Aztecs Complete Challenging Two-Game Road Swing; Travel to Sin City to Face No. 17 RPI Team, UNLV

Less than 72 hours after returning home from facing 13th-ranked Air Force, San Diego State (13-6 overall/2-3 MWC) faces its second consecutive top 20 RPI team when the Aztecs travel to Sin City to face UNLV (16-4/3-2 MWC).

Game time is set for 7 p.m. PT and the contest will be televised nationally on Versus (channel listings located in the left column).

On Saturday, the Aztecs saw their two-game winning streak snapped at Air Force by losing 56-51. The Aztecs led in the final minute of the game, but were unable to snap the Academy's 25-game homecourt winning streak (now 26) and 49-1 record in its last 50 home games (now 50-1).

The Aztecs held Air Force to just 39 percent shooting from the field and to 56 total points, 17 points below their average, but couldn't overcome their own 39.6 percent field goal percentage, including 3-for-20 (15.0 percent) from three-point range.

Junior center Jerome Habel came off the bench to score 15 points on 7-of-9 field goal shooting. He has scored in double figures in consecutive games for the first time in his career. Senior guard Brandon Heath overcame a two-point first half to end the contest with 15 points, seven rebounds and three assists. The John Wooden Award candidate, who recorded his 44th consecutive double-digit scoring game, tied for team high honors in all three categories. Sophomore forward Lorenzo Wade also added 11 points and seven rebounds for the Aztecs.

SDSU lost despite committing a season-low nine turnovers and owning advantages in both turnovers (9-11) and rebounds (32-31). It marked the first time in eight games this season that the Aztecs lost a game when owning an advantage in both categories. In fact, San Diego State is now 39-7 (80.6 percent) under Steve Fisher era when leading in both categories. The loss also snapped a 15-game winning streak when holding opponents to less than 60 points.

The Aztecs encounter their second consecutive juggernaut at home, as UNLV has won eight straight games at the Thomas & Mack Center this season, is 10-1 in 2006-07 and has won 18 of their last 21 home games dating back to last season (one of those losses is to San Diego State).

Tuesday marks the 40th meeting between the schools with UNLV owning a 28-11 series lead. SDSU owns a school-best three-game win streak against the Rebels, having swept UNLV last season, winning 83-67 in San Diego, 81-70 in Las Vegas and 63-60 in Denver.

▶ WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCES

For the seventh consecutive season, Steve Fisher will conduct a weekly news conference, followed by selected players.

Food courtesy Da Kine's will be provided prior to the news conference.

The next news conference is scheduled for Thursday, January 25 at Cox Arena on the Mezzanine Level. Contact the media relations office for specific times.

▶ MWC TELECONFERENCE

SDSU coach Steve Fisher will take part in the MWC weekly conference call every Monday beginning in January. The conference call begins at 9 a.m. PT, with Fisher going at 9:02-9:12 a.m. PT.

▶ GOAZTECS.COM

The official website of SDSU athletics, goaztecs.com, includes pregame notes, game and season statistics, postgame notes and quotes and quotes from weekly news conferences. The website is updated daily.

▶ AZTEC SPORTS WEEKLY

Once again this season, SDSU is teaming up with Channel 4 San Diego to produce Aztec Sports Weekly.

The 30-minute sports magazine show highlights the week in San Diego State athletics. Each week head coach Steve Fisher and a men's basketball player will review the previous week's action and look ahead to upcoming games.

Storylines

▶ San Diego State is 13-6, and has matched the 19-game record of the 2005-06 team that went on to win a Division I era school-record 24 games, the Mountain West Conference regular season title, the MWC tournament championship and a berth in the NCAA Tournament.

▶ Much has been made of SDSU's 2-3 start in MWC play. However, it is worth noting that two of the Aztecs' three losses to date have come to teams and at venues where San Diego State lost a year ago. Last season, when the Aztecs posted a 13-3 MWC record, SDSU lost at Air Force and Brigham Young and at home to Utah. The Aztecs went 10-1 against the teams and at venues that remain on their schedule.

▶ San Diego State has traditionally struggled against the Rebels (see series box above or series on page four). The Aztecs are just 4-16 lifetime at UNLV, with three of those victories coming in the Steve Fisher era. SDSU has victories over the Rebels in Las Vegas on Feb. 17, 1979, March 9, 2002 (MWC tournament championship game), Jan. 15, 2005 and Feb. 16, 2006).

▶ San Diego State has done a remarkable job of responding from defeat recently, posting a 13-3 record in its last 16 games following a loss. In fact, SDSU did not drop consecutive league games en route to winning the MWC championship with a 13-3 conference record last season.

▶ Senior guard Brandon Heath continues his storybook season. The college graduate added to his Aztec records on Saturday at Air Force as he became the school's all-time leader in steals with 193. He is already the MWC and school leader in scoring with 1,915 career points. If past performance is any indication, it may be worth keeping an eye on the Wooden Award candidate on Tuesday. Heath has 164 career points against the Rebels. In seven games, he has averaged 23.4 points, 4.4 assists and 3.3 rebounds. He has also connected on 45-of-49 (91.8 percent) career free throw attempts against UNLV.

▶ Late last month, Steve Fisher recorded his 300th career victory as San Diego State defeated Lafayette at Cox Arena. Although Fisher is certainly linked to guiding Michigan to its only national basketball championship in 1989 and to leading the Wolverines to two more Final Four appearances (1992 and 1993), he has done a remarkable job of breathing life into the once dormant Aztec basketball program.

Now in his 16th full season as a head coach, Fisher owns a 302-194 career record, with 118 victories coming as the head coach of the Aztecs. He is the third winningest coach in SDSU history, trailing only George Ziegenfuss (1948-69) and Morris Gross (1929-42).

San Diego State won 142 games over the 14 seasons prior to Fisher's arrival (10.1 wins per year) and had 77 wins in the eight years (9.6 wins per year) before he stepped foot on campus. But Fisher has worked his magic, leading SDSU to postseason play three times in the past five seasons (after SDSU had advanced to postseason play just four times in its previous 32 Division I seasons). Last season, the Aztecs won a Division I school-record 24 games and were one of just three teams from top nine RPI conferences to claim an outright regular-season title and conference tournament championship (UCLA and Duke were the others).

Below are a few of the many milestones Fisher has compiled as a head coach.

National Championships	1 (1989)
National Title Game Appearances	3
NCAA Tournament Appearances	9
NCAA Tournament Record	20-8 (71.4 percent)
NIT Appearances	3
NIT Record	6-2 (75.0 percent)
NBA Draft Picks	14

▶ San Diego State has put together one of the more remarkable streaks not only in school history, but one of the most impressive active runs in the country. The Aztecs have won 13 of their last 19 (13-6), 19 of their last 26 (19-7) and 29 of their last 38 (29-9) games dating back to Jan. 11, 2006.

▶ Since Dec. 31, 2005, the Aztecs are 31-10, which coincidentally corresponds with Mohamed Abukar's first start for the Aztecs. Abukar sat out the first semester of the 2005-06 season after transferring from Florida. He made his SDSU debut at Providence and started his second game in an SDSU uniform against Loyola Marymount on Dec. 30, 2005. San Diego State is a gaudy 29-10 with Abukar in the starting lineup (he did not play in the home finale last season against South Dakota State to rest his ailing shins and did not start the New Mexico game earlier this season).

▶ THE SERIES

Tuesday marks the 40th meeting between the teams, with UNLV owning a 28-11 series lead... The Rebels own the series in games played in Las Vegas with a 16-4 record... The Aztecs have won three straight in the series for the first time in school history... All three victories came last year, the first time SDSU has taken three games from UNLV in one season... The Aztecs have won the last two meetings at the Thomas & Mack Center by a combined 19 points... San Diego State's third win over UNLV last season earned itself a berth in the MWC Tournament championship... In four of the last nine games, the winning team has scored exactly 83 points... Brandon Heath has 164 career points against the Rebels and in seven career games, he is averaging 23.4 points with a career-best 37 in Las Vegas during the 2004-05 season.

Mountain West Conference Basketball Tournament (Thomas & Mack Center, Las Vegas, Nev.)
M.6-10 MWC Championships ▶ SDSU will look to defend its 2006 title; Return to arena where it won 2002 crown
* - Indicates Mountain West Conference game. Record, RPI and Sagarin is current as of Sunday, Jan. 21, 2007.

Abukar was a game-time decision on Wednesday due to pain in his left knee, but came off the bench to score 14 points on 7-of-11 shooting from the field. It marked the eighth consecutive game the senior had reached double figures and SDSU is now 8-1 this season and 17-3 in his career when he scores 10 or more points in a game.

▶ Sophomore Lorrenzo Wade appears to be hitting his stride. In the last three games, Wade has 37 points, 28 rebounds, seven assists and six steals. He set consecutive career bests in the rebound category, with nine against Colorado State followed by 12 against New Mexico and also had seven against Air Force on Saturday. Against the Lobos, he posted his first career double-double with 13 points and 12 rebounds. SDSU is now 10-2 when he reaches double figures, 7-3 when he is in the starting lineup and 10-1 when he shoots 50 percent or better from the field.

