LOOKING TO BOUNCE BACK

- San Diego State looks to bounce back from a season-opening loss when it welcomes Idaho State to Bashor Field at Snapdragon Stadium on Saturday.
- The Aztecs are meeting Idaho State for the first time since the 2004 opener at Qualcomm Stadium, where SDSU scored the first 38 points en route to a 38-21 win over the Bengals.
- Saturday's game with Idaho State will be 6,580 days from the last meeting between the two schools on Sept. 4, 2004.
- San Diego State and ISU are both 0-1. The last time the Aztecs were 0-1 in a game and faced a team that was also 0-1 was Sept. 7, 2002, when SDSU fell at Colorado, 34-14.
- San Diego State has played its last 17 games without having a two-game losing streak. The Aztecs' last two-game losing streak came in the 2020 season when they lost at Nevada, 26-21, on Nov. 21 and to Colorado, 20-10, on Nov. 28 on a five days notice.
- SDSU hasn't started 0-2 in a season since starting 0-3 in 2013. San Diego State went 8-2 the rest of the way, beating Buffalo, 49-24, in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.
- The Aztecs were unable to take advantage of their opportunities in a 38-20 loss to Arizona in the Snapdragon Stadium opener last Saturday (Sept. 3).
- The game against Arizona was SDSU's first in its own market since Nov. 30, 2019 when it beat Brigham Young, 13-3. San Diego State had played its previous 23 games (two-plus seasons) out of San Diego County, including 12 "home" games at Dignity Health Sports Park in Carson, California, some two hours away from the SDSU campus.
- Last Saturday's game was the first official athletic event at Snapdragon Stadium, a $310 million, 35,000-seat venue that SDSU now calls home.
- The stadium sold all 32,500 seats with the official attendance being 34,046.
- San Diego State outrushed the Wildcats, 170-162, but were outgained overall by a healthy 229 yards (461-232). The Aztecs uncharacteristically committed two turnovers, including an interception in the second quarter that bounced off the hands of a wide receiver. The interception came one play after what appeared to be a 25-yard rushing touchdown by Jordan Byrd that would have tied the game at 17-17. A holding penalty, however, was called on the Aztecs and, following the interception, Arizona scored the close the first half with a 24-10 advantage. The Wildcats then scored on their opening possession of the second half to take a 31-10 lead.
- Defensively, SDSU forced two turnovers - forced/recovered fumble by Cedarius Barfield and an interception by Noah Tumbler - in back-to-back UA drives in the second quarter but couldn't stop the Jayden de Laura to Jacob Cowing connection. De Laura, the Pac-12 Offensive Freshman Player of the Year in 2021 while at Washington State, threw for 299 yards and four touchdowns, including three to Cowing, a UTEP transfer. Cowing finished with eight catches for 152 yards and the three scores.
- Many win streaks were snapped in the loss to Arizona:
  - 13-game home non-conference win streak
  - 7-game win streak in home season openers
  - 4-game home win streak against the Pac-12
  - 2-game win streak against the Pac-12
  - 16-game win streak when forcing two or more turnovers
  - 12-game win streak when having more rushes than pass attempts
  - 10-game win streak when owning a better average field position
- Only eight schools have more wins than San Diego State's 12 since last season, including Georgia (15), Alabama (14), Louisiana (14), Baylor (13), Cincinnati (13), Houston (13), Michigan (13) and Oklahoma State (13).

PROGRAM-AT-A-GLANCE

- Since the start of the 2015 campaign, San Diego State is 65-25 with a 72.2 winning percentage (11th nationally) and the Aztecs are 64-22 (74.4 percent) since Oct. 3, 2015 (7th nationally).
- SDSU has five double-digit victory seasons in the last seven years (2015-21). Only eight schools in the nation can say that - San Diego State, Alabama, Appalachian State, Clemson, Georgia, Notre Dame, Ohio State and Oklahoma.
- San Diego State has posted 12 consecutive seasons with at least a .500 record. That is tied for the seventh-longest streak nationally and is the longest streak among Pacific Time Zone teams. In 11 of those 12 seasons, the Aztecs have posted a winning record.
- Since the start of the 2019 campaign, San Diego State is 17-4 in games decided by seven or more points (5-1 last year).
- San Diego State is 42-14 in its last 56 regular-season games against Mountain West opponents.
- The Aztecs are 19-8 in their last 27 games decided by eight points or less (6-0 last year).
- Brady Hoke is the only active college coach to lead three different FBS programs (Ball State, Michigan and SDSU) to an 11-win season and one of only two coaches overall since 1996 (also Urban Meyer with Utah, Florida and Ohio State).

