Aztecs Look to Match Best 15-Game Record in the Last 41 Seasons; Face Northern Colorado on Wednesday at Cox

San Diego State (11-3 overall; 1-0 MWC) faces its final regular-season non-conference opponent of the season on Wednesday night when the Aztecs play host to Big Sky Conference foe Northern Colorado (7-8, 2-2 BSC).

Game time is set for 7 p.m. PT at Cox Arena. There is no live television coverage of the game, but the contest can be heard on the Aztec radio flagship station AM 600 KOGO.

There is plenty on the line for the non-conference tilt, as with a victory, SDSU can match the best 15-game record in 38 Division I seasons (the 1984-85 team was 12-3 after 15 games) and match its most non-conference wins of the Division I era and the last 41 seasons, dating back to the 1966-67 campaign. In the Division I era, the Aztecs won 11 such games four times, including twice previously under Steve Fisher (in the 2001-02 NCAA Tournament season and in the 2006-07 NIT campaign).

San Diego State will also look to extend its Cox Arena-record win streak of 13 games, the fifth longest homecourt win streak in school history and the longest in 27 years. The Aztecs' last home loss, as of Saturday's game, occurred 371 days ago on Jan. 3, 2007. The current 13-game homecourt winning streak is the 11th-longest active win streak nationally entering Monday's games.

On Saturday, the Aztecs opened their 10th season of basketball in the Mountain West Conference with a 64-57 decision over TCU. San Diego State never trailed in the contest, racing to leads of 17-5, 23-6 and 28-8 before settling for a 32-13 lead at intermission. The Aztecs led by at least seven points the final 34:32 of the contest in winning their fifth MWC opener in the last six seasons.

Junior forward Lorenzo Wade paced San Diego State with a team-high 18 points and eight rebounds. That completed a solid week for the junior, who had a career-high 23 points in the previous contest against Sam Houston State (Dec. 28). Four players reached the double-figure plateau for the Aztecs, as Wade was joined by junior center Ryan Amoroso (12 points), junior guard Kelvin Davis (12 points and five rebounds) and junior forward Kyle Spain (11 points, five rebounds and three assists).

The Aztecs limited the Horned Frogs to just 13 first-half points and 15.4 percent from the field prior to intermission. The 13 points are the fewest yielded by any Aztec team in a half of basketball since the beginning of the 1999-2000 season. San Diego State allowed just 57 points, marking the fourth time this season an opponent has failed to reach 60 points. The Aztecs have won eight straight games and are 47-5 in the Steve Fisher era when their opponent scores less than 60 points.

Northern Colorado improved to 7-8 on Sunday with a 55-52 victory over Weber State. The Bears have split against two Mountain West Conference foes this season, dropping a 71-62 decision at Air Force on Nov. 10 and defeating Colorado State 72-59 on Dec. 1.

The game against the Bears starts a tough stretch for the Aztecs, who will play three games in the next eight days against opponents that are a combined 30-14 (Wednesday vs. Northern Colorado 7-8, Saturday at New Mexico 14-2 and next Wednesday vs. Utah 9-4).

Storylines and Tidbits

► At 11-3, San Diego State has matched its second-best start in its 38-season Division I history. The last time an Aztec squad opened a season with a better record, was in 1984-85 when SDSU owned an 12-2 record after 14 games. This marks the second consecutive season SDSU has been 11-3 after 14 games and just the fifth time in the Division I era that an Aztec squad has won at least 11 of its first 14 games.

► An Aztec win would: Give SDSU a 12-3 record and match the best start of the Division I era and the best start of the last 41 seasons. The last time San Diego State had a better record after 15 games was in 1966-67 when the Aztecs opened 13-2 en route to a 24-5 record and advanced to the quarterfinal round of the NCAA Division II Tournament.

► As previously noted, San Diego State has a Cox Arena-record 13-game homecourt winning streak. It is the fifth longest streak in SDSU's 87-season history of basketball, the longest streak in 27 years (since 1981) and the 11th-longest active streak in the country (complete list is located to the right). San Diego State, which is 30-3 in its last 33 home games dating back to Dec. 17, 2005, has won 16 consecutive non-conference games against unranked teams.

► Steve Fisher has turned San Diego State not only to a Mountain West Conference contender, but into one of the top program's in the country. Since Dec. 31, 2005, San Diego State has posted a 51-18 record. As of Jan. 8, the Aztecs ranked 20th nationally in victories since Dec. 31, 2005. San Diego State is coming off consecutive seasons with 22 or more wins and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2006 and the second round of the NIT in 2007.

► San Diego State has outrebounded its opponent in eight consecutive games and 11 times in 14 games this season. That is a good sign for the Aztecs as they are 9-2 this season and 94-44 in the Steve Fisher era when owning a rebound advantage. The current streak of a rebound edge in eight straight games is the longest streak of the Steve Fisher era (since 1999-00 season).

► Through Sunday's games, San Diego State ranks 18th nationally in steals per game at 9.93. The Aztecs have 10 or more thefts in six of the last 10 games, including a season-high 19 against Loyola Marymount (Nov. 28). Six players average more than one steal a game for SDSU, led by junior guard Richie Williams at 2.30 spg.

► The Aztecs have posted an impressive 11-3 start and opened league play with a victory last Saturday over TCU despite missing two starters from the lineup. Freshman forward Tim Shelton started the first three games of the season but had season-ending knee surgery on Nov. 20. The latest victim of the injury bug is junior point guard Richie Williams, who suffered a broken left wrist in the victory over Sam Houston State on Dec. 28. He is expected to miss a total of four weeks from the date of the injury. Last season, Aztec players missed a total of 40 games due to injury, illness or suspension. This season, to date, San Diego State players have missed a total of 16 games.

► At 11-3, San Diego State has clinched its eighth consecutive season with at least 10 victories. Now that doesn't sound like a major accomplishment, but it serves as a great reminder of where the program was prior to Fisher's arrival. In the 15 seasons between 1985-86 and 1999-2000, the Aztecs failed to win more than 10 games in a season six times. By comparison, SDSU is more than halfway toward reaching the 20-win plateau for the third consecutive season, which equals the number of 20-win campaigns in the 37 seasons prior to the 2005-06 campaign.

► Although the Aztecs have won their most recent game, SDSU has done an excellent job of avoiding losing streaks, going 28 consecutive games without a two-game losing streak and 81 games without dropping three in a row. The Aztecs have followed their last eight defeats with a victory in the next game and are 21-4 in the contest following their most recent 25 defeats. San Diego State has been victorious in its first home game following its last 13 losses.

