCLA (currently ranked 11th in USA Today and 12th in AP), Ohio State (ninth in both polls) and TCU (15th in both polls). Those three teams are a combined 27-4 and good enough to alter season stats against any team.

Looking at the statistics to the right, a few trends have developed between wins and losses.

► The ability to run and stop the run has been a key to SDSU's success. In victories, the Aztecs are averaging 209.3 yards per game. In defeats, SDSU is averaging 97.7 yards per game. That is a difference of 111.6 yards per game. The Aztecs are 6-0 in the Tom Craft era when the team reached 200 yards rushing and SDSU owns a 14-2 mark when at least half of the offensive plays are rushes.

► There is more than a 100-yard difference in opponents rushing in games in which SDSU has won, compared to those which the Aztecs have lost. In wins, the Aztec defense is allowing 134.5 yards on the ground. In losses, they give up 228.7 on the ground.

► As you would expect, turnovers play a key in the success of San Diego State. The Aztecs are +7 in turnover margin in the four wins (+1.75 per game) and -4 in the six losses (-0.67 per game). That may not appear to be a big difference, but keep in mind that San Diego State has lost 10 straight games when holding a negative turnover margin. Conversely, the Aztecs are 10-4 since the beginning of the 2003 season when holding an edge in turnover margin.

► Third down conversions, on both sides of the ball, has been a key stat for the Aztecs this season. The offense has converted 50.7 percent of attempts in wins and 29.3 percent in losses. Those numbers are nearly reversed on the other side of the ball with the defense holding the opposition to 29.9 percent in wins but only 46.5 percent in losses.

► Turnovers and third down conversion certainly play in to time of possession which shows big gaps helping influence the outcome of games. In wins, SDSU owns an average of 4:42 advantage in the category, while in losses the Aztecs are at an seven-minute disadvantage.

Lost in Translation

Although the Aztecs struggled out of the gate this season, dropping three games, including matchups with to 11th-ranked UCLA (9-1) and ninth-ranked Ohio State (8-2), it is easy to lose track of the recent successes the San Diego State football program has put together. For example:

- San Diego State is 5-4 in its last nine conference games.
- The Aztecs are 6-5 in their last 11 games and are 18-17 against non-ranked teams since Oct. 12, 2002.
- San Diego State is 7-3 at home in its last 10 games against non-ranked teams and that includes a loss earlier this season to UCLA, which was unranked at the time but is currently in the top 15 of both major polls.
- Despite being young on offense, San Diego State has committed one turnover or less in four of its last seven games.

Throwing Out the Trends

Through seven conference games this season, San Diego State has defeated three of the four Mountain West teams it lost to last season and lost to every MWC foe it defeated in 2004. In five of the games, the win or loss has snapped a rather significant winning or losing streak against the opponent. The Aztecs' other game was against MWC newcomer TCU, the first meeting between the two teams.

Opponent	Streak Entering	Result
at Air Force	Aztecs had won three straight in series, including two straight at AFA	L, 29-41
Brigham Young	BYU had won four straight and had not lost in San Diego since 1988	W, 31-10
at UNLV	SDSU had won three straight, including a 21-3 victory last season	L, 10-13
at Utah	Utah had won last two meetings and five of last six; SDSU last win in SLC was '91	W, 28-19

TWT: Tuesdays with Tom

San Diego State head coach Tom Craft and requested players will be available each Tuesday during the season at a media luncheon. Food from Da Kine's will be served at 11 a.m. with Tom Craft addressing the media at 11:30 a.m. with players to follow.

New Mexico Lobos have now won five straight in series and have not lost in San Diego since '95 at Colorado State Rams had won last three meetings and four of last five; Colorado State had won four straight at home W, 30-10

Young at Heart

San Diego State is one of the youngest teams in the nation. Through 10 games, only 78 of a possible 220 starting positions have been filled by seniors and just 126 of 220 starting spots have been logged by upperclassmen.

The future looks bright for the Aztecs, who through 10 games have had 15 players total, including 11 defensive players, make their first career start this season. The list of Aztec players who have made their first career start this season includes defensive tackle Nick Osborn, strong-side linebacker Andrew Schantz, middle linebacker Freddy Keiaho, strong safety Reggie Grigsby, cornerback Terrell Maze, linebacker Russell Allen, right tackle Eric Rouser, flanker Chazeray Schilens, free safety T.J. McKay, weak-side linebacker Brett Martin, defensive end Siao Si Fifita, safety Brett Sturm, tight end Adam Miller, wide receiver Justin Amaral and defensive tackle Jonathan Soto.

The Aztecs went with three freshmen starters against Air Force with linebacker Russell Allen and right tackle Eric Rouser making their first career starts and linebacker Andrew Schantz making his second straight start. San Diego State started two freshmen against Ohio State with Rouser starting his second straight game and free safety T.J. McKay getting his first career start. Schantz was back in the starting lineup against San Jose State. In the game at Air Force, two freshmen started and 10 freshman or sophomores were in the starting lineup.

Other lineup tidbits:

► The freshmen and sophomore classes have already accounted for 94 starts, including 59 starts on the offensive side of the ball.

► Through 10 games, 11 freshmen (redshirt and true) have seen the field for the Aztecs. The freshmen class has already accounted for 15 starts.

► 7 redshirt freshmen played in their first career game (Allen, Fifita, McKay, Mougey, Rouser, Schantz, Ulibarri).

► 4 true freshmen played in their first career game (Robles, Sampson, M. Schmidt, Soto).

► 7 transfers played in their first career SDSU game (Amaral, Barbier, Duran, Fiapai, Metroka, R. Nelson, S. Schmidt).

► San Diego State has 32 players who have seen action in all 10 games. Of the 32 players, almost half (15) are underclassmen and 20 will have eligibility remaining at the end of this season. The breakdown by class is: 11 seniors, six juniors, 10 sophomores and five freshmen (including one true freshman, wide receiver DeMarco Sampson).

► The Aztecs started a season-low seven seniors in three consecutive games vs. New Mexico, TCU and at Colorado State, and a season-high nine sophomores in the game against the Lobos on Oct. 22.

Forever Young

In the season opener against UCLA, San Diego State started the fewest number of upperclassmen in a decade. SDSU started a mere eight seniors and five juniors in the starting offensive and defensive units. The last time an Aztec squad started 13 or fewer upperclassmen was Sept. 2, 1995 against California when SDSU started seven seniors and five juniors.

SDSU defeated the Golden Bears 33-9 that night at home and went on to post an 8-4 season. Included in the starting lineup that night were future NFL players Will Blackwell, Kyle Turley, Az Hakim and La'Roi Glover.

Youth Movement

Another example of how young San Diego State is can be found in the number of senior starts. The Aztecs started eight seniors in the opener against UCLA. A survey of sports information directors showed that only 13 schools in the country expected to start fewer seniors in the season opener.

In addition, entering the season, three SDSU senior starters had combined to start just 10 games. Middle linebacker Freddy Keiaho made his first career start against the Bruins and classmates left tackle Chris Pino and defensive end Kurt Kahui were relatively new to the starting lineup when the season began.

Although starting just 13 upperclassmen is unusual by SDSU standards, starting only eight seniors is not. Nine times in the last 11 years (including this season) the Aztecs have had eight or fewer seniors on the field. In fact, in 1998, just four seniors opened the game against Idaho (a 40-21 SDSU victory).

Progress as Promised

Now in his fourth season at the helm, Tom Craft has breathed life into the football program at his alma mater. Craft has won six more games and more nearly tripled the amount of wins at home as the Aztecs had in the three seasons before Craft (1999-00-01).

Below is a look at the before and after:

	Record	Conf.	Home	Away	Close Losses
Craft Era (4th Season)	18-28	12-16	11-10	7-18	9
Previous 3 Seasons	11-22	8-13	4-12	7-10	5

Close losses are those games lost by eight points or less.

Of the 28 losses since 2002, seven have come to nationally-ranked teams (at Colorado, Colorado State, at Ohio State (twice), at Michigan, Utah and TCU). Take those games away and the Aztecs have played near .500 football the last three-plus seasons (18-21).

Also, SDSU opened the 2002 campaign with five straight losses, meaning the last two-and-a-half years the Aztecs are 18-23 against all teams, and 18-17 against non-ranked teams since Oct. 12, 2002.

In his first three seasons at the helm, Craft has guided the Aztecs offense to upper-half NCAA finishes in total offense, including a ranking of 29 in 2002. He has been equally impressive on the other side of the ball, posting two upper-half NCAA finishes in total defense, including a number eight national ranking in 2003. Last season, despite near catastrophic injuries, the Aztecs finished in the top-half of both total offense and total defense charts for the first time since 1999.

Full House

In its first five home games of the season, San Diego State has drawn 196,626 fans for an average of 39,325. The Aztecs have posted crowds of 50,000+ for two of its first five home games and have now reached that figure in three of their last 10 home games dating back to last season.

The 2005 home attendance of 148,258 in the first three home games of 2005 marked the largest total for three consecutive home games in San Diego State history. The previous mark was set during the 1992 season against Hawai'i, Fresno State and Miami. That season the Aztecs set a school-record attendance average of 45,399, which is 6,074 above this season's average.

Although it may be difficult to hold that pace and flirt with the school record, it is still impressive when compared to just two seasons ago. In 2003, SDSU averaged 22,626 fans for six home games. In fact in just three home games, San Diego State surpassed its 2003 six-game attendance total of 135,754.

Last season, San Diego State enjoyed the third largest attendance increase nationally, jumping from an average of 22,626 in 2003 to 35,995 in 2004.

This season, through games of last Saturday, SDSU ranked 59th nationally in home attendance, ahead of Northwestern, Miami (Fla.) and Washington State just to name a few. Among non-automatic qualifying BCS conferences, San Diego State ranks fifth nationally in home attendance behind BYU, Utah, UTEP and Fresno State.

enced unit this season has played better as the season has progressed.

Despite starting just three seniors on the defensive side of the ball and 11 players making their first career start this season, the Aztec defense has started to regain the form that earned the unit its Dark Side nickname.

