THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE GAME

- San Diego State and North Carolina State are meeting for the first-time ever. In fact, SDSU head coach Steve Fisher has never faced the Wolfpack during his coaching career.
- The NCAA second round match-up is just the seventh time San Diego State will face an ACC opponent and first since it played at Duke in 2001.

■ SDSU enters the NCAA Tournament with 2-1 record when owning a higher seed. Last season as a No. 2 seed, the Aztecs defeated 15th-seeded Northern Colorado and seventh-seeded Temple in Tucson, Ariz., before falling to third-seeded and eventual national champion Connecticut in the Sweet 16 in Anaheim, Calif.

Aztecs in NCAA Tournament For 3rd Straight Season; Open Tourney Against North Carolina State on Friday in Columbus, Ohio

After claiming a share of its second consecutive Mountain West Conference regular-season title, No. 22/23 (AP/Coaches) San Diego State, the sixth-seeded team in the Midwest Region, opens NCAA Tournament play on Friday afternoon in Columbus, Ohio, against 11th-seeded North Carolina State.

The contest will be the first of four Friday games at Nationwide Arena and game time is set for 12:40 p.m. ET (9:40 a.m. PT). The contest will be shown nationally in high definition on truTV and is available on KOGO 95.7 FM and AM 600.

In the NCAA Tournament for a school-record third consecutive season, San Diego State owns a 26-7 record. The Aztecs are in the postseason for a seventh consecutive season, won at least 20 games for a seventh consecutive season, and are currently one of seven schools in the nation to have won at least 25 games each of the last four seasons.

San Diego State, which finished as Mountain West regular-season co-champions with a 10-4 record, advanced to the championship game of the 2012 Conoco MW Championships, falling to New Mexico, 68-59. Junior guard Chase Tapley connected on five three-point field goals en route to a game-high 25 points and five rebounds. Sophomore guard Jamaal Franklin recorded his 12th double-double of the season with 16 points and a team-high 10 rebounds.

The Aztecs continue to be present in the national polls, spending a 12th consecutive week in the Associated Press Top 25. This week, San Diego State is ranked 22nd by the Associated Press and 23rd in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' Poll.

One reason for the Aztecs' success this season has been their stellar defense. San Diego State ranks among the nation's elite in defense as demonstrated by its national rankings in field-goal percentage defense (31st, 40.0 pct.) and fewest personal fouls (29th, 15.9). Despite starting four guards, the Aztecs are 39th nationally in rebound margin at +4.8.

San Diego State's remarkable season caught many of the prognosticators off guard. The Aztecs lost four starters and the top four scorers off last season's 34-3, NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 team. No national preseason publication predicted that SDSU would make the NCAA Tournament and the Aztecs were not picked to finish higher than third in the conference.

This marks the eighth Division I NCAA Tournament appearance for San Diego State and the third consecutive season the Aztecs have been part of the NCAA field. It also marks the first time in 42 seasons at the Division I level in which the Aztecs have received an at-large selection in the tournament. On the previous seven trips, the Aztecs received an automatic bid to the field.

Friday will mark the first men's basketball game played between San Diego State and North Carolina State. The Aztecs are 1-5 against the current configuration of the ACC, posting a 56-49 win over Miami (Fla.) on Feb. 6, 1988.

Quick Hits - NCAA Tournament

- San Diego State is playing in its eighth NCAA Tournament in its 42nd season at the Division I level.
- This is San Diego State's Division I school-record third consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance. Not long ago, the Aztecs went 16 seasons without making any postseason appearances, from 1985-86 through 2000-01.
- This is San Diego State's school-record seventh straight postseason appearance (4 NCAAs, 3 NITs). The seven postseason trips in the last seven years is one more than SDSU had in its 35 years as a Division I school prior to the current streak.
- San Diego State is traveling to the Eastern time zone for the NCAA Tournament for the second time in three seasons. In 2010, the Aztecs traveled to Providence, R.I., falling to Tennessee, 62-59, in the round of 64.
- San Diego State advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 last season, making the Aztecs 2-1 in their last three tourney games.
- Steve Fisher is making his 12th NCAA Tournament appearance and fifth as the head coach at San Diego State. He owns a 22-10 record in the SEASON (through Monday games) event, claiming the 1989 national championship and advancing to the title game in 1992 and 1993.
- This is the third time in eight NCAA Division I tournament appearances that San Diego State has been involved in a 6-11 game. On two previous occasions, San Diego State was the 11-seed, losing a pair of close games. In 2006, the Aztecs lost to sixth-seeded Indiana, 87-83, while in 2010, SDSU lost to Tennessee, 62-59.
- Since 2009, San Diego State is 5-3 in postseason play. That record is helped by an appearance at Madison Square Garden as a national semifinalist in the 2009 NIT and last season's NCAA Sweet 16 appearance.
- On Friday, junior Chase Tapley will become the first player in school history to have played in three NCAA Tournaments for San Diego State. Current SDSU assistant coach Tony Bland played in three total NCAA Tournaments (two at Syracuse and one at SDSU). Senior forward Tim Shelton has been part of three NCAA Tournament teams, but did not play in the 2010 NCAA event due to injury.

The Seed

- The Aztecs' No. 6 seed is their second-best in school history, trailing last season's No. 2 seed, which they rode to the Sweet 16. In three other trips to the NCAA Tournament under Steve Fisher, San Diego State earned an 11 seed in 2006 and 2010 and a No. 13 seed in 2002.
- The No. 6 seed is the second time a Steve Fisher-coached team has landed on that line. The first time, 1992 while at Michigan, Fisher led his squad to a runner-up finish after losing to Duke.
- In his seven trips to the NCAA Tournament while at Michigan, Fisher's teams were seeded third (1989), third (1990), sixth (1992), first (1993), third (1994), ninth (1995) and seventh (1996).

Experience vs. Inexperience

Steve Fisher is one of the most successful NCAA Tournament coaches in history. Even though San Diego State is playing in its third straight NCAA Tournament and advanced to the Sweet 16 in 2011, there is still a huge gap between what Fisher has done in the tournament and what the Aztecs have accomplished to date. The contrast between the two is broken down below.

	Fisher	SDSU

Aztecs vs. the NCAA Field

■ San Diego State has faced seven teams that earned an invitation to the NCAA Tournament. In those games, the Aztecs posted a 6-6 record (2-1 vs. Colorado State, 1-0 vs. Long Beach State and California, 1-1 vs. UNLV, 1-2 vs. New Mexico and 0-1 vs. Baylor and Creighton).

Fisher's Time of Year

■ It is late in the season and this is when Steve Fisher's teams are known to make a run. Including conference and postseason tournament, Fisher owns a 50-24 record in postseason play. That figure includes a 18-9 mark in the MW tournament, 10-5 record in the NIT and a remarkable 22-10 record in the NCAA Tournament.

Ohio is a Familiar Place for SDSU

■ Believe it or not, the State of Ohio is a familiar place for San Diego State. Last season, the Aztecs played three games in three days in Oxford, Ohio, the home of Miami (Ohio). SDSU won all three games (vs. Green Bay, vs. IUPUI, at Miami (Ohio)) to claim the Oxford Subregional of the CBE Classic.

Jamaal Franklin Scoring and Rebounding Improvement

- Jamaal Franklin is among the national leaders in largest scoring and rebounding improvement from last year to this year.
- Franklin ranks second in scoring improvement behind Jaron Jones of Eastern Kentucky (+14.52). Last year, Franklin averaged 2.91 points and is up to 17.2 to give him a +14.29 point improvement (through games of March 11).
- Rebounding-wise, Franklin ranks second nationally with a +6.04 improvement over a year ago. He sits behind only Meyers Leonard of Illinois (+6.96) (through games of March 11).

Tapley Nets 1,000 Career Points, 200 Career Assists

■ Chase Tapley became the 27th player in San Diego State history to score 1,000 points in a career and 10th player in the Steve Fisher era to accomplish the feat vs. Boise State in the Mountain West quarter-finals. The junior also reached the 200-assist plateau for a career to become the seventh player in school history to log 1,000 career points and 200 career assists.

Aztecs Share Mountain West Regular-Season Title

- San Diego State, after finishing the Mountain West season with a 10-4 record, earned a share of the regular-season title with New Mexico. The task was not easy as the Aztecs were forced to win a pair of road games to close out the season, while the Lobos finished with a home game.
- The regular-season championship was SDSU's second straight and third overall. In 2006, the Aztecs won the title outright and shared the crown last year with Brigham Young.

Fisher, Franklin Headline SDSU's All-League Selections

ing and individual honors. Fisher was named MW Coach of the Year and Franklin was voted the MW Player of the Year.

- A year after sharing the coach of the year honors, Fisher was the sole winner after guiding SDSU to a share of the MW regular-season title. The Aztecs lost four starters and still managed claim their second straight regular-season championship.
- Franklin led the league in scoring (19.5) and was third in rebounding (9.9). The all-MW first-team choice also finished the conference season ranked second in free-throw percentage (.866), third in field-goal percentage (.463) and seventh in blocked shots (0.77). Franklin scored in double figures in all 13 games played and registered a double-double on nine different occasions.
- Other Aztecs to earn all-league accolades include, Chase Tapley (second-team), Tim Shelton (all-defensive team, honorable mention) and Xavier Thames (honorable mention).

USBWA Recognizes Fisher and Franklin

- Steve Fisher, similar to the Mountain West, won USBWA District IX Coach of the Year honors for a second straight season. District IX consists of voters in California, Oregon, Washington, Hawaii, Arizona and Alaska
- Franklin, meanwhile, was selected to the all-District IX squad after completing the regular season with averages of 17.1 points, 8.0 rebounds, 1.4 assists, 1.0 steals and 11 double-doubles.

Like Us Now? Wait Until Next Year

- Many outside of the program tabbed this season as a rebuilding year for San Diego State after losing four starters off a 34-3 Sweet 16 club. What did the Aztecs do? They earned a share of the Mountain West regular-season title, advanced to their MW-record fourth straight conference tournament title game, grabbed a No. 6 seed in the NCAA Tournament, won 25 or more games for the fourth straight season and were ranked for the final 12 weeks of the campaign.
- Next year, the Aztecs will add a trio of Division I transfers in JJ O'Brien (Utah), Dwayne Polee II (St. John's) and James Johnson (Virginia). All three will be sophomores in 2012-13.
- 0'Brien played one season at Utah where he started 21 of the 22 games he saw action. The 6-7, 215-pound forward averaged 6.4 points and 5.5 rebounds, which was the second-highest total on the team, as a true freshman.
- Polee II played his true freshman campaign at St. John's where he averaged 4.4 points and 2.5 rebounds on a team that featured 10 seniors. The 6-7, 195-pound wing played in all 33 games and started 27 times, including the final 21 to help the Red Storm advance to the NCAA Tournament.
- Johnson is 6-9, 238 pounds and transferred to SDSU at the semester break. The forward will be eligible as soon as fall 2012 grades are posted at midseason. At Virginia, the redshirt freshman played in six games and averaged 1.5 points and 1.3 rebounds in 6.2 minutes.

Jamaal Franklin Joins Select Group

- Jamaal Franklin finished with 31 points and 16 rebounds vs. Colorado State to become the third player in SDSU's Division I history to post a 30-point, 15-rebound game.
- Franklin's effort was the school's first since March 1, 1984, when Michael Cage went off for 30 points and 15 boards vs. Wyoming.
- Franklin's performance is SDSU's fifth-such effort. Cage accomplished the feat three times (Dec. 1, 1982, Feb. 6, 1984, March 1, 1984) and Chris McMurray did it once (Dec. 21, 1971).
- Franklin is the first guard in the nation to have a 30-15 effort this season. He is the first guard to accomplish the feat since Lehigh's C.J. McCollum did it last season.

The Second Coming of Kawhi Leonard?

