San Diego State Opens Important Week of Games Against Beehive State Teams on Tuesday Night at Utah

San Diego State (13-5 overall; 2-2 MWC) looks to match its best record after 19 games in the last 25 seasons on Tuesday night when the Aztecs travel to Salt Lake City to face Utah (9-8; 2-1 MWC) in a rematch of the 2009 MWC tournament championship game.

Game time is set for 8 p.m. MT (7 p.m. PT) and the contest will be televised nationally by The Mtn. (San Diego Cox Cable channel 320, DirecTV channel 616, Orange County Cox Cable channel 265, Las Vegas Cox Cable channel 334) and simulcast in the San Diego market on Channel 4 San Diego, with Tim Neverett and Joe Cravens on the call. The game can also be heard on AM 600 KOGO with Ted Leitner providing the description.

On Saturday, San Diego State snapped its first two-game losing streak of the season and avoided dropping three straight games for the first time in 64 games, with a 67-62 come-from-behind victory over TCU. The Aztecs overcame a 14-point deficit, the second largest of the Steve Fisher era, and rallied from an 11-point second-half hole. The Horned Frogs made 12-of-22 from behind the arc and shot an eye-popping 69.6 percent from the floor in the first half to help build the advantage.

The Aztecs held TCU to 33.3 percent shooting (7-of-21) after intermission, including 1-for-7 inside the arc, in picking up their 14th consecutive homecourt victory.

Junior forward Billy White scored 16 points, including 11 in the second half, and added six rebounds. A native of Las Vegas, White made his first start since being diagnosed with a high ankle sprain suffered on Jan. 5 against New Mexico. Junior forward Malcolm Thomas continued his stellar play, reaching double figures for a season-high fifth straight game. His overall stat line is an example of how well he has been playing as he posted 11 points, a game-high nine rebounds and a career-high six assists in the contest. The lone senior in uniform got in the act as well as 2009 USBWA Most Courageous Award recipient Kelvin Davis came off the bench to add 10 points.

Utah has won four of its last five games and is coming off a dramatic 73-69 victory at UNLV.

The Aztecs can match their best 19-game start since the 1984-85 campaign with a victory. To accomplish that, the Aztecs will have to win a game in a venue in which they have historically struggled. SDSU is 2-29 lifetime against Utah at the Huntsman Center and 2-30 against the Utes in Salt Lake City. The Aztecs two victories at Utah came on Feb. 25, 1982, and Jan. 11, 2006.

Overall, Utah enjoys a 53-13 series advantage. The Aztecs have taken a game in the series in a school-record four consecutive seasons. Last season, the teams split the regular season meetings, with the Aztecs winning 72-63 in San Diego, the Utes winning 67-55 in Salt Lake City, and Utah claiming a 52-50 victory in the MWC championship game in Las Vegas.

What You Need to Know

▶ San Diego State's record this season is even more impressive when considering how much the Aztecs lost last season due to graduation. Gone from last season are players that accounted for 4,291 points in their San Diego State career. That doesn't take into account Lorenzo Wade's Louisville scoring or Ryan Amoroso's Marquette numbers. Some of the larger numbers from that group were provided by Kyle Spain (1,230), Lorrenzo Wade (1,200), Richie Williams (883), also the MWC's all-time leader in assists and steals), Ryan Amoroso (624) and Matt Thomas (341).

▶ Despite suffering tremendous losses from last season's team, the Aztecs are 13-5 after 18 games. This marks the third-best record SDSU has had after 18 games in the 40-year history at the Division I level, trailing the 1984-85 and 2007-08 squads by one game. A victory over the Utes would match SDSU's best start to a campaign since the 1984-85 season.

▶ San Diego State, which has advanced to postseason play four consecutive seasons and won 20 or more games each of the past four seasons, is in excellent position to extend both of those active streaks. At no time, in the school's 89 seasons of basketball has San Diego State advanced to postseason play five straight years or won at least 20 games five years in a row.

▶ San Diego State's impressive start this season is remarkable considering the Aztecs have played nine of their 18 games to date on the road (no neutral court games, but nine road games). Of the top 73 RPI teams in the country (as of Monday), only San Diego State, William & Mary (CAA) and Cornell (Ivy) have played at least nine road games this season. San Diego State's nine road games to date are more than Duke (2), Syracuse (3) and Kentucky (3) - combined.

▶ San Diego State has won 14 consecutive games at home, the fifth-longest homecourt winning streak in school history. It is the 15th-longest active homecourt win streak in the country through Sunday's games.

▶ At home, San Diego State has won 14 straight (14-0), 24 of its last 25 (24-1) and 43 of its last 48 (43-5) games.

▶ San Diego State ranks among the nation's best in rebound margin (+7.9, 10th nationally). The Aztecs rebound an amazing 38.2 percent of their missed shots. All national rankings are from the NCAA and are through Jan. 14th games.

▶ In 18 games this season, the Aztecs have held nine opponents to less than 40-percent field-goal shooting, including seven times in their last 12 games. The Aztecs are 8-1 this season and 80-12 in the Steve Fisher era when an opponent shoots 40 percent or less from the field.

▶ The Aztecs have outrebounded 12 of their last 13 opponents and have enjoyed a +12 or better rebound margin in six of their last 10 games. In those last 10 games, San Diego State has outrebounded its opponents, 382-261. SDSU is 12-3 this season when outrebounding its opponent.

▶ San Diego State has won the last nine games that have advanced to overtime. That is the nation's longest active streak.

Quick Personnel Notes

Last Meeting

LAS VEGAS (March, 14, 2009) - San Diego State fell to Utah as the Utes went on to win the MWC championship, 52-50.

The first half was sloppy as both teams struggled from the field. Despite San Diego State's poor shooting efforts, they managed to maintain a lead until a dunk by Utah's Luke Nevill gave his team the lead, 11-10, with 9:09 remaining in the first half. After a scoreless drought of nearly two minutes between both teams, a layup by San Diego State's Lorenzo Wade recaptured the lead for the Aztecs. SDSU closed out the half with a two-point lead, 20-18.

The second half saw a different Utah team, which had its way with SDSU early in the opening minutes. A jumper by Carlton Brown in the opening 30 seconds of the second half tied the game at 20, and San Diego State was unable to stop what would be an 8-0 run to open the half.

With 16:50 in the second half, the Aztecs were able to chip away at Utah's six-point lead with a pair of free throws from Wade. But Utah answered back each time, maintaining a four-point cushion from the 17:33 mark until a three-pointer by Tim Shelton reduced the deficit to three with 11:52 left in the game.

A lay-up by Ryan Amoroso cut the Utah lead to three points with 2:06 remaining. The Utes were able to regain a two-possession lead with free throws by Brown and Shaun Green that looked to have iced the game with only 37 seconds remaining. But Richie Williams hit back-to-back three-pointers in the final 14 seconds, cutting the deficit to one. After Lawrence Borha missed the second of two free throws, Williams drove down court, but had the ball stolen from him as time expired.

SDSU was led by Amoroso's 11 points and career-high 15 rebounds, while Wade added 12 points.

