The Runnin' Rebels are the No. 4 seed, while the Aztecs are No. 5. The game will be televised nationally on CBS Sports Network.

LAST TIME OUT: UNLV (19-10, 12-6, 4th in MW) had its five-game win streak ended Saturday night in a 75-65 loss to UNR in the regular-season finale in Reno. Keylan Boone scored 24 points on 9 of 16 shooting, including 6 of 12 on 3-pointers, and Dedan Thomas Jr. had 23 points for the Runnin' Rebels, who finished Mountain West play (12-6) with their best record since 2019-20. Rob Whaley Jr. contributed six points and a team-high eight rebounds. UNLV used a 14-2 run over a four-minute span in the second half, which included three Keylan Boone 3-pointers, to take a 48-47 lead with 11:58 to go, but UNR responded with a 17-4 run over the next six minutes and led by 12 at 66-54 with five minutes left.

RUNNIN' REBEL LEADERS: Five UNLV players are averaging double figures in scoring this season in Dedan Thomas Jr. (13.6 ppg), who earned Mountain West Co-Freshman of the Year and second-team All-MW honors, Keylan Boone (12.2 ppg), who was named third team All-MW, Kalib Boone (11.5 ppg), who was honorable mention All-MW, Luis Rodriguez (11.0 ppg), who was named to the All-MW Defensive Team, and Jalen Hill (10.7 ppg). Hill missed six games with a wrist injury and returned at San Diego State on Jan. 6, but left late in the first half in that game after suffering a knee injury, which an MRI later revealed to be a season-ending ACL tear.

The newcomers are made up of three Division I transfers, a junior college transfer and three freshmen. UNLV has 10 upperclassmen, including five fifth-year seniors. INJURIES: RUNNIN' REBELS WERE AT FULL STRENGTH FOR 14 MINUTES THIS SEASON

With the return of Jalen Hill to the lineup on Jan. 6 after a wrist injury (missed the previous six games), UNLV had its entire roster available for the first time this season in the game at San Diego State. The Runnin' Rebels opened the campaign with Shane Nowell sidelined for the first eight games because of an ankle injury and Keylan Boone missed the first seven contests because of transfer rules. Unfortunately, UNLV was only at full strength for 14 minutes as Hill went down again with another injury late in the first half at SDSU. It turned out to be a torn ACL that will cause him to miss the rest of the season. On Jan. 23 against Air Force, Justin Webster, who led the Runnin' Rebels with 14 points in that game, suffered an injury in the second half and did not return. Webster missed three games before returning at New Mexico on Feb. 10. UNLV's most recent injury was on Feb. 24 as Rob Whaley Jr. left the game vs. Colorado State early in the second half and did not return. He came back to play in the Runnin' Rebels' next contest, which was at Wyoming on Feb. 27.

FIVE STRAIGHT MOUNTAIN WEST WINS FOR FIRST TIME IN FOUR YEARS

Prior to falling at home vs. UNR on Feb. 17, UNLV was on a five-game win streak, which marked its first such streak in Mountain West play in four years. The last time UNLV won five straight conference games was when it won five in a row to conclude the 2019-20 regular-season. The Runnin' Rebels then went on another five-game win streak, which ended on Saturday at UNR. The last time UNLV won six straight games against Mountain West teams was during the 2010-11 season (the last five regular-season contests and then one in the MW Tournament). UNLV has never won six straight regular-season Mountain West games. The last time UNLV won six straight regular-season games in conference play was during the 1996-97 season when it was in the Western Athletic Conference.

HEAD COACH KEVIN KRUGER

Former Runnin' Rebel student-athlete and assistant coach Kevin Kruger was appointed the head coach of the UNLV's men's basketball program in March 2021. Following the 2021-22 season, Kruger was named one of 15 finalists for the 2022 Joe B. Hall Award, which is presented annually to the top first-year coach in Division I men's college basketball by collegeinsider.com. During his first season at the helm of the program, Kruger led the Runnin' Rebels to 18 wins - the most for UNLV in four years. The team went 10-8 in Mountain West play, exceeding preseason expectations with a fifth-place finish in the league standings. He and his staff revamped the roster with nine transfers and the team continually improved as the season progressed, advancing 43 spots in the KenPom ratings along the way. Under Kruger's leadership, three UNLV individuals earned 2021-22 All-Mountain West accolades: Bryce Hamilton (First Team), Donovan Williams (Sixth Man of the Year) and Royce Hamm Jr. (Honorable Mention).

