STARTING FIVE

1. THE GAME: Top-seeded Boise State men's basketball takes on third-seeded San Diego State in the 2022 Air Force Reserve Mountain West Basketball Championship title game in Las Vegas. Saturday's tipoff is scheduled for 3 p.m. PT/4 p.m. MT and will be nationally televised on CBS.

2. ABOUT SAN DIEGO STATE: The Aztecs are playing in their eighth MW tournament title game in the last nine years. San Diego State hangs its hat on one of the top defenses in the nation that holds opponents to just 57.8 points per game.

3. SERIES HISTORY: San Diego State leads the all-time series 17-9. The Broncos won both matchups in the regular season in which the teams combined to average just 97 points per contest. San Diego State and Boise State have met in the MW Tournament four times, with the Aztecs coming out on top in each occasion.

4. NEW TO THE SCENE: Boise State is playing in its first conference tournament championship game as members of the Mountain West. The last time the Broncos played in a conference tournament title game was in 2011 when Boise State was a part of the Western Athletic Conference. Boise State has won five conference tournament championships in the history of the program, the most recent coming in 2008 (WAC).

5. WHAT'S AT STAKE: Boise State is looking to become just the fifth team in MW history to win an outright regular-season conference championship and the MW tournament. San Diego State has done so twice (2006, 2021) and is joined by New Mexico (2013) and Nevada (2017) as the only programs to do so.

A HISTORIC SEASON

ALONE AT THE PEAK: Boise State clinched its first outright regular-season conference title in over three decades with a win over Nevada at ExtraMile Arena (March 1). It is the second outright regular-season championship in program history, joining the 1987-88 squad's Big Sky Conference title. The Broncos have earned at least a share of seven regular-season conference championships, the most recent being in the 2014-15 season. This is the second regular-season title for head coach Leon Rice.

Boise State has now won seven regular-season conference championships across four different leagues.

AWARDS SEASON: Head coach Leon Rice was named the 2021-22 MW Coach of the Year, voted on by the rest of the league coaches. In doing so Rice became the second Bronco head man to win COY multiple times, joining Bobby Dye who won three Big Sky COY awards (1987, 1988, 1993).

Tyson Degenhart was named the MW Freshman of the Year, the first Bronco to win conference freshman of the year since Anthony Thomas in 2007 (WAC). Abu Kigab and Marcus Shaver, Jr. were named All-MW Second Team, while Emmanuel Akot and Degenhart collected honorable mentions. This marked the first time in the history of the MW that a team has won the regular-season conference championship outright without having a player named to the all-conference first team.

RACKING UP THE W's: The Broncos' 26 total victories this season are a program record. The previous record of 25 wins was achieved in both the 2007-08 and 2014-15 seasons. Boise State's 24 wins during the regular season equaled the most in program history (2014-15).

The Broncos won a program-record 15 conference games. The previous mark was 14, accomplished twice under head coach Leon Rice (2014-15, 2020-21). The seven road conference victories also set a program record.

RECORD RUN: Boise State set a program-record win streak with 14-consecutive wins, going undefeated in the months of December and January. The Broncos have had a win streak of 13 games or more in each of the last two seasons. During the run the Broncos outscored opponents by 12.3 points per game. Boise State averaged 69.4 points per game during the streak, shooting 41.9 percent from the floor and 37.3 percent from three-point range, making 7.9 triples per game. Four Broncos averaged double-digit scoring during the run.

LEON RICE | HEAD COACH

- ▶ 2021-22 Mountain West Coach of the Year
- ▶ 2015-16 Preseason National Coach of the Year (ESPN.com)
- ▶ 2014-15 Mountain West Coach of the Year
- ▶ 2014-15 USBWA District VIII COY

MW COACH OF THE YEAR: Leon Rice was named the 2021-22 Mountain West Coach of the Year, in a vote of fellow conference coaches. This is the second conference coach of the year honor for Rice who was also named the best coach in the league during the 2014-15 season. This marks the seventh time a Boise State coach has been named conference coach of the year and Rice is the fourth different Bronco head man to earn the honor. He was also selected coach of the year in a separate vote by MW media members in both instances.

