No. 2 seed in the double-elimination regional and will face third-seeded Fresno State (39-19) at 3 p.m. PT Friday. Regional host and No. 5 overall seed UCLA (40-11) and Saint Mary's (30-21) will meet in the 5:30 p.m. PT contest.

SDSU earned its sixth trip to the NCAA tournament in 10 seasons by being picked as an at-large selection on Sunday. It is the first time in program history that San Diego State has been selected to three consecutive NCAA tournaments. The Aztecs, who join league champion Brigham Young as participants from the six-team Mountain West Conference, enter the tournament as winners in 25 of their last 31 contests.

This year's national tournament features 64 teams, with four teams participating at 16 regional sites in a double-elimination tournament. The regional winners will advance to super regional competition for a best-of-three series from May 28-29 at eight campus sites. The remaining eight teams will advance to the Women's College World Series (WCWS), an eight-team, double-elimination tournament with the championship final being a best-of-three series. The WCWS will be conducted June 3-9 at the ASA Hall of Fame Stadium in Oklahoma City.

KATHY VAN WYK

HEAD COACH | 14TH SEASON | CS FULLERTON, 1983

- As a player, Van Wyk earned All-America honors and won the Broderick Award, given to the best player in the nation, in 1981 after going 35-1 with a 0.18 ERA. The victories remain a school single-season record and .972 winning percentage was an NCAA Division I record until 2001. Her phenomenal season included four no-hitters, six one-hitters, back-to-back perfect games, 26 shutouts and 270 strikeouts.
- Is the school's all-time winningest coach with 474 career victories, including a program-best 44 wins in 2008
- Earned her third Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year award in 2008 after leading the Aztecs to a 15-5 mark in league play. She also won the award in 2002 and 2006.
- Has led SDSU to six NCAA tournament appearances (2001, 2003, 2006, 2008, 2009 and 2010)
- Guided San Diego State to its fourth MWC regular season title in 2008 with a 15-5 record. The team's other championships came in 2002, 2003 and 2006.
- Coached her second All-American in 2008 in Christina Ross. Ross was named to the Easton Second Team, joining Erin Floros (2006 Easton-Bell Sports First Team, 2006 Louisville Slugger/NFCA Third Team) as the only selections in school history.
- Has coached 46 all-conference selections, seven MWC Pitchers of the Year, four MWC Freshmen of the Year and 87 conference player/pitcher of the week winners

SDSU/NCAA Notes

* The Aztecs are making their sixth trip to the NCAA tournament in 10 seasons and fourth over the past five (San Diego State also played in the NCAA tournament in 2001, 2003, 2006, 2008 and 2009).

* SDSU is 7-10 all-time at the NCAA's, with three of the 10 losses coming at the hands of UCLA. The Bruins are hosting San Diego State in the regional and the two teams could meet as early as Saturday.

* Seniors Monica Alnes, Sydney Fleming, Brittany Knudsen and Stefanie Quichocho-Rosario join undergraduate coach Erin Floros (2006-09) as the only Aztecs to play in three NCAA tournaments. In fact, Alnes and Fleming have each been apart of four NCAA teams if you include their redshirt seasons (2008 for Alnes, 2006 for Fleming).

* San Diego State has advanced to two NCAA regional finals (2001 and 2006) but has never made it to the NCAA Super Regionals.

* The Aztecs are 7-5 in the tournament when playing as a neutral team (0-5 as the road squad).

* Knudsen is currently batting a team-best .368 (7-for-19) over her career in NCAA tournament games, while Lindsey Marquez (.273, 3-for-11) is the only other SDSU player with an average above .200. Samantha Beasley is 1-1 with a 4.38 ERA over eight innings in the NCAA tournament, while Bailey Micetich is 0-1 with a 6.13 ERA in eight innings.

SDSU/NCAA History

2001 - SDSU earns the No. 4 seed of six teams in the NCAA Regional I in its first-ever bid to the tournament ... The Aztecs open with two victories, the first over third-seeded Cal State Northridge, 2-0, and the second against No. 5 Wisconsin, 1-0 ... SDSU suffers its first loss, a 3-1, decision to top-seeded and host UCLA before rallying for a 6-1 triumph over Wisconsin to advance to the regional final ... However, the Aztecs couldn't overcome a 14-hit day by UCLA in a 11-0, five-inning set-back.

2003 - The Aztecs start as the No. 5 seed of eight teams and fall to fourth-seeded Louisiana-Lafayette, 6-0 ... SDSU bounces back later in the day to down eighth-seeded Rider, 2-1 ... It would be the only win for the Aztecs, however, as No. 3 Oregon held on to a 4-1 victory in an elimination game.

2006 - SDSU earns the No. 2 seed of the four teams at the Los Angeles Regional ... The Aztecs fall, 1-0, to third-seeded Long Beach State in the opener ... San Diego State comes back the next day to down No. 4 Missouri State, 1-0, in an elimination contest ... The following day SDSU extracts revenge against Long Beach State with a 3-1 victory to move on to Sunday's final ... No.1 UCLA, however, would prove to be too much in a 7-0 win on its home field to capture the regional and advance to the NCAA Super Regionals.

2008 - Like 2006, the Aztecs earn the No. 2 seed of four at the Fresno Regional ... Like 2006, however, SDSU drops its first game by a 4-1 margin to eventual region champion California after scoring in the first inning to take a 1-0 lead ... The next day in sweltering heat, C Megan McDonald homers and LHP Christina Ross and RHP Samantha Beasley combine to sixth hit Sacramento State in a 7-1 San Diego State win ... However, the Aztecs could only muster four hits later on in the day against Fresno State LHP Morgan Melloh in a 2-0, 11-inning loss which ended SDSU's best season ever at 44-17.

2009 - San Diego State enters the Tempe Regional as the No. 4 seed of four teams ... The Aztecs fell to host and defending national champion Arizona State, 5-0 ... SDSU was 0-for-8 with runners in scoring position and 0-for-14 with runners on base ... Current players CF Brittany Knudsen and 1B Monica Alnes singled in the loss, while RHP Bailey Micetich took the loss ... San Diego State was eliminated the following day, surrendering a season-high five homers in a 8-2 loss to Cal State Fullerton ... Knudsen and LF Tonye McCorkle each had two hits, while RHP Samantha Beasley was tagged with the loss.

A Look at Fresno State

Fresno State extended its NCAA record to 29 consecutive appearances. The Bulldogs (39-19) have been to 12 of the 28 NCAA Women's College World Series and won the 1998 national championship. Fresno State earned an at-large bid to this year's tournament after finished second in the WAC with a 15-6 record.

Haley Gilleland leads the Bulldogs with a .370 average and 19 stolen bases. Caitlin Stiglich (.356, 35 RBI), Michelle Moses (.348, 17 HR, 53 RBI), Jody Badorine (.342) and Andrea Ortega (.331, 15 2B) are also batting over .300 for .291 hitting Fresno State. Moses (11-1, 1.88 ERA, 111.2 IP), Mackenzie Oakes (11-8, 2.94 ERA, 109.2 IP) and Morgan Melloh (17-10, 3.08 ERA, 154.1 IP) have combined for a 2.69 ERA.

The Bulldogs lead the all-time series between the two schools, 50-8. Earlier this season (March 6), the Aztecs exploded for 13 hits, while taking advantage of three Fresno State errors in a 8-0, run-rule victory in six innings. Justeen Maeva was 3-for-4 with two RBIs, while Felicia Reifschneider (three runs), Eva Sahatdjian and Jessica Camello each added two hits. Samantha Beasley allowed four hits and no walks, while striking out four over six innings for the win.

Scouting UCLA

UCLA comes into this year's tournament ranked fourth in the country by ESPN.com/USA Softball and fifth by USA Today/NFCA. The Bruins (40-11), who earned the tournament's No. 5 overall seed, are 11-time national champions.

UCLA ranks fourth in the country with a .330 batting average. Megan Langenfeld leads the way, batting .510 with 14 home runs, 47 RBIs and a .658 on-base percentage. GiOnna DiSalvatore (.399, 44 R), Andrea Harrison (.358, 14 HR, 41 RBI), Dani Yudin (.326), B.B. Bates (.325) and Julie Burney (.313, 15 HR, 43 RBI) are also above the .300 mark. The pitching staff, meanwhile, owns the 17th-best ERA in the country at 1.90. Alea Macon (8-1, 0.81 ERA, 60.2 IP), Langenfeld (10-1, 1.29 ERA, 87.0 IP) and Donna Kerr (17-7, 2.31 ERA, 139.2 IP) have done the bulk of pitching for the Bruins.

UCLA swept the Aztecs last season in a pair of close games and now have won all 48 meetings since program records have been kept (1980).

A Glance at Saint Mary's

Saint Mary's earned an automatic bid to the NCAA tournament after taking two of three games over Portland State in the Pacific Coast Softball Conference Championships Series last weekend.

The Gaels (30-21) are batting .259 as a team are led by Michelle Mounts, who is hitting .367 with 23 RBIs and 19 stolen bases. Kayla Gonzales his also hitting over .336 and leads the team with 15 sacrifice bunts, while Rebecca Sabatini (.297, 11 2B) and Jenna Smith (.288, 34 RBI) have combined for 13 home runs. Kimberly Green (7-4, 2.37 ERA, 76.2 IP) and Britany Linton (17-11, 2.46 ERA, 196.0 IP) have put up similar numbers for SMC, which as a team boasts a 3.04 ERA.

SDSU leads the all-time series, 15-3, including two wins in the last meetings in 2005. In that season, the Aztecs won, 8-2, and 9-1, in their first weekend of play.

SDSU's Samantha Beasley Named MWC Pitcher of the Year

San Diego State junior Samantha Beasley (San Diego/Steele Canyon HS) has been named the Mountain West Conference Pitcher of the Year, the league announced Monday. Beasley was joined on the all-MWC team by senior Brittany Knudsen (San Diego/Escondido HS) and sophomore Justeen Maevea (San Diego/Mira Mesa HS/Cal State Bakersfield).

A right-hander, Beasley became the seventh Aztec to win the award in the 11-year history of the league and the first since Christina Ross in 2008. In conference play, Beasley went 11-3 with a league-low 1.21 ERA in 92 2/3 innings. A 2009 all-league selection, she also topped the MWC in opposing batting average (.191), innings pitched, strikeouts (MWC single-season league record 128), batters struck out looking (26), wins, appearances (tied, 15), games started (14) and complete games (9).

Overall this season, Beasley is 28-9 with a 0.96 ERA over 226 1/3 innings. Beasley currently owns SDSU single-season records in strikeouts (345), strikeouts per seven innings (10.67), opposing batting average (.168), solo shutouts (since 1999) (11) and total shutouts (tied, 14).

Knudsen earned her third career all-conference honor by ranking among the top-10 in MWC games only in sacrifice bunts (tied-fourth, 3), slugging percentage (fifth, .689), hits (tied-fifth, 19), sacrifice flies (tied-fifth, 1), batting average (sixth, .422), total bases (seventh, 31), home runs (tied-eighth, 3), runs (tied-ninth, 11), RBIs (tied-ninth, 13), stolen bases (tied-ninth, 2), doubles (tied-10th, 3) and times hit by a pitch (tied-10th, 1). A centerfielder, Knudsen also had a perfect fielding percentage in 21 chances.

For the season, Knudsen is batting .396 with 34 runs and 27 RBIs. Her .396 average is tops in a season in school history, and she also ranks among the best in OPS percentage (fourth, .991), on-base percentage (fifth, .459) and slugging percentage (sixth, .532).

Maevea, who starred at Cal State Bakersfield last year, picked up her first MWC honor in her first try after batting .391 with 11 RBIs and a .500 slugging percentage in conference games. A designated player and first baseman, Maevea ranked fifth (tied) among the conference leaders in sacrifice flies (1), seventh (tied) in hits (18), eighth (tied) in batting average and 10th (tied) in times hit by a pitch (1). She was also perfect in four fielding chances.

Overall, Maevea is batting .372 with a team-high 36 RBIs and a .558 slugging percentage. Among the program single-season leaders, Maevea ranks first in slugging percentage, fourth in RBIs and sacrifice flies (tied, 3), sixth in OPS percentage (.983), seventh in batting average and eighth (tied) in home runs (4).

Brigham Young teammates Angeline Quiocho (MWC Player of the Year) and J.C. Clayton (MWC Freshman of the Year) captured the other two individual awards, while Cougar head coach Gordon Eakin was named the MWC Coach of the Year.

A Look at the Aztecs So Far

San Diego State is 33-14 heading into the NCAA tournament, but the record could be better. Consider the following:

* Five of SDSU's 14 losses have come against nationally ranked schools, including two against top-10 teams. The nationally ranked losses have come against No. 1/1 Washington, 5-0; No. 12/9 Oklahoma, 4-0; No. 24/19 Texas A&M, 7-6 (eight innings); No. 13/14 California, 5-4; and No. 22/20 Texas A&M, 4-0 (nine innings). In those five games, San Diego State has been outscored just, 25-10 (5.00-2.00). In addition, another loss came to Baylor, a team that had been ranked for most of the year.

* Three other losses came against teams receiving votes at the time of the game. The Aztecs lost to Baylor on Feb. 26, at Brigham Young on April 24 and at home against the Cougars on May 6.

