AZTEC STORY LINES

- The 16th-ranked Aztecs continue their stay in Los Angeles, this time in the second round of the NCAA tournament. SDSU will play UCLA on Sunday, Nov. 15, in a match set for 1 p.m. PT at the Bruins' Drake Stadium.

- San Diego State is making just its third NCAA tournament appearance in school history and first since 1999. The Aztecs were also participants in 1998.

- SDSU is 2-2 all time in NCAA tournament games, after defeating San Diego, 1-0, on Friday night. The Aztecs went 1-1 in 1998 to advance to the third round, while the 1999 team was ousted in the first round by the same Toreros.

- The Aztecs' current 16-game unbeaten streak (12-0-4) is the school's longest in a single season and tied with the longest in the program's history. SDSU also went unbeaten over 16 matches (14-0-2) from 1995 (final 10 games) to 1996 (first six games).

- SDSU's 16-game unbeaten streak is tied for the fourth longest in the nation. Dayton leads the nation at 22 straight games without a loss, while Stanford (21), Central Michigan (18), San Diego State and Notre Dame (16) round out the top five. The Aztecs' last defeat happened on Sept. 11 in a 2-1 overtime loss at Arizona State.

- San Diego State's 15 victories this season is its most since 1999 when that squad finished with a record of 15-7.

- The Aztecs carry a season-long eight-game winning streak into the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The streak is the school's longest since the 1998 team won 12 in a row.

- SDSU is ranked 16th in the Soccer America Magazine poll, which is the first time in recent memory that the Aztecs have appeared in the top 25. In the other two polls, San Diego State is receiving votes. The Aztecs earned 16 points in the Soccertimes.com poll to rank 27th nationally and are No. 32 in Division I after garnering eight points in the NSCAA poll.

- San Diego State finished the Mountain West Conference season with an unbeaten record of 5-0-2. It is the first time in Mountain West history that an Aztec team navigated through conference play without suffering a loss. In fact, the last and only other time it has happened in school history was in 1998 when that team went 6-0 in the Western Athletic Conference.

- San Diego State's five Mountain West wins were its most since going 5-1-0 in 1999, the MWC's first year of existence.

- San Diego State has scored 36 goals this year, which is the most since the 2002 campaign (39).

- What a difference a year makes. Last year, San Diego State went a combined 1-6-1 on the road and 1-8-2 in road/neutral games. This season, the Aztecs are an impressive 9-2-2 in road/neutral contests. Their 15 overall wins, meanwhile, is five more than any Mike Friesen-coached team and is the most since 1999 when that team won 15. The five Mountain West wins are also the most by a Friesen-led team.

AGAINST THE NCAA FIELD

San Diego State played seven games against six teams that advanced to this season's NCAA Tournament. In those contests, SDSU posted a record of 2-2-3 with its wins coming at nationally ranked BYU and vs. San Diego (yesterday), and ties occurring at Harvard, vs. Brigham Young and Oregon State. The Aztecs' two losses came at the hands of No. 1 Stanford at Arizona State, both of which happened on the road.

A WIN WOULD...

- ... Give San Diego State its most victories in a NCAA tournament (two)
- ... Improve the Aztecs' all-time NCAA tournament record to 3-2.
- ... Give San Diego State its 16th win of the season, its most since 1998, and second-most in program history.
- ... Extend the Aztecs' winning streak to nine.
- ... Set the longest overall unbeaten streak (17) in school history.
- ... Beat the amount of wins from the two previous seasons combined (15).
- ... Give SDSU its first over UCLA since Sept. 6, 1998 (four games), when it took a 1-0 victory in San Diego.
- ... Give the Aztecs their first-ever win over UCLA in Los Angeles.

AZTECS IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

San Diego State is making just its third appearance in the NCAA Tournament (1998, 1999, 2009) ... SDSU is 2-2 all-time in the postseason ... In 1998, the Aztecs (19-3-1) defeated USC in overtime,

Walker became the school's first offensive player of the year in school history, while Friesen became SDSU's first coach of the year since Chuck Clegg earned WAC honors in 1998. The Aztecs' three first-teamers is the program's most since it had three in 2004 and the four overall all-conference selections is the most since 2007.

MORE TO COME

If the Aztecs surprised anyone this season, that will not be the case next year as they lose just four seniors off this season's team. If the year ended prior to the NCAA first round game, San Diego State would return 85.7 percent of its goals, 82.8 percent of its assists, 84.8 percent of its total points and its No. 1 goalkeeper in Aubree Southwick.

TOP DUO IN MOUNTAIN WEST

San Diego State, by far, had the top offensive duo in the Mountain West Conference. Junior Cat Walker and freshman Niki Fernandes turned up their games during the conference slate and their names can be found at the top of the list of nearly every offensive category. The twosome share the league lead (MWC games only) in points (10) and points per game (1.43), while Walker is tied for first in goals (4) and goals per game (0.57), and Fernandes shared the conference lead in assists (4) and assists per game (0.57). Not only that, Walker finished tied for second in shots (24) and shots per game (3.43), tied for fourth in assists (2) and assists per game (.29). For the season as a whole, Walker leads the team with 27 points (11 g, 5 a) (tied for eighth in school single-season history) and ranks just above Fernandes, who has 19 points (6 g, 7 a).

STELLAR BACKLINE

The Aztec defense has been solid all season long, but none more so than against Mountain West Conference competition. Since its league-opening 2-2 tie with BYU, San Diego State has allowed only four goals the rest of the way. In the 13 non-conference games prior to the start of conference play, SDSU allowed 15 goals (1.2 gpg). The backline features a healthy mix of players, including Megan McQueeney, Gretel Amman, Hayley Marsh, Britney Bennett and Rachael McGlinchy. It's the play of the aforementioned group that has made goalkeeper Aubree Southwick's job easy recently.

SOUTHWICK STRONG

As the season went on, the defensive unit not only got stronger, but goalkeeper Aubree Southwick did as well. In the first 12 games of the season, the junior only had four shutouts, while allowing 15 goals. In the 11 games to follow, Southwick posted six shutouts and gave up just six goals. Down the stretch, the goalkeeper's efforts were rewarded as she was named MWC Defensive Player of the Week twice in a span of 14 days after shutting out Wyoming, Air Force and UNLV on the road.

MORE ON SOUTHWICK

In the game vs. Seattle, Aubree Southwick became the school's all-time leader in career saves. The junior entered the season with 159 career stops and made four saves against the Redhawks to up her total to 206 on that day. She surpassed Lorena Snyder's 204 saves, which were recorded from 1990-93. Entering SDSU's NCAA second round match, Southwick has 248 career denials. She is also 0.5 shutouts shy of tying Katherine Judkins (1996-99) for most shutouts in a career.

FOURTH? CHILD, PLEASE

Back in August, the Aztecs were picked to finish in fourth place in the Mountain West Conference with 30 overall points and zero first-place votes. Like most preseason polls, this one did not shake out as predicted as SDSU finished two places higher and in second place.

MWC CHAMPIONSHIPS COMING TO SDSU IN 2010

San Diego State will play host to the Mountain West Conference Women's Soccer Championship in 2010 at SDSU Sports Deck. The Aztecs were awarded hosting rights by the MWC after their performance in league play this season. The tournament returns to San Diego after more than 10 years away from America's Finest City. The Aztecs last played host to the MWC Championships in 1999 at the Olympic Training Center in Chula Vista, Calif., one year prior to the opening of the Sports Deck, which opened in time for the 2000 campaign.
