NEWS AND NOTES (through Jan. 21)

- Coming off its second and final bye of the conference season, San Diego State returns to action on Tuesday with a road game at Air Force. Game time is set for 7 p.m. MT (6 p.m. PT) with coverage available on ESPN3 and The Mighty 1090.
- San Diego State is tied with Fresno State and New Mexico for the longest active win streak in the MW, having won three straight games. The Aztecs went into its game on Jan. 14 alone in 11th place and is now just one game back in the loss column from the conference leaders.
- SDSU is second in the Mountain West in point differential in league games (+4.3).
- The Aztecs, who lead the Mountain West in league games in both scoring defense (64.2) and field-goal percentage defense (39.6 percent), have held three straight opponents to 38.0-percent field-goal percentage or less. SDSU has won 14 straight games when limiting the opposition to 38.0 percent or less from the floor.
- San Diego State has won three straight Mountain West games, all by double figures, for the first time since Feb. 6-13, 2007.
- During its current three-game winning streak, SDSU has outscored its opposition, 214-167 (+47 points), allowing just 55.7 points per game and limiting the opposition to 37.2-percent field-goal shooting and 26.5-percent three-point field-goal shooting.
- Last time out, SDSU ran its win streak over UNLV to nine games (the longest by any team in the nation in at least 21 seasons) with a 64-51 victory at Thomas & Mack Center. Trey Kell had a season-high 24 points and tallied 16 of the team's final 20 points.
- San Diego State and Air Force are playing for the 76th time with the Aztecs owning a 53-22 series advantage. SDSU has won six straight overall and has won on its last two visits to Clune Arena.
- In three of the last four games between the teams in USAFA, Colo., the game has been decided by seven points or less. Last season -- a 77-45 SDSU victory -- is the exception.
- Air Force is 13-4 in its last 17 home games.
- Since the beginning of the 2013-14 campaign (SDSU did not play at Air Force last season), the Aztecs are 2-0 in Clune Arena, while the rest of the nation is 20-40.
- Sophomore Max Hoetzel continued his torrid shooting from beyond the arc against the Runnin' Rebels. He was 3-of-4 from bonus distance, extending his career-long streak of games with multiple treys to six. During that stretch, he is 21-of-38 (55.3 percent). In conference games, he is second nationally in three-point field-goal percentage (21-of-38, 55.3 percent), trailing only Bryce Alford of UCLA (35-of-62, 56.5 percent) (minimum six games and 3.5 three-point field goals made per game).
- As previously noted, Kell is coming off a monster game -- 24 points on 9-of-15 shooting. It marked his second career game with at least 24 points while shooting 60 percent or better from the floor. Since the beginning of the 1996-97 campaign, there have only been 51 such games by an Aztec player and only 15 players have done it more than once. Jeremy Hemsley has also done it twice.
- Kell has reached double figures in three consecutive games (one off his season high) and is averaging 16.0 points, 3.3 assists and 3.0 rebounds, while connecting on 54.5 percent from the field and 90.9 percent (10-of-11) from the free-throw line during that stretch.
- Known as one of the top defenders in the nation, and statistically the best defender in the country last season (see page 47 of the media guide), senior Dakarai Allen is making an impact on both ends of the court. The Aztecs have won 11 of the last 13 times Allen has reached double figures, something he was able to do at UNLV (10 points). In his last four games, Allen is averaging 10.8 points, 2.5 rebounds and has connected on 66.7 percent from the field.
- Looking for trends? San Diego State is 11-2 this season when junior Zylan Cheatham scores eight or more points (0-5 when he does not) and since the beginning of the 2015-16 campaign, the Aztecs are 21-1 when junior Malik Pope scores eight or more points (18-16 when he does not). Included in the above numbers are games when the player missed due to injury.

KELL-ED THEM DOWN THE STRETCH

- San Diego State led UNLV on the road, 44-42, with 9:55 left in the second half and the Aztecs called timeout 16 seconds later. Coming out of the break, Steve Fisher told Trey Kell, "I need you for these last nine-and-a-half minutes." How did Kell respond? The junior scored SDSU's next seven points, 13 of the next 15 points and 16 of its final 20 points to complete the 64-51 win. Kell finished with a career-high-tying nine field goals (9-15).

NO LOVE ON VALENTINE'S DAY

■ Valentine Izundu has been quite intimidator on the defensive end since the start of Mountain West play. The graduate transfer has blocked multiple shots in five league games, four of which have featured at least three rejections. In his last two games, he has seven blocked shots, including a season-high four at UNLV. The Houston, Texas, native has also connected on 10 of his 11 field-goal attempts in conference.

RECORD EFFORT?

■ San Diego State is shooting 72.4 percent from the free-throw line this season and the effort is just shy of the school's Division I record of 72.8 percent set in 2005-06. The overall school record is 73.5 percent, which was established in 1968-69.

NEARING A MILESTONE

■ Trey Kell is closing in on becoming the 31st player in school history to score 1,000 career points. The junior is currently at 913 points. If he continues to score at his average of 13.3 points, he should reach the plateau at Utah State on Feb. 15.

MOVING THE BALL

■ The Aztecs moved the ball the best they have all season in wins over San José State and Utah State. SDSU racked up 31 assists on 53 field goals. Break that down into games and it comes out to 17 assists on 25 buckets vs. SJSU (68.0 percent) and 14 dimes on 28 field goals (50.0 percent).

■ In both of those games, SDSU has shot 48.0 percent or better from the field. Against the Spartans, the Aztecs finished at 48.1 percent and then followed that with a season-high 57.1-percent showing vs. the Aggies.

DIFFERENCE MAKER

■ Malik Pope returned vs. Utah State after a six-game absence due to a knee injury. He posted nine points, five rebounds, one assist and one blocked shot in 23 minutes of a 74-55 home victory.

■ This season alone, the Aztecs are 5-1 when he has scored at least seven points. Over his career, when he has scored at least eight points, San Diego State has gone 25-3 in those games. When he has scored at least 10 points, the Aztecs are 15-3 in his career.

FLAME THROWER

■ Max Hoetzel has started his Mountain West career on fire from three-point range. The sophomore is 21-for-38 from deep since conference started for the Aztecs on New Year's Day. He ranks second nationally in three-point field-goal percentage in conference games of those players who have played a minimum of six conference games and made an average of 3.5 treys per game (through Jan. 21).

