No. 25 UMass, No. 22 Texas A&M Highlight San Diego Classic II, Aztec Softball's Final Tourney of the Season

The San Diego State softball team looks to continue its season-long seven-game winning streak this weekend when it co-hosts its final tournament of the season, the San Diego Classic II. The Aztecs (15-8), who are receiving votes in both the USA Today/NFCA national poll and the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll, have outscored the opposition, 36-5, over the seven-game stretch. Two of the victories have come against nationally ranked opponents, while another two were against teams who were receiving votes in one of the two polls.

SDSU, which has already played 13 teams this season who were nationally ranked or receiving votes and 10 schools who made the 2009 NCAA tournament, is slated to play five games over the weekend. Two of the contests are against nationally ranked teams and 2009 tourney schools.

San Diego State kicks things off Thursday against No. 25/rv Massachusetts (7 p.m. PT), before meeting Kansas on Friday at the same time. At 2 p.m. PT Saturday, the Aztecs welcome Harvard. SDSU then plays No. 22/20 Texas A&M at 10 a.m. Sunday before ending the tournament at 6 p.m. Monday with a game against Oregon State.

San Diego State won all four of its games last week by a combined 22-3 margin. The Aztecs downed Northern Illinois, 5-0, and Buffalo, 5-0, at SDSU Softball Stadium, and beat Bradley (7-0) and No. 21/25 Illinois (5-3) in rainy Columbia, Mo.

Justeen Maeva leads an offense that has brought its average up to .296, which is percentage points ahead of the 2007's school record .2958 average. Maeva is batting .400 with three homers and 17 RBIs, while Brittany Knudsen (.328), Tanya Holguin (.315) and Eva Sahatdjian (.311) are also hitting over .300 with enough plate appearances to qualify (2.0 PA/team game). Samantha Beasley continues to rack up the numbers in the circle, owning a 11-5 record with a 0.84 ERA in 91 1/3 innings. She has 138 strikeouts to just 17 walks, while limiting her opponents to a .164 average.

Kristin May had two hits, including a double, and three RBI, while DP Justeen Maeva (sacrifice fly) and SS Jessica Camello (single) each drove in a run ... CF Brittany Knudsen scored twice and 2B Lindsey Marquez singled and drew a walk ... The runs were enough for Beasley (8-5) and Kamerin May, who didn't allow a Northern Illinois player past first base ... Beasley gave up two hits and a walk over five innings, striking out eight ... Making just her second appearance in the circle all season, Kamerin May logged two perfect innings of relief.

March 14, 2010 • University Field • Columbia, Mo.

1B Monica Alnes capped a five-run fifth inning with a three-run homer to give San Diego State a 5-3 victory over No. 21/25 Illinois ... It was the seventh consecutive victory for the Aztecs (15-8), which also snapped a 10-game winning streak by the Illini (16-2) ... SDSU's later game against No. 3/3 Missouri was canceled due to inclement weather, the team's fourth cancellation over the weekend ... She struck out seven for her sixth consecutive victory.

A Look at UMass

Massachusetts heads into its seven-game weekend with a 11-4 record. The Minutewomen, who are ranked No. 25 in the latest USA Today/NFCA poll, have won their last five games. Katie Bettencourt (.425, 7 R, 3 2B) and Kyllie Magill (.420, 15 R, 2 HR) leads an offense that bats .287 as a team, while Sara Plourde is the top pitcher with a 10-2 record and 1.58 ERA over 79 2/3 innings.

SDSU leads the all-time series between the schools, 3-2, but lost to UMass 16-1, in six innings at SDSU Softball Stadium in the last meeting on Feb. 10, 2007. San Diego State committed six errors in that game in the loss that led to nine unearned runs. Current Aztecs Lindsey Marquez and Brittany Knudsen each had a hit in that game.

A Glance at Kansas

Kansas is off to a 11-12 start, after going 2-2 at its first home tourney of the season last week. Alex Jones has been the Jayhawks' most consistent hitter with a .389 average and 12 runs scored. Rosie Hull (.360) and Mariah Montgomery (.300, 11 R, 9 RBI) have also produced for the .262-hitting team. Kansas has received balanced production in the circle from Allie Clark (3-2, 3.53 ERA, 45.2 IP), Jones (4-3, 3.55, 47.1) and Sarah Vertelka (4-7, 4.62, 53.0).

