UC San Diego Begins 2007-08 Regular Season with 7 p.m. Game in Cox Arena against the Aztecs of San Diego State

LA JOLLA, Calif. - The UC San Diego men's basketball team will begin its 2007-08 regular season on Saturday evening when it travels cross-town to face San Diego State at 7 p.m. in Cox Arena. The Tritons split their two exhibition contests, beating UC Riverside and losing to Drake University, while the Aztecs won their lone exhibition game over Point Loma and are currently 3-0 on the year after winning all three of their games at the World Vision Classic hosted by Fresno State last weekend.

First year head coach Chris Carlson and his NCAA Division II Tritons enter Saturday's contest with experience against D-I opponents already this season. UCSD began Carlson's head coaching career with a stunning 67-61 victory over Big West Conference member UC Riverside on November 2nd in UCR's Student Recreation Center. Senior Clint Allard led the way with his 20 points while junior Andrew Hatch returned to the lineup and added 14 points off the bench. He missed all of last year after breaking a bone in his foot during an early season practice.

UCSD returned to action the following Friday, traveling to the Saint Mary's College campus in Moraga, Calif, for another exhibition game against a D-I opponent, this time facing off with Drake University of the Missouri Valley Conference. The Tritons hung tough with the Bulldogs for most of the contest, but 25 turnovers that led to 25 Drake points gave the Bulldogs an 81-63 victory. Junior Henry Patterson, who missed last year's SDSU contest due to a broken bone in his face, led the way with his 10 points while Kelvin Kim, Jason Bull and Andrew Browning all chipped in with eight points apiece.

San Diego State posted wins on three-straight days during the World Vision Classic, beating Liberty University (Va.), the University of Portland and host Fresno State to claim the tournament title. Lorenzo Wade and Kyle Spain lead a quintet of Aztec players who are averaging double-digit points thus far this season, as each are averaging 16.0 points per night. Ryan Amoroso ranks third with his 11.0 ppg while Tim Shelton and Kelvin Davis add 10.7 and 10.0 points per game, respectively.

UCSD and SDSU met last year in Cox Arena on November 15th. The Aztecs leveled the Tritons, who were playing without two starters in Hatch and Patterson, by an 84-48 margin. Jordan Lawley scored a team-high 18 points in his first collegiate game for the Tritons in the loss, while Brandon Heath led five SDSU players in double figure scoring with his 18 points. The Aztecs jumped out to a 41-14 lead at half and never looked back, out-scoring the Tritons by a 43-34 margin in the second half for the 36-point victory.

Following this weekend's season opener with SDSU, the Tritons will play the next 25 contests against Division II foes, beginning with a game at Grand Canyon University on Saturday, November 24th. Tip-off is slated for 7 p.m. inside Antelope Gymnasium in the GCU campus in Phoenix, Ariz. UCSD will then return home for its next five games, which will include the start of its California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) campaign against Cal State Stanislaus on Friday, November 30th. Game time is slated for 7:30 p.m inside RIMAC Arena.

UCSD vs. SAN DIEGO STATE

The Tritons and Aztecs have met eight previous times heading into Saturday night's contest with the Aztecs holding an 8-0 advantage in the all-time series. SDSU posted a convincing 84-48 victory in Cox Arena over the Tritons in 2006 as Brandon Heath led five SDSU players who scored in double figures with his 18 points. Jordan Lawley led the way for UCSD, scoring 18 points in his collegiate debut.

EXHIBITION GAMES GOOD & BAD

The Tritons played two exhibition games during the month of November in anticipation of its season opener on Saturday. UCSD posted a 67-61 victory at UC Riverside, giving head coach Chris Carlson a solid beginning to his coaching career. The following Saturday, Drake University turned 25 UCSD turnovers into 25 points on the other end, leading to its 83-61 victory.

INJURED PLAYERS RETURN

Two UCSD starters from the year before missed last year's game with San Diego State. Guard Andrew Hatch broke a bone in his foot during an early season practice, forcing him to miss the entire 2006-07 campaign. Henry Patterson, the team's leading scorer in each of the last two seasons, missed last year's game with SDSU after suffering a broken bone in his face in an exhibition game at USD just a few days prior. He had surgery the day of the game with the Aztecs and did not return to the lineup until January. His performance did not seem hampered as he earned All-CCAA honors for the second-straight season.

TOP SHOOTER GRADUATES

First year head coach Chris Carlson returns 13 letterwinners and four starters from last year's squad. The only student-athlete missing is Robby Peters who graduated last June. His outside shot will be sorely missed as he graduated from UCSD as the program's all-time leader in 3-point shooting. During his four years he drained 254 shots from behind the arc including 74 and 73 in his senior and junior seasons, respectively. He also hold the single game record for 3-pointers made, sinking 13 against CSU Monterey Bay in RIMAC Arena on March 2, 2007. Those 13 made 3-pointers were the most by any one player in a game at the Division I or II level last season.