Notes from the Game:

- ▶ San Diego State made its third appearance in a Mountain West Conference tournament championship game and its first since 2006.
- ▶ The Aztecs fell short in its bid to claim a third MWC tournament championship.

time victories against Utah, including one in each of the last four seasons.

- ▶ Nine of the last 16 meetings in the series have been decided by six points or less with the Utes winning seven of those nine games.
- ▶ Steve Fisher owns a 7-17 lifetime mark against Utah, earning a pair of victories while at Michigan. Fisher's squads defeated the Utes 81-65 on Dec. 1, 1990, in Ann Arbor, Mich., and 73-69 in the third-place game of the 1994 Maui Classic in Lahaina, Hawaii. That victory over the Utes in Maui was Fisher's 125th career victory.

Aztecs Rally to Leap Frogs

Amid the chaos in Viejas in the home game vs. TCU, the Aztecs overcame a 14-point deficit (11-point deficit in the second half) to beat the Horned Frogs. The 14-point hole the Aztecs dug themselves out of matched the second-largest come-from-behind victory of the Steve Fisher era. SDSU trailed 34-30 with 6:40 left in the first half before rallying for the 67-62 win.

Freshman Impact

With Chase Tapley joining the starting rotation the last five games (seven starts total), San Diego State now opens games with a pair of true freshmen and the team hasn't missed a beat. SDSU is 5-2 in games Tapley has started. Meanwhile, Kawhi Leonard, the other true freshman, has started 17 games and the Aztecs have gone 12-5 in those ballgames.

What the two have done up to this point is nothing short of amazing as Leonard leads the team in points scored, rebounding and steals, and is tied for third in assists. He also has seven double-doubles to his credit.

On the flip side, Tapley owns the team's top assist-to-turnover ratio, has the second-fewest turnovers among regulars, has the highest shooting percentage among all San Diego State guards, is second in assists and fifth in points scored. In his last five games, Tapley is averaging 8.8 points, 3.0 rebounds, 3.8 assists and just 1.6 turnovers in 29.4 minutes.

Thomas and Leonard Join Elite Company

When Malcolm Thomas registered 18 points and 15 rebounds in the Aztecs' win over nationally ranked New Mexico, he and freshman Kawhi Leonard, who finished with 23 points and 18 rebounds against Cal State Fullerton, joined an exclusive group of teammates to put up at least 18 points and 15 rebounds this season, according to ESPN.com.

Other twosomes to have accomplished the feat this year include, Dexter Pittman and Damion James of Texas, Storm Warren and Tasmin Mitchell of LSU, and Kentucky's DeMarcus Cousins and Patrick Patterson (as of Jan. 6).

Lots of Assists, Not a Lot of Turnovers

D.J. Gay and Chase Tapley have turned out to be a formidable point guard tandem when it comes to finding the open man and taking care of the ball.

The last five ballgames, the guards have been paired together in the starting lineup and both have produced in a major way. Gay enters the Utah game having recorded 13 assists and eight turnovers, while Tapley has 19 assists and eight turns to his credit. Between the two of them, they have 32 assists and 18 miscues for an assist-to-turnover ratio of 1.78.

For the season, Gay has a team-best 53 assists, while Tapley is credited with 41. Between the two of them, they have turned the ball over just 57 times. Individually, Gay has an assist-to-turnover ratio of 1.43, while Tapley has a team-best ratio of 2.05 (min. 17 GP).

Block Party

Viejas Arena was the scene for a pair of Aztec block parties for San Diego State. Against Arizona, the Scarlet and Black swatted a season-high 10 shots and then followed that performance with another 10 against UC Riverside after returning from a two-game road trip.

Leading the way vs. the Highlanders was Malcolm Thomas, who turned away a career-high six shots. The junior had six blocks only once before while playing at Pepperdine (6 vs. San Diego, 2-4-08). In addition to Thomas, Brian Carlwell got into the act as he blocked a season high two in just 11 minutes off the bench.

Defense a Priority

Defense has become a staple of San Diego State, especially last season when it set school records for lowest opponent scoring average (59.6) and lowest opponent field-goal percentage (41.0). In fact, the Aztecs finished 2008-09 ranked 15th in Division I in scoring defense.

A new season is here and things have not changed. Nine opponents have been held to 58 points or less and 11 have been limited to 64 points or less. Of those 11 times, 10 have resulted in victories. The lone exception came at Arizona State when San Diego State held the Sun Devils to 55 and lost.

For the season, the Aztecs are allowing 62.3 points per outing and are holding opponents to 40.0 percent from the field and an even worse 35.1 percent from three-point distance.

Double-Double Machine

Kawhi Leonard is quickly becoming a double-double machine in his first year on campus. So far, the Riverside, Calif., native has seven double-doubles and nearly has nine to his credit after reaching nine in the second category (points or rebounds). The most impressive part is that six of his double-doubles have come in his last nine outings.

Road Warriors

San Diego State wrapped up its non-conference road slate with a respectable 4-3 record. The seven road non-league games were the most in the Mountain West (no team played more than five) and the four road wins were more than a quarter of the MWC's combined total of 14 (entering league play on Jan. 5). With four road victories, it marks the second earliest date in the 40-year Division I school history that the Aztecs have claimed their fourth road victory. The only season in which San Diego State did it faster was the 1971-72 campaign. The seven true road games are the most during Steve Fisher's SDSU tenure.

Not in Our House

San Diego State owns one of the top homecourt advantages not only on the West Coast, but in the entire nation. Since the beginning of the 2005-06 season, the Aztecs are 62-9 in their last 71 home games. Of those nine losses, three were to Pac-10 Conference schools and five were to Mountain West Conference clubs. Only once has a non-Pac-10 or MWC school escaped with a victory (Northern Colorado - Jan. 9, 2008).

Window Wiping in the Desert

San Diego State's frontline of Kawhi Leonard, Malcolm Thomas and Billy White did a great job of rebounding despite losing at Arizona State. All three finished with double-figure rebounding totals as Leonard had 11, while Thomas and White each had 10. The trio's effort was the first time the Aztecs had three players with at least 10 rebounds in a game since Jan. 29, 2008, when Ryan Amoroso pulled down 11 and White and Lorenzo Wade each had 10 at Colorado State.

Tapley Cashes In at Wells Fargo

when the Aztecs struggled to score at Arizona State. The Sacramento, Calif., native came off the bench to produce a career-high 17 points on 7-of-10 shooting in just 23 minutes. He also added two rebounds, two assists and two steals during his time on the court. Between him (5 pts.) and D.J. Gay (7 pts.), the pair scored the team's final 12 points to bring SDSU to within one point with 13 seconds to play.

Significant Win

San Diego State's win over Arizona was huge for the program for many reasons. The Wildcats were a club that the Aztecs failed to beat in their last seven tries and was SDSU's first result since 1983. For Steve Fisher, he entered the game just 1-9 vs. Arizona in his career and 0-5 while on Montezuma Mesa. When the dust settled, the Aztecs' 17-point win was their largest margin of victory against a Pac-10 school in its Division I history and largest since defeating Arizona State, 89-64, on Dec. 27, 1955. Additionally, it was just the school's fifth double-figure victory over a Pac-10 program in its Division I history.

