AZTEC HEADLINES

- San Diego State looks for its fourth Surf 'N Slam title in the last six years on Monday when it battles North Carolina State at Viejas Arena. Game time is set for 6 p.m. PT, and a live video stream featuring Chris Ello on play-by-play will be available at www.goaztecs.com.
- The Aztecs reached the championship final of the Surf 'N Slam for the sixth consecutive season after posting a narrow 58-57 come-from-behind victory over UC Riverside in their tournament opener on Saturday.
- Freshman Ariell Bostick came off the bench and scored 12 points, including the team's final six of the game, as SDSU rallied from a pair of 14-point deficits in the first half to grind out the win.

- The Aztecs also received double-digit scoring efforts from Desi Culberson, who chipped in a season-high 11 points and seven rebounds, while Deajane Scurry and Cierra Warren finished with 10 points apiece, helping the Scarlet and Black win back-to-back games for the first time this year.
- Warren leads the Mountain West with a .585 field-goal percentage (48-82) and ranks eighth with 13.8 points per game. The SDSU center has eclipsed the 20 point-barrier on three occasions this season.
- As a team, SDSU tops the MW with a .425 field-goal percentage and ranks first in rebounding defense as well, allowing just 36.0 boards per game.

#AztecWBB Set to Battle Wolfpack for Surf 'N Slam Title

San Diego State closes out the 2013 calendar year on Monday when it squares off against North Carolina State in the finals of the ninth annual San Diego Surf 'N Slam at Viejas Arena.

The Wolfpack (12-1) reached the title game after defeating Kansas State, 77-60, in the other semifinal contest on Saturday, extending their winning streak to six in a row.

Monday's clash will be the first meeting between the two schools. The Aztecs are 3-9 all-time against current members of the Atlantic Coast Conference. SDSU last played an ACC opponent in the Sweet Sixteen of the 2010 NCAA tournament, when it dropped a tough 66-58 decision to Duke at FedEx Forum in Memphis, Tenn. The Aztecs' last win over an ACC squad occurred in the first round of the 2009 Surf 'N Slam when they thwarted a late Wake Forest rally to escape by a narrow 63-62 margin.

SDSU has advanced to the championship game of the San Diego Surf 'N Slam for the sixth year in a row, winning three times in 2008, 2009 and 2011, while Texas A&M and Oklahoma State took home the title in 2010 and 2012, respectively.

San Diego Surf 'N Slam Classic at a Glance

■ For the eighth time in the tournament's history, the San Diego Surf 'N Slam features a four-team format with two games each day separated by an off-day. The lone exception occurred in 2011 when the event was comprised of three schools (SDSU, Penn, UNC Greensboro) with a single game on three consecutive days.

■ Six different teams from five different conferences have won a tourney championship game in the Surf 'N Slam's eight seasons. SDSU is the only back-to-back winner in 2008 and 2009.

■ Kansas State, North Carolina State and UC Riverside are all making their first Surf 'N Slam appearances. K-State is the fourth Big 12 school to compete in the tournament following Texas (2008), Texas A&M (2010), which bolted for the Southeastern Conference prior to last season, and Oklahoma State (2012). In addition, NC State is the second Atlantic Coast Conference squad in the field joining Wake Forest, which made the trek west in 2009, while UCR is first Big West Conference representative to participate in the event. Current Big West member UC Davis played in the inaugural tournament in 2005, but was still in the transitional phase from the NCAA Division II ranks at the time.

■ SDSU and UC Riverside have met on six previous occasions, while the Aztecs and K-State have tangled with one another in three previous encounters. However, Monday's matchup with NC State will be SDSU's first-ever in the 38-year history of its program.

■ The Aztecs sport an all-time Surf 'N Slam record of 12-5, including Saturday's win over UCR. SDSU has earned at least a split every season and advanced to the championship game six times (3-3), winning the title on three occasions.

■ A total of five teams have been ranked in the AP Top 25 when playing in the Surf 'N Slam, including No. 14 Oklahoma State last season, along with No. 7 Texas A&M (2010), No. 4 Texas (2008), No. 11 Georgia (2006) and No. 17 George Washington (2006). NC State finds itself just outside the AP Top 25 entering the tournament, landing in the the 28th spot after earning 22 points.

