Aztecs Open 2012-13 Season Against UCLA Bruins

► When & Where: Saturday, Nov. 10, 2012, Pauley Pavilion (13,800), Los Angeles, Calif., 7 p.m. PT.

► Live Media: Live video webcast that can be seen on Pac-12.com, live audio webcast featuring Chris Ello, as well as live stats will be available on goaztecs.com.

► SDSU Head Coach Beth Burns: Burns (Ohio Wesleyan, 1979) is in the eighth year of her second stint as head coach at San Diego State. She led the Aztecs for eight seasons from 1989 to 1997, before returning in 2005. She has an overall head coaching record of 349-244 in 20 seasons, while she is 268-179 in her 15 campaigns at SDSU.

► UCLA Head Coach Cori Close: Close is in her second season with the Bruins and in her second year overall as a collegiate head coach.

► Series History: The Aztecs and Bruins are meeting for the third consecutive season, but for only the second time in Los Angeles since 1999. UCLA won last year's contest at John Wooden Center on Nov. 30, 2011, by the score of 78-71, to improve its overall record in the series to 21-6 all-time vs. SDSU.

NEWS & NOTABLES

■ San Diego State opens the 37th year of Aztec women's basketball on Saturday when they travel to Los Angeles to take on the UCLA Bruins at 7 p.m. PT.

■ The Aztecs are opening the season on the road for only the third time in the last six seasons. The last time San Diego State began a campaign on the road was in 2009-10 when it defeated UC Irvine, 64-42.

■ Beth Burns is starting the 21st season of her head coaching career and 16th overall at the helm of the Aztecs. Burns is in her eighth season of her second stint on The Mesa.

■ SDSU is receiving votes in both top-25 preseason polls, taking 48 in the AP poll and three in the USA Today Coaches poll.

■ SDSU has been picked to repeat as Mountain West champions in 2012-13. The Aztecs received 22 of 24 first-place votes and earned 198 points to claim the top spot in the preseason poll.

■ San Diego State returns 10 players from last season including reigning conference player of the year, Courtney Clements. Clements was selected as this year's preseason MW player of the year. Also returning for the Aztecs for her final season is Chelsea Hopkins. Hopkins was named to the preseason all-league squad after earning the MW Newcomer of the Year, MW first-team accolades and MW tournament MVP last year. Redshirt freshman Deajanae Scurry was tabbed the MW preseason freshman of the year.

■ SDSU has five players on its current roster who did not play in a game a year ago. Deajanae Scurry used her redshirt season last year. Danesha Long will see her first action as an Aztec after transferring from Midland College. Deidra Smith and Cierra Warren will redshirt in 2012-13.

LAST TIME OUT

The San Diego State women's basketball team used a 17-1 run in the final 6 minutes, 56 seconds of the first half to go into halftime with a 45-17 lead over visiting Cal Lutheran, Tuesday evening at Viejas Area. The game was the lone exhibition contest for the Aztecs in 2012-13.

The Aztecs set the tone from the outset, jumping out to an 11-2 lead in the early going. The Regals staged a little rally to get within seven at 14-7, but that would be as close as CLU would get the rest of the way.

Cal Lutheran scored the first bucket when the teams returned to the floor after halftime and the Aztecs answered with 12 straight points of their own to take a 57-19 lead. Later, San Diego State used a 15-1 run to open a 74-25 lead and the Aztecs eventually cruised to the 50-point win.

Senior guard Courtney Clements (Long Beach, Calif.) had a team-high 16 points on 6-of-15 shooting in 26 minutes of action. Sophomore forward Erimma Amarikwa (Vacaville, Calif.) went 7-for-9 shooting to finish with 15 points while sophomore Ahjalee Harvey (Mountain View, Calif.) finished close behind with 14 points including going 6-for-6 in freethrows. Redshirt freshman Deajanae Scurry (Los Angeles, Calif.) was the fourth SDSU player to finish in double figures with 13 points.

SDSU's other two starters Chelsea Hopkins (Las Vegas, Nev.) and Malia Nahinu (Hayward, Calif.) also enjoyed solid nights. Hopkins dished a game-high eight assists, while Nahinu led all players with seven blocked shots and four steals.

WITH A WIN

An SDSU victory over UCLA will mean:

- SDSU improves to 7-21 all-time vs UCLA.
- SDSU defeats the Bruins for the first time since 1992, ending a four-game losing skid.
- SDSU wins at UCLA for the first time since 1992, a span of just three games.
- SDSU improves to 52-74 all-time vs. teams currently playing in the Pac-12 Conference.

