TCU BASKETBALL - TEAM AND PLAYER NOTES

SCOUTING THE OPPONENTS - SAN DIEGO STATE UNIVERSITY

- The Aztecs enter Saturday's contest with a Cox Arena-record 12-game homecourt winning streak and a seven-game MWC winning streak at Cox Arena. The Aztecs have not lost a home game since a 66-65 setback against Wyoming on Jan. 3, 2007.
- The Aztecs are 10-3, matching the second-best start in 38 seasons at the Division I level. SDSU has done so despite having to blend six new players with seven returning letterwinners to this season's squad. SDSU has also played just five home games to date, with two of the three losses coming to the number two-ranked RPI team (Arizona) and the number three-ranked RPI squad (Saint Mary's), nationally. The Aztecs currently have the top RPI ranking in the MWC at number 30 (through Tuesday's games).
- The Aztecs are coming off their most impressive victory of the season, knocking off previously unbeaten Sam Houston State (currently 11-1 and 33rd in the RPI), 79-78, in overtime. The Aztecs rallied from three points down with 14 seconds to play in regulation, and once again from three points down in the extra session to claim the victory.
- Forward Billy White, who earned Mountain West Conference Co-Player of the Week honors, helped the Aztecs win by getting an offensive put-back with :00.2 seconds remaining to force overtime.
- This marks the eighth all-time meeting between the teams with the Aztecs owning a 4-3 series lead. The Aztecs have won all four games since the Horned Frogs joined the MWC prior to the 2005-06 season, although both games at Cox Arena have been decided late in the game. On Feb. 18, 2006, SDSU rallied from an 11-point deficit to claim an 83-71 victory, while on March 3, 2007, the Aztecs won a closely contested affair, 56-51.
- As good as SDSU has been at home of late, the Aztecs have been a bit vulnerable in the MWC home opener. In the nine previous seasons in the league, SDSU is 4-4 in the conference home opener, including an overtime loss to Wyoming in the 2005 home opener (after road wins at Brigham Young and UNLV) and a one-point loss to the Cowboys last season
- Steve Fisher has turned San Diego State not only to a Mountain West Conference contender, but into one of the top program's in the country. Since Dec. 31, 2005, San Diego State has posted a 50-18 record. As of Jan. 2, the 50 victories in that time frame rank 20th nationally. San Diego State is coming off consecutive seasons with 22 or more wins and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2006 and the second round of the NIT in 2007.

FROGS CLOSING IN ON 400TH VICTORY AT THE DMC

- Following a 79-68 victory over Jackson State on Thursday (Dec. 27), the Purple and White recorded their 394th triumph inside the confines of the Daniel-Meyer Coliseum since its' opening on December 18, 1961.

CHARITY STRIPE BLUES

- This season, the Frogs have struggled at the charity stripe where the Purple and White have connected on 60.7 percent (187-of-308) of their free throw attempts compared to 63.6 percent (161-of-253) of attempts from their foes. On average - the Purple and White are leaving 10.8 points per evening at the charity stripe.
- Of the 10 players that have attempted 10 or more free throws - only five players (Kevin Langford, Brent Hackett, Mike Scott, Ryan Wall and Luke Tauscher) are shooting above 70.0 percent at the charity stripe.
- The Frogs are ranked last in the Mountain West Conference in free throw percentage at 60.7 percent.

ALWAYS BE READY TO PLAY

- In Neil Dougherty's system, every player has to be ready to play at any given time. This season, all 14 players that have suited up for TCU have played - that feat wasn't reached until the 24th game on the road at Colorado State during the 2006-07 campaign. This season - all 14 players on the roster have played at least three games.

HOME-GROWN TALENT PAYS DIVIDENDS FOR HORNED FROGS

- The Horned Frogs will get plenty of scoring from a trio of home-grown talents in Brent Hackett (Southwest H.S.), Kevin Langford (North Crowley H.S.) and Luke Tauscher (Southwest H.S.).
- Hackett was the first player that Neil Dougherty signed from the Dallas/Fort Worth Area when he became head men's basketball coach at TCU. Langford also had ties with Dougherty as his brother, Keith, was a recruited and coached by Dougherty at the University of Kansas.
- A pair of honorable mention All-Mountain West Conference players last season, Hackett and Langford are currently ranked second and third on the Frogs in scoring average at 14.1 points and 11.2 points per game.
- TCU newcomer Luke Tauscher sat out last season due to an injury, but the 6-11 center has averaged 2.2 points and 3.1 rebounds per game in his 12 games on the floor for the Frogs.
- The Frogs have two other players from the Dallas/Fort Worth area in Ryan Wall (Coppell, Texas) and walk-on freshman Daniel Ford (Aledo, Texas).

