THE SET-UP

San Diego State (2-2; 0-0 MW) opens its 14th and final campaign in the Mountain West Conference prior to joining the BIG EAST Conference next season with a road contest against long-time rival Fresno State (2-2; 0-0 MW) at Bulldog Stadium in Fresno, Calif. Game time is set for 7 p.m. PT and the game will be televised locally on KUSI, with radio coverage provided by KOGO 95.7 FM & AM 600.

Both teams enter the contest with 2-2 records, having two-game win streaks snapped last Saturday. The Aztecs outgained San Jose State by 117 yards, controlled the ball for 37:55, but was unable to overcome a minus-29-yard margin in average field position, their worst discrepancy in their Division I era, in a 38-34 loss.

Sophomore running back Adam Muema recorded his second consecutive 100-yard rushing effort and third of his career by going for a personal-best 202 yards on 25 carries. He also found the end zone for the fifth consecutive game. Junior tight end Gavin Escobar caught five passes for 46 yards and a touchdown. It marked the 10th consecutive game in which he has caught multiple passes. Senior quarterback Ryan Katz, meanwhile, passed for 213 yards on just 17 completions with two touchdowns. He has now gone 83 straight passes without throwing an interception. Defensively, senior cornerback Leon McFadden tied a career high with three pass breakups and now is fifth all-time in school history with 32 career PBUs.

Fresno State had a pair of 13-point leads and owned a nine-point advantage in the third quarter of a 27-26 loss at Tulsa.

Saturday will mark the 52nd all-time meeting between San Diego State and Fresno State, with the Aztecs owning a 27-20-4 series advantage. With 52 previous encounters, Fresno State represents San Diego State's most played series and the 27 victories are the most for the Aztecs over any opponent. The series has been remarkably close, with SDSU owning an all-time lead in cumulative score of 1,052-1,039.

STORYLINES

- San Diego State and Fresno State will meet Saturday for the Oil Can Trophy. Created prior to last season's game, the trophy is awarded to the winning team. The oil can theme was decided upon as fans from both schools used to travel with extra cans of oil to make the trip between the cities on the old, twisting roads of Highway 99.
- Last season, San Diego State overcame a 21-0 deficit to defeat Fresno State, 35-28. The 21-point comeback matched the largest in the school's Division I era (since 1969).
- This week's game features an interesting matchup of San Diego State's offensive ability to be stingy in the turnover department with Fresno State's defense ability to force turnovers. Both units rank among the nation's elite in turnover categories, especially in the passing game.

San Diego State (NR)

Fresno State (NR)

Turnovers	5* (T-40)	Turnovers Caused	11 (8)
Interceptions	1 (T-10)	Interceptions Gained	8 (T-2)

* - one of San Diego State's five turnovers came on special teams.

- In the last 12 meetings between San Diego State and Fresno State, the team with the most rushing yards has won the game.
- Sophomore running back Adam Muema has posted consecutive 100-yard games (124 yards vs. North Dakota and a career-high 202 yards vs. San Jose State). If he posts a third straight 100-yard rushing game on Saturday, it would be the 20th time in school history that a player has posted at least three straight 100-yard rushing games and he would become just the 14th player in school history accomplish the feat.
- This week's game marks the first San Diego State game in a non-NFL venue since Nov. 26, 2011. The Aztecs' last six games were all played in facilities that play host to the National Football League - Qualcomm Stadium (four times), CenturyLink Field (once, vs. Washington in the 2012 opener) and the Mercedes-Benz Superdome (once, vs. Louisiana-Lafayette in the R+L Carrier New Orleans Bowl).

OBSCURE NOTES OF THE WEEK

There were plenty of oddities in San Diego State's game last week against San Jose State. The Spartans won 38-34, despite the fact the Aztecs had sizable advantages in total offense (484-367) and time of possession (37:55-22:05). Working against the Aztecs was field position, which at a minus-29-yard average, was the worst in school history. Below is a look at the odd outcome.

- San Diego State enjoyed a 117-yard advantage in total offense. Since 1969 (the beginning of the Division I era), Saturday marked just the 11th time San Diego State has lost a game in which it had that big of an advantage in total offense. Now, the Aztecs are 125-11-1 when owning at least a 117-yard advantage in the category.
- San Diego State controlled the clock to the tune of 37:55 in time of possession. That is the fourth most ToP for San Diego State in a loss in the Division I era and the most time of possession in a loss since Oct. 7, 2006, when San Diego State lost at Brigham Young.
- The trend that SDSU could not shake was that of average field position. San Diego State's average field position was the 18-yard line, while San Jose State started on its' own 47-yard line. The 29-yard margin was the worst in San Diego State's 503 games at the Division I level. In fact, San Diego State is 0-19-1 when facing at least a minus-15-yard margin in average field position. Saturday's deficit was nearly twice that large.
- On Saturday, San Diego State started three drives at or inside its own 10-yard line on three occasions and eight times started at or inside its own 20-yard line. San Jose State started in Aztec territory four times, not including a kickoff return for touchdown.

