VS. COLORADO STATE VS. SAN DIEGO STATE......14-20-1 Mike Bobo vs. San Diego State 1-1 Rocky Long vs. CSU......7-7

in Fort Collins 5-10

NOTING THE RAMS

- · Colorado State University is celebrating it's 150th anniversary, it's sesquicentennial celebration, this year. As part of that celebration, the team will wear a white helmet which features the current Rams-head logo on the side, a 150th celebration sticker on the back and an EDGE sticker on the front during the 2019 Homecoming game vs. San Diego State.
- The Rams enter year five under head coach Mike Bobo, a former quarterback and offensive coordinator at Georgia. Bobo became the 22nd head coach in program history when he ws hired on Dec. 23, 2014.
- Bobo became the first CSU coach to win seven regular season games in his first season as the program's head coach as well as the first to lead CSU to a bowl game in each of his first three seasons.
- The Rams continued a trend of playing talent, regardless of class, under Mike Bobo in the season opener vs. Colorado. Five true freshmen appeared in the game including two as starters, WR Dante Wright and OL Nouredin Nouili. The pair became the 15th and 16th true freshmen to start in a game under Bobo's leadership (since 2015). More on Page 11
- After returning from a pair of ACL tears that hampered him in the 2016 season and before spring 2018, quarterback Collin Hill was off to a blazing fast start in 2019. However, Hill suffered a third ACL tear in his left knee when he was hit low at Arkansas.
- In his place, guarterback Patrick O'Brien started his first career game against Toledo. The offense didn't miss a beat as they tallied a school-record 694 yards including 405 passing yards, against Toledo.
- The Rams return two starters on the offensive line, Jeff Taylor and Barry Wesley, accounting for 25 starts in their career heading into the 2019 campaign. Wesley, who came to the program as a walk-on, started all 12 games as a redshirt freshman and played all five positions. Offensive Line Starts by Position on Page 18
- True freshman Nouredin Nouili became CSU's first true freshman to start on the offensive line in a season opener in at least the last 30 years. More on Page 12

NOTING THE GAME

- CSU opens the home portion of their Mountain West schedule vs. San Diego State. The game has been designated as the annual Homecoming contest.
- There have been 95 Homecoming games played since 1922; the 2019 game will be the 96th contest. CSU has a 49-44-1 (.526) record on homecoming day with a lone tie in 1951 against Utah State.
- The Rams have hosted San Diego State six times for Homecoming and carry a 4-2 record in those games into Saturday's matchup. CSU has won five straight Homecoming games dating back to 2014, the longest streak since winning five straight between 1996-2000.
- Over the most recent five-game run, Homecoming games have been close affairs. All but one (Air Force, 2015; 38-23) have been decided by one score and the previous two (Nevada, 2017; New Mexico 2018) were just two-point victories. The game will feature head coaches calling opposing sides of the football, a rare occurence in college football. Mike Bobo calls CSU's offense and Rocky Long calls SDSU's defense.
 - NUMBERS TO WATCH

With 3 true freshmen starters (Wright, Nouli, Camper), CSU is starting more true freshmen than all but one team in the Mountain West (Fresno State).

CSU's game at Utah was the first time CSU has had two defensive linemen register double-digit tackles since at least 2000.

At 47.2 yards per punt, CSU's Ryan Stonehouse is the NCAA's active career leader in punting average.

Media INFORMATION

WORKING CREDENTIALS: To request credentials, contact the Communications office. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working press only. Working space in the Canvas Stadium press box is limited and a photo work room is available on the ground level for credentialed photographers.

MEDIA WILL-CALL: If not received by mail, credentials may be picked up at the Staff/ Media Entrance inside Canvas Stadium. Please be mindful that parking passes cannot be picked up at will-call and must be received prior to gameday.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Credentials for photographers will be issued on the basis of circulation, with priority granted to agencies covering the participating schools on a regular basis. Per NCAA rules, images or likeness of current student-athletes may not be sold, distributed or used for commercial purposes.

