PREVIEW
Nevada is coming off a narrow defeat to Boise State this past Friday, as the Pack had an eight-game win streak snapped.

Nevada will aim to bounce back on Wednesday, and they have been exceptional in games away from home this season, as they own a record of 6-1 in road/neutral games, including a perfect mark of 3-0 in true road games this year. Nevada also has an average scoring margin of +9.3 in true road games and +7.7 in road/neutral games, as the Pack has been dominant away from home this season.

Nevada turned in a stout defensive effort against Boise State, limiting the Broncos to just 41.2 percent shooting from the field, including 22.7 percent from behind the arc; but, the Pack struggled offensively throughout the game. Nevada scored just 56 points on clips of 36 percent from the field and 25 percent from behind the arc.

The Pack also struggled on the glass, as they were outrebounded by the Broncos 43-24; however, Nevada did do an exceptional job of taking care of the ball, as they turned the ball over just 11 times and completed the contest +7 in turnover margin.

Individually, Kenan Blackshear scored a team-high 15 points, in addition to pulling down three rebounds, dishing out three assists, and recording two steals.

Blackshear has now dished out at least three assists in 16 of 17 games for the Pack this season, and the fifth-year senior has also reached double figures in scoring in 15 games for Nevada.

One of the premier point guards in the country, Blackshear has been tremendous this season for the Pack; and, as he has done all year, he continues to rank within the top-20 of the Mountain West in numerous individual statistical categories.

Blackshear currently ranks seventh in the league in scoring (16.5 PPG), seventh in assists (4.5 APG), 16th in steals (1.4 SPG), 17th in rebounding (5.3 RPG), and 19th in field goal percentage (51.5%).

Blackshear has been particularly impressive in games away from Lawlor Events Center this season, as he is averaging 18.4 points per game on 51.6 percent shooting from the field, as well as 5.7 rebounds, 4.4 assists, and 1.4 steals per game in road/neutral contests. Blackshear has also achieved the two highest-scoring outputs of his career in road/neutral games this season, dropping 31 points in the Pack's Road win at Washington and scoring 30 points in Nevada's neutral-site victory over Georgia Tech.

Jarod Lucas finished second on the team in scoring against Boise State, as he chipped in 14 points during the contest. Lucas also matched a career-high by recording four assists throughout the game. The fifth-year senior matched a program record for consecutive made free throws in the second half of the contest against Boise State, as he drained his 34th consecutive shot from the free throw line, tying Luke Babbitt's record set in 2010.

After scoring 14 points against Boise State, Lucas has now reached double figures in scoring in all 17 games for Nevada this season. One of the most prolific scorers in the Mountain West, Lucas continues to rank within the top-10 of the conference in numerous offensive statistical categories.

ON THE AIR
Head coach Steve Alford will make appearances on the Wolf Pack Coaches Show throughout the season. The show airs live from Chickie & Pete's at Grand Sierra Resort on KNEV 95.5.

University of Nevada athletics are also featured each week on "Wolf Pack All Access" on KRNV Channel 4 every Sunday night. The show generally airs at 6:30 p.m. (check listings weekly) and is also available later in the week.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS
Nevada's locker room is closed to the media. Interview requests should be directed to director of communications Trevor Marbut. Head coach Steve Alford and selected players will be available to the media following a 10-minute cooling off period.

For home contests, Nevada will be returning to in-person, postgame press conferences, located in the Lawlor Media Room.

For road contests, postgame pressers will be held virtually, on Zoom. This will remain subject to change, based on mandate and policy updates.

BRAND USAGE
For the purpose of athletics branding, please do not refer to the team as Reno, Nevada Reno or UNR. Also, pronunciation of the state should be stated in the following way: neh-VA-duh.

Lucas currently ranks third in the conference in made free throws (86), fourth in free throw percentage (92.5%), fifth in scoring (17.4 PPG), and seventh in average made 3-pointers per game (2.2). Like Blackshear, Lucas has also played at a high-level in away/neutral games this season. The fifth-year senior is averaging 17.6 points per game on 43.7 percent shooting from the field, including 36.4 percent from behind the arc away from home this season. Lucas is also a perfect 31-31 at the free throw line in road/neutral games. The fifth-year senior has surpassed 20 points in three of seven games away from home this year.

Nick Davidson had another impressive performance for the Pack in the defeat to Boise State, scoring 12 points, pulling down five rebounds, and dishing out two assists. Davidson has had a breakout sophomore campaign, and he currently leads the team and ranks sixth overall in the Mountain West in rebounding, averaging 7.0 boards per contest. Davidson also ranks 12th in the conference in blocks per game this season (0.9 BPG).

