Aztec Basketball Looks To Continue Winning Ways At Home Saturday Vs. BYU

Following its second victory over a ranked team, the San Diego State women's basketball team returns to a place that it has known nothing but winning - Cox Arena. The Aztecs are a perfect 8-0 at home this season and have claimed 10 straight overall, which ties for the 15th-longest active streak in the nation entering the weekend. SDSU will put that streak to the test Saturday against visiting Brigham Young at 2 p.m. PT, as Mountain West Conference play continues.

The Aztecs enter Saturday's contest with a 12-4 overall record and a 3-1 mark in conference action, after Wednesday's thrilling upset of No. 23 New Mexico at The Pit in Albuquerque. SDSU held on in the final minutes to claim its first victory at New Mexico since 1995, breaking a 19-game Lobo win streak in the series and handing UNM its first home loss of the season.

San Diego State is currently tied for third place in the MWC with both New Mexico and BYU at 3-1. The Cougars, who are 13-3 on the season, won 10 straight after dropping two of their first four contests and have impressive victories over TCU, Oregon and USC. The Aztecs and Cougars split last year's two meetings with the home team prevailing in both.

The afternoon game will feature a live audio/video feed from Cox Arena with Chris Eлло, as well as live stats on goaztecs.com. San Diego State will be celebrating Girls and Women in Sports Day, as well as the NCAA Pack the House Challenge, on Saturday.

Aztecs Win For The First Time Since 1995 At New Mexico, 57-52

The San Diego State women's basketball team held on in a furious final few minutes, logging the program's first victory at New Mexico in nearly 14 years, 57-52, over the 23rd-ranked Lobos Wednesday evening in front of 7,657 fans at The Pit. With the win, the Aztecs ended a 19-game New Mexico win streak in the series and handed the Lobos their first loss at home this season following an 11-0 start. SDSU improved to 12-4 on the year, including two victories over top 25 teams, and 3-1 in league play, while the Lobos dropped to 14-3 and 3-1 in MWC action.

Sophomore Paris Johnson (San Diego, Calif.) recorded her sixth double-double of the year with a game-high 17 points and 11 rebounds, but more importantly, sunk a pair of free throws with just three seconds remaining to secure the win.

Junior guard Quenese Davis (Sacramento, Calif.) was the only other Aztec in double-figures with 11 points, including a 3-for-5 effort from beyond the arc. Davis had a team-best five assists, Johnson had three blocked shots and Jennifer Layton-Bailes (Sacramento, Calif.) and Jené Morris (San Francisco, Calif.) each added nine points apiece.

After the two sides traded baskets to open the game, the Aztecs hit back-to-back three pointers on consecutive trips up the floor by Quenese Davis and Morris to take an 8-2 lead heading into the first media timeout. The Lobos responded with a 10-0 run as the SDSU struggled to get into its offense.

The Aztecs finally got back on the scoreboard on a Morris lay-up at the 11:34 mark, after going over five minutes between buckets. The Morris score sparked an 11-0 run, as SDSU once again took the lead at 19-12.

The Lobos broke their own drought with a jumper and a free throw to get back to within four at 21-17. SDSU found its inside game over the next two minutes, as an 8-0 run gave the visitors their biggest lead of the night at 29-17.

After closing the gap to just four at the half, the Lobos scored eight of the first 10 points out the break all on lay-ups to reclaim the lead at 37-35, but SDSU got a three-pointer from junior Kim Spinardi (Merced, Calif.), just her second of the season, to once again move out ahead, 38-37.

Following a pair of ties and two more lead changes, the Aztecs built a pair of six-point advantages and later an eight-point edge at 53-45 on a Johnson lay-up with 4:29 remaining.

UNM crept to within a pair with 55 seconds left, but an amazing steal from behind by Morris gave the Aztecs a four-point advantage. The Lobos had a chance to equalize on a three-pointer their next trip up the court, but Layton-Bailes blocked the attempt from the right angle and Johnson secured the rebound. Layton-Bailes missed the front end of a 1-and-1 with four seconds on the clock, but Johnson once again got the board, was fouled and then proceeded to sink to free throws for the 57-52 win.

What The UNM Win Means

The win over New Mexico was significant for several reasons including:

► Was SDSU's first victory over New Mexico since February 2001, breaking a 19-game Lobo win streak.

► Was SDSU's first win in Albuquerque since March 1995, a span of 11 games.

► Broke a 11-game New Mexico home win streak that ranked 16th nationally entering the week.

► Gives SDSU at least one win over each Mountain West Conference school since Beth Burns returned as head coach in 2005-06.

► Gives SDSU three wins in its first four MWC games, the Aztecs' best start in league history.

► Gives the Aztecs two wins over teams ranked in the Associated Press top 25 this year.

Sub-60

For sixth straight game, the Aztecs held an opponent to fewer than 60 points, allowing just 52 by New Mexico on Wednesday. SDSU foes have scored less than 60 points in 11 of 16 outings in 2008-09, and have not been able to reach the 50-point barrier on five occasions.

San Diego State ranks first in the Mountain West Conference for league-only games in scoring defense, allowing just 45.0 points an outing in the four contests. The Aztecs are fourth in overall scoring defense at 58.1 ppg.

Guarding The Three Ball

New Mexico became San Diego State's 12th opponent and sixth straight to make three or fewer three-point field goals in a game, tallying two on 11 attempts. UNM had entered the evening averaging over six triples an outing.

On the year, Aztec opponents have made just 52 three-pointers, the fewest allowed by a Mountain West Conference squad by 10. Of the 52 treys, 10 were by No. 25/22 Iowa State and another seven were by No. 1 UConn, meaning SDSU's remaining 14 opponents have combined to convert just 35 (2.5/g).

Keeping Them Low

With its 14 turnovers against New Mexico, San Diego State has committed fewer than 20 giveaways in a game in each of its last 10 contests. The Aztecs had just 14 turnovers on Wednesday, the 11th time in the last 12 outings they have ended up with fewer than 20.

SDSU tied a season-low with 11 turnovers at Utah and followed that up with 14 in each of its last two games. Unfortunately for the Aztecs, both times they have logged a season-low in turnovers (also vs. Iowa State), both have resulted in losses.

San Diego State began the year with 20 or more giveaways in four straight games.

Q Reaches The Big 4-0-0

After notching a game-high five at New Mexico, Aztec junior guard Quenese Davis became just the third player in school history to record 400 career assists.

Davis now has 401 in two and a half seasons on The Mesa. She joins All-American Falisha Wright (448) and Crystal Lee (413) as the only Aztecs to reach the 400-assist barrier. Davis is sixth in Mountain West Conference history in assists and has the most among active players.