Player Tidbits

► Junior forward Lorenzo Wade has posted games of 23 and 18 points in SDSU's last two wins, including a career high 23 against Sam Houston State (12-28-07)... He has scored in double figures in eight of his last nine games and led the Aztecs in scoring in four of the last six games... He is shooting 51.2 percent (63-of-123) from inside the arc and has converted 26 of his last 36 free throw attempts (72.2 percent)... He has four games with three or more steals... Wade has 552 career points as an Aztec and 690 in his college career.

► Junior forward Kyle Spain has three career 20-point scoring games, including two this season... Posted a team-high 20 points (two short of his career high) at 19th-ranked Arizona (12-22-07)... Has 31 rebounds in his last four games (7.8 rpg)... Made a three-point field goal in a career-best six consecutive games... In his last four games, he is 16-of-20 (80.0 percent) from the free throw line... "Only" had nine points and nine rebounds in the win over Sam Houston State (12-28-07), although he did have a three-point play late in regulation and connected on a trey with 46 seconds left in overtime to give SDSU the lead... Earned MWC Player of the Week honors earlier this year and has won the award twice in his career.

► Freshman forward Billy White earned MWC Player of the Week honors a week ago after providing SDSU with the shot that forced overtime (:00.2) and game-winning shot (0:11 in OT) against Sam Houston State... He is just the sixth player in league history to earn the honor as a freshman, joining Evan Burns (SDSU), Andrew Bogut (Utah), Kyle Spain (SDSU), Brandon Ewing (Wyo.) and Trent Plaisted (BYU)... He has shot 60 percent or better from the field in four of his

Aztecs Win Mountain West Conference Opener By Defeating TCU, 64-57

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State held TCU to 13 first-half points and had four players score in double figures as the Aztecs defeated the Horned Frogs, 64-57, in the Mountain West Conference opener at Cox Arena.

The game started with each team trading baskets and was tied at five after a jumper by TCU's Kevin Langford. Following the basket, San Diego State used a suffocating defense to hold the Frogs without a point for 9 minutes, 51 seconds, until Langford hit one of two free throws. TCU's field goal drought, however, lasted 14:30 until Ryan Wall came off the bench to make a three-point basket.

At the end of the half, the Aztecs found themselves ahead, 32-13, with 20 of their points coming inside the paint. The Frogs' 13 points in the first half were the fewest allowed by an SDSU squad since it joined the MWC prior to the 1999-00 season.

The second half was just the opposite of the first after TCU opened the period with six straight points to cut the SDSU lead to 13. But the Aztecs countered by stretching their lead to 20 nearly six minutes into the half.

Later with under 10 minutes to play, San Diego State missed four straight field goals, while TCU went on a 13-2 run fueled by three treys by Horned Frog Henry Salter to trim the Aztec lead to eight with 4:33 to play.

Down the stretch as TCU was mounting a comeback, San Diego State went 13-for-14 from the free-throw line in the final 4:11 to keep the Frogs at bay.

Lorrenzo Wade led the Aztecs with team highs of 18 points and eight rebounds, while Ryan Amoroso and Kelvin Davis had 12 and Kyle Spain scored 11.

Noting the TCU Game

► The Aztecs allowed just 13 first half points, the fewest allowed by the Aztecs in any game since joining the Mountain West Conference prior to the 1999-2000 season.

► SDSU won its 13th consecutive home game. It is the longest winning streak in Cox Arena history and the longest in 26 years.

► The Aztecs have won five of their last six Mountain West Conference openers.

► The Aztecs improve to 5-0 against the Horned Frogs in the Mountain West Conference era.

► San Diego State never trailed in the game, marking the third time this season and 24th time in the Steve Fisher era that the Aztecs have won a game in which they never trailed.

► San Diego State improves to 11-3 overall, continuing the second best start in 38 Division I seasons. The last time the Aztecs owned a better record after 14 games was in 1984-85, when SDSU was 12-2. This is the second consecutive season the Aztecs have won at least 11 of their first 14 games, marking the only time in the Division I era that has occurred.

► This is just the fifth time in the Division I era that San Diego State has won at least 11 of its first 14 games.

► Overall, San Diego State is 51-18 in its last 69 games dating back to Dec. 31, 2005.

► The starting five of Ryan Amoroso, D.J. Gay, Kyle Spain, Lorrenzo Wade and Billy White made their fourth start of the season and are 3-1 as a starting unit this season.

► Freshman D.J. Gay made the start at point guard for the Aztecs for the injured Richie Williams. It marked the 10th start of the season for the true freshman, who improved to 9-1 as a starter.

► San Diego State recorded its third victory of the season in a game in which it never trailed. The Aztecs also recorded like wins against Fresno State and Loyola Marymount.

► The last time the Aztecs led wire-to-wire in an MWC game was Feb. 24, 2007, in the victory over 21st/22nd-ranked Brigham Young.

► SDSU never trailed in three of its last five MWC home games dating back to last season.

► San Diego State improved to 9-2 this season and 101-28 in the Steve Fisher era when leading at intermission.

► San Diego State allowed just 13 points in the first half, the fewest allowed by Aztec team this season, bettering the 18 points UC Riverside scored in the first half of the Dec. 4, 2007 game. The lowest point total allowed in a half last season was 14 against UC San Diego on Nov. 15, 2006.

► Junior forward Lorrenzo Wade reached double figures for a team-high 12th time this season and the 34th time in his career... It is the second straight game he has scored 10 or more and the ninth time in the last 10 games, with the lone exception being the game at 19th-ranked Arizona... Wade had a season-high eight rebounds.

► Junior forward Kyle Spain reached double figures for the ninth time this season and the 27th time in his career.

► Junior guard Kelvin Davis came off the bench to reach double figures for the ninth time this season... Davis tied his career high with three steals.

San Diego State-Northern Colorado: The Series

► This is the third meeting between San Diego State and Northern Colorado.

► The Aztecs lead the series 2-0, winning the last meeting 104-75 at the Sports Arena back in 1971. SDSU took the first meeting in 1962 in overtime, 74-73, in Greeley, Colo.

► Steve Fisher has never faced the Bears in his 16-plus seasons as a head coach.

► Like Fisher, no current Aztec, including Division I transfers Ryan Amoroso, Kelvin Davis and Lorrenzo Wade, has faced Northern Colorado.

San Diego State vs. the Big Sky Conference

► The Aztecs are 21-9 all-time vs. current members of the Big Sky Conference. SDSU owns a .500 record or better against the seven BSC schools they have played (Eastern Washington, Idaho State, Montana, Montana State, Northern Arizona, Northern Colorado, Portland State and Sacramento State). Weber State is the lone Big Sky school San Diego State has not faced.