20 WINS IN NINE OF 12 YEARS: Under head coach Leon Rice, Boise State has hit the 20-win plateau in nine of 12 seasons, including eight of the last ten and six-straight years from 2012-18. The aforementioned streak marked the first time in school history the Broncos won 20 games in six-consecutive seasons. Head coach Bobby Dye and guard Chris Childs led the Broncos to at least 20 wins in 1986-87, 1987-88 and 1988-89, the only previous three-year run. The Broncos had just seven 20-win campaigns since joining Division I before Rice took over.

ELITE COMPANY: During college basketball's most recent decade, starting with the 2010-11 campaign and running through the 2019-20 season, Boise State was one of 33 Division I schools (out of 353) to post at least eight seasons with 20 or more wins. Only 17 Division I schools nationwide posted eight 20-win seasons in the last decade with the same coach leading the program, putting Bronco head coach Leon Rice among college basketball royalty:

- Arizona (Sean Miller)
- Baylor (Scott Drew)
- Boise State (Leon Rice)
- Creighton (Greg McDermott)
- Duke (Mike Krzyzewski)
- Florida State (Leonard Hamilton)
- Gonzaga (Mark Few)
- Iona (Tim Cluess)
- Kansas (Bill Self)
- Kentucky (John Calipari)
- Michigan State (Tom Izzo)
- North Carolina (Roy Williams)
- Oregon (Dana Altman)
- Saint Mary's (Randy Bennett)
- Villanova (Jay Wright)
- Virginia (Tony Bennett)
- Wichita State (Gregg Marshall)

ALONE AT THE TOP: Leon Rice became the all-time wins leader at Boise State, with his 214th career victory Feb. 13, 2021, against UNLV. Rice passed Bobby Dye (213 wins; 1984-95) on the same day he tied Dye's mark for most games coached for the Broncos.

DISTRICT HONOR: The United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) named Leon Rice the 2014-15 District VIII Coach of the Year. District VIII encompasses all Division I schools in Wyoming, Utah, Idaho, New Mexico, Colorado, Nevada and Montana. Rice is the first Boise State head coach to earn the distinction from the USBWA.

Greg Graham earned the NABC District 13 Coach of the Year Award in 2007-08. NABC districts are determined by conference.

CLIMBING THE MOUNTAIN: Leon Rice ranks No. 2 all-time among head coaches in Mountain West history for total wins and conference wins. Rice trails only former San Diego State coach Steve Fisher in both categories.

All-Time Wins (while MW members)

1. Steve Fisher, 386
2. Leon Rice, 221
3. Steve Alford, 202

All-Time Conference Wins (while MW members)

1. Steve Fisher, 168
2. Leon Rice, 118
3. Steve Alford, 96

CHALLENGE ACCEPTED: Boise State has played 37 games against top-25 opponents since Leon Rice took over as head coach. Prior to Rice's arrival, the Broncos played 30 ranked teams in the first 42 years of the program's history as a four-year institution.

BRONCO 3-POINT BARRAGE: With Leon Rice at the helm, Boise State has become one of the top three-point shooting teams in the country in both volume and percentage. The 2017-18 Broncos made a school-record 307 triples, shooting at a 38.4 percent clip. Boise State has made at least 220 three-pointers in each of Rice's 12 seasons, claiming nine of the top 10 single-season marks in school history.

DEFENDING THE THREE: Boise State held opponents to 29.9 percent shooting from three-point range in 2019-20, the best three-point field goal percentage defense in program history. The 29.9 percent mark ranked third in the Mountain West and 28th in Division I.

GETTING DEFENSIVE: Boise State held a school-record nine opponents to fewer than 50 points in 2014-15, including five in its last 11 games. The Broncos limited a school-record six conference foes to fewer than 50 points, including twice doing so to consecutive opponents. The last time the Broncos held consecutive conference opponents in the 40s was 1999. Boise State has held an opponent under 50 points 23 times in the Leon Rice era. The Broncos are 21-2 overall in those games.