▶ Sophomore Kyle Spain is playing the best basketball of his sophomore season. A week ago against Colorado State, he had a career-high 22 points on 7-of-9 shooting from the field (6-for-6 inside the arc). He followed that up with seven points and eight rebounds in the victory over New Mexico.

Spain's effect on the CSU game can be demonstrated by the fact that SDSU outscored the Rams by 20 points in the 30:53 while he was on the court. The Aztecs were outscored by 15 points in the 9:07 in which he was on the bench.

▶ Looking for a stat to track on Tuesday? You don't have to look any further than San Diego State's field goal percentage. In 13 wins this season, the Aztecs have shot 52.9 percent from the field and 45.7 from three-point range. In its six defeats, SDSU is shooting just 38.8 percent from the field and 25.9 percent from three-point range. Other tidbits to keep an eye on: SDSU is 12-0 when scoring 74 or more points, 11-2 this season when outrebounding their opponent, 8-0 when shooting better than 50 percent from the field and 13-0 when shooting better than 45 percent from the field.

▶ San Diego State has had its share of health issues this season. Thus far, Aztec players have missed a total of 25 games due to injury, illness or suspension. In the opening week of MWC play, four of the Aztecs main players - Jerome Habel (ankle), Kyle Spain (flu), Matt Thomas (back) and Richie Williams (flu) were all far less than 100 percent for the games against Wyoming and Brigham Young. The Aztecs have used eight different starting lineups this season, with nine different players starting at least one contest for SDSU. Only four players have seen action in all 19 games for the Aztecs.

San Diego State Drops 56-51 Decision at No. 13/11 Air Force

USAFA, Colo. - San Diego State held the nation's second-best shooting team and No. 13 Air Force to its lowest field goal percentage of the year but still fell on the road to the Falcons, 56-51. The loss extended Air Force's home winning streak to 26 games, tied for the second-longest streak in the country.

The Aztecs, who were down by as many nine points early in the second half, rallied to take a 43-42 lead on a long Brandon Heath 3-pointer with 5:51 remaining in the game, Air Force answered with a three of its own to take back the lead. SDSU battled back and regained a one-point lead on a Jerome Habel layup with 1:06 remaining.

On the ensuing possession, the Falcons' Dan Nwaelele nailed a jumper and followed with two free-throws to put Air Force up, 54-51, with just 16 seconds remaining. Heath's desperation 3-pointer with less than 10 seconds left fell short and Jacob Burtschi hit two free throws to put the game away.

SDSU lost despite holding the Falcons, who came into the game shooting 52.7 percent from the field, to 39.0 percent (16-for-41) shooting for the game.

Heath scored 13 of his 15 points in the second half, extending his school record for consecutive double-figure scoring games to 44, and added a season-high seven rebounds and three steals.

Jerome Habel scored 15 points on 7-of-9 shooting from the field and Lorrenzo Wade had 11 points, seven rebounds and three steals.

Burtschi had game-highs of 23 points and nine rebounds to lead the Falcons, while Nwaelele (11 points) and Nick Welch (10 points) each scored in double-figures.

Noting the Air Force Game

► Despite missing its first eight attempts from the field, shooting just 39.6 percent from the floor, connecting on 3-of-20 (15.0) percent from behind the arc and getting outscored 15-6 at the free throw line, San Diego State still had the lead with less than a minute to play at Air Force. The Academy scored the final six points of the game and extended their homecourt win streak to 26 games and are now 50-1 in their last 51 home games.

► The Good: San Diego State committed a season-low nine turnovers... The Aztecs won both the turnover battle (9-11) and owned a rebound advantage (32-31)... This marked the first time this season SDSU lost a game in which it had an advantage in those two categories... SDSU is now 8-1 this season and 40-7 (85.1 percent) under Steve Fisher when committing fewer turnovers and obtaining more rebounds... Air Force had 16 field goals, four offensive rebounds and three steals - all were the lowest for an Aztec opponent this season... The Falcons scored just 56 points, 17 points below their season average and it matched their lowest output of the season (also 56 points against Duke)... SDSU had a 15-game winning streak snapped when holding opponents to less than 60 points broken Saturday... SDSU is now 39-5 in the Steve Fisher era when holding opponents to 60 points or less... The Aztecs rallied from a nine-point deficit to take a lead... That matches the biggest comeback of the season (also rallied from nine down to defeat Murray State).

► The Bad: The Aztecs shot just 39.6 percent from the field and are now 0-6 when shooting less than 45 percent from the floor... San Diego State was 3-for-20 (15.0 percent) from three-point range, its lowest shooting percentage game from beyond the arc this season... SDSU's starting five scored 34 points combined... Even after the contest, Heath and Abukar combine to score 36.8 points per game.

► Brandon Heath (15 points, seven rebounds, three assists, three steals): Despite scoring just two first-half points, Heath scored 13 of SDSU's 34 second-half points en route to his 44th straight double-digit scoring game... His seven rebounds were a season high... With three steals, Heath became SDSU's all-time leader in career steals with 193, passing Anthony Watson... The senior made three treys, and now has four straight multiple three-point field goal games... For the third straight game he had more assists (3) than turnovers (1)... Heath shared team-high honors in points, rebounds and assists in the game.

► Jerome Habel (15 points, 7-9 FGs, five rebounds): Habel came off the bench to score 15 points on 7-of-9 shooting from the floor... It was the seventh double figure scoring game for the junior this season and coupled with his 11-point effort against New Mexico, Habel has scored in double figures in consecutive games for the first time in his career... He pulled down five rebounds, his highest total on the boards since grabbing 10 rebounds against Lafayette (12-30-06).

► Lorenzo Wade (11 points, seven rebounds, three steals): For the third consecutive game Wade reached double-figures in points with 11... In the last three games, the sophomore has 37 points, 28 rebounds, seven assists and six steals.

San Diego State vs. UNLV: The Series

► This is the 40th meeting between UNLV and San Diego State, with the Rebels owning a 28-11 advantage in the series.

► San Diego State is 4-16 in games played in Las Vegas, but have been victorious its last two games in Sin City and have won three of the last six contests there. The two-game win streak in Las Vegas is the longest in school history.

► The 39 previous meetings are the fewest for the Aztecs against any Mountain West Conference opponent other than second-year league member TCU.

► Steve Fisher has led San Diego State to seven of the school's 11 all-time victories against UNLV. Since taking over the Aztecs, Fisher has guided SDSU to a 7-11 record against the Rebels. Not an eye-popping mark, but impressive when considering SDSU was 4-17 prior to his arrival.

► San Diego State won all three meetings in 2005-06. The Aztecs were victorious 83-67 in Cox Arena on Jan. 14, won 81-70 in Las Vegas on Feb. 16 and advanced the MWC Tournament championship game with a 63-60 win Denver on March 10.

► Last season, before its win at the conference tournament, SDSU recorded consecutive victories over UNLV and swept the season series for the first time in school history in 2005-06. The teams had met twice during the regular season in 11 previous campaigns, with the Rebels recording six sweeps and the teams splitting the two games in the other five seasons.

► With the victory at the league tournament, San Diego State defeated UNLV three times in one season for the first time in school history and also recorded three consecutive wins in the series for the first time in school history.

► Last year in the two schools' first meeting of the season, Marcus Slaughter became the first Aztec since Michael Cage to record a 20-20 game as he posted 20 points and a career-high 20 rebounds in the game.

► More on last year... In Las Vegas on Feb. 16, SDSU junior guard Brandon Heath scored 25 points and dished out seven assists to pace four Aztec players in double-figures. ... At the MWC Tournament, Heath posted a game-high 22 points, while Slaughter recorded 16 points and 14 rebounds.

► Senior Brandon Heath has 164 career points against UNLV. That is the highest point total for any current Aztec player against any team. In seven career games against the Rebels, Heath is averaging 23.4 points, 4.4 assists, 3.3 rebounds and 1.0 steals. Even more remarkable, he has made 45 career free throw attempts against the Rebels and is 45-of-49 (91.8 percent) from the line vs. UNLV.

► Four of the last 15 games (and four of the last 12 regular-season meetings) between the teams have gone into overtime, including both regular season meetings in 2001-02. Of the team's last 15 meetings, four have gone into overtime and there have been a one-point, a two-point game, three three-point, two five-point and two seven-point games.

► Series Tidbits: In four of the last nine games, the winning team has scored exactly 83 points (SDSU was victorious with 83 points earlier this season)... In seven of the 18 games during the Mountain West Conference era, the winning team has had exactly 83 points... Four times in the last 13 games, the losing team has shot better than 50 percent from the field... San Diego State has had seven different leading scorers in the last 11 meetings between the teams (Randy Holcomb, Mike Mackell, Evan Burns, Tony Bland, Aerick Sanders (twice), Brandon Heath (four times) and Marcus Slaughter... In the last eight games between the teams, there have been 45 lead changes and the game has been tied 28 times... The team with more assists has won 14 of the 17 games in the Mountain West Conference era (in one game, the assist totals were even).

