Game No. 30

No. 6 San Diego State Aztecs (17-12, 7-9 MWC) vs. No. 2 TCU Lady Frogs (21-10, 13-3 MWC)

► When & Where: Friday, March 14, 2007, at Thomas & Mack Center (18,500), Las Vegas, Nev., 2:30 p.m. (PDT).

► TV/Radio/Live Stats: Friday's outing will be televised live on The Mtn. with Bill Doleman (play-by-play), Andrea Lloyd (color) and James Bates (sidelines) calling the action. The game will also be shown live locally on Channel 4 San Diego and on tape delay at 1 a.m. PT on CSTV. In addition, Xtra Sports 1360 AM, featuring Chris Elio, will carry the game live from Las Vegas. Live stats are available on www.goaztecs.com for all of the Aztecs' MWC tournament games.

► The Records: The San Diego State women's basketball team (17-12) will make its first ever Mountain West Conference Championship semifinal appearance Friday when the Aztecs take on the TCU Lady Frogs (21-10) at 2:30 p.m. at the Thomas & Mack Center. SDSU, which is the No. 6 seed, is coming off an upset late Wednesday evening over the third-seeded Wyoming Cowgirls, 66-54, for its first-ever MWC tournament victory and fourth win in a row. TCU claimed the two earlier meetings between the two sides, and the Lady Frogs advanced into the semis with a 13-point win over Air Force. The winner of the semifinal will face the winner of the Colorado State-New Mexico semifinal for an automatic bid to the NCAA tournament on Saturday at 1 p.m.

► SDSU Head Coach Beth Burns: Burns (Ohio Wesleyan, 1979) is in the third year of her second stint as head coach at San Diego State. She led the Aztecs for eight seasons from 1989 to 1997, before returning in 2005. She has an overall head coaching record of 263-200 in 15 seasons, while she is 182-135 in her 10 previous campaigns at SDSU.

► TCU Head Coach Jeff Mittie: Mittie is in ninth season with the Lady Frogs, boasting a current record of 194-94. His career mark is 345-153 in 16 campaigns.

► TCU Series History: TCU has won the last seven meetings, including all six since the Lady Frogs joined the MWC in 2006. TCU leads the all-time series at 8-2, but the teams have not faced each other on a neutral court. (Last: TCU def. SDSU, 75-54, in San Diego on Feb. 9, 2008).

SDSU Makes First MWC Championship Semifinal Appearance Friday Versus TCU

After a thrilling 12-point win over third-seeded Wyoming in the quarterfinals, the San Diego State women's basketball team makes its first-ever Mountain West Conference Championship semifinal appearance on Friday against No. 2 seed TCU beginning at 2:30 p.m. at the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas, Nev.

The Aztecs led from the opening tip against the Cowgirls, avenging last year's quarterfinal loss and claiming the school's first conference tournament victory since the 1997 squad won it all as members of the Western Athletic Conference, also coincidentally in Las Vegas.

TCU and SDSU are meeting for the third time this year, but the first ever in a conference tournament.

Last Time Out: Aztecs Win Home Finale

Three Aztecs making their MWC championship debuts scored in double-figures as the sixth-seeded San Diego State women's basketball team upset the third-seeded Wyoming Cowgirls, 66-54, to claim its first-ever MWC tournament win. With the victory, SDSU improved to 17-12 overall, while the Cowgirls, who were receiving votes in both national polls, fell to 24-6.

Aztec sophomore Jené Morris (San Francisco, Calif.), after being limited to just eight minutes due to foul trouble in the first half, scored 18 of her game-high 21 points coming out of the break. Morris also added four of the team's three-pointers and tallied four steals.

Morris was helped inside by freshman duo Paris Johnson (San Diego, Calif.) and Allison Duffy (Lakeside, Calif.), who scored 17 and 16 points each, respectively. Duffy grabbed 10 defensive rebounds for her third double-double and sophomore Quenese Davis (Sacramento, Calif.) had nine assists to just two turnovers in playing 40 minutes.

SDSU never trailed getting out to a 6-0 margin and leading by as many as 10 before going into the locker room up 27-19, as Wyoming shot just 26.9 percent from the field.

The Cowgirls picked it up in the second half, closing to within seven, including as late as 57-50 with 1:51 left. The Aztecs, however, got a three-point play from Morris and Duffy sunk all six free-throw attempts in the final 45 seconds to secure the 66-54 upset.

Other Wyoming Notes

Freshman Allison Duffy was 6-for-6 from the stripe this season, the sixth time an Aztec had been perfect on six or more free-throw attempts in a game. Duffy was a combined 16-for-16 in three games this season with Wyoming ... Quenese Davis tallied nine or more assists for the fourth time in 2007-08 and has five or more in four-straight outings ... SDSU led at the half of a MWC tournament game for the second year in a row, but only the third time in the history of the league ... The eight-point margin is the Aztecs' biggest ever at a MWC championship outing (prev. 3 pts. in 2007) ... Wyoming's 20 three-point attempts were the most by an SDSU opponent this season ... The Cowgirls 15 turnovers tied as an Aztec opponent game-low.

Sophomore Jené Morris retook the lead from teammate Paris Johnson in 20-point scoring outings with her fifth of the year. Morris, who tied a school record for triples in a conference tournament game (4), tallied 21 points, including 18 in the second half. Her 21 points also tie for the most-ever by an Aztec in an MWC championship outing with Atim Otti (2001) and Michelle Strawberry (2006).

Johnson ended the regular season with two 20-point scoring outings in the last three games. She had 23 points vs. Air Force, 20 against UNLV, 25 in a win over Western Michigan and a career-high 27 vs. Indiana St.

Overall, San Diego State has 11, 20-point scoring efforts by four different players in 2007-08. A year ago, the Aztecs had only four such performances.

Double Her Pleasure

Aztec redshirt freshman Allison Duffy became the first SDSU player to record a double-double in an MWC tournament game, logging 16 points and 10 rebounds on Wednesday versus Wyoming. Duffy has two other double-doubles with 13 points and 10 boards against Saint Mary's and 15 points and 13 rebounds versus Jackson State.

Paris Johnson also has three double-doubles against Indiana St., TCU and Utah, while sophomore Quenese Davis adds SDSU's seventh effort with her 10 points and 12 assists in a win over CS Fullerton.

A year ago, San Diego State had five players combine for 10 double-doubles, including two by Quenese Davis and one by current senior Shannon Clay (Inglewood, Calif.).

San Diego State Tournament Tidbits

- ▶ In its history, San Diego State has played in a total of 20 postseason conference tournaments in four different leagues - Pacific Coast Athletic, Big West, Western Athletic, Mountain West.
- ▶ The Aztecs have played 33 games in those conference tournaments and own a 15-18 record (.455).
- ▶ San Diego State has captured two conference championships, winning both the 1995 and '97 WAC Tournaments. SDSU has won at least two games on three other occasions.
- ▶ The Aztecs are 10-12 all-time in first round games.
- ▶ The Aztecs are 7-11 all-time in conference tournament games against current Mountain West Conference members, but have never faced TCU.
- ▶ This year's Mountain West Conference tournament is the third for Aztec head coach Beth Burns. Burns, however, has coached SDSU in eight previous league championships in two different conferences, the Big West and the WAC. Under Burns, the Aztecs are 12-8 in conference tournaments, winning the title two times and falling in the first round just three times.

At Stake For State

- ▶ The Aztecs will be looking to advance to its first-ever MWC championship game. The last time SDSU played for a conference tournament title was in 1997, when the team won it all at the WAC championships at the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas.
- ▶ Only two Aztecs on the team's active roster had played in more than one MWC tournament game and in fact, only four total Aztecs had previous MWC championship experience (not including Lipford or Demus who will not play) entering the week. Senior Kate Eveland had the most experience playing in three games.
- ▶ The Aztecs will be playing their fourth neutral-site game of the year, currently sporting a 2-1 mark ... San Diego State has played only 15 neutral-location games over the past nine seasons ... This is the first time SDSU has played a neutral site game prior to the MWC championships in the last four years.

Notes With A 'W'

An SDSU victory over TCU will mean:

- ▶ SDSU advances to its first-ever MWC championship game and would be first No. 6 seed to defeat a No. 2 seed. The Aztecs would also be the first No. 6 seed and lowest ever to advance to the title contest.
- ▶ SDSU improves to 1-0 vs. TCU in conference tournament play.
- ▶ SDSU defeats TCU for the first time since the Lady Frogs joined the conference in 2006. The last SDSU victory in the series was on Jan. 14, 2000, in San Diego.
- ▶ SDSU has at least one victory over every conference school in the last two seasons except New Mexico.
- ▶ SDSU head coach Beth Burns improves to 1-6 all-time against the Lady Frogs.

TCU Tidbits

TCU enters Wednesday's contest with a 21-10 record and finished with a 13-3 mark in conference play to finish second ... The Lady Frogs have won four-straight and 11 of their last 12, falling only to Utah and Wyoming ... TCU is led by Adrienne Ross' 13.5 points per game, while also chipping in 76 steals and 89 assists ... Lori Butler-Rayford averages a team-best 7.1 rebounds an outing and also scores 10.9 ppg. ... TCU leads the MWC in scoring offense (69.9 ppg.) and offensive rebounds (14.32/g).

TCU Round One Notes

- SDSU started the conference campaign on the road for the third straight season.
- Three Aztecs who made their Mountain West Conference debuts scored in double-figures, including leading scorer redshirt freshman Allison Duffy, who had 14 points on 5-for-8 shooting. Freshman Paris Johnson tallied her second double-double of the year, recording 13 points and matching her season-high with 13 rebounds to go with four blocks, while Jené Morris added 11 points.
- SDSU never led in the game, but trailed by just seven going into halftime. TCU outscored the Aztecs 53-37 in the second half, making all five of its three-point attempts.
- TCU was led by reigning conference player of the year Adrienne Ross, who had 13 points and four assists

TCU Take Two Notes

- Visiting TCU outscored San Diego State 50-23 in the second half to erase a six-point halftime deficit, as SDSU saw its four-game conference win streak come to an end with a 75-54 loss to the Lady Frogs.
- Sophomore guard Jené Morris had a game-high 19 points, including 14 in the first half, while Paris Johnson had 10 points.
- TCU got out to the early 6-0 advantage until SDSU notched its first points of the afternoon at the 17:34 mark. The Lady Frogs increased their lead to as many as eight points on three occasions, but the Aztecs went into the locker room on a 10-4 run, highlighted by a pair of Morris 3-pointers, as SDSU led by six at 31-25.
- The Lady Frogs put together a 12-0 run and led by seven at 44-37 with just over 11 minutes remaining. The Aztecs got to within five points less than a minute later, but that would be as close as they would get.
- SDSU held reigning conference player of the year Adrienne Ross scoreless for the first 29 minutes, but she was the only TCU starter to not score in double figures.
- The Aztecs had entered the game with an 11-0 record this season when leading at the half
- TCU did not record a blocked shot in either of the two meetings this season.

Three Aztecs Honored

San Diego State sophomore Jené Morris and freshmen Allison Duffy and Paris Johnson earned postseason honors from the Mountain West Conference for their play this season, the league office announced Monday. Morris is a second-team pick, while Duffy and Johnson each garnered honorable mention accolades.

The awards are the first such honors for all three players, while the three selections are the most-ever in a single season for the Aztecs in the nine-year history of the league. Morris also becomes just the third SDSU player to earn a spot on the second team and the first since Jamey Cox in 2001.

Utah's Leilani Mitchell was named the conference player of the year and top newcomer, while the Utes' Elaine Elliott was named coach of the year for leading her team to an unbeaten MWC record. Wyoming's Hanna Zavec earned defensive player-of-the-year honors and TCU's Helena Svverisdottir was named top freshman.

