Reloaded And Ready To Contend

Despite losing dynamic scorers, SDSU has the experience and pedigree for another Mountain West Championship run.

by Michael Klitzing

The standard has certainly been set. For more than a decade, the San Diego State men's basketball team has proven itself to be a program that reloads rather than rebuilds. At the corner of Montezuma and 55th, transition years aren't a thing, and a little turnover is no excuse not to hang a banner or three.

A little not-so-distant history tells the tale:

Following the 2010-11 season, the Aztecs lost four starters — including a pair of career 1,000-point scorers: Chase Tapley and future Aztec Hall of Fame inductee D.J. Gay along with another future Aztec Hall of Fame inductee...a guy named Kawhi Leonard — off a 34-win squad that reached the Sweet 16 of the 2011 NCAA tournament and finished No. 6 in the nation. The encore was a 26-8 campaign, a No. 22 national ranking, another Mountain West regular-season title and a trip back to the Big Dance.

In 2014, the Aztecs second Sweet 16 appearance was followed by the departure of its floor general, Mountain West Player of the Year Xavier Thames. The following season saw 27 more wins, another Mountain West regular-season championship and a March Madness victory over St. John's.

It's a familiar setup that greets the 2021-2022 Aztecs.

Every fan and national pundit can tell you what San Diego State lost from a team that rocketed to a 53-7 record over the past two seasons, won back-to-back Mountain West crowns and made itself a mainstay in both the Associated Press Top 25 and on social media undefeated maps. Gone from last year's team are fan favorites and 1,000-point scorers Matt Mitchell and Jordan Schakel. Mitchell finished his Aztec career as one of only three players in program history to score 1,000 points, grab 500 rebounds, have 200 assists and 100 steals. Schakel is one of the deadliest sharp shooters San Diego State has produced. His 225 3-pointers are the third most in program history and his career 42.7 percent 3-point shooting percentage ranks No. 2 in Aztec history. Also departed is last year's third-leading scorer, and a career 1,000-point scorer in his own right, Terrell Gomez.

Still very much present? The expectations for another special season.

"We know what the standard is — to win the conference and hang a banner," head coach Brian Dutcher said. "Whatever your best season is, that's what the expectation has become."

At the very least, we also know San Diego State is a program that can weather a little adversity. In a bizarre 2020-21 season played in empty gyms because of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Aztecs handled their business on the court and stayed safe off it. Dutcher proudly notes that the program produced zero positive tests and that its only cancelled games were because of circumstances with opposing teams.

"I've been through some incredible things as an assistant and as a head coach," he said. "To work for Coach (Steve) Fisher at Michigan when he took over right before the NCAA Tournament and then won it all. To being a part of the Fab Five. To coming here and having the Kawhi Leonard teams that really elevated the program. To finally coaching through a COVID year.

"I think if you're coaching long enough, the expectation is to expect the unexpected. Last year was unexpected."

This season, the unknowns are — thankfully — more competitive than epidemiological. Who will be trusted to take the game-winning shot? Who will step up to make the timely play on defense with the game on the line? How high, truly, is this team's ceiling?

All to be determined.

But what Dutcher sees on the cusp of his fifth season stalking the Aztecs' sideline is a senior-laden roster with a wealth of experience and a world of potential. His only question is how quickly that potential will be realized.

"All these guys have played college basketball — now it's just about seeing where they fit best for this year's team." Dutcher, who has compiled a gaudy .756 winning percentage and is just four wins shy of 100 victories, said. "And that's the thing you never know as a coach. I know we're talented, but until we play games and get something under our belt, it's just guesswork.

"I know we're going to be good. How soon are we going to be good? I don't know."

If the non-conference schedule is any indicator, Dutcher may have a hunch it'll be sooner rather than later. The Aztecs' early-season slate is one of the most rigorous in recent memory.

Arizona State visits Viejas Arena. Road games await at Brigham Young and Michigan, the latter garnering national attention and kindling emotions for its Fab Five reunion of Dutcher and Wolverines head coach Juwan Howard. San Diego State will also square off against Georgetown and either Southern California or Saint Joseph's in the Paycom Wooden Legacy in Anaheim, and face Saint Mary's College on a neutral floor in Phoenix.

And that's before diving into what figures to be an improved Mountain West Conference. Colorado State, which returns its entire starting lineup including preseason all-league honorees David Roddy and Isaiah Stevens, and Nevada which returns Mountain West Preseason Player of the Year Grant Sherfield as well as almost its entire roster, and figure to be San Diego State's top rivals in the race for the conference crown. In the preseason poll of media members who regularly cover the league, the Aztecs were picked to finish second —

The other known commodity is Nathan Mensah a fixture in the post for the Aztecs for the past three seasons. The 6-foot-10, 230-pounder from Ghana has 60 career starts under his belt, earning a reputation as the team's most reliable defender

In 2020-21, competing for the University of California, Matt Bradley was one of 23 players in a Power-5 conference to shoot at least 45.5 percent from the floor and 36.4 percent from 3-point range. Had he played in the Mountain West last year, he would have been the only player in the league to achieve those numbers.

just behind the Rams and just ahead of the Wolf Pack.

Boise State and Fresno State also feature experienced clubs, while new coaches at traditional conference powers UNLY, New Mexico and Utah State open the possibility of surprise contenders.

Nothing will come easy.

"You wouldn't take a young kid or a young team and play our schedule," Dutcher said. "I wanted to challenge us in non-conference to give us a chance to build a resume. This is about giving our players games that they'll be excited to play and to try to build a resume that will make us relevant in March."

If the Aztecs are to break out their dancing shoes for the 11th time in the Steve Fisher-Brian Dutcher era, it'll likely be the seniors who propel them to that lofty height. Two top returners who have played major roles in San Diego State's success over the past two years are back for more.

Trey Pulliam, who opted to use the extra year of eligibility granted by the NCAA because of COVID-19, was one of two players who started in every game last season. The 6-foot-3 Texan averaged 7.3 points, more than double his previous year's scoring average, and dished out 3.5 assists per game last season, while leading the Mountain West in assist-to-turnover ratio (2.27:1). In the final 11 contests of the year, he elevated his output to more than 10 points per game and notched six of his eight career double digit scoring efforts. In that stretch, he shot 44.5 percent from the floor, averaged 4.2 assists, 3.0 rebounds, and over two steals.

"With Trey, it's all a confidence thing," Dutcher said. "Arguably, he might have been our most important player down the stretch. He's playing with great confidence right now."

along the way. Last season was his best yet, averaging 8.1 points, 6.1 rebounds and 1.4 blocks. Mensah may also be one of the most valuable players on the defensive end. He is such a gifted athlete, that he allows the Aztecs to switch everything when he is on the court and with his ability to block shots, can

Chad Baker-Mazara was one of 15 players nationally to average 15.6 points, 4.7 rebounds, 1.9 assists, 1.6 steals and 1.4 blocks per 40 minutes played last season. He is one of four to return to college basketball this year and the only underclassman in the aroup.

erase defensive mistakes made on the perimeter. In the team's game against Syracuse in the 2021 NCAA tournament, he reached 100 career blocks, becoming just the tenth player in program history to reach triple digit blocks.

Those wondering where offensive production will come from in the wake of key departures have already trained their attention on Matt Bradley, a powerfully built 6-foot-4 transfer who scored 1,289 points and averaged 40 percent on 3-pointers in three seasons at Cal. Last season, he was one of just five players in Division I to average at least 18.0 points per game, while shooting at least 45.5 percent from the field, 36.4 percent from the bonus distance, a minimum of 82.1 percent from the line, while also grabbing 4.6 rebounds per game. The San Bernardino native is a two-time All-Pac-12 honoree and his points per game, field goal, 3-point field goal and free throw percentages in 2020-21 would have all ranked the top-5 in the Mountain West. Bradley has the ability to score from all three levels. He can shoot from distance, off the bounce and he has the strength to post up guards and some forwards. Bradley was picked in the media poll as the Mountain West's preseason Newcomer of the Year.

"He's a dynamic scorer," Dutcher said. "Now he's playing in a different system, so it's going to take some adjustment to learn where his shots are coming from. I think he'll score a ton of points for the Aztecs, but he's getting a feel for our program now, and that Another intriguing scoring threat in the mix is athletic 6-foot-7 forward Keshad Johnson, who can jump out of the gym and boasts an eye-popping dunk reel. What garners less attention — though not from his coach — is Johnson's steady improvement on the defensive end during his time in the program. Dutcher said Johnson's guarding ability has reached "near-elite" status.

On the offensive end, Dutcher is encouraged by the improvement in Johnson's perimeter shooting attacks the basket. The next step, he said, is developing the ability to drive in for a pull-up jumper — the same skill that made current Charlotte Hornet Jalen McDaniels such a threat while at San Diego State.

"Keshad has only scratched the surface of his potential but hasn't always had great opportunities," Dutcher said. "We'll see his opportunity arise this year and we'll see what he does as a junior. He continues to grow his game and I like what I've seen."

Other interesting options abound in the back-court. Senior guard Adam Seiko has played increasing minutes over the past three seasons because of his defensive ability but will be looked at to step up his production as an outside shooter. Over the summer, he showed a glimpse of things to come by taking a starring offensive role while representing Uganda in the AfroBasket 2021 tournament in Rwanda. Uganda had won only one game in the tournament in a sixth-place finish while leading the team in scoring twice and a veraged 13.0 points, 3.4 rebounds and 2.5 assists in five games, while shooting 48.8 percent, including 46.9 percent from 3-point range.

"I think it's going to help his confidence," said Dutcher, who called Seiko one of his locker room leaders, along with fellow seniors Pulliam and Joshua Tomaic. "He was representing a country, and the games mattered — turnovers and assists and shooting a high percentage mattered. He played meaningful backathall

"Adam's going to be important for us — his role will increase, and we'll see how he embraces it."

Another player who might force his way into the lineup is sophomore Lamont Butler. The point guard from Moreno Valley played in all 28 games and made two starts as a freshman due to an injury to Matt Mitchell and because of his ability to guard with intensity — pretty much the case anytime a freshman plays for the Aztecs. Butler also showed flashes of promise on the offensive end as well. Combine his 13 points and five steals at Utah State, and he is just the third San Diego State true freshman, joining Kyle Spain and Richie Williams from the 2005-06 season, to have at least that many points and steals in a game since the start of the 1996-97 campaign.

"Lamont was not your typical freshman," Dutcher said, "and he's worked on his game. He's finishing at the rim stronger and he's shooting the three more accurately. Lamont will press hard for a starting position on this year's team."

More scoring help has arrived via the transfer portal in the form of Chad Baker-Mazara. The 6-foot-7 wing averaged 9.5 points per game while shooting nearly 42 percent on 3-pointers last year playing for Duquesne of the Atlantic-10 Conference. His height gives him the ability to shoot over defenders and Dutcher praised his feel for the game and court vision on offense. How much he contributes immediately will be determined by his ability to defend and how quickly he fills out his wiry frame.

A sophomore seldom used last season, in part due to injury, could also figure into the mix at shooting guard. Dutcher said Keith Dinwiddie, Jr. has the potential to be an "elite scorer" and has stepped up his defense. His 1.22 points scored per minute played led all the scholarship players on the roster and in four of his seven appearances he hit at least one 3-pointer.

"I think he's got a chance to get some major minutes this year," he said. In the frontcourt, another super senior returning because of extra COVID-19 eligibility is Tomaic. The 6-foot-9 Spaniard arrived on The Mesa after a three-year stint at Maryland and promptly obliterated every single-season stat he had set with the Terrapins. He played heavy minutes last season spelling Mensah in the post, nearly doubling his previous single season total... With a 7-foot-1 wing span he can play with his back to the basket, run the floor, and step out and hit from long range and this year his role will change to one more suited to his athleticism and shooting ability.

"Josh has shown a lot of improvement and that's exciting to see," Dutcher said. "Now having been in the program a year, he kind of knows how we do things and what role he's going to play, and he's embraced it. We're going to let Josh play on the perimeter a little more this year as a stretch four, kind of like Keshad is."

Tomaic's new role was enabled by another new arrival, Portland transfer Tahirou Diabate. Born in Mali and attended high school in Japan, the 6-foot-9, 225-pounder is right at home in the low post, as well. He figures to get the majority of minutes as Mensah's backup. In 93 career games he has appeared in the scoring column 88 times and in 67 of the last 68 in which he has appeared and for his career has averaged 7.2 points and 4.1 rebounds per game.

"He's a fifth-year senior and he looks like a fifthyear senior," Dutcher said. "He's big, he's strong, he's tough. He'll sub for Nathan or else he'll beat Nathan out."

One major question mark at forward is the status of senior Aguek Arop, who has played major minutes for the past three Aztec squads but continues to work his way back from injuries. Dutcher said he will leave it up to Arop, who when healthy is pound-for-pound the strongest player on the floor, whether he wants to play now or heal more fully to take advantage of his extra year of eligibility next season.

One thing is certain, with this year's deep roster, minutes will be in short supply.

"With the COVID year, we have a lot of players that are available," Dutcher said. "Sometimes that's a coach's delight and a player's dilemma."

And then there's the other key returner — or shall we say 12,414 returners.

Gone from the Viejas Arena seats are the hundreds of cardboard cutouts that festooned the Aztecs' storied home court during the pandemic season of 2020-21. In their place will be The Show, alumni and members of the San Diego community who have given the program the best home court environment on the West Coast over the past decade-plus.

After a season of hearing his own voice echo around desolate arenas in the middle of games, Dutcher isn't taking that for granted.

"That's everything to us," he said. "We had great success in an empty gym, but obviously it's more fun to play in a full arena. We have as good a home court advantage as anyone in the country. That has helped us get over hurdles in the past, the crowd getting behind us in key moments.

"We're going to be hard to beat in this building."

As always, that's the standard the Aztecs have set.

MOUNTAIN WEST-RECORD 14-TIME CONFERENCE CHAMPIO

Mountain West

10807 New Allegiance Drive, Suite 250 Colorado Springs, CO 80921 Phone: (719) 488-4040 Fax: (719) 487-7241

This is the Mountain West

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West (MW) has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 23rd year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West has marked several achievements during its first 22 years, most notably becoming the first to establish a sports television network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference (The Mtn.). The MW also was the first to experiment with the coaches' challenge in the college football instant replay system, and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in four BCS bowl games, winning three. In the inaugural year of the new College Football Playoff system, Boise State earned the automatic slot into a New Year's Six bowl game as the highest-ranked champion from the Group of 5 conferences. The Broncos defeated then 10th-ranked Arizona 38-30 in the VIZIO Fiesta Bowl. In 2011-12, the MW was among the first conferences to implement a league-wide state-of-the-art basketball instant replay system.

Changes in the NCAA governance structure set the table for another Conference first, when two members of the MW Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) were included in the June 2014 meeting of the Mountain West Board of Directors. New Mexico track and field athlete Kendall Spencer, the national chair of the 2014-15 NCAA Division I Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, and Air Force Academy volleyball player Emma Dridge joined the BOD members in this historic meeting to advance the discussion on student-athlete involvement in the NCAA and MW governance structure. For the last six academic years, MW student-athletes participated on monthly membership calls and have joined MW administrators in the annual Joint Council Spring Meetings in Arizona.

The Mountain West is well-represented within the new NCAA governance structure, including individuals who were appointed to serve on committees tasked with managing the day-to-day business of Division I athletics.

Kendall Spencer, the former chair of the DI Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and UNM track & field athlete, was the first student-athlete in the history of the organization to serve on the Division I Board.

Additionally, the Mountain West was the only conference to have the same member institution with No. 1 overall picks in both the NFL and NBA drafts in the same year (Utah's Alex Smith and Andrew Bogut, respectively in 2005). With UNLY's Anthony Bennett claiming the No. 1 pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, the Mountain West is one of three conferences to have multiple No. 1 NBA draft selections since 2000. Also, with San Diego State's Stephen Strasburg earning the No. 1 pick in the 2009 MLB Draft, the Mountain West is one of three conferences to have the No. 1 selection in each of the NFL, NBA and MLB drafts since the MW was founded in 1999.

The Mountain West is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders five MW institutions (Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, New Mexico and Utah State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet — the nation's highest Division I campus) contrast with Las Vegas and Reno, home to UNLV and Nevada, respectively, while Fresno State, San Diego State and San Jose State add a West coast influence with their locations in Central, Southern and Northern California. The inclusion of the Hawai'i football program extends the MW footprint to the beautiful islands in the Pacific Ocean, while the addition of the women's soccer program at Colorado College gives the MW an additional presence in the Rocky Mountains.

History

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLY, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU re-joined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State University joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, followed by Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, the University of Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San José State University and Utah State University joined the Conference, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members. On July 1, 2014, the Colorado College women's soccer program became the first non-football affiliate member of the Mountain West, expanding that sport to 12 Conference participants.

When the Mountain West officially began operations on July 1, 1999, the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN, giving the broadcast entity exclusive national television rights to MW football and men's basketball, and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl. Commissioner Thompson also arranged a third bowl tie-in each of the first three seasons (1999 Motor City, 2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans) before securing a four-year deal with the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco in 2002.

Entering the 2021 season, the MW has nine (9) postseason opportunities, including a spot in a New Year's Six Bowl (highest ranked non-autonomous 5 champion), six (6) primary bowl positions: Jimmy Kimmel Los Angeles Bowl, Arizona Bowl, Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, New Mexico Bowl, SoFi Hawai'i Bowl, and an ESPN Events-operated bowl, likely to be held in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex - - and two (2) secondary positions.

An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MW engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in seven inaugural bowl games (2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans, 2002 San Francisco (Emerald), 2005 Poinsettia, 2006 New Mexico, 2015 Arizona, 2015 Cure), as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying FBS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and into the College Football Playoff (CFP) with Boise State's selection to the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

2020-21 Review

San Diego State captured the Mountain West regular-season men's basketball title for the second consecutive season and tournament crown, its record 13th and 14th league titles. The Aztecs, along with Utah State, earned bids to the NCAA tournament, marking the third time in the last four seasons that the MW has earned multiple bids. Boise State and Colorado State appeared in the NIT.

Opportunity

The Mountain West provides a first-class athletic and academic experience for more than 5,100 student-athletes each year. Over the past 22 years, 43 Mountain West student-athletes have earned NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, and since the league's inception in 1999, an additional 43 student-athletes have been named MW Scholar-Athlete of the Year and awarded league-sponsored postgraduate scholarships. Four Mountain West student-athletes have earned distinction as Rhodes Scholars (Jessica Mellinger, Wyoming, and Delavane Diaz, Brittany Morreale and Rebecca Esselstein, Air Force).