In Kruger's second season as head coach, the team won 19 games, including two over ranked teams. The two victories over top 25 squads are the most in a season for UNLV since 2015-16. The Runnin' Rebels raced out to a 10-0 start in 2022-23, marking the program's best in 34 years, while their non-conference record of 11-1 was their best in 32 years. After the 10-0 start, UNLV was receiving votes in both polls and Kruger was named the ESPN National Coach of the Week. EJ Harkless, a fifth-year transfer from Oklahoma State earned Second Team All-MW honors.

Prior to being named head coach, Kruger completed his second year as an assistant for the UNLV program in 2020-21 after he returned to his alma mater in April 2019. The point guard on UNLV's 2007 NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 team as a senior under his father, legendary coach Lon Kruger, Kevin returned to Las Vegas after spending three years as an assistant coach at Oklahoma (2016-19). With Kevin on the coaching staff, Oklahoma made multiple NCAA Tournament appearances. He was also an assistant coach at Northern Arizona for two seasons (2014-16) following a year as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma. Prior to making the move into coaching, Kevin played professionally from 2007-13.

During his first season on the coaching staff at UNLV in 2019-20, the Runnin' Rebels tied for second place in the Mountain West, marking the program's best league finish in 12 years. The team also sent shockwaves through the college basketball world with its victory at fourth-ranked and previously undefeated San Diego State, posting the program's best true road win since 1991 (a span of 29 seasons). Achievement in the classroom has been just as important with Kruger on staff. The team turned in a semester grade point average of 3.57 for fall 2020, the program's highest ever. It also achieved a record-cumulative GPA of 3.32 with an all-time program-high nine student-athletes on the Dean's Honor List.

Kruger began his collegiate playing career at Arizona State, where he earned his criminal justice degree in 2006, before transferring to UNLV. In his lone season as a Runnin' Rebel student-athlete, UNLV won 30 games. He earned All-Mountain West Third Team honors and was named to the conference's all-tournament team. At ASU, Kruger was named an honorable mention All-Pac-10 and second-team NABC District 15 selection in his third and final season in Tempe. Also a Pac-10 All-Freshman honorable mention pick, Kruger left the Sun Devils ranked fourth in career free throw percentage at ASU, fifth all-time in 3-pointers made and attempted and seventh in 3-point percentage. Kruger had professional basketball stints in Bulgaria, Italy, China, Mexico, Belgium and Germany in addition to NBA training camp invitations from the Orlando Magic and Milwaukee Bucks. He also played with the Utah Flash and Los Angeles D-Fenders of the NBA D-League before launching his coaching career. His father, Lon, coached the Runnin' Rebels from 2004-2011 and made four NCAA Tournament appearances (2007, 2008, 2010 and 2011) and an NIT (2009). Kevin earned a master's degree from Oklahoma in human relations in 2017 and is married to the former Allison Gerding. The couple has two daughters, Cameron, who celebrated her fourth birthday in October and Vivienne, who turned two in November, along with a son, Maxwell, who was just born in January.

With Vanderbilt failing to make one in a game during the 2019-20 season, UNLV and Princeton are the only schools left that have made at least one 3-pointer in every game played since the shot was introduced.

UNLV SIGNS THREE FOR 2024 - CLASS RANKED NO. 1 IN MOUNTAIN WEST, 37TH IN NATION

The Runnin' Rebel program has received signed commitments from Jeremiah "Bear" Cherry, James Evans and Pape N'Diaye (Pronounced: POP EN-jie) to join the UNLV men's basketball team for the 2024-25 season. The 2024 recruiting class for the Runnin' Rebels is currently ranked No. 1 in the Mountain West and 37th nationally in the 2024 Team Rankings on Rivals.com.

Cherry is a 6-foot-11-inch center from San Diego, who attends New Mexico Junior College. He averaged 11 points and seven rebounds last season as a freshman at the school. Regarded as one of the best junior college big men in the country, he attended St. Mary's Catholic High School. "Bear is a big physical post player that will fit in with how we want to play on both ends of the court," UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger said. "He has the ability to score around the rim and continues to improve. He comes from a well-respected national junior college program and we are excited that has chosen to join the Runnin' Rebel Family." Cherry, who will be a junior at UNLV when he arrives, comes from a basketball family as both of his parents played in college and his older brother, Taeshon, also played in college (Arizona State and Grand Canyon) and currently plays professionally overseas. Cherry chose UNLV over Florida State, Mississippi State, Boise State and Utah State.