SDSU-UCLA SERIES TIDBITS

- The two schools played one another at least twice a year from 1977 to 1986, as both were members of the Western Collegiate Conference and later the Big West.
- UCLA dominated the earlier part of the series, winning 14 of the first 15 meetings, SDSU, however, has won five of the last 12 contests.
- Four of the Aztecs' six victories over the Bruins have come in San Diego.
- Beth Burns faced UCLA twice in her first stint as the Aztecs' head coach, going 1-1 from 1991-92, with the visiting team coming out ahead in both contests. Burns is 1-3 all-time vs. the Bruins.

2011 SDSU-UCLA REWIND

San Diego State rallied from a 16-point deficit to take a three-point second-half lead, but wasn't able to come out with a victory, as the Aztecs fell 78-71.

Courtney Clements led the team in scoring with 19 points, but made just seven of her 24 field-goal attempts, including 1-for-8 mark from beyond the arc. Melissa Sweat matched her career high with 14 points, highlighted by 12 in the second half, while Erimma Amarikwa and Chelsea Hopkins both finished with eight points apiece. Hopkins had six of the team's nine assists and she, along with Clements and Kalena Tutt, added six rebounds.

The Aztecs got off to a quick start with a 6-0 lead on baskets from three different players, but the Bruins finally got on the board at the 17:35 mark and took their first lead of the night at 9-8. UCLA then utilized some hot shooting and got a number of second-chance buckets, putting together what would later amount to be a 22-0 run to go up by 16 points with the score at 24-8.

San Diego State, however, would battle back, as a jumper from junior Malia Nahinu ended a near seven-minute drought to give her team its ninth and 10th points of the contest.

Clements then notched 10 of SDSU's next 12 points and received help from the three of the squads freshmen, who contributed a basket apiece to cut the deficit all the way to just four points at 35-31. The Bruins converted on a 3-point play in the final eight seconds by Rhema Gardener to extend the lead back out to 38-31 heading into the locker room.

Coming out of halftime, the Aztecs quickly made a dent in their deficit, getting a bucket from Clements and two lay-ups from Hopkins in under a minute. SDSU successfully completed the come back on a 3-point play from Amarikwa to take its first lead since the first half at 40-39 with 17:48 remaining.

The two sides were tied twice and traded advantages three times before UCLA outscored the Aztecs 15-4 to push it once again to a double-figure Bruin lead at 59-49. The home squad reached the double bonus by the 9:45 mark and made good on four of six free throws while adding a wide-open trople from Thea Lemberger to open the gap to 14 points on two occasions.

The Aztecs cut that deficit in half with under 30 seconds remaining before ultimately falling by that same seven-point margin, 78-71.

Beth Burns

Head Coach

8th/16th Year at San Diego State; 21st Year Overall
Ohio Wesleyan '79, Ohio State '81

The winningest coach in SDSU women's basketball history, Beth Burns enters her 21st season as a collegiate head coach and her 16th overall at the helm of the Aztecs.

Since returning for her second stint on Montezuma Mesa in 2005, Burns has taken the program to new heights, including a trip to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen, three NCAA tournament appearances (2009, 2010, 2012) and two conference regular-season (2009, 2012) and tournament titles (2010, 2012).

This past season, she directed the Aztecs to both the outright Mountain West regular-season (12-2) and tournament titles. The team made its third trip to the NAAs in the past four years and its 25 total victories not only tied for second in program history, but also are SDSU's most in 18 years. As a result, Burns captured her second MW Coach-of-the-Year honor.

Individually in 2011-12, junior guard Courtney Clements became the first Aztec to earn honorable mention All-America honors by both the Associated Press and the WBCA and was tabbed the Mountain West Player of the Year after leading the conference in scoring (17.4 ppg.). She was joined on the all-league first team by point guard Chelsea Hopkins, who was the MW tournament MVP and ranked eighth in the country in assists (6.5/g). Each of SDSU's other three starters, Malia Nahinu (third team), Kiyana Stamps (HM) and Kalena Tutt (all-defensive), also received postseason acclaim from the conference.