SDSU in Regular-Season Home Tournaments

■ This year marks the ninth straight season that SDSU has played host to a tournament. Prior to 2005, the last time the Aztecs conducted a home tourney was in November of 2000, when SDSU went 1-1 at the Pacific Bell Classic.

■ The Aztecs women's hoops squad has played host to 23 home tournaments in its previous 37 years of existence.

■ SDSU is 22-2 in the first game of a home tournament, including Saturday's triumph over UCR, and has won the team title 12 times, including each of the first four.

■ SDSU has split games in eight of its last 11 home tournaments. The team won the first game and lost the second in 1998, 1999, 2000, 2006, 2010 and 2012, and did the opposite in 2005 and 2007.

■ The Aztecs are 8-2 in the last five Surf 'N Slams, winning the title over No. 4 Texas in 2008, vs. Auburn in 2009, and against Penn in 2011.

Dissecting the Slow Start

The fact that San Diego State sits at 3-6 can be at least partially attributed to the following factors:

► Turnovers - The Aztecs are committing over five turnovers more per game (20.9-15.7) than their foes this season, compared to last year when they were just one of three teams in the Mountain West to finish with a positive turnover margin (+2.9), along with Fresno State and Colorado State. Opponents have capitalized on SDSU's miscues by maintaining a combined 193-133 advantage in points off turnovers.

However, the Aztecs have made progress over the past two games, committing a combined 15 fewer miscues (25-40) in victories over Miami (OH) and UC Riverside.

► Offensive Rebounds - Over the first seven games, SDSU got outrebounded by an average margin of 15.6-9.9 on the offensive glass. As a result, the Aztecs' foes maintained a 110-55 advantage in second-chance points during that stretch. However, SDSU has shown signs of reversing that trend, out-rebounding their last two foes on the offensive boards by a 45-19 margin and maintaining a 34-12 spread in second-chance points.

► Three-Point Field Goals - San Diego State's opponents have drained a staggering 68 three-pointers on the season for an average of 7.6 per game. The Aztecs have allowed opponents to shoot 36.6 percent from beyond the arc, which ranks near the bottom among 343 Division I teams entering the week. Conversely, the Scarlet and Black has connected on just 27 treys for the year and combined for just 14 in the six games prior to the UCLA game.

► Schedule - The Aztecs have played one of the toughest schedules in the country so far this year, featuring a pair of games against AP Top 25 foes in No. 19 South Carolina and No. 23 Texas A&M. As of Dec. 29, SDSU's strength of schedule was rated 26th in the nation, according to realtimerpi.com, while Collegiate Basketball News ranked the Aztecs' slate the 28th toughest. Entering Monday's contest, the combined record of SDSU's first 10 opponents stands at 79-40.

► Experience - San Diego State's starting lineup against UC Riverside featured five players who have combined for just 30 starts in an Aztec uniform prior to Dec. 28. With that lack of experience, growing pains are certainly inevitable.

Despite the adversity, four of the Aztecs' six losses have come by a scant 12 points. The youthful SDSU squad has displayed much resiliency during the early part of the season, overcoming a 14-point deficit on Saturday against UC Riverside and nearly rallying from a pair of 19-point deficits at Sacramento State and USC. In fact, the Aztecs owned late leads at Sac State and against San Diego, only to cede go-ahead three-pointers by the opposition.

Decembers to Remember

The Aztecs are a combined 33-12 during December since 2006. Six of those losses came to teams either ranked or receiving votes in the national poll, including a defeat to No. 23 Texas A&M earlier this month and a setback to No. 14 Oklahoma State last year in the final of the San Diego Surf 'N Slam. The Aztecs have also come up short in previous years against No. 2 UConn, No. 7 Texas A&M, No. 17 George Washington and USC (rv). The other six defeats were vs. UCLA last Sunday, at Washington in 2012, at Washington State and against USD in 2011, vs. Pepperdine in overtime in 2009 and against Quinnipiac in the opener of the 2007 Surf 'N Slam. Of course, it should be noted that SDSU has played 33 of those 45 December contests at home.

