Game No. 23

San Diego State Aztecs (13-9, 4-6 MWC) vs. No. 19/20 Utah Utes (20-3, 9-0 MWC)

► When & Where: Saturday, Feb. 16, 2008, Cox Arena (12,414), San Diego, Calif., 2 p.m. PST.
 ► Live Video/Audio/Stats: Live stats and a live audio/video feed, featuring Chris Ello, will be available on the Aztecs' official website at www.goaztecs.com.

► The Records: The San Diego State women's basketball squad returns to San Diego for the first of two consecutive home games against ranked teams beginning this Saturday against No. 19/20 Utah at 2 p.m. at Cox Arena. The Aztecs have dropped their last two contests after ending the first round of league play on a four-game win streak, falling in their most recent outing at New Mexico on Wednesday, 63-54. SDSU, however, beat both the Utes and next Wednesday's opponent, No. 21/22 Wyoming, last season at home. Utah, which won the first outing in Salt Lake City 74-62, enters Saturday's game coming off a bye earlier this week and is leading the MWC with a perfect 9-0 mark and a 20-3 record overall.

► SDSU Head Coach Beth Burns: Burns (Ohio Wesleyan, 1979) is in the third year of her second stint as head coach at San Diego State. She led the Aztecs for eight seasons from 1989 to 1997, before returning in 2005. She has an overall head coaching record of 260-197 in 15 seasons, while she is 179-132 in her 10 previous campaigns at SDSU.

► Utah Head Coach Elaine Elliott: Elliott is in her 25th season at Utah. She boasts a school and overall record of 529-210.

► Utah Series History: Utah leads 26-11, but SDSU won for the first time in a decade in the last meeting in San Diego a year ago, 71-66. (Last: Utah def. SDSU, 74-62, on Jan. 16, 2007, in Salt Lake City, Utah).

Aztec Women's Hoops To "Think Pink" Saturday Against No. 19/20 Utah

The San Diego State women's basketball team returns home for two straight contests against ranked opponents, beginning Saturday at 2 p.m. against conference-leading and No. 19/20 Utah at Cox Arena. The Aztecs will be looking for their first victory in the second round of league action, after falling to TCU last Saturday and most recently at New Mexico on Wednesday evening. SDSU, which is 13-9 overall and 4-6 in the MWC, is facing a Ute squad that it beat a year ago in San Diego for the first time since 1996.

Both sides will be wearing pink on Saturday in support of the "Think Pink" initiative, a national campaign to increase breast cancer awareness.

SDSU Women's Hoops Falls On The Road At New Mexico, 63-54

In a game pitting two teams tied for fifth place in the Mountain West Conference standings entering the night, the host New Mexico Lobos used a 42-31 advantage on the glass to defeat the visiting San Diego State women's basketball team 63-54 Wednesday evening at The Pit. With the loss, the Aztecs, who had a one-point advantage at the half, dropped to 13-9 overall and 4-6 in conference action, while the Lobos improved to 13-10 and 5-5 in the MWC.

Aztec sophomore Jené Morris (San Francisco, Calif.) scored in double-figures for the sixth straight game and the ninth time in 10 conference outings, ending up with 22 points for her fourth career 20-point scoring game. Morris scored 16 of her 22 points in the second half and also added four of the team's 11 steals.

Senior Shanna Demus (Palmdale, Calif.), who started the contest 4-for-4 from the field, ended up with nine points, while redshirt freshman Allison Duffy (Lakeside, Calif.) recorded her third career game with double-figure rebounds, notching 12 boards, just one short of her season-best of 13.

SDSU got off to a quick start getting on the board with three free throws and two Demus baskets, including a three-pointer, to lead by seven at 8-1 at the 16:22 mark. New Mexico raced back to knot the score at eight apiece and the game was tied on three more occasions in the first 20 minutes of action.

The Aztecs carried a 26-25 lead into the locker room, despite making 11 of 18 shots (61.1 percent) from the field to the Lobos' 36.0 shooting percentage.

The lead changed hands for the third time on the night, when New Mexico opened the second half with a 7-0 run before Morris could score SDSU's first points at the 15:58 mark trailing 32-28. Morris followed that bucket with another and the Aztecs had the game down to just a single point at 33-32.

Both sides went scoreless for over three minutes, as a jumper by UNM's Jessica Kielpinksi broke the drought in the Lobos favor, which was then followed by six straight Dionne Marsh points, as the host built its largest lead of the night at 11 points at 45-34. UNM went up by as many as 17 points at 59-42 with just over two minute remaining. The Aztecs cut the deficit to as few as 10 points with 39 seconds left, but ended up running out of time, falling, 63-54.

Other UNM Notes

SDSU lost its second consecutive game when leading at the half ... The Aztecs shot a season-low 50 percent at the free-throw line ... SDSU lost for the first time this season when posting a better field-goal percentage than its opponent (SDSU entered the game 10-0 in that category) ... The Aztecs have been outrebounded on the offensive glass 53-26 over their last three outings, after owning an advantage or being even in that category in six of their first seven league games.

SDSU Selected To Play Host To 2009 NCAA Women's Basketball First & Second Rounds

San Diego State University and Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl will play host to the 2009 NCAA Women's Basketball First & Second Rounds, the NCAA announced Tuesday. SDSU was one of eight additional venues selected for 2009 by the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee, which voted last summer to expand from eight to 16 first- and second-round sites, beginning next year. The championships will take place either March 21 and 23 or March 22 and 24, 2009, and will each feature four schools vying to advance to the NCAA regionals.

Cox Arena has served as the host site for three other NCAA championship events, including the 2001 and 2006 Men's Basketball First & Second Rounds and the 2001 Women's Volleyball Final Four, since the facility opened in the fall of 1997. SDSU has played host to NCAA women's basketball games three times previously in Peterson Gym in 1984, 1994 and most recently in 1995.

Morris - MWC's Scoring, Steals Leader

For the sixth straight game and the ninth time in 10 MWC outings, San Diego State sophomore Jené Morris recorded double-figures in points, scoring 22 at New Mexico on Wednesday. Morris' only blemish was a seven-point game in a loss at then No. 20-ranked Wyoming on Jan. 19, which came three days after a 25-point performance at Utah.

Morris has moved from SDSU's fourth-leading scorer entering MWC action with 10.3 points per game, to its No. 1 performer, increasing her season average to 13.8 points a contest. Morris ranks first in the MWC in league outings in scoring (18.1 ppg.), is first in steals (2.80/g) and also sits in the top 10 in free-throw percentage (4th - 85.4), three-pointers (17th - 1.6/g), three-point percentage (9th - 39.0) and offensive rebounds (7th - 2.1/g).