► The last time SDSU faced a BSC school was back during the 2003-04 season when it played host to Eastern Washington in a 79-66 victory at Cox Arena. The game was the third consecutive season in which the Aztecs welcomed EWU to Montezuma Mesa.

► The last time the Aztecs played a team other than Eastern Washington was back on Dec. 2, 2000, when Sacramento State dropped a 92-69 decision SDSU inside Cox Arena.

► Steve Fisher owns a 4-1 record vs. the Big Sky. As the Aztec head coach, Fisher is 3-1 after going 2-1 vs. Eastern Washington and 1-0 vs. Sacramento State. Fisher's other victory came at Michigan when his team defeated Weber State in 1995-96.

San Diego State Cliff Notes

Having lost the all-time leading scorer in school history (Brandon Heath - 2,189 points) and possibly the single-most successful player in school history (Mohamed Abukar (compiled a 39-15 record, 72.2 percent)), not many people expected much from San Diego State in 2007-08.

Yet the Aztecs have used a deep bench and used full-court defensive pressure to jump out to an 11-3 record. The Aztecs, currently ranked 32nd in the RPI, have four players averaging in double figures (one injured) and seven players averaging 7.5 points or more (two injured). Eight Aztec players are currently averaging 22.9 minutes or more per contest (two injured).

This edition of the SDSU squad has had more success than what most people would have expected. With a roster made up of one senior, six juniors, two sophomores and four freshmen, the Aztecs have posted five road/neutral victories to date.

The Aztecs are led by junior forwards Lorrenzo Wade and Kyle Spain.

Wade, 6-6, who played on Louisville's 2005 NCAA Final Four team, is averaging 14.7 points, 3.3 rebounds and 2.6 assists per game. He is shooting 47.8 percent from the field and an impressive 36.8 percent from three-point range. An athletic left-handed player who is one of the top defensive players on the West Coast, he is averaging a team-high 30.2 minutes per game.

Spain, 6-5, is in his third season with the Aztecs, averaging 13.3 points and 6.0 rebounds. The junior has played the last five games after missing two of the previous three due to an ankle injury. Spain looked like himself vs. Navy as he recorded 14 points, nine rebounds and three steals and then followed it with 20 points and eight rebounds at Arizona. The Newark, Calif., native had a phenomenal freshman season when SDSU won the MWC regular season and postseason championships en route to the NCAA Tournament. Spain connected on 51.7 percent from three-point range in 2005-06 and made 25 starts before struggling through an injury-plagued sophomore campaign. This season, Spain has returned to the phenom freshman form. He has attempted a team-high 63 free throws this season, and is shooting 77.8 percent from the charity stripe.

Junior point guard Richie Williams, who had played himself back into the starting lineup after missing the first three games of the season serving a team suspension, will be out until at least Feb. 1 with a broken left wrist. Williams had started four of the last five games before suffering the injury vs. Sam Houston State and reached double figures in three straight games for the first time in his career before being held to seven vs. Navy. The 5-10 guard had 16 points against Western Michigan, 13 vs. UC Riverside and 11 against Saint Mary's. He currently leads the team in assists with 37 in 10 games (3.7 apg).

In a year of big impact newcomers, no player has had a bigger impact than 6-8 center Ryan Amoroso. Amoroso, who played for two seasons at Marquette, is averaging 9.1 points, 5.9 rebounds, but his real impact is on the defensive end where his 257-pound frame has given SDSU a wide body in the paint.

Another newcomer who has found his way into the starting lineup is freshman Billy White. White, who may rival Wade for athleticism, is averaging 9.1 points and 5.8 rebounds having played in all 14 games and making 11 starts. The freshman is 53-of-88 from the field for an amazing 60.2 field goal percentage. He also has a team-high 25 steals and 10 dunks this season.

Junior forward Kelvin Davis, who played in the 2005 NCAA Tournament while at UTEP, has needed little time to adjust after sitting out a year. Davis is averaging 11.0 points (third on the team) and 3.4 rebounds, while shooting 52.3 percent from the field and 43.6 percent from three-point range.

Freshman point guard D.J. Gay started the first eight games of the season (10 total) and will start at point guard with Williams nursing a wrist injury. Through 14 games, he has 30 assists and just 17 turnovers to go along with a 4.4 scoring average. Known as a great shooter, Gay has connected on 15 treys to date.

With the season-ending knee injury to Tim Shelton, Jon Pastorek and Jer'Vaughn Johnson have both seen increased playing time. Pastorek has played in 11 games, making his first career start vs. Navy, and is averaging 2.6 points and 2.3 rebounds. He had a career-best four assists against Saint Mary's and followed it with 10 points (3-3 FG, 4-4 FT) and two rebounds against the Midshipmen. Johnson, meanwhile, has played in 10 games, averaging 1.3 points and 1.2 rebounds.

San Diego State has been a handful for opponents this season. Aztec opponents are shooting 44.0 percent from the field, 35.1 percent from three-point range and are averaging 17.7 turnovers to date.

White Named MWC Player of the Week

San Diego State freshman forward Billy White has been named Mountain West Conference men's basketball co-player of the week, the league announced Monday, Dec. 31. The award is White's first of his career and shares the honor with UNLV's Wink Adams.

In SDSU's only game of the week, White helped the Aztecs beat Sam Houston State, 79-78, in overtime at Cox Arena. The Bearkats visited Montezuma Mesa as the No. 28-ranked RPI team, one of nine unbeaten teams in the country at 10-0 and had the eighth-longest active win streak in the country.

In what was a close game throughout with no team enjoying a lead larger than six points, White had 12 points on 6-of-10 shooting and six rebounds, including four on the offensive end. The freshman came up big in the clutch as he scored 10 of his 12 points and grabbed all six of his rebounds after halftime.

With the Aztecs down by two, the Las Vegas, Nev., native forced overtime when he followed Richie Williams' miss with an offensive put-back with 0:00.2 remaining in regulation. Later in the extra session, White provided the game-winning bucket when he rebounded a D.J. Gay miss and followed it with a basket with 11 seconds remaining in overtime.

With his two huge field goals, White became the first SDSU freshman since the beginning of the 1996-97 season to hit a game-winning shot and the first Aztec to make a shot to force overtime and make a game-winner in the same game.

White joins Kyle Spain as the only two Aztecs to win conference player of the week honors this season. White is also the first Aztec freshman since Spain to earn weekly league and is the first freshman this season to win the award in the MWC.