For the season, she has five or more helpers in 13 of 16 contests, including in 10 of the last 12 games. Davis had a season-best nine assists against Loyola Marymount and continues to lead the league in that category by a healthy margin with 5.56 an outing. The Sacramento native entered this week ranked 20th nationally in assists per game.

PJ Seeing Double

For the sixth time this season and the ninth time in her career, sophomore center Paris Johnson reached double-figures in points and rebounds in the same contest.

Johnson notched her first double-double in league action in 2008-09 with her game-high 17 points and 11 rebounds in the win over New Mexico. All but one of her double-doubles have come in SDSU wins, and with her 11 boards, she has reached double-figures in that category 10 times in her short two-year stint as an Aztec.

On the year, SDSU has already matched its season total from 2007-08 with seven double-doubles.

Celebrate Girls And Women In Sports

Aztec basketball has once again teamed up with the San Diego County Office of Education to celebrate Girls and Women in Sports Day on Saturday, Jan. 24, when SDSU plays host to BYU at 2 p.m. Fans will get a chance to meet and greet student-athletes from some of the school's 11 women's athletic programs. The course outside Cox Arena will open at 12:30 p.m., with special pregame activities.

Saturday's contest will also be the Aztecs' 2008-09 NCAA Women's Basketball Pack the House Challenge game. SDSU will compete against all Division I schools and fellow MWC members to "Pack the House" at a home game from October 17, 2008 to March 8, 2009.

Holding Down Home Court

San Diego State enters Saturday's contest riding a 10-game home win streak, including a perfect 8-0 mark this season. The Aztecs have also won four straight home MWC contests.

The current 10-game home win streak is 15th nationally entering this weekend.

Notes With A 'W'

An SDSU victory over BYU will mean:

►SDSU wins its fourth MWC game, already tying its fourth-highest win total in the MWC's 10-year history.

►SDSU improves to 9-0 at home this season and has won 11 straight home contests.

►SDSU wins its first second straight home game over BYU and improves to 9-10 all-time against the Cougars in San Diego.

BYU Tid-Bits

BYU enters Saturday's game with a 13-3 overall record and a 3-1 mark in MWC play, which ties it for third in the conference ... The Cougars have played three common opponents this season with the Aztecs, including UConn, Long Beach St. and New Mexico ... BYU is led by Mindy Nielson, who is averaging 11.9 points and has contributed 58 assists ... Shawnee Slade chips in 11.3 points a game, while Cassie King is her team's top

What About Those Wins?

Through 16 games, San Diego State is off to its best start since the 1995-96 squad began its season with an 13-3 mark. The Aztecs have recorded their third-straight 10-win campaign, the first time that's happened since SDSU won at least 10 games eight years in a row from 1990-98.

Here are a few San Diego State winning notes:

- SDSU won its MWC opener for the first time since 2007 and just the third time overall.
- The Aztecs claimed their first win over an Associated Press ranked team in 14 years by beating No. 4 Texas on Dec. 30 and followed that up with a victory at No. 23 New Mexico. SDSU's last win vs. a ranked opponent was Dec. 28, 1994, when the team defeated No. 6 Alabama, 79-76, at a tournament at St. John's in Jamaica, N.Y. The Aztecs had gone 0-16 against ranked foes prior to the win over the Longhorns.
- SDSU recorded its first-ever Surf 'N Slam title in the event's four-year history. It marks the first time the Aztecs have won a non-conference tournament since going 2-0 at the Santa Clara Diet Pepsi Shoot-Out in Santa Clara, Calif., in 1993.
- SDSU is 8-0 at home this season, its' best start at home since the 1995-96 team went a perfect 13-0.
- SDSU ended the non-conference regular season with a 9-1 mark against teams it did not face a year ago.
- SDSU is 14-3 during the month of December over the last three seasons, including a perfect 5-0 in 2008-09.

Burns Nears 200 Wins At SDSU

SDSU head coach Beth Burns needs just four more victories to earn her 200th win with the Aztecs. Burns has a 12-year record of 196-140 at SDSU, while she is 277-205 in 17 campaigns as a collegiate head coach.

Burns is already the all-time winningest head coach in Aztec history and garnered her 250th career win overall last season against Southern Utah.

already has combined for 22 blocked shots to rank first in the MWC with 5.50 an outing.

SDSU has five or more blocks in 10 outings, including a MWC-record 15 rejections against Northwestern State. The Aztecs followed that with another double-figure effort with 10 by six different players against Loyola Marymount on Dec. 21.

The Aztecs began the year 8-0 when tallying six or more blocks in a game, before dropping the Utah game.

SDSU entered the week No. 8 nationally in blocks per game and is first in the MWC. The school record for most blocks in a season is 162 by the 1987-88 Aztecs.

Turning Them Over

SDSU's streak of forcing more than 20 opponent turnovers came to an end Wednesday, when New Mexico committed only 16. Still, Aztec opponents have reached the 20-mark in 13 of the 16 games with the only three exceptions being ranked teams in No. 1 UConn, No. 25/22 Iowa St. and No. 23 UNM.

San Diego State has forced 30 turnovers three times and still leads the Mountain West Conference in turnover margin with a +5.62 mark and entered the week ranked 13th nationally. The team averages only 17.7 turnovers to their opponents' 23.3 per game.

A year ago, San Diego State forced 20 or more opponent turnovers in 25 of 31 games and easily set a league record for best-ever turnover margin of +5.81.

Steals Are All Around

For just the second time this year, San Diego State has not reached double-figures in steals in consecutive outings, tallying nine vs. Wyoming and eight at UNM.

The Aztecs still have 10 steals or more 10 times, after compiling double-figures in 22 games in 2007-08.

On the year, SDSU continues to lead the MWC by a huge margin with 11.75 per outing. The Aztecs entered the week ranked 12th nationally in that category.

Individually, Jené Morris is first in the league and was fifth nationally with 3.6 per game, while classmate Quenese Davis is second in the MWC and 25th in the nation with 2.8 a contest.

On The Charts

At the mid-way point of the season, several Aztecs have made a dent in the SDSU career record book.

Quenese Davis, as previously mentioned, is now third all-time in assists with 401, but she is also just two steals shy of entering the top 10 in that category with 170. Jené Morris is still third in career three-point percentage at 37.4, with her 71 makes rank eighth and her 190 attempts put her 10th. Sophomore Paris Johnson is seventh in career blocked shots with 92.

Also In The Rankings

Besides the categories already mentioned, SDSU also continues to lead the Mountain West in assists (15.38/g) and offensive rebounds (15.44). Paris Johnson ranks first in the league in offensive rebounds (3.44/g) and blocked shots (2.38/g). In conference-only contests, Quenese Davis is tops in free-throw percentage (1.000) and Jennifer Layton-Bailes is first in blocks with eight.

