THE SET-UP

Following the most dominating two-game performance against FBS competition since the 1999 season, San Diego State (4-3; 2-1 MW) travels to Reno, Nev., to face a Nevada squad (6-1; 3-0 MW) that has won 19 of its last 21 games. Game time at Mackay Stadium is set for 7:30 p.m. PT and the contest will be shown nationally on the CBS Sports Network with radio coverage provided by KOGO 95.7 FM & AM 600.

Last Saturday, San Diego State recorded its second consecutive lopsided victory, defeating Colorado State, 38-14. The Aztecs never trailed in the contest, limiting the Rams to 335 yards of total offense and forced three turnovers on the afternoon. Sophomore linebacker Jake Fely earned conference defensive player of the week honors by posting career-highs in tackles (13), tackles for loss (3.5) and quarterback sacks (2). Sophomore Derek Largent continued his stellar play with a pair of interceptions in the game for the Aztecs.

Offensively, SDSU once again showed great balance, rushing for 218 yards and passing for 181 yards. Sophomore Adam Muema rushed for 105 yards and two touchdowns. It was his fourth career 100-yard rushing game and he now has a rushing touchdown in eight consecutive games. Senior quarterback Ryan Katz, who leads the league in passing efficiency, was 16-of-22 for 181 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions. It was the fifth time in the last six games that he has not thrown a pick.

Saturday's game features two of three teams that are still in control of their own destiny to win the Mountain West championship. At 3-0, the Wolf Pack are on top of the league standings, one-half game ahead of Boise State (2-0). The Aztecs are a game back at 2-1, tied with Fresno State and Air Force. Of the three 2-1 teams, only San Diego State has both Nevada and Boise State remaining on the schedule.

Next week, the Aztecs return home to face another team from the Silver State, UNLV. Kickoff for the game with the Rebels is set for 5 p.m. PT at Qualcomm Stadium.

STORYLINES

- San Diego State is coming off a pair of comfortable victories with wins over Hawai'i (52-14) and Colorado State (38-14). The combined margin of victory in those two games is +62, which is the widest margin of victory in consecutive games against FBS foes since defeating UNLV (37-7) and Wyoming (39-7) by the same margin in 1999. It matches the widest two-game margin against FBS opponents since 1996 when the Aztecs defeated Oklahoma (56-8) and Hawai'i (48-42).
- Saturday's matchup features Nevada's potent rushing attack against a San Diego State defense which has been among the stingiest this season against the run. Below is a look at where the units rank nationally.

	Rushing Yards Per Game (Rk.)	Avg. Yards Per Rush (Rk.)	Rushing TDs
San Diego State Defense	116.00 (28)	3.33 (25)	7 (38)
Nevada Offense	285.71 (6)	5.45 (16)	25 (2)

- Despite heavy personnel losses from a year ago, the San Diego State offense is scoring at remarkable rates. The Aztecs rank 23rd nationally in scoring offense (38.17) and have posted their highest scoring total through the first six games since 1996, which is a span of 16 seasons.
- San Diego State's defense ranks seventh nationally in turnovers forced this season with 17. The unit has forced 10 turnovers in the last three games.
- Aztec running back Adam Muema ranks 33rd nationally in rushing yards per game (100.29) and is fifth in the country among sophomores.

OBSCURE NOTES OF THE WEEK

- For the second straight game, San Diego State enjoyed tremendous field position last Saturday in the victory over Colorado State. The Aztecs average field position was the 40-yard line, while the week before, SDSU started drives at the 42-yard line against Hawai'i. In recorded history, SDSU is 12-0 when its average starting field position is the 40-yard line or better. This marks the only time this century that San Diego State has played in consecutive games with an average field position of the 40-yard line or better.
- San Diego State has scored a point in eight consecutive quarters. It is the longest stretch since posting a point in 11 consecutive quarters in October 2010.
- Ryan Katz recorded a 16-of-22 passing performance last week, completing 72.73 percent of his pass attempts. That is the 28th-highest completion percentage for the Aztecs in the Division I era, and the highest completion percentage since the Aztecs' victory over Navy in the 2010 Poinsettia Bowl. Last Saturday marked the 30th time in which SDSU has completed at least 72.73 percent of its passes in a game and the Aztecs are 25-5 in those outings.

PROGRAM TIDBITS

- Entering the games this weekend, San Diego State has compiled the nation's second-highest winning percentage in combined football and men's basketball since the beginning of the 2010-11 academic year. San Diego State is a combined 81-23 (77.9 percent) and trails only Ohio State in the two sports since the beginning of the 2010 football season. See chart below