The two teams have met only three times previously with the Jayhawks taking two of those contests, including a 3-2 decision on Feb. 10, 2007, in San Diego. Lindsey Marquez and Brittany Knudsen each had a hit for the Aztecs.

Reviewing Harvard

Harvard is 4-7 out of the gate after spending the last week out here in California. Harvard fell to Bucknell, 7-5, and host Loyola Marymount, 3-0, on Tuesday. As a team, the Crimson are batting .204. Melissa Schellberg leads the team with a .276 average, while Whitney Shaw is hitting .269. Rachel Brown leads the pitching staff with a 4-2 record and 1.47 ERA over 36 2/3 innings.

SDSU is 2-0 all-time against Harvard, including a 10-1, five-inning win on Feb. 29, 2008, at SDSU Softball Stadium. Jen Wisneski was 2-for-3 with a career-high four RBIs for the Aztecs, while Samantha Beasley had two walks, two runs and two RBIs. Beasley also pitched and got the win after giving up four hits over three innings. She struck out four without giving up a run.

Previewing Texas A&M

The Aggies come into the weekend ranked 22nd by USA Today/NFCA and 20th by ESPN.com/USA Softball. Texas A&M is 22-6 and have won its last six games. Earlier this season the Aggies knocked off the Aztecs, 7-6, in eight innings. Meagan May leads the team in batting average (.450), hits (36), doubles (13), home runs (10), RBIs (34), total bases (79), slugging percentage (.988), walks (23) and on-base percentage (.581). Rhiannon Kliesing (.388, 20 R, 27 RBIs) and Alex Reynolds (.364, 19 RBIs) are the other top hitters for Texas A&M. Melissa Domezich (5-0, 1.63 ERA, 34.1 IP), Rebecca Arbino (11-3, 2.09, 90.1) and Kliesing (6-3, 3.91, 57.1) have split time in the circle.

With the win on Feb. 26, the Aggies lead the all-time series, 3-2. Brittany Knudsen was 2-for-3 with three RBIs in that game, while Jessica Camello (3-for-4) and Eva Sahatdjan (2-for-4) added multi-hit performances. Samantha Beasley took the loss after allowing two runs (one earned) on three hits and two walks over five innings of relief. She struck out nine of the 20 batters she faced.

Scouting Oregon State

The Beavers are off to a 10-11 start, playing some of the top competition in the nation. Paige Hall is hitting .446 with five doubles and 12 walks to lead the Oregon State offense, which bats .289 as a team. Lea Cavestany (.366) and McKenna Lowe (.353) have added to the offense, while Mary Claire Brenner (.344) and Audrey Roderfeld (.328) have combined for 13 homers and 42 RBIs. Hall also leads the pitching staff with a 7-10 record and 3.46 ERA.

SDSU owns a slight 11-8 edge in the series, including a 1-0 win over the then No. 6 Beavers on Feb. 8, 2007. Brittany

Knudsen made her collegiate debut for SDSU with a solo homer to account for the only run. Current Aztec assistant coach Mia Longfellow had one of OSU's five hits in the loss.

A Look at the Aztecs So Far

San Diego State is 15-8 heading into the weekend, but the record could be better. Consider the following:

* Four of SDSU's eight losses have come against nationally ranked schools, including two against top-10 teams. The nationally ranked losses have come against No. 1/1 Washington, 5-0; No. 12/9 Oklahoma, 4-0; No. 24/19 Texas A&M, 7-6 (eight innings); and No. 13/14 California, 5-4. In those four games, San Diego State has been outscored just, 21-10 (5.25-2.5). In addition, another loss came to Baylor, a team that is now ranked in one poll and receiving votes in another.

* Of SDSU's eight losses on the season, three have come against teams who pitched a member of the 2010 USA Softball Player of the Year Watch List. Those losses came against Washington (2009 USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year Danielle Lawrie), California (Valerie Arioto) and Baylor (Whitney Canion).

* In the Aztecs' eight losses, only 29 of the team's 46 runs allowed have been earned. Take away all the unearned runs in the losses and SDSU is 17-5-1 (.761) instead of 15-8 (.652).

To Be the Best, You Have to Beat the Best

Once again head coach Kathy Van Wyk hasn't made it easy for this year's Aztecs.

