AT A GLANCE: Winners of five of their last six games, Lafayette jams two games into three days in the finals days of 2006. The Leopards travel to Philadelphia on Thursday, Dec. 28, to face Temple (5-4) and then hop on a plane early the next morning out of Newark, N.J. to venture to California to play San Diego State (10-3) on Saturday. Lafayette had six days off from game competition at the holidays.

ANDERSSON--ROOKIE OF THE WEEK: Freshman guard Jesper Andersson recently earned some recognition for his quality play thus far in 2006-07. The freshman, who had worked his way into the starting lineup has been named Patriot League Rookie of the Week for the week ending, Dec. 23. In his second straight start, Andersson scored 11 points (including three three-pointers) in 14 minutes against Mount St. Mary's before sustaining an ankle injury. His status is questionable vs. Temple.

ABDULLAH ON TOP OF HIS GAME: Junior Bilal Abdullah took a much more assertive role in the offense in Lafayette's win over Mount St. Mary's (12/22). Abdullah scored a game- and career-high 22 points on 8-of-13 shooting. He was the go-to player in the game, looking to create his own looks off the dribble. Against King's (12/20) he scored a then season-high 15 points.

DIALING UP LONG DISTANCE: Lafayette is making 9.2 three-pointers per game, and as of the latest NCAA statistics (12/17) was ranked 27th in the nation in that statistical category. Lafayette hoisted a season-high 32 three-point attempts vs. King's (12/20) and connected on half of those opportunities. The Leopards' 16 three-pointers topped their previous season best of 15 three-pointers at St. Peter's (12/2). Against King's, Andrew Brown hit six three-balls and Bilal Abdullah knocked down four. In the St. Peter's game, Jesper Andersson broke out with six trifectas and three other players each had two. Ted Detmer made just one, but his came with 1.4 seconds left and handed the Leopards a 72-69 final margin.

ON THE SIDELINE: Two-time Patriot League Coach of the Year Fran O'Hanlon (Villanova, '70) is in his 12th season as the Leopards' head coach. He has twice led Lafayette's program to the NCAA Tournament and lays claim to three Patriot League regular-season titles among his credentials. O'Hanlon's career record stands at 168-159, a mark that includes two 20-win seasons.

O'Hanlon's overall record does not necessarily tell the full story of the job he has done at Lafayette. The Philadelphia native inherited a 2-25 team when he took over in 1995-96 and won 7, 11, 19, 22 and 24 games over the next five seasons. From 1997-2000, Lafayette was 65-24 overall and 31-5 in the conference with two NCAA Tournament appearances. In 1996, the Patriot League, which was originally founded on the principle of need-based financial aid only, began allowing athletic scholarships. However, it was not until 2006 that Lafayette chose to do so. By no coincidence during that span, Lafayette posted a 79-91 mark and was 38-44 in the league. For 2006-07, Lafayette has one scholarship class in the fold.

NEXT UP: Lafayette will open 2007 and the Patriot League portion of its schedule when it hosts Holy Cross on Jan. 6 at 4 p.m. That game will be televised live by the Lafayette Sports Network and picked up nationally by CSTV.

THE PENN CONNECTIONS: The Lafayette and Temple coaching staffs are more than familiar with each other. Lafayette head coach Fran O'Hanlon spent six seasons as an assistant coach at Penn under then-head coach Fran Dunphy. Lafayette assistant coach Andy Toole was the captain of two Ivy League championship teams and was a Big 5 selection under Dunphy's tutelage at Penn. When the Leopards match up with San Diego State, a familiar face, Vince Curran, will be calling the game for MountainWest Sports Network. Curran played at Penn when O'Hanlon was an assistant from 1989-95.

INJURY REPORT: Freshman guard Jesper Andersson is questionable for the Leopards' matchups with Temple and San Diego State after sustaining an ankle sprain on Dec. 22. Senior captain Jamaal Hilliard is out for two to four weeks with two stress reactions in his foot. Paul Cummins, who missed the Dec. 22 game with illness, will be available.

TELEVISION SCHEDULE ADDITION: The Lafayette Sports Network (RCN-4, WBPB-60), will pick up the Lafayette at San Diego State game on Dec. 30. The game will be originated by The Mountain Network which is a joint production of CSTV and Comcast. Tip-off is slated for 10 p.m. ET.

FIVE FOR SCORING: Lafayette had five players score in double figures in its win over King's (12/20). Lafayette was led by a career-high 20 points from Andrew Brown and 17 apiece from Ted Detmer and Matt Betley. Bilal Abdullah added 15 points and Paul Cummins netted 11. The last time Lafayette had five players reach double figures was Nov. 22, 2005 vs. Alvernia.

DETMER DELIVERS CAREER HIGH: Junior Ted Detmer's 17-point performance vs. King's (12/20) was a career high for the forward from Scarsdale, N.Y. Detmer was 8-for-10 from the floor. He also contributed on the defensive end, registering a career-high four steals for the fifth time in his career.

ON THE RISE: The academic prowess of the Patriot League has been a constant since the league's formation in 1990 and the league's national profile in basketball continues to improve. The Patriot League currently ranks No. 14 in RPI among the nation's 32 Division I conferences.