PROGRAM TIDBITS

- Entering the games this weekend, San Diego State has compiled the nation's second-highest winning percentage in combined football and men's basketball since the beginning of the 2010-11 academic year. - Adding the success of the women's basketball program at SDSU, which has advanced to NCAA Tournament play in two of the last three seasons, further demonstrates the department's overall success. Combining football, men's basketball and women's basketball records since the beginning of last season, San Diego State owns the seventh-best winning percentage in the country, trailing only Baylor, Stanford, Kentucky, Notre Dame, Brigham Young and Ohio State. See chart previous page
- The Aztecs have posted a 19-11 record since the beginning of the 2010 season after needing 61 games to claim 19 victories prior to the 2010 (SDSU went 19-42 during that stretch from the final game of the 2004 season through the end of 2009 campaign). The 19-11 record since the beginning of the 2010 season is tied for the 35th-best mark in the country and is the third-best in the state of California during that time.

7. San Jose State	9-20	31.0

- Through 17 games, Rocky Long has a 10-7 record as SDSU's head coach. That is the best 17-game start to a coaching career at San Diego State since Claude Gilbert opened his tenure with a 14-2-1 record in the 1973 and 1974 seasons.
- SDSU opens the 2012 campaign after advancing to bowl games each of the last two seasons (Poinsettia Bowl in 2010 and New Orleans Bowl in 2011). San Diego State has never gone to bowl games in three consecutive years.
- The Aztecs play seven home games in 2012, which ties for the program's highest number since 1976. SDSU just concluded a three-game homestand, its longest in a decade, last Saturday against San Jose State.
- Despite serving as an assistant coach at San Diego State for two seasons (2009-10), Rocky Long is currently the second-winningest coach in Mountain West history. Long has 72 wins while a member of the league, trailing only TCU's Gary Patterson (77 wins). With TCU no longer in the league, Long needs five victories to tie the record and six to break it. The other nine active coaches in the league entered the season with a combined 75 wins while their teams have been a member of the conference.
- The Aztecs have played 64 student-athletes through four games, with 47 of those seeing action in all four contests. Only 11 seniors saw action in the opening contest at Washington and two of those (quarterback Ryan Katz and wide receiver Brice Butler) were playing in their first game with SDSU. San Diego State started only six seniors against the Huskies and just five seniors against the Army.
- The Aztecs only have five seniors listed as starters on the current depth chart, three on offense (RG Nike Embernate, C Alec Johnson, QB Ryan Katz) and two on defense (CB Leon McFadden and CB Josh Wade).
- To date, SDSU has had 24 players make their first appearance in a San Diego State game and has had eight players on the offensive or defensive side of the ball make their first start with the Aztecs.

OFFENSIVE QUICK HITS

- San Diego State returns seven starters on offense from last season's 2011 team that scored 387 points, the second-highest total for an Aztec squad in the last 15 seasons.
- Through four games this season, San Diego State is averaging more points (34.2 in 2012, 29.8 in 2011) and more total offense (446.8 in 2012 and 427.4 in 2011) than last season.
- SDSU has four offensive players appearing on preseason watch lists for the top player at their position in the country - junior tight end Gavin Escobar (John Mackey Award Watch List (TE), Rotary Lombardi Award Watch List (lineman)), senior center Alec Johnson (Rimington Trophy Watch List (center)), senior running back Walter Kazee (Doak Walker Award Watch List (RB)) and sophomore wide receiver Colin Lockett (Biletnikoff Award Watch List (WR)).
- San Diego State has scored 125 points in the last three games combined. It is the second-highest three-game output since midway through the 1996 season (a span of 188 games).
- The 49 points against North Dakota two weeks ago matches the highest single-game total for San Diego State since it scored 52 against Portland State on Sept. 22, 2007.
- The Aztecs produced a pair of 100-yard rushers against North Dakota as sophomore Adam Muema (124 yards) and senior Walter Kazee (105 yards) each reached the century mark. It is the 15th time in school history that two players rushed for 100 or more yards in the same game and the first time since Oct. 17, 1998. SDSU is 14-1 in those occurrences.
- San Diego State has 15 drives this season of 70 or more yards.
- With five turnovers this year (three in the first game against Washington), the Aztecs are tied for 40th nationally in fewest turnovers.
- SDSU is one of two schools nationally to have two individuals ranked in the top 60 in rushing yards per game and have an individual among the top 20 in passing efficiency rating. Louisiana Tech is the other school.