Aztecs In The AP Poll

Although the Aztecs may have fallen out of the most recent Associated poll, San Diego State has still received votes three times in 2008-09.

SDSU had three votes on Jan. 12, after getting two on Jan. 7. The Aztecs first received mention on Dec. 22, the first time the program has done so in over 10 years.

Prior to this campaign, the last time San Diego State garnered votes during the regular season was back in March 1997, when it had 15 votes before playing its NCAA tournament game against Oregon.

Overall, the Aztecs have appeared in the AP poll 40 times with their last actual ranking coming in 1995, when the team ended up 22nd following a 24-6 campaign.

Other 2008-09 Notes

- The Aztecs' 50 rebounds against Northwestern State are program's most since 2000, when they also had 50 against Northern Arizona.

- Jerica Williams' 14 boards vs. Northwestern State are the most since Ashlee Dunlap had 17 at Washington State on Dec. 22, 2003.

- SDSU rejected a record 15 shots against Northwestern State, the most ever by a Mountain West Conference team in the league's 10-year history. The Aztecs beat the previous mark of 14 held by New Mexico.

- Sophomore center Paris Johnson was selected to the six-player all-tournament squad at the Waikiki Beach Marriott Classic in Honolulu, Hawaii. She averaged 22.7 points and 8.3 rebounds in the three games, shooting 78.9 percent from the field and recording a career-best 31 points vs. the host Wahine.

- SDSU has had two different players reach the 30-point barrier this season in Paris Johnson (31 pts. vs. Hawai'i) and Jené Morris (34 pts. vs. Iowa State). Morris' 34 points are the most by a player in the MWC this season, while Johnson's 31 tie for third.

- With the help of the U.S. Marine Corps, the Aztecs posted a season-high for home attendance with 1,681 fans against UC Riverside. The figure ranks third in the 12-year history of Cox Arena.

- SDSU has had four different starting line-ups this year, after having only three a year ago. Eight different Aztecs have started at least one game in 2008-09.

- SDSU had three players score 20 points or more in the same game vs. Montana State. The last time the Aztecs accomplished that feat was in 1992 vs. Colorado State.

- San Diego State scored 85 points in consecutive 85-70 wins over LMU and Montana State. The last time the Aztecs scored at least 85 points in consecutive games was in 1999, when SDSU defeated San Jose State, 89-51, on Jan. 28, and Fresno State, 89-68, on Jan. 30.

- The Aztecs have won their last 45 games when scoring 80 or more points with the last defeat coming in 1992 against Fresno State (L, 84-86).

- Jené Morris was named the Mountain West Conference Basketball Player of the Week on Dec. 22 and was co-player of the week on Jan. 5.

- Paris Johnson was named league player of the week on Dec. 29, following her 27-point, 13-rebound performance against Sacramento State. It is the sophomore's second career weekly honor.

- Jené Morris and Paris Johnson are the first Aztecs to win more than one MWC weekly honor in their careers since the league's inception. Overall, only eight Aztecs have been named MWC player of the week.

- Paris Johnson and Jené Morris were both named to the San Diego Surf 'N Slam all-tournament team with Morris garnering MVP honors. It is the first time Morris has been named to a regular season all-tournament squad, while it is Johnson's fourth in four chances since coming to San Diego State.

- San Diego State has had five different players score 20 or more points in a game 10 times in 2008-09. In all, six players on this year's roster have at least one 20-point scoring game in their career.

- Jené Morris has recorded a career-high eight steals on two occasions in 2008-09. The eight are the most by a player in the MWC since 2007, tie her for fourth in the league's single-game record book. The last time an Aztec had at least eight steals was in 2002, when Veronica Shaw also had eight in a win over Sac. St.

- Paris Johnson was named an honorable mention selection for Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Division I National Player of the Month for December. She was one of 28 honorable mention picks from around the country.

- SDSU's 51-point victory (79-28) over Air Force is its largest ever in a MWC game, beating the previous mark of 34 points (86-52) last season vs. CSU. The 28 points are the fewest by an Aztec opponent since Hawai'i also scored 28 in 1982. Aztec foes have failed to score at least 30 points only five times, with the record low being a 17-point performance by USD in 1978.

- Air Force's 19.0 field-goal percentages is the lowest ever by an SDSU opponent and the eight field goals tie the SDSU opponent low also held by USD.

- The Aztecs have recorded 10 double-figure rebounding performances this season, already exceeding last year's total of eight.

- Quenese Davis enters Saturday's contests with BYU having made each of her last 16 free-throw attempts.

Preseason Points

The San Diego State women's basketball team to finish second in the Mountain West Conference in 2009 in a vote by the MWC's nine head coaches and select media members released Oct. 14, at the conference's annual media day in Las Vegas, Nev.

The Aztecs earned six of the 26 first-place votes and garnered 184 points overall, trailing first place Utah, who had 16 first-place votes, by 22 points. The second-place projection is four spots higher than SDSU's previous best placing in the preseason poll when the team was selected sixth in both 1999-2000 and 2003-04.

In addition, two Aztecs, Jené Morris and Paris Johnson were selected to the five-player preseason all-Mountain West Conference team.

Aztecs Sign Two Guards TO NLI's

Head coach Beth Burns announced the signing of two, 5-9 guards, Ashley Duffy (Lakeside, Calif.) and Kiyana Stamps (Moreno Valley, Calif.), to National Letters of Intent. The pair will join the Aztecs in 2009.

Tournament Town

San Diego State University and Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl will play host to the 2009 NCAA Women's Basketball First & Second Rounds, March 21 & 23.

SDSU was one of eight additional venues selected last February for 2009 by the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee, which voted to expand from eight to 16 first- and second-round sites.

This year's event in San Diego will feature four schools vying to advance to the NCAA regionals.

Cox Arena has served as the host site for three other NCAA championship events, including the 2001 and 2006 Men's Basketball First & Second Rounds and the 2001 Women's Volleyball Final Four, since the facility opened in the fall of 1997.

SDSU has played host to NCAA women's basketball games three times previously in Peterson Gym in 1984, 1994 and most recently in 1995.

Contact the Aztec Ticket Office at 619-283-SDSU or goaztecs.com to purchase tickets.

TV Time

The Aztecs will have a record seven regular-season games televised either live or shown via tape delay in 2008-09. SDSU has already had four games televised with the TCU contest (Jan. 28) and the Wyoming outing (Feb. 15) up next live on The Mtn. The game at BYU on Feb. 25, will be rebroadcast on the The Mtn. at 7 p.m. PT on Feb. 26.

The Aztecs have already appeared on CBS College Sports and Channel 4 San Diego.

Listen/Watch Live

For the eighth straight year, Aztec women's basketball fans will have an opportunity to listen to live play-by-play of nearly every regular season game (home and away) over the internet at www.goaztecs.com.