YES-PER: Quickly becoming a crowd favorite because he makes three's and his first name is fun to say, freshman guard Jesper Andersson has made his presence known on the court. Andersson leads the team in three-point field goal percentage at .500 (18-for-36). The freshman had scored a total of six points in 34 minutes of seven games coming into the St. Peter's contest on Dec. 2, but then broke out with six three-pointers in the first half and 18 points for the game. Against NJIT, Andersson hit three three-pointers in a 28-4 run that put the game away. Against King's (12/20), Andersson earned the first start of his career and made his first two-point field goal of the season, as his previous 15 baskets were three-pointers. He also scored 11 points vs. Mount St. Mary's (12/22).

MAKING THE TEAM GO: It may be an oversimplification of Lafayette's play in 2006-07, but there is at least some correlation between Andrew Brown's play and the team's success. In Lafayette's six wins, Brown is averaging 13.0 points and 4.7 assists per game. By contrast, in Lafayette's seven losses, he is averaging 5.6 points and 2.9 assists per game.

HALF WAY THERE: Lafayette is 6-1 when holding a lead at halftime. The lone exception was a 44-42 loss to Princeton when Lafayette led 22-19 at intermission.

WHAT CAN BROWN DO FOR YOU?: He can average 9.0 points and 3.7 assists and 2.0 rebounds per game through 12 games. Brown scored a career-high 20 points vs. King's (12/20) when he knocked down six three-pointers. Brown dished off a career-high eight assists vs. St. Peter's. Against NJIT (12/4), he answered the UPS question

Scouting Temple

Temple comes into Thursday's matchup with a 5-4 record. The Owls last played on Dec. 22, when they lost a 69-54 decision at home vs. Drexel. Temple's wins have come over Rutgers, Long Beach State, Western Michigan, Towson and Ball State with the other losses to Kent State, Buffalo and Cincinnati.

The Owls have a new but familiar face on the sidelines with former Penn head coach Fran Dunphy (315-167) taking over the program for a retired John Chaney.

Lafayette will have to contend with a potent backcourt group that includes the Atlantic 10's leading scorer Dionte Christmas. The sophomore is averaging 20.8 ppg and leads the team with 22 three-pointers. Senior Dustin Salisbury is second on the team in scoring (16.6 ppg) and rebounding (5.7 rpg). Junior Mark Tyndale is also averaging in double figures at 12.0 ppg.

Up front, senior forward Dion Dacons handles the bulk of the rebounding load with 6.9 rpg. He is joined in the frontcourt by seven-foot center Sergio Olmos (4.3 ppg, 3.1 rpg) who leads the team with 15 blocks.

The Owls defend the three-pointer well (28 percent) and take care of the basketball (12.6 turnovers per game). Temple has been out-rebounded by an average of 7.9 rpg.

The All-Time Series

SERIES NOTES: Temple owns the all-time series 31-7 in matchups that date back to the first meeting on Jan. 15, 1916, when Lafayette won a 48-16 decision. Temple has won 23 straight over the Leopards in a streak that began in 1960. Lafayette's last win was over Temple was Feb. 28, 1959, an 81-75 victory in Easton. The Leopards' last win vs. Temple on the Owls' home court came in 1949. Lafayette and Temple have met just once in the last 25 years, playing in the first round of the 2000 NCAA Tournament in Buffalo, N.Y. on March 17, 2000. Temple won 73-47. That Lafayette team finished 24-7.

Scouting San Diego State

San Diego State comes into Saturday's game with a 10-3 record. The Aztecs last played on Dec. 21, losing a 64-54 decision vs. Washington State. San Diego State opened the season with eight straight victories that included a win over Cal. The Aztecs' losses came at Western Michigan and against No. 14 Arizona on Dec. 9.

The most notable story line for the Aztecs involves head coach Steve Fisher who is searching for his 300th career victory. Fisher holds a 299-191 overall record in 16 seasons coaching that also includes a national championship at Michigan. Fisher is 115-109 and is in his eighth season at SDSU.

The Aztecs feature a formidable one-two punch of senior guard Brandon Heath and senior forward Mohamed Abukar. Heath leads the team in scoring with 19.8 ppg. He has made 36 three-pointers and also leads the team with 45 assists.

Abukar is a San Diego native who initially attended Florida before deciding to transfer to SDSU. He leads the team with 6.2 rebounds per game and is second on squad in scoring with 16.1 ppg.

Sophomore Lorenzo Wade (11.2 ppg) and junior Jerome Habel (10.7 ppg) are both averaging in double figures at the forward position. Habel, a JUCO standout, leads the team in rebounding with 7.2 rpg.

with six three-pointers and 20 points. In 2005-06, Brown led the team with 84 assists as a freshman, the first rookie to do so in Fran O'Hanlon's tenure, and started 25 of 28 games. He led the team with 51 three-pointers and earned Patriot League All-Rookie Team status.