SIDELINE ACCESS: Excluding select portions of the game, media sideline access is reserved for photographers/videographers. Credentialed photographers/videographers who arrive on the sideline without proper equipment will be removed from the sideline. Credentials must be worn at all times on the sideline. When on the sideline, media must remain outside the bench area. This includes during pre-game activities.

RECRUITS: Per NCAA rule, media are not permitted to have contact with a prospect or family members of a prospect during their visit (official or unofficial) to campus, including prospects in attendance at practice or games. Contact includes in-person conversations, phone calls, text messages, e-mails, etc. Media are also asked to make every effort to keep distance from prospects on campus, including at practice, during pre-game activities on the sidelines and in the stands.

GAMEDAY SERVICES: Members of the media covering CSU will be provided with pregame notes for both teams, a game program and a flipcard. Approximately 30 minutes following the completion of the game, a final statistical book, including complete team and individual stats, running play-by-play and postgame quotes from players and coaches, will be available.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS: For home games, head coach Mike Bobo and select studentathletes will hold a postgame news conference with the media in the press conference room on the field level of Canvas Stadium. Media members covering the press conference can take the press box elevator down to the Field Level (FL) and proceed to the room straight ahead.

PRACTICES: CSU football practices are open to media Tuesday and Wednesday for periods 1 through 4. Video is permitted for individual drills only during the open periods, although media may be alerted of other portions that are not available for video. Requests for players and assistants should be made by 11 a.m. on the day of practice.

1-4 // FIFTH YEAR

25-31 Overall/Fifth Year

Mike Bobo is in his fifth season as head coach at Colorado State in 2019, having been appointed by CSU President Dr. Tony Frank on Dec. 23, 2014, as the 22nd head coach in program history. In his four seasons at the helm Bobo has guided the Rams to three bowl appearances and led some of the most prolific offenses in Colorado State history. His teams have re-written the school's record books and produced a number of NFL talents, including 2018 Dallas Cowboys third-round draft choice Michael Gallup.

The former Georgia Bulldog came to Fort Collins from his alma mater, where he had been a recordbreaking starting quarterback and spent 16 seasons coaching, including the last eight (2007-14) as offensive coordinator.

Bobo is the only head coach in Colorado State history to lead his teams to bowl games in each of his first three seasons, and joins Sonny Lubick as the only two to coach the Rams in multiple bowl games in their careers. The Rams' offense has been explosive throughout Bobo's time as head coach, with his teams ranking in the Top 10 in school history for yards-per-game in each season, including the school record of 492.5 in 2017.

Bobo's Rams have posted three of the top seven scoring seasons in CSU history and four of the top six figures for passing touchdowns in a season. In 2018 the Rams' 26 touchdowns passes--from two different guarterbacks--ranked fourth in the record books, and CSU ranked 13th among all FBS programs in passing offense (304.9). Despite scoring offense being down and the running game dropping off after the departures of seniors on the offensive line and at running back, Bobo's Rams still managed the 10th-best offensive season in CSU history in 2018, averaging 410.5 yards per game.

Wide receiver Preston Williams and punter Ryan Stonehouse earned second-team All-America honors from Sporting News in 2018.

The 2017 Rams finished the season with a 7-6 record and ranked 11th in all of FBS in total offense (492.5). CSU also ranked second in third-down conversions (50.3%) and eighth in first downs (25.1), also both school records.

Five Rams earned All-Mountain West honors in 2017, including first-team selections Jake Bennett (C), Michael Gallup (WR), Zack Golditch (T) and Nick Stevens (QB), and second-team selection Dalyn Dawkins (RB). Gallup was a consensus All-American (just the fourth in CSU history) and was a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award.

In 2016, Bobo became the first head coach in CSU history to lead the Rams to a bowl game in each of his first two seasons.

In 2015 Bobo became the only head coach in program history to win seven regular season games in his first season at the helm. Bobo's Rams won four games in a row, and five out of six, to close the 2015 regular season, securing CSU's third consecutive bowl invitation en route to a 7-6 record. CSU's four wins in the season's final month marked the first undefeated November by a Rams team since 1948, and included three road wins--at Wyoming in his first "Border War," at New Mexico and at Fresno State

Five Rams earned All-MW in 2015, including Hunt, who was one of three finalists for the Ray Guy Award. CSU ranked fourth in the FBS in net punting average (42.0) and 17th in kickoff return average (25.1). Bobo's Rams were one of only two FBS schools to have three running backs each record at least one game with 140 or more rushing yards (Dawkins, Izzy Matthews and Jasen Oden, Jr.) and quarterback Stevens set passing records for a CSU sophomore with 2.679 vards through the air and 21 touchdowns (fifth-most in school history).