■ Twice in his last five games, he has made a career-high five three-pointers. He is 19-for-34 in those outings combined.

■ He currently has 36 treys, which is the second most on the team, despite missing the first three games of the season (knee).

ROWDY IN RENO

■ Jeremy Hemsley had a night in Reno vs. Nevada. The sophomore, who missed his first five shots, rebounded to make 12 of his next 20 and ultimately finished with a career-high 30 points, thanks in part to his 6-for-12 three-point shooting performance.

■ Hemsley's 30-point game was the first for an Aztec since Xavier Thames scored 30 vs. North Dakota State in the NCAA tournament on March 22, 2014.

■ He became the 35th player this season with at least 30 points and zero turnovers in a game and the first Aztec to do so since at least 1996-97. Hemsley was also the sixth player this season to have a line of at least 30 points, five assists and no miscues.

DIAMOND HEAD CLASSIC CHAMPIONS

■ The Aztecs won the 2016 Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic in Honolulu, Hawaii, over the Christmas holiday. All three victories (Southern Miss - 15, Tulsa - 19, San Francisco - 14) were by double figures and came by an average of 16.0 points.

■ With the tournament win, it gave Steve Fisher his second victory at the event. He and his 1992 Michigan team won what was then called the Rainbow Classic.

■ The Aztecs became the first Mountain West team to win the tournament, which has been in existence since 2009. Prior to the victory, MW teams were 0-3 in the title game.

■ San Diego State, which has experienced success in eight-team tournament events, improved to 13-2 in those type of events since the start of the 2008-09 campaign.

■ During the run, Aztecs have made the championship game all five times, winning the 2009 Great Alaska Shootout, the 2013 Wooden Legacy and the 2016 Diamond Head Classic. SDSU fell short in the 2012 Diamond Head Classic and the 2014 Maui Invitational.

ANSWERING THE BELL

■ A major reason SDSU won the Diamond Head Classic was its ability to put teams away when the score was tight.

■ In the opening round game vs. Southern Miss, the Golden Eagles trimmed an 18-point deficit down to five with 11:59 left in the second half. How did the Aztecs answer? They went on an 18-4 run that gave them a 66-47 lead with 2:03 to go.

■ Against Tulsa in the semifinals, San Diego State had to twice answer the call. The Aztecs fell behind, 8-0, and a few minutes later, they were ahead, 14-11. SDSU went into halftime up, 41-37, but found itself tied at 52 with 11:08 left. San Diego State went on to attempt 10 straight three-pointers, making seven, and later led, 73-56, with 5:47 left in the second half (21-4 run).

■ On Christmas in the title game vs. San Francisco, the Dons crept to within two points with 11:46 to go in the second half (41-39). The Aztecs answered with a Matt Shrigley three-pointer, the first of two straight, which spurred a 16-8 run that gave SDSU a 10-point lead with 4:19 left. USF never got closer than nine points the rest of the way as the Aztecs captured the tournament trophy.

COLLEGE BASKETBALL WORLD, MEET ZYLAN CHEATHAM

■ Zylan Cheatham introduced himself to the nation with his three performances at the Diamond Head Classic. In three games, all on ESPN2, the sophomore averaged 15.7 points, 9.3 rebounds, 1.3 assists and 1.3 steals, while shooting 66.7 percent from the field (14-

21) and 85.7 percent from the free-throw line (18-21). He also had the No. 8 play on SportsCenter's Top 10 on Christmas night.

- In the opener vs. Southern Miss, he had a game-high 16 points and a career-high 13 rebounds to go with three assists. Against Tulsa, he went for 15 points, four rebounds and two steals. And finally in the title game vs. San Francisco, he produced a team-high 16 points and a game-high 11 rebounds, while adding two steals.

- At the end of the tournament, Cheatham was named the Most Outstanding Player and was joined on the all-tournament team by Trey Kell (13.3 ppg, 3.7 rpg, 4.0 apg, 1.0 tpg).

TREY AND NOT TREY KELL

- The Aztecs made a ton of treys at the Diamond Head Classic and Trey Kell played a major role. But as a team, San Diego State made 29 three-pointers over three games to set a tournament record, besting the previous record of 28.

- SDSU made seven vs. Southern Miss, 13 vs. Tulsa and nine vs. San Francisco. For the tournament, it shot 29-for-85 or 34.1 percent.

- Jeremy Hemsley led the way with eight three-pointers, Matt Shrigley had seven, Kell had five, Max Hoetzel had three, Malik Pope and Dakarai Allen each had two, and Zylan Cheatham and Montaque Gill-Caesar had one apiece.

DEADLY FROM BEHIND THE ARC

- Jeremy Hemsley is shooting 46.0 percent from behind the three-point arc, which is 48th nationally through Jan. 21 games.

- Among players nationally with at least 85 three-point attempts, Hemsley ranks 22nd in three-point field-goal percentage (through Jan. 21 games).

- At the Diamond Head Classic, he was 8-for-16 from three-point distance (.500).

- He has 10 games with multiple three-pointers this season and four outings with at least four treys.

GOOD LUCK GETTING 70

- The Aztecs have been one of the top defensive teams nationally and teams have had issues scoring 70 points as just four of their 18 opponents have broken the 70-point barrier. Dating to last season, San Diego State has allowed just five of its last 32 foes to hit the mark.

- Since the start of 2015-16 Mountain West season through the first 18 games of the this season, only six teams have scored at least 70 points. SDSU is 32-11 over that time frame and allowing 61.4 points per game, good for fifth nationally, through Jan. 21 games.

- In home games, 12 of the last 14 visitors, have failed to score 70 points.

SHRIG-THREE

- Matt Shrigley has knocked down 24 three-pointers in his last 13 games played.

- He is making 38.7-percent of his attempts from behind the arc and his accuracy to date is a welcomed sight after he made just 14-of-49 (.286) last season after returning in late January from an ACL injury suffered in July.

- The Aztecs are 6-0 this season and 27-4 in his career when he makes multiple treys in a game.

HELPING OTHERS

- Jeremy Hemsley assisted on nine San Diego State baskets vs. Savannah State and had no turnovers in 28 minutes. His 9-assist, 0-turnover performance marked the second time since 1996-97 that an Aztec had at least nine assists and zero turnovers. Chase Tapley, who is a student manager for the team, accomplished the feat vs. Division III Pomona-Pitzer on Dec. 31, 2009. Hemsley is the first to do it since 1996-97 vs. a Division I team.

