San Diego State Opens 2007-08 Season at World Vision Classic With Match-Up vs. Liberty

Coming off its second consecutive postseason appearance and its fourth in the last six years, San Diego State opens its 87th season of basketball Friday against Liberty at the World Vision Classic in Fresno, Calif.

Game time at the Save Mart Center is set for 5:30 p.m. PT and can be heard on KLSD-AM 1360. There is no television coverage for the contest.

For the second straight season, SDSU will open its slate with three games in three days. Last year at the Shamrock Invitational in Moraga, Calif., the Aztecs went 3-0, but only won by a combined seven points.

This year's field should provide a bigger test for San Diego State as all three teams are Division I institutions. In 2006-07, the Aztecs posted a victory over Division II powerhouse Seattle Pacific in the final game of the event.

The game marks the fourth time during ninth-year head coach Steve Fisher's tenure that SDSU is opening away from home. In 2001, the Aztecs faced Northern Iowa at the Ford Red Raider Classic in Lubbock, Texas, and came away with a 71-57 victory. In 2005, San Diego State participated at the BP Top of the World Classic in Fairbanks, Alaska, and defeated Alaska Fairbanks, 67-55. Last season marked the only time SDSU did not post a double-digit win when it used a half-court shot by Brandon Heath as time expired to emerge with the 87-84 decision over Murray State at the Shamrock Invite.

The Aztecs, picked to finish in a tie for fourth place with New Mexico in the Mountain West Conference preseason media and coaches poll, are led by junior Lorrenzo Wade.

Wade is coming off a sophomore season in which he earned all-conference accolades after he finished the season with averages of 10.5 points, 5.3 rebounds, 2.6 assists, 1.9 steals and 1.2 blocks. He enters his junior year tabbed as an all-conference player by multiple preseason publications and is one of the conference's returning leaders in rebounding, steals, blocked shots and minutes played. In SDSU's lone exhibition game vs. Point Loma Nazarene, Wade posted a double-double with team highs of 16 points and 13 rebounds. He was also 5-for-10 from the floor.

Meanwhile, Liberty is coached by a familiar face in first-year coach Ritchie McKay. McKay is no stranger to the Aztecs as he spent the previous five seasons at the helm of fellow MWC member, New Mexico.

The Flames come into the 2007-08 opener after finishing last season with a 14-17 overall record. Like the Aztecs, Liberty was victorious in its only exhibition game, defeating Barton, 77-75, in Lynchburg, Va.

Storylines

- San Diego State is opening its 87th season of basketball, its 38th at the Division I level and its ninth under head coach Steve Fisher. In lidlifters, the Aztecs are 6-2 under Fisher, 19-18 in the Division I era and 54-32 in school history. The Aztecs are looking to win three consecutive season openers for the first time since doing it in 1999-00, 2000-01 and 2001-02.
- Steve Fisher owns a 13-3 (81.3 percent) mark in season-opening games.
- With a win vs. Liberty, San Diego State will have won three straight season-opening games following an appearance in a postseason tournament for the first time in school history. Following its 2003 NIT berth, SDSU won its 2003-04 opener vs. Long Beach State. Then after its 2006 NCAA appearance, SDSU defeated Murray State last year. The Aztecs will look to make it three straight after their 2007 NIT selection.
- Although not a tournament, San Diego State owns a 37-39 Division I record in multiple-game in-season events. After going 3-0 at the Shamock Invitational, the Aztecs claimed their first "event championship" since winning the four-team, two-game 1987 Holiday Bowl Classic in San Diego. It was also the first in-season title to an event it did not host since the 1984 UNLV Roundup. To the right are San Diego State's results during the Steve Fisher era.
- The Aztecs are looking for the seventh in-season event victory of the Division I era. San Diego State claimed tournament titles in the 1977 Cabrillo Classic (San Diego, Calif), 1981 Cabrillo Classic (San Diego, Calif.), 1984 UNLV Roundup (Las Vegas, Nev.), the 1987 Holiday Bowl Classic (San Diego, Calif.) and the 2006 Shamrock Invitational.

San Diego State Downs Point Loma Nazarene in Exhibition Contest

Junior forward Lorrenzo Wade paced four Aztec players in double figures as San Diego State claimed its 12th consecutive victory in exhibition games with a 63-53 victory over the NAIA's 22nd-ranked Point Loma Nazarene at Cox Arena on Monday.

The Aztecs used a stifling defensive effort, limiting the Sea Lions to just 44.9 percent shooting and forcing 28 turnovers. Point Loma Nazarene entered the game averaging 87.3 points in two regular-season victories and a 14-point exhibition loss to San Diego.