- Jamaal Franklin has taken a page out of former Aztec and current San Antonio Spur Kawhi Leonard's book.
- Franklin has created a reputation of being one of the first in the gym and more often than not, the last one out. The results are similar as well.
- The sophomore did not start his first 10 games played this season, but has started the last 21 outings in which he has played and has seen his numbers look a lot like Leonard's.
- In his last 21 games, he is averaging 18.3 points and 8.9 rebounds, which both lead the team. He also has 12 double-doubles during that span.
- A season ago as a sophomore, Leonard averaged 15.5 points and 10.6 rebounds, and had 23 double-doubles. As a freshman and a regular first-time starter (started 33 games), much like Franklin is this season, Leonard averaged 12.7 points and 9.9 rebounds, and posted 17 double-doubles.

Fisher Wins No. 250 at SDSU

■ Steve Fisher pocketed his 250th career victory at San Diego State with his team's win at Wyoming. Fisher is in his 13th season on Montezuma Mesa and trails George Ziegenfuss for the school's all-time lead. Ziegenfuss coached at San Diego State from 1948-69 and was 316-229.

Success at The Pit

■ San Diego State has enjoyed unprecedented success at New Mexico's The Pit. With its win earlier this season, the Aztecs improved to 5-2 in their last seven at the venue. The rest of the country, however, is a combined 12-101 since late in the 2004-05 season inside The Pit.

It's Only One Game

■ It is only one game, but the Aztecs' win over No. 12 UNLV in their Mountain West opener represented the second-highest ranked team San Diego State has defeated at home and the highest-ranked club it has beat at Viejas Arena. SDSU has beaten the seventh-ranked team on three different occasions (BYU in 1988, UTEP in 1984 and Kansas in 1978).

Tough Out

- San Diego State has had great success over the years inside Viejas Arena. Since 2005-06, the Aztecs are 98-13 (.883) at Viejas, including 45-4 (.918) since the beginning of 2009-10.
- San Diego State has won 46 of its last 47 against unranked teams at home.
- The Aztecs have won 25 of their last 26 home games vs. current members of the MW.
- SDSU has won 33 of its last 34 home games vs. non-league foes.

Among the Nation's Best

- San Diego State has seen its name associated with the AP Top 25 for the last 38 polls, which is remarkable considering it had never been ranked prior to the 2010-11 campaign.
- The Aztecs were in all 19 polls a season ago, peaking as high as No. 4 in 2010-11, and have seen their name in every poll this season.
- SDSU is receiving 223 points in the AP, which is good for 22nd, and 99 in the Coaches' poll, which puts them in 23rd place. The Aztecs fell four spots in the AP and dropped two spots in the Coaches' from a week ago.
- San Diego State has been in both major top-25 polls for 11 consecutive weeks.

Charge!

■ Steve Fisher has said the charge is this year's team's blocked shot. To date, Tim Shelton has taken a team-high 31. A complete season total list is located in the statistics section of these game notes.

20-Point Efforts

- So far this season, San Diego State has received 21 20-point scoring efforts from four different players, which is a lot through 33 games considering last year's 34-3 squad enjoyed 21 such performances by five different Aztecs.
- The Aztecs had at least one 20-point scorer in a season-long four straight games before the streak was broken vs. UC Riverside on Dec. 19.
- Chase Tapley also has nine 20-point efforts, Jamaal Franklin has eight, Xavier Thames has three, and James Rahon has one.

Winning the Close Ones

- San Diego State has lived on the edge at times this season as it has played 11 games that have been decided by four points or less, with four going into overtime. Additionally, the Aztecs had one road outing, at San Diego, where they were forced to rally from a 12-point first-half deficit and another at New Mexico where they found themselves down 10-0.
- Since the beginning of last season, the Aztecs have been hard to beat in games decided by three points or less, posting an 12-3 record.
- San Diego State's overtime record over the last 15 games has been quite impressive as well. The Aztecs have won five consecutive OT games and are 14-1 in their last 15.

Holding Its Own

■ San Diego State went 10-73 in its first 83 games vs. teams ranked in the AP Top-25. Things have certainly turned as SDSU is a respectable 11-12 in its last 23 against AP-ranked squads. In home games vs. Associated Press Top-25 squads, SDSU is 6-3 in its last nine, which includes decisions over No. 12 UNLV and No. 24 California. In road/neutral games vs. AP-ranked foes, meanwhile, the Aztecs have gone 4-5 in their last nine, which includes this season's victory at No. 23 Arizona.

Unlikely Contributor

- Narbeh Ebrahimian, from Glendale Community College in Glendale, Calif., was just a walk-on who came to open tryouts and was invited to workout with the team when practices began in mid-October with no guarantees.
- The junior from Glendale, Calif., then found himself suited up for the game vs. California and made the trip across town to San Diego. It was not until the game vs. UC Riverside that he had his name called. It was not garbage time either. Ebrahimian entered the game with 11:06 remaining in regulation and ultimately finished with a point and a rebound in five minutes.
- Ebrahimian has played in four games and is averaging 1.8 points and 2.3 rebounds.

Dropping Dimes

- Xavier Thames had an incredible game in the road game at San Diego with his second career double-double. What made it more impressive was the fact it was a points-assists double-double. The sophomore had 11 points and a career-high 11 assists.
- The 11 dimes were tied for the most in the Steve Fisher era. Deandre Moore accomplished the feat twice, while Lorrenzo Wade and Richie Williams did it once apiece.
- The points-assists double-double was the first since Wade went for 25 points and 11 assists vs. Colorado State on March 1, 2008.
- The 11 assists were the most by an Aztec in a road game since Dec. 1, 1986, when Tracy Dildy had 11 at UC Santa Barbara.

Thames Makes History

- At UC Santa Barbara, Xavier Thames exploded for a then-career-high 20 points and a personal-record 10 rebounds. With his performance, Thames became the first point guard during the Steve Fisher era, which is in its 13th season, to record a 20-point, 10-rebound game.
- Thames was the first SDSU point guard to register a double-double since Richie Williams went for 14 points and 11 rebounds at TCU on Feb. 28, 2009.
- He followed his historic performance with a career-high 21 points the next game vs. No. 22 Creighton.

Wily Veteran

- Tim Shelton has been around the block being a fifth-year senior and his court savvy proves it.
- His effectiveness will never be shown on the stat sheet as he does things that head coach Steve Fisher says, "Wins games for you."
- Fisher's statement was never more true than in the game vs. Long Beach State as Shelton took four charges, which changed the complexion of the game, especially in the second half.
- If you thought the four charges taken vs. LBSU was impressive, Shelton one-upped himself at No. 23/23 Arizona by taking six more charges.
- To date, Shelton has taken a team-high 31 charges.

Wearing Out the Nylon

- Junior Chase Tapley, the lone returning starter, has been a consistent scoring option for SDSU, averaging 15.7 points on 45.7 percent shooting and a pretty good 43.3 percent from beyond the arc.
- Tapley has nine 20-point efforts this season, including a career-high 28 at No. 11/12 Baylor, 25 vs. New Mexico in the Mountain West finals, 25 vs. No. 24/23 California and 23 at San Diego.
- Tapley, who had three 20-point games in four games earlier this season, was the first player to accomplish the feat since Kawhi Leonard did it in the first four games of last season, while averaging 20.5 points. Tapley and Leonard arrived at San Diego State together in time for the 2009-10 campaign. Leonard went on to become the 15th overall pick in the 2011 NBA Draft.

The Lowdown on the Arizona Game

- San Diego State defeated No. 23/23 Arizona earlier this season at McKale Center to snap the Wildcats' 22-game home winning streak. The Aztecs never trailed in the 61-57 victory.
- As a ranked team, Arizona had won 62 straight games at McKale Center against unranked competition until San Diego State held them to a season-low 33.3-percent shooting performance.
- SDSU defeated Arizona for the second consecutive time for just the second time in school history.
- SDSU made eight of its 12 three-point attempts. The 66.7-percent accuracy marked a season high.

California Livin'

- San Diego State has been one of the best programs in the West, having won 20 or more games six straight seasons, including three consecutive with 25 or more, and advancing to the postseason in each of those years as well.
- Last year's 34-3 record and NCAA Sweet 16 appearance solidified its spot as one of the top West Coast programs and the top team in the state of California. The Aztecs have currently won 23 straight games against California universities, a streak that spans two-plus seasons. SDSU was 9-0 this season vs. schools that call California their home.

Duo With Diplomas

- Seniors Tim Shelton and Garrett Green are in their final year having already obtained their degrees.
- The duo is enrolled in graduate school and pursuing their master's degrees in education leadership.
- Shelton graduated from San Diego State last May, while Green earned his degree from LSU in August.

Coaching Stability

- Steve Fisher is the longest tenured head coach in the 13-year history of the Mountain West. In fact, he is the only men's basketball coach to be in the league from the conference opened its doors.
- Associate head coach/head coach in waiting Brian Dutcher has also been with Fisher for all 13 years.

Mountain West Preseason Predictions

- SDSU was picked to finish in third place in the 2011-12 preseason MW media poll. The Aztecs received 158 points to finish behind New Mexico (203 points; 22 first-place votes) and UNLV (183; 4).
- Sophomore Xavier Thames was selected as the preseason Mountain West Newcomer of the Year by the league's voting media. Thames sat out 2010-11 following his transfer from Washington State.

MADHOUSE ON THE MESA

AZTECS BREAK SINGLE-SEASON ATTENDANCE RECORD FOR SECOND STRAIGHT YEAR

For the second straight season, San Diego State broke the single-season school record for home attendance. A year after selling out 13 games at Viejas Arena and attracting 175,027 fans to Montezuma Mesa, the Aztecs sold out 11 games and played in front of more than 10,800 fans on 19 different occasions. At season's end, a school-record 229,820 fans came to watch SDSU at Viejas Arena.

'75 NCAA Tournament

No. 17 UNLV 90, San Diego State 80 March 15, 1975 • Tempe, Ariz. University Activity Center • Att.: NA

TEMPE, Ariz. -- San Diego State's first postseason game at the NCAA Division I level nearly produced an upset, but UNLV hung on for a 90-80 victory in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Tempe, Ariz.

The Aztecs received a game-high 25 points from Will Connelly and a double-double from Ray Leary, who added 10 points and a game-high 11 assists. San Diego State also tallied a double-double from Steve Copp, who pulled down a game-high 17 rebounds to go along with 16 points.

Eddie Owens and Ricky Sobers led UNLV with 21 points each and Lewis Brown posted 18 points and 12 rebounds.

UNLV forced 22 turnovers and SDSU struggled from the free-throw line, converting just 10-of-25 attempts, allowing the Rebels to advance to the next round.

76 NCAA Tournament

Officials: Brown and Crowell.

No. 6 UCLA 74, San Diego State 64
March 13, 1976 • Eugene, Ore.
McArthur Court • Att.: 9,100

EUGENE, Ore. -- Richard Washington, a 1976 secondteam All-American, and Marques Johnson, the 1977 college player of the year, combined for 44 points as UCLA defeated San Diego State, 74-64, in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

The Aztecs gave the Bruins a game, trailing by just three points at intermission and using a 12-4 run to close within eight points with just under four minutes remaining.

SDSU's Academic All-American Steve Copp led the Aztecs with 20 points and 11 rebounds. Bob Kovach (11), Will Connelly (11) and Allen Bunting (10) also scored in double figures for the Aztecs. Washington led all scorers with 25 points for UCLA.

The Bruins used a stifling defense to hold SDSU to only 34.2 percent shooting from the field, but the Aztecs did convert 14 of 19 (73.7 percent) free throw opportunities. SDSU forced 19 UCLA turnovers, while limiting their own giveaways to only 11.

UCLA advanced to the Final Four before falling to eventual national champion Indiana, 65-51. The Bruins later defeated Rutgers in the consolation game, 106-92.

'82 NIT

UC Irvine 70, San Diego State 69 March 12, 1982 • San Diego, Calif. San Diego Sports Arena • Att.: 8,114

SAN DIEGO -- San Diego State's rally from an 11-point second-half deficit fell just short as UC Irvine claimed a 70-69 victory in the first round of the NIT.

