THE ARIZONA GAME

- San Diego State returns to the site of its first-ever Division I NCAA Tournament victories, the McKale Center, on Wednesday. A year ago, the second-seeded Aztecs defeated Northern Colorado and Temple to earn a berth in the 2011 Sweet 16.
- SDSU, which defeated the Wildcats in its last meeting in 2009, is looking for back-to-back vic-

- tories over Arizona for the first time since sweeping a home-and-home series during the 1971-72 and 1972-73 seasons.
- The Aztecs, who beat USC last Thursday, is looking to improve to 2-0 this season vs. Pac-12 Conference schools and extend their winning streak to seven against the league.

SDSU Faces Another Stern Test Wednesday at Arizona

- SDSU, which is receiving votes in both major basketball polls, continues its most challenging non-conference schedule in recent memory on Wednesday when it faces No. 23/23 Arizona in a pre-Thanksgiving test at McKale Center. The game is set for 6:30 p.m. MT and will be aired live on FS Arizona Plus.
- Through Monday's games, SDSU is tied with Alabama, Duke, Indiana, Marquette and Valparaiso for the most victories in Division I (5).
- For the second time this season and second time in nine days, the Aztecs, who have won two straight games, will hit the road and face a nationally ranked team. Last Tuesday, San Diego State played its fourth game in five days at No. 11/12 Baylor and were ultimately downed, 77-67.
- The Aztecs rebounded from their lone loss of the season by returning home and beating USC and upstart Long Beach State, which was coming off a road victory at No. 9 Pittsburgh. SDSU trailed at halftime in both games and rallied to take the lead midway through the second half. In their most recent outing, the Aztecs needed overtime to defeat the 49ers and were carried by Jamaal Franklin's 21 points and nine rebounds, James Rahon's 20 points and Xavier Thames' 15.

One of the Elite

- At 5-1, San Diego State is 39-4 (90.7 winning percentage) since the beginning of last season. A year ago, the Aztecs, who finished sixth in the final AP poll and 11th in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' Poll, finished with a 34-3 record after winning the Mountain West regular-season and tournament championships and appearing in the Sweet 16.
- The San Diego State program as a whole, when it comes to football and men's basketball, is the best in the country when it comes to combined victories among FBS schools. Since the 2010 football campaign, the Aztecs are an impressive 55-12 (82.1 percent) in football and men's hoops through Monday's games. Alabama owns the second-most combined wins with 50. Overall, the Crimson Tide is 50-16 in men's basketball and football.

A San Diego State Win Would...

- Extend San Diego State's winning streak to 48 games against unranked opponents.
- Extend the Aztecs winning streak over the Pac-12 to seven.
- Extend SDSU's road/neutral winning streak over Pac-12 members to five.
- Extend San Diego State's winning streak over Arizona to a school-record-tying two.
- Give the Aztecs six wins through the first seven games for the fifth time in the last six years.

Challenging Start

- San Diego State is in the midst of a stretch where it will play eight games in 16 days.
- The Aztecs started the campaign with three home games in three days before spending its preparation day traveling to Waco, Texas, for their date with No. 11/12 Baylor.
- After the Baylor game, SDSU had one day to prepare for USC and another day to prepare for Long Beach State, which was picked to win the Big West title and is receiving votes in both top-25 polls.
- Arizona, 2011 NCAA Elite Eight participants, is next up for San Diego State with UC Santa Barbara (2011 NCAA participant) due up immediately after on Saturday, Nov. 26. Both games are on the road.
- The Aztecs will get their first extended time off (12 days) after a road game at USD on Dec. 7. All told, San Diego State will play 11 games in 27 days.

Holding Its Own

- San Diego State went 10-73 in its first 83 games vs. teams ranked in the AP Top-25. Things have certainly turned as SDSU is a respectable 8-11 in its last 19 against AP-ranked squads. In road/neutral games vs. AP-ranked foes, the Aztecs have gone 3-4 in their last seven, with all seven being ranked in the top-15.