2021 SEASON IN REVIEW

- SDSU (12-2) finished with a school-record 12 victories last season, one of only 10 programs with at least 12 wins.
- Only four teams had more victories than San Diego State, including national champion Georgia, and College Football Playoff teams Alabama and Cincinnati.
- The Aztecs played five teams who reached double-digit victories in 2021, securing wins over Pac-12 Champion/Rose Bowl participant Utah (10-4), UTSA (12-2) and Air Force (10-3).
- SDSU, which played all 14 of its games away from its own market, including eight "home games" two hours from campus at Dignity Health Sports Park in Carson, California, finished the 2021 season ranked 25th in the final Associated Press Top 25 poll. It was the third time in program history San Diego State made the final AP Top 25 poll (also 1977 (16th) and 2016 (25th)).
- The Aztecs were also ranked in every CFP poll in 2021 after never being ranked in each of the first seven years of the poll.
- SDSU finished 7-1 in Mountain West play and earned an appearance in the Mountain West Championship game for the first time since 2016 and third time overall since the championship started in 2013.

- If you take away the one time QB Braxton Burmeister has been sacked this year (for six yards), he has rushed nine times for 26 yards (2.9 avg.).

PASSING OFFENSE

- Since the start of the 2015 season, San Diego State has thrown 37 interceptions. That only trails Navy (35) for the fewest picks in the nation over that span (min. 50 GP). In contrast, Hawai'i and New Mexico State has thrown 100 interceptions over that span, which is the most since 2015.
- QB Braxton Burmeister took the loss in his starting debut against Arizona in the 2022 opener. He's just the second quarterback to lose his starting debut over the last seven chances (SDSU quarterbacks were 1-13 in the previous 14 debuts prior to this stretch).

SERIES HISTORY

- San Diego State and Idaho State are meeting for the second time in school history and first time since the 2004 opener.
- The Aztecs defeated the Bengals, 38-21, in the game, which took place on Sept. 4, 2004 and was followed by the annual KGB SkyShow.
- Saturday's game on Sept. 10 will be 6,580 days from the last meeting between the two schools on Sept. 4, 2004.
- In the lone encounter between the two schools in 2004, SDSU outgained ISU, 581-398, including a 290-46 advantage on the ground.
- Michael Franklin had a 67-yard touchdown run on the first play from scrimmage, the Aztecs scored on their first three possessions en route to a 24-0 lead in the first quarter and scored the first 38 points of the game.
- The 24 points are still the most in the first quarter by SDSU in a season-opening game, while the 31 points in the first half are its second most in a first half over a lidlifter.
- Some notable Aztecs played in that game. Current Minnesota Vikings quarterback Kevin O'Connell made his collegiate debut in the contest, coming off the bench to complete 5 of 14 passes for 58 yards and a touchdown, while running seven times for 54 yards (7.7 avg.) with a long run of 21 yards.
- Wide receiver Robert Ortiz finished with four catches for 58 yards and two touchdowns, one from Matt Dlugolecki and another from O'Connell. Ortiz currently serves as the DJ at SDSU's home games at Snapdragon Stadium.
- The announced attendance for the 2004 game was 57,216, at the time a record for a regular-season Aztec home game. It is now ranked second behind the announced attendance of 57,286 against Washington State on Sept. 17, 2011. SDSU also featured 59,473 in the 1986 Holiday Bowl when it fell to Iowa, 39-38.
- Saturday is the second game being played at Snapdragon Stadium, located in Mission Valley near the old SDCCU Stadium (aka Qualcomm, Jack Murphy, San Diego Stadium site). San Diego State is looking for its first win at the stadium after falling to Arizona, 38-20, last Saturday in the season opener.
- SDSU-IDAHO STATE TIDBITS: SDSU has led for 99.6 percent of the series as Michael Franklin scored on a 67-yard touchdown run on the first play of the lone game on Sept. 4, 2004. The game was tied for 14 seconds before the Franklin score. SDSU scored the first 24 points and led for 59:46 of the 60 minutes... The first game featured a combined seven turnovers, including four by Idaho State (three interceptions, one fumble lost) and three by San Diego State (two interceptions, one fumble lost)... The Aztecs have winning records against all three Division I football teams from the state of Idaho, including a 4-3 record against FBS opponent and fellow Mountain West school Boise State, and a 3-2 mark against Idaho and 1-0 record vs. Idaho State.