LAST MEETING

(1) San Diego State 63, (4) UNLV 60 | March 10, 2006 | Pepsi Center | MWC Tournament
DENVER -- For the second time in the seven-year history of the Mountain West Conference tournament, San Diego State will be playing in the finals.

SDSU advanced to the championship round with a 63-60 win over UNLV at the Pepsi Center in Denver, Colo. Coincidentally, it was the Rebels whom SDSU defeated in its first MWC title game in 2002.

Mountain West Conference Player of the Year Brandon Heath nailed a three-pointer with 36 seconds left near the top of the arc to seal the deal for the Aztecs. The three-pointer was part of Heath's 22 points on the night, marking his 27th consecutive game scoring in double figures against MWC opponents.

The Aztecs led for just about the entire first half before the second half saw four ties and eight lead changes, including two in the final minute.

With the win, SDSU is one win away from an automatic bid to its fifth NCAA Tournament. The semifinal win also tied the school record for the most victories in a season in the Division I era.

It wasn't all Heath, as senior Marcus Slaughter finished the game with 16 points and 14 rebounds. Slaughter and Heath scored every point in the final seven and a half minutes for the Aztecs, except for two free throws from senior John Sharper.

LAST TIME IN LAS VEGAS

San Diego State 81, UNLV 70 | Feb. 16, 2006 | Thomas & Mack Center

LAS VEGAS -- Junior guard Brandon Heath scored 25 points and dished out seven assists to pace four Aztec players in double figures and help lead SDSU to an 81-70 victory over UNLV at The Thomas & Mack Center.

UNLV scored the first basket of the game and the Aztecs never trailed again in sweeping the season series from the Rebels for the first time in school history.

Heath connected on 9-of-18 attempts from the field, including 5-of-9 from three-point range. It marked the 13th time this season and the 33rd time in his career he has scored 20 or more points in a game.

Senior guard John Sharper connected on a career high 19 points, hitting on 5-of-7 attempts from beyond the arc. He also added a career-best six rebounds.

Marcus Slaughter added 15 points, while Mohamed Abukar contributed 13 points and a career high eight rebounds.

Tough Start

Much has been made of San Diego State's 2-3 start to the Mountain West Conference season, but it is worth noting that two of the Aztecs three league losses came against teams and at venues where SDSU loss a year ago when posting a 13-3 record and winning the league.

The Aztecs have dropped games at Brigham Young and at Air Force, places SDSU lost a year ago. In addition, the Cougars and Falcons also sport two of the nation's top three homecourt winning streaks nationally.

Also, it is worth noting that San Diego State was less than 100 percent when facing Wyoming earlier this year as Jerome Habel sprained an ankle in the game and Kyle Spain had the flu.

Below is a look at SDSU's conference results last season as compared to this season.

Sophomore forward Kyle Spain has played more aggressive and has seen his numbers skyrocket of late. Spain, who is averaging 8.3 points and 4.8 rebounds for the season, has 31 points and 19 rebounds in his last three games.

He posted a career-high 22 points and added five rebounds in the victory over Colorado State. He followed that up with seven points and eight rebounds against New Mexico. Saturday against Air Force, he had just two points, but added six rebounds in 22 minutes of action.

His most impressive numbers can be found in the hockey plus/minus stat. This

► SPAIN'S HOCKEY +/-

Below is a look at Kyle Spain's game-by-game hockey +/- figures for MWC games. On indicates in the game, off indicates on the bench.

	On	Off
Wyoming	+4	-5
at Brigham Young	-17	-5
Colorado State	+20	-15
New Mexico	+4	+1
at Air Force	+11	-16
TOTALS	+22	-40

measures the differential in team score when a player is on the court. Spain has been the hockey plus/minus champion in three of the last five games (see box at beginning of note). In addition, in the five MWC games, SDSU has outscored its opponents by 22 points in the 128 minutes he has been on the court and the Aztecs have been outscored by 40 points in the 72 minutes he has been on the bench. That is easily the best total on the team.

Scoring Champ

With 1,915 career points, Brandon Heath ranks first all time on San Diego State's scoring list. The senior surpassed Aztec great and former NBA star Michael Cage for No. 1 in school history in the Mountain West Conference opener vs. Wyoming on Jan. 3. Going into the game with the Cowboys, Heath needed only 16 points to tie Cage and 17 to break the record. The Los Angeles native tied the mark on a pair of free throws at the 14:10 mark of the second half and moved atop the list on an off-balanced layup with 12:31 remaining in the game.

It's only fitting that Heath broke Cage's record as the former Westchester High star last year became the first Aztec since Cage to be named an Associated Press All-American and conference player of the year in the same season.

Heath Is MWC's All-Time Leading Scorer

Brandon Heath surpassed former New Mexico player Ruben Douglas (1,782) on Saturday, Dec. 16, vs. Loyola Marymount to become the Mountain West Conference's all-time leading scorer. The senior guard needed 17 points to tie the record and 18 to break it. Heath, who only had six points at halftime, went on a tear to begin the half and hit a three to tie the record and fittingly hit a 25-foot three-pointer from the top of the key at the 11:51 mark of the second half, to move ahead of Douglas.

Right On Schedule

Despite the loss at Air Force on Saturday, the Aztecs right on pace with last year's Division I school record of 24 wins. At 13-6 after 19 games, San Diego State is on par with the 2005-06 team's pace when they were 13-6 after the same amount of contests.

74 is the Magic Number

Reaching the 74-point plateau seems to bring good fortune for the Aztec as they have done so 30 times since the beginning of last season, including 12 of 17 games this year. In those 30 games, San Diego State has a record of 27-3. The seven times SDSU didn't hit the 74-point mark this season, it wound up losing six of them (at Western Michigan, vs. Arizona, at Washington State, vs. Wyoming, at Brigham Young, at Air Force). The only time San Diego State didn't reach the magic number was against New Mexico and it pulled out the 73-68 victory at Cox Arena.

Free Points

The Aztecs have taken full advantage of their free throw opportunities as they are 270 of 374 on the year, good for 72.2 percent. Last year, San Diego State shot a Division I era school best 72.8 percent from the line, the first time it had cleared 70 percent since 1996-97. In 19 games this year, San Diego State has shot over 80 percent six times after only doing so seven times in 2005-06 (33 games). The improved shooting and increased attempts have also made a difference in the final outcome as four SDSU victories have come by three points or less and eight by seven points or fewer. The Aztecs have outscored their opposition by 84 points from the line and have 93 more attempts (374-281). SDSU has made 11 fewer free throws than its opponents have attempted.

Assist Man

Richie Williams is averaging 5.3 assists in his last six games and leads the conference in the category with an average of 4.79 per game. A two-year starter, Williams currently has a streak of 37 straight games dating back to last season in which he has recorded at least one assist. During the streak, he has had at least four assists in 22 of those games (30 in his career). Only three times in his Aztec career (52 contests), all occurring during his freshman campaign, has he failed to notch an assist.

The Return of Matt Thomas

After missing the first 14 games while recovering from off-season back surgery, Matt Thomas made his way back to the floor against Wyoming. The 6-4 junior guard logged 12 minutes and made an immediate impact when he entered in the first half. Thomas did all of his damage in the opening first half scoring two points, grabbing one rebound and added a block, a steal and zero turnovers in six minutes. At Brigham Young, Thomas received the starting nod in place of an ill Richie Williams and posted a team-high four assists in the loss.

More impressive, he continued his masterful work with the ball. In his last 20 games dating back to last season, he only has 10 turnovers in 207 minutes. And in those 20 games, 13 of them have been of the turnover-free variety.

Recently, Thomas suffered a setback and has not played in the Aztecs' three most recent games (vs. CSU, vs. UNM, at AFA) due to his back.

Among the National Leaders

Although official NCAA statistics have been released, the group at Stats, Inc., who provide daily updates, have the Aztecs ranked among the national leaders in a pair of categories. All stats below are through games of Saturday, January 20.

The Aztecs rank 33th in overall field goal percentage at 48.5 percent. San Diego State has cleared 50 percent from the field eight times in 19 contests this season. The Aztecs have also passed the 60 percent field goal shooting plateau three times this season. The Aztecs are 16th in field goal percentage among teams that have played at least 19 games.

Individually, Brandon Heath ranks tied for 34th among all Division I scorers with a scoring average of 19.1 points.

Triple-Double Waiting to Happen

No player in San Diego State history has had a triple-double, but Richie Williams might be the first Aztec to accomplish the feat. Twice in his brief SDSU career, the San Diego native has come close to posting a triple-double. Last season vs. South Dakota State, Williams went for nine points, nine rebounds and 11 assists and against Lafayette, he recorded eight points, eight rebounds and eight assists. Prior to Williams' arrival on campus, only William Campbell (1987) and Keith Smith (1981 and 1982) came close to legendary status.