Two years ago, the Aztecs had three players tabbed for all-league honors, including four-time pick Paris Johnson and Mountain West Newcomer of the Year Clements. SDSU advanced to the title game of all three of its non-conference tournaments and recorded at least 12 victories for the fifth consecutive season.

In 2009-10, Burns helped the Aztecs advance to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen for the first time since the field expanded to 64 teams. SDSU notched victories over a pair of top 25 foes in No. 10 West Virginia and defeated No. 17 Texas on the Longhorns' home floor. The 11th-seeded Aztecs were the lowest seed to advance to the Round of 16 in 2010 and lowest overall since 2007.

San Diego State earned an automatic bid to the 2010 NAAs after a dramatic overtime victory over Utah at the Mountain West Conference championships in Las Vegas, Nev. The Aztecs, playing in their third straight MWC title game, overcame an eight-point deficit by going on a 22-4 run in the final nine minutes, including overtime, to secure the championship.

As a team, SDSU ended the campaign with a 23-11 overall record and garnered a No. 20 national ranking in the final ESPN/USA Today coaches poll, a program first since the poll started in 1986.

Individually, senior guard Jené Morris was named an honorable mention All-American, MWC Defensive Player of the Year and first-team all-league selection for the second year in a row, before becoming the first-ever Aztec selected in the WNBA Draft. Morris was the 11th overall pick in the first round by the Indiana Fever and also played for the WNBA's Tulsa Shock.

In addition, senior point guard Quenese Davis capped her career by being named the MWC tournament MVP and was also a third-team all-league pick, while then junior center Paris Johnson earned second-team all-MWC accolades.

Following the season, Burns was rewarded with a five-year contract extension running through 2014-15.

In 2008-09, San Diego State posted its first 20-win campaign in 12 years, finishing 24-8 overall and 13-3 in conference action. The Aztecs won a share of the Mountain West regular season title, advanced to the MWC tournament championship game for the second consecutive year and garnered SDSU's first NCAA bid since 1997.

The list of accomplishments for Burns' 2008-09 squad continued with a perfect regular season home record of 14-0, highlighted by the Aztecs' stunning victory over fourth-ranked and previously unbeaten Texas to claim the San Diego Surf 'N Slam title in late December. The win over the Longhorns was San Diego State's first against a ranked team since 1994.

Big wins over established programs followed during conference play, including a sweep of New Mexico, the Aztecs' first victory at BYU in 14 years and ending Utah's 25-game MWC win streak.

SDSU served as perfect hosts to the NCAA first and second rounds at Cox Arena, knocking off DePaul, 76-70, for its first postseason victory in 15 seasons, before falling to eventual Final Four participant Stanford.

Individually, Burns helped Morris, the MWC Defensive Player of the Year, become Aztec basketball's first honorable mention All-American since 1994. Morris, along with then sophomore Paris Johnson, also became the first SDSU players to be chosen first-team all-MWC in the league history. The duo and Davis accounted for three of the five spots on the conference's all-defensive squad.

For her efforts, Burns was named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year, marking the fourth such honor of her career at San Diego State.

In 2007-08, Burns led the Aztecs to within an eyelash of the NCAA tournament. The sixth seed in the Mountain West Conference tournament, SDSU defeated No. 3 Wyoming (66-54) and No. 2 TCU (82-80) before falling, 62-59, in the championship game.

San Diego State went 18-13 overall and 7-9 in MWC play to finish in a tie for fifth with Brigham Young. The Aztecs' seven league wins and fifth-place showing was their best-ever in the history of the MWC. Burns helped SDSU lead the league in assists per game (15.71), steals per game (12.61) and turnover margin (+5.81), and rank second with 4.35 blocks per game.

Burns coached three players to all-conference selections, as then sophomore Morris earned second-team accolades, while then freshmen Allison Duffy and Paris Johnson each received honorable mention honors. Morris and Duffy also became the first two Aztecs to ever be selected to the MWC all-tournament team.

Off the court, seven players were honored at the department's annual scholar-athlete awards banquet, which recognizes student-athletes with at least a 3.0 cumulative or 3.2 semester GPA.

The previous season, Burns led the Aztecs to their most wins since 2000-01, finishing as the 11th-most improved team in NCAA Division I and recording the biggest turnaround in back-to-back seasons in Mountain West Conference history. Burns helped point guard Quenese Davis lead the league and rank first nationally among freshmen in assists per game, while center Desiree Johnson was first in the MWC in blocked shots per game for the second year in a row.