"This game was really good for us," SDSU head coach Steve Fisher said. "It exposed a lot of blemishes that we can go back and correct.

"We played great defense in the first half. They were 7-for-21 from the field and the shots they took were very difficult."

Three San Diego State newcomers, freshman forward Tim Shelton, junior forward Ryan Amoroso and freshman guard D.J. Gay, made their presence felt for the Aztecs. The trio, all of whom started, combined for 30 points, nine rebounds and nine assists.

SDSU played without three players expected to be major contributors in 2007-08. Junior guard Richie Williams, junior guard Kelvin Davis and freshman forward Billy White did not play against the Sea Lions.

Gay made his Aztec debut a memorable one by scoring 11 points, adding a game-high eight assists, four steals and zero turnovers in 33 minutes.

"His play tonight did not surprise me," Fisher said. "I've seen him in practice and he has gone toe to toe with Richie Williams. He guards really well and he is a tough-minded guy. To have eight assists and no turnovers is a great stat line for anyone, so I was really impressed with his performance."

Wade, an all-Mountain West Conference selection by several preseason publications, had a double-double with team highs of 16 points and 13 rebounds.

The game was reminiscent of the contest between the two schools last season, when the Aztecs needed a 30-point effort from Brandon Heath to hold off the Sea Lions, 88-80.

Although never out of reach, San Diego State led the final 31:23 of the game and enjoyed a double-digit advantage a majority of the second half.

A Quick Look at Liberty

- Liberty is coming off a 2006-07 season in which it finished with a 14-17 overall record, but finished in third place in the Big South after going 8-6 in league play.
- The Flames return three starters including senior forward Alex McLean (14.5 ppg, 8.9 rpg) and junior guard Anthony Smith (11.4, 3.3 rpg).
- Liberty was picked to finish in sixth place in the Big South Conference Preseason Poll behind High Point, Winthrop, VMI, Coastal Carolina and UNC Asheville.
- In its only exhibition game this season, Liberty defeated Barton, 77-75, at home inside Vines Center. The Flames were led by Smith, who scored 26 points on 9-of-12 shooting in just 33 minutes. Kyle Ohman had 16 points, while McLean added 14 and eight rebounds and TeeJay Bannister contributed 10 points. Liberty came away with the victory after Rell Porter broke a tie with five seconds left.

San Diego State-Liberty: The Series

▶ This is the first-ever meeting between the schools.

▶ When Ritchie McKay was coaching at New Mexico, San Diego State's Steve Fisher owned a 6-5 record against him. Lately, Fisher's teams have gotten the best of McKay's group by winning the last four meetings. With two victories over the Aztecs as Colorado State's coach in 1998-99 and 1999-00, McKay's is 7-6 all-time vs. SDSU. Fisher has never faced Liberty as a head coach.

▶ Against current members of the Big South, San Diego State is a combined 1-0. Its only meeting came against High Point in 2000 when it claimed a 74-63 victory at Cox Arena.

▶ Besides McKay, SDSU will see another familiar face on the opposing bench in Liberty assistant coach Dale Layer. In his first season at Liberty, Layer was Colorado State's head coach for seven years going 6-10 against the Aztecs.

A Quick Look at Portland

▶ Portland is coming off a season in which it finished 9-23 and 4-10 in the West Coast Conference.

▶ The Pilots were picked to finish in seventh place in the eight-team WCC. Gonzaga, Saint Mary's, San Diego, Santa Clara, San Francisco and Pepperdine were picked ahead of them.

▶ Portland returns starters Taishi Ito and Sherrard Watson to the squad, in addition to three other lettermen.

▶ In the first of two exhibition games, the Pilots dropped a narrow, 66-64, decision to Western Oregon. Portland was led by Nik Raivio with 14 points.

▶ To end the exhibition season, Portland bounced back with a convincing 96-67 victory over Concordia. The Pilots had four players in double figures with Walter Thompson recording 24 points, Raivio scoring 13 and Luke Sikma and Sherrard Watson each posting 12.

San Diego State-Portland: The Series

▶ The meeting between San Diego State and Portland will be the eighth in the history of the series with the Pilots owning a 5-2 lead.

▶ The two schools last met in San Diego on Dec. 31, 2003, with SDSU emerging with a 67-61 victory. That day, Aerick Sanders went for a career-best 34 points on 13-of-20 shooting (8-11 FT) and added 14 rebounds. The biggest basket came from Chris Walton, who hit a shot with 53.2 seconds left in the game and the score tied at 61. His bucket triggered a 6-0 San Diego State run to finish the game.

▶ Prior to the game in San Diego, the Aztecs made the trip to Portland in 2002 and were handed a 91-86 loss.