- Through 20 games, Rocky Long has an 12-8 record as SDSU's head coach. That is the best 20-game start to a coaching career at San Diego State since Claude Gilbert opened his tenure with a 16-3-1 record in the 1973 and 1974 seasons.
- SDSU opens the 2012 campaign after advancing to bowl games each of the last two seasons (Poinsettia Bowl in 2010 and New Orleans Bowl in 2011). San Diego State has never gone to bowl games in three consecutive years.
- The Aztecs play seven home games in 2012, which ties for the program's highest number since 1976. SDSU concluded a three-game homestand in September, its longest in a decade, against San Jose State.
- Despite serving as an assistant coach at San Diego State for two seasons (2009-10), Rocky Long is currently the second-winningest coach in Mountain West history. Long has 74 wins while a member of the league, trailing only TCU's Gary Patterson (77 wins). With TCU no longer in the league, Long needs three victories to tie the record and four to break it. The other nine active coaches in the league entered the season with a combined 75 wins while their teams have been a member of the conference.
- The Aztecs have played 66 student-athletes through six games, with 42 of those seeing action in all seven contests. Only 11 seniors saw action in the opening contest at Washington and two of those (quarterback Ryan Katz and wide receiver Brice Butler) were playing in their first game with SDSU. San Diego State only started more than seven seniors once this year (last Saturday vs. Colorado State) and as few as five seniors (vs. Army).
- The Aztecs have eight seniors listed as starters on the current depth chart, six on offense (RG Nike Embernate, LG Riley Gauld, C Alec Johnson, QB Ryan Katz, WR Brice Butler, WR Dominique Sandifer) and two on defense (CB Leon McFadden and CB Josh Wade).
- To date, SDSU has had 23 players make their first appearance in a San Diego State game and has had 12 players on the offensive or defensive side of the ball make their first start with the Aztecs.

OFFENSIVE QUICK HITS

- San Diego State returns seven starters on offense from last season's 2011 team that scored 387 points, the second-highest total for an Aztec squad in the last 15 seasons.
- Through seven games this season, San Diego State is averaging more points (38.1 in 2012, 29.8 in 2011) and nearly the same total offense (419.6 in 2012 and 427.4 in 2011) as last season.
- SDSU has four offensive players appearing on preseason watch lists for the top player at their position in the country - junior tight end Gavin Escobar (John Mackey Award Watch List (TE), Rotary Lombardi Award Watch List (lineman)), senior center Alec Johnson (Rimington Trophy Watch List (center)), senior running back Walter Kazee (Doak Walker Award Watch List (RB)) and sophomore wide receiver Colin Lockett (Biletnikoff Award Watch List (WR)). Earlier this week, Escobar was named to the Midseason John Mackey Award Watch List (TE).
- San Diego State has scored 255 points in the last six games combined. It is the highest six-game output since midway through the 1996 season (a span of 190 games).
- SDSU's 267 points is the highest scoring output for an Aztec squad through the first seven games of a season since 1996 when Ted Tollner's squad scored 299 points in the first six contests.
- San Diego State's 52 points against Hawai'i earlier this season represented its highest output since posting 52 against Portland State (Sept. 22, 2007) and the most points against a FBS opponent since scoring 52 points against San Jose State on Sept. 24, 2005.
- The Aztecs produced a pair of 100-yard rushers against North Dakota as sophomore Adam Muema (124 yards) and senior Walter Kazee (105 yards) each reached the century mark. It is the 15th time in school history that two players rushed for 100 or more yards in the same game and the first time since Oct. 17, 1998. SDSU is 14-1 in those occurrences.
- San Diego State has 18 drives this season of 70 or more yards.
- Although San Diego State entered the year looking to replace third-round NFL Draft selection Ronnie Hillman, the Aztecs have proved they have quality depth at the position. Sophomore Adam Muema is off and running, with 702 yards, nine touchdowns and a 6.3 yards-per-rush average through seven games. Also in the backfield is senior Walter Kazee. A career 1,000-yard rusher, Kazee's season was cut short in 2011 when he suffered a knee injury at Colorado State. In seven games this season, Kazee has 481 rushing yards and five rushing touchdowns, and is averaging 5.9 yards per carry.
- The Aztecs have had just four student-athletes start at quarterback since Nov. 18, 2006. During that 72-game stretch, Kevin O'Connell (15 games during the 2006-07 seasons), Drew Westling (1 game; vs. Air Force on Oct. 11, 2008) and Ryan Lindley (49 games during the 2008-09-10-11 seasons) have all taken snaps. In the season opener, senior Oregon State transfer Katz became the fourth SDSU player to start over the 66-game stretch (now 72 games).