Although the points allowed won't turn any eyes (San Diego State is currently allowing 25.1 points per game to rank 70th nationally) it is only fair to point out that due to a variety of circumstances (namely turnovers and long returns), opponents have scored 65 points off drives of 27 yards or less. Factoring out the scores from drives of 27 yards or less and the SDSU defense would be allowing a much more manageable 18.6 points per game.

One area that hurt San Diego State early was big plays. Through 10 games, San Diego State has allowed 31 plays of 22 yards or more. In total, those 31 plays have accounted for 985 yards. That means 25.3 percent (985 yards of 3,887 total yards allowed) of SDSU opponent's total yardage have come on those 31 plays.

If you factor out the first play from scrimmage against UCLA, the Bruins had just 285 yards on 52 plays. On four of the final seven series in the game, the San Diego State defense limited UCLA to six yards or less.

Against Air Force, the Aztecs allowed 503 yards of total offense, marking just the third time in the last 25 games SDSU has allowed 500 or more yards. Despite the large total, the Aztec defense continued to make plays, recording six tackles for loss, two sacks and four forced fumbles.

At ninth-ranked Ohio State, the Aztec defense played outstanding, allowing just 375 yards despite being on the field for 82 snaps and 38:14. The Buckeyes scored three touchdowns on just 53 yards of total offense (drives of 20, 32 and one-yard). The Aztecs forced two turnovers, including one when the Buckeyes had first-and-goal on the one-yard-line. The young defense clearly played its best game of the season and limited Ohio State to two plays of 22 yards or more.

After allowing touchdowns on two of San Jose State's first three drives of the game, the Aztec defense settled down and was impressive. The Aztecs allowed 233 yards of total offense, and just 161 yards after the Spartans first drive. The Aztecs held San Jose State to 0-for-17 in third down conversions marking the first time since the statistic started being kept in 1982 (273 games) that SDSU has held an opponent without a third down conversion.

One week after Brigham Young posted 50 points against TCU, the Aztec defense held the Cougars in check allowing 10 points and 305 yards. Particularly impressive is the fact that San Diego State held BYU to 164 yards of total offense through three quarters. San Diego State limited BYU to two yards or less on 36 of 68 plays and forced three turnovers in the contest. The Aztecs held Brigham Young to four plays or less on 7-of-12 possessions.

Against UNLV, the Aztecs held the Rebels to 13 points, six of which came on two 52-yard field goals, and was responsible for all 10 SDSU points. Joe Martin returned an interception 86 yards for a touchdown and Freddy Keiaho returned a fumble 39 yards to the Rebel one to setup a field goal.

In the contest at Utah, SDSU got up 14-0 early and was willing to give up yardage but not allow points. Despite surrendering 592 yards, SDSU held Utah to just 19 points and only one touchdown while forcing two turnovers.

Against 20th-ranked TCU, the Aztecs forced three turnovers and held the Horned Frogs to just 112 yards passing.

Last Saturday, SDSU held CSU to just 89 yards of total offense in the first half and finished the game with interceptions on each of the Rams' final three possessions. CSU also scored just 10 points on four trips to the redzone, a category in which the Aztecs rank second in the MWC.

Come on Ride The Train

Sophomore running back Lynell Hamilton is back. After breaking his ankle in the 10th game of his 2003 freshman season, the Stockton, Calif., product returned after more than a full year off to recover from a broken right ankle and right fibula suffered in the game at UNLV on Nov. 8, 2003.

Hamilton rushed for 1,087 yards on 234 carries in 2003, he averaged 108.7 yards per game and had four rushing touchdowns.

This season he is one of 47 candidates and one of only 10 sophomores up for the Doak Walker Award.

Hamilton proved he is back following the injury by getting 29 touches in the opening game. He carried 24 times for 82 yards and two touchdowns and added five receptions for 35 yards versus UCLA. He followed that up with a solid performance against Air Force, carrying 15 times for 65 yards and one touchdown. Against San Jose State, Hamilton rushed for game-high 72 yards and picked up his fourth rushing touchdown of the season. He also caught four passes for 25 receiving yards.

Against Brigham Young he produced a breakout performance rushing for 161 yards on 30 carries and scoring two touchdowns. It marked the fifth 100-yard rushing game of the sophomore's career and the third time he has gained more than 150 yards in a game.

Hamilton was forced out of the UNLV game early due to a hamstring injury he suffered early in the second quarter. He did not have a carry after the first quarter and ended the contest with 14 yards on five attempts.

He was available in Salt Lake City, but did not play against the Utes due to the hamstring injury suffered in the second quarter of the UNLV game.

On Oct. 29 against New Mexico, Hamilton's touches were minimized because SDSU fell behind early. The sophomore ended the game with nine carries for 28.

Against Colorado State on Saturday, Hamilton carried the ball 21 times for his sixth career 100-yard rushing game.

In addition to leading the team in rushing, Hamilton is the fourth-leading receiver on the squad with 18 catches in his eight games. His seven touchdowns for 42 points trails only Jeff Webb's team-leading 48 points (non-kicking).

Despite an injury cutting his season short, Hamilton earned first-team freshman All-America honors by The Sporting News and Rivals.com in 2003. He was the only freshman offensive player that season named to a conference first team and he became just the second player in Mountain West Conference history to earn first-team all-league accolades as a freshman.

A look at some of the more impressive numbers Hamilton has compiled in just 17 career games:

► The Aztecs are 6-0 when he reaches 100 yards rushing, averaging 29.3 points in those games. In games in which Hamilton has played, SDSU is 7-0 when he rushes for 94 or more yards and 1-10 when he is held below 94 yards rushing.

► Hamilton has enjoyed his playing time at Qualcomm Stadium. In nine career games at the Q, the sophomore has four 100-yard games and two 200-yard contests. In all, he has averaged 113.8 yards rushing per game on 4.7 yards per carry, with nine of his 10 career rushing touchdowns coming at home.

► Of the 66 quarters in which he has recorded a rush, he has 10 quarters with at least 50 rushing yards, including a remarkable 108 yards in the first quarter of the game against Samford. Against BYU earlier this season he had 59 yards in the second quarter and 75 yards in the fourth quarter of SDSU's win.

► Despite playing only 10 games as a freshman, his 1,087 yards rushing is the 11th highest total in school history and the second best total by a freshman trailing only Marshall Faulk (1,630).

► Hamilton has gotten the tough yards this season, with 21 of his carries and five of his receptions picking up first downs.

O'Connell Takes the Reigns

Sophomore Kevin O'Connell, who started the final five games of 2004 season, emerged from a quarterback duel with freshman Darren Mougey and was named the Aztecs' starting quarterback on Sunday, Aug. 21, following the second scrimmage.

O'Connell played in nine games as a redshirt freshman, and started the final five games of the campaign. For the season, he passed for 1,328 yards and the dual-threat quarterback added 347 rushing yards.

The learning curve was quick for O'Connell who produced veteran type numbers in the final two games last season and in the first 10 games this year. In the last 12 games, he is 211-of-344 (60.6 percent) with 2,447 yards, 18 touchdowns and 11 interceptions.

This season, the sophomore is putting up all-conference caliber numbers. He is 184-for-297 (62.0 percent) with 2,040 yards, 15 TDs and 10 interceptions. His quarterback rating of 129.58 ranks 54th nationally and he is 36th in the nation in total offense per game (270.8 ypg.).

Other impressive tidbits from his career to date.

► O'Connell recently had the two best games of his career in SDSU's victories over San Jose State and BYU. Against San Jose State, he completed 23-of-29 passes for a career-high 271 yards, a career-high four touchdowns and had no interceptions. He did not throw consecutive incomplete passes the entire game. Furthermore, his completion percentage of 79.3 percent was the highest by an Aztec quarterback with at least 25 attempts, since Tim Gutierrez completed 84.0 percent (21-of-25) against Navy on Sept. 3, 1994. He also became the first Aztec to throw for at least four touchdowns without an interception since Sept. 21, 2002 when Adam Hall tossed five touchdowns with no picks at Idaho.

► He followed that up with a 21-of-31 performance for 243 yards against Brigham Young.

► Against Utah, he put up a three-touchdown effort, while completing 17-of-23 pass attempts with no interceptions.

► O'Connell had a streak of 88 passes without an interception dating back to the Air Force game broken Oct. 8 at UNLV. After throwing eight picks in his first 189 attempts (one interception every 23.6 attempts), he has 11 interceptions in his last 321 attempts (one interception every 29.2 attempts).

► Had a streak of at least one touchdown pass in 10 consecutive games broken in the 21-point win over BYU, but he has at least one TD pass in 13 of his last 15 games.

► He is second on the team in rushing and has 368 yards on the ground this season. If you take out his negative yardage (mostly due to sacks), O'Connell has rushed for 591 yards.

► Rushed for 101 yards against BYU last season to become just the third quarterback in SDSU history to rush for 100 yards (joined Matt Kofler 102 vs. New Mexico on 11-22-80 and Joe Turpin 116 vs. Cal Poly SLO on 9-30-67).

► In that game against Brigham Young in 2004, he became the first player in SDSU history to pass for 200 yards and rush for 100 yards in the same game.

► His quarterback rating of 101.0 last season ranked fifth among all freshmen nationally, trailing only Oklahoma State's Donovan Woods, Michigan's Chad Henne, Iowa State's Brett Meyer and Washington State's Alex Brink. Of the four freshmen in front of O'Connell last season, three went to bowl games.

► How well did O'Connell play in the final two starts of 2004? His 131.73 quarterback rating would have ranked 45th nationally and second in the Mountain West (behind Alex Smith) for the season.

Harvey Going for Hardware

San Diego State senior center Jasper Harvey is one of 39 players who have been named to the Rimington Trophy watch list. This is the second consecutive season that Harvey has been named to the national list.

Harvey is one of 30 seniors on the list and is one of six Mountain West Conference centers to be considered for the award.

The six-year old trophy, named after former two-time Nebraska All-American and Cincinnati Bengals center Dave Rimington, is awarded annually to college football's top center in the country. The Rimington Trophy recipient is determined by a consensus of The Walter Camp Football Foundation, America Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America and The Sporting News.