A TOUGH EARLY-SEASON SCHEDULE: Lafayette lost six of its first seven to start the season, but five of Lafayette's six losses came against top-level competition. The Leopards lost to national power Indiana (Big 10), Notre Dame (Big East), St. Joseph's (Atlantic 10), Miami (ACC) and Princeton (Ivy). Those five teams are a combined 38-18 at this point of the season (12/27).

HELPING HANDS: Lafayette's motion offense has the potential to put up big assist numbers. In the Leopards' game vs. King's (12/20), the Lafayette offense was clicking, doling out a season-best 25 assists on 33 baskets. It was the third time Lafayette has had 20+ assists on the season and fourth time that the Leopards managed a positive assist/turnover ratio. Against Lycoming (12/7), Lafayette distributed 20 assists on 26 baskets. The Leopards also had 20 assists on 25 baskets at St. Peter's. In 2005-06, Lafayette passed for 18 or more assists four times, a number Lafayette has reached six times this season. Lafayette is third in the Patriot League in assists per game with 15.3.

THE GARBAGE MAN: Junior forward Matt Betley spends a lot of time cleaning the glass, diving for loose balls and occasionally even picking up a "garbage" basket in the paint. Betley is certainly willing to get his hands and body a little dirty by diving on the court, but it's nothing compared to his summer job. Betley worked collecting garbage on a garbage truck in his hometown of Mount Laurel, N.J. As one of the smallest forwards in the Patriot League, Betley is still managing to lead Lafayette in rebounding with 4.1 rpg. Many of his rebounds are of the unconventional variety as he slaps a ball out to the perimeter instead of trying to take it from a much taller opponent and potentially drawing a foul.

BETLEY PUTTING THE BALL IN THE HOOP: Junior Matt Betley got very hot in a four-game stretch from Nov.

17-28. Betley scored a career-high 17 points vs. St. Joseph's (11/17) and followed that with a new career high with 18 points at UMBC (11/21). At Miami (11/25), the Mount Laurel, N.J. native again matched his career best with 18 points. He scored a team-high 11 points against Princeton (11/28). Betley leads the team in scoring with 10.8 ppg and is coming off a seven-point, eight-rebound game vs. Mount St. Mary's (12/22).

AT THE LINE: The Leopards are shooting well at the free throw line for the season. Lafayette has hit for 72 percent, including a season-high 82 percent effort at Wagner (18-for-22) to open the season. Jamaal Hilliard leads the team in free throw percentage (85%), going 29-for-34 on the season, and Matt Betley rests at 75% (27-for-36). Hilliard is ranked 79th in the nation in free throw percentage (12/17)...In 2005-06, Lafayette ranked 37th in the nation in free throw percentage according to the final NCAA stats and ranked as high as ninth. Lafayette finished the season at 74 percent. Hilliard, who shot at a 91 percent clip in 2005-06 (fifth in the nation), hit for 81 percent while graduated senior Andrei Capusan '06 shot a team-best 82 percent and ranked 91st in the country.

INSIDE-OUTSIDE: Junior Matt Betley has made the move from guard to forward for the 2006-07 season to bolster the team's rebounding efforts, but he is still certainly very comfortable outside. With Fran O'Hanlon's motion offense, Betley often finds himself with open three-point looks and mid-range jumpers against larger post players who will back off into the lane. With 16 three-pointers, Betley is one of six Lafayette players who have 10 or more three-pointers this season.

ON THE PERIMETER: The Leopards are getting much of their scoring from the outside in 2006-07, and that task has fallen to an experienced backcourt led by seniors Jamaal Hilliard and Marcus Harley, junior Bilal Abdullah and sophomore Andrew Brown. Brown is the team's second-leading scorer with 9.1 ppg while Abdullah and Hilliard are contributing 9/1 and 7.4 ppg, respectively. Harley, who is scoring 4.9 ppg, is second on the team with 28 assists.

SIZE MATTERS: The answer to the question why Lafayette is being out-rebounded by an average of 9.6 rebounds per game is simply "size" – or rather a lack of it. Matt Betley (6-4, 200), Everest Schmidt (6-7, 270) and Ted Detmer (6-7, 200) are the team's leading rebounders with Betley leading the way at 4.1 rpg, but effort and positioning can only account for so much. Lafayette is consistently running up against bigger post men who generally have two or three inches on each of Lafayette's post players. It's an area that Fran O'Hanlon and his staff will continue to address with upcoming recruiting classes. Lafayette has won the rebounding battle just twice this season, holding a 26-20 advantage over Princeton and a 35-31 margin vs. Lycoming...Lafayette finished 2005-06 ranked 308th in the nation in rebounding margin and ranks 315th this season (12/17).

THE O'HANLON SHUFFLE: The scorer's table has been a busy place during Fran O'Hanlon's 12 seasons at Lafayette. O'Hanlon will frequently shuffle in players to keep them fresh while also looking for the best matchups on both ends of the court. The moves also force opponents to spend a great deal of time figuring out their own defensive matchups. O'Hanlon will often play "offense-defense" at the end of the first half and in the final minutes of the game whenever there is a stoppage of play and a chance to substitute. The Leopards will likely go nine to ten deep throughout the season...SO WHO GETS THE START?: In 2005-06 with a team defined by youth and inexperience, O'Hanlon used 12 different starting lineups. Thus far this season, O'Hanlon has used six different starting lineups, making at least one change in five of the last six games.