- Although Katz made his first appearance at San Diego State in the game at Washington, he comes to The Mesa with a wealth of experience. A native of Santa Monica, Calif., Katz started 14 consecutive games for the Beavers, including all 12 of the 2010 campaign. Among his highlights was a 17-for-24, two-touchdown performance in an upset victory over USC during his sophomore campaign.
- Although we are only through seven games, senior quarterback Katz' quarterback efficiency rating of 152.49 would rank as the sixth-highest single-season figure in school history if the season ended today.
- Katz has been very impressive to date. He is 22nd nationally in passing efficiency rating, having completed 96-of-159 passes for 1,328 yards. He has 13 touchdowns and just four interceptions, which came on his second pass attempt in the season-opener against Washington and three times at Fresno State. He went 91 passes without throwing an interception until the game against the Bulldogs and currently has thrown 54 straight attempts without a pick and has five interception-free games this season.
- Last season due to graduation and injury, the Aztecs' combined receiving corps entered the campaign with four career catches for 39 yards. That has changed significantly in 12 months as SDSU entered the 2012 campaign with a Biletnikoff Award candidate and preseason all-Mountain West selection in junior Colin Lockett (12 catches, 184 yards, two touchdowns this year), a former walk-on who had five or more catches six times last season, including three times in his final four games, in junior Dylan Denso (49 catches, 634 yards and 3 TDs in 2011) and highly decorated USC transfer senior Brice Butler (11 catches, 194 yards and a team-high four touchdowns this season). Making his long-awaited collegiate debut in the opener was Ezell Ruffin, who already has 12 catches for 226 yards this season. And don't forget the tight end, Gavin Escobar, who has a team-high 21 catches for 278 yards and two touchdowns this year.
- The offensive line is anchored by two returning starters - senior center Alec Johnson and senior right guard Nik Embernate. Joining the two seniors on the offensive line is converted tight end, now left guard junior Bryce Quigley, junior left guard Japheth Gordon, who missed the Hawai'i game with a foot injury, and sophomore right tackle Zach Dille. The only new member of the coaching staff, former SDSU offensive lineman Mike Schmidt, leads the unit.
- San Diego State has gone 71 games without suffering a shutout (Nov. 18, 2006 at TCU). That is the only time the Aztecs have been shutout in their last 166 games.

DEFENSIVE QUICK HITS

- SDSU returns six starters off a squad that has continually gotten better under the direction of second-year head coach Rocky Long, who is in his fourth season as the defensive coordinator. Statistically one of the nation's worst units less than five years ago, Long has transitioned the San Diego State defense into one of the most feared units on the West Coast. Below is a look at the progress made under Long's direction.

NCAA Rank in parenthesis

- In the 20 drives prior to the North Dakota game, San Diego State's defense allowed a total of seven points. At one point, the Aztecs went 16 drives (last seven of the Washington game and first nine of the Army game) without allowing an offensive point.
- SDSU is led on defense by Mountain West preseason defensive player of the year, senior cornerback Leon McFadden. McFadden is on the preseason watch list for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy (best defensive player) and the Jim Thorpe Award (DB). McFadden, who has been a first-team all-Mountain West selection the past two seasons, is looking to become the school's fourth three-time first-team all-league selection, joining Marshall Faulk, Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila and Kirk Morrison.
- Plenty of other defensive players received preseason attention from at least one publication. Junior Aztec back Nat Berhe and sophomore linebacker Jake Fely were among the players getting attention. Berhe is the top retuning tackler of the 2011 squad, and has a team-high 47 stops this season. Fely is second on the squad with 39 tackles and a team-high 7.5 tackles for loss and leads the squad with five sacks.
- McFadden recorded an interception in three straight games (Sept. 15-29) and has eight career picks.
- SDSU has forced a turnover in 13 straight games, including three or more nine times in the last 19 contests.
- San Diego State has allowed a total of 891 yards rushing in its last nine games combined (99.0). The Aztec defense has held its opponent to 100 yards or less on the ground in six of the last 13 games.
- In the opener at Washington, the SDSU defense allowed just 14 points (the Huskies had a fumble return for touchdown) and 328 yards of total offense against one of the most potent offensive attacks in the country. In 2011, Washington averaged 33.38 points to rank 25th nationally and 409.85 yards (38th in the nation).

- The Huskies scored 21 points off three drives that accumulated a total of 97 yards of offense.
- The Aztecs held Washington without a point on its final seven possessions of the game. That is something no team did against the Huskies in 2011.
- Against Army, SDSU held the Black Knights scoreless until there was 5:54 left in the third quarter.
- San Diego State held Army well below its 2011 season averages in rushing yards (282 allowed, 346.50 average in 2011) and total yards (332 allowed, 396.92 average in 2011).
- Against North Dakota, Leon McFadden intercepted a pass on UND's first offensive play of the game and took it 28 yards for the touchdown. It was the Aztecs' first defensive touchdown since Nov. 13, 2012, at No. 3 TCU and their first interception return for a score since Luke Laologi returned one 55 yards at UNLV on Nov. 28, 2009.
- At Fresno State, both Eric Pinkins and Leon McFadden intercepted a pass for a touchdown. The Aztecs now have two interceptions returned for a touchdown in the past three games. They had gone 28 games in between without returning an interception for a touchdown. McFadden became just the second player in program history with two interception returns for a touchdown in a season (Tory Nixon in 1984).
- San Diego State allowed just 173 yards of total offense in the victory over Hawai'i and allowed an average of just 2.98 yards per play. That is the lowest per play average allowed by an SDSU squad since Nicholls State (2.71 ypp) on Sept. 4, 2010, the lowest against a FBS opponent since Colorado State (2.97 ypp) on Oct. 16, 2004 and the 33rd lowest average in the Division I era.