Series History vs. Arizona

- San Diego State trails the all-time series with the Wildcats, 20-6.
- The two schools are meeting for the fifth time in six seasons. Three of the previous four meetings have gone Arizona's way, but SDSU was victorious, 63-46, in their last get-together in 2009 in San Diego.
- SDSU is a less-than-impressive 1-14 vs. the Wildcats in Tucson and have lost all three games during Steve Fisher's tenure. San Diego State's only win at Arizona occurred on Dec. 9, 1971 (69-67).
- Three of SDSU's six wins in the series have come by double-digits, including the victory in 2009. The 17-point margin two seasons ago was the largest in series history.
- Next season, the schools are set to compete in the 2012 Diamond Head Classic in Honolulu, Hawaii, which could produce another match-up between two of the top programs in the West.

Steve Fisher vs. the Pac-12

- Fisher has won six straight vs. the Pac-12, including four straight at road/neutral sites.
- Steve Fisher vs. current Pac-12 members (21-40 overall): 2-9 vs. Arizona, 1-4 vs. Arizona State, 2-3 vs. California, 0-1 vs. Colorado, 1-0 vs. UCLA, 1-1 vs. USC, 12-17 vs. Utah, 1-3 vs. Washington and 1-2 vs. Washington State.

Wily Veteran

- Tim Shelton has been around the block being a fifth-year senior and his court savvy proves it.
- His effectiveness will never be shown on the stat sheet as he does things that head coach Steve Fisher says, "Wins games for you."
- Fisher's statement was never more true than in the game vs. Long Beach State as Shelton took at least four charges, which changed the complexion of the game, especially in the second half.

California Livin'

- San Diego State has been one of the best programs in the West, having won 20 or more games six straight seasons, including three consecutive with 25 or more, and advancing to the postseason in each of those years as well.
- Last year's 34-3 record and NCAA Sweet 16 appearance solidified its spot as one of the top West Coast programs and the top team in the state of California. The Aztecs have currently won 17 straight games against California universities, a streak that spans two-plus seasons.

Taking the "Free" in Free Throws Literally

- Jamaal Franklin is making a living at the free-throw line and is a major reason why he is averaging 18.0 points an outing.
- The sophomore started the season by missing his first two, but since then, it has been nothing but money in the bank as he has gone on to sink 22 of his last 24, including 20 in a row at one point, to get his average up to 84.6 percent.

Held in Check

- San Diego State is pretty much a lock to win when holding opponents to less than 60 points. The Aztecs extended their winning streak to 34 games when they limited USC to 54 points last Thursday.
- SDSU is 107-10 in the Fisher era when its opponents score less than 60 points.

Wearing Out the Nylon

- Junior Chase Tapley, the lone returning starter, has been a consistent scoring option for SDSU, averaging 16.5 points on 47.8 percent shooting and an even better 53.1 percent from beyond the arc.
- Tapley has three 20-point efforts already this season, including a career-high 28 at No. 11/12 Baylor.
- After going 0-3 from three-point range in the opener vs. Bryant, Tapley gone on to make 16 of his last 26 attempts (61.5 percent).
- Tapley, who had three 20-point games in four games earlier this season, is the first player to accomplish the feat since Kawhi Leonard did it in the first four games of last season, while averaging 20.5 points. Tapley and Leonard arrived at San Diego State together in time for the 2009-10 campaign. Leonard went on to become the 15th overall pick in the 2011 NBA Draft.

Rahon Returns

- Junior James Rahon returned to the lineup at No. 11/12 Baylor and was one of four players who scored in double figures. He finished with 10 points.
- The San Diego native injured his left foot the Wednesday prior to the Friday season opener and missed the Aztecs' first three games before being inserted into the starting lineup.
- Rahon played 29 minutes and established a career high with a team-best seven rebounds.

I See You

- The starting backcourt and childhood friends from Sacramento, Chase Tapley and Xavier Thames, are piling up the assists.
- Thames is averaging a team-best 5.3 assists after a career-high eight vs. Bryant and another seven vs. Southern Utah and UC Davis. Thames has led the team in the category in every game to date. Tapley, meanwhile, is averaging 2.5 assists, with six coming against Bryant.
- So far, the pee-wee football teammates have a combined 47 assists and 23 turnovers.
- The tandem is also getting it done in the scoring column as Tapley leads the team at 16.5 and Thames ranks fourth, scoring at a 10.8 clip.

Thief!

- Not only has Chase Tapley done work in the scoring and assist columns, the junior has made a living as a thief the first five games of the season. Entering the Arizona game, Tapley is averaging 3.5 steals, which leads the Mountain West.