TCU BASKETBALL - TEAM AND PLAYER NOTES

FROGS ADDING A LITTLE SALTER TO THEIR DIET

- TCU newcomer Henry Salter has made a tremendous impact on the Frogs' lineup in his first season with the program as he has collected 10 or more points in 12 of the team's first 13 games. The Gulfport, Miss., native has recorded the seventh-most double-digit scoring performances this season in the Mountain West Conference.
- Salter is ranked fifth in the Mountain West Conference in scoring average (15.2 P-G) and eighth in rebounds per game (5.9) and is only of three players in the conference to be ranked in the top-eight in both statistical categories - joining Trent Plaisted of BYU and Lee Cummard of BYU.
- The TCU junior is ranked first on the Frogs in scoring average and has been a force on the boards as well as Salter has collected five or more rebounds in nine of the team's first 13 games this season. Salter recorded his first career double-double against the University of Texas-Arlington with a 17-point, 14-rebound in the overtime affair.
- The former NJCAA All-American is also ranked fourth in the Mountain West Conference in field goal percentage (49.7%) and fourth in three-point field goals made per game (2.8 3FGM-G). Salter is also the fourth-highest junior scorer and rebounder in the Mountain West Conference.

STANDING "O" FOR ORTIZ

- TCU newcomer John Ortiz has played a pivotal role for the Frogs coming off of the bench as he is averaging 5.5 points and 5.2 rebounds per game - which ranks him 17th in the conference. Ortiz has done a tremendous job at getting to the free throw line where he is ranked second on the team in both free throws made (22) and free throw attempts (44).
- Ortiz recorded a career-high 10 points on two occasions during his first season against Texas Tech and Jackson State and has grabbed four or more rebounds in eight of 13 games during the 2007-08 campaign.

IT'S ALL ABOUT THE EBIE, BABY!

- TCU sophomore Jason Ebie has been an important ingredient in the Frogs' lineup this season as he is averaging 4.2 points, 3.1 assists, 2.4 steals and 1.6 rebounds per game while competing in 18.5 minutes per outing.
- Ebie is ranked first in the Mountain West Conference in steals per game (2.5 S-G) and 10th in assists per game (3.1 A-G) and assist-to-turnover ratio (2.05:1 A-T Ratio). The TCU guard is one of two players in the Mountain West Conference to be ranked in the top-10 in all three statistical departments along with UNLV's Wink Adams.
- The Houston native has recorded three of more steals in seven of 13 games and has posted four steals in three of those contests. In addition to his duties picking pockets, Ebie has dished out four or more assists on seven occasions. The TCU sophomore has dished out a career-high six assists on two occasions - Grambling State and UT Arlington.

NEON KEION IN PRIMETIME

- Sophomore Keion Mitchem has given the Frogs an added burst of energy off of the bench as the TCU guard is averaging 4.9 points and 1.5 rebounds per game while connecting on 42.9 percent of his field goal attempts. Mitchem has scored five or more points in seven of 13 games - including a season-high nine points twice vs. Rice and Texas

GREAT SCOTT!

- TCU newcomer Mike Scott has made an immediate impact on the Frogs' lineup as the freshman has started in all 13 games. Scott is averaging 4.8 points and 2.9 assists per game this season while hitting on 40.4 percent of his shots.
- The Frogs' point guard scored a career-high 11 points on two occasions during his rookie campaign with the Purple and White against SMU and Jackson State. Scott has notched five or more points in five games this season.
- Though he's only a freshman, Scott is not the youngest member for TCU as the Philadelphia native is 21-years-old.

CLOSE ENCOUNTERS OF THE TREY KIND

- TCU has made at least one three-pointer in 293 consecutive games dating back to the 1997-98 season where the last time that the Frogs failed to connect on a trey came against LIU-Brooklyn on November 22, 1997. The Frogs have connected on at least one three-pointer in 522 of their last 523 games.
- Prior to the failed connection, TCU recorded a three-pointer in 217 straight games dating back to the 1989-90 season when the Longhorns of Texas stopped the Frogs on February 11, 1990.
- This season, the Purple and White has connected on at least seven three-pointers in 11 of their first 13 games and are ranked fourth in the Mountain West Conference in three-point field goals made per game (8.2 3FGM-G).