Burns has also helped the program find success in both the classroom and on the recruiting trail. In the spring of 2007, 10 players were recognized at the department's annual scholar-athlete awards banquet. Among the 10 were Shanna Demus, who received the school's Academic Initiative Medal for her persistent commitment toward meeting her academic goals, and Kate Eveland, who became a member of the elite Phi Beta Kappa honor society and would later graduate magna cum laude.

On the recruiting trail, Burns and her staff signed two San Diego Union-Tribune section players of the year, including two-time winner, Paris Johnson.

In 2005-06, Burns' first year back was a tough one, as the Aztecs entered the campaign with just six of 15 players with previous Division I experience. Injuries, youth and a lack of depth were key issues, while SDSU played 15 of its 27 games against teams advancing to the postseason, including 12 in league play alone.

Senior Michelle Strawberry earned conference honorable mention honors and then junior Desiree Johnson led the league in blocked shots. Three Aztecs were named to the Mountain West Conference all-academic squad, with two also garnering MWC scholar-athlete accolades.

Since returning to SDSU, Burns has resumed an active role in the campus and local community. In the summer of 2008, she was honored with the YWCA's Tribute to Women and Industry (TWIN) award for her outstanding achievements, leadership and contributions to her profession. Burns also was tabbed a Girls Scout "Cool Person of the Year", has previously served as SDSU's honorary Homecoming chair and this past spring picked up a honorary membership to the Phi Kappa Phi honor society.

From 1989-97, Burns took the Aztecs full circle, going from 7-23 her first year to 23-7 in her final campaign. Along the way, she compiled a 151-83 record and a 64.5 winning percentage.

Burns' impact was almost instantaneous. The Aztecs doubled their win total from her first to her second season and ushered in the school's move to the Western Athletic Conference with a 14-14 record.

A year later in 1991-92, SDSU won five of its first six outings and went on to post an 18-11 overall record, tallying its first victory at a conference tournament in four seasons.

The team used that momentum heading into a 1992-93 campaign which ended in the Aztecs' first trip to the NCAA tournament in eight years.

SDSU advanced to the 1993 NAAs with the help of early season victories over the likes of UCLA, USC, St. John's, Oregon State, Georgia and Villanova. The Aztecs also tied for second in the final WAC regular-season standings, which at the time, was the program's best-ever conference finish.

Burns' teams would go on to dominate the Western Athletic Conference from 1994-97, capturing a pair of tournament championships and three regular-season titles. The 1993-94 team set a school record for victories with 26, while the 1994-95 squad was a perfect 14-0 in league play.

The Aztecs continued their success the following two years by going 20-8 in 1995-96, including a perfect 13-0 at home, and 23-7 in 1996-97, leading the nation in scoring defense (52.0 ppg.).

In all, Burns led SDSU to four, 20-plus win seasons and four NCAA tournament appearances (1993, 1994, 1995, 1997).

Burns coached 13 first team all-conference picks in her time at SDSU, including a pair of WAC players of the year in Kieishsha Garnes (1991) and Christina Murguia (1995). Guard Falisha Wright became just the second Aztec women's basketball player to be named an All-American, earning honorable mention accolades in 1993 and 1994. She finished her four-year career as the school's all-time assists leader and, along with Garnes, has been inducted into the Aztec Hall of Fame.

The postseason honors were not just limited to her players, as Burns was a three-time WAC coach of the year (1994, 1995, 1997) and was the district coach of the year in 1995. SDSU also had seven conference all-academic selections, headlined by three-time winner Olivia DiCamilli.

Burns departed SDSU in 1997 to take the head women's basketball position at Ohio State, where she first started her collegiate coaching career.

In five seasons with the Buckeyes, Burns notched an 82-65 overall record, highlighted by a WNIT title in 2001 and a trip to the NCAA tournament in 1999.

Two OSU players earned first team all-Big Ten honors and LaToya Turner was named conference freshman of the year in 2000. The Buckeyes also excelled in the classroom as 14 players received Big Ten all-academic accolades.

Burns was an active part of the Columbus community, establishing the Beth Burns Bucks for Breast Cancer Research fund at the OSU/James Cancer Hospital, and putting together an annual fundraiser, OSU Bounce for Bucks, for cancer research.

Off the court, the Chatham, N.J., native joined some of the game's elite coaches, Ceal Barry (Colorado), the late Kay Yow (North Carolina State) and Pat Summitt (Tennessee), as a member of the USA Basketball Olympic team selection committee from 1997-2000.