If the season were to end today, Morris' 13.8 points per game would be the best by an Aztec since Jodi Nowlin-Tres averaged 16.3 points per outing in 1996-97. With one more steal, Morris, who has 64 on the year, would have the most by an SDSU player since Nowlin-Tres had 96 that same 1996-97 campaign.

Another Double-Digit Steals Outing

For the 17th time this season, San Diego State logged double-figures in steals, finishing with 11 against New Mexico on Wednesday. The Aztecs entered the week ranked seventh in the nation in steals and have compiled 283 this season. SDSU is the only MWC team in league play to average in double-figure steals (10.60/g) and are also first in overall games (12.86).

The Aztecs' own the top two steals totals in the conference in 2007-08, with 23 against Southern Utah, ranking second in league history, and 20 versus Navy. SDSU also has the No. 1 effort in league-only games with their 17 thefts in a win over BYU.

Individually, Jené Morris (2.91/g) is first in the conference and entered the week 37th nationally in steals per game. Sophomore Quenese Davis (2.23) and redshirt freshman Allison Duffy (2.14) remain in the league top five at fourth and fifth respectively. A year ago, San Diego State had 10 or more steals 13 times. The school record for most steals in a season is 555 by the 1983-84 team.

Turnover Town

New Mexico became the 19th SDSU opponent to have 20 or more turnovers in a game this season, finishing with 23 on Wednesday. The three exceptions have come during conference action with TCU tallying 15 and Utah recording 19 to go with the Air Force's 18 last week. On the year, Aztec opponents have committed 557 turnovers in the 22 games (25.3/g).

SDSU has had fewer or the same number of turnovers than 18 of its 22 opponents in 2007-08, ranking first in the MWC in turnover margin, averaging 5.45 fewer giveaways than its opponents. The only times SDSU's has had more turnovers than its opponent was in a win over Jackson State (25-24) and losses at TCU (20-15), Utah (22-19) and Wyoming (22-20).

Five San Diego State foes have 30 or more turnovers in a single outing, including Nevada (37), Southern Utah (35), BYU (31), Colorado State (30) and Navy (30). Even the No. 2-ranked team in the country, Connecticut, had 28 turnovers in its game with the Aztecs. UConn's 28 turnovers are still its most in a single outing since also having 28 in a loss to North Carolina in 2004.

The Aztecs' season-low for turnovers in a game is 10 against Navy, the team's fewest since it had nine versus Canisius in Jan. 2005.

Aztecs To "Think Pink" Saturday

The San Diego State women's basketball team will join the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) and over 900 schools nationally in the organization's "Think Pink" initiative on Saturday, Feb. 16, when it plays host to the University of Utah at Cox Arena for a 2 p.m. PT tip-off. The specific message behind Saturday's contest will be to raise breast cancer awareness, promote early detection and celebrate breast cancer survivors.

As a part of this year's "Think Pink" game, both the Aztecs and Utes will be wearing pink shooting shirts prior to the game, while SDSU will also don pink shoelaces and headbands. The American Cancer Society (ACS) will have an information booth on the arena concourse to learn more about breast cancer. The ACS will accept monetary donations at its booth and will be selling pink bracelets. All fans asked to wear "pink" to support the cause.

Notes With A 'W'

An SDSU victory over Utah will mean:

- ▶ SDSU has 14 victories on the season, its most since the 1996-97 team had 23 in Beth Burns' first tenure.
- ▶ SDSU matches its conference win total of five from last season. Five MWC victories tie with the 2006-07 and 2000-01 teams for the most since the league's inception in 2000.
- ▶ SDSU posts back-to-back victories in San Diego against Utah.
- ▶ SDSU ends' Utah's 15-game win streak and hands the Utes their first conference loss of the season.

►SDSU head coach Beth Burns improves to 11-10 all-time against the Utes.

Utah Tidbits

Utah is coming off a bye for the second time this season before facing the Aztecs ... The Utes are ranked 19th in the Associated Press poll and 20th in the coaches poll ... Utah leads the MWC by two games over second place TCU with a perfect 9-0 league record ... Utah has won each of their last 15 consecutive games, dating back to a loss at USC on Dec. 3 ... The Utes are led by senior Leilani Mitchell, who averages 17.4 points and 7.0 assists per game and is a finalist for the Nancy Lieberman Award, given to the nation's top collegiate point guard ... Two other Utah players average in double-figures in Morgan Warburton (17.3 ppg.) and Kalee Whipple (14.3 ppg.) ... The Utes lead the league in seven categories, including scoring margin (+15.8) and field-goal percentage (48.0).

Utah Round One Notes

- SDSU dropped a 74-62 decision at Utah on Jan. 16 ... The Aztecs' 62 points are the most scored against Utah in league action this season.
- Aztec Jené Morris scored 16 of her career-best 25 points in the second half going 10-for-18 from the field, while also contributing a team-best five rebounds. Two other SDSU starters, forward Allison Duffy, and guard Quenese Davis, scored nine points apiece.
- After the opening basket by the Aztecs, Utah led the rest of the first half, owning a 10-point advantage at 34-24 at the break.
- The Aztecs cut their deficit to single digits, before Utah put together a 9-0 run and led by as many as 17. SDSU rallied to get to within nine, keeping the Ute offense scoreless for nearly four and a half minutes, before Utah made 12-of-14 free-throw attempts in the final three minutes to secure the 74-62 victory.
- San Diego State owned a 14-7 edge on the offensive boards and committed just three more turnovers than Utah, but could not overcome the Utes' 55.8 field-goal percentage on the night.
- Utah was led by Morgan Warburton's 23 points, while point guard Leilani Mitchell tallied 19 points, six steals and five assists in playing all 40 minutes.

What The W's Mean

- SDSU has already exceeded its win total of 12 from all of last season. The Aztecs' 13 victories are their most since the 2000-01 squad also had 13. With one more win, SDSU would have its most since the 1996-97 team had 23 in Beth Burns' first stint on Montezuma Mesa.
- SDSU has recorded just its second 10-win season since 2001-02, and its second in a row. The last time the Aztecs had consecutive 10-win campaigns was in 2000-01, when the team won 13, and in 2001-02, when it had 10 victories.
- SDSU defeated Brigham Young for the first time since 2001, ending a 13-game skid. The Aztecs' victory over UNLV was its first in Las Vegas since 1997, and first conference win on the road since beating Air Force on Feb. 26, 2005. SDSU has now claimed two MWC road games in the same season for time in conference history.
- SDSU's nine non-conference victories are the program's most since the 1995-96 team had 11, including one in the league tournament.
- The Aztecs are 18-9 in games played at Cox Arena over the last two campaigns.
- SDSU recorded its first victory on a neutral court since Nov. 29, 2002, when the Aztecs defeated Murray State in Fresno, 59-54. The Aztecs had dropped their previous seven outings in neutral site games.
- The Aztecs' six overall victories away from home (away and neutral) are its most since the 1996-97 team won 12 times, including three at the conference tournament.
- SDSU won its season-opener for the first time 2002, and claimed its home-opener for the first time in the last three years.
- The Aztecs were 5-0 against non-conference teams it also faced last season. SDSU was 3-2 versus Nevada, Saint Mary's, USD, Southern Utah and Cal Poly a year ago.
- The Aztecs are 15-4 in their last 19 games against non-conference opponents with the lone losses coming this year vs. Indiana St., Quinnipiac, No. 2 UConn and last year against No. 17/16 George Washington.

