Washington won its third straight match and snapped San Diego State's season-best six-match winning streak... The Huskies advance to the round of 16 for the third straight season while keeping the Aztecs from their second ever round of 16 appearance... Prior to this match, San Diego State had won 10 straight matches when claiming the doubles point... The Aztecs are now 7-7 lifetime in the championship; Washington is 9-7... Oliver Maiberger and Ryan Redondo defeated their 16th nationally-ranked doubles opponents this season... In addition to Maiberger's victory in doubles, he also claimed a straight-set victory over 10th-ranked Alex Vlaski at number one singles... The loss was just the fourth defeat for Vlaski in a dual match this season... Felix Hardt won his 12th straight match for the Aztecs... The Huskies won three of the last four points of the match... Washington will next face top-seeded and undefeated Illinois in the round of 16... The Illini defeated Clemson 4-0 to advance to the national championship in Athens, Ga.