SDSU alum Chris Ello will have the play-by-play duties both at home and on the road.

Again in 2008-09, all regular season Aztec home contests, with the exception of the televised game vs. Air Force, will also feature a live video feed to go along with the audio call from Cox Arena on www.goaztecs.com.

SDSU Head Coach Beth Burns

The winningest coach in SDSU women's basketball history, Beth Burns returned to Montezuma Mesa in April 8, 2005.

In just four short years, she already has the program headed in the right direction, as the Aztecs' posted their best season in over a decade in 2007-08, going 18-13 overall and advancing to their first-ever MWC championship game.

Burns helped the Aztecs to a 7-9 mark in MWC play in 2008, to finish in a tie for fifth with Brigham Young. The Aztecs' seven league wins and fifth-place showing is their best-ever in the history of the MWC.

In her first stint as head coach from 1989-97, Burns took the SDSU women's basketball program from 7-23 her first year to 23-7 in her final campaign. During her eight seasons, she compiled a 151-83 record and a 64.5 winning percentage, the best in school history. The Aztecs went to the NCAA tournament on four occasions (1993, 1994, 1995, 1997), won a pair of tournament championships and three regular-season titles.

A three-time WAC coach of the year, Burns was the head coach at Ohio State for five seasons (1997-02).

2008-09 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 1-2

San Diego St. 67, Northwestern State 47

Game 1 ■ Nov. 14 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team won its season-opener for the second consecutive year, defeating visiting Northwestern State, 67-47, at Cox Arena. With the victory, the Aztecs improved to 1-0 on the year, while the Lady Demons dropped to 0-1 following the two schools' first-ever meeting.

SDSU had four players finish in double-figure scoring and combined for 15 blocked shots, the most ever by a Mountain West Conference team in the league's 10-year history.

Aztec sophomore center Paris Johnson posted her fourth career double-double with a game-high 14 points and 12 rebounds to go with five blocked shots, which tie for 10th in the SDSU single-game record book. Sophomore Jerica Williams, playing in her first game in the Red & Black, posted nine points and 14 rebounds, 11 of which came in the first half. Williams' 14 boards are the most by an Aztec since December 2003.

Junior guard Quenese Davis added 13 points and eight assists. Sophomore Coco Davis had 11 points and senior Jennifer Layton-Bailes, playing in her first game since 2007, tallied 10 points and three blocks.

San Diego State never trailed in the game, going up by four points on three occasions, including at 12-8 with just over minutes left in the first half. The Aztecs increased that lead to six on a layup by Layton-Bailes, but the two sides failed to record a point over the next four minutes. Lady Demon Britany Kinlaw broke the stalemate with a jumper to put her team down by just four points at 14-10. Two Johnson free throws sparked an 8-0 SDSU run and the home team went into the locker room up by 13 at 28-15.

Northwestern State got to within 10 on three occasions coming out of the break, but the Aztecs matched the Lady Demons bucket for bucket, pulling away with a 20-point advantage at 49-29. SDSU never looked back, coasting to an eventual 20-point, 67-47, victory.

The Aztecs forced 30 Lady Demon turnovers and had 50 rebounds, the team's most in a single outing since 2000.

San Diego St. 67, Long Beach State 59

Game 2 ■ Nov. 16 ■ The Pyramid ■ Long Beach, Calif.

LONG BEACH, Calif. - The San Diego State women's basketball team had a 15-point first-half lead, but had to rally to survive a strong Long Beach State run, coming away with a 67-59 victory at the Pyramid in Long Beach, Calif. The Aztecs start the season 2-0 for the second year in row, while the 49ers dropped to 0-1 in the teams' first meeting since 1997.

Sophomore Jerica Williams had a career-best 23 points with 16 in the second half and three of the team's four triples. Sophomore center Paris Johnson had 14 points and 12 boards for the second outing in a row, posting her fifth career double-double to go with four blocked shots. Junior guard Quenese Davis was the third Aztec in double-figures, notching 16 points and a game-high five steals.

The host 49ers scored the first point of the afternoon on a free throw, the only time LBSU would lead during the game. The Aztecs countered with a Williams' three pointer and took a 4-1 advantage on a free throw. The Beach got back to within one on a fast break lay-up by Courtney Jacob.

Over the next seven minutes, SDSU held LBSU without a field goal, building an 18-3 lead, before the 49ers could finally break the string at the 9:52 mark. That 15-point advantage at 18-3 was the Aztecs' largest of the game, but LBSU was able to shave six points off that deficit and went into the break down by just nine, 31-22.

San Diego State pushed its lead back into double-figures on a Lindsay Leo jumper to open the second half at 33-22. The rest of the way was a battle, however, as the 49ers drew to within four at the 11:17 mark and the score 46-42.

Another three-pointer by Williams increased the SDSU advantage to seven and the visitor's were up by 10 at 60-50 and again at 67-57. The Aztecs finished out the game by making five of six free throws in the final 1:33 to come away with the 67-59 win.

2008-09 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 3-4

No. 1/1 Connecticut 99, San Diego State 55

Game 3 ■ Nov. 20 ■ XL Center ■ Hartford, Conn.

HARTFORD, Conn. - Jené Morris had a team-best 17 points, but the Aztec defense was unable to stop the high-powered UConn offense, as the San Diego State women's basketball team fell to the consensus No. 1 team in the country, 99-55, at the XL Center in Hartford, Conn. SDSU dropped its first game of the season to fall to 2-1 overall, while the Huskies improved to 2-0, as the two schools met for the second consecutive year.

Morris was the only SDSU player in double-figures, as the junior also added a team-best three steals and five offensive rebounds. Sophomore Paris Johnson had nine points and two blocked shots, while junior Quenese Davis had six assists, but was just 1-for-5 from the floor.

The Aztecs never led in the game as UConn got out to a 7-0 run, before freshman Lindsay Leo scored a pair of free throws to put the visitor's down 7-2. The Huskies answered with a lay-up and would go up by 10 at the 15:53 mark. SDSU also trailed by 10 at the mid-way point of the half, but were down 56-27 heading into the break with the help of a 10-0 run.

The Huskies added to that huge lead coming out of the locker room, outscoring the Aztecs 14-0, and eventually went on to post a 99-55 victory.

UConn had five players in double-figures, including preseason All-American Maya Moore, who had 21 points, nine rebounds and six assists in just 25 minutes.

USD 63, San Diego State 60

Game 3 ■ Nov. 25 ■ Jenny Craig Pavilion ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team overcame a nine-point, second-half deficit, but was unable to complete the comeback, falling 63-60 to the University of San Diego at the Jenny Craig Pavilion. With the loss, the Aztecs dropped to 2-2 on the year, while the Toreros improved to 3-2 after their fourth-straight win in the series on their home floor.