- Trey Kell had seven assists and one turnover vs. the Tigers. He and Hemsley became the 20th and 21st Aztecs to have at least seven assists and one turnover or less in a game since 1996-97.

100 EMOJI

- The 100 emoji could have been used multiple times following SDSU's game vs. Savannah State. The Aztecs scored 100 points and Zylan Cheatham shot 100 percent from the floor after his 6-for-6 performance.

- It was the 41st time the Aztecs reached the 100-point mark and first since Dec. 27, 2013, when they put up 118 on St. Katherine Colleege. It was the first time SDSU scored 100 points vs. a Division I team since Dec. 12, 2006, vs. Campbell.

- As for Cheatham, his 6-for-6 effort was tied for the third-best shooting night in the Steve Fisher era, which is in its 18th season. It is the eighth time an Aztec has made all six of his attempts from the field. Only Billy White in 2009 (12-for-12) and Aerick Sanders in 2003 (11-for-11) were better.

- Cheatham later put up another 100-percent shooting night, going 5-for-5 from the floor against Alabama State. He finished that game with 11 points, six rebounds, three assists, two blocked shots and one steal.

SHOOTING THE VIEJAS LIGHTS OUT

- Jeremy Hemsley has shot the ball well all year, but exceptionally well inside Viejas Arena. The sophomore is 39-for-81 from the floor (.481) and made a career-high nine field goals in each of the first two home games of the year. He is also 14-for-34 from three-point distance (.412). In home games, he is averaging 16.3 points.

DEFENSIVE STOPPER

- Dakarai Allen, known clogging passing lanes, blocked a game- and career-high five shots vs. San Diego Christian. His effort made him the fourth player nationally, standing at 6-5 or shorter, to have at least five rejections in a game this season. At an Aztec level, he became the first such player to accomplish the feat since 1996-97.

- Allen currently ranks second on the team in steals (25) and blocked shots (13).

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKED

- Opportunity knocked and D'Eryl Williams answered. The senior guard set then-career-highs vs. San Diego in rebounds (5), steals (2, tied) and minutes (29), while making his only three-point attempt, something he did at Gonzaga as well. Then vs. San Diego Christian, he established new personal bests with nine rebounds and 30 minutes, to go with four points and three assists.

- More recently, the guard has played in nine straight games in which he has been healthy and is averaging 13.1 minutes to go with 1.6 assists in those outings.
- Williams is 3-for-5 from three this season after entering the year having made 3-of-7 from behind the arc in his career.
- Twenty of the senior's 21 assists on the season have come in his last 11 appearances.

20-POINT DUO

- Jeremy Hemsley and Trey Kell, one of the top backcourts in the nation, exploded for 25 and 23 points, respectively, in the season opener vs. San Diego. The two became the first Aztec teammates to score at least 20 points in a game since Jamaal Franklin scored 24 points and James Rahon added 22 vs. UNLV on Jan. 15, 2012.

GOOD OMEN?

- Montaque Gill-Caesar started the opener vs. USD in what amounted to his first career game as an Aztec after transferring from Missouri. He became the first San Diego State player to start in his first game of his first season of eligibility following a transfer since Josh Davis (Tulane) in 2013-14. That season, the Aztecs went 31-5 (16-2 Mountain West) and advanced to the Sweet 16.

AZTEC STAPLE: DEFENSE

- The Aztecs have been one of the elite defensive teams in the nation over the last few seasons and this year they returned eight letterwinners off a team that finished first in the nation last season in field-goal percentage defense (.373), third in scoring defense (60.6), fifth in total blocked shots (207), sixth in total rebounds (1,475), seventh in three-point field-goal percentage defense (.300) and 10th in blocked shots per game (5.4).
- This season, the Aztecs rank 15th nationally in points allowed (62.3) and 16th in field-goal percentage defense (.390) through Jan. 21 games. Those figures rank first in the Mountain West.
- SDSU was fourth nationally last year in defensive adjusted efficiency (90.3), according to KenPom. In other defensive metrics, the Aztecs were first in effective field-goal percentage (.425), second in three-point percentage (.294), fourth in block percentage (.150) and fifth in two-point percentage (.416).
- 2013-14 ranks: 2nd in scoring defense, 6th in scoring margin, 8th in field-goal percentage defense.
- 2014-15 ranks: 2nd in scoring defense, 7th in field-goal percentage defense, 24th in blocked shots.

DAKARAI ISLAND

- Senior Dakarai Allen established himself as one of the top defenders in the nation last season. The Elk Grove, California native ranked first in the country last year in points per possession allowed (0.591) among 949 Division I players with at least 200 possessions defended, according to Synergy.

KEY STARTING EXPERIENCE

- Senior Dakarai Allen and junior Malik Pope are two Aztecs who started a significant amount of games last season, but are not considered returning starters, and have logged heavy minutes this year when healthy. Allen earned the starting nod 17 times and Pope started on 16 occasions in 2015-16.
- Senior Matt Shrigley, who was a returning starter heading into 2015-16, but was sidelined due to ACL surgery in July 2015, started 15 times in 2014-15.
- Others with starting experience at the Division I level include, Montaque Gill-Caesar and Valentine Izundu, who each started 13 games at Missouri and Washington State, respectively.

NEW FACES

- San Diego State welcomes three new faces to floor in transfers Montaque Gill-Caesar, Max Hoetzel and Valentine Izundu, and redshirt freshman Nolan Narain.
- Gill-Caesar and Hoetzel transferred to SDSU from Missouri and Indiana, respectively, while Izundu is a graduate transfer from Washington State. The last time San Diego State had three transfers making their debut in one season was in 2012-13 when JJ O'Brien (Utah), Dwayne Polee II (St. John's) and James Johnson (Virginia) all became eligible. That team won 23 games and advanced to the NCAA tournament.

NEW FACES... NEXT YEAR

- SDSU signed a pair of players from Southern California on the first day of the early signing period on Nov. 9. Inking National Letters of Intent were a versatile wing in Jordan Schakel and combo guard Adam Seiko.
- Hailing from Torrance, Schakel helped Bishop Montgomery High School to the Del Rey League championship and an appearance in the CIF State Open Division regional final last season as a junior. A versatile wing, Schakel averaged 18.1 points and 7.1 rebounds, and knocked down 81 three-pointers en route to Daily Breeze all-area first-team and all-CIF Southern Section Open Division accolades. Standing at 6-6, 180 pounds, Schakel is a four-star player by both ESPN and Scout, and the 137th player nationally on the Rivals 150.
- Seiko, a native of Chatsworth, inks with San Diego State out of Sierra Canyon High School. The 6-4, 195-pound combo guard averaged 9.0 points, 3.2 rebounds and 2.0 assists as junior, while knocking down 50.8 percent of his field-goal attempts (.424 3FG) over his prep career, according to MaxPreps. Seiko helped Sierra Canyon to the CIF Southern Section Open Division finals and the Open Division state regionals. He is a three-star player by Rivals.