Conference student-athletes are also given a voice regarding pertinent issues within the MW and NCAA governance structure through representation on the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC). The Mountain West SAAC is comprised of 24 members (22 student-athlete representatives, the MW representative to the Division I National SAAC and one faculty athletics representative). The committee reviews and reacts to legislation and to other topics referred by the Conference constituent groups or committees related to the student-athlete experience. Since the inclusion of two SAAC members at the June 2014 meeting of the MW Board of Directors, the Conference maintains its commitment to the participation of student-athlete sin its governance structure, which is consistent with the Mountain West's focus on enhancing the student-athlete experience.

Achievemen

The MW has produced 1,587 All-America selections among its 18 sponsored sports (men's swimming was discontinued as a Conference sport following the 2010-11 season) in the last 22 years, including a league-record 103 All-America honorees in 2016-17. A total of 208 MW student-athletes have also earned Academic All-America accolades in that span. The Mountain West has sent at least 25 teams to NCAA postseason events in each of the past 22 years, capturing five team national championships in women's cross country and producing 51 individual national champions in the sports of men's golf, men's cross country, women's diving, and men's and women's indoor track & field and outdoor track & field.

Mountain West members have participated in 106 bowl games under the league umbrella, including four appearances in BCS games and one CFP game. The MW has earned 86 postseason bids in men's basketball, with six Sweet 16 appearances, as well as three NIT Final Four berths. MW women's basketball has tallied 82 postseason slots, including 39 NCAA bids, five Sweet 16 appearances and one Elite Eight berth since 2000.

rian Dutcher, a long-time San Diego State men's basketball assistant coach, is entering his fifth season as head coach after four years in which he led the Aztecs to four Mountain West title games, their conference-high 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th Mountain West titles and twice back to the NCAA tournament.

Dutcher, who took over the helm of the program following Steve Fisher's retirement announcement on April 11, 2017, was on The Mesa for all of Fisher's 18 seasons. He held the title of associate head coach/head coach in waiting for six years and is the program's 15th head coach.

Over the course of his 22 years at San Diego State, Dutcher has helped the Aztecs reach the postseason 15 times, including ten trips to the NCAA tournament, win a conference-best 14 Mountain West titles and record 16 seasons of at least 20 victories.

Since 2008-09, Dutcher and SDSU twice advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 (2011, 2014) and NIT semifinal round (2009, 2016), won at least 25 games seven times and captured ten MW championships (six regular season, four tournament).

Dutcher arrived at SDSU shortly after Fisher was hired on March 26, 1999. In his first year in "America's Finest City," the Aztecs won only five games, but improved upon their win total from the season before. After that, San Diego State posted a 14-14 record in 2000-01, before winning the 2002 MW Championship, earning an NCAA tournament bid and finishing with a 21-12 record. The 2002-03 campaign saw SDSU receive an NIT invitation, which culminated in the program's first Division I postseason victory.

Collegiate Coaching Experience

1984-85 Graduate Assistant, Illinois

Coached under Lou Henson, who retired as Illinois' all-time leader in victories and was a 2015 National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame inductee... Helped the Illini to a pair of NCAA Sweet 16 appearances and a 1984 Big Ten championship.

1986-88 Assistant Coach, South Dakota State

Helped the Division II program go from eight wins his first season (8-20; 3-15 NCC) to 16 his second (16-12; 7-11 NCC) to 21 his third and final year (21-9; 13-5 NCC)... The 21-9 team advanced to the NCAA South Central Regional and went 1-1.

1989-98 Assistant Coach, Michigan

Part of a Wolverine coaching staff that helped Michigan win its only national championship to date in men's basketball (1989)... Guided the Wolverines to three of the school's five national championship game appearances... Guided Michigan to the postseason all 10 years while in Ann Arbor (8 NCAA, 2 NIT)... Helped UM win both an NCAA and NIT championship... Coached the Wolverines to a 233-98 record in 10 seasons.

1999-2017 Asst. Coach; Assoc. Head Coach/Head Coach in Waiting, SDSU

Played a role in one of the greatest turnarounds in college basketball history by taking a program that won four games the year before his arrival to four Mountain West tournament championships, six MW regular-season titles, eight NCAA tournament berths and five appearances in the postseason NIT... Team went 5-23 his first season (1999-00) and has gone on to post a .500 or better record 15 times... Helped SDSU win 20 or more games in 12 of the last 16 seasons.

2017-Present Head Coach, San Diego State

The 2020-21 campaign marked his fourth season as head coach, nine seasons after he was named the Aztecs' associate head coach/head coach in waiting... He enters his fifth season after guiding SDSU to a 53-7 record in the last two campaigns, a national ranking of as high as No. 4, and has a career mark of 96-31... He is the only head coach in program history to record 20+ wins in each of his first four seasons... In 2017-18, he was the only first-year head coach to lead his team to the NCAA Tournament and in the previous 100 seasons of SDSU basketball, no other coach has won more games and/or won a conference title in his initial season.

After helping attract the program's first Mc-Donald's All-American to the 2002-03 squad, Dutcher assisted in securing the signatures of future starters and all-league performers Brandon Heath and Marcus Slaughter. The duo started their first two seasons on The Mesa, leading to the 2005-06 campaign that produced the school's first MW regular-season and tournament title sweep.

The Aztecs advanced to the NCAA tournament and ultimately won a then-school-record 24 games. That appearance led to a string of 10 consecutive postseason berths.

From the 2006-07 campaign through 2008-09, San Diego State registered 20 or more wins and went to three straight NITs. In 2009, the Aztecs advanced to the NIT semifinals and broke the previous school record with 26 victories.

The run to the NIT semifinals was a springboard to the most successful run in SDSU basketball history. Led by future NBA first-round draft pick and NBA champion Kawhi Leonard, the 2009-10 Aztecs won the MW Championship, advanced to the NCAA tournament and fell four points shy of moving on to the second round before finishing with a 25-9 record.

The NCAA experience from the 2009-10 squad proved fruitful in 2010-11, when it returned all five starters, including Leonard. and a freshman named Jamaal Franklin, who would turn out to be a future MW Player of the Year and NBA draft selection. With Dutcher on staff, SDSU won its first 20 games of the year, shared the MW regular-season title and captured the MW tournament crown. The Aztecs moved on to the NCAA tournament as a No. 2 seed and won the program's first Division I NCAA tournament game. San Diego State, which was ranked as high as No. 4 and received first-place votes at one point in the season, advanced to the Sweet 16 and fell to the eventual national champion, finishina with a school-record 34 wins, a mark that still stands today. The Aztecs' also found themselves in the final top-25 polls, ranking sixth in the AP and 11th in the USA Today Coaches Poll.

Five months after SDSU's record-setting 2010-11 campaign, the University elevated Dutcher from associate head coach to associate head coach/head coach in waiting.

The next year the Aztecs advanced to the 2012 NCAA tournament as an at-large team and recorded 26 wins. The following season, San Diego State was again an at-large selection to the 2013 NCAA tournament, moved on to the round of 32 for the second time in three years and finished with 23 victories.

Another NCAA Sweet 16 run was in the cards in Dutcher's third season as the head coach in waiting. The Aztecs opened the season by winning 21 of their first 22 games, including 20 in a row at one point, and were led by seniors Xavier Thames, who would become an NBA draft pick, and Josh Davis. SDSU won its second outright Mountain West regular-season title and later swept through two games in Spokane, Washington, to secure its second Sweet 16 appearance in four years. San Diego State won 31 games and finished ranked 13th in the AP and 12th in the Coaches after rising to as high as fifth in both polls.

The 2014-15 campaign saw the Aztecs spend their fifth straight season in the top 25. In the process of winning 27 games, San Diego State earned its second straight MW regular-season crown and an at-large invitation to the NCAA tournament where they defeated St. John's in the round of 64. One season later, the Aztecs found themselves in the NIT after winning the MW by three games with a 16-2 record. San Diego State won three games and qualified for the NIT national semifinals, eventually logging 28 victories.

SDSU completed the 2016-17 slate with a 19-14 record despite experiencing a rash of injuries. The 2016 Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic champions entered 2017-18 as one of 12 teams to have won at least 19 games in 12 consecutive seasons, which was a sign of things to come in Dutcher's first year.

Dutcher's first roster as head coach featured a pair of seniors that had won multiple Mountain West titles and had NCAA tournament experience in Trey Kell and Malik Pope.

The Aztecs went through their ups and downs with multiple players getting bit by the injury bug into the thick of conference play. Dutcher and SDSU, however, righted the ship, winning six consecutive games to end the regular season and captured the program's 11th crown, the MW tournament, and returned to the NCAA tournament. Dutcher was the only first-year head coach to guide his team to the 2018 NCAA tourney and one of six to have won at least 20 games. SDSU finished the campaign with a 22-11 record, with the 22 wins representing the most by a first-year Aztec men's basketball head coach and the second-most among first-year coaches that season.

The 2018-19 season saw the Aztecs return to the Mountain West championship game after twice defeating nationally ranked Nevada, including a 65-56 victory over the Wolf Pack in the semifinal of the conference tournament. The team posted a 21-13 record, the 13th consecutive season with at least 19 victories. He is the only head coach in program history to record 20+ wins in each of his first two seasons. After the season concluded, sophomore Jalen McDaniels was selected in the second round of the NBA Draft by the Charlotte Hornets.

Brian Dutcher

In 2019-20 his squad ripped off a program-record 26 straight wins to open the season and peaked, for eight weeks, at No. 4 in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches top-25 polls, before finishing the regular season at No. 6. The Aztecs went 30-2 on the year, including 17-1 in Mountain West play and Dutcher earned USA Today National Coach of the Year, Mountain West Coach of the Year (in both the coaches and media polls), NABC Division I District 17 Coach of the Year and USBWA District IX Coach of the Year. In addition, he was one of five finalists for the 2020 Werner Ladder Naismith Men's College Coach of the Year Award.

His team's 30 wins in 2019-20 are the third most and its two defeats are the fewest in program history. SDSU's 17 wins in conference play are the most in program history. Its one loss is the fewest in the Aztecs' Division I era and equals the fewest since 1926-27, when it moved from junior college competition to the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA). San Diego State opened the 2019-20 league slate with a 15-game winning streak which set a new Mountain West record.

Led by junior guard and consensus All-American Malachi Flynn, who would be a first round selection of the NBA Toronto Raptors, the team won the Continental Tires Las Vegas Invitational with a blowout victory over Creighton and a 16-point comeback win against lowa in the championship game. In addition, the Aztecs handed Utah a 28-point loss in the Basketball Hall of Fame Classic, three days after the Utes beat then No. 6 Kentucky.

In addition to Flynn, junior Matt Mitchell, and seniors KJ Feagin and Yanni Wetzell, were recognized by the MW in its postseason awards as well as numerous other national outlets.

In the COVID-affected season of 2020-21, the Aztecs were once again the cream of the Mountain West crop posting a 23-5 record, including a 14-3 mark in league play. San Diego State earned the league's regular season and tournament crowns to earn an automatic bid to the NCAA tournament, where it was a 6-seed. For the second consecutive campaign, Dutcher was named Coach of the Year of both the Mountain West and NABC Division I District 17.

The Aztecs opened the season with a win over No. 22 UCLA and just over two weeks later won at No. 23 Arizona State. The team reached the Mountain West title game for the fourth straight season and earned a measure of revenge in the championship game, defeating Utah State, 68-57, the team that had knocked them off in the previous two league title aames.

The team was led by seniors Matt Mitchell and Jordan Schakel, who became the 34th and 35th players in program history, respectively, to score 1,000 points in their careers. Mitchell was named an honorable-mention AP All-American honors, Mountain West Player of the Year, first-team All-Mountain West Mountain West All-Defensive Team, NABC first-team All-District 17, USBWA first-team All-District IX, Basketball Times West Coast All-District Team, Mountain West Tournament Most Valuable Player, Mountain West All-Tournament Team and was the sixth player, and first Aztec, in Mountain West history to earn Player of the Year & Tournament MVP in the same year.

Schakel was named second-team All-Mountain West, NABC second-team All-District 17 and a Mountain West All-Tournament Team honoree.

Nathan Mensah was an honorable mention All-Mountain West performer and member of the league's All-Defensive Team. Trey Pulliam also received honorable mention All-Mountain West designation.

Before Dutcher arrived at San Diego State, he served as assistant coach and later associate head coach at Michigan under Fisher. He spent 10 seasons on the Wolverine staff. His first year in Ann Arbor was 1989 and resulted in a national title for Michigan as he assisted then-interim head coach Fisher.

MOUNTAIN WEST-RECORD 14-TIME CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

The Bloomington, Minn., native led UM's recruiting efforts in 1990-91 when the Wolverines inked Juwan Howard, Ray Jackson, Jimmy King, Jalen Rose and Chris Webber. The "Fab Five" is considered perhaps the best recruiting class in NCAA history. Dutcher helped lead that group to nearly 100 wins, two berths in the NCAA championship game and a regional final over a four-year period. He was also on the Michigan staff for an NIT championship (1997).

Dutcher's recruiting prowess was cemented when Michigan had the nation's top-ranked recruiting class in 1993-94 and in 1994-95, with a group that included Maurice Taylor and Jerod Ward. The accomplishment marked the first time that a university had the nation's top class in consecutive years, according to recruiting analyst Bob Gibbons.

Dutcher was born Oct. 30, 1959, in Alpena, Mich. He attended Jefferson High School in Bloomington, Minn., and earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Minnesota in 1982. While an undergraduate, he worked for his father, then-Gopher head coach Jim Dutcher. He then spent one season in the prepranks at Apple Valley (Minn.) High School before becoming a graduate assistant at Illinois, where he earned his master's degree in physical education and athletic administration.

SDSU Assistant: 201-69 SDSU Staff: 232-117 SDSU Player: 9-5 SDSU/Division I Career: 442-191 ave Velasquez enters his 20th season at San Diego State and ninth as an assistant coach. Prior to his appointment as an assistant coach, he spent six seasons as the program's director of player development.

Velasquez's responsibilities to the program include recruiting, on-court coaching, skill development and

With an emphasis on the defensive side of the ball, he played a critical role in the team finishing the past two seasons ranked No. 1 in the Mountain West in scoring defense, allowing more than four and a half fewer points per game than any other team in the league in 2019-20.

In each of the last two campaigns, SDSU led the conference in turnover margin, steals, and scoring margin, holding opponents to double digit fewer points per game than it scored. In addition, the Aztecs were either first or second in the league in field goal percentage defense, and rebounding defense in the 2019-20 and 2020-21 sensons.

Individually, in 2020-21 forwards Nathan Mensah and Matt Mitchell earned inclusion on the league's All-Defensive Team, and in 2019-20, Malachi Flynn was honored as the MW Defensive Player of the Year, as voted on by the league's coaches.

Nationally, in the past two seasons, the team ranked in the top-ten in scoring defense (No. 3 & No. 8) and in the top-15 in scoring margin (No. 3 & No. 13), field goal percentage defense (No. 10 & No. 12), and in the top-20 in turnover margin (No. 20 & No. 12).

Velasquez also plays a large part in the performance of Aztecs in the classroom. The Bay Area native works directly with San Diego State's academic advisors, tutors, and mentors to ensure standards are met and exceeded.

What may go unnoticed is his relationship with players. As a former SDSU men's basketball student-athlete and recruit host, Velasquez understands all of the virtues that an Aztec basketball player possesses, which allows him to relate to the entire roster.

In his first season as an assistant, Velasquez helped ink a consensus top-15 recruiting class, while helping the Aztecs enjoy one of their finest seasons ever, which culminated in 31 wins, a Mountain West regular-season title and an NCAA Sweet 16 berth. He was also key in the development of Xavier Thames, who was a 2014 All-American, Mountain West Player of the Year and NBA draft pick.

In 2014-15, he helped coach SDSU to 27 victories, a second straight MW regular-season crown and an appearance in the third round of the NCAA tournament. Velasquez was also key in the Aztecs inking two four-star players for 2015-16, which resulted in 28 wins, another MW title and an appearance in the semifinals of the NIT. In '16-17, Velasquez helped secure another four-star player and three Division I transfers, while bringing in a three- and a four-star player for the 2017-18 campaign.

The aforementioned campaign saw Velasquez help San Diego State win 22 games, capture the program's Mountain West-leading 11th conference championship and return to the NCAA tournament for the first time since 2015. On the recruiting trail, Velasquez helped sign five players, including four four-star athletes and Malachi Flynn, one of the top Division I transfers on the market, who sat out the 2018-19 campaign.

As SDSU's director of player development, Velasquez assisted the basketball coaching staff with video breakdown, film exchange, travel, community service and handled many of the day-to-day office duties.

Prior to working as the director of player development, Velasquez was a student manager in 2002-03 before serving as head manager from 2003-07.

In 2002-03, San Diego State earned a berth to postseason NIT, where the Aztecs picked up their first Division I postseason tournament victory en route to an appearance in the second round.

Then in 2005-06, San Diego State won the Mountain West with a 13-3 league record before winning the MW tournament. As a result, the Aztecs advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the second time under head coach Steve Fisher and won a then school-record 24 games.

Fisher awarded Velasquez a scholarship in December 2006 and was added to the active roster in January 2007.

As an official playing member of the team, Velasquez played in four games and recorded a steal. He was a member of a team that finished with a 22-11 record and advanced to the second round of the postseason NIT.

In Velasquez's five seasons as manager, the Aztecs went to the postseason three times and won 22 or more games twice.

Following his graduation from San Diego State in May 2007, Velasquez was hired at the University of the Pacific later that month. As the Tigers' graduate manager, he assisted with UOP's camps, created highlight tapes and coordinated film exchange before returning to his alma mater.

It was close to midnight on March 19, 2021, and the San Diego State Aztec men's basketball team had just fallen to the Syracuse Orange, 78-62, in the first round of the NCAA tournament. There were a lot of emotions in Indianapolis' Hinkle Fieldhouse lockerroom, as there always are when a season, and for some a career, comes to an end. But time has a way of lessening the sting and giving perspective to events.