Back To 2001

San Diego State matched its highest ever seeding in Mountain West Conference tournament history at No. 6. The Aztecs were also sixth at the second MWC championship in 2001. SDSU has been the No. 7 seed on five occasions and occupied the No. 8 spot in 2005 and the No. 9 slot in 2006. The Aztecs have faced five of the nine league teams at least once at the tournament, including New Mexico a record four times.

It's Vegas

For the second straight season and the sixth time in the league's nine years, the Mountain West Conference championships returns to Las Vegas and the Thomas & Mack Center on the campus of UNLV. The league tournament spent its first four years of existence at the Thomas & Mack Center from 2000-03, before moving to the event's first true neutral court from 2004-06 at the Pepsi Center in Denver, Colo. The championships returned to Las Vegas a year ago and is under contract to remain at the Thomas & Mack until 2010.

Steals Are For Me

The Aztecs logged two MWC records for steals in a season, already tallying 370 in their 29 contests, including 185 in MWC action. SDSU beat the previous highs in both categories set by Colorado State in 1999-2000 (354 steals) and by TCU a year ago (176).

Overall, the Aztecs had 10 or more steals in 21 games in 2007-08, ranking sixth nationally (through March 9). The 370 steals are 49 more than their nearest competitor TCU, which had 321 in 31 outings. SDSU eclipsed the 300-mark for the first time since Beth Burns' 1996-97 squad had 410 in 30 contests and was the only team in league play to average in double-figures (11.6/g).

Individually, Jené Morris is first in the conference for both overall (3.1/g) and league games (3.1) and entered the end of last week 23rd nationally. Sophomore Quenese Davis (2.2) and redshirt freshman Allison Duffy (2.1) and are fourth and fifth in the league, respectively. A year ago, San Diego State had 10 or more steals 13 times. The school record for most steals in a season is 555 by the 1983-84 team.

Turnover Tid-Bits

San Diego State ended its regular season on a high note in the opponent turnovers category. The Aztecs forced Air Force into 38 turnovers, the most by an SDSU foe in a single game this year. The Falcons were the sixth team to have 30 or more giveaways, joining Nevada (37), Southern Utah (35), BYU (31), Colorado State (30) and Navy (30). Even the No. 1-ranked team in the country, Connecticut, had 28 turnovers in its game with the Aztecs. UConn's 28 turnovers are still its most in a single outing since also having 28 in a loss to North Carolina in 2004.

On the year, SDSU opponents had 20 or more turnovers in 23 of 29 contests with all but one exception coming during conference action. Aztec opponents have committed 727 turnovers in the 29 games (25.1/g).

SDSU has had fewer or the same number of turnovers than 23 of its 29 opponents in 2007-08, ranking first in the MWC in turnover margin, averaging 5.7 fewer giveaways. The only times SDSU's has had more turnovers than its opponent was in wins over Wyoming (18-15) and Jackson State (25-24) and losses to TCU (20-15), Utah (22-19 and 21-19) and Wyoming (22-20).

The Aztecs' season-low for turnovers in a game is 10 against Navy, the team's fewest since it had nine versus Canisius in Jan. 2005. SDSU's 12 giveaways at CSU are its fewest in MWC action in 2008.

Spreading The Wealth

Another statistical category in which the Aztecs have excelled this season is in assists. SDSU leads the league in assists in overall games (15.8) and was 28th nationally in that category through games of March 9. The Aztecs eclipsed the 20-mark eight times in 2007-08, including a 22-assist effort against Air Force on Saturday. SDSU had a season-high 28 helpers versus Navy, the team's most since it also had 28 on Feb. 1, 1997 vs. San Jose St.

Keeping A Lid On The Basket

The Aztecs allowed just 54 points in their quarterfinal win over Wyoming, tying as the fewest points given up by SDSU in an MWC tournament game. San Diego State has limited 15 opponents to fewer than 60 points in 2007-08, including three under the 40-mark in Navy (33), Air Force (34) and BYU.

The Aztecs have kept five foes to fewer 20 points in the first 20 minutes of action, highlighted by the Falcons' nine-point effort in the regular season finale. The nine points by Air Force are the fewest overall since the Aztecs gave up just eight in the first half of a 64-31 victory over Cal Poly in January 1996.

Just Jené

While she may have been held to fewer than 10 points for just the third time in conference play in the finale with Air Force, San Diego State sophomore Jené Morris still logged double-figures in points in all but three league contests. She finished the MWC season ranked fifth in scoring with 16.1 points an outing, the best-ever average by an Aztec in conference history. Morris is the second SDSU player to finish in the top five in scoring in MWC games, joining Jamey Cox, who placed third with 14.5 ppg. in 2000.

Morris had the best offensive performance in a MWC game in 2008, with her 35-point effort at UNLV, ranking her third in all league contests.

One Block Behind

After being held without a block for the second straight outing, Aztec freshman Paris Johnson fell behind Wyoming's Hanna Zavec for the MWC lead in blocked shots with 1.59/g. Johnson is trying to follow in the footsteps of her sister, Desiree, who led the league in blocks average in both 2005-06 and 2006-07. Paris has already beaten her sister's career season-high by five with 46, ranking seventh in Aztec history.

For the year, SDSU is second in the league in team blocked shots with 121, just eight behind last year's best effort in 12 years of 129. The Aztecs entered the week 55th nationally in that category/

For The Record

Several Aztecs made moves into the San Diego State record books this season. Here is a quick glance of who moved in and who can move up:

* Denotes doubleheader with SDSU men's team

► In the season category, if the year were to end today, Jené Morris' 38.7 three-point shooting percentage would rank seventh and Allison Duffy's 83.5 free-throw percentage would be fifth in Aztec season history.

► With her four steals against Wyoming, Morris entered the SDSU season top 10 and is ninth with 89. She needs three more to tie for seventh with Judy Porter and Diena Pels, who both had 92 thefts in 1981.

► Paris Johnson's 46 blocks are seventh in the Aztec record book and she needs just two more to pass Brooke Meadows for sixth.

► Senior Kate Eveland is tied for ninth in career history for most games played, appearing in 110 to tie with Atim Otii. Eveland needs two more three-pointers to move from sixth into a tie for fifth in career triples. She also jumped from seventh to fifth in career three-pointers attempted with 263 over the campaign.

► After just two seasons, Aztec point guard Quenese Davis is already ninth in career assists with 294. Davis trails Shelda Arceneaux for ninth place on the list by five, while she is the first Aztec to record 100 assists in back-to-back seasons since Jamey Cox did so in 2000-01 and 2001-02.

Best Since ...

As the season winds down, the Aztecs have already posted some of their best statistical numbers in several categories in recent memory. Below is a few of SDSU's improvements:

► SDSU's team scoring average of 65.1 is its best since recording 67.5 points a contest in 1996-97.

► SDSU's 708 field goals are its most since the 1996-97 squad had 771.

► SDSU's 41.9 field-goal percentage is its highest since shooting 42.0 percent in 2000-01.

► SDSU's 458 assists are its most since the 1996-97 squad had 490.

► SDSU's 370 steals are its most since the 1996-97 team posted 410.

Offensive Production 101

In 2007-08, San Diego State's improvements on offense from a year ago are quite noticeable. The Aztecs are third in the Mountain West in both scoring offense (65.1 ppg.) and second in field-goal percentage (41.9). These numbers far surpass last year's when SDSU averaged just over 56 points and shot 37 percent from the field.

Below are a few notes about the Aztecs' offensive number so far this season:

► SDSU's 91 points vs. Navy are its most since also tallying 91 in a win over Utah Valley State on Feb. 10, 2005. The Aztecs have recorded five games with 80 or more points for the first time since 1996-97, when SDSU had five such outings.

► SDSU also has five wins of 30 points or more for the first time since the 1996-97 team had six. The 58-point margin of victory over Navy is San Diego State's highest since a 97-35 win over Fresno State in 1995.

► SDSU has tallied nine wins by 20 or more points in 2007-08. A year ago, none of SDSU's 12 wins were by more than 13 points.

► SDSU has shot above 50 percent five times and above 40 percent from the field in 18 of 29 games. The Aztecs only reached the 40 percent mark 11 times a year ago, posting an 8-3 record in those outings. San Diego State has shot over 40 percent in four straight games on three occasions this year, accomplishing that feat for the first time since 2001, when the Aztecs opened the campaign with five straight performances. The 56.7 shooting percentage vs. Navy is the program's best since the Utah Valley game (57.1).

► San Diego State scored 60 or more points in seven consecutive games for the first time since also posting a seven-game stint in 1995-96 from Dec. 27-Jan. 13.

► The Aztecs have scored 40 or more points in a half 12 times after doing so just twice a year ago.

What The W's Mean

► SDSU has already secured its first winning season since 1996-97. The Aztecs' 17 victories are also their most since that 1996-97 team had 23 in Beth Burns' first stint on Montezuma Mesa.

► The Aztecs' seven conference victories are their most ever in MWC action, beating their previous high of five set in 2001 and 2007. The seven wins are also SDSU's most league wins overall since having 15 in 1996-97 as a member of the WAC.

► SDSU posted its best-ever MWC finish, tying with BYU for fifth place. The Aztecs' previous best finish was sixth in both 2000 and 2001.

► SDSU has recorded just its second 10-win season since 2001-02, and its second in a row. The last time the Aztecs had consecutive 10-win campaigns was in 2000-01, when the team won 13, and in 2001-02, when it had 10 victories.

► SDSU won its first-ever MWC championship game and came out ahead in a conference tournament outing for the first time since 1997, when the Aztec won the WAC title also in Las Vegas.

►SDSU defeated BYU for the first time since 2001, ending a 13-game skid, and won at Colorado State for the first time since 2000. The Aztecs' victory over UNLV was its first in Las Vegas since 1997, and first conference win on the road since beating Air Force on Feb. 26, 2005.

►SDSU won its final regular season game for the first time since 2000. The Aztecs also won on Senior Day (final regular season home game) for the first time since 1998.

►SDSU's 10 non-conference victories are the program's most since the 1995-96 team had 11, including one in the league tournament.

►The Aztecs are 20-11 at Cox Arena over the last two campaigns.

►SDSU recorded its first victories on a neutral court since Nov. 29, 2002, when the Aztecs defeated Murray State in Fresno, 59-54. The Aztecs had dropped their previous seven outings in neutral site games.

►The Aztecs' eight overall victories away from home (away and neutral) are its most since the 1996-97 team won 12 times, including three at the conference tournament, and are more than its combined total in the last four years.

►SDSU claimed three conference road victories in 2007-08. Entering the year, the Aztecs had only won on the road a combined six times in the previous eight years of the league and had never even tallied two in the same season.

►SDSU won its season-opener for the first time 2002, and claimed its home-opener for the first time in the last three years.

►The Aztecs were 5-0 against non-conference teams it also faced last season. SDSU was 3-2 versus Nevada, Saint Mary's, USD, Southern Utah and Cal Poly a year ago.

►The Aztecs are 15-4 in their last 19 games against non-conference opponents with the lone losses coming this year vs. Indiana St., Quinnipiac, No. 2 UConn and last year against No. 17/16 GW.

Young Guns

SDSU started two freshmen, two sophomores and one senior in 23 of 29 games in 2007-08. The Aztecs' current lineup of Quenese Davis, LaSandra Dixon (Azusa, Calif.), Allison Duffy, Paris Johnson and Jené Morris entered this season with only 29 combined career starts in the Scarlet and Black with 27 of those by Quenese Davis a year ago.

The Aztecs' starting five of Quenese Davis, Shanna Demus (Palmdale, Calif.), Duffy, Johnson and Morris in the season-opener at Nevada was the program's youngest since the 1983-84 campaign, when the team had three freshmen, one sophomore and one junior among the starting five. That group also had just five years of experience, with only four coming at the Division I level as Demus played her first season at Div. II Cal State Los Angeles.