Evans is a 6-foot-6-inch wing from Wichita, Kansas, and attends West Ranch High School in Stevenson Ranch, California. He is ranked as one of the top 150 players in the class of 2024 by 247 Sports. "James is a good, young high school basketball player that has continued to get better every time we see him," Kruger said. "He has tremendous size and athleticism that will provide elite versatility at the wing position for us. We are excited to have him as a part of the Runnin' Rebel program." Evans, who will be a freshman at UNLV in 2024-25, plays for Paul George Elite on the Nike EYBL Circuit as well. He chose the Runnin' Rebel program over Washington and Utah State.

N'Diaye is a 7-foot forward from the Ivory Coast, who attends Trinity International in Las Vegas. He is ranked as the 97th best player in the class of 2024 by 247 Sports and is considered one of the best shot blockers in the country. "Pape has extraordinary length and skill," Kruger said. "He has a very high ceiling and is just scratching the surface on what he can become. We are excited to be able to add another local Las Vegas prospect to the Runnin' Rebels." N'Diaye will be a freshman at UNLV in the fall of 2024. He chose the Runnin' Rebels over Kansas, Miami, New Mexico and Colorado State.

ANDERSON HUNT'S JERSEY RETIRED AT THOMAS & MACK CENTER

He played at UNLV under Hall of Fame Coach Jerry Tarkanian from 1988-91 and is probably most well known for earning Final Four Most Outstanding Player honors in 1990 after helping lead the Runnin' Rebels to the national championship. He is the UNLV career leader in 3-pointers made with 283 as a Runnin' Rebel and is the 13th-leading scorer in program history with 1,632 career points. RUNNIN' REBELS FALL IN SEASON OPENER TO SOUTHERN

Jaguars made 61.1% of their 3-point attempts and shot 56.7% overall from the field in 85-71 decision at the Thomas & Mack Center

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (0-1) dropped its season opener 85-71 to Southern at the Thomas & Mack Center on Nov. 8.

Four players on each team scored in double figures on the night with Tai'Reon Joseph from Southern (1-0) leading the way with a game-high 22 points. Isaiah Cottrell was the Runnin' Rebels' leader in points with 18.

STAT OF THE GAME: Joseph and Brandon Davis each made three 3-pointers for the Jaguars, who finished the game shooting 61.1% from 3-point range (11 of 18) and 56.7% overall on field goals (34 of 60).

TURNING POINT: Southern used a 16-0 run over a five-minute stretch in the first half to take a 25-11 lead with 7:56 to go. The Jaguars increased their advantage to 19 points at the half, 40-21.

SECOND HALF: After shooting just 3 of 16 on 3-pointers in the first half (18.8%) and 7 of 26 overall (26.9%) over the first 20 minutes, UNLV performed better in the second half by making 6 of 13 3-pointers (46.2%) and 16 of 28 from the field (57.1%). However, Southern led by as many as 26 early in the second half, which proved too much to overcome. UNLV cut it to 13 with just under two minutes to play.

QUOTABLE: "That's not the result we wanted obviously, we were just a little timid. We came out on our heels. They came out and played hard for 40 minutes. We still have a positive outlook for this group. We will go watch the film and get into practice tomorrow, and we'll be a different team on Saturday that's for sure." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

OTHER NOTES:

- Dedan Thomas Jr. scored 14 points and had five assists and two steals in his collegiate debut. UNLV was without Kalib Boone, who was serving a one-game suspension, and Shane Nowell, because of injury. Cottrell added a team-high and career-high-tying seven rebounds with a career-high four blocked shots. Southern outscored UNLV in bench points 43-5 and points in the paint 38-24. UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,194 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS DEFEAT STETSON 71-55 AT THOMAS & MACK CENTER

UNLV legend Anderson Hunt was honored at halftime as his jersey was hung in the rafters

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (1-1) evened its record on the season with a 71-55 win over Stetson on Nov. 11 at the Thomas & Mack Center.

During halftime, Runnin' Rebel legend Anderson Hunt was honored as his jersey was hung in the rafters.

Jalen Hill recorded a double-double with 14 points and 13 rebounds (one shy of his career high), while Luis Rodriguez was the team's leading scorer with 15 points and Dedan Thomas Jr. had a game-high nine assists with no turnovers.