Aztecs Get First MWC Weekly Honor

Kawhi Leonard was named MWC co-player of the week, the league announced on Dec. 14. The Riverside, Calif., native helped SDSU to wins over Cal State Fullerton and Arizona by averaging 18.0 points, 15.0 rebounds and 3.5 assists. Against Fullerton, Leonard finished with 23 points, 18 rebounds and five assists, all of which were game and career highs. Then three days later, the freshman responded with game-high numbers of 13 points and 12 rebounds. Leonard is the first freshman Aztec to win the award since Billy White did it twice in 2007-08.

Leonard Lights Up Titans

Watching Kawhi Leonard play against Cal State Fullerton brought back visions of Michael Cage, the school's second-leading scorer and the program's all-time leader in rebounding. The freshman finished with a career-high 23 points, 18 rebounds and five assists in 38 minutes. He is just the second player this year (Morgan State's Kevin Thompson) to put up a line of at least 20 points, 15 rebounds and five assists, according to ESPN. He is also the first freshman to put up a 20-15-5 game since Michael Haney of Eastern Kentucky did it in 2002, a stat courtesy of the Worldwide Leader.

Leonard became the 23rd player in SDSU history to pull down at least 15 rebounds and his 18 boards is the most by a freshman since Cage grabbed 20 on Feb. 24, 1981, against Hawai'i. He also finished two shy of the Viejas Arena record of 20 set by former Aztec Marcus Slaughter on Jan. 14, 2006, vs. UNLV.

Looking at the game as a whole, Leonard had 10 offensive rebounds compared to Fullerton's three, and his final total was seven short of the Titans' final tally of 25.

Kawhi Puts Start Behind Him

If Kawhi Leonard's performance vs. Cal State Fullerton came as a surprise, you haven't been following your Aztecs. Since opening the season by averaging 7.0 points on 32.7 percent shooting (6 games), Leonard has put that behind him and been on a tear the last 11 games.

Since the road game at San Diego, the team's leading rebounder is averaging 13.6 points and shooting 48.3 percent from the floor. From inside the three-point arc, Leonard is shooting 56.0 percent. During the same time frame, Leonard is pulling down rebounds at an 10.2 clip. Thanks to his last 11 games, the Riverside, Calif., product has raised his field-goal percentage from 32.7 to 44.0 percent.

D.J. Controlling the JCP

D.J. Gay enjoyed one of his finest games at San Diego State when he helped propel the Aztecs to an overtime victory over San Diego at Jenny Craig Pavilion. The junior poured in a career-best 22 points, seven (5-6 FT) of which came in overtime, and played 41 of a possible 45 minutes. In the process, the guard knocked down a season-high six shots, including a season-best four three-pointers, and a personal-record six free throws.

Shelley Filled Up at Jenny Craig

Tyrone Shelley filled up the stat sheet at Jenny Craig Pavilion and San Diego. The sophomore finished with 10 points to record his fifth double-figure scoring effort, but he made sure to post respective numbers elsewhere. Shelley matched his career high with three assists and set season highs in blocked shots (3), rebounds (6) and free throws (4).

Gay and Shelley Earn All-West Coast Classic Honors

Billy White and Tyrone Shelley were named to the all-West Coast Classic team following the four-game exempt tournament involving San Diego State, Pacific, Fresno State, Northern Arizona and the hosts, Santa Clara. The duo led SDSU to a 3-1 record, with the only blemish coming at Pacific. In those four games, White averaged 17.8 points, 5.5 rebounds, 1.0 assists, 1.8 steals and shot 69.2 percent from the field. Shelley, meanwhile, was nearly as good averaging 17.8 points, 3.3 rebounds, 1.3 assists, 1.8 steals and a field-goal percentage of 53.8 percent.

Double-Doubles Are a So Cal Tradition

Against NAU, Malcolm Thomas and Kawhi Leonard posted the team's first and second double-doubles of 2009-10. Thomas finished with 21 points and 10 rebounds, while Leonard completed his afternoon with 10 points and 10 boards. It marked the 40th time since 1979 that SDSU has recorded two double-doubles in the same game. The pair also became the first set of teammates to accomplish the feat in the same outing since March 22, 2006, vs. Wyoming, when Marcus Slaughter (16 pts., 13 rebs.) and Kyle Spain (11 pts., 12 rebs.) went In-N-Out style.

Thomas Near Perfect

In just his fifth game as an Aztec, Malcolm Thomas executed one of the top shooting performances of the Steve Fisher era. The junior's 10-for-11 (.909) effort from the field vs. Northern Arizona ranks in a tie for the eighth-best field-goal percentage (min. 6 FGM) in Fisher's 10-plus seasons at SDSU. Current Aztecs in front of Thomas are Billy White (No. 1, 12-12 vs. Wyoming, 2-14-09; t-No. 3, 6-6 vs. Kansas State, 3-20-09) and Tim Shelton (t-No. 3, 6-6 at Northern Colorado, 12-3-08). White is also tied with Thomas as a result of his 10-for-11 exhibition vs. UC San Diego on Nov. 17, 2007.

Efficient Bill

Billy White has connected on 76 of his 124 field-goal attempts to lead the team in field-goal percentage at 61.3 percent. The junior's efficient ways should not come as a surprise. After all, White has shot over 61 percent from the field in each of his two seasons and came into this year with a career field-goal percentage of 63.9 percent. In fact, in 2008-09 White went through a stretch where he made 22 straight field goals, including a 12-for-12 performance vs. Wyoming.

Gay Handling the Point Guard Duties Just Fine

With the departure of all-time MWC assist and steals leader Richie Williams, many questioned whether junior D.J. Gay could handle the point guard responsibilities. So far the answer is yes.

Gay is currently averaging 2.9 assists, which is up from his 1.7 career mark. Twice this season, the guard has established career highs in assists. At Fresno State, he set a new personal best with six assists and then two games later dished out seven vs. Northern Arizona. Gay has also mixed it up inside as he has twice grabbed a career-high six rebounds (at Fresno State, vs. Northern Arizona).

Davis Makes Complete Comeback

Toward the end of the 2007-08 season, Kelvin Davis did not feel like himself. After the Aztecs' first-round NIT loss at Florida, Davis was diagnosed with Hodgkin's lymphoma and went through chemotherapy and radiation treatments that extended into the 2008-09 campaign. The illness limited him to just eight games last year and the Waterbury, Conn., native was awarded a sixth season of eligibility by the NCAA.

Against UC San Diego, the 2009 USWBA Most Courageous Award recipient made his comeback complete as he started the season opener and finished as the game's third-leading scorer (10). The starting assignment was his first since Feb. 13, 2008, vs. New Mexico, while his 10-point effort was his first double-figure scoring performance since Feb. 9, 2008, at TCU.

Game 1

San Diego State 77
UC San Diego 52

Nov. 14, 2009 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 5,520

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State overcame a sluggish first-half showing and shot nearly 65 percent from the field in the second half to defeat UC San Diego, 77-52, in the Aztecs' season opener.

Newcomer Malcolm Thomas carried San Diego State on this afternoon with his 20 points on 8-of-11 shooting, nine rebounds and two blocks. Fellow newcomer Chase Tapley, meanwhile, finished with 11 points and Kelvin Davis had 10 in a starting role.