* Of SDSU's 14 losses on the season, three have come against teams who pitched a member of the 2010 USA Softball Player of the Year Watch List. Those losses came against Washington (2009 USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year Danielle Lawrie), California (Valerie Arioto) and Baylor (Whitney Canion).

* In the Aztecs' 14 losses, only 49 of the team's 70 runs allowed have been earned. Take away all the unearned runs in the losses and SDSU is 36-10-1 (.777) instead of 33-14 (.702).

To Be the Best, You Have to Beat the Best

Once again head coach Kathy Van Wyk hasn't made it easy for this year's Aztecs.

This year, SDSU has already played eight nationally ranked teams, another 10 against teams who were receiving votes in either poll at the time of the game and 20 against teams who made the 2009 NCAA tournament.

Coming into the season, San Diego State was scheduled to play four games against teams with a 2009 RPI of 10 or better, seven with an RPI of 25 or better, 14 with an RPI of 40 or better, 19 with an RPI of 50 or better and 30 with an RPI of 100 or better.

With the fourth RPI of the season, which was released May 11, the Aztecs have played eight games against the top-25, 16 against the top-50 and 29 against the top-100.

More on the Competition

SDSU is 3-5 against the top-25 this year, 12-8 against teams who made the 2009 NCAA tournament and 9-8 against schools that made this year's tourney. What may be even more impressive is the level of pitchers the Aztecs have faced.

This season, San Diego State has gone up against three of the top-seven non-Aztec pitchers in the country, based on ERA (SDSU's Samantha Beasley is ranked second at 0.96), five of the top-16 and seven of the 38 non-San Diego State pitchers. So far this season, the Aztecs have faced Danielle Lawrie of Washington (No. 4, 0.99 ERA), Jen Mineau of Fordham (No. 6, 1.04 ERA), Sara Plourde of Massachusetts (No. 7, 1.17 ERA), Keilani Ricketts of Oklahoma (No. 14, 1.29 ERA), Valerie Arioto of California (No. 16, 1.31 ERA), Tara Oltman of Creighton (No. 33, 1.62 ERA) and Jolene Henderson of California (No. 38, 1.66 ERA). SDSU is 3-3 against these eight pitchers this season (Cal has two of the top-38 non-Aztec pitchers). Against those pitchers, San Diego State has batted .172 while forcing the seven to post a 1.39 ERA, up from their combined 1.28 mark on the season.

Aztecs Receiving Votes in Both National Polls

San Diego State is still receiving votes in both national polls.

In the USA Today/NFCA poll (released May 11), the Aztecs have one point, the same number it had the previous two polls. The one point is tied for the 32nd-most in the nation. Florida State ranks 25th with 34 votes. DePaul leads the receiving votes group with 20 points, followed by Fordham (10), Oregon State (6), Lipscomb (5), Brigham Young (2) and Louisiana-Lafayette (2). SDSU, Louisville, Nebraska and Hofstra have one point each.

In the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll (released May 18), San Diego State lost one point and now has three total. The three points are the 30th-most in the nation. Some of the teams in the bottom-half include No. 17 Illinois, No. 21 Oregon and No. 23 Massachusetts, which the Aztecs posted a combined 4-0 record against earlier this year. Notre Dame is 25th with 17 points, while Brigham Young (13), Fordham (13), DePaul (5), Louisville (4), SDSU (3), North Carolina (2), East Carolina (1) and Lipscomb (1) round out the receiving votes crew.

SDSU and the RPI

The San Diego State softball team is ranked 25th of 290 teams in the latest edition of the Ratings Percentage Index (RPI), released May 11 by the NCAA. So far this season, the Aztecs have been ranked No. 23 (April 14), No. 25 (April 28), No. 23 (May 4) and No. 25 (May 11).

The RPI is a mathematical calculation used to help determine each team's success, using a calculated strength of schedule and won-loss percentage. When determining the RPI for each team, 25 percent is based on winning percentage, 50 percent on opponents winning percentage and 25 percent on opponents' opponents' winning percentage. Although the NCAA publishes this basic formula, it does not release its bonus and penalty calculations that may sway the rankings a few spots either way.

According to the RPI, SDSU has three wins against the top-25, and is 8-8 versus the top-50, 18-11 against the top-100, 10-2 versus teams between 101 and 200, and 3-0 against schools higher than 201.

San Diego State's No. 25 rating is tops in the conference, followed by Brigham Young (No. 32), UNLV (No. 55), Colorado State (No. 92), Utah (No. 124) and New Mexico (No. 184).

Aztecs Among the National Leaders

The San Diego State softball team is climbing up the national leaders after going 26-6 in its last 32 games. Heading into the NCAA tournament, the Aztecs are ranked 14th in the nation in ERA (1.83), 45th in batting average (.295) and 37th in winning percentage (.702).

Individually, junior Samantha Beasley leads the way, ranking second in ERA (0.96), ninth in strikeouts (345), 11th in strikeouts per seven innings (10.67), T-14th in solo shutouts (11), T-16th in victories (28), 19th in hits allowed per seven innings (4.21) and walks allowed per seven innings (1.45). Sophomore Bailey Micetich is another pitcher ranked among the best (T-27th in saves (3)).

On the offensive side, senior Brittany Knudsen is ranked 58th in batting average (.396).

A Beast in the Circle

Junior Samantha Beasley (San Diego, Calif./Steele Canyon HS) is having a season to remember. The right-hander has pitched in 42 of the team's 47 contests (89.4 percent), going 28-9 with a 0.96 ERA. She has 345 strikeouts against 47 walks in 226 1/3 innings, while limiting her opponents to a .168 batting average. Beasley, who has been hurt by numerous early season Aztec errors as only 31 of the 46 runs she has allowed have been earned, also has 19 complete games, 11 solo shutouts, three combined shutouts and one save.

Beasley is ranked first in Aztec single-season history in strikeouts per seven innings (10.67), opponents average, solo shutouts (since 1999) and total shutouts (tied, 14).

Among the national leaders, Beasley ranks second in ERA, ninth in strikeouts, 11th in strikeouts per seven innings, tied for 14th in solo shutouts, tied for 16th in victories, 17th in hits allowed per seven innings

(4.21) and 39th in walks allowed per seven innings (1.45). Despite the national rankings, Beasley was not chosen as one of the 2010 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Top 25 Finalists.

Beasley is also climbing the career charts as well. Still a junior, Beasley is ranked first in strikeouts (642), strikeouts per seven innings (9.17) and total shutouts (30), second in win percentage (.676), opponents average (.192), solo shutouts (since 1999) (21) and saves (8), fourth in wins (50) and strikeout-to-walk ratio (4.90), fifth in hits allowed per seven innings (4.91) and WHIP (BB+H/IP) (0.97), seventh in appearances (102), eighth in game started (70), ninth in ERA (1.56) and innings pitched (490.0) and 10th in complete games (37).

This season, Beasley has 13 double-digit strikeout games, including two 13-strikeout, one-hit performances. Her best game, however, may have come in a nine-inning loss to No. 22/20 Texas A&M on March 21 when she struck out a school, Mountain West Conference and SDSU Softball Stadium record 21 batters. Nineteen of the 21 were swinging.

Beasley has also put together a few impressive streaks. The first was a career-long 39 scoreless inning streak that lasted from March 21-April 1. That beat an earlier best of 33 2/3 from Feb. 26-March 14. Beasley also had a career-long nine-game winning streak from March 22-April 23 and an eight-game winning streak from March 4-19. In fact, Beasley is 23-4 since Feb. 27 (172 innings).

Offensive Notes

SDSU is ranked 45th in the country in batting average (.295) ... After batting just .262 and averaging 3.81 runs per game a year ago through its first 47 games (31-16), the Aztec offense has improved dramatically in 2010 ... Through 47 games this season (33-14), SDSU is hitting .295 and averaging 4.21 runs per contest ... Other improvements through 47 games include at-bats (1,262 up from 1,236), runs (198 up from 179), hits (372 up from 324), doubles (53 up from 46), home runs (23 up from 12), RBIs (178 up from 155), total bases (510 up from 426), slugging percentage (.404 up from .345), times hit by a pitch (16 up from 10), on-base percentage (.352 up from .331), sacrifice flies (8 up from 5), sacrifice hits (46 up from 45) and stolen bases (57 up from 55) ... SDSU has 23 home runs over 47 games (0.49 per game), 11 more than it had all of last year over 53 games (0.23 per game) ... The team is collectively reaching base safely .449 (140-for-312) when leading off an inning ... SDSU is 30-1 when outhitting its opponents (2-8 when outhit, 1-5 when tied) ... The Aztecs are 27-4 when scoring first and 13-2 when scoring in the first inning ... San Diego State is 20-1 when scoring five or more runs, 31-6 when scoring just two runs or more and 29-1 when leading after five innings ... The Aztecs are hitting .320 when leading off an inning, .307 with runners in scoring position, .323 with the bases loaded and .250 in pinch-hit chances ... SDSU's best inning this season has been the sixth, where it is hitting .361 with 44 runs ... San Diego State is outscoring its opponent in every inning (1st-7th) except for extra inning situations, where it has been outscored, 9-6 ... Over the final three frames of regulation (5th-7th), the Aztecs are outscoring the opposition, 91-40 ... To show how San Diego State's speed creates chaos on the basepaths, SDSU has reached base 50 times because of an error while its opponents have reached 36 times ... LF Felicia Reifschneider has reached because of an error a team-best 14 times (next highest is six) ... If you include that to her on-base percentage, it improves from .359 to .451 ... Reifschneider has 35 runs in 47 games played ... She also leads SDSU with 12 game-winning scores ... Only CF Brittany Knudsen has started all 47 games this season ... In fact, Knudsen has started the last 199 games, dating back to her freshman season ... With the postseason still to be played, Knudsen is the all-time leader with 95 walks, 24 more than second-place Janna Kovensky's 71 set from 2001-04 ... With enough at-bats to qualify, Knudsen now has a school season best in batting average (.396) ... Knudsen leads the team with 18 multi-hit games ... 2B Jessica Camello is batting a team-high .400 against 2010 NCAA tournament teams and .375 against nationally ranked teams or schools receiving votes ... Camello is hitting a team-best .647 (11-for-17) when leading off an inning ... She's 2-for-3 with four RBIs with the bases loaded ... DP/1B Justeen Maeva leads SDSU with nine multi-RBI games ... Her 36 RBIs are the fourth-most in a season in school history ... Maeva's .558 slugging percentage is the highest mark in program single-season history ... P Kameron May is 10-for-27 (.370) with seven RBIs in pinch-hit opportunities ... C/DP Kristin May is the only Aztec to have a walkoff hit this season and she has done it twice ... Catchers Kristin May and Eva Sahatdjian have combined for 40 RBIs.

Defensive Notes

SDSU has a .962 fielding percentage, a mark which leads the MWC ... The percentage is impressive considering the Aztecs had 25 errors in their first 15 games (.942 percentage) ... Over the last 32 games, where San Diego State is 25-7, it has 24 errors for a .972 fielding percentage ... The .972 fielding percentage would rank in the top 25 in the country... Five of those 22 errors came in a sloppy, 2-1 win at Cal State Fullerton and another four came in a 6-1 win against Utah on May 7 ... Take those away and it would be a .983 mark over that span, which would be the best in the nation ... DP/1B Justeen Maeva has a perfect fielding percentage in 40 chances this season ... Other fielders who have yet to commit an error include C Sydney Fleming (21), RHP Bailey Micetich (21), RF/LF Patrice Jackson (15), RHP Brooke Petty (6), P Kameron May (2), 2B Taylor Sutton (2) and LF Stefanie Quichocho-Rosario (1).

Pitching Notes

The Aztecs are ranked 14th in the nation in ERA (1.83) ... The pitching staff leads the league in ERA, opponents batting average (.212), strikeouts (421), saves (4) and WHIP (1.00) ... The 421 strikeouts are a school record, easily surpassing last year's mark of 407 ... SDSU is averaging 8.95 strikeouts per game, while last year's team averaged 7.68 per game ... RHP Samantha Beasley has been streaking throughout the season ... She won her first five games this season, lost her next five, won her next eight, lost one, won nine straight, lost one, won two, lost one, won two, lost one and won her last two ... Beasley set a career high with 39 scoreless innings from March 21-April 11 ... Earlier she had a 33 1/3 scoreless streak from Feb. 26-March 14 ... Beasley set a school, MWC and SDSU Softball Stadium record with 21 strikeouts in a nine-inning loss to No. 22/20 Texas A&M on March 21 ... With enough innings to qualify, Beasley is ranked first in Aztec single-season history in strikeouts, strikeouts per seven innings (10.67), opponents average, solo shutouts (since 1999) and total shutouts (tied, 14) ... Among the national leaders, Beasley ranks second in ERA, ninth in strikeouts, 11th in strikeouts per seven innings, tied for 14th in solo shutouts, tied for 16th in victories, 17th in hits allowed per seven innings (4.21) and 39th in walks allowed per seven innings (1.45) ... RHP Bailey Micetich put together a streak of 11 scoreless innings from March 5-19 ... Micetich's three saves lead the MWC and rank in a tie for 27th in the nation ... RHP Kameron May has not allowed a run over her last 7 2/3 innings to lower her ERA to 0.68 on the season.