Stetson (1-1) was led by Jalen Blackmon's 18 points and Aubin Gateretse's 16.

STAT OF THE GAME: UNLV held the Hatters to just 31.8% (21 of 66) shooting for the game. Stetson managed just 25.8% from the field in the first half (8 of 31) and 2 of 14 on 3-pointers (14.3%).

TURNING POINT: UNLV used a 14-2 run over three-plus minutes in the first half to take a 23-12 lead with 8:34 to play until halftime. The Runnin' Rebels held a 36-21 advantage at the break and led by as many as 26 points in the second half.

QUOTABLE: "Obviously a much better night. Much better intent from the start. We weren't passive at all. We were very assertive and aggressive on the defensive end, which led to a lot of good half-court offensive possessions for us and good transition opportunities. We shared the ball and tried to make plays for each other, but defensively we clearly had a mentality to help each other and I think it showed. Stetson shoots the ball incredibly well as a team, so we accomplished our goal of making their shots as difficult as we possibly could. I think that ended up being the difference." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

OTHER NOTES:

- Hill was 5 of 8 from the field and made both of his 3-point attempts. Four Runnin' Rebel players each made two or more 3-pointers. UNLV made 10 in all for the game. Luis Rodriguez collected nine rebounds and Jackie Johnson III added 10 points. UNLV had just five turnovers in the game after recording none in the first half. The Runnin' Rebels recorded five steals, while Stetson had none. UNLV scored 17 points off the Hatters' 11 miscues, while Stetson managed just three points off of UNLV's turnovers. UNLV led in fastbreak points 10-0. UNLV's bench outscored Stetson's 25-6. UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,195 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS WIN AT PEPPERDINE IN SEASON'S FIRST ROAD GAME, 82-68

Five UNLV players score in double figures as Runnin' Rebels win second straight

MALIBU, Calif. (UNLVRebels.com) - Five Runnin' Rebel players scored in double figures as the UNLV men's basketball team (2-1) won its second straight game and first road contest of the season Nov. 17 against Pepperdine, 82-68, at Firestone Fieldhouse.

Kalib Boone came off the bench to lead UNLV in scoring with 19 points on 9 of 10 shooting, Dedan Thomas Jr. scored 17 points with five assists and no turnovers, Jalen Hill scored all 15 of his points in the second half, Jackie Johnson III added 13 points on 5 of 7 shooting, including 3 of 5 on 3-pointers, and Luis Rodriguez had 10 points.

Pepperdine (3-2) was led by Michael Ajayi's double-double of 31 points and 12 rebounds, and Houston Mallette's 26 points with five made 3-pointers.

STATS OF THE GAME: UNLV's bench outscored Pepperdine's 32-2, the Runnin' Rebels made 58.2% of their shots and outscored the Waves 50-34 in points in the paint.

CONTROLLED FROM THE START: UNLV jumped out to a 10-3 lead to start the game, increased its advantage to 17-6 and led at halftime 40-30. The Runnin' Rebels were in control the rest of the way, leading by as many as 16 early in the second half. The closest Pepperdine came was six points at 59-53 with 9:51 to play but UNLV created additional separation, leading by 14 with just under five minutes to go.

QUOTABLE: "Because of how hard the guys worked in the first half, I thought we did a good job of wearing them down. Our trap in the backcourt was elite. We did a great job of mixing up tempo and disrupting their transition. Holding a team like Pepperdine to 32% shooting on 3s on their home floor is going to win a lot of games." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

OTHER NOTES:

- UNLV improved to 17-6 all-time against Pepperdine, snapped a two-game losing streak in the series and is now 6-5 in games played in Malibu.
UNLV held Pepperdine to just 14.3% on 3-pointers in the first half (1 of 7) and 39.4% from the field in the second half (13 of 33).

RUNNIN' REBELS FALL IN SUNSHINE SLAM SEMIFINAL TO FLORIDA STATE, 83-75

Five UNLV players scored in double figures as both teams shot over 56%

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (UNLVRebels.com) - Five Runnin' Rebel players scored in double figures and both teams shot over 56% from the field, but the UNLV men's basketball team fell to Florida State, 83-75, in the semifinals of the Sunshine Slam at the Ocean Center on Nov. 20.

Kalib Boone led UNLV (2-2) with 15 points on 7 of 11 from the field with five rebounds and a blocked shot, while Jalen Hill, Dedan Thomas Jr. and Justin Webster each scored 18. Luis Rodriguez added 12 points.

