The Program

THE PROGRAM

Winning is an attitude that permeates with head coach Lev Kirshner and the San Diego State men's soccer program. It's no longer a wish on The Mesa, it's expected.

Backed by consecutive runner-up finishes in the Pac-10, three nationally ranked recruiting classes and a national caliber schedule each and every year, SDSU has become a national force. Aztec men's soccer has won 26 games over the past three seasons and advanced to two NCAA tournaments, taking out numerous nationally ranked opponents along the way.

With its "One Team, One Family, One Mission" attitude, fully-funded program and a top notch support staff, San Diego State has become the place to be.

EIGHT NCAA TOURNAMENT APPEARANCES

The numbers tell the story of the San Diego State men's soccer program's rise into elite company. The Aztecs have made eight trips to the NCAA tournament, including two of the past three seasons. SDSU is one of just three Pac-10 teams to reach the final four. The final four appearance came in 1987 when San Diego State came from behind in each of its NCAA tournament games to win by 2-1 scores. The run was stopped in the NCAA championship game when host Clemson downed the Aztecs, 2-0. The 1987 squad joined the 1973 men's championship volleyball team as the only two Aztec teams to ever make a NCAA final.

Since head coach Lev Kirshner joined the Pac-10 in 2005, SDSU has compiled three consecutive winning seasons (first time since 1990-92) and two straight Pac-10 runner-up finishes. In the Pac-10 era, San Diego State has gone 26-17-14 (.579), including a 11-9-10 (.533) record in conference play. Since receiving its full allotment of scholarships, the Aztecs have advanced to the NCAA tournament in two of its three opportunities.

In its 40-year history, SDSU has gone 9-6-1 (.594) in NCAA tournament play.

1969	AZTECS ADVANCE TO NCAA TOURNAMENT IN JUST SECOND SEASON OF DIVISION I SOCCER In just its second season of Division I soccer, SDSU advanced to the NCAA tournament after knocking off Cal State Fullerton and UCLA in NCAA qualifying matches, both by 2-1 scores in overtime. The Aztecs then tied San Francisco, 2-2, but the Dons advanced on in the tournament by having more corner kicks than San Diego State, a rule that is no longer played by today.
1981	SDSU KNOCKS OFF TWO BAY AREA TEAMS SDSU made it back to the NCAA tournament after finishing its regular season with an impressive 14-3-1 mark. In their first game, the Aztecs avenged an early season loss to California by shutting out the Golden Bears, 4-0, in Berkeley. The squad would then down host San Francisco, 2-1, in overtime. However, the team's participation in the tourney was later vacated.
1982	SAN DIEGO STATE MAKES IT TWO STRAIGHT San Diego State proved that 1981 was no fluke, setting a school record with 20 victories en route to its second consecutive NCAA tournament appearance. SDSU won its final eight regular season games and then knocked off Fresno State, 1-0, in the NCAA first round. However, San Francisco eliminated the Aztecs in the next game by a 2-0 score.
1987	AZTECS FALL IN NATIONAL TITLE GAME After entering the NCAA tournament as the last seed, San Diego State made a cinderella run through the tourney, defeating St. Louis, SMU (advanced on penalty kicks) and UCLA, all on the road and by 2-1 margins to make it to the NCAA final four. In the final four, SDSU moved past Harvard on penalty kicks before falling to host Clemson, 2-0, in the NCAA title game.
1988	SDSU LOSES HEARTBRAKER TO UCLA IN NCAA FIRST ROUND The Aztecs made their second straight trip to the NCAA tournament after posting a 15-2-4 regular season record. In its second-to-last contest, San Diego State played to a 1-1 overtime tie with UCLA, a team it had knocked off last season to reach the final four. However, the Bruins would take the rematch, 2-1, to eliminate SDSU in the first round of the NCAA tourney.
1989	THREE STRAIGHT FOR SAN DIEGO STATE The Aztecs reached their third consecutive NCAA tournament, the only team in program history to do so, after going 14-4-3 in the regular season. SDSU and UCLA did battle once again in the NCAA first round. The game was tied at 1-1 through the overtime periods, but the Bruins came out on top in penalty kicks to avenge their loss to San Diego State earlier in the year.
2005	AZTECS RETURN TO NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT SDSU returned to national prominence in its first season of Pac-10 play, finishing with a 9-4-6 record, while allowing just nine goals in the regular season. The Aztecs would have to travel to nationally ranked UC Santa Barbara and a hostile crowd. In the end, the Gauchos connected on two late second half goals to eliminate San Diego State, 2-0.
2006	SDSU PROVES IT BELONGS WITH A SECOND STRAIGHT TRIP TO THE TOURNAMENT The Aztecs proved the doubters wrong by advancing to the NCAA tournament for the second consecutive season, a feat that hadn't been done since 1988-89. San Diego State was shipped to UC Santa Barbara for the second straight NCAA tourney (and third time in two years). SDSU jumped out to a 1-0 lead, but fell to the eventual national champions, 2-1.