The Aztecs, who never led after the opening five minutes of the game, trailed 63-55 with eight minutes remaining before an 11-4 run cut the deficit to 67-66 with 2:49 remaining. SDSU trailed 70-69 and had an opportunity to win, but Don Plummer was unable to convert on a 21-foot jumper at the buzzer.

Plummer led the Aztecs with 19 points and added seven rebounds. Keith Smith had eight points while dishing out 13 assists for San Diego State. UC Irvine was led by Kevin Magee and Randy Whieldo, who tallied 20 and 18 points, respectively.

The Anteaters shot 60.9 percent from the field while holding SDSU to only 43.7 percent shooting. However, the Aztecs countered with an aggresive defense that led to 13 steals and 19 UC Irvine turnovers. SDSU also outrebounded the Anteaters 36-30, but only managed to shoot 7 of 13 (53.8 percent) from the line.

SDSU finished the season at 20-9, which marked the first 20-win year of the Aztecs' Division I era.

'85 NCAA Tournament

No. 9 UNLV 85, San Diego State 80 March 14, 1985 • Salt Lake City, Utah Special Events Center • Att.: 7,351

SALT LAKE CITY -- SDSU made a late run at No. 9 UNLV but did not have enough firepower to overcome a 10-point halftime deficit as the Rebels earned an 85-80 victory in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

The Aztecs trailed by as many as 13 in the first half, but tied the game at 56 with under 10 minutes remaining. UNLV rebuilt the lead but SDSU did not give in to the more athletic Rebels as it cut the deficit to three, when Anthony Watson hit a jumper with 1:02 left. The Aztecs were forced to foul down the stretch and UNLV knocked down the free throws to secure the victory.

Leonard Allen poured in a game-high 23 points for SDSU and Anthony Watson scored 19. Fowards Michael Kennedy and John Martens also cracked double-figures as they added 11 points apiece.

The Rebels were led by Armon Gilliam who posted 21 points and 10 rebounds. Ritchie Adams, the Rebels' leading scorer on the season, was saddled with foul trouble from the start of the game and finished with 10 points in only 23 minutes of action.

Mistakes ended up costing SDSU as it committed 18 turnovers and missed 12 free throws. SDSU shot 55.4% from the field and held UNLV to 47.8% shooting and out-rebounded the Rebels 39-34.

SDSU closed the season at 23-8, its best NCAA Division I record in the history of the program.

'02 NCAA Tournament

No. 13 Illinois 93, San Diego State 64
March 15, 2002 • Chicago, Ill.
United Center • Att.: 20,850

CHICAGO -- In its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1985, San Diego State was defeated by a balanced Illinois attack, falling to the Fighting Illini, 93-64, in front of 20.850 fans at the United Center.

Senior forward Randy Holcomb, SDSU's leading scorer during the year, was held to under 10 points for only the third time that season. He was limited to nine points in 29 minutes of play in his last game as an Aztec.

Al Faux, also playing in his last game, was the game's leading scorer with 27. Eighteen of his 27 came off of a 6-of-9 shooting performance from beyond the arc.

The Aztecs were down by 15 points at the half and never came closer than 13 the rest of the game. They were down by as many as 37 with 9:03 remaining.

Frank Williams paced the Fighting Illini with 25 points. Four of Illinois' five starters scored in double-digits.

Illinois outscored SDSU 15-2 on fast break points, and shot 58.6 percent to the Aztecs' 39 percent in a game that was controlled by Illinois from start to finish.

With the loss, the Aztecs ended their season in which they went 21-12 and won the Mountain West Conference Tournament Championship.

'03 NIT

San Diego State 67, UC Santa Barbara 62 (ot)
March 19, 2003 • San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 5,390

SAN DIEGO -- SDSU needed overtime to win its first Division I postseason game, claiming a 67-62 NIT first-round victory over UC Santa Barbara.

Tony Bland, who became the third Aztec player to reach 1,000 points in just two seasons, sent the game into extra time by going the length of the floor to hit a bank shot with 1.9 seconds left. Then with 1.15 left in overtime, Tommy Johnson put SDSU ahead for good at 63-60 with a 3-pointer as the Aztecs closed the game with a 13-2 run.

In its sixth postseason appearance in 33 years at the Division I level, the Aztecs overcame their largest halftime deficit of the season (32-22) snapping a three-game losing streak, limiting UCSB to just 62 points and 42.6 percent shooting.

After a dunk by Evan Burns with 5:58 left in the first half, UCSB closed out the opening period with a 14-1 run take a 10-point lead into the half. The Gauchos scored the first basket of the second half before Bland jumpstarted the Aztecs with a free throw and layup to start a 10-0 run.

The game was tied at 50 with five minutes left and both teams buckled down defensively for the rest of regulation.

The Gauchos scored the first six points of overtime before SDSU's game-ending run, which included six straight Mike Mackell points to tie the game at 60 and set up Johnson's heroics.

Bland had a team-high 17 points, while Burns scored 12 points, and Johnson finished with 10.

'06 NCAA Tournament

Indiana 87, San Diego State 83

March 16, 2006 • Salt Lake City, Utah

Huntsman Center • Att.: 15,122

SALT LAKE CITY -- Making its third postseason appearance in five years, 11th-seeded San Diego State fell 87-83 to sixth-seeded Indiana in a nailbiter in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

The Hoosiers led by as many as nine points with just over six minutes remaining in the first half until Brandon Heath hit a three-pointer with 55 seconds left to give SDSU a one-point lead. As the half came to a close, Mohamed Abukar made a layup, giving the Aztecs a three-point cushion heading into halftime, despite hitting 62.1 percent of their field goals.

As the second half began, San Diego State started to pull away as it built a pair of 10-point leads, the last coming with 11:44 left in the contest.

Indiana chipped away at the Aztecs' lead and eventually tied the game at 76 with just under four minutes remaining. But just as it had all evening, SDSU pulled ahead until Heath lost the ball near midcourt with 55 seconds left, forcing a jumpball situation that the Hoosiers wound up winning.

After an Indiana timeout, the ensuing play saw Robert Vaden, who had 18 points, hit a three-point field goal giving the Hoosiers a two-point advantage with the clock showing five seconds.

On the inbounds play, Abukar sailed a pass out of bounds and the Aztecs fouled on the next possession sending IU to the line where they connected on both free-throw attempts to end the game.

Abukar led all scorers with 24 points and also had nine rebounds. Heath scored 15 with Marcus Slaughter contributing 13 points and 10 rebounds. Richie Williams and John Sharper chipped in with 12 and 11 points, respectively.

'07 NIT

San Diego State 74, Missouri State 70 March 14, 2007 • Springfield, Mo. Hammons Student Center • Att.: 4,234

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. -- SDSU captured just its second Division I postseason victory as it defeated Missouri State on the road, 74-70, in the first round of the NIT.

SDSU and MSU struggled early to keep the game close. The Aztecs were particularly sloppy as they committed eight turnovers in the first eight minutes. However, the Bears did not make their run until the 10-minute mark, outscoring the Aztecs, 14-4, to go up by eight with 7:49 left.

San Diego State responded with 11 unanswered points and closed out the half on an 18-5 run to head into the locker room with a 34-29 lead.

The Aztecs maintained its lead and watched it balloon to eight on a Brandon Heath jumper with 15:14 on the clock

With the game tied at 49, MSU caught fire and enjoyed a six-point advantage with 7:26 left. But as it did before, SDSU used a 15-4 run, giving it a 69-64 cushion going into the final minutes.

The Bears fought back, eventually tying it at 70 with 41 seconds remaining. After an Aztec timeout, Heath connected on a three-pointer with one second left on the shot clock and seven seconds on the game clock to put SDSU up 73-70.

With an opportunity to trim the Aztecs' lead, Nathan Bilyeu missed two free throws and SDSU's Jer'Vaughn Johnson made one of two from the charity stripe to put the game out of reach.

For the game, Heath finished with a game-high 26 points and Mohamed Abukar posted 13 of his 15 points in the second half to help put the Bears away. Jerome Habel added his second double-double of his career with 11 points and 10 rebounds.

'07 NIT

Syracuse 80, San Diego State 64 March 19, 2007 • Syracuse, N.Y. Carrier Dome • Att.: 26,752

SYRACUSE, N.Y. -- SDSU had its season come to an end in the second round of the NIT as Syracuse downed the Aztecs, 80-64, before a record crowd at the Carrier Dome.

The second-round game between two teams led by national championship coaches in Steve Fisher and Jim Boeheim, attracted an NIT-record 26,752 fans and many went home happy as the home team connected on nine three-pointers and shut down SDSU in the second half.

The Aztecs held their own in the opening period as they trailed by only five points, 38-33, going into the locker room. However, the second half was a different story as the Orange jumped on San Diego State with a 19-7 run to open play and finished it with an 11-0 spurt to take a commanding lead.

At that point, Syracuse was up 59-40 with 13:41 remaining in the game. Unfortunately for the Aztecs, they never got closer than 13 points the rest of the way as the Orange had an answer for every Aztec basket.

SDSU was led by Lorrenzo Wade, who scored a teamhigh 16 points and shared the squad lead in rebounds with eight along with Richie Williams. Playing in their final game as Aztecs, Brandon Heath finished with 15 points and a game-high seven assists, while Mohamed Abukar contributed 14 points and five rebounds.

Syracuse received double-figure scoring efforts from Demetris Nichols (20 points), Andy Rautins (15) and Paul Harris (12).

Florida 73, San Diego State 49 March 19, 2008 • Gainesville, Fla. O'Connell Center • Att.: 5,188

GAINESVILLE, Fla. -- In its third consecutive postseason appearance and its second straight in the NIT, San Diego State was dropped by Florida, 73-49, in a first-round matchup at the O'Connell Center.

The second-seeded Gators never trailed in the game and opened the game on a 7-2 run, before the seventh-seeded Aztecs tied the score at nine with 14:12 remaining in the first half. SDSU, however, would never get closer than three points the rest of the way and Florida went into the half with a 35-23 cushion.

In the second half, the Gators' lead ballooned to 21 points with less than 10 minutes gone. San Diego State managed to cut the lead to 17 points with 5:42 left in the game, but Florida kept the Aztecs at bay as they cruised to the 24-point victory.

For the game, the Gators shot 53.4 percent from the field, including an amazing 63.0 percent in the second half. All five starters shot above 50 percent and Florida's two leading scorers, Marresse Speights (18 points) and Nick Calathes (16 points), combined to shoot 15-for-25. Speights also added a team-high tying six rebounds, while Calathes chipped in five rebounds of his own and a teambest five assists.

SDSU, meanwhile, was led by Ryan Amoroso's gamehigh numbers of 19 points and seven rebounds on 8-of-16 shooting. The lone other Aztec to reach double figures in scoring was Lorrenzo Wade, who had 11 points and a game-high seven assists off the bench.

San Diego State 70, Saint Mary's 66 March 25, 2009 • San Diego, Calif. Cox Arena + Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO -- San Diego State held its last game of the 2008-09 season at Cox Arena in front of a sold-out crowd of 12,414 for the NIT Quarterfinals against second-seeded Saint Marv's.

The Aztecs got out to an early 16-point lead, holding the Gaels scoreless with 11:07 to play in the first half.

SDSU maintained its lead throughout the game with Saint Mary's tying the score only once during the contest. San Diego State's Richie Williams was able to contain the Gaels' sophomore star, Patrick Mills, to 7-of-24 shooting for the game. Aztec Billy White proved to be a dominating presence in the paint by going 8-for-12 and had a team high of 17 points.

San Diego State went into halftime with an 11-point lead. When the two teams got back into action, the Aztecs continued to roll, scoring 42 of their 70 points in the paint. SDSU benefited from Saint Mary's mistakes by tallying 12 points off turnovers.