Habel is Able

Jerome Habel, who has only played 15 games in his Aztec career, is a model of consistency when out on the floor. In 10 of 15 games this season, the junior from Rockville, Md., has grabbed at least six rebounds and has shot over 50 percent in 12 contests. Thanks to his consistent play, he ranks first on the team in rebounds with 6.0 per game and is second to Jer'Vaughn Johnson in field goal percentage at 62.3 percent.

Heath Having Strong Senior Campaign

Brandon Heath opened his senior season the way he ended his junior campaign which resulted in AP honorable mention All-American and Mountain West Conference player of the year accolades.

Heath leads the team in scoring (19.1 points per game) and steals (40) and is also second on the squad in assists (65). He has connected on 48 of 127 three-point field goal attempts (37.8 percent).

This season, he has already broken the school-record for most consecutive double-digit scoring games as the senior has tallied 10 or more points in 44 consecutive games. Already this season, he has nine games with 20 or more points, including season-high streak of four straight earlier this year (one off his career best). More impressive, against Loyola Marymount, Heath became the MWC's all-time leading scorer with a 25-foot three-pointer surpassing Ruben Douglas for No. 1 and became SDSU's most prolific scorer, moving ahead of Michael Cage, on a second-half layup vs. Wyoming.

Heath has now seen action in 111 games in his career. Below are just a few of his accomplishments in his first 111 games.

- ▶ Made 106 starts
- ▶ Has 98 double-digit scoring games, 47 games with 20 or more points and three 30-point games.
- ▶ Led the team in scoring 51 times, in assists 39 times, in rebounding seven times and in efficiency rating 19 times.

Heath ranks fourth among all active NCAA Division I players in scoring (1,915 points) and has the fifth longest active double-digit scoring streak (44 games). Those charts can be found on the page two of this release.

But Heath is not just a scorer. Earlier this year, he became just the eighth player in school history to record 300 assists and is in second place on the career steals chart with 189.

On Target

Steve Fisher has said on more than one occasion that the Aztecs can put the ball in the basket and this season they have proved it. For the season, SDSU is shooting 48.5 percent, including 38.4 percent from beyond the arc. Through 19 games, San Diego State has shot above 50 percent from the field eight times and above 60 percent three times. From distance, SDSU opened the campaign by hitting at least 50 percent of its three-pointers in four consecutive games.

Century Club

Brandon Heath hit the 100 career games played mark when he saw action against San Diego. He now has played in 111 contests and made 106 starts. The senior is the 16th Aztec to reach the games played milestone in SDSU's Division I era. He is only eight games behind former teammate John Sharper (119 games played) for No. 1 all-time at San Diego State. Heath is also the just the fourth Aztec to start at least 100 games. Michael Cage is the all-time leader with 112 starts.

Zoning In

Lorenzo Wade has been in the zone when shooting the basketball so far in his first year at San Diego State. The sophomore from Las Vegas has shot at least 50 percent from the field in 11 of 19 games. To date, Wade is shooting 47.3 percent after making 86 of his 182 shots. When you take away his three-point attempts, he is shooting 51.4 percent (72-of-140).

Exploding Onto the Scene

Jerome Habel certainly made a name for himself in his debut against California with 23 points (10-11 FG), seven rebounds and three blocks. Even though the junior from San Bernardino Valley College-transfer did not come from a Division I school, his first game as an Aztec was phenomenal when compared to SDSU's other transfers on the current roster. Last season, Mohamed Abukar scored 10 points (4-10 FG) and had two rebounds and two assists in a losing effort at Providence in his first game. Meanwhile, Lorenzo Wade posted 11 points and four rebounds in his first game with

Everyone Plays, Everyone Scores

In San Diego State's game vs. Campbell, all 10 players who saw game action scored at least two points marking the first game since Feb. 17, 2005, at Colorado State, that every SDSU player who had his number called recorded at least a point.

Six players (Abukar, Habel, Heath, Johnson, Wade and Williams) also scored in double-figures vs. the Fighting Camels, the first time an Aztec team has accomplished the feat since Nov. 27, 2002, at Portland. That game featured 18 points from Steve Sir, 17 from Mike Mackell, 15 from Tony Bland, 14 from Deandre Moore and 13 apiece from Tommy Johnson and John Sharper.

"JV" on Varsity

Freshman Jer'Vaughn Johnson had a coming out party of sorts against Campbell. The forward from Compton, Calif., had seen action in every game prior to the Fighting Camels matchup and scored a combined 33 points. But in just 18 minutes of action, Johnson went on to score over half of his season total as he finished the game with a career-best 17 points on 8-of-9 shooting. Not only did he almost score a point per minute, he also grabbed a personal-high six rebounds.

Mr. Clutch

His nickname might be "Bottoms", but "Mr. Clutch" might be more appropriate. In his career at San Diego State, Heath has made seven shots that have given his team a lead it did not relinquish with less than 1:45 to play in the contest (he also has one other clutch shot that tied a game using the same criteria).

One of the most dramatic occurred in the season opener vs. Murray State at the Shamrock Invitational. After missing a layup and Kyle Spain's put-back dunk failed, Heath came from behind the Racer player, stole the ball, dribbled the other way and with one foot over the halfcourt line shot the ball and banked it in to give SDSU the three-point victory. In the following game at Saint Mary's, Heath nailed two free throws with 17 seconds left to give the Aztecs lead is would not relinquish.

Mo' from Abukar

Mohamed Abukar has always been able to put the ball in the basket. Coming into the year, he had 20 career double-figure scoring games, including 17 last season. This year is no different as the senior from San Diego opened with five straight double-digit scoring games and has 16 total. The one thing that pops out on the stat sheet these days is his ability to rebound. In two seasons at Florida, the most rebounds he ever collected was five and in his first year on Montezuma Mesa he had seven or more boards just six times with a career best of nine in the NCAA Tournament game vs. Indiana. Although he only had one rebound in the opener against Murray State, the last 18 games Abukar has recorded 111 rebounds (6.2 rpg), including a career-high 10 boards against Seattle Pacific and nine at UC Santa Barbara. In doing so, Abukar posted his first double-double vs. the Falcons when he finished with 22 points.

The Best Month Ever

San Diego State may be coming off the most successful month in school history. In November, the Aztecs equaled their best start in school history by winning eight straight games, seven of which came against teams that posted a winning record in 2005-06.

In months in which San Diego State played at least five games, only five times have the Aztecs posted a month without a defeat. Three of those five occurrences came in the 1930s.

The 8-0 record in November was the most successful month in the Division I era and marked the best month since 1967 when the Aztecs posted a 7-0 month in January.

Below is a look at the top months in school history, minimum five games.

Heath Named MWC Player of the Week

San Diego State senior guard Brandon Heath was named Mountain West Conference Player of the Week on Dec. 18, two days after he broke the all-time MWC scoring record. The award, his second this season, extends his school record for most weekly awards to seven after he earned the honor three times as a junior and twice as a sophomore.

A 6-4 guard from Los Angeles, Heath helped the Aztecs to a 2-0 record for the week with victories over Campbell (119-82) and Loyola Marymount (74-63). In San Diego State's two wins, he averaged 22.0 points, 3.0 rebounds and 5.5 assists on 59.3 percent shooting from the field, including 58.3 percent from bonus distance.

Against the Fighting Camels, Heath scored a game-high tying 19 points on 8-of-13 shooting and finished the contest by hitting 3 of 5 from the three-point range. Not only did he fill up the scoring column, the MWC's top returning player handed out a game-best tying seven assists and two rebounds in leading SDSU to its fourth highest offensive output in school history and its most points since 1991.

For an encore, Heath went for 25 points, four rebounds, four assists and two steals in San Diego State's victory over Loyola Marymount. After only scoring six points in the game's initial 20 minutes, Heath went 7 for 8 from the field, including 4 for 5 from beyond the arc, in the second half to tally 19 of SDSU's 39 second-half points.

The school's No. 2 all-time scorer tied the league's scoring mark held by New Mexico's Ruben Douglas (1,782) with a three-pointer and moved atop the list with a 25-foot three-pointer with 11:51 remaining in the game to become the MWC's most prolific scorer.

Aztecs Picked to Win Mountain West for Second Straight Year; Heath Tabbed Top Returning Player, Abukar First Team

San Diego State men's basketball was picked by the Mountain West Conference media to repeat as 2006-07 MWC champions in a preseason poll released by the conference on Oct. 26. The selection marks the second consecutive season in which the Aztecs have been picked to win the league. Last year, SDSU went on to record a 24-9 record, including a 13-3 mark in conference action, en route to both the regular season and conference tournament titles.

The Aztecs received 17 of 21 first-place votes and 192 total points to lead the league. Brigham Young finished second with one first-place vote and 156 points overall, while Air Force was picked to finish third after garnering three first-place votes and 147 total points. Rounding out the poll was Utah (114 points), New Mexico (101), UNLV (99), Colorado State (68), Wyoming (51) and TCU (27).