Junior guard Jené Morris scored 11 of her team-best 14 points in the second half and also contributed three steals. Classmate Quenese Davis added 12 points, three assists and three steals, while her sister Coco Davis scored in double-figures for the second time this season with 10 points and tallied a career-best five steals, all of which came in the first half.

The Aztecs got in foul trouble early in the game as both Morris and starting center Paris Johnson got two quick fouls apiece and played just 10 and two minutes each in the first half. Even without Morris and Johnson, the SDSU hung tough, trailing by just five points on two occasions, including at 28-23 with 2:52 left until the break.

The Aztecs got a spark off the bench from true freshman Kalena Tutt, as the center scored the first five points of her career to keep the team close. A Quenese Davis three-pointer cut the Torero lead to just two at 28-26, and then Coco Davis followed that effort up with a jumper and two straight steals and three-point plays to put SDSU ahead by four points, 34-30, heading in to the locker room.

Out of the break, USD rode the hot shooting of forward Kiva Herman, who finished the game 9-for-11 from the field, to not only erase the deficit, but also go up by as many as nine points at 51-42 with 7:55 remaining.

The SDSU offense, which managed just six points in the first 11:45 of the second half, finally woke up as a Jennifer Layton-Bailes' jumper kick started a 14-4 run that put the Aztecs back ahead 56-55 with just over three minutes left.

USD retook the lead on two free throws and was up by four points with 32 seconds left on a lay-up by Dominique Conners. SDSU countered on its next trip down the court when sophomore guard Jerica Williams banked in a three-pointer from the left angle to get to within just one 61-60. The Aztecs stole the ensuing in-bound pass, but Morris was unable to hold on, as two more USD free throws closed out the 63-60 victory.

The Aztecs had a season-best 13 steals, but could not overcome a -10 margin on the boards and a 13-for-21 performance at the stripe.

2008-09 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 5-6

San Diego St. 71, Hawai'i 48

Game 5 ■ Nov. 28 ■ Stan Sheriff Center ■ Honolulu, Hawaii

HONOLULU - Sophomore center Paris Johnson had a career-high 31 points to help the San Diego State women's basketball team defeat Hawai'i, 71-48, in the first day of the Waikiki Marriott Beach Classic at the Stan Sheriff Center in Honolulu, Hawaii. With the win, the Aztecs ended a two-game losing skid to move to 3-2 on the year, while the Rainbow Wahines dropped to 0-4 after the two schools' first meeting since 1999.

Johnson made her first five shots and ended up with a career-high 31 points on 15-for-19 shooting, beating her previous best of 27 points last year against Indiana State. Johnson is the first Aztec to reach the 30-point barrier this season, while her 15 field goals tie for ninth in the SDSU single-game record book. The 6-4 center also led SDSU with seven rebounds and a pair of blocked shots.

Senior forward Jennifer Layton-Bailes, who made her first start since January 2007, added a season-best 13 points and Quenese Davis had nine points and six assists.

The Aztecs got off to a quick start, going inside to Johnson, who hit each of her first four shots from the field for eight points by the first media timeout to put SDSU ahead, 11-5. Johnson also made her fifth-straight field-goal attempt, but the Rainbow Wahine used almost 60 percent shooting from the field to draw even at 18-18 with just over 10 minutes left in the half.

San Diego State came out of the 18-18 tie with a 6-0 run and held Hawai'i to just five points the rest of the way, heading into the locker room up by 15 points, 38-22.

The Aztecs continued to put points on the board coming out of the break, jumping ahead by 21 points at 46-25 with 16:26 left. Hawai'i drew to within 13 point with just over five minutes remaining, but two straight Johnson lay-ups started a 11-0 scoring run and SDSU went on to win by 23 points 71-48.

San Diego State shot a season-best 49.2 percent from the field, tallied 14 steals and forced 27 Hawai'i turnovers, including 20 in the first half alone.

San Diego St. 58, Prairie View A&M 53

Game 6 ■ Nov. 29 ■ Stan Sheriff Center ■ Honolulu, Hawaii

HONOLULU - The San Diego State women's basketball team had three, 13-point leads early in the game, but had to hold off several charges by Prairie View A&M to earn the 58-53 victory in the second day of the Waikiki Marriott Beach Classic at the Stan Sheriff Center in Honolulu, Hawaii. With the win, the Aztecs improved to 4-2, while the Lady Panthers dropped to 1-5.

Sophomore center Paris Johnson, who had a career-high 31 points on Friday, came back for the second day in a row with 23 points on 9-for-15 shooting and also tallied eight rebounds and three blocked shots. Senior forward Jennifer Layton-Bailes posted her first double-double of the year and the third of her career with 15 points and 10 boards in her second start of 2008-09.

Junior Quenese Davis tallied six assists for the second straight outing, while also hauling in six rebounds and notching three steals and two blocked shots in 38 minutes of action. Her sister Coco Davis had a career-high seven rebounds and came away with three steals, giving the sophomore 12 steals in her last three games.

San Diego State got off to a solid start with an early 5-0 lead. After a Lady Panther basket at the 17:30 mark, the Aztecs added to their advantage with another two buckets and at 9-4, went on an eight-point run to go up by 13 at 17-4. The Aztecs led by as many as 13 again at 29-16, but carried a 10-point half-time lead at 35-25.

The Aztecs continued their momentum coming out of the break with another 13-point lead at 38-25. After the initial offensive burst of the second half, the SDSU offense stalled and the Lady Panthers crept all the way back to within just three points following a 10-0 run at 38-35 at the 13:16 mark. Prairie View A&M tied the score at 41 points, but Jerica Williams tallied her second three-pointer in the half and the Aztecs were once again in the lead at 44-41.

The game continued to be a battle with the Lady Panthers down by just one at 52-51 with 4:57 remaining. The Aztec tandem of Johnson and Layton-Bailes struck again with back-to-back baskets for a five-point advantage. From there, the SDSU defense took over, limiting the Lady Panthers to just two points in the final 4:57 to come away with the 58-53 win.

2008-09 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 7-8

No. 25/22 Iowa State 87, San Diego State 71

Game 7 ■ Nov. 30 ■ Stan Sheriff Center ■ Honolulu, Hawaii

HONOLULU - Playing its fourth game of the week and third in the last three days, the San Diego State women's basketball team made 10 three-pointers, but could not hold off a hot shooting Iowa State team, as the Aztecs fell to the No. 25/22 Cyclones, 87-71, in the final day of the Waikiki Marriott Beach Classic at the Stan Sheriff Center in Honolulu, Hawaii. With the loss, the Aztecs dropped to 4-3, while the Cyclones improved to 5-1.