This is the third time in four seasons that a SDSU player has been named to the watch list as former Aztec Johnathan Ingram was recognized in 2002.

Webb Climber

Senior split end Jeff Webb continues to climb SDSU's career charts following his 26th consecutive game with at least three receptions.

In 2005, Webb has surpassed the century mark in four of the last seven games with back-to-back efforts against San Jose State and BYU and versus Utah and New Mexico. He also has scored at least one touchdown in four straight contests.

His season highs include a 142-yard effort at Utah and a career-best 13-catch performance versus BYU.

Against San Jose State, Webb caught eight passes for 133 yards, becoming just the 11th player in school history to record 2,000 career receiving yards. A native of Pontiac, Mich., he is just the seventh player to record more than 150 receptions and 2,000 receiving yards, joining the likes of former standouts Will Blackwell (1994-96), Tim Delaney (1968-70), Monty Gilbreath (1986-89), Patrick Rowe (1987-88, 90-91), Scott (1991-93) and J.R. Tolver (1999-02).

Webb began the season ninth in career receptions and has since jumped seven slots to the No. 2 spot with 214 catches. He trails only all-time record-holder and former teammate J.R. Tolver, who had 262 from 1999 to 2002.

In terms of receiving yards, Webb is currently fifth in school history with 2,633 yards to his credit. He needs just 46 more yards to pass Patrick Rowe for fourth and would need 264 to jump another spot over Will Blackwell (2,896).

So far in 2005, Webb has caught a team-best 72 balls for 852 yards and eight touchdowns. He is eighth nationally in receptions per game (7.20) and is 30th with 85.20 receiving yards per game.

Below is a look at a couple of Webb's many accomplishments.

► Webb has caught a pass in 31 consecutive games in which he has played. That is tied for the 15th longest active streak in the country (Wyoming's Jovon Bouknight leads the nation at 42 straight games) as of last week. Equally impressive, he has caught at least three passes in 26 straight games.

► Webb ranks in the top 10 among active players in career receptions and receiving yards. He is sixth in receptions and ninth in receiving yards among active Division I-A players.

Another Year, Another League-Leading Linebacker

Freddy Keiaho is having a breakout year in his final season on Montezuma Mesa. The senior linebacker who was originally recruited as a running back has made the switch to the defensive side of the ball look easy.

His 9.78 tackles per game (52 solo, 36 assisted, 88 total) ranks 27th in the country and he is the one of two Mountain West Conference players listed in the top 30. Keiaho is also tied for 30th nationally with 5.78 solo tackles per game.

At Air Force he made a then career-best 13 tackles and followed it up at Ohio State where he set a new career high with 18 stops.

The 18 tackles against the ninth-ranked Buckeyes is the third most by a player in the Tom Craft era and is 11th most in San Diego State history. Last season, his linebacker teammates Kirk Morrison and Heath Farwell each made 19 tackles at Air Force (Nov. 13, 2004).

Keiaho's performance is also the second best in school history against a ranked opponent. Alan Dale made 21 tackles versus 12th-ranked Iowa State back in 1981.

On Oct. 22 against New Mexico, Keiaho recorded his fourth career blocked kick to tie him for the SDSU career record. His third-quarter blocked punt resulted in his first career touchdown, as the senior recovered his own block at the four-yard line and returned it for a touchdown.

Keiaho followed the Lobo game with 11 tackles, all solo, versus TCU, before missing the CSU contest due to injury.

Recording Tackles Like They are Going Out of Style

Despite losing the top seven tacklers off last season's team, San Diego State's fresh-faced defense has produced two of the top seven tacklers in the Mountain West Conference.

Senior MIKE linebacker Freddy Keiaho, who started his Aztec career in the offensive backfield, has excelled in the place of two-time Mountain West Conference defensive player of the year and current Oakland Raider Kirk Morrison. Keiaho posted a career-high 18 stops in the game at Ohio State. As previously mentioned, he is tied for 30th in the nation and tied for first in the Mountain West Conference at 9.8 stops per game.

Right behind him is junior strong safety Reggie Grigsby who has 79 stops, including 50 solos, to rank seventh in the league. His 5.10 solo stops per game are tied for 64th in the nation.

Junior cornerback Donny Baker is tied for 5th in the Mountain West Conference with 10 passes defensed and recently entered the SDSU career record book for passes broken up with 22.

Red Zone Wizards

San Diego State is close to being automatic in the red zone. The Aztecs have converted 27-of-31 red zone opportunities for points this season, including 19 touchdowns. The 87.1 percent success rate is second among Mountain West Conference schools.

The Aztecs converted 15 straight red zone opportunities going 15-for-15 with 11 touchdowns and four field goals prior to a turnover breaking the streak at UNLV.

We Don't Need No Altitude

Sophomore punter Michael Hughes had a big day at UNLV earlier this season, punting eight times for an average of 51.0 yards. Equally impressive was the fact that two of his punts pinned the Rebels inside their own five-yard line and two others resulted in a fair catch. In eight return attempts, the Rebels netted -1 yard, giving Hughes a net average of 51.1 yards per punt.

His 51.0 average is the fourth best by a Division I-A player this season (minimum five attempts in a game) and was the best effort by an Aztec player since Noel Prefontaine averaged 51.7 yards on six punts against Air Force in 1996.

Against Utah on Oct. 15, Hughes punted six times for an average of 46.3, including three of 50 yards or longer and a trio landing inside the Utes' 20-yard line. Two weeks later, he dropped four of his five punts inside the 20, including two inside the five-yard line, against No. 20 TCU, averaging 46.8 yards on five kicks. Just last week, he booted punts of 65 and 73 yards for an average of 49.7 at Colorado State.

Hughes is currently fourth in the nation with a punt average of 45.48, which is extremely impressive considering Hughes punts at sea-level in home games and has punted just two times at altitude this season (at Air Force and at Colorado State).

In addition to punting well, Hughes' last 18 punts, prior to the Utah game, had been returned for a total of 0 yards. In a four-game span (SJSU to Utah), he punted 24 times for 1,110 yards and a net of 44.79, had a gross punting average of 46.25, tallied six 50-plus yard punts, had seven that resulted in the opponent starting inside the 20 and three that resulted in a fair catch.

In three seasons at the helm of the San Diego State football program, Tom Craft's list of accomplishments are lengthy, his list of goals remains long and his overall blueprint for program continues to take shape.

On all fronts, San Diego State football seems poised to take a leap forward. The academic side has been shored up, attendance has jumped dramatically and the depth chart now features a mixture of battle-tested veterans and fleet-footed underclassmen who have been part of the Mountain West's top recruiting effort over the past three season, and earned Craft the title of the best recruiter in the league by The Sporting News.

Two of Craft's three teams have finished in the upper division of the Mountain West Conference, something SDSU had never achieved prior to his arrival. His offensive and defensive units have made some of the biggest improvements in the country since he returned to his alma mater and he has coached some of the Mountain West's most outstanding players.

And the really good news is that he is just getting started.

The changing of the guard at the top of a college football program is one of the most scrutinized processes in all of sports. The experts are numerous and the expectations are downright scary.

But it is also a chance to re-invent a program.

That opportunity presented itself following the 2001 football season and San Diego State officials set out to find the right man for the job.

It was a simple edict.

All the Aztec brass had to do was sort through the pretenders and contenders for the job to find the person to lead San Diego State's recovery. It had to be someone who could recapture the imagination of the Aztec fans who hungered for the offensive firepower that the San Diego State faithful feel is their heritage. It had to be someone aware of San Diego State's past but with a strong vision of the program's future - as well as the future of college football. It had to be someone with a proven track record as a winner and with the confidence to turn around a program heavy in potential but lacking in recent successes. It had to be someone who could evaluate talent and at the same time take on the sport's heavy hitters for a player's signature.

It had to be Tom Craft.

A San Diego State graduate, a former Aztec quarterback and a former offensive coordinator on Montezuma Mesa, Craft was introduced as San Diego State's 15th head football coach on Dec. 6, 2001.

In his first season as the Aztec head coach, he led a mini-revival. San Diego State showed the biggest improvement in the country in passing offense. After ranking 89th in that category in 2001, Craft's first offense was fifth nationally with an average of 330 passing yards per game.

The Aztecs also made a monumental jump in total offense, rising from 98th to 29th with virtually the same lineup that had sputtered the year before. Only Purdue, Southern California and Oklahoma State showed more improvement.

But the improvement was more than cosmetic.

The Aztecs finished third in the Mountain West Conference after being picked for last. It was SDSU's first upper-division finish in the new league and its first winning record in league play since the 1998 Las Vegas Bowl team. The Aztecs picked up their first-ever Mountain West wins over Air Force and Utah, pushed Colorado into the fourth quarter and lost on the last play of the game in Craft's debut at Fresno State.

Along the way, the moniker of "Air Craft" was developed by the media, playing off of the most successful period in San Diego State history, known as "Air Coryell" as well as Craft's love for throwing the ball. Craft's first team saw wide receivers J.R. Tolver and Kassim Osgood set NCAA records for productivity by two teammates. Both players now collect checks from the National Football League after earning all-conference honors.

The first year of the Craft era ended with a recruiting class ranked as one of the school's best ever, as the Mountain West's top class and among the nation's top 40. "Aztecs Make Their Move" heralded SuperPrep magazine after the recruiting dust had settled.

Craft's second season provided more highlights.

The Aztec defense came to be known as "The Dark Side" and was launched into national headlines when it limited second-ranked and defending national champion Ohio State without an offensive touchdown and just 196 yards of total offense in a 16-13 down-to-the-wire loss. The unit ended the season as the eighth best defense in the country and tops in the Mountain West. It was also the nation's most improved defensive unit in 2003.

The Aztecs overcame numerous injuries down the stretch to win three of their final four games and earn a .500 season for the first time since 1998. SDSU finished its regular season without its starting quarterback, leading rusher or leading receiver.