Despite shooting 53.8 percent in the first half, the Aztecs were nursing a 31-28 lead at halftime mainly due to their 12 turnovers and 2-for-8 performance at the free-throw line.

In the second half, it was a significantly different story as San Diego State came out on fire, scoring the first 16 points to increase its lead to 19.

With the game comfortably in hand, the Aztecs went on another scoring binge, this time an 11-3 run, to move ahead by 23 with less than four minutes left and eventually cruised to the finish line.

For the game, SDSU shot 59.3 percent from the field, including 64.3 percent in the second half, and outrebounded the Tritons, 43-28. The Aztecs also dominated points in the paint (46-16) and fast-break points (10-0).

UC San Diego was led by Tyler Acevedo, who had 14 points off the bench. Jordan Lawley finished with nine points, while Casey Ryan added eight points and eight rebounds.

Game 2

Saint Mary's 80
San Diego State 58

Nov. 16, 2009 ♦ Moraga, Calif.
McKeon Pavilion ♦ Att.: 2,774

MORAGA, Calif. - San Diego State dropped an 80-58 decision at Saint Mary's in what could have been the latest tip time in school history, 11 p.m. PT, as the Aztecs and Gaels participated in ESPN's College Hoops Tip-Off Marathon.

SDSU opened the game with a 1-0 lead on a free throw by Malcolm Thomas and never led again as Saint Mary's and more specifically, Mickey McConnell, came out on fire and never looked back.

McConnell went 5-for-5 from three-point range in the first half alone to lead a Gael attack that featured three players with eight points or more at halftime. McConnell finished the half with 17 points, while Matthew Dellavedova and Omar Samhan each had eight. Samhan also had 12 boards as his team enjoyed a 42-21 lead at the break.

With a steep hill to climb, San Diego State chipped away at the lead and came within 12 points with 7:34 to go after Thomas and Billy White took over the game. The duo scored all of SDSU's 14 points in a six-plus minute stretch, with White scoring 10 of the 14.

But like most of the game, the Gaels had an answer for the Aztecs and responded with a 14-3 run to increase their lead to 23 with 3:24 to go to effectively put the game away.

Thomas finished with 14 points and eight rebounds, while White and D.J. Gay each had 10. For Saint Mary's, McConnell had a game-high 24 points and seven assists. Dellavedova and Samhan, meanwhile, had 17 apiece with Samhan adding 16 rebounds, four assists and five blocked shots.

Game 3

San Diego State 86
Santa Clara 53

Nov. 19, 2009 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 5,401

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State was a completely different team from its performance in its previous game at Saint Mary's as the Aztecs thoroughly dominated Santa Clara, 86-53, in the first game of the West Coast Classic.

Five players scored in double figures and were led by Billy White's 17. D.J. Gay, Tyrone Shelley and Chase Tapley each had 12, while Kelvin Davis had 11. Kawhi Leonard, meanwhile, narrowly posted a double-double after finishing with nine points and a career-high 13 rebounds.

The game was a tight affair with the margin never rising above four points for the first 10-and-a-half minutes. But a 17-0 Aztec run opened the game up and soon SDSU found itself ahead by 17 with six minutes to play in the first half. The Aztecs wound up going into the locker room up 38-22.

In the second period, both teams traded a pair of buckets with Gay knocking down San Diego State's second field goal. The junior's basket spurred what would be the deciding run as the Aztecs ran off 18 straight points and 23 of the next 25 to pull ahead, 61-28 with 11:34 remaining in regulation.

Nearly seven minutes later, SDSU enjoyed the first of its two 40-point leads after Gay connected on a jumper. The second 40-point advantage came with 3:55 left in the game when Tapley knocked down a three off a feed from Bryan Horton.

In the final minutes, Santa Clara outscored the Aztecs, 11-4, to provide the final margin.

While San Diego State had five players score in double figures, Santa Clara had three, led by Niyi Harrison's 14.

Game 4

San Diego State 62
Fresno State 58

Nov. 23, 2009 ♦ Fresno, Calif.
Save Mart Center ♦ Att.: 8,041

FRESNO, Calif. - SDSU stayed perfect in West Coast Classic action and earned its first road victory of the season with its 62-58 win over Fresno State.

Billy White continued his stellar play of late by connecting on 8-of-10 field goals en route to a season-high 22 points, with 18 coming in the second half. The junior also grabbed a team-best eight rebounds, including six on the offensive end. Tyrone Shelley, meanwhile, contributed 17 points and six rebounds.

In the first half, it looked as if the Aztecs would run away with the game, jumping out to an 8-0 lead. That proved to be not the case as the Bulldogs methodically chipped away and pulled even at 16 with 9:40 left in the period thanks to eight straight Fresno State points, including a pair of three-pointers by Mike Ladd.

Soon after the Bulldogs evened the score, SDSU answered with a 7-2 run to pull ahead by five, but Fresno State outscored the visitors, 11-2, to go into the half up, 29-25.

Right out of the gate in the second half, Sylvester Seay gave the Bulldogs their biggest lead of the game at 31-25. The Aztecs, however, hung around and took a 35-33 lead after Shelley made a three. The game was back-and-forth for the rest of the half with neither team enjoying a lead of more than five points.

With under a minute to play in regulation, the game was tied at 58, but all that changed as White continued to punish the Bulldogs on the offensive glass. After a D.J. Gay miss, White grabbed the rebound and was fouled on the putback. The junior knocked down both attempts, giving SDSU a 60-58 lead. After a Fresno State miss on the other end, the Bulldogs were forced to foul Shelley, who calmly made both free throws with under three seconds to play to give the Aztecs the win.

Game 5

Pacific 71
San Diego State 63

Nov. 25, 2009 ♦ Stockton, Calif.
Spanos Center ♦ Att.: 2,705

STOCKTON, Calif. - San Diego State fell behind late in the first half, cut the lead to three in the second half, but could not complete the comeback as it fell at Pacific, 71-63, in the third game of the West Coast Classic.

The Tigers held a lead for nearly the first 15 minutes of the first half until Billy White's layup gave the Aztecs a 22-21 lead. Both teams traded points over the next 1:24, including Tyrone Shelley's three to put SDSU up 28-27 with 4:27 to go.

The Aztec advantage was short-lived, however, as the Tigers blitzed the visitors with numerous run-outs that were converted for layups or dunks. With Pacific ahead by one on a Nyika Williams layup, Williams found himself on a fast break with Brian Carlwell trailing the play. As the SDSU center went to block the shot, he hit the backboard and was assessed a technical foul. With the basket allowed, the Tigers hit the two technical free throws and Pacific was well on its way to closing out the first half on a 15-1 run and a 42-29 lead.

In the second half, the Aztecs came out aggressive and cut the UOP lead to four, 52-48, with 8:38 to go, but gave up a 6-0 Tiger spurt. San Diego State roared back again, this time cutting its deficit to three at 61-58 with 4:29 to play, but immediately gave up a dunk and a layup within a span of 18 seconds. SDSU would not get closer than six points the rest of the way as Pacific emerged with the eight-point win.

For the second straight game, White posted a 20-point effort, this time finishing with 20 points and knocking down his first two three-pointers of his career. D.J. Gay and Tyrone Shelley, meanwhile, contributed 11 and 10 points, respectively.