BENCH SCORING: Lafayette was far from dependent on its starting five for scoring in 2005-06. The Leopards' bench averaged 26.1 points per game of the team's 66.4 points per game average, 39 percent of the team's scoring. By contrast, this season Lafayette is receiving 62% (40.9 of the Leopards' 66.1 points per game) of its scoring from its starting five and 38% from the bench.

ST. PETER'S STATS: Lafayette committed a season-low nine turnovers, including just three in the first half at St. Peter's (12/2). The Leopards also dished out a season-high 20 assists.

A GAME FROM (IN) THE 40's: Lafayette's 44-42 loss to Princeton (12/28) was a throwback to days gone by with crisp back-door cuts and disciplined motion offenses. The game was unusually low-scoring thanks to Princeton's ball-control style of offense and solid defensive efforts by both squads, but this type of game is not out of the norm in recent meetings between the two schools. Lafayette won a 57-46 matchup at Princeton last season, but was beaten 40-38 in 2004. The Leopards won the 2003 meeting 47-44. Lafayette and Princeton have split the last four games between the two schools, and each time the visiting team has emerged victorious.

FIVETHREE'S FOR 12: One highlight in the Leopards' loss at Miami (11/25), was the shooting of junior guard Paul Cummins. Cummins made five three-pointers and finished with a season-high 15 points against the Hurricanes. His effort was one short of his career-best when he hit six three-pointers at American on Jan. 28, 2006. He is second on the team with 19 three-pointers this season.

FROM THE FIELD: Lafayette shot a season-high from the field when it hit 53 percent (28-of-53) against St. Joseph's (11/17). The Leopards were led by Matt Betley's 17 points on 7-of-13 shooting. On the other end of the floor, St. Joseph's shot 55 percent from the floor and made 53 percent (9-for-17) of its shots from behind the arc.

32 MINUTES: Lafayette gave Indiana all it could handle for 32 minutes on Nov. 13. The Leopards trailed by three points (63-60) at 7:47 when Everest Schmidt made two free throws. Lafayette was still down just six at 6:48, but Indiana put together a 21-2 spurt over the next three and a half minutes to pull away in a game in which the final score (91-66) did not really tell the true story of the contest.

THE CAPTAINS: Lafayette's three seniors, Marcus Harley, Jamaal Hilliard and Kerry Kenny, are serving as the team captains in 2006-07. Harley was a full-time starter in his sophomore season and has spent some significant time on the floor (including one start) as a senior after missing almost all of his junior campaign due to injury. Hilliard has been in the starting lineup the past two seasons. He missed 10 games last year due to a leg injury and broken finger, but is healthy in 2006-07 where he has remained in the starting lineup. Kenny being named captain is a tribute to his perseverance. He came to Lafayette as an unrecruited player, served as a team manager as a freshman and worked his way into 17 games last season.

RANKED OPPONENTS: Since 1948-49, Lafayette has played 39 games against ranked opponents, coming away with a 3-36 record. Lafayette hosted Bucknell, ranked No. 24 in both the ESPN/USA Today and Associated Press top-25 polls on Feb. 25, 2006. Prior to that, the last time Lafayette hosted a ranked opponent was January 14, 1987 when No. 19 Navy came to Kirby Sports Center and escaped with a 75-71 win. The last time Lafayette beat a ranked opponent was Dec. 2, 1978 when Lafayette topped No. 16 Rutgers, 77-70. In 2004-05, Lafayette faced Louisville (17) and Georgia Tech (9) on the road.

THE PRESEASON POLL: Lafayette was picked to finish sixth in the Patriot League Preseason Poll. The poll is voted on by the conference head coaches and sports information directors. Bucknell was picked first in the poll followed by Holy Cross, American, Lehigh, Colgate, Lafayette, Navy and Army.

INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR: Lafayette features three players from foreign countries. Junior Paul Cummins comes from Kildare, Ireland. Cummins spent two years at Ravenscroft School in Raleigh, N.C. before spending a post-grad year at South Kent School in Connecticut. Two of Lafayette's four freshmen come from Europe with Marek Koltun hailing from Krakow, Poland and Jesper Andersson from Norrkoping, Sweden. Koltun spent the 2005-06 schoolyear at Caravel Academy in Delaware.

LAFAYETTE ON TELEVISION: For the 10th straight season, Lafayette features the most expansive television package in the Patriot League. The Leopards have 15 games televised with the possible addition of three more televised games during the three rounds of the Patriot League Tournament. The Lafayette Sports Network is airing 11 games to approximately 10 million viewers in the Lehigh Valley, Pocono region and all of Philadelphia. LSN telecasts can also be viewed in central New Jersey, New York City and Boston. In the Lehigh Valley, Poconos and Philadelphia, the telecast airs on RCN-4 and WBPH-60. CSTV (DIRECTV 610, Dish Network 152) will continue as a major LSN partner, airing three telecasts. Emmy-nominated sports broadcaster Gary Laubach handles all of the Leopards' play-by-play duties, while former Lafayette men's basketball coach John Leone provides color commentary. Additionally, RCN's Dan Mowdy will provide sideline reports.