AZTEC HISTORY

1987 NCAA National Runner-Ups

1987 NATIONAL RUNNER-UPS

It was a cinderella run to say the least.

After losing two of its final four games, the 1987 Aztec men's soccer team dropped to 16-5 and cautiously waited for a berth into the NCAA tournament. Their wish was granted when they earned the last seed of the 24 teams, their first NCAA bid since 1982.

However, the road would be rough and would include no home games and possible trips across the country and back. No sweat.

SDSU went on to win its next four matches, all come-from-behind victories, to reach the NCAA title game. The Aztecs began their impossible run on Nov. 15 by knocking off 10-time national champion St. Louis, 2-1. On Nov. 21, San Diego State upset No. 5 Southern Methodist after scoring a goal in the waning moments to tie the game and eventually winning on penalty kicks. Next up was No. 9 UCLA on Nov. 29, a team SDSU had lost to, 3-1, just 25 days earlier and was just 1-13-4 all-time against. The Aztecs came out of Westwood with a 2-1 result, sealing the program's first trip to the NCAA final four.

On Dec. 5, San Diego State would continue its cinderella story by eliminating Harvard in penalty kicks to join the 1973 men's volleyball team as the only Aztec teams to ever make an NCAA final. SDSU had its run come to an end the following day in a 2-0 loss to host Clemson, ironically the tournament's No. 23 seed.

Aztec All-Americans

Pete Goossens, 1969

Goossens became the first All-American in school history and the first ever from Southern California. Goossens, a defender, helped the Aztecs to the Southern California Intercollegiate Soccer Association championship. An all-Southern California and all-Southern Section performer, he backed a defense that allowed just 14 goals (12 from the opposition) in 11 games. The Aztecs defeated UCLA, Cal State Fullerton and Cal State Los Angeles en route to a 9-1-1 record and the program's first trip to the NCAA tournament. SDSU played three overtime NCAA playoff games, defeating the Bruins and Titans before battling San Francisco to a 2-2 tie in four overtimes.

Alan Kelly, 1976-77

Kelly earned second-team All-America honors in 1976, after leading SDSU to its ninth straight winning season and a 10-5-1 record. A midfielder, Kelly tied for the team lead with seven goals. The Aztecs posted impressive wins over San Francisco State and U.S. International on the way to the championship of the USIU Invitational. In 1977, Kelly became the first two-time All-American in school history when he garnered first-team accolades. Playing in his final season, Kelly recorded nine goals, tied for second most on the team, as SDSU went 13-4-1. The Aztecs once again won the USIU Invitational, as they beat the hosts, 4-2, and Long Beach State, 5-0, in the championship game.

Kevin Crow, 1981-82

Crow helped the 1981 Aztecs (16-3-1) return to the NCAA tournament for the first time in 10 seasons and finish with a school record 16 victories. The second SDSU defender to be named an All-American, Crow anchored a defense that allowed just 18 goals, or 0.90 goals per game, over the entire season. Crow joined Alan Kelly as the Aztecs' second two-time All-American after he was named to the third team the following season. The 1982 team established a new record with 20 wins, a mark which is still tied with the 1987 national runner-up squad for the most victories in the program's history. SDSU (20-3-0), which won its first 11 games and made its second straight trip to the NCAA tournament before falling to San Francisco, 2-0, in the second round.

