HEAD COACH TONY GWYNN

- ◆ Tony Gwynn enters his eighth season as San Diego State's head coach after being named to the position in Sept. 2001. He became just the fourth head coach in SDSU history since baseball was elevated to major sport status in 1936.
- ◆ In 2002, he served as a volunteer coach for the Aztecs under Jim Dietz, who retired at the end of that season.
- ◆ In 2004, Gwynn led his squad to the Mountain West Conference regular-season championship and was named the MWC coach of the year.
- ◆ A former Aztec who played baseball at San Diego State from 1979 to 1981, Gwynn concluded a 20-year major league career with the San Diego Padres in 2001. With a career batting average of .338, he won eight National League batting titles, five Gold Gloves, and made 15 appearances in the annual All-Star Game.
- ◆ Tony Gwynn was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame on July 29, 2007.
- ◆ His overall record entering the weekend campaign stands at 223-224 (.499). His mark in conference contests is 111-71 (.610).

NEW AZTEC COACHES

- ◆ San Diego State has added a pair of new coaches to its staff for the 2010 season.
- ◆ Eric Valenzuela assumes the role of pitching coach after serving in that capacity the past six seasons at the University of San Diego.
- ◆ Former Aztec Brock Ungricht is the new volunteer assistant coach who comes to SDSU after serving as head coach at Kearny High where he led the Komets to their first league title in 24 years in 2008.

AZTECS ON THE INTERNET

All of San Diego State's baseball games, with the excitement of the four MWC series away from home, can be heard live on the internet by going to www.goaztecs.com and clicking on the appropriate link on the schedule calendar on the home page or by going to the "Audio-Video" tab at the top of the home page.

Each of SDSU's home contests will have live streaming video on the Internet so fans can watch as well as listen to the Aztecs' contests at Tony Gwynn Stadium free of charge.

For the sixth consecutive year, Jack Cronin, former sports director at KALX, the campus radio station at the University of California at Berkeley will handle the Internet broadcast duties along with second-year Aztec announcers Chris Ello and Craig Elsten.

This season, a minimum of 10 home games will be carried locally on XTRA Sports 1360 AM with Ello calling the action. Those contests will be streamed on the Internet in lieu of SDSU's regular broadcast.

WEEKEND ROTATION

- ◆ SDSU's pitching rotation for its opening weekend of league play includes John Pecoraro on Friday, Brian Crabb on Saturday and Ethan Miller on Sunday.
- ◆ Pecoraro (0-0, 3 saves, 1.17 ERA), had moved into the closer role until the injury to Addison Reed forced his insertion into the starting rotation. Friday's game will mark his first start as an Aztec.
- ◆ Crabb (2-2, 2.05 ERA) is a freshman from nearby Coronado High School who has been SDSU's No. 2 starting hurler since opening weekend.
- ◆ Miller (0-0, 0.00) has been slowed by injury thus far and has made only one appearance. He tossed one perfect inning of relief against Fresno State on March 13,