▶ Both of San Diego State's wins in the series have come in "America's Finest City." However, this meeting will be the first on neutral turf.
▶ Head coach Steve Fisher is 2-1 all time vs. the Pilots.
▶ Against current members of the West Coast Conference, SDSU is 76-89, while Steve Fisher is 13-9 against the conference.

A Quick Look at Fresno State

▶ Fresno State is coming off a postseason NIT appearance where it fell in the first round and finished 2006-07 with a 22-10 record (10-6 WAC).
▶ The Bulldogs welcome three players who redshirted last season, including Rekalin Sims from Kentucky and Bryan Harvey from Louisville.
▶ Fresno State also returns Hector Hernandez (10.8 ppg), Eddie Miller (10.2) and Kevin Bell, who ranked 27th in the nation in assists (5.5) last year.
▶ In its first exhibition, the Bulldogs cruised to a 97-67 win over Western Washington after scoring 61 points in the second half. Hernandez led Fresno State with 23 points and Bell added 21.
▶ To wrap up the preseason, Fresno State walked away with an 87-68 win over Fresno Pacific. Five players scored 10-plus points with Eddie Miller's 25 leading the way.

San Diego State-Fresno State: The Series

▶ The game between San Diego State and Fresno State will mark the 100th in the series. The 99 previous meetings is the most against any opponent in school history, easily outdistancing itself from the 88 all-time meetings between UC Santa Barabara and SDSU, which is the second most in program history.
▶ Overall, the Aztecs hold a slim edge over the Bulldogs in the all-time series, 51-48. However, in games played in Fresno, SDSU trails 16-29.
▶ The two old Western Athletic Conference members will be playing one another for the first time since Dec. 8, 2001, when the Aztecs defeated then No. 21/16 Fresno State, 93-78, inside Cox Arena. The win snapped SDSU's six-game losing streak to ranked opponents thanks to 25 points from Al Faux. Another note on the game ... it was the Aztecs' second victory over a nationally ranked team in their last 31 games against ranked opposition.
▶ The series has been one of streaks. The Aztecs started the series in 1940 by winning the first eight meetings and 15 of the first 16. As the series progressed, SDSU went on to win 29 of the first 33 contests, going up to 1956. Beginning with the second game of the season series in 1956, the Bulldogs won three straight and 15 of the next 18. During that 18-game span, FSU ran off six consecutive victories as well. After trading wins for a few seasons, in 1969, the Aztecs lost five in a row and then won the next eight. It wasn't until 1985 that another streak began as Fresno State won seven straight and 17 of 18 before SDSU pulled the upset in 2001.
▶ Similar to the game vs. Liberty, San Diego State will see a another familiar face in Fresno State head coach Steve Cleveland. The third-year coach held the same position at Brigham Young for eight years before arriving in The Valley. His Cougar teams terrorized SDSU, posting a record of 11-5 vs. the Aztecs. However, against Steve Fisher-led teams, Cleveland was just 7-5 with Fisher guiding his team to five wins in their last eight encounters.

Starting the Season Off Right

Under Steve Fisher, the Aztecs have started the season off with a victory six times in eight seasons. San Diego State began the Fisher era with three straight wins, but have won three of the last five with victories coming in 2003-04 against Long Beach State, in 2005-06 at Alaska Fairbanks and last year vs. Murray State. In the two losses, the Aztecs were competitive in both as they fell, 75-70, to Eastern Washington in 2002-03 and in overtime to UC Santa Barbara, 80-72, in 2004-05.

In-Season Event = Postseason?

During Steve Fisher's tenure, the Aztecs have played in four in-season events with three to start a season. On those three occasions, the 2001 Ford Red Raider Classic, the 2005 BP Top of the World Classic and the 2006 Shamrock Invitational, San Diego State went on to advance to the postseason. In 2001-02, SDSU fell to Texas Tech in the championship game, but recorded a 21-12 record and won the MWC Tournament title en route to a first-round matchup with Illinois. In 2005-06, the Aztecs claimed third place in Alaska, posted a school-record 24 victories, won both the MWC regular season and tournament crowns and earned an NCAA date with Indiana in the postseason. And last year after going 3-0 at the Shamrock Invite, the Aztecs earned a spot in the NIT.