Offensive Production 101

While the Aztec offense has been held to 54 points in the last two games, SDSU remains third in the Mountain West in scoring offense (67.0 ppg.) and second in field-goal percentage (43.1). These numbers far surpass last year's when SDSU averaged just over 56 points an outing and shot 37 percent from the field.

Below are a few notes about the Aztecs' offensive number so far this season:

►SDSU's 91 points versus Navy are its most since also tallying 91 in a win over Utah Valley

State on Feb. 10, 2005. The Aztecs have recorded five games with 80 or more points for the first time since 1996-97, when SDSU had five such outings.

►SDSU also has four wins of 30 points or more for the first time since the 1996-97 team had six. The 58-point margin of victory over Navy is San Diego State's highest since a 97-35 win over Fresno State in 1995.

►SDSU has shot above 50 percent five times and above 40 percent from the field in 14 of 22 games. The Aztecs only reached the 40 percent mark 11 times a year ago, posting an 8-3 record in those outings. San Diego State has shot over 40 percent in four straight games on two occasions this year, accomplishing that feat for the first time since 2001, when the Aztecs opened the campaign with five straight performances. SDSU's 56.7 shooting percentage versus Navy is the second-best in the league this year and the program's highest since the Utah Valley game (57.1).

►San Diego State scored 60 or more points in seven consecutive games for the first time since also posting a seven-game stint in 1995-96 from Dec. 27-Jan. 13.

►The Aztecs have scored 40 or more points in a half 11 times after reaching the barrier just twice a year ago.

►SDSU has 20 or more assists in six outings, including a league-high 28 against Navy. The 28 assists are the team's most since it also had 28 on Feb. 1, 1997 vs. San Jose St. SDSU ranks first in the MWC (16.3) and entered the week 18th in the nation in assists per game.

Young Guns

SDSU has started two freshmen, two sophomores and one senior in all 22 games of 2007-08. The Aztecs' starting lineup in its season opener with Nevada was the program's youngest since the 1983-84 campaign, when the team had three freshmen, one sophomore and one junior among the starting five. This year's group also has just five years of experience, with only four coming at the Division I level as Shanna Demus played her first season at Div. II Cal State Los Angeles.

The Aztecs' four newcomers, Coco Davis (Sacramento, Calif.), Allison Duffy, Paris Johnson and Jené Morris, have combined for 57.7 percent of the team's scoring and 48.7 percent of its rebounding. Johnson, Morris and Duffy are the team's three-leading scorers, while in 10 MWC games thus far, the trio have combined for all but two of the team's 19 double-figure scoring outings.

What A Crowd

In 11 home games, over 13,000 people have turned out to see the Aztecs in action, already the highest total home attendance since 1994-95. SDSU is averaging 1,183 fans per home game, compared to last year's 499 average.

The Aztecs set a single-game home attendance record with 5,271 fans against Connecticut. The mark beat the previous record of 4,311 versus UCLA at the San Diego Sports Arena on Jan. 28, 1978. It was the second time this season that SDSU has set a Cox Arena attendance record, after also doing so earlier this month versus Cal State Fullerton (2,397).

For the seventh straight year, Aztec women's basketball fans will have an opportunity to listen to live play-by-play of nearly every regular season game (home and away) over the internet at www.goaztecs.com. SDSU alum Chris Elio will take over the play-by-play duties both at home and on the road. Aztecs Ink Four In Front Court

San Diego State women's basketball head coach Beth Burns announced the signing Wednesday of four prep standouts to National Letters of Intent. Candace Chambers (Seattle, Wash.), Gabrielle Clark (Los Angeles, Calif.), Lindsay Leo (San Jose, Calif.) and Kalena Tutt (Long Beach, Calif.) will join the Aztecs in 2008.

SDSU Head Coach Beth Burns

The winningest coach in SDSU women's basketball history, Beth Burns returned to Montezuma Mesa in April 2005. In just two short years, she already has the program headed in the right direction, as the Aztecs' were the 11th-most improved team in the nation in 2007, and recorded the school's most wins since 2000-01.

In her first stint as head coach from 1989-97, Burns compiled a 151-83 record and a 64.5 winning percentage, the best in school history. The Aztecs went to the NCAA tournament on four occasions (1993, 1994, 1995, 1997), won a pair of tournament championships and three regular-season titles.

A three-time WAC coach of the year, Burns was the head coach at Ohio State for five seasons (1997-02). She has a 15-year overall head coaching record of 260-197, while her school record stands at 179-132 over 10 seasons. Burns recently earned her 250th career victory with the team's win vs. Southern Utah.

2007-08 San Diego State Women's Basketball

Season Box Scores ■ Games 1-3

San Diego St. 67, Nevada 61

Game 1 ■ Nov. 11 ■ Lawlor Events Center ■ Reno, Nev.

RENO, Nev. - In a game featuring two schools with high pressure defenses, the San Diego State women's basketball team survived a stern test in its 2007-08 opener, defeating host Nevada, 67-61, Sunday afternoon at the Lawlor Events Center. The Aztecs claimed their first game of a campaign for the first time since 2002, to improve to 1-0, while the Wolf Pack dropped to 1-1 overall.

San Diego State got a huge game from a pair of players making their collegiate debuts. Freshman center Paris Johnson had 16 points, nine rebounds and five blocks in 38 minutes. Redshirt frosh Allison Duffy scored 10 of her 14 points in the second half, while sophomore Quenese Davis was the third Aztec in double-figures with a team-best 17 points.

Sophomore Jené Morris, who played her first game in an Aztec uniform, notched a game-high seven steals. Junior guard Tamika Lipford provided a solid performance off the bench, recording six points, two steals and two rebounds, one of which came on a critical play with 12 seconds left in the game.

SDSU started off the year by scoring the first basket on a jumper by Morris. Nevada countered with a pair of free throws, but the Aztecs answered again in a back-and-forth first half.

The visitors led by as many as five points at the 7:53 mark at 26-21, but the host went into the locker room on a 15-8 run to end the half with a two-point 36-34 advantage.

The Aztecs struggled to find their offensive rhythm coming out of the break, taking five and a half minutes to hit their first field goal. SDSU used that bucket to start a 9-0 run to knot the game at 43-43 and take a two-point lead at 45-43 with 11:32 remaining.