Fast Starts on The Mesa

At 11-3, San Diego State is off to its second-best start to a Division I season. The 1984-85 team opened 12-2 en route to a 23-8 record and a trip to the NCAA Tournament. This year's squad matches the 2006-07, 1996-97 and 1971-72 teams to start a season at 11-3.

A victory on Wednesday would:

► Mark just the second time in the Division I era that San Diego State has won at least 12 of its first 15 games and would match the best start to a Division I season (the 1984-85 team won 12 of its first 15 contests).

Owning the Boards

In their game vs. Navy, the Aztecs were monsters on the boards as they collected 39 while limiting the Mids to just 21 total rebounds. SDSU's plus-18 margin was a season-best and was the fifth-best in Cox Arena history. Navy's five offensive rebounds also tied Fresno State for the lowest by an opponent this season.

At Arizona, SDSU outrebounded the Wildcats as it won the rebounding battle, 36-35, and had 18 offensive boards.

The Aztecs have outrebounded their opponent 11 times this season, including each of the last eight games.

Robbery Suspects

The Aztecs have been making the art of stealing a regular thing this season. In 13 of 14 games this year, SDSU has recorded at least seven steals, including 15 at San Diego and a season-high 19 at Loyola Marymount. Of the 248 turnovers San Diego State has forced, 56.0 percent or 139 total thefts have come via the steal. As of Sunday, the Aztecs were 19th nationally in steals per game (9.9).

Steady Force

Prior to making his first start at LMU as an Aztec, Kelvin Davis had been a steady force off the bench for the Aztecs this season. The transfer from the College of Southern Idaho had scored in double figures in each of the previous five games, including a career-high 17 points at California. In those five games, Davis posted a field goal and three-point field goal percentage of at least 50 percent and connected on at least two three-pointers in each of those contests.

As a starter, Davis struggled with his shot in his first two starting assignments, but contributed with his rebounding as he averaged 4.5 boards a game, including a career-best six at LMU. Against UC Riverside, Davis regained his shooting stroke and led the team with 16 points on a then career-high six field goals.

Versus Saint Mary's, Davis returned to his familiar role coming off the bench and exploded for a team-high 19 points on a personal-best eight field goals. He also added five rebounds, two steals and one assist in 25 minutes. For the season, he ranks third on the team in scoring and seventh in minutes played.

Below is a look at Davis' numbers as a starter and as a player who comes off the bench:

Games	PPG	RPG	FG Pct.	3FG Pct.	MPG
3 Starts	8.3	4.3	41.7	23.1	24.3
11 Non-Starts	11.7	3.2	55.3	50.0	22.8

Obviously Davis' offensive numbers are better when he comes off the bench, but his averages as a starter is nothing to look down upon especially since his rebounding improves when earning the starting nod.

Triple Threat

San Diego State has four players averaging double figures and three more boasting an average of at least 7.5 points per game so it comes as no surprise that the Aztecs have had at least three players score in double figures in 13 of 14 games this year. Against Navy, SDSU had five players in double figures for the second time this year and for the third time in which at least six scored 10 points or more. In addition, last year's NIT team never had at least three players reach double figures in nine consecutive games at any point during the campaign.

► MWC FRESH. POW

Below is a look at the six freshman players to earn player of the week honors in Mountain West Conference history.

Name, School	Season
Evan Burns, San Diego State ◀	2002-03
Andrew Bogut, Utah	2003-04
Kyle Spain, San Diego State ◀	2005-06
Brandon Ewing, Wyoming	2005-06
Trent Plaisted, BYU	2005-06
Billy White, San Diego State ◀	2007-08

A Victory Almost Guaranteed

Kyle Spain has scored in double figures in 10 of the 12 games he has played this season and the Aztecs have won eight of them. History says that when Spain scores at least 10 points, the Aztecs are almost guaranteed a win. As a freshman, San Diego State was 11-2 when the junior scored in double figures and 5-0 last season. For his career, Spain and the Aztecs boast a outstanding record of 24-4 when he reaches double digits in the scoring column.

Shutting Down the Bigs

San Diego State has faced three big men this season that have received national attention in Cal's DeVon Hardin, Western Michigan's Joe Reitz and Saint Mary's Omar Samhan and have had decent success against both. In the game against the Golden Bears, the Aztecs used a fierce double team to limit Hardin, an NBA prospect, to five points on 1-of-5 shooting. Against WMU, San Diego State held the two-time all-MAC selection to two points on 0-of-8 from the field. Lastly, the Aztecs limited Samhan to just 10 points and three rebounds. Going into the contest, Hardin was averaging 10.5 points, while Reitz was averaging a team-best 14.4 points. Samhan had numbers of 14.5 points and 8.5 rebounds going into the game vs. SDSU.

Winning By Double Digits

The Aztecs' season-opening four wins, before its five-point win at USD, were all by double-digit margins. It was the first time since the 2002-03 season SDSU had accomplished such a feat. During their NIT season in 2002-03, the Aztecs won at Houston (71-61) and defeated Florida Atlantic (91-75), IPFW (74-58) and Loyola Marymount (79-69) at home. In fact, prior to its game at Houston, SDSU beat Hawai'i at home by 11 (60-49) making the win over the Lions its fifth in a row by at least 10 points. Before losing to Saint Mary's, the Aztecs had another run of their own as they had won three in a row by double figures.

Shooting the Lights Out

San Diego State is shooting 45.7 percent from the field. More impressive is the fact that six players are shooting at least 47 percent. Compared to last season, only two SDSU players finished the season with a field-goal percentage above 50 percent.

After 14 games, San Diego State has shot over 50 percent six times and at least 46 percent from the field in eight games. All eight of those games resulted in wins.

Contributions from the New Guys

Five of the top eight players when looking at minutes played and points scored are newcomers. Those five include Ryan Amoroso, Kelvin Davis, D.J. Gay, Tim Shelton and Billy White. Their contributions have certainly been felt early on. Between the five of them, they put up a triple double vs. Portland and at Fresno State. The quintet is responsible for 51.0 percent of the team's points, 51.2 percent of rebounds and 41.3 percent of assists.

74 is the Magic Number

Reaching the 74-point plateau seems to bring good fortune for the Aztecs as they have done so 41 times since the beginning of 2005-06, including six times this year. In those 41 games, San Diego State has a record of 38-3. The 23 times SDSU didn't hit the 74-point mark the past two seasons, it wound up losing 13 of them. Coincidentally, 12 of the 23 occurrences have happened away from Cox Arena. Of the eight times San Diego State didn't reach the magic number this year and won, three were at home. The only time it happened away from Cox Arena and won was this year's opener vs. Liberty and at San Diego.