SDSU VS. NEVADA

- Saturday is the fifth meeting between the schools, with the teams having split the previous four encounters.
- The Aztecs have won the last two meetings between the teams, although both games occurred in San Diego.
- This marks San Diego State's first visit to Reno since 1945. Nevada won that game by a 44-6 score.
- Saturday marks the first time the two teams have faced one another as members of the same conference.

SDSU VS. NEVADA - CONNECTIONS

- San Diego State head coach Rocky Long is 1-0 all-time against Nevada head coach Chris Ault. Long was the head coach at New Mexico for the team's 2007 New Mexico Bowl win over Nevada by a 23-0 score.
- Nevada head coach Chris Ault has spend the majority of his career with the Wolf Pack, having served as head coach from 1976-92, 1994-95 and since 2004. Aztec assistant head coach/running backs coach Jeff Horton was an assistant coach with UN from 1985-89, the wide receivers coach in 1992 and the head coach in 1993. That 1993 Nevada team went 7-4 and led the nation in offense. Ault (1973-75) and Horton (1990-91 and 1994-98) also spent time at UNLV with Horton as the Rebels' head coach from 1994-98.
- Nevada defensive coordinator Mike Bradeson worked under Horton in the late 90s and stayed after Horton left UNLV. Bradeson spent 11 seasons with the Rebels, including 1996-99 as the recruiting coordinator/secondary coach, 2000-04 as the defensive coordinator/secondary coach and 2005-06 as the defensive backs coach.
- Wolf Pack associate head coach Ken Wilson also has ties with Horton. Wilson has spent most of his coaching career with Nevada, including time as an assistant coach from 1989-95. As previously noted, Horton was an assistant coach with UN from 1985-89, the wide receivers coach in 1992 and the head coach in 1993.
- Aztec offensive coordinator Andy Ludwig and Nevada offensive line coach Barry Sacks both coached at Boise State together. Ludwig was the quarterbacks coach there from 1995-96, while Sacks was an assistant coach from 1993-96.

SDSU VS. NEVADA - PLAYER CONNECTIONS

- Two current SDSU players call Nevada home. Sophomore offensive lineman Garrett Corbett attended Reed High School in Sparks, Nev., along with Nevada players Kyle Roberts (So., OL) and Jeremy Macauley (Fr., OL). Two other Wolf Pack members are from Sparks in Austin Rauh (Fr., WR) and Tyler Wilson (Fr., LS). Aztec redshirt freshman defensive back Brandon Wright, meanwhile, is from Las Vegas, Nev. UN has three players from Las Vegas - junior wide receiver Joseph Huber, sophomore kicker Colin Ditsworth and freshman quarterback Hasaan Henderson.
- Nevada has two San Diego products on their roster, including sophomore running back Nate McLaurin (Horizon HS/Grossmont HS) and freshman wide receiver Chance Early (Cathedral Catholic HS).
- The two teams have numerous players who attended the same college or high school. SDSU junior kicker/punter Wes Feer and Nevada junior defensive back Markus Smith each played at Riverside CC,

■ San Diego State 27, Nevada 10 | Sept. 25, 2004 | Qualcomm Stadium | San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO – On a dangerous night against a dangerous opponent, San Diego State went to work in business-like fashion to dismiss Nevada, 27-10, at Qualcomm Stadium in front of 33,429 fans.

A week before the UCLA game and a week after a nearmiss at Michigan, the more than capable Wolf Pack were in a position to derail SDSU's early-season momentum.

However, Michael Franklin rushed for 100 yards for the second time this season and The Dark Side kept the visitors out of the end zone until their final possession of the night to cruise to the win.

As they have all season, the Aztecs were effective in the first half. The Aztecs led 17-3 at intermission thanks to a 23-yard TD reception by Jeff Webb and a 35-yard touchdown run by Brandon Bornes.

Both of those scoring drives were of the cross-country variety, covering 79 and 81 yards with both taking 12 places to execute.

The youth movement continued for SDSU with sophomore Ramal Porter scoring his first career touchdown and redshirt freshman Brandon Bornes scoring on a career-best 35-yard touchdown run.

The Aztec special teams had a good night as well with Garrett Palmer connecting on field goals of 50 and 43 yards, and punt returns by Franklin and Kyle Conerly that covered 29 and 23 yards, respectively.

Senior linebacker Kirk Morrison reached a new milestone with his 15 tackles, pushing him over 300 for his career. In all, it was a strong night for The Dark Side with three quarterback sacks, two interceptions, 12 pass break-ups, and two forced fumbles. Senior playmaker Heath Farwell continued to show up in the stat column

