NO. 22 UTAH STATE MEN'S BASKETBALL WINS MOUNTAIN WEST REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONSHIP, OUTLASTS

LOGAN, Utah - With five seconds remaining, graduate guard Darius Brown II nailed a 3-pointer at the end of the shot clock to give No. 22 Utah State men's basketball an 87-84 lead over New Mexico.

The Aggies fouled the Lobos to prevent a tying three. After a made free throw, New Mexico couldn't get a last shot off an intentional miss and the Aggies outlasted New Mexico, 87-85, to win the Mountain West regular season championship outright in front of a sold-out crowd on Saturday night inside the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum.

It marked Utah State's first-ever outright regular season championship in the Mountain West and first MW regular season title since 2018-19. USU has now won or shared 18 conference championships all-time. Utah State was picked to finish ninth in the preseason polls under first-year head coach Danny Sprinkle as it returned zero points from last year's NCAA Tournament team.

Senior guard Ian Martinez led the Aggies with a game-high 22 points, including three 3-pointers. Junior wing Great Osobor logged his 14th double-double of the season with 21 points, 12 rebounds and three assists. Brown tallied 19 points, including the game-winning triple, and dished out nine assists. Redshirt freshman Mason Falslev scored 10 points on a perfect 5-of-5 from the field, while totaling three rebounds and two assists.

New Mexico (22-9, 10-8 MW) took an early lead with four-straight points to start the contest. Utah State (26-5, 14-4 MW) claimed the lead on a 5-0 surge behind an and-one, one-handed hammer from Martinez. Both sides traded layups before USU extended its lead to six points, 20-14, on a 6-0 run with layups from Falslev and Osobor.

The Lobos tied things up midway through the half on back-to-back treys before Martinez and Brown would combine for a 6-0 spurt to give the Aggies a 33-27 lead with just under eight minutes before halftime. New Mexico responded by outscoring Utah State 17-6 until the break, including seven Lobo free throws. UNM went to the locker room with a 44-39 advantage.

After the break, USU retook the lead on a 6-0 run to start the second half. Osobor dunked, Martinez knocked down a three and junior guard Josh Uduje hit free throws to extend the advantage to four points, 52-48. The Lobos would regain the lead and shoot out to a six-point lead, 65-59, hitting three 3-pointers over five minutes.

The Aggies bounced back with an 11-4 run, capped by two free throws from Brown, to gain a 70-69 advantage with just under eight minutes remaining. By trading 3-pointers and free throws for layups, USU led by four points, 82-78, with just over two minutes left. New Mexico sophomore guard Donovan Dent tied things up at 82 on back-to-back layups with a minute remaining.

Martinez dunked and Lobo graduate guard Jaalen House hit a jumper to set the stage for Brown. After Martinez dribbled down the shot clock, the ball was swung into Osobor who dealt it out to Brown for the game-winning triple. Aggie fans stormed the court and cheered as Utah State cut the net to celebrate its regular season championship secured by an 87-85 victory over New Mexico.

Utah State shot 53.6 percent (30-of-56) from the field, 30.0 percent (6-of-20) from downtown and 75.0 percent (21-of-28) at the free-throw line.

Senior forward Mustapha Amzil paced the Lobos with 18 points, five rebounds and two assists. New Mexico shot 52.3 percent (34-of-65) from the field, 40.0 percent (6-of-15) from behind the arc and 61.1 percent (11-of-18) at the charity stripe.

HEAD COACH DANNY SPRINKLE

DANNY SPRINKLE

Head Coach • 107-48 (Five Seasons) • First Season at Utah State • Montana State (2000)(1996)

Danny Sprinkle was named the head men's basketball coach at Utah State on April 7, 2023. Sprinkle is 107-48 (.690) in five years as a head coach and has 23 years of collegiate coaching experience.

Sprinkle comes to Utah State after spending the past four years as the head coach at Montana State, leading the Bobcats to an 81-43 (.653) record, including 49-23 (.685) in the Big Sky Conference. He led MSU to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in 2022 and 2023 as the Bobcats were the regular season Big Sky Champions in 2022 and won the Big Sky Tournament in both the 2022 and 2023 campaigns. It was just the fourth- and fifth-ever NCAA Tournament appearances in program history and first since 1996.

In his four years at Montana State, Sprinkle led the Bobcats to back-to-back Big Sky Championships and three-straight conference championship game appearances for the first time in school history, and consecutive 25-win seasons for the first time since 1927-29.

This past season, Sprinkle led Montana State to a 25-10 overall record and its second-straight NCAA Tournament appearance. It marked the first time the Bobcats had back-to-back 20-win seasons since 1994-96. Three Bobcats earned all-conference honors, while two players garnered individual accolades (Defensive Player of the Year and Top Reserve). Two Montana State players earned all-tournament honors, including Big Sky Tournament MVP RaeQuan Battle.

In 2021-22, Montana State wrapped up a 27-8 overall record and advanced to its first NCAA Tournament in 26 years after winning both the Big Sky regular season and tournament championships. The 27 victories were the most for the program since the Golden Bobcats era, which saw the 1928 and 1929 teams each go 36-2, while the 1927 squad went 30-7.

Sprinkle was honored for his 2021-22 squad's achievements by being named the Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year. He also was named a Hugh Durham Award finalist, presented annually to the top Division I mid-major coach in college basketball. MSU also finished the season in the Colleg Insider.Com Men's Mid-Major Top 25 poll for the first time in 20 years.

Montana State's rise among its Big Sky peers was on display to end the 2020-21 season as the Bobcats returned to the Big Sky Conference tournament championship game for the first time in 12 years. Sprinkle became the first Montana State head coach to lead the program to the Big Sky Championship game during his opening two seasons at the helm. The Bobcats had three players selected to all-Big Sky Conference teams, which were the most for Montana State since 2006.

Sprinkle's tenure got off to a strong start as MSU completed its 2019-20 schedule with a 16-15 overall record, its first winning record in 10 years. The 16 wins tied for the most for the program since the 2001-02 season, which had been the last year MSU won a Big Sky regular season title. He was named a finalist for the 2020 Joe B. Hall Award, which is given annually to the nation's top first-year coach in Division I college basketball.

A Helena (Montana) High School graduate, Sprinkle's coaching career began as a graduate assistant at CSUN in 2000-01. He spent five more seasons with the Matadors before spending two years in Bozeman as an assistant coach. Sprinkle returned to CSUN for five more season as an assistant coach and then spent six seasons as an assistant at Cal State Fullerton.

Sprinkle added duties as recruiting coordinator at each of his coaching stops. He helped lead Cal State Fullerton to the NCAA Tournament in 2018 for just the third time in program history. The year before that, the Titans competed in the Colleg Insider.com Tournament. He was also part of CSUN's 2001 and 2009 NCAA Tournament teams, with the Matadors winning the Big Sky regular season crown in 2001 and the Big West title in 2009.

As a Bobcat freshman in 1996, Sprinkle was a starter during the team's magical run to Big Sky regular season and tournament championships, landing all-Big Sky Tournament honors for his 30-point performance in the championship game. Sprinkle earned Big Sky Freshman of the Year honors in 1996 and was all-league three consecutive seasons, including his first-team selection in 1997. He held the MSU career and season 3-point records upon graduation and remains the ninth-leading scorer in school history with 1,497 points. Sprinkle was a member of the 1996 team inducted into the Montana State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2006 and was formally inducted for his individual efforts in 2021.

Born in Pullman, Washington, Sprinkle enjoyed an outstanding career at Helena HS, which included earning all-state honors twice in basketball, while also competing in football and track. He graduated from Montana State in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in health and human development.