The Gaels would only tie the score once and were never able to take the lead away from SDSU despite outscoring the Aztecs 38-31 in the second half. In the end, it was San Diego State's speed and Saint Mary's mistakes that would decide the game.

With the victory, the Aztecs headed to New York to play at Madison Square Garden. The 26th San Diego State win extended its school record and the marks farthest any SDSU basketball program has advanced into the postsea-

Baylor 76, San Diego State 62 March 31, 2009 + New York, N.Y. Madison Square Garden • Att.: 11,352

NEW YORK -- San Diego State was eliminated in the semifinals round in Madison Square Garden, ending its run for its first NIT Championship, losing to Baylor, 76-62.

The Aztecs' chances at victory were deflated behind the perimeter, as Baylor successfully relied on the 3-point shot. shooting 11-22 from the arc, to pull away with a convincing win.

The Bears were anchored by Curtis Jerrells in the first half where he dropped 19 of his 24 points. The Aztecs were able to manage a close game in the opening 11:45 as a basket by Ryan Amoroso gave San Diego State the lead, 21-20.

In the ensuing possession, Baylor's Jerrells hit a threepointer that ignited a 10-0 run. But SDSU managed to fight back as they closed out the period trailing by one point, Baylor's hot shooting performance proved to be too much for the Aztecs in the second half. A layup by Amoroso to start the period was the last lead SDSU enjoyed. Baylor was anchored by another key player, this time by LaceDarius Dunn who scored 14 of his 23 points in the second half and was a vital part of the Bears' 17-4 run.

SDSU was led by seniors Kyle Spain with 15 points and Wade with 10 points. Also, Billy White and Tim Shelton added 10 points apiece.

'10 NCAA Tournament

No. 15/14 Tennessee 62, San Diego State 59 March 18, 2010 • Providence, R.I. Dunkin' Donuts Center • Att.: 10.788

PROVIDENCE, R.I. -- San Diego State had its second-half rally fall short as the 11th-seeded Aztecs dropped a 62-59 decision to sixth-seeded and No. 15/14 Tennessee in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

SDSU found itself down 34-26 at halftime after shooting 32.1 percent from the field, including a 2-for-12 effort from three-point range. Despite the poor shooting, the Aztecs were in the game until a 12-7 Volunteer run to end the half propelled the SEC school to its advantage at intermission.

Coming out of the break, San Diego State methodically chipped away at its deficit and put together a 19-10 scoring run to give the Aztecs a 45-44 lead with 9:20 to go in regulation. The lead was short-lived after Tennessee scored six unanswered points and took a five-point lead.

Over the course of the final 5:13, SDSU stayed within striking distance and cut the Volunteeer lead to one point on three different occasions, the last of which saw D.J. Gay connect on three free throws with nine seconds left after Melvin Goins fouled the Aztec guard on a three-point atternot.

Down by one with nine seconds to go, SDSU fouled Wayne Chism, who knocked down both attempts, and gave the Vols a three-point lead. After the successful attempts, San Diego State raced the ball down the court and Kahwi Leonard's three-point attempt was off the mark giving UT the win.

Gay scored a game-high 16, while Leonard notched 12 points and 10 rebounds. Kelvin Davis, meanwhile, scored 11 in his final game as an Aztec.

'11 NCAA Tournament

(2) #6/5 San Diego State 68, (15)
Northern Colorado 50
March 17, 2011 ◆ Tucson, Ariz.
McKale Center ◆ Att.: 10,101

TUCSON, Ariz. - No. 6/5 San Diego State, the No. 2 seed in the West Region, picked up its first-ever Division I NCAA Tournament victory with a 68-50 win over 15th-seeded Northern Colorado.

The Aztecs, who were making their seventh NCAA Tournament appearance, snapped a six-game losing streak in the Division I tournament.

San Diego State struggled in the first half as they made just 32.4 percent of its shots, many of which were at the rim. Kawhi Leonard, Billy White and Chase Tapley, however, were effective as they combined for 26 of SDSU's 30 first-half points. Despite getting production from the aforementioned trio, the Aztecs had trouble stopping the Bears, but still led. 30-24, at halftime.

Early in the second half, NC's Devon Beitzel cut the SDSU lead to three with one of his six three-pointers, but the Aztecs had an answer. San Diego State received back-to-back threes from D.J. Gay and James Rahon, a jumper from Rahon, another three from Rahon and a jumper from White to turn in a 13-0 run, which gave SDSU a 16-point lead.

The Bears cut their deficit to 12 after consecutive buckets, but would get no closer as the Aztecs secured a spot in the third round against Temple.

Leonard finished with 21 points and 10 rebounds, while White recorded his second straight double-double with 12 points and a career-high 13 boards. Also in double-figures were Tapley (14 points) and Rahon (12 points).

Beitzel led all players with 25 points and Chris Kaba added 10 points in a losing effort.

(2) #6/5 San Diego State 71, (7) Temple 64 (2ot) March 19, 2011 ◆ Tucson, Ariz. McKale Center ◆ Att.: 11,127

TUCSON, Ariz. - No. 6/5 San Diego State needed two overtime sessions to hold off Temple, 71-64, in the third round of the NCAA Tournament.

The Aztecs, who went 15,713 days between NCAA Tournament wins and entered the tourney having never won a Division I NCAA Tournament game, find themselves with two wins in nearly 50 hours and a spot in the Sweet 16.

Getting to the regional semifinals looked like a lock in the first half as SDSU was rolling and enjoying an 11-point lead with 3:13 left before halftime. Temple, however, closed the gap in a hurry, rattling off six straight points to trail, 36-31, at the break.

In the second half, things still looked promising for the Aztecs as they led, 52-45, with 7:16 remaining in regulation. But as the clock ticked, San Diego State had a hard time finding the bottom of the net and defending the Owls. After Billy White's jumper with 7:16 left, Temple went on a 9-2 run to tie the game at 54. SDSU's Chase Tapley had a chance to win the game in the final seconds, but his driving layup was contested and off the mark.

In the first OT, Juan Fernandez immediately hit a three and scored the Owls' first five points, but Kawhi Leonard answered with four straight points and was followed by a huge three-point play from Malcolm Thomas. Again, the Aztecs had a chance to win the game in the final moments, but Thomas' baby jumper missed.

In what proved to be the final five minutes, SDSU buckled down defensively and continued to go to the hoop, which resulted in outscoring Temple, 10-3, to secure the victory.

White finished the game with his third straight double-double (16 points, 13 boards).

(3) #9/8 Connecticut 74, (2) #6/5 San Diego State 67 March 24, 2011 • Anaheim, Calif. Honda Center • Att.: 17,890

ANAHEIM, Calif. - No. 6/5 San Diego State was unable to keep its magical NCAA Tournament run going as the second-seeded Aztecs dropped a 74-67 decision to No. 3 seed and No. 9/8 Connecticut in the West Regional semifinal at the Honda Center.

SDSU found itself trailing UConn, 36-27, at halftime after shooting 38.7 percent from the field. The Aztecs kept the game close until the Huskies went on a 6-0 run to close out the first half.

San Diego State came out of the break and chipped away at its deficit by putting together a 16-6 scoring run to take a 43-42 lead with 13:05 left in the second half. UConn quickly took the lead back, but SDSU kept within striking distance.

After three ties, the Aztecs appeared to have gained the upper-hand after taking a 53-49 lead with 9:25 remaining in regulation. A technical foul, however, resulted in two momentum-killing free throws. The Huskies slowly regained the lead from there and attempted to put the game out of reach with a 11-2 run.

SDSU, however, clawed its way back to cut the margin to 65-64 on a three-pointer by D.J. Gay. UConn responded once again and finished the game on an 9-3 run to spoil the Aztecs' comeback and clinch the victory.

Kawhi Leonard finished with 12 points and nine rebounds and Malcolm Thomas added 13 points and eight rebounds. Gay tallied a team-high 16 points, while classmate Billy White (14 points) also scored in double figures.

STEVE FISHER

21st FULL SEASON • 13th SEASON AT SDSU • ILLINOIS STATE, 1967

Steve Fisher has guided the Aztec basketball program to unparalleled heights. In 12 seasons, he has taken a program that regularly missed out on the conference postseason tournament, to one which has become of the best programs on the West Coast and has the Aztecs routinely mentioned among the elite teams in the country.

The best news for SDSU fans is that the school exercised its contract option on Fisher prior to the 2011-12 season, which keeps the coach on Montezuma Mesa through 2014-15.

When Fisher arrived on the scene in March of 1999, he found a basketball program that wasn't good enough to be called average. The Aztecs had suffered through 13 losing seasons in 14 years. Members of the school's last NCAA team were in the early stages of middle age. The expectations were set. The Aztecs were expected to lose. The year before Fisher's arrival on campus, San Diego State won just four games.

Now those days are a distant memory. Fisher guided San Diego State to the NCAA Tournament in 2002, 2006, 2010 and 2011, the last of which culminated with a 34-3 record and an appearance in the Sweet 16. Fisher has also taken the Aztecs to the NIT in 2003, 2007, 2008 and 2009. In 2009, SDSU advance to the national semifinals. San Diego State has currently been to the postseason six straight years.

On March 26, 1999, San Diego State announced its arrival on the basketball scene in the form of a news conference to introduce its new coach, Steve Fisher. Fresh from a stint with the Sacramento Kings and with three appearances in the Final Four and a national championship in his pocket, he rolled up his sleeves and went to work. And work was needed. It looked to be a daunting challenge and yet the man with one of the highest winning percentages in NCAA Tournament history had no reservations.

No head-coaching career, at any level, started quicker than that of Steve Fisher. Six games into his head-coaching career he was undefeated and sporting a national championship ring. And the success didn't stop with the national title.

Fisher's eight-plus seasons at Michigan produced a 184-82 (.692) record, nine postseason tournament berths and three trips to the NCAA championship game, including the magical run to the 1989 national title.

Under Fisher, the Wolverines also claimed an NIT championship, won at least 20 games four times and finished among the top three in the powerful Big Ten Conference five times. In 1995, Michigan set a league record by holding opponents to just 39.4 percent shooting from the floor.

Fisher and Co., raised the bar even higher in the postseason. His seven NCAA Tournament teams at Michigan combined for a 20-6 record, which put him fourth among active coaches and ninth in NCAA history with a winning percentage of .769 in the national bracket after his stint in Ann Arbor. Only 13 coaches have taken more teams to the Final Four, including just five that are still active. He is one of three coaches to take three squads to the Final Four in the first five years of a head-coaching career, and one of just six coaches to lead a team to a NIT title as well as the NCAA.

His accomplishments may be even greater at San Diego State. In 2001-02 he led the Aztecs to the postseason for the first time since 1985 and for just the fourth time ever. The 21 wins were second most for the school as a Division I program and the most since 1985. The fact that those numbers came after just three seasons signifies what is one of the great recent turnarounds in college basketball.

He followed that up with a third consecutive season with a .500 or better record in 2002-03 and led SDSU back to the post-season for the second consecutive season for only the second time in the school's Division I history. In addition, SDSU claimed its first Division I postseason victory with a win in the NIT.

In 2006-07, he led SDSU to the MWC regular season and tournament crowns and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. That team finished with a Division I then-school-record 24 wins. And the last five seasons, Fisher has led the Aztecs to five additional 20-win seasons and postseason appearances, including a school-record 34 wins, both the MWC regular season and tournament championships, and a NCAA Sweet 16 berth in 2011.

rv/- San Diego State 75 Bryant 63

Nov. 11, 2011 ◆ San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 11,734

SAN DIEGO - On a night where San Diego State unveiled its 2011 Mountain West regular-season championship banner, its 2011 MWC tournament title banner and its NCAA Sweet 16 appearance banner, the Aztecs ultimately treated 11,734 fans to a 75-63 season-opening victory over Bryant at the Basketball Travelers Classic inside Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs dressed just seven scholarship players as projected starters Jamaal Franklin and James Rahon were out due to a team suspension and foot injury, respectively. With all the emotion surrounding the banners and the short bench, SDSU started the game sluggishly.