COACH RICE AT HOME: With a 147-34 record (.812 winning percentage) in the friendly confines of ExtraMile Arena, Rice has the best home winning percentage for a Bronco head coach in the school's Division I era.

They Said It...

"A lot of that (Chandler Hutchison's ability) comes from playing in a system in college for a coach that I'm as high on as anybody. I love what Leon does."
-Fred Hoiberg
Nebraska Head Coach

"Coach Rice has a great feel for players, and the fine line between technique and playing with a free mind. Players really respond well to Leon, and that is not an accident. I think that Boise State has a terrific coach in Leon Rice."
-Jay Bilas
ESPN Analyst

"Coach Rice is a great coach. I see how he is with the team and he knows how to get the most out of everyone."

His 53 made triples this season are more than he had in his first three seasons combined (44).

ALONE AT THE PEAK: Boise State clinched its first outright-regular-season conference championships in over three decades with a win over Nevada (March 1). The last time the Broncos won an outright conference title was during the 1987-88 season when Boise State was a member of the Big Sky Conference.

ADVANTAGE ON THE BOARDS: Boise State leads the Mountain West in defensive rebound percentage (.788) and offensive rebound percentage (.306). The Broncos are also top of the league in rebound margin (plus-5.2) and offensive rebounds per game (10.21). Mladen Armus is tied for 23rd in the nation for offensive rebounds per game, averaging 3.18. On Jan. 15, Boise State outrebounded New Mexico 52-28, including 25 offensive rebounds. It is the most offensive rebounds by a Boise State team since 2010.

CALLING CARD: Boise State head coach Leon Rice claimed before the season that the 2021-22 Broncos had a chance to be the best defensive team in his 12 years as head coach. Through 33 games, they have made good on that prediction. Boise State is holding opponents to 61.0 points per game. The Broncos have held 27 opponents to fewer than 70 points, 15 under 60 and three under 50.

KEEP IT CLOSE: Boise State is one of three teams in the country without a double-digit loss this season (Auburn, UAB).

RACKING UP THE W's: The Broncos' 26 total victories this season is a program record. The previous record of 25 was achieved in both the 2007-08 and 2014-15 seasons. Boise State's 24 wins during the regular season equaled the most in program history (2014-15). The Broncos won a program-record 15 games during the conference regular season. The previous mark was 14, accomplished twice under head coach Leon Rice (2014-15, 2020-21). The seven road conference victories also set a school record.

SUB-60: Boise State's defensive effort picked up where it left off last season. The Broncos have allowed fewer than 70 points 27 times this season and held 15 opponents under 60 points. The 15 opponents held to fewer than 60 points is the most in a single season under Leon Rice. Boise State is 87-11 under Rice when holding opponents under 60 points, including 13-2 this season.

FEARLESS FROSH: Tyson Degenhart led the Broncos with 21 points at CSUN (Dec. 7), becoming the 12th Boise State freshman to record a 20-point game and the first since Justinian Jessup (Nov. 25, 2016). Degenhart is the fourth Bronco freshman under Leon Rice to score 20 points in a game, joining Anthony Drimic, Derrick Marks and Jessup. Degenhart went off again for 23 points against San Jose State (Feb. 5), joining Drimic and Marks as the only Bronco freshmen with multiple 20-point games under Rice. Degenhart has started the last 27 games for Boise State and has scored in double figures 16 times. As a starter, he is averaging 11.6 points per game on 51.1 percent field goal shooting, 42.4 percent from beyond the arc and 79.4 percent from the free throw line.

RECORD RUN: Boise State set a program-record 14-game win streak, going undefeated in the months of December and January. The Broncos have had a win streak of 13 games or more in each of the last two seasons. During the run the Broncos outscored opponents by 12.3 points per game. Boise State averaged 69.4 points per game during the streak, shooting 41.9 percent from the floor and 37.3 percent from three-point range, making 7.9 triples per game. Four Broncos averaged double-digit scoring during the run.