This year, SDSU has already played six nationally ranked teams, another seven against teams who were receiving votes in either poll at the time of the game and 10 against teams who made the 2009 NCAA tournament.

On dock for this weekend? Massachusetts (No. 25/rv, made the 2009 NCAA tournament), Kansas (Big 12 member), Harvard, Texas A&M (No. 22/20, made the 2009 NCAA tournament, beat SDSU earlier this season) and Oregon State (Pac-10 member).

Coming into the season, San Diego State is scheduled to play four games against teams with a 2009 RPI of 10 or better, seven with an RPI of 25 or better, 14 with an RPI of 40 or better, 19 with an RPI of 50 or better and 30 with an RPI of 100 or better.

Aztecs Receiving Votes in Both National Polls

After going 4-0 last week, San Diego State gained a couple of votes in both the USA Today/NFCA poll and the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll.

In the USA Today/NFCA poll, the Aztecs have 12 points, up from 11 the week before and their most since the preseason poll on Jan. 26 when they had 15 points. The 12 points this week are the 28th most in the nation, the closest they have been to the top 25 this season. San Diego State trails No. 25 Massachusetts (33 points) by 21 points. Baylor leads the receiving votes group with 22 points, followed by Brigham Young (18), SDSU (12), Lipscomb (9), Fresno State (8), Hofstra (8), Notre Dame (7), Oregon (5), Fordham (4) and Tennessee-Martin (1).

After dropping out of consideration completely in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll two weeks before, San Diego State improved to 12 points in the latest edition after earning two points the previous week. The 12 points is the 28th most in the nation, the second-highest it has been all season. Oregon, a team the Aztecs have beaten twice this year, is 25th with 35 points, are followed by Brigham Young (22), Louisiana-Lafayette (16), SDSU (12), Hawai'i (11), Massachusetts (10), Hofstra (8), Lipscomb (4), Fordham (3), DePaul (2) and Fresno State (2).

SDSU Softball Picked Second in 2010 MWC Preseason Poll

The San Diego State softball team has been picked to finish second in the Mountain West Conference in the preseason poll released Jan. 27 by the league.

The Aztecs, who went 33-20 last season and finished second in the MWC at 10-5, picked up 22 points, including two first-place votes. Brigham Young, which won the league championship last year with a 12-2 mark, is predicted to win the title again with 24 points, including the other four first-place votes. The Cougars and SDSU were followed by UNLV (17), Utah (10), Colorado State (9) and New Mexico (8).

San Diego State has five former all-conference selections on this year's roster, including last season's MWC Freshman of the Year Bailey Micetich (Woodland, Calif.). Other all-conference returnees include senior two-time selection Brittany Knudsen (San Diego/Escondido HS), redshirt senior Monica Alnes (Rancho Palos Verdes, Calif.), redshirt junior Lindsey Marquez (Tustin, Calif.) and junior Samantha Beasley (San Diego/Steele Canyon HS).

Last season, the Aztecs advanced to their second consecutive NCAA tournament, a first in the program's history.

Beast in the Circle

Junior Samantha Beasley (San Diego, Calif./Steele Canyon HS) is having a season to remember. The righthander has pitched in 19 of the team's 23 contests, going 11-5 with a 0.84 ERA. She has 138 strikeouts against 17 walks in 91 1/3 innings, while limiting her opponents to a .164 batting average. Beasley, who has been hurt by numerous Aztec errors as only 11 of the 23 runs she has allowed have been earned this season, also has seven complete games, four solo shutouts, three combined shutouts and one save.

With now enough innings to qualify, Beasley is ranked first in Aztec single-season history in strikeouts per seven innings (10.58), opponents average (.164), and second in hits allowed per seven innings (4.06). If Beasley throws as many innings as she did last year (188.0), she's on pace to throw 285 strikeouts, which would beat

Christina Ross' record of 275 set in 2008. In that season, Ross threw 293.2 innings. If things keep going the way they are, Beasley will throw well over 188 innings.

Among the career leaders, Beasley is first in strikeouts per seven innings (8.58), second in saves (8) and opponents average (.201), fourth in strikeouts (435), strikeout-to-walk ratio (4.31) and solo shutouts (since 1999) (14), tied for fourth in total shutouts (23), fifth in winning percentage (.623), seventh in hits allowed per seven innings (5.15) and WHIP (1.02), eighth in wins (33) and tied for eighth in appearances (79).