- Although San Diego State looks to replace third-round NFL Draft selection Ronnie Hillman, the Aztecs have quality depth at the position. Sophomore Adam Muema rushed for 119 yards and two touchdowns against 10th-ranked Boise State in a game last season. This season, Muema is off and running, with 456 yards, four touchdowns and a 7.1 yard-per-rush average through four games. Also in the backfield is senior Walter Kazee. A career 1,000-yard rusher, Kazee's season was cut short in 2011 when he suffered a knee injury at Colorado State. In four games this season, Kazee has 332 rushing yards and five rushing touchdowns, and is averaging 6.5 yards per carry.
- San Diego State is one of six teams in the nation to have two running backs ranked among the top 60 in average rushing yards per game. Muema is 13th at 115.25 and Kazee is 56th at 83.00.
- The Aztecs have had just four student-athletes start at quarterback since Nov. 18, 2006. During that 68-game stretch, Kevin O'Connell (15 games during the 2006-07 seasons), Drew Westling (1 game; vs. Air Force on Oct. 11, 2008) and Ryan Lindley (49 games during the 2008-09-10-11 seasons). In the season opener, senior Oregon State transfer Katz become the fourth SDSU player to start over the 66-game stretch (now 69 games).
- Although Katz made his first appearance at San Diego State in the game at Washington, he comes to The Mesa with a wealth of experience. A native of Santa Monica, Calif., Katz started 14 consecutive games for the Beavers, including all 12 of the 2010 campaign. Among his highlights was a 17-for-24, two-touchdown performance in an upset victory over USC during his sophomore campaign.
- Although we are only through four games, senior quarterback Katz' quarterback efficiency rating of 165.3 would rank as the second-highest single-season figure in school history if the season ended today. The only QB with a single-season rating hire than Katz current figure is Billy Blanton, who recorded a 169.6 figure in 1996.
- Katz has been very impressive to date. He is 18th nationally in passing efficiency rating, having completed 52-of-85 passes for 797 yards. He has seven touchdowns and just one interception, which came on his second pass attempt in the season-opener against Washington. He currently has gone 83 passes without throwing an interception.
- Last season, due to graduation and injury, the Aztecs' combined receiving corps ended the campaign with four career catches for 39 yards. That has changed significantly in 12 months as SDSU entered the 2012 campaign with a Biletnikoff Award candidate and preseason all-Mountain West selection in junior Colin Lockett (10 catches, 169 yards, two touchdowns), who was a former walk-on who had five or more catches six times last season, including three times in his final four games, in junior Dylan Denso (49 catches, 634 yards and 3 TDs in 2011) and highly decorated USC transfer senior Brice Butler (four catches, 76 yards and one touchdown this season). Making his long-awaited collegiate debut in the opener was Ezell Ruffin, who already has six catches for 143 yards this season. And don't forget the tight end, Gavin Escobar, who has a team-high 14 catches for 205 yards and two touchdowns this season.
- The offensive line is anchored by two returning starters - senior center Alec Johnson and senior right guard Nik Emberate. Joining the two seniors on the offensive line is converted tight end, now left guard junior Bryce Quigley, junior left guard Japheth Gordon and sophomore right tackle Zach Dilley. The only new member of the coaching staff, former SDSU offensive lineman Mike Schmidt, leads the unit.
- San Diego State has gone 68 games without suffering a shutout (Nov. 18, 2006 at TCU). That is the only time the Aztecs have been shutout in their last 163 games.

DEFENSIVE QUICK HITS

- SDSU returns six starters off a squad that has continually gotten better under the direction of second-year head coach Rocky Long, who is in his fourth season as the defensive coordinator. Statistically one of the nation's worst units less than five years ago, Long has transitioned the San Diego State defense into one of the most feared units on the West Coast. Below is a look at the progress made under Long's direction.

- In the 20 drives prior to the North Dakota game, San Diego State's defense allowed a total of seven points. At one point, the Aztecs went 16 drives (last seven of the Washington game and first nine of the Army game) without allowing an offensive point.
- SDSU is led on defense by Mountain West preseason defensive player of the year, senior cornerback Leon McFadden. McFadden is on the preseason watch list for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy (best defensive player) and the Jim Thorpe Award (DB). McFadden, who has been a first-team all-Mountain West selection the past two seasons, is looking to become the school's fourth three-time first-team all-league selection, joining Marshall Faulk, Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila and Kirk Morrison.