NOT AN EASY TASK

- Defeating SDSU at home has not been easy for opponents. Since the start of '05-06, the Aztecs are 165-22 (.882) inside Viejas Arena.
- Only 16 teams have won inside Viejas Arena since the start of 2005-06. Of the 16, nine were non-conference foes.

ATOP THE MOUNTAIN

■ Since the beginning of the Mountain West in 1999-00, San Diego State has the most men's basketball championships than any other current member of the league, which is a remarkable feat considering the Aztecs went 0-14 in league play the first season (1999-2000) and 4-10 the second year (2000-01). Here is the list of current Mountain West schools with their regular-season championships (includes ties) and tournament championships: 1. San Diego State 10, New Mexico 8, t-3. UNLV 3, t-3. ■ The 47-game winning streak vs. California schools was the longest active streak in the country ahead of second-place BYU (22 straight vs. Colorado teams) and Pittsburgh (22 straight vs. Pennsylvania teams).

■ Since the start of the 2010-11 season, San Diego State owns the best record of any school in California (180-53).

PROGRAM NOTES ENTERING 2016-17

■ San Diego State has won at least 20 games and advanced to the postseason 11 straight years (seven NCAAs, four NITs). In those 11 seasons, the Aztecs have averaged 26 victories.

■ The Aztecs have won at least one postseason tournament game in an NCAA-sponsored event (NCAA or NIT) four years in a row (2013 NCAA third round, 2014 NCAA Sweet 16, 2015 NCAA third round, 2016 NIT semifinals), which is tied for the fifth-longest active streak.

■ SDSU has reached the postseason and appeared in 11 straight NCAA-sponsored tournaments (NCAA or NIT), which is tied for the eighth-longest active streak nationally.

■ SDSU has won at least 27 games the last three years and has averaged nearly 29 wins during that span (28.7).

■ The Aztecs have won Mountain West regular-season crown (outright or shared) five times in the last six years.

■ The Aztecs will feature a 2016-17 roster that will have a total of 603 games under their collective belt, which is more than both of the program's NCAA Sweet 16 squads. The 2010-11 group entered the year with 523 career games played, while the 2013-14 team boasted 450 career Division I outings at the start of that campaign.

JEFF JACOBS JAM CENTER

On Aug. 23, 2015, San Diego State held a grand-opening ceremony for the 23,500-square-foot Jeff Jacobs JAM Center. The $15-million facility is located just south of Fowler Athletics Center and east of the San Diego State football practice fields. The JAM Center includes:

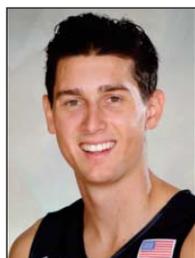

- Two full-length basketball courts
- Locker rooms
- Team lounges
- Coaches locker rooms
- Eight baskets
- Two scoreboards
- Athletic training room
- Film room equipped with 80-inch short throw projector with write-on capability
- Keiser strength equipment

Hundreds of supporters contributed to the effort to make the Jeff Jacobs JAM Center a reality. In addition to the naming gift from Jeff Jacobs, Hal and Debby Jacobs, Steve and Lisa Altman and Jim Morris, creating the name "JAM" Center, sizeable donations were made from the Manna Charitable Foundation and the Walter and Betty Zable Foundation.

Game 1

San Diego State 69
San Diego 59
Nov. 11, 2016 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State rallied from a nine-point first-half deficit to defeat cross-town foe San Diego, 69-59, in the season opener for both teams at Viejas Arena.

The Toreros began the game by making their first four shots from the field, three of which were layups. USD cooled a bit and the Aztecs started to find a rhythm, but the visitors warmed back up and scored seven unanswered points to take a 23-14 lead with 7:56 left.

The teams traded baskets and San Diego regained its nine-point lead with 5:20 remaining before halftime. SDSU, however, took over the game slowly as Trey Kell and Jeremy Hemsley combined to score the team's final 13 points before Olin Carter III made a bucket just before halftime to make it, 35-33, Aztecs.

The second half started much like the first, with USD making a layup right out of the gate and followed it with yet another, this one from Carter III. SDSU answered with layups from Zylan Cheatham and Hemsley to give the home side a 39-37 lead, but Carter III made a pair of free throws to knot the score.

Five consecutive points from Hemsley gave the Aztecs breathing room and it jumpstarted an 18-2 run that put San Diego State ahead, 57-41, with 7:10 to go.

Less than two minutes later, SDSU's lead ballooned to 19 and the Aztecs never looked back. In the final minutes, the Toreros chipped into their deficit before settling for the 10-point loss, which happened to be their eighth straight loss at San Diego State.

The Aztecs, who allowed USD to shoot 54.2 percent in the first half, clamped down in the second and held the Toreros to 44.0-percent shooting in the final 20 minutes.

Hemsley finished with a career-high 25 points and Kell poured in 23 of his own. D'Erryl Williams provided a spark defensively in the first half and was key to shutting USD down on the perimeter, which allowed the Aztecs to get back into the game. The senior finished with career highs in rebounds (5) and steals (2).

Game 2

No. 14/14 Gonzaga 69
San Diego State 48
Nov. 14, 2016 ♦ Spokane, Wash.
McCarthy Athletic Center ♦ Att.: 6,000

SPOKANE, Wash. - SDSU shot the ball poorly and committed 15 turnovers, which led to a 69-48 loss at No. 14/14 Gonzaga.

Both teams opened the game by missing 15 consecutive shots (Gonzaga - 8, San Diego State - 7), but the Aztecs were the ones to eventually jump out to a 6-2 lead.

Once the Bulldogs settled down, they scored 10 unanswered points to move ahead, 12-6. Montaque Gill-Caesar ended SDSU's scoring drought, but it was just the beginning of the Aztecs' tough shooting night as they finished the half by making just two of their 11 attempts from the field.