Flash back to just over 12 months prior to that Syracuse game, on March 7, the 30-2 and No. 6-ranked Aztecs had fallen in the Mountain West tournament's championship game and were preparing for what anyone with knowledge of men's basketball saw as a serious run in the upcoming NCAA tournament.

Feagin, who transferred from Santa Clara after scoring more than 1,000 points for the Broncos, changed the focus of his game, becoming the defensive stopper who took the assignment of the other team's top guard every night. He was recognized by the coaches for his defensive prowess with inclusion on the Mountain West's All-Defensive Team.

When the 2020-21 Aztecs returned to campus just over six months from the rug being pulled out from under what is arguably one of the best San Diego State men's basketball teams ever assembled, there were several issues of unfinished business that they felt needed to be addressed.

Dutcher said, "I just think we have great depth. We used a lot of guys, 10 guys, and we don't drop off much. This might be as deep a team as we've ever had. We picked them up full court the entire game and I think we just wore them down to the point where maybe they were on tired legs by the end of the game."

Just over two weeks later, now 4-0 and ranked No. 24 in the polls, San Diego State embarked on its first road trip of the year, a six-hour bus ride to Tempe, Ariz., to face the No. 23 Arizona State Sun Devils. The location was different, but the result was not. The Aztecs got a career-high 25 points from Schakel and Nathan Mensah's fourth career double double, with career-highs of 17 points and 15 rebounds. San Diego State had defeated,

The 2020-21 Aztecs earned a measure of redemption in defeating Utah State in the championship game of the Mountain West tournament, the team which had beaten them for the previous two MW tournament crowns. Last season, SDSU earned its conference leading 13th and 14th titles and was a 6-seed in the 2021 NCAA Tournament.

Then on March 12, it all came crashing down. It was announced that all Spring sport competitions were being canceled and unfortunately so was the upcoming NCAA men's basketball tournament.

The announcement spelled the conclusion of the college careers of consensus all-American Malachi Flynn, the most decorated player, in a single season, in San Diego State men's basketball history as well as a pair of graduate transfers in Yanni Wetzel and KJ Feagin. Wetzell led the team in rebounding, was third in scoring, earned Division I first-team All-District 17 designation from the National Association of Basketbal Coaches (NABC) and was named a second-team All-Mountain West selection and a third -team All-MW performer by votes of the league's coaches and its media, respectively.

BIG WINS IN THE NON-CONFERENCE

The San Diego State formula is simple. Schedule a difficult slate in the preseason, just in case you need help to get into the Big Dance after the conference season and tournament and 2020-21 proved the formula works.

With travel an issue during the COVID-19 pandemic, San Diego State set up a multi-team event in Viejas Arena to open the season. The four-team event would be highlighted by a matchup against the No. 22/21 UCLA Bruins, who would go on to reach the Final Four, and the Aztecs showed a glimpse of how good they could be.

Seniors Matt Mitchell and Jordan Schakel, each scored 15 points as the Black and Scarlet rolled the Bruins 73-58, and after the game Aztec head coach Brian by double digits, the two teams predicted to finish first and second in the Pac-12, and extended the nation's longest non-conference win streak (17 games) as well as the longest road win streak (13 games).

On Dec. 22, on a neutral court on the campus of Cal Poly in San Luis Obispo, Calif., the Aztecs dismantled the Saint Mary's Gaels 74-49. Mensah picked up his second double double in three games with 18 points, 13 rebounds in addition to six blocked shots. He is the only Aztec player in at least 25 years to produce an 18-13-6 stat line in those three categories. Terrell Gomez, a graduate transfer from CSUN, had 13 points and four assists, Schakel pitched in with 12 points and Mitchell added 10 points, four boards and a pair of assists.

2020-21 Season Review

MOUNTAIN WEST-RECORD 14-TIME CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

In 2020-21, Brian Dutcher earned his second consecutive Mountain West and National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 17 Coach of the Year awards. In four seasons, he has quided the Aztecs to a 96-31 record, four Mountain West title games and two NCAA tournament appearances in the three years the event has been held since he ascended to the position of head coach. of its schedule 6-1 and entered Mountain West play ranked No. 23 in the USA Today Coaches Poll.

HONORS FOR COACH DUTCHER

He is the straw that stirs the drink and the man that moves the chess pieces into the right place at the right time. Despite losing three of his top five scorers from the 2019-20 team, working through a maze of new protocols and restrictions due to a global pandemic, and receiving zero votes in either national poll at the beginning of the season, Coach Dutcher just kept the ball rolling for San Diego State.

When other programs were having to either cancel or forfeit games due to issues related to COVID-19, San Diego State did not have a single positive test and only had games rescheduled, canceled, or forfeited to them by opponents.

Despite the issues that all programs were working through last season, some more successfully than others, the Aztecs posted an overall record of 23-5 record, 14-3 in Mountain West action, won both the league's regular-season and tournament titles and advanced to the NCAA tournament as a 6-seed

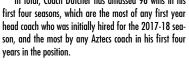

For those accomplishments. Dutcher took home his second consecutive Mountain West Coach of the Year Award as well as his second straight National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 17 Coach of the Year honor. The only other San Diego State head coach to win those awards on multiple occasions is Coach Dutcher's mentor, Aztec Hall of Fame inductee Coach Steve

In the last two seasons. Coach Dutcher's team has a 53-7 record (.883), which is the third best winning percentage in the nation, trailing only Gonzaga 62-3 (.953) and Baylor 54-6 (.900).

The team's 53 victories over the past two campaigns equals the sixth most in a two-season span in program history and its 88.3 percent winning percentage is the best for any Aztec teams over a two-year period since the start of its Division I era (1970-71).

In the last three seasons under Coach Dutcher's tutelage, SDSU has racked up 74 wins which are the seventh most for San Diego State in its Division I era and its 78.7 percent winning percentage (74-20) is the fourth best in that time frame.

In total, Coach Dutcher has amassed 96 wins in his first four seasons, which are the most of any first year head coach who was initially hired for the 2017-18 season, and the most by any Aztecs coach in his first four

Senior Matt Mitchell earned the Mountain West Conference Player of the Year and tournament's Most Outstanding Player awards, the first Aztecs to accomplish the feat. He averaged a team-high 15.4 points, 5.5 rebounds and 1.9 assists and is just the third player in program history to record career totals of 1,000 points, 500 rebounds, 200 assists and 100 steals (also: Trey Kell and Winston Shepard).

HONORS FOR THE PLAYERS

Any discussion about the players from last year's team can't begin with anyone other than a pair of seniors in Matt Mitchell and Jordan Schakel.

The pair, along with Adam Seiko, who redshirted his freshman season, are members of the first recruiting class Coach Dutcher signed, and both Mitchell and Mitchell won four Mountain West Championships (two regular season & two tournament) and made two appearances in the NCAA tournament.

Schakel was one of the elite shooters in the nation. He led Mountain West in 3-point field goals, 3-point field goal percentage and was No. 15 in scoring. His 46.1 percent shooting from the bonus distance is the highest for a senior in league history and ranked third in the nation. His 83 3-pointers were No. 12 nationally and his 2.96 triples per game were the 17th most in Division I. In addition, he ranked among the nation's best in six other statistical categories.

For his play last season, he was named a second-team All-Mountain West honoree, a National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) second-team All-District 17, earned inclusion on the Mountain West All-Tournament Team and twice was named the Mountain West Player of the Week.

In the Mountain West tournament semifinal game, he became the 35th player in program history to score 1,000 points and is the fifth player to make at least 200 3-pointers.

His eight threes against Colorado State were the most by an Aztec player since Chase Tapley hit eight at Baylor on Nov. 15, 2011, tied for the second most in a game in school history and were the most by any player in the Mountain West in 2020-21. The Torrance, Calif., native, hit at least one 3-pointer in each contest, multiple treys in 20 games, SDSU was 17-3 in those games, and three or more in 16 times.

Schakel completed his Aztec career ranked No. 1 in free throw percentage (.8698), No. 2 in 3-point field goal percentage (.4269), No. 3 in 3-point field goals (225), No. 5 in 3-point field goal attempts (527), No. 8 in conference victories (47), No. 9 in victories (90), No. 13 in games played (121), No. 19 in minutes (2,771), No. 20 in starts (75), No. T-30 in points (1 034)

On the program's single-season list, at the end of his Aztec career, he ranked No. 6 (83 in 2020-21) & No. T-12 (71 in 2019-20) in 3-point field goals, No. 12 (180 in 2020-21) & No. 19 (163 in 2019-20) in 3-point field goal attempts, No. 5 (.4611 in 2020-21), No. 7 (.4355 in 2019-20) & No. 14 (.4150 in 2018-19) in 3-point field goal percentage and No. T-11 in victories.

Returning for his senior campaign in 2021-22, Nathan Mensah was an honorable mention All-Mountain West performer by seperate votes of both the coaches and media who regularly cover the league as well as inclusion on the Mountain West All-Defensive Team.

The ultimate back line defender, Mensah ranked third in the Mountain West in blocks, and 14th in defensive rebounds. He was ninth on offensive rebounds and total rebounds. With a block against Syracuse in the NCAA tournament, he became the 10th player in program history to block at least 100 shots in an Aztec career.

Among a career-best ten games in double figures, SDSU was 9-1 in those games, Mensah scored a career-high 18 points vs. Saint Mary's on 8-of-9 shooting from the floor, and recorded his fifth and sixth career double doubles with 17 points and a career-high 15 rebounds at Arizona State and 18 points and 13 boards vs. Saint Mary's. The Accra, Ghana native, was one of three players in Division I to record at least 18 points, 13 rebounds and 6 blocks in a game during the season and among the three had the best shooting .889 (8-of-9 FGs) and free throw percentage 1.000 (2-of-2) in those games.

With 54 rebounds, Mensah will become the seventh player since the start of the 1999-00 season to score 500 points, grab 500 rebounds and block 100 shots as an Azter.

After spending the 2019-20 season as the backup point guard, Trey Pulliam ascended to the top job and proved Coach Dutcher right when he plucked the Bryan, Texas native from Navarro College in Corsicana. Texas.

Pulliam led the Mountian West in assist-to-turnover ratio, was fifth in steals and sixth in assists. He was ranked in five statistical categories nationally, topped by a No. 43 ranking in assist-to-turnover ratio.

An honorable mention All-Mountain West designee, Pulliam hit a buzzer-beating runner to defeat Nevada 69-67. It marked the first time SDSU has hit a game-winner as time expired since Jamaal Franklin hit a straight-away 3-point field goal to defeat Boise State in the Mountain West tournament on March 8, 2012. It was also the first buzzer-beater for the Aztecs in Viejas Arena to win a game in arena history. SDSU has hit shots at the buzzer to force overtime, but never a game winner.

In the three games of the Mountain West tournament, he averaged 12.7 points (18-of-34 FG, .529), 3.7 assists, 2.3 rebounds., and 2.3 steals. It was the first time in his major college career that he had three straight games of double figure scoring.

In the last 10 games, regular season and the Mountain West tournament, Pulliam recorded six of his eight career double-digit scoring efforts while averaging 10.6 points (46-of-103 FG. .447), 4.0 assists, 2.9 rebound, and 2.0 steals.

Joshua Tomaic and Terrell Gomez, were graduate transfers who played major roles in the team's success.

After arriving on The Mesa, he shattered nearly every statistical high from his three years, and 62 games, as a Terrapin in just 28 games as an Aztec.

In just the first 18 games last year, he eclipsed his point total from 62 game at Maryland and his 50.5 percent shooting ranked No. 2 on the squad. He made multiple field goals in 13-of-28 games, after doing so just six times in his previous 62 contests and of those six times, only one came in his final 42 games in College Park.

Gomez, a prolific scorer at CSUN, finished last season shooting 43.3 percent from 3-point range, which is the ninth best for an Aztec in a single season. Inserted into the starting line up at Air Force and through the Mountain West title game, he owned the best winning percentage of any starter 1.000 (15-0) in the country who is not playing for Gonzaga. And in the league championship tournament, in three games, he averaged 12.7 points (15-of-28, .536 & 5-of-5 FT, 1.000) and 1.7 assists & 1.7 steals and scored a season and game-high 20 points in the quarterfinal game.

The 2020-21 Aztecs earned a level of redemption for their former teammates who, due to a global pandemic, did not get a chance to compete in the NCAA tournament and in doing so, carved out a bit of San Diego State history for themselves.

Jordan Schakel celebrates with his teammates as the Aztecs punched their ticket to the Big Dance with its 68-57 victory over Utah State in the Mountain West tournament's championship game. In three games in the tournament, he averaged 13.0 pts (14-of-26 field goals & 7-of-14 3-point field goals) and 6.0 rebounds and earned all-tournament honors.

GAME 1

San Diego State 73 No. 22 UCLA 58

Nov. 25, 2020 | San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena | Att: 0

SAN DIEGO — Mick Cronin might not be so eager to bring UCLA back to San Diego State anytime soon after his short-handed Bruins were given a rude welcome by the deep, disruptive Aztecs coached by old friend Brian Dutcher.

Matt Mitchell and Jordan Schakel scored 15 points apiece and SDSU used a suffocating defense and 3-point shots to humble 22nd-ranked UCLA 73-58 on Wednesday night in the season opener for both teams.

Mitchell and Schakel hit 3s early in the second half to open a 40-28 lead and the Aztecs dominated the rest of the way at empty Viejas Arena. Aguek Arop and Terrell Gomez scored 10 points each for San Diego State, which was 30-2 last season and expecting its highest seed ever in the NCAA Tournament before it was canceled due to the coronavirus pandemic.

UCLA, which played on SDSU's home court for the first time since December 1991, was without key players Jalen Hill and transfer Johnny Juzang. Chris Smith, the Bruins' only senior, committed his fourth foul midway through the second half and came out — and then fouled out with 4:47 to go. He scored 10 points, none after halftime.

Jaime Jacquez Jr. had 17 points for UCLA, and Cody Riley added 14 points and 12 rehounds

The game was part of a multi-team event that also includes Pepperdine and UC Irvine. UCLA and SDSU had been scheduled to play in a bubble in Orlando, but it fell apart. Longtime pals Dutcher and Cronin quickly put together this event.

Mitchell and Schakel each hit three 3-pointers, and the Aztecs, picked to repeat as Mountain West Conference regular-season champions, went 9 of 23 from behind

The Bruins, who went 19-12 last year and were picked to win the Pac-12 this season, played well for the first eight minutes before SDSU's defense began to take its toll

Mitchell hit a jumper to start an 8-0 run midway through the first half that gave the Aztecs a 23-19 lead. Joshua Tomiac made a jumper and fellow senior transfer Gomez hit two free throws before Nathan Mensah sank a baseline jumper.

UCLA ended a six-minute drought when Smith made a one-handed jumper. Jacquez made a layup to pull the Bruins to 30-28 and was fouled, but missed the free throw. Arop hit a layup and two free throws in the final minute for a 34-28 halftime lead

QUOTARIF

"I just think we have great depth," Dutcher said. "We used a lot of guys, 10 guys, and we don't drop off much. This might be as deep a team as we've ever had. UCLA was short-handed. They were missing two players, potentially two starters, so I just think we wore them down. We picked them up full court the entire game and I think we just wore them down to the point where maybe they were on tired legs by the end of the game."

GAME 2

San Diego State 77 UC Irvine 58

Nov. 27, 2020 | San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena | Att.: 0

SAN DIEGO — Keshad Johnson came off the bench to tally 14 points to carry San Diego State to a 77-58 win over UC Irvine on Friday.

Johnson scored 13 of his career-high 14 points in the second half on three 3-ptrs, also a career-best, a pair of free throws and a thunderous dunk. In addition to his point output the native of Oakland, Calif., had four rebounds and a steal.

After defeating No. 22/21 UCLA 73-58 two nights earlier, the Aztecs took a little time to get going against the Anteaters.

UC Irvine led by as many as three points four times in the first 17 minutes and San Diego State didn't get more than a one-point advantage until a Trey Pulliam three with 2:55 to play in the half. The hoop sparked a 9-0 run and sent the teams to the intermission with SDSU up 34-25.

Matt Mitchell scored seven of his 11 points in the game, in the first 20 minutes for San Diego State (2-0). Pulliam also finished the half with seven points. Aguek

Returning to the floor after the break, the Aztecs pushed the lead to double digits in the first two minutes of the second half and never looked back. Within seven minute the lead was up to 25 and the game was completed with SDSU ahead

The third stingiest defense last season, allowing just 59.5 points per game, has picked up right where it left off giving up 58 points in each of its first two game.

Jordan Schakel scored only 3 points despite coming into the contest as the Aztecs' second leading scorer at 15.0 points per game. He shot 20% from behind the arc (1 of 5)

Brad Greene had 11 points and three assists for the Anteaters (0-2). Dawson Baker added 10 points. Collin Welp had 10 points.

GAME 3

San Diego State 83 St. Katherine 41

Dec. 2, 2020 | San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena | Att.: 0

SAN DIEGO — San Diego State's recorded its third straight victory to open the 2020-21 season on Wednesday night defeating the University of St. Katherine Firebirds, 83-41, at Steve Fisher Court at Viejas Arena.

SDSU had four players in double-digits, led by Jordan Schakel, who posted game-highs of 16 points and four steals, while Terrell Gomez followed closely with 13 points, including 3-for-5 clip from beyond the arc. Gomez has 300 three-pointers for his career, which ranks second in the nation among active players.

Freshman Keith Dinwiddie Jr. finished with a career-high 12 points on four threes of his own and Matt Mitchell reached double figures for the 59th time in a Scarlet and Black uniform with 10 points.

SDSU outscored the undersized Firebirds by 16 points in the paint (26-10) as well as 11 points on the fast-break (15-4) to help key the victory. In addition, the Aztecs tallied 26 points off 17 Firebirds turnovers and maintained a 40-35 edge in rebounds, including a 36-27 edge on the defensive glass. The Aztecs bench finished with 29 points, marking the third time in as many games this season the bench has scored more than 20 points in a game.

Individually, Nathan Mensah led all players with seven rebounds, while Joshua Tomaic added six boards in the win.

Both SDSU and USK got off to a sluggish start, shooting a combined 13.3 percent from the floor (2-15) during the first four minutes and change, with each side making just one field goal.

After a pair of Mitchell free throws, the Firebirds (1-0) hit consecutive threes and forged their biggest lead of the game at 8-4. Shortly thereafter, Dinwiddie answered with the first of his four buckets, while Keshad Johnson followed with a dunk to put San Diego State on top 9-8.