- Plenty of other defensive players received preseason attention from at least one publication. Junior Aztec back Nat Berhe and sophomore linebacker Jake Fely were among the players getting attention. Berhe is the top returning tackler of the 2011 squad, and has a team-high 31 stops this season.
- McFadden has recorded an interception in each of the last two games and he now has seven career picks.
- SDSU has forced a turnover in 10 straight games, including three or more six times in the last 16 games.
- San Diego State has allowed a total of 590 yards rushing in its last six games combined (98.3). The Aztec defense has held its opponent to 100 yards or less on the ground in five of the last 10 games.
- In the opener at Washington, the SDSU defense allowed just 14 points (the Huskies had a fumble return for touchdown) and 328 yards of total offense against one of the most potent offensive attacks in the country. In 2011, Washington averaged 33.38 points to rank 25th nationally and 409.85 yards (38th in the nation).
- The Huskies scored 21 points off three drives that accumulated a total of 97 yards of offense.
- The Aztecs held Washington without a point on its final seven possessions of the game. That is something that no team did against the Huskies in 2011.
- Against Army, SDSU held the Black Knights scoreless until there was 5:54 left in the third quarter.
- San Diego State held Army well below its 2011 season averages in rushing yards (282 allowed, 346.50 average in 2011) and total yards (332 allowed, 396.92 average in 2011).
- Against North Dakota, the Leon McFadden intercepted a pass on UND's first offensive play of the game and took it 28 yards for the touchdown. It was the Aztecs' first defensive touchdown since Nov. 13, 2012, at No. 3 TCU and their first interception return for a score since Luke Laolagi returned one 55 yards at UNLV on Nov. 28, 2009.

In their final regular-season home game, the Aztecs sent their 21 seniors out in style by scoring the deciding touchdown with only 1:09 remaining on a 2-yard run by Hillman.

That final score capped an evening that saw SDSU fall behind 21-0 mid-way through the second quarter. The Bulldogs notched the first points of the game on a blocked field goal, as Isaiah Green rumbled 59 yards for the touchdown. The Aztecs tried to answer on their very next possession, but came up empty as they turned it over after Hillman was denied at the goal-line on fourth down.

Using that momentum, Fresno State quickly doubled its lead when Derek Carr connected with Jalen Saunders on an 88-yard TD pass. The Bulldogs weren't done though, as they extended their lead to 21-0 on a 23-yard touchdown pass from Carr to Josh Harper with 9:14 left until the break.

The Aztecs, who rallied from a 14-point deficit a week earlier, finally woke up with two scores in the final six minutes of the second quarter on a 20-yard Hillman run and a 1-yard fourth-down plunge by full-back Chad Young to get to within seven at 21-14.

As they have done all season, San Diego State came out in the second half as a completely different team, as the defense held the Bulldogs scoreless in third quarter. The offense, meanwhile, scored a touchdown for the third consecutive possession, which was set up by a 68-yard Hillman run, to knot the game at 21.

After a punt and a missed field goal by Fresno State, the Aztecs took their first lead of the game on another 2-yard touchdown run by Hillman.

The visitors, however, responded back with a time consuming 11-play, 68-yard drive that took 5:32 off the clock and resulted in a 2-yard run by Robbie Rouse.

After each team traded punts, SDSU put together the game-winning drive that was capped by Hillman's fourth score of the night.

The Bulldogs had one last opportunity with 1:09 remaining and the ball on SDSU's 47-yard line, but Larry Parker recorded his seventh interception of the season to clinch the victory for the Aztecs.

LAST TIME OUT: SAN JOSE STATE 38, SAN DIEGO STATE 34

- Sept. 22, 2012 | Qualcomm Stadium | San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO -- Adam Muema rushed for a career-high 202 yards, but San Diego State was outscored, 21-10, in the final quarter of a 38-34 loss to San Jose State at Qualcomm Stadium. The crazy final quarter featured one tie and four lead changes.

Muema got his 202 yards on a career-high 25 carries and scored on a 83-yard touchdown run. Muema became the 18th Aztec in program history with a 200-yard rushing game.

Walter Kazee added 90 yards and a touchdown on the ground, while Ryan Katz threw for 213 yards and two scores. Gavin Escobar led SDSU with five catches and a touchdown for 46 yards, while Colin Lockett had three receptions for 73 yards, including a 40-yard TD catch with just 2:24 remaining to put San Diego State up, 34-31.

Behind quarterback David Fales, the Spartans rallied with a 5-play, 65-yard drive that culminated with a 14-yard pass to Chandler Jones with just 50 seconds left.