Game 6

San Diego State 89
Northern Arizona 48

Nov. 28, 2009 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 4,390

SAN DIEGO - SDSU stopped its losing streak at one and thoroughly beat Northern Arizona at home, 89-48, in the final game of the West Coast Classic.

Six players scored in double figures for the Aztecs, including Malcolm Thomas, who had his first double-double at SDSU after finishing with 21 points and 10 rebounds. Kawhi Leonard also notched his first career double-double with 10 points and 10 boards. Meanwhile, Tyrone Shelley had 17 points, Billy White added 12 and Chase Tapley and D.J. Gay each had 11.

The game was nearly over before it started as San Diego State jumped out to a 23-2 lead and never looked back. Northern Arizona, which got its two points on free throws less than 1:30 into the game, made its first field goal, a three-pointer, with 11:35 remaining in the first half. In fact, the Lumberjacks didn't reach double digits until Cameron Jones drilled a jumper with 6:23 left in the first half. At the end of one period, the Aztecs enjoyed a 45-18 lead.

After halftime, NAU trimmed its deficit to 26 points after four minutes of action, but would not get any closer. San Diego State continued to get easy looks as the game progressed and the lead eventually swelled to as many as 45 in the final minutes.

The 41-point margin of victory was the third-largest in school history and was due mostly in part to the Aztecs dominance in points in the paint (60-16), points off turnovers (28-4), second-chance points (23-10) and fastbreak points (23-0).

Cameron Jones and DeAngelo Jones led the Lumberjacks with 12 and 10 points, respectively.

Game 7

San Diego State 69
San Diego 62 (ot)

Dec. 2, 2009 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Jenny Craig Pavilion ♦ Att.: 4,662

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State won its fourth straight in the series and second in a row on the San Diego campus as the Aztecs defeated the Toreros in overtime, 69-62.

SDSU emerged with its second consecutive decision on USD soil since claiming back-to-back road wins on Dec. 9, 1967 and Feb. 3, 1970. The four-game winning streak, meanwhile, is San Diego State's longest since the early 1980s.

D.J. Gay improved his personal record to 3-0 vs. San Diego and enjoyed a career day as he finished with a career-high 22 points. Gay, who played 41 minutes, also connected on a season-high four three-pointers and a career-best six free throws.

Joining Gay in the double-figure scoring column was Tyrone Shelley, who finished with 10 points, six rebounds, three assists, three blocks and three steals.

The game had a promising start for the Aztecs as they opened the contest with a 6-0 lead that eventually swelled to 15-7 mid-way through the period. USD, however, answered with a 21-12 run to end the half to go into the locker room up, 28-27.

After regrouping, San Diego State scored the first 13 points of the second half to open up a 12-point lead. But like the first 20 minutes, the Toreros stormed back and responded with a 21-8 run to give the home-standing club a 49-48 lead, which eventually turned into a 52-40 draw at the end of regulation.

In the extra session, it was all Aztecs early again as they scored the first eight points. San Diego never got closer than five points the rest of the way and Gay made five of his six free throws en route to seven points in overtime to seal the game for SDSU.

Game 8

San Diego State 69
UC Santa Barbara 61

Dec. 5, 2009 ♦ Santa Barbara, Calif.
The Thunderdome ♦ Att.: 2,513

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. - San Diego State had four players score in double figures and shot over 50 percent from the field for the third straight game as it downed UC Santa Barbara on the road, 69-61, at The Thunderdome.

Tyrone Shelley led the Aztecs with 17 points and eight rebounds, while Malcolm Thomas added 15 points. Kawhi Leonard and D.J. Gay, meanwhile, scored 13 apiece with Leonard also grabbing a game-high nine rebounds.

On multiple occasions, San Diego State looked as if it was going to run away with the game. First, the Aztecs opened up a 21-9 lead only to have UCSB answer with a 15-7 run to end the half, which cut the SDSU lead to 28-26 at halftime.

Coming out of the break, San Diego State went on a 17-5 run to open the second half and increase its lead to 41-31. But like the first half, the Gauchos put together a 21-12 scoring effort to get within one at 53-52 with 9:46 to play.

Less than three minutes later, SDSU went up again, this time by a score of 62-53, but UC Santa Barbara stormed back once more. The Gauchos got to within 62-59 with 1:32 left in the game thanks to six unanswered points.

In the end, San Diego State, however, did what it could not do throughout the game as it stopped the UCSB attack in the final minutes. The Aztecs closed the game on a 7-2 run to provide the final margin and emerge with the eight-point win.

Game 9

San Diego State 82
Cal State Fullerton 68

Dec. 9, 2009 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 4,774

SAN DIEGO - Despite allowing Cal State Fullerton to shoot a higher percentage from the field and from three-point distance, San Diego State still managed to defeat the Titans, 82-68, to record its fourth straight victory.

The Aztecs outrebounded the visiting Big West school, 41-25, and Kawhi Leonard almost single-handedly outrebounded their entire squad. The freshman enjoyed a fantastic game grabbing a game-high 18 rebounds, scoring a career-high 23 points and adding a personal-best five assists. The double-double was his second of his career and second in his last four games.

Out of the gate, SDSU raced out to a 14-7 lead, but Fullerton cut the lead to three less than two minutes later. The Aztecs, however, closed the half on a strong note thanks to a 14-6 run and finished the opening 20 minutes with a 41-25 advantage.

In the second half, the Aztecs continued its offensive assault and extended their lead to 22 points at 58-36 with 12:39 left in the game. A 10-4 Titan run later in the game brought the visitors to within 13 with just under seven minutes to play, but that would be as close as Fullerton would get the rest of the way.

In addition to Leonard, three other Aztecs scored in double figures. Billy White had 14 points, while Chase Tapley and Brian Carwell each had 10. Carwell's 10 marked a career high.

For the game, Cal State Fullerton shot 51.1 percent from the field and 52.9 from three. On the flip side, SDSU shot 50.8 from the floor and 50.0 from behind the arc.

Game 10

San Diego State 63
Arizona 46

Dec. 12, 2009 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State had lost seven straight to Arizona and had not beaten the school since 1983, but all of that changed when the Aztecs beat the Wildcats in convincing fashion, 63-46, in front of a sellout crowd of 12,414 at Viejas Arena.

Freshman Kawhi Leonard led all players with 13 points and 12 rebounds, his second double-double in as many games, and D.J. Gay added 12 points for the homestanding Aztecs.

San Diego State scored the first five points of the game and never looked back. In the first nine minutes of the game, Arizona managed to tie the score on two different occasions, but the Aztecs had an answer each time. With the score knotted at 14, SDSU scored nine unanswered points and closed the half on a 17-6 run to enter the locker room ahead, 33-20.

The Aztecs enjoyed a double-figure lead thanks in large part to the effort of Leonard, who had nine rebounds, including seven on the offensive side. In contrast, the Wildcats only had 15 total rebounds to their credit and just five off the offensive glass.

In the second half, it was all San Diego State as the Aztecs never allowed their lead to shrink to single digits. Arizona got to within 11 with 18:12 left in regulation, but that was all the visitors had left in the tank as SDSU cruised to the 17-point victory.