Bobo's 14-year stint at Georgia, where he had starred at quarterback in the late 1990s, began in January 2001 when head coach Mark Richt hired him as quarterbacks coach, for his second stint with the school. He was promoted by Richt to offensive coordinator in 2007. During his time at UGA. Bobo helped lead the Bulldogs to 135 victories, including two Southeastern Conference championships, five SEC Eastern Division titles and eight bowl victories. The 2012 Broyles Award finalist held the offensive coordinator spot for 92 games with the Bulldogs, scoring 30-plus points 57 times, 40-plus points 29 times and more than 50 points 13 times.

In 2014 Bobo led a Bulldogs offense that averaged 41.3 points per game, which ranked eighth nationally, and racked up 457.8 yards of total offense per game. Against teams ranked in the Top 25, UGA compiled a 3-2 record while scoring 34.4 points per game. The 537 points scored in 2014 established a Georgia singleseason record. The previous singleseason record was set in 2012 while Bobo was offensive coordinator.

Bobo guided several talented quarterbacks at Georgia, including Aaron Murray, who played from 2010-13. Murray, who was chosen in the fifth round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs, set more than 25 UGA records and four SEC marks. He became the first player in SEC history to have at least 3,000 passing yards in four consecutive seasons. The NFL's No. 1 draft choice in 2009, Matthew Stafford, also blossomed under Bobo's tutelage. The Detroit Lions' starting quarterback was second-team All-SEC and earned All-America recognition in 2008 for

In Bobo's time at Georgia he also mentored quarterback David Greene (2001-04), who was the winningest quarterback in NCAA Division I history at the time (42), wide receiver A.J. Green, running back Todd Gurley and many others. In all, Bobo helped mold four firstround NFL draft choices at Georgia: Stafford (No. 1 in 2009), running back Knowshon Moreno (No. 12 in 2009), Green (No. 4 in 2011) and Gurley (No. 10 in 2015).

Georgia and was MVP of the 2009

Capital One Bowl.

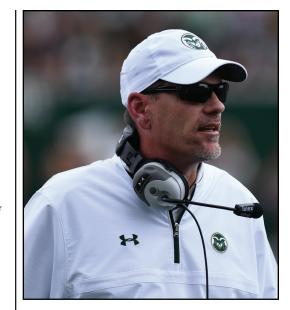

Prior to joining Richt's staff at Georgia, Bobo served one year as an assistant coach at Jacksonville State, after working as an administrative assistant and graduate assistant from 1998-99 at UGA.

Bobo was a quarterback for the Bulldogs from 1994-97, earning four letters, and led the team in passing in 1996 and '97. Among all UGA guarterbacks, Bobo ranks first in single-season completion percentage (65% in '97), singleseason passing efficiency rating (155.8 in '97), second in career touchdown passes (38) and third in career pass completions (445), season passing yards (2,751 in '97), career passing yards (6,334) and single-season touchdown passes (19). In his career Bobo threw for 6.334 vards, which is third-most alltime by a Georgia quarterback.

Bobo, a native of Thomasville, Ga., was inducted into the Thomasville-Thomas County Sports Hall of Fame on Nov. 10, 2016. He joined his father, George, a longtime successful high school coach in Georgia, who was inducted in 2013.

Bobo and his wife, Lainie, have five children, a son Drew (14); triplets Olivia, Jake and Ava Grace (12); and Kate (11).