Freshmen in Starting Lineup

With junior point guard Richie Williams serving a team suspension, there is a good chance that true freshman D.J. Gay will start against Liberty. Should the Sun Valley, Calif., native earn the starting nod, Gay would be just the 10th freshman to start a season opener under Steve Fisher. Only three times before has a freshman started a season opener under Fisher at SDSU and that oddly was Williams in 2005 at Alaska Fairbanks. Gay would join elite company as only Juwan Howard, Jalen Rose, Chris Webber, Jerod Ward, Albert White, Bradley Jackson, Steve Sir, Brandon Heath and Williams have received the starting nod from Fisher as freshman to open a season. In addition to Gay, freshman Tim Shelton might find himself in the starting lineup adding to the small list of freshman to receive starting duties in a season opener under Fisher.

Homecoming for Shelton

San Diego State freshman forward Tim Shelton is returning home after beginning school only a couple of months ago. A native of Fresno, Shelton returns to the city where he played high school basketball at Clovis West High. Shelton and the Aztecs will be taking the court at the Save Mart Center, which is only 5.2 miles away from Shelton's high school alma mater.

Aztecs Picked to Finish in Tie for Fourth

San Diego State has been picked to finish in a tie for fourth place in the Mountain West Conference's 2007-08 preseason men's basketball media poll released Oct. 17, at the league's media day being held at The Mtn. studios in Littleton, Colo.

The Aztecs, 2007 NIT participants, earned 128 points along with New Mexico (two first-place votes) and also received one first-place vote. Brigham Young was picked to win the league with 181 points and 15 first-place votes, followed by UNLV (146 pts; 2 first-place votes) and Utah (142; 2).

After SDSU and New Mexico in sixth place was Wyoming (120), with TCU (7th, 58), Air Force (8th, 54) and Colorado State (9th, 33) rounding out the poll.

San Diego State junior forward Ryan Amoroso was the lone Aztec to garner individual accolades as he was voted as the league's top newcomer. Amoroso, a transfer from Marquette who sat out last season, becomes the second SDSU player in the last three years to earn that distinction. Recently departed senior Mohamed Abukar earned the same recognition heading into the 2005-06 campaign.

Not So Newcomers

Even though they are classified as "newcomers," Ryan Amoroso and Kelvin Davis are anything but that. The pair make up for 33 percent of the team's newcomers, but it is their experience prior to arriving on Montezuma Mesa that would dispute their classification.

Amoroso played in 57 games, while making eight starts in his two-year stint at Marquette. During his time there, the Golden Eagles went 39-23 and advanced to the 2005 National Invitation Tournament and the 2006 NCAA Tournament. Davis, meanwhile, played in 24 games his freshman season at UTEP and was a part of a Miner team that 27-8 and earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament. And although he redshirted the following season, Davis was a part of a UTEP squad that ended the season at 21-10 and advanced to the second round of the NIT.

When compared to last year's five newcomers, only Lorrenzo Wade had prior Division I college experience. Wade saw action in 35 games at Louisville as a freshman and helped lead the Cardinals to a 33-5 record and a spot in the NCAA Final Four.

Experience Counts

With only one senior on the roster some may think the Aztecs are young. Although there is some truth to that, the players San Diego State has returning are definitely battle tested. The seven returners, along with the additions of Ryan Amoroso and Kelvin Davis, have all been a part of winning teams that have won at least 20 games and squads that have advanced to postseason play. Of the nine to advance to the postseason, seven have been to an NCAA Tournament and eight have been on teams to win at least one game in the postseason. Last year, SDSU only had eight players who had tasted the postseason and were part of 20-win ballclubs. Of the eight, only Lorrenzo Wade experienced winning a postseason game.

Playing With a Full Deck

San Diego State advanced to their second straight postseason tournament last year despite playing with only 11 full scholarships, two below the maximum. It can be argued that the Aztecs were really only playing with 10 scholarship players since Matt Thomas missed all but two games in 2006-07 with a back injury. This season all of that will change as SDSU heads into fall with a roster that includes the maximum 13 scholarship players.

Seasoned Veterans

Despite losing seasoned veterans Brandon Heath and Mohamed Abukar to graduation, San Diego State is set to return a group that is more experienced this year than the one a year ago. The 2007-08 edition of the Aztecs have played a combined 414 career Division I college basketball games and made 163 starts. This year's career games played trumps the same figure going into 2006-07 when that group played a combined 325 games, while making 182 starts.

Fisher Enters Ninth Season on Montezuma Mesa

Head coach Steve Fisher begins his ninth season at San Diego State tonight. The national championship coach has compiled an Aztec record of 127-117, led them to three 20-plus win seasons and trips to the 2002 and 2006 NCAA Tournaments and the 2003 and 2007 postseason NITs. In 2003, Fisher coached SDSU to its first-ever Division I postseason tournament victory and last season guided the Aztecs to their first Division I postseason road win. In addition to having a career 311-199 record, Fisher led San Diego State to the 2002 and 2006 Mountain West Conference tournament titles, making it the only MWC school to win multiple conference tourney crowns, and the 2006 MWC regular season championship.