2010 NOTES

One of the quickest players on the entire West Coast ... Causes chaos on the basepaths ... A former pitcher in high school who still throws batting practice ... Despite mainly being used as a pinch-runner, ranks seventh all-time with 40 stolen bases and tied for ninth in runs (70) ... Her 37 games as a sub (pinch-runner) lead the team ... Is batting .333 (3-for-9) in limited opportunities ... Her four game-winning runs is third on the squad ... Scored in each of her first two pinch-running chances (Feb. 11 vs. Creighton and Feb. 12 vs. Kentucky) ... Came in as a pinch-runner against Southern Utah on Feb. 13 but stayed in to play in the outfield ... Had a productive game with a career-high two runs, a career-high tying two stolen bases, a single and her first-ever sacrifice bunt ... Scored the game-winner in the nightcap from first base when Kristin May hit a bases loaded double to give SDSU a 4-3 win over Oregon in eight innings ... Got an at-bat against Texas Tech on Feb. 14 ... Scored runs in three straight games from March 5-9 ... Grounded out in an at-bat vs. Buffalo on March 10 ... Was 1-for-1 with two runs scored off the bench at Long Beach State on March 30 ... Singled and scored in the win over San Diego on April 3 ... Scored the team's lone run in a 2-1 loss to Brigham Young on May 6 ... Earned her first start of the season on Senior Day on May 8, going 0-for-2 as the right-fielder ... The Aztecs are 12-2 when she scores at least one run.

1/44 - KAMERIN MAY

PITCHER | 5-6 | R/R | FRESHMAN | HS | CORONA, CALIF. | SANTIAGO HS

2010 NOTES

Comes to The Mesa as one of the most decorated recruits in program history ... Was a two-time EA Sports All-American at Santiago HS in Corona, Calif. ... Has appeared in 34 games with three starts to her credit ... Is one of two freshmen with a homer ... Has almost half of the team's pinch-hit opportunities (27-of-56) this season ... Is 10-for-27 (.370) in those chances with seven RBIs ... Had an RBI groundout in her first collegiate game against Creighton on Feb. 11 ... Singled in her next game against Purdue (Feb. 12) ... Had a breakout game in her first start against Southern Utah on Feb. 13, going 2-for-5 with a homer, a double, two runs and two RBI ... Made her pitching debut on Feb. 19 against Western Kentucky ... Got the win after allowing one run on four hits and four walks over four innings ... Had back-to-back pinch-hits against Cal State Northridge (Feb. 24) and No. 12/9 Oklahoma (Feb. 25) ... Pitched two perfect innings of relief in back-to-back games against Northern Illinois (March 9) and Buffalo (March 10) ... Had back-to-back pinch-hit RBI singles on March 12 against Bradley and March 14 versus No. 21/25 Illinois, and another pinch-hit single in her next game against Kansas (March 19) ... Had a pinch-hit single against New Mexico (April 9) and a pinch-hit RBI groundout vs. Colorado State two days later ... Drove in a run on a pinch-hit groundout in the Aztecs' 9-4 win at Brigham Young on April 23 ... Had a pinch-hit single the following day against the Cougars ... Had back-to-back game-winning pinch-hits against UNLV on May 1-2 ... Doubled in the first run on May 1 and singled in the first score the following day ... SDSU is 8-0 when she drives in a run.

2010 NOTES

Has already made a splash at the national level after being talked about in a Graham Hays article on ESPN.com written in February ... Has shown the ability to hit in clutch situations with her two walkoff hits ... Nobody else on the team has one ... Also has four game-winning RBIs ... Her four home runs are tied for first on the team ... Had a hit in her first five games she played this year ... Began her career in style, hitting a walkoff, two-run homer in the bottom of the seventh inning to lift SDSU past Creighton, 5-3, on Feb. 11 ... It was the third time in the last five seasons that an Aztec freshmen has debuted with a homer (Erin Floros - 2006, Brittany Knudsen - 2007) ... Singled and scored a run versus Kentucky on Feb. 12 and doubled later in the day against Purdue ... Had a two-out, bases loaded double in the bottom of the eighth inning to give the Aztecs a come-from-behind 4-3 victory over Oregon on Feb. 13 ... Had her first multi-hit game the following day against Texas Tech ... Had a pinch-hit sacrifice fly against Cal State Northridge on Feb. 24 ... Was 2-for-3 with three RBIs in the Aztecs' 5-0 win over Northern Illinois (March 9) ... Earned the start behind the late against Kansas on March 19 and had two hits and two RBIs ... Had a double in back-to-back games at Cal State Fullerton (March 31) and at home against San Diego (April 3) ... Struck for a two-run home run in SDSU's 3-2 loss at Utah on April 22 ... Had two hits, including a solo homer, and a walk the following day as San Diego State knocked off Brigham Young, 9-4, in Provo ... Had a career day against Utah on May 7, going 3-for-3 with a homer and four RBIs ... The three hits and four RBIs were each career highs ... Drove in a run with a single in one of SDSU's four hits in a 8-2 loss at Colorado State (May 13) ... SDSU is 6-0 when she doubles this year and 13-3 when she gets at least one hit.

3 - TAYLOR SUTTON

SECOND BASE | 5-5 | L/R | JUNIOR | SQ | GILROY, CALIF. | LIVE OAK HS

2010 NOTES

A consistent and patient hitter who makes the most of her opportunities ... Owens an impressive .435 on-base percentage over her career, which would rank first in school history had she enough at-bats to qualify ... Has been used mostly this season as a pinch runner ... Has reached base safely on each of her plate appearances this season ... Has appeared in 13 games this year with 11 coming as a pinch runner, one as a second baseman and one as a pinch hitter/second baseman ... Scored a run in the team's win over Purdue on Feb. 12 ... Singled and was hit by a pitch on Feb. 13 versus Southern Utah ... Also appeared as a pinch-runner versus Oregon (Feb. 13) and Texas Tech (Feb. 14) ... Came in as a pinch-runner against Western Kentucky on Feb. 19, then stayed in to play second base in the win ... Other appearances came against UTEP (March 4), Buffalo (March 10), Kansas (March 19), San Diego (April 2), UNLV (May 1), Utah (May 8) and both games at New Mexico (May 14-15) ... The Aztecs are 12-1 when she plays.

2010 NOTES

Creates havoc on the basepaths with her speed ... Fools the defense with her slap-hitting skills ... Shows good patience in the batter's box ... Made the move to outfield this year after mainly appearing as a designated player in 2009 ... Leads the team with 35 runs in 47 games after scoring 21 times all of last season ... Has 36.4 percent of the team's game-winning runs (12 of 33) ... Stole a base in an amazing six straight games (seven stolen bases total) from March 19-31 ... Had at least one run in 10 consecutive games from March 5-22 ... Had a career-long five game hit streak from April 11-24 where she batted .375 (6-for-16) ... Has started in left field in all 45 of her starts ... Has reached base due to error a team-high 14 times, an indicator of her speed ... The next highest on the team is six ... If you add those 14 times she reached on an error, her on-base percentage would be .451 ... Made the most of her season debut against Creighton on Feb. 11, recording a hit, a run, an RBI, a walk and a stolen base ... Had a career-high two walks and a stolen base versus Kentucky on Feb. 12 ... Recorded back-to-back multi-hit games against Oregon (Feb. 13) and Texas Tech (Feb. 14) ... Scored twice, with tied her career high, in the Duck game and had her third RBI of the season in the Red Raider contest ... Singled, walked and scored twice against UC Santa Barbara on Feb. 18 ... Only Aztec to reach base safely against No. 1/1 Washington and the 2009 College Softball Player of the Year Danielle Lawrie on Feb. 20 and she did it twice (leadoff infield single and a walk) ... Did not start against Cal State Northridge on Feb. 24 because of a hand injury, breaking her streak of 12 dating back to the 2009 campaign ... Still came into the game and went 1-for-2 with a walk and a run scored ... Scored six times in three games at the San Diego Classic from March 4-6 ... Also batted .500 (5-for-10) over the three wins ... Scored twice and drew a walk against Buffalo on March 10 ... Scored twice, stole a base and singled in the win over Kansas (March 19) ... Had her second three-hit game of the season and third of her career versus Oregon State on March 22 ... Had two hits, two runs, a walk and a stolen base at Long Beach State on March 30 ... Walked twice and had a season-high two stolen bases at Cal State Fullerton the following day ... Went 4-for-7 (.571) in a home-and-home series with San Diego on April 2-3 ... Tied a career high with two walks against Colorado State on April 10 ... Had two hits and stole a base at Utah (April 22) ... Walked and singled in each game at Brigham Young on April 23-24 ... Scored the team's game-winning and only run in a 1-0 victory over Utah on May 8 ... SDSU is 25-2 when she scores a run and 11-2 when she steals a base.

2010 NOTES

An All-American candidate ... Has morphed from a junkball pitcher to a strikeout machine ... Has six sisters, including Amanda, who lettered at San Diego State from 2004-2007 ... Has 22 career double-digit strikeout games, including 13 in 2010 ... Named the MWC Pitcher of the Year ... Has won the MWC Pitcher-of-the-Week award nine times, tied with former Aztec Christina Ross for the most in a season in league history ... Her 13 career selections are the most-ever by a MWC player ... Struck out a school, MWC and SDSU Softball Stadium record 21 batters in SDSU's 4-0, nine-inning loss to No. 22/20 Texas A&M on March 21 ... Ranks among the top-40 in the country in seven categories, including top-10 marks in ERA (2nd, 0.96) and strikeouts (9th) ... Went a career-long 39 innings without allowing a run from March 21-April 11 ... Had a scoreless streak of 33 2/3 innings from Feb. 26-March 14 ... Is 23-4 since Feb. 27 (172 innings) ... Her ERA has been over 1.00 following a game only twice this season (1.01 on Feb. 20 and 1.03 on Feb. 26) ... Is 7-6 with a 1.66 ERA against teams who made this year's NCAA tournament ... Has limited those opponents to a .204 average ... Started out 2010 with a bang, earning MWC Pitcher of the Week honors after a strong performance at the Kajikawa Classic in Tempe, Ariz. ... Went 4-0 with a 0.31 ERA over 22 1/3 innings, striking out 32 with five walks, while limiting her opponents to 10 hits (seven singles) and a .133 batting average ... All four of her victories came against teams who were receiving votes in one of the two national polls as she went 19 2/3 innings without giving up an earned run to start the season ... Earned the honor again the following week after going 2-2 with a 2.15 ERA over 13 innings at the Campbell/Cartier Classic ... Had 22 strikeouts to just one walk ... Tossed a one-hitter with a then season-high 13 strikeouts against UCSB on Feb. 18 ... Held defending national champion and top-ranked Washington scoreless for five innings but ended up allowing five runs (four earned) in the sixth ... Struck out seven Huskies in the game ... Struck out 10 against CS Northridge in just four innings of relief

C/O F | 5-6 | S/R | SOPHOMORE | TR | LANCASTER, CALIF. | QUARTZ HILL HS | ANTELOPE VALLEY COLLEGE

2010 NOTES

A versatile player who can play both behind the plate and in the outfield ... Is a speedster on the basepaths ... Is hitting an eye-popping .414 (12-for-29) in home games ... Her night game batting average is also remarkable at .452 (14-for-31) ... Is 5-for-14 (.357) this season when leading off an inning ... Scored a run in each of her first two appearances - Feb. 11 vs. Creighton and Feb. 12 against Kentucky ... Got the starting nod in right field against Western Kentucky on Feb. 19 and went 2-for-4 with a career-high two RBI and a double ... Started again versus Penn State on Feb. 20 and finished 1-for-1 with two walks, a stolen base and team's lone run of the game ... Had a SDSU career-high three hits with her first-ever triple against Cal State Northridge (Feb. 24) ... Singled, stole a base and scored a run versus Fordham on Feb. 25 ... Had a pair of hits and a run scored versus Buffalo (March 10) ... Had her first career homer (a two-run) in the Aztecs' 4-1 over Oregon State on March 22 ... Scored a run as a pinch runner against Utah on May 7 ... SDSU is 12-2 when she gets a hit.

2010 NOTES

Had a breakout season in 2009, starting most of the year at second base ... Parlayed that into an even better 2010 ... A streaky hitter ... Has earned 36 starts in 2010 over 40 games ... Is hitting a remarkable .370 this season after batting .257 (2008) and .248 (2009) in her first two seasons ... The mark ranks eighth in school single-season history, as is her .438 on-base percentage ... Has team highs in batting average against 2010 NCAA tournament teams (.400) and teams who were nationally ranked or receiving votes at the time of the game (.375) ... Also hitting a team-best .373 (19-for-51) with nine runs in the 20 day games she has played ... Hitting .429 (15-for-35) with runners in scoring position ... Is 11-for-17 (.647) with two walks when leading off an inning ... Hit .429 (9-for-21) over a career-long nine-game hitting streak from April 3-24 ... Scored a run in each of her first three games ... Started the team's opener against Creighton on Feb. 11 and scored a run ... Batted .750 (6-for-8) with three runs and two walks at the Cathedral City Classic ... Was 3-for-4 with an RBI and a run against No. 24/19 Texas A&M on Feb. 26 ... Finished 2-for-2 with two runs and two walks versus No. 13/14 California on Feb. 27 ... Was 2-for-2 against No. 22/21 Fresno State (March 6) ... Singled and drove in a run in back-to-back games versus Northern Illinois (March 9) and Buffalo (March 10) ... Had a season-high two RBIs against Bradley on March 12 ... Followed that with a 2-for-3 game with a run scored against No. 21/25 Illinois on March 14 ... Hit .636 (7-for-11) over a five-game hitting streak from March 6-14 ... Doubled and drove in two runs against Kansas (March 19) ... Went 2-for-2 with a walk, a run, an RBI and a stolen base in the win vs. Oregon State (March 22) ... Had her sixth multi-hit game with a stolen base at Cal State Fullerton on March 31 ... Had a huge day at the plate on April 10 against Colorado State, going 2-for-2 with two runs, an RBI, a walk and a stolen base ... Had an RBI single and was hit by a pitch against UNLV on April 17 ... Scored twice, and had a single, walk, stolen base and a sac hit at Brigham Young on April 23 ... Doubled against UNLV on May 2 ... Went 2-for-3 with a double and two runs scored in the Aztecs' 6-1 win over Utah on May 7 ... Scored a run in three straight games on the road from May 13-15 and a stolen base the past two (May 14-15) ... Had two hits, an RBI, a run and a stolen base against the Lobos on May 15 ... SDSU is 21-6 when she gets a hit.