60 IS THE LIMIT: Boise State held seven consecutive opponents to no more than 60 points. (Dec. 3 through Dec. 28) It marked the fourth time in program history Boise State has held seven consecutive opponents to 60 points or fewer, and the first time since the 1988-89 season. The school record is eight, set during the 1986-87 season. During this year's streak, opponents shot 37.5 percent from the field and 27.6 percent from three-point range.

BIG SHOT SHAVE: Marcus Shaver, Jr. has come up clutch multiple times for Boise State this season. The guard has made a 3-pointer in the final 30 seconds of four separate games that either tied the score or gave Boise State the lead. He hit his first game-winner against Utah State (Jan. 20) with 1.4 seconds left before doing it again just days later, hitting the go-ahead shot with 30 seconds left against San Diego State (Jan. 22). The next week he drilled one from deep with a second left to force overtime against Fresno State (Jan. 28). Most recently he nailed a step-back from the top of the arc with 8.3 seconds on the clock to force overtime against Colorado State (Feb. 13).

ROAD WARRIORS: The Broncos won seven conference road games this season, setting the school record. Six of the wins came in some of the toughest venues in the league - at Air Force, at Fresno State, at Nevada, at New Mexico, at Utah State and at San Diego State. It is the first time Boise State has won at all six venues in the same season. Entering the year, the Broncos had not won at Nevada or San Diego State since the 2015-16 season, had not won at Utah State since the 2016-17 season and had not won at New Mexico or Air Force since the 2017-18 campaign.

ON THE ROAD: Boise State has won 42 Mountain West road games since joining the league prior to the 2011-12 season, the second most in the league over that span. Since the conference reached its current membership in 2013-14, the Broncos are one of three teams to win at least three Mountain West road games every year, alongside Fresno State and San Diego State.

AT THE PEAK: Boise State has won at least 11 Mountain West games in seven of the last eight seasons. In the 11 years Boise State has been a member of the MW, only the Broncos and San Diego State have seven seasons with at least 11 conference wins. Boise State has won at least 12 conference games in five of the last eight seasons, the most 12-win campaigns during that span of any MW school.

MAKING MILESTONES: Marcus Shaver, Jr. (27 points) and Abu Kigab (23 points) combined for 50 points in a road win for the Broncos at UNLV (Feb. 26). During the game, Shaver eclipsed 1,500 career points, while Kigab eclipsed the 1,000 mark. The two transfers have combined for over 1,700 points in their time together at Boise State, the most of any active Bronco duo across the last two seasons.

ALL-TIME LEADER: Boise State men's basketball head coach Leon Rice became the program's all-time leader in career wins with his 214th career victory Feb. 13, 2021, against UNLV. Rice passed Bobby Dye for the most wins the same day he tied Dye for most games coached in program history.

ELITE BALL MOVERS: Boise State is 14-3 this season when tallying at least 12 assists. The Broncos dished out a season-high 25 assists in their 82-62 win against Temple. They racked up 20 in a 74-48 win at CSUN. In Leon Rice's 12 seasons as head coach, Boise State has had 20 assists in a game 19 times. The Broncos are 18-1 in such games, winning the last 18. In Rice's tenure, the Broncos have had three 20-assist games in the same season once (2012-13).

@BRONCOSPORTSMBB NOTES

MLADEN ARMUS

BIG GAME: Mladen Armus set career highs of 22 points and 19 rebounds at Utah State (Jan. 20). Armus became the first Bronco to tally at least 20 points and 19 rebounds in a game since 2005. The performance included 10 offensive rebounds, matching his career best.

NOT IN HERE: Mladen Armus leads Boise State with 30 blocked shots this season, exceeding his total from last year (20). Armus is the first Bronco to block at least 20 shots in consecutive seasons since James Webb III (2014-15 and 2015-16).

LITTLE BIT OF EVERYTHING: Mladen Armus led Boise State in rebounds (10), blocks (4) and assists (3) against Saint Louis. Armus is one of 20 players nationwide to register at least 10 rebounds, four blocks and three assists against a Division I opponent this season. He did it in just 24 minutes of action, the fewest minutes of any of the 20 to achieve the stat line.