Gonzaga, on the other hand, outscored San Diego State, 24-13, after the Gill-Caesar basket to take a 36-21 lead at halftime. In the first half, the Aztecs shot 20.7 percent from the field and was 1-for-12 from three-point distance.

San Diego State opened the second half with a Dakarai Allen three-pointer and a Trey Kell bucket to get to within 10 points, but Jordan Mathews hit a three of his own. Jeremy Hemsley answered with a trey on the next possession only to have Mathews hit yet another three-ball to push the Bulldogs lead back to 13. That would be as close as the Aztecs would get the rest of the way.

Mathews, who finished with a game-high 17 points, would go on to make his third three-pointer in the first 3:04 of the period, which spurred a 19-2 run, covering nearly 10 minutes. Kell finally stopped the bleeding with a pair of free throws with 6:30 left in the game, but the game was well in hand for the home team.

Kell and Hemsley each scored 14 points to lead the Aztecs, who shot 28.6 percent for the game and had their 15 turnovers turn into 25 Gonzaga points.

Game 3

San Diego State 81
San Diego Christian 58
Nov. 16, 2016 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State, playing its second game in three days, recovered from a sluggish opening to defeat San Diego Christian, 81-58, at Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs led, 18-17, with 8:49 left in the first before snapping out of their funk. After Isaiah Milan's three-pointer brought the Hawks to within one, San Diego State went on a 10-2 run to create separation.

Milan stopped the SDSU scoring run momentarily, but the home team answered by scoring nine of the game's next 12 points to take a 37-23 lead at halftime.

The second half featured a more inspired brand of basketball and San Diego State's 60-percent shooting exhibition proved it. The Aztecs outscored the Hawks, 44-35, in the final 20 minutes to cruise to the 23-point victory.

San Diego State had four players reach double figures in scoring and were led by Jeremy Hemsley's 23 points on 9-of-12 shooting, including a 3-for-4 effort from behind the three-point arc. The sophomore also added a season- and game-high five assists.

Hemsley's backcourt teammate Trey Kell missed only three of his 10 attempts from the field to finish with 19 points and four assists. Zylan Cheatham and Dakarai Allen chipped in with 15 points apiece with Cheatham contributing seven rebounds and three steals. Allen, meanwhile, grabbed a career-high nine rebounds and blocked a personal-best five shots.

San Diego State needed those contributions and more, for instance, D'Erryl Williams' career-high nine rebounds off the bench, because of its injury situation. The Aztecs did not have Malik Pope (knee), Max Hoetzel (knee), Matt Shrigley (ankle), Valentine Izundu (ankle) or Ben Perez (back) available.

Game 4

San Diego State 77
California 65

Nov. 21, 2016 ♦ Sacramento, Calif.
Golden 1 Center ♦ Att.: 10,104

SACRAMENTO, Calif. - SDSU defeated California, 77-65, at Golden 1 Center, the new home of the NBA's Sacramento Kings.

Jeremy Hemsley led the way for the Aztecs with 15 points and scored 10 straight at one point late in the first half to open what would be an insurmountable lead.

SDSU led, 24-18, with 7:23 left before Hemsley took over the game. The sophomore used a combination of layups and free throws to tally seven points before delivering the knockout blow, a three-pointer with 3:18 to go, to put the Aztecs ahead by 16 points. San Diego State eventually led by 19 before entering the locker room up, 42-25.

In the first half alone, the Aztecs had three players score at least six points, led by Hemsley's 13. Matt Shrigley, who did not play in the previous game, came off the bench to make a trio of three-pointers. Malik Pope, meanwhile, made his season debut, started and promptly scored SDSU's first six points of the game.

The Golden Bears emerged from halftime and outscored the Aztecs, 13-6, to cut their deficit to 10. But on the very next possession, Pope made a basket and was followed by five points from Zylan Cheatham.

California made one final push, getting to within eight points with 5:45 to go, but like last time, Pope answered with bucket to get SDSU's lead back to double digits. The Bears would not get closer than nine points the rest of the way as the Aztecs secured their fourth straight win over California.

Pope finished with 14 points and contributed five fouls to the game's total of 50. Trey Kell had 11 points as did Max Hoetzel, who was also making his season debut. Shrigley rounded out SDSU's double-figure scoring contingent with 10 points.

California's Ivan Rabb led all players with 19 points and 11 boards off the bench. Charlie Moore added 17 points.

Game 5

San Diego State 100
Savannah State 67

Nov. 28, 2016 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State had five players reach double figures in scoring and never trailed to cruise to a 100-67 win over Savannah State.

Leading the way for the Aztecs was Zylan Cheatham, who had 18 points on 6-for-6 shooting and eight rebounds. Matt Shrigley and Max Hoetzel each had 15 points and combined to make eight treys, including a career-high five from Shrigley.

Guards Jeremy Hemsley and Montaque Gill-Caesar scored 14 and 12 points, respectively, with Hemsley adding a game-high nine assists against zero turnovers. Trey Kell, meanwhile, had nine points, seven rebounds and seven assists.

The aforementioned players helped SDSU, which led by as many as 31 points in the first half, jump out to a 60-32 lead at halftime. The 60 points were the third most scored by an Aztec team in any half since 1996-97.

Defensively, San Diego State locked down a Tigers team that was averaging 93.6 points and eventually held them to a season-low point total. The Aztecs only allowed one player to reach double digits in scoring and it was Dexter McClanahan, who finished with 13 points and a game-high 10 rebounds.

As for the 100 points scored by San Diego State, it marked the fourth-highest output in Viejas Arena history and the most against a Division I opponent since Dec. 12, 2006, vs. Campbell (119 points). It was the first time SDSU reached the scoring plateau since scoring 118 vs. St. Katherine College on Dec. 27, 2013.

Game 6

Loyola 65
San Diego State 59

Dec. 3, 2016 ♦ Chicago, Ill.
Gentile Arena ♦ Att.: 2,189

CHICAGO - San Diego State got behind by 10 points in the second half and took a one-point lead down the stretch, but could not complete the comeback as it fell at Loyola, 65-59, in the Mountain West-Missouri Valley Challenge.

The first half was a see-saw affair, but the Aztecs continually found themselves trailing and having to rally. The Ramblers led by as many as four points with 3:47 left in the period and allowed SDSU to take a 33-32 lead after Trey Kell made a three-pointer with 37 seconds left. Unfortunately for San Diego State, Milton Doyle banked in a three-pointer of his own just ahead of the half-time horn to lift Loyola to a 35-33 advantage.