2010 NOTES

Had a phenomenal first season on The Mesa, setting school freshman records in winning percentage (.731), total shutouts (since 1983) (11) and strikeouts (180) ... A power pitcher who can get the groundout if needed ... Struggled a bit out of the gate with a 2-3 record, but then went 11 innings without allowing a run from March 5-19 ... Is now 2-5 with a 3.63 ERA over 73 1/3 innings ... Has 64 strikeouts to 13 walks ... Her three saves lead the MWC and rank in a tie for 27th in the nation ... Best game might have come against Southern Utah on Feb. 13 when she allowed one hit (home run) and a run over five innings of relief, while striking out eight against no walks to get the victory ... Came up big against Oregon on March 5, retiring the final 13 batters in SDSU's 5-2 win ... Tossed a perfect three innings of relief with four strikeouts to pick up her first career save against Bradley on March 12 ... Got the save by getting one out in her next game versus No. 25/rv Massachusetts on March 18 ... Earned the save after tossing 2 2/3 innings of scoreless relief against Harvard on March 20 ... Tossed a scoreless inning of relief with one strikeout (and one hit allowed) against Utah on May 7.

17/18 - BROOKE PETTY

PITCHER | 5-5 | R/R | JUNIOR | 1L | SAN DIEGO, CALIF. | VISTA HS

2010 NOTES

A power pitcher ... Hard-throwing righthander ... Did not play last season ... Despite having two 2009 all-MWC performers and the MWC Pitcher of the Year on the roster, it was Petty who drew the opening day start against Creighton on Feb. 11 ... Making her first start since 2008, she surrendered three runs (one earned) on two hits and two hit batters over three innings, while striking out three without a walk ... Also started against Southern Utah on Feb. 13 but was chased out of the game after allowing three hits and three runs over two innings of work ... After not playing for eight straight games, she earned the start against Fordham on Feb. 25 ... Scattered one run on five hits and two walks over 4 1/3 innings to pick up her first win of the season ... Also had four strikeouts ... Earned the start against Harvard on Feb. 20 and struck out one without allowing a hit over two innings ... The Aztecs are 4-0 when she starts.

2010 NOTES

Redshirted last season after improving tremendously in the field from her freshman season to her second year ... Formed one of the most lethal infields on the entire West Coast in 2008 with shortstop Jen Wisneski ... Will look to swing the bat like her freshman campaign in 2007 ... Has started 13 games in 26 appearances this season ... Starts have all come at second base ... Had her first hit of the season against Oregon, breaking an 0-for-10 start ... After starting the season 1-for-12, she went 4-for-4 with a stolen base against Western Kentucky on Feb. 19 ... The four hits were a career high ... Had an RBI triple that led to SDSU's only run against Penn State on Feb. 20 ... Had a hit in back-to-back games versus Northern Illinois (March 9) and Buffalo (March 10) ... Had a pinch-hit single and then scored the game-winning run in the Aztecs' 3-0 win over UNLV on May 1 ... Had a pinch-hit RBI double at New Mexico on May 14.

2010 NOTES

Has been counted on to play more third base this season after mainly being used as a pinch-hitter and the team's top designated player a year ago ... Has earned the starting job at third base after often coming into the game late earlier this season to shore up the infield with her improving defense ... Has 23 starts this season, all at third base ... Has played in each of the last 30 games for SDSU, starting 18 of the last 19, where the Aztecs are 24-6 ... Had a good game against Southern Utah where she was 2-for-4 with two RBI, a run and her first career stolen base ... Stole another base against Western Kentucky on Feb. 19 ... Got two plate appearances against No. 24/19 Texas A&M on Feb. 26, but did not get a hit ... Singled at Long Beach State on March 30, breaking an 0-for-18 drought dating back to Feb. 13 ... Had an RBI single against UNLV on April 17 ... Singed and scored at Brigham Young on April 23 ... Singled in her only plate appearance the next day against the Cougars ... Had an RBI single, her third straight game with a hit, and a walk against UNLV on May 1 ... Had a single versus Utah on May 7 ... Is 6-for-14 (.429) with three RBIs over a career-long four-game hitting streak that started on May 7 ... Was 2-for-4 with a solo homer at New Mexico on May 14 ... It was her first career home run ... Had a two-run homer the following day and a single against the Lobos ... Aztecs are 17-6 when she starts.

2010 NOTES

Named a 2010 all-Mountain West Conference selection ... Transfer from Cal State Bakersfield who has started all 43 games she has played and each of the past 43 for San Diego State ... Against opponents SDSU played last season at CSUB, she hit .435 (27-for-62) over 20 games with 17 RBI, eight runs, five doubles and two home runs ... Overall, she hit .352, tying for the team lead in home runs (4) and RBI (31) ... Has tremendous power and is a true cleanup hitter, something the Aztecs missed last season ... With enough at-bats to qualify (100), Maeva ranks first in Aztec single-season history slugging percentage (.558), fourth in RBIs (36), tied for fourth in sacrifice flies (3), sixth in OPS percentage (.983), seventh in batting average (.372) and tied for eighth in home runs (4) ... To show her importance to the team, is batting .402 (37-for-92) with 31 RBIs in the 29 games she has played in that SDSU won ... In comparison, she is hitting .297 (11-for-37) with five RBIs in the Aztecs' 13 losses ... Leads the squad with six game-winning RBIs and nine multi-RBI games ... Is hitting a team-high .458 (11-for-24) with five RBIs in May (eight games) ... Went 11-for-21 (.524) over a season-long seven-game hitting streak from May 1-14 ... Missed the first four games of the season, but had at least one hit in her next four, going 5-for-12 with six RBIs ... Made her debut against Oregon on Feb. 13 and went 1-for-3 with an RBI and a walk ... Had a three-run homer and a walk against UC Santa Barbara on Feb. 18 ... Singled twice, drove in two runs and drew a walk the following day versus Western Kentucky ... Singled and drew two walks against Cal State Northridge on Feb. 24 ... Had her first three-hit game at SDSU vs. Fordham on Feb. 25, going 3-for-3 with a homer and all three RBIs in the Aztecs' 3-1 win ... Hit another solo home run and had a walk versus No. 24/19 Texas A&M on Feb. 16 ... Went 6-for-10 (.600) at the San Diego Classic I, including a three-hit game with two doubles and two RBIs against No. 22/21 Fresno State on March 6 ... Had another three-hit game against Buffalo with two RBIs on March 10 ... Was 2-for-4 with four RBIs and a triple against Kansas on March 19 ... Doubled, tripled and drove in both SDSU runs in a 3-2 loss at San Diego on April 2 ... Had a double and a sacrifice fly the following day in her only two plate appearances vs. the Toreros ... Went 2-for-3 with an RBI and a run scored against Colorado State on April 11 ... Was 2-for-4 with a home run and two RBIs at UNLV on April 17 ...

2010 NOTES

A fantastic athlete who has shored up the infield with her seemingly unlimited range and strong arm ... Has saved many hits and runs for SDSU with her "Sportscenter" plays ... Showed a great deal of toughness, starting every game last season despite playing with a torn rotator cuff ... Always goes 100 percent ... Hitting .316 (24-for-76) in SDSU wins ... Has four home runs over her last 70 at-bats after recording just one over her first 319 career at-bats ... Saw her 112-game start streak come to an end on Feb. 13 when she sat out against Southern Utah ... Is tied for the team lead with four home runs ... Batted .500 (9-for-18) with five runs over her season-long seven-game hitting streak from March 6-20 ... Had a RBI double versus Kentucky on Feb. 12 ... Was 2-for-4 and two RBI in SDSU's victory over Purdue in the nightcap ... Recorded hits in back-to-back games against Fordham (Feb. 25) and Baylor (Feb. 26) ... Had a hit and an RBI against No. 22/21 Fresno State on March 6 ... Hit .500 (4-for-8) with a 1.000 slugging percentage during the week of March 9-14 ... Had her second career homer on a 2-for-3 night versus Buffalo on March 10 ... Had two hits and a run scored versus Kansas on March 19 ... Tripled and scored against Oregon State on March 22 ... Homered for SDSU's first run in a 2-1 win at Cal State Fullerton on March 31 ... Went 2-for-3 with two runs against New Mexico on April 9 ... Had a homer in back-to-back games versus Colorado State on April 10-11 ... Singled, scored a run and drew her first walk of the season in an SDSU win at UNLV (April 17) ... Had a single, a run and a walk in San Diego State's 9-4 win at Brigham Young on April 23 ... Had an RBI single and a sacrifice bunt in a win over UNLV on May 1 ... Aztecs are 20-2 when she gets a hit, 8-0 when she drives in a run and 13-2 when she scores a run.

Aztecs nearly sweep Kajikawa Classic in AZ

By Dan Perez | The Daily Aztec
Feb. 15, 2010 (Kr. May, Van Wyk)

After two extra-inning games and one walk-off home run, the San Diego State softball team is 5-1 this season. SDSU kicked its season off at the Kajikawa Classic in Tempe, Ariz. last weekend and outperformed five of the six teams to leave with the best overall record.

"The weekend overall was a truly successful one," head coach Kathy Van Wyk said. "We played five games with so much heart, so much energy and I was really proud of everyone. This was a really good start to the season."

The Aztecs collected victories against Creighton, Kentucky, Purdue, Southern Utah and Oregon. SDSU made things exciting right off the bat, with its first game of the season going right down to the wire.

The Aztecs opened up the classic with a game against the Creighton Bluejays that was settled with the bat of freshman catcher Kristin May. She connected in the bottom of the seventh inning and knocked the ball out of the park for a two-run walk-off home run with a final score of 5-3.

"Kristin (May) was a really pleasant surprise for us this weekend," Van Wyk said. "She really stepped up for us in the clutch and was one of the big reasons that our bats carried us a long way. It was nice to consistently put up runs."

The next day of the tournament included a 4-0 shutout against the Kentucky Wildcats and the first of two extra-inning games for SDSU. The Aztecs fought back twice against the Purdue Boilermakers to force extras. When finally in the 10th inning, SDSU produced the game-winning run, making the score 7-6.

"Coming back multiple times and playing every game to the finish was a really good sight to see," Van Wyk said. "Us coming back and not giving up is a really good show of heart and our energy was a good level."

The next extra-innings game would follow the Aztecs' 9-4 win against Southern Utah. SDSU went to seven innings against the Oregon Ducks and May was the hero once again, hitting a two-out double to give the Aztecs the win.

In the final game of the tournament, SDSU didn't come out with enough energy and dropped its first game of the season to Texas Tech.

"The last game was disappointing but it always feels like that with a loss," Van Wyk said. "We just need to analyze what went wrong and make sure to come out with more energy next time."

Overall, the Aztecs played well-balanced games for most of the weekend, mixing hitting with solid defense and relying on perfect pitching.

"I love the attitude this team has come out with," Van Wyk said. "And we need to keep it that way. We showed heart and endurance, and it's only been the first week of the season."

Feb. 18, 2010 (Beasley, Kr. May, Van Wyk)

As San Diego State coach Kathy Van Wyk strolled into the night after her team's season-opening win against Creighton, a fan stopped her to offer that, at least in his mind, she looked a decade younger this February.

Agassi-esque as backhanded compliments go, it still had a ring of truth to it as the weekend progressed.

San Diego State won its first five games at the Kajikawa Classic, missing out on a perfect start only after dropping Sunday's finale to Texas Tech in what was the team's sixth game in less than 72 hours. The Aztecs scored 29 runs in their five wins, including at least four runs in each game. That might not be cause for comment for a lineup like Arizona, but it's news for the Aztecs, who didn't score four or more runs in five consecutive games at any point last season.

Pitching and defense aren't at issue for a team that overcame that anemic offense to win the Mountain West and advance to the NCAA tournament last spring. Returnee Samantha Beasley looked particularly sharp over the weekend, striking out 32 and walking five in 22 1/3 innings.

But the Kajikawa also showcased a lineup that looked at least competitive at the plate.

In 53 games last season, the Aztecs hit a total of 12 home runs, nine by players who aren't on the roster this season. But when freshman Kristin May drove the first pitch from Creighton ace Tara Oltman over the fence for a walk-off two-run homer Thursday, the first walk-off home run Van Wyk could remember by a freshman in her first game, optimism reigned.