Craft's third team scared another national foe when Michigan escaped the Aztecs, 24-21. SDSU achieved a first when it defeated Air Force for the third consecutive season and it did so with a roster depleted by injury. In fact, six freshmen were starting on the offensive side by the season finale.

In just three seasons, Craft has coached the Mountain West freshman of the year (Lynell Hamilton) and the league's defensive player of the year in Kirk Morrison, who became the first conference player to earn that award in consecutive season. Seven players have been named first-team all-Mountain West during Craft's tenure.

Tom Craft is the first San Diego State graduate to lead the football program since Bob Breitbard in 1945 and is one of just 18 coaches in Division I employed by his alma mater. His hiring is a true return to San Diego State's historic past, when SDSU was among the nation's most successful programs in the 1960s and 1970s. His philosophies are near and dear to the hearts of the Aztec faithful.

Marcus Demps

Free Safety
6-1, 200, Sr.-3L
Palmdale, Calif. (Highland High)

The most experienced Aztec player on the defensive side of the ball... A talented defensive back who could join other Aztec secondary players, including his older brother Will (Baltimore Ravens), in the NFL ... SDSU coaches consider him one of the best players on the squad ... Can play at corner or safety and has seen action as a starter at both positions during the course of his career.

2005: Intercepted his team-high third pass of the season at CSU, also adding five tackles and a pass break-up... Double-figure tackles with a team-game-high 12 versus New Mexico and 10 at Utah... Recovered a fumble in the end-zone at Utah... Had one interception for 28 yards against BYU and also added a sack... Logged his second career INT versus San Jose State, also adding two PBU's... Made nine stops, including six solo tackles at Ohio State ... Recorded eight tackles at Air Force and forced a fumble in the Air Force game.

2004: After two years at safety, became a starting corner as a junior ... Finished eighth on the team with 35 tackles ... Broke up eight passes ... Caused a pair of fumbles (Idaho State and Utah) to rank second on the team in that category ... Had an interception and broke up a pass against No. 17 Michigan ... Broke up three passes against Nevada ... Had a season-best six tackles against Nevada and No. 9 Utah ... Forced a fumble against the Utes ... Finished 10th among Mountain West secondary players with nine passes defended ... Thirty of his tackles were solo stops ... Was slowed late in the year by a sprained knee but did not miss a game.

2003: Started the year as a backup, but moved into the starting lineup when mononucleosis sidelined Josh Dean ... Returned to the sidelines due to an ankle injury that caused him to miss three games ... In the starting lineup in five games ... His play was outstanding at the time of his injury ... Had a 13-tackle effort at Texas-El Paso and eight stops at UCLA ... Despite missing three games, finished fifth on the team with 39 tackles, including 24 solo stops ... Had a quarterback sack against Air Force and another tackle behind the line of scrimmage against UCLA ... Recovered a fumble against Texas-El Paso ... Credited with a blocked punt against Eastern Washington.

2002: Played in nine games as a freshman, primarily on special teams and at safety ... Ended the season with 24 tackles, including a career-best 12 at Air Force when he got his first career start against the Falcons' option attack ... Had six tackles against Colorado State and two stops against Utah.

2001: Was in the mix for playing time in the Aztecs' secondary before red-shirting due to a broken finger that required surgery early in the season.

High School: Prepped at Highland High School ... A two-year starter at strong safety ... Had two interceptions as a junior and helped lead the Bulldogs to an 8-3 record ... A two-time all-Golden League selection ... Named to the Antelope Valley Press second team as a junior and first team as a senior, despite missing three games with a foot injury ... Also selected to the all-Valley team by the Los Angeles Daily News ... Picked up a pair of varsity letters in track.

Personal: Born Aug. 19, 1983, in Minot, N.D. ... Son of William and Kyle Demps ... A criminal justice major.

Quarterback

6-4, 205, Sr.-2L

Cota De Caza, Calif. (Santa Margarita Catholic High/Univ. of Illinois)

The most experienced quarterback on the team, he gives SDSU quality depth at the position... Has started 11 games at quarterback over the last two seasons and his experience should be a bonus in 2005 ... Is a big, strong-armed quarterback who began his career at Illinois ... Thanks to his efforts in the weight room, he is much more mobile entering his senior season.

2005: Played on special teams in all 10 contests.

2004: Started the first six games of the season before being forced to the bench in part due to an ankle injury ... Had a big game in the Aztecs' near-upset of No. 17 Michigan when he passed for 277 yards with 26 completions on 42 attempts with a touchdown ... Threw a 14-yard TD pass to Robert Ortiz against the Wolverines ... Had a season-high 281 passing yards at Wyoming when he was 27-of-37 and had a 60-yard TD pass wiped out by penalty against the Cowboys ... Finished the season completing nearly 61 percent of his passes with six touchdowns and eight interceptions ... Averaged 193 passing yards per game ... His 1,349 passing yards led the team ... Season-long completion went to Ortiz and covered 61 yards at Michigan ... Tossed a TD pass in four of the seven games in which he played.

2003: Got starting assignments against Ohio State, Texas-El Paso, Samford, UCLA and Air Force and played most of the game against Eastern Washington and nearly a half against Colorado State ... Completed 57.8 percent of his passes for 1,248 yards and four touchdowns ... Best game of the season was the finale against Air Force when he passed for 226 yards on a 23-of-31 effort without a turnover ... Was 23-of-39 for 189 yards and a touchdown in the near-miss at No. 2 Ohio State (16-13) in his first career start ... Passed for a season-high 234 yards against Samford with three touchdowns ... Longest pass play of the season came from inside his own five in the fourth quarter at UNLV when he found Kyle Conerly for 37 yards on a critical third-down conversion that helped SDSU escape with a 7-0 win ... Played in relief of Adam Hall against the Rebels ... Completed 42 of his last 66 pass attempts (63.6 percent) over the final four games of the season ... Threw just one interception in his last three games.

2002: Spent the year as a redshirt after transferring from Illinois.

High School: Passed for 1,307 yards and 17 touchdowns as a senior at Santa

Margarita Catholic ... Was the Sierra League offensive player of the year ... Led his squad to the Sierra League title ... Passed for more than 2,000 yards and 22 touchdowns in his career ... Running Back

6-1, 220, So.-1L

Stockton, Calif. (Edison High)

Arrived on Montezuma Mesa as one of the most decorated recruits in nearly two decades and lived up to the hype by producing the best rookie season by an Aztec since Marshall Faulk ... A first-team freshman All-American by Rivals.com and The Sporting News ... Mountain West Conference freshman of the year and just the second player in league history named first-team all-conference as a freshman ... Was the only offensive player in the country to make first-team all-league as a freshman in 2003 ... Spent the 2004 season on the red-shirt list as he continued to recover from the broken ankle that ended his rookie season ... Aztec coaches expect a bigger and faster running back in 2005 ... Candidate for the 2005 Doak Walker award, presented to the top collegiate running back... Five career 100-yard rushing games and three with at least 150 yards... Three career outings with two rushing TDs.

2005: Eclipsed the century mark for the second time this season, running for 108 yards on 21 carries, including a 47-yard TD at Colorado State... Did not play at Utah (inj.), before returning to action against New Mexico and TCU... Season-high 30 carries for 161 yards and a pair of TDs in the win over BYU... Career-long 53-yard run versus the Cougars... Balanced effort against San Jose State, rushing for 72 yards and a touchdown and catching four passes... Rushed 15 times for 65 yards and scored on a three-yard touchdown run against Air Force ... Returned to action for the first time since 2003, carrying the ball 24 times for 82 yards against UCLA... Scored a pair of one-yard touchdowns and also tied a team game high with five receptions (35 yards).

2004: Redshirted.

2003: Had his sensational freshman season ended prematurely by a broken ankle in the fourth quarter of the 10th game of the year at UNLV with two games remaining on the Aztec schedule ... Still finished No. 18 nationally and second in the Mountain West with 108.7 rushing yards per game ... Finished with 1,087 yards, the 11th best total in Aztec history ... Was second nationally among freshmen that year ... Was third in the Mountain West with 118.7 all-purpose yards per game and ranked 47th nationally in that category ... Became the first freshman in Aztec history to run for 100 yards in a season opener when he ran for 113 yards and two touchdowns against Eastern Washington ... Ran for 107 yards on 22 carries at Texas-El Paso and also had 26 receiving yards against the Miners ... Best game of the year was a 220-yard effort on 31 carries against Samford, setting a Mountain West single-game rushing record for freshmen ... Ran for 218 yards on 40 totes in the 25-20 win over Wyoming ... The 40 carries are tied for fourth most by an Aztec in a game ... Was headed for another 100-yard effort at UNLV (94 yards) when his season ended ... Had a 48-yard run against Samford and a 47-yarder at UTEP ... Hamilton's 234 carries rank ninth on SDSU's single-season list.

High School: Ran for 1,038 yards as a senior and 1,197 yards during his junior season ... Rushed for 29 touchdowns over those two seasons ... Named to virtually every honor team, including all-league, all-area and the Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the West squad ... Was considered among the top three prep running backs in the west ... Earned four varsity letters in football, track, and two in basketball ... Listed by almost every recruiting service as one of the nation's top 15 running backs and one of the top players in the west ... A SuperPrep All-America selection ... That publication considered him the 11th-best prospect in California ...No. 22 among prospects in the West by Rivals.com and analyst Tom Lemming placed him 14th among the nation's running backs.

Personal: Born Aug. 5, 1985, in Stockton ... Son of Leo and Veronica Hamilton ... Majoring in sociology and may pursue a minor in psychology ... Has a second cousin, Frank Strong, who plays for the San Francisco 49ers and is a cousin of current Aztec Brian Spinks ... Had his choice of colleges, including Michigan, Oregon, Southern California, UCLA and Colorado.

Center

6-3, 305, Sr.-2L

Marrero, La. (Archbishop Shaw High)

A Rimington Award candidate for the second consecutive season, he is one of the top centers in the country ... His return to the squad will strengthen an already budding offensive line unit.

2005: Started at center for the Aztecs in the first 10 contests.

2004: Did not attend SDSU in 2004.