The two sides were tied again at 45 points, but the Aztecs maintained an advantage the rest of the way. SDSU was up by five points on four occasions, including as late as 59-54, but Nevada came to within a pair with 2:39 left and again with 45 seconds remaining. The Aztecs made six of their final eight free-throw attempts to preserve the 67-61 victory.

Nevada was led by Cherlanda Franklin's 12 points and seven rebounds. The Aztecs avenged a loss to the Wolf Pack in last year's season-opener in San Diego.

The Gaels never got closer than 12 in the second half, as San Diego State won its second road game of the season for the first time since it won four away from Montezuma Mesa in the 2003-04 campaign.

Saint Mary's was led by Jontelle Smith, who scored 12 points on 4-of-10 shooting, while Louella Tomlinson had 11 points and four blocks.

2007-08 San Diego State Women's Basketball

Season Box Scores ■ Games 4-6

Indiana St. 75, San Diego St., 68

Game 4 ■ Nov. 23 ■ Gersten Pavilion ■ Los Angeles, Calif.

LOS ANGELES - The San Diego State women's basketball team cut a 19-point second-half deficit to just four, but was unable to complete the comeback as the Aztecs dropped their first game of season to Indiana State, 75-68, at Gersten Pavilion. SDSU fell to 3-1 on the year, while the Sycamores improved to 3-0 following the first game of the LMU Ayres Hotel Thanksgiving Tournament.

Aztec freshman Paris Johnson had a career-high 27 points and 13 rebounds for her first career double-double. Johnson's 27 points are the most by an SDSU player since Michelle Strawberry had 29 in the 2005-06 season-opener. Sophomore Jené Morris was the only other Aztec in double-figures with 11 points, including a pair of three-pointers, to go with her three steals.

SDSU had four of its five starters foul out by the end of the game, including point guard Quenease Davis, who was limited to just four points in 20 minutes, but still managed to contribute four steals and four assists.

The Sycamores got off to an early lead, making six of their first seven shots from the field including a 3-for-3 effort from beyond the arc to jump ahead by eight at 15-7 heading into the first timeout. The Aztecs rallied to get back to within three at 15-12 on a triple by Demus at the 14:51 mark and trailed by four with 12:38 remaining in the first half. Indiana State, however, went on a 10-0 run, hitting two more three pointers to go up 28-18.

ISU boasted its largest lead at the break, heading into the locker room up by 18 at 45-27, after shooting 55.2 percent from the field and making 7-of-8 three-point attempts.

The Aztecs got off to a quick start in the second half, scoring four straight points on a pair of lay ups by Johnson and limiting the Sycamores to just six points in the first six minutes of play. SDSU was able to make a further dent into its deficit with the help of a 9-0 run to get to within 10 at 54-44.

After the two sides traded trips to the free-throw line, San Diego State continued to stalemate the Indiana State offense, going on another 3-0 run to get to within seven at 56-49.

ISU countered with a 5-0 outburst of its own and was leading by 14 points as late as 66-52. A three-pointer by Morris sparked the Aztec rally again, as SDSU closed to within just four with 26 seconds left in the game. The Sycamores closed out the win by making three of their four free throws to claim the 75-68 victory.

San Diego State owned the advantage on the boards (40-36), in the steals department (13-6) and in the turnover column (23-19), but the Sycamores made eight three-pointers and converted 23 of their 35 trips to the charity line.

Game 6 ■ Nov. 29 ■ Mott Gym ■ San Luis Obispo, CA

The San Diego State women's basketball team outscored Cal Poly 42-27 in the second half to rally from a nine-point deficit, as the Aztecs improved to 5-1 overall with an 80-70 victory over the Mustangs Thursday at Mott Gym. SDSU owned a 20-12 advantage on the offensive glass and made eight three-pointers for its seventh consecutive win over Cal Poly, which dropped to 3-4 in 2007-08.

Aztec point guard Quenease Davis scored 14 of her team-high 21 points in the second half, matching the best offensive output of her career. Davis converted 11 of her 12 free-throw attempts and added four rebounds and four steals. Three other SDSU players finished in double-figure points, including freshman center Paris Johnson (17 points), sophomore guard Jené Morris (11 pts.) and freshman forward Allison Duffy (10 pts.).

The Aztecs shot 39.7 percent from the field for the second game in a row, but countered with 26 second-chance points and recorded a season-best 88 percent performance (22-for-25) at the stripe. SDSU matched its best start since 1995-96 with five wins in its first six outings following its final non-conference road game of 2007-08.

After Cal Poly scored the first bucket to begin the night, the Aztecs reeled off six straight points to jump ahead 6-2. The Mustangs ended the run with a pair of free throws, but SDSU scored four more on back-to-back baskets by Johnson. Cal Poly put together its own offensive string, recording eight straight points to take a 12-10 advantage.

The schools traded leads four more times, before Cal Poly jumped ahead for the rest of the half, going up by as many as nine at 39-30, before heading into the locker room up five, 43-38. The Mustangs ended the half shooting 58.3 percent from the field and made 13 of their 14 free-throws (92.9 percent).

After Cal Poly once again opened the half with the first two points, SDSU responded with a triple by Davis, followed by two straight lay ups from Johnson to tie the game at 45-45.

Trailing by one, the Aztecs nailed back-to-back three-pointers to gain their first lead since early in the first half at 53-49. SDSU would go up by six on two occasions, before running out to the largest advantage of the night by either side at 67-57, following two Davis free throws.

Cal Poly made it interesting by getting to within six at 67-61 with just over three minutes left, but SDSU got four straight points from Allison Duffy and made 7-of-8 free-throws in the final 1:28 to secure the 80-70 win.

Season Box Scores ■ Games 7-9

San Diego St. 76, CS Fullerton 45 Game 7 ■ Dec. 2 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - In front of a Cox Arena record crowd of 2,397, the San Diego State women's basketball team kicked off its month-long homestand with a 76-45 victory over visiting Cal State Fullerton at Cox Arena. The Aztecs had five players score in double-figures to help the team move to 6-1 on the season for its best start since the 1992-93 campaign. The Titans, meanwhile, dropped to 1-5 on the year, losing their sixth straight against the Aztecs.

SDSU sophomore point guard Quenese Davis posted her first double-double of the season and the third of her career with 10 points on 4-for-5 shooting, and a career-high 12 assists. Her 12 assists are the most by an Aztec since Shannon Lee had 14 helpers against Illinois State on Nov. 24, 2000.

Four other Aztecs logged double-figures in points, including redshirt freshman Allison Duffy, who matched her career-best with 15 points, and freshman center Paris Johnson, who added 12 points and a team-high seven rebounds. Sophomore guard Jené Morris was the fourth starter in double-figures with 10 points, while junior LaSandra Dixon matched her career-high with 10 points off the bench.