THE JUNIOR CLASS: Lafayette's Class of 2008 is not only the largest in terms of numbers, but is also one of the most productive recruiting classes in recent memory. Junior Bilal Abdullah is the leading returning scorer and is second this season to fellow junior Matt Betley. Fellow juniors Ted Detmer and Everest Schmidt have also seen significant minutes in the middle after tying for the team lead in rebounds in 2005-06. Paul Cummins has been an offensive spark off the bench.

YOUTH ON THE BENCH: Lafayette features one of, if not the youngest assistant coaching staffs in the country. Top assistant Drew Dawson is just 27 years old while Andy Toole is 26 and Mike Farrell is just 24. Dawson and Farrell are intimately familiar with the program, both having played for O'Hanlon.

^ - NIT Preseason Tip-Off Tournament in Indianapolis, Ind.

ALL-TIME AT LAFAYETTE: In the 97 seasons of men's basketball at Lafayette College, the Leopards hold an overall record of 1178-1034 (.531). Lafayette's first basketball season was in 1900-01 when the team had a winning record of 4-3.

NOTABLE NAMES FROM LAFAYETTE BASKETBALL: Some recognizable names in college basketball have been part of the Lafayette men's basketball program. Pete Carril '52 was an All-American at Lafayette before going on to coach Princeton to national prominence and recently serving as a Sacramento Kings' assistant coach.

Tom Davis, former Iowa and current Drake head coach, served the Lafayette's head coach from 1971-77. During that span, Lafayette made three NIT appearances and accumulated a record of 116-44. Current Maryland head coach Gary Williams served as Davis' assistant basketball coach and also spent time as the head men's soccer coach from 1971-76.

ON THE RADIO: One of the longest running radio broadcast relationships in college basketball, WEST-AM 1400 enters its 71st year as the radio home of Lafayette Athletics. Dick Hammer is in his 40th season of calling the play-by-play for Lafayette men's basketball. Hammer will be inducted into the Lafayette College Maroon Club Hall of Game on Friday, Nov. 17. He will become just the second inductee who was not a player, coach or administrator at the college, joining public address announcer Jim Finnen. On the radio, Hammer is joined by Carl Schumacher at home games and most road contests by Phil LaBella (Lafayette SID).

STATEN ISLAND, N.Y. - Three players scored in double figures led by senior captain Jamaal Hilliard's 16-point effort to propel Lafayette men's basketball to a 76-70 win at Wagner. The game was the season opener for both teams. Sophomore point guard Andrew Brown chipped in with 15 points, all on three-pointers, and five assists while Bilal Abdullah finished with 14 points. For the game, Lafayette hit 10 three-pointers and dished out assists on 18 of its 24 field goals. The Leopards opened the game with a 19-2 advantage just four minutes into the game. Brown had the hot hand, dialing up long distance three times in the opening run while Abdullah and Matt Betley each added their own three-pointer. Lafayette extended its first-half margin to as many as 19 points in the opening session (22-3), but Wagner was able to ratchet up the defense and cut the halftime advantage to 10 points at 39-29. In the second half, Wagner put together a 13-2 run through the first four and a half minutes to take its first lead (42-41) since the opening basket of the game. Hilliard helped quell the Wagner run on the Leopards' next possession, nailing a three-pointer from the wing to give Lafayette the 44-42 lead at 14:45. From that point on, it was a back-and-forth game. For the game, Lafayette shot 82 percent from the free throw line (18-of-22) and 50 percent from the floor while holding Wagner to just 37 percent from the floor. Junior Everest Schmidt and Betley each grabbed seven boards for the Leopards.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND. - Earl Calloway scored 14 of his career-high 22 points in the second half, and foul-prone Indiana used a late 28-5 run to give coach Kelvin Sampson his first victory as a Hoosier - 91-66 over Lafayette in the first round of the NIT Season Tip-Off. Lafayette was led by Jamaal Hilliard and Bilal Abdullah with 11 points each. The Leopards kept the game close for most of the night. Indiana appeared to take control in the early going when it jumped to a 26-10 lead, but Lafayette closed the half on a 14-4 run to get within 42-37. In the second half, Andrew Brown's 3-pointer with 14:57 to go cut the gap to 51-50. The Leopards battled to within three points (63-60) at 7:47 when Everest Schmidt made two free throws. Lafayette was still down just six at 6:48, but Indiana put together a 21-2 spurt over the next three and a half minutes to pull away. Roderick Wilmont ended with a career-high 24 points. Lafayette shot 45 percent from the floor and managed to hit for 76 percent from the line.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. - Russell Carter scored 20 points and Notre Dame turned 26 Lafayette turnovers into 31 points during a 92-60 victory in the consolation round of the NIT Season Tip-Off. The Irish dominated the boards against the Leopards, raced ahead by 16 points at halftime and steadily built their lead to 36 points late in the final period. Luke Harangody, Notre Dame's burly freshman, added 18 points. Rob Kurz had 16 points, Tory Jackson added 10 points and Kyle McAlarney had 12 assists for the Irish. Notre Dame led 46-30 at halftime, then Harangody had two baskets and two free throws in less than three minutes as the Irish built a 60-38 lead early in the second half. Lafayette, which did not get an offensive rebound or a point off turnovers until the closing minutes, was led by the 10 points of Matt Betley, its only player in double figures. The Leopards had 30 points off the bench led by nine from Ted Detmer and eight from freshman Andre Hines. Lafayette was 18-of-23 attempts for 78.3 percent from the charity stripe.