- Against Bryant, Tapley had three steals and followed it with five in the 33-point blowout of Southern Utah. Then against UC Davis, the Sacramento native had a Steve Fisher-era-record seven. His 21 steals are six more than any player in the MW through Sunday's games.

Drastic Improvement

- Steve Fisher has said his team is a good free-throw shooting team. In the first two games, the Aztecs shot a combined 44.4 percent (20-for-45). Since then, San Diego State is connecting at a 76.1-percent clip (70-for-92). At No. 11/12 Baylor, SDSU finished at 85.0 percent (17-for-20) for the game and then followed it with an even-better 92.9-percent effort (13-for-14) vs. USC.

Turning Heads

- Jamaal Franklin is having a breakout sophomore season. As a true freshman, people saw flashes of it, like when he went for 13 points and 10 rebounds in 17 minutes vs. Utah.
- The Hawthorne, Calif., native ranks first on team in scoring (18.0) and is first in free-throw percentage (84.6 percent). He is also averaging 5.0 rebounds, which ranks third on the team.
- Franklin has scored in double figures in all five games and had a career-high 31-point outburst against UC Davis and 21 vs. Long Beach State.

Tapley Named MW Co-Player of the Week

- Chase Tapley was named Mountain West co-player of the week on Monday, Nov. 14. The award is the first of his career.
- Tapley averaged 19.7 rebounds, 5.0 rebounds, 3.7 assists and 5.0 steals, while shooting 54.3 percent from the field, 50.0 percent from three-point range and 77.8 percent from the charity stripe.
- Tapley helped SDSU start the season with a 3-0 record after putting up a pair of 20-point efforts.

Green Giant

- Garrett Green has been huge in the middle for the Aztecs as he is averaging a team-best 6.8 rebounds.
- His top performance to date include a game-high 11 rebounds vs. Bryant and Southern Utah. He has had at least seven rebounds three times this season.
- The senior nearly missed his second double-double of the season vs. Southern Utah after finishing with nine points and 11 boards. In the season opener, Green registered 14 points and 11 rebounds.

Nice Debut

- The game vs. Bryant represented the first official contests for Garrett Green (LSU), Xavier Thames (Washington State) and DeShawn Stephens (Santa Monica College) in a San Diego State uniform.
- The trio went a combined 17-for-27 from the floor (62.9 percent), scored 39 points, grabbed 21 rebounds, had 11 assists and just three miscues.
- Green had 14 points, 11 rebounds and three assists. Thames added 16 points, four rebounds and eight assists. Stephens chipped in with nine points and six rebounds.

Among the Nation's Best

- San Diego State has seen its name associated with the AP Top 25 for the last 22 polls.
- The Aztecs were in all 19 polls a season ago, peaking as high as No. 4 in 2010-11, and have seen their name in the preseason and weeks 1-2 polls.
- SDSU is receiving 12 votes in the AP, which is good for 34th, and eight in the coaches poll, which puts them in a tie for 39th.

Duo With Diplomas

- Seniors Tim Shelton and Garrett Green are in their final year having already obtained their bachelor's degrees.
- The frontline tandem is currently enrolled in graduate school and is pursuing their master's degrees in education leadership.
- Shelton graduated from San Diego State last May, while Green earned his degree from LSU in August.

Coaching Stability

- Steve Fisher is the longest tenured head coach in the 13-year history of the Mountain West. In fact, he is the only men's basketball coach to be in the league from the conference opened its doors.
- Associate head coach/head coach in waiting Brian Dutcher has also been with Fisher for all 13 years.

Mountain West Preseason Predictions

- San Diego State was picked to finish in third place in the 2011-12 preseason Mountain West media poll. The Aztecs received 158 points to finish behind New Mexico (203 points; 22 first-place votes) and UNLV (183; 4).
- Sophomore Xavier Thames was selected as the preseason Mountain West Newcomer of the Year by the league's voting media. Thames is eligible this season after sitting out 2010-11 following his transfer from Washington State.

STEVE FISHER

21st FULL SEASON • 13th SEASON AT SDSU • ILLINOIS STATE, 1967

Steve Fisher has guided the Aztec basketball program to unparalleled heights. In 12 seasons, he has taken a program that regularly missed out on the conference postseason tournament, to one which has become of the best programs on the West Coast and has the Aztecs routinely mentioned among the elite teams in the country.