Freshmen in Starting Lineup

With junior point guard Richie Williams serving a team suspension earlier this year, true freshman D.J. Gay earned the starting nod in the season-opening game against Liberty. Tim Shelton, another true freshman, also found himself in the starting five as well vs. the Flames. Gay and Shelton became just the 10th and 11th freshmen to start a season opener under Steve Fisher. Only four times before had a freshman started a season opener under Fisher at SDSU and that oddly was Williams in 2005 at Alaska Fairbanks. Gay and Shelton joined elite company as only Juwan Howard, Jalen Rose, Chris Webber, Jerod Ward, Albert White, Bradley Jackson, Steve Sir, Brandon Heath and Williams have received the starting nod from Fisher as freshman to open a season.

Locking Down

San Diego State has used a stifling defense for the better part of 40 minutes in each game this year. Dating back to last season, the Aztecs have held 26 of their last 30 opponents to 74 points or less and have held 19 of their last 29 opponents to less than 45 percent from the field.

Just this year alone, the Aztecs have held 11 of 14 opponents to 74 points or fewer and seven to under 42.2 percent shooting. SDSU opponents are also averaging 17.7 turnovers a game.

As you might imagine, holding opponents to less than 40 percent from the floor has been a good sign for the Aztecs. San Diego State is 57-9 in the Steve Fisher era when the opponent is held below that field goal percentage.

Making it Rain

The Aztecs have made at least six three-pointers in eight of 14 games this year. This season's squad became the first team in Steve Fisher's tenure to knock down at least six three-pointers in the first six games of a season after it made a season-best 11 at California. SDSU made it seven straight games until it only connected on four vs. Western Michigan.

White's House Party

Billy White, making his first appearance at Cox Arena on Nov. 17 vs. UCSD, found himself in the starting lineup and did not disappoint. The Las Vegas native connected on his first nine shots before missing with under six minutes left in the game and went on to put back his missed attempt. For the game, White was a 10 of 11 from the field for a game- and career-high 20 points, had a game-high tying nine rebounds, a game- and career-best three blocked shots and one steal in a team-best 29 minutes.

White became the first Aztec to make at least 10 field goals in a game this season. His three blocks are also a 2007 team best. The freshman's 20-point performance was the first by an Aztec freshman since the 2004-05 season when Matt Thomas scored 20 vs. Air Force on Feb. 28, 2005. White's nine rebounds were also the most by an SDSU freshman since Kyle Spain grabbed 12 in the championship game of the MWC tournament vs. Wyoming on March 11, 2006.

White's 10-11 shooting exhibition ranks in a tie for fifth place on San Diego State's individual game records list for best field-goal percentage in a game (min. 6 FGM) during Steve Fisher's tenure.

Shelton Out

Freshman forward Tim Shelton will miss the rest of the 2007-08 season after undergoing surgery to his left knee on Tuesday, Nov. 20. The Fresno, Calif., native started the first three games of the season, missed the UCSD game due to swelling in his knee, but returned for the game at San Diego in a reserve role. In four games, Shelton was averaging 10.0 points on 55.2 percent shooting and 4.8 rebounds.

Ziegenfuss Passes

On Saturday, Dec. 1, longtime Aztec basketball coach George Ziegenfuss passed away in San Diego. He was 90 years old. Ziegenfuss coached on Montezuma Mesa for 21 seasons and guided the Aztecs to the Division II quarterfinals twice and to the second round. Prior to moving into Division II, Ziegenfuss took SDSU to the NAIA tournament on two occasions, going as far as the third round. During his tenure, he posted a record of 316-229 (114-73 CCAA) and finished in first or second place in the California Collegiate Athletic Association 11 times.

Increasing the Margin

In its three wins at the World Vision Classic, the Aztecs increased their margin of victory in each game. Against Liberty, SDSU won by 12 and then followed it with a 14-point victory over Portland. In the finale, the Aztecs dominated Fresno State and defeated the Bulldogs by 17. The feat marked the first time since the 1984-85 season that the Aztecs have increased their margin of victory in three consecutive non-conference wins. In '84-85, SDSU beat Long Beach State on the road by two, 62-60, and followed it with neutral-site wins over McNeese State by six (91-85) and Southwest Louisiana by 13 (86-73).

Aztecs Win World Vision Classic

The Aztecs won their sixth in-season event victory of the Division I era last weekend in Fresno Calif., with three wins in three days. San Diego State claimed tournament titles in the 1977 Cabrillo Classic (San Diego, Calif), 1981 Cabrillo Classic (San Diego, Calif.), 1984 UNLV Roundup (Las Vegas, Nev.), the 1987 Holiday Bowl Classic (San Diego, Calif.), the 2006 Shamrock Invitational and this season's World Vision Classic.

To the right is a list of multiple-game in-season events the Aztecs have been a part of to begin a season under Steve Fisher.

Aztecs Picked to Finish in Tie for Fourth

San Diego State has been picked to finish in a tie for fourth place in the Mountain West Conference's 2007-08 pre-season men's basketball media poll released Oct. 17, at the league's media day held at The Mtn. studios in Littleton, Colo.

The Aztecs, 2007 NIT participants, earned 128 points along with New Mexico (two first-place votes) and also received one first-place vote. Brigham Young was picked to win the league with 181 points and 15 first-place votes, followed by UNLV (146 pts; 2 first-place votes) and Utah (142; 2).

After SDSU and New Mexico in sixth place was Wyoming (120), with TCU (7th, 58), Air Force (8th, 54) and Colorado State (9th, 33) rounding out the poll.

San Diego State junior forward Ryan Amoroso was the lone Aztec to garner individual accolades as he was voted as the league's top newcomer. Amoroso, a transfer from Marquette who sat out last season, becomes the second SDSU player in the last three years to earn that distinction. Recently departed senior Mohamed Abukar earned the same recognition heading into the 2005-06 campaign.

Not So Newcomers

Even though they are classified as "newcomers," Ryan Amoroso and Kelvin Davis are anything but that. The pair make up for 33 percent of the team's newcomers, but it is their experience prior to arriving on Montezuma Mesa that would dispute their classification.

Amoroso played in 57 games, while making eight starts in his two-year stint at Marquette. During his time there, the Golden Eagles went 39-23 and advanced to the 2005 National Invitation Tournament and the 2006 NCAA Tournament. Davis, meanwhile, played in 24 games his freshman season at UTEP and was a part of a Miner team that 27-8 and earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament. And although he redshirted the following season, Davis was a part of a UTEP squad that ended the season at 21-10 and advanced to the second round of the NIT.