Beasley has already won the MWC Pitcher-of-the-Week award three times in five weeks this season.

She's Not Your Maeva, She's My-A-vah

Sophomore Justeen Maeva (pronounced My-A-vah) has been a welcomed addition to The Mesa after transferring from Cal State Bakersfield, providing much-needed power and a true No. 4 spot in the batting order. Maeva, who attended nearby Mira Mesa High School, leads the offense in seven categories, including batting average (.400), hits (22), home runs (3), RBIs (17), total bases (34), slugging percentage (.618) and on-base percentage (.477).

Maeva starred last year for the Roadrunners, earning second-team all-Independent team honors. Overall, she hit .352, tying for the team lead in home runs (4) and RBI (31), while ranking among the Independent leaders in hits (57), total bases (78), walks (21), RBI and on-base percentage (.435). She was even better against teams the Aztecs played a year ago, hitting .435 (27-for-62) over 20 games with 17 RBI, eight runs, five doubles and two home runs.

Aztecs Featured on ESPN.com

The San Diego State softball team was featured in the a February "College Sports" section of ESPN.com. The article, written by Graham Hays, talks about SDSU's suddenly potent offense and is entitled "San Diego State regains offensive power."

In the article, Hays says, "San Diego State won its first five games at the Kajikawa Classic, missing out on a perfect start only after dropping Sunday's finale to Texas Tech in what was the team's sixth game in less than 72 hours. The Aztecs scored 29 runs in their five wins, including at least four runs in each game. That might not be cause for comment for a line-up like Arizona, but it's news for the Aztecs, who didn't score four or more runs in five consecutive games at any point last season."

To read the whole article, go to http://espn.go.com/ncaa/blog/_/name/college_sports/id/4915351/san-diego-state-regains-offensive-power. SDSU was also featured on an ESPN article on Feb. 26, 2008 - http://sports.espn.go.com/ncaa/columns/story?columnist=hays_graham&id=3263570 - by the same Graham Hays.

Offensive Notes

After batting just .216 and averaging 2.78 runs per game a year ago through its first 23 games (12-11), the Aztec offense has improved dramatically in 2010 ... Through 23 games this season (15-8), SDSU is hitting .296 and averaging 4.22 runs per contest ... Other improvements through 23 games include hits (185 up from 126), doubles (28 up from 19), triples (4 up from 3), home runs (9 up from 4), RBIs (90 up from 53), total bases (248 up from 163), slugging percentage (.397 up from .280), hit by pitch (10 up from 4), on-base percentage (.356 up from .282) and stolen bases (28 up from 25) ... SDSU already has nine home runs, just three short of last year's 12, set over 53 games ... This year's .296 batting average is the best in school history, just percentage points ahead of the 2007 squad (.2958) ... SDSU's .397 slugging percentage is second in program history (.410, 2006) and so is its .356 on-base percentage (.379, 2006) ... The Aztecs are batting .330 in 10 home games ... The team is collectively reaching base safely .430 (65-for-151) when leading off an innings ... SDSU is 14-0 when outhitting its opponents (0-6 when outhit, 1-2 when tied) ... The Aztecs are 11-1 when scoring first and 4-0 when scoring in the first inning ... San Diego State is 11-1 when scoring five or more runs and 13-0 when leading after five innings ... To show how San Diego State's speed creates chaos on the basepaths, SDSU has reached base 26 times because of an error while its opponents have reached 19 times ... Only CF Brittany Knudsen has started all 23 games this season ... In fact, Knudsen has started the last 175 games, dating back to her freshman season ... With still more than half the season left, Knudsen is the all-time leader with 88 walks, 17 more than second-place Janna Kovensky's 71 set from 2001-04 ... Knudsen leads the team with seven multi-hit games ... DP/1B Justeen Maeva and 1B Monica Alnes lead SDSU with five multi-RBI games apiece ... C/DP Kristin May is the only Aztec to have a walkoff hit this season and she has done it twice ... LF Felicia Reifschneider has 19 runs in 22 games played ... She also leads SDSU with five game-winning scores.