The Firebirds moved back in front 11-9, at the 12:51 mark of the half, on a three pointer and less than a minute later, Johnson converted an old-fashioned three-point play, sparking the Aztecs' 39-2 outburst

Katherine was held to just five more points in the half, and the Aztecs held a 48-16 advantage at intermission.

SDSU continued to pad its lead in the second half, fashioning its biggest advantage of the evening at 79-30 after a three-pointer by Mitchell with 6:42 remaining.

GAME 4

San Diego State 65 Pepperdine 60

Dec. 6, 2020 | San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena | Att.: 0

SAN DIEGO — The San Diego State men's basketball team used a 24-4 run midway through the second half to erase a 16-point deficit and defeat the Pepperdine Waves, 65-60 on Sunday afternoon at Steve Fisher Court at Viejas Arena.

Jordan Schakel led the offense for the Aztecs (4-0) with 17 points, Matt Mitchell finished with 13 and Joshua Tomaic totaled 10 points.

"That was a good college basketball game," Aztecs coach Brian Dutcher said.
"It was ugly in the first half and that is a credit to Pepperdine. They were physical, they denied (us shots), they bullied us over stuff and they did a great job defensively.

"When we are not making shots, when nothing is going right offensively, our defense will keep us in the game until we hit some kind of offensive rhythm. That is what happened tonight, we could not do anything offensively, but our defense kept us in the game. When we finally hit a little offensive rhythm, we were able to stay close enough to strike back and win the game."

Down 47-31 with 16:16 left in the game, Tomaic, Schakel and Mitchell combined to score 21 of the team's 24 points in a 12:37 span to erase the Waves (2-2) lead and forge a four-point advantage, which they would not relinquish en route to the five-point win.

"We played against a really good basketball team," Pepperdine coach Lorenzo Romar said, "a veteran team with a winning culture that plays a very physical brand of basketball. When they got down, they turned it up and physically they may have worn us down in the second half.

"I have a lot of respect for coach Dutcher, even back when coach Fisher was here and what they've done with this program over the last 20 years. I've watched San Diego State play many times and have coached against San Diego State numerous times. So nothing that they did was a surprise. They're good. It wasn't a surprise."

San Diego State returns to action on Thursday, Dec. 10 at Arizona State. The Aztecs and Sun Devils are scheduled to tip off at 7 p.m. PT.

GAME 5

No. 24 San Diego State 80 No. 23 Arizona State 68

Dec. 10, 2020 | Tempe, Ariz. Desert Financial Arena | Att.: 0

TEMPE, Ariz. - San Diego State was so worried about Arizona State's fast break, it sent three players back on defense after every miss, leaving its two big men to work the offensive glass.

Two against five turned out to be pretty good odds for the hard-working Aztecs.

Jordan Schakel scored 25 points, Nathan Mensah had 17 points and 15 rebounds, and No. 24 San Diego State dominated inside to beat No. 23 Arizona State 80-68 Thursday night.

"We sent the center and the power forward to the offensive glass and those guys did a great job on their own," Aztecs coach Brian Dutcher said. "It was a real key to the game."

The Sun Devils (3-2) got volume-scoring guard Alonzo Verge Jr. back after he missed two games during to COVID-19 contact tracing but were without forward Marcus Bagley due to a lower left leg injury suffered Saturday against Cal.

San Diego State (5-0) already had a size advantage inside, and Bagley's absence turned it into an even bigger strength.

The Aztecs outscored Arizona State 36-9 in the paint and had 17 second-chance points on 11 offensive rebounds against the smaller Sun Devils. San Diego State pulled away with an 18-2 run in the second half to stretch the nation's longest road winning streak to 13 straight games.

"It was probably our closest to a complete game," said Schakel, who shot 5 of 9 from 3. "We still have a long way to go, but it was nice to put that kind of game together this early in the season."

The Sun Devils were pushed to the perimeter most of the night by the bigger Aztecs and, despite a couple of nice runs, didn't make enough outside shots. Arizona State shot 34% and missed 11 straight shots during a key stretch in the second Verge led the Sun Devils with 25 points.

"Do we really care about how hard we've got to play? Do we know how hard we've got to play to beat a team like that?" Arizona State coach Bobby Hurley said. "There were a lot of examples of that tonight."

San Diego State took advantage, scoring 12 points off six offensive rebounds midway through the first half. The 6-10 Mensah had his way inside with 10 points and 10 rebounds in the first half to give the Aztecs a 35-33 lead.

Arizona State missed 11 of its first 15 shots before finding a better offensive rhythm and cleaned up the defensive glass better to rally from an early 12-point deficit

The Sun Devils struggled against San Diego State's defensive pressure early in the second half and began turning the ball over, leading to a series of transition baskets during a 13-0 Aztecs run.

Arizona State ȟad a stretch of eight minutes without a field goal as San Diego State extended the lead to 59-45.

Brigham Young 72 No. 18 San Diego State 62

Dec. 18, 2020 | San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena | Att.: 0

SAN DIEGO – In a normal visit to San Diego State, the BYU Cougars would have to face a trash-talking student section and a sellout crowd of 12,414 at Viejas Arena.

Not this time. Because of COVID-19, Viejas Arena was empty Friday, which allowed the Cougars to focus strictly on the No. 18 Aztecs.

Alex Barcello scored 22 points and Brandon Averette hit a huge 3-pointer with 51 seconds left for BYU, which blew a 17-point lead before beating San Diego State 72-62 despite Matt Mitchell's career-high 35 points.

Playing in the empty arena, without the taunts of The Show, made a huge difference for the Cougars, who are still reviled even though the teams haven't been in the same conference for a decade.

BYU used its size advantage and effective offense to take a 35-20 halftime lead before hanging on in the second half.

Mitchell was remarkable in scoring 26 points in the second half. He spurred a 14-0 run with three 3-pointers and then had a steal and dunk that tied it 61.

But BYU (7-2) regained control and handed San Diego State (5-1) its first loss. The Aztecs won their first 26 games last season and were the nation's last undefeated team en route to a 30-2 record.

After Matt Haarms made a baseline jumper for a 63-61 BYU lead, Mitchell made one of two free throws. Averette then hit a 3 from straight on to put BYU up 66-62 with 51 seconds left.

"We've been doing this so long that can't you just picture that 3?" Pope said.
"We beat them without The Show in here, and I don't know if we'd beat them with the Show in here. It's just different. But can't you just hear the gym? Like they're coming back, people are tearing their clothes off and going crazy and on fire. And then Brandon Averette bangs that 3 and the place goes deathly silent.

"That's how it felt when he shot it. In my mind, going live, that's how it felt for him to step up and make that big shot. There were so many huge plays but that's the fun one to talk about."

Barcello made four free throws in the last 35 seconds, sandwiched around a missed 3 by Mitchell, and Connor Harding made two free throws for the Cougars, who had a 40-26 rebounding edge.

Haarms and Averette scored 10 points apiece.

Mitchell said BYU's defense "was fanned out a little bit and gave me space to work, gave me room to get to the basket, get to my spots. Some of my teammates couldn't make shots and I felt like there was a lid on the rim so I got a little more aggressive and shots started falling."

Jordan Schakel had only three points on 1-of-9 shooting after scoring a career-high 25 points in an 80-68 win at Arizona State on Dec. 10.

BYU's biggest lead was 35-18 late in the first half before Mitchell made two free throws to make it 35-20 at halftime. SDSU shot just 25 percent and had eight turnovers in the first 20 minutes. Schakel had no points and missed his only two

GAME 7

San Diego State 74 Saint Mary's 49

Dec. 22, 2020 | San Luis Obispo, Calif. Mott Athletics Center | Att.: 0

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Calif. -- Nathan Mensah recorded a career-high 18 points, 13 rebounds and a career-best six blocked shots to lead San Diego State to a 74.49 win over Saint Mary's on Tuesday night in a game played at a neutral site. With the win, San Diego State has won 11 straight games against teams from the state of California.

"We played a solid defensive game," Aztec coach Brian Dutcher said. "I couldn't be more proud of how we defended and then the ball started going in a little bit. I mean, we all know the offensive woes we had against BYU. But (tonight) we played with a little better rhythm offensively and made some jump shots. Nathan (Mensah), obviously...I couldn't be any prouder of him. Nate made a big difference at the defensive end; anchored our defense. (Offensively) we shared the ball; we had scoring from a lot of different people, and just a really hard-fought, good win for the Aztecs tonight."

Mensah is the only Aztec player in at \bar{l} east 25 seasons to produce an 18-13-6 stat line in those three categories.

Terrell Gomez had 13 points for San Diego State (6-1). Jordan Schakel added 12 points. Matt Mitchell had 10 points.

Mensah hit the first bucket of the game and the Aztecs never looked back. San Diego State dominated the first half, shooting 14-of-23 (.609) from the floor and 5-of-9 (.556) from the bonus distance, and led 40-20 at halftime. The Gaels' 20 points in the first half marked a season low, shooting just 7-for-28.

Up 21-10 with 10:37 to play in the opening stanza, the Aztecs doubled its advantage in just over two and a half minutes. In the run, Gomez scored the first seven points with Mensah and Lamont Butler finishing it, and SDSU led by 22 points, 32-10, with 7:59 to go.

In the second half, the Aztecs didn't take their foot off the pedal. The hot shooting from the floor continued as SDSU went 10-of-20 (.500) and when Saint Mary's fouled, made the Gaels pay at the line going 12-of-16 (.750) in the second

For the game San Diego State shot 24-of-43 (.558), including 7-of-17 (.412) from beyond the three-point line and went 19-of-24 from the line (.792).

The Gaels (8-2) were riding an eight-game winning streak coming into the game, but shot just 31 percent (11-of-30) from the floor, 5-of-22 (.227) from beyond the arc and were just 8-of-15 (.533) from the charity stripe.

Logan Johnson tied his career high with 15 points the Saint Mary's.

GAME 8

Colorado State 70 San Diego State 67

Jan. 2, 2021 | San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena | Att.: 0

SAN DIEGO - John Tonje scored 11 points, and his four-point play with 12.3 seconds left helped carry Colorado State to a 70-67 win over San Diego State on Saturday.

"Well, it was a tale of two halves obviously," Aztec coach Brian Dutcher said.
"We got off to a fantastic star and had great momentum. We made enough mistakes at the end of the first half to let them back in the game. That is college basketball. There are always games like this with great swings of momentum. In the second half, we got off to another good start. It was back and forth. We built a seven-point lead with about a minute-and-ten (seconds) to go and (from there) credit to Colorado State. They made the plays (that) we did not down the stretch. They deserved it. We did not make enough plays to win the game. Although we played magnificent in stretches, we did not play well enough for an entire game to deserve the win. So now the task at hand is to put it behind us as quickly as we can, not let one loss cause two losses and be ready to move on and play it again in two days."

Tonje buried the three and drew a foul on Jordan Schakel to give the Rams a 68-67 lead. Matt Mitchell missed a jumper for SDSU with three seconds remaining and Kendle Moore made two free throws to finish it ,as CSU scored the last 11 points of the game.

The Rams had a 14-0 run earlier in the second half and a 19-0 run in the first

The Aztecs led 36-10 when Terrell Gomez made a three-pointer with 8:15 left before halftime. The Rams (6-1, 3-0 Mountain West) proceeded to outscore San Diego State 23-4 to narrow their deficit to 40-33 at halftime.

The comeback is the largest in school and conference history. David Roddy recorded his third consecutive double-double with 15 points and 12 rebounds for "It could not have gone worse (to start)," Rams coach Niko Medved said.

"They really surprised us coming out. They were switching everything and pressuring. Did they make their first eight threes? It was like a blitzkrieg. We were like 'Oh my gosh, what are we going to do?.' Finally, in a timeout, we made up our mind. At some point, we just got to buck up. It is what it is. Finally, we started to get into a little bit of a rhythm and (that was) an awesome way for us to dose out that half. Guys started to get into a flow and took advantage of them a little bit with their pressure. I told the guys at halftime, I did not know if I believed it, but I said, 'We are going to find a way to win this game.' We fought like crazy. We were down eight with two [minutes] to go and I thought our execution with late game stuff was awesome and John Tonje made two big plays and the guys just trusted what we did. What a great win for these guys and for our program."

Gomez had 19 points for the Aztecs (6-2, 0-1).

With the loss, San Diego State had its 35-game winning streak snapped when leading with five minutes remaining in the game, and dropped to 113-7 the last 120 times they have enjoyed a halftime advantage at home.

MOUNTAIN WEST-RECORD 14-TIME CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

GAME 9

San Diego State 78 Colorado State 65

Jan. 4, 2021 | San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena | Att.: 0

SAN DIEGO - Jordan Schakel hit 8-of-11 3-pointers and scored a career-high 28 points as San Diego State rolled past Colorado State 78-65 on Monday night.

The Aztecs have now gone 45 consecutive games without suffering consecutive losses. That is the fourth-longest active streak in the nation.

In addition, San Diego State snaps a two-game homecourt losing streak and now has gone 249 consecutive home games without suffering a three-game homecourt losing streak (dating back to Feb. 12, 26 and 28, 2005).

"Good bounce back victory for us today," Aztec coach Brian Dutcher said. "You know, we felt that we had an opportunity to win the first game in the series. They made the plays down the stretch; we didn't. Today, we got off to another fantastic start. We maintained the lead at halftime. In the second half, they made a run. They're a good team. But we kept our wits about us. We continued to play hard and got a good victory, our first conference win in the season. And now I told them the same thing I did after we lost our first game, we have a quick turnaround. We have to have an NBA mentality. Enjoy this for tonight, but we have to go to work tomorrow because we play on Thursday."

In this one the Rams trailed by 29, 42-13, late in the first half and had a 14-0 run early in the second half but never got closer than 14 points until scoring the final basket of the game.

Terrell Gomez had 13 points for San Diego State (7-2, 1-1 Mountain West Conference). Matt Mitchell added 12 points. Nathan Mensah had 11 points.

"They are a terrific team," Rams coach Nico Medved said. "Even though it was an emphasis, the way we handled the ball was not good. We turned it over 12 times in the first half and I think they had 22 points on live ball turnovers. So, when they are scoring out of our offense, that makes it really difficult. That was a huge key. And overall, our defensive intensity was not what it needed to be. They got into a rhythm again and I do not think our hands were very active. They did a good job with their screening action and we did not communicate very well.

was a huge key. And overall, our defensive intensity was not what it needed to be. They got into a rhythm again and I do not think our hands were very active. They did a good job with their screening action and we did not communicate very well. They had us running around, we lost shooters and they made us pay. We came out in the second half and I think we played with a lot more force defensively and we started taking care of the ball."

David Roddy and John Tonje had 15 points for the Rams (6-2, 3-1), whose four-game win streak was broken. Isaiah Stevens had 11 points.

SDSU is 6-1 in its last seven games against Colorado State, 10-5 in its last 15 and 29-8 in its last 37 contests against the Rams.

The Aztecs snapped Colorado State's four-game winning streak and kept the Rams from sweeping the season series for what would have been just the second time in the last 18 seasons. SDSU has 10 season sweeps during that span.

BIG PICTURE

San Diego State: Wins its third consecutive Mountain West Conference game and sets up an early season showdown at Utah State (9-3 overall, 6-0 Mountain West) on Thursday and Saturday.

Nevada: Played two very good games at Viejas Arena this week but came away with a pair of narrow losses (65-60 on Thursday and 69-67 on Saturday). The Wolf Pack has now lost nine consecutive games at San Diego State dating back to Nov. 14. 1998.

THEY SAID IT

"I just know I had four seconds on the clock. Coach is always talking to us about how many dribbles you can have in the amount of time you have (left), so I had four seconds and four dribbles. I just tried to get it down and get it up on the rim. I knew if I missed, Nate (Mensah) or Matt (Mitchell) would come to try and clean it up. so I just tried to get a shot off." - SDSU senior award Trey Pulliam.

"To be honest with you, I was trying to take a timeout. Basketball is a game of momentum and sometimes, you can draw something up and it's not as good as what you got (in the moment). I do not mind taking it out and just going up the floor. We have done that for years, dating back to DJ Gay and the Colorado State game [Feb. 2, 2011]. (With) the current state of the game, (it is about) just trusting in your players. I had no problem, they got it out. I just wanted to make sure we attacked the basket and Trey did. He attacked hard to the basket and he made a really clutch game-winning shot to get us a victory tonight." - SDSU head coach Brian Dutcher.

GAME 12 Utah State 57 San Diego State 45

Jan. 14, 2021 | Logan, Utah Dee Glen Smith Spectrum | Att.: 1,585

LOGAN, Utah - San Diego State suffered its worst shooting night of the 2020-21 season, hitting just 17-of-51 shots (31.5 percent), and watched its Division I leading 13-game road winning streak come to an end in a 57-45 loss at Utah State on Thursday evening.

Junior forward Nathan Mensah was one of the bright spots going 6-of-9 from the floor and totaling 13 points to lead the Aztecs. It was the fourth consecutive game in double figures and sixth of the season for the Accra, Ghana native. He also added nine rebounds, three steals, two blocks and an assist.

The only other player in double figures for San Diego State was senior forward Matt Mitchell, who finished with 10 points, two assists and two rebounds. Mitchell has reached double-digit scoring in each of the teams 12 games.

The Aztecs (9-3, 3-2 Mountain West) were limited to 20 points in the first half, the third game this year they have reached that total in the first 20 minutes. On the previous two occasions they came out in the second half and totaled 45 against Pepperdine, in a 65-60 win, and had 42 points against BYU, but lost 62-72. Against Utah State (10-3, 7-3 MW) they outscored the Aggies in the second half, totaling 25 points, but couldn't overcome its tough shooting night.

San Diego State had a 5-2 lead on the three pointer from senior guard Trey Pulliam two minutes into the game and was up 7-4 after a Mensah bucket with 16:59 to play in the half, but 11 turnovers in the first 20 minutes combined with the Aggies shooting 14-of-29 (48.3 percent) gave Utah State to a 33-20 halftime advantage.

In the second half, San Diego State cut the lead to five points on two occasions, but could get no closer in the 12-point loss. Both teams set season lows for scoring in the second half. Utah State totaled 24 points in the second half, the lowest of the season for the hosts, while the 25 points in the second half for San Diego State marked the fewest of the season for the road team.

For Utah State, Neemias Queta tallied 14 points and 16 rebounds to lead the Aggies to their ninth consecutive victory. Brock Miller led all scorers with 16 points.