The best news for SDSU fans is that the school exercised its contract option on Fisher prior to the 2011-12 season, which keeps the coach on Montezuma Mesa through 2014-15.

When Fisher arrived on the scene in March of 1999, he found a basketball program that wasn't good enough to be called average. The Aztecs had suffered through 13 losing seasons in 14 years. Members of the school's last NCAA team were in the early stages of middle age. The expectations were set. The Aztecs were expected to lose. The year before Fisher's arrival on campus, San Diego State won just four games.

Now those days are a distant memory. Fisher guided San Diego State to the NCAA Tournament in 2002, 2006, 2010 and 2011, the last of which culminated with a 34-3 record and an appearance in the Sweet 16. Fisher has also taken the Aztecs to the NIT in 2003, 2007, 2008 and 2009. In 2009, SDSU advance to the national semifinals. San Diego State has currently been to the postseason six straight years.

On March 26, 1999, San Diego State announced its arrival on the basketball scene in the form of a news conference to introduce its new coach, Steve Fisher. Fresh from a stint with the Sacramento Kings and with three appearances in the Final Four and a national championship in his pocket, he rolled up his sleeves and went to work. And work was needed. It looked to be a daunting challenge and yet the man with one of the highest winning percentages in NCAA Tournament history had no reservations.

No head-coaching career, at any level, started quicker than that of Steve Fisher. Six games into his head-coaching career he was undefeated and sporting a national championship ring. And the success didn't stop with the national title.

Fisher's eight-plus seasons at Michigan produced a 184-82 (.692) record, nine postseason tournament berths and three trips to the NCAA championship game, including the magical run to the 1989 national title.

Under Fisher, the Wolverines also claimed an NIT championship, won at least 20 games four times and finished among the top three in the powerful Big Ten Conference five times. In 1995, Michigan set a league record by holding opponents to just 39.4 percent shooting from the floor.

Fisher and Co., raised the bar even higher in the postseason. His seven NCAA Tournament teams at Michigan combined for a 20-6 record, which put him fourth among active coaches and ninth in NCAA history with a winning percentage of .769 in the national bracket after his stint in Ann Arbor. Only 13 coaches have taken more teams to the Final Four, including just five that are still active. He is one of three coaches to take three squads to the Final Four in the first five years of a head-coaching career, and one of just six coaches to lead a team to a NIT title as well as the NCAA.

His accomplishments may be even greater at San Diego State. In 2001-02 he led the Aztecs to the postseason for the first time since 1985 and for just the fourth time ever. The 21 wins were second most for the school as a Division I program and the most since 1985. The fact that those numbers came after just three seasons signifies what is one of the great recent turnarounds in college basketball.

He followed that up with a third consecutive season with a .500 or better record in 2002-03 and led SDSU back to the postseason for the second consecutive season for only the second time in the school's Division I history. In addition, SDSU claimed its first Division I postseason victory with a win in the NIT.

In 2006-07, he led SDSU to the MWC regular season and tournament crowns and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. That team finished with a Division I then-school-record 24 wins. And the last five seasons, Fisher has led the Aztecs to five additional 20-win seasons and postseason appearances, including a school-record 34 wins, both the MWC regular season and tournament championships, and a NCAA Sweet 16 berth in 2011.

Game 1

rv/- San Diego State 75
Bryant 63

Nov. 11, 2011 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 11,734

SAN DIEGO - On a night where San Diego State unveiled its 2011 Mountain West regular-season championship banner, its 2011 MWC tournament title banner and its NCAA Sweet 16 appearance banner, the Aztecs ultimately treated 11,734 fans to a 75-63 season-opening victory over Bryant at the Basketball Travelers Classic inside Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs dressed just seven scholarship players as projected starters Jamaal Franklin and James Rahon were out due to a team suspension and foot injury, respectively. With all the emotion surrounding the banners and the short bench, SDSU started the game sluggishly.

The contest was tied at 4-4 with just under two minutes having gone by. The Bulldogs, however, caught fire and stymied the Aztecs to lead, 22-15, with 6:32 remaining in the half. A 13-5 run to end the frame got San Diego State back into the game and it carried a 28-27 lead into the locker room.

The Aztecs continued their surge as play resumed and promptly went on a 15-7 run to go up 43-35. All told, SDSU used a 28-12 spurt to take control of the game.