The contest was tied at 4-4 with just under two minutes having gone by. The Bulldogs, however, caught fire and stymied the Aztecs to lead, 22-15, with 6:32 remaining in the half. A 13-5 run to end the frame got San Diego State back into the game and it carried a 28-27 lead into the locker room.

The Aztecs continued their surge as play resumed and promptly went on a 15-7 run to go up 43-35. All told, SDSU used a 28-12 spurt to take control of the game.

San Diego State's offensive attack was grounded momentarily when Frankie Dobbs hit back-to-back three-pointers to bring the Bulldogs to within four. SDSU, however, went on another 13-5 run to move ahead by 12 and Bryant failed to get any closer than eight points the rest of the way.

The Aztecs received three stellar efforts, including two double-doubles by Garrett Green and Chase Tapley. Green finished with 14 points and 11 rebounds, while Tapley racked up a game-high 20 points, a career-high 11 rebounds, six assists and three steals. Xavier Thames added a career-high 16 points, four rebounds and eight assists. Between Tapley and Thames, they combined for 14 assists and two turnovers.

Game 2

rv/- San Diego State 70 Southern Utah 37

Nov. 12, 2011 ◆ San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 11,765

SAN DIEGO - Chase Tapley led a group of four Aztecs who scored in double figures as San Diego State built a huge first-half lead en route to a 70-37 rout of Southern Utah in front of 11,765 fans at Viejas Arena at the Basketball Travelers Classic.

Southern Utah scored the first basket of the game and San Diego State took over from there going on a 15-0 run to take a commanding 15-2 lead. The run was halted briefly by a Ray Jones, Jr., free throw with 9:40 remaining in the first half. The Aztecs ultimately took a 20-3 lead less than a minute later.

Two straight baskets by Southern Utah cut the deficit to 13 with eight minutes to go in the frame, but that was as close as the Thunderbirds would get as San Diego State dominated the rest of the first half to take a 41-15 lead at halftime.

Southern Utah scored the first two baskets of the second half, but the Aztecs responded with an 11-2 run to increase their lead to 35. The Thunderbirds managed to get the score to 55-26 as a result of a 7-2 run, but San Diego State answered right back with an 11-3 spurt to extend its lead to a game-high 37 points before earning the 33-point decision.

Tapley led all scorers with 16 points, while Jamaal Franklin scored 13. LaBradford Franklin and DeShawn Stephens, meanwhile, scored 12 and 11 points, respectively.

Jones, Jr., led Southern Utah with nine points and Wade Collie led the team with five rebounds.

Game 3

rv/- San Diego State 89 UC Davis 74

Nov. 13, 2011 ◆ San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 11,792

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State wrapped up its home tournament, the Basketball Travelers Classic, with its third consecutive double-figure victory, this time an 89-74 victory over UC Davis.

Chase Tapley continued his outstanding play by scoring 23 points and adding a career-high seven steals. As good as Tapley's performance was, Jamaal Franklin's was equally impressive. The sophomore came off the bench to score a career-high 31 points on 10-of-17 shooting, including a 4-for-7 performance from beyond the arc and a 7-for-7 effort from the charity stripe.

The Aggies scored the first four points of the game and it was all Aztecs after that. Franklin fueled an 11-3 scoring run, which included back-to-back threes, to give SDSU a 15-9 lead with 12:25 left in the first half.

San Diego State would end the period by outscoring UC Davis by 13 points, which gave the Aztecs a healthy 48-29 lead at halftime.

SDSU held the Aggies in check for the first five-plus minutes of the second half before Franklin caught fire and scored five straight points. Franklin's points led to the Aztecs' 18-4 run and a 24-point lead.

UC Davis, however, slowly chipped away at its deficit and suddenly San Diego State's lead was down to 12 points after a Ryan Sypkens three-pointer with 3:34 left in regulation.

Franklin nailed a jumper and Xavier Thames added a free throw to thwart the comeback as the Aztecs emerged with the 15-point victory.

At the end of the game, Tapley was named most valuable player and to the all-tournament team. Thames joined Tapley on the all-tourney squad along with UC Davis' Josh Ritchart, Bryant's Alex Francis and Southern Utah's Ray Jones, Jr.

Game 4

#11/12 Baylor 77 rv/- San Diego State 67 Nov. 15, 2011 • Waco, Texas Ferrell Center • Att.: 6,941

WACO, Texas - San Diego State, playing its fourth game in five days, had its rally come up short in falling to No. 11/12 Baylor, 77-67, at Ferrell Center. The mid-afternoon game was a part of ESPN's College Hoops Tip-Off Marathon.

The Aztecs received a game- and career-high 28 points from Chase Tapley, who made 10-of-17 shots, including 8-of-10 from three-point distance. The eight three-point field goals were a career high, one off the school record and equaled the Steve Fisher-era record.

The game was the first of the season for James Rahon, who missed the first three games of the campaign due to an injured left foot. The junior scored 10 points and added a career-high seven rebounds. Also scoring in double figures for SDSU was Jamaal Franklin (11 points) and Xavier Thames (10 points).

SDSU led by five midway through the first half thanks to eight unanswered points. Minutes later, Tapley hit a three to give the Aztecs a 23-21 lead, but an 11-1 Bear run put the home side up by eight with 1:42 left in the half.

Just when the game could have got out of hand, Tapley hit a three and Thames added two free throws to help SDSU pull to within two, 32-30, at halftime.

Tapley tied the game with the first bucket of the second half, but Baylor used a fullcourt press, which rattled the Aztecs.

San Diego State trailed, 36-34, with 15:45 to play and in just 2 minutes, 23 seconds, Baylor enjoyed a 10-point cushion. The Bears' lead eventually swelled to 16 with 9:20 left in regulation.

SDSU used a 9-2 run, with the final seven coming from Franklin, to trim the deficit to seven with 93 seconds left in the game. The Bears, however, went on to score seven straight points to put the game out of reach and improve to 3-0.

Game 5

rv/- San Diego State 56 USC 54

Nov. 17, 2011 ◆ San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - Xavier Thames went the length of the floor and scored the game-winning lay-up with 1.8 seconds remaining in the game to lift San Diego State past USC, 56-54, in front of a sold-out Viejas Arena crowd

The victory was just the second over the Trojans in 12 tries and snapped a five-game losing streak vs. USC. It was SDSU's first win in the series since Dec. 9, 1989.

Holding a 54-45 lead with 2:46 left in regulation, the Aztecs looked as if they were going to cruise to the win. The Trojans, however, received back-to-back three-pointers from Garrett Jackson to bring USC to within three with 97 seconds left.

After two empty San Diego State possessions, the Trojans came out of a timeout and promptly received a banked-in three-pointer from Maurice Jones to knot the score

Then with seven seconds remaining, Thames took the ball the length of the court, with the help of a Tim Shelton screen, and connected on the game-winner.

SDSU trailed, 25-21, at halftime and took the lead with 11:44 left in the game when Chase Tapley knocked down a three. The Aztecs, who trailed by as many as six, never trailed the rest of the way en route to their sixth straight win over the Pac-12 Conference.

Jamaal Franklin led San Diego State with 14 points and Thames finished with 12 of his own. DeShawn Stephens, meanwhile, grabbed a game-high nine rebounds. As a team, led by Franklin's 5-for-5 effort from the free-throw line, the Aztecs made 13 of their 14 free-throw attempts.

Jones led all scorers with 15 points and was one of four Trojans in double figures. Jackson added 13 points, Aaron Fuller chipped in with 12 and a teamhigh seven rebounds, and Dewayne Dedmon contributed 10.

Game 6

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State rallied from a halftime deficit, but could not hold off Long Beach State as the 49ers forced overtime in the final seconds of the second half. The Aztecs, however, responded in overtime to defeat upstart LBSU, 77-73.

The Aztecs were led by Jamaal Franklin's 21 points and nine rebounds off the bench and James Rahon's 20-point effort. Xavier Thames, meanwhile, added 12 points.

Long Beach State, which was coming off a road win at No. 9 Pittsburgh, jumped out to a 10-point first-half lead less than five minutes into the game. The 49ers held a 40-30 lead with 1:50 left in the first half before the Aztecs closed the frame on a 7-0 run.

In the second half, LBSU hung on to its lead for the first 10 minutes. SDSU, however, was able to take its first lead of the game with 9:37 left in regulation. Long Beach State momentarily took the lead back, 51-50, 14 seconds later, but the Aztecs received back-to-back threes from Franklin and Tapley to take a five-point lead.

Down the stretch, LBSU rallied and was down 65-63 with three seconds remaining in regulation and Franklin fouled Casper Ware before the ball was inbounded. Ware, who finished with a game-high 26 points, stepped to the free-throw line and calmly made both free throws to send the game into over-time.

In the extra session, Thames hit three straight baskets at one point, the third of which resulted in a fivepoint Aztec lead. Then with SDSU ahead by two with four seconds left, Franklin sealed the game with a pair of free throws to send the Aztecs home with a win.

rv/rv San Diego State 61 #23/23 Arizona 57 Nov. 23, 2011 • Tucson, Ariz. McKale Center • Att.: 13,761

TUCSON, Ariz. - San Diego State jumped on No. 23/23 Arizona early and never looked back as it snapped the Wildcats' 22-game homecourt winning streak with its 61-57 decision at McKale Center.

The Aztecs won in Tucson against Arizona for just the second time in the history of the series, but won for the third consecutive outing overall. A year ago, SDSU won its 2011 NCAA Tournament second- and third-round games inside the building.

San Diego State scored first and the Wildcats responded on the next trip down. Chase Tapley returned the favor and the Aztecs were on their way to a 16-2 lead and ultimately a 21-4 advantage with 13:24 left in the first half. During its game-opening surge, SDSU received four three-pointers, including a pair from Tapley, who finished with 17 points.

Later with San Diego State ahead by 15 on an Alec Williams basket, Arizona stormed back with seven consecutive points while keeping SDSU scoreless for 4 minutes, 34 seconds. James Rahon stopped the drought with two free throws and the Aztecs were clinging to a 31-29 halftime lead.

In the first 8 minutes, 38 seconds of the second half, San Diego State, again, pounced on the Wildcats, outscoring them 23-12 to open a 13-point lead. The lead was pushed to double figures thanks to back-to-back threes by Jamaal Franklin to up the cushion to 11.

Arizona rallied and the Aztecs went cold as time wound down. The Wildcats trimmed the lead to six with 3:41 left in regulation and they found themselves down nine with 34 seconds to play. But a series of missed SDSU free throws and baskets by Arizona made the game close before the Aztecs eventually emerged with the four-point victory.

Game 8

rv/rv San Diego State 76 UC Santa Barbara 75 (ot) Nov. 26, 2011 • Santa Barbara, Calif. The Thunderdome • Att.: 5,011

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. - For the second time in three games, San Diego State was pushed to overtime, but like its previous outing, came out on top as it emerged with the 76-75 decision at The Thunderdome.

The Aztecs were carried by an outstanding performance by Xavier Thames. The guard posted career-high numbers in points (20) and rebounds (10), while adding a game-high six assists and one turnover.

San Diego State looked like it would cruise as everything was clicking with a 17-10 lead, with more than nine minutes left in the first half. The Gauchos, however, went on a 13-3 run to take a three-point lead. They ultimately led by six at halftime.

SDSU briefly took a one-point lead with 17:38 to go in regulation, but UCSB answered with seven straight points to go ahead by six. The Aztecs could not seem to get over the hump as the game continued and the Gauchos seemed poised to upset SDSU. The visitors, however, kept plugging away and went on an 11-0 run to take a 62-59 advantage with 85 seconds left in regulation.

On UCSB's next possession, Orlando Johnson converted a three-point play to tie the game at 62. Then, SDSU's Jamaal Franklin and the Gauchos' Jaime Serna both made the front end of a one-and-one in the final 37 seconds as the contest went into overtime.