Aztec junior guard Jené Morris had a season-best 34 points, one off her career high of 35. Morris was 5-for-10 from beyond the arc and 12-for-24 overall and also had four assists, three steals and four rebounds.

Sophomore center Paris Johnson recorded her third double-double of the season with 14 points and 10 rebounds and tied a career-best with three steals. For the tournament, Johnson averaged 22.7 points and 8.3 boards an outing.

Junior guard Quenese Davis was the third Aztec in double-figures with 13 points, including three triples. She had seven assists to only one turnover and ended up with 19 helpers over the three-game stay in Hawaii.

The first three field goals of the game were all three pointers, as the Aztecs hit two and ISU knocked down one.

SDSU took its first four-point advantage of the first half at 10-6 on a Johnson lay-up. The Aztecs were also up by four on four other occasions with the last one coming at 20-16. Iowa State came back to tie the score at 20 apiece and took its first lead of the game on a three-pointer by Heather Ezell at 23-22. The Cyclones added two more triples in a row and were up by seven at 29-22 with 6:48 left in the half.

ISU added to their lead with a jumper from the foul line to go up by nine at 31-22. A Johnson free throw finally broke the streak at the 5:33 mark, but Cyclones again answered with their fourth straight three-pointer to go up by 11 points.

Quenese Davis responded with her own set of three pointers and the Aztecs trailed by seven at 36-29. The Iowa State lead was 43-35 heading into the locker room with the help of a 50 percent mark from beyond the arc (6-for-12).

The Cyclones continued their hot shooting in the second half, scoring the first 10 points, including two more three-pointers, until Morris ended the drought with a triple from the left baseline with 16:55 left.

SDSU put together its own scoring run of nine unanswered to cut the lead to single-digits at 53-44. The rest of the contest was a battle on both sides of the ball as cut the deficit down to 75-65 with 3:11 left. ISU, however, made all 10 of its free throws in the final 2:10 to claim the 87-71 victory.

San Diego State 54, UC Riverside 52

Game 8 ■ Dec. 4 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, CA

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State's Jené Morris hit the game-winning basket at the buzzer to help the Aztec basketball team defeat the visiting UC Riverside Highlanders, 54-52, Thursday evening at Cox Arena in front of a crowd of 1,681 fans. The Aztecs trailed by as many as eight points in the first half and failed to score for over five and a half minutes mid-way through the second half, but outscored the Highlanders 9-3 in the final 2:43 to pull out the win. With the victory, SDSU improved to 5-3 on the season, while UCR dropped to 2-4 overall.

Morris hit her first four three-point field goals of the evening and finished 5-for-6 from beyond the arc for a team-best 19 points to go with three steals and three assists. Morris was the only Aztec in double-figure scoring as senior Jennifer Layton-Bailes had nine points on 4-for-6 shooting. Junior point guard Quenese Davis led the team in rebounding (7) and assists (7) in 37 minutes of action.

SDSU opened the game with a 3-0 lead on a Morris three-pointer, but the Highlanders quickly matched her effort with a triple of their own to tie the score at 3-3. UCR took the lead on a free-throw at the 18:21 mark and held the advantage until a 7-0 Aztec run put the home team in front 12-10. A Kemie Nekele three-pointer restored order in the visitor's favor and UC Riverside led by a game-high eight points at the half, 29-21, behind a 54.5 shooting percentage.

The Aztecs, meanwhile, shot just 29 percent from the field in the first half, but came out of the locker room with two Morris three-pointers in the first minute and a half to get to within four at 31-27. The Highlanders led by six points at 39-33 and by five at 41-26, but a Davis three-pointer and a jumper inside from Paris Johnson helped SDSU even the score at 41 points.

Following the game's sixth tie score at 45-45, neither side could get its offense going as the teams went without a point for the next three minutes when the Highlanders made back-to-back buckets in the paint to once again lead by four, 49-45.

Morris' final three-pointer of the game broke the Aztecs' scoring drought at 49-48, and Layton-Bailes converted a long distance two-pointer from straightaway for a one-point lead at 50-49. UCR was not done, however, erasing a three-point Aztec advantage and knotting the game at 52-52 with just 21 seconds remaining.

Coming out of a timeout, Morris hit the winning basket from the right elbow just before the buzzer sounded for the 54-52 victory.

2008-09 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 9-10

San Diego State 85, Montana State 70

Game 9 ■ Dec. 11 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - Three Aztec basketball players reached the 20-point barrier to help the team remain perfect at home, as San Diego State downed the visiting Montana State Bobcats, 85-70, Thursday evening at Cox Arena. With the win, the Aztecs improved to 6-3 on the year, while the Bobcats fell to 4-4 overall.

Aztec sophomore center Paris Johnson had the best all-around game of her career, posting a game-high 22 points to go with 13 rebounds, six assists, five blocks and three steals in 35 minutes for her fourth double-double of the season. Johnson's six assists were a career-best, while her 13 rebounds and three steals matched a career-high.

Johnson was helped offensively by Quenese Davis' 20 points and Jennifer Layton-Bailes' 20 points, which matched her career-best. Davis also had six assists and junior Jené Morris and sophomore Jerica Williams each had four of the team's season-high 16 steals.

SDSU never trailed in the game, coming out of the gate on a 9-0 run off back-to-back baskets by Johnson, a jumper by Davis and a three-pointer from Layton-Bailes. The Bobcats scored their first points of the game at the 16:34 mark on a three-point field goal by Nubia Garcia. San Diego State's lead grew to double-figures on a Layton-Bailes jumper at 15-5, but MSU put up a scoring run of its own, tallying nine straight to get back to within one.

Williams, who along with Layton-Bailes hit her first four shots of the game, stopped the Bobcat run with the first of three straight three-pointers over a span of just a little over a minute and a half to go back up by nine. The Aztecs continued to make plays, increasing their advantage to as many as 24 points, before heading into the locker room up 21 at 48-27, their highest first-half scoring output of the season.

Coming out of the break, Montana State began to get hot offensively, cutting the Aztec lead down to just 12 points on two occasions behind nearly 60 percent shooting from the field. The Bobcats never got any closer, though, as the Aztecs pushed their lead to 18 with 6:44 left and went on to win by 15 points, 85-70, to improve to 3-0 at home this season.

SDSU had a season-best 24 assists and its 85 points were also a season-high after scoring 71 against both Hawai'i and No. 25 Iowa State last month.

San Diego State 85, Loyola Marymount 70

Game 10 ■ Dec. 21 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team outscored Loyola Marymount by 20 points in the second half to rally to its second consecutive 85-70 victory Sunday afternoon at Cox Arena. The Aztecs, who trailed at the break by five points, improved to 7-3 on the season and a perfect 4-0 at home, while the Lions lost their second straight, dropping to 8-3 in 2008-09.