EASTON, Pa. - Ahmad Nivins and Rob Ferguson each scored 19 points as St. Joseph's handed Lafayette a 81-73 defeat in the home-opener at Kirby Sports Center. The Leopards were led by Matt Betley who chipped in with a career-high 17 points and five rebounds in the loss. An evenly-played first half saw the Hawks hold a 34-28 lead with 3:24 left before intermission. The Hawks stretched the lead to 14 with just over a minute left in the first half when Hawks guard Jawan Carter was fouled while attempting a baseline three-pointer. Carter sank all three free throws to give St. Joseph's a 44-30 lead. St. Joseph's maintained a double-digit lead throughout most of the second half, expanding its edge to 17 when Nivins hit two free throws with 7:35 remaining. The Leopards climbed back into the game when senior tri-captain Marcus Harley nailed two jumpers. The Harley baskets sandwiched a Betley steal and layup cut the Hawk lead to eight with 1:34 remaining, forcing St. Joseph's head coach Phil Martelli to take a 30-second timeout. A Carter jumper stretched the lead back to 10 with 1:02 remaining. The Leopards again responded with an immediate 5-0 run off a Bilal Abdullah jumper and three-point play from Paul Cummins. Hawk forward Pat Calathes converted on three of his final four free throws to give St. Joseph's its second consecutive win to open the 2006-07 campaign. Adding to Betley's team-high 17 points were contributions of 13 and 11 from Abdullah and Hilliard, respectively.

Game By Game Recaps (5-8)

UMBC 86, LAFAYETTE 51 NOV. 21, 2006 -- RAC ARENA

BALTIMORE, Md.- For the second straight game, junior forward Matt Betley poured in a career-high in scoring, but Lafayette could not get on track, as UMBC notched an 86-51 victory over the Leopards in non-conference men's basketball action. Betley scored 18 points and made three three-pointers in 22 minutes of action, but he was the only player in double figures for Lafayette (1-4). UMBC's Jay Greene led a balanced scoring attack with 18 points, all on three-pointers, as one of four players in double figures for the Retrievers (2-2). Both teams came out slow at the opening tap, with neither team scoring in the first three minutes. Lafayette's slow start continued, however, and the Leopards were never able to recover. UMBC opened with a 15-3 run through the first six and a half minutes on eight points from Chris Pugh. Paul Cummins' three-pointer at the 16-minute mark was the lone score in the first seven minutes for Lafayette. UMBC extended its lead to as many as 15 points in the first half, but Lafayette managed to cut the margin to five points with 1:30 remaining before intermission. In the second half, UMBC built on its lead with a combination of hot shooting by its own players and a 30-percent shooting effort by the Leopards in the second half. In the opening minutes of the second half, Lafayette worked to cut the lead under double digits. Cummins' three-pointer at 12:25 sliced the deficit back to nine points, 53-44. Greene's three-pointer with the shot clock winding down ignited an 18-3 UMBC run over the next six and a half minutes that gave it a 71-47 margin at 5:52. Lafayette turned the ball over a season-low 13 times.

CORAL GABLES, Fla. - Junior forward Matt Betley equaled a career-best 18 points for the second straight game, but it was not enough for Lafayette to stave off a physical Miami outfit, as the Leopards fell 98-66. After what appeared to be a back-and-forth battle over the opening three minutes, a scrappy Lafayette club hung with Miami thanks to a baseline triple from senior guard Jamaal Hilliard that was sandwiched by buckets from junior forward Everest Schmidt and classmate Bilal Abdullah. However, the Hurricanes countered with a 24-8 run to blow open a 29-15 lead at the 11:09 mark. Freshman forward Jesper Andersson buried a three-pointer to cut the deficit to eight, 31-23 two minutes later, but Miami quickly pushed the lead back to double-digits for the remainder of the contest. Junior guard Paul Cummins drained a season-high five triples for 15 points. Junior forward Ted Detmer, led all players with eight boards to match his career-high.