Individually, the league media tabbed senior guard Brandon Heath as the MWC's top returning player, a year after it selected former Aztec Marcus Slaughter as its top player. The Los Angeles native earned 2006 MWC Player of the Year honors after averaging 18.4 points, 3.4 rebounds and 3.5 assists during the campaign. During conference action, Heath increased his production as he averaged 19.5 points, 3.4 rebounds and 4.2 assists. Besides earning the league's top individual honor, he was named to the all-MWC first team and the all-MWC tournament squad. On a national and regional level, Heath earned Associated Press honorable mention All-America accolades as well as being named to the United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) all-District IX team and the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) all-District 13 first team.

Joining Heath in receiving individual accolades was senior forward Mohamed Abukar, who was named to the all-MWC first team. The preseason honor comes on the heels of a 2006 season in which Abukar averaged 15.3 points and 4.6 rebounds in 16 conference games en route to earning second-team all-league recognition. Last season at the annual media day event, Abukar was named MWC Newcomer of the Year.

With Abukar being voted among the league's top five, this marks the second straight year that San Diego State has placed two players on the preseason all-conference first team.

Ring in the New Season

Coming off a season in which San Diego State tied the overall school record with 24 victories, set a Division I record for wins in a season, captured its first Mountain West Conference regular-season crown and its second MWC tournament title, excitement surrounding the program is at an all-time high.

Coupled last year's successes with the return of four returning starters, a strong recruiting class and a high-profile transfer, there is no wonder as to why great things are expected of the 2006-07 ballclub.

Below are reasons why many believe SDSU will be dancing come March:

► Brandon Heath: Heath returns to Montezuma Mesa after being named MWC Player of the Year, all-MWC first team and earning Associated Press honorable mention All-America accolades... He is one of three players in the nation to rank among the NCAA's top 75 in scoring and top 40 in free throw percentage, three-point field goals made and three-point field goal percentage... He returns as the reigning MWC scoring, free throw percentage and three-point field goal champion.

► Mohamed Abukar: Entering 2005-06, he was tabbed MWC Newcomer of the Year and he didn't disappoint as he was named all-conference second team last season... Once he became eligible last December he helped the Aztecs to 17 wins in 21 games as a starter and has currently scored in double figures in 13 of his last 15 games... In conference games only, he ranked No. 3 in free throw percentage (.857), No. 4 in field goal percentage (.537) and No. 9 in scoring (15.2).

► Four Returning Starters: In addition to Heath and Abukar, SDSU returns Kyle Spain and Richie Williams to round out its four returning starters. Steve Fisher has coached seven teams with four returning starters that he coached off a team the previous season and all seven times he reached the postseason (six NCAA appearances and an NIT championship).

► Lorenzo Wade: After sitting out the 2005-06 season due to NCAA transfer rules, the former Louisville Cardinal is eligible for 2006-07. Wade joins the Aztecs having played on Rick Pitino's 2005 squad which advanced to the Final Four. That season, he played in 35 games and scored a career-high 14 points on two different occasions.

Four Starters Returning for Fisher Equals Postseason

In his coaching history, Steve Fisher plus four or more returning starters has resulted in tremendous success. Seven previous times Steve Fisher has returned four or more starters from a team coached, with those clubs advancing to the NCAA Tournament on six occasions and winning the postseason NIT championship once. Below is a look at those clubs.

Season	Returning Starters	Final Record	Postseason (Record)
1989-90	4	23-8	NCAA Second Round (1-1)
1991-92	4	25-9	NCAA Runner-Up (5-1)
1992-93	5	31-5	NCAA Runner-Up (5-1)
1993-94	4	24-8	NCAA Regional Finalist (3-1)
1996-97	4	24-11	NIT Champions (5-0)
2001-02	4	21-12	NCAA First Round (0-1)
2005-06	4	24-9	NCAA First Round (0-1)
2006-07	4

Those seven teams have posted a combined 172-62 (73.5 percent) winning percentage, have never failed to win at least 21 games and have an unbelievable 19-6 (76.0 percent) record in postseason games.

Steve Fisher has guided the Aztec basketball program to unparalleled heights. In seven seasons he has taken a program that regularly missed out on the conference postseason tournament, to one which has become of the best programs on the West Coast and has the Aztecs knocking on the door of the elite teams in the country.

The best news for SDSU fans is that Fisher signed a new five-year contract prior to the start of practice in October that will keep him in San Diego for the foreseeable future.

When Fisher arrived on the scene in March of 1999, he found a basketball program that wasn't good enough to be called average. The Aztecs had suffered through 13 losing seasons in 14 years. Members of the school's last NCAA team were in the early stages of middle age. The expectations were set. The Aztecs were expected to lose. The year before Fisher's arrival on campus, San Diego State won just four games.

Now those days are a distant memory. Fisher guided San Diego State to the NCAA Tournament in 2002, the postseason NIT in 2003 and the NCAA Tournament last season. In addition, the Aztecs may have their best team in school history entering the 2006-07 campaign with four starters returning off a team that won a Division I school-record 24 games, won the conference regular season and postseason championships and was just a minute away from claiming their first Division I NCAA Tournament victory in school history.

On March 26, 1999, San Diego State announced its arrival on the basketball scene in the form of a news conference to introduce its new coach, Steve Fisher. Fresh from a stint with the Sacramento Kings and with three appearances in the Final Four and a national championship in his pocket, he rolled up his sleeves and went to work. And work was needed. It looked to be a daunting challenge and yet the man with one of the highest winning percentages in NCAA Tournament history had no reservations.

No head-coaching career, at any level, started quicker than that of Steve Fisher. Six games into his head-coaching career he was undefeated and sporting a national championship ring. And the success didn't stop with the national title.

Fisher's eight-plus seasons at the University of Michigan produced a 184-82 (.692) record, nine postseason tournament berths and three trips to the NCAA championship game, including the magical run to the 1989 national title.

Under Fisher, the Wolverines also claimed an NIT championship, won at least 20 games four times and finished among the top three in the powerful Big Ten Conference five times. In 1995, Michigan set a league record by holding opponents to just 39.4 percent shooting from the floor.

Fisher and Company raised the bar even higher in the postseason. His seven NCAA Tournament teams at Michigan combined for a 20-6 record, ranking him fourth among active coaches and ninth in NCAA history with a winning percentage of .769 in the national bracket. Only 13 coaches have taken more teams to the Final Four, including just five that are still active. He is one of three coaches to take three squads to the Final Four in the first five years of a head-coaching career, and one of just six coaches to lead a team to the championship of the NIT as well as the NCAA.

His accomplishments may be even greater at San Diego State. In 2001-02 he led the Aztecs to the postseason for the first time since 1985 and for just the fourth time ever. The 21 wins were second most for the school as a Division I program and the most since 1985. The fact that those numbers came after just three seasons signifies what is one of the great recent turnarounds in college basketball.

He followed that up with a third consecutive season with a .500 or better record in 2002-03 and led San Diego State back to the postseason for the second consecutive season for only the second time in the school's Division I history. In addition, SDSU claimed its first Division I postseason victory with a win in the NIT.

The future looks even brighter. The Aztecs return four starters to go along with another nationally-ranked recruiting class have SDSU fans looking forward to the 2006-07 campaign.

Game 1

San Diego State 87
Murray State 84

Nov. 10, 2006 ♦ Moraga, Calif.
McKeon Pavilion ♦ Att.: 2,100

MORAGA, Calif. - San Diego State opened the season with a victory following an NCAA Tournament appearance the year before for the first time in SDSU's Division I era after Brandon Heath nailed a half-court shot as time expired to lift the Aztecs to a thrilling 87-84 victory over Murray State at the Shamrock Invitational.

SDSU started the game by spotting the 2006 NCAA Tournament participant Racers a nine-point lead nearly six minutes into the contest. MSU came out firing, particularly Tyler Holloway, who hit four three-pointers in the first half, but the Aztecs rallied to retake the lead and went into the half leading by seven.

In the second half, San Diego State kept the pressure on the Racers increasing its lead to as many as 10 points with just over 14 minutes left in the game. But Murray State cut the lead to four in less than two minutes setting the tone for the rest of the game.

The two teams went back and forth with MSU cutting the lead to three on numerous occasions. Then with 25 seconds left, Holloway hit a three-pointer to reduce the Aztecs' lead to three and was followed by Bruce Carter's triple with 15 seconds left to tie the game at 84.

After Carter's three, SDSU inbounded the ball to Heath, who dribbled the ball downcourt and missed a runner with five seconds left and the subsequent put-back dunk by Kyle Spain rimmed out and was rebounded by Holloway near mid-court. Heath then pursued the ball, poked it away and took it up court and fired a shot just past the half-court line and banked it in to give SDSU the victory.

Game 2

San Diego State 74
Saint Mary's (CA) 73

Nov. 11, 2006 ♦ Moraga, Calif.
McKeon Pavilion ♦ Att.: 2,056

MORAGA, Calif. - Brandon Heath made two free throws with 17 seconds left in the game to give San Diego State a lead it would not relinquish as the Aztecs defeated Saint Mary's (CA), 74-73, in the second game of the Shamrock Invitational.