2003: Had a strong season in his first year as SDSU's starting center ... His 84 percent season grade was third on the team ... He led the Aztec linemen with 19 pancake blocks ... Played 904 snaps as a sophomore to rank second on the team in that category ... One of three Aztec linemen to start all 12 games ... The only San Diego State lineman not to allow a sack on 502 pass plays called ... On three occasions was voted as SDSU's offensive lineman of the game, including the New Mexico, UCLA and Brigham Young games.

2002: Started the final 10 games of the season at guard and turned in a strong season in his first year of varsity action ... Allowed just two sacks and six pressures by the opposition ... Was second on the team with eight pancake blocks, tops among returning players ... Was called for just two penalties, the low for the Aztec starters in 2002 ... Graded out at better than 85 percent in four games as a rookie with a high of 88 percent against UNLV.

2001: Redshirted his first season on campus.

High School: Prepped at one of New Orleans' top high school programs, Archbishop Shaw ... A two-year starter at left tackle ... Helped team to a 12-3 record and a berth in the 2000 Louisiana 5A state championship game ... Key cog in an option offense that gained over 270 yards on the ground per game ... Served as Shaw's 2000 team captain ... Named all-West Bank, all-district and honorable mention all-New Orleans metro as a senior ... Shaw led the state of Louisiana in rushing during his junior season, gaining over 300 yards per game and posting a 9-2 record ... Picked up two varsity letters in track.

Personal: Born April 8, 1983, in New Orleans, La. ... Son of Deborah and Jasper Harvey ... Major is political science.

Eric Hodge

Corner Back

5-9, 180, Sr.-SQ

Oakland, Calif. (Hanford High/Chabot College)

A candidate for duty in the secondary after walking on and earning time on special teams a year ago ... A heady, hard worker who has impressed the coaching staff.

2005: Returned to action against TCU, making two tackles... Missed the last two games due to injury... Two tackles on special teams versus San Jose State... Saw action in the secondary and on special teams at Ohio State... Recorded one solo tackle in loss to Air Force ... Did not see action against UCLA.

2004: Saw duty on special teams throughout the season.

Chabot College: Was credited with 86 tackles as a sophomore and was a special teams standout with six blocks on PATs and a blocked punt.

High School: Played at Hanford High School in the Oakland area.

Personal: Born Dec. 13, 1982 in Oakland ... Son of Cynthia Johnson ... Majoring in sociology.

Robert Nelson

Offensive Lineman

6-10, 330, Jr.-RS

Gilbert, Ariz. (Skyline High/Scottsdale College)

Running second at left guard ... A promising prospect in the offensive line ... Has an eye-popping combination of size and agility ... Arrived on campus with a shoulder injury that led to surgery and an eventual redshirt season in 2004 ... He is the tallest player in SDSU history and could be the tallest in college football next year ... Relatively inexperienced without a lot of football under his belt ... Has good agility ... Excellent athlete who turned down volleyball offers out of high school ... Also a martial arts expert.

2005: Has seen action in six games as a reserve.

Personal: Born Nov. 20, 1983, in Germany ... Son of Charles and Young Nelson ... Majoring in criminal justice ... Has had a summer job as a bouncer ... Had recruiting interest from Arizona, Wyoming and Brigham Young among others, but was quickly an Aztec commitment.

Kevin O'Connell

Quarterback

6-6, 220, So.-1L

Carlsbad, Calif. (La Costa Canyon High)

Was named the starting quarterback the day after the second scrimmage of the fall (Aug. 21) ... Had a strong freshman season in which he eventually took over starting quarterback duties ... A dual-threat quarterback ... Has a rare signal-caller combination of size and athleticism ... Did not participate in spring drills due to off-season shoulder surgery but was cleared for fall practices months ago ... Suffered a separated shoulder in the win over Idaho State in the season opener, but returned to the squad to become the starter down the stretch ... Ended the season as team captain, despite his youth.

2005: Ranked 54th nationally in passing efficiency (129.58) and 36th in total offense (240.8/g)... Has thrown at least one TD in 14 of his last 16 games... Tossed two TDs in each of the last three contests... Completed a career best 25 passes for 235 yards versus TCU... also ran for a touchdown (26 yards) and threw for another against the Horned Frogs... Threw for three scores and ran for another in win at Utah... Was also team's leading rusher against the Utes with a career-long 61-yard rush in the second quarter ... Streak of 88 straight pass attempts without an INT snapped at UNLV... Completed his first 12 pass attempts versus BYU, finishing the game 21-for-31 for 243 yards... Also added a rushing TD against the Cougars... Career high 271 yards passing (23-for-29), four touchdowns and no INTs in the rout of San Jose State ... Also ran for 49 yards on a career-high 23 carries against the Spartans ... Completed 12-of-17 passes for 159 yards at Ohio State ... Connected on a career long 80-yard touchdown strike to Brett Swain in the Aztecs' first play from scrimmage in the first quarter at OSU ... Passed for 227 yards, including an 18-yard touchdown against Air Force, and ran for 52 yards on 11 carries (4.7 avg.) and a touchdown ... Threw for 204 yards and ran for 50 more in the season-opener with UCLA.

2004: Started the final five games of the season and led SDSU to a 2-3 record ... Got his first start at New Mexico, becoming the first freshman quarterback to open a game for the Aztecs since Spencer Brinton in 1997 ... Against BYU, he became just the second Aztec quarterback to rush for 100 yards since 1980 and the first player in SDSU history to rush for 100 yards (101) and pass for 200 (229) in the same game ... Nearly turned that trick again when he rushed for 82 yards at Air Force ... Tossed a touchdown pass in each of the last six games of the season, including two against Utah and Air Force ... Lone rushing touchdown of the season came against the Utes ... Came off the bench to rally SDSU to 11 fourth-quarter points and a late lead against Colorado State ... Finished third in the league in total offense for conference games (215.9 yards) and fifth in passing (174.9) and passing efficiency (102.0) ... Had a season-best 252 passing yards against undefeated Utah ... In the two season-closing wins over Air Force and UNLV, he was 33-of-57 for 407 yards with three touchdowns and one interception ... Finished third on the team with 347 rushing yards, including a 31-yard run vs. Brigham Young and a 30-yard scamper against Colorado State ... Tossed a 58-yard touchdown pass to Jeff Webb against the Rams ... Did not play against Nevada or Michigan.

2003: Redshirted his first year on campus.

High School: A football and basketball standout ... Had a big senior season after losing part of his junior year to injury ... An all-region selection by SuperPrep and an honorable mention all-region pick by PrepStar ... Passed for 1,950 yards and 19 touchdowns for the 7-4 Mavs ... Also ran for 310 yards ... An all-league, all-North County and all-San Diego selection ... Team MVP ... Earned three letters in football and two letters in basketball ... Threw for 980 yards and seven scores as a junior on 56 completions.

Personal: Born May 25, 1985, in Knoxville, Tenn. ... Son of Bill and Suzanne O'Connell ... Father is employed by the FBI ... Majoring in business ... Took a visit to Colorado before deciding on SDSU.

game 1 - UCLA 44, San Diego State 21

GAME NO. 1

Game Notes

* The attendance of 50,710 is the sixth-largest crowd in Aztec history and the third-largest in a season-opening home game for SDSU.

* With the loss, SDSU falls to 0-20-1 all time versus UCLA ... the Aztecs are now 44-34-5 in season openers and 58-21-4 in home openers.

* SDSU started just 13 upperclassmen against UCLA. The last time an Aztec squad started 13 or fewer upperclassmen was Sept. 2, 1995, against California when SDSU started just seven seniors and five juniors ... five Aztecs made their first career starts tonight, all on the defensive side (Osborn, Schantz, Keiaho, Grigsby, Maze).

* Quarterback Kevin O'Connell has thrown a touchdown pass in seven consecutive games. O'Connell tied his career high with 15 rushing attempts. He also had 15 attempts versus BYU in 2004.

* The Aztecs converted just their second two-point conversion in the last three seasons when O'Connell found wide receiver Robert Ortiz in the third quarter. The duo also paired up for SDSU's lone two-point conversion a year ago against Colorado State.

* San Diego State's 15-play, 70-yard, 6:44 time of possession scoring drive in the first quarter was the team's longest scoring drive in terms of number of plays since Oct. 26, 2002, vs. UNLV, when the Aztecs used 18 plays to score a fourth quarter TD. It was also the longest time of possession since Sept. 7, 2002, at Colorado (15 plays, 80 yards, 7:08 TOP).

SAN DIEGO -- For the first time in the last eight series meetings, San Diego State posted more total offense than UCLA (402-349), but the Bruins cashed in on two turnovers and put on a special teams clinic in defeating San Diego State, 44-21, last Saturday at Qualcomm Stadium.

With 50,710 people, the sixth largest home crowd in school history watching, the Aztecs enjoyed statistical advantages in total offense, passing offense, time of possession and third down conversions (see right column). UCLA countered by forcing two key second quarter turnovers, one which gave the Bruins the ball at the SDSU 11 and one that came on a second-and-goal play for SDSU.

The game featured two of the nation's top backs in Doak Walker candidates Maurice Drew (UCLA) and Lynell Hamilton (SDSU) and neither disappointed. Drew carried 11 times for 114 yards and two touchdowns. Hamilton, playing in his first game since November of 2003, carried 24 times for 82 yards and two touchdowns.

UCLA struck first on its first play from scrimmage as Drew turned the left side for a 64-yard touchdown run. The Aztecs got on the board late in the first quarter when Hamilton went in from one-yard out to make it 7-6 Bruins.

In the second quarter, UCLA used a 72-yard punt return for a touchdown and the two key aforementioned turnovers to score 17 points and take a 24-6 lead at intermission. The Bruins took the opening kickoff of the third quarter and drove 74 yards to jump ahead 31-6, before eventually winning 44-21.