It was the final dagger for the Aztecs, who couldn't mount one more comeback.

Fales finished the game 21-for-31 for 260 yards and four touchdowns to give SJSU its third straight win in the series.

KATZ ESTABLISHING HIMSELF AS ONE OF THE TOP QBs IN WEST

- Senior transfer Ryan Katz is making the most of his one season on The Mesa. After transferring from Oregon State prior to the 2012 spring semester, Katz was named the starter following the first week of fall camp.
- A dual-threat quarterback, he has made the most of his opportunities in the first four games.
- Earlier this season, he guided San Diego State to consecutive games with at least 42 points for the first time since 1996. Senior Billy Blanton was in his third season as a starter the last time that occurred.
- Katz posted a career-high three-touchdown performance in which he was 11-of-18 for 241 yards with no interceptions against North Dakota. He recorded a passing efficiency rating of 228.58, which is the seventh-highest in school history.
- He also added 60 rushing yards in that contest, the second most of his career.
- His seven touchdown passes this season have been thrown to five different receivers. He has a pass completion to 10 different receivers through the first four games of this season.
- He has not thrown an interception since the first drive of the season (his second pass attempt of the 2012 campaign). He enters Saturday with a streak of 83 consecutive pass attempts without an interception and has seven touchdown strikes during that span. SDSU has thrown 86 pass attempts since the last interception.
- Katz enters this week's game ranked 18th in passing efficiency in the nation and second in the Mountain West Conference at 165.26. If the season ended today that would be the second highest passer rating in school history, trailing only Billy Blanton's school-record of 169.6 set in 1996.

LONG HAS BEST DEBUT SEASON IN PROGRAM HISTORY

- Rocky Long, the school's 18th head coach, became the first San Diego State coach to lead the team to a bowl game in his inaugural season.
- Long is 10-7 in his first 17 games at San Diego State. He has produced the best 17-game coaching record since Claude Gilbert opened his tenure with a 14-2-1 record. Long's win total through 17 games is three higher than his predecessor, Brady Hoke (7-10).
- Rocky Long posted an 8-5 record in his first season as head coach of the Aztecs. That is the highest victory total in a SDSU head coaching debut season since Denny Stolz finished 8-4 in his first year in 1986.
- With eight first-year wins, Rocky Long had one more coaching victory in his inaugural season than the previous two San Diego State coaches combined (Brady Hoke went 4-8 in 2009 and Chuck Long was 3-9 in 2006).
- Last season marked the third time in Rocky Long's head coaching career that his team won at least eight games (also 2007 and 2003). His squads have won six or more games in eight of his last nine seasons as a head coach.
- Last year, Long helped guide the Aztecs to their first 3-0 start in 30 years, ended the program's 19-game losing streak to Pac-10/12 foes, snapped SDSU's 23-game losing streak to automatic qualifying BCS teams and gave the program its first win in the Eastern time zone since 1972, all in the opening month of the season.
- San Diego State finished the 2011 season above .500 for only the second time in the last 13 seasons.
- The Aztecs won eight games in a campaign for just the second time in the last 15 seasons.
- Long has 72 victories while coaching teams in the Mountain West. That is the second-highest total in the history of the conference.

SDSU FOOTBALL ACCEPTS INVITE TO JOIN THE BIG EAST

■ The BIG EAST Conference announced in December 2011 that San Diego State University has accepted an invitation to join the league in the sport of football beginning with the 2013-14 academic year.

SDSU joins Boise State, Houston, Southern Methodist and Central Florida as the newest members of the league. The aforementioned five will join a football league that also consists of Cincinnati, Connecticut, Louisville, Rutgers and South Florida.

"I am extremely excited about our prospects for joining the BIG EAST in football," San Diego State University President Dr. Elliot Hirshman said. "This new conference affiliation will provide extraordinary opportunities for our student-athletes, our coaches and staff, our alumni and supporters and the entire University."

"This is a very important day in the history of the San Diego State athletic department," SDSU Athletic Director Jim Sterk said. "This affiliation with the BIG EAST Conference allows us to compete at the highest level in college football. This will give the athletic department and University attention on a national stage that we have not had before."

The BIG EAST is one of six conferences with an automatic berth to one of five Bowl Championship Series (BCS) games. The BCS includes the Rose Bowl Game, Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, Allstate Sugar Bowl, Discover Orange Bowl and the Allstate BCS National Championship Game.