Cal State Fullerton owned three, one-point advantages in the opening two minutes of the game, including at 5-4 on a layup by Ashley Richie. The Aztecs took the lead on a Quenese Davis bucket, but a Toni Thomas free-throw equalized the game at six points apiece. SDSU broke out of that tie with a 13-0 run and led by as many as 21 points, before heading into the locker room up 19 at 41-22.

Duffy opened the second half with each of San Diego State's first three baskets, as the host led by 25 with 17:47 remaining. The Aztec advantage reached 30 points on a three-pointer from Coco Davis at the 9:37 mark and peaked at 38 points at 76-38, before SDSU finished the afternoon with its second victory of 30 points or more this season at 76-45.

San Diego State shot a season-best 55.7 percent from the field and limited Cal State Fullerton to an opponent season-low 45 points. The Aztecs also forced 27 turnovers, had 21 assists and made four of their seven shots from beyond the arc.

San Diego St. 58, San Diego 53 Game 8 ■ Dec. 5 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team won their fourth straight and remained perfect at home following a tough 58-53 victory over rival University of San Diego at Cox Arena. The Aztecs won for the first time in their last six meetings with the Toreros to improve to 7-1 on the year, while the visitors fell to 4-4 on the season.

SDSU redshirt freshman Allison Duffy led the Aztecs in both scoring and rebounding with 14 points and six boards. Freshman center Paris Johnson and sophomore guard Quenese Davis both reached double-figures with 10 and 11 points, respectively. Davis had a game-high seven assists, while classmate Jené Morris contributed four of the Aztecs' 13 steals in just 18 minutes of action.

USD's Sam Child began the game with the hot hand, scoring each of her team's first nine points as the Toreros led by four early at 9-5. The visitors were up by as many as five at 16-11, before the Aztecs came storming back with an 8-2 run to take their first lead of the night at 19-18. The advantage changed hands two more times, before SDSU headed into the locker room up four at 29-25.

After a bucket by Torero Kiva Herman to open the second half, SDSU scored 11 unanswered points to build its largest lead of the evening at 40-27. USD would get to within three points on two occasions, including as late as 39 seconds remaining and the score 56-53. After securing a critical defensive rebound, Davis made both of her free-throw shots with 10 seconds left, as the Aztecs claimed the 58-53 win.

San Diego State held USD without a three-point field goal, as the Toreros were 0-for-4 from beyond the arc, compared to the Aztecs' 4-for-9 performance, three of which came in the second half. USD is the second SDSU opponent this season to fail to record a three-pointer, as Southern Utah also went without a triple.

San Diego St. 91, Navy 33 Game 9 ■ Dec. 18 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - After a 13-day break for final exams, the San Diego State women's basketball team retook the court in convincing fashion, posting a 91-33 victory over Navy Tuesday at Cox Arena. With the win, the Aztecs claimed their fifth straight and improved to 8-1 on the year, while the Midshipmen, who suited up a depleted squad due to illness, fell to 2-10 in 2007-08.

San Diego State had three players finish in double-figure scoring, including senior Shanna Demus, who scored a team-high 15 points on 7-for-8 shooting in just 16 minutes of action. Freshman center Paris Johnson chipped in 12 points, while sophomore guard Kim Spinardi came off the bench to add a career-high 11 points, including a 3-for-3 performance from beyond the arc.

The Aztecs, who are entered the week ranked second in the nation in steals per game, had 20 against the Mids, with five of those coming via redshirt frosh Allison Duffy. Senior Shannon Clay had a game-high nine rebounds and sophomores Quenese Davis and Jené Morris each added five assists.

After the two-sides traded buckets to open the evening, San Diego State went on a 20-0 run just over five minutes into the game for the 20-2 advantage. The Aztecs led by as many as 31 in the opening half, including at intermission, 45-14.

SDSU scored the first 11 points coming out of the locker room to go up by 42 at 56-14 at the 16:13 mark. The Aztec lead would grow to as many as 58 points before securing the 91-33 victory.

The Aztecs' 91 points are a season-high and the program's most since also scoring 91 versus Utah Valley State in 2005. The 58-point margin of victory is San Diego State's highest since a 97-35 win over Fresno State in 1995, while the Midshipmen's 33 points are the fewest the Aztecs have allowed since a 57-30 victory against Air Force in 2001.

Game 10 ■ Dec. 21 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The visiting Connecticut Huskies lived up to their No. 2 national ranking, handing San Diego State its first home loss of the season, 85-53, Friday evening in front of a record 5,271 fans at Cox Arena. The Aztecs forced 28 UConn turnovers, but could not overcome a 49-23 halftime deficit, falling to 8-2 on the season, while the Huskies improved to 9-0.

Freshman center Paris Johnson was the lone SDSU player to finish in double-figures, scoring 14 points to go with her team-high seven rebounds. Classmate Coco Davis added eight points on a perfect 3-for-3 shooting performance from the floor. Sophomore Jené Morris had six assists and senior Shannon Clay recorded three of the team's 12 steals.

Connecticut hit nine of its first 13 shots, scoring the first seven points and taking a 23-8 lead just over six minutes into the game. SDSU cut its deficit to 11 at 25-14 on a jumper by Johnson, but trailed by 26 points, 49-23, heading into the locker room.

The Huskies outscored the Aztecs by just six points in the second half, 36-30, but used their 54.1 field-goal percentage and 53-25 edge on the boards to cruise to the 85-53 victory.

Despite the loss, San Diego State became just the second opponent to reach the 50-point barrier against UConn in 10 contests this season, as the Huskies entered the game outscoring their opponents by a nation's-best 41.6 points per outing.

SDSU set a single-game attendance record and broke the Cox Arena mark for the second occasion in 2007-08, as 5,271 fans turned out for the second all-time meeting between the schools.

With the loss, the Aztecs dropped their second straight to fall to 8-3 on the year, while the Bobcats improved to 9-1 on the season following the two schools' first-ever meeting.

SDSU got a career-high 20 points from sophomore guard Jené Morris, who made a team season-high four three-pointers on just six tries from beyond the arc. Quinnipiac opened the afternoon with a 5-0 run, including the first of eight triples in the half via Brianna Rooney. SDSU scored its first three points at the free-throw line, before finally making its first field goal at the 16:21 mark on a Johnson lay-up. The Bobcats followed up that basket by outscoring the Aztecs 21-2, making five triples during that span, to go up by 22 points at 29-7. SDSU cut its deficit down to 13 at 31-18, but went into the locker room trailing by 16 at 44-28.

The Aztecs made it interesting in the second half, getting to within 11 at 54-43 with 12:13 remaining, but the Bobcats immediately responded with 10 more points over the next four minutes to go up by 19, and never looked back, winning 78-59.