UCLA increased its lead in the all-time series to 20-0-1, however, SDSU claimed its first advantage in total offense in the series since 1989. That year the Aztecs outgains the Bruins 437-425, but UCLA scored a touchdown with 2:39 remaining to claim a 28-25 victory.

game 2 - Air Force 41, San Diego State 29

GAME NO. 2

Game Notes

* - San Diego State saw its three-game win streak against Air Force snapped... the Aztecs are now 3-4 in Mountain West Conference openers.

* - San Diego State has struck first against Air Force in each of the last five meetings (four touchdowns and one field goal).

* - San Diego State first-quarter fumble recovery was the first turnover gained this season for the Aztecs.

* - One week after having 10 different players catch a pass, San Diego State had 10 players make at least one catch against the Falcons.

* - San Diego State redshirt freshman Eric Rouser (right tackle) and redshirt freshman Brett Martin (linebacker) both made his first career starts today.

* - Aztec receiver Jeff Webb has caught a pass in 23 straight games in which he has played, while fellow senior Robert Ortiz has turned the trick in 18 straight outings.

* - Webb now has 18 consecutive games, in which he has played, with three or more catches. Webb moved into a tie for sixth place on the school's all time reception list with 155.

* - Antwan Applewhite recorded his first forced fumble and his second recovery in the first quarter of today's game. He previously recovered a fumble against Michigan on Sept. 18, 2004.

*- Freddy Keiaho (13 tackles), Reggie Grigsby (12 tackles) and Antwan Applewhite (9 tackles) all had career-highs in tackles.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. - For the second straight week San Diego State amassed over 400 yards of total offense, but Air Force brought its own high-octane offense along with an opportunistic defense to overpower the Aztecs 41-29 in the Mountain West Conference opener for both teams.

Jacobe Kendrick rushed for 128 yards and scored four touchdowns as the Falcons rolled up 503 yards of total offense and converted three SDSU turnovers into 21 points, helping to snap the Aztecs' three-game winning streak in the series.

Things looked good for the SDSU in the early going as the Aztecs jumped to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter. After an unsuccessful Air Force fake punt, SDSU marched 64 yards in six plays, scoring on a Kevin O'Connell quarterback keeper. Garrett Palmer then added a 40-yard field and the Aztecs appeared in control.

The Falcons, however, owned the second quarter, scoring 20 straight points to seize the momentum. After a long touchdown drive, the Falcons capitalized on two Kevin O'Connell fumbles near midfield and quickly converted the first Aztec miscue of the day.

The Aztecs stopped the Falcon uprising when Garrett Palmer connected on a 29-yard field goal to cut the Falcon lead to 20-13 at halftime.

Air Force stretched its lead to 27-13 after Robert McMemony hauled in 38-yard touchdown pass from Shaun Carney.

The Aztecs whittled into the Falcon lead on a 47-yard Palmer field goal and a 12-yard scoring strike from O'Connell to Robert Ortiz, and suddenly it was 27-22 with 9:59 left.

game 3 - Ohio State 27, San Diego State 6

GAME NO. 3

Game Notes

* - SDSU middle linebacker Freddy Keiaho reached double-figures in tackles in the first half alone with 11 (5 solo, 6 assists). Keiaho finished with 18 total tackles. The school's all-time top 10 list is below ... it is Keiaho's second consecutive game this season and his second career game with 10 tackles or more (he had a career-best 13 vs. Air Force)... the 11 tackles by Keiaho at the half already matched the most by an Aztec player in any complete game against Ohio State (11 by Will Demps in 2001).

* - Aztec senior split end Jeff Webb has caught at least one pass in each of his last 24 games and has three receptions or more in 19 straight contests... Webb moved into sixth place by himself on the SDSU career receptions list.

* - San Diego State's last three meetings with Big Ten opponents have all been closer than expected. A year ago, No. 17 Michigan held a slim 21-17 lead on the Aztecs at the half in Ann Arbor, and went on to win 24-21. In 2003, No. 2 ranked Ohio State was up on SDSU by just six points (13-7) at the half and later claimed a three-point victory, 16-13. In 2001, the Aztecs led by Buckeyes 12-6 at the half in Columbus, but still fell, 27-12.

* - The Aztecs' 80-yard touchdown from Kevin O'Connell to Brett Swain is SDSU's first completion of at least 80 yards since Kassim Osgood found J.R. Tolver on an 87-yard toss on Dec. 7, 2002, at Hawaii... the 80-yard pass is the longest throw of Kevin O'Connell's career (prev. 58 yards vs. Colorado State (10/16/04)) ... the 80-yard reception is Swain's longest of his career (prev. 31 at Wyoming (10/9/04)).

COLUMBUS, Ohio - San Diego State started off on the right note scoring on its first play from scrimmage, but could not overcome a stifling Ohio State defense as the ninth-ranked Buckeyes defeated the Aztecs, 27-6, before a crowd of 104,533 at Ohio Stadium.

SDSU quarterback Kevin O'Connell, who threw for 159 yards on 12-of-17 passing, silenced the crowd when he hit wide receiver Brett Swain on the sideline for an 80-yard touchdown. The scoring drive, which took all of 11 seconds, was the Aztecs' longest single play of the season.

After taking an early lead for a second consecutive week, SDSU would never see the scoreboard again as the Buckeyes came with defensive pressure early and often. For the game, San Diego State only recorded three first downs, 13 rushing yards and 166 passing yards.

Despite SDSU's offensive struggles, the Aztec defense kept the visiting side in the game as it kept Ohio State to only 375 yards of total offense. The 179 yards the Buckeyes earned on the ground was the fewest allowed by SDSU this season.

Leading the way for the Aztecs was Freddy Keiaho. The senior linebacker totaled 18 tackles, 10 of which were of the solo variety, a tackle for a loss of eight yards and a pass break up. Cornerback Donny Baker also had an impressive game with 12 tackles, a forced fumble, a pass break up and the team's first interception of the season. Safeties Marcus Demps and Reggie Grigsby each chipped in nine tackles apiece.

The Buckeyes matched SDSU's opening touchdown with 26 seconds left in the first quarter when quarterback Troy Smith scored on a 14-yard TD run after beginning their drive on the San Diego State 20. Ohio State was kept in check for most of the second quarter until Smith scored from one yard out with 5:15 left in the first half giving the Buckeyes a 14-6 advantage.

OSU then took its initial second-half drive 62 yards into Aztec territory and posted another three points on a Josh Huston 25-yard field goal.

Then as the third quarter winded down, Ohio State punted to the SDSU 13 with an Aztec penalty to follow as time expired. With no time left on the clock and the ball at the SDSU 7-yard line, O'Connell rushed to his right, fumbled the ball and Buckeye linebacker Anthony Schlegel recovered it on the one-yard line.

Both teams marched to the other side of the field to begin the final quarter and Brandon Schnittker ran it in from a yard out effectively ending any chance of an Aztec rally. OSU would later tack on another field goal to give the game its final score.

game 4 - San Diego State 52, San Jose State 21

GAME NO. 4

Game Notes

* The attendance of 55,868 is the third largest in San Diego State history. The Aztecs have broken the 50,000 milestone for the second time this season, marking the first time since the 1992 campaign that SDSU has had a pair of 50,000-plus crowds in the same season (also vs. UCLA 50,710). It is also the third time in the last seven home games that the Aztecs have surpassed 50,000 fans.

* With tonight's win, the Aztecs are 15-16-2 all-time against the Spartans. San Diego State improves to 9-5-1 vs. San Jose State in games played in San Diego and have now won seven straight in the series... The Spartans are now 0-8 in Qualcomm Stadium and have not left "America's Finest City" with a victory since 1952... The last 29 of 33 contests between SDSU and SJSU, the margin of victory has been over 10 points... SDSU has won its 19th straight non-conference home game over a team from a non-automatic qualifying BCS conference.

* SDSU scored 52 total points against SJSU, its most points in a game since 1996, when it beat Hawai'i, 56-8... the 31-point margin of victory is the Aztecs' best since beating UTEP 34-0 on Sept. 13, 2003.

* SDSU surpassed 500 yards of total offense for the first time since Opening Night last year when the Aztecs rolled up 581 yards against Idaho State.

* The Aztecs ran 90 plays and held the ball for 36:08. The last time the Aztecs surpassed 80 plays came three weeks ago when SDSU ran 81 plays against UCLA on Sept. 3, 2005.

SAN DIEGO -- Sophomore quarterback Kevin O'Connell was 23-of-29 with career highs of 271 yards and four touchdowns and the Aztec defense limited the Spartans to 233 yards as San Diego State defeated San Jose State 52-21 on Sept. 24 at Qualcomm Stadium.

The Aztecs defeated the Spartans for the seventh straight time and kept San Jose State winless in San Diego since 1952. The game was played in front of 55,868 fans, the third largest home crowd in SDSU history.

San Diego State produced its highest point total since 1996 and the defense limited the Spartans to just 161 yards after their opening drive of the game. The Aztecs, which never trailed, enjoyed at least a two touchdown lead the final 31:42 of the game.

O'Connell found seven different receivers and had touchdown strikes to three different targets. Senior split end Jeff Webb became the 11th player in San Diego State player to pass 2,000 career yards receiving with eight catches for 133 yards and a touchdown against San Jose State. Senior slot receiver Robert Ortiz caught six passes for 77 yards and added a pair of touchdown receptions.

The Aztecs got touchdown drives of 78 and 80 yards on its first two possessions but were tied at 14 after one quarter. The San Diego State defense stepped up in the second quarter, limiting the Spartans to just eight yards and no first downs while the offense struck for two more touchdowns. Sophomore running back Lynell Hamilton scored his fourth rushing touchdown of the season and later in the frame Ortiz hauled in his second touchdown pass of the game to give the Aztecs a 28-14 halftime lead.

On its first possession of the second half, San Diego State converted a fourth-and-goal at the Spartan's two when sophomore tight end Lance Louis caught a two-yard pass from O'Connell to open up a three touchdown lead.

game 5 - San Diego State 31, Brigham Young 10

GAME NO. 5

Game Notes

* SDSU posted its first victory over BYU since 2000, snapping a four-game skid... the Aztecs posted their first victory in San Diego against the Cougars since Nov. 5, 1988, a span of seven games... SDSU moved to 7-22-1 in the all-time BYU series (5-9-1 in San Diego)... SDSU's 21-point margin of victory is the Aztecs' second-highest in the series with BYU... The SDSU defense held BYU to just 10 points, the Cougars fewest in the series since 1986.