LONG HAS BEST DEBUT SEASON IN PROGRAM HISTORY

- Rocky Long, the school's 18th head coach, became the first San Diego State coach to lead the team to a bowl game in his inaugural season.
- Long is 12-8 in his first 20 games at San Diego State. He has produced the best 20-game coaching record since Claude Gilbert opened his tenure with a 16-3-1 record. Long's win total through 20 games is two higher than his predecessor, Brady Hoke (10-10).
- Rocky Long posted an 8-5 record in his first season as head coach of the Aztecs. That is the highest victory total in a SDSU head coaching debut season since Denny Stolz finished 8-4 in his first year in 1986.
- With eight first-year wins, Rocky Long had one more coaching victory in his inaugural season than the previous two San Diego State coaches combined (Brady Hoke went 4-8 in 2009 and Chuck Long was 3-9 in 2006).
- Last season marked the third time in Rocky Long's head coaching career that his team won at least eight games (also 2007 and 2003). His squads have won six or more games in eight of his last nine seasons as a head coach.
- Last year, Long helped guide the Aztecs to their first 3-0 start in 30 years, ended the program's 19-game losing streak to Pac-10/12 foes, snapped SDSU's 23-game losing streak to automatic-qualifying BCS teams and gave the program its first win in the Eastern Time Zone since 1972, all in the opening month of the season.
- San Diego State finished the 2011 season above .500 for only the second time in the last 13 seasons.
- The Aztecs won eight games in a campaign for just the second time in the last 15 seasons.
- Long has 74 victories while coaching teams in the Mountain West. That is the second-highest total in the history of the conference.

SDSU FOOTBALL ACCEPTS INVITE TO JOIN THE BIG EAST

■ The BIG EAST Conference announced in December 2011 that San Diego State University has accepted an invitation to join the league in the sport of football beginning with the 2013-14 academic year.

SDSU joins Boise State, Houston, Southern Methodist and Central Florida as the newest members of the league. The aforementioned five will join a football league that also consists of Cincinnati, Connecticut, Louisville, Rutgers and South Florida.

"I am extremely excited about our prospects for joining the BIG EAST in football," San Diego State University President Dr. Elliot Hirshman said. "This new conference affiliation will provide extraordinary opportunities for our student-athletes, our coaches and staff, our alumni and supporters and the entire University."

"This is a very important day in the history of the San Diego State athletic department," SDSU Athletic Director Jim Sterk said. "This affiliation with the BIG EAST Conference allows us to compete at the highest level in college football. This will give the athletic department and University attention on a national stage that we have not had before."

The BIG EAST is one of six conferences with an automatic berth to one of five Bowl Championship Series (BCS) games. The BCS includes the Rose Bowl Game, Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, Allstate Sugar Bowl, Discover Orange Bowl and the Allstate BCS National Championship Game.

In addition to the BCS automatic berth, the BIG EAST has tie-ins to the Champs Sports Bowl (Orlando, Fla.), Belk Bowl (Charlotte, N.C.), New Era Pinstripe Bowl (Bronx, N.Y.), BBVA Compass Bowl (Birmingham, Ala.), AutoZone Liberty Bowl (Memphis, Tenn.) and Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl St. Petersburg (St. Petersburg, Fla.).

The move to the BIG EAST provides San Diego State's football program with national television exposure through ABC, ESPN, BIG EAST Network, SportsNet New York (SNY) and the BIG EAST/IMG Sports National Radio Network.

San Diego State, which led the Mountain West in average home attendance this season (39,865), has a storied football tradition having won 18 conference championships and participated in nine bowl games, including last season's Poinsettia Bowl, which resulted in a 35-14 victory over Navy. A year after posting a 9-4 record, the Aztecs finished the 2011 season with an 8-4 mark and recently accepted an invitation to the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl where they will face Louisiana-Lafayette on Dec. 17. The back-to-back bowl appearances mark the first time San Diego State has accomplished that feat in its Division I history.

Individually, SDSU has produced 144 NFL draft picks, including 52 top-100 selections, and 104 All-Americans, including 19 first-teamers. In 2011 alone, San Diego State had the nation's third-leading rusher and had seven all-conference first-team picks, two second-teamers and one honorable mention choice.

MCFADDEN NAMED PHIL STEELE MIDSEASON ALL-AMERICAN

■ San Diego State senior cornerback Leon McFadden was named to Phil Steele's 2012 Midseason All-American team on Oct. 11 as a fourth-team selection. The Inglewood, Calif., native has enjoyed a stellar first six games of the season, tallying 30 tackles along with a team-high three interceptions that he notched in three straight games (Sept. 15-29).

On the season, McFadden leads the Aztecs in interceptions (3) and PBUs (8), and is one of seven with a forced fumble. He also has 33 tackles, including 25 solo stops. McFadden is tied for 14th in the country in passes defended per game (1.57) and is tied for 27th with 0.43 interceptions per game.

McFadden has been instrumental to SDSU's defense this year as two of his three interceptions in 2012 have been returned for a touchdown. He is just the second Aztec with two interceptions returned for a touchdown in a season (also Tory Nixon in 1986). McFadden's two career interceptions for a touchdown trail only Ricky Parker's three from 1993-96.

GAVIN ESCOBAR NAMED TO MACKEY AWARD MIDSEASON WATCH LIST

■ San Diego State junior football player Gavin Escobar has been named to the 2012 Mackey Award Midseason Watch List, given annually to the most outstanding collegiate tight end, the Nassau County Sports Commission announced on Oct. 15.