The Gaels controlled the game from the outset and jumped out to a seven-point lead with just three and a half minutes gone by. The Aztecs took a brief 23-22 lead on a layup by Heath, but it was short-lived as SMC's Ian O'Leary responded with his own layup to retake the lead.

O'Leary's bucket led to an eight-point Saint Mary's lead with under three minutes to go and went into the half up 39-35.

Once the second half started the Aztecs went on a 5-0 run to take their second lead of the game. The contest went back and forth over the next 10 minutes before SDSU began to pull away.

San Diego State took a six-point lead on a jumper by Mohamed Abukar (21 points) that eventually grew to nine points with 5:44 remaining.

But the game reverted to its old ways when the Gaels went on a 7-0 run and later a 5-0 run late in the contest to take a 73-72 lead with 34 seconds left.

After a Saint Mary's timeout, SDSU put the ball in Heath's hands, who nailed a pair of free throws after being fouled.

The game had one more intense moment as SMC's Todd Golden missed a three-pointer at the horn that would have given the Gaels the victory.

Heath, who hit a half-court shot to win the game at the buzzer the previous night, finished the contest with 20 points, marking the second time in as many games he reached the 20-point plateau.

Game 3

San Diego State 76
Seattle Pacific 73

Nov. 12, 2006 ♦ Moraga, Calif.
McKeon Pavilion ♦ Att.: 1,627

MORAGA, Calif. - San Diego State had four players score in double figures in helping the Aztecs to a 76-73 victory over Division II Seattle Pacific at the Shamrock Invitational. The win allowed SDSU to claim its first in-season event title since 1987 and fifth overall during its time as a Division I school.

The Falcons came out firing as they connected on 13 first-half shots, six of which were three-point field goals. Dustin Bremmerman had the hot hand making 7 of 11 from the field, including a trio of three-pointers en route to 19 first-half points.

Seattle Pacific led by as many as five points with 3:02 left in the first half, but the Aztecs fought back to tie the score at 34 after the first 20 minutes of play.

In the second half, San Diego State took control of the game and led by seven points with 11:32 remaining. After an SPU free throw to cut the Aztecs lead to six, SDSU went on a 6-0 run to go up 12 with 9:10 left in the ballgame.

The Falcons kept chipping away at the Aztec lead and trailed by seven with 38 seconds showing on the clock until Bremmerman made two layups in four seconds to cut the lead to three.

Once SDSU inbounded the ball, Jered Moultrie stole the ball away from Richie Williams with 19 seconds left and Marques Echols' three-point shot came up empty handing the Aztecs the win.

For the game, Mohamed Abukar had his first career double-double with 22 points and 10 rebounds, while Brandon Heath scored 20 and Lorenzo Wade and Williams added 14 and 12 points, respectively.

Game 4

San Diego State 84
UC San Diego 48

Nov. 15, 2006 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena ♦ Att.: 6,017

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State held UC San Diego to just 14 first-half points en route to a 84-48 victory in the Aztecs' home opener at Cox Arena.

SDSU started the game with a 15-2 lead and held the Tritons to one field goal over the first six minutes before Andrew Browning hit a jumper to halt the streak at 13:54.

At halftime, the Aztecs found themselves ahead 41-14 with Brandon Heath leading all scorers with 12 points on 5-of-6 shooting.

The second half was a carbon copy of the first with SDSU holding UCSD without a point for the first 4 minutes and 25 seconds. After a pair of Triton free throws, the Aztecs found themselves ahead by 36 points.

Not two minutes later, UC San Diego had spotting San Diego State a 42-point lead and the Aztecs cruised to a 36-point win.

Heath finished the game with a game-high 18 points, while backcourt teammate Richie Williams posted 11 points.

In the frontcourt, Lorenzo Wade scored a career-best 15 points to go along with seven rebounds and Mohamed Abukar contributed 12. Jon Pastorek came off the bench and recorded 13 points in 20 minutes.

Leading the way for UCSD was Jordan Lawley who finished with 18 points and five rebounds.

The 36-point victory was the largest margin of victory since SDSU defeated UC San Diego by 45 in 2001. In addition, the Aztecs' 42-point lead with 13:10 remaining was their largest in the last two seasons.

Game 5

San Diego State 86
California 79

Nov. 18, 2006 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena ♦ Att.: 8,028

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State snapped a seven-game losing streak to Pacific-10 Conference schools with its 86-79 victory over California at Cox Arena.

The Golden Bears, who handed the Aztecs their worst loss of the season a year ago, allowed SDSU to shoot 60.7 percent for the game and an astounding 70 percent in the second half.

San Diego State had three players score in double figures and were led by Jerome Habel.

Habel, playing in his first game of his career after serving a team suspension, was 10-of-11 shooting for a game-high 23 points and had seven rebounds.

Mohamed Abukar added 22 points and seven boards and Brandon Heath had 19 points and a game-high seven assists.

In the first half, SDSU shot 50 percent from the field and limited California to 38.7 percent, but went into the half trailing 31-30 due to the Golden Bears making two more three-pointers than the Aztecs.

Midway through the second half San Diego State went on an 8-0 run to go up 11 points with 8:34 remaining. Cal got within three points with 13 seconds on the clock, but Abukar and Kyle Spain hit four free throws in the final 10 seconds to put the game out of reach.

The Golden Bears were led by freshman Ryan Anderson's 21 points and eight rebounds.

The Aztecs improved to 5-0 for the just the fifth time in their Division I history.

Game 6

San Diego State 79
UC Riverside 45

Nov. 21, 2006 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena ♦ Att.: 5,988

SAN DIEGO - Kyle Spain went perfect for the night connecting on all six field goals, his lone three-point attempt and each of his five free throws en route to a career-high-tying 18 points and four rebounds in lifting San Diego State to a 79-45 victory over UC Riverside at Cox Arena.

Spain was just part of a scoring attack that included seven Aztecs scoring at least six points.

Brandon Heath led the next tier of scorers with 13 points, followed by Mohamed Abukar and Jer'Vaughn Johnson's nine and Jerome Habel, Lorenzo Wade and Richie Williams' six.

Johnson's point total marked a career best for the freshman, while Habel, who was making his first start as an Aztec, had 10 rebounds.

UC Riverside started the game on a positive note when Henrik Thomsen hit a three-point shot 14 seconds into the game. Unfortunately for the Highlanders, SDSU scored 15 unanswered points and never looked back and wound up with a 45-20 lead after 20 minutes of action.

The Aztecs kept the pressure on UCR as their lead grew to 30 with 18:44 left in the game. The closest the Highlanders got the rest of the way was 22 points with just under 10 minutes remaining after Justin Bell made a layup.

The 34-point victory over UC Riverside was the Aztecs' largest margin of victory over a Division I school since they defeated Florida Atlantic by 33 on Nov. 30, 2001.

Game 7

San Diego State 76
UC Santa Barbara 72

Nov. 25, 2006 ♦ Santa Barbara, Calif.
The Thunderdome ♦ Att.: 1,267

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. -- Brandon Heath scored 23 of his game-high 29 points in the second half to lead San Diego State to a 76-72 victory over UC Santa Barbara at The Thunderdome.

The visiting Aztecs were in control of the game for the majority of the first half holding a lead as large as eight points with just over 10 minutes left. However, UCSB's James Powell hit two free throws at the 6:22 mark to give the Gauchos the lead.

UCSB extended the lead to five after buckets by Alex Harris and Powell. But Jerome Habel kept San Diego State in the game by making three consecutive baskets to cut the Gaucho lead to two, 31-29, going into intermission.

Habel finished the first 20 minutes of action with 14 points on 7-of-8 shooting.

In the second half, SDSU struggled to get into a rhythm offensively and allowed UC Santa Barbara to increase its lead to eight with 12 minutes showing on the clock.

As the game continued, the Gauchos maintained its cushion until the Aztecs went on a 10-0 spurt to move past UCSB, 58-55, with under five minutes to play.

San Diego State pulled away and padded its lead to 69-62 with 1 minute and 30 seconds left, but UC Santa Barbara would not go away as it cut the Aztecs lead to three thanks to a three-point play by Justin Joyner with 24 seconds on the clock.

But down the stretch, SDSU hit three free throws to put the game out of UCSB's reach and escaped with its seventh consecutive victory and its second-best all-time start to open the season.

Heath's double-figure scoring effort was his 32nd consecutive game with at least 10 points, tying him for the school lead with Zack Jones.

Game 8

San Diego State 79
San Diego 76

Nov. 29, 2006 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena ♦ Att.: 9,075

SAN DIEGO - Senior guard Brandon Heath scored eight of his 21 points in the final 28 seconds of the game to help San Diego State hold off San Diego, 79-76, at Cox Arena on Wednesday night.

The victory was the third straight in the series at home for the Aztecs, who also tied the school-record for the best start to a season and gave head coach Steve Fisher the best start of his career.

San Diego State led 41-40 at intermission, and took the lead for good on a dunk by Jerome Habel with 15:22 to play in the second half. The Aztecs built the advantage to 10 points, leading 67-57 with 6:51 to play. A frantic San Diego rally cut the SDSU advantage to three points with 2:42 remaining.