Defensive Notes

SDSU has a .960 fielding percentage, which ranks second in the MWC ... The percentage is impressive considering the Aztecs had 25 errors in their first 15 games (.942 percentage) ... Over the last eight games, where San Diego State is 7-1, it has just one error for a .995 fielding percentage ... RHP Samantha Beasley has yet to commit an error in 83 career fielding chances ... C/DP Kristin May has a perfect fielding percentage in 57 chances this season ... Other fielders who have yet to commit an error include DP/1B Justeen Maeva (28 chances), Beasley (19), RHP Bailey Micetich (17), C Sydney Fleming (14), RF/LF Patrice Jackson (7), RHP Brooke Petty (5), 2B Taylor Sutton (2), LF Stefanie Quichocho-Rosario (1) and P Kameron May (1).

Pitching Notes

The pitching staff leads the league in ERA (2.10), opponents batting average (.222), strikeouts (191), saves (2, tied) and WHIP (BB+H/IP) (1.05) ... As a team, SDSU is averaging 8.30 strikeouts per game ... The staff is on pace to throw 415.2 in a 50-game season (excluding the NCAA's) ... Last year's staff set a program record with 407 in 53 games (7.68 per game (including NCAA's) ... RHP Samantha Beasley is on a six-game winning streak ... She won her first five this season, lost her next five, and has won her last six to improve to 11-5 ... Beasley set a career high with 33 1/3 scoreless innings from Feb. 26-March 14 ... With now enough innings to qualify, Beasley is ranked first in Aztec single-season history in strikeouts per seven innings (10.58), opponents average (.164), and second in hits allowed per seven innings (4.06) ... If Beasley throws as many innings as she did last year (188.0), she's on pace to throw 285 strikeouts, which would beat Christina Ross' record of 275 set in 2008 ... In that season, it took Ross 293.2 innings to reach 275 ... If things keep going the way they are, Beasley will throw well over 188 innings ... RHP Bailey Micetich has pitched well as of late, not giving up a run over her last 8 1/3 innings ... On March 12, Micetich picked up her first career save against No. 21/25 Illinois after tossing three perfect innings of relief.

Had a phenomenal first season on The Mesa, setting school freshman records in winning percentage (.731), total shutouts (since 1983) (11) and strikeouts (180) ... A power pitcher who can get the groundout if needed ... Has 42 strikeouts to nine walks ... Best game might have come against Southern Utah on Feb. 13 when she allowed one hit (home run) and a run over five innings of relief, while striking out eight against no walks to get the victory ... Came up big against Oregon on March 5, retiring the final 13 batters in SDSU's 5-2 win ... Tossed a perfect three innings of relief with four strikeouts to pick up her first career save against Bradley on March 12.

2010 NOTES

A power pitcher ... Hard-throwing righthander ... Redshirted last season ... Despite having two 2009 all-MWC performers and the MWC Pitcher of the Year on the roster, it was Petty who drew the opening day start against Creighton on Feb. 11 ... Making her first start since 2008, she surrendered three runs (one earned) on two hits and two hit batters over three innings, while striking out three without a walk ... Also started against Southern Utah on Feb. 13 but was chased out of the game after allowing three hits and three runs over two innings of work ... After not playing for eight straight games, she earned the start against Fordham on Feb. 25 ... Scattered one run on five hits and two walks over 4 1/3 innings to pick up her first win of the season ... Also had four strikeouts ... The Aztecs are 3-0 when she starts.

Redshirted last season after improving tremendously in the field from her freshman season to her second year ... Formed one of the most lethal infields on the entire West Coast in 2008 with shortstop Jen Wisneski ... Will look to swing the bat like her freshman campaign in 2007 ... Has started 12 games in 15 appearances this season ... Starts have all come at second base ... Had her first hit of the season against Oregon, breaking a 0-for-10 start ... After starting the season 1-for-12, she went 4-for-4 with a stolen base against Western Kentucky on Feb. 19 ... The four hits were a career high ... Had an RBI triple that led to SDSU's only run against Penn State on Feb. 20 ... Had a hit in back-to-back games versus Northern Illinois (March 9) and Buffalo (March 10).

Almost always makes solid contact ... Will be counted on to play more third base this season after mainly being used as a pinch-hitter and designated player a year ago ... Often comes in late to shore up the infield with her improving defense ... Has five starts this season, all at third base ... Best game came against Southern Utah where she was 2-for-4 with two RBI, a run and her first career stolen base ... Stole another base against Western Kentucky on Feb. 19 ... Got two plate appearances against No. 24/19 Texas A&M on Feb. 26, but did not get a hit ... Aztecs are 4-1 when she starts.