It's the second consecutive year that Escobar has made the midseason watch list. He was already on the preseason watch list, which was announced in July. In seven games this season, the Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif., native leads the Aztecs with 21 receptions and 278 yards, while adding two touchdowns. Escobar, who is averaging 13.2 yards per catch and has 11 receptions for a first down, has caught at least one pass in 14 straight contests. He has six catches for 20 or more yards this year, the most on the team.

For his career, Escobar has 101 receptions for 1,381 yards and 13 touchdowns. The 101 receptions are tied for 25th all-time at SDSU.

JAKE FELY NAMED MOUNTAIN WEST DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

■ San Diego State football player Jake Fely has been named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Week, the league announced on Oct. 15. Additionally, the Oceanside, Calif., native was picked as one of two national defensive performers of the week by the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA).

A linebacker, Fely had a career-high 13 tackles (his previous best was eight) in the Aztecs' 38-14 victory over Colorado State on Saturday. He also set career highs with 2.0 sacks and 3.5 tackles for loss, while recovering his second fumble of his career (and season). The 2.0 sacks were the most by an SDSU player since Miles Burris had 2.0 vs. Fresno State on Dec. 3, 2011, while his 3.5 TFL were the most since Burris had 3.5 vs. UNLV on Nov. 27, 2010.

It was the first Mountain West weekly award for Fely.

Fely was joined by Rutgers' Khaseem Greene as the CFPA Defensive Performers of the Week. Fely was also chosen as a linebacker performer of the week (along with Greene), while teammate Derek Largent (eight tackles, two interceptions) was an honorable mention selection on the linebacker list.

In seven games this season, Fely has 39 tackles (30 solo), 7.5 tackles for loss, 5.0 sacks, two fumble recoveries and a pass breakup. He is ranked in a tie for 39th in the country with 0.71 sacks per game.

RYAN KATZ NAMED MOUNTAIN WEST CO-OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK (OCT. 8)

■ San Diego State football player Ryan Katz has been named the Mountain West Co-Offensive Player of the Week, the league announced on Oct. 8. It was the first weekly honor for the senior and Oregon State transfer.

Katz accounted for five touchdowns and 247 yards of total offense to lead the Aztecs to a 52-14 victory over Hawai'i on Saturday night. On the ground, the Santa Monica, Calif., native carried 10 times for 57 yards and a career-high three touchdowns, including scoring runs of 27, 34 and nine yards. Katz became the first SDSU quarterback with three rushing touchdowns since Kevin O'Connell had three at Colorado State on Oct. 6, 2007.

Katz added 190 yards through the air with two touchdown passes, his then 10th and 11th of the season and then 29th and 30th of his career.

New Mexico's Kasey Carrier shared the award with Katz.

NAT BERHE EARNS MOUNTAIN WEST DEFENSIVE POW HONORS (SEPT. 8)

■ San Diego State junior football player Nat Berhe has been named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Week, for his efforts in the Aztecs' victory over Army on Sept. 8. It is the second career weekly honor for the Colton, Calif., native.

Berhe, a defensive back, had a career-high 14 tackles, including 10 solo stops, to lead SDSU to a 42-7 victory over Army on Saturday. He also had one tackle for a loss and a pass breakup while anchoring a defense that forced three turnovers and limited the Black Knights to just 50 yards passing.

Berhe and the San Diego State defense held Army without an offensive score for its first nine possessions of the game before a Black Knight scored with 5:54 left to play in the third quarter. The touchdown snapped the Aztecs' streak of not allowing an offensive score at 16 possessions (also last seven at Washington), which was a total of 86:41 of clock time.

In seven games this year, Berhe leads SDSU with 47 tackles, including 31 solo stops, 2.0 TFL, three pass breakups and a fumble recovery.

FIVE AZTECS ON PRESEASON WATCH LISTS

■ San Diego State has placed five student-athletes on preseason national award watch lists in 2012. Junior tight end Gavin Escobar, senior center Alec Johnson, senior running back Walter Kazez, junior Colin Lockett and senior Leon McFadden are on the initial short list for their positions' top honors.

Escobar (Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif.) is one of 33 players on the John Mackey Award Watch List (most outstanding tight end) and one of 145 on the Rotary Lombardi Award Watch List (top lineman). Last season, the Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif., native reeled in 51 catches for 780 yards and seven touchdowns. His 51 receptions and 780 receiving yards were the second most by a tight end in school history. Escobar averaged 60.00 receiving yards per game, which were the third most in the country among tight ends. He ended up earning all-Mountain West honors for the second consecutive season (first team in 2011, second team in 2010). Escobar is on the preseason all-conference team for this year. This season, Escobar leads the Aztecs with 21 catches and 278 receiving yards.

Johnson (Denver, Colo.) is one of 51 players on the Rimington Trophy Award Watch List (best center). Johnson, one of SDSU's two returning starters on the offensive line, entered the 2012 campaign having made 29 career starts and is slated to start at center for the second consecutive year. Last season, Johnson never missed a game despite breaking his snapping hand (right) in the Aztecs' season opener. The MW academic all-conference honoree also helped SDSU rush for nearly 2,400 yards as well as finish among the nation's leaders in fewest sacks allowed (T-7th, 0.85 per game) and in fewest tackles for a loss allowed (15th, 4.46 per game).