This Week in COLORADO STATE FOOTBALL HISTORY

100 Years Ago! Aggies Beat Wyoming Second Week in a Row to Kick off 1919 Season

by John Hirn, Volunteer CSU Historian

October 4, 1919 – The Aggies and the Cowboys had to make up for a game that was never played in 1918, so with WWI behind them, the two schools faced off in back-to-back weeks. It would be the only time in school history the Aggies or the Rams would ever face the same team in two consecutive weeks, and after a 28-0 shutout of the Cowboys in Laramie on Sept. 27, the Cowboys came to Colorado Field to take their punishment once again.

Game two against Wyoming was truly not much to behold, but the 1919 team certainly was something special. With all-time great players like William Nye, Harry Scott, Duane Hartshorn, John Ratekin, Arthur Sheeley and the immortal Charles Bresnahan, coach Harry Hughes knew he had a championship team in the making despite never saying it himself.

Hughes was not only a pessimistic coach, but he could be cagey and knowing other schools were scouting his team, he decided to put all of his second-string players into the second version of the 1919 Wyoming tilt. While the top stars rode the bench, the Aggies and Cowboys played to a scoreless tie until the fourth quarter.

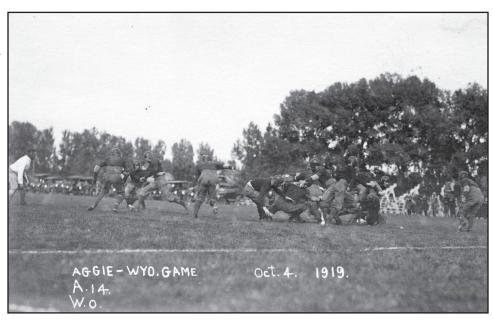

In the opening moments of the fourth, Hughes then inserted his first-team players and the fireworks exploded on Colorado Field. Nye, a senior, immediately scored the game's first touchdown as Ratekin kicked the extra point for a 7-0 lead.

The Cowboys tried to fool Hughes' men by shifting up their lines, but that only slowed them down until later in the quarter. Scott threw a 30-yard pass to Bresnahan, who crossed over the goal for the Aggies' second touchdown. After the extra point, the Aggies led 14-0 and again were driving. Hughes decided to practice the Million Dollar Play and that opened up a 30-yard run by Bresnahan to the Cowboys 3. Before the Aggies could punch it in for their third touchdown, the game ended with a 14-0 final.

The 1919 team, which had a bear cub as a mascot and an incredibly potent offense, would go on to win the next five games, including a 49-7 drubbing of CU and racking up 218 offensive points in seven games to their opponents' 44 points. The Aggies took home the conference title before the season ended for Hughes' third conference championship in five seasons. Considering they only won one game while their men were off to fight in WWI, the Aggies had begun to build a dynasty of college football in the Rocky Mountain Region.

The last game of the 1919 season would be a 13-0 loss at Washburn Field in Colorado Springs. Under the strangest of circumstances, the Aggies' train was slowed in a blizzard and they did not arrive at the Colorado College campus until kickoff time. Hughes and his RMAC Champions ran from the train to the field to play without warming up and let go of their chance for an undefeated season.

Although it has been 100 years since the 1919 team tore up the field, this team has gone down in the history of CSU football as one of the finest to play the game in Fort Collins.

THE EDGE PROGRAM

EDGE is the program head coach Mike Bobo wants to serve as the foundation for the Colorado State football team.

It stands for Effort, Discipline, Gratitude and Excuse-Free. It was put into place at the beginning of the off-season program with the intent of holding players and staff accountable for every aspect of their lives. How it works:

Captains were chosen to lead 10 accountability teams:

DE Emmanuel Jones
S Josh Griffin
K Joe DeLine
FB Adam Prentice
OL Barry Wesley

They are graded in performance, on and off the field, including the classroom, meetings and all team functions. Points can be added or deducted through player's actions. The discipline for being late to a meeting on the first or second offense is the entire team does 25 up-downs, the accountability team they are on does 50 up-downs and the individual does 100 up downs. The discipline increases for continued misses.

If a player loses focus, does a drill incorrectly or does not act appropriately, three up-downs are done by the team on the coach's command.

Awards are givein up weekly for academics, performance, in-season and each semester. The accountability team with the lowest total will have a task assigned by the coach, such as helping do team laundry. Winning teams have been awarded meals with Bobo or other activities.