Burns returned to San Diego from Ohio in 2001, as the owner and operator of her own fitness and basketball instruction business, BBHoops, before serving as the strength and conditioning coach for the women's basketball program at Stanford in 2004-05. The Cardinal finished the regular season ranked first in the nation, advanced to the Elite Eight and won the Pac-10 regular season and championship titles.

Burns' collegiate coaching career began at Ohio State as a graduate assistant from 1979-81, under current Stanford head coach Tara VanDerveer. She then spent two seasons as an assistant coach at East Carolina (1981-83), helping the Lady Pirates to a No. 17 national ranking, before moving to Colorado (1983-88), where the Buffaloes made their first-ever NCAA tournament appearance in 1987-88.

Prior to taking her first head coaching job, Burns was an assistant coach at North Carolina State when the Wolfpack advanced to the Sweet 16 in 1989.

She has a bachelor's degree in health and physical education from Ohio Wesleyan University (1979), where she was the school's all-time leading rebounder and garnered the most outstanding female student-athlete award as a senior. In 1984, her first year of eligibility, she was inducted into the Battling Bishops' athletic hall of fame.

Burns is currently in her second year as the secretary of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Board of Directors' Executive Committee. She previously served as a Division I at-large representative on the organization's 23-member board the last two years and was a committee member for the Jostens-Berenson Lifetime Achievement Award, which was given to the late Kay Yow in 2008-09. Burns has also been a part of the voting panel for the WBCA/USA Today Coaches Top 25 national weekly poll.

Burns has a master's degree in physical education from Ohio State (1981) and is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association. This past summer, she signed a new five-year contract to keep her at SDSU through the 2016-17 campaign.

Jualeah Woods

Associate Head Coach/Recruiting Coordinator
Eighth Year at San Diego State/15th Overall
USC '94

Jualeah Woods enters her eighth season at San Diego State and her second as associate head coach.

Woods is the Aztecs' recruiting coordinator, while her on-court duties include working with the forwards and centers, as well as concentrating on team defense. Overall, she has 14 years of experience coaching at the NCAA Division I level.

Since her arrival in May 2005, Woods immediately got to work on the recruiting trail, playing an instrumental part in laying a strong foundation for the future success of Aztec basketball.

During her time on The Mesa, SDSU has won two Mountain West Conference regular season and tournament titles, and recorded three NCAA appearances, including a trip to the Sweet Sixteen in 2010.

On the court, she helped tutor four-time all-conference center Paris Johnson, who finished her career as the school's all-time leader in blocks and consecutive starts. Woods also mentored 2010 MWC Newcomer of the Year forward Jessika Bradley, who was tabbed a third-team all-league pick as a senior. This past season, center Malia Nahinu was named a third-team all-conference pick and garnered a spot on the MW championship all-tournament team, while senior Kalena Tutt was an all-MW defensive choice. Both Nahinu and Tutt were in their first years as starters in 2011-12.

Before coming to San Diego State, Woods was an assistant coach at Oregon State for five years, serving as the program's recruiting coordinator for the last three seasons. The Beavers made four consecutive WNIT appearances from 2001-04, and advanced to the quarterfinals in 2004.

Woods was an assistant coach for two seasons at California and started her coaching career at Santa Monica High School as both an assistant and later as the head girls' basketball coach from 1994-97.

She was a four-year starter at small forward and two-time team captain at USC from 1990-94. The Berkeley, Calif., native helped lead the Women of Troy to four NCAA tournament appearances, including trips to the Elite Eight in 1993 and 1994 and the Sweet 16 in 1992.

Woods earned her bachelor's degree in public administration from USC in 1994.

Tammi Reiss

Assistant Coach
Second Year at San Diego State/Fifth Overall
Virginia '92

Tammi Reiss, who played and coached in the WNBA and was an All-American at Virginia, is in her second season as an SDSU assistant coach. She is involved in every facet of the program, including working primarily with the team's guards.

In her first campaign on the Mesa, Reiss helped the Aztecs sweep both the Mountain West regular season and tournament championships and advance to the NCAAs. With her guidance, guards Courtney Clements (MW Player of the Year, HM All-American) and Chelsea Hopkins (first-team all-MW, MW Tournament MVP) both earned postseason acclaim.