The teams have little time to prepare for game two of this series. The tip off is scheduled for 10:30 a.m. PT on Saturday and will be broadcast on CBS.

GAME 13 Utah State 64 San Diego State 59

Jan. 16, 2021 | Logan, Utah Dee Glen Smith Spectrum | Att.: 1,638

LOGAN, Utah - The San Diego State men's basketball team took a 10-point lead into the second half at Utah State on Saturday afternoon, but saw Aggies go to the free throw line 20 times in the second half, knocked down 17 attempts, and were able to erase the Aztecs lead and earn a 64-59 win in the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum.

It was the second consecutive loss for SDSU, which had not suffered back-toback defeats in its last 48 games dating back to March 6 & 9, 2019. Before being snapped the streak was tied for the third longest in Division I.

The Aztecs (9-4, 3-3 Mountain West) got nearly half of its 59 points from two guards who came off the bench. Senior Terrell Gomez led SDSU with 16 points and freshman Lamont Butler finished with a season-high 13 points. Add senior guard Jordan Schakel's 11 points to the 29 from Gomez and Butler, and the threesome totaled 67.7 percent of the team scoring (40-of-59 points).

In addition to his season-best 13 points, Butler, who is the only Aztec freshman to appear in every game this season, played 25 minutes and had a game-high five steals, both season bests for the Moreno, Valley, Calif., native.

Senior forward Nothan Mensah and sophomore forward Keshad Johnson led SDSU with five rebounds and senior guard Trey Pulliam finished with seven points and two assists.

After struggling from the floor two nights earlier, San Diego State outshot the Aggies 41.1 percent (23-of-56) to 37.3 percent (19-of-51), including going 13-of-27 (48.1 percent) in the first half. The Aztecs held Utah State (11-3, 8-0 MW) to a season-low 22 first half points. But with a 12-2 run to open the second half, Utah State tied the game at 34-34 with 16:28 to play.

The game was back-and-forth over the succeeding 13 minutes with eight lead changes, five ties and neither team able to generate more than a four-point lead. Finally, at the 4:28 mark, the Aggies took a lead which it would not relinquish on its way to its 10th straight win. In the final 4:32, Utah State went to the line 10 times and made nine of their attempts and the Aztecs were 2-of-3 over the same time frame.

Utah State's Steven Ashworth led all scorers with 17 points. Brock Miller totaled 11 points and Neemias Queta chipped in with 10 points and 10 rebounds.

GAME 14

San Diego State 98 Air Force 61

Jan. 22, 2021 | Colorado Springs, Colo. Clune Arena | Att.: 0

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. - Nearly six minutes into the first half, the San Diego State men's basketball team trailed 6-5 at Air Force, but then ignited the afterburners and went on a 47-10 run to end the half en route to a 98-61 victory over the Falcons on Friday night in Clune Arena.

"Well, I said this is like going to the dentist, but it was a good checkup today," Aztec coach Brian Dutcher said. "We played at a high level defensively and took them out of a lot of what they do well. I think it was with our pressure that got us ignited offensively. We shot the ball well. We shared the ball. Everything we worked on this week to try to make it difficult on them offensively was effective. So now both teams will go make adjustments and it'll be a completely new game on Sunday. We can't get full of ourselves and not know that this is a team that's going to come out and play inspired basketball against us on Sunday."

The 37-point margin of victory was the largest ever for San Diego State in a Mountain West Conference road game, while the Aztecs handed the Falcons their largest home defeat in nearly nine years.

San Diego State used an efficient offense, shooting 54.5 percent from the field and making 13 three-point field goals and a high-pressure defensive effort, forcing Air Force into 27 turnovers (its most since 1999) to cruise to its widest margin of victory in the 84-aame history of the series.

Five Aztecs scored in double figures led by 18 points from Jordan Schakel.

Aguek Arop and Adam Seiko each scored a career-high 14 points and Nathan Mensah and Keith Dinwiddie Jr, contributed 13 points each. For Dinwiddie Jr., his 13 points were also a career best.

The Aztecs forced 27 turnovers, including 15 steals, and converted them into 39 points and its bench outscored Air Force 57-to-26.

AJ Walker led the Falcons with 17 points and Ameka Akaya added 12.

The teams play the second game of a two-game series on Sunday with the ti scheduled for 8 p.m. MT.

BOUNCE BACK

After suffering its first two-game losing streak in a 48-game stretch, San Diego State took control early with a 22-0 run. The Aztecs have now gone 97 straight games without suffering a three-game losing streak.

GOOD ON THE ROAD

San Diego State is now 14-2 in its last 16 road games dating back to late in the 2018-19 campaign.

MOUNTAIN WEST-RECORD 14-TIME CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

GAME 15

San Diego State 91 Air Force 59

Jan. 24, 2021 | Colorado Springs, Colo. Clune Arena | Att.: 0

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. -- Jordan Schakel scored 24 points and Terrell Gomez scored 15 and San Diego State beat Air Force 91-59 on Sunday night.

"It was a hard-fought win," Aztec coach Brian Dutcher said. "I mean we knew it was going to be tough. We knew they'd respond after the way we beat them in the first game, and the first half was very competitive. They moved the ball at a better pace; they were quick with their cuts and they caught us on a lot of action. We were fortunate to have a 13-point lead (at halftime), which we built on in the second half, and this was a game where we had multiple contributors. We played all 10 guys significant minutes and then got some of the guys in at the end of the bench for the last seven. So, everybody contributed today, which was important because I looked at them and the altitude did have an effect on us. I know people probably don't want to hear that, but even in shoot around today I hught certain guys were struggling. So, we went to the bench quickly. We played maybe three- or four-minute stands for most of the guys and it was just a great team effort today."

San Diego State defeats Air Force for the fifth consecutive time, outscores the Falcons 189-120 in the two games in Colorado Springs, and defeats Air Force in Colorado Springs for the third consecutive time, matching the school record for most consecutive wins at Air Force.

Aguek Arop made two foul shots with 15:50 left in the first half, the Aztecs (11-4, 5-3 Mountain West Conference) took a 5-4 lead and they never trailed again. The points started a 17-5 run from which Air Force (4-10, 2-8) never recovered.

San Diego now has won back-to-back contests and five of its last seven. The Falcons have dropped three straight and are 1-7 in their last eight.

San Diego State made a season-high 16 three-point field goals, including six from Schakel and five from Gomez, and shot a season-best 53.3 percent from distance. The Aztecs 53.3 percent shooting from beyond the arc is its highest since making 11-of-18 (61.1 percent) vs. Creighton on Nov. 28, 2019.

Overall, SDSU hit 31-of-60 (.517) from the floor and has won 22 straight games and is 34-1 in the Dutcher era when shooting at least 50 percent from the field

After missing the last two games, Matt Mitchell returned to the Aztecs lineup and reached double figures for the 13th straight game in which he has played. That is every game he has played in this season. He finished with 10 points, seven rehounds and three assists in just 14 minutes

Nikc Jackson scored 17 points and Chris Joyce 13 for Air Force.

GAME 17

San Diego State 98 Wyoming 71

Jan. 30, 2021 | San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena | Att.: 0

SAN DIEGO — Senior forward Matt Mitchell has etched his name throughout the San Diego State record book. On Saturday night, the master used a variety of his tools as San Diego State pounded Wyoming, 98-71, at Viejas Arena.

Mitchell had a game-high 26 points, five rebounds, four assists and two steals in 29 minutes of action. The senior forward connected on 4-of-7 three-point at-

. He passed Billy White and Steve Copp to move into 10th place on the school's all-time scoring list and joined Winston Shepard and Trey Kell as the only Aztec players with 1,000 points, 500 rebounds, 200 assists and 100 steals in their career.

Similar to Thursday's game, San Diego State jumped Wyoming early, building advantages of 13-6, 26-10 and 38-15 before settling for a 51-28 halftime advan-

. "We played the right way," Aztec coach Brain Dutcher said of his team's first half performance. "We were hot from threes and we got out on the fastbreak because we got stops. We shared the ball and we did not turn the ball over. So we played really well offensively.

"In the second half, we had 24 points and we did not particularly shoot the ball as well. We missed a lot of shots and Wyoming made some defensive adjustments and played a better second half against us. If I was just going on the first half, I would say it was a spectacular game, but we have room to grow as a team and we have to start doing that tomorrow."

Keshad Johnson had a career-high 15 points for San Diego State (13-4, 7-3 Mountain West Conference), which earned its fourth consecutive victory. Lamont Butler added 11 points. Jordan Schakel had 10 points.

San Diego State shot 34-of-56 (.607) from the floor and has shot 50 percent or better from the field in four straight games for the first time since December

The Aztecs have scored at least 87 points in four straight games, which is SDSU's second-longest streak in its Division I erg (1970-71) and longest since a seven-game stretch from Jan. 16-Feb. 4, 1971.

Marcus Williams had 18 points and six assists for the Cowboys (10-7, 4-6). Jeremiah Oden added 11 points. Xavier DuSell had 11 points.

The Aztecs improve to 2-0 against the Cowboys for the season. San Diego State defeated Wyoming 87-57 on Thursday. The win is the 14th consecutive time San Diego State has defeated Wyoming at Viejas Arena. Wyoming's last win in Viejas was a 66-65 decision on Jan. 3, 2007.

GAME 19

San Diego State 77 San Jose State 55

Feb. 10, 2021 | San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena | Att.: 0

SAN DIEGO - Jordan Schakel scored a game-high 24 points and San Diego State used an 18-3 run in the second half to ease away from San Jose State to roll to a 77-55 victory on Wednesday night in a Mountain West Conference game.

Terrell Gomez had 13 points and Lamont Butler added 11 for San Diego State (15-4, 9-3 Mountain West Conference), which earned its sixth consecutive victory by at least 22 points. Matt Mitchell, returning after missing the first game of the series, had seven points, a team-leading seven rebounds, and three assists.

Schakel scored the first bucket of the game, a three pointer, and after a steal and being fouled, he knocked down a pair of free throws to stake the Aztecs to an early 7-2 lead. However, the early success of the offense did not lead to an early blowout.

San Jose State tied the game at 7-7 with 15:50 to go and again at 14-14 and 17-17 with slightly more than nine minutes left in the half. Down the stretch, the Azters were able to pry open the lead to nine points, 33-24 before taking a 33-27 advantage into the intermission.

"(San Jose State) played very well in the first half," San Diego State men's head basketball coach Brian Dutcher said. "They jumped it up and kept us off balance. We could not find a rhythm offensively because they were mixing man (defense), calling a 1-3-1 zone, but really dropping into a 2-3 zone and just (kept doing things) to try to get us out of rhythm."

In the second half, the SDSU offense came alive. The team shot 42.5 percent (17-of-40), including hitting seven three-pointers, and out scored the Spartans 44-28 to earn the 77-55 victory, its sixth in a row and the longest winning streak this season for the Aztecs.

San Diego State owned the offensive glass 14-to-3, and used that advantage to outscore SJSU 17-0 in second chance points. In addition the Aztecs dominated points in the paint 34-to-8.

Trey Smith scored a career-high 22 points and had eight rebounds for the Spartans (5-13, 3-11). Sebastian Mendoza added 14 points and seven rebounds. Ralph Agee had seven rebounds. Jalen Dalcourt, the Spartans' second leading scorer coming into the contest at 12 points per game, had only three points. He hit 14% from behind the arc (1 of 7).

No. 25 San Diego State 67 Fresno State 53

Feb. 18, 2021 | Fresno, Calif. Save Mart Center | Att.: 0

FRESNO, Calif. - Nothing was falling early for No. 25 San Diego State against Fresno State, including a layup that Trey Pulliam whiffed on in the opening minute. "That first layup was like, 'Holy smokes, it's going to be one of those nights?'

" Aztecs coach Brian Dutcher said.

Not to worry. Matt Mitchell scored 19 points and Pulliam matched his career high with 18 for San Diego State, which used a 19-0 run to take control in the first half and beat Fresno State 67-53 Thursday night for its seventh straight win.

Jordan Schakel had 13 for the Aztecs (16-4, 10-3 Mountain West), who recovered from a ragged start and an 11-0 deficit by clamping down on defense and forcing Fresno State to go cold for eight minutes.

"That's the beauty of our team," Dutcher added. "We don't need one guy to put up his numbers every night for us to win. ... We have a lot of pieces on this team. It was Trey's night tonight and I hope it is again in the next game. But if it's not. I know we have enough offensive pieces to make it successful."

Said Pulliam: ""If I have an open shot, I take it. My confidence was there so I just took it. I had it going, so that's really what it was."

The 14-point margin was the narrowest in the win streak by SDSU. Four of the Aztecs' previous six wins had been by at least 30 points.

Orlando Robinson had 17 points and 13 rebounds and Isaiah Hill 11 points for Fresno State (9-8, 6-8).

San Diego State missed its first six shots and allowed Fresno State to take an 11-0 lead, including getting two 3-pointers from Hill and one from Robinson.

The Bulldogs then went cold for eight minutes and SDSU took off on a 19-0 run. The Aztecs took the lead for good at 13-11 on Mitchell's steal and layup 10:22 into the game. They ran the lead to 19-11 on Terrell Gomez's jumper before Fresno State finally broke its drought with a jumper by Christian Gray with 7:34 to SDSU closed on a 32-9 spurt to lead 32-20 at halftime.

"They picked up the pressure and we didn't respond on the offensive end," said Fresno State coach Justin Hutson, a former assistant at SDSU. "When they picked up the pressure on us on the defensive end, up 11-nothing — like good teams do — we didn't respond and play with a purpose. We didn't cut hard, we didn't drive hard and more importantly we didn't make the extra pass."

Pulliam scored 12 points in the second half, including two 3-pointers in the first few minutes.

SDSU: The Aztecs were back in The Associated Press Top 25 for the first time in two months. It took them a few minutes to look like a ranked team, and then keyed their comeback with clampdown defense.

Fresno State: The Bulldogs have lost 27 straight games to AP Top 25 teams. Its last win against a ranked team was a 58-52 defeat of Oklahoma State on Feb. 10, 2002

MOUNTAIN WEST-RECORD 14-TIME CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

GAME 21

No. 25 San Diego State 75 Fresno State 57

Feb. 20, 2021 | Fresno, Calif. Save Mart Center | Att.: 0

FRESNO, Calif. - San Diego State has gone on a tear since losing consecutive games at Utah State in mid-January.

The Aztecs knew they had to in order to save their season.

Jordan Schakel scored 14 points — 12 on 3-pointers in the first half — and No. 25 San Diego State beat Fresno State 75-57 Saturday night for its eighth straight victory.

Matt Mitchell and Terrell Gomez had 13 points apiece for the Aztecs (17-4, 11-3 Mountain West), whose tight defense frustrated the Bulldogs most of the night.

"I think everyone on this team, especially the more veteran guys, knew every game after Utah State was a must win, and it still is," Schakel said. "Two games left in the regular season, and after that it's lose or you go home. That's really a must win. We knew we had to go on a run like that."

The Aztecs, who are the defending regular-season MWC champions, host firstplace Boise State in a big two-game series Thursday and Saturday. The Aztecs are still waiting to find out if a series against UNLV that was postponed earlier this season will be played in the week before the conference tournament.

The Aztecs are tied for second with Colorado State and are even with Boise State in the loss column. The Aztecs were 3-3 and tied for fifth place on Jan. 19.

SDSU coach Brian Dutcher was pleased with the effort on the road.

"I told them before the game, we're wired the right way," Dutcher said. "We're wired hard. It's not easy winning on the road but we're wired because of the way we practice and the way we prepare, that we're ready for these moments."

Schakel was 5 for 5 from the field, including 4 for 4 on 3-pointers. Gomez was 3 for 3 from behind the arc. SDSU was 8 for 12 on 3-pointers and shot 61% overall from the floor.

Deon Stroud scored 17 and Orlando Robinson 16 for Fresno State (9-9, 7-9). San Diego State opened with a 9-0 run and notched another dominating win in its streak. Its average margin of victory in the eight games is 26.4 points.

The Aztecs' defense was particularly impressive in the second half. Schakel had a steal and layup for a 52-34 lead and Mitchell later had a steal and layup for a 57-36 lead.

Keshad Johnson had two impressive slam dunks in the second half.

"I thought our fight was still there," Bulldogs coach Justin Hutson said. "Now, it's not always consistent. I thought we generated better shots. They just didn't go. in. But our transition defense was horrendous. I think that usually comes from young guys missing shots. Got to be a little bit more mature and get back to the top."

GAME 22

No. 22 San Diego State 78 Boise State 66

Feb. 25, 2021 | San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena | Att.: 0

SAN DIEGO — After breezing through eight straight wins by an average of 26.4 points, No. 22 San Diego State was brought back to reality by Boise State.

Matt Mitchell scored 24 points, including four in overtime, and the Aztecs overcame 29 points by Derrick Alston Jr. to beat the Broncos 78-66 on Thursday night for their ninth straight win.

Trey Pulliam matched his career high with 18 for SDSU, which blew a 17-point second-half lead before recovering in overtime to take the inside track to repeating as Mountain West Conference regular-season champion.

SDSU (18-4, 12-3 MW) took a half-game lead over Boise State (18-5, 14-4 MW), which had its four-game win streak snapped. On Tuesday, the Mountain West awarded San Diego State a pair of forfeit victories over New Mexico. Those games do not count in SDSU's overall or formal conference record, but will count for seeding and conference championship implications.

That means the Aztecs control their own destiny. They host Boise again on Saturday and then finish with a rescheduled game at UNLV on Wednesday night.

Alston scored 22 points in the second half, including Boise State's first 11 points, to help bring the Broncos back from a 17-point deficit. Boise used a 14-0 run to pull to 52-51, getting three 3-pointers from Emmanuel Akot and a 3 from Alston.

"He just flipped a switch and was a great competitor in the second half and we're going to need every second of that when we play them again," coach Leon Rice said.

After Abu Kigab missed two straight inside shots, Alston hit a step-back 3 to tie it at 58 with 1:39 to go.

Mitchell converted a three-point play for a 61-58 lead and then hit two free throws with 27 seconds left for a 63-60 lead. RayJ Dennis hit a 3-pointer to tie it with 9.3 seconds left.