Scouting the Wolfpack

NC State (12-1) came away with a 77-60 victory over Kansas State in the other Surf 'N Slam matchup on Saturday to extend their winning streak to six games. The Wolfpack, who received votes in both the AP Top 25 and USA Today Coaches Poll entering the tournament, were led by the senior tandem of Markeisha Gatling and Kody Burke, who each finished with a double-double. Gatling posted a game-high 21 points and 12 rebounds, while Burke tallied 13 points and 12 boards of her own.

For the season, Gatling leads NC State with an average of 15.5 points, 5.7 rebounds and 1.0 blocks per game. The Raleigh, N.C., native also tops the squad with an incredible .730 field-goal percentage and was named ACC player of the week after scoring 25 points in the Wolfpack's upset of then-No. 12 LSU on Dec. 20. Meanwhile, Burke has posted solid numbers as well this year with average of 14.0 points and 5.5 rebounds per outing. Elsewhere, senior Myisha Goodwin-Coleman is NC State's main three-point threat, knocking down 32 of 87 (.368) attempts from downtown, while junior Len'Nique Brown is averaging a team-best 4.6 assists per contest.

As a team, the Wolfpack are shooting a brisk 48.0 percent from the field, including a 35.9 percent clip from beyond the three-point arc, and are converting 71.7 percent of their free-throw attempts. NC State is outscoring its opposition by nearly 22 points per game while maintaining a stout plus-10.5 rebounding advantage.

Head coach Wes Moore is in first season at the helm of the Wolfpack program after spending the past 15 years in the same capacity at Chattanooga. During his tenure with the Lady Mocs, Moore's teams won 12 Southern Conference (SoCon) regular-season championships, nine league tournament titles and nine NCAA tournament berths. Following the 2012-13 campaign, Moore collected his sixth SoCon Coach of the Year award after guiding Chattanooga to a 29-4 record and a 19-1 mark in league play.

Prior to assuming the reins of the Lady Mocs, Moore also served as head coach at Francis Marion (1995-98) and Maryville College (1987-93), compiling a 570-170 record for his career.

Burke is the lone Californian on the Wolfpack roster, having graduated in 2010 from Notre Dame High School in Sherman Oaks.

Stacie Terry has coached against NC State twice as an assistant, winning on both occasions. During her tenure at UCLA, the Bruins came away with 74-64 triumph over the Wolfpack in the first round of the 2010 NCAA tournament in Minneapolis, Minn. Last season in Terry's final campaign at LSU, the Lady Tigers posted an 81-73 home victory in non-conference play on Dec. 2, 2012.

With a Victory...

An SDSU win over NC State on Monday will mean:

- The Aztecs win their fourth Surf 'N Slam title, joining the 2008, 2009 and 2011 SDSU squads.
- The Aztecs extend their winning streak to a season-high three games.
- SDSU posts its first victory of the 2013-14 campaign against a team with a winning record.
- The Aztecs move to 4-9 against current members of the ACC.
- SDSU improve to 35-12 in December games played since the 2006-07 campaign.

The Last Time Out - SDSU vs. UC Riverside

Freshman Ariell Bostick scored a career-high 12 points, including five straight down the stretch as the Aztecs rallied for a 58-57 triumph over UC Riverside in the opening game of the San Diego Surf 'N Slam Classic last Saturday at Viejas Arena.

With the victory, SDSU (3-6) won back-to-back games for the first time this season, while the Highlanders (4-8) dropped their fifth in a row.

SDSU also witnessed double-digit scoring efforts by junior Desi Culberson, who finished with 11 points, seven rebounds and three assists, while senior Cierra Warren and sophomore Deajanae Scurry tallied 10 points apiece. In addition, the Aztecs received a key contribution from senior Danesha Long, who totaled seven points and a career-high 10 rebounds, including six on the offensive glass.

Despite a lackluster performance at the free-throw line in which it sank just 11-of-23 foul shots (47.8 percent), SDSU won the turnover battle for the second game in a row (11-14), scoring 13 points off 11 Highlander miscues in the second half to help fuel its comeback effort. The Aztecs also withstood seven UCR three-pointers, including one by Simone DeCoud, which narrowed a five-point SDSU lead to 57-55 with 13 seconds left in the contest.