Reiss was an assistant coach for the WNBA Utah Starzz from 2001-02, before joining the franchise in its move to San Antonio in 2003. She helped head coach Candi Harvey with game and practice preparation, working primarily with the team's guards. Her other responsibilities included opponent scouting, talent evaluation, game management, player development and community relations.

The Starzz made their first-ever playoff appearance in 2001 and a year later, compiled a franchise-best 20-13 record en route to the Western Conference finals, where they fell to the eventual WNBA Champion Los Angeles Sparks.

The Eldred, N.Y., native spent three seasons as an assistant coach at her alma mater, when Virginia advanced to the Elite Eight in 1995 and 1996, made it to the Sweet 16 in 1994 and claimed a pair of ACC regular-season titles in 1994 and 1995. Reiss assisted legendary head coach Debbie Ryan in all aspects of the program, including recruiting, game and practice preparation, player development, opponent scouting, film exchange and camp coordination.

One of the all-time greats in Virginia basketball history, she played for the Cavaliers from 1988-92, when the team made three consecutive Final Four appearances and earned two ACC regular-season and tournament titles. Reiss garnered both Kodak and USBWA All-America honors as a senior in 1992, was a four-time all-league honoree and twice was tabbed to the ACC championship all-tournament squad. The guard ended her career ranked first in school history in 3-pointers (139) and 3-point field-goal percentage (.416) and was second in points (1,842) and free throws (437).

Off the court, Reiss excelled in the classroom, where she was honored as an Academic All-American as a senior and was a three-time conference all-academic pick. She earned her Bachelor of Arts degree from UVA in sports management in 1992, and was selected to the ACC's 50th anniversary women's basketball team in 2002.

Following her collegiate career, Reiss was chosen by the Utah Starzz in the first round (fifth pick overall) of the inaugural WNBA Draft in 1997. She averaged 7.2 points, 2.7 assists and 2.3 rebounds per outing in two seasons with the Starzz.

Before moving to San Diego, she was the personal training director at Gold's Gym and an operations manager for ProTech in the Salt Lake City, Utah, area. Reiss has provided individual basketball instruction as owner and co-founder of Hoop Dream, Inc., as well as T & R Management.

Adam Barrett

Assistant Coach

First Year at San Diego/Second Year Overall Eastern Oregon '02

Adam Barrett is in his first campaign as an assistant coach at San Diego State. Barrett, who has extensive experience at both the prep and AAU levels, will be involved in every facet of the program including scouting, recruiting, and player and team development.

This past season, Barrett helped the Great Danes to their first-ever NCAA tournament appearance after claiming the program's first America East Conference championship. Albany finished its campaign with a 22-9 overall record to set the school's Division I record for victories and had two players garner first-team all-league accolades, including defensive player of the year Ebone Henry. Barrett focused on the Great Danes' defense, particularly in full-court press situations, and helped the squad rank in the top 20 nationally, reaching as high as 15th in scoring defense at 53.4 points per outing.

The Rexburg, Idaho, native moved to Albany after spending one year as the Executive Director of Tarkanian Basketball Academy in Las Vegas, where he was in charge of organizing youth teams, camps and tournaments. He also worked for two years as an instructor with the Nike Regional Skills Academy and started the Utah Swoosh girls' club program, which produced 13 Division I signees from 2009-12.

Barrett was a highly successful prep coach in the Pacific Northwest, including five years at Auburn Riverside High School in Auburn, Wash. He compiled a 105-32 overall record with the Ravens and helped the program go from 5-13 in the year prior to his arrival to back-to-back state championships in 2007 and 2008. Auburn Riverside recorded its first winning season in school history in his inaugural campaign at the helm and a year later, made the first state tournament appearance in either boys or girls basketball.

Barrett's squads went 74-12, including a 45-1 mark in league action, over his final three seasons with the Ravens and were ranked in the top-20 nationally twice. He was tabbed the state coach of the year in both 2007 and 2008 and tutored two state players of the year.

He originally began his coaching career at his alma mater, Eastern Oregon University, where he was an assistant men's coach from 2001-02. He then joined the prep ranks at Grant Union High School in Oregon from 2001-03, helping the girls' basketball team to a 10-win improvement from his first to his second season, as well as a league title in 2003. He also coached the Prospector volleyball squad, which finished second at the state tournament in 2002.