In the second half, the Ramblers struck early and often, outscoring the Aztecs, 10-4, before the first media timeout. Loyola capped the run with a Doyle layup to take the aforementioned 10-point lead with 14:48 to go.

SDSU methodically chipped away at its deficit and took a 54-53 lead after another Trey Kell triple with 5:30 left in regulation. After a Rambler timeout, Loyola went to Aundre Jackson and got an open look at a layup for his 10th basket in 11 attempts.

Malik Pope brought the Aztecs to within one thanks to a one-handed dunk, but SDSU went scoreless for the next 2:49 and was forced to foul, which provided the final margin.

Kell led the Aztecs with 16 points and made a career-high four treys. Pope added seven points and team highs of seven rebounds and three assists.

For Loyola, it was led by Jackson, who ultimately scored 24 points on 11-of-12 shooting. He was 9-for-9 on the afternoon from inside the three-point arc. Doyle finished with 12 points and Clayton Custer chipped in with 10 points.

Game 7

Grand Canyon 76
San Diego State 72
Dec. 7, 2016 ♦ Phoenix, Ariz.
GCU Arena ♦ Att.: 7,171

PHOENIX - Jeremy Hemsley caught fire in the second half and made all six of his three-point attempts in the frame to help the Aztecs rally from 11 points down. Grand Canyon, however, answered in the final minutes to defeat SDSU, 76-72, at GCU Arena.

The Aztecs, who trailed by eight points at halftime, cut their deficit to two with 14:25 left in the game, but the Lopes answered with a 9-0 run to take a 55-44 lead.

Phoenix native Zylan Cheatham scored four straight points to get the Aztecs to within seven points and that's when Hemsley got going. The sophomore made trey and was followed by a Valentine Izundu free throw, which gave SDSU a 55-52 lead.

Hemsley then went three-pointer, two free throws, three-point-er, three-pointer, three-pointer. During the Hemsley run, GCU scored nine points, including six off a pair of treys from Fifii Aidoo. Following Hemsley's last triple, the Aztecs enjoyed a 66-64 lead with 7:24 to play.

Cheatham scored the next three points off free throws and a Hemsley layup increased the lead to 71-66 with 4:06 on the clock.

Grand Canyon answered with an Oscar Frayer three-pointer and then a Frayer miss from behind the arc. Unfortunately for SDSU, it could not grab the board and the ball was kicked out to Frayer in the same spot and the guard knocked it in.

An Aztec turnover turned into a layup and Hemsley made a free throw to bring SDSU to within two points. The Aztecs had one last chance to tie or win the game after rebounding a missed free throw with 10 seconds left, but Hemsley could not split a double team near midcourt and SDSU was dealt its second straight defeat.

Hemsley finished the game with a career-high 28 points and seven threes, and Cheatham had 17 points and 12 rebounds. DeWayne Russell led GCU with 21 points. Frayer had 19.

Game 8

Arizona State 74
San Diego State 63
Dec. 10, 2016 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State let a seven-point halftime lead slip away as Arizona State emerged with a 74-63 victory at Viejas Arena.

SDSU looked poised to snap a two-game losing streak after an enthusiastic opening 20 minutes. The Aztecs shot 46.2 percent from the floor and made all six of their free throws. Defensively, San Diego State limited ASU to 9-for-24 shooting (.375) and forced 13 turnovers. At intermission, the Aztecs were ahead, 32-25.

The Sun Devils, however, were a different team when they stepped back onto the floor. Arizona State's first three field goals were three-pointers and 3:05 into the period ASU led, 36-35, after a Tra Holder layup.

As the clock dipped just under 15 minutes, Max Hoetzel connected on one of his career-high four three-pointers to level the score at 38. The Sun Devils answered immediately with a trey to spur a 15-3 run that put the visitors up, 53-41, with 8:24 to play.

SDSU responded with six straight points to cut its deficit in half, but ASU came back with another three, this time from Obinna Oleka. The Aztecs wound up getting to within six points three different times over the course of the next two-plus minutes, but Arizona State pushed its lead back to eight each time.

The closest San Diego State would get the rest of the way was seven points and it ultimately ran out of time, which sent the Aztecs to their third straight loss.

In the second half alone, Arizona State shot 50 percent from the field (15-30), 50 percent from three-point range (7-14) and 100 percent from the free-throw line (12-12). SDSU was 9-for-31 from the floor in the final 20 minutes.

Trey Kell, who had 10 points to help SDSU jump out to its half-time lead, finished with 20 points and a career-high five steals. Hoetzel added 12 points and Jeremy Hemsley scored 10.

Game 9

San Diego State 73
Alabama State 41
Dec. 12, 2016 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State scored the game's first 10 points and made its first 11 two-point field-goal attempts to take a 22-5 lead and never looked back in defeating Alabama State, 73-41, to stop a three-game losing streak.

The Aztecs, in fact, made their first 12 shots, the last of which was a three-pointer by Matt Shrigley to move ahead, 25-8, with 9:24 left in the first half. The trey represented the first SDSU points outside of the paint on the night.

San Diego State wound up missing its first basket with just over eight minutes left before intermission, but the misfire was one of nine as the Aztecs shot 62.5 percent and took a 42-22 lead into the locker room.

SDSU cooled in the second half, only making 47.6-percent of its field-goal attempts, but its defense remained on par. After allowing the Hornets to 7-for-31 shooting in the first half, they were only slightly better in the second, connecting on 8-of-29 from the floor.

With the Aztecs holding a comfortable lead, San Diego State was able to get 11 players into the game, with nine of them scoring. Of the starters, three were in double figures, led by Malik Pope's season-high totals of 16 points and seven rebounds. Zylan Cheatham made all five of his shots en route to 11 points and six boards, while Dakarai Allen chipped in 10 points and a career-high four steals. Montaque Gill-Caesar added 11 points off the bench.

Alabama State was led by Torloft Thomas, who had 14 points and a game-high-tying three assists.

HONOLULU - San Diego State built an early double-digit lead and nearly gave all of it up before closing the game on an 18-8 run to defeat Southern Miss, 66-51, in the opening round of the Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic.

The Aztecs were effective from the inside and out to lead, 17-3, with 13:41 left in the first half. Southern Miss, however, cut its deficit to eight points only to have SDSU go outside and then in.