The Aztecs shot a season-low 31.6 percent from the field and were outrebounded by 10 (42-32). SDSU did manage to own a positive margin in both the turnover (22-16) and steals column (12-10), but the Bobcats shot an Aztec opponent season-high 55.4 percent from the field, which included a 60 percent mark from three-point land (9-for-15).

Game 12 ■ Dec. 30 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team rounded out its non-conference schedule by holding on to defeat Western Michigan 77-72 Sunday in the consolation game of the San Diego Surf 'N Slam at Cox Arena. With the victory, the Aztecs finished 1-1 in its own tournament, improving to 9-3 on the season. The Broncos fell to 3-10 on the year following the first-ever meeting between the two sides.

The Aztecs got 25 points, including 14 in the first half, from freshman center Paris Johnson, who was named to the six-player all-tournament team. Johnson was helped offensively by senior Kate Eveland's season-high 16 points and freshman Allison Duffy's 14 points. Duffy was one rebound short of her third double-double of the season with a team-best nine and also tallied four of SDSU's nine steals.

The host logged the first basket of the afternoon by Johnson, but the Broncos responded with five straight points for the 5-2 lead. SDSU then went on a 7-0 run to retake the lead at 9-5. The Aztecs stayed ahead for the remainder of the first half, going up by as many as 19 points at 36-17 with 3:41 left, before heading into the locker room up 12 at 40-28.

Western Michigan came out of the break with the first four points to cut its deficit to single-digits at 40-32 at the 19:22 mark. The Broncos took advantage of San Diego State's foul trouble, getting to within four on two occasions within the first 10 minutes. At 62-56, the visitors scored nine straight points to jump ahead by three on a Chandra Smith triple.

The lead switched hands three more times and the game was tied at 71 all with just 3:16 left. Coming out of the tie, SDSU got back-to-back baskets from its two freshmen front court players, Duffy and Johnson, and never trailed again, winning by five points, 77-72.

San Diego State was outshot (47.3 to 46.9) and outrebounded (39-34), but forced Western Michigan into 23 turnovers. The Aztecs have won the turnover battle in all but one game this season and also added 22 assists in the victory.

FT. WORTH, Texas - Facing the top scoring offense in the conference, the San Diego State women's basketball team dropped its first league game of 2008 to TCU, 86-63, Wednesday at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum. With the loss, the Aztecs fell to 9-4 overall and 1-0 in league action, while the Lady Frogs improved to 8-7 and 1-0 in MWC play.

Freshman center Paris Johnson tallied her second double-double of the year, recording 13 points and matching her season-high with 13 rebounds to go with four blocks and four assists. Sophomore Jené Morris added 11 points, while senior Shanna Demus had six rebounds. Texas native Kate Eveland was a perfect 3-for-3 from the field, including a pair of three-pointers, for eight points.

TCU opened the evening with a 3-0 lead until SDSU got on the board with two free throws by Morris. The Aztecs missed their first four field goals, before Duffy scored on a lay up at the 16:53 mark and the score 10-4 in favor of the Lady Frogs. The host, meanwhile, made seven of their first 10 shots from the field and built an 11-point advantage at 17-6 and was up by as many as 16 on three occasions.

San Diego State continued its struggles from the field going over five minutes without a field goal mid-way through the half, but finally found its groove on both sides of the ball, putting together a 12-0 run to close to within four points at 28-24. The Lady Frogs went scoreless for 5:26, but managed to hold onto the 33-26 halftime advantage.

Coming out of the locker room, TCU used a pair of three-pointers and outscored SDSU 13-7 through the first media timeout for a 48-33 edge. The Lady Frogs continued to push the pace, running out to a 20-point lead with 10 minutes left and never looked back, claiming an 86-63 victory.

Game 14 ■ Jan. 12 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team was held to a season-low 47 points, including an 0-for-11 effort from beyond the arc, as visiting New Mexico claimed a 60-47 victory Saturday afternoon in the Aztecs' 2008 conference home opener at Cox Arena. With the loss, the Aztecs fell to 9-5 overall and 0-2 in league action, while the Lobos improved to 9-6 and 1-1 in MWC play.

SDSU sophomore Jené Morris scored in double-figures for the second straight outing, posting a team-high 17 points, six rebounds and three steals in 36 minutes of action. Redshirt freshman Allison Duffy had 10 points and three steals, but her front court teammate, freshman center Paris Johnson, was held to only seven points to snap a streak of eight straight outings in double-figure scoring.

The game started off as a close one, with the teams trading the lead five times in the first 12 minutes of action. At the 8:09 mark, New Mexico's Brandi Kimble made three straight baskets within a 1:26 span to give the visitors a 19-15 advantage. The Lobo lead grew to eight points on a three-pointer at 23-15, but the Aztecs trailed by only four at 28-24 heading into the locker room.

SDSU cut its deficit down to just a pair with the opening bucket of the second half on a jumper by Duffy. UNM quickly answered but it was still a four-point game until the 14:15 mark, when a pair of Lobo free throws jumped started a 9-0 run to put them up by 13 points at 41-28. The Aztecs logged back-to-back baskets by Morris and senior Shanna Demus to get to within nine, but New Mexico went on another scoring run of 7-2 and the lead never fell below double-figures as the Lobos claimed a 13-point win at 60-47.

Despite the loss, SDSU forced 26 New Mexico turnovers and had at least 12 steals for the 12th time in 2007-08.

Utah 74, San Diego St. 62

Game 15 ■ Jan. 17 ■ Huntsman Center ■ SLC, Utah

SALT LAKE CITY - Despite a career-high 25 points from Aztec sophomore Jené Morris, the San Diego State women's basketball dropped a 74-62 decision at Utah Wednesday evening at the Huntsman Center. With the loss, SDSU fell to 9-6 overall and 0-3 in conference play, while the Utes, who shot over 64 percent from the field in the second half, improved to 13-3 and 2-0 in league action.

Morris scored 16 of her career-best 25 points in the second half, beating her previous high of 20 points set earlier this season against Quinnipiac. The guard recorded her third straight double-figure scoring outing in as many chances in league action. Morris was 10-for-18 from the field and made all but two of her seven free-throw attempts, while also contributing a team-best five rebounds and two steals in 37 minutes.

Two SDSU starters, forward Allison Duffy and guard Quenele Davis, scored nine points apiece. Davis added three assists and Duffy chipped in three of the team's eight steals on the night.

The Aztecs opened the game with the first bucket on a jumper by Duffy. The Utes responded with two straight baskets to go up by two, before a Morris jumper tied the score at four points apiece. Utah broke out of the tie with one of three triples in the first 20 minutes from Morgan Warburton.

The Utes remained ahead the rest of the half, but the Aztecs, who trailed by eight points on two occasions at 18-10 and 20-12, cut their deficit down to just a pair at 26-24, following three straight Morris free throws with 3:34 remaining. Utah, however, finished the half strong, going on an 8-0 run and owning a 10-point advantage of 34-24 at the break.