"She swings the bat aggressively," Van Wyk said of May. "She's not afraid to just go in there and get her hacks. And that's one of the things we're really trying to work on with the whole team. We can play defense and pitch with anybody in the country, but we've got to improve our hitting. And she's one of the main reasons that we feel like we've done that this year."

May's home run was one of three for the Aztecs in Tempe, all hit by newcomers, including Kristin's twin sister Kameran. Both sisters were recruited by programs with World Series pedigrees, a place San Diego State has yet to venture despite four conference titles under Van Wyk's guidance. And infusing a lineup with a lot of returning talent, albeit not a lot of returning run production, with new talent creates the potential for a trickle-up effect on the returnees.

"That's definitely the hope," Van Wyk said. "That's one of the reasons we love having [Kristin May] there because I hope that they learn from her that first pitch is going to be one of the best pitches you see 90 percent of the time. So just be aggressive and go after it, just swing aggressively all the time."

Senior leader makes impact on and off field

By Dan Perez | The Daily Aztec
Feb. 18, 2010 (Alnes, Fleming, Wisneski, Van Wyk)

For the past five years the San Diego State softball team has had one constant definition of leadership: Monica Alnes.

The redshirt senior captain first baseman has been the leader for SDSU in some fashion for her entire collegiate career. She's developed an example that every other player tries to emulate, on and off the field.

"Monica (Alnes) is one of the few," head coach Kathy Van Wyk said. "She is a born leader and has been in that facet since she arrived to play for us starting as a freshman team captain. She's been here for five years and we've appreciated every moment of it. She's never been afraid to speak up and speak her mind, be it at practices, games or off the field. But the most impressive part is that she truly practices what she preaches."

Alnes' impact has been felt since the beginning of her career with the Aztecs. Coming out of high school, Alnes was primarily a pitcher and outfielder, never really playing a permanent infield position. But she won over the SDSU coaching staff with her play and earned the starting spot at first base for the 2006 season.

"Right away I knew we had something special with Monica," Van Wyk said. "I recruited her as a pitcher and instead of settling for a bench spot, she dedicated herself and really impressed us. It was a no brainer to put her at first base and she really made us look smart."

As a freshman, Alnes finished the 2006 season second in slugging percentage (.557), second in on base percentage (1.004) and fourth in batting average (.379). Her performance led to a spot on the All-Mountain West Conference Team, MWC All-Tournament Team and Academic All-MWC.

"She's done so much and has been graceful through all of it," redshirt senior catcher Sydney Fleming said. "All the accolades and awards she's received since the beginning she has deserved fully, but she doesn't harp on any of that. Her real passion is to make a difference on the world and be the best person possible."

Alnes does not simply excel on the field and at the plate. She's made her mark in the classroom and community as well. She has held down a 3.48 GPA while double majoring in public administration and international security and conflict resolution. Her academic successes have earned her three Academic All-MWC accolades and strengthened her respect among her coaches and players.

"When the freshmen come and meet and play with Monica, some can get really intimidated because she has done so much in school and on the team," junior shortstop Jen Wisneski said. "But she never brags or acts like she deserves respect or anything. She just stays herself, befriends everybody and really holds everyone together."

Along with her outstanding academic example, Alnes is also known and recognized for her dedication to community service and volunteer work. Alnes has participated in Habitat for Humanity, serving the homeless Thanksgiving dinner and even rallying her teammates to help collect toiletries for incarcerated women.

"She has never pressured her teammates to help out or volunteer; it's something she has done totally on her own," Van Wyk said. "She is the ultimate example of humility and strives to give back more and more."

Outperforming herself in her second year on the field and in the community, Alnes was primed to roll into an outstanding third year. But Alnes missed the 2008 season, redshirting with a back injury, and her return to the game was in question.

"The back injury was a scary time for her but she never really let fear show," said Jolene Alnes, Monica's mother. "She just dedicated herself to rehabbing and getting healthy. She still attended practice and cheered her team on. There was no way an injury was going to keep Monica from being some sort of leader for that team."

Alnes nursed the back injury and returned to the field last year, and again as a team captain. Although statistically Alnes did not perform up to her previous season, the impact her leadership and intangibles made was more than enough.

"She doesn't know the word quit," Van Wyk said. "She battled through everything to get back and be able to perform on the field. Her motivation and work are unmatched and the season without her just wasn't the same, it didn't have same feel. We really missed her."

The part that the Aztecs may have missed the most is her ability to calm the mood during games and lead through humor.

"A lot of people don't know this, but when I go up to the mound to talk to the pitchers I'm not giving them advice, not talking about the game really. I just say something to make them laugh," Monica said. "Telling a joke or something really calms everybody down. And once the stress is gone it's just easier to play."

Through the past five years, Alnes has gained the roles of jokester, captain and most importantly, friend. Any one of her teammates will be the first to preach how much Alnes means to the team and how her impact is felt on a daily basis. They also know that the end of this season will mark the end of an era.

"I don't really think about this being my last year, mostly the younger girls remind me that this is my last year," Alnes said. "They ask, 'Aren't you scared about leaving?' and I just smile. There's no reason for me to think about leaving, I'm just going to give everything my all and enjoy every minute of it."

Home-field magic wears off on Saturday in Classic

By Dan Perez | The Daily Aztec

Feb. 22, 2010 (Beasley, Marquez, Van Wyk, Wolf)

Opening the season at home energizes players and seems to give them an extra step on their opponents. For the first two games of the Campbell / Cartier Classic, the San Diego State softball team was a prime example of that beneficial mind set.

SDSU (7-3) dominated in victories against UC Santa Barbara and Western Kentucky. Yet when the Aztecs reached the weekend, the home-field magic was nowhere to be found.

"We started real well and then fell off," head coach Kathy Van Wyk said. "We were very good at times and at others we were bad. It's the first part of the season and that is when it's OK for problems to arise because we can work on them."

Last Thursday, SDSU played its first home game of the season against the Gauchos and controlled the entire game, riding the outstanding arm of junior pitcher Samantha Beasley.

Beasley went the complete seven innings only giving up one hit, allowing the Aztecs to tally six runs and safely come away with the victory.

"Sam (Beasley) threw a terrific game and it was exactly what we wanted to kick off the tournament," Van Wyk said. "Our bats came alive and it's pretty easy to get a win when the other team only gets the bat on the ball once."

In the second game of the tournament against WKU, SDSU used the bat of red-shirt junior second baseman Lindsey Marquez to get a victory. Marquez had a career day, collecting four hits, and was at the forefront of the Aztecs' 7-2 offensive charge.

"It felt really good to get back out there," Marquez said. "I started to feel like my old self. It's hard taking a year off and missing out because of injury. But the more I play though the more I feel super comfortable on the field."

But in Saturday's doubleheader, SDSU struggled and could never find its rhythm.

The Aztecs dropped the first game to No. 1 Washington 5-0 and fell later to Penn State, 3-1.

"(That) we left so many runners on base was what really kills me," junior catcher Traci Wolf said. "We just need to probably put more effort in it and not swing for the meeting, but we didn't need girls swinging for the fences. We need small ball and we can execute."

SDSU finished the weekend 2-2 and left the Classic with an overall record of 7-3.

"We had lots of ups and downs," Van Wyk said. "But it's better to get them out now. We have time to work, time to improve and more time to simply get better."

Beasley tosses gem in a loss to CSUN

By Dan Perez | The Daily Aztec

Feb. 25, 2010 (Alnes, Beasley, Van Wyk)

In the misty air last night, Samantha Beasley's dominance continued, but it wasn't enough to capture a San Diego State softball victory against Cal State Northridge at the SDSU Softball Stadium. The junior pitcher entered the game in the top of the fifth inning for starting sophomore pitcher Bailey Micetich.

Beasley pitched four innings, allowed no earned runs and struck out 10 batters while only facing 16. Yet her effort wasn't enough, as SDSU (7-4) fell 5-4 in eight innings.

"It's just simply really disappointing," head coach Kathy Van Wyk said. "Our defense really let everyone down. It let us down early, but we battled back. Then when we really need a stop and for our defense to come through, we didn't get what we needed."

The Aztecs struck first blood with two doubles from freshmen designated player Tanya Holguin and junior catcher Eva Sahatdjian in the bottom of the second to give them the lead at 1-0.

"We had everything going early and we wanted to keep the momentum," senior captain third baseman Monica Alnes said. "We knew we could score and produce runs, we just hope we would get more than we got."

CSUN (2-9) responded in the top of the third inning when Jaci Carlsen hammered a two-out double with the bases loaded to give the Matadors a 3-1 lead.

Beasley entered the game for SDSU in the top of the fifth inning and struck out three, but she allowed another two-out double, which scored another run for CSUN.

"Sam (Beasley) has really been on a roll, she's been so amazing," Van Wyk said. "But we can't rely on her for everything. We need to be able to back her up with defense because there will be a couple times where she'll need us. She can't always bail us out."

The Aztecs found life again in the bottom of the fifth with the bases loaded. Senior center fielder Brittany Knudsen crushed a grounder up the middle scoring two runs. Freshman pinch hitter Kristin May then hit a ball just behind second base, allowing the runners to advance and the tying run to score.

"When Sam came in and took control we really felt like we got back the momentum we lost," Alnes said. "And after that big inning we wanted to keep them scoreless in the sixth and bring home the win."

Pitching prevailed in the latter half of the game, forcing the teams into extra innings, and in the top of the eighth SDSU struggled to convert on a pop-up foul ball. The missed pop-up led to the Matadors loading the bases and then scoring the go-ahead run.

In the bottom of the eighth with a base runner at third for the Aztecs, sophomore pinch hitter Felicia Reifschneider knocked a chopper back to the pitcher. The play forced the third base runner, junior right fielder Traci Wolf, into a rundown. Wolf was tagged out and Reifschneider was caught rounding second base and tagged out as well.

"You never want to lose that way; it's frustrating and painful," Van Wyk said. "(It) was the right call it was just bad luck. Having to rely on luck is never the best strategy."

Ranked foes too much for Aztecs

By Dan Perez | The Daily Aztec
March 1, 2010 (Van Wyk)

One more hit, one more out or one more strike and the story of the Cathedral City Classic would have been very different for the San Diego State softball team.

SDSU (8-8) battled a gauntlet of ranked opponents such as Oklahoma, Texas A&M and California, but couldn't hold on long enough for a victory in any of those contests, going 1-4 in the tournament.

"We had our ups and downs all over the place this weekend," head coach Kathy Van Wyk said. "We learned a lot, we felt a lot of pain in losing and we just kept fighting. That's the one thing we did all tournament, was continue to fight."

The Aztecs began the difficult weekend against the No. 12 Sooners and struggled to find their offense in the contest. They managed to get only one hit in the game that stayed scoreless for five and a half innings. With two outs in the bottom of the sixth, a SDSU fielding error extended the inning, and allowed Oklahoma to take advantage by scoring four runs and eventually win with a score of 4-0.

"We were right there for almost all of the Oklahoma game against a nationally recognized pitcher," Van Wyk said. "But the problem was that we were almost there for the whole game."

The Aztecs' only win of the classic would come against Fordham University at 3-1. Following the victory against the Rams, SDSU was routed by Baylor, 11-0.

"To lose so big after our win really took a lot out of us mentally," Van Wyk said. "All the momentum we had going for us vanished and the rest of the classic was an uphill battle."

The second game of the double-header pitted the Aztecs against the No. 24 Aggies. The game turned into an offensive showdown as it entered extra innings and eventually, the international tiebreaker rule. Texas A&M would convert but SDSU left its runner on base and dropped the contest 7-6.

After the heartbreaking loss, the Aztecs set their sights on trying to steal a victory to close out the classic against the No. 13 Golden Bears. SDSU found itself down entering the sixth inning, needing to overcome a four-run deficit.

The Aztecs gave Cal their best shot, but would come up just short, scoring three runs and losing 5-4.

"The message from this weekend is we never gave up," Van Wyk said. "We battled in every single contest and when they didn't end up the way we wanted, we moved on and fought the next opponent. Where we go from here is improving and knowing that one different bounce of the ball and we can beat those teams."

Aztecs look to avoid falling below .500

By Dan Perez | The Daily Aztec
March 4, 2010 (Van Wyk)

The San Diego State softball team has a statement game on its hands today. SDSU (8-8) is slated to take on UTEP at 7 p.m. at the SDSU Softball Stadium.

The game isn't important because of the opponent, though. The game marks the first time since the first game this season when the Aztecs have the chance to drop below .500.

"We've been so close in our games," head coach Kathy Van Wyk said. "We just haven't had luck on our side and that has made a difference. We just need one thing to go our way and we'll get off this slide."

SDSU is coming off a weekend at the Cathedral City Classic where it dropped games to No. 12 Oklahoma, Baylor, No. 24 Texas A&M and No. 13 California, and in the last two games the Aztecs only came up one run short in each.

In its last six games, SDSU has lost five of them and is looking to get off on the right foot at the San Diego Classic.

"We are keeping our heads up and looking past our last few games," Van Wyk said. "There is no reason to harp on close games, we just are going to learn and practice to fix the mistakes we made in them."

The game against the Miners kicks off a gauntlet of home games for the Aztecs as they are scheduled to play seven games in six days, including games against No. 22 Fresno State and No. 5 UCLA.

"We have lots of tough competition coming up and all the experience we got from keeping up with the tough, ranked competition will help," Van Wyk said. "We just need to take it one game at a time and know we can win any game."