Kyle Whittemore, 1987

One season after setting a SDSU record that still stands with 50 points on 20 goals and 10 assists, Whittemore struck for 17 goals and contributed five helpers, despite being double-teamed for most of the year. His 39 points led the squad and for his efforts was named to the All-America second team. He helped the Aztecs, the lowest seeded team in the NCAA tournament, all the way to the NCAA championship game before falling to Clemson, 2-0. SDSU would defeat St. Louis (2-1), SMU (2-1, ot/pk) and UCLA (2-1) on the road before taking down undefeated Harvard, 2-1, in penalty kicks, in the semifinals.

Marcelo Balboa, 1988-89

Balboa became the first Aztec first-team All-American since 1977 (Alan Kelly) after leading SDSU to its second straight NCAA tournament in 1988. Balboa, a future National Soccer Hall of Fame member, backed a defense that allowed only 10 goals in 22 games, as SDSU finished 15-3-4. He also scored four goals and added six assists for 14 points. Later on in the year, he was named a U.S. U-20 World Cup team captain. The following season, Balboa was a second-team selection to become the third Aztec two-time honoree. A captain from his sweeper position, Balboa tallied 23 points on eight goals and seven assists in leading SDSU to its third consecutive trip to the NCAA tournament, the only time in school history that has happened. The 1989 Aztecs finished 14-5-3.

Tally Hall, 2005-06

Hall led the nation in 2005 with a 88.9 shot-on-goal percentage and was second with a 0.49 goals against average, both school single-season records. He helped the Aztecs to their first trip to the NCAA tournament since 1989, recording a school-record 12 shutouts, as the SDSU defense gave up 11 goals in 19 games en route to a 9-4-6 mark. In 2006, Hall became SDSU's fourth two-time All-American after helping the squad to the NCAA tournament for the second straight season. Despite falling to eventual national champion UC Santa Barbara, 2-1, in the NCAA first round, Hall went 9-5-4 with a 1.04 goals against average and six shutouts. He would end his four-year career second on the all-time list with 256 saves.

Success After SDSU

SUCCESS AFTER SDSU

With national stars such as Marcelo Balboa and Eric Wynalda, it has become evident that San Diego State soccer breeds world class talent.

Overall, the Aztecs have had four World Cup participants, including Balboa, Wynalda, Cle Kooiman and Chris Sullivan, and 26 selections to a national team. Most recently, Omar Persad represented the Jamaican U-20 National Team at the FIFA U-20 World Cup qualifications in 2007. In addition, current senior Myles Davis (Canada) and former All-American Tally Hall (United States) were each call-ups to their respective country's national team camp in their preparation for the Beijing Olympics.

San Diego State has also had great success in the pro ranks with 49 either playing or coaching professionally since 1974, including five over the past four years. Last April, rookie Kraig Chiles earned his first career start for Major League Soccer's Chivas USA in a game against FC Dallas. Chiles played the first 60 minutes of the match and was involved in every set piece, taking 10 of the team's 13 corner kicks. Persad recently joined Chiles in the professional ranks after signing to play with Lousananse of the Portugese Third Division.

Aztec Soccer Year-by-Year

San Diego State's first year of Division I soccer. George Logan was the first head coach and the architect of 148 future wins. The Aztecs defeated UC San Diego, 5-1, in the school's first match. SDSU started the year winning its first four matches as the Aztecs finished with a 6-2 record.

1969

SDSU defeated CS Los Angeles, CS Fullerton and UCLA on its way to a 9-1-1 season. Jim Tollerton and Oscar Gonzalez shared the goal-scoring leadership with 12 apiece. The Aztecs played three overtime NCAA playoff games, defeating CS Fullerton and UCLA, 2-1, before battling San Francisco to a 2-2 tie in four OTs. The game was decided by which team had taken more corner kicks, making USF the winner.

1970

Al Limahelu tallied 26 points and Choo Chowana-Bandu scored 12 goals to lead the team. The largest margin of victory in Aztec soccer history came when San Diego State defeated Chapman College, 13-0. The Aztecs outscored opponents 55-9 on their way to an 8-1-1 mark.