Coming out of the locker room, SDSU got the Utah lead down to single-digits on a three-point play by Morris at 38-31. Utah then went on a 9-0 run to jump out to its biggest lead of the night at 16 points at 47-31, and was up by 17 at 54-37 with just under 11 minutes left in the game.

The Aztecs rallied from that point, using a pair of free throws by senior Shanna Demus to jump start an 8-0 run, while keeping the Ute offense scoreless for nearly four and a half minutes, as SDSU trailed by just nine at the 8:51 mark.

The nine point margin would be as close as the Aztecs could get the rest of the way, as Utah made 12-of-14 free-throw attempts in the final three minutes to secure the 74-62 victory.

San Diego State owned a 14-7 edge on the offensive boards and committed just three more turnovers than Utah, but could not overcome the Utes' 55.8 field-goal percentage on the night.

LARAMIE, Wyo. - The San Diego State women's basketball team cut a 19-point halftime deficit down to just 10 against Wyoming, the No. 20 team in the country, but was unable to complete the comeback as the Aztec fell to the host Cowgirls, 65-49 Saturday afternoon at Arena-Auditorium. With the loss, SDSU was dropped to 0-4 in league action and 9-7 overall, while the Cowgirls improved to 16-1 and 4-0 in the MWC.

Senior Shanna Demus had nine points, including a pair of three-pointers, while Jené Morris tallied seven points. Freshman Paris Johnson logged a team-high nine rebounds, while Demus contributed four steals.

The Aztec offense struggled to get going to start the afternoon, as SDSU missed its first nine shots from the field until getting on the board at the 13:01 mark on two Morris free throws, trailing 13-2. San Diego State's first field goal of the game didn't come until the 8:30 mark when Morris nailed a three-pointer from straight away to put the visitors down by 15 at 20-5.

While SDSU may have struggled on the offensive end, the Aztecs' offensive rebounding kept them in the game owning a 12-3 edge at half, but trailing on the scoreboard by 19 going into the locker room at 37-18.

San Diego State was undeterred coming out of the break, as Duffy scored the first points on a pair of free throws. Wyoming countered with a lay-up, but Duffy once again answered with a basket of her own to get back to a 17-point deficit with 17:11 left.

The Aztecs got to within 11 points on two occasions, before finding themselves trailing by only 10 twice at both 51-41 and 53-43. A three-pointer by Justyna Podziemka restored the Cowgirl lead to 13 and SDSU was never able to get to within single-digits, falling 65-49.

Despite the loss, San Diego State grabbed a season-best 23 offensive boards to Wyoming's five. The Aztecs owned a 42-29 advantage on the glass and forced 20 Cowgirl turnovers.

San Diego State got off to a quick start, jumping out to an 8-0 lead before BYU could score its first points of the evening following a steal in the back court by Mindy Nielson at the 14:46 mark. The Aztecs responded with a three-pointer by Demus, which kick started a 9-0 run, as SDSU led by 15 just a little over eight minutes into the game.

The home team's lead would grow to as many as 27 points at 37-10, before heading into the half up by 26 at 37-11. SDSU forced 21 BYU turnovers in the first 20 minutes of play and the Cougars shot just 15 percent from the field on 3-for-20 shooting.

Brigham Young more than doubled its shooting percentage in the second half, but SDSU's advantage still grew to as many as 35 points on two occasions at 55-20 and 59-24. The Cougars ended the night on a 15-3 run in the final seven minutes, but was only able to get to within 23 points, as the Aztecs claimed a 62-39 win, their first in the two schools' last 14 meetings.

BYU did not have a player score in double-figures, as Cassie King had eight for the Cougars, who had a season-high 31 turnovers and were held to their second-fewest points of the year.

Game 18 ■ Jan. 26 ■ Cox Pavilion ■ Las Vegas, Nev.

LAS VEGAS - Sophomore Jené Morris converted seven consecutive three-point attempts and scored a career-high 35 points to lead the San Diego State women's basketball team to its second straight win, as the Aztecs defeated host UNLV, 75-55, Saturday evening at Cox Pavilion. With the victory, SDSU claimed its first league road game since 2005 to improve to 11-7 and 2-4 in conference play, while the Lady Rebels fell to 6-12 and 2-3.

After missing her first three-point attempt of the night, Morris hit her next seven, as the guard notched the Aztecs' first 30-point scoring outing since 1999. Morris finished the evening 7-for-9 from beyond the arc and 13-for-21 from the field, beating her previous career high for scoring by 10 points. Her seven three-pointers trailed the San Diego State school record by one and nearly doubled her previous career best of four set earlier this season against Quinnipiac.

In addition to the 35 points, Morris added five rebounds, three assists and three of the team's seven steals on the night. She was helped offensively by redshirt freshman Allison Duffy's eight points, while freshman Paris Johnson and sophomore Quenesa Davis each chipped in seven. Senior Shanna Demus had a career-best eight assists and tied Morris for the team lead in rebounding with five.

Through the first four and a half minutes, San Diego State attempted 10 shots making just four, but did its job on the defensive end of the floor, forcing six UNLV turnovers for the early 8-4 advantage. The Aztecs maintained a slight edge before putting together a 7-0 run with a Morris three-pointer and two straight baskets from Demus. The Lady Rebels ended their drought with three free throws, as UNLV trailed by seven despite attempting only nine shots from the field through the first 12 and a half minutes.

SDSU caught fire from beyond the arc in the second part of the first half. Morris hit five in a row to go with Kate Eveland's triple at the 3:44 mark, as the Aztecs were up by 11 at 38-27 heading into the locker room.

Morris continued her assault from three-point land, making two more in the first three minutes coming out of the break to put her team ahead by 17 at 48-31 with 16:48 remaining. San Diego State increased its lead to as many as 27 points on two occasions, including at 70-43, before winning for the first time in Las Vegas since 1997, 75-55.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team had four players score in double-figures, including redshirt freshman Allison Duffy who had a career-high 22 points, as the Aztecs claimed an 86-52 victory over visiting Colorado State Wednesday evening at Cox Arena. SDSU won its third consecutive league outing to improve to 3-4 and 12-7 overall, while the Rams fell to 2-17 and 0-6 in conference action.

Duffy logged her first career 20-point scoring effort and also added three assists and three steals. Three Aztecs ended the evening with 16 points apiece, including sophomore Jené Morris, freshman Paris Johnson and senior Shannon Clay. Clay's 16 points were a career-best and came on 8-for-9 shooting, as she made each of her first seven shot attempts from the floor and also grabbed a team-high eight rebounds.

SDSU fell one short of a season-high in assists with 27, as Morris, sophomore Quenese Davis and freshman Coco Davis all had six helpers apiece.