BEAST ON THE BOARDS: Mladen Armus has led Boise State in rebounding 35 times in his 60 career games as a Bronco. Armus averaged 7.8 rebounds per game last season, grabbing double-figure boards seven times. He again is averaging 7.8 rebounds per game this season and has nine double-digit rebounding games this year.

COMING INTO HIS OWN: Mladen Armus led Boise State in scoring twice last season - both instances came in the final two games of the year in the NIT. Armus averaged 15.0 points and 8.5 rebounds per game in the tournament, including an 18-point, 10-rebound double-double in the Broncos' win over SMU in the first round.

SECOND CHANCES: Mladen Armus led the Mountain West and ranked 33rd nationally with 3.2 offensive rebounds per game last season. Armus became the third Bronco in the last 30 years to average more than 3.0 offensive rebounds per game, trailing only Ryan Watkins (2013-14; 5.0 org) in that span. Armus is currently averaging 3.18 offensive rebounds per game this season, tied for 23rd in the country.

MAX RICE

GETTING HOT: After shooting 1-for-24 from 3-point range to start the year, Max Rice is 22-for-62 (35.6 percent) from deep over the Broncos' last 15 games. Rice has made three-or-more 3-pointers in four games this season.

SIXTH MAN: Max Rice has appeared in all 33 games for Boise State this season, averaging 21.6 minutes per game. Rice has been the first Bronco off of the bench a team-leading 18 times this season.

BIG NIGHT: Max Rice scored a career-high 22 points on 9-of-13 shooting against New Mexico (Dec. 23, 2020). It was the first 20-point game of his career, and marked the most points scored by a Boise State player who hails from Idaho since Matt Bauscher scored 23, March 14, 2008, against Utah State in the WAC Tournament semifinal.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE: Max Rice recorded the first double-double of his career against the College of Idaho (Dec. 4, 2020), with career highs of 16 points and 12 rebounds. Rice's performance helped the Broncos to an 86-49 win, the 200th career victory for Max's father, Boise State head coach Leon Rice.

NAJE SMITH

SPARK OFF THE BENCH: Naje Smith tallied five points, three steals and a block in his first six minutes off the bench against San Diego State (Feb. 22). Smith ranks second on the team in blocks (21) and ranks fourth in steals (23) while playing 16.3 minutes per game.

LEVELING UP: Naje Smith has scored in double figures six times this season after totaling 16 points during the 2020-21 campaign. This season Smith is averaging 4.9 points per game on 50.0 percent shooting.

TURNING IT UP A NOTCH: Naje Smith scored at least seven points in each of Boise State's first three Mountain West games and averaged 4.7 points per game in conference play on 46.3 percent shooting. He averaged 5.2 points per game through 13 nonconference games. Smith has scored in double figures six times this season.

BLOCK PARTY: Naje Smith blocked three shots against CSUN (Dec. 7) and Washington State (Dec. 22). Smith joins Mladen Armus as the only Broncos to block three-or-more shots twice this season.

EXTRAMILE ARENA

THE LAST TIME

EARNING A BID: Boise State finished last season 19-9, with an appearance in the National Invitation Tournament, advancing to the quarterfinal of the NIT for the first time in program history. Boise State has now qualified for 16 national postseason tournaments in the program's 53-year history as a four-year institution. Six of those appearances have come in head coach Leon Rice's 11 seasons, including two trips to the NCAA Tournament and three NIT berths. Rice led the Broncos to the 2013 and 2015 NCAA Tournaments by earning the only two at-large bids in school history.

RAN IT TO 13: Boise State won a then-school-record 13 consecutive games from Nov. 29-Jan. 20. The Broncos had posted 10 consecutive wins twice before, setting the mark in 1987-88 and matching it in 2015-16. The 13-1 start matched Boise State's best record through 14 games, tying the 1987-88 squad which started 16-1 before losing for the second time. Last season marked the third time in program history the Broncos have reached double-digit wins before suffering their second loss (1987-88 and 2017-18).