In OT, UC Santa Barbara enjoyed a 70-66 lead with 3:39 to go, but the Aztecs went Garrett Green bucket, Chase Tapley three and a Franklin dunk to go up by three. Franklin later would make three free throws to put San Diego State up by four with four seconds left. UCSB made a three on the next trip down, but the effort proved to be not enough.

Game 9

#rv/22 Creighton 85 rv/rv San Diego State 83 Nov. 30, 2011 • San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena • Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State suffered a rare home defeat at the hands of No. 22 Creighton, 85-83, in a Mountain West-Missouri Valley Challenge game at a sold-out Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs had their 27-game non-conference home winning streak snapped and had their 10-game November home winning streak halted after relinquishing a 17-point first-half lead and a four-point advantage at halftime.

SDSU was absolutely on fire for the better part of the first 13 minutes of the game. The Aztecs raced to a 6-0 lead early and the lead eventually grew to 10 with 11:32 left in the half.

Creighton scored five straight points and went on a 7-2 run to cut its deficit to five, but the Aztecs answered with 12 consecutive points to move ahead, 31-14. The Bluejays, however, went on a 21-9 run of their own and scored the final eight points of the half thanks to Doug McDermott to get within four at half-time.

In the second half, the Aztecs led by as many as eight with 12:54 to play in regulation and still owned a 62-57 lead with 8:38 to go. An 8-0 CU run gave the Jays a 65-62 lead, but Jamaal Franklin scored five points in SDSU's 5-2 spurt to tie the score at 67.

Down the stretch, San Diego State was forced to play from behind and trailed by six with 1:59 left in regulation. The Aztecs knocked down three three-pointers in the final minutes and ultimately got to within one with seven seconds left.

With five seconds on the clock, Jahenns Manigat hit his first free throw to put the Jays up by two, but missed the second. The loose rebound, however, went to CU and it called timeout and eventually won the game.

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State continued its dominance over the Pac-12 Conference, this time defeating No. 24/23 California, 64-63, in front of a sold-out Viejas Arena crowd.

The victory was SDSU's ninth straight over the league and improves its record to 3-0 vs. the conference this season. Two of this year's wins against the Pac-12 were against nationally ranked programs.

After California scored the first six points of the game, rest of the first half was a back-and-forth affair. It was not until the final five minutes of the half the game opened up. Chase Tapley scored four straight points and fueled SDSU's 12-2 run, including the final eight points of the half, to help the Aztecs take a 33-25 lead at halftime.

In the second half, California made a couple of runs, tied the game on two occasions and took a one-point lead with 6:33 to go in regulation. The Aztecs responded with five straight points, but a Golden Bear three-pointer cut the lead to one.

In the final moments of the game with San Diego State up by two, Garrett Green, who had a game-high 10 rebounds, missed a jumper and Tapley stepped in and grabbed the rebound only to have Jamaal Franklin be fouled by California. Franklin then stepped to the line and knocked down two free throws to give SDSU a four-point lead with 15 seconds left.

The Bears answered with a basket and then with eight seconds remaining, Tapley, who was fouled, knocked down both free throws to put San Diego State up four before settling for the one-point victory.

Tapley finished the game with 25 points on a career-high 10 field goals. The junior also added a game-high three steals.

California was led by Allen Crabbe's 23 points and nine rebounds.

Game II

rv/rv San Diego State 74 San Diego 62

Dec. 7, 2011 • San Diego, Calif. Jenny Craig Pavilion • Att.: 4,708

SAN DIEGO - Behind three impressive individual performances, San Diego State was able to rally from a 12-point first-half deficit to upend San Diego, 74-62, at Jenny Craig Pavilion.

For the second straight game, Chase Tapley scored more than 20 points as he finished with a game-high 23. Xavier Thames, meanwhile, registered 11 points and a career-high 11 assists to post SDSU's first points-assists double-double since 2008. DeShawn Stephens added a career-high 16 points and nine rebounds to help the Aztecs defeat USD for the sixth consecutive time.

SDSU's winning streak looked to be in jeopardy in the first half after it fell behind, 14-2, after five-plus minutes of action. The Aztecs were being outplayed in every facet of the game early before finding any type of rhythm. Even when they were successful on offense, San Diego found ways to score and led by five with 2:47 left in the first half.

The Aztecs then scored seven straight points to take a 35-33 lead and finished the half on a 9-3 run head to the locker room up, 37-36. Tapley spearheaded the San Diego State rally with 16 first-half points.

SDSU opened the second period on a 9-2 run to open an eight-point lead, but USD chipped away and eventually took a 54-53 lead with 12:35 remaining.

San Diego State answered with eight consecutive points to retake the lead, 61-54, and never looked back. The Toreros got as close as five points with 4:11 to play, but a three-pointer by Jamaal Franklin, who finished with 11 points, sealed USD's fate as the Aztecs went on to record the 12-point win. The final margin was SDSU's largest at San Diego since winning by 23 on Feb. 25, 1975.

The Toreros were led by Chris Manresa's 14 points and 10 rebounds off the bench.

Game 12

rv/rv San Diego State 80 UC Riverside 55

Dec. 19, 2011 ◆ San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 11,555

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State led wire-to-wire and enjoyed a lead as large as 27 points before settling for an 80-55 victory over UC Riverside at Viejas Arena.

Nine of 10 Aztecs who saw the floor scored and seven recorded at least six points. SDSU was led by James Rahon's 19 points. The junior matched his career high with five three-pointers and ultimately finished 7-for-11 from the floor. Chase Tapley, meanwhile, added 17 points on 7-of-8 shooting.

San Diego State came out with its third starting lineup of the season as Jamaal Franklin was inserted into the rotation for Tim Shelton, who was given the night off due to a sore knee. The move paid off as Franklin got his teammates involved and had four assists in a first half where the Aztecs found themselves up 13-2 before the first media timeout. SDSU led by as many as 21 in the first half before entering the locker room ahead, 45-25.

The Highlanders scored seven straight points at the start of the second period to get within 13 points, but Aztecs would not allow the visitors to get any closer the rest of the way.

Midway through the second half, San Diego State went on an 11-0 run highlighted by five Rahon points and the Aztecs were up by 25 points and were well on their way to victory No. 10.

Franklin finished with a career-high five assists and most of the starters were on the bench in the final minutes, which gave two walk-ons, Narbeh Ebrahimian (1 points, 1 rebound) and Jeremy Castleberry (1 minute), the opportunity to play.

rv/rv San Diego State 81 Elon 55

Dec. 22, 2011 ◆ San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 11,370

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State survived an early first-half scare, but went on to defeat Elon, 81-55, at Viejas Arena. The Aztecs won despite playing without starting point guard Xavier Thames, who strained his MCL the day before the game.

The Phoenix hit five shots in a row, including three consecutive three-point field goals, to take a 13-9 lead less than five minutes into the game. The visitors connected on another three to take a 19-17 lead, but that is when San Diego State began to find its rhythm.

Garrett Green tied the game with a bucket and the Aztecs took a 22-19 lead after Chase Tapley buried one of his two three-pointers. Elon stopped the 5-0 run with a basket, but SDSU continued its offensive efficiency by closing the half on a 13-7 spurt to take a 37-28 lead.

Elon scored the first five points of the second half to cut the Aztec lead to four, but SDSU answered with a 13-0 run, which included nine straight Jamaal Franklin points, to move ahead by 17 points.

The 13 unanswered points was too much for the Phoenix to overcome as it never got closer than 15 points the rest of the way. San Diego State, meanwhile, continued to hit from all areas of the floor and its lead grew into the 20s as a result of shooting 55.7 percent from the floor.

Nine of the 10 Aztecs who saw the floor scored. Franklin led all players with 19 points and Tapley finished with 14. Green and Alec Williams added 10 points apiece, while DeShawn Stephens chipped in with eight points and a career-high nine rebounds.

Game 14

#25/rv San Diego State 94 Redlands 43

Dec. 30, 2011 ◆ San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - Six Aztecs scored in double figures as San Diego State had no trouble with Redlands, a Division III school, and emerged with a 94-43 victory at a sold-out Viejas Arena.

SDSU was led by Jamaal Franklin who enjoyed his best all-around game in just his third career start. The sophomore scored a game-high 26 points, grabbed a career-high 10 rebounds and added personal-record numbers of five assists, three blocks and six assists.

In the first half alone, Franklin had 20 points, five rebounds, three assists, one block and five steals to help San Diego State to a 58-24 lead at halftime.

SDSU continued to overwhelm the Bulldogs in the second half despite the ever-changing players on the floor. The Aztecs had eight players play 21 or more minutes and had all nine score a minimum of two points and grab at least one rebound.

Joining Franklin in double figures was Chase Tapley (16 points), LaBradford Franklin (11 points, careerhigh five rebounds), Garrett Green (10 points), James Rahon (10 points) and Alec Williams (10 points, career-high seven rebounds). DeShawn Stephens, who made his first career start, added six points and a career-high nine boards.

Ultimately, San Diego State won by 51 points and the margin of victory was SDSU's largest in the Steve Fisher era, tied for the fourth largest in program history and was the largest since defeating Southern Cal College by 54 (103-49) on Dec. 2, 1998.

Game 15

#24/25 San Diego State 83 San Diego Christian 52 Jan. 5, 2012 • San Diego, Calif. Vieias Arena • Att.: 10,857

SAN DIEGO - No. 24/25 San Diego State extended its winning streak to a season-long six games by defeating San Diego Christian, 83-52, at Viejas Arena.

It was another balanced effort by the Aztecs, who had five players score in double figures and all 10 players score at least a point. SDSU, which was without the services of starters Xavier Thames (knee) and Tim Shelton (rest), outrebouned the Hawks by 21 and shot 53.8 percent from the field.

The game was tied at 2-2 when SDSU took control of the contest. DeShawn Stephens scored two straight buckets and the Aztecs never looked back. In less than seven minutes, SDSU led by double figures and increased its lead to as much as 22 points with 2:36 to go in the half.

After carrying a 44-26 lead into the second half, San Diego State continued to roll and enjoyed a 23-point lead thanks to Jamaal Franklin's three-pointer. The Hawks, meanwhile, scored seven unanswered points to cut the SDSU lead to 55-39.

The game was scoreless for the next three minutes, but Alec Williams ended the drought with a layup that spurred a 7-0 Aztec run to push the lead back to 23. From that point forward, San Diego State cruised to the victory, which saw two walk-ons in Aaron Douglas and Ryan Staten see their first career action.

Stephens finished with a career-high 18 points and grabbed eight boards. Garrett Green added 14 points, while Franklin and Chase Tapley each had 11. Williams chipped in with 10 points and career-high eight rebounds.

#22/22 San Diego State 73 Chicago State 65 Jan. 10, 2012 • San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena • Att.: 12,099

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State won its sixth straight game with a 73-65 effort over Chicago State at Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs, who were playing their final non-conference game of the season, looked poised to run away with the game as they received a healthly dose of three-pointers in the early going. James Rahon made three and Jamaal Franklin and Chase Tapley each had one within the first nine minutes of the game. Soon thereafter, SDSU was ahead, 22-13, with 10:52 left in the first half.

In just over two minutes, the Cougars made it a two-point game after they scored seven unanswered points. The Aztecs, however, responded with a 6-1 run of its own to take a 28-21 lead. Chicago State then countered with a 11-4 half-ending surge to knot the score at 32 at the mid-game break.

The Cougars carried their momentum into the second half and scored seven straight points causing SDSU to call timeout with 18:25 left in the game. The Aztecs responded to the challenge and rallied to take a 14-point lead as a result of a 24-3 run.

During the game-deciding stretch, Tapley scored 13 of SDSU's 24 points to put the game out of reach. The junior would later finish with 19 second-half points en route to a game-high 24 points on a careerhigh 10 field goals.

Chicago State staged a mini rally late and cut its deficit to seven points with 3:37 left in regulation, but Alec Williams knocked down two jumpers to seal the win for SDSU.