▶▶ GAME NOTES

Big Notes

- With the Aztec win: SDSU has claimed victories in two straight season-openers for the first time since claiming five straight from 1993-97 ... Aztecs have won 15 straight non-conference home games against teams from outside the BCS Conferences ... SDSU is 1-0 all-time against Idaho State and improves to a perfect 9-0 versus schools in the Big Sky Conference ... The Aztecs moved to 44-33-5 all-time (9-4-1 in last 14 years) in season openers and 2-1 under Tom Craft ... In home openers, SDSU is 27-7-1 in its last 35 home openers ... SDSU has won four of its last five games dating back to 2003 ... The Aztecs have won three straight home games for the first time since the 1998 squad won its final four contests at Qualcomm.
- Record attendance: Tonight's announced attendance of 57,216, is an SDSU record for a home game. The number tops the previous mark of 56,737 in 1991, when the Aztec played Brigham Young on Nov. 16. Today's game marks the first time SDSU has topped the 50,000 mark for attendance since 1992.
- SDSU scored 24 points in the first quarter of today's game. The 24 points equals or surpasses the Aztecs' game total in eight of the team's 12 contests in 2003. The 24 points are the most allowed by Idaho State in the first quarter since North Texas also scored 24 in 1995.
- SDSU's 24 first-quarter points are the team's most in any quarter in more than eight years.
- Michael Franklin recorded his third consecutive 100-yard rushing game with 101 yards on 12 carries. He also led the team with 84 receiving yards.

Aztecs Down Idaho State, 38-21

SAN DIEGO (AP) - Michael Franklin had a 67-yard touchdown run on the first play from scrimmage and Matt Dlugolecki threw for two touchdowns, leading San Diego State to a 38-21 win over Idaho State on Saturday night in the season opener for both teams.

San Diego State dominated their Division I-AA opponents from the outset, scoring on its first three possessions en route to a 24-0 lead in the first quarter and scoring the first 38 in the game.

Robert Ortiz caught two touchdown passes for the Aztecs, who are attempting to finish with a winning record for the first time since 1998.

San Diego State got the opening kickoff and Franklin wasted little time putting the Aztecs ahead for good as he ran untouched off right guard. Franklin finished with 101 yards rushing on 12 carries, his third straight 100-yard game.

Dlugolecki connected on a 10-yard touchdown pass to Ortiz and Brandon Bornes added a 2-yard run before Garrett Palmer's 25-yard field goal with 12 seconds left in the first quarter gave San Diego State a 24-0 cushion.

Dlugolecki, who played about 2½ quarters, completed 16 of 28 passes for 233 yards with two interceptions. His other touchdown pass was a 33-yarder to Wesley Williams that gave San Diego State a 38-0 lead early in the third quarter.

Ortiz also caught a 33-yard scoring pass from redshirt freshman Kevin O'Connell.

The Aztecs defense gave up their first points in the last 15 quarters, a span of more than 103 minutes, when Mark Hetherington threw a 9-yard TD pass to Sale' Key in the third quarter. Hetherington also had a 15-yard scoring pass to Dane Simmons.

LAST TIME OUT

Arizona 38, San Diego State 20
Sept. 3, 2022 | Snapdragon Stadium | San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO -- Making its Snapdragon Stadium debut in front of a national television audience, San Diego State was unable to overcome an early deficit on Saturday in a 38-20 loss to visiting Arizona in the season opener for both teams.

The Wildcats' Jayden De Laura completed 22 of 35 passes for 299 yards and four touchdowns to spoil the Aztecs' inaugural game in their new palatial facility, as the two teams battled in 100-degree heat at kickoff.

Arizona never trailed after kicking a 25-yard field goal on its opening drive, building a 31-10 advantage by the 12:40 mark of the third quarter.

The Wildcats first touchdown was set up by Dalton Johnson's blocked punt, which gave the visitors the ball at the SDSU 40-yard line. Seven plays later, De Laura connected with Jacob Cowing from 17 yards out on the first of three scoring strikes for the Arizona duo.