The Aztecs' four newcomers, Coco Davis, Duffy, Johnson and Morris, have combined for 59.7 percent of the team's scoring and 50.6 percent of its rebounding. Johnson, Morris and Duffy are the team's three-leading scorers, while in 16 MWC games, the trio combined for all but four of the team's 32 double-figure scoring outings.

What A Crowd

In 15 home games, over 15,500 people turned out to see the Aztecs in action, the highest total home attendance since 1994-95. SDSU averaged 1,043 fans per home game, compared to last year's 499 average.

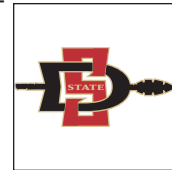

The Aztecs set a single-game home attendance record with 5,271 fans against Connecticut. The mark beat the previous record of 4,311 versus UCLA at the San Diego Sports Arena on Jan. 28, 1978. It was the second time this season that SDSU has set a Cox Arena attendance record, after also doing so earlier this month versus Cal State Fullerton (2,397).

SDSU Selected To Play Host To 2009 NCAA Women's Basketball First & Second Rounds

San Diego State University and Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl will play host to the 2009 NCAA Women's Basketball First & Second Rounds, the NCAA announced Tuesday. SDSU was one of eight additional venues selected for 2009 by the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee, which voted last summer to expand from eight to 16 first- and second-round sites, beginning next year. The championships will take place either March 21 and 23 or March 22 and 24, 2009, and will each feature four schools vying to advance to the NCAA regionals.

Aztecs Ink Four In Front Court

San Diego State women's basketball head coach Beth Burns announced the signing Wednesday of four prep standouts to National Letters of Intent. Candace Chambers (Seattle, Wash.), Gabrielle Clark (Los Angeles, Calif.), Lindsay Leo (San Jose, Calif.) and Kalena Tutt (Long Beach, Calif.) will join the Aztecs in 2008.

SDSU Head Coach Beth Burns

The winningest coach in SDSU women's basketball history, Beth Burns returned to Montezuma Mesa in April 2005. In just two short years, she already has the program headed in the right direction, as the Aztecs' were the 11th-most improved team in the nation in 2007, and recorded the school's most wins since 2000-01.

In her first stint as head coach from 1989-97, Burns compiled a 151-83 record and a 64.5 winning percentage, the best in school history. The Aztecs went to the NCAA tournament on four occasions (1993, 1994, 1995, 1997), won a pair of tournament championships and three regular-season titles.

A three-time WAC coach of the year, Burns was the head coach at Ohio State for five seasons (1997-02). She has a 15-year overall head coaching record of 264-200, while her school record stands at 183-135 over 10 seasons. Burns recently earned her 250th career victory with the team's win vs. Southern Utah.

More on 2007-08 So Far

- Beth Burns signed a new five-year contract, San Diego State Director of Athletics Jeff Schemmel announced Sept. 12. The contract is effective immediately and runs through the 2011-12 campaign.

- Center Paris Johnson was picked as the Mountain West Conference's preseason top freshman in a vote by the league's nine head coaches and select media members released Oct. 17, at the conference's annual media day in Littleton, Colo.

- Johnson earned all-tournament honors twice in as many tries at the LMU Thanksgiving tourney and at the San Diego Surf 'N Slam. Johnson averaged a double-double in the two games with 17.0 points and 10.5 rebounds in Los Angeles. She averaged 20 points and six boards in the squad's two outings at Cox Arena.

- Johnson and Jené Morris each earned MWC player-of-the-week honors, marking just the second time two Aztecs have won the award in the same season.

- Morris' 35 points at UNLV are the most by an Aztec since Falisha Wright had 36 against Wyoming on Feb. 25, 1993, most ever by an SDSU player in a MWC game and the most by a UNLV opponent in Cox Pavilion. Her seven three's in that game are the most by an Aztec since Jamey Cox had seven in 2002, and tied for second-most in school history.

- San Diego State logged 23 steals in a single-game for the second time this season in the team's victory over Air Force last Saturday. The 23 steals versus the Falcons are the most-ever in a Mountain West Conference game and tie for second overall with the Aztecs' 23-steal total earlier this season versus Southern Utah.

- An Aztec has recorded seven steals in a single game five teams this season. Morris did so three times, while Quenese Davis and Allison Duffy each reach the magic number once.

- SDSU played three ranked teams in 2007-08, including No. 2 Connecticut, No. 20 Wyoming and No. 19 Utah.

SDSU All-Time MWC Tournament Boxscores/Recaps

Game No. 1 Brigham Young 78 San Diego State 37

March 8, 2000 ■ Thomas & Mack Center ■ Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. - BYU shot 55 percent from the field and caused 28 San Diego State turnovers, as the Aztecs fell in their first-ever Mountain West Conference Tournament game, 78-37.

Mary Apiafi had a team best 15 points, six rebounds and three steals for SDSU. Freshman Jamey Cox added seven points and Shannon Lee had five assists.

Erin Thorn had 13 points for BYU, which owned a 36-13 lead at halftime. Thorn hit four of seven three-pointers in a game that saw the Cougars (21-7, 11-4) hit 50 percent of the 22 three-pointers they attempted.

Lisa Osguthorpe, Jennifer Leitner and Stacy Jensen added 11 points apiece for BYU, which moved on to a semifinal game against Colorado State.

San Diego State ended the season 9-19, 4-11 in conference play.

Game No. 2 New Mexico 55 San Diego State 49

March 7, 2001 ■ Thomas & Mack Center ■ Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. - San Diego State brought its defensive "A" game but was frustrated on the offensive end all afternoon as the Aztecs were edged by eventual WNIT runner-up New Mexico, 55-49, in a nip-and-tuck first-round game at the 2001 Mountain West Tournament.

Atim Oti scored a game- and season-high 21 points and graduating senior Sophia Sledge went out in style, adding a season-best 17 for San Diego State.

Three players finished in double figures for New Mexico, paced by Miranda Sanchez's 15 points.

The Aztecs used a stingy defensive effort to take a 21-19 lead at intermission after forcing 14 Lobo turnovers and holding New Mexico to just 8-for-23 shooting from the field in the first half.

New Mexico, which got 12 points each from Jordan Adams and Molly McKinnon, broke out of its offensive woes coming out of the break, however, opening the period with a 10-0 run and holding SDSU without a point for the first 6:13 of the period.

SDSU, which never trailed by more than eight points, kept things close and sliced UNM's lead to just 48-47 following Sledge's fourth 3-pointer with 31 seconds to play.

But that's as close as the Aztecs would get as New Mexico scored seven of the game's final nine points.

Game No. 3 New Mexico 65 San Diego State 52

March 6, 2002 ■ Thomas & Mack Center ■ Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. - SDSU gave No. 2-seeded New Mexico all it wanted for 37 minutes but the Lobos pulled away down the stretch to defeat the Aztecs, 65-52, in the opening game of the 2002 MWC championship.

San Diego State (10-18, 2-12 MWC), the tournament's No. 7 seed, led for much of the first half and was down by just 32-27 at intermission. But the Aztecs struggled out of the gate after the break, allowing New Mexico to build a 14-point lead with just under seven minutes to go before rallying to make the game close.

Tanisha Knight connected on consecutive back-to-back possessions and Claire Swinbank hit three straight free throws and a field goal to spark a 9-0 Aztec run that closed the Lobo's edge to just 50-45 with three minutes left.

But San Diego State could draw no closer as the Lobos sank 11-of-13 attempts from the stripe as time wound down to keep the Aztecs at bay.

Swinbank tied for game-high scoring honors with 16 points and Jamey Cox added 12. Knight finished with 11 points before fouling out.

Three other Aztecs would end up leaving the game after fouling out, including Atim Oti, who played just 13 minutes.

Jordan Adams scored 16 points to pace New Mexico (22-7, 10-4 MWC), which out-rebounded SDSU, 44-25. The Lobos also finished the game a combined 18-for-24 from the free throw line.

Game No. 4 New Mexico 54 San Diego State 49

March 12, 2003 ■ Thomas & Mack Center ■ Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. - Despite a furious second-half rally, San Diego State was knocked out of the first round of the Mountain West Conference Championships by New Mexico for the third straight season, falling 54-49.

SDSU came out of the game with the hot hand, racing out to a 4-0 lead and then a 6-1 advantage in the first two minutes.

New Mexico jumped ahead for the first time at 9-8 and led by 12 points, 34-22, going into the locker room.

SDSU grabbed the early momentum in the second half by scoring five straight buckets to get to within one at 34-33.

The Aztecs held New Mexico off the scoreboard for the first five-and-a-half minutes until Mandi Moore made her third three-pointer of the game at 37-33. The two schools then traded baskets with the Lobo lead never reaching more than seven points until Chelsea Grear's rebound basket but her team up 52-43.

SDSU rallied to pull within four points with less than a minute remaining, but were unable to pull off the upset, falling 54-49.

Despite the loss, San Diego State committed a season-low 11 turnovers and three Aztecs played all 40 minutes of the game, while another logged 39.

Moore led her team with 15 points, while leading scorer Jordan Adams was held to just seven points, three of which came at the line.

Game No. 5 Utah 68 San Diego State 51

March 10, 2004 ■ Pepsi Center ■ Denver

DENVER - For the fifth straight season, the San Diego State women's basketball team came up empty in its bid to advance in the Mountain West Conference Championship, as the No. 7 seed Aztecs fell to No. 2 seed Utah, 68-51.

SDSU freshman Courtney Fritz led the team in points for the 11th time this season, finishing with 17, including four three-pointers. Classmate Michelle Elliott scored in double-figures for the 21st time in her 27 outings, adding 10 points.

The game began with six lead changes in the first five and a half minutes, until Fritz converted a four-point play with a three-pointer from the top of the arc and the foul at 11-8. The Utes responded with a 6-0 run to go up by three themselves, before SDSU tied the game for second time at 14 points apiece.

Utah came out of the tie with a 9-2 scoring spurt over the next five minutes to match its biggest lead of the game at 23-16. The Aztecs deficit would grow out to double-figures at the 2:25 mark (29-11) and end up at nine points heading into the locker room, 29-20.

SDSU opened the half by tallying 10 of the first 13 points to close the gap all the way down to two at 32-30. Utah quickly responded with a three-point play and a three-pointer from the left baseline to go ahead by eight points. The Utes advantage extend to as much as 17 points as they went on to claim their third win over the Aztecs this season, 68-51.

Game No. 6 New Mexico 81 San Diego State 52

March 9, 2005 ■ Pepsi Center ■ Denver

DENVER - The San Diego State women's basketball team saw its 2004-05 season come to an end, as the No. 8 seed Aztecs fell to 1 seed New Mexico, 81-52, at the Pepsi Center.

The Aztecs had three players finish in double-figures, led by junior Michelle Strawberry, who scored 16 points. Freshman Ashley Cheesman notched 10 of her 14 points in the first half and sophomore Michelle Elliott also had 10 points and a team-best six rebounds.

The Lobos opened the game by going up by as many as 11 points at 20-9. The Aztecs responded with a 10-2 run of their own to cut the deficit to just five points at 27-22 with 9:44 remaining in the first half.

Neither team managed to score for the next 2:33 until a lay-up by New Mexico's Jana Francis. Cheesman matched the bucket, but the Lobos quickly reestablished their advantage and headed into the locker room up, 43-26.

Coming out of the half, the Aztecs got a quick three-pointer from Strawberry and then went on a 7-2 run to get to within just nine at 45-36. The Lobos scored the next six points to up their lead back to 15, but the Aztecs continued to stick around, coming back to within 11 on Kate Eveland's leaning jumper at 55-44.

The 11 points would be as close as SDSU would get, as the Lobos pulled away for the 81-52 victory.