The Aztecs trailed by as many as 14 points in the first half and found themselves on the wrong side of a 39-28 score with two minutes elapsed in the second period, before uncorking a 13-0 run over the ensuing 6:16, as a jumper in the lane by sophomore Deidra Smith gave the host school its first lead since the opening tip, 41-39, with 11:48 left on the clock. However, the Highlanders answered with a 7-0 blitz of their own, reclaiming a 46-41 advantage following a Natasha Hadley basket at the 10:25 mark.

SDSU responded to the challenge with consecutive buckets by Warren, junior Khristina Hunter and Scurry to vault in front, 47-46, with 7:16 remaining. Moments later, Annalise Ito's jumper gave UCR its last lead of the afternoon before Warren drained three free throws, while Culberson converted a layup to put the Aztecs back in front, 52-48.

The Highlanders managed to tie things up following a pair of Hadley foul shots and a Jamila Williams' jumper. However, Bostick came up huge on SDSU's ensuing possession, burying a three-pointer from the left wing with 1:16 left to put the Scarlet and Black up for good, 55-52. After an Ito misfire from beyond the arc at the UCR end, Bostick displayed some more flair with a key layup to extend the Aztec advantage to 57-52.

The Highlanders would not go away quietly, however, as DeCoud drilled a triple with 13 seconds to go, cutting the margin to 57-55. After a quick foul by Hadley, Bostick nailed one of two free throws before another three-point attempt by DeCoud hit the side of the rim with six seconds on the clock. Akilah Martin converted a layup with two seconds left, but the Aztecs were able to inbound the ball and escape with the one-point win.

DeCoud finished with a game-high 14 points, including a 4-for-8 performance from three-point territory to go

Noting the UC Riverside Game

■ SDSU posted a season-low 11 turnovers, including three in the second half.

■ SDSU collected more offensive rebounds (19-14) than its opponent for the third straight contest.

■ The Aztecs boasted four double-digit scorers in consecutive games for the first time since last season vs. Savannah State and Fresno State.

■ With both sides substituting just three players each, the Aztec reserves outscored the Highlander reserves, 27-16.

■ SDSU improved to 13-1 in its last 14 meetings against Big West Conference members.

■ In addition to her rebounding total, Danesha Long logged a career-high 12 field-goal attempts.

Warren Tabbed MW Player of the Week

Senior Cierra Warren (Rancho Cucamonga, Calif.) was named the Mountain West Women's Basketball Player of the Week on Dec. 2 for her dominating performance in the Aztecs' 71-67 victory at UC Santa Barbara.

With her award, the SDSU center garnered her first career weekly conference accolade and the first for an Aztec player this season.

Against UCSB on Nov. 30, Warren scored a team-high 21 points on 9-of-10 (.900) shooting from the floor and a 2-for-2 effort at the free-throw line. She also added one assist, one block and a steal to help SDSU notch its first win of the season.

In the second half, Warren tallied 11 straight points, including the first three-point basket of her career, during a 22-9 run that overturned a 42-33 deficit and catapulted SDSU into the lead for good at 55-51. She also secured the game-clinching rebound after the Gauchos missed a potential game-tying three-pointer with nine seconds remaining in the contest.

Scorching the Nets

San Diego State has finished with a .600 or better field-goal percentage in two games already this season (.623 - at Sacramento State and .652 - at UCSB) after recording just two since the 2000-01 campaign.

For the season, the Aztecs are shooting a collective .434 from the floor, which ranks 60th in the nation entering the weekend. Individually, Cierra Warren ranks 17th nationally with a sparkling .600 field-goal percentage on 45-of-75 shooting.

Nothin' Like Home Cookin'

Despite its 2-3 home record to start the season, SDSU has posted a 61-18 ledger on the Viejas Arena court since the beginning of the 2008-09 campaign and has captured 29 of its last 34 on The Mesa.

AztecWBB Inks Pair to NLI's

San Diego State head coach Stacie Terry inked her first pair of recruits last week with the signing of Cheyenne Greenhouse (Riverside, Calif.) and Lexy Thorderson (Castle Rock, Colo.) to National Letters of Intent. The two high school seniors are set to join the Aztecs for the 2014-15 season.