RIM PROTECTORS: Abu Kigab blocked five shots in the series opener at Wyoming (Jan. 11). The mark was not only a career high, but the most by a Bronco during the Leon Rice era. Mladen Armus matched the effort against Fresno State (March 2). Five blocks are the most in a single game by a Bronco since Ike Okoye blocked six Nov. 24, 2009, against Eastern Washington. Kigab blocked four more shots at Colorado State (Jan. 29), joining Ryan Watkins as the only Broncos under Leon Rice with multiple four-block games in their careers. Mladen Armus joined the group this season.

BLOCK PARTY: Boise State combined for 80 blocked shots as a team last year, the most by a Bronco team since 2010-11. Abu Kigab (22) and Mladen Armus (20) led the way, becoming the first pair of Broncos to block at least 20 shots in the same season during Leon Rice's 11 years as head coach.

SHOOT AT YOUR OWN RISK: Boise State limited opponents to 43.1 percent shooting from the field, including 33.0 percent from three-point range. The Broncos held 11 opponents to less than 40 percent shooting, tied for the second most in a season under Leon Rice. They held 12 opponents under 40 percent in 2014-15 and 11 in 2017-18. Through 14 games this year, the Broncos have held six opponents to less than 40 percent from the floor.

WINNING BIG: Boise State won six league games by at least 20 points, setting the single-season school record. The Broncos won each of their first three Mountain West games by at least 24 points, including consecutive wins by 37 and 52. It is the first time in program history the Broncos have won three consecutive conference games by at least 24 points and the first time they have won back-to-back league games by at least 30 points.

SECOND CHANCES: Boise State grabbed 15 offensive rebounds in the series opener at Wyoming (Jan. 11), including a career-best eight from Mladen Armus, leading to 16 second-chance points. The Broncos took 12 more field goal attempts than the Cowboys. Armus' eight offensive rebounds are the most by a Bronco since Ryan Watkins had 11 at New Mexico, Jan. 21, 2014.

TAKING THE FREE ONES: Boise State was 25-for-25 from the free throw line in the first game against San Jose State (Dec. 31). It is the second-most makes without a miss in program and Mountain West history. The Broncos were 26-for-26 from the stripe Jan. 23, 2013, against Fresno State. Boise State is the only school in the country to shoot 100 percent from the free throw line on at least 25 attempts twice in the last decade.

HOME-COURT ADVANTAGE: Boise State was 11-1 at ExtraMile Arena last season, including a 9-1 mark in Mountain West play. The Broncos have won double-digit home games in 11 of Leon Rice's 12 seasons as head coach and 31 of the 40 seasons the venue has served as Boise State's home facility.

HISTORY: Boise State's ExtraMile Arena has been the home of Bronco basketball since 1982. Formerly known as the BSU Pavilion, Taco Bell Arena has provided Boise State fans with plenty of thrills for more than 30 years — from the exciting Big Sky Conference championship days of Chris Childs and Arnell Jones in the late 1980s to Derrick Marks and James Webb III clinching the 2015 Mountain West title under head coach Leon Rice.

NEVER A LOSING RECORD: Boise State has never had a losing home record since the arena's opening in 1982. The 12,480-seat facility has been a home-court advantage for the Broncos throughout the years.

NCAA TOURNAMENT SITE: ExtraMile Arena was slated to play host to the first and second rounds of the 2021 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Tournament, before the tournament was moved to a single site. It would have marked the 10th time the arena has been home to the tournament.

FACIAL COVERINGS: Facial coverings are required on campus, with the exception of when guests are actively consuming food and beverage. Facial coverings will be provided upon entry to ExtraMile Arena if guests do not have one.

DIGITAL TICKETING: All ticketing for Boise State Athletics events at ExtraMile Arena will utilize digital ticketing, beginning this season. Be sure to save your tickets to a wallet app before arriving to ExtraMile Arena, and have them readily available before reaching ticket scanners.