TCU BASKETBALL - TEAM AND PLAYER NOTES

FINDING NEMO

- Senior Neiman Owens is one of the most experienced players on the Frogs as the TCU guard has appeared in 106 career games - including 60 starts during his career with the Purple and White. Owens did not start against Angelo State in the season opener - which snapped his 60-game starting streak that dated back to the 2005-06 season.
- Owens competed in his 100th career game for the Purple and White on December 5th against SMU and reached another milestone against UT Arlington as he recorded his 400th career point for the Frogs.

THE WALL

- Even though TCU has only been a member of the Mountain West Conference for three seasons, Ryan Wall has been affiliated with the MWC in each of his five collegiate years. Wall was a member of the University of New Mexico for two seasons (2003-04 and 2004-05) before transferring to TCU prior to the start of the 2005-06 campaign. After a red-shirt campaign during the 2005-06 campaign, Wall has appeared in 43 career games while wearing the Purple and White.
- Since coming back from an off-season injury, Wall has started to see more action on the court and has played seven or more minutes four of the last six games. He has also started to feel his shooting touch as the TCU senior has connected on a trio of three-pointers in two games this season - connecting on 36.1 percent of his trey attempts.

COOL HAND LUKE

- After missing the 2006-07 season due to back surgery, Luke Tauscher made his return to the Frogs' lineup this season where he has averaged 8.8 minutes of court time. On five occasions, the TCU freshman has played in 10 or more minutes and has recorded at least four rebounds in five of 12 games this season.
- Tauscher recorded his first career double-digit rebounding evening against Rice where the Frogs' forward grabbed a game-high 12 boards.

FAMILY TIES

- Anyone affiliated with the TCU men's basketball program knows that Neil Dougherty presents a family environment for the Frogs. Once a member of the basketball program, you quickly become a member of the family.
- Dougherty had the opportunity to coach his son, Neil P., for four seasons, and now assistant coach, Sean Woods, will also have the same opportunity as his son, Martiese Morones, is a sophomore with the Frogs.
- Woods was a standout at the University of Kentucky where he was a member of the "Unforgettables" on the 1992 team that fell 104-103 to Duke in the NCAA Elite Eight in what is considered the greatest college basketball game of all-time. A member of the University of Kentucky Hall of Fame, Woods connected on the shot to give the Wildcats a 103-102 lead on the Blue Devils before Christian Laettner connected on the shot heard round the world.

THE SCORING FRENZY

- Twice during the 2007-08 campaign, every member of the Purple and White that saw action on the court scored at least one point in the game. The Frogs accomplished this feat against Angelo State (Nov. 10) and Grambling State (Nov. 21). The same feat was reached twice all of last season against San Diego State (Jan. 31) and Air Force (Feb. 24).

PUTTING 40 MINUTES TOGETHER

- The Frogs have been successful in the first half of action where the Purple and White have built up a lead heading into intermission in 11 of their first 13 games. The Frogs have notched an 8-3 mark when leading at halftime with their three losses coming against Texas Tech, SMU and Rice.

THE WOES OF THE ROAD

- The Frogs have dropped all three road decisions this season where they have held a double-digit lead against Texas Tech, SMU and Rice. The Purple and White has dropped decisions in all three contests when holding a second half lead of 10 or more points and suffered a setback to Texas where they had an early first half seven-point advantage.
- TCU has dropped their last 11 games on the road with their last victory away from the Daniel-Meyer Coliseum coming against Mountain West Conference-opponent Utah on January 6, 2007.

WELCOME TO THE PROGRAM

- In the early signing period, the Frogs signed a trio of players that will help the squad next season in Kevin Butler, Logan Lancon and James Blasczyk.
- Butler comes from one of the top high school programs in the nation in Duncanville and came into his senior season ranked 16th in the State of Texas according to TexasHoops.com in the Class of 2008.
- Lancon comes into the 2007-08 campaign as the 43rd top prospect according to TexasHoops.com. The newly-signed Frog averaged a team-high 11.3 points per game en route to earning first team All-District 24-5A honors.
- Blasczyk is listed as the 47th best prospect in the State of Texas according to TexasHoops.com after concluding a junior campaign where he averaged 8.3 points, 7.1 rebounds and 4.0 blocked shots per game.