Trailing 10-0 at the start of the second quarter, the Aztecs drove to the Wildcat 16 on their march but had to settle for a 44-yard field goal by Jack Browning after Braxton Burmeister was sacked for a six-yard loss following a false start penalty.

Arizona increased the margin to 17-3 after De Laura hit Tetairoa McMillan on a six-yard touchdown pass to cap an eight-play, 75-yard march.

The Wildcats forced a three-and-out on SDSU's next drive; however, the host school quickly regained possession after Cedarius Barfield forced a fumble at the Arizona 27 and alertly pounced on the ball.

Seven plays later, the Aztecs faced a 4th-and-3 situation from the 11-yard line when Burmeister hit Tyrell Shavers for a touchdown on a corner route in the end zone, cutting the margin to 17-10.

Inspired by its good fortune, SDSU threatened once again after Noah Tumblin intercepted De Laura on the third play of the Wildcats' ensuing drive, giving the Aztecs a golden opportunity at the Arizona 40. Following a 15-yard pass to Mark Redman, the Aztecs were seemingly in position to tie the game after Jordan Byrd broke free down the right sideline into the end zone.

However, a holding penalty nullified and the score, and on the ensuing play, Jaxen Turner stepped in front of a Burmeister pass at the 26-yard line and rambled out to the 46, swinging the momentum back into Arizona's favor.

Six plays later, the Wildcats extended their lead to 24-10 when De Laura found Cowing in the left flat as the Arizona receiver raced four yards to pay dirt, punctuating a 54-yard drive.

The Wildcats needed just 2:20 to give themselves a three-touchdown cushion on their opening drive of the second half, as De Laura connected with Cowing in the end zone once again, this time on a post pattern, which pushed the score to 31-10.

Stung, the Aztecs fought back with 10 straight points, including a touchdown by Jaylon Armstead, who fell on the football in the end zone after Arizona's Kyle Ostendorp punted the ball into the back of his own blockers following a three-and-out.

SDSU limited the Wildcats to just five yards on their next possession, while Byrd returned the ensuing punt to the Arizona 43. The Scarlet and Black advanced to the Arizona 9 following a 17-yard run by Cam Davis. However, the Aztecs were stymied on their next three plays and once again had to settle for Browning's 23-yard field goal.

San Diego State was unable to narrow the gap any further, as the Wildcats put the game out of reach with a touchdown early in the fourth quarter when DJ Williams darted around left end and raced past the pylon to account for the final 38-20 score.

Williams led all ground gainers with 88 yards and 14 carries, while Cowing posted eight receptions for 152 yards and his three aforementioned touchdowns. In addition, Dorian Singer finished with six catches for 57 yards in the victory.

On the flip side, Burmeister totaled just 51 yards on 5-of-10 passing in his Aztec debut, while Davis rushed for 39 yards on eight attempts to lead the SDSU running game.

Defensively, Michael Shawcroft racked up a team-high nine tackles, including four solo stops, while Noah Avinger and Patrick McMorris finished with eight tackles apiece.

AZTECS PICKED SECOND IN PRESEASON MOUNTAIN WEST POLL

The San Diego State football team has been picked to finish second in the West Division of the Mountain West preseason vote by media representatives who cover the conference, the league announced July 20 at the annual league media days in Las Vegas. The West Division winner has won four of the past seven MW Championships, including the Aztecs in both 2015 and 2016.

SDSU received 148 points with eight first-place votes, trailing only Fresno State's 160 points and 20 first-place votes. San Diego State won the West Division last year before falling to Utah State in the MW Championship game. The Aztecs have now been picked first or second in nine of the 10 years of division play (since 2013). San José State is third in the West Division with 105 points, followed by Nevada (66), UNLV (58) and Hawai'i (51).

Boise State, meanwhile, was picked to win the Mountain Division for the 10th consecutive season. The Broncos, who have made five MW Championship games, received 151 points and 14 first-place votes. Air Force (136) and Utah State (122) garnered 10 and three first-place votes, respectively, while Colorado State (90) had the other first-place vote in the Mountain Division. Wyoming (60) and New Mexico (29) also had votes.