Game No. 7 Colorado State 69 San Diego State 58

March 7, 2006 ■ Pepsi Center ■ Denver, Colo.

DENVER - Despite 21 points from senior Michelle Strawberry, San Diego State (3-24) dropped a 69-58 decision to Colorado State (9-19) in the first game of the 2006 Mountain West Conference Championship at the Pepsi Center.

Strawberry logged her sixth game with 20 or more points, shooting 50 percent from the field (8-for-19) and converting on three of the Aztecs' four three-pointers. Her 21 points tied as the most by an SDSU player in an MWC championship game.

The two sides combined for just four points in the first 3:13, before SDSU went up by five at 7-2. CSU struck back with a 5-0 run to knot the game at seven and the score was also tied at nine before the Rams took their first lead of the night on a free throw with 12:27 remaining. The two sides traded advantages four times over the next two minutes with the third and final tie of the night at 14-14.

CSU broke out of the 14 all tie with a 7-0 run and was up by nine at the half, 33-24.

The Rams lead grew into double-figures at 44-33 on one of guard Vanessa Espinoza's four second-half three-pointers and was at 15 with 7:18 remaining in the contest. SDSU made a late 11-2 run, cutting the 15-point deficit down to just six with 2:38 left, but Espinoza converted a four-point play and CSU was 3-for-5 from the line in the final 1:19 to secure the 69-58 win.

Game No. 8 Wyoming 56 San Diego State 44

March 7, 2007 ■ Thomas & Mack Center ■ Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. - The No. 7 San Diego State women's basketball team held the No. 2 seed Wyoming Cowgirls to just 14 first-half points but was unable to complete the upset, falling 56-44 Wednesday at the Mountain West Conference Championships in Las Vegas, Nev. SDSU ended its season with a 12-16 record, while Wyoming improved to 21-8 following the two sides' first-ever MWC tournament outing.

The Aztecs were outscored 42-27 in the second half, despite holding the MWC's top three-point shooting team scoreless in that category.

San Diego State got a game-high 13 points from freshman Quenese Davis, who also added five assists. Junior Shannon Clay had eight points, while senior Desiree Johnson had nine rebounds and five blocked shots in her final game as an Aztec. Johnson's five blocks matched a MWC championship record and gave her 79 (7th in SDSU history) for her career.

Neither team had more than a three-point lead in the first half, and the Aztecs were up 17-14 at the break. It marked just the second time that SDSU had an advantage at halftime of an MWC championship contest, while the Cowgirls' 14 points were the fewest by an Aztec opponent in the first half of a game this season.

After a 19-19 tie with 17:27 left in the game, Wyoming went on a 7-0 run and never trailed again. The Cowgirls built the lead to 37-28 with 6:05 remaining. The Aztecs cut it to 43-40 with 3:19 left, but got no closer as Wyoming built its largest lead by game's end, 56-44.

Game No. 9 San Diego State 66 Wyoming 54

March 12, 2008 ■ Thomas & Mack Center ■ Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. - Three Aztecs making their MWC championship debuts scored in double-figures as the sixth-seeded San Diego State women's basketball team upset the third-seeded Wyoming Cowgirls, 66-54, to claim its first-ever MWC tournament win. With the victory, SDSU improved to 17-12 overall, while the Cowgirls, who were receiving votes in both national polls, fell to 24-6.

Aztec sophomore Jené Morris, after being limited to just eight minutes due to foul trouble in the first half, scored 18 of her game-high 21 points coming out of the break. Morris also added four of the team's three-pointers and tallied four steals.

Morris was helped inside by freshman duo Paris Johnson and Allison Duffy, who scored 17 and 16 points each, respectively. Duffy grabbed 10 defensive rebounds for her third double-double and sophomore Quenese Davis had nine assists to just two turnovers in playing 40 minutes.

SDSU never trailed getting out to a 6-0 margin and leading by as many as 10 before going into the locker room up by eight at 27-19, as Wyoming shot just 26.9 percent from the field.

The Cowgirls picked it up in the second half, closing to within seven, including as late as 57-50 with 1:51 left. The Aztecs, however, got a three-point play from Morris and Duffy sunk all six free-throw attempts in the final 45 seconds to secure the 66-54 upset.

2007-08 San Diego State Women's Basketball

Season Box Scores ■ Games 1-3

San Diego St. 67, Nevada 61

Game 1 ■ Nov. 11 ■ Lawlor Events Center ■ Reno, Nev.

RENO, Nev. - In a game featuring two schools with high pressure defenses, the San Diego State women's basketball team survived a stern test in its 2007-08 opener, defeating host Nevada, 67-61, Sunday afternoon at the Lawlor Events Center. The Aztecs claimed their first game of a campaign for the first time since 2002, to improve to 1-0, while the Wolf Pack dropped to 1-1 overall.

San Diego State got a huge game from a pair of players making their collegiate debuts. Freshman center Paris Johnson had 16 points, nine rebounds and five blocks in 38 minutes. Redshirt frosh Allison Duffy scored 10 of her 14 points in the second half, while sophomore Quenese Davis was the third Aztec in double-figures with a team-best 17 points.

Sophomore Jené Morris, who played her first game in an Aztec uniform, notched a game-high seven steals. Junior guard Tamika Lipford provided a solid performance off the bench, recording six points, two steals and two rebounds, one of which came on a critical play with 12 seconds left in the game.

SDSU started off the year by scoring the first basket on a jumper by Morris. Nevada countered with a pair of free throws, but the Aztecs answered again in a back-and-forth first half.

The visitors led by as many as five points at the 7:53 mark at 26-21, but the host went into the locker room on a 15-8 run to end the half with a two-point 36-34 advantage.

The Aztecs struggled to find their offensive rhythm coming out of the break, taking five and a half minutes to hit their first field goal. SDSU used that bucket to start a 9-0 run to knot the game at 43-43 and take a two-point lead at 45-43 with 11:32 remaining.

The two sides were tied again at 45 points, but the Aztecs maintained an advantage the rest of the way. SDSU was up by five points on four occasions, including as late as 59-54, but Nevada came to within a pair with 2:39 left and again with 45 seconds remaining. The Aztecs made six of their final eight free-throw attempts to preserve the 67-61 victory.

Nevada was led by Cherlanda Franklin's 12 points and seven rebounds. The Aztecs avenged a loss to the Wolf Pack in last year's season-opener in San Diego.

San Diego St. 83, Saint Mary's 60

Game 2 ■ Nov. 17 ■ McKeon Pavilion ■ Moraga, Calif.

MORAGA, Calif. - The San Diego State women's basketball team had five players score in double-figures in a 83-60 victory over Saint Mary's in Moraga, Calif. SDSU is now 2-0 for the first time since the 1992-93 season, while the Gaels fell to 2-2.

Five players reached double-figures in scoring for the Aztecs, who jumped out to a 46-29 lead at the half.

Sophomore Jené Morris led the way with a game-high 17 points on 7-of-12 shooting, including 2-of-3 behind the 3-point arc.

Redshirt freshman Allison Duffy, playing in her second career game, had 13 points and a game-high 10 rebounds for her first double-double. Senior Shanna Demus had 13 points and three steals, while sophomore Quenese Davis chipped in with 12 points, five rebounds, five steals and three assists in just 24 minutes. Senior Shannon Clay added 10 points off the bench.

SDSU started out the game on an 11-2 run on a layup by Davis with 17:46 remaining in the first half. Saint Mary's made a late run and got to within nine with 3:24 left, but an 11-4 run, capped by a LaSandra Dixon layup late in the first half, gave the Aztecs the 46-29 lead at the break.

The Gaels never got closer than 12 in the second half, as San Diego State won its second road game of the season for the first time since it won four away from Montezuma Mesa in the 2003-04 campaign.

Saint Mary's was led by Jontelle Smith, who scored 12 points on 4-of-10 shooting, while Louella Tomlinson had 11 points and four blocks.

Game 3 ■ Nov. 20 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team forced 35 turnovers and had all 11 of its players score points, as the Aztecs cruised to an 86-52 victory over Southern Utah in their home opener Tuesday at Cox Arena. SDSU improved to 3-0 on the season, giving head coach Beth Burns her 250th career win, while the Thunderbirds fell to 1-3 overall in 2007-08.

San Diego State had three players finish in double-figure points, including leading scorer freshman center Paris Johnson, who had 14 points and a team-best six rebounds and two blocks. Senior forward Shanna Demus recorded 10 of her 12 points in the first half, while freshman forward Allison Duffy contributed 10 points off the bench.

The Aztecs logged a season-high eight 3-pointers, 23 steals and 26 assists. Sophomore Jené Morris led the defensive effort with a career-tying seven steals to go with her team-high nine assists and no turnovers in just 21 minutes of action.

SDSU got off to a quick start and never looked back, jumping out to an early 12-0 lead, before Southern Utah could get on the board with a layup at the 16:21 mark. The Aztecs went on an 18-7 run over the next seven minutes to go up by 21 at 30-9, and led by 25 at the break, 43-18.

The Thunderbirds cut their deficit down to as few 17 points with 9:19 remaining at 59-42, but the Aztecs responded with a 4-0 run with back-to-back baskets from Duffy and finished on a 21-8 scoring streak to claim their fifth-straight in the series, 86-52.

Southern Utah's Anne Westwood had a double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds, while Erin Heuett contributed 11 points and four assists in the losing effort.

2007-08 San Diego State Women's Basketball

Season Box Scores ■ Games 4-6

Indiana St. 75, San Diego St., 68 Game 4 ■ Nov. 23 ■ Gersten Pavilion ■ Los Angeles, Calif.

LOS ANGELES - The San Diego State women's basketball team cut a 19-point second-half deficit to just four, but was unable to complete the comeback as the Aztecs dropped their first game of season to Indiana State, 75-68, at Gersten Pavilion. SDSU fell to 3-1 on the year, while the Sycamores improved to 3-0 following the first game of the LMU Ayres Hotel Thanksgiving Tournament.

Aztec freshman Paris Johnson had a career-high 27 points and 13 rebounds for her first career double-double. Johnson's 27 points are the most by an SDSU player since Michelle Strawberry had 29 in the 2005-06 season-opener. Sophomore Jené Morris was the only other Aztec in double-figures with 11 points, including a pair of three-pointers, to go with her three steals.

SDSU had four of its five starters foul out by the end of the game, including point guard Quenese Davis, who was limited to just four points in 20 minutes, but still managed to contribute four steals and four assists.

The Sycamores got off to an early lead, making six of their first seven shots from the field including a 3-for-3 effort from beyond the arc to jump ahead by eight at 15-7 heading into the first timeout. The Aztecs rallied to get back to within three at 15-12 on a triple by Demus at the 14:51 mark and trailed by four with 12:38 remaining in the first half. Indiana State, however, went on a 10-0 run, hitting two more three pointers to go up 28-18.

ISU boasted its largest lead at the break, heading into the locker room up by 18 at 45-27, after shooting 55.2 percent from the field and making 7-of-8 three-point attempts.

The Aztecs got off to a quick start in the second half, scoring four straight points on a pair of lay ups by Johnson and limiting the Sycamores to just six points in the first six minutes of play. SDSU was able to make a further dent into its deficit with the help of a 9-0 run to get to within 10 at 54-44.

After the two sides traded trips to the free-throw line, San Diego State continued to stalemate the Indiana State offense, going on another 3-0 run to get to within seven at 56-49.

ISU countered with a 5-0 outburst of its own and was leading by 14 points as late as 66-52. A three-pointer by Morris sparked the Aztec rally again, as SDSU closed to within just four with 26 seconds left in the game. The Sycamores closed out the win by making three of their four free throws to claim the 75-68 victory.

San Diego State owned the advantage on the boards (40-36), in the steals department (13-6) and in the turnover column (23-19), but the Sycamores made eight three-pointers and converted 23 of their 35 trips to the charity line.