Junior Jené Morris had a spectacular all-around game, leading the charge in the second half by scoring 19 of her game-high 26 points. The guard added a career-high eight steals, seven rebounds and two blocks to go with a season-best eight assists compared to just two turnovers.

She was helped offensively by sophomore Paris Johnson's 16 points, eight rebounds and three blocks and junior Quenese Davis' 16 points, nine assists and four steals in 37 minutes of action. Sophomore guard Jerica Williams was the fourth Aztec in double-figures with 12 points, five rebounds and four assists.

The Aztecs got off to a shake start, as the visiting Lions made five or their first six shots of the game to surge to a 10-2 lead. LMU was also up by eight at 12-4, before SDSU logged a 7-0 run capped by a Morris three pointer to get to within just one point at 12-11. The Aztec eventually tied the score at 16 points apiece and took their first lead of the afternoon on a free throw by LaSandra Dixon at 17-16 with 12:13 left.

The two sides traded leads three more times with LMU heading into the half up by five points at 42-37, following a phenomenal heave from beyond half court at the buzzer by Cassady Moore.

Johnson scored the first bucket coming out of the locker room to put the Aztecs down by just three points at 42-39. After two Lion free throws, Morris began to take over the game, scoring eight straight points in a stretch of just 1:13 to put the hosts ahead by three at 47-44.

Davis took over where Morris left off in the scoring column, notching the next five points of the game to help SDSU to a 15-0 run in a two-minute span for the 10-point advantage at 54-44.

San Diego State would widen the gap to 13 points at 64-51, but did not allow LMU to get closer than eight points, as the Aztecs turned in the hard-fought 85-70 victory.

2008-09 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 11-12

San Diego State 75, Sacramento State 47

Game 11 ■ Dec. 28 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, CA

SAN DIEGO - Behind sophomore Paris Johnson's 27 points and 13 rebounds, the San Diego State women's basketball team cruised to a 75-47 victory Sunday afternoon over Sacramento State (2-10) in the first game of the San Diego Surf 'N Slam at Cox Arena. With the victory, the Aztecs improved to 8-3 on the season and advanced to the tournament finale.

Johnson made 11 of her 12 shots from the field for her fourth 20-point scoring effort of the season. She also matched a career high with 13 rebounds for her fifth double-double of 2008-09, and had three steals in only 29 minutes of action.

Aztec guards Jené Morris and Quenese Davis both scored in double-figures with 12 and 10 points respectively, while adding four steals apiece. Davis contributed a game-high five assists and senior Jennifer Layton-Bailes tallied eight points and five boards.

San Diego State led the entire contest, opening with a quick 5-0 advantage on a Davis free throw and back-to-back baskets by Layton-Bailes. The Hornets didn't get on the board until the 15:54 mark and the Aztecs quickly moved their lead into double-figures at 13-3.

SDSU was up by 12 points at the 11:40 mark, but Sacramento State cut its deficit down to eight on three occasions, before the Aztecs reeled off five straight points to go up by 13 at 26-13.

The Hornets made it interesting, closing to within six points, before San Diego State went into the break on an 8-0 run for the 37-23 advantage.

The Aztecs continued to find the basket coming out of the locker room, outscoring the visitors 16-2 within the first six and a half minutes to go up by 28 points. SDSU would eventually lead by as many as 37 points with 7:14 left before securing the 75-47 win.

The Aztecs shot above 50 percent from the field for the second consecutive outing to garner their fourth straight win. SDSU, which is a perfect 4-0 in the month of December, forced 29 Hornet turnovers and posted 16 steals.

San Diego State 60, No. 4/4 Texas 55

Game 12 ■ Dec. 30 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, CA

SAN DIEGO (AP) - Jene Morris' late surge was too much for No. 4 Texas on Tuesday night.

Morris and San Diego State stunned No. 4 Texas with a 60-55 win on Tuesday night in the Surf 'N Slam championship game, handing the Longhorns their first loss of the season.

Morris scored 24 points, including 15 in the second half when San Diego State (9-3) refused to let Texas pull away.

"This is as good as it gets," San Diego State coach Beth Burns said. "How many people get an opportunity to play the great teams?"

The result was far different from earlier this season when the Aztecs were routed at top-ranked Connecticut 99-55 or when then-No. 25 Iowa State handed San Diego State a 87-71 loss.

"The difference was we came into this game thinking we could beat them," Morris said. "We had confidence that we didn't have against those other teams."

Morris almost single-handedly kept San Diego State in the game in the second half when she hit three 3-pointers. But it was late baskets by Jennifer Layton-Bailes and Paris Johnson that put the Aztecs ahead to stay.

Texas (11-1) played a sloppy game as it committed 23 turnovers and never seemed to get into an offensive rhythm.

The Longhorns led from the midway point of the first half until Layton-Bailes scored on a layup for a 53-52 San Diego State lead with 1:51 left.

Johnson followed with another layup with 1:08 remaining. Two free throws by Quenese Davis put the Aztecs ahead 57-52 with 19 seconds remaining.

Carla Cortijo, who led the Longhorns with 13 points, hit a 3-pointer that pulled Texas to within 57-55 with 11.9 seconds left. Johnson then hit a free throw with 10.6 seconds left before Erika Arriaran missed a 3-pointer that would have tied the game. Davis hauled in the rebound and was fouled, making both of her shots at the stripe to secure the 60-55 victory.

Morris tied her career high with eight steals for San Diego State, which won despite shooting 33.9 percent.

Texas had a 10-point lead twice early in the second half but couldn't put away the Aztecs.

San Diego State 79, Air Force 28 Game 13 ■ Jan. 7 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, CA

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State jumped out to a 15-0 lead and never looked back, defeating visiting Air Force, 79-28, Wednesday night in both teams' Mountain West Conference opener at Cox Arena. With the victory, the Aztecs claimed their first league-opening win since 2005 and improved to 10-3 on the year, including a 7-0 mark at home. The Falcons, meanwhile, dropped to 4-10 in 2008-09.

Four SDSU players finished in double-figures as 13 players logged minutes. Junior guard Jené Morris led the team in scoring with 16 points in just 21 minutes of action. Morris added four steals, as did classmate Quenese Davis, who also posted 12 points and five assists.

Sophomore center Paris Johnson had 13 points, eight rebounds, four assists and three blocks, while freshman Gabrielle Clark had a career-high 10 points on 3-for-4 shooting.

The Aztecs never trailed in the game, going up 15-0 before Air Force finally put points on the board with a three-pointer at the 13:04 mark. SDSU answered the Falcon basket with three straight buckets by Johnson to take an 18-point advantage at 21-3. The Aztecs led by as many as 30 points before heading into the locker room up by 28 at 38-10.