In addition to the BCS automatic berth, the BIG EAST has tie-ins to the Champs Sports Bowl (Orlando, Fla.), Belk Bowl (Charlotte, N.C.), New Era Pinstripe Bowl (Bronx, N.Y.), BBVA Compass Bowl (Birmingham, Ala.), AutoZone Liberty Bowl (Memphis, Tenn.) and Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl St. Petersburg (St. Petersburg, Fla.).

The move to the BIG EAST provides San Diego State's football program with national television exposure through ABC, ESPN, BIG EAST Network, SportsNet New York (SNY) and the BIG EAST/IMG Sports National Radio Network.

San Diego State, which led the Mountain West in average home attendance this season (39,865), has a storied football tradition having won 18 conference championships and participated in nine bowl games, including last season's Poinsettia Bowl, which resulted in a 35-14 victory over Navy. A year after posting a 9-4 record, the Aztecs finished the 2011 season with an 8-4 mark and recently accepted an invitation to the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl where they will face Louisiana-Lafayette on Dec. 17. The back-to-back bowl appearances mark the first time San Diego State has accomplished that feat in its Division I history.

Individually, SDSU has produced 144 NFL draft picks, including 52 top-100 selections, and 104 All-Americans, including 19 first-teamers. In 2011 alone, San Diego State had the nation's third-leading rusher and had seven all-conference first-team picks, two second-teamers and one honorable mention choice.

NAT BERHE EARNS MOUNTAIN WEST DEFENSIVE POW HONORS

■ San Diego State junior football player Nat Berhe has been named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Week, for his efforts in the Aztecs' victory over Army on Sept. 8. It is the second career weekly honor for the Colton, Calif., native.

■ Berhe, a defensive back, had a career-high 14 tackles, including 10 solo stops, to lead SDSU to a 42-7 victory over Army on Saturday. He also had one tackle for a loss and a pass breakup while anchoring a defense that forced three turnovers and limited the Black Knights to just 50 yards passing.

■ Berhe and the San Diego State defense held Army without an offensive score for its first nine possessions of the game before a Black Knight scored with 5:54 left to play in the third quarter. The touchdown snapped the Aztecs' streak of not allowing an offensive score at 16 possessions (also last seven at Washington), which was a total of 86:41 of clock time.

■ Berhe's 14 tackles were the second most in a game in the MW this season and tied for 16th nationally, while his 10 solo stops lead the conference and tie for the third-best performance among all FBS players.

■ In three games this year, Berhe leads SDSU with 26 tackles, including 17 solo stops, 2.0 TFL, a fumble recovery and two pass breakups. He is tied for sixth in the league with 11.00 tackles per game.

FIVE AZTECS ON WATCH LISTS

■ San Diego State has placed five student-athletes on preseason national award watch lists in 2012. Junior tight end Gavin Escobar, senior center Alec Johnson, senior running back Walter Kazee, junior Colin Lockett and senior Leon McFadden are on the initial short list for their positions' top honors.

Escobar (Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif.) is one of 33 players on the John Mackey Award Watch List (most outstanding tight end) and one of 145 on the Rotary Lombardi Award Watch List (top lineman). Last season, the Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif., native reeled in 51 catches for 780 yards and seven touchdowns. His 51 receptions and 780 receiving yards were the second most by a tight end in school history. Escobar averaged 60.00 receiving yards per game, which were the third most in the country among tight ends. He ended up earning all-Mountain West honors for the second consecutive season (first team in 2011, second team in 2010). Escobar is on the preseason all-conference team for this year. This season, Escobar leads the Aztecs with 14 catches and 205 receiving yards.

Johnson (Denver, Colo.) is one of 51 players on the Rimington Trophy Award Watch List (best center). Johnson, one of SDSU's two returning starters on the offensive line, enters the 2012 campaign having made 29 career starts and is slated to start at center for the second consecutive year. Last season, Johnson never missed a game despite breaking his snapping hand (right) in the Aztecs' season opener. The MW academic all-conference honoree also helped SDSU rush for nearly 2,400 yards as well as finish among the nation's leaders in fewest sacks allowed (T-7th, 0.85 per game) and in fewest tackles for a loss allowed (15th, 4.46 per game).

Kazee (San Bernardino, Calif.) is one of 52 candidates on the Doak Walker Award Watch List (top running back). Last year, Kazee rushed for 339 yards and four touchdowns on 74 carries (4.6 yards per rush) before a knee injury in the ninth game sidelined him for the rest of the season. Kazee also caught eight passes for 89 yards. For his career, Kazee has 1,362 rushing yards and 14 touchdowns on 278 rushes (4.9 yards per carry). Additionally, Kazee has 190 yards receiving on 20 catches. This year, Kazee has 332 yards on just 51 carries (6.5 yards per carry) to go along with a career-high five rushing touchdowns.