When compared to last year's five newcomers, only Lorenzo Wade had prior Division I college experience. Wade saw action in 35 games at Louisville as a freshman and helped lead the Cardinals to a 33-5 record and a spot in the NCAA Final Four.

Experience Counts

With only one senior on the roster some may think the Aztecs are young. Although there is some truth to that, the players San Diego State has returning are definitely battle-tested. The seven returners, along with the additions of Ryan Amoroso and Kelvin Davis, have all been a part of winning teams that have won at least 20 games and squads that have advanced to postseason play. Of the nine to advance to the postseason, seven have been to an NCAA Tournament and eight have been on teams to win at least one game in the postseason. Last year, SDSU only had eight players who had tasted the postseason and were part of 20-win ballclubs. Of the eight, only Lorenzo Wade experienced winning a postseason game.

Steve Fisher has guided the Aztec basketball program to unparalleled heights. In eight seasons, he has taken a program that regularly missed out on the conference postseason tournament, to one which has become of the best programs on the West Coast and has the Aztecs knocking on the door of the elite teams in the country.

The best news for SDSU fans is that Fisher signed a new five-year contract prior to the start of the 2006-07 season that will keep him in San Diego for the foreseeable future.

When Fisher arrived on the scene in March of 1999, he found a basketball program that wasn't good enough to be called average. The Aztecs had suffered through 13 losing seasons in 14 years. Members of the school's last NCAA team were in the early stages of middle age. The expectations were set. The Aztecs were expected to lose. The year before Fisher's arrival on campus, San Diego State won just four games.

Now those days are a distant memory. Fisher guided San Diego State to the NCAA Tournament in 2002, the postseason NIT in 2003, the 2006 NCAA Tournament and the NIT last season. In addition, the Aztecs have a solid core returning and an exciting incoming class, both freshmen and newcomers, that will keep SDSU competitive this season and seasons ahead.

On March 26, 1999, San Diego State announced its arrival on the basketball scene in the form of a news conference to introduce its new coach, Steve Fisher. Fresh from a stint with the Sacramento Kings and with three appearances in the Final Four and a national championship in his pocket, he rolled up his sleeves and went to work. And work was needed. It looked to be a daunting challenge and yet the man with one of the highest winning percentages in NCAA Tournament history had no reservations.

No head-coaching career, at any level, started quicker than that of Steve Fisher. Six games into his head-coaching career he was undefeated and sporting a national championship ring. And the success didn't stop with the national title.

Fisher's eight-plus seasons at Michigan produced a 184-82 (.692) record, nine postseason tournament berths and three trips to the NCAA championship game, including the magical run to the 1989 national title.

Under Fisher, the Wolverines also claimed an NIT championship, won at least 20 games four times and finished among the top three in the powerful Big Ten Conference five times. In 1995, Michigan set a league record by holding opponents to just 39.4 percent shooting from the floor.

Fisher and Co., raised the bar even higher in the postseason. His seven NCAA Tournament teams at Michigan combined for a 20-6 record, ranking him fourth among active coaches and ninth in NCAA history with a winning percentage of .769 in the national bracket. Only 13 coaches have taken more teams to the Final Four, including just five that are still active. He is one of three coaches to take three squads to the Final Four in the first five years of a head-coaching career, and one of just six coaches to lead a team to the championship of the NIT as well as the NCAA.

His accomplishments may be even greater at San Diego State. In 2001-02 he led the Aztecs to the postseason for the first time since 1985 and for just the fourth time ever. The 21 wins were second most for the school as a Division I program and the most since 1985. The fact that those numbers came after just three seasons signifies what is one of the great recent turnarounds in college basketball.

He followed that up with a third consecutive season with a .500 or better record in 2002-03 and led SDSU back to the postseason for the second consecutive season for only the second time in the school's Division I history. In addition, SDSU claimed its first Division I postseason victory with a win in the NIT.

Game 3

San Diego State 89
Fresno State 72

Nov. 11, 2007 ♦ Fresno, Calif.
Save Mart Center ♦ Att.: 9,845

FRESNO, Calif. - San Diego State used a swarming defense and had six players score in double figures as the Aztecs defeated Fresno State in the championship game of the World Vision Classic.

Ryan Amoroso scored a team- and Aztec career-high 19 points and was followed by Lorenzo Wade's second straight game with 18 points.

Kelvin Davis had his best game at SDSU with 15 points on 6 of 8 shooting from the field in a reserve role, while Kyle Spain added 12. True freshmen Tim Shelton and D.J. Gay rounded out the double-figure scorers with 11 and 10 points, respectively. Shelton also had a game- and career-high eight rebounds.

The Aztecs' six double-figure scorers marked the first time they accomplished the feat since the 2006-07 season when they did it against Campbell.

San Diego State shot 55 percent and hit on nine of 15 three-pointers while limiting the Bulldogs to 47 percent from the floor.

SDSU led from the opening tip and jumped out to a 25-8 lead nine minutes into the game. The Bulldogs went on a run to come within 10 at 27-17 with 8:14 to play in half.

San Diego State then extended its lead to 38-21 and led 48-33 at halftime. Fresno State got no closer than 12 points in the second half.

With the win, the Aztecs snapped a 12-game losing streak to Fresno State in Fresno and delivered the Bulldogs' worst defeat in the history of their five-year old arena, Save Mart Center. It was also Fresno State's largest margin of defeat in a regular-season home game since Dec. 3, 1994.

The Aztecs' third in win in as many days marked the first time in the school's Division I history in which they started consecutive seasons at 3-0.

Game 4

San Diego State 76
UC San Diego 60

Nov. 17, 2007 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena ♦ Att.: 6,706

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State received a career game from freshman Billy White as the Aztecs defeated UC San Diego, 76-60, in their home opener at Cox Arena.

White, who earned his first career start, made his first nine baskets and finished the game connecting on 10-of-11 shots en route to a career-and game-best 20 points. The Las Vegas native also added a career-and game-high nine rebounds and a personal-best three blocked shots in 29 minutes.

The game was tight throughout the first half with the Tritons owning a slim 22-21 lead with 5:17 left in the half. But the Aztecs ended the first 20 minutes on a high note scoring 10 unanswered points and finishing the half on a 15-5 run to go into the locker room up 36-27.

At the beginning of the second half, UCSD cut the SDSU lead to three within the first 1:50, but the Tritons would not get any closer the rest of the way as the Aztecs cruised to their fourth straight double-digit win.

Joining White in the double-figure scoring column was Kelvin Davis, who tied his career high with 15 points, and Kyle Spain, who added 12.