Jeremy Hemsley made a three-pointer and was followed by a Zylan Cheatham mid-range jumper. The Golden Eagles hit a trey to temporarily slow the Aztecs' momentum, but the designated visiting team received a layup from Cheatham, a three from Malik Pope and a three-point play from Trey Kell to extend SDSU's lead to 18 points. San Diego State eventually went into halftime ahead, 36-20.

The Aztecs led by 14 points with 17:01 left in the second half after Matt Shrigley knocked down a three-pointer. Southern Miss scored seven straight points to cut SDSU's lead in half, but the Aztecs responded with three straight points to move ahead by 10.

The Golden Eagles scored five consecutive points to slice their deficit in half with 11:59 to play, but the Aztecs answered with the aforementioned 18-8 game-ending run, which covered the final 11:30 to provide the final margin.

Cheatham led all players with 16 points and a career-high 13 rebounds, while Kell finished with 11 points and a game-high five assists.

Raheem Watts, meanwhile, led the Golden Eagles with 14 points and six rebounds. Cortez Edwards added 13 points, five rebounds, four assists and a game-high three steals for Southern Miss.

Stan Sheriff Center ♦ Att.: 5,873

HONOLULU - San Diego State turned a 52-all game into a rout thanks to a barrage of three-pointers in what finished as an 82-63 Aztec victory over Tulsa in the semifinal round of the Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic.

The score was deadlocked at 52 with 11:08 to play and then SDSU began to hit from three-point distance. The Aztecs took 10 straight treys and made seven to take a 73-56 lead with 5:47 left in regulation.

The Golden Hurricane never got closer than 15 points the rest of the way as the Aztecs earned a spot in the championship game.

The way the game ended was completely different from how it started as Tulsa raced to an 8-0 lead within the first 115 seconds. By the time the clock read 15:00, San Diego State led, 14-11, and led by five points a couple of minutes later.

SDSU later extended its lead to eight points before settling for a 41-37 advantage at halftime.

The score remained close until it was level at 52, setting up the Aztecs' attack from behind the three-point arc.

Jeremy Hemsley led all players with 20 points and was 5-for-7 from three-point distance. Trey Kell, who made three from behind the arc, had 19 points, four assists and a career-high five steals. Game 12

San Diego State 62
San Francisco 48

Dec. 25, 2016 ♦ Honolulu, Hawaii
Stan Sheriff Center ♦ Att.: 6,119

HONOLULU - San Diego State claimed the 2016 Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic championship with its 62-48 victory over San Francisco on Christmas afternoon.

The Aztecs shut down a Dons offense that was one of the top three-point shooting units in the nation, entering the game as the fourth-best team nationally in three-point makes and fifth in three-point percentage.

San Diego State, meanwhile, used the three-point shot to earn its third win four days.

With SDSU clinging on to a 41-39 lead with 11:46 to play, D'Erryl Williams missed a layup, but the rebound was scooped by Valentine Izundu, who fed Matt Shrigley. The shot clock did not reset and the senior faced going one way and went the other, ultimately rising and nailing the trey.

USF's Ronnie Boyce answered with a layup and Shrigley was at it again, this time knocking down yet another three to move the Aztecs ahead, 47-41.

The Dons got back to within four points only to have San Diego State respond with a Zylan Cheatham three. Cheatham added a dunk after USF cut its deficit to five and the slam was followed by a Jeremy Hemsley three-pointer to increase the Aztecs' lead to 10 with 4:19 to play.

Hemsley later added another triple down the stretch to help San Diego State to the 14-point victory.

Defensively, the Aztecs limited the Dons to 4-of-20 shooting (.200) from three-point range and 37.3 percent from the field, which was well below USF's season average of 49.2 percent.

Cheatham, the Most Outstanding Player, finished with 16 points and 11 rebounds. Trey Kell added 10 points and was named to the all-tourney team. Hemsley finished with 12 points.

Game 13

New Mexico 68
San Diego State 62
 Jan. 1, 2017 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
 Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State let a nine-point lead with more than six minutes left in the second half slip away as it opened Mountain West action with a 68-62 home loss to New Mexico.

In less than two minutes after a Valentine Izundu dunk lifted SDSU to a 56-47 lead with 6:15 left, New Mexico nearly erased its deficit with a three-pointer from Dane Kuiper and jumpers from Jalen Harris and Tim Williams.

The Aztecs led, 61-60, with 2:19 remaining after UNM's Elijah Brown made two free-throws, but Jeremy Hemsley missed a three-point attempt on the ensuing possession.

Following the misfire, Max Hoetzel fouled Xavier Adams, who made both of his free throws to give the Lobos their first lead since opening the game with two Brown free throws. Hemsley tied the game at 62 when he made 1-of-2 from the charity stripe with 1:03 to go.

The Aztecs, however, missed a jumpshot, committed a turnover and then missed another three-pointer to close the game. On the flip side, UNM made all four of its free-throw attempts down the stretch and tacked on a dunk to provide the final margin.

San Diego State, which was without Malik Pope for a third straight game (knee) and Matt Shrigley (ankle), led by 11 at half-time thanks to 46.4-percent shooting. In the second half, though, SDSU was just 9-for-25 from the field, while allowing the Lobos to shoot 44.8 percent from the floor, including a 4-for-6 effort from three and a 13-for-15 performance from the free-throw line.

New Mexico ended the game by making 6-of-12 from three-point distance and 20-for-26 from the charity stripe.

Hemsley led the Aztecs with 16 points, Trey Kell had 12 points, five assists and three steals, and Hoetzel added 10 points.

Brown finished with a game-high 22 points and Williams had 12 points and nine boards.

Game 14

Nevada 72
San Diego State 69
 Jan. 4, 2017 ♦ Reno, Nev.
 Lawlor Events Center ♦ Att.: 8,461

RENO, Nev. - San Diego State's furious second-half rally fell short as it lost at Nevada, 72-69, despite receiving a career-high 30 points from Jeremy Hemsley.

The Aztecs, who only trailed by three points at halftime, found themselves staring at a 60-50 deficit with 5:21 to go until Hemsley put them on his back.

The sophomore scored nine straight points for SDSU, all of which came on threes, to help it get to within six points. During Hemsley's scoring spree, Nevada's D.J. Fenner added five points.

Zylan Cheatham threw down a dunk, but the Wolf Pack answered with a trey to move ahead by seven with 39 seconds left. Hemsley, however, made his sixth three-pointer of the night and then made a layup to make the score, 68-66 Nevada, with 21 ticks left on the clock.