TRUE FRESHMEN IN STARTING ROLES

Under head coach Mike Bobo, talented players see the field regardless of their classification. Two true freshman started the 2019 opener on offense (Dante Wright; Nouredin Nouili), marking the 15th and 16th times true freshmen have started under Mike Bobo.

CALL HIM MR. GRIFFIN

CSU's Joshua Griffin has bounced between running back and safety in fall camp while also leading one of the 10 EDGE accountability groups. Griffin is uniquely qualified for the role after serving in the special forces for most of his adult life.

Born in October 1986, Griffin is the oldest player in the FBS this season.

BOBO GUIDING OFFENSE TO NEW HEIGHTS

CSU's offense has flourished during head coach Mike Bobo's four seasons in Fort Collins. In each of his first three seasons, the Rams posted numbers that ranked in the top 10 in most total yards, yards per game, yards per play, first downs, rushing yards, passing yards, total points and points per game. In his four years, Bobo's offenses have produced 3 of the top 4 seasons for passing TDs and 4 of the top 6, and have recorded 4 of the top 10 seasons for offensive yards per game.

THE WRIGHT STUFF

True freshman receiver Dante Wright burst onto the college football scene with his play in the Rocky Mountain Showdown vs. Colorado.

Wright was one of just 8 players to tally both a receiving and rushing touchdown in the same game through Week 0 and Week 1 and of those 8, only two were freshmen (Temple's Re'mahn Davis). He became the first true freshman to score twice in a game for the Rams since Warren Jackson did against Alabama in 2017, and the first to score in a season opener since Joe Hansley in 2012.

Through five weeks, only Wright and Wisconsin's Jonathan Taylor have multiple games scoring a rushing and receiving touchdown. He was also the first Ram since Gartrell Johnson to score a rushing and receiving touchdown in consecutive games.

Wright leads the nation's freshmen in receiving yards (No. 23 overall) and receptions (No. 37 overall) and ranks 3rd among freshmen in touchdowns.

NOUILI MAKES HISTORY

True freshman Nouredin Nouili started the 2019 season opener at left guard, becoming the first true freshman OL to start for CSU in the opener in at least the last 30 years and first true freshman OL to start at any point since Blaine Saipaia did in week 4 in 1996 (UNLV).

Nouili was also one of only 8 true freshmen to start in all of the FBS in his season opener as well as the only one from a group of 5 school.

COLORADO STATE FOOTBALL -- A FAMILY AFFAIR

While teams across the country talk about their locker rooms being all about family, at Colorado State, the Rams are walking that walk as well.

CSU features three sets of brothers on the team along with a father-son duo in the defensive coaching room in defensive coordinator John Jancek and his son, former Tennessee quarterback Zac Jancek.

Brothers on Colorado State's Roster: OL Joctavis Phillip and DL Devin Phillips

TE Trey McBride and DL Toby McBride

FB Isiah Pannunzio and WR Thomas Pannunzio

NOTE Expanded

TEAMS WITH 3 OR MORE SETS OF BROTHERS The Rams are one of just 13 teams in the country to have three or more sets of brothers on the team.

The others are:

- 5 Clemson, Nebraska, Michigan State
- 4 Georgia Tech
- 3 Ohio, Temple, NC State, Iowa State, BYU, Iowa, UAB, Colorado State, Oregon

2019 RULE CHANGES

Targeting Foul Changes

Under the new rule, a player who is ejected for a third or more targeting foul anytime during the season also will be ineligible for the entire next game.

Year

2017 2016

2018

2015

Year

2015 2017 It does not matter when this additional foul happens: whether it is in the first quarter or the fourth quarter, he will be ineligible for the whole next game. Also, it does not matter when the next game is played. It is the player's next scheduled game----whenever that is.

The role of instant replay in administering the targeting foul is also being changed. Every targeting foul goes for instant replay review, as in the past. However, starting in 2019 the replay official will look at all aspects of the play and make one of two rulings: either the call on the field is confirmed or it is overturned. A ruling of "stands" will no longer be possible for a targeting review.