San Diego St. 63, Jackson St., 44 Game 5 ■ Nov. 24 ■ Gersten Pavilion ■ Los Angeles, Calif.

Redshirt freshman Allison Duffy recorded her second career double-double with 15 points and 13 rebounds to lead the San Diego State women's basketball team past Jackson State, 63-44, in the consolation game of the Loyola Marymount/Ayres Hotel Thanksgiving Tournament in Los Angeles. The Aztecs, who outscored the Lady Tigers (1-3), 30-18, in the second half, improved to 4-1 with the victory.

Duffy was 6-for-16 from the field and made 3-of-4 free-throw attempts. She added a career-high seven steals and two blocks in 36 minutes.

Sophomore Jené Morris added 15 points, 12 coming in the second half, and four rebounds. She was 6-of-7 from the floor and 2-for-3 from beyond the 3-point arc.

Sophomore Quenese Davis chipped in with 13 points and a game-high five assists, while freshman Paris Johnson, who was named to the all-tournament team, had seven points and eight rebounds.

San Diego State led by as many as 14 in the first half when Morris connected on a 3-point attempt with 5:21 remaining. Jackson State, however, went on a 7-0 run over the next 3:55 before Duffy's jumper at the buzzer gave the Aztecs a 33-26 half-time lead.

The Lady Tigers got within three points at 33-30, 1:42 into the second half on an Erica Trahan jumper, but San Diego State responded with a 21-6 run over the next 11:21, capped by a Morris jumper with 6:57 remaining to put the Aztecs up 18 at 54-36. SDSU outscored Jackson State, 7-0, over the final 2:57 as San Diego State claimed the 63-44 victory.

The Aztecs held the Lady Tigers to just 29.3 percent shooting (17-for-58) for the game and owned a 45-39 rebounding edge.

San Diego St. 80, Cal Poly 70 Game 6 ■ Nov. 29 ■ Mott Gym ■ San Luis Obispo, CA

The San Diego State women's basketball team outscored Cal Poly 42-27 in the second half to rally from a nine-point deficit, as the Aztecs improved to 5-1 overall with an 80-70 victory over the Mustangs Thursday at Mott Gym. SDSU owned a 20-12 advantage on the offensive glass and made eight three-pointers for its seventh consecutive win over Cal Poly, which dropped to 3-4 in 2007-08.

Aztec point guard Quenese Davis scored 14 of her team-high 21 points in the second half, matching the best offensive output of her career. Davis converted 11 of her 12 free-throw attempts and added four rebounds and four steals. Three other SDSU players finished in double-figure points, including freshman center Paris Johnson (17 points), sophomore guard Jené Morris (11 pts.) and freshman forward Allison Duffy (10 pts.).

The Aztecs shot 39.7 percent from the field for the second game in a row, but countered with 26 second-chance points and recorded a season-best 88 percent performance (22-for-25) at the stripe. SDSU matched its best start since 1995-96 with five wins in its first six outings following its final non-conference road game of 2007-08.

After Cal Poly scored the first bucket to begin the night, the Aztecs reeled off six straight points to jump ahead 6-2. The Mustangs ended the run with a pair of free throws, but SDSU scored four more on back-to-back baskets by Johnson. Cal Poly put together its own offensive string, recording eight straight points to take a 12-10 advantage.

The schools traded leads four more times, before Cal Poly jumped ahead for the rest of the half, going up by as many as nine at 39-30, before heading into the locker room up five, 43-38. The Mustangs ended the half shooting 58.3 percent from the field and made 13 of their 14 free-throws (92.9 percent).

After Cal Poly once again opened the half with the first two points, SDSU responded with a triple by Davis, followed by two straight lay ups from Johnson to tie the game at 45-45.

Trailing by one, the Aztecs nailed back-to-back three-pointers to gain their first lead since early in the first half at 53-49. SDSU would go up by six on two occasions, before running out to the largest advantage of the night by either side at 67-57, following two Davis free throws.

Cal Poly made it interesting by getting to within six at 67-61 with just over three minutes left, but SDSU got four straight points from Allison Duffy and made 7-of-8 free-throws in the final 1:28 to secure the 80-70 win.

2007-08 San Diego State Women's Basketball

Season Box Scores ■ Games 7-9

San Diego St. 76, CS Fullerton 45

Game 7 ■ Dec. 2 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - In front of a Cox Arena record crowd of 2,397, the San Diego State women's basketball team kicked off its month-long homestand with a 76-45 victory over visiting Cal State Fullerton at Cox Arena. The Aztecs had five players score in double-figures to help the team move to 6-1 on the season for its best start since the 1992-93 campaign. The Titans, meanwhile, dropped to 1-5 on the year, losing their sixth straight against the Aztecs.

SDSU sophomore point guard Quenese Davis posted her first double-double of the season and the third of her career with 10 points on 4-for-5 shooting, and a career-high 12 assists. Her 12 assists are the most by an Aztec since Shannon Lee had 14 helpers against Illinois State on Nov. 24, 2000.

Four other Aztecs logged double-figures in points, including redshirt freshman Allison Duffy, who matched her career-best with 15 points, and freshman center Paris Johnson, who added 12 points and a team-high seven rebounds. Sophomore guard Jené Morris was the fourth starter in double-figures with 10 points, while junior LaSandra Dixon matched her career-high with 10 points off the bench.

Cal State Fullerton owned three, one-point advantages in the opening two minutes of the game, including at 5-4 on a layup by Ashley Richie. The Aztecs took the lead on a Quenese Davis bucket, but a Toni Thomas free-throw equalized the game at six points apiece. SDSU broke out of that tie with a 13-0 run and led by as many as 21 points, before heading into the locker room up 19 at 41-22.

Duffy opened the second half with each of San Diego State's first three baskets, as the host led by 25 with 17:47 remaining. The Aztec advantage reached 30 points on a three-pointer from Coco Davis at the 9:37 mark and peaked at 38 points at 76-38, before SDSU finished the afternoon with its second victory of 30 points or more this season at 76-45.

San Diego State shot a season-best 55.7 percent from the field and limited Cal State Fullerton to an opponent season-low 45 points. The Aztecs also forced 27 turnovers, had 21 assists and made four of their seven shots from beyond the arc.

Game 8 ■ Dec. 5 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team won their fourth straight and remained perfect at home following a tough 58-53 victory over rival University of San Diego at Cox Arena. The Aztecs won for the first time in their last six meetings with the Toreros to improve to 7-1 on the year, while the visitors fell to 4-4 on the season.

SDSU redshirt freshman Allison Duffy led the Aztecs in both scoring and rebounding with 14 points and six boards. Freshman center Paris Johnson and sophomore guard Quenese Davis both reached double-figures with 10 and 11 points, respectively. Davis had a game-high seven assists, while classmate Jené Morris contributed four of the Aztecs' 13 steals in just 18 minutes of action.

USD's Sam Child began the game with the hot hand, scoring each of her team's first nine points as the Toreros led by four early at 9-5. The visitors were up by as many as five at 16-11, before the Aztecs came storming back with an 8-2 run to take their first lead of the night at 19-18. The advantage changed hands two more times, before SDSU headed into the locker room up four at 29-25.

After a bucket by Torero Kiva Herman to open the second half, SDSU scored 11 unanswered points to build its largest lead of the evening at 40-27. USD would get to within three points on two occasions, including as late as 39 seconds remaining and the score 56-53. After securing a critical defensive rebound, Davis made both of her free-throw shots with 10 seconds left, as the Aztecs claimed the 58-53 win.

San Diego State held USD without a three-point field goal, as the Toreros were 0-for-4 from beyond the arc, compared to the Aztecs' 4-for-9 performance, three of which came in the second half. USD is the second SDSU opponent this season to fail to record a three-pointer, as Southern Utah also went without a triple.

Game 9 ■ Dec. 18 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - After a 13-day break for final exams, the San Diego State women's basketball team retook the court in convincing fashion, posting a 91-33 victory over Navy Tuesday at Cox Arena. With the win, the Aztecs claimed their fifth straight and improved to 8-1 on the year, while the Midshipmen, who suited up a depleted squad due to illness, fell to 2-10 in 2007-08.

San Diego State had three players finish in double-figure scoring, including senior Shanna Demus, who scored a team-high 15 points on 7-for-8 shooting in just 16 minutes of action. Freshman center Paris Johnson chipped in 12 points, while sophomore guard Kim Spinardi came off the bench to add a career-high 11 points, including a 3-for-3 performance from beyond the arc.

The Aztecs, who are entered the week ranked second in the nation in steals per game, had 20 against the Mids, with five of those coming via redshirt frosh Allison Duffy. Senior Shannon Clay had a game-high nine rebounds and sophomores Quenese Davis and Jené Morris each added five assists.

After the two-sides traded buckets to open the evening, San Diego State went on a 20-0 run just over five minutes into the game for the 20-2 advantage. The Aztecs led by as many as 31 in the opening half, including at intermission, 45-14.

SDSU scored the first 11 points coming out of the locker room to go up by 42 at 56-14 at the 16:13 mark. The Aztec lead would grow to as many as 58 points before securing the 91-33 victory.

The Aztecs' 91 points are a season-high and the program's most since also scoring 91 versus Utah Valley State in 2005. The 58-point margin of victory is San Diego State's highest since a 97-35 win over Fresno State in 1995, while the Midshipmen's 33 points are the fewest the Aztecs have allowed since a 57-30 victory against Air Force in 2001.

SAN DIEGO - The visiting Connecticut Huskies lived up to their No. 2 national ranking, handing San Diego State its first home loss of the season, 85-53, Friday evening in front of a record 5,271 fans at Cox Arena. The Aztecs forced 28 UConn turnovers, but could not overcome a 49-23 halftime deficit, falling to 8-2 on the season, while the Huskies improved to 9-0.

Freshman center Paris Johnson was the lone SDSU player to finish in double-figures, scoring 14 points to go with her team-high seven rebounds. Classmate Coco Davis added eight points on a perfect 3-for-3 shooting performance from the floor. Sophomore Jené Morris had six assists and senior Shannon Clay recorded three of the team's 12 steals.

Connecticut hit nine of its first 13 shots, scoring the first seven points and taking a 23-8 lead just over six minutes into the game. SDSU cut its deficit to 11 at 25-14 on a jumper by Johnson, but trailed by 26 points, 49-23, heading into the locker room.

The Huskies outscored the Aztecs by just six points in the second half, 36-30, but used their 54.1 field-goal percentage and 53-25 edge on the boards to cruise to the 85-53 victory.

Despite the loss, San Diego State became just the second opponent to reach the 50-point barrier against UConn in 10 contests this season, as the Huskies entered the game outscoring their opponents by a nation's-best 41.6 points per outing.

SDSU set a single-game attendance record and broke the Cox Arena mark for the second occasion in 2007-08, as 5,271 fans turned out for the second all-time meeting between the schools.

Game 11 ■ Dec. 28 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - Quinnipiac had nine three-pointers, including eight on 10 attempts in the first half, to defeat host San Diego State Friday, 78-59, in the opening game of the San Diego Surf 'N Slam at Cox Arena. With the loss, the Aztecs dropped their second straight to fall to 8-3 on the year, while the Bobcats improved to 9-1 on the season following the two schools' first-ever meeting.

SDSU got a career-high 20 points from sophomore guard Jené Morris, who made a team season-high four three-pointers on just six tries from beyond the arc. Two other Aztecs finished in double-figure scoring with Paris Johnson tallying 15 points, while sophomore guard Queneese Davis had 12 points and a team-best seven rebounds and five assists.