Pitcher-catcher bond is all in the family for SDSU

By Dan Perez | The Daily Aztec
March 11, 2010 (Ka. May, Kr. May, Van Wyk)

A pitcher-catcher combination is one of the most important relationships in softball. The two have to be comfortable and absolutely trusting: the pitcher trusts the catcher to block balls, the catcher knows how the pitches may move and what the pitcher likes to be successful.

The San Diego State softball team has a new pairing that came with all of the above.

SDSU (12-8) has two freshmen recruits, a pitcher and a catcher who are also twin sisters.

"My sister and I have played all of our lives; there has never been a softball game where she hasn't been on my team," catcher Kristin May said. "We've been together forever and we know the ins and outs of each others' games."

Kristin May, along with her sister, pitcher Kamerin May, have already made their impact on the Aztecs. Kristin May has collected two clutch hits, one a walk-off and another a go ahead hit in the season so far.

"Kristin (May) has been the biggest surprise of the season so far," head coach Kathy Van Wyk said. "She has really responded on the offensive end, stepped up, made some key hits for us, and she has really earned her spot and respect of what she is doing."

The May sisters have played softball since they were 5 years old, and since then Kamerin May has always been the pitcher while Kristin May is catcher for her sister. By playing together for so long, the two have developed and adapted to what a normal pitching-catching combo represents.

"She can really just read my mind," Kamerin May said. "She has never really led me astray, she gives me the right pitches, so she knows how the ball may move, and I know wherever I throw it she'll have my back."

Before Kamerin May signed her letter of intent to attend SDSU, she was pursued by many recruiters.

"Lots and lots of schools and recruiters flock to Southern California because this is really the hub for any softball talent," Van Wyk said. "But I'm glad we got her and her sister. I know it may have had something to do with them wanting to stay close to home or coming back for each other, and I feel that all of their potential will really transcend."

The twins will be needed as the Aztecs are set to play five games during the weekend in Columbia, Mo. starting Friday.

"We have so much to offer this and we feel like we can add even more," Kristin May said. "We have the sister bond and the twin bond and we have that over anyone else we play."

Beasley's 21 strikeouts not enough for win

By Dan Perez | The Daily Aztec
March 23, 2010 (Beasley, Van Wyk)

In the last two years, San Diego State has seen two pitchers throw 20-plus strikeouts in a game.

The first came on an April day in 2008, when former SDSU baseball pitcher Stephen Strasburg set an Aztec and Mountain West Conference record with 23 strikeouts in a single game.

On Sunday, junior SDSU softball pitcher Samantha Beasley battled through nine innings, putting on a performance worthy of Strasburg's, and tallied 21 strikeouts, an Aztec, MWC and SDSU Softball Stadium record.

Both SDSU pitchers went nine innings in their performances. They both threw more than 125 pitches (Strasburg 128, Beasley 137) and both set multiple records. Where their performances differ is in the outcome. Strasburg recorded a win with his effort, while Beasley was forced to settle for an extra-innings loss.

"Sam (Beasley) was simply amazing beyond words today," head coach Kathy Van Wyk said. "The only way to believe that kind of performance can happen is if you actually see it first hand. There is no way anyone could have pitched a better game."

No. 22 / 20 Texas A&M pitcher Rebecca Arbino, who received the win, was almost as impressive as Beasley, giving up only five hits and one walk through nine innings.

"It was an intense pitchers duel, classic softball showdown," Van Wyk said. "Neither girl was going to give up anything easy and they left every ounce of effort on the mound. But with any game as close as this, someone has to lose. This time it was us."

The Aztecs' offense struggled to come through when it needed it most. In two instances, SDSU (18-9) had two runners on base and could not convert on the opportunities. The first opportunity came in the bottom of the sixth as the Aztecs had runners on first and second with only one out but could not advance the runners any farther. The next best chance SDSU had to score was in the bottom of the eighth with runners on first and second, but the Aggies' second baseman reached out and barely caught senior captain first baseman Monica Alnes' bloop-er.

"It's unbelievably disappointing to have Sam (Beasley) throw such an amazing game and not be able to give her a single run for support," Van Wyk said. "She could only dominate so long until they got to her. We can't let efforts like that end up not meaning anything."

The loss ended the Aztec's 10-game winning streak and Beasley's eight-game winning streak.

"One loss in extra innings in the midst of how well we have been playing isn't going to kill our momentum or our confidence," Van Wyk said. "We were right there in that game against a great team for nine innings. We've grown a lot and with Sam (Beasley) pitching outstandingly, I have no doubt we'll bounce back."

Aztecs start new streak

By Dan Perez | The Daily Aztec
March 24, 2010 (Alnes, Beasley, Micetich, Van Wyk, Wolf)

The San Diego State softball team's heartbreak from its nine inning loss to No. 22 / 20 Texas A&M barely lasted a day. It left the park from Traci Wolf's bat.

SDSU (19-9) bounced back after snapping its 10-game winning streak, by beating Oregon State 4-1 on Monday night. The win was sparked by the junior right fielder's two-run home run in the top of the second.

"It felt so good," Wolf said. "It was surreal. It was the first pitch of the at bat and there wasn't much to think about. I just took a good hack at it and next thing I knew the ball was going out."

The home run was Wolf's first as an Aztec, and it set the tone for the rest of the game for the offense.

"Traci (Wolf) gave us a great start," head coach Kathy Van Wyk said. "It was much needed to start it off in the beginning after failing to score at all the day before. We rode that momentum for the whole game."

Sophomore pitcher Bailey Micetich started the game for SDSU and was flawless through two and a quarter innings, recording two strikeouts. The Beavers got to Micetich shortly after, as she gave up two hits and allowed OSU's only run of the game.

"We made mental errors on in the third inning; it was the only time in the game where we really let down," Van Wyk said. "Monica (Alnes) was making a good aggressive play to third, which is what we want. But it just ended sloppy and it wasn't Bailey's (Micetich) fault."

After the Beavers cut the Aztecs' lead in half, junior pitcher Samantha Beasley entered the game and continued where Micetich left off, holding OSU scoreless and only surrendering two more hits.

"Our pitching and offense were in sync tonight," Van Wyk said. "It was awesome to see them both working together and it was promising. And once again Sam (Beasley) exercised her dominance."

SDSU would add two more insurance runs to build its lead against the Beavers. In the fifth, junior shortstop Jen Wisneski scored after her triple on a one-out single from junior second baseman Jessica Camello. Wisneski scored again in the seventh as Camello came home after senior center fielder Brittany Knudsen laid down a sacrifice bunt.

"We really fired on all cylinders tonight," Van Wyk said. "This was a good win against a good PAC-10 team and it shows we have the maturity and capability to rebound from a tough loss. It speaks volumes about our team."

Beasley's gem helps SDSU bounce back

By Dan Perez | The Daily Aztec
April 5, 2010 (Beasley, Van Wyk)

Samantha Beasley put the San Diego State softball team back on track with her right arm on Saturday.

The junior pitcher struck out half the batters she faced (12 of 24), only allowed two hits and shut the University of San Diego out at the SDSU Softball Stadium.

Beasley's outstanding performance gave SDSU (22-10) the 4-0 victory and its 48th win against the Toreros in 51 tries.

"This outcome is a lot better than (Friday)," head coach Kathy Van Wyk said. "We played with a lot more intensity; we took advantage of almost every opportunity we had on the field today and we didn't play like we expected to win."

The Aztecs' win came a day after USD beat SDSU on Friday at the USD Softball Complex. The Toreros used two unearned runs, an early lead and offensive woes from the Aztecs to capitalize and come away with a 3-2 victory.

"On Friday, we came out flat and did not have a fire beneath us," Van Wyk said. "That was the one game we wish we could have back and we were going to make sure that we didn't let a game slip away like that again."

Saturday was a different story. Beasley easily handled USD, allowing only two base runners for the entire game. The defense backed Beasley as only one error was made, but it did not hurt SDSU. The offense was also brought back to life. The Aztecs had eight hits, including five infield singles and twice as many runs as the day before.

"It was a complete turnaround and it was really great for us to get it in such a short time," Van Wyk said. "Coming down right before conference play we need to go in as hot as possible and we need every win as possible. Being able to grab the victory right before we face conference opponents is a great confidence booster for us."

Beasley, who improved to 17-6, had her 16th career double-digit strikeout game with seven this season. Blanking the Toreros also helped Beasley improve her already outstanding ERA to a slim 0.79.

"Another difference in this game compared to the loss is that we were up with Sam (Beasley) in the game," Van Wyk said. "Whenever we get a lead with her it seems that it's nearly automatic. The best feeling I can have with this team is having our defense and offense in sync and having Sam (Beasley) on the mound. Because I know she's going to do everything she can to never let go of a lead."

Coach may occupy senate seat

By Edward Lewis | The Daily Aztec
April 6, 2010 (Van Wyk)

Kathy Van Wyk knows there is a bit of an invisible boundary between San Diego State's athletics department and its academic department.

"There's always a gap between this side of campus and that side of campus," Van Wyk, SDSU's softball head coach, said.

Because of the San Diego State University Senate's recent actions, however, Van Wyk and other Aztec coaches moved one step closer to bridging the gap between athletes and professors.

At the SDSU Senate meeting on March 2, senators voted to approve revisions to the Senate Constitution. The Constitution and Bylaws Committee suggested adding, "four non-Management Personnel Plan staff senators elected from permanent non-MPP staff" to the constitution and also suggested coaches should receive one senator to represent the athletics department. At the meeting, most senators were pleased with the addition and voted to approve the revisions.

"They're still classified as faculty and they're not represented," Senator Bill Eadie said of coaches. "And for awhile, some of the coaches — you know, the coaches are busy with their own stuff and don't necessarily care — but coach Van Wyk has been here a long time and she does care about what's going on at the rest of the university and she wanted to run and we thought 'Gee, they're not represented and they do want to be represented, so we'll add a seat for them.'"

Eadie said the reason coaches weren't already on the senate was because there wasn't a spot for them.

"We've had to say 'We're sorry, we don't have any place for you to run because you can't run from one of the colleges — you're not in the colleges — you can't run from student services and you can't run as a part-time faculty because you're not part-time, you're full-time; so we don't have any place for you,'" Eadie said. "So we thought that was an important addition to make."

Van Wyk, who has been the SDSU softball head coach since 1997, initially applied for a seat on the senate last year when a spot opened. Because there wasn't a seat available for the athletics department, Van Wyk was turned down.

"I think the senate was surprised to find out that there wasn't a seat available for our division," Van Wyk said. "I'm not sure exactly where we fall in that or why, but it's nice that they've considered the fact that we deserve a position in there and our voice could be heard."

Because the revisions to the constitution passed at the meeting, Eadie said the new constitution will now need to be approved in a full faculty vote, which will happen this month. If the constitution passes then, it will go into effect and the next senate will elect a coach in May. Eadie did not want to speculate whether or not Van Wyk would be the representative, but the softball head coach said she was more than interested in filling the seat.

"I think we need to gain a better understanding of what they do and I think they could probably benefit from gaining a better understanding of what we do," Van Wyk said. "And I would love to help be the voice for the department and just learn from the professors over there because I know that there are so many over there who care greatly about what we do and just help bridge the gap and make sure that there's a good understanding."

Aside from bridging the gap, Van Wyk's main goal for joining the senate is to debunk some of the myths athletes have acquired throughout the years.

"There's so much of a belief that athletes don't meet the same levels as the other students," Van Wyk said. "Unfortunately, we're in the type of business where you're going to hear more of the negative things that happen than you are a lot of the positive things, so there are some people who believe that reflects all of the athletes. But the vast majority of athletes are out doing community service constantly and are out representing the school in a very, very good way."

Eadie said having coaches on the senate would give the body a new and insightful point of view.

"Having a coach on the senate can give us some perspective from people who are working with students in a different way than many of the faculty are working with," Eadie said. "And I think that's valuable."

SDSU starts MWC play with first place dreams

By Dan Perez | The Daily Aztec

April 8, 2010 (Beasley, Camello, Knudsen, Van Wyk)

Nothing less than first.

That is the mentality the San Diego State softball team has as it heads into Mountain West Conference play this season. SDSU (22-10) won the conference just two years ago and last year it finished second with a regional berth into the NCAA Tournament.

"It's interesting that finishing second can kind of be considered a down year," head coach Kathy Van Wyk said. "That shows how far our program has come, how far our standards have risen. We don't like anything less than first, and we want to keep going farther and farther each season."

Before conference play starts, the Aztecs are currently second behind BYU and want to jump out on a good roll to begin the MWC stretch.

"We are feeling really good heading into conference and we have a lot of confidence," Van Wyk said. "We've had a pretty successful non-conference schedule and we've got our work in that area done. Now it's time to ride that good feeling into conference."

A big reason for SDSU's confidence is its offense. The team has been a consistent surprise at the plate this season. The Aztecs have a combined .294 batting average despite facing six of the top 15 leaders in earned run average.

"We've had so many players step it up at the plate this season, it's been amazing," Van Wyk said. "Brittany Knudsen has been an outstanding force all season, and if you would have told me Jessica Camello would be batting .400, I would never have guessed it. But I'm pleasantly surprised."

But the largest reason why SDSU is expected to do so well in conference is pitcher Samantha Beasley. The junior ace is 17-6 with a 0.79 ERA through 133.2 innings, recording 217 strikeouts. Beasley has also thrown nine shutouts and one save, all while limiting her opponents to a .151 batting average.