Henry Patterson led UCSD with 16 points and nine rebounds, while Jordan Lawley contributed 13 points.

Game 5

San Diego State 69
San Diego 64

Nov. 19, 2007 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Jenny Craig Pavilion ♦ Att.: 5,100

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State traveled west to Jenny Craig Pavilion and handed San Diego a 69-64 defeat for the Aztecs' second win on the USD campus since 1975.

SDSU used hot shooting, especially from behind the arc, and a stifling pressure defense to down the Toreros for the second consecutive season and the sixth time in the last seven meetings.

Despite shooting 66.7 percent from the field, the Aztecs only held a four-point lead, 38-34, at halftime thanks to USD's Brandon Johnson's 16 first-half points.

Coming out of intermission, San Diego came out on fire, while SDSU struggled to get itself going. Five minutes into the half, the Aztecs' four-point lead turned into a four-point deficit, but San Diego State stayed close for the next few minutes before going on a 13-4 run to go ahead by nine with four minutes left in the game.

The Aztecs stretched their lead to 10 with 1:26 remaining in regulation before a combination of SDSU missed free throws and USD buckets cut the Aztecs' lead to four with 30 seconds left. Kyle Spain, however, put the game out of reach with his free throw and SDSU emerged with the win.

San Diego State, which had four players score in double figures, was led by Lorenzo Wade's 14 points and six assists. Spain added 11, while Ryan Amoroso and Kelvin Davis each had 10.

The Aztecs forced 25 Torero turnovers, 15 of which were SDSU steals and shot 60 percent from both the field and behind the arc.

Game 6

California 77
San Diego State 69

Nov. 24, 2007 ♦ Berkeley, Calif.
Haas Pavilion ♦ Att.: 7,590

BERKELEY, Calif. - San Diego State dropped its first game of the season with a 77-69 loss at California before 7,950 fans inside Haas Pavilion. The defeat prevented the Aztecs from starting 6-0 for the second straight year.

SDSU started off on the right foot by jumping out to an 8-0 lead, which eventually ballooned to 14 with 2:55 remaining in the first half. At the end of one period, SDSU found itself ahead 40-33.

The Aztecs were able to enjoy a lead for the entire first period due in large part to Kyle Spain and Lorenzo Wade's nine points and Ryan Amoroso's seven.

Coming out of halftime, San Diego State was able to withstand the Golden Bear attack as Cal cut the Aztecs' lead to one less than four minutes into the period.

After both sides traded baskets, SDSU used an 11-4 run spurred by a pair of three-pointers by Kelvin Davis and one by Wade to go up by nine with just under 14 minutes remaining.

Following a layup by Cal's Jerome Randle, the Golden Bears caught fire as they scored 10 additional unanswered points to cap a 12-0 run to take a four-point lead.

The Aztecs managed to tie the score at 66 and it stayed that way for almost four minutes until DeVon Hardin tipped in a miss which led to a 7-0 run and an 11-3 overall spurt to end the game.

Davis led all Aztecs with a career-high five three-point field goals and a personal-best 17 points.

Cox Arena ♦ Att.: 7,122

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State returned to Cox Arena for the just the second time all season and defeated Western Michigan, 72-61, to avenge one of its three non-conference losses from a year ago.

The victory was the Aztecs' ninth straight at home and put SDSU's record at 7-1, its second-best record in the last 23 seasons.

The first half was close as the two teams exchanged baskets throughout. The Broncos enjoyed a four-point lead on two occasions, while the Aztecs had a seven-point advantage with just over two minutes left in the half. But a 7-2 run by WMU cut into SDSU's lead and the Aztecs went into the half ahead, 32-30.

In the second half, Western Michigan methodical-ly went to work and eventually tied the game at 42 with 12:41 remaining in the game following a three by Derek Fracalossi. Then on consecutive possessions, Richie Williams made four free throws to spark a 10-0 run and gave the Aztecs a lead it would not relinquish.

Williams and Kyle Spain both came off the bench to score a game-high 16 points. Joining the duo in double-figure scoring column was Billy White (13), Lorenzo Wade (12) and Ryan Amoroso (11).

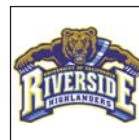

White, a freshman, also added a team-high eight rebounds and four assists.

Game 9

San Diego State 59
UC Riverside 46

Dec. 4, 2007 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena ♦ Att.: 4,946

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State matched its best start to a season as a Division I school and won its 10th straight game at Cox Arena with a 59-46 decision over UC Riverside.

The Aztecs' improved to 8-1 despite shooting just 34 percent from the field and being held to their lowest point total of the season. On the flipside, SDSU was superb on defense as it held the Highlanders to 46 total points, including 18 in the first half, and 38.3 percent from the field.

The contest was a struggle for both teams especially in the first half when San Diego State missed nine of its initial 12 shots, while UCR connected on just 7-of-24 from the floor. But as the half came to a close, the Aztecs found their rhythm and went on an 8-2 run to go ahead, 26-18, after one period.

In the second half SDSU slowly pulled away, despite posting a 30.8 field goal percentage. The difference in the game came at the free throw line where the Aztecs were 17-for-21 after intermission and 20-for-25 for the game. In comparison, UCR went to the line eight times, making just five in the second half, and was 7-for-11 overall.

San Diego State was led by a trio of juniors in Kelvin Davis, Lorenzo Wade and Richie Williams.

Davis made a career-high tying six field goals to lead the team in scoring with 16 points, while Wade added 14 points. Williams, who made his first start of the season, contributed 13 points, a game-high seven rebounds and a season-best five steals.

Sophomore Jon Pastorek provided a spark off the bench with a season-high nine points and career-high seven boards.

Game 10

Saint Mary's 69
San Diego State 64

Dec. 8, 2007 ♦ Anaheim, Calif.
Honda Center ♦ Att.: 17,440

ANAHEIM, Calif. - San Diego State was unable to overcome an 8-for-18 performance from the free-throw line as it fell to Saint Mary's, 69-64, at the 14th annual John R. Wooden Classic.

The Aztecs had four players score in double figures, enjoyed a five-point halftime lead, outrebounded the Gaels and were even in turnovers. However, SDSU could not hit free throws down the stretch, which enabled SMC to pull away in the final minutes.

In the first half, the game was close with the Gaels owning a five-point advantage in the early going until SDSU went on a 17-4 run over the course of nearly 11 minutes. By the time SMC's Tron Smith earned his way to the free-throw line with 2:57 to go in the half, the Aztecs were up by eight points.