1971

SDSU posted a 10-3-1 record with the help of Tollerton's 11 goals and Chowana-Bandu's 10 scores. The Aztecs made their first appearance in the Pacific Coast Athletic Association tournament, losing to San Jose State in the first round, 2-1.

1972

After starting the season 1-4, San Diego State went unbeaten in its last six games to boost its season record to 6-4-1, securing its fifth straight winning campaign of the program. Chowana-Bandu led the team with nine goals.

1973

The season began with a 12-0 whitewash of Arizona State and a 9-1 victory over Loyola. The team struggled at mid-year but regrouped to win six of its last seven to finish 11-6-3. The schedule included games with international teams from Mexico and Germany.

1974

Goal-scoring machine Steve Robertson arrived on Montezuma Mesa. He netted 14 goals in 13 games, including at least one tally in nine contests. The only loss in a 10-1-2 season came against CS Fullerton in the Aztecs' second match.

1975

Robertson again averaged more than a goal per game as the Aztecs put together a 10-4-1 season. Future stars Alan Kelly and Jan Norby arrived at SDSU and made an immediate impact. Kelly scored eight goals and Norby provided strength on defense.

1976

Three players scored seven goals apiece, leading the Aztecs to a 10-5-1 record. Kelly, Carlos Sainz and Lauri Somersalmi stood out in the Aztecs' ninth-straight winning season, including victories over San Francisco State and USIU on the way to the championship of the USIU Invitational.

1977

Vidal Fernandez burst onto the scene at SDSU, leading the Aztecs to a 13-4-1 record. The future New York Cosmos and San Diego Sockers star tallied 13 goals on the year to lead the team. Kelly and Sainz each had nine tallies. Four-year letterman and future head coach, Chuck Clegg, finished his first year as Logan's assistant coach.

1978

Playing its longest schedule ever, SDSU went 13-7, including a 8-2 mark at home. Fernandez again led the team in scoring with nine goals, while Chris Hull and Norby each scored five times. During a three-game stretch early in the year, Fernandez scored five times to pace three Aztec victories. Gordon Dallas wore the scarlet and black for the first time, notching four goals to go along with eight assists.

1979

The golden era of SDSU soccer begins with the arrival of several outstanding players. Micael Holmstedt, Dida Menders, Vince Bucelli and Kevin Crow all make their initial appearances for the Aztecs. In his final campaign, Fernandez scored 12 goals and had 10 assists, leading the team to a 14-3-2 mark. For the first time in SDSU soccer history, three players had double figures in goals as Fernandez and Holmstedt had 12 goals each and Menders added 10.

1980

Holmstedt set the school's single-season scoring mark, netting 17 goals in 18 games. His 42 points also set a standard for SDSU. The team went on to compile a record of 12-4-2.

1981

The Aztecs returned to the NCAA playoffs for the first time in 10 years, compiling a 16-3-1 overall record. SDSU trounced California, 4-0, in the first round of the playoffs. In the second round, the Aztecs again met San Francisco. After regulation and four 15-minute overtimes failed to produce a winner, SDSU won on penalty kicks, 2-1. Following the victory, a player was declared ineligible for the Aztecs, forcing them out of further competition.

1982

Clegg took over as head coach and guided the Aztecs to their best record in history, winning 20 games for the first time. Clegg inherited a talented group that included seniors Holmstedt, Bucelli, Menders and Crow. The Aztecs won their first 11 games as they finished 20-3 and went to the NCAA's again. SDSU eliminated Fresno State in the first round, 1-0, before falling to USF, 2-0. Holmstedt led the team with 33 points.

With heavy graduation losses, the team struggled to a 9-9-4 record. Goal scoring was the problem most of the year, with the exception being a 13-0 win over Loyola Marymount. In the game against the Lions, Jeff Ryder scored three goals. Nineteen different players tallied at least one point during the season.

1984

Kyle Whittemore arrived on Montezuma Mesa to set single-season scoring and points marks. The Seattle product beat opposing keepers 21 times during the course of the season, tallying 45 points. Eric Drabb was the team's second-leading scorer with six goals and six assists. The team tied the school record set in 1983 for goals in a game with a 13-0 drubbing of CS Bakersfield. Its final record was 14-6.

