Aztecs Conclude Three-meet Homestand on Wednesday, Head to New Mexico Thursday

• The Aztecs conclude their longest homestand of the season when they face the Air Force Academy at noon Wednesday. The Falcons (11-3) come to San Diego flying high as they went 4-0 in a five-way meet over the weekend, while the Aztecs (1-1) are coming off of a loss to Utah. Following the meet, San Diego State will travel to New Mexico for a dual-meet versus the Lobos on Thursday with the New Mexico Invitational to follow during the weekend.

Wednesday, the Aztecs will be seeking their fourth consecutive victory against Air Force while trying to extend their winning streak to two versus the Lobos on Thursday evening.

Utah Meet Recap

• The Aztecs fell to last year's regular season co-champion Utah Utes, 134-104, on Saturday afternoon at the Ray and Joan Kroc Community Center. The loss evened SDSU's overall record at 1-1 and 0-1 in the Mountain West.

The Aztecs won a total of four events on the day. Sophomore Caitlin Friedhoff took the 100-yard freestyle event with a time of 53.52 while freshman Adrienne Conte turned in a time of 54.82 to finish in third.

In the 500-yard free, sophomore Emily Parker narrowly beat Utah's Loren Sweny by finishing with a personal-best time of 5:06.09. Her mark was .21 seconds-better than her time recorded at Pepperdine (1/24/04) last season.

In each of the diving events, SDSU divers placed second, third and fourth. Freshman Kathleen Heuring scored a total of 207.75 points followed by freshman Joelle Felton (200.75) and junior Lindsey Minnich (197.45) in the three-meter event.

Felton totaled 200.80 points to finish second in the one-meter with Heuring (184.70) and Minnich (184.10) following behind.

In the last two events of the day, senior Jennifer Arrow placed first with a time of 1:07.71 in the 100-yard breaststroke and the relay team of Conte, junior Samantha Peters, junior Emily Schmied, and freshman Tamarah Binek took first in the 400 freestyle relay with a final mark of 3:39.28.

Air Force Series History

• Dating back to the 1999-00 season, the Aztecs have gone 4-1 against the Falcons, including a 161-137 win last year in a double dual-meet in Fort Collins, Colo.

That day saw SDSU record victories in seven different events. Highlighting the day were two individual wins (200 and 500 freestyle) by Hannah Ryan and a 400 freestyle relay win in which Ryan swam the first leg.

In the four San Diego State victories, the Aztecs have averaged more than 153 points, while giving up an average just above 101 points.

New Mexico Series History

• Since 1999-00, the Aztecs and Lobos have split four meetings, each winning every other year except in 2000-01 when they did not meet. San Diego State won the last meeting (11/15/03) between the two schools with the Aztecs notching a 200-100 victory.

In last season's win, SDSU won 11 of the 12 individual events and were led by a quartet of double winners. Ryan won the 200 and 500 freestyle events, Megan Storey took the 1000 freestyle and the 200 butterfly, Caitlin Friedhoff finished first in the 50 and 100 freestyle, and Adriana Quirke captured the 100 and 200 backstroke.

Scouting the Falcons

• The Falcons return 13 letter-winners from last year's squad that finished with a dual-meet record of 8-6 and placed sixth at the Mountain West Conference Championships. This year the Academy was picked to finish eighth in the conference.

This year the Air Force Academy has gotten out to fast start by winning 11 of its first 14 meets. Four of those wins came this past weekend at a five-way meet as they swept Colorado College, Colorado School of Mines, Metro State College of Denver, and the University of Denver in Colorado Springs, Colo.

After the Falcons face the Aztecs, they will head north to Irvine, Calif., for the Big West Invitational.

Scouting the Lobos

• The Lobos, who are led by head coach Bill Spahn, are coming off a season in which they finished with an 0-5 conference record (1-8 overall), but placed fifth in the MWC Championships. In this year's edition of the MWC preseason poll, New Mexico was predicted to finish sixth, just ahead of San Diego State.

The Lobos return a total of 18 letterwinners off that squad and so far that experience has paid off. Despite its conference opening loss at Wyoming, New Mexico placed strong at the Colorado State Early Bird Invitational. After one day of competition, the Lobos sat in second place, behind the Rams. By the end of the second day, New Mexico found itself in fourth place, ahead of three other schools.

This week, the Lobos will welcome the Aztecs, as well as, Brigham Young and Northern Arizona to Albuquerque before hosting the New Mexico Invitational this weekend.