Kazez (San Bernardino, Calif.) is one of 52 candidates on the Doak Walker Award Watch List (top running back). Last year, Kazez rushed for 339 yards and four touchdowns on 74 carries (4.6 yards per rush) before a knee injury in the ninth game sidelined him for the rest of the season. Kazez also caught eight passes for 89 yards. For his career, Kazez has 1,511 rushing yards and 14 touchdowns on 309 rushes (4.9 yards per carry). Additionally, Kazez has 212 yards receiving on 24 catches. This year, Kazez has career highs of 481 yards, 82 carries, 5.9 yards per carry and five rushing touchdowns.

Lockett (Diamond Bar, Calif.) is one of 48 athletes on the Biletnikoff Award Watch List (most outstanding wide receiver). Lockett led SDSU in receiving last year with 970 yards and his 74.6 receiving yards per game ranked fourth in the conference. Lockett also tallied 678 yards on special teams in 2010, including a 94-yard kickoff return touchdown in the season opener against Cal Poly. He's also on the 2012 preseason all-conference team. Lockett has 12 catches this season for 184 yards and two touchdowns. He also has 20 kickoff returns for 484 yards (24.2 average per kickoff return), including a career-long 96-yard return for a touchdown vs. Army.

McFadden (Inglewood, Calif.) is one of 84 players on the Bronco Nagurski Trophy Award Watch List (best defensive player) and one of 35 on the Jim Thorpe Award Watch List (best defensive back). McFadden, who became the first San Diego State player to be named a preseason player of the year (offense, defense or special teams) in July, is looking to become the fifth Aztec in program history to earn first-team all-conference honors in three consecutive years. Last year, McFadden led the league in passes defended (17), while recording 46 tackles (35 solo), two interceptions and a sack. This year, McFadden has recorded 33 tackles, eight pass breakups, three interceptions, two interceptions returned for a score and a forced fumble.

SDSU TABBED TO FINISH FIFTH BY LEAGUE MEDIA

■ The San Diego State football team is picked to finish fifth in the Mountain West preseason poll, which was released on July 24. The Aztecs had 173 points in the 2012 preseason poll, which is voted on by media representatives who cover the conference.

The fifth-place projection is SDSU's second highest in the last eight years. Last season, San Diego State was selected fourth and finished fourth. It marked the sixth time in the last seven years that the Aztecs finished at or higher than their projected finish. SDSU also picked up one of the 30 first-place votes, a first in its 14-year history of the MW.

Boise State was picked to win the league with 296 points, including 27 first-place votes. Only 74 points separated the second-place team (Nevada, 244 points) and the sixth-place team (Air Force, 170 points). Fresno State was third with 231 points and two first-place votes, while Wyoming (213 points) and SDSU (173 points) rounded out the top five at fourth and fifth, respectively.

MCFADDEN NAMED MW PRESEASON DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

■ San Diego State defensive back Leon McFadden has been selected as the Mountain West Preseason Defensive Player of the Year, the league announced in July. McFadden was joined on the preseason all-conference team by tight end Gavin Escobar and wide receiver Colin Lockett.

McFadden became the first San Diego State player to be named a preseason player of the year (offense, defense or special teams). McFadden, who is looking to become the fifth Aztec in program history to earn first-team all-conference honors in three consecutive years, is on the preseason watch list for the Nagurski Award (top defensive player) and the Thorpe Award (top defensive back). He's also the third player in the last 11 years (also Kirk Morrison and Lynell Hamilton) to be named to the preseason all-conference team for a second time. The Inglewood, Calif., native led the league in passes defended (17) last year, while recording 46 tackles (35 solo), two interceptions and a sack.

Escobar, who is on the preseason watch list for the Lombardi Award (top lineman) and the Mackey Award (top tight end), had 51 catches a year ago for 780 yards and seven touchdowns. His 60.00 receiving yards per game in 2011 were the third most in the nation among tight ends. The Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif., native was an honorable mention All-American last year by Sports Illustrated after earning freshman All-America accolades by Sporting News in 2010.

A member of the Biletnikoff Award Watch List (most outstanding wide receiver), Lockett led SDSU in receiving last year with 970 yards. Lockett, who also had 58 catches and eight touchdowns, averaged 74.6 receiving yards per game, which ranked fourth in the conference. Lockett also tallied 678 yards on special teams in 2011, including a 94-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in the season-opener against Cal Poly.

SDSU ANNOUNCES TEAM CAPTAINS

■ San Diego State head coach Rocky Long announced that seniors Leon McFadden, Walter Kazee and Dominique Sandifer have been named football team captains for the upcoming 2012 season. This year, the special teams captain will be selected on a week-by-week basis.