Greenhouse signs with SDSU out of Canyon Springs High School, where she captured CIF Division 1A co-player of the year honors as a junior last season after leading the Cougars to the Southern Section championship and a berth in the semifinals of the CIF regional tournament.

A 5-11 guard, Greenhouse averaged 18.4 points, 5.5 rebounds, 2.4 assists and 2.1 steals during the 2012-13 campaign, earning first-team all-state CIF Division 1A recognition while landing a spot on MaxPreps all-state first team.

"Cheyenne is going to be very important to us because she has can play multiple positions," Terry said. She will add tremendous athleticism to our program with her great leaping ability. Cheyenne is also a very intelligent player and her basketball IQ is off the charts."

Greenhouse makes her signing official as a three-star recruit, according to ESPN HoopGurlz. A three-time all-Inland Valley League selection for head coach Gail Hale at Canyon Springs, Greenhouse also brings three years of club experience with her to The Mesa, having played for Cal Swish in 2011, followed by a two-year stint with the West Coast Premier program. She intends to study biology or pre-medicine at San Diego State.

Thorderson, meanwhile, garnered first-team all-Continental Leagues accolades as a junior last year at Rock Canyon High School after averaging a team-best 16.1 points to go along with 5.7 rebounds, 2.6 assists and 1.3 steals. Under the tutelage of head coach Robbie Ballard, the 6-0 guard/forward received Colorado 5A honorable mention all-state distinction on two occasions in 2011 and 2013.

In a game against eventual state champion Regis Jesuit last February, Thorderson scored 32 points to earn player of the game honors by MaxPreps. Earlier in the season, she also gained recognition as the Denver Post's female student-athlete of the week.

"Lexy's addition will enable us to extend our offense because she is deadly from three-point range," Terry said. "Her ability to knock down that jumper will also help open up the game for our post players."

Thorderson, who also competed at the USA Basketball U16 national team trials in 2011, has a basketball pedigree in her family. Her father Eric Thorderson played collegiately at Wayne State (Mich.) from 1980-85, while two of her sisters, Ali and Abby, earned varsity letters at Weber State. She is undecided on a major at San Diego State, but is considering a career in physical therapy and physical education.

Noting the Newcomers

Of the 12 student-athletes on the current roster, five players will be wearing an Aztec uniform for the first time this season. Cierra Warren practiced with the squad last year but did not compete after transferring from Louisville, while Deidra Smith utilized her redshirt campaign as well, following her transfer from Boston College. In addition, sophomore Deajanae Scurry missed the latter half of the 2012-13 campaign to concentrate on academics.

With San Diego State losing nearly 67 percent of its scoring offense from a year ago, three true freshmen look to gain significant experience this season. Guard Ariell Bostick (Oakland, Calif.) led Bishop O'Dowd High School to a pair of CIF titles, while forward Alyssa Lawrence (New Rochelle, N.Y.) was an all-league and all-section honoree during her prep career. Not to be outdone, Chloe Johnson (Phoenix, Ariz.), who was named the Mountain West preseason freshman of the year, brings strong credentials with her to The Mesa

Meet the New Staff

The talent at Viejas Arena is not just limited to the playing court as head coach Stacie Terry has assembled a prolific staff in her first season on The Mesa. Assistant coaches Jesse Clark, Aisha Veasley and Ciara Carl bring a vast array of experience with them to "America's Finest City", while Mike Bynum returns for his fourth season as the Aztecs' director of player development.

A native of Tacoma, Wash., Clark spent seven years as an assistant at Saint Mary's College, where he helped the Gaels to four straight WNIT berths, including a quarterfinal appearance in 2012-13. He also had stints at Stanford, San Francisco, CSU Bakersfield and Pacific Union.

Veasley, who enjoyed a successful playing career at UCLA, returns to her Southern California roots after two productive stops as an assistant at Tulsa and Colorado. While at CU, Veasley played a pivotal role as the team's recruiting coordinator, helping to land three top-40 classes.

Carl also has ties to the area, having graduated from Point Loma Nazarene and coaching with San Diego club teams. Most recently, she served an assistant at Metro State in Denver, Colo., following a two-year run at Division II power Cal Poly Pomona.