Joining Tapley in double figures was Franklin, who had 16 points and a career-high 10 rebounds to log his second double-double of the season.

#22/22 San Diego State 69 #12/12 UNLV 67

Jan. 15, 2012 ◆ San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - Jamaal Franklin made a driving lay-up with 0.3 seconds left to lift No. 22 San Diego State past No. 12 UNLV, 69-67, in both teams' Mountain West opener.

Franklin, who left the game with 1:01 left in the game due to an ankle injury, returned to the contest with 37 seconds remaining. SDSU was up 67-66 at the time of his injury and his return only to have UNLV's Brice Massamba make one of two free throws to tie the score with 23 seconds left.

On the ensuing posession, Xavier Thames found Franklin, who faked right and drove down the middle of the paint where he lofted his shot and connected with less than a second remaining.

UNLV, with one last chance, squandered its opportunity as Mike Moser stepped over the baseline before inbounding the ball, which gave the possession to the Aztecs. San Diego State later inbounded the ball and emerged with its sixth straight victory over the Runnin' Rebels.

The Aztecs led by as many as 10 points in the first half before entering the locker room with a 34-29 lead. In the opening 20 minutes, San Diego State limited UNLV to 28.6-percent shooting and an icy 4-of-15 performance from beyond the arc. Ultimately, SDSU forced the Rebels into shooting 35.3-percent from the field and 29.6-percent from three-point distance. To compound things, UNLV made just 11 of 21 free-throw attempts. In contrast, SDSU went 16-for-20 from the charity stripe.

Franklin finished with his second straight double-double and third in four games with his team-high 24 points and 10 rebounds. James Rahon had, perhaps, his best game as an Aztec with 22 points on 8-of-14 shooting (3-5 3FG). Chase Tapley, meanwhile, added 11 points and six rebounds.

#16/16 San Diego State 75 rv/rv New Mexico 70 Jan. 18, 2012 • Albuquerque, N.M. The Pit • Att.: 15,411

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - No. 16 San Diego State overcame a slow start and went on to defeat New Mexico at The Pit, 75-70. The victory was the Aztecs' fifth in their last seven trips to the facility.

The Lobos jumped on SDSU from the outset and forced the Aztecs into bad early possessions. UNM enjoyed a 10-0 lead just 2 minutes, 36 seconds into the contest and held San Diego State scoreless until Garrett Green converted a lay-up 4 minutes, 37 seconds in.

Trailing 12-2, the Aztecs scored 10 unanswered points to tie the score. The Lobos took a six-point lead thanks to consecutive three-pointers from Phillip McDonald and led by as many as five with 4:42 left in the first half. Back-to-back threes from Chase Tapley and Xavier Thames gave the Aztecs a brief lead before both teams went into the locker room with New Mexico ahead, 31-30.

The Lobos started the second half much like the first by outscoring SDSU, 7-2, but the Aztecs would not go away quietly. Down by four with 12:34 to go, San Diego State went on a game-clinching 15-0 run, which included two threes Jamaal Franklin and five points from LaBradford Franklin.

The Aztecs' 11-point cushion was later extended to 13 after the under-four-minute media timeout and the visitors were never threatened the rest of the way. New Mexico hit five three-pointers in the final 2:46 to make the game somewhat close.

Thames finished with a career-high 22 points, while Jamaal Franklin and Tapley each scored 12 apiece. SDSU received a boost off the bench from LaBradford Franklin, who contributed nine points, three rebounds, two assists and zero turnovers in 13 minutes.

#16/16 San Diego State 57 Air Force 44

Jan. 21, 2012 ◆ San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena + Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - No. 16 San Diego State made it a perfect 3-for-3 in Mountain West play as it defeated Air Force, 57-44, in front of a sold-out Viejas Arena crowd.

It was a typical Falcons-Aztecs game as both teams grinded it out possessions. It was a two-point game more than halfway through the first period until Chase Tapley nailed a three to open a five-point cushion for the home side. The bucket spurred a 14-6 run and gave SDSU a 29-19 lead right before halftime. Air Force's Taylor Broekhuis, however, scored on a tip-in right before the first-half buzzer and the Aztecs enjoyed a 29-21 lead at the intermission.

Tapley knocked down another three on SDSU's first possession, which gave the Mountain West leaders an 11-point lead. San Diego State maintained a comfortable lead until the Falcons scored six answered points to get within 41-36 with 10:33 left. LaBradford Franklin put a brief stop to the run with a jumper, but another Falcon basket cut the lead to five again.

SDSU would not be denied on this night as it responded with eight straight points, including four from DeShawn Stephens to up its lead to 13 points. Air Force cut its deficit to seven with 2:03 left in regulation, but would get no closer as San Diego State went on to win its 10th straight game.

Tapley shared game-high honors with Air Force's Broekhuis as both tallied 16 points. Tapley also added a game-high three steals. Jamaal Franklin chipped in with 14 points and a career-high 10 rebounds. The double-double is his fourth of the season and fourth in his last six games.

Joining Broekhuis in double figures was Mike Fitzgerald, who finished with 14 points.

#13/12 San Diego State 52 Wyoming 42

Jan. 24, 2012 + Laramie, Wyo. Arena-Auditorium • Att.: 5,692

LARAMIE, Wyo. - Despite arriving in Laramie seven hours before tip-off and canceling its mid-day shootaround, No. 13/12 San Diego State defeated Wyoming, 52-42, to post its 11th consecutive victory and improve to 4-0 in the Mountain West.

The Aztecs, who chartered a plane to travel to Wyoming, needed to refuel and landed in Cedar City, Utah. Heavy snow in the area grounded the plane and SDSU stayed the night in Utah.

The next morning, the Aztecs resumed their trip, stopped in Grand Junction, Colo., to refuel once again before landing in Laramie at 11:30 a.m. MT for their 6:30 p.m. MT date.

The effects of what turned out to be a 20-hour trip seemed to be non-existant for SDSU as it was efficient on offense and defense in the first half. Six straight points from Jamaal Franklin with under five minutes to play opened a 25-18 lead for the Aztecs, who went into halftime with a 25-22 lead. Nine first-half turnovers by San Diego State kept the Cowboys in the game despite the homeside being limited to 36.4 percent shooting.

The Aztecs put a stranglehold on the game with a 16-4 run out of halftime, which put the Cowboys into a 15-point hole with 12:18 to play.

Wyoming scored seven unanswered points to get within 41-33, but San Diego State put an end to the run with a three by Chase Tapley and the Aztecs enjoyed a double-digit lead the rest of the way.

Franklin posted his fifth double-double in the last seven games with 12 points and a career-high 11 points. Tapley, meanwhile, added 12 points of his

Leonard Washington, Wyoming's top threat, scored 10 points in the first half and was limited to just two in the second. He also had eight rebounds.

Colorado State 77 #13/12 San Diego State 60 Jan. 28, 2012 • Fort Collins, Colo. Moby Arena + Att.: 6,038

FORT COLLINS, Colo. - No. 13/12 San Diego State had its 11-game winning streak snapped as Colorado State defeated the Aztecs, 77-60, at Moby Arena. The loss was SDSU's first since Nov. 30, 2011.

Things were going well for the Aztecs early on as they scored on their first three possessions and were dominating the glass. SDSU took an 11-8 lead on Jamaal Franklin's three-pointer, but a 5-2 run by the Rams tied the score at 13.

The final two points of CSU's 5-2 spurt was a part of a larger 12-2 run, which put San Diego State in a 23-15 hole with 10:52 left in the half. The Aztecs cut the lead to six following a pair of Xavier Thames free throws, but that would be as close as the visitors would get the rest of the way. Chase Tapley's two free throws and Franklin's jumper with 2:14 left trimmed their deficit to eight points, but four consecutive points by Wes Eikmeier to end the half gave the Rams a 12point advantage at halftime.

Colorado State maintained its double-digit lead for the rest of the game, but the Aztecs made them work for it as SDSU forced the Rams into 13 second-half turnovers. San Diego State's full-court pressure, in addition to only two turnovers in the second half, caused CSU fits at times and it helped the Aztecs cut their deficit to 12 points with 4:11 left in regulation.

The Rams proved to be too much for SDSU on this afternoon as they shot 49.0 percent from the field, 46.2 percent from beyond the arc and a Mountain West record 23-for-23 from the charity stripe.

Franklin led SDSU with 24 points and 10 rebounds, while Thames and Tapley each scored 10. Eikmeier, meanwhile, led CSU with 19 points and Will Bell added 17. Pierce Hornung grabbed 13 boards.

#17/17 San Diego State 58 Boise State 56

Feb. 1, 2012 ◆ San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - No. 17 San Diego State rallied from 12 down in the second half and Boise State missed a three at the final horn to allow the Aztecs to escape with a 58-56 victory in front of a sold-out Viejas Arena.

The Broncos, who trailed by one after Chase Tapley made 1-of-2 free throws with seven seconds to play, had one chance to upset the Mountain West leaders. Following the Tapley miss, Boise State brought the ball down the floor and found a wide-open Thomas Bropleh in the corner. The forward had a clean look, but his attempt went in and out.

The Aztecs, who struggled in their last outing, looked to have righted the ship as they took a 10-3 just 5 minutes, 18 seconds into the contest. SDSU, however, went cold and Boise State scored 14 unanswered points to lead 17-10 with 8:19 left in the first half. The Broncos eventually took a 10-point lead before settling for a 33-25 halftime cushion.

Boise State maintained its double-digit advantage early in the second half until San Diego State went on its own 14-0 run and took a 41-38 lead following a 16-2 stretch.

SDSU upped its lead to 47-40 with 5:49 to play, but the Broncos would not go away and trimmed their deficit to one point three different times in the final 28 seconds, which led to Tapley's 1-for-2 effort late and Bropleh's miss on the final two sequences.

San Diego State, which made 25-of-29 free throws, was led by Jamaal Franklin's 16 points and eight rebounds. Tapley finished with 14 points and Tim Shelton matched his season high with eight boards.

Anthony Drmic and Tre Nichols each scored 17 point to lead the Broncos.

#17/17 San Diego State 83 TCU 73

Feb. 4, 2012 ◆ San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - No. 17 San Diego State withstood a three-point barrage by TCU and shot over 50 percent from the field to defeat the Horned Frogs, 83-73, in front of a sold-out Viejas Arena crowd. With the win, the Aztecs finished the first half of league play in first place with a 6-1 record.

TCU shot 60.9 percent from the field, incuding 53.8 percent from behind the arc. Of its 14 first-half field goals, seven were from distance. SDSU, meanwhile, weathered the storm and shot 53.1 percent from the floor and used a 14-4 run to take a 33-27 lead with 4:50 left in the first half. The Aztecs eventually went into the locker room ahead, 46-39.

In the second half, San Diego State scored the first six points to open up a double-digit lead and never looked back. While the Aztecs were flirting with 50.0 percent shooting, their defense stifled the Horned Frogs. TCU shot just 9-for-25 or 36.0 percent in the second half.

Jamaal Franklin led all players with 24 points and a career-high 11 rebounds. James Rahon, who had only 18 points in his previous four games, finished with 16 points and a season-high four assists. Chase Tapley added 14 points, while DeShawn Stephens chipped in with 13 points and six rebounds off the bench.

Kyan Anderson led TCU with 22 points and J.R. Cadot contributed 15. Between Anderson, Cadot and backcourt teammate Hank Thorns, the trio was 9-for-15 from three-point range.

LAS VEGAS - No. 13/14 San Diego State rallied from a 13-point second-half deficit and took a one-point lead with 85 seconds to play, but could not finish the deal as No. 14/16 UNLV defeated the Aztecs, 65-63, in front of a sold-out crowd at Thomas & Mack Center.

The loss snapped the Aztecs' six-game winning streak over the Runnin' Rebels and stopped their three-game winning streak vs. UNLV at Thomas & Mack Center.