Quinnipiac opened the afternoon with a 5-0 run, including the first of eight triples in the half via Brianna Rooney. SDSU scored its first three points at the free-throw line, before finally making its first field goal at the 16:21 mark on a Johnson lay-up. The Bobcats followed up that basket by outscoring the Aztecs 21-2, making five triples during that span, to go up by 22 points at 29-7. SDSU cut its deficit down to 13 at 31-18, but went into the locker room trailing by 16 at 44-28.

The Aztecs made it interesting in the second half, getting to within 11 at 54-43 with 12:13 remaining, but the Bobcats immediately responded with 10 more points over the next four minutes to go up by 19, and never looked back, winning 78-59.

The Aztecs shot a season-low 31.6 percent from the field and were outrebounded by 10 (42-32). SDSU did manage to own a positive margin in both the turnover (22-16) and steals column (12-10), but the Bobcats shot an Aztec opponent season-high 55.4 percent from the field, which included a 60 percent mark from three-point land (9-for-15).

San Diego St. 77, Western Michigan 72

Game 12 ■ Dec. 30 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team rounded out its non-conference schedule by holding on to defeat Western Michigan 77-72 Sunday in the consolation game of the San Diego Surf 'N Slam at Cox Arena. With the victory, the Aztecs finished 1-1 in its own tournament, improving to 9-3 on the season. The Broncos fell to 3-10 on the year following the first-ever meeting between the two sides.

The Aztecs got 25 points, including 14 in the first half, from freshman center Paris Johnson, who was named to the six-player all-tournament team. Johnson was helped offensively by senior Kate Eveland's season-high 16 points and freshman Allison Duffy's 14 points. Duffy was one rebound short of her third double-double of the season with a team-best nine and also tallied four of SDSU's nine steals.

The host logged the first basket of the afternoon by Johnson, but the Broncos responded with five straight points for the 5-2 lead. SDSU then went on a 7-0 run to retake the lead at 9-5. The Aztecs stayed ahead for the remainder of the first half, going up by as many as 19 points at 36-17 with 3:41 left, before heading into the locker room up 12 at 40-28.

Western Michigan came out of the break with the first four points to cut its deficit to single-digits at 40-32 at the 19:22 mark. The Broncos took advantage of San Diego State's foul trouble, getting to within four on two occasions within the first 10 minutes. At 62-56, the visitors scored nine straight points to jump ahead by three on a Chandra Smith triple.

The lead switched hands three more times and the game was tied at 71 all with just 3:16 left. Coming out of the tie, SDSU got back-to-back baskets from its two freshmen front court players, Duffy and Johnson, and never trailed again, winning by five points, 77-72.

San Diego State was outshot (47.3 to 46.9) and outrebounded (39-34), but forced Western Michigan into 23 turnovers. The Aztecs have won the turnover battle in all but one game this season and also added 22 assists in the victory.

Game 13 ■ Jan. 9 ■ D-M Coliseum ■ Ft. Worth, Texas

FT. WORTH, Texas - Facing the top scoring offense in the conference, the San Diego State women's basketball team dropped its first league game of 2008 to TCU, 86-63, Wednesday at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum. With the loss, the Aztecs fell to 9-4 overall and 1-0 in league action, while the Lady Frogs improved to 8-7 and 1-0 in MWC play.

Three Aztecs who made their Mountain West Conference debuts scored in double-figures, including leading scorer redshirt freshman Allison Duffy, who had 14 points on 5-for-8 shooting. Freshman center Paris Johnson tallied her second double-double of the year, recording 13 points and matching her season-high with 13 rebounds to go with four blocks and four assists. Sophomore Jené Morris added 11 points, while senior Shanna Demus had six rebounds. Texas native Kate Eveland was a perfect 3-for-3 from the field, including a pair of three-pointers, for eight points.

TCU opened the evening with a 3-0 lead until SDSU got on the board with two free throws by Morris. The Aztecs missed their first four field goals, before Duffy scored on a lay up at the 16:53 mark and the score 10-4 in favor of the Lady Frogs. The host, meanwhile, made seven of their first 10 shots from the field and built an 11-point advantage at 17-6 and was up by as many as 16 on three occasions.

San Diego State continued its struggles from the field going over five minutes without a field goal mid-way through the half, but finally found its groove on both sides of the ball, putting together a 12-0 run to close to within four points at 28-24. The Lady Frogs went scoreless for 5:26, but managed to hold onto the 33-26 half-time advantage.

Coming out of the locker room, TCU used a pair of three-pointers and outscored SDSU 13-7 through the first media timeout for a 48-33 edge. The Lady Frogs continued to push the pace, running out to a 20-point lead with 10 minutes left and never looked back, claiming an 86-63 victory.

New Mexico 60, San Diego St. 47

Game 14 ■ Jan. 12 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team was held to a season-low 47 points, including an 0-for-11 effort from beyond the arc, as visiting New Mexico claimed a 60-47 victory Saturday afternoon in the Aztecs' 2008 conference home opener at Cox Arena. With the loss, the Aztecs fell to 9-5 overall and 0-2 in league action, while the Lobos improved to 9-6 and 1-1 in MWC play.

SDSU sophomore Jené Morris scored in double-figures for the second straight outing, posting a team-high 17 points, six rebounds and three steals in 36 minutes of action. Redshirt freshman Allison Duffy had 10 points and three steals, but her front court teammate, freshman center Paris Johnson, was held to only seven points to snap a streak of eight straight outings in double-figure scoring.

The game started off as a close one, with the teams trading the lead five times in the first 12 minutes of action. At the 8:09 mark, New Mexico's Brandi Kimble made three straight baskets within a 1:26 span to give the visitors a 19-15 advantage. The Lobo lead grew to eight points on a three-pointer at 23-15, but the Aztecs trailed by only four at 28-24 heading into the locker room.

SDSU cut its deficit down to just a pair with the opening bucket of the second half on a jumper by Duffy. UNM quickly answered but it was still a four-point game until the 14:15 mark, when a pair of Lobo free throws jump started a 9-0 run to put them up by 13 points at 41-28. The Aztecs logged back-to-back baskets by Morris and senior Shanna Demus to get to within nine, but New Mexico went on another scoring run of 7-2 and the lead never fell below double-figures as the Lobos claimed a 13-point win at 60-47.

Despite the loss, SDSU forced 26 New Mexico turnovers and had at least 12 steals for the 12th time in 2007-08.

Utah 74, San Diego St. 62

Game 15 ■ Jan. 17 ■ Huntsman Center ■ SLC, Utah

SALT LAKE CITY - Despite a career-high 25 points from Aztec sophomore Jené Morris, the San Diego State women's basketball dropped a 74-62 decision at Utah Wednesday evening at the Huntsman Center. With the loss, SDSU fell to 9-6 overall and 0-3 in conference play, while the Utes, who shot over 64 percent from the field in the second half, improved to 13-3 and 2-0 in league action.

Morris scored 16 of her career-best 25 points in the second half, beating her previous high of 20 points set earlier this season against Quinnipiac. The guard recorded her third straight double-figure scoring outing in as many chances in league action. Morris was 10-for-18 from the field and made all but two of her seven free-throw attempts, while also contributing a team-best five rebounds and two steals in 37 minutes.

Two SDSU starters, forward Allison Duffy and guard Quenesa Davis, scored nine points apiece. Davis added three assists and Duffy chipped in three of the team's eight steals on the night.

The Aztecs opened the game with the first bucket on a jumper by Duffy. The Utes responded with two straight baskets to go up by two, before a Morris jumper tied the score at four points apiece. Utah broke out of the tie with one of three triples in the first 20 minutes from Morgan Warburton.

The Utes remained ahead the rest of the half, but the Aztecs, who trailed by eight points on two occasions at 18-10 and 20-12, cut their deficit down to just a pair at 26-24, following three straight Morris free throws with 3:34 remaining. Utah, however, finished the half strong, going on an 8-0 run and owning a 10-point advantage of 34-24 at the break.

Coming out of the locker room, SDSU got the Utah lead down to single-digits on a three-point play by Morris at 38-31. Utah then went on a 9-0 run to jump out to its biggest lead of the night at 16 points at 47-31, and was up by 17 at 54-37 with just under 11 minutes left in the game.

The Aztecs rallied from that point, using a pair of free throws by senior Shanna Demus to jump start an 8-0 run, while keeping the Ute offense scoreless for nearly four and a half minutes, as SDSU trailed by just nine at the 8:51 mark.

The nine point margin would be as close as the Aztecs could get the rest of the way, as Utah made 12-of-14 free-throw attempts in the final three minutes to secure the 74-62 victory.

San Diego State owned a 14-7 edge on the offensive boards and committed just three more turnovers than Utah, but could not overcome the Utes' 55.8 field-goal percentage on the night.

Season Box Scores ■ Games 16-18

No. 20 Wyoming 65, San Diego St., 49

Game 16 ■ Jan. 19 ■ Arena-Auditorium ■ Larmie, Wyo.

LARAMIE, Wyo. - The San Diego State women's basketball team cut a 19-point halftime deficit down to just 10 against Wyoming, the No. 20 team in the country, but was unable to complete the come back as the Aztec fell to the host Cowgirls, 65-49 Saturday afternoon at Arena-Auditorium. With the loss, SDSU was dropped to 0-4 in league action and 9-7 overall, while the Cowgirls improved to 16-1 and 4-0 in the MWC.

The Aztecs were led by redshirt freshman forward Allison Duffy, who scored 10 of her 14 points in the second half. Senior Shanna Demus had nine points, including a pair of three-pointers, while Jené Morris tallied seven points. Freshman Paris Johnson logged a team-high nine rebounds, while Demus contributed four steals.

The Aztec offense struggled to get going to start the afternoon, as SDSU missed its first nine shots from the field until getting on the board at the 13:01 mark on two Morris free throws, trailing 13-2. San Diego State's first field goal of the game didn't come until the 8:30 mark when Morris nailed a three-pointer from straight away to put the visitors down by 15 at 20-5.

While SDSU may have struggled on the offensive end, the Aztecs' offensive rebounding kept them in the game owning a 12-3 edge at half, but trailing on the scoreboard by 19 going into the locker room at 37-18.

San Diego State was undeterred coming out of the break, as Duffy scored the first points on a pair of free throws. Wyoming countered with a lay-up, but Duffy once again answered with a basket of her own to get back to a 17-point deficit with 17:11 left.

The Aztecs got to within 11 points on two occasions, before finding themselves trailing by only 10 twice at both 51-41 and 53-43. A three-pointer by Justyna Podziemska restored the Cowgirl lead to 13 and SDSU was never able to get to within single-digits, falling 65-49.

Despite the loss, San Diego State grabbed a season-best 23 offensive boards to Wyoming's five. The Aztecs owned a 42-29 advantage on the glass and forced 20 Cowgirl turnovers.

Game 17 ■ Jan. 24 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - Senior Shanna Demus and sophomore Jené Morris each scored 17 points to lead the San Diego State women's basketball team to its first victory over BYU since the 2001 season, 62-39, Wednesday at Cox Arena. With the win, the Aztecs improved to 10-7 overall and 1-4 in the Mountain West, while the Cougars dropped to 8-8 and 2-2 in league action.

Demus had a season-high 17 points on 5-for-8 shooting from the floor, including a 3-for-5 performance from beyond the arc, while also tallying a team-best five steals. Morris scored 11 of her 17 points in the first half and had four of the Aztecs' 17 steals on the night. SDSU sophomore Queneese Davis finished with nine points, seven assists, five boards and four steals in 32 minutes of action. Freshman center Paris Johnson led the Aztecs in rebounding with nine for the second game in a row to go with three blocked shots.

San Diego State got off to a quick start, jumping out to an 8-0 lead before BYU could score its first points of the evening following a steal in the back court by Mindy Nielson at the 14:46 mark. The Aztecs responded with a three-pointer by Demus, which kick started a 9-0 run, as SDSU led by 15 just a little over eight minutes into the game.