Aztecs Garner MW Preseason Honors

San Diego State received three preseason Mountain West individual honors on Oct. 15, as forward Erimma Amarikwa was named to the all-conference team, center Cierra Warren was selected newcomer of the year, while guard Chloe Johnson was tabbed the MW preseason freshman of the year.

As a team, the Aztecs were picked to finish third in the MW preseason poll, which was conducted in a combined panel of the league's 11 head coaches and select conference media members. SDSU collected 196 points and picked up two first-place votes, trailing second-place Wyoming, which received 212 points and four first-place votes, while preseason favorite Fresno State garnered 238 points and 17 first-place votes.

Basketball Performance Center On the Docket

San Diego State Director of Athletics Jim Sterk announced on Nov. 12 that a proposed 23,500-square-foot basketball performance center is under design, with a plan to break ground on the project in late spring 2014.

The $14.5 million facility, which will be located just south of the Fowler Athletics Center and east of the football practice fields, will include two full-length courts, eight baskets, locker rooms, film rooms, team lounges, athletic training room and coaches locker rooms to help support the Aztec men's and women's championship basketball programs.

Although a majority of the funds have been pledged, fundraising continues for the project which is tentatively scheduled to be completed in 2015.

"This is an exciting day to be able to announce this project is moving forward," Sterk said. "It is a project that will greatly benefit our already successful men's and women's basketball programs. It is also an important day because we are going public with our drive to raise funds for the project and hope that the community that has enjoyed San Diego State basketball will get behind this project."

"The basketball performance center is more than just a building, it is our classroom," SDSU women's basketball head coach Stacie Terry said. "The facility will provide an opportunity for our student-athletes to enhance their individual games, which will in turn benefit our program. It also keeps San Diego State competing at the highest level not only in basketball, but in recruiting as well."

For more information on the Basketball Performance Center or to pledge a gift, contact the Aztec Club at (619) 594-6444.

Two For The Show

Former SDSU All-Americans Courtney Clements and Chelsea Hopkins both earned roster spots with the WNBA this past season after completing their illustrious careers for the Scarlet and Black following the 2012-13 campaign. Clements joined the Atlanta Dream as a free-agent rookie last May, while Hopkins was signed by the San Antonio Silver Stars in September.

Clements appeared in 30 games for Atlanta in 2013, becoming the first former Aztec to compete for a WNBA title after the Dream advanced to finals against the eventual champion Minnesota Lynx. The Long Beach native totaled 59 points (2.2/gm) on the year to go with 26 rebounds, eight assists and five steals. Against the Seattle Storm on July 14, Clements recorded a season-best 12 points before logging season highs of five rebounds and 29 minutes played vs. San Antonio on Sept. 15.

Hopkins, meanwhile, averaged 14.3 minutes in three games during a late-season tour of duty with the Silver Stars, finishing with six points, six rebounds and five assists.

What's New in the Mountain West

With the addition of newcomers San José State and Utah State, the Mountain West will have a different look for the third year in a row. Following the departures of Brigham Young and Utah in 2011, the league added Boise State, while Fresno State and Nevada joined the circuit last year after the defection of TCU. The latest realignment means the Aztecs will now have 18 league games this season instead of 16, with the Scarlet and Black facing Wyoming (home) and Nevada (road) just once, while completing a home-and-home slate with the rest of the conference.

The Mountain West Championship, scheduled for March 10-15, 2014, has also been revamped to include three games with the six lowest-seeded teams during the first round. In addition, the four surviving squads from the quarterfinals will have two days to prepare for the semifinal round.

Listen Live

For the 13th consecutive year, Aztec women's basketball fans will have an opportunity to listen to live play-by-play of most regular-season games (home and away) over the internet at www.goaztecs.com.

SDSU alumnus Chris Ello will handle the play-by-play duties both at home and on the road for the seventh straight season.

In addition, all Aztec home contests during the 2013-14 regular season will feature a live video stream via the Mountain West Network to supplement the audio call from Viejas Arena.

Up Next

SDSU will dive straight into Mountain West competition on Thursday, Jan. 2, when it plays host to Colorado State at Viejas Arena. Game time for the Aztecs-Rams clash is set for 6 p.m. PT.