Wedge Blocking on Kickoffs

The three-man wedge has been illegal on kickoffs (when three players on the receiving team align shoulder-to-shoulder within two yards of each other to block for the ball carrier). In 2019, this rule is even more restrictive: the two-man wedge will be illegal and will carry a 15-yard penalty. As in the past, the wedge is not illegal during an onside kick or when the play results in a touchback. The only change is that the two-man wedge is outlawed.

Blindside Blocks

A player delivers a blindside block when the opponent cannot see the block coming in time to defend himself. It will now be illegal to deliver a blindside block by attacking an opponent with forcible contact, no matter where the contact is made.

The words attacking and forcible will be key for the officials on the field in calling this foul. If the contact is to the head or neck area, it is still a targeting foul. However, it will now be a personal foul even if by rule it is not a targeting foul—that is, even if the block is not to the head or neck area. The blindside block foul will carry a 15-yard penalty.

Overtime

Beginning in 2019, starting with the fifth overtime, each team will have only one play: a two-point conversion attempt from the three-yard line. Beginning with the third overtime a team that scores a touchdown must still attempt a two-point conversion, but when the fifth overtime begins, the new oneplay-per-team rule will take effect.

ECLIPSING 500 YARDS

Since 2015, Mike Bobo's first season as CSU's head coach, the Rams have tallied 500+ yards of total offense in 21 games.

That mark is good for 12th most nationally and is the most by any Mountain West Conference school .

CANVAS STADIUM

Canvas Stadium is the new name for Colorado State University's 41,000-capacity multipurpose stadium that opened on the school's Fort Collins campus in 2017. The newly re-branded Canvas Credit Union received naming rights to the facility through a $37.7 million partnership agreement announced in April 2018. The agreement, which stands as one of the largest collegiate athletic venue naming agreements in history, was part of an ambitious re-branding initiative being undertaken by the previously branded Public Service Credit Union, under the direction of company President and CEO Todd Marksberry.

Canvas Credit Union is a not-for-profit, state-chartered, member-owned financial cooperative that has been in business since 1938. Today, the credit union has more than $2.3 billion in assets and more than 238,000 members – and a mission to help individuals and families make better decisions and grow stronger financially. Learfield's Rams Sports Properties and their Campus+ business brokered the agreement as part of its ongoing support for Colorado State University athletics.

The $220 million, 727,000-square-foot stadium proved immensely popular and attractive to fans in its inaugural season of 2017, and drew rave reviews from local and national media, as well national television networks that broadcast Colorado State's games to large audiences. The Rams set an all-time attendance record with a total of 192,369 fans and a per-game average of 32,062, representing a 16-percent attendance increase from 2016—eighth-highest in all of college football. Season ticket sales also reached an all-time high of 15,477, a 40-percent increase from the 2016 total of 11,054.

The return of CSU football games to campus from Hughes Stadium in 2017 brought the pageantry and celebration of Rams game days back to the heart of the university for the first time in 50 years, providing countless new engagement opportunities for the entire university. The stadium's design embraces Colorado's natural beauty, topography and visual connections to the Rocky Mountains from campus and ensures functionality for both game-day and non-game day usage.

The agreement with Canvas Credit Union combined with $20 million given in 2016 to name Sonny Lubick Field brings the total naming rights revenues at Colorado State to $57 million for the stadium. This compares favorably with the recently announced $69 million United Airlines Memorial Coliseum at University of Southern California and the $41 million Alaska Airlines Field at Husky Stadium at the University of Washington. The Colorado State agreement with Canvas Credit Union is for 15 years and includes annual escalator clauses for inflation, as well as a signing bonus, in recognition of the visibility and success of the stadium.

DENVER -- Colorado State turned the ball over four times (2 INT, 2 fumbles) and Colorado turned those takeaways into 17 points as the Buffaloes beat the Rams for the fifth-straight season.

Quarterback Collin Hill threw for 374 yards in his first season opener of his career, and true freshman wide receiver Dante Wright was sensational. The Navarra, Fla. native tallied a pair of touchdowns - rushing and receiving - and was the offensive star of the night for the Rams.