BULL RETURNS AFTER YEAR AWAY

Senior Jason Bull returns to the men's basketball program after sitting out last season. The sharpshooter married UCSD women's basketball player Kaycie Bull, prior to the '06-07 and decided to sit out the year for personal reasons.

EXPERIENCE COUNTS

Of the 17 players on the UCSD roster this season, 15 have playing experience at the collegiate level. Of those 15 players, 14 have played for the Tritons, while Patrick Dreith transfers in from the City College of San Francisco. The two UCSD players without collegiate basketball playing experience are Casey Ryan and Bryce Alviri. Ryan was a redshirt last year in his first year at UCSD on the basketball court, but he did letter in track & field where he was an All-CCAA high jumper as a freshman, finishing second in the league with his height of 6'9". Alviri is a true freshman that joins the squad from Foothill High School in Pleasanton, Calif., where he averaged 14.5 points, 5.5 rebounds and 3.7 assists during his high school career.

CLOSE CALLS

15 of the Tritons' 27 games last season were decided by nine points or less. UCSD came up on the winning side in six of those games. Of their nine losses by single digits, four came by three points or less, including a 61-59 heartbreaking loss at home to eventual league champion, Humboldt State.

CCAA PLAYS WELL AGAINST D-I

Five California Collegiate Athletic Association teams registered wins against Division I opponents during the 2007-08 exhibition season. In addition to UCSD's win at UC Riverside, Cal State Dominguez Hills posted an 84-69 win at Loyola Marymount, Cal State Stanislaus notched a 69-68 win at Santa Clara, Cal State San Bernardino defeated Weber State, and San Francisco State posted a 76-73 victory at Cal State Bakersfield. All-in-all, that is one win against the Big West, two against the West Coast Conference, one against the Big Sky and another against a D-I independent.

UCSD PICKED 7TH IN CCAA POLL

The UC San Diego men's basketball team was picked to finish 7th in the California Collegiate Athletic Association standings during the 2007-08 season, according to the preseason coaches poll that was released by the league office on Thursday afternoon. Humboldt State was chosen to repeat as conference champion, receiving seven of the 11 first place votes. Cal Poly Pomona was selected second, just ahead of Cal State San Bernardino who captured the 2007 Disney West Coast Tip-Off Classic Championship in early November at the Anaheim Convention Center. Cal State Dominguez Hills was picked fourth while Sonoma State and Cal State L.A. were chosen just ahead of UCSD. Cal State Stanislaus, Chico State, Cal State Monterey Bay and San Francisco State were tabbed to finish 8th through 11th, respectively.

Assistant Coaches: Eric Olen, Andy Aguinaldo

After a two-month long national search, UC San Diego Director of Athletics Earl W. Edwards announced on June 10 that Chris Carlson has been hired as the new head coach of the Triton men's basketball program. He becomes the 11th head men's basketball coach in the 42-year history of the program and only the third to lead the program at the NCAA Division II level.

"We are very excited to have Chris join our staff and lead our men's basketball program," said Edwards. "He comes from a winning tradition and brings a tremendous amount of knowledge to us from his vast experiences at the Division-I level. I have no doubt that he will take this program to new heights."

Carlson comes to UCSD after spending the previous four seasons as the Director of Basketball Operations at UCLA under head coach Ben Howland. At UCLA he was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the program and serves as a liaison to the athletic administration and other school officials. Carlson additionally assisted in scheduling and recruiting and helped the Bruin program to back-to-back Final Four appearances over the last two seasons.

"I am honored and excited to be a part of the UCSD family. I want to thank Earl Edwards and the search committee for this amazing opportunity," said Carlson. "These are exciting times in the UCSD Athletic Department and the chance to work with the top-notch student-athletes and coaches that are here is something I feel very privileged to have."

"I strongly believe in the mission of the University and this Athletic Department, as well as the type of student-athlete that UCSD attracts," continued Carlson. "The potential and promise that exists here is something unique and special, and I am looking forward to building upon the recent successes of the program. I also want to thank Ben Howland, who has been instrumental in my development as a coach and person, for his trust and guidance throughout the many years in which we have worked together."

Before assuming his duties at UCLA, Carlson served in the same capacity for two years (2002-03) at the University of Pittsburgh. Carlson, the San Diego native, joined the Pittsburgh staff in the summer of 2001 and has extensive experience as an administrator and coach. Before joining his program at Pittsburgh, Carlson was on Howland's coaching staff at Northern Arizona for one season in 1998-99. He remained at NAU for two more years (1999-2001), after Howland's departure, where he worked with the Lumberjacks' post players, along with recruiting and scheduling.

"I am very excited for Chris and for UC San Diego," said UCLA head coach Ben Howland. "We have coached together at four different institutions and he will definitely be missed here. I am very confident that he will do an outstanding job at UC San Diego, leading that program to new heights. Chris is an outstanding coach and is a great communicator and I think he will be a great attribute to the UCSD campus and the San Diego community."