Mitchell was called for a charge and the game went to overtime. Mitchell made two shots sandwiched around a 3-pointer by Jordan Schakel, and Boise State never recovered. Alston was 0 for 2 in overtime and Boise State, the league's highest-scoring team, had only three points in the extra period.

Mitchell said the only thing to do after blowing the 17-point lead was "just look your teammates in the eyes and tell them to dig in. It's something we've done in practice and we've dealt with different types of adversity. Boise State coming back from a 17-point lead was today's type of adversity."

The Aztecs filled was loady's type of adversity.

The Aztecs filled up on the conference's second-tier teams during their winning streak and then came out strong against the Broncos.

SDSU put on a defensive clinic in the first half, forcing 12 turnovers while Boise

Pulliam had 11 points in the first 20 minutes, including a jumper off a rebound at the buzzer for a 29-17 lead.

No. 22 San Diego State 62 Boise State 58

Feb. 27, 2021 | San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena | Att.: 0

SAN DIEGO - Matt Mitchell hit two free throws with 3.3 seconds left and fellow senior Jordan Schakel made four free throws in the final 8.7 seconds for San Diego State, which beat Boise State 62-58 Saturday for its 10th straight victory.

Schakel finished with 17 points, and Mitchell had eight points, eight rebounds and four steals.

Sweeping the two-game series against the Broncos means the Aztecs (19-4, 13-3 Mountain West) can repeat as regular-season conference champions if they win at UNIV on Wednesday night.

BSU (18-6, 14-5 MW) came into the series with a half-game lead. On Tuesday, the MW awarded San Diego State a pair of forfeit victories over New Mexico. Those games do not count in SDSU's overall or formal conference record, but will count for seeding and conference championship implications.

Derrick Alston Jr. had a miserable game, scoring just seven points — 11 under his average — on 2-of-12 shooting, including 1-of-9 from distance.

Schakel came up big despite being in foul trouble for most of the game. He drew his second foul midway through the first half, his third early in the second half and then his fourth with 4:17 to go.

Boise State got within one point several times in the closing minutes, including after 3-pointers from Devonaire Doutrive and Marcus Shaver Jr.

But the Broncos could never get the lead and had to foul. Schakel made two free throws with 8.7 seconds to go and two more with 5.8 seconds left, sandwiched around two free throws by Doutrive.

Doutrive made the second of two free throws with 3.8 seconds left before Mitchell sealed it with two more foul shots.

Schakel also had two clutch 3-pointers on consecutive possessions midway through the second half.

After the Broncos closed to 38-36 on two free throws by Emmanuel Akot, Schakel hit a long shot from the left wing and then hit one from the right corner before tumbling out of bounds.

Senior Terrell Gomez scored SDSU's first seven points of the second half, including a 3-pointer, for a 31-24 lead.

Shaver and Doutrive scored 13 apiece for BSU. Mladen Armus had 10 points and 12 rebounds.

On Thursday night, SDSU blew a 17-point lead before winning 78-66 in overtime.

BIG PICTURE

Boise State: The Broncos are 8-58 all-time against Top 25 opponents, including 3-33 under coach Leon Rice. One of those victories came at Viejas Arena on Feb. 28, 2015, 56-46 against No. 24 SDSU.

San Diego State: The Aztecs held a private ceremony for its seniors after practice on Friday and those five players started Saturday. Joining Mitchell and Schakel were Gomez, Trey Pulliam and Joshua Tomaic. The NCAA will grant everyone an extra year of eligibility, but Mitchell, who toyed with entering the NBA draft last before returning, almost certainly won't be back.

GAME 24

No. 19 San Diego State 71 UNLV 62

March 3, 2021 | Las Vegas, Nev. Thomas & Mack Center | Att.: 501

LAS VEGAS - Winning their 11th straight game and the Mountain West Conference regular-season title was just another step for the No. 19 San Diego State Aztecs.

"The most meaningful basketball is still ahead of us," coach Brian Dutcher said after SDSU beat UNIV 71-62 Wednesday behind 19 points from Matt Mitchell and 16 from Jordan Schakel.

Nathan Mensah scored 14 points for the Aztecs (20-4, 14-3 MWC), who used a 14-0 run spanning halftime to take control. They get a week off before returning to Las Vegas as the No. 1 seed in the conference tournament.

With its NCAA Net Ranking at a season-high No. 17, SDSU appears to have done enough to get an at-large berth in the NCAA Tournament if it doesn't win the conference tourney and secure the MWC's automatic bid.

The Aztecs controlled their own destiny during the last week after the MWC awarded them a pair of forfeit victories over New Mexico for a series that wasn't played because the Lobos had injuries but no COVID-19 cases. Those forfeit victories don't count in SDSU's overall or formal conference record, but will count for seeding and conference championship implications. SDSU swept two home games against Boise State during the weekend.

David Jenkins Jr. scored 32 points for UNLV (11-13, 8-9), while leading scorer Bryce Hamilton was held to nine points, nine under his average, and fouled out with 1:41 to go.

SDSU opened a 16-point lead in the second half before UNLV cut it to eight points. The Aztecs responded with a 9-0 burst for a 62-45 lead, with Mensah getting a slam dunk and making four free throws and Schakel hitting a 3. Schakel hinished with a career-high nine rebounds, just missing his first career double-double.

SDSU scored the final seven points of the first half as part of a 14-5 run and led at halftime for the 12th straight game, 35-28.

The Aztecs continued the run by scoring the first seven points of the second half to run the lead to 42-28. Schakel hit a 3-pointer, Mensah scored inside and Mitchell had a nice spin move for a layup, drew a foul and made the three throw.

Trailing 23-21, the Aztecs got five points in five seconds. Schakel hit a 3-pointer and Mitchell stole the inbound pass and dunked for a 26-23 lead.

UNLY tied it at 28 when Moses Wood hit a 3-pointer and Hamilton made a baseline jumper. SDSU then closed the half on a 3-pointer and two free throws by Schakel and two free throws by Adam Seiko.

UNLY's David Jenkins Jr. had 14 points in the first half. He made three 3-pointers in the first four minutes for UNLY's first nine points.

SDSU was 30-2 last year and most likely would have received a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament before it was canceled due to the coronavirus pandemic.

San Diego State: Mitchell, a senior, moved past three players and into sixth place on the Aztecs' all-time scoring list with 1,408 points. This is the first time in school history the Aztecs have won consecutive outright regular-season conference titles.

GAME 25 [1] San Diego State 69 [8] Wyoming 66

March 11, 2021 | Las Vegas, Nev. Thomas & Mack Center | Att.: 0

LAS VEGAS - Terrell Gomez scored 20 points and No. 19 San Diego State beat Wyoming 69-66 on Thursday to advance to the Mountain West Conference Tournament semifinals.

The Cowboys had a chance to tie it at the buzzer, but Marcus Williams' long 3-pointer missed badly.

Jordan Schakel and Trey Pulliam each scored 15 points for the Aztecs (21-4), who will play either Boise State or Nevada on Friday.

Xavier DuSell led Wyoming (14-11) with 21 points. Williams and Hunter Maldonado each scored 12, while Graham Ike added 10 points and nine rebounds.

San Diego State, which came in boasting a defense that allowed 60.1 points per game while limiting teams to 39% shooting, allowed at least 66 points for just the seventh time this season.

The Aztecs, who have won 12 straight and are the top seed in the Mountain West tournament for the sixth time in school history, found themselves in a tussle with the scrappy Cowboys, much different than the teams' first two meetings. San Diego State won those January games by an average of 28.5 points while holding the Cowboys to 35.8% shooting.

Thursday was a different story.

Trailing 49-46 midway through the second half, the eighth-seeded Cowboys used five consecutive 3-pointers to stay within reach of San Diego State, which hit six straight free throws down the stretch.

The Cowboys, who employ a four-guard lineup to push the tempo, scored a tournament-record 59 first-half points in their first-round win over San Jose State behind 64.7% shooting. Knowing Wyoming's tendency to fire from long range — it attempted 70 3-pointers combined in two regular-season meetings — the Aztecs used a full-court press and limited the Cowboys' space at the perimeter.

Despite the effective defensive game plan, Wyoming finished the first half 10 of 22 from the floor, including 5 of 11 from 3-point range. There were 11 ties and four lead changes in the first half.

San Diego State hit 13 of 24 (54.2%) from the floor in the first half, but was off the mark from 3-point range, making 3 of 11 (27.3%). The Aztecs finished 25 of 51 (49%) from the field and 7 of 20 (35%) from beyond the arc.

"I think this was good practice for us," Aztec guard Terrell Gomez said. "When we run into teams in the NCAA Tournament that like to hold the ball, throw it inside and stall time."

The Aztecs, who are now 51-6 since the start of the 2019-20 campaign, are in the semifinals for the 14th consecutive season.

BIG PICTURE

San Diego State: The Aztecs are staring at an eight or nine seed for the NCAA Tournament at this point, but are hoping to move up to as high as a six seed if they can win the Mountain West tourney.

GAME 26

[1] San Diego State 77 [5] Nevada 70

March 12, 2021 | Las Vegas, Nev. Thomas & Mack Center | Att.: 0

LAS VEGAS — Matt Mitchell had 24 points and eight rebounds to lead No. 19 San Diego State to a 77-70 victory over Nevada on Friday in the Mountain West Tournament semifinals

The Aztecs (22-4) advanced to their fourth straight conference championship, and seventh in eight years. San Diego State will make its 14th appearance in the Mountain West title game, where it will play Utah State.

The Aztecs' 13-game winning streak is the third-longest current one, behind Gonzaga (26) and Prairie View (14).

Jordan Schakel scored 15 points, Trey Pulliam added 13 and Lamont Butler chipped in with 10 for the Aztecs.

Grant Sherfield scored 25 points for Nevada (16-10). Warren Washington finished with 19 points, while Desmond Cambridge, Jr. added 17 for the Wolf Pack.

San Diego State has won its last six against Nevada and improved to 4-0 against the Wolf Pack in the tournament.

One night after Nevada's "Big Three" of Sherfield, Cambridge and Washington combined for 75 points and shot 59% in a seven-point upset of Boise State, the trio combined to shoot 41% from the floor.

Clinging to a five-point edge out of intermission, the Aztecs opened the second half on an 11-5 run, extending their lead to 11, the largest against Nevada in the three games between the teams this season.

Mitchell hit his first five shots of the second half and scored 15 straight points for San Diego State in a little more than five minutes to bolster the team's second-half run.

"I just felt like I did my job on the team as being the aggressor," Mitchell said.
"I tried to be the aggressor and it paid off and took attention off some of the other auxs on the team."

The Aztecs hit eight of their first 11 attempts in the second half to distance themselves from the team they had close run-ins with during two regular-season wins

The Aztecs, who came in ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense (60.3 ppg.) and eighth in field goal percentage defense (38.9%), limited Nevada to 37.5% shooting in the second half.

The Aztecs used an 11-0 run to open a 14-6 lead while the Wolf Pack went without a field goal during a stretch of 7 minutes, 25 seconds.

Cambridge stopped the drought with a 3-pointer and Nevada rallied to pull within 28-27.

But turnovers hurt the Wolf Pack, whose 12 first-half turnovers transitioned into 10 points for the Aztecs.

San Diego State got good balance from Terrell Gomez, Butler, Schakel, and Pulliam in the first half, as the quartet combined to score 26 points on 47.6% shooting.

GAME 27

[1] San Diego State 68 [2] Utah State 57

March 13, 2021 | Las Vegas, Nev. Thomas & Mack Center | Att.: 0

LAS VEGAS - San Diego State lost the last two Mountain West Tournament championship games to Utah State, and hadn't been to the NCAA Tournament since 2018.

It was time to turn the tables Saturday.

Matt Mitchell scored 14 points to lead No. 19 San Diego State to a 68-57 victory over the Aggies to win the title and secure the league's automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament.

The Aztecs, who also won the regular-season championship, had lost six of their previous seven title game appearances.

It marked just the fifth time the No. 1 seed won the title in 22 years.

Nathan Mensah added 10 points and eight rebounds for the Aztecs, and Trey Pulliam also scored 10.

It marked the third straight tournament game the Aztecs had at least three players score in double figures. Six different players scored in double figures in the event, including Pulliam in all three games.

Junior center Neemias Queta led the Aggies with 18 points, six rebounds, and three blocked shots. Justin Bean added 12 points and six rebounds.

San Diego State (23-4) snapped Utah State's six-game winning streak, during which the Aggies (20-8) had allowed just 58.5 points per game. The Aztecs had their 58th point by the 5:53 mark of the second half.

Meanwhile, San Diego State held the Aggies to their second-lowest output of the season, 16.9 points below their season average of 73.9.

In a battle between the league's two most stringent defenses, San Diego State exhibited its dominance with a 10-2 edge in steals. The turnover margin was seven, with Utah State committing 16 costly turnovers the Aztecs turned into 14 points.

Already having suffered a regular-season sweep by Utah State, the Aztecs wasted no time at distancing themselves from the second-seeded Aggies by using a 6-0 run to start the second half and take a 34-24 lead and never really looked back.

The first half was eerily similar to last year's championship game, which saw the teams combine to shoot 19 of 58 (32%) in the first half while scoring 50 points. In this game, the teams were 21 for 57 (36.8%) and combined to score 52 pts in the first half.

Outside of Queta, the Aggies couldn't get much going with their offense, as the 7-footer had 12 of the team's 24 points. While Queta was 4 of 6 from the floor in the first 20 minutes, the rest of the Aggies were just 5 of 18 (27.7%) from the field. Utah State was also plagued with turnovers, committing eight under San-Diego State's tenacious defense.

Though the Aztecs weren't as offensively efficient as Utah State in the first half, hitting just 12 of 33 (36.4%), they got better balance with six shooters contributing on the stat sheet.

"The top of this league is very strong," Dutcher said. "Hopefully we're a multibid league. But I know when those doors close and they get in that room, over the years the Power of 5s have won the day. Hopefully that changes tomorrow."

Jan. 19, 2021 | Indianapolis, Ind. Hinkle Fieldhouse | Att.: 0

INDIANAPOLIS - The decades-old zone defense of Syracuse coach Jim Boeheim claimed another frustrated victim Friday night.

One of the best 3-point shooting teams in the country, too.

The No. 11 seed Orange held sixth-seeded San Diego State without a field goal for nearly a quarter of the game, sweet-shooting Buddy Boeheim hit seven 3-pointers and finished with 30 points, and Syracuse cruised to a 78-62 victory inside Hinkle Fieldhouse and into the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Boeheim finished 7 of 10 from beyond the arc and 11 of 15 from the field, and Marek Dolezaj added 11 points, as Syracuse (17-9) advanced to play third-seeded West Virginia or No. 14 seed Morehead State for a spot in the Sweet

The Orange were trailing 18-14 midway through the first half when they clamped down on defense, holding San Diego State (23-5) without a field goal the rest of the half. And when the Aztecs threatened to trim their deficit to less than 10 early in the second half, the son of the longtime Syracuse coach was there to Boeheim hit three quick 3-pointers, one of them curling off a screen and falling away, to put the game out of reach.

Jordan Schakel had 17 points for the Aztecs, but the nation's third-best 3-point shooter was just 5 of 13 from beyond the arc. Leading scorer Matt Mitchell also had 17 points on 8-of-19 shooting for the Mountain West champs.

San Diego State made it clear from the moment it jacked up three 3-pointers on its first couple trips down the floor that the plan was to break Syracuse's decades-old 2-3 zone by shooting right over top of it.

Problem is the Aztecs didn't make many.

Beginning with Boeheim's own 3-pointer with 9:17 left, the Aztecs never scored again in the first half. They missed their final 10 attempts from beyond the arc, finished 3 of 20 from the 3-point line in the first half, and even missed the front end of a one-and-one with a few seconds left before the break.

"Buddy Buckets" nearly outscored San Diego State by himself. Boeheim had 16 points as Syracuse built a 32-18 halftime lead; it was the fewest points Dutcher's high-scoring, perimeter-oriented team had scored in a half all season.

Mitchell, the Mountain West player of the year, missed all five of his 3-point tries and was 1 of 9 from the field.

Schakel finally got a 3-pointer to go right out of halftime, giving the few San Diego State fans in the crowd a long-awaited reason to cheer. But the Aztecs promptly went into another long slump, and Boeheim and the rest of the Orange's red-hot shooters continued to bury their own 3s, building a 56-30 lead before coasting to the finish.

MOUNTAIN WEST-RECORD 14-TIME CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

The following pages reflect the career statistics of all SDSU players for the Division I level. Furthermore, foul outs (1972), assists (1973), minutes (1979), steads (1979), steads (1979), blocked shots (1979), turnovers (1979) and game started (in 1979) have only recently been kept. Those stats are only listed below if they were kept during the players' entire career. The three-point field goal was added prior to the 1986-87 season. All years below refer to the year in which the season ended (e.g. the 2003-04 season is listed as 04). W - indicates number of SDSU victories in which the player participated (includes all players since the 1975-76 season).

Officials: Fouty, Dreith.

(First Round)

UC Irvine 70, San Diego State 69 March 12, 1982 • San Diego, Calif. San Diego Sports Arena • Att.: 8,114

SAN DIEGO -- San Diego State's rally from an 11-point second-half deficit fell short as UC Irvine claimed a 70-69 victory in the first round of the NIT.

The Aztecs, who never led after the opening five minutes of the game, trailed 63-55 with eight minutes remaining before an 11-4 run cut the deficit to 67-66 with 2:49 remaining. SDSU trailed 70-69 and had an opportunity to win, but Don Plummer was unable to convert on a 21-foot jumper at the buzzer.

Plummer led the Aztecs with 19 points and added seven rebounds. Keith Smith had eight points while dishing out 13 assists for San Diego State.

The Anteaters shot 60.9 percent from the field while holding SDSU to only 43.7 percent shooting. However, the Aztecs countered with an aggressive defense that led to 13 steals and 19 UCI turnovers. SDSU also outrebounded the Anteaters 36-30, but only managed to shoot 7 of 13 from the line.

No. 9 UNLV 85, San Diego State 80 March 14, 1985 • Salt Lake City, Utah Special Events Center • Att.: 7,351

SALT LAKE CITY -- SDSU made a late run at No. 9 UNLV but did not have enough firepower to overcome a 10-point halftime deficit as the Rebels earned an 85-80 victory in the first round of the NCAA tournament.