"Sam (Beasley) alone just gives us so much confidence," Van Wyk said. "And with her leading our pitching and our team, we're not intimidated by anyone in our conference."

But even with the offense firing on all cylinders and Beasley being as dominant as she is, the Aztecs head into conference play where three other teams (BYU, UNLV, CSU) all have winning records above .600.

"Our conference is highly competitive and BYU and UNLV always give us a run for our money," Van Wyk said. "But we know that we can go so far this year. That we can win conference, head into regionals and hopefully move on and on and on until the College World Series."

Offense leads Aztecs in perfect weekend

By Dan Perez | The Daily Aztec

April 13, 2010 (Beasley, Wisneski, Van Wyk)

As junior shortstop Jen Wisneski entered the dugout after her solo home run to lead off the bottom of the sixth, she had a question for her coach.

"Was that one a strike?" Wisneski asked.

She had struck out looking the at-bat before and made sure she wouldn't do that again. She swung on the first pitch and sent it skyrocketing over the left field fence.

"I was upset with myself for striking out like that," Wisneski said. "I don't usually do that and I went into that at-bat with the mindset of making contact and taking good swings. And taking that first pitch deep was more than I expected to get."

The home run added another run on top of the San Diego State softball team's commanding 6-1 lead. Junior pitcher Samantha Beasley blanked the opposing Colorado State Rams in the top of the sixth, ending the game with her 12th strikeout.

"The entire weekend felt really good," Wisneski said. "The wins came from a lot of hard work and seeing the ball well. We've done that with a positive attitude knowing we can win any game."

SDSU (25-10) opened Mountain West Conference play last weekend at the SDSU Softball Stadium against New Mexico and CSU. The Aztecs went 3-0, with a run differential of 21-3.

"This weekend we came out swinging and we got nice leads," head coach Kathy Van Wyk said. "With those big leads, they let Sam (Beasley) feel a lot easier on the mound but it also spells out that we can have real productive games against conference opponents."

With the dominating performance at the plate throughout the weekend, SDSU raised its team batting average to .299 — which, if the season ended today, the Aztecs would earn an all-time season record for team batting average.

"The batting average shows a lot for where we have come as a team," Van Wyk said. "Our pitching has always been here, our defense has always been here and we usually played small ball. That was us, but now we have become a force with a bat and it gives us a great edge and opportunity to control a lot of our conference games."

The other dominant force on Sunday was found on the mound. Beasley allowed only one run on four hits and silenced the Rams at the plate with a 0.74 earned run average.

"Sam (Beasley) has been what she has all season: our ace," Van Wyk said. "Every time she's on the field we have a chance to win and I feel we're never the underdog with her."

SDSU looks to keep owning UNLV

By Dan Perez | The Daily Aztec
April 14, 2010 (Beasley, Jackson, Van Wyk)

On May 6, 2007, the San Diego State softball team dropped a nail-biter to UNLV, 1-0.

Since that game, the two teams have competed seven times. SDSU (25-10, 3-0 in Mountain West Conference) not only won all seven games, but has completely dominated the Rebels. Be it at home or away, the Aztecs have outscored UNLV 35-3 throughout the past two years.

But with the recent streak against the Rebels, SDSU is not focusing on the past.

"We have to keep the offense going or we aren't going to be able to beat anyone," head coach Kathy Van Wyk said. "I don't care what we've done against UNLV before now, this is all about Saturday. If we don't come out focused, then we shouldn't expect to win."

The Aztecs look to keep their offense hot at 1 p.m. on Saturday in Las Vegas. The team is coming off one of its best scoring weekends of the season, heading into Saturday with the highest team overall batting average at .299.

Last weekend, SDSU competed against two conference opponents, New Mexico and Colorado State, outscoring them both 21-3.

"We came out looking to be on top of everything," freshman outfielder Patrice Jackson said. "If we are looking to continue to win in conference and really win in Vegas, we need to come out just like we did against those teams (UNM and CSU)."

A big part of the undefeated record so far in MNC play has been junior pitcher Samantha Beasley. Beasley's weekend moved her up into the No. 2 spot for earned run average leaders at an astounding 0.74. She also pushed her strike-out total to 249 in 150.2 innings, pulling her closer to the Aztecs single season strikeout record. All the stats earned Beasley her sixth MNC Pitcher of the Week award this year.

"Sam (Beasley) is really going to be who we are looking at to give us an immediate boost out there in Vegas this weekend," Van Wyk said. "But with her performance, the defense can sometimes be lulled to sleep and not expect the ball to be played, so we are making sure our defense is still going to have her back."

The game against the Rebels will be the fourth game of the conference schedule for SDSU, which is tied for first place, and it wants to stay undefeated in MNC play.

"Saturday will be long a day — flying in Saturday morning and flying right back after the game," Van Wyk said. "So focus and preparation are going to the key facets to coming back home with a victory."

'Ugly' win in Las Vegas

By Dan Perez | The Daily Aztec
April 18, 2010 (Beasley, Maeva, Van Wyk)

"Ugly" is the only word to describe San Diego State's 4-0 win against UNLV on Saturday. SDSU (26-10, 4-0) left seven base runners stranded throughout the game and relied on defense and small ball to control the entire game against the Rebels.

"It was not a pretty game to watch," head coach Kathy Van Wyk said. "We left a lot of runners stranded, the offenses were not up to perfection and we did not play the best game possible. All the more reason to feel confident with a win."

The Aztecs drew blood in the first inning as sophomore left fielder Felicia Reifschneider singled to start the game. She then stole a base to get on second, took third base on a wild pitch, and sophomore designated player Justeen Maeva singled to bring Reifschneider home. SDSU would leave five runners stranded on the bases from the first until the top of the sixth, when Maeva hit a bomb deep over the center field fence to give the Aztecs a 2-0 lead.

"Justeen had an awesome day," Van Wyk said. "She was our source of offense today and brought it when we really needed it. She was consistent and her bat gave us a ton of confidence."

Senior Stefanie Quichocho-Rosario would replace redshirt senior team captain and first baseman Monica Alnes, who went two for three on the day, as a pinch runner scored on a two-out single up the middle by sophomore third baseman Ashley Rose.

"We manufactured almost all of our offense today and we didn't give up on anything," Van Wyk said. "We may not have been playing the way we expected, but that wasn't going to keep us from getting runs on the board and getting this win."

With her eighth solo shutout, junior pitcher Sam Beasley struck out 11, blanking one of the top hitting teams in the Mountain West Conference at .331. And as SDSU improved to 4-0 in conference play, so did Beasley.

"She has been our anchor all season and continued to give us exactly what we needed today," Van Wyk said. "She may not have had a typical Sam (Beasley) day but she still struck out 11 and shut out one of the best hitting teams in the conference. That just speaks to how dominant she has become."

Beasley's dominance is summed up by a 21-6 record, eight straight wins, second lowest earned run average in the nation and ranking in the top 20 in six additional categories.

"With Sam (Beasley) at the mound, we've moved into first in the conference and have really been on a roll," Van Wyk said. "And it's a great feeling to leave the ballpark knowing if we had an off day, yet still come away with a road victory; it's satisfying."

Camello hitting her stride in third San Diego spring

By Becky Radliff | The Californian
April 18, 2010 (Beasley, Camello)

In the spring of 2008, Jessica Camello was a freshman at San Diego State, learning the ins and outs of college softball, with the wide-eyes and just-learning-the-ropes mentality of a rookie.

Practices consumed hours and hours of the Temecula Valley grad's days. Classes, studying and team meetings encompassed the rest. And Camello was overwhelmed.

But as difficult as her freshman year was, Camello -- now a junior starting at second base for the Aztecs and leading the team at the plate with a .418 hitting percentage and a .487 on-base percentage -- says it was all worth it.

"Freshman year was really hard because there were a bunch of people fighting for spots," Camello said. "And it was very overwhelming because of all the stuff we had to do. We had so many practices every day, and meetings and class; but it's been a good thing. It really helped me prioritize everything."

When the next spring arrived and Camello, who'd come to San Diego State as a shortstop, got the opportunity to start at second base, after the Aztecs' starting second baseman went out with a shoulder injury, she was forced to make another big change.

"It wasn't my normal position and I'd never started in a college game, so I was really nervous," Camello said about her first collegiate start. "But I knew I had to prove myself."

And Camello did just that. She started all but two games, hit .248, had a .955 fielding percentage, and found a newfound love for playing second base.

"I actually ended up liking second base a lot better," Camello said. "And once I started seeing myself there, I got more comfortable, and I like it now -- better than shortstop."

With the confidence gained from a full year of experience, Camello entered this spring season with bigger goals for herself, but first she had to earn her position back.

"There were a few other girls who were battling for the spot, so I had to do well in practice to keep my spot," Camello said, though she added that the high intensity of team practices is what has helped her improve so much over the past two years.

"If you don't show the best you have," she said. "You're not going to play."

But Camello doesn't have to worry much about that anymore. Right now she's in the midst of the best season of her career, just as her team is rolling toward a hopeful Mountain West Conference crown. The Aztecs won their fifth straight at UNLV on Saturday and are now 4-0 in conference play and 26-10 overall.

"Last year we got second in conference, so this year we want to get first place," Camello said. "And we really want to get to Super Regionals, and hopefully the World Series."

Much of the Aztecs success can be attributed to the arm of pitcher Samantha Beasley whose 0.71 ERA currently ranks her at second in the nation.

"It's fun playing behind her," Camello said of Beasley. "I don't get much action when she's pitching, because usually she strikes everyone out."

In fact, Camello ascribes much of her success to her teammates, whom Camello calls her best friends and her favorite part of college softball.

"I've really gotten my swing down, and the girls have helped me out a lot," Camello said. "We all help each other. We're teammates, and I feel like we're improving everyday."

Beasley snubbed despite stellar play

By Dan Perez | The Daily Aztec
April 20, 2010 (Beasley, Van Wyk)

Twenty-one wins, 260 strikeouts in 157.3 innings, an opposing batting average of .156, only 31 walks and an astounding earned run average that is second to only one pitcher nationwide at 0.71 should speak for itself.

Yet despite all these career-best statistics, practically all of them highly ranked nationally, the San Diego State softball team's junior pitcher Samantha Beasley was snubbed from being a 2010 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Top 25 Finalist.

"Sam (Beasley) never really paid attention to any recognition," head coach Kathy Van Wyk said. "Her focus is always about her performance on the mound and how she can get better. The thing about Sam (Beasley) is that she is always working on getting better."

Beasley has seven statistical categories that rank in the top 20 nationwide and has continued to improve as the season progresses. Her dominance on the mound led her to remain undefeated in conference play at 4-0 for first-place SDSU (26-10, 4-0).

"Sam (Beasley) handled a well-hitting UNLV team," Van Wyk said. "They are out there hitting on the plus side of .330 and she really didn't pitch her best game, but she got the job done."

Beasley and the Aztecs will be taking their perfect record in the Mountain West Conference to Salt Lake City as they take on the Utes.

Utah is currently two games shy of .500 at 19-21 with a conference record of 2-3 but it is riding a three-game winning streak, having beat the University of New Mexico twice. The Utes are 3-0 at home and the game against SDSU will be the second of nine straight home games.

Beasley will be facing a Utah team that is only batting .276 on the season and plans to continue her outstanding performance, national recognition or not.

"We are going to try and ride our home wins and our road wins as we move further into conference," Van Wyk said. "We're playing well as a team, the defense is holding up, our bats are alive and we are pulling out ugly games. All of that is spelling out a successful season."

Aztecs split two-game series with Cougars

By Dan Perez | The Daily Aztec
April 25, 2010 (Beasley, Van Wyk)

It seemed as though there were two different San Diego State softball teams playing in Utah during the weekend — and each team earned a different outcome.

The first team on Friday came out aggressive and hungry while the second on Saturday struggled to finish innings and left eight runners on base.

"These two games in Utah were a good experience for us," head coach Kathy Van Wyk said. "We battled tough on the road, made a comeback to take a game and backed up our pitching as much as we could. In the second game we just learned that losing one aspect of our game can be the difference."

SDSU (27-12, 5-2 in Mountain West Conference play) controlled the entire game against Brigham Young on Friday, scoring nine straight runs. The Aztecs kept the Cougars out of the game through their offensive explosion and behind the right arm of junior pitcher Samantha Beasley. Beasley not only picked up her 22nd win, but also struck out 11 to set the single season strike record for SDSU at 277.

"To start out on Friday, Sam (Beasley) was a little shaky and gave up a few runs," Van Wyk said. "She gave up a few runs but then she settled in, got some needed strike outs and our offense came and gave her a big lead."

Another Aztec record was set in the game as senior center fielder Brittany Knudsen hit her school-record 35th double on her way to driving home five runs for SDSU.

In Saturday's game, the Aztecs gave up another four runs but the difference was that they struggled to put a single run on the scoreboard. SDSU was able to get five hits and eight runners on base throughout the game but failed to advance runners and get them across home plate.

"The bottom line on Saturday was that our offense wasn't present," Van Wyk said. "We made some base running mistakes that ran us out of some innings, failed to get clutch hits and give their pitcher credit because even though we had five hits only one of them was a solid hit."

Beasley's nine-game winning streak was snapped as she had a mediocre start compared to her standards as she gave up four earned runs, the majority coming from a three-run homer in the fourth inning.