Florida State (3-1) had four players in double figures and was led by Jamir Watkins' 19 points on 8 of 11 from the field.

GAME OF RUNS: FSU started the game on a 9-2 spurt and led 23-10 about halfway through the first half. UNLV cut its deficit to four at 39-35 near the end of the first half but Watkins hit a long 3-pointer as time expired to give his team a seven-point advantage at the break.

Florida State increased its lead to 57-43 but a 9-0 UNLV run that included a Jackie Johnson III drive and score, a Jalen Hill steal on the inbound pass and layup, then a Kalib Boone dunk cut it to 57-52 with 12:26 to go. UNLV trailed 63-58 with under nine minutes left but Florida State pulled away.

HOT SHOOTING: Florida State shot 62.7% (32 of 51) from the field, while UNLV made 56.9% (29 of 51). The Seminoles made 5 of 9 3-pointers in the first half (55.6%), and were 0 for 3 from long distance after halftime. UNLV managed just 2 of 10 for the night on 3-pointers, making 2 of 6 in the first half and going 0 for 4 from beyond the arc in the final 20 minutes.

QUOTABLE: "They jumped out to a big lead and that ended up being the difference. It is going to be really tough to win a game when a team shoots 63%. We shot 57% and I think we did a great job of getting the ball where it needed to be, taking good shots and playing strong, but unfortunately tonight it was on the defensive side that hurt us." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

OTHER NOTES:

- This was only the second all-time meeting between the two programs. The first was a UNLV win in Las Vegas in 1990.
Darin Green Jr. added 16 points for FSU, Cameron Corhen was 6 of 7 from the field with 14 points and De'Ante Green was 4 of 5 for 10 points.
Watkins had a game-high eight assists, while Cam'ron Fletcher led FSU in rebounding with six. Baba Miller collected five boards and had a game-high three blocks.
Thomas Jr. had a game-high-tying six rebounds and a team-high six assists for the Runnin' Rebels.

Tonight we came out with a lot more of what we expected to be as a team and did a great job. Shared the ball and shot it the way we want to. That's an Akron team that is going to win a lot of games, so really happy for the guys that they get to enjoy the day off tomorrow after beating a good team."

HENDERSON, Nevada (UNLVRebels.com) - Four Runnin' Rebels scored in double figures as the UNLV men's basketball team defeated a team ranked among the nation's top 10 in non-conference play for the first time in nine years with its 79-64 win over No. 8 Creighton on Dec. 13 at the Dollar Loan Center in the Jack Jones Classic.

Creighton (8-2) was led by Ryan Kalkbrenner's 22 points and eight rebounds.

LAST TOP-10 WINS FOR THE RUNNIN' REBELS: UNLV's last win over a team ranked in the top 10 in the national polls in non-conference action was on Dec. 23, 2014 vs. then-No. 3 Arizona, 71-67, at the Thomas & Mack Center. The Runnin' Rebels' last top-10 win overall was on Feb. 22, 2020, almost four years ago, when the Runnin' Rebels defeated then-No. 4 San Diego State, 66-63, in San Diego, snapping the Aztecs' 26-game winning streak and ending their run as the nation's only undefeated team.

DEFENSE WINS: UNLV held one of the country's best 3-point shooting teams in Creighton to just 27.6% (8 of 29) for the game. Creighton managed just 4 of 16 (25%) on long-range shots in the first half. UNLV also held the Bluejays to just 22 made baskets for the entire game as they attempted 55 shots, finishing at 40%.

QUOTABLE: "That was obviously a lot more fun, but as I told the guys, the buy-in was clear and obvious from the moment we met to start getting ready for Creighton. Just understanding their firepower and how they are one of the best, if not the best, offensive teams that we will play not only this year, but maybe in our guys' careers. Our team knew that the effort had to be at the level it was at to give ourselves a chance to win the game and without a doubt it was there. The tone was set early and I'm just really proud and happy for them, because with a lot of the things that they've dealt with in terms of injuries and availability and asking guys to do certain things, for them to come out and get this type of win over a top 10 team, they deserve it."

- OTHER NOTES:
- UNLV shot 52.5% from the field (32 of 61) and a season-high 45.5% on 3-pointers (10 of 22).
- UNLV made 10 more shots (32) over the course of the game than Creighton did.