The win was San Diego State's fifth in a row and 10 straight at home. The Aztecs never trailed and it extended their streak to 153 minutes, 3 seconds without facing a deficit at home.

Arizona's 46 points, meanwhile, was its lowest scoring output since netting 41 on March 15, 1985, a streak which covered 801 games.

Game 11

Arizona State 55
San Diego State 52

Dec. 19, 2009 ♦ Tempe, Ariz.
Wells Fargo Arena ♦ Att.: 10,055

TEMPE, Ariz. - San Diego State had its season-long five-game winning streak snapped at Arizona State as the Sun Devils hung on for the 55-52 victory at Wells Fargo Arena.

The Aztecs held a lead for much of the first half, but turnovers prevented them from blowing the game open. SDSU had 12 miscues in the first 20 minutes of play, which kept ASU in the game, and only Chase Tapley had more than five points (10 points) for the Aztecs. All of the above allowed the Sun Devils to hang around until the final three minutes when they blitzed San Diego State with a 10-2 run to go into halftime ahead, 28-22.

Arizona State's match-up zone defense gave SDSU fits all afternoon, including the first 6:30 of the second half. The Sun Devils stopped nearly every Aztec offensive possession en route to a 14-4 run to increase their lead to 42-26. In fact, ASU increased its advantage to 18 points with just under 11 minutes left in regulation.

San Diego State finally found its offensive rhythm shortly after its deficit grew to 18 as it went on an 11-0 spurt in large part to Billy White, who had six of the 11 points, to come within 46-39. Arizona State, however, answered with a Derek Glasser jumper and a Jamelle McMillan three to get their lead back to 12 with 5:44 left.

The Aztecs were not done by any means as Chase Tapley and D.J. Gay scored 12 straight points to get SDSU to within one point, 53-52, with 13 seconds remaining in regulation. Following a San Diego State foul and two ASU free throws, the Aztecs called timeout to set up a final play, but Gay's game-tying three-point attempt was off the mark as the Aztecs fell for the first time in six games.

Tapley led SDSU with a career-high 17 points, while Gay added 10.

Game 12

San Diego State 76
Drake 73 (ot)

Dec. 22, 2009 ♦ Des Moines, Iowa
Knapp Center ♦ Att.: 4,012

DES MOINES, Iowa - San Diego State let a five-point halftime lead slip away and then rallied from eight down in the second half as the Aztecs defeated Drake on the road, 76-73, in overtime in the inaugural Mountain West-Missouri Valley Challenge.

The victory marked SDSU's ninth straight overtime decision, which extended the nation's longest such streak.

Much like the Aztecs' overtime win at San Diego earlier in the season, D.J. Gay made his mark in the extra session. With San Diego State up, 75-73, Drake's Craig Stanley drove to the hoop and the 6-0 Gay notched his first blocked shot of the season with two seconds left to preserve SDSU's lead. After a Bulldog foul, Tyrone Shelley, who earlier in overtime knocked down two free throws, made one of two attempts to provide the final margin.

In the first half, it looked as if the Aztecs were going to have no trouble earning their ninth victory of the season after Gay and Kelvin Davis enjoyed perfect halves. Gay had eight points on a perfect 3-for-3 shooting (2-2 3FG), while Davis came off the bench to contribute 10 points after connecting on all three of his three-point attempts.

In the second half, however, Drake used a 12-0 run to move ahead by eight points with 6:08 left. But SDSU responded with a 12-4 spurt to end the half and the Bulldogs went 2-for-7 from the charity stripe as regulation ended in a 66 tie before moving to OT.

Gay led all scorers with 18 points, while Davis and Billy White each scored 16. Kawhi Leonard, meanwhile, added 14 points and a game-high 11 boards.

Game 13

San Diego State 58
UC Riverside 53
Dec. 29, 2009 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 5,315

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State continued its dominance over UC Riverside, this time beating the Highlanders, 58-53, to post its eighth straight win over the Big West Conference school.

The victory was also the Aztecs' 11th straight at home and 14th consecutive over non-conference foes at home.

After enjoying a nine-point halftime lead thanks to an 11-3 run to end the first 20 minutes, San Diego State was forced to hold off UC Riverside in the final minutes.

On three occasions SDSU opened up a 10-point lead in the first eight-plus minutes of the second half, but the Highlanders managed to keep the game close.

With the Aztecs up, 45-36, with 6:35 left, UCR made its move. Five straight points got the Highlanders within four and a 9-3 run cut the Aztec lead to 48-45.

Just over three minutes later, SDSU was ahead 54-49 with 1:13 to go, but UC Riverside answered with four consecutive points to get within one with 44 seconds left. Kawhi Leonard, who missed the front end of a bonus situation moments earlier, was fouled and he calmly nailed both attempts.

With the Aztecs nursing a three-point lead and eight seconds left in the game, UCR attempted to tie the score with a three, but Malcolm Thomas blocked his career-high sixth shot. Then with two seconds left, Leonard made two more free throws to provide the contest's final margin.

Billy White led the Aztecs with 13 points and Leonard added 12 as SDSU won its 10th of the year.

Game 14

San Diego State 89
Pomona-Pitzer 54
Dec. 31, 2009 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 4,061

SAN DIEGO - In its final non-conference game before Mountain West action begins, San Diego State pulled away in the second half and defeated Pomona-Pitzer, 89-54, at Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs, who entered the game averaging 14.6 turnovers and shooting 58.4 percent from the free-throw line, made their deficiencies a thing of the past at least for one game. SDSU committed a school-record low three turnovers and finished 12-for-13 from the free-throw line.

In the first half, the Sagehens came out firing, putting up 14 threes, while making five. Combined with their three-point shooting and the fact that they outrebounded the Aztecs, 18-14, Pomona-Pitzer found itself down only 40-31 at halftime.

SDSU, however, came out of the break with more energy and effort, which spurred a 13-1 run, giving them a 21-point advantage and a lead it would not relinquish.

Six players scored in double figures for the Aztecs starting with Kawhi Leonard, who posted his fifth double-double with 17 points and 12 rebounds. Malcolm Thomas added 15 with front-court mates Billy White and Brian Carlwell scoring 13 apiece. Alec Williams, meanwhile, tallied 11 and D.J. Gay finished with 10. Chase Tapley, who earned his third start, had a career-best nine assists.

Game 15

San Diego State 74
No. 15/14 New Mexico 64
Jan. 5, 2010 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 7,558

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State opened Mountain West Conference play with an impressive 74-64 victory over No. 15-14 New Mexico at Viejas Arena.

The win over the AP's 15th-ranked team represented the fifth-highest ranked squad SDSU has beaten in school history and upped the Aztecs' Division I record to 14-76 against the AP Top 25.

San Diego State also won its 13th straight home game, which tied the fifth-longest streak in school history, and improved to 12-3, matching the program's best start in the last 25 seasons.

Despite the win, the Aztecs suffered a huge loss when Billy White went down with an ankle injury with 5:45 left in the first half. At the time, SDSU was ahead 27-26 and promptly went on a 10-3 run to move ahead by five with 2:03 remaining. The Lobos, however, closed the half by outscoring SDSU, 5-2, including a Roman Martinez three at the buzzer to trim the Aztec lead to 38-36.