Stacie Terry was named the eighth head coach in the history of the San Diego State women's basketball program on May 15, 2013. A native of San Diego, Terry gained a wealth of experience as an assistant coach at the Division I level over the past 14 years, including the last five under head coach Nikki Caldwell, who transferred UCLA into a powerhouse before restoring LSU to national prominence.

During Terry's two seasons at LSU, the Lady Tigers compiled a 45-23 overall record and earned two NCAA tournament bids, including a Sweet 16 appearance during the 2012-13 campaign. This past season, the Lady Tigers also posted six victories against ranked opponents and finished with their second-highest scoring average (69.0) in the last seven years. Under Terry's guidance, forward LaShondra Barrett garnered first-team all-Southeastern Conference accolades and received honorable mention All-America distinction in 2012 before becoming a first-round draft choice of the WNBA's Washington Mystics.

"I am honored and humbled to be the next head coach at San Diego State University," Terry said. "I want to thank Jim (Sterk) and his staff for this amazing opportunity. This is such a special place for me. Not only is this my dream job, but it is home. SDSU is a first class university that has all the resources in place to be successful. I am so eager to get started and confident that we can continue the winning tradition that Aztec supporters have become accustomed to both on and off the court."

Prior to her arrival at LSU, Terry served as an assistant under Caldwell at UCLA from 2008-11, helping the Bruins gain national acclaim with a pair of NCAA tournament appearances. During Terry's tenure, UCLA posted 72 overall victories, as the 2010-11 squad finished with a 28-5 record, setting a school record for fewest losses in a single season to go with a No. 7 national ranking. In addition, the Bruins signed the fourth-ranked recruiting class that season, according to ESPN HoopGurlz, while Terry helped mentor first-team all-Pac-10 performers in Doreena Campbell, Darxia Morris and Jasmine Dixon, a 2012 honorable mention AP All-America selection, as well as all-conference freshman honorees Atonye Nyin-gifa and Markel Walker.

Terry spent the 2007-08 campaign at Southern Mississippi, as the Golden Eagles posted a 21-14 record and earned a postseason berth in the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT). While at Southern Miss, Terry spearheaded the development and coordination of the Lady Eagle recruiting campaign. Her responsibilities also included working with the perimeter players, scouting opponents and film breakdown, as well as coordinating all of the team's community service events.

Terry also coached for three seasons from 2004-07 as an assistant under Hall of Fame head coach Theresa Grentz at Illinois, where the Fighting Illini had three straight recruiting classes ranked among the top 25 in the nation, according to Blue Star Basketball, and made three consecutive trips to the WNIT. Her primary duties included defensive instruction and working with the perimeter players.

In addition, Terry coached at Dayton during the 2003-04 season following a three-year stint at Louisville from 2000-03. With the Cardinals, Terry's responsibilities encompassed recruiting, scouting, player development, summer camps and serving as a liaison for the program's community service outreach. Louisville captured the Conference USA regular-season title and earned a trip to the NCAA tournament in 2001 before making a WNIT appearance in 2002. She also assisted in signing the nation's 21st-ranked recruiting class in 2002-03, according to All-Star Girls Report. Terry recruited and coached all-Conference USA honoree Lori Nero, a draft choice of the WNBA's Houston Comets, as well as Sara Nord, who finished her collegiate career as the Cardinals' all-time assist leader and ranks among the top 15 scorers in school history.

Terry enjoyed a successful collegiate playing career at Texas-Arlington, winning four varsity letters from 1994-98 under head coach Mike Dean. She earned first-team all-Southland Conference honors after leading the Mavericks in scoring with 17.4 points per game as a senior in 1997-98. Terry scored 1,169 points during her career at UTA and still ranks among the school's top 10 in three-point field goals made (third), assists (sixth), steals (seventh) and free-throw percentage (10th). She is just one of 17 players in Maverick history to surpass the 1,000-point plateau, while her .335 career three-point field-goal percentage is also a school and Southland Conference career record.

Terry played one season of professional basketball in Warsaw, Poland, averaging 12.0 points and 6.0 assists with the Polonia Phoenix, before returning to Texas-Arlington to begin her coaching career as a graduate assistant in 1999.

Terry, who graduated from El Capitan High, stills holds the Vaqueros' career scoring record and was inducted into the school's athletic hall of fame in 2008.