* The attendance is 41,680. After three home games, the total attendance is 148,258. It is the highest total attendance in three consecutive home games in school history. The previous total was 143,652 set against Hawaii, Fresno State and Miami (Fla.) in 1992.

* SDSU has now won back-to-back games by 21 or more points. It marks the first time the Aztecs have posted consecutive 21-point or more margins of victory in back-to-back games since 1999, when SDSU defeated UNLV 37-7 and Wyoming 39-7.

* SDSU recorded four rushing touchdowns against BYU, its most in a game since also tallying four versus Wyoming on Nov. 17, 2001 (38-16 SDSU win).

* SDSU was 5-for-5 in the red zone. The Aztecs are 16-for-17 in red zone opportunities for the season.

* SDSU has not trailed at any point in each of its last two outings. The last time the Aztecs went consecutive games without trailing was Nov. 22, 2003, when SDSU beat Air Force 24-3 and Sept. 4, 2004, when SDSU downed Idaho State, 38-21.

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State used a balanced attack through the air and on the ground to earn its first Mountain West Conference victory of the season over Brigham Young, 31-10, at Qualcomm Stadium. The win snapped the Cougars four-game series win streak and is the Aztecs' first home victory over BYU since 1988.

Running back Lynell Hamilton showed flashes of 2003 when he was a freshman All-America selection. He carried the ball 30 times for 161 yards and two touchdowns. Backfield teammate Brandon Bornes rushed for 77 yards and a score, while quarterback Kevin O'Connell added 27 yards and a TD to lead the ground attack.

O'Connell also stifled the Cougar defense with his arm, completing 21 of his 31 passes, including each of his first 12 attempts, for 243 yards. Wide receiver Jeff Webb hauled in a career high 13 passes for 129 yards, his second consecutive 100-yard game, while Brett Swain caught three balls totaling 74 yards.

After the first 15 minutes the game was scoreless, until SDSU jumped out to a 10-0 lead in the second quarter thanks to a six-yard TD run by O'Connell and a Garrett Palmer 30-yard field goal. BYU later added three points, but with the half was winding down, Hamilton found the endzone from a yard out to give the Aztecs a 17-3 cushion and a lead they would not relinquish.

In the third quarter, the SDSU defense tightened up and kept the Cougars, who were 5-of-16 on third downs, off the scoreboard. The Aztec offense meanwhile, added another seven points when Bornes scored his first touchdown of the season with a four-yard run.

With the game in control, Hamilton posted his second TD of the game capping a season-long, seven-play, 90-yard scoring drive to put the game out of BYU's reach.

The conference game was played before a crowd of 41,680, giving the Aztecs a three home game attendance total of 148,258. This season's first three home games are the highest attended consecutive home games in school history. The previous high came in 1992 when the Aztecs played Hawaii, Fresno State and Miami (143,652).

game 6 - UNLV 13, San Diego State 10

GAME NO. 6

Game Notes

* The Aztec defense has allowed only 30 points in the last 11 quarters.

* SDSU held UNLV to just 76 yards passing, the fewest by an Aztec opponent since Ohio State threw for just 95 yards on Sept. 6, 2003.

* UNLV's second quarter touchdown was its first in 151 minutes and 15 seconds against San Diego State.

* UNLV's winning field goal with nine seconds remaining, broke the Aztecs' streak of 179 minutes and 51 seconds without trailing.

* Linebacker Freddy Keiaho's 39-yard fumble recovery was the first of his career.

* Cornerback Terrell Maze forced his first career fumble in the third quarter of today's game.

* Linebacker Joe Martin recorded his first career interception and touchdown in the second quarter. His 86-yard return was the ninth longest in school history and the longest by a player during the Tom Craft era.

* Wide Receiver Jeff Webb has now caught a pass in 27 straight games in which he has played. Coming into today's game, his streak of 26 consecutive games was tied for the 13th longest active streak in the country.

* Webb has caught at least three passes in 22 straight games.

* Webb has moved ahead of Monty Gilbreath into seventh place in San Diego State history for career receiving yards. He currently has 2,248 for his career.

LAS VEGAS, Nev. - Sergio Aguayo hit two 52-yard field goals in the last 5:05 of the fourth quarter, including the game-winner with only nine seconds remaining, to give UNLV a 13-10 victory over San Diego State at Sam Boyd Stadium.

On a day where the offense struggled, the San Diego State defense had another strong performance. The Aztecs limited UNLV to 13 first downs, 241 yards of total offense and forced three turnovers. In addition, the SDSU defense scored a touchdown and set up all 10 points. The Rebels' 88 yards through the air were the fewest allowed by the defense since Ohio State's 76 on Sept. 6, 2003.

Freddy Keiaho led the Aztecs in tackles for the fifth time in seven games, registering 13 stops (five solos), and recovering his first career fumble and returning it 39 yards to the Rebel one-yard line, setting up a Garrett Palmer 22-yard field goal.

Russell Allen, who last Monday was named the Mountain West Conference Defensive Player of the Week, recorded four tackles and made his first career interception.

Reggie Grigsby finished the game with nine tackles and Joe Martin had eight stops and his first career interception, bringing it back 86 yards the other way for the first score of the game. It was the fifth consecutive game that SDSU got on the scoreboard first.

UNLV responded with a six-play, 53-yard drive that culminated in a five-yard touchdown run by Jaja Riley.

The score would remain 7-7 until Palmer's 22-yard field goal with 58 seconds left in the third quarter. Aguayo then nailed his two 52-yarders, helping the Rebels snap their three-game losing streak against the Aztecs.

game 7 - San Diego State 28, Utah 19

GAME NO. 7

Game Notes

* The victory broke a three-game road losing streak giving SDSU its first road victory of the season. It also snapped the nation's sixth-longest home-field win streak as Utah suffered a home loss for the first time since Oct. 25, 2003. Utah's home win streak was snapped at 10 games.

* With the victory, SDSU has defeated every MWC team it lost to last season (BYU, Utah), thus far in its 2005 schedule.

* For just the second time in school history, San Diego State has defeated Brigham Young and Utah in the same season. In 1986, the Aztecs also posted wins over the two Beehive State schools, finishing with an 8-4 record and a trip to the Holiday Bowl.

* SDSU did not turn the ball over against Utah, the first time the Aztecs have had no turnovers in a game since 2003 vs. Air Force (Nov. 22) in a 24-3 win.

* Kevin O'Connell's 60-yard TD pass to Jeff Webb is SDSU's fourth-longest play of 2005 and third-longest offensive play... Webb's 13th career TD marks the third time in the last five games that the Aztecs have scored on their opening drive.

* SDSU also had its third-longest play of the year (second-longest offensive play of the year) on Kevin O'Connell's 61-yard run in the second quarter... The 61-yarder is the Aztecs' longest rush of 2005, eclipsing a 53-yard run by Lynell Hamilton versus BYU. es in which he has played.

SALT LAKE CITY -- Kevin O'Connell threw for 219 yards and three touchdowns and ran for 88 yards and another score as San Diego State defeated Utah, 28-19, on Oct. 15 at Rice-Eccles Stadium.

The win was the first for the Aztecs in Salt Lake City since 1995 and also the first time they beat both Brigham Young and Utah in the same season since 1986.

Wide receiver Jeff Webb caught nine passes for 142 yards and two touchdowns. It was his ninth career game with at least 100 yards receiving and the third time in the last four games he has reached the century mark.

Sophomore Brandon Bornes, filling in for an injured Lynell Hamilton, carried 25 times for a tough 78 yards.

Junior Joe Martin (12 tackles), senior Kurt Kahui (10) and sophomore Nick Osborn (10) each posted career highs in tackles. Osborn also had two sacks and junior Reggie Grigsby had an interception and forced his first career fumble.

SDSU jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter, thanks to a 60-yard scoring strike from O'Connell to Webb just 2:26 into the game and a one-yard touchdown run by O'Connell. After a Ute field goal, O'Connell found senior Robert Ortiz for a five-yard touchdown pass, giving the Aztecs a 21-3 cushion and all the points they would need.

Utah responded with 16 straight points off two field goals by Dan Beardall and a three-yard run by quarterback Brian Johnson to bring the Utes within two points (21-19).

SDSU put a stop to the streak early in the fourth quarter with a 10-play, 66-yard drive, culminating with a 10-yard touchdown throw from O'Connell to Webb.

Utah had a chance to get within a field goal late in the fourth until Grigsby tackled Quinto Ganther, forcing a fumble on the Aztec two-yard line. The ball was eventually recovered in the end zone by senior Marcus Demps.

SDSU did not have a turnover in the game for the first time since Nov. 22, 2003, a period of 19 contests.

The victory gave the Aztecs a 2-2 record in the MWC and a .500 or better record in conference play this late in the season for the first time since they ended 2002 at 4-2 in the MWC.

game 8 - New Mexico 47, San Diego State 24

GAME NO. 8

Game Notes

* Jeff Webb logged his 10th career game with 100 or more yards receiving and his fourth in the last five games.

* Webb moved from third to second on the Aztec career receptions list with 201.

* Webb caught his 15th and 16th career touchdown passes and has two TDs in each of the last two games. Webb has two or more TD receptions in the same game four times in his career.

* Webb has caught at least three balls in 24 straight games and has caught at least one pass in 29 consecutive games.

* San Diego State put together its 11th and 12th scoring drives of 80 or more yards this season. Each of the Aztecs' last four scoring drives which have resulted in a touchdown have gone for 80 or more yards (82 yards, 80 yards at Utah).

* Free safety T.J. McKay intercepted his first career pass in the second quarter. Eight different Aztecs have accounted for the team's nine interceptions in 2005.

* Kicker Garrett Palmer converted his seventh career field goal of 40-or-more yards with his 43-yard kick in the second quarter. He is now 7-of-8 on the year.