The home team's lead would grow to as many as 27 points at 37-10, before heading into the half up by 26 at 37-11. SDSU forced 21 BYU turnovers in the first 20 minutes of play and the Cougars shot just 15 percent from the field on 3-for-20 shooting.

Brigham Young more than doubled its shooting percentage in the second half, but SDSU's advantage still grew to as many as 35 points on two occasions at 55-20 and 59-24. The Cougars ended the night on a 15-3 run in the final seven minutes, but was only able to get to within 23 points, as the Aztecs claimed a 62-39 win, their first in the two schools' last 14 meetings.

BYU did not have a player score in double-figures, as Cassie King had eight for the Cougars, who had a season-high 31 turnovers and were held to their second-fewest points of the year.

Game 18 ■ Jan. 26 ■ Cox Pavilion ■ Las Vegas, Nev.

LAS VEGAS - Sophomore Jené Morris converted seven consecutive three-point attempts and scored a career-high 35 points to lead the San Diego State women's basketball team to its second straight win, as the Aztecs defeated host UNLV, 75-55, Saturday evening at Cox Pavilion. With the victory, SDSU claimed its first league road game since 2005 to improve to 11-7 and 2-4 in conference play, while the Lady Rebels fell to 6-12 and 2-3.

After missing her first three-point attempt of the night, Morris hit her next seven, as the guard notched the Aztecs' first 30-point scoring outing since 1999. Morris finished the evening 7-for-9 from beyond the arc and 13-for-21 from the field, beating her previous career high for scoring by 10 points. Her seven three-pointers trailed the San Diego State school record by one and nearly doubled her previous career best of four set earlier this season against Quinnipiac.

In addition to the 35 points, Morris added five rebounds, three assists and three of the team's seven steals on the night. She was helped offensively by redshirt freshman Allison Duffy's eight points, while freshman Paris Johnson and sophomore Queneese Davis each chipped in seven. Senior Shanna Demus had a career-best eight assists and tied Morris for the team lead in rebounding with five.

Through the first four and a half minutes, San Diego State attempted 10 shots making just four, but did its job on the defensive end of the floor, forcing six UNLV turnovers for the early 8-4 advantage. The Aztecs maintained a slight edge before putting together a 7-0 run with a Morris three-pointer and two straight baskets from Demus. The Lady Rebels ended their drought with three free throws, as UNLV trailed by seven despite attempting only nine shots from the field through the first 12 and a half minutes.

SDSU caught fire from beyond the arc in the second part of the first half. Morris hit five in a row to go with Kate Eveland's triple at the 3:44 mark, as the Aztecs were up by 11 at 38-27 heading into the locker room.

Morris continued her assault from three-point land, making two more in the first three minutes coming out of the break to put her team ahead by 17 at 48-31 with 16:48 remaining. San Diego State increased its lead to as many as 27 points on two occasions, including at 70-43, before winning for the first time in Las Vegas since 1997, 75-55.

2007-08 San Diego State Women's Basketball

Season Box Scores ■ Games 19-21

San Diego St. 86, Colorado St. 52

Game 19 ■ Jan. 30 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team had four players score in double-figures, including redshirt freshman Allison Duffy who had a career-high 22 points, as the Aztecs claimed an 86-52 victory over visiting Colorado State Wednesday evening at Cox Arena. SDSU won its third consecutive league outing to improve to 3-4 and 12-7 overall, while the Rams fell to 2-17 and 0-6 in conference action.

Duffy logged her first career 20-point scoring effort and also added three assists and three steals. Three Aztecs ended the evening with 16 points apiece, including sophomore Jené Morris, freshman Paris Johnson and senior Shannon Clay. Clay's 16 points were a career-best and came on 8-for-9 shooting, as she made each of her first seven shot attempts from the floor and also grabbed a team-high eight rebounds.

SDSU fell one short of a season-high in assists with 27, as Morris, sophomore Queneese Davis and freshman Coco Davis all had six helpers apiece.

San Diego State went up early on Colorado State and never trailed in the game, jumping out to a quick 4-0 advantage. The Rams closed to within three points at 7-4 on a lay up by Juanise Cornell, but the Aztecs answered with an 11-0 run to lead by 14 at the 14:04 mark. SDSU would lead by as many as 23 points in the first half and held a 21-point advantage at 43-22 at halftime.

Colorado State did not back down coming out of the break, cutting its deficit down to just 15 with 16:11 left and the score 47-32. The Aztecs restored order 13 seconds later on a Duffy jumper and the team's lead hovered around 20 points before three baskets by Clay highlighted an 8-0 run to put them up by 26 at 69-43. San Diego State would go on to claim a 34-point win over Colorado State, 86-52, for its second straight victory over the Rams in San Diego.

San Diego St. 62, Air Force 45

Game 20 ■ Feb. 6 ■ Clune Arena ■ Colorado Springs, Colo.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. - Freshman Paris Johnson had a game-high 18 points and seven rebounds to lead the San Diego State women's basketball team to a 62-45 victory over Air Force Wednesday night at Clune Arena. SDSU won its fourth straight game to improve to 4-4 in Mountain West Conference play and 13-7 overall, while the Falcons dropped to 1-7 and 7-13.

With the win, the Aztecs exceeded their win total of 12 from last season and now have their most victories since the 2000-01 team also won 13 times. It was also San Diego State's first four-game winning streak in conference play since it won eight consecutive contests to finish the 1997 campaign as members of the Western Athletic Conference.

Johnson started out hot for SDSU, scoring the team's first seven points and connecting on her first seven shots from the field. She finished the game 8-of-13 from the floor and a perfect 2-for-2 from the free-throw line. Sophomore Jené Morris had 11 points and a game-high four steals, while sophomore Queneese Davis added seven points and a game-high 10 assists.

The Aztecs, who never trailed in the game, jumped out of the gate fast thanks in part to Johnson's impressive start and a staunch defense. A Shannon Clay lay-up at the 12:10 mark of the first half gave San Diego State a 16-7 lead, its largest lead of the game at that point.

Air Force called a timeout to try and stop SDSU's momentum and it seemed to work as it closed to within three at 16-13 on Chasmine Jones' lay-up with 10:22 left in the first half. The Aztecs, however, went on to a 14-4 run to close the half and take a 30-16 lead heading into intermission.

The Falcons got to within 12 points on Brooke Cultra's 3-pointer with 16:55 left, but senior Kate Eveland's 3-pointer with 9:39 remaining capped a 14-4 San Diego State run to stretch its lead to 48-26. Air Force would get no closer than 17, giving the Aztecs their first victory over the Falcons in Colorado Springs since the 2004-05 season.

TCU 75, San Diego St. 54

Game 21 ■ Feb. 9 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - Visiting TCU outscored the San Diego State women's basketball team 50-23 in the second half to erase a six-point half-time deficit, as SDSU saw its four-game conference win streak come to an end with a 75-54 loss to the Lady Frogs Saturday afternoon at Cox Arena. The Aztecs fell for the first time this season when holding an advantage at the half, dropping to 13-8 overall and 4-5 in league play, while TCU improved to 14-9 and 7-2 in conference action, sweeping the two-game season series between the two schools.

San Diego State got a game-high 19 points from sophomore guard Jené Morris. Fourteen of Morris' 19 points came in the first half, as the third-leading scorer in MWC play recorded her fifth straight game in double-figures. She was helped offensively by freshman Paris Johnson's 10 points, while sophomore Queneese Davis added nine, but was limited to only 16 minutes of action due to foul trouble. Sophomore LaSandra Dixon came off the bench to contribute a career-high five rebounds and three assists, while Morris also added three assists and three steals in 36 minutes.

TCU got out to the early 6-0 advantage until SDSU notched its first points of the afternoon on a Morris jumper at the 17:34 mark. The Lady Frogs increased their lead to as many as eight points on three occasions, but a Dixon free throw sparked a 7-0 Aztec run to close to within a point at 18-17.

The scored was tied at 19 and 21 points, before the Aztecs went into the locker room on a 10-4 run, highlighted by a pair of Morris 3-pointers, as SDSU led by six at 31-25.

Coming out of the break, the two sides traded points, but TCU followed that up with a pair of lay-ups and a free throw to get back to within one at 33-32. SDSU responded to the Lady Frog flurry with two layups of its own by Davis and senior Shannon Clay. A three-pointer and then a lay-up off a steal started a 12-0 TCU scoring run, as the visitors led by seven at 44-37 with just over 11 minutes remaining.

The Aztecs got to within five points less than a minute later, but that would be as close as they would get as TCU got back-to-back triples from Helena Sverrisdottir and never looked back, winning by 21 points, 75-54.

Game 22 ■ Feb. 13 ■ The Pit ■ Albuquerque, N.M.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. – In a game pitting two teams tied for fifth place in the Mountain West Conference standings entering the night, the host New Mexico Lobos used a 42-31 advantage on the glass to defeat the visiting San Diego State women's basketball team 63-54 Wednesday evening at The Pit. With the loss, the Aztecs, who had a one-point advantage at the half, dropped to 13-9 overall and 4-6 in conference action, while the Lobos improved to 13-10 and 5-5 in the MWC.

Aztec sophomore Jené Morris scored in double-figures for the sixth straight game and the ninth time in 10 conference outings, ending up with 22 points for her fourth career 20-point scoring game. Morris scored 16 of her 22 points in the second half and also added four of the team's 11 steals on the night.

Senior Shanna Demus, who started the contest 4-for-4 from the field, ended up with nine points, while redshirt freshman Allison Duffy recorded her third career game with double-figure rebounds, notching 12 boards, just one short of her season-best of 13.

SDSU got off to a quick start getting on the board with three free throws and two Demus baskets, including a three-pointer, to lead by seven at 8-1 at the 16:22 mark. New Mexico raced back to knot the score at eight apiece and the game was tied on three more occasions in the first 20 minutes of action.

The Aztecs carried a slim one-point advantage at 26-25, into the locker room, despite making 11 of 18 shots (61.1 percent) from the field to the Lobos' 36.0 shooting percentage.

The lead changed hands for the third time on the night, when New Mexico opened the second half with a 7-0 run before Morris could score SDSU's first points at the 15:58 mark trailing 32-28. Morris followed that bucket with another and the Aztecs had the game down to just a single point at 33-32.

Both sides went scoreless for over three minutes, as a jumper by UNM's Jessica Kielpinksi broke the drought in the Lobos favor, which was then followed by six straight Dionne Marsh points, as the host built its largest lead of the night at 11 points at 45-34.

UNM went up by as many as 17 points at 59-42 with just over two minute remaining. The Aztecs cut the deficit to as few as 10 points with 39 seconds left, but ended up running out of time, falling, 63-54.

Game 23 ■ Feb. 16 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO – Despite owning a halftime lead for the seventh consecutive game, the San Diego State women's basketball team was unable to pull the upset Saturday, as the Aztecs fell to the visiting No. 19/20 ranked Utah Utes, 63-51, at Cox Arena. With the loss, SDSU dropped to 13-10 on the year and 4-7 in conference action, while the Utes, who have the nation's longest active win streak at 16 games, improved to 21-3 and 1-0 in MWC play.

SDSU freshman center Paris Johnson logged her third double-double of the season with 11 points and 11 rebounds. Her front court teammate redshirt freshman Allison Duffy also had 11 rebounds, while sophomore Jené Morris recorded a team-best 13 points for her seventh consecutive game in double-figure scoring. Duffy and sophomore Quenese Davis each had four assists, while sophomore LaSandra Dixon had a team-high three steals.

San Diego State started off with the first basket of the game by Johnson, but Utah tied the score and would lead by as many as eight points on two occasions, including at 23-15 with 6:44 remaining. The Aztecs defense then turned it up a notch, employing a stifling zone press that limited Utah to just one free throw the remainder of the half, as SDSU owned a 26-24 advantage heading into the locker room.