Prior to Northern Arizona, Carlson served as an assistant coach at his alma mater, UC Santa Barbara, from 1994-98. He was also an assistant coach at Dos Pueblos High School in Goleta, Calif., from 1991-93.

His administrative basketball experience includes 12 years as a game management assistant at the National Association of Basketball Coaches All-Star game. Carlson has also worked four NCAA Tournament West Regionals. In addition, he was an intern in the Los Angeles/St. Louis Rams media relations department, a sports information assistant at UC Santa Barbara (1993-94) and a member of the 1994 FIFA World Cup media relations staff.

Born Dec. 5, 1969, Carlson is married to Karen Nance and they have two sons, Nicklas, born Nov. 5, 2002, and Charlie, born Oct. 1, 2005. Prior to attending UC Santa Barbara, Carlson attended Helix High School in La Mesa where he earned All-League honors in basketball.

2007-08 RECAPS AND BOXSCORES

Tritons 67, Highlanders 61 (Exhib.)

November 2, 2007 • Student Recreation Center

RIVERSIDE, Calif. - The UC San Diego men's basketball team began Chris Carlson's head coaching career in fine fashion, defeating Division I UC Riverside by a 67-61 margin in an exhibition game on Friday evening in the Student Recreation Center on the UCR campus. The game was Carlson's head coaching debut after spending the previous 14 years as an assistant and administrator with a four other collegiate programs.

After leading by one point at intermission, the Tritons pushed their lead out to as many as 15 in the second half before holding on for the 6-point victory. Clint Allard led the way for UCSD, scoring 20 points while Andrew Hatch, who missed all of last season due to a foot injury, came off the bench and added 14 in the victory. Henry Patterson chipped in with nine while pulling down a game-high seven rebounds.

Larry Cunningham led all scorers on the evening, pouring in 28 in the loss for UCR. He went 15-for-18 from the free throw line and while also making 6-of-12 shots from the floor. Christian Soto added 10 while Cleavon Barlow grabbed a team-high six boards.

As a team, the Tritons made nearly 48% of their shots from the floor while converting on 7-of-13 from long range. Allard and Hatch combined to go 5-for-7 from behind the arc while Alan Husted's only points came on a trey during a big spot in the second half.

Defensively, Coach Carlson's squad limited the Highlanders to 41% shooting from the floor that included a 1-for-6 night from long range. The Tritons also out-rebounded UCR by a 30-28 margin, allowing their opponents to only grab six offensive boards all evening long.

UCSD will play one more exhibition game this preseason, taking on Drake University on November 9. The game will begin at 1:30 as part of the Saint Mary's Tip Off Classic in Moraga. The Tritons will then begin regular season play on Saturday, October 17th with a 7 p.m. game at Cox Arena against San Diego State.

Bulldogs 81, Tritons 63 (Exhib.)

November 9, 2007 • McKeon Pavilion

MORAGA, Calif. - The UC San Diego men's basketball team concluded its 2007-08 exhibition season with a hard-fought 81-63 loss to Division I Drake University on Friday afternoon at McKeon Pavilion on the campus of Saint Mary's College in Moraga. The game was played as part of the St. Mary's Tip-Off Classic.

The Tritons kept things close, keeping the Bulldogs' lead in single digits for most of the game until Drake pulled away at the end for the 18-point victory. The game was the season opener for the Bulldogs who are now 1-0 on the year while the Tritons, who by rule cannot begin regular season play until November 15th, will now turn their attention to the season opener on November 17th at San Diego State. Tip-off with the Aztecs is scheduled for 7 p.m. in Cox Arena on the SDSU campus.

Henry Patterson led the way for UCSD, scoring 10 points. He was also one of four Triton players to grab three rebounds in the loss. Kelvin Kim, Jason Bull and Andrew Browning each added eight points, while Clint Allard, the team's leading score in last week's win at UC Riverside, was limited to just five points on 2-for-3 shooting from the floor.

Leonard Houston led all scorers and was one of five Drake players to reach double figures in the win, pouring in 21 points on 6-for-11 shooting from the floor and 7-for-9 from the charity stripe. Josh Young added 13 while Brett Heemsker, Alex White and Jonathan Cox each chipped in with 11 points on the day. Cox also pulled down a game-high 10 rebounds for the Bulldogs.

As a team, the Tritons made 19 of 42 shots from the floor for a .452 shooting percentage while their opponents made 27 of 51 for a .529 mark from the field. Both teams shot well from long range as the Tritons went 9-for-18, one better than the Bulldogs who went 8-for-18 from behind the arc.

Drake's full court press gave the Tritons fits all day long as UCSD committed 25 turnovers in the game, leading to 25 Bulldogs' points. Conversely, Drake committed only 17 turnovers and held a 36-10 scoring advantage over the Tritons in the paint.

Following next Saturday's season-opener at San Diego State, the Tritons will return to playing NCAA Division II squads, beginning with Grand Canyon University on November 24th. That game will be played at 7 p.m. in Antelope Gymnasium on the GCU campus in Phoenix, Ariz.

Drake 81, UC San Diego 63