1985

With Whittemore gone for the year with a broken leg, SDSU had trouble scoring. Steve Boardman and Steve Guillot shared the team lead with five goals. Boardman set a single-season record for assists with 12. The team averted its first-ever losing record with a late goal against cross-town rival USD to win, 1-0, in the next-to-last contest of the year to finish 8-8-4.

1986

Whittemore returned from his injury to break his own point-scoring record, earning a point in 17 different contests. His 20 goals and 10 assists led the team to a 14-3-4 record. Goalkeeper Felipe Hernandez posted a 0.71 goals-against average and six shutouts. The season ended on a sour note with a loss to Wisconsin-Milwaukee in the final game, keeping the team out of the NCAA playoffs.

1987

With teams keying more and more on Whittemore, freshman Eric Wynalda was a welcome addition to the Aztecs' scoring punch. As the lowest-seeded team in the NCAA playoffs, SDSU made a storybook run all the way to the NCAA finals. The Aztecs' finish included playoff victories against St. Louis, SMU and UCLA before beating undefeated Harvard in the semifinals. In the national championship game, SDSU lost to Clemson on the Tigers' home field, 2-0. Whittemore had 17 goals to lead the way and Wynalda had 11 goals and 11 assists. Goalkeepers Bryan Finnerty and Felipe Hernandez combined for a school-record 13 shutouts. A key to the Aztec season was the play of Chris Keenan and Gerardo Jimenez, both of whom had transferred to SDSU for their senior years.

1988

The Aztecs made their second consecutive trip to the NCAA playoffs, losing to UCLA in the first round. Defender Marcelo Balboa was named a first-team All-American. Wynalda (14), Whittemore (10) and Betts (10) finished in double figures for goal scoring. Finnerty set a pair of goalkeeping records as he helped the Aztecs establish a school record of 14 shutouts in a season. Finishing the season 15-3-4, SDSU continued to establish themselves as one of the premier programs in the nation. Whittemore capped his career as the MVP of the Senior Bowl in St. Louis at Budweiser Soccer Park, leading the West to a 2-0 victory and scoring the game-winning goal.

1989

Continuing to solidify their role as a national contender, the Aztecs appeared in the NCAA playoffs for the third straight year, a first in their storied history. In the playoff game, UCLA defeated the Aztecs 2-1, in a penalty kick shootout. Senior goalkeeper Bryan Finnerty recorded the third best single-season goals-against average (0.66), and became the Aztecs' career leader in GAA (0.69) and shutouts (26.5). Betts led Aztec scorers with 32 points and U.S. National Team members Wynalda and Balboa finished with 24 and 23 points, respectively. SDSU finished the decade with the 15th-best winning percentage (.722) among Division I programs. The Aztecs ended the season 14-5-3.

1990

The Aztecs began the season basking in the accomplishments of three former players, Balboa, Wynalda and Chris Sullivan. All represented the United States on the national team in Italy for World Cup 1990. The Aztecs had more players compete for the national team than any university in the United States. On Montezuma Mesa, Patrick Merrell and company recorded an 11-6-3 record, barely missing the NCAA playoffs. The defense was anchored by Dain DeForest, but speedsters Jason French, Bill Demke and Chris Stephens combined with Brian Craft-Negrete and Merrell for 31 goals and 28 assists. Goalkeeper Curtis McAlister recorded a 0.92 GAA.

1991

Posting a 10-4-4 record, Craft-Negrete led the team with nine goals and eight assists. Captain Merrell directed the attack from the midfield, scoring two goals and adding six assists. Goalkeepers Dan Dalzochio, Chris Volk and Shannon Storey amassed 59 saves.

1992

Due to an injury-plagued season, SDSU's final tally of 10-8-1 was impressive. From the midfield, senior Andy Morrone scored seven goals and seven assists. The season saw 15 players score at least one goal. The year also marked the Aztecs' entry into league play with the creation of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation. The MPSF will prove to be one of the strongest soccer conferences in the nation.

1993

As predicted, the MPSF's strength was evidenced by four teams qualifying for the NCAA tournament. The Aztecs struggled, posting their first losing season in 25 years, going 7-9-1. Injuries again played a major role with nine of the starting 11 sidelined for part of the season. Senior Bill Demke led the Aztec attack, scoring 11 goals and two assists on the season.