"Sam (Beasley) gave us as much as she could over the weekend, and we could only take advantage in one game," Van Wyk said. "But anytime you can get a win at BYU that is a good game, and to know that with one or two more hits we could have gotten another win is a good feeling. We just need to build on the win and learn from the loss and we'll be ready next time."

SDSU takes on UNLV in pivotal two-game series

By Dan Perez | The Daily Aztec
April 29, 2010 (Knudsen, Van Wyk)

The San Diego State softball team has two games this weekend at home. Both are against UNLV, and both have serious Mountain West Conference implications.

SDSU (27-12, 5-2 in MWC play) will play host to the third-place Rebels on Saturday and Sunday for two important conference games, which could be the deciding factor in seeding for the MWC Tournament at the end of the season.

"We are getting down into the part of the season that every game means so much for our record and team," head coach Kathy Van Wyk said. "When the season ends, we want to know we made the most of every opportunity — that especially means winning all of our home games especially in conference."

The Aztecs are coming off a road trip in Utah last weekend, in which they dropped critical MWC games to BYU and Utah. SDSU did manage to pull one win during the weekend, though, beating the first-place Cougars in Provo, Utah.

"The road trip really showed us that we are only going to be as successful as our offense," Van Wyk said. "Our pitching and defense have been tested this season and have really stood their ground, but where we need the consistency and the performance is our offense."

This season, the Aztecs' offense has been as good as it's ever been during Van Wyk's tenure as head coach. As a team, SDSU is batting .301 and averaging more than three runs per game. Last Friday, senior outfielder Brittany Knudsen showed exactly what the Aztec offense is capable of, knocking in five runs in a 9-4 victory against the Cougars.

"I have just been a lot more confident at the plate," Knudsen said. "Me and the team simply have more confidence. We are seeing the ball way better and have seen almost any kind of pitch in practice and that helps us a lot because we're not seeing anything that we haven't before."

The loss on Saturday to BYU was the first time since March 21 that SDSU was held scoreless — a feat the Aztecs knows they cannot repeat.

"We are going to win or lose depending all on our offense," Van Wyk said. "We have so many different pitchers and I can even throw some different pitches, to the players so they can see almost every kind of pitch. But really our performance at the plate will hinge on patience."

National nightmare awakens SDSU pitcher

By Kevin Gemmill | The San Diego Union-Tribune
April 30, 2010 (Beasley, Van Wyk)

Ugh. Arizona State.

The mere mention of San Diego State's NCAA Tournament game last year makes pitcher Samantha Beasley cringe. Ask her about that 100-degree late afternoon game in Tempe and her eyes roll like cue balls.

Her performance, by any pitcher's estimate, was horrific. She entered the game in the fourth inning and didn't record an out. She walked two batters, hit another and threw 13 consecutive balls before she was pulled from the nationally televised game.

"I had my worries," said San Diego State coach Kathy Van Wyk. "I've seen pitchers that never wanted to pitch again because of the embarrassment. It can be crippling. I think that was a low point for Sam. One of her most embarrassing moments, to know you are on national television and you can't throw a strike. But she's a strong-willed young lady."

Recalled Beasley after practice this week: "I don't even know what happened. Maybe being on TV or coming in the middle of the inning or it being hyped. It was a really bad display of softball pitching. After that happened it was a reality check on how much I need to focus.

"One game isn't going to define who I am and how I pitch. ASU was a bad game. Everybody has bad games."

Consider 2010 her redemption. The junior right-hander enters the weekend with the third-lowest ERA (0.88) in the nation and she's already set the San Diego State season and career records for strikeouts. She also has the Aztecs (27-12, 5-2 Mountain West Conference) on the verge of a third consecutive postseason appearance. She's been honored as the conference Pitcher of the Week seven out of 10 weeks.

The difference between last year and this year is simplification. Van Wyk, a former national Player of the Year, knows a little something about pitching. In 1982 at Cal State Fullerton she posted a 35-1 record with a 0.18 ERA — still one of the best seasons for a pitcher in NCAA history. So when Van Wyk said Beasley needed a mental overhaul, the pitcher was happy to listen.

In the fall, Van Wyk put a neck brace on Beasley when she pitched in practice to stop her from dropping her head to one side. Then she took away two pitches — the screwball and the curve — and taught her a drop ball.

"When she was a freshman, I told her if she develops a drop ball, she's going to be the best pitcher we've ever had," Van Wyk said.

The result is 11.32 strikeouts per seven innings and a 22-7 record for Beasley, who is closing in on her coach's prediction. This year against Texas A&M, she struck out 21 in nine innings. She's 9-6 this season against teams ranked in the Top 25 or receiving votes.

"Last year I had a lot of doubt in my pitches," said Beasley, a Steele Canyon High graduate. "I was all over the place if I didn't hit my spots. This year I've gained confidence and focus in each individual pitch. I focus on where I need to hit my spot and have confidence in each pitch."

Her rise ball tops off at about 65 mph. Her drop ball settles in at about 60 mph. And, though she doesn't use it often, she can make hitters stumble with a 45 mph changeup. She's a thinking pitcher who calls her own game.

This year, Oklahoma coach Patty Gasso told Van Wyk that Beasley changed speeds better than any pitcher she'd ever seen. High praise from a coach with 15 straight NCAA appearances and a national championship.

Beasley's teammates also recognize the change from last season.

"This year, she has this game face. It's kind of scary," said Brittany Knudsen, the Aztecs' leading hitter with a .409 batting average. "It's crazy. When it's on, you can't talk to her during games. You can tell she's more focused."

Beasley will be on the mound this weekend when the Aztecs host UNLV on Saturday and Sunday at 1 p.m.

"A good pitcher has to relish the whole position and understand that in some ways the game is on your shoulders and in other ways it's out of your control," Van Wyk said. "She's always been a hard worker, but it wasn't until this year that she really embraced the role that comes with it."

Knudsen has few peers in Aztecs softball history

By Edward Lewis | North County Times

May 3, 2010 (Knudsen, Longfellow, Nuveman, Quichocho-Rosario, Van Wyk)

Shortly after Stacey Nuveman came to San Diego State as an assistant softball coach in August 2008, she had a meeting with head coach Kathy Van Wyk to review the team's personnel.

When the conversation turned to center fielder Brittany Knudsen, Van Wyk had just one thing to say: "This is the best outfielder we've ever had here at San Diego State."

Knudsen had recently finished her sophomore season.

Nuveman wasn't exactly surprised by such a bold comment from SDSU's 13th-year coach. She already knew of Knudsen's game.

"She had a big reputation," said Nuveman, a three-time U.S. Olympian.

Part of the lore surrounding Knudsen stemmed from a February game at San Diego State more than three years ago. Knudsen was an 18-year-old freshman at the time, playing in her first college game. The highly touted outfielder from Escondido High stepped to the plate for her first at-bat in the third inning just hoping to make contact.

Instead, she blasted a home run over the right-field fence that accounted for the only run of the game in San Diego State's 1-0 victory over a strong Oregon State team.

"I was a freshman just going in as a blank slate trying to do anything, like touch the ball ..." Knudsen said. "I wasn't expecting anything, and I guess it just happened. I guess I just made solid contact on a really good pitcher, and that was it.

"Even now, I feel like it's surreal. I am still like, 'Did that really happen?' But I guess it did set a tone for the rest of my career. That I really can be that great, amazing player, and it gave me confidence to be able to do that."

Since that home run, Knudsen -- now a senior -- has transformed into one of SDSU's all-time best softball players. Entering the last week of April, her .345 career batting average was good for second all-time at SDSU, and her on-base percentage of .434 was the best ever at SDSU. Her 94 career walks are by far the most in school history, and her 130 runs rank second.

Yet as good as she has been at the plate, she's even better in the outfield.

"It's like the outfield is her area; she takes it as her own," teammate Stephanie Quichocho-Rosario said. "When she's out there and the ball's hit, she wants to shoot you out. If Brittany gets the ball, she's going to fire it, and you're going to be shot out."

Mia Longfellow, an SDSU assistant coach, can remember one of the first times she saw Knudsen play. It was sometime last fall, and some of the players were taking batting practice while Knudsen roamed the outfield.

"Most of the balls, when you're throwing them right down the middle to our hitters, are getting hit," Longfellow said. "And she was just making plays left and right."

She dove to the right, got back up, and then dove to the left. She leaped for balls and she slid to knock some down. And when it was all over, Longfellow walked up to Knudsen and asked her a question: "Are you exhausted?"

Knudsen looked at her and said: "No. This is my favorite. I love it when they just start hitting balls to the outfield."

Longfellow took a deep breath and replied: "Wow. Yes. Exactly. That's how you're going to get better."

Knudsen has 48 putouts this season and has a fielding percentage of .963. She's also batting .400, which would be an Aztecs single-season record if the year ended today.

"She's been just the most solid, consistent performer over the last four years," Van Wyk said. "We knew coming in that we had a good one. And I've told her before that I don't offer full rides to outfielders very often, but she's earned every penny of it for the last four years."

The Aztecs (29-12) are in second place in the Mountain West Conference standings, and if Knudsen has her way, she'll leave SDSU the same way she came in.

"Freshman year, I was like, 'Oh, I have to make a statement,'" Knudsen said. "Senior year, I'm like, 'I have to leave something.'"

MWC title on the line Thursday at SDSU

By Dan Perez | The Daily Aztec
May 4, 2010 (Beasley, Van Wyk)

This Thursday, the Mountain West Conference title will be decided at the SDSU Softball Stadium.

The San Diego State softball team faces off against heated rival Brigham Young in the rubber game of the two teams' regular season series.

SDSU (29-12, 7-2 in MWC play) has played BYU twice this season, and each game has tested both competitors.

In the first game, the Aztecs were led to victory behind senior center fielder Brittany Knudsen's record-setting career doubles performance that included five RBIs. Junior pitcher Samantha Beasley struck out 11 Cougars to set the single season strikeout record for SDSU and closed the 9-4 win for the Aztecs.

"The first game we saw them, we did everything we wanted," head coach Kathy Van Wyk said. "We didn't want to give up four runs, but Sam (Beasley) was just what we needed on the mound and our offense came through to back her up."

The second game in Provo, Utah was a different story. Even though Beasley held BYU to only four runs for the second consecutive game, SDSU failed to get any runners across home plate and dropped the game at a final score of 4-0.

"They got to see how Sam (Beasley) was pitching and she didn't throw her best stuff," Van Wyk said. "She contained them as much as she could and pitched a solid game, but when our offense was nonexistent, there's going to be no way you can get a win in that situation."

Both teams will be looking for clues in the first two games about how to win the third one and come away with the best record in the MWC. Both the Cougars and the Aztecs have two losses in conference, so with the regular season coming to an end, this game is set to determine the first place team of the regular season.

"No lie, this is getting tight and there is no free room to worry about how the other teams are going," Van Wyk said. "Every game is bigger than the last, and they all have implications in the postseason and where we get placed. Not to mention the conference will probably be based on the outcome of this weekend."

But what SDSU has heading into the game against BYU is how quickly it rebounded from its loss in Provo. The Aztecs hosted two games against UNLV, shutting the Rebels out in both games and winning 3-0 in each. The two shutouts were especially good for Beasley to get some confidence back before she faces BYU one more time.

"I didn't have a good weekend against UNLV," Beasley said. "Even though they didn't get a run, they weren't easy outs; I didn't have my best stuff and they had all seen what I could throw. But the best part was knowing that a team could see me multiple times and know what pitches I like to throw, but they really never know what I am going to have for them next."

SDSU gears up for final games of regular season

By Dan Perez | The Daily Aztec
May 12, 2010 (Alnes, Van Wyk)

Thursday begins the three-day conclusion of the San Diego State softball team's regular season.

SDSU (31-13, 9-3 in Mountain West Conference play) begins its three-day road trip in Colorado against Colorado State, a team that the Aztecs have already defeated twice this season.

"We know the opponents we are about to face, and we know we can close them out with wins," head coach Kathy Van Wyk said. "Every game cannot be taken lightly. We need every game, and we can't stop playing with a sense of desperation."

SDSU is coming off a home weekend that included a loss to BYU, and two wins against the University of Utah.

"This weekend has really been a roller coaster," Van Wyk said. "We had a lot of emotions over the weekend, and it was nice to win the last two games, but we learned a lot from our loss and we need to go forward from it."

The Aztecs seemed to fall behind in contention for the MWC championship when they lost to BYU, but conference rival UNLV was able to overcome the Cougars and drop them to three losses for the season, tying them with SDSU in that sense.

"After our loss to BYU I texted some of my friends on UNLV," senior third baseman Monica Alnes said. "I told them they needed to handle their business and beat them."

If the Aztecs and BYU both finish their seasons undefeated, the Cougars would still win the MWC because they own the tie breaker and they won the series against SDSU two games to one.

"It was a disappointing loss, but what made it worse was the fact that we felt it was a game we lost by ourselves," Alnes said. "It's a game like that that hurts the most and we can't let us lose the games we need."

One issue for the Aztecs is the sudden disappearance of their offense. During the weekend, SDSU was only able to put up one run each in two of the three games it played.

"We need our offense to come up like it should," Van Wyk said. "We can't rely on Sam (Beasley) and we can't rely on the other teams' offense failing to show up. And it's this point in the season where we don't need a slump. We need production and we need it soon, or we won't make it long into the postseason."