* Senior Freddy Keiaho's blocked punt in the third quarter was the fourth of his career. All four of his blocks have come against MWC opponents... Following his blocked punt, Keiaho scored his first career touchdown.

*Senior Kurt Kahui recorded a career high in tackles with 11, reaching double-figures for the second consecutive outing after tallying 10 at Utah.

SAN DIEGO -- New Mexico scored on its first five possessions and held San Diego State to just 115 yards in the first half en route to a 47-24 win over the Aztecs at Qualcomm Stadium.

SDSU tried to close the gap in the second half with two touchdown passes from Kevin O'Connell to Jeff Webb, but could never get any closer than 16 points.

On their opening drive, the Lobos drove 52 yards in 2:22 before quarterback Kole McKamey found Travis Brown in the end zone for a 17-yard touchdown. The Lobos would miss the ensuing point after attempt.

DonTrell Moore, who rushed for 162 yards on 36 carries, made it 13-0 New Mexico on a four-yard touchdown scamper.

After a Lobo 39-yard field goal by Kenny Byrd, McKamey threw a 10-yard touchdown strike to Hank Baskett, giving New Mexico a 23-0 lead.

SDSU's Garrett Palmer nailed a 43-yard field goal, but McKamey answered back with a one-yard touchdown run, stretching the Lobo lead to 30-3 at intermission.

After Byrd's second field goal of the game, SDSU's Freddy Keiaho blocked a punt and ran it back four yards for a touchdown with 6:15 left in the third quarter, the fourth score of the season by the defense or special teams.

However, New Mexico scored on its next possession when Hank Baskett caught his second touchdown pass from McKamey, this time an 11 yarder.

The Aztecs scored on their next two drives, both touchdown passes from O'Connell to Webb for three and 11 yards, respectively, but Marcus Smith's 10-yard run with just 2:41 remaining ended any hope of a SDSU comeback.

Webb reached 100 yards receiving for the fourth time in five games, catching nine balls for 132 yards. With the nine receptions, Webb moved from third to second on the Aztec career receptions list with 201, surpassing Will Blackwell who had 197 from 1994-96.

O'Connell threw for 197 yards on 15-of-34 passing and two scores and ran for another 37 yards on 11 carries.

Marcus Demps led the defense with 12 tackles, including 10 solo stops. Kurt Kahui had a career high 11 stops and Reggie Grigsby also had 11. T.J. McKay intercepted his first career pass in the second quarter and Antwan Applewhite recovered a fumble.

game 9 - TCU 23, San Diego State 20

GAME NO. 9

Game Notes

* SDSU has lost three of its last five meetings against ranked opponents by just a three-point margin... The Aztecs also fell at No. 17 Michigan 24-21 in 2004, and at No. 2 Ohio State, 16-13, in 2003.

* Aztec linebacker Freddy Keiaho set a career high for solo tackles with 11 beating his previous best of 10 at Ohio State earlier this season.

* SDSU wide receiver Jeff Webb moved into sixth place all-time in San Diego State history for career receiving yards surpassing Tim Delaney (2,535)... Webb has caught at least three passes in 25 straight contests and at least one pass in 30 consecutive games... He has at least one TD reception in each of the last three games.

* Junior strong safety Brett Sturm forced his first career fumble in the second quarter of tonight's game... Sturm's second quarter interception is his second of the season and second of his career.

* Sophomore defensive end Antwan Applewhite recovered his third fumble of the season, fourth of his career and second in the last two games.

* Senior wide receiver Robert Ortiz entered the school's top 10 in career receptions tonight.... Ortiz, who came into the game with 124 catches, surpassed Craig Scoggins (129), who played for the Aztecs in 1965-66... Ortiz has caught a pass in 29 of his last 30 games.

* Sophomore punter Michael Hughes has 16 punts that have been downed inside the opponent's 20-yard line this season. His total easily eclipses last year's total of 12... Two of his punts tonight have been downed inside the five-yard line.

SAN DIEGO -- San Diego State played the nation's 20th-ranked team even for three quarters, but TCU scored 10 fourth-quarter points en route to a 23-20 victory.

The final statistics showed how close the game was with the Horned Frogs owning a slight advantage in total offense (403-360) and first downs (24-20), but the Aztecs countering with a turnover advantage (3-2) against the team that entered the contest with the best turnover margin in the nation. San Diego State was partially done in by a missed 35-yard field goal and a red-zone interception in the fourth quarter.

TCU scored on its first possession of the game. After holding San Diego State on fourth and one at the TCU 49, the Horned Frogs drove 51 yards in five plays capped by a one-yard touchdown run by Robert Merill. Merill was just warming up as he would carry 29 times for 170 yards and two touchdowns on the day.

The Aztecs defense dodged a threat later in the quarter when Brett Martin intercepted a pass at the Aztec nine.

The second quarter belonged to San Diego State, as the Aztecs held the Horned Frogs to just 36 yards of offense in the frame and took the lead.

San Diego State got on the board after Brett Sturm forced and recovered a TCU fumble giving the offense the ball at the Frog 20-yard line. Four plays later Garrett Palmer kicked a 37-yard field goal to cut the lead to 7-3.

The Aztecs went on top later in the quarter when Kevin O'Connell converted a third and six with a 26-yard scamper to give San Diego State a 10-7 lead. SDSU closed out a strong frame by driving 28 yards in 91 seconds and Palmer's 36-yard field goal as the second-quarter clock expired gave SDSU a 13-7 lead at intermission.

TCU would strike midway through the third quarter, again following a failed fourth down attempt by the Aztecs. After SDSU could not convert on fourth and three at the TCU 38, the Frogs drive 55 yards in six plays and Merrill scores from 21 yards out. The extra point attempt was no good and the game was tied at 13.

The Horned Frogs scored on their first two possessions of the fourth quarter. Cory Rodgers capped a 92-yard drive with a six-yard touchdown run to put TCU up 20-13. SDSU responded by driving 77 yards in 14 plays but on third and goal at the Frog two-yard line, Kevin O'Connell's pass was intercepted in the end zone by David Roach.

TCU cashed in with a 37-yard field goal by Chris Manfredini to go up 23-13 with 3:50 to play.

San Diego State cut the deficit to three points quickly, taking the issuing kickoff and driving 65 yards in 90 seconds and pulling to within three points following O'Connell's eight-yard touchdown strike to Jeff Webb.

But the Aztecs would not get the ball back. TCU was able to keep the ball the final 2:20, converting a critical fourth-and-one with 44 seconds remaining.

game 10 - San Diego State 30, Colorado State 10

GAME NO. 10

Game Notes

* - The Aztecs have won consecutive road games for the first time since the 2000 campaign when San Diego State won at BYU (Oct. 21) and at New Mexico (Nov. 4).

* - SDSU has won 14 straight when owning at least a 14-point lead at any point during the game.

* - SDSU ended CSU's bid for a perfect home record in 2005, snapping the Rams' four-game winning streak at Hughes Stadium. That is the second significant home field win streak SDSU has broken this season as the Aztecs ended Utah's 10-game homefield win streak.

* - San Diego State has won on three of its last four visits to Hughes Stadium, claiming victories in 1999, 2001 and 2005.

* - San Diego State has won four of its last six road games during the month of November.

* - The Aztecs now own a 13-12 all-time series lead over the Rams. San Diego State snapped Colorado State's three-game series winning streak.

* - SDSU's 17-point halftime lead is the largest the Aztecs have had in 2005 and is the largest overall since Sept. 4, 2004, when the Aztecs owned a 31-0 advantage over Idaho State. The 20-point halftime lead over a conference opponent is the largest since 2000 vs. Wyoming. The Aztecs led 24-0 at the half and eventually won 34-0.

*Wideout Chaz Schilens scored his first career TD and had a career-best six receptions and 85 receiving yards.

* - SDSU had three interceptions in the fourth quarter. The three INTs are the Aztecs most in a game since 2004 at Michigan.

FORT COLLINS, Colo. -- Kevin O'Connell threw for 179 yards and two touchdowns and San Diego State made Colorado State look like anything but a bowl team with a 30-10 victory over the Rams.

Chaz Schilens had six catches for 85 yards, Jeff Webb had a pretty touchdown catch in the back of the end zone and Lynell Hamilton ran for 108 yards to help San Diego State (4-6, 3-4 Mountain West) hand CSU its first home loss of the year.

The Aztecs intercepted three passes, stopped CSU twice on fourth down and forced the Rams to settle for field goal tries on two trips inside the 10. They kept their hopes alive for a .500 season and improved on an up-and-down year in which they had already swept Utah and BYU for the first time since 1986.

While San Diego State was looking for things to build on, Colorado State (5-5, 4-3) came in hoping to make something out of this season. A win would have ensured the Rams a winning record and qualified them for a bowl game, but it was the Aztecs who got off on the right foot.

SDSU took advantage of a 15-yard CSU penalty to extend its first scoring drive of the afternoon, which ended with a 20-yard touchdown pass from O'Connell to Schilens.

Late in the first quarter, CSU recovered a fumble at the San Diego State 20, but had to settle for a short field goal.

In the second, O'Connell avoided the rush and found Webb in the back of the end zone for a 24-yard touchdown strike that made it 17-3.

SDSU led 20-3 at the half, before the Rams would make it interesting with a touchdown in the third quarter on a 16-yard scamper by Kyle Bell, who would end the afternoon with 176 yards on 33 carries.

Garrett Palmer's third field goal gave the Aztecs a 23-10 cushion with 13:27 left in the game, but it was the SDSU defense, which limited the Rams to only 89 yards of total offense in the first half, that would secure the victory.

Each of CSU's final three possessions ended with Aztec interceptions. The first was by safety Marcus Demps at the San Diego State 12-yard line, while the second and most critical, came in the end zone when Terrell Maze intercepted a Justin Holland pass on fourth and eight and five minutes remaining.

After a 47-yard TD run by Hamilton, SDSU's third takeaway of the quarter, this time by linebacker Russell Allen at the Aztec five-yard line, added an exclamation point to the 30-10 victory.