The Utes, which had trailed only once prior at the half in MWC play, regrouped coming out of the break, going on a 15-2 run to go up by 11 at 39-28 with 10:55 left. The Aztecs cut their deficit to six twice, including with 50 seconds remaining on a Davis three-pointer at 55-49, but Utah made all eight of its free throws to earn the 63-51 win.

Game 24 ■ Feb. 20 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO – Playing its second consecutive opponent earning votes in both national polls, the San Diego State women's basketball team dropped its fourth straight Mountain West Conference game Thursday against visiting Wyoming, 55-44, at Cox Arena. With the loss, the Aztecs fell to 13-11 on the season, including a 4-8 mark in league action, while the Cowgirls improved to 21-4 and 9-3 in conference play.

Sophomore point guard Quenese Davis scored a game-high 19 points for SDSU, with 15 coming in the second half, for her best offensive output in conference action this season. She was helped in the scoring column by redshirt freshman Allison Duffy's 10 points, but sophomore Jené Morris, who entered the night ranked second in the MWC in scoring in league games (17.6 ppg.), was limited to just five points.

Duffy contributed six rebounds, while Morris and senior Kate Eveland each had three of the team's 10 steals. SDSU played without senior co-captain Shanna Demus, who sat out with a knee injury, snapping a string of 88 consecutive games played and 70 straight starts.

San Diego State's only lead of the evening came in the opening minutes of the first half, as the Aztecs went up 2-0 on a pair of Duffy free throws and then again at 4-2 on a Duffy jumper. Wyoming went on an 11-2 run with the help of six points by Aubrey Vandiver to jump ahead by seven at 13-6. The Cowgirls advantage grew to as many as 13 on two occasions, but a Morris lay-up at the buzzer had the Aztecs trailing by just nine going into the break, 27-18.

Coming out of the locker room, SDSU was within seven points on a jumper by Davis at 29-22 at the 14:27 mark, but Justyna Podziemska nailed a pair of three pointers, the first by either side in the game, and also added two lay-ups in a span of less than three minutes to give the host a 12-point advantage at 39-27. The Aztecs got to as close as nine points on the second of two Morris free throws with 1:08 left in the game, before the Cowgirls made four straight free throws to close out the victory, 55-44.

Neither team had much rhythm offensively, as Wyoming shot just 33.3 percent from the field to SDSU's 30 percent. The Aztecs forced 20 Cowgirls turnovers, but Wyoming owned a +19 advantage on the boards and made 21 of 28 free throws to avenge a loss to SDSU last season in San Diego.

Season Box Scores ■ Games 25-27

BYU 46, San Diego St. 43

Game 25 ■ Feb. 23 ■ Marriott Center ■ Provo, Utah

PROVO – Mindy Nielson's lay-up with 32 seconds remaining turned out to be the game winner, as the San Diego State women's basketball team was unable to complete the season sweep over the host BYU Cougars, falling 46-43, Saturday at the Marriott Center. With the loss, the Aztecs dropped to 13-12 on the season and 4-9 in conference play, while the Cougars improved to 13-11 and 7-5 in MWC action.

Aztec sophomore guard Jené Morris scored in double-figures for the 11th time in league action, scoring a team-high 14 points, while also adding six assists in 36 minutes. Redshirt freshman Allison Duffy and freshman Paris Johnson both had eight points, six rebounds and three steals, while junior Shannon Clay had eight boards to go with four points and three steals.

San Diego State scored five of the first six baskets of the game to go up by eight at 10-2 just under four and a half minutes into the contest. BYU posted a run of its own, scoring six straight points to get to within a pair at 10-8. The Aztecs maintained a small lead for most of the remainder of the half, until Nielson's lay-up put the home team ahead by one at 20-19 with 1:23 left. SDSU countered with a fall away jumper by LaSandra Dixon to retake the lead at 21-20, but BYU's Cassie King made one of two free throws as the game was all square at 21-21 going into the locker room.

The Aztec offense struggled coming out of the break, going scoreless for the first 5:55 before Duffy could hit a jumper from the free-throw line. Luckily for SDSU, BYU wasn't any better offensively, as the Cougars scored just four points during that span. The Aztecs caught up to knot the game at 25-25 on two Morris free throws.

The contest was tied again at 33, 35, 37 and finally at 43 with under a minute left in the game. With the shot clock running down, Nielson hit a running lay-up off the glass with 32 seconds remaining. The Aztecs had a chance to tie the score the next time down the floor, but Morris' three-pointer from the right angle went in and out and SDSU was unable to get the rebound, as BYU's Ashley Cheesman hit one of two free throws to close out scoring, 46-43.

Game 26 ■ Feb. 27 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO – The San Diego State women's basketball team used a strong team effort Wednesday to claim its third straight victory over UNLV, 68-50, at Cox Arena. The Aztecs had three players score in double-figures to help the squad match its conference win total from a year ago, improving to 5-9 and 14-12 overall. The Lady Rebels, meanwhile, dropped to 8-18 on the year and are 4-9 in the MWC.

True freshman Paris Johnson notched her best scoring effort thus far in conference play, scoring 20 points to go with eight rebounds, three steals and two blocks. Aztec sophomore guard Jené Morris had 19 points, including 11 in the first half, and also added six assists and all three of the team's three-pointers. Redshirt freshman Allison Duffy was the third SDSU player in double-figures with 14 points and was second in rebounding with seven. Sophomore point guard Quenese Davis had nine assists, seven points and five rebounds, while junior LaSandra Dixon recorded a career-high four assists and five rebounds in her third start of the year.

The game featured nine ties and four lead changes, with San Diego State owning a three-point advantage at the half, 31-28, after trailing by as many as five points early.

The Aztecs held onto their lead until the 11:40 mark of the second half, when Shamela Hampton's three-point play put the Lady Rebels up by one 41-40. After three tie scores over the next minute and a half, a jumper by Johnson put SDSU ahead for good, sparking an 11-0 Aztec run to go up by 11 at 56-45.

UNLV would cut its deficit down to nine a minute later, but the Aztecs outscored the Lady Rebels 12-3 over the remaining four minutes to come away with the 68-50 victory.

Game 27 ■ March 1 ■ Moby Arena ■ Ft. Collins, Colo.

FT. COLLINS – The San Diego State women's basketball team shot 49 percent from the field and had just 12 turnovers to sweep the season series against Colorado State with a 76-56 win Saturday at Moby Arena. With the victory, the Aztecs won in Fort Collins for the first time in eight years and clinched at least a .500 overall record for the first time since the 1996-97 season, improving to 15-12. SDSU also garnered its sixth conference victory of the year (6-9), its most ever in the nine years of Mountain West Conference play. The Rams, meanwhile, fell to 2-25 overall and 0-14 in league action.

The Aztecs were led by the sophomore backcourt duo of Quenese Davis and Jené Morris, who both finished with 19 points and seven steals. Davis scored 17 of her 19 points in the first half, while also tallying five assists to move into 10th place in the Aztec career record book with 279. Freshman center Paris Johnson was the third SDSU player in double-figures with 10 points, followed closely behind by freshman Coco Davis, who had a career-high nine points and recorded one of the team's six three-pointers on the afternoon.

After San Diego State got the first basket of the game, Colorado State scored the next four points to take the 4-2 lead, which would turn out to be the host's only advantage of the night. The Aztecs responded to the deficit with a 7-0 run and after a Ram free-throw, continued that effort with seven more unanswered points to go up by 11 at 16-5. CSU got its first field goal in over five minutes to close to within nine points, but the Rams could not stop the offensive onslaught as the Aztecs outscored them 17-3 in the final five minutes to head into the locker room up by 23 points at 44-21.

SDSU gained its largest lead of the afternoon at 26 points at 50-24 at the 17:09 mark, but the Rams charged back to close to within just 17 on two occasions, with the last one coming at 58-41. A 6-0 Aztec run, including four free-throws by Johnson in a span of a minute and a half, pushed the advantage back to 23 points, and the San Diego State advantage never got below 20 points again, including at the final buzzer at 76-56.

The Aztecs had a season-low for a conference game with 12 turnovers, including only two in the first half. SDSU also forced 29 Colorado State turnovers, picking up 16 steals, to offset the Rams' 43-27 advantage on the glass.

2007-08 San Diego State Women's Basketball

Season Box Scores ■ Game 28

San Diego St. 64, Air Force 34

Game 28 ■ March 8 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team limited Air Force to just nine first-half points, going on to cruise to a 64-34 victory over the Falcons in both teams' regular season finales Saturday at Cox Arena. With the victory, the Aztecs improved to 16-12 overall and 7-9 in conference action, and with a BYU loss to TCU later today, can end up in a tie for fifth place, its best ever MWC finish. The Falcons, meanwhile, dropped to 10-18 and 4-12 in league action after being swept by the Aztecs for the first time since 2004.

SDSU freshman center Paris Johnson logged her fourth 20-point scoring game of the year, finishing 11-for-16 from the field for a team-high 23 points. Johnson also added seven rebounds, while her front court teammate Allison Duffy, chipped in 14 points, eight rebounds, five steals and three assists in 31 minutes. Duffy's five steals were a part of the team's 23 on the afternoon, which also included six in the first half by sophomore Jené Morris.

Seniors Shannon Clay and Kate Eveland finished out their final regular season game at Cox Arena with four and three points, respectively. Sophomore Quenese Davis tallied a team-best six assists, while her sister Coco Davis pulled down a career-best six rebounds to go with five assists.

San Diego State never trailed on the afternoon, racing out to a 7-0 advantage until Air Force got on the scoreboard at the 15:49 mark on a free-throw by Pamela Findlay. The Falcons' first field goal of the game didn't come until 7:40 into the game with the Aztecs already up by 10 at 13-3. SDSU then went on a 6-0 run and led by many as 23 points before heading into the locker room with a 20-point advantage at 29-9. The nine points were the fewest by an Aztec opponent in the first half of a game this season, beating the previous low of 11 points by BYU back on Jan. 23.

Air Force cut its deficit to as few as 18 points on two occasions coming out of the break, but San Diego State broke the game open with an 8-0 run and went on to claim a 30-point victory, 64-34.

1 Tamika Lipford

Junior ■ 5-4 ■ Guard ■ Oceanside, Calif. (Bishop's HS)

Quickly: A veteran point guard, who started 39 games during her career ... A consistent on-court performer, who makes up for her lack of height with her quickness and speed ... Strong defensive player, tallying 83 career steals ... Shoots right-handed but is a natural left-hander ... Standout in the classroom, who has earned all-academic honors from the MWC and as an SDSU scholar-athlete ... Is set to graduate this summer in just three years with her bachelor's degree in political science.

2007-08: San Diego State's first player of the bench ... Appeared in 10 games, averaging 16.3 minutes an outing ... Had 16 steals and 14 assists in only 10 games ... Two steals in seven of her 10 contests ... Her 4.4 points and 2.3 rebounds a game are a career-best ... Key reserve in the opener against Nevada, scoring six points and adding a pair of rebounds and steals in 15 minutes of action ... Five points and five rebounds at Saint Mary's ... Scored five points and tallied a pair of steals in 13 minutes in the win over Southern Utah ... Four points and four assists against Indiana State ... Matched her career-best with six rebounds to go with her six points in the win over Jackson State ... Six points, including a 4-for-4 effort from the free-throw line, at Cal Poly ... Four assists in the home win over CS Fullerton ... Season-high seven points to go with three assists against Navy ... Injured after being cut by glass at a holiday brunch in late December, receiving 22 stitches to her left leg ... Had surgery on Jan. 2 to repair nerve damage in her leg ... Will not return the remainder of the season ... Participated in Senior Day on March 8 vs. Air Force, ending her career as an Aztec.