Fenner made two free throws to double the Wolf Pack's lead, but the three-point shot was good to the Aztecs again, with Max Hoetzel tossing in his career-high fifth of the game.

Now within one point and 12 seconds left, SDSU fouled Marcus Marshall, who made both of his free-throw attempts, which moved Nevada in front, 72-69, with nine seconds remaining.

The Aztecs ran a play for Hemsley, but his three-point magic ran out as his attempt was off the mark, propelling the Wolf Pack to victory.

In addition to scoring 30 points, Hemsley added five assists and zero turnovers, becoming just the sixth player in Division I in 2016-17, and the first Aztec since at least 1996-97, to post a line of at least 30 points, five assists and zero miscues.

Hoetzel ended the game with a season-high 15 points and Cheatham contributed a team-high eight rebounds and a career-high six assists.

As for Nevada, Jordan Caroline posted 19 points and 11 rebounds, while Cameron Oliver turned in 17 points and 11 boards. Fenner finished with 17 points of his own and Marshall chipped in 12.

 Jan. 7, 2017 ♦ Boise, Idaho
 Taco Bell Arena ♦ Att.: 4,411

BOISE, Idaho - San Diego State raced out to an 11-point first-half lead, but could not hold on to it as Boise State rallied to defeat the Aztecs, 78-66, on a wintry night at Taco Bell Arena.

In the first eight-plus minutes, SDSU could do no wrong, starting with Max Hoetzel. The sophomore started things off by knocking down a three-pointer on the Aztecs' opening possession. In fact, Hoetzel made his first four treys he attempted, three of which came in the first 6:42 of the contest.

During the game-opening 21-10 run, five different Aztecs scored, including Jeremy Hemsley, whose layup gave SDSU its 11-point cushion.

The Broncos, however, closed the first half on a 26-12 run, including a 12-2 spurt in the final four minutes, to take a 39-35 lead at halftime.

When play resumed, Boise State outscored the Aztecs, 12-6, to enjoy its first double-digit lead of the game at 51-41. San Diego State missed seven of its first eight field-goal attempts to open the second half to aid the Broncos' run.

The Aztecs managed to cut their deficit to eight points on a couple of occasions, but stared at a double-figure hole to dig out of in the final 10:11 of the evening.

Dakarai Allen led San Diego State in scoring with a career-high 17 points on 6-of-8 shooting. Hoetzel, who started for the fifth straight game in place of the injured Malik Pope, finished with a season-high 16 points and Zylan Cheatham added 12 points.

For the Broncos, they were led by Zach Haney and James Reid's 19 points. The Boise State trio of Paris Austin, Nick Duncan and Chandler Hutchison all scored 12 points apiece.

The Reid-Haney duo was responsible for 38 of Boise State's 40 bench points compared to SDSU's five. All five points came from Valentine Izundu, who added a career-high eight rebounds and a game-high three blocked shots.

Game 17

San Diego State 74
Utah State 55

Jan. 14, 2017 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State had its full complement of players for the first time in three weeks and defeated Utah State, 74-55, at home.

The missing piece to its roster was Malik Pope and the junior returned to the SDSU rotation after missing six consecutive games due to a knee injury. Pope did not start, but the Aztecs opened the game by making 13 of their first 16 shots and at one point made 12 straight to take a 31-15 lead.

When Pope entered the game with 15:16 left in the first half, San Diego State immediately felt his presence and went on a 16-4 run. The Aggies later went on a 14-0 run late in the first half, which got them to within two points with 5:38 to go, but Pope answered with back-to-back jumpers.

After the Pope baskets, Matt Shrigley added a three-pointer and Trey Kell converted an and-1 situation to put SDSU ahead, 41-29. Utah State closed with four straight points to end the half as the Aztecs led, 41-34, at intermission.

When the action resumed, San Diego State jumped on the Aggies, scoring 11 unanswered points to move out in front, 52-34. Less than three minutes later, the Aztecs led by 20 and were never threatened the rest of the way.

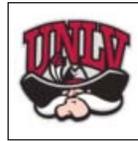

Pope finished the game with nine points and five rebounds in 23 minutes, but it was Shrigley and Jeremy Hemsley who led the team in scoring with 14 points apiece. The duo was responsible for seven of SDSU's 10 three-pointers on the night (Shrigley 4-6, Hemsley 3-7). Kell added 12 points and a game-high five assists.

Sam Merrill, meanwhile, led all players with 18 points and had a USU-high three assists. Jalen Moore chipped in 13 points, all of which came in the first half.

Game 18

San Diego State 64
UNLV 51

Jan. 17, 2017 ♦ Las Vegas, Nev.
Thomas & Mack Center ♦ Att.: 10,007

LAS VEGAS - Trey Kell scored 16 of San Diego State's final 20 points to lead the Aztecs past UNLV, 64-51, at Thomas & Mack Center. The win was SDSU's ninth straight over the Runnin' Rebels and its sixth straight over UNLV at the venue.

The Aztecs led the Rebels, 44-42, after UNLV finished a 7-2 run with 9:55 left in the second half, which forced San Diego State to call timeout.

After the pause, SDSU designed a play for Kell and the guard swooped to the hoop and made a layup, and then a three-pointer and then another layup to put the Aztecs ahead, 51-42, with 8:08 to go.

Kell eventually scored 13 of San Diego State's 15 points before Jeremy Hemsley laid the ball in to give the visitors a 61-48 lead with 3:05 to play. Kell completed the Aztecs' scoring with three more points down the stretch to provide SDSU's final point total.

The game started on a much different note as the Rebels made their first two three-pointers and another jumper to take an 8-4 lead. UNLV, in fact, made its first three treys, the last of which gave it an 11-9 lead.

Midway through the first half, the Runnin' Rebels ran out to a 25-18 lead thanks to a 12-2 burst. The Aztecs had other things in mind, however, responding with a 16-6 first-half-ending run to move out in front, 34-31, at halftime.

San Diego State led by as many as seven points in the opening minute of the second period, but UNLV responded with six straight points to get within one and then no team scored for over four minutes. When the drought ended, both teams traded baskets, setting up Kell's scoring spree.

Kell finished with a game- and season-high 24 points and Dakarai Allen added 10 points. Valentine Izundu, meanwhile, blocked a season-high four shots.