1994

The strongest freshman recruiting class in recent history arrived on Montezuma Mesa. The rollercoaster season ended up 10-9, but six freshmen broke into the starting lineup. Senior Willie Franklin's career ended with four goals and three assists. The freshmen gained valuable Division I experience against top-20 teams. Sophomore Aaron Susi led the team with 22 points and began maturing into a top forward. The team recorded 241 shots on goal.

1995

As a junior, Susi led the Aztecs with 10 goals and 10 assists for a total of 30 points. The Aztecs posted a less-than-stellar record of 6-10-4, for only their second losing season in 27 years. Eleven different players scored for a total of 38 goals. Senior Pablo Nunnally recorded two assists from the defense. The freshman class contributed seven players who put the ball in the net. The year also marked the end of defender Jeff Baxter's outstanding career. The MPSF again proved to be a powerhouse in the ratings.

1996

Darren and Derek Drago and Mark Rogondino joined the team for their final year of eligibility. Those three, plus transfers Juan Velasco and John Browne, added maturity to the squad. Aztec soccer followed other SDSU sports into the Western Athletic Conference, as did fellow MPSF schools, Air Force, Fresno State, New Mexico, San Jose State, SMU, TCU, Tulsa and UNLV. The WAC certainly rivaled the MPSF in strength. Six freshmen again found playing time and the Aztecs finished 7-10-3.

Coach Clegg was pleased to announce the addition of his first salaried men's assistant coach, Lev Kirshner. A northern California native, Kirshner played collegiately for Rutgers University. Sophomore goalkeeper Matt Hall came into his own, posting a 1.25 GAA, recording 80 saves and four shutouts. The overall record of 7-8-3 did not reflect the intensity of play as four of the losses were by one goal and the team took three opponents to overtime. Again freshmen made an impact with six consistently in the starting lineup. Senior Raja Hawa led the team in scoring, but 13 different Aztecs scored. SDSU remained somewhat young with only three seniors graduating.

A rebuilding Aztec squad held its own throughout a competitive season, finishing with a record of 8-11-1. Junior David Beltran and Darren Parker shared goal-scoring honors with five apiece, while freshman Mike Bradbury added five goals and four assists in his inaugural campaign at SDSU. Goalie Hall was stellar in the nets, fashioning a 1.42 goals-against average. The Aztecs posted impressive WAC wins over UNLV and TCU at home and finished the season with a 4-3 overtime loss to 16th-ranked Southern Methodist, a team that went on to the NCAA quarterfinals.

1999

With the creation of the Mountain West Conference, SDSU returned to the MPSF. The young Aztec team showed signs of improvement but finished the season with a 4-15-0 record. Three of the team's wins came in the form of shutouts, including an impressive 6-0 season-opening victory over Concordia. Freshman keeper Brian Barnes was the team's primary starter seeing action in 16-of-19 matches, earning 64 saves. Junior midfielder/forward Milton Economy led the team with four goals and two assists (10 points), including two game-winners.

2000

Assistant coach Kirshner took over the head coaching reins and with it, the job of returning the program to the success it once knew. Junior midfielder Enrique Tovar led the team in goals (4), assists (6) and points (14). The story of the campaign was sophomore goalkeeper Barnes, who finished the year with a MPSF Pacific Division-leading 90 saves. Combined with 64 saves from his rookie season, his total of 154 saves placed him third on SDSU's career top-10 list. The team finished the year with a 6-12-1 record, and was 2-4-1 in the MPSF-Pacific Division after an injury-plagued campaign in which seven players underwent surgery.

2001

San Diego State completed one of the program's most successful seasons in recent years with a 7-9-4 overall mark and a 3-2-2 MPSF record. The Aztecs entered the final weekend of regular season play in contention for their first MPSF title. Sophomore Kevin Sapanli's earned all-conference and all-tournament honors. He also was a third-team selection on the Verizon Academic All-America team. Seniors

After entering the season with great optimism, a rash of injuries to several key returnees turned the year sour. SDSU posted a 4-13-2 overall record, but the young Aztecs did show signs of optimism. The highlight of the year was a 3-2 overtime victory over No. 7 Loyola Marymount. Barnes earned second-team all-MPSF honors after another solid year at goalkeeper, and Ryan Cook was awarded all-MPSF honorable mention plaudits.