Heath extended the advantage to five points with a jumper, and made six consecutive free throws in the final 15 seconds to clinch the victory for San Diego State.

Senior forward Mohamed Abukar led the way for the Aztecs with 22 points, seven rebounds and three assists. He connected on 8-of-14 shots from the field, including a straightaway 24-foot three-point field goal to tie the game in the first half.

Sophomore Lorenzo Wade came off the bench to contribute 14 points and six rebounds and classmate Kyle Spain added 12 points and four rebounds for the Aztecs.

San Diego was led by Ross DeRogatis with 23 points on the strength of five three-point field goals.

Heath scored in double figures for the 33rd consecutive game to set a new school record.

Game 9

Western Michigan 84
San Diego State 73

Dec. 2, 2006 ♦ Kalamazoo, Mich.
University Arena ♦ Att.: 3,218

KALAMAZOO, Mich. - San Diego State had its 8-0 start to begin the season ruined by Western Michigan as the Broncos handed the Aztecs their first defeat of the season, 84-73, at University Arena.

SDSU had five players score in double figures, but could not overcome 22 turnovers that led to 21 WMU points.

Mohamed Abukar led the way for the Aztecs with 17 points on 6-of-11 shooting, including 3-of-4 from three-point distance. Jerome Habel added 14 points and seven rebounds, while Lorenzo Wade contributed 12 points and a career-best eight rebounds off the bench.

The starting backcourt tandem of Brandon Heath and Richie Williams added 13 and 12 points, respectively, but combined to shoot 7-for-24 with nine turnovers.

At the start of the game, San Diego State led by as many as eight, but lost the lead on a three-pointer by David Kool with 12:42 left in the first half.

As the half came to a close, SDSU found itself up by four with 2:19 remaining, but the Broncos went on a 9-0 run to end the half and went into the locker room up 44-39.

In the second half, WMU increased its lead to seven, but the Aztecs went on a run of their own to take a seven-point lead with 7:36 left in the game.

Just as SDSU did, the Broncos went on their own 11-2 spurt to regain the lead and never looked back.

Western Michigan's Andre Ricks was the game's high scorer with 29 points on 10-of-17 shooting. Teammate Joe Reitz added 18 points and seven rebounds, while Andrew Hershberger grabbed 10 rebounds.

Game 10

(14/15) Arizona 69
 San Diego State 48
 Dec. 9, 2006 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
 Cox Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State was held to its lowest field goal, three-point and free throw percentage of the season in a 69-48 defeat at the hands of 14th/15th-ranked Arizona before a sellout crowd in the second game of the third annual San Diego SLAM. No. 22/24 Oklahoma State beat Ball State, 75-56, in the first game of the yearly doubleheader.

The Wildcats never trailed in the game, but could not shake the Aztecs in the early-on. SDSU stayed within six points of UA for the first 10 minutes and tied the score at 14 with 10:34 left in the first half.

That would be the closest San Diego State would get the rest of the way.

The Wildcats held the Aztecs scoreless nearly four minutes until Kyle Spain made a layup with 49 seconds on the clock. Unfortunately for SDSU, Arizona freshman Chase Budinger responded with a three-pointer to give the 'Cats a 38-22 lead going into the locker room.

In the second half, Arizona kept the pressure on the Aztecs until Brandon Heath hit a three-pointer to cap a 10-3 run to close the UA gap to nine points with just under seven minutes remaining.

But like the end of the first half, the Wildcats had an answer in the form of a 12-2 spurt, 10 of which came from Marcus Williams and Mustafa Shakur, to put the game out of reach for the host Aztecs.

Williams, the game's most valuable player, finished with 21 points and 16 rebounds, while Shakur added 14 points and eight rebounds.

Meanwhile for SDSU, Heath ended the contest with a team-high 14 points and moved into sole possession of second place on San Diego State's all-time scoring list with his second bucket of the night.

The sellout crowd of 12,414 marks the fourth such game in Cox Arena history and the second against Arizona.

Game 11

San Diego State 119
 Campbell 82
 Dec. 12, 2006 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
 Cox Arena ♦ Att.: 4,779

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State snapped a two-game losing streak by shooting a Cox Arena-record 69.6 percent from the field in defeating Atlantic Sun Conference member Campbell, 119-82.

The Aztecs' point total was an arena record and marked the fourth highest offensive output in school history. It was also the 39th time in SDSU's Division I history that the Aztecs broke the century mark and the first time in 241 games.

The Fighting Camels started the game by scoring the first five points of the game and increased their lead to as many as seven with 13:21 on the clock.

San Diego State slowly chipped away at the lead and used a 12-0 run to take over the game. Once the Camels put an end to the streak, the Aztecs stayed ahead for the rest of the half to go into the locker room, 58-42, after shooting an outstanding 77.4 percent from the field and 61.5 percent (8-13) from three-point distance.

In the second half, SDSU poured it on, so much so that all 10 Aztecs who saw the floor scored at least two points and six players scored in double figures.

Lorenzo Wade was the game's high scorer with a career-high 21 points on 8-of-10 shooting. Frontcourt teammate Jer'Vaughn Johnson also got into the act as he, too, established career highs with 17 points and six rebounds in just 18 minutes.

Seniors Mohamed Abukar and Brandon Heath each scored 19 points apiece with Abukar grabbing seven rebounds and Heath dishing out a season-high seven assists.

Also in double-figures for the Aztecs were Jerome Habel with 12 points (6-7 FG) and Richie Williams, who posted a season-high 15 points.

Game 12

San Diego State 74
 Loyola Marymount 63
 Dec. 16, 2006 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
 Cox Arena ♦ Att.: 6,033

SAN DIEGO - Brandon Heath scored a game-high 25 points with 19 coming in the second half and in the process became the Mountain West Conference's all-time scoring leader in San Diego State's 74-63 victory over Loyola Marymount at Cox Arena.

Heath, who hit a three-pointer to tie former New Mexico player Ruben Douglas at 1,782 points, nailed a 25-foot three-pointer at the top of the key to etch his name atop the league's all-time scoring list.

The game started with the Lions taking a couple of four-point leads in the first five minutes of the game, but the Aztecs tied the score at 13 with 14:10 showing on the clock and never looked back.

SDSU was fueled by Kyle Spain's 11 first-half points. The sophomore made two shots from beyond the three-point arc, was 4-for-5 from the field and added a career-high tying two blocks in the first 20 minutes of play. Spain ended the game with 13 points.

As the second half started with the Aztecs sporting a 35-25 lead, Heath took over the game. The senior scored eight of SDSU's first 12 points, then he hit a three to tie the MWC record and at the 11:51 mark, made a 25-footer to become the league's most prolific scorer.

LMU did not go away easily as it went on a 14-2 run spanning four-plus minutes and got to within six points until Mohamed Abukar made two free throws with 2:10 left to put the game out of reach.

Abukar finished the game with 17 points and seven rebounds, while Jerome Habel grabbed a game-high nine rebounds and Richie Williams dished out six assists.

Game 13

Washington State 64
San Diego State 54
Dec. 21, 2006 ♦ Seattle, Wash.
Key Arena ♦ Att.: 5,872

SEATTLE -- San Diego State had its two-game winning streak snapped by Washington State in Seattle at the Cougar Hardwood Classic despite receiving a game-high 20 points from Brandon Heath.

The Aztecs trailed early spotting the Cougars a 5-0 lead less than a minute and a half into the game. But SDSU methodically chipped away at the lead and took control of the game at the 8:15 mark of the first half when it led 20-18 on a slam dunk by Lorenzo Wade.

The San Diego State lead would eventually swell to 10 points and the Aztecs went into the locker room up, 33-23, after holding WSU to 28.6 percent shooting, including 1 for 12 (8.3 percent) from behind the arc. In comparison, SDSU shot 52.2 percent from the field and was 3 of 6 from bonus distance.

As one sided as the first half was, the second half was the complete opposite.

Both schools traded points to open the final 20 minutes, but that is when Washington State used a stifling defense to control the Aztec offensive attack.

Following two Heath free throws to give SDSU a 37-29 lead, the Cougars went on a 21-0 run that lasted just over 10 minutes before Mohamed Abukar converted a three-point play to put a halt to the spurt. At that point, WSU was ahead by 10 points and would never let the Aztecs get within eight points the rest of the way.

During Washington State's decisive run, the Cougars forced San Diego State to eight turnovers and limited the Aztecs to 0-for-5 shooting.

Besides Heath, only Abukar finished in double figures for SDSU with 12 points. Meanwhile, Jerome Habel had a team-best six rebounds off the bench with JerVaughn Johnson making his first career start.

Game 14

San Diego State 78
Lafayette 68
Dec. 30, 2006 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena ♦ Att.: 5,881

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State forward Mohamed Abukar connected on 10 of 16 shots and finished the game with a career-high tying 26 points in leading the Aztecs to a 78-68 victory over Lafayette.