Lockett (Diamond Bar, Calif.) is one of 48 athletes on the Biletnikoff Award Watch List (most outstanding wide receiver). Lockett led SDSU in receiving last year with 970 yards and his 74.6 receiving yards per game ranked fourth in the conference. Lockett also tallied 678 yards on special teams in 2010, including a 94-yard kickoff return touchdown in the season opener against Cal Poly. He's also on the 2012 preseason all-conference team. Lockett has 10 catches this season for 169 yards and two touchdowns. He also has 12 kickoff returns for 355 yards (29.6 average per kickoff return), including a career-long 96-yard return for a touchdown vs. Army.

McFadden (Inglewood, Calif.) is one of 84 players on the Bronco Nagurski Trophy Award Watch List (best defensive player) and one of 35 on the Jim Thorpe Award Watch List (best defensive back). McFadden, who became the first San Diego State player to be named a preseason player of the year (offense, defense or special teams) in July, is looking to become the fifth Aztec in program history to earn first-team all-conference honors in three consecutive years. Last year, McFadden led the league in passes defended (17), while recording 46 tackles (35 solo), two interceptions and a sack. This year, McFadden has recorded 19 tackles, five pass breakups and a 28-yard interception return for a touchdown.

SDSU TABBED TO FINISH FIFTH BY LEAGUE MEDIA

■ The San Diego State football team is picked to finish fifth in the Mountain West preseason poll, which was released on July 24. The Aztecs had 173 points in the 2012 preseason poll, which is voted on by media representatives who cover the conference.

The fifth-place projection is SDSU's second highest in the last eight years. Last season, San Diego State was selected fourth and finished fourth. It marked the sixth time in the last seven years that the Aztecs finished at or higher than their projected finish. SDSU also picked up one of the 30 first-place votes, a first in its 14-year history of the MW.

Boise State was picked to win the league with 296 points, including 27 first-place votes. Only 74 points separated the second-place team (Nevada, 244 points) and the sixth-place team (Air Force, 170 points). Fresno State was third with 231 points and two first-place votes, while Wyoming (213 points) and SDSU (173 points) rounded out the top five at fourth and fifth, respectively.

MCFADDEN NAMED MW PRESEASON DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

■ San Diego State defensive back Leon McFadden has been selected as the Mountain West Preseason Defensive Player of the Year, the league announced in July. McFadden was joined on the preseason all-conference team by tight end Gavin Escobar and wide receiver Colin Lockett.

McFadden became the first San Diego State player to be named a preseason player of the year (offense, defense or special teams). McFadden, who is looking to become the fifth Aztec in program history to earn first-team all-conference honors in three consecutive years, is on the preseason watch list for the Nagurski Award (top defensive player) and the Thorpe Award (top defensive back). He's also the third player in the last 11 years (also Kirk Morrison and Lynell Hamilton) to be named to the preseason all-conference team for a second time. The Inglewood, Calif., native led the league in passes defended (17) last year, while recording 46 tackles (35 solo), two interceptions and a sack.

Escobar, who is on the preseason watch list for the Lombardi Award (top lineman) and the Mackey Award (top tight end), had 51 catches a year ago for 780 yards and seven touchdowns. His 60.00 receiving yards per game in 2011 were the third most in the nation among tight ends. The Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif., native was an honorable mention All-American last year by Sports Illustrated after earning freshman All-America accolades by Sporting News in 2010.

A member of the Biletnikoff Award Watch List (most outstanding wide receiver), Lockett led SDSU in receiving last year with 970 yards. Lockett, who also had 58 catches and eight touchdowns, averaged 74.6 receiving yards per game, which ranked fourth in the conference. Lockett also tallied 678 yards on special teams in 2011, including a 94-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in the season-opener against Cal Poly.

SDSU ANNOUNCES TEAM CAPTAINS

■ San Diego State head coach Rocky Long announced that seniors Leon McFadden, Walter Kazee and Dominique Sandifer have been named football team captains for the upcoming 2012 season. This year, the special teams captain will be selected on a week-by-week basis.

McFadden, a senior defensive back from Inglewood, Calif., has played in 42 games in his three-plus seasons as an Aztec. McFadden had a solid season last year recording 46 tackles in 13 contests, had two interceptions and averaged almost six yards per carry on punt returns. McFadden ranked No. 1 in the Mountain West for the second consecutive year and 12th nationally in passes defended with 17, including six more breakups than any other player in the league. He enters 2012 as the preseason Mountain West defensive player of the year.