2003

The 2003 Aztec squad went against the pundits and posted their first winning season since the 1994 campaign. The year also marked the Aztecs return to the MPSF championships for the second time under fourth-year coach Kirshner. The season started out with a bang as the Aztecs pulled out a 2-1 overtime victory over Oregon State. SDSU would go 6-1-1 through the month of September before injuries and a lack of depth caught up with the Aztecs, who finished a remarkable 9-8-3, including a 3-1 win over Sacramento State in the MPSF championships. The showing marked the second appearance in postseason play since 1989 for SDSU.

2004

Coming off a winning season, the Aztecs were excited about the prospects of 2004. Unfortunately, injuries sidelined two starters before the season began and by mid-year, the team was without six starters. Despite finishing with a record of 4-13-2, SDSU ended the campaign on a high note, defeating Sacramento State and UNLV and tying No. 2 New Mexico at home. Throughout the year, the team suffered some close losses, but none closer than its season-opening 1-0 loss to eventual national runner-up UC Santa Barbara. Individually, Heath Creager and Colin Jennings were honored by the MPSF. Creager, a junior forward, was named to the second team, while Jennings, a sophomore midfielder, earned honorable mention accolades.

With its first healthy team in some time and a nationally ranked recruiting class, SDSU finished the season with a 9-4-6 record and its first trip to the NCAA tournament since 1989, where it would fall to UC Santa Barbara, 2-0. In their first season of play in the Pac-10, the Aztecs finished with a respectable record of 2-3-5, with two losses coming in overtime. SDSU began the season with a 1-0 road win over perennial power Rutgers and followed it up with a 0-0 tie to then No. 5 St. John's. The Aztecs never looked back from there, going unbeaten (6-0-1) over their next seven games. SDSU was led by junior goalkeeper Tally Hall, who led the nation with an 88.9 shot-on-goal save percentage and was second in the country with a 0.49 goals against average, both school records. Hall's performance between the posts didn't go unrecognized as he became the first Aztec All-American since 1989 (Marcelo Balboa). Hall was joined on the all-Pac-10 team by senior Matt Couch and sophomore Kraig Chiles.

The 2006 Aztecs continued where last year's team left off, advancing to the NCAA tournament for the second consecutive season, a feat they hadn't done since 1988 and 1989. SDSU finished the season with a 9-6-4 record, including a 5-2-3 record in its second year of Pac-10 play, good enough for sole possession of second place. Tally Hall had a brilliant season between the posts once again, going 9-5-4 with a 1.04 goals against average. He went on to become a M.A.C. Hermann Award semifinalist, an All-American for the second straight season and an all-conference performer. Nick Cardenas made an immediate impact, scoring six times en route to being named the Pac-10 Freshman of the Year. Raul Bautista (second team), Andrew DiCicco (honorable mention), Kraig Chiles (honorable mention), Danny Ortiz (honorable mention) and Dennis Sanchez (honorable mention) were also honored by the league.

2007

SDSU culminated an up and down season with its second consecutive runner-up finish in the Pac-10. The Aztecs posted an eight-game unbeaten streak midway through the season, which included three straight wins against nationally ranked Pac-10 foes UCLA (1-0), California (3-2) and Stanford (2-0). In addition, SDSU was 3-1-2 against nationally ranked foes. However, two key non-conference losses early and another one late ultimately cost the Aztecs their third consecutive trip to the NCAA tournament. Still, the squad posted a 8-7-4 record for its third straight winning season. Senior Kraig Chiles earned second-team Top Drawer Soccer honors as well as first-team all-Pac-10 after leading the squad with 20 points on eight goals and four assists. Sophomore Nick Cardenas was selected to the NSCAA/adidas all-Far West third team and was joined on the all-Pac-10 second team by classmate Evan Toft. Redshirt freshman Brad Byrns, true freshman Khadim Diouf and redshirt sophomore Jamel Wallace each were named to the all-Pac-10 honorable mention, while senior Freddy McDonald was named to the Pac-10 All-Academic first team.