San Diego State scored the first five points coming out of the break on a Morris three-pointer and a lay-up. The Aztecs would outscore the Falcons 14-4 in the first seven minutes of the second half and moved their lead all the way out to 52 points at 76-24, before securing the 79-28 victory.

SDSU's 51-point margin was its largest in a Mountain West Conference game in the league's 10-year history, beating the previous mark of 34 points last season against Colorado State. The 28 points were the fewest the Falcons have scored in a game in their program history.

Utah 58, San Diego State 52 Game 14 ■ Jan. 11 ■ Huntsman Center ■ Salt Lake City, Utah

SALT LAKE CITY - The San Diego State women's basketball team cut a 10-point halftime deficit down to just two points, but the Aztecs could not overcome a 48-24 disadvantage in the rebounding column as host Utah ended SDSU's six-game win streak with a 58-52 victory Sunday at the Huntsman Center. With the loss, the Aztecs dropped to 10-4 on the year and 1-1 in conference action, while the Utes improved to 9-6 and 2-0 in MWC play.

Junior guard Jené Morris scored a team-best 14 points and added four steals, but was 0-for-5 from beyond the arc. Jerica Williams was the only other Aztec in double-figures with 11 points and a perfect 2-for-2 from three-point land.

Sophomore center Paris Johnson was limited to just seven points on 3-for-11 shooting to go with 10 of the SDSU's 24 boards. Senior Jennifer Layton-Bailes had a career-high five blocked shots and three steals in the loss.

Utah opened the game with the first bucket, but San Diego State responded with a 9-0 run with the help of three steals. The Utes matched that 9-0 run with one of their own to go up by a pair at 11-9. The two sides would trade leads five times within the first nine minutes of action before Utah went up by four on two occasions at 19-15 and 21-17.

The Utes built on their advantage with a 12-0 run, until a Quenese Davis lay-up finally broke the scoring drought with 13 seconds remaining to send SDSU into the locker room down by 10 points at 33-23.

The Aztecs got their offensive and defensive game going coming out of the break, getting to within just two points at 39-37 following a 10-0 run, including six points by Morris. Utah once again responded as a three-point play sparked a 10-2 run for the 49-39 lead with 7:39 remaining.

San Diego State closed to within five at 53-48 on a potential three-point play by Layton-Bailes, but she missed the free throw and Utah hit five of six at the stripe in the final minute to secure the 58-52 victory.

2008-09 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 15-16

San Diego State 49, Wyoming 42

Game 15 ■ Jan. 14 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, CA

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team scored a season-low 49 points, but managed to hold on to stay perfect this season at home, defeating visiting Wyoming, 49-42, Wednesday at Cox Arena. With the victory, the Aztecs claimed back-to-back wins over the Cowgirls for the first time since 1997 and improved to 11-4 overall and 2-1 in conference action. Wyoming, meanwhile, fell to 8-7 on the year and 0-2 in MWC play.

Sophomore center Paris Johnson led the Aztecs in scoring with 14 points despite playing just 19 minutes due to foul trouble. Senior Jennifer Layton-Bailes tallied 11 points and five offensive rebounds and sophomore Coco Davis had a career-high nine assists. Her sister, Quenese Davis, notched a season-best eight rebounds, while also chipping in eight points and five assists.

Wyoming started the game with a pair of two-point leads, but San Diego State pulled ahead with six straight points to go up 8-4 at the 13:03 mark. The Cowgirls cut their slim deficit down to one on two occasions over the next four minutes before an 11-0 Aztec run put the hosts up by 12 at 23-11. The Wyoming offense finally put points on the board after an 8:09 drought on a free throw by Megan McGuffey and went into the locker room down by 11, 25-14.

San Diego State saw its lead get cut to five points at the 14:02 mark of the second half, but then began to pull away, as Layton-Bailes scored a lay-up and converted a three-point play to return the advantage to double-figures at 34-24. The Cowgirls rallied to cut their deficit to single-digits with just over a minute left with a 6-0 run, but Quenese Davis closed out the game by hitting both of her free throws to preserve the 49-42 win.

San Diego State shot just 32.3 percent from the field and 15.4 percent from beyond the arc, but attempted 22 more shots than the Cowgirls, owning a 20-7 advantage on the offensive glass. The Aztecs also forced 23 Wyoming turnovers and the Cowgirls' 42 points were the second-fewest in the 36 all-time meetings between the two foes.

San Diego State 57, New Mexico 52

Game 16 ■ Jan. 21 ■ The Pit ■ Albuquerque, N.M.

ALBUQUERQUE - The San Diego State women's basketball team held on in a furious final few minutes, logging the program's first victory at New Mexico in nearly 14 years by defeating the 23rd-ranked Lobos, 57-52, at The Pit. With the win, the Aztecs ended a 19-game New Mexico series win streak and handed the Lobos their first loss at home this season following an 11-0 start. SDSU improved to 12-4 on the year, including two victories over top 25 teams, and 3-1 in league play, while the Lobos dropped to 14-3 and 3-1 in MWC action.

Sophomore Paris Johnson recorded her sixth double-double of the year with a game-high 17 points and 11 rebounds, but more importantly, sunk a pair of free throws with just three seconds remaining to secure the win.

Junior guard Quenese Davis was the only other Aztec in double-figures with 11 points, including a 3-for-5 effort from beyond the arc. Davis had a team-best five assists, Johnson had three blocked shots and Jennifer Layton-Bailes and Jené Morris each added nine points apiece.

After the two sides traded baskets to open the game, the Aztecs hit back-to-back three pointers to take an 8-2 lead. The Lobos responded with a 10-0 run as the SDSU struggled to get into its offense.

The Aztecs finally got back on the scoreboard at the 11:34 mark after going over five minutes between buckets, which sparked an 11-0 run, as SDSU once again took the lead at 19-12.

The Lobos broke their own drought with a jumper and a free throw to get back to within four at 21-17. SDSU found its inside game over the next two minutes, capping an 8-0 run with back-to-back lay-ups in the paint for their biggest lead of the night at 29-17.

After UNM closed to within four at the half, the Lobos scored eight of the first 10 points out the break all on lay-ups to reclaim the lead at 37-35.

Following a pair of ties and three more lead changes, the Aztecs built a pair of six-point advantages and later an eight-point edge at 53-45 with 4:29 to go.

UNM crept to within a pair with 55 seconds left, but an amazing steal by Morris gave the Aztecs a four-point advantage. The Lobos had a chance to equalize on a three-pointer their next trip up the court, but Layton-Bailes blocked the attempt from the right angle and Johnson secured the rebound. Layton-Bailes would later miss the front end of a 1-and-1 with four seconds on the clock, but Johnson got another board, was fouled and then proceeded to sink to free throws for the 57-52 win.