San Diego State trailed, 37-29, at halftime and its deficit swelled to 13 points with 15:01 to play in regulation. UNLV enjoyed its largest lead of the game after Brice Massamba scored the Rebels' first 10 points of the half.

UNLV led, 58-47, with 9:18 to play until Chase Tapley caught fire and singlehandedly got the Aztecs back into the game. The junior hit consecutive threes and scored 10 straight points for SDSU, but the Rebels seemed to have an answer every time. After Tapley scored his 10th point in a row, the Aztecs still trailed by five.

Garrett Green came off the bench and contributed three unanswered points for San Diego State and Tapley added another three with 1:25 left in regulation to five the Aztecs a 63-62 lead.

With under a minute to play, Jamaal Franklin drove baseline and appeared to be fouled, but no call was made and UNLV went the other way and reclaimed the lead after an Anthony Marshall lay-up with 38 seconds left.

Justin Hawkins made one of two free throws with 10 seconds left to give UNLV a 65-63 lead. Xavier Thames hustled the ball up the court, but had the ball poked away by Hawkins and the Rebels escaped with the win.

Game 26

Air Force 58 #13/15 San Diego State 56 Feb. 18, 2012 • USAFA, Colo. Clune Arena • Att.: 2,483

USAFA, Colo. - No. 13/15 San Diego State had a chance to win the game at the buzzer, but Xavier Thames' three-point attempt fell short as the Aztecs dropped a 58-56 decision at Air Force. The loss was SDSU's third in a row and its first three-game losing streak in 143 games.

SDSU was without the services of starting guard/forward Jamaal Franklin, who was ruled out just before tip with an ankle injury. Garrett Green started in his place and he, too, went down with an ankle injury and the Aztecs played the final 11:57 without the senior forward.

San Diego State led by six with 2:08 before halftime, but Air Force closed the half on a 7-1 run to tie the score at 29-29.

Green scored the first three points of the second half, which gave SDSU a lead it would carry deep into the game. Chase Tapley nailed a three with 5:40 to play to give the Aztecs a 46-43 lead.

Air Force tied the game at 48-48 and that was the beginning of a 10-0 Falcon run, which gave AFA a 56-48 lead. SDSU, however, extended its defense and narrowed its deficit to one after a Tim Shelton lay-up. Todd Fletcher made 1-of-2 free throws with eight seconds left to give Air Force a 58-56 lead and that eventually led to Thames' last-second attempt at a win.

Tapley led the Aztecs with 17 points and nine rebounds, while Shelton added 13 points and a gamehigh 11 boards. Green collected 10 rebounds.

Michael Lyons led all players with 27 points.

Game 27

#24/25 San Diego State 67
Wyoming 58 (ot)
Feb. 22, 2012 • San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena • Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - No. 24/25 San Diego State snapped its three-game losing streak and prevented its first fourgame losing streak since 2005 with a 67-58 overtime victory vs. Wyoming at a sold-out Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs, who trailed 30-26 at halftime, rallied from a nine-point second-half deficit and a four-point hole with 2:19 to play.

Down 52-48, Chase Tapley knocked down a three and Garrett Green converted a lay-up with 1:26 left in regulation to lift SDSU to a 53-52 lead. With under a minute to play, Green, who entered the game shooting 47.7 percent from the free-throw line, calmly made both from the stripe to provide the Aztecs with a three-point cushion with 41 seconds on the clock.

Wyoming, however, ended a 2-minute, 15-second scoring drought with a Luke Martinez three, which tied the score. Tapley had one final look to end the second half, but his lay-up was off the mark and the game went into overtime.

In the extra session, Jamaal Franklin, who returned from a one-game absence due to an ankle injury, scored the first five points and Tapley added a bucket to put the Aztecs up, 62-55. Wyoming cut its deficit to five, but would not get any closer as San Diego State outscored the Cowboys, 12-3, in OT to earn its 21st win of the season.

Green, who missed the final 11 minutes at Air Force due to an ankle injury, came off the bench and led all scorers with 14 points on 6-of-6 shooting from the field. Franklin added 12 points, while Tim Shelton and Tapley each scored 10 points apiece.

Xavier Thames and DeShawn Stephens were also solid for SDSU as Thames contributed nine points and a game-high six assists, while Stephens chipped in with eight points and seven boards.

#21/23 San Diego State 66 Boise State 53

Feb. 29, 2012 • Boise, Idaho Taco Bell Arena + Att.: 6,145

BOISE, Idaho - No. 21/23 San Diego State moved one step closer to earning at least a share of a second consecutive Mountain West regular-season title with its 66-53 victory at Boise State.

The Aztecs entered the night in a three-way tie for first place with New Mexico and UNIV, and ended in a two-way tie with the Lobos after UNM beat Air Force and the Runnin' Rebels fell at Colorado State.

SDSU appeared to be lethargic out of the gate as the score was level at 9-9 more than seven minutes into the game. The Aztecs, however, went on a 7-0 run to jump ahead, but the Broncos trimmed the lead down to four three minutes later. Then in the final 2:20 of the first half, San Diego State scored eight unanswered points and closed the frame on an 8-2 spurt to enjoy a 38-22 lead at hafltime.

The Aztecs remained comfortably ahead for the final 20 minutes and allowed Boise State to get as close as 11 points right before the first media timeout. San Diego State's lead eventually grew into the 20s, with its largest advantage of 22 points coming with 6:15 remaining.

Jamaal Franklin, who was coming off a 31-point, 16-rebound effort against CSU, continued to fill the stat sheet as he produced a game-high 18 points, 12 rebounds and three assists.

Joining Franklin in double figures were Tim Shelton and Chase Tapley, who each scored 11 points. Xavier Thames, meanwhile, added 10 points.

Derrick Marks led Boise State with 13 points and Anthony Drmic chipped in with 10 points and five rebounds. Kenny Buckner collected a team-high six boards for the Broncos.

#21/23 San Diego State 98 TCU 92 (ot)

March 3, 2012 • Fort Worth, Texas Daniel-Meyer Coliseum + Att.: 5,955

FORT WORTH, Texas - No. 21/23 San Diego State earned a share of the Mountain West regular-season title for the second straight year and clinched the No. 1 seed at the MW Championship after it defeated TCU, 98-92, in overtime at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum.

The Aztecs received another stellar performance from MW player-of-the-year candidate Jamaal Franklin. The sophomore led all players with a careerhigh 35 points, 13 rebounds, a career-best five assists, one blocked shot and two steals in a personal-high 42 minutes.

Behind Franklin's 14-point, nine-rebound performance and Xavier Thames' 12 points in the first half, San Diego State enjoyed a 46-34 lead at halftime.

SDSU appeared to be well on its way to its 24th victory of the season after leading by as many as 11 with 10:53 to play.

TCU, however, would not go down easily and took a three-point lead on a Hank Thorns three-pointer with 1:46 to play.

San Diego State still trailed by three when Franklin attempted a three with 23 seconds left in regulation, but Tim Shelton rebounded the airball and converted the lay-up despite being fouled. Shelton made the free throw and TCU's last-second attempt at a game-winner by Thorns was off the mark and the game went into overtime tied at 83-83.

In the extra session, the Aztecs outscored the Horned Frogs, 15-9, to escape with the win and hand TCU its first conference home loss of the season.

Thames finished with 16 points and seven boards, while Chase Tapley and James Rahon added 18 and 12 points, respectively.

(1) #18/21 San Diego State 65 (8) Boise State 62

March 8, 2012 • Las Vegas, Nev. Thomas & Mack Center + Att.: 8,160

LAS VEGAS - San Diego State sophomore guard Jamaal Franklin hit a three-point field goal as time expired to lift the top-ranked and No. 18/21 Aztecs to a 65-62 victory over eighth-seeded Boise State in the quarterfinals of the 2012 Conoco Mountain West Championship at Thomas & Mack Center.

The Broncos, who were down by 11 points with 6:45 to play, went on an 11-3 run to get within two points of the regular-season champions.

Franklin briefly put an end to the run with a lay-up to put SDSU up, 62-58, with 1:12 left in regulation. Boise State, however, answer with a pair of Anthony Drmic free throws and a Thomas Bropleh lay-up to tie the game at 65-65 with 27 seconds left on the clock.

The Aztecs called a timeout to set up a final play, which resulted in Xavier Thames handing the ball off to Franklin. The guard, who was defended well by Boise State, had the ball on the wing beyond the three-point arc and attempted an off-balance shot, which was successful as time expired.

The Broncos led by as many as nine points in the first half before the Aztecs rallied and found themselves down, 32-30, at halftime.

Franklin finished with 19 points and a team-high five rebounds. Chase Tapley, meanwhile, led the second-half charge as he scored 13 of his game-high 20 points in the second half. The junior also added a team-high four assists and a game-high four steals.

Thames, who played 37 minutes, scored in double figures for a fourth straight game and finished with 14 points and a team-high five boards.

San Diego State advances to the semifinals of the MW Championship where fourth-seeded Colorado State awaits.

(1) #18/21 San Diego State 79 (4) Colorado State 69 March 9, 2012 + Las Vegas, Nev.

Thomas & Mack Center • Att.: 16,399

LAS VEGAS - No. 18/21 and top-seeded San Diego State broke open a close game with a 9-0 run early in the second half and never looked back en route to a 79-69 win over fourth-seeded Colorado State in the semifinals of the 2012 Conoco Mountain West Championship at Thomas & Mack Center.

In a first half featured eight lead changes and five ties, the Rams went into intermission with a slight 39-38 advantage.

CSU's lead would only last seven seconds in the second half as James Rahon hit a three-pointer to give the Aztecs a 41-39 lead and lead they would never relinguish

With the game still close, Dorian Green hit a threepointer with 16:17 left to get Colorado State to within two points at 50-48. SDSU responded with the decisive 9-0 run over the next 1:31, ending with a DeShawn Stephens dunk that put San Diego State up, 61-50, with 13:40 left.

The Rams never got any closer than seven points the rest of the way as the Aztecs advanced to their fourth consecutive Mountain West tournament final.

Jamaal Franklin had a team-high 19 points and six rebounds, while Chase Tapley had 17 points and tied his season high with six assists.

Rahon scored 15 points, his most since Feb. 4, and Garrett Green led a productive bench with 10 points, including his first three-pointer at SDSU.

Game 33

(2) rv/rv New Mexico 68 (1) #18/21 San Diego State 59 March 10, 2012 • Las Vegas, Nev. Thomas & Mack Center + Att.: 12,168

LAS VEGAS - The top seed and No. 18/21 San Diego State's bid for a Mountain West-record third straight conference tournament championship came up short as second-seeded New Mexico defeated the Aztecs, 68-59, to earn the league's automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament.

SDSU, which was competing in its MW-record fourth consecutive championship game, struggled to find any type of rhythm for almost the entire game.

The Aztecs trailed 5-0, 8-1, 15-4 and 18-6 all within the first 9:30. San Diego State cut its deficit to single digits (6) after a dunk by MW Player of the Year Jamaal Franklin and a lay-up from Garrett Green.

New Mexico answered with five straight points and later received six consecutive points from Cameron Bairstow to take a 14-point lead with 4:16 to play in the first half. The Lobos ultimately went into the locker room ahead, 34-23.

UNM continued to maintain its double-figure lead over the Aztecs for nearly the whole second half. But as the time ticked off the clock, SDSU slowly made its way back thanks to Chase Tapley's trio of three-pointers, the third of which cut the Aztecs' deficit to 10.

Later, Tapley hit another three and SDSU trailed, 61-53. A mini 4-1 San Diego State run got the Aztecs to within five points with 81 seconds to play, but a New Mexico parade to the free-throw line kept San Diego State at bay and the Lobos captured the crown.

Tapley finished the game with a game-high 25 points and Franklin added 16 points and 10 rebounds. Green came off the bench to contribute eight points and nine boards.

At the conclusion of the tournament, Tapley and Franklin were named to the all-MW Championship