CSU allowed just three tackles for loss in 78 offensive plays and looked much improved over the 2018 unit. Freshman Nouredin Nouili became the first true freshman to start a season opener on the line in at least the past 30 years.

Defensively, Jamal Hicks led all CSU tacklers with 13 tackles. However, the unit allowed CU running back Alex Fontenot to rack up 125 yards and three touchdowns on 19 carries, part of 243 total rushing yards for the Buffs on the evening.

The game was the final match-up between the two rivals in Denver after 10 years.

GAME NOTES

- Captains: S Jamal Hicks, DL Toby McBride, FB Adam Prentice, WR Warren Jackson
- Coin Toss/Result: Colorado won the coin toss (CSU had choice). Buffs elect to receive.
- Denver Farewell: The game marked the final Rocky Mountain Showdown in Denver, where CSU posted a 6-13 record. Next year the game will be played at Canvas Stadium (Saturday, Sept. 5).
- True starter: Nouredin Nouili became the first true freshman offensive lineman to start a game since Blaine Saipaia did in 1996. Saipaia started the fourth game of the season that year against UNLV. He was one of five true freshmen projected to start the season opener for their team this year, the only one in the Group of 5.
- More Truth: Kyle Helbig, Christian Hunter, Ty McCullouch and Brandon Crossley also made appearances on offense, marking four true freshmen to play for the Rams.
- First Time Starters: On defense, Jalen Bates, Logan Stewart, Andre Neal and Tron Folsom made their first starts as Rams. On offense, Dante Wright and T.J. Storment joined Nouili.
- First Time Rams: In addition to Folsom, Bates, Stewart, Neal, Nouili, Storment, Hunter, Crossley, McCullouch, Helbig and Wright, Jaylen Thomas, Maxwell Poduska and Marshaun Cameron all made their first appearances in a CSU uniform.
- Points: The 83 points were the most scored in a single game in the series.
- Dante Wright became the first true freshman to score twice in a game for the Rams since Warren Jackson did against Alabama in 2017, and the first to score in a season opener since Joe Hansley in 2012.

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP) -- Collin Hill had two long touchdown passes in the first quarter and two more scoring passes before halftime as Colorado State pounded Western Illinois, 38-13 in its home opener on Saturday.

The Rams let the season opener at Colorado slip away by turning the ball over four times. This time they forced Western Illinois into four turnovers en route to their first win. Hill wasted no time getting Colorado State on the board, dropping back on the first play from scrimmage and finding Dante Wright behind the Western Illinois secondary for a 75-yard scoring play 10 seconds into the game.

Less than a minute after Nathan Erickson kicked a 32-yard field goal to cut the Leathernecks' deficit to 7-3, Hill found Marvin Kinsey Jr. on a short pass that the senior broke for a 75-yard catch and run for a touchdown.

Hill hit E.J. Scott with a 10-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter and followed that with a 14-yard toss to Kinsey that made it 28-6 at intermission. Hill finished 25 of 32 for 367 yards passing and had four touchdowns without an interception. Kinsey carried 13 times for 89 yards and pulled in two passes for 91 yards and two scores.

FAYETTEVILLE -- After trailing by as many as 14, Colorado State rallied to tie the game at 34-all heading into the fourth quarter, but an injury on a low-hit to quarterback Collin Hill derailed any comeback effort by the Rams.

Arkansas scored three times in the fourth quarter of the offensive driven football game including a 25-yard fumble recovery, the second fumble of the day by CSU's Marvin Kinsey, to ice the game in the final minutes.

Backup guarterback Patrick O'Brien was 7-of-10 for 106 yards in limited snaps includign a 75-yard touchdown pass to freshman sensation Dante Wright. It was Wright's fifth touchdown in three games and the second consecutive game with a 75-yard touchdown reception.

Kinsey opened the game with a bang in his first career start when, on the second play from scrimmage, he tore through the Razorback line and raced nearly untouchdown 75 yards for the score. It was the longest rush of his career.