PRINCETON 44, LAFAYETTE 42 NOV. 28, 2006 -- KIRBY SPORTS CENTER

EASTON, Pa. - Kyle Koncz and Luke Owings each scored 12 points for Princeton, as the Tigers dealt Lafayette a 44-42 defeat. Junior forward Matt Betley led the Leopards for the fourth straight game with 11 points, while pulling down seven rebounds. An energized Lafayette squad took the floor and jumped out to a quick 7-0 lead on its homecourt. The Tigers quickly answered with two three-pointers from Owings and Koncz. However, a Betley steal and lay-up coupled with a three-pointer from the corner jumped the Leopard lead back to 20-14 with 2:04 left in the first half. Two Bilal Abdullah free throws handed Lafayette a slim 22-19 lead at halftime. Just as Lafayette began the game, the Tigers came charging out of the locker room. A 10-0 run to start the second half gave Princeton a 29-22 lead going into the first media timeout of the second stanza. Tiger center Justin Conway pushed the lead to nine with 15:42 remaining. The game continued with each team taking part in a quick run. A 12-4 Lafayette run, capped by a Betley three-point play trimmed the Princeton lead to two with 55 seconds left. A forced three-pointer as the shot clock expired was rebounded by senior tri-captain Marcus Harley and gave head coach Fran O'Hanlon a timeout to set up the final play. With the clock under 10 seconds, sophomore guard Andrew Brown drove down the lane and put up an off-balance shot. The ball came off the rim and led to a scramble in front of the Leopard basket as time expired to give Princeton the two point victory. The Leopards outrebounded their first opponent this season, holding a 26-20 margin.

LAFAYETTE 72, ST. PETER'S 69 DEC. 2, 2006 -- YANITELLI CENTER

JERSEY CITY, N.J. - Of the season-high 15 three-pointers for Lafayette, the most important one came from the hand of junior forward Ted Detmer, whose three from the top of the key with 1.4 seconds left gave the Leopards' a 72-69 win at St. Peter's. In the opening minutes, the Peacocks jumped out to an 11-0 lead, forcing Fran O'Hanlon to take an early timeout. The Leopards' quickly responded with a 16-5 run of their own, using four three-pointers from freshman guard Jesper Andersson to tie the game at 16 with 11:33 left in the first half. Lafayette led by two at halftime (36-34). The see-saw battle continued as the teams fought through seven lead changes. Back-to-back three pointers from junior guard Paul Cummins stretched the Lafayette lead to nine at 49-40 with 16:10 remaining in the game. With his team clinging to a one point lead, sophomore guard Andrew Brown used an inbound pass from senior captain Jamaal Hilliard to get a quick lay-up down among the big men and put the Leopard lead back to three (67-64) with 1:09 left. Junior Bilal Abdullah made one of his two free throw attempts to extend the advantage to four with 45 seconds left on the clock. St. Peter's leading scorer Raul Orta answered with a fade away three-pointer over the outstretched arm of Andre Hines to trim the lead back to one with 27 seconds remaining. The Peacocks were forced to foul in the backcourt and Brown made the front end of a one-and-one opportunity with 21 seconds left. Orta again responded, tying the game at 69-69 with a 10-foot baseline jumper with 10 seconds remaining. Brown pushed the ball down the court and the Leopards worked it around the perimeter. Brown found Detmer at the top of the key. After a quick glance at the clock, Detmer calmly drilled the three with the ball hitting the front of the rim before bouncing into the bottom of the net. Andersson finished with 18 points in the game, all coming from behind the arc (6-for-7) in the first half to lead the Leopard scoring attack. Abdullah registered 14 points, while Brown was the third Leopard in double figures with 11 points to go along with a career-high eight assists.

DEC. 4, 2006 -- FLEISCHER ATHLETIC CENTER

NEWARK, N.J. - Playing its second game in three days, the Lafayette men's basketball team continued its hot shooting from the perimeter and ran away to a 76-57 win at New Jersey Institute of Technology (NJIT). Lafayette reached the double-figure mark (13) in three-pointers for the second straight contest led by six three-pointers and a career-high 20 points from Andrew Brown. Lafayette led by six (36-30) at the intermission and despite shooting 4-for-15 from behind the arc in the first stanza, began to find its range in the opening minutes of the second half. Leading 43-39 with 13:43 to play, the Leopards seized control with a 28-4 run, starting with a Brown three-pointer at 13:16 and culminating with a Jesper Andersson three-pointer at 6:39 left in the game to give the Leopards their largest lead of the game at 71-43. Brown made four three-pointers in the run, while Andersson added three and Marcus Harley one. Lafayette shot 69 percent from three-point land in the second half, making 9-of-13 attempts. The big spurt allowed Lafayette head coach Fran O'Hanlon to rest several players in the final seven minutes of the game, as all 13 Leopard players played at least four minutes. Ten players scored for the Leopards led by Brown's 20 and 11 from Andersson who was 3-of-5 from behind the arc. Senior guard Jamaal Hilliard and junior forward Ted Detmer also played a vital role in the balanced scoring attack, recording nine points each. Harley was on the helping end of six baskets.

DEC. 7, 2006 -- KIRBY SPORTS CENTER

EASTON, Pa. - The Lafayette men's basketball team raced out to an 11-2 lead in the opening six minutes and never looked back en route to a 72-54 win over Lycoming at the Kirby Sports Center. The win was the third straight victory for the Leopards. The Warriors opened the scoring on a basket by Greg Sye just a minute and a half into the game. Lafayette scored the next 11 points unanswered, starting with an Andrew Brown jumper and ending with a Ted Detmer lay-up with 14:50 remaining in the opening frame. Tri-captain Marcus Harley contributed to the Leopard run with six points on two jumpers and a lay-up off a Detmer assist. The Leopards stretched the lead to 17 by the end of the half and took a 42-25 lead into the locker room. Lafayette enjoyed its largest lead of the game, 69-42, with 5:27 remaining before head coach Fran O'Hanlon took the opportunity to get his younger players some game experience. Harley led the Lafayette with 12 points on 5-of-7 from the field. A balanced scoring attack saw Detmer and Paul Cummins notch nine points apiece, while junior guard Bilal Abdullh recorded eight. All of Lafayette's 13 players scored in the game. Brown finished with six assists, and Matt Betley chipped in with four steals.