McFadden, a senior defensive back from Inglewood, Calif., has played in 45 games in his three-plus seasons as an Aztec. McFadden had a solid season last year recording 46 tackles in 13 contests, had two interceptions and averaged almost six yards per carry on punt returns. McFadden ranked No. 1 in the Mountain West for the second consecutive year and 12th nationally in passes defended with 17, including six more breakups than any other player in the league. He enters 2012 as the preseason Mountain West defensive player of the year.

Kazee, a senior running back from San Bernardino, Calif., has tallied 1,511 total yards in his 37-game career at SDSU. Kazee had one of his best seasons last year in becoming SDSU's second-leading rusher with 339 yards on 74 carries and four scores. He was also effective in the passing game as he tallied eight catches for 89 yards (11.1 ypc).

Sandifer, a senior wide receiver from Gardena, Calif., is a two-year letterwinner who had his 2011 season derailed by injury. Prior to his setback, he played in 23 straight games from 2009-2010 in 2010 and was part of the 2010 Poinsettia Bowl team. He is one of two senior wide receivers, but the only one to have worn a SDSU uniform. In his first two seasons, he tallied 561 yards, averaging 11.5 yards per reception.

GAME #1 RECAP: WASHINGTON 21, SDSU 12

GAME #1
San Diego State	12
Washington	21

Sept. 1, 2012 | Seattle, Wash.
CenturyLink Field | 53,742

SEATTLE -- San Diego State was unable to overcome an early deficit and three turnovers in a 21-12 loss at Washington in the 2012 season opener for both teams.

The Aztecs threw an interception on their first drive and punted on a three and out on their second, and the Huskies took advantage with touchdowns on both possessions.

UW, which took over on the SDSU 35 after the interception, got in the end zone on a two-yard run by Bishop Sankey.

Quarterback Keith Price drove Washington 62 yards on the team's next drive, culminating in a 8-yard pass to Kasen Williams.

After the slow start, the San Diego State defense stood tall the rest of the way, limiting the Huskies to 231 yards and no points on their final seven drives.

The Aztecs got on the scoreboard on the first play of the second quarter when quarterback Ryan Katz found a wide-open Tim Vizzi on the left side, who ran 47 yards for the touchdown. SDSU, however, failed on the 2-point conversion.

Early in the third quarter, UW safety Will Shamburger returned a fumble 44 yards to give the home team the 21-6 advantage.

Adam Muema completed an 11-play, 71-yard drive in the fourth when he pounded it in on a 4th and 1. But once again, San Diego State was unable to convert the 2-point conversion and trailing, 21-12.

After forcing Washington to punt, the Aztecs tried to mount another scoring drive. They went 76 yards, highlighted by a 26-yard run by Walter Kazee and a 32-yard pass from Katz to Colin Lockett. SDSU got to the Huskies' 8-yard line on third down, but missed on consecutive pass attempts, giving the ball back to UW.

Washington ran most of the 4:44 left on the clock and San Diego State's last-ditch effort fell short in the 21-12 setback. It was the Aztecs' first season-opening loss since 2009.

Kazee, who missed the end of last year with a knee injury, ran for a game-high 86 yards on nine carries, his highest total since the first game of the 2009 season and the first game of his career.

Katz added a career-high 77 yards on the ground and passed for another 128. Lockett led all Aztecs with four catches and 48 yards in the loss.

SDSU had multiple turnovers for only the second time in its last nine games, dating back to last year. San Diego State finished the 2011 season with just one turnover over its final three games.

* Threw his first touchdown pass as an Aztec on a 47-yard completion to Tim Vizzi in the second quarter.

* Had a career-high 77 rushing yards. His previous high was 22 as a member of Oregon State on Sept. 3, 2011 against Sacramento State.

TEAM NOTES

* Average starting fielding position: San Jose State's 47-yard line; San Diego State 18-yard line. The -29-yard margin in average fielding position is the worst in the 503 Division I games played in school history. The Aztecs are now 0-19-1 when owning a 15-yard margin in average field position or worse in a game.

* Total offense: San Diego State - 484 yards; San Jose State - 367 yards. This marks a rare loss when San Diego State has this wide of an advantage in total offense. The Aztecs drop to 125-11-1 in the Division I era when owning a 117-yard or greater advantage in total offense.

* SDSU had won eight consecutive September home games prior to tonight, which was the second-longest September home winning streak in the Division I era. The team's last loss (before tonight) in a September home game was a 52-23 setback to 24th-ranked Cincinnati on Sept. 29, 2007.

* Through 17 games, Rocky Long is now 10-7 as San Diego State's head coach. That is still the best 17-game start to an Aztec coaching career since Claude Gilbert opened his tenure with a 14-2-1 record in the 1973 and 1974 seasons.

* San Diego State had a fumble on a punt return in the first quarter. It was the team's first turnover since the third quarter of the opening game at Washington. SDSU went 160 minutes, 10 seconds (160:10) of game time without a turnover until the Tim Vizzi fumble.

* San Diego State later fumbled on offense. The Aztecs had gone 164 offensive plays without a turnover prior to the Walter Kazee fumble.