San Diego State's offensive attack was grounded momentarily when Frankie Dobbs hit back-to-back three-pointers to bring the Bulldogs to within four. SDSU, however, went on another 13-5 run to move ahead by 12 and Bryant failed to get any closer than eight points the rest of the way.

The Aztecs received three stellar efforts, including two double-doubles by Garrett Green and Chase Tapley. Green finished with 14 points and 11 rebounds, while Tapley racked up a game-high 20 points, a career-high 11 rebounds, six assists and three steals. Xavier Thames added a career-high 16 points, four rebounds and eight assists. Between Tapley and Thames, they combined for 14 assists and two turnovers.

Game 2

rv/- San Diego State 70
Southern Utah 37

Nov. 12, 2011 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 11,765

SAN DIEGO - Chase Tapley led a group of four Aztecs who scored in double figures as San Diego State built a huge first-half lead en route to a 70-37 rout of Southern Utah in front of 11,765 fans at Viejas Arena at the Basketball Travelers Classic.

Southern Utah scored the first basket of the game and San Diego State took over from there going on a 15-0 run to take a commanding 15-2 lead. The run was halted briefly by a Ray Jones, Jr., free throw with 9:40 remaining in the first half. The Aztecs ultimately took a 20-3 lead less than a minute later.

Two straight baskets by Southern Utah cut the deficit to 13 with eight minutes to go in the frame, but that was as close as the Thunderbirds would get as San Diego State dominated the rest of the first half to take a 41-15 lead at halftime.

Southern Utah scored the first two baskets of the second half, but the Aztecs responded with an 11-2 run to increase their lead to 35. The Thunderbirds managed to get the score to 55-26 as a result of a 7-2 run, but San Diego State answered right back with an 11-3 spurt to extend its lead to a game-high 37 points before earning the 33-point decision.

Tapley led all scorers with 16 points, while Jamaal Franklin scored 13. LaBradford Franklin and DeShawn Stephens, meanwhile, scored 12 and 11 points, respectively.

Jones, Jr., led Southern Utah with nine points and Wade Collie led the team with five rebounds.

Game 3

rv/- San Diego State 89
UC Davis 74

Nov. 13, 2011 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 11,792

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State wrapped up its home tournament, the Basketball Travelers Classic, with its third consecutive double-figure victory, this time an 89-74 victory over UC Davis.

Chase Tapley continued his outstanding play by scoring 23 points and adding a career-high seven steals. As good as Tapley's performance was, Jamaal Franklin's was equally impressive. The sophomore came off the bench to score a career-high 31 points on 10-of-17 shooting, including a 4-for-7 performance from beyond the arc and a 7-for-7 effort from the charity stripe.

The Aggies scored the first four points of the game and it was all Aztecs after that. Franklin fueled an 11-3 scoring run, which included back-to-back threes, to give SDSU a 15-9 lead with 12:25 left in the first half.

San Diego State would end the period by outscoring UC Davis by 13 points, which gave the Aztecs a healthy 48-29 lead at halftime.

SDSU held the Aggies in check for the first five-plus minutes of the second half before Franklin caught fire and scored five straight points. Franklin's points led to the Aztecs' 18-4 run and a 24-point lead.

UC Davis, however, slowly chipped away at its deficit and suddenly San Diego State's lead was down to 12 points after a Ryan Sypkens three-pointer with 3:34 left in regulation.

Franklin nailed a jumper and Xavier Thames added a free throw to thwart the comeback as the Aztecs emerged with the 15-point victory.

At the end of the game, Tapley was named most valuable player and to the all-tournament team. Thames joined Tapley on the all-tourney squad along with UC Davis' Josh Ritchart, Bryant's Alex Francis and Southern Utah's Ray Jones, Jr.

Game 4

#11/12 Baylor 77
rv/- San Diego State 67
Nov. 15, 2011 ♦ Waco, Texas
Ferrell Center ♦ Att.: 6,941

WACO, Texas - San Diego State, playing its fourth game in five days, had its rally come up short in falling to No. 11/12 Baylor, 77-67, at Ferrell Center. The mid-afternoon game was a part of ESPN's College Hoops Tip-Off Marathon.

The Aztecs received a game- and career-high 28 points from Chase Tapley, who made 10-of-17 shots, including 8-of-10 from three-point distance. The eight three-point field goals were a career high, one off the school record and equaled the Steve Fisher-era record.