Smith spurred a late Saint Mary's 7-4 run with his four consecutive free throws cutting SDSU's lead to five, 29-24, at halftime. Smith finished the game shooting 10-of-14 from the line, en route to a game-high 20 points, in a reserve role.

At the beginning of the second half, the Aztecs increased their lead to eight on a pair of jumpers by Lorenzo Wade and Richie Williams and a free throw by Williams. Unfortunately for SDSU, SMC responded by going on an 11-0 run to go up 37-34.

San Diego State was unfazed and fought back to make the game close as neither team led by more than three points and the score was tied on five different occasions.

Despite taking a five-point lead on a layup by Smith, SDSU trimmed the deficit to one with 3:22 left. From that point on, however, the Aztecs went 0-for-5 from the line to let the game slip away.

Kelvin Davis led SDSU in scoring for the second straight game with 19 points. Wade and Williams finished with 11 points, while Billy White added 10.

Dec. 17, 2007 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena ♦ Att.: 5,587

SAN DIEGO - Five players scored in double figures for the Aztecs, who also owned a plus-18 rebound margin and made 20 more free throws, to lead San Diego State to an 86-76 victory over Navy.

The Midshipmen gave the home team a run for its money with their precise shooting from beyond the arc. In the first half, seven of Navy's 15 field goals came from three-point distance handing SDSU its first halftime deficit, 37-35, of the season.

Coming out of the break, the Mids extended their lead to eight less than two minutes into the final period after Navy's Greg Sprink scored two of his game-high 26 points on a layup.

Both teams traded baskets with the Midshipmen responding to each SDSU bucket with a three-point-er more times than not, including at the 7:55 mark when Adam Teague connected from deep to tie the score at 61.

It was at that point the Aztecs took control of the game as they went on a 13-0 run to give SDSU its 100th win at Cox Arena.

Lorrenzo Wade led the team in scoring with 18 points and was followed by Billy White's 17 points and seven rebounds and Kelvin Davis' 15 points and six rebounds off the bench.

Kyle Spain had a nice all-around game as he scored 14 points, grabbed a game-high nine rebounds and added three assists, while Jon Pastorek recorded 10 points in his first career start. Richie Williams, who started the second half, came in and provided an instant spark as he had seven points and seven assists in just 17 minutes.

TUCSON, Ariz. - San Diego State owned an advantage on the boards, made three times as many free throws, but could not overcome a cold shooting performance en route to a 74-58 defeat at the hands of 19th-ranked Arizona at the Fiesta Bowl Classic before 14,608 fans at the McKale Center.

Kyle Spain led all scorers with 20 points behind the strength of seven field goals and a 5-of-6 performance from the free-throw line. The junior also had a team-high tying eight rebounds and a team-season best six offensive boards.

Frontline classmate, Ryan Amoroso, was the other Aztec to reach double figures as he scored 11 points (4-6 FT). Amoroso also collected eight rebounds, while freshman forward Billy White grabbed seven for a second straight game.

SDSU, which trailed by as many as 12 in the first half, cut the lead to six at halftime thanks to an 8-2 run by the Aztecs to close the first period.

Within the first five-plus minutes, SDSU cut the Arizona to four points on two different occasions before the Wildcats went on a 14-8 run with just over eight minutes to play to put the game away.

SDSU's leading scorer and junior forward Lorenzo Wade, finished with just seven points after getting into foul trouble early in the game. In the first half, Wade played just three minutes and finished the contest having played 18 minutes.

Arizona had four players in double figures and were led by Jordan Hill's 15 points and 10 rebounds. Freshman Jerryd Bayless shared team-high honors in scoring with 15 points as well.

Game 13

San Diego State 79
Sam Houston State 78 (ot)

Dec. 28, 2007 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena ♦ Att.: 5,315

SAN DIEGO - Freshman forward Billy White converted an offensive rebound with :00.2 seconds remaining in regulation to force overtime and had an offensive putback basket with 11 seconds left in overtime to lift San Diego State to a 79-78 victory over Sam Houston State at Cox Arena.

Neither team led by more than six points in a game that featured eight ties and 13 lead changes.

The Bearkats led by three points with 10 seconds to play in regulation when SDSU's Lorenzo Wade made one of two free throws to cut the deficit to two points. Following an Aztec foul and a pair of free-throw misses for SHSU, SDSU's Richie Williams drove the length of the floor and missed a layup in traffic that White rebounded to tie the game.

In overtime, the Aztecs went up by a point when Kyle Spain drained a three to give SDSU a 77-76 lead with 42 seconds left. John Gardiner put the Bearkats back up as he sank a baseline jumper with 30 seconds to play, setting the stage for White's heroics.

D.J. Gay, who had a career-high 12 points and four three-point field goals, missed a trey that White rebounded and followed with a basket with 11 seconds left that proved to be the game winner.

Wade had a career-high 23 points and added four steals, four assists and three rebounds.

But the night belonged to White, who became the first Aztec player in the 12 years of records of game-winning shots to tie a game to force overtime and provided the game-winning shot in the extra session. The freshman had 12 points and six rebounds, with 10 of his points and all six of his boards coming after intermission.

Game 14

San Diego State 64
TCU 57

Jan. 5, 2008 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena ♦ Att.: 6,080

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State held TCU to 13 first-half points and had four players score in double figures as the Aztecs defeated the Horned Frogs, 64-57, in the Mountain West Conference opener at Cox Arena.

The game started with each team trading baskets and was tied at five after a jumper by TCU's Kevin Langford. Following the basket, San Diego State used a suffocating defense to hold the Frogs without a point for 9 minutes, 51 seconds, until Langford hit one of two free throws. TCU's field goal drought, however, lasted 14:30 until Ryan Wall came off the bench to make a three-point basket.

At the end of the half, the Aztecs found themselves ahead, 32-13, with 20 of their points coming inside the paint. The Frogs' 13 points in the first half were the fewest allowed by an SDSU squad since it joined the MWC prior to the 1999-00 season.

The second half was just the opposite of the first after TCU opened the period with six straight points to cut the SDSU lead to 13. But the Aztecs countered by stretching their lead to 20 nearly six minutes into the half.

Later with under 10 minutes to play, San Diego State missed four straight field goals, while TCU went on a 13-2 run fueled by three treys by Horned Frog Henry Salter to trim the Aztec lead to eight with 4:33 to play.

Down the stretch as TCU was mounting a comeback, San Diego State went 13-for-14 from the free-throw line in the final 4:11 to keep the Frogs at bay.

Lorenzo Wade led the Aztecs with team highs of 18 points and eight rebounds, while Ryan Amoroso and Kelvin Davis had 12 and Kyle Spain scored 11.