In addition to the earning its 11th win of the season, San Diego State helped head coach Steve Fisher tally his 300th career win.

The Aztecs, who were playing the Leopards for the first time in school history, had trouble shaking the Patriot League member in the first half.

SDSU had an eight-point lead more than five minutes into the game and Lafayette cut it down to two before the Aztecs stretched their lead to 10 points on three different occasions. But as the half came to a close, the Leopards chipped away and were only down three points, 39-36, going into the locker room.

The opening minutes of the second half was more of the same as Lafayette continued to stay in the game and were twice down by one with just under 15 minutes left in the game. However, Brandon Heath scored eight points in a four-minute span to spark a 14-2 Aztec run to break the game open.

SDSU led comfortably and built its lead to 16, but the Leopards mounted a bit of a comeback and outscored the Aztecs 12-3 over three and a half minutes to get within seven with 3:30 left in the game.

Lafayette found itself trailing by six with 33 seconds left, but the deficit proved to be too much and Abukar added four more points to provide the final margin.

Heath finished the game with 20 points, while Lorenzo Wade had 11 points and a career-high four blocks. Richie Williams nearly posted the school's first triple-double with eight points, eight rebounds and eight assists.

Game 15

Wyoming 66
San Diego State 65
Jan. 3, 2007 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena ♦ Att.: 6,874

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State guard Brandon Heath scored 26 points and became the Aztecs' all-time scoring leader, but it was not enough as Wyoming hit a three-point basket with seven seconds left en route to a 66-65 victory at Cox Arena in the Mountain West Conference opener.

Heath, who needed 16 points to tie Michael Cage (1,846) for the scoring record, moved atop the chart with his 18th point of the contest at the 12:31 mark of the second half.

SDSU, who shot just 30.3 percent from the field, outscored the Cowboys 14-3 from the charity stripe in the first half to go into halftime up 35-30.

San Diego State led by as many as seven points early in the second half, but its lead dwindled to one with just under 12 minutes remaining.

After a missed three-pointer by Heath, Wyoming regained the lead on a Joseph Taylor dunk. But similar to the first half, the Aztecs took brief control of the game and went ahead by five with 7:03 left.

On the next possession, UW would score the first three points of a 10-0 run to take a 61-59 lead only to have the Aztecs go on a 9-0 run themselves, making the score 65-61 with 52 seconds left.

Twenty seconds later, Wyoming's Brandon Ewing (19 points) made his way to the rim and connected on a layup with 31 seconds on the clock to bring the Cowboys to within 65-63. After the Aztecs inbounded the ball, Heath was fouled and missed the front end of a one-and-one still up by two.

As UW brought the ball down, Heath poked the ball away and a mad scramble for the ball ensued before Ewing found James Spencer in the corner for the game-winning three.

Following a timeout, SDSU inbounded the ball to Richie Williams and his running layup was off the mark giving Wyoming the victory.

Brigham Young 80
San Diego State 58
Jan. 6, 2007 ♦ Provo, Utah
Marriott Center ♦ Att.: 9,290

PROVO, Utah - San Diego State continued its cold shooting and dropped its second consecutive Mountain West Conference game to open league play in an 80-58 loss to Brigham Young.

The Aztecs, who made the first basket of game to take their only lead, shot just 40 percent from the field after shooting 34.4 percent in the MWC opener against Wyoming.

Despite never leading after the contest's initial basket, SDSU kept the game close for most of the first half.

BYU, which led by seven with 8:23 before intermission, allowed the Aztecs to trim the lead to three, 20-17, following four straight points from Mohamed Abukar. But over the next six minutes, the Cougars went on a 15-6 run to close out the half and had a 35-23 lead going into the locker room.

Once play resumed, Brigham Young carried its momentum from the first half into the second and never let up.

On three separate occasions, BYU led by as many as 25 points before settling for the 22-point victory.

Brandon Heath led the Aztecs with 13 points, extending his school record for consecutive double-figure scoring games to 41. Also scoring in double digits was Mohamed Abukar, who added seven rebounds, and Jerome Habel, each scoring 12 apiece.

For the Cougars, Rashaun Broadus led the way with 19 points and Lee Cumnard had a career day with 16 points, 11 rebounds, four assists, three steals and two blocked shots. In addition, Trent Plaisted chipped in with 13 points and six blocks, while Keena Young had 12 points and eight rebounds.

San Diego State 81

Jan. 13, 2007 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena ♦ Att.: 6,344

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State earned its first Mountain West Conference victory after dropping its first two by defeating Colorado State, 81-76, at Cox Arena.

SDSU snapped out of its two-game shooting slump by hitting 52.9 percent of its shots, including 87.5 percent from the charity stripe.

The Aztecs led for a good portion of the first half until 13-7 run by the Rams put the visitors ahead by one, 31-30, with 6:33 remaining in the first half.

CSU lost the lead and regained it less than two minutes later before an 8-2 run by the Aztecs put them ahead by five, 40-35, at the 2:36 mark. But six Rams points in the final minutes of the first half brought them even as the half came to a close.

The second half proved to be a see-saw battle with neither team taking more than a two-point lead through the first 11 minutes until a 12-1 SDSU run blew the game open.

San Diego State's 11-point lead was short-lived as the Rams made a game out of it with 14-6 spurt, bringing CSU to within three points, 79-73, with 23 seconds remaining before Brandon Heath made two free throws to seal the game.

Kyle Spain had one of his best performances in an Aztec uniform scoring a career-high 22 points on 7 of 9 shooting from the field and from the free throw line.

Lorenzo Wade also had a nice day with 13 points and a personal-best nine rebounds in his eighth start of the year. Frontcourt teammate Mohamed Abukar added 16 points, while Heath extended his school-record double-figure scoring streak to 42 games after finishing with 15 points and a team-leading six assists.

The Aztec starting frontcourt combined for 51 points and 18 rebounds, while the backcourt dished out 12 assists (Richie Williams - six).

Game 18

San Diego State 73
New Mexico 68
Jan. 17, 2007 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena ♦ Att.: 6,761

SAN DIEGO - Lorenzo Wade recorded his first career double-double and was one of five Aztecs to score in double figures as San Diego State defeated New Mexico, 73-68, in a Mountain West Conference game at Cox Arena.

Wade, a sophomore forward out of Las Vegas, scored all of his 13 points in the second half and filled up the stat sheet with 12 rebounds, four assists, three steals and two blocks in helping SDSU even its league record at 2-2.

The first half was an offensive struggle for the Aztecs as they shot only 35.3 percent from the field and their leading scorer, Brandon Heath, was held to only four points. But with Wade's eight first-half rebounds, Mohamed Abukar's eight points off the bench and great defensive pressure on the Lobos' top scorer in J.R. Giddens, San Diego State went into the locker room up 28-24.

Coming out of the break, SDSU had a difficult time shaking New Mexico. On multiple occasions the Aztecs enjoyed five-point leads only to have the Lobos cut into the advantage every time. It was not until the 7:50 mark that UNM broke through and took a 53-52 lead.

SDSU, however, regained the lead on a Wade three-pointer, but was taken back by the Lobos on a Giddens shot from beyond arc.

Trailing by one with 6:06 remaining, the Aztecs went on a 14-4 run to go ahead by nine and would never allow New Mexico to get within four points the rest of the way.

Heath finished the game with a team-high 16 points with Abukar chipping in 14. Meanwhile, Jerome Habel added 11 points and Richie Williams had 12 points and a game-high seven assists.

San Diego State 51

Jan. 20, 2007 ♦ USAFA, Colo.

Clune Arena ♦ Att.: 6,223

USAFA, Colo. - San Diego State held the nation's second-best shooting team and No. 13 Air Force to its lowest field goal percentage of the year but still fell on the road to the Falcons, 56-51. The loss extended Air Force's home winning streak to 26 games, tied for the second-longest streak in the country.

The Aztecs, who were down by as many nine points early in the second half, rallied to take a 43-42 lead on a long Brandon Heath 3-pointer with 5:51 remaining in the game, Air Force answered with a three of its own to take back the lead. SDSU battled back and regained a one-point lead on a Jerome Habel layup with 1:06 remaining.

On the ensuing possession, the Falcons' Dan Nwaelele nailed a jumper and followed with two free-throws to put Air Force up, 54-51, with just 16 seconds remaining. Heath's desperation 3-pointer with less than 10 seconds left fell short and Jacob Burtschi hit two free throws to put the game away.

SDSU lost despite holding the Falcons, who came into the game shooting 52.7 percent from the field, to 39.0 percent (16-for-41) shooting for the game.

Heath scored 13 of his 15 points in the second half, extending his school record for consecutive double-figure scoring games to 44, and added a season-high seven rebounds and three steals.

Jerome Habel scored 15 points on 7-of-9 shooting from the field and Lorenzo Wade had 11 points, seven rebounds and three steals.

Burtschi had game-highs of 23 points and nine rebounds to lead the Falcons, while Nwaelele (11 points) and Nick Welch (10 points) each scored in double-figures.