In the second half, both teams were engaged in a heated affair, but that all changed with less than 13 minutes to play and SDSU ahead 48-47. The Aztecs slowly took control of the game by going on a 10-3 run to open up a nine-point lead.

UNM got to within six points with 4:12 left in regulation, but Malcolm Thomas fueled a 9-3 spurt with four points to extend the SDSU lead to 70-58 with 1:25 to go as the home team cruised to the win.

Thomas posted his second double-double of the season with a game-high 18 points and season-best 15 rebounds. D.J. Gay, meanwhile, poured in 12 points and finished with a game-high five assists.

Kelvin Davis and Tim Shelton provided a much-needed spark off the bench by scoring nine and eight points, respectively. White had eight points on 4-of-5 shooting before exiting the contest.

Game 16

Wyoming 85
San Diego State 83
 Jan. 9, 2010 ♦ Laramie, Wyo.
 Arena-Auditorium ♦ Att.: 4,826

LARAMIE, Wyo. - San Diego State let a 17-point first-half lead and a 14-point halftime advantage slip away as Wyoming rallied to defeat the Aztecs, 85-83, at Arena-Auditorium.

Kawhi Leonard posted 25 points and 12 rebounds, while Chase Tapley and Malcolm Thomas scored 17 and 14 points, respectively. The contributions of the trio proved to be not enough as SDSU's 19 turnovers, 15 of which came in the second half, doomed the Aztecs in the end.

The first half could not have been scripted any better for San Diego State. The Aztecs found themselves clicking on all cylinders and went on a 12-3 run late in the period to move ahead, 41-24. After 20 minutes of action, SDSU went into the locker room up, 45-31, and shooting 55.9 percent from the field.

At the start of the second half, the Cowboys put a full-court press on the Aztecs and the visitors did not respond well to the pressure. In less than six minutes, SDSU had its lead trimmed to single digits and in less than nine minutes, Wyoming was within three at 56-53.

The Aztecs, however, responded nicely by going up 75-61 with 4:52 to play thanks to Tapley's 11 points during SDSU's 18-8 run.

Wyoming would not go down without a fight and continued to force San Diego State into costly turnovers, which resulted in layups and wide-open three-point looks. In fact, the Cowboys nailed their last six three-pointers, including two in a 10-second span and one by JayDee Luster with six seconds left to put Wyoming up 85-82.

After the Cowboys fouled D.J. Gay, the junior made his first free throw and missed the second intentionally, but the Aztecs could not convert the tip-in to force overtime as Wyoming earned the win.

Game 17

UNLV 76
San Diego State 66
 Jan. 13, 2010 ♦ Las Vegas, Nev.
 Thomas & Mack Center ♦ Att.: 14,530

LAS VEGAS, Nev. - For the second consecutive game, San Diego State coughed up a halftime lead and committed 20 turnovers, all of which led to a 76-66 loss to UNLV at Thomas & Mack Center.

Similar to its performance at Wyoming just a game earlier, the Aztecs played well in the first half and enjoyed an eight-point lead with 1:20 left before halftime. At the break, the teams entered the locker room with SDSU ahead by six, 39-33.

In the second half, UNLV, which applied a full-court press for much of the game, opened the final 20 minutes by going on a 10-4 run to knot the score at 43 barely four minutes in. Following a handful of back-and-forth moments, the Runnin' Rebels went on a 9-0 run to take a 59-50 lead just before the eight-minute media timeout to take control of the contest. Prior to and during UNLV's scoring spree, Tre'Von Willis scored 12 of the Rebels' 15 points, including the eighth and ninth points during their 9-0 spurt.

Despite its scoring drought, SDSU remained within striking distance and cut its deficit to 65-62 with 3:17 left, but UNLV answered with a pair of jumpers to put the game out of reach for the Aztecs.

SDSU was led by Kawhi Leonard's 13 points and 10 rebounds and was joined in double figures by Malcolm Thomas and Tyrone Shelley, who each scored 12 points apiece. Billy White, meanwhile, returned to action and contributed five points and three rebounds after missing the Wyoming game with a high right ankle sprain suffered in the New Mexico game.

For UNLV, Willis led all players with a career-high 23 points, including a 10-for-13 showing at the free-throw line.

Game 18

San Diego State 67
TCU 62
 Jan. 16, 2010 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
 Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 5,871

SAN DIEGO - In a game that got out of control after a series of physical plays, San Diego State rallied from 14 down to beat visiting TCU, 67-62.

The 14-point comeback matched the second-largest come-from-behind victory during Steve Fisher's tenure on Montezuma Mesa and the decision was the Aztecs' 14th consecutive at home.

With 13:49 left in the second half, things got ugly when Chase Tapley stole the ball and kicked it out to a streaking Malcolm Thomas. When the junior went up for a layup, Horned Frog Ronnie Moss fouled Thomas up high and Thomas fell to the floor. Taking exception to the hard foul, Thomas got in Moss' face, which led to a shoving match between both clubs.

With both sides separated, thanks to the help of both head coaches, the officials looked at the video and issued an intentional foul and a technical foul on Moss and a technical on Thomas.

San Diego State trailed 46-41 at this point and Thomas missed both free throws. But after the two misses, the Aztecs retained possession only to have Kelvin Davis knock down a three. TCU responded with a three of its own, but just like the play before, Davis answered with another three to get SDSU within two at 49-47.

Davis' effort spurred a 12-3 run, giving the Aztecs a 56-52 lead with 6:19 to go. Despite the momentum being clearly with the home team, the Horned Frogs tied the game at 56 and got within one with 28 seconds left. San Diego State, however, knocked down their final six free throws to secure the five-point win.

Billy White led the Aztecs with 16 points, while Thomas had 11 points, nine rebounds and a career-high six assists. Davis, meanwhile, scored all 10 of his points in the second half.

Steve Fisher

19th-Full Season • 11th Season at SDSU • Illinois State, 1967

Steve Fisher has guided the Aztec basketball program to unparalleled heights. In 10-plus seasons, he has taken a program that regularly missed out on the conference post-season tournament, to one which has become of the best programs on the West Coast and has the Aztecs knocking on the door of the elite teams in the country.

The best news for SDSU fans is that the school exercised its contract option on Fisher, which keeps the coach on Montezuma Mesa until 2012-13.

When Fisher arrived on the scene in March of 1999, he found a basketball program that wasn't good enough to be called average. The Aztecs had suffered through 13 losing seasons in 14 years. Members of the school's last NCAA team were in the early stages of middle age. The expectations were set. The Aztecs were expected to lose. The year before Fisher's arrival on campus, San Diego State won just four games.

Now those days are a distant memory. Fisher guided San Diego State to the NCAA Tournament in 2002, the postseason NIT in 2003, the 2006 NCAA Tournament and the NIT the last three seasons, including the NIT semifinals in 2009. In addition, the Aztecs have a solid core returning and a nationally ranked recruiting class, that will keep SDSU competitive this season and seasons ahead.

On March 26, 1999, San Diego State announced its arrival on the basketball scene in the form of a news conference to introduce its new coach, Steve Fisher. Fresh from a stint with the Sacramento Kings and with three appearances in the Final Four and a national championship in his pocket, he rolled up his sleeves and went to work. And work was needed. It looked to be a daunting challenge and yet the man with one of the highest winning percentages in NCAA Tournament history had no reservations.