Notes: SDSU's 148 points are its most in the preseason poll since having 168 in 2017 ... San Diego State, which averaged a predicted finish of 6.5 from 2005-12, has ended up at or better than its predicted finish in 10 of the last 13 seasons and 13 times over the past 17 years ... The Aztecs have won two of the last seven Mountain West titles (2015 and 2016) and three of the past 10 (also 2012) ... Three of the four previous times Brady Hoke was head coach, SDSU finished above its preseason selection (finished seventh in 2009 after being picked eighth, finished tied for third in 2010 after being picked sixth and finished first in the West Division last year after being picked third).

SDSU Falls to Arizona in Stadium Opener

SAN DIEGO -- Making its Snapdragon Stadium debut in front of a national television audience, San Diego State was unable to overcome an early deficit on Saturday in a 38-20 loss to visiting Arizona in the season opener for both teams.

The Wildcats' Jayden De Laura completed 22 of 35 passes for 299 yards and four touchdowns to spoil the Aztecs' inaugural game in their new palatial facility, as the two teams battled in 100-degree heat at kickoff.

Arizona never trailed after kicking a 25-yard field goal on its opening drive, building a 31-10 advantage by the 12:40 mark of the third quarter.

The Wildcats first touchdown was set up by Dalton Johnson's blocked punt, which gave the visitors the ball at the SDSU 40-yard line. Seven plays later, De Laura connected with Jacob Cowing from 17 yards out on the first of three scoring strikes for the Arizona duo.

Trailing 10-0 at the start of the second quarter, the Aztecs drove to the Wildcat 16 on their march but had to settle for a 44-yard field goal by Jack Browning after Braxton Burmeister was sacked for a six-yard loss following a false start penalty.

Arizona increased the margin to 17-3 after De Laura hit Tetairoa McMillan on a six-yard touchdown pass to cap an eight-play, 75-yard march.

The Wildcats forced a three-and-out on SDSU's next drive; however, the host school quickly regained possession after Cedarius Barfield forced a fumble at the Arizona 27 and alertly pounced on the ball.

Seven plays later, the Aztecs faced a 4th-and-3 situation from the 11-yard line when Burmeister hit Tyrell Shavers for a touchdown on a corner route in the end zone, cutting the margin to 17-10.

Inspired by its good fortune, SDSU threatened once again after Noah Tumblyn intercepted De Laura on the third play of the Wildcats' ensuing drive, giving the Aztecs a golden opportunity at the Arizona 40. Following a 15-yard pass to Mark Redman, the Aztecs were seemingly in position to tie the game after Jordan Byrd broke free down the right sideline into the end zone.

However, a holding penalty nullified the score, and on the ensuing play, Jaxen Turner stepped in front of a Burmeister pass at the 26-yard line and rambled out to the 46, swinging the momentum back into Arizona's favor.

Six plays later, the Wildcats extended their lead to 24-10 when De Laura found Cowing in the left flat as the Arizona receiver raced four yards to pay dirt, punctuating a 54-yard drive.

The Wildcats needed just 2:20 to give themselves a three-touchdown cushion on their opening drive of the second half, as De Laura connected with Cowing in the end zone once again, this time on a post pattern, which pushed the score to 31-10.

Stung, the Aztecs fought back with 10 straight points, including a touchdown by Jaylon Armstead, who fell on the football in the end zone after Arizona's Kyle Ostendorp punted the ball into the back of his own blockers following a three-and-out.

SDSU limited the Wildcats to just five yards on their next possession, while Byrd returned the ensuing punt to the Arizona 43. The Scarlet and Black advanced to the Arizona 9 following a 17-yard run by Cam Davis. However, the Aztecs were stymied on their next three plays and once again had to settle for Browning's 23-yard field goal.

San Diego State was unable to narrow the gap any further, as the Wildcats put the game out of reach with a touchdown early in the fourth quarter when DJ Williams darted around left end and raced past the pylon to account for the final 38-20 score.

Williams led all ground gainers with 88 yards and 14 carries, while Cowing posted eight receptions for 152 yards and his three aforementioned touchdowns. In addition, Dorian Singer finished with six catches for 57 yards in the victory.

On the flip side, Burmeister totaled just 51 yards on 5-of-10 passing in his Aztec debut, while Davis rushed for 39 yards on eight attempts to lead the SDSU running game.

Defensively, Michael Shawcroft racked up a team-high nine tackles, including four solo stops, while Noah Avinger and Patrick McMorris finished with eight tackles apiece.