The game was the first of the season for James Rahon, who missed the first three games of the campaign due to an injured left foot. The junior scored 10 points and added a career-high seven rebounds. Also scoring in double figures for SDSU was Jamaal Franklin (11 points) and Xavier Thames (10 points).

SDSU led by five midway through the first half thanks to eight unanswered points. Minutes later, Tapley hit a three to give the Aztecs a 23-21 lead, but an 11-1 Bear run put the home side up by eight with 1:42 left in the half.

Just when the game could have got out of hand, Tapley hit a three and Thames added two free throws to help SDSU pull to within two, 32-30, at halftime.

Tapley tied the game with the first bucket of the second half, but Baylor used a fullcourt press, which rattled the Aztecs.

San Diego State trailed, 36-34, with 15:45 to play and in just 2 minutes, 23 seconds, Baylor enjoyed a 10-point cushion. The Bears' lead eventually swelled to 16 with 9:20 left in regulation.

SDSU used a 9-2 run, with the final seven coming from Franklin, to trim the deficit to seven with 93 seconds left in the game. The Bears, however, went on to score seven straight points to put the game out of reach and improve to 3-0.

Game 5

rv/- San Diego State 56
USC 54
Nov. 17, 2011 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - Xavier Thames went the length of the floor and scored the game-winning lay-up with 1.8 seconds remaining in the game to lift San Diego State past USC, 56-54, in front of a sold-out Viejas Arena crowd.

The victory was just the second over the Trojans in 12 tries and snapped a five-game losing streak vs. USC. It was SDSU's first win in the series since Dec. 9, 1989.

Holding a 54-45 lead with 2:46 left in regulation, the Aztecs looked as if they were going to cruise to the win. The Trojans, however, received back-to-back three-pointers from Garrett Jackson to bring USC to within three with 97 seconds left.

After two empty San Diego State possessions, the Trojans came out of a timeout and promptly received a banked-in three-pointer from Maurice Jones to knot the score.

Then with seven seconds remaining, Thames took the ball the length of the court, with the help of a Tim Shelton screen, and connected on the game-winner.

SDSU trailed, 25-21, at halftime and took the lead with 11:44 left in the game when Chase Tapley knocked down a three. The Aztecs, who trailed by as many as six, never trailed the rest of the way en route to their sixth straight win over the Pac-12 Conference.

Jamaal Franklin led San Diego State with 14 points and Thames finished with 12 of his own. DeShawn Stephens, meanwhile, grabbed a game-high nine rebounds. As a team, led by Franklin's 5-for-5 effort from the free-throw line, the Aztecs made 13 of their 14 free-throw attempts.

Jones led all scorers with 15 points and was one of four Trojans in double figures. Jackson added 13 points, Aaron Fuller chipped in with 12 and a team-high seven rebounds, and Dewayne Dedmon contributed 10.

Nov. 19, 2011 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,094

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State rallied from a halftime deficit, but could not hold off Long Beach State as the 49ers forced overtime in the final seconds of the second half. The Aztecs, however, responded in overtime to defeat upstart LBSU, 77-73.

The Aztecs were led by Jamaal Franklin's 21 points and nine rebounds off the bench and James Rahon's 20-point effort. Xavier Thames, meanwhile, added 12 points.

Long Beach State, which was coming off a road win at No. 9 Pittsburgh, jumped out to a 10-point first-half lead less than five minutes into the game. The 49ers held a 40-30 lead with 1:50 left in the first half before the Aztecs closed the frame on a 7-0 run.

In the second half, LBSU hung on to its lead for the first 10 minutes. SDSU, however, was able to take its first lead of the game with 9:37 left in regulation. Long Beach State momentarily took the lead back, 51-50, 14 seconds later, but the Aztecs received back-to-back threes from Franklin and Tapley to take a five-point lead.

Down the stretch, LBSU rallied and was down 65-63 with three seconds remaining in regulation and Franklin fouled Casper Ware before the ball was inbounded. Ware, who finished with a game-high 26 points, stepped to the free-throw line and calmly made both free throws to send the game into overtime.

In the extra session, Thames hit three straight baskets at one point, the third of which resulted in a five-point Aztec lead. Then with SDSU ahead by two with four seconds left, Franklin sealed the game with a pair of free throws to send the Aztecs home with a win.