GAME NOTES

- Captains: Collin Hill, Adam Prentice, Rashad Ajayi, Manny Jones
- Attendance: 55,583 at Razorback Stadium in Fayetteville, Ark.
- Down South: Saturday marked the fourth time the Rams played at Arkansas. The Rams are now 0-4 with the 55-34 loss. The Rams are now 2-14 all-time against SEC teams, 1-13 on the road and 3-14 overall if you include Missouri, currently in the SEC. CSU is 1-1 against the Tigers, playing them before they joined the conference.
- On the Run: Led by Marvin Kinsey Jr, the Rams rushed for 220 against Arkansas. Their previous best was 189 vs. Western Illinois. It was the most for the team since 301 against San Jose State in 2017.
- Marvin Kinsey Jr.: Tied his career long rush with a 75-yard scoring run on the second play of the game. Did it first against New Mexico in (11/19/16)
- It led to the second 100-yard rushing game of his career (also against New Mexico, 11/19/16), finishing with 180 yards. He had 148 at the end of the first half, 110 in the first quarter.
- Kinsey's total came on a career-best 20 carries
- Cayden Camper: The true freshman walk-on saw his first action, kicking the extra point following Kinsey Jr.'s TD run in the first.
- · Made his first career field goal attempt, good from 46 yards out with :04 remaining in the first half. It is the longest FG for a Ram this season. - He is the third CSU kicker to have made a FG this season. His 21-yarder in the third quarter made him the only Ram to have made two FGs this season. He was later wide left from 50 yards out in the fourth.

FORT COLLINS -- Colorado State ended each half with a long pass completion to the two-yard line, and ultimately came up short at home on Ag Day, falling to Toledo 41-35.

In his first career start, Patrick O'Brien threw for 405 yards on 32-of-52 passing with one touchdown. O'Brien's performance was aided by a career-high 246 rushing yards by Marvin Kinsey, Jr., including his third consecutive game with a 74-yard or better scoring play.

After a tight first half, the Rams were overpowered on the ground in the second half of the frame. As part of 436 total yards on the ground, Toledo tailback Bryant Koback posted 228 yards and three touchdowns on the ground.

CSU tallied the second-most yards in school history in a single game, 694 total yards of offense, but untimely penalities and in-ability to get touchdowns in the redzone proved to be the difference. The Rams finished non-conference play at 1-3.

- Series: Colorado State is now 1-2
- Non-Conference play: Colorado State heads into Mountain West play with a 1-3 mark. This is the fifth time in the past 10 seasons the Rams have once in that span have the Rams had a winning record in non-conference
- 600 Club: For the third game this season, Colorado State's offense surpassed 500 yards of total offense, the 21st time in coach Mike Bobo's tenure. The Rams finished with 694 yards, the best total under Bobo and second in school history.
- 200 Club: Toledo's Bryant Koback rushed for 228 yards in the game, the first opponent to do so since Air Force's Cole Fagan (260) the final game of 2018. Quarterback Mitchell Guadagni surpassed the century mark 119, making the Rockets the first team since Wyoming in 2018 to have two players rush for more than 100 yards in a game. Toledo rushed for more than 400 yards, as a team 436, becoming the first team to do so since Air Force in 2017.
- Patrick O'Brien: Made his first collegiate start after four appearances at Nebraska and two with Colorado State. He threw his first collegiate touchdown pass to end the first drive, a 6-yard connection with Warren Jackson.

GAME 5

LOGAN, Utah -- CSU fell in its Mountain West opener despite winning the turnover battle for the first time in the 2019 season. The Rams benefitted from an interception return for touchdown as well as a blocked punt in the first half, but an inability to establish the running game proved to be the difference in the contest.

In a steady downpour for much of the game, both offenses were hampered in their ability to throw the football with any consistent success. However, the Aggies and quarterback Jordan Love were able to pull away with a steady dose of running back Gerold Bright.

Two fourth-quarter turnovers by the Rams led to the deciding points. Receiver E.J. Scott was stripped of the football following a long gain near midfield, but the CSU defense held Utah State to only a field goal late in the third quarter.

With under 10 minutes remaining in the fourth, the Rams were set to mount a long drive from inside their own 10 yard line, but running back Marvin Kinsey was held up in a pile long enough for USU's David Woodward to strip the football and recover it for a touchdown.