No head-coaching career, at any level, started quicker than that of Steve Fisher. Six games into his head-coaching career he was undefeated and sporting a national championship ring. And the success didn't stop with the national title.

Fisher's eight-plus seasons at Michigan produced a 184-82 (.692) record, nine postseason tournament berths and three trips to the NCAA championship game, including the magical run to the 1989 national title.

Under Fisher, the Wolverines also claimed an NIT championship, won at least 20 games four times and finished among the top three in the powerful Big Ten Conference five times. In 1995, Michigan set a league record by holding opponents to just 39.4 percent shooting from the floor.

Fisher and Co., raised the bar even higher in the postseason. His seven NCAA Tournament teams at Michigan combined for a 20-6 record, ranking him fourth among active coaches and ninth in NCAA history with a winning percentage of .769 in the national bracket. Only 13 coaches have taken more teams to the Final Four, including just five that are still active. He is one of three coaches to take three squads to the Final Four in the first five years of a head-coaching career, and one of just six coaches to lead a team to the championship of the NIT as well as the NCAA.

His accomplishments may be even greater at San Diego State. In 2001-02 he led the Aztecs to the postseason for the first time since 1985 and for just the fourth time ever. The 21 wins were second most for the school as a Division I program and the most since 1985. The fact that those numbers came after just three seasons signifies what is one of the great recent turnarounds in college basketball.

He followed that up with a third consecutive season with a .500 or better record in 2002-03 and led SDSU back to the postseason for the second consecutive season for only the second time in the school's Division I history. In addition, SDSU claimed its first Division I postseason victory with a win in the NIT.

In 2006-07, he led SDSU to the MWC regular season and tournament crowns and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. That team finished with a Division I then-school-record 24 wins. And the last three seasons, Fisher has led the Aztecs to three additional 20-win seasons and postseason appearances, including a school-record 26 wins and an NIT semifinal berth in 2009, and he doesn't look like he is stopping anytime soon.

15 • Kawhi Leonard

Forward • 6-7 • 225 • Freshman • Riverside, Calif. (King High)

Named MWC co-player of the week on Dec. 14 after averaging 18.0 points, 15.0 rebounds and 3.5 assists in wins over Cal State Fullerton and Arizona... Has seven double-doubles this year... Has seven or more rebounds in 15 of 18 games this season... Posted nine double-digit rebound games this season, including 13 vs. Santa Clara (11-19-09), and nine double-figure scoring efforts... Missed the first free throw of his college career and responded by making his next seven attempts (broken at San Diego)... Enjoyed one of his best games as an Aztec with 23 points, a career-high 18 rebounds and five assists in 38 minutes... He became the 23rd player in SDSU history to pull down at least 15 rebounds... His 18 boards were the most by a freshman since Michael Cage had 20 on Feb. 24, 1981, vs. Hawai'i, tied the MWC freshman all-time mark, and ranks second in Viejas Arena history... Followed his CSUF performance with a game-high 13 points and 12 boards vs. Arizona (12-12-09)... Logged a 10-point performance against Northern Arizona (11-28-09), for his first career double-digit scoring game of his career... Scored 13 at UC Santa Barbara (12-5-09), while grabbing a game-high nine rebounds and blocking a career-best two shots... Went for eight points and seven rebounds in 37 minutes at San Diego (12-2-09)... Pulled down a game-high 11 rebounds at Arizona State (12-19-09)... Finished with 14 points, including a career-high six free throws, and a game-high 11 rebounds at Drake (12-22-09)... Contributed 12 points and six rebounds vs. UC Riverside (12-29-09)... Put up 17 points, 12 rebounds and a career-high five assists vs. Pomona-Pitzer (12-31-09)... Battled foul trouble, but still managed to grab eight rebounds and contributed a career-high three steals vs. New Mexico (1-5-10)... Went for a career-high 25 points, on a personal-best 10 field goals, and 12 rebounds at Wyoming (1-9-10)... Posted a double-double of 13 points and 10 rebounds at UNLV (1-13-10)... Blocked a career-high two shots vs. TCU (1-16-10).

Had played in 14 consecutive games and started 13 straight after missing the exhibition games, the season-opening game and much of the opening two weeks of practice with a wrist injury; his consecutive games played and started streak was broken at Wyoming (1-9-10) due to a high right ankle sprain suffered in the New Mexico game... Scored in double figures 10 times this season and had done so a career-best nine consecutive games dating back to 2008-09 until it was broken at San Diego (12-2-09)... Made a career-best 12 straight free-throw attempts (broken at USD)... Had an assist in seven straight games, which was the longest streak of his career until it was broken vs. Arizona (12-12-09)... Has led San Diego State in scoring five times this season after doing so seven times in his first two seasons combined... Had shot 50 percent or better from the floor in eight consecutive games until the streak was broken at Arizona State (12-19-09)... Had eight points and a season-high nine rebounds at San Diego (12-2-09)... Recorded 14 points and a career-high tying four assists vs. Cal State Fullerton (12-9-09)... Finished with seven points and season-high two blocks vs. Arizona (12-12-09)... Pulled down a season-high 10 rebounds at Arizona State (12-19-09)... Went for 16 points, his highest scoring output since Nov. 25, and nine rebounds at Drake (12-22-09)... Posted a game-high 13 points, while grabbing six rebounds vs. UC Riverside (12-29-09)... Hit all five free throws and finished with 13 points vs. Pomona-Pitzer (12-31-09)... Scored eight points and grabbed two rebounds in just nine minutes before leaving the New Mexico game (1-5-10) with a right ankle injury... Returned to the court at UNLV (1-13-10) and finished with five points... Started his first game since his ankle injury vs. New Mexico and put up 16 points, including a career-high six free throws, six rebounds and two assists vs. TCU (1-16-10).

Was the 2009 recipient of the USBWA's Most Courageous Award... Made two three-point field goals en route to 10 points in his return to college basketball against UC San Diego (11-14-09)... Has 10 or more points five times this season and 16 times in his career... Has a three-point field goal in 13 of his 17 games played this season... Has made multiple treys in eight games this season... 22 of his 38 made field goals this season are from behind the arc... Entered the season with six career starts but has already earned the starting nod four times this season... Posted 11 points against Santa Clara (11-19-09) and Northern Arizona (11-28-09)... Finished with seven points after connecting on all three field-goal attempts vs. Arizona (12-12-09)... Finished with four points at Arizona State (12-19-09)... Knocked down a career-high tying five three-pointers en route to a season-best 16 points at Drake (12-22-09)... Established a season-highs with two steals and blocked career-high-tying one shot vs. UC

Riverside (12-29-09)... Had two assists and zero turnovers vs. Pomona-Pitzer (12-31-09)... Came off the bench and knocked down two three-pointers en route to nine points vs. New Mexico (1-5-10)... Contributed five points and two assists at Wyoming (1-9-10)... Knocked down a pair of huge three-pointers in the second half, which spurred SDSU's rally, and finished with 10 points, all in the second half, vs. TCU (1-16-10).