A 2002 graduate of Eastern Oregon with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education, he has worked as a personal trainer for current New York Knicks center Dan Gadzuric. Barrett and his wife, Stephanie, will reside in San Diego with their one-year-old son, Cash.

Tammy Stephens

Director of Basketball Operations

Eighth Year at San Diego State/12th Overall
Cal State Fullerton '81, USD '91

With 11 years of experience as a director of basketball operations at the Division I level, Tammy Stephens enters her eighth season with the Aztecs.

At SDSU, Stephens plays a critical role in the Aztec basketball program. She handles all of the off-the-court responsibilities relative to the budget, facilities and travel. She also coordinates community service projects, the season ticket campaign, equipment, scheduling and fundraising.

Stephens works with the Aztec Club as the team's point person for the "Full Court Press" booster club and establishes on-going relationships with Aztec basketball alumnae.

In 2004-05, Stephens was a part of coach Tara VanDerveer's staff at Stanford, helping the Cardinal to a No. 1 national ranking, a 32-3 record and a trip to the NCAA Elite Eight. She coordinated the team's practice facilities and worked with the booster club in its fundraising efforts. She also was the primary contact for summer camps and was responsible for the Cardinal's game scheduling for the 2005-06 campaign.

Stephens was the director of basketball operations at Ohio State from 1997-2000. In that position, she managed the day-to-day operations of the Buckeye program, which included overseeing the budget, hiring and supervising the office staff and coordinating team travel. She also was in charge of summer camps and was the community relations liaison.

Before leaving for Ohio State, Stephens was an assistant women's tennis coach at the University of San Diego from 1993-97. She graduated in 1981 from Cal State Fullerton with a bachelor's degree in sociology and has a master's of education in counseling from USD.

Mike Bynum

Director of Player Development
Third Year at San Diego State/Third Year Overall
San Diego State '09

Mike Bynum is in his third year as the Aztecs' director of player development.

Bynum's job duties include coordinating film exchange, editing game and practice film, developing team highlight videos and supervising student managers. He also assists director of basketball operations Tammy Stephens in the planning and setting up of all women's basketball events.

Over his last two seasons, the team has combined to win 37 games and captured a Mountain West Conference regular-season and tournament title, while also advancing to the 2012 NCAA championships.

Before returning to SDSU, Bynum was as an assistant varsity coach with the boys' team at Scripps Ranch High School under head coach Brian Keiser. Bynum was in charge of the Falcons' video editing, helped scout future opponents and on the court, worked with the squad's defense who gave up the fewest points per game in San Diego. Scripps Ranch went 16-11 overall and won two tournaments during the 2009-10 campaign.

Bynum became a student manager for the Aztec men's basketball team in September 2004, and over the next five seasons helped with practice set-up, game statistics, summer camps and team travel. Bynum supervised other student managers and assisted the squad's video coordinator with opponent scout edits. SDSU boasted a 103-61 record during his five-year stint, recording four-straight, 20-win seasons and claiming the 2005-06 Mountain West Conference regular season and tournament championships.

In the summer of 2009, Bynum was a counselor at both LeBron James King's Academy and the Steve Fisher Basketball Camp, where he supervised basketball players of various age groups, provided skill instruction and helped conduct drills.

Originally from Toronto, Bynum lived in San Francisco, Washington D.C. and Dallas before moving to San Diego where he attended Scripps Ranch High School, graduating in 2004. He earned his bachelor's degree in communications from San Diego State in May 2009 and was a member of the Lambda Pi Eta Honor Society. His father, Rod Bynum, is the head assistant men's basketball coach at McMaster University in Hamilton, Ontario.

Randy Shelton

Strength & Conditioning Coach
Second Year at San Diego State
San Diego State '00

Randy Shelton is in his second season as the women's basketball team's strength and conditioning coach.

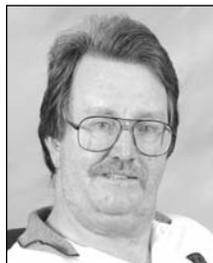

Shelton, the owner and operator of High Voltage Fitness in nearby La Jolla, was the personal training coordinator at the Aztec Recreation Center (1998-2008), as well as the owner and operator of Rapid Speed for seven years prior to coming to Montezuma Mesa.

Shelton also works with the SDSU men's basketball team and has previously trained several former Aztec basketball and football players.

A 2000 graduate of San Diego State, Shelton is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association and is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS).

Shelton is married to the former Waleska Valle.