Kazee, a senior running back from San Bernardino, Calif., has tallied 1,362 total yards in his 34-game career at SDSU. Kazee had one of his best seasons last year in becoming SDSU's second-leading rusher with 339 yards on 74 carries and four scores. He was also effective in the passing game as he tallied eight catches for 89 yards (11.1 ypc).

Sandifer, a senior wide receiver from Gardena, Calif., is a two-year letterwinner who had his 2011 season derailed by injury. Prior to his setback, he played in 23 straight games from 2009-2010 in 2010 and was part of the 2010 Poinsettia Bowl team. He is one of two senior wide receivers, but the only one to have worn a SDSU uniform. In his first two seasons, he tallied 561 yards, averaging 11.5 yards per reception.

GAME #1 RECAP: WASHINGTON 21, SDSU 12

GAME #1
San Diego State	12
Washington	21
Sept. 1, 2012 Seattle, Wash. CenturyLink Field 53,742

SEATTLE -- San Diego State was unable to overcome an early deficit and three turnovers in a 21-12 loss at Washington in the 2012 season opener for both teams.

The Aztecs threw an interception on their first drive and punted on a three and out on their second, and the Huskies took advantage with touchdowns on both possessions.

UW, which took over on the SDSU 35 after the interception, got in the end zone on a two-yard run by Bishop Sankey.

Quarterback Keith Price drove Washington 62 yards on the team's next drive, culminating in a 8-yard pass to Kasen Williams.

After the slow start, the San Diego State defense stood tall the rest of the way, limiting the Huskies to 231 yards and no points on their final seven drives.

The Aztecs got on the scoreboard on the first play of the second quarter when quarterback Ryan Katz found a wide-open Tim Vizzi on the left side, who ran 47 yards for the touchdown. SDSU, however, failed on the 2-point conversion.

Early in the third quarter, UW safety Will Shamburger returned a fumble 44 yards to give the home team the 21-6 advantage.

Adam Muema completed an 11-play, 71-yard drive in the fourth when he pounded it in on a 4th and 1. But once again, San Diego State was unable to convert the 2-point conversion and trailing, 21-12.

After forcing Washington to punt, the Aztecs tried to mount another scoring drive. They went 76 yards, highlighted by a 26-yard run by Walter Kazee and a 32-yard pass from Katz to Colin Lockett. SDSU got to the Huskies' 8-yard line on third down, but missed on consecutive pass attempts, giving the ball back to UW.

Washington ran most of the 4:44 left on the clock and San Diego State's last-ditch effort fell short in the 21-12 setback. It was the Aztecs' first season-opening loss since 2009.

Kazee, who missed the end of last year with a knee injury, ran for a game-high 86 yards on nine carries, his highest total since the first game of the 2009 season and the first game of his career.

Katz added a career-high 77 yards on the ground and passed for another 128. Lockett led all Aztecs with four catches and 48 yards in the loss.

SDSU had multiple turnovers for only the second time in its last nine games, dating back to last year. San Diego State finished the 2011 season with just one turnover over its final three games.

TEAM NOTES

* Average starting fielding position: San Jose State's 47-yard line; San Diego State 18-yard line. The -29-yard margin in average fielding position is the worst in the 503 Division I games played in school history. The Aztecs are now 0-19-1 when owning a 15-yard margin in average field position or worse in a game.

* Total offense: San Diego State - 484 yards; San Jose State - 367 yards. This marks a rare loss when San Diego State has this wide of an advantage in total offense. The Aztecs drop to 125-11-1 in the Division I era when owning a 117-yard or greater advantage in total offense.

* SDSU had won eight consecutive September home games prior to tonight, which was the second-longest September home winning streak in the Division I era. The team's last loss (before tonight) in a September home game was a 52-23 setback to 24th-ranked Cincinnati on Sept. 29, 2007.

* Through 17 games, Rocky Long is now 10-7 as San Diego State's head coach. That is still the best 17-game start to an Aztec coaching career since Claude Gilbert opened his tenure with a 14-2-1 record in the 1973 and 1974 seasons.

* San Diego State had a fumble on a punt return in the first quarter. It was the team's first turnover since the third quarter of the opening game at Washington. SDSU went 160 minutes, 10 seconds (160:10) of game time without a turnover until the Tim Vizzi fumble.

* San Diego State later fumbled on offense. The Aztecs had gone 164 offensive plays without a turnover prior to the Walter Kazez fumble.

* SDSU allowed a kickoff return for a touchdown. It was the first allowed by San Diego State since Oct. 28, 2000 vs. Colorado State.

* The Aztecs gained over 200 yards rushing for the eighth time in 12 games.