In Mint Condition

▶ San Diego State returns two starters and seven letterwinners off a squad which...
- Went 22-11, earned their second consecutive postseason tournament and advanced to the second round of the NIT.
- Won a postseason tournament contest for the second time in the school's Division I history and the second time in five seasons.
- Won 22+ games for the second straight season, reaching the 20-win plateau for the third time during Steve Fisher's tenure and the fifth time in SDSU's DI history.
- Won 10 Mountain West Conference games marking just the second time an SDSU squad has posted double-figure wins in MWC play.
- Beat Missouri State (No. 36), in addition to Air Force (No. 30), UNLV (No. 10) and Brigham Young (No. 18), representing four of the top seven wins in school history based on final RPI rankings since 1993-94.
- Posted the third-most victories (22) in the school's Division I history.

▶ San Diego State returns Lorrenzo Wade, a starter who earned all-MWC honorable mention accolades, and point guard Richie Williams, the league's top returning player in assists and steals and the MWC's second-leader returner in assist-to-turnover ratio. He is also a two-year starter at the position for the Aztecs.

▶ San Diego State returns six players from last year's team that have started a Division I basketball game over the course of their career. Overall, SDSU will have eight players on this season's squad with Division I starting experience with the addition of Ryan Amoroso and Kelvin Davis.

▶ The Aztecs will have 414 career Division I college basketball games and 163 starts to their credit when the season tips off. Last year's group when into 2006-07 with only 325 games (182 starts) of experience.

▶ San Diego State welcomes six new players to this season's team, including Ryan Amoroso, a 6-8 forward. Amoroso, who will be a junior this season, played in 57 games in two seasons at Marquette, where it advanced to the postseason twice. He logged 10 or more minutes 47 times and scored a career-best 30 points and grabbed a career-high tying 12 rebounds vs. South Carolina in 2005-06.

What's Back

San Diego State head coach Steve Fisher welcomes back seven letterwinners off a team that finished with a 22-11 overall record and advanced to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament. Headlining the group is all-MWC honorable mention selection Lorrenzo Wade and returning two-year starter Richie Williams. Besides the returning starting duo, SDSU brings back junior Kyle Spain and adds Marquette transfer Ryan Amoroso to the mix.

The backcourt was left with a huge void with Brandon Heath graduated last year, but Williams enters his third season having started 64 games and is the team's and conference's leading returner in assists and steals. The junior from San Diego also finished the year ranked sixth in assist-to-turnover ratio and will come into '07-08 as the MWC's second-best player in the category.

Joining Williams in the backcourt is the experienced Matt Thomas. Thomas is a solid point guard who can give opposing teams fits with his size, strength and speed. The Riverside, Calif., native has played in 59 career games, but only saw action in two games last year due to a lingering back problem.

The frontline is an area where the Aztecs produce the most experience, especially with Wade and Spain as the cornerstones.

Wade returns to his spot in the lineup where he played in all 33 games, making 24 starts, and averaged 10.5 points and 5.3 rebounds in his first year as an Aztec. The junior's size and length was a major factor in San Diego State's success last year and the team looks forward to him returning as the player that finished the season ranked 4th in steals, 9th in blocked shots, 10th in defensive rebounds and 14th in assists.

Spain enters '07-08 having played in 59 career games and making 43 starts. The junior is a high-energy player who can knock down the outside shot as well as mix it up inside. Spain looks be a good compliment to a frontline corps that uses its size and quickness to outplay its opposition.

Besides the aforementioned duo, the Aztecs have a well-seasoned group waiting in the wings in Chris Lamb, Jer'Vaughn Johnson and Jon Pastorek. The three combined to play a total of 75 games last year with Johnson seeing action in 31 of them. Johnson, a sophomore, is a big, physical presence in the low post and is not afraid to mix it up with anyone, while classmate Pastorek gives defenses a different look with his savvy perimeter play. Lamb, the most proven of the three, has put on extra muscle over the past year and is a reliable player who can play in a starting or reserve role.

Perhaps the most intriguing player in the frontcourt is Amoroso, who enters his first year on Montezuma Mesa having played two seasons at ultra-successful Marquette. As a Golden Eagle, Amoroso played on a team that advanced to the NIT and earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament, while averaging 5.8 points and 3.8 rebounds for his career. His two-year averages are not eye-popping, but there were a handful of ballgames where he put up double figures in points and rebounds, including his 30-point, 12-rebound performance vs. South Carolina when he was a sophomore.