DEC. 11, 2006 -- KIRBY SPORTS CENTER

EASTON, Pa. - On a night when Lafayette's shooting finally cooled off, Columbia shot 62 percent from the field and the Lions handed the Leopards a 75-58 loss at Kirby Sports Center. John Baumann led the Lions with 21 points and seven rebounds. Columbia's offense got on track early. The Lions used a 15-4 run, starting with a Baumann put back at 16:36 and culminating with his dunk at the eight minute mark to make the score 20-8. After trailing by as many as 15 in the first half, the Leopards showed they would not go quietly. A 12-4 run over the final 2:57 of the first half, including an Andre Hines offensive rebound and put back sandwiched between two Marcus Harley field goals, cut the Lion lead to 35-30 at halftime. Columbia came storming out of the intermission, forcing the Leopards into three straight turnovers to start the second half. The Lions stretched the lead to 13 at 46-33 with 14:49 left in the game. Lafayette (4-7) closed the margin back to 13 (67-54) on a Matt Betley three-pointer with 4:40 remaining. However, a final 8-0 run over the next two minutes, capped off by a Niko Scott basket, helped close out the 75-58 decision. Betley was the only Leopard in double figures with 13 points on 5-for-8 shooting.

LAFAYETTE 58, MOUNT ST. MARY'S 56 DEC. 22, 2006 -- KIRBY SPORTS CENTER

EASTON, Pa. - Junior Bilal Abdullah scored a career-high 22 points and led Lafayette to a 58-56 win over Mount St. Mary's at Kirby Sports Center. Coming off a 15-point effort in a win over King's, Abdullah maintained his more assertive stance on the offensive end and used an 8-for-13 shooting night to spark Lafayette to its fifth win in the last six games. Lafayette controlled the tempo from the opening tip, jumping out to an early 14-2 lead going into the first media timeout. Jesper Andersson started and finished the run, nailing a three-pointer on the first Leopard possession and draining another triple from the corner off a Matt Betley assist at the 15:57 mark of the first half. Lafayette led 38-29 at halftime. An Andrew Brown three-pointer gave Lafayette its largest second half lead at 43-33. However, a 15-4 run by Mount St. Mary's that culminated with a Vann lay-up at 7:39 left gave the Mount its first lead of the game. Two Betley free throws with 1:54 left gave the Leopards a 58-54 lead and forced Mount St. Mary's head coach Milan Brown to call a 30-second timeout. Mount forward Kelly Beidler, who led his squad with 16 points, drained two free throws with exactly one minute left to bring the Mountaineers within two (58-56). That was as close as Mount St. Mary's would get, as the Mountaineers squandered three offensive possessions in the final 25 seconds of the game. Mount St. Mary's had one final chance with an inbounds play underneath the basket with 0.9 seconds remaining. Beidler used two screens to find an open lay-up on the weak side, but his attempt rimmed off the basket and the Leopards held on for the two-point win. Abdullah bettered his career-high by one point, finishing with 22 points. Andersson was the only other Leopard to record double figures, tallying 11 for the game, but left the game in the first half after sustaining an ankle injury. Beidler and Vann led the Mount with 16 and 11, respectively.

4, KING'S 12/20/06	Steals	4, Five times (*KING'S, 12/20/06)

Forward who has greatly increased his strength in two seasons on College Hill...what he lacks in height he makes up for in quickness, able to take biggest post players to the hoop off the dribble...led the team in steals as a sophomore...played in 26 games while starting 19 as a sophomore...averaged 5.5 ppg while leading the team in rebounding with 4.1 rpg. 2006-07: Scored a career-high 17 points (8-for-10) in victory over King's (12/20)...chipped in with nine points, four rebounds and three steals at NJIT (12/4)...hit game-winning three-pointer with 1.4 seconds left at St. Peter's (12/2) and scored nine points for the game...grabbed five rebounds in 25 minutes against Princeton (11/28)...pulled down a season-high six rebounds at Miami (11/25)...chipped in four points in 20 minutes during the Leopards' season-opening win at Wagner (11/10).

Biggest player on Lafayette roster at 6-10, 265 pounds...center whose size will allow him to battle for playing time...originally from Poland, he is one of three international players...began playing basketball at the age of 14. All-State honorable mention choice while at Caravel Academy in Bear, Del. 2006-07: Made his only field goal attempt against Columbia (12/11)...played in eight games...notched his first career field goal against UMBC (11/21)...scored first collegiate points against Notre Dame, while also pulling down two rebounds in seven minutes (11/14).