The Aztecs trailed by as many as 13 in the first half, but tied the game at 56 with under 10 minutes remaining. UNLV rebuilt the lead but SDSU did not give in to the more athletic Rebels as it cut the deficit to three, when Anthony Watson hit a jumper with 1:02 left. The Aztecs were forced to foul down the stretch and UNLV knocked down the free throws to secure the victory.

Leonard Allen poured in a game-high 23 points for SDSU and Anthony Watson scored 19. Forwards Michael Kennedy and John Martens also cracked double-fig-

The Rebels were led by Armon Gilliam, who posted 21 points and 10 rebounds. Ritchie Adams, the Rebels' leading scorer on the season, was saddled with foul trouble from the start of the game and finished with 10 points in only 23 minutes of action.

2003 NIT

(First Round)

San Diego State 67, UC Santa Barbara 62 (ot)
March 19, 2003 • San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 5,390

SAN DIEGO -- SDSU needed overtime to win its first Division I postseason game, claiming a 67-62 NIT first-round victory over UC Santa Barbara.

Tony Bland, who became the third Aztec player to reach 1,000 points in just two seasons, sent the game into extra time by going the length of the floor to hit a bank shot with 1.9 seconds left. Then with 1:15 left in overtime, Tommy Johnson put SDSU ahead for good at 63-60 with a 3-pointer as the Aztecs closed the game with a 1.2 run.

In its sixth postseason appearance in 33 years at the Division I level, the Aztecs overcame their largest halftime deficit of the season (32-22) snapping a three-game losing streak, limiting UCSB to just 62 points and 42.6 percent shooting.

After a dunk by Evan Burns with 5:58 left in the first half, UCSB closed out the opening period with a 14-1 run to take a 10-point lead into the half. The Gauchos scored the first basket of the second half before Bland jump started the Aztecs with a free throw and layup to start a 10-0 run.

The game was fied at 50 with five minutes left and both teams buckled down defensively.

The Gauchos scored the first six points of overtime before SDSU's game-ending run, which included six straight Mike Mackell points to tie the game at 60 and set up Johnson's heroics.

Texas Tech led by 14 points in the first half but SDSU trailed by just one, 46-45, with 6:41 remaining. The Aztecs had a chance to take the lead but Tony Bland missed a layup with 6:14 left after he stole the ball from Kasib Powell and took it the length of the court.

San Diego then went scoreless for nearly five minutes before Evan Burns hit a 3-pointer from the right corner with 1:47 remaining in the game.

2006 NCAA Tournament

(First Round)

Indiana 87, San Diego State 83 March 16, 2006 • Salt Lake City, Utah Huntsman Center • Att.: 15,122

SALT LAKE CITY -- Making its third postseason appearance in five years, 11th-seeded San Diego State fell 87-83 to sixth-seeded Indiana in a nail-biter in the first round of the NCAA tournament.

The Hoosiers led by as many as nine points with just over six minutes remaining in the first half until Brandon Heath hit a three-pointer with 55 seconds left to give SDSU a one-point lead. As the half came to a close, Mohamed Abukar made a layup, giving the Aztecs a three-point cushion heading into halftime, despite hitting 62.1 percent of their field goals.

As the second half began, San Diego State started to pull away as it built a pair of 10-point leads, the last coming with 11:44 left in the contest.

Indiana chipped away at the Aztecs' lead and eventually tied the game at 76 with just under four minutes remaining. But just as it had all evening, SDSU pulled ahead until Heath lost the ball near midcourt with 55 seconds left, forcing a jump ball situation that the Hoosiers wound up winning.

After an Indiana timeout, the ensuing play saw Robert Vaden, who had 18 points, hit a three-point field goal giving the Hoosiers a two-point advantage with the clock showing five seconds.

On the inbounds play, Abukar sailed a pass out of bounds and the Aztecs fouled on the next possession sending IU to the line where they connected on both free-throw attempts to end the game.

Abukar led all scorers with 24 points and also had nine rebounds. Heath scored 15 with Marcus Slaughter contributing 13 points and 10 rebounds.

MOUNTAIN WEST-RECORD 14-TIME CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

2007 NIT

(First Round)

San Diego State 74, Missouri State 70 March 14, 2007 • Springfield, Mo. Hammons Student Center • Att.: 4,234

Springfield, Mo. -- SDSU captured just its second Division I postseason victory as it defeated Missouri State on the road, 74-70, in the first round of the NIT.

SDSU and MSU struggled early to keep the game close. The Aztecs were particularly sloppy as they committed eight turnovers in the first eight minutes. However, the Bears did not make their run until the 10-minute mark, outscoring the Aztecs, 14-4, to go up by eight with 7:49 left.

San Diego State responded with 11 unanswered points and closed out the half on an 18-5 run to head into the locker room with a 34-29 lead.

The Aztecs maintained its lead and watched it balloon to eight on a Brandon Heath jumper with 15:14 on the clock.

With the game tied at 49, MSU caught fire and enjoyed a six-point advantage with 7:26 left. But as it did before, SDSU used a 15-4 run, giving it a 69-64 cushion going into the final minutes.

The Bears fought back, eventually tying it at 70 with 41 seconds remaining. After an Aztec timeout, Heath connected on a three with one second left on the shot clock and seven seconds on the game clock.

With an opportunity to trim the Aztecs' lead, Nathan Bilyeu missed two free throws and Jer'Vaughn Johnson made one of two from the line to put the game out of reach.

2007 NI

(Second Round

Syracuse 80, San Diego State 64 March 19, 2007 • Syracuse, N.Y. Carrier Dome • Att.: 26,752

Syracuse, N.Y. -- SDSU had its season end in the second round of the NIT as Syracuse downed the Aztecs, 80-64, before a record crowd at the Carrier Dome.

The second-round game between two teams led by national championship coaches in Steve Fisher and Jim Boeheim, attracted an NIT-record 26,752 fans and many went home happy as the home team connected on nine three-pointers and shut down SDSU in the second half.

The Aztecs held their own in the opening period as they trailed by only five points, 38-33, going into the locker room. However, the second half was a different story as the Orange jumped on San Diego State with a 19-7 run to open play and finished it with an 11-0 spurt to take a commanding lead.

At that point, Syracuse was up 59-40 with 13:41 remaining in the game. Unfortunately for the Aztecs, they never got closer than 13 points the rest of the way as the Orange had an answer for every Aztec basket.

Lorrenzo Wade led SDSU with 16 points and eight boards. Playing in their final game as Aztecs, Brandon Heath finished with 15 points and a game-high seven assists, while Mohamed Abukar contributed 14 points.

2009 NIT

(Quarterfinal)

San Diego State 70, Saint Mary's 66 March 25, 2009 • San Diego, Calif. Cox Arena • Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO -- San Diego State held its last game of the 2008-09 season at Cox Arena in front of a sold-out crowd of 12,414 for the NIT Quarterfinals against second-seeded Saint Mary's.

The Aztecs got out to an early 16-point lead, holding the Gaels scoreless with 11:07 to play in the first half.

SDSU maintained its lead throughout the game with Saint Mary's tying the score only once during the contest. San Diego State's Richie Williams was able to contain the Gaels' sophomore star Partick Mills, to 7-of-24 shooting for the game. Aztec Billy White proved to be a dominating presence in the paint by going 8-for-12 and had a team high of 17 points.

San Diego State went into halfitime with an 11-point lead. When the two teams got back into action, the Aztecs continued to roll, scoring 42 of their 70 points in the paint. SDSU benefited from Saint Mary's mistakes by tallying 12 points off turnovers

The Gaels would only tie the score once and were never able to take the lead away from SDSU despite outscoring the Aztecs 38-31 in the second half. In the end, it was San Diego State's speed and Saint Mary's mistakes that would decide the aame.

With the win, the Aztecs headed to New York to play at Madison Square Garden. The 26th San Diego State win extended its school record and the marked farthest any SDSU team had advanced in the postseason.

2009 NIT

(Semifinal)

Baylor 76, San Diego State 62 March 31, 2009 • New York, N.Y. Madison Square Garden • Att.: 11,352

NEW YORK -- SDSU was eliminated in the semifinal round in Madison Square Garden, ending its run for its first NIT Championship in a 76-62 loss to Baylor.

The Aztecs' chances at victory were deflated behind the perimeter as Baylor successfully relied on the 3-point shot, shooting 11-22 from the arc to pull away with a convincing win.

The Bears were anchored by Curtis Jerrells in the first half where he dropped 19 of his 24 points. The Aztecs were able to manage a dose game in the opening 11:45 as a basket by Ryan Amoroso gave San Diego State the lead, 21-20.

In the ensuing possession, Baylor's Jerrells hit a three-pointer that ignited a 10-0 run. But SDSU managed to fight back as they closed out the period trailing by one point. 34-35.

Baylor's hot shooting performance proved to be too much in the second half. A layup by Amoroso to start the period was the last lead SDSU enjoyed. Baylor was anchored by another key player, this time by LaceDarius Dunn who scored 14 of his 23 points in the second half and was a vital part of the Bears' 17-4 run.

No. 15/14 Tennessee 62, San Diego State 59
March 18, 2010 • Providence, R.I.
Dunkin' Donuts Center • Att.: 10,788

PROVIDENCE, R.I. — San Diego State had its second-half rally fall short as the 11th-seeded Aztecs dropped a 62-59 decision to sixth-seeded and No. 15/14 Tennessee in the first round of the NCAA tournament.

SDSU found itself down 34-26 at halftime after shooting 32.1 percent from the field, including a 2-for-12 effort from three-point range. Despite the poor shooting, the Aztecs were in the game until a 12-7 Volunteer run to end the half propelled the SEC school to its advantage at intermission.

Coming out of the break, San Diego State methodically chipped away at its deficit and put together a 19-10 scoring run to give the Aztecs a 45-44 lead with 9:20 to go in regulation. The lead was short-lived after Tennessee scored six unanswered points and took a five-point lead.

Over the course of the final 5:13, SDSU stayed within striking distance and cut the Volunteer lead to one point on three different occasions, the last of which saw D.J. Gay connect on three free throws with nine seconds left after Melvin Goins fouled the Aztec award on a three-point attempt.

Down by one with nine seconds to go, SDSU fouled Wayne Chism, who knocked down both attempts, and gave the Vols a three-point lead. After the successful attempts, San Diego State raced the ball down the court and Kawhi Leonard's three-point attempt was off the mark giving UT the win.

No. 6/5 San Diego State 68, Northern Colorado 50 March 17, 2011 • Tucson, Ariz.

March 17, 2011 • Tucson, Ariz McKale Center • Att.: 10,101

TUCSON, Ariz. - No. 6/5 San Diego State, the No. 2 seed in the West Region, picked up its first-ever Division I NCAA tournament victory with a 68-50 win over 15th-seeded Northern Colorado.

The Aztecs, who were making their seventh NCAA Tournament appearance, snapped a six-game losing streak in the Division I tournament.

San Diego State struggled in the first half as they made just 32.4 percent of its shots, many of which were at the rim. Kawhi Leonard, Billy White and Chase Tapley, however, were effective as they combined for 26 of SDSU's 30 first-half points. Despite getting production from the aforementioned trio, the Aztecs had trouble stopping the Bears, but still led, 30-24, at halftime.

Early in the second half, NC's Devon Beitzel cut the SDSU lead to three with one of his six three-pointers, but the Aztecs had an answer. San Diego State received back-to-back threes from D.J. Gay and James Rahon, a jumper from Rahon, another three from Rahon and a jumper from White to turn in a 13-0 run, which gave SDSU a 16-point lead.

The Bears cut their deficit to 12 after consecutive buckets, but would get no closer as the Aztecs secured a spot in the third round against Temple.

No. 6/5 San Diego State 71, Temple 64 (20t) March 19, 2011 • Tucson, Ariz. McKale Center • Att.: 11,127

TUCSON, Ariz. - No. 6/5 San Diego State needed two overtime sessions to hold off Temple, 71-64, in the third round of the NCAA tournament.

The Aztecs, who went 15,713 days between NCAA tournament victories and entered the tourney having never won a Division I NCAA tournament game, found themselves with two wins in nearly 50 hours and a spot in the Sweet 16.

Getting to the regional semifinals looked like a lock in the first half as SDSU was rolling and enjoying an 11-point lead with 3:13 left before halftime. Temple, however, closed the gap in a hurry, rattling off six straight points to trail, 36-31, at the break.

In the second half, things still looked promising for the Aztecs as they led, 52-45, with 7:16 remaining in regulation. But as the clock ticked, San Diego State had a hard time finding the bottom of the net and defending the Owls. After Billy White's jumper with 7:16 left, Temple went on a 9-2 run to tie the game at 54. SDSU's Chase Tapley had a chance to win the game in the final seconds, but his driving layup was contested and off the mark.

In the first OT, Juan Fernandez immediately hit a three and scored the Owls' first five points, but Kawhi Leonard answered with four straight points and was followed by a three-point play from Malcolm Thomas. Again, the Aztecs had a chance to win the game in the final moments, but Thomas' baby jumper missed.

In what proved to be the final five minutes, SDSU buckled down defensively and continued to go to the hoop, which resulted in it outscoring Temple, 10-3, to secure the victory.

No. 9/8 UConn 74, No. 6/5 San Diego State 67 March 24, 2011 • Anaheim, Calif. Honda Center • Att.: 17,890

ANAHEIM, Calif. - No. 6/5 San Diego State was unable to keep its magical NCAA tournament run going as the second-seeded Azters dropped a 74-67 decision to No. 3 seed and No. 9/8 Connecticut in the West Regional semifinal at the Honda Conter

SDSU found itself trailing UConn, 36-27, at halftime after shooting 38.7 percent from the field. The Aztecs kept the game close until the Huskies went on a 6-0 run to close out the first half.

San Diego State came out of the break and chipped away at its deficit by putting together a 16-6 scoring run to take a 43-42 lead with 13:05 left in the second half. UConn quickly took the lead back, but SDSU kept within striking distance.

After three ties, the Aztecs appeared to have gained the upper-hand after taking a 53-49 lead with 9:25 remaining in regulation. A technical foul, however, resulted in two momentum-killing free throws. The Huskies slowly regained the lead from there and attempted to put the game out of reach with a 11-2 run.

SDSU, however, clawed its way back to cut the margin to 65-64 on a three-pointer by D.J. Gay. UConn responded once again and finished the game on an 9-3 run to spoil the Aztecs' comeback and clinch the victory.

North Carolina State 79, No. 22/23 San Diego State 65 March 16, 2012 • Columbus, Ohio Nationwide Arena • Att.: 17,030

COLUMBUS, Ohio — No. 22/23 San Diego State was unable to advance past the second round of the NCAA tournament, dropping a 79-65 decision to No. 11 seed North Carolina State at Nationwide Arena.

SDSU found itself down by just four, 33-29, at the half despite shooting 37.9 percent from the field. The Aztecs, however, shot 40 percent from three-point range compared to the 16.7 percent by the Wolfpack. NC State's 51.9 shooting percentage and 20-13 rebound advantage made up for the lack of three-point

Coming out of the break, San Diego State managed to cut the deficit to one on a three-pointer by Chase Tapley. That would be short lived as North Carolina State used an 8-2 run to extend its lead to 43-36.

The Aztecs kept it close despite being down by as many as nine points and managed to pull within three offer scoring on five consecutive possessions. Wolfpack head coach Mark Gottfried then called a timeout that sparked a 9-4 run and extended NC State's lead to 10 with 5:37 remaining.

From there, the Wolfpack never looked back and eventually won by a 14-point margin.

(Second Round

Florida Gulf Coast 81, San Diego State 71 March 24, 2013 • Philadelphia, Pa. Wells Fargo Center • Att.: 20,125

PHILADELPHIA - Looking to advance to the Sweet 16 for the second time in three seasons, seventh-seeded SDSU's bid fell short as it fell to 15th-seeded Florida Gulf Coast, 81-71, in the third round of NCAAs.

With the win, the Eagles became the first 15-seed in NCAA history to reach the Sweet 16. For the Aztecs, the loss ended their season with a 23-11 record.

SDSU received 20 points and 11 rebounds from Jamaal Franklin and Chase Tapley poured in 17 points. James Rahon and DeShawn Stephens, meanwhile, added 12 and 10 points, respectively.

The first half was a fairly close affair. Florida Gulf Coast jumped out to an early 7-2 lead, but San Diego State answered with a 12-0 run to take a five-point lead of its own. No team led by more than four points the rest of the half until a 7-3 SDSU spurt propelled the Aztecs to a 35-29 lead with 2:20 to go. The Eagles, however, closed the first half with five straight points and San Diego State led, 35-34, at halftime.

The game remained tight over the course of the first eight minutes of the second half. An Xavier Thames jumper in the paint brought the Aztecs to within, 54-52, with 11:33 to play. FGCU, however, caught fire from the field and forced San Diego State into quick shots, which turned into a 17-0 Eagles run.

During the deciding the surge, SDSU went scoreless for 7:14 before Thames made a layup with four minutes left in regulation. At this juncture, the Aztecs trailed by 17 and their hole was too deep.

March 20, 2014 • Spokane, Wash.
Spokane Veterans Memorial Arena • Att.: 10,862

SPOKANE, Wash. - San Diego State finally put away a pesky New Mexico State team, outscoring the Aggies, 13-9, in overtime for a 73-69 victory in the second round of the MCAA tournament

The fourth-seeded Aztecs led by as many as 14 points in the first half, 12 at the break and seven with just 1:01 left in the second half, but 13th-seeded NMSU found a way to comeback and tie the game at 60-60 on a three-pointer by Kevin Aronis with six seconds left

Xavier Thames had a chance to win it in regulation, but his shot rimmed out as time expired forcing OT.

SDSU, however, took control in the extra session as Thames and Dwayne Polee II scored five points apiece to move San Diego State into the third round against 12th-seeded North Dakota State.

The Aztecs, who never trailed in the game, made 7 of 10 free-throws in overtime to seal the win. SDSU won its eighth straight overtime game and improved to 17-1 over its last 18 overtime contests.

It was the defense that came through once again for San Diego State. The Aztecs had nine blocks, their most ever in an NCAA tournament, eight steals, forced 13 turnovers and held New Mexico State to a season-low 20 points in the first half.

Thames had game-highs of 23 points and five assists, to go along with three steals and two blocks in the win. Polee II had 15 points and six rebounds in 29 minutes off the bench, while Josh Davis recorded 10 points and 14 rebounds.

Skylar Spencer added a career-high four steals and four blocks. His first block of the night gave him the single-season school record.