San Diego State went up early on Colorado State and never trailed in the game, jumping out to a quick 4-0 advantage. The Rams closed to within three points at 7-4 on a lay up by Juanise Cornell, but the Aztecs answered with an 11-0 run to lead by 14 at the 14:04 mark. SDSU would lead by as many as 23 points in the first half and held a 21-point advantage at 43-22 at halftime.

Colorado State did not back down coming out of the break, cutting its deficit down to just 15 with 16:11 left and the score 47-32. The Aztecs restored order 13 seconds later on a Duffy jumper and the team's lead hovered around 20 points before three baskets by Clay highlighted an 8-0 run to put them up by 26 at 69-43. San Diego State would go on to claim a 34-point win over Colorado State, 86-52, for its second straight victory over the Rams in San Diego.

Game 20 ■ Feb. 6 ■ Clune Arena ■ Colorado Springs, Colo.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. - Freshman Paris Johnson had a game-high 18 points and seven rebounds to lead the San Diego State women's basketball team to a 62-45 victory over Air Force Wednesday night at Clune Arena. SDSU won its fourth straight game to improve to 4-4 in Mountain West Conference play and 13-7 overall, while the Falcons dropped to 1-7 and 7-13.

With the win, the Aztecs exceeded their win total of 12 from last season and now have their most victories since the 2000-01 team also won 13 times. It was also San Diego State's first four-game winning streak in conference play since it won eight consecutive contests to finish the 1997 campaign as members of the Western Athletic Conference.

Johnson started out hot for SDSU, scoring the team's first seven points and connecting on her first seven shots from the field. She finished the game 8-of-13 from the floor and a perfect 2-for-2 from the free-throw line. Sophomore Jené Morris had 11 points and a game-high four steals, while sophomore Quenese Davis added seven points and a game-high 10 assists.

The Aztecs, who never trailed in the game, jumped out of the gate fast thanks in part to Johnson's impressive start and a staunch defense. A Shannon Clay lay-up at the 12:10 mark of the first half gave San Diego State a 16-7 lead, its largest lead of the game at that point.

Air Force called a timeout to try and stop SDSU's momentum and it seemed to work as it closed to within three at 16-13 on Chasmine Jones' lay-up with 10:22 left in the first half. The Aztecs, however, went on a 14-4 run to close the half and take a 30-16 lead heading into intermission.

The Falcons got to within 12 points on Brooke Cultra's 3-pointer with 16:55 left, but senior Kate Eveland's 3-pointer with 9:39 remaining capped a 14-4 San Diego State run to stretch its lead to 48-26. Air Force would get no closer than 17, giving the Aztecs their first victory over the Falcons in Colorado Springs since the 2004-05 season.

TCU 75, San Diego St. 54

Game 21 ■ Feb. 9 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - Visiting TCU outscored the San Diego State women's basketball team 50-23 in the second half to erase a six-point halftime deficit, as SDSU saw its four-game conference win streak come to an end with a 75-54 loss to the Lady Frogs Saturday afternoon at Cox Arena. The Aztecs fell for the first time this season when holding an advantage at the half, dropping to 13-8 overall and 4-5 in league play, while TCU improved to 14-9 and 7-2 in conference action, sweeping the two-game season series between the two schools.

San Diego State got a game-high 19 points from sophomore guard Jené Morris. Fourteen of Morris' 19 points came in the first half, as the third-leading scorer in MWC play recorded her fifth straight game in double-figures. She was helped offensively by freshman Paris Johnson's 10 points, while sophomore Quenese Davis added nine, but was limited to only 16 minutes of action due to foul trouble. Sophomore LaSandra Dixon came off the bench to contribute a career-high five rebounds and three assists, while Morris also added three assists and three steals in 36 minutes.

TCU got out to the early 6-0 advantage until SDSU notched its first points of the afternoon on a Morris jumper at the 17:34 mark. The Lady Frogs increased their lead to as many as eight points on three occasions, but a Dixon free throw sparked a 7-0 Aztec run to close to within a point at 18-17.

The scored was tied at 19 and 21 points, before the Aztecs went into the locker room on a 10-4 run, highlighted by a pair of Morris 3-pointers, as SDSU led by six at 31-25.

Coming out of the break, the two sides traded points, but TCU followed that up with a pair of lay-ups and a free throw to get back to within one at 33-32. SDSU responded to the Lady Frog flurry with two layups of its own by Davis and senior Shannon Clay. A three-pointer and then a lay-up off a steal started a 12-0 TCU scoring run, as the visitors led by seven at 44-37 with just over 11 minutes remaining.

The Aztecs got to within five points less than a minute later, but that would be as close as they would get as TCU got back-to-back triples from Helena Sverrisdottir and never looked back, winning by 21 points, 75-54.

Game 22 ■ Feb. 13 ■ The Pit ■ Albuquerque, N.M.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. – In a game pitting two teams tied for fifth place in the Mountain West Conference standings entering the night, the host New Mexico Lobos used a 42-31 advantage on the glass to defeat the visiting San Diego State women's basketball team 63-54 Wednesday evening at The Pit. With the loss, the Aztecs, who had a one-point advantage at the half, dropped to 13-9 overall and 4-6 in conference action, while the Lobos improved to 13-10 and 5-5 in the MWC.

Aztec sophomore Jené Morris scored in double-figures for the sixth straight game and the ninth time in 10 conference outings, ending up with 22 points for her fourth career 20-point scoring game. Morris scored 16 of her 22 points in the second half and also added four of the team's 11 steals on the night.

Senior Shanna Demus, who started the contest 4-for-4 from the field, ended up with nine points, while redshirt freshman Allison Duffy recorded her third career game with double-figure rebounds, notching 12 boards, just one short of her season-best of 13.

SDSU got off to a quick start getting on the board with three free throws and two Demus baskets, including a three-pointer, to lead by seven at 8-1 at the 16:22 mark. New Mexico raced back to knot the score at eight apiece and the game was tied on three more occasions in the first 20 minutes of action.

The Aztecs carried a slim one-point advantage at 26-25, into the locker room, despite making 11 of 18 shots (61.1 percent) from the field to the Lobos' 36.0 shooting percentage.

The lead changed hands for the third time on the night, when New Mexico opened the second half with a 7-0 run before Morris could score SDSU's first points at the 15:58 mark trailing 32-28. Morris followed that bucket with another and the Aztecs had the game down to just a single point at 33-32.

Both sides went scoreless for over three minutes, as a jumper by UNM's Jessica Kielpinksi broke the drought in the Lobos favor, which was then followed by six straight Dionne Marsh points, as the host built its largest lead of the night at 11 points at 45-34.

UNM went up by as many as 17 points at 59-42 with just over two minute remaining. The Aztecs cut the deficit to as few as 10 points with 39 seconds left, but ended up running out of time, falling, 63-54.