No. 13/11 San Diego State 63, North Dakota State, 44 March 22, 2014 • Spokane, Wash.

Spokane Veterans Memorial Arena • Att.: 11,623

SPOKANE, Wash. - Xavier Thames scored 30 points to lead fourth-seeded San Diego State past 12th-seeded North Dakota State, 63-44, and into a spot in the Sweet 16 for the second time in program history.

It was the second career 30-point game for Thames and the most points ever in the postseason (NCAA or NIT) by an Aztec player.

Thames was 9 for 19 from the field, including 4 for 9 from the 3-point arc and 8 of 9 from the free-throw line, with five assists. His 30 points were one off a career high of 31, set earlier in the year.

The win was the 31st for SDSU and propelled the team into the Sweet 16 in Anaheim.

San Diego State's defense proved to be too much for the Bison, which came into the game with the top field-goal percentage (51.0) in the country. Additionally, SDSU held NDSU to 31.9 percent shooting and two 3-pointers.

(Sweet 16)

No. 4/5 Arizona 70, No. 13/11 San Diego State 64 March 27, 2014 • Anaheim, Calif. Honda Center • Att.: 17,773

ANAHEIM, Calif. - Fourth-seeded San Diego State led top-seeded Arizona with under eight minutes to play, was tied with seven minutes left and trailed by one with 3:30 remaining in regulation, but could not pull the upset as the Wildcats came from behind to win, 70-64. The victory sent Arizona to the Elite Eight.

The rematch from the second game of the season was a see-saw affair until

In his lone season as an Aztec (2013-14), Josh Davis set the program's record for rebounding average in NCAA Tournament games. In three contests, vs. New Mexico State, North Dakota State and Arizona, he averaged 13.7 rebounds per game and is just one of three players to have averaged double-figure rebounds in the Tournament.

SDSU turned a 22-20 deficit into a 29-22 lead. After a Rondae Hollis-Jefferson lay-up to break the 9-0 run, Dwayne Polee II canned a three-pointer to put San Dieao State ahead by eight. 32-24.

The Aztecs had an opportunity to put the Wildcats away right before halftime, but missed their final three shots and committed two turnovers. Arizona, meanwhile, scored four points the rest of the way to trail San Diego State by just four at halftime.

Despite the missed chance to pull away, the Aztecs stuck to the game plan in the second half and eventually got their lead back up to eight points with 16:41 left in the second half thanks to six points from Xavier Thames.

In just over two minutes, however, Arizona was back within two. A Thames jumper temporarily halted the Wildcats' momentum, but the teams traded baskets over the next few minutes with Arizona taking its first lead, 50-49 (7:19), since 7:47 left in the first half

Nick Johnson, the Pac-12 Player of the Year, missed his first nine shots, but with SDSU trailing by three points, Winston Shepard lost control of the ball near midcourt and Johnson was wide open for a lay-up to put Arizona up, 56-51, with 2:44 left. Johnson scored 13 consecutive points for UA and 15 of the team's final

San Diego State 76, St. John's 64 March 20, 2015 • Charlotte, N.C. Time Warner Cable Arena • Att.: 16.945

CHARLOTTE, N.C. - Eighth-seeded San Diego State used a balanced attack to defeat ninth-seeded St. John's, 76-64, in the second round of the NCAA tournament.

SDSU shot 47.2 percent from the floor, including 40.9 percent from threepoint range, and outrebounded the Red Storm, 40-32, and enjoyed a 13-7 advantage in offensive rebounds to earn a soot in the third round.

The Aztecs were buoyed by an impressive shooting display from deep in the first half. Dwayne Polee II was 4-for-6 and Matt Shrigley was 3-for-3 from behind the arc to help San Diego State take a 40-33 lead at halftime.

In the second half, SDSU opened with another three-pointer from Polee II to bump its lead to double figures, a margin the Aztecs would enjoy for most of the period. The Red Storm twice cut its deficit to seven points, the last of which occurred with 6:57 left in regulation. San Diego State, however, answered with six straight points to take a 66-53 lead with 3:22 to go.

St. John's responded by going on a 7-2 spurt to get its hole down to eight points with two minutes left, but SDSU made its next seven free-throws to put the game away.

No. 4/5 Duke 68, San Diego State 49 March 22, 2015 • Charlotte, N.C. Time Warner Cable Arena • Att.: 18,482

CHARLOTTE, N.C. - Eighth-seeded San Diego State could not solve top-seeded Duke's front line and fell, 68-49, in the third round of the NCAA tournament.

The Blue Devils' front court of Jahlil Okafor and Justise Winslow put up dominating performances. Okafor finished with a game-high 26 points, while adding six rebounds and three blocked shots. Winslow, meanwhile, had 13 points, game highs of 12 rebounds, five assists and four steals, and three blocked shots.

Duke asserted itself early by scoring the first eight points and led, 15-4, after consecutive buckets from Quinn Cook, which forced SDSU to call timeout.

The Blue Devils took a 28-13 lead with 5:15 left in the first half on an Okafor layup. The freshman's basket gave him 14 points, which was one more than SDSU had as a team. San Diego State closed the half on a 7-2 run to make the score 37-24 entering the locker room.

The Aztecs made a run early in the second half, spurred by a pair of Malik Pope three-pointers. After an Okafor jumper to open the period, SDSU embarked on a 13-5 run to cut its deficit to 44-37 with 12:42 left in the game. Cook answered with a three, which was followed by a Winslow dunk and Duke was on its way to a 11-0 run to put the Blue Devils out in front by 18.

Ageel Quinn made two free-throws to put an end to the spurt, but Duke scored 11 of the game's next 13 points to put the contest away.

2016 NIT

(First Round)

San Diego State 79, IPFW 55 March 15, 2016 • San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena • Att.: 8,324

SAN DIEGO - Second-seeded SDSU received a triple-double from Winston Shepard to help defeat seventh-seeded IPFW, 79-55, in the first round of the NIT.

Shepard had a career-high eight assists in the first half en route to a gamehigh 12, and then finished with 10 points and 10 rebounds to post SDSU's first triple-double in school history.

The forward was responsible for eight of the Aztecs' 10 first-half assists, which helped San Diego State jump out to a 40-22 lead at halftime. In the first half alone, SDSU made 53.3 percent of its attempts from the field, while holding the Mastodons to 27.6-percent shooting.

In the second half, San Diego State matched its first-half shooting effort, making an identical 16-of-30 shots from the field. Defensively, IPFW made a few more shots than it did in the first, but it was not enough as the Aztecs enjoyed a lead no smaller than 19 points in the final 20 minutes.

Joining Shepard in double figures in scoring was Malik Pope, who had 15 points and eight rebounds, and Dakarai Allen, who finished with 10 points.

MOUNTAIN WEST-RECORD 14-TIME CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

2016 NIT

(Corond Dound)

San Diego State 93, Washington 78 March 21, 2016 • San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena • Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State ended the first half on an 18-5 run, turning a three-point SDSU lead into a 16-point cushion and then fended off a second-half Washington run to defeat the visiting Huskies, 93-78, in front of a sold-out Viejas Arena crowd.

The Aztecs led by 11 points midway through the first half only to have Washington embark on a 12-4 run to trail, 27-24, with 5:19 left. SDSU, however, answered with a three-pointer from Malik Pope and a dunk from Skylar Spencer to jump start the aforementioned 18-5 run, which was punctuated by a Matt Shrigley trey with five seconds left to give the Aztecs a 45-29 lead at halftime.

San Diego State kept its double-digit lead intact for more than the first 10 minutes of the second half. It was when the clock dipped under 12 minutes to play, however, when the Huskies made their run at the Aztecs.

After Angelo Chol made two free throws, Marquese Chriss threw down a dunk to pull Washington to within 16 points. Eight combined misses from both teams highlighted the next minute and a half before Dejounte Murray made a layup to end the drought for both teams.

Washington's four unanswered points turned into an 11-0 run that made it a 69-64 game with 7:21 left in the second half. The Aztecs weathered the storm and had an answer for each Huskies basket and eventually built an 11-point lead with 3:28 to go before winning by 15.

San Diego State 72, Georgia Tech 56 March 23, 2016 • San Diego, Calif. Viejas Arena • Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - Second-seeded San Diego State went on a 12-4 run that took five minutes off the clock midway through the second half, which opened a 13-point lead, to defeat fourth-seeded Georgia Tech, 72-56, in the quarter

The Aztecs led the Yellow Jackets, 50-45, with 9:57 to go in the game and the score held for the next 1:31 until Dakarai Allen made one free throw. The point was the beginning of the previously mentioned 12-4 run, which helped create the separation SDSU needed to earn a trip to Madison Square Garden.

The Allen free throw led to a jumper from Jeremy Hemsley and a three-pointer from Trey Kell to push the lead to 11. The end of the run culminated in a pair of Allen free throws, which put San Diego State up, 62-49, with 3:30 to play. The Aztecs led by double digits the rest of the way in winning their 28th game of the 2015-16 season.

(Semifina

George Washington 65, San Diego State 46 March 29, 2016 • New York, N.Y. Madison Square Garden • Att.: 8,298

NEW YORK - Second-seeded SDSU saw its season come to an end as it fell to fourth-seeded George Washington, 65-46, in the NIT semifinals.

The Aztecs struggled shooting, which denied them a trip to the championship game for the second straight time in the NIT (2009).

SDSU's woes from the outside put them in a tough position at halftime as it trailed the Colonels, 35-20. In the first 20 minutes, the Aztecs connected on just 6-of-25 from the floor, including a 1-for-9 effort from three-point distance. On the other end of the floor, San Diego State did an admirable job, holding GW to 38.9 percent from the field.

The second half was just a tad bit better offensively for SDSU, but a lot better for George Washington. In the final 20 minutes, the Aztecs shot 32.4 percent from the field, but allowed the Colonels to knock down 12 of their 25 attempts or 48.0 percent

San Diego State was only outscored by four points in the second half, but its first-half deficit was too much to overcome.

No. 21/19 Houston 67, San Diego State 65 March 15, 2018 • Wichita, Kan. INTRUST Bank Arena • Att.: 14,019

WICHITA, Kan. - No. 11-seed San Diego State had a three-point attempt with 1.2 seconds left to win the game, but Trey Kell's shot was off the mark as the Aztecs' rally fell short in a 67-65 loss to sixth-seeded Houston in the first round of the NGA toward the contract of the NGA toward the NGA towar

SDSU trailed, 39-29, at halftime and by as many as 13 points in the second half before it made its furious comeback

The Aztecs were betrayed by their poor free-throw shooting in a first half that saw them make just 7 of 13 from the charity stripe. San Diego State was not much better in the second, but the quantity made up for its slightly improved success rate (14-22).

After facing its largest deficit of the night, Jeremy Hemsley knifed through the paint for a bucket and Houston responded with a Rob Gray free throw. SDSU then began its free-throw exhibition, scoring its next 10 points from the line, while missing just two over the ensuing 2:55 to make it a five-point Cougar lead.

During that stretch and beyond, Gray was Houston's only offense as he scored 11 consecutive points. By the time someone other than Gray scored for the Cougars, SDSU closed to within four points with 4:08 to play.

San Diego State finally tied the game with 1:06 remaining on a Devin Watson trey, but Gray answered with a three of his own. As the pace picked up after the Gray triple, Watson made another three-pointer, this time with 31 seconds left, tying the score at 65.

Houston held for the last shot, which ended with Gray twisting in the paint for a lay-up with 1.2 seconds left. SDSU called for time and Matt Mitchell threw a length-of-the-court pass to the top of the three-point line where Kell grabbed the ball, turned and shot, but the attempt was not on target.

Gray, who scored 19 of UH's final 20 points, finished with a career-high 39. Jalen McDaniels led SDSU with 18 points and nine boards, while Malik Pope had 11 points and 11 rebounds.

(First Round

Syracuse 78, No. 16/18 San Diego State 62 March 19, 2021 • Indianapolis, Ind Hinkle Fieldhouse • Att.: 0

INDIANAPOLIS - The decades-old zone defense of Syracuse coach Jim Boeheim claimed another frustrated victim Friday night.

The No. 11 seed Orange held 6-seeded San Diego State without a field goal for nearly a quarter of the game, Buddy Boeheim hit seven 3-pointers and finished with 30 points, and Syracuse cruised to a 78-62 victory.

Boeheim finished 7-of-10 from beyond the arc and 11-of-15 from the field, and Marek Dolezaj added 11 points, as Syracuse advanced to play third-seeded West Virginia or No. 14 seed Morehead State for a spot in the Sweet 16.

The Orange were trailing 18-14 midway through the first half when they clamped down on defense, holding San Diego State without a field goal the rest of the half. And when the Aztecs threatnend to trim their deficit to less than 10 early in the second half, the son of the Syracuse coach was there to provide an answer. Boeheim hit three guick threes to put the game out of reach.

Jordan Schakel had 17 points, but the nation's third-best 3-point shooter was just 5-of-13 from distance. Matt Mitchell also had 17 points on 8-of-19 shooting.

SDSU made it clear from the moment it put up three treys on its first couple of possessions that the plan was to break Syracuse's zone by shooting over the top. Problem was the Aztecs didn't make many.

Beginning with Boeheim's own 3-pointer with 9:17 left, the Aztecs never scored again in the first half. They missed their final 10 attempts from beyond the arc, finished 3 of 20 from the 3-point line in the first half, and even missed the front end of a one-and-one with a few seconds left before the break.

"Buddy Buckets" nearly outscored San Diego State by himself. Boeheim had 16 points as Syracuse built a 32-18 halftime lead; it was the fewest points Dutcher's high-scoring, perimeter-oriented team had scored in a half all season.

Schakel got a 3-pointer to go right out of halftime, giving the San Diego State fans a long-awaited reason to cheer. But the Aztecs promptly went into another long slump, and the Orange' built a 56-30 lead before coasting to the finish.

- Our Imperial Valley campus, a powerful engine of economic growth for the U.S.-Mexico border region, serves a diverse student body composed largely of groups that are historically underrepresented in higher education.

An International Perspective

- San Diego State University ranks No. 5 nationally and No. 1 in California for the number of students studying abroad in the latest Institute for International Education's Open Doors report.
- SDSU typically welcomes more than 1,800 international students from more than 70 countries each year.
 They are enrolled as fully matriculated students or as part of the American Language Institute (ALI), of which SDSU's affiliate is one of the largest in the country.
- The J. Keith Behner and Catherine M. Stiefel Program on Brazil is SDSU's first endowed academic program with an international focus. Over the next five years, through research collaborations with major Brazilian universities, SDSU will strengthen its global leadership in public health, environmental sciences, international business and urban development.

Research Accomplishments

- SDSU is a public research university where students, faculty, and alumni have been part of research teams that addressed important subjects like RNA modification, biomathematics, and post-wildfire storm runoff.
 Researchers focus on real-world challenges, and students benefit from access to cutting-edge technology and engaging in research alongside mentors who are leaders in their fields.
- San Diego State University faculty continue to win significant research funding. In fiscal 2019-20, they secured $144.4million in public and private funding a total of 758 awards to 307 principal investigators.
 The total included a significant increase from two major federal agencies: The National Science Foundation and The National Institutes of Health.
- To further support research, SDSU has built an Engineering and Interdisciplinary Science Complex, where researchers are developing collaborative projects to turn discoveries into real-world applications. The EIS Complex, which opened in 2018, enhances the university's teaching and research capacities and helps attract the best and brightest faculty, graduate and undergraduate students.
- In 2018, SDSU received a S19.9 million research award one of the largest in university history to create a new center for transdisciplinary research on health disparities throughout San Diego and Imperial counties. The five-year award is part of an effort by the National Institute on Minority Health and Health Disparities to support the research enterprise of minority-serving institutions like SDSU.
- The Student Research Symposium is an annual forum for San Diego State's graduate and undergraduate students to present their faculty-mentored research. More than 450 undergraduate, graduate and doctoral students across 70 majors and disciplines participated in 2020.

Moving Forward

San Diego State University is a place of knowledge, experience and impact. It is one of the oldest institutions in California, with 400,000+ living alumni and many more friends in the community who have a stake in its future. As we engage with our supporters in joint initiatives that advance the welfare of the broader San Diego region, student success will continue to be the foundational force moving us forward.

University President

r. Adela de la Torre was appointed by the California State University Board of Trustees as the new president of San Diego State University.

Arriving on campus in June 2018, Dr. de la Torre is the ninth permanent president of SDSU and the first woman to serve in that role. She brings with her 30 years of service in leadership roles at institutions of higher education, including the California State University system, the University of Arizona and the University of California, Davis.

Prior to her appointment as President, Dr. de la Torre worked in a variety of leadership positions at UC Davis, culminating in her role as vice chancellor for student affairs and campus diversity, where she oversaw a division encompassing 28 departments and units that provide services and facilities to foster academic success, student development and campus community. In addition, she spent 14 years from 2004-18 directing the UC Davis Center for Transnational Health and served a two-year stint (2009-11) as chair of the UC Davis Chicana/Chicano Studies Department, after becoming the first Latina to receive the rank of distinguished professor.

During her tenure at Arizona from 1996-2002, Dr. de la Torre was the director of the Mexican American Studies and Research Center, successfully developing the first graduate program in Mexican American Studies. She also founded the College of Medicine's first federally funded Hispanic Center of Excellence.

Dr. de la Torre was also a professor at California State University, Long Beach, serving as chair of the department of Chicano/Latino Studies. She was additionally selected by members of the California State University system to serve a one-year appointment (1995-96) as a management fellow, which involved system-wide strategic planning, higher education legislative initiatives, enrollment and growth planning, as well as system-wide presidential and board of trustee meetings.

Dr. de la Torre's research focuses on aspects of Latino community health — an area where SDSU is a national leader. Her research was previously recognized by the American Society of Hispanic Economists in 2016, when it honored her with its biennial Academic Achievement Award.

Dr. de la Torre's grandparents immigrated to the Central Valley from Mexico. She grew up in the Bay Area, where her grandmother and mother taught her important cultural traditions — the importance of family, the value of hard work and the power of education. Her mother attended both Modesto Community College and the University of California, Berkeley and was a public school teacher for 40 years.

Dr. de la Torre earned a bachelor of science degree in the political economy of natural resources and a master of science and Ph.D. in agricultural and resource economics all from California.

"People around the country know what an incredible atmosphere Viejas Arena is. And that is in no small part because of the fans.