The redshirt sophomore has also been immaculate on the road this season, as he holds averages of 11.9 points and 8.3 rebounds per game in Nevada's seven away/neutral contests this season. Davidson had arguably the best game of his career in a neutral site victory over Temple earlier this season, as he scored a career-high 19 points and pulled down a career-high 16 rebounds.

Tre Coleman was impressive on both ends of the court against Boise State, as he scored eight points on a perfect 3-3 shooting, pulled down a team-high six boards, dished out three assists, and recorded three steals. Coleman's versatility has been on display all season, as the senior forward ranks second on the team in assists (38), second in steals (21), fourth in scoring (7.7 PPG), and fourth in rebounding (3.4 RPG).

As a team, Nevada continues to boast one of the premier defensive units in the nation this season. The Pack has been nothing short of sensational on the defensive end of the court, as they have held all 17 of their opponents this season to less than 50 percent shooting from the field, while also limiting 13 of their 17 opponents to less than 70 points,

Nevada currently ranks 18th in the nation in opponent points per game (63.3), while also ranking 23rd in the country in opponent field goal percentage (39.2%), and 95th in the nation in opponent 3-point goal percentage (31.4%).

Offensively, Nevada continues to rank as one of the most prolific teams in the country at taking care of the basketball. The Pack is tied for sixth in the nation in fewest turnovers per game (9.2), in addition to ranking tied for 21st in the nation turnover margin (+4.0), and 28th in the country in assist/turnover ratio (1.53).

Despite struggling on offense against Boise State, Nevada still ranks 67th in the country in field goal percentage (47.1%) and tied for 114th in the nation in scoring offense (77.1 PPG).

Nevada will face one of their most difficult tests to date on Wednesday, as they will face a San Diego State team that is coming off a National Championship game appearance last season and has yet to lose on their home court this season, as they own a perfect record of 8-0 at Viejas Arena this year.

SCOUTING SAN DIEGO STATE
San Diego State enters Wednesday night's showdown with an overall record of 14-3, including a mark of 3-1 in Mountain West play. The Aztecs have picked up marquee victories over Saint Mary's, Washington, Stanford, and Gonzaga this season; however, they are coming off an 18-point defeat on the road against

New Mexico this past Saturday.

The Aztecs have been one of the best defensive teams in the Mountain West this season, as they rank second in the conference in both opponent field goal percentage (39.9%) and opponent 3-point field goal percentage (29.2%), while also ranking fifth in scoring defense (67.3 PPG).

San Diego State has also dominated the glass this season, as they rank second in the league and tied for 102nd in the country in rebounds per game (38.0 RPG). The Aztecs have been particularly impressive on the offensive glass, as they are also second in the Mountain West in offensive rebounds per game (10.9).

As strong as San Diego State has been defensively and on the glass, they have struggled on offense at times, as they currently rank sixth in the Mountain West in scoring offense (76.9 PPG), while also ranking 11th in field goal percentage (44.8%), and tenth in 3-point field goal percentage (32.5%).

Individually, The Aztecs are led by one of the best players in the country, senior forward Jaedon LeDee. Ledee is having an exceptional campaign, and he leads the Mountain West in scoring (21.6 PPG), while also ranking second in the conference in rebounding (8.6 RPG). LeDee is shooting a stellar 56.1 percent from the field this season, good for 14th best in the Mountain West. The senior has reached double figures in scoring in all 16 games he has played in for San Diego State this season, including scoring 20+ points in 10 games. LeDee has also surpassed 30 points in two contests this year.

Junior guard and 2022-23 Pac-12 Sixth Man of the Year, Reese Waters, has been highly impressive in his first season with the Aztecs after transferring in from USC this past offseason. Waters is second on the team in scoring, averaging 11.9 points per game, and he has shot the ball at a high level this year. Waters is knocking down 41.9 percent of his 3-point field goal attempts (26-62) and 95.6 percent of his free throw attempts (43-45). Waters is also pulling down 4.0 boards per contest for San Diego State this season.

Senior guard Micah Parrish ranks third on the team in scoring (10.4 PPG), and he is shooting 44.6 percent from the field, including 35.3 percent from behind the arc this season. Parrish has been elite on the defensive end of the court for San Diego State, and he ranks 11th in the conference in steals per game (1.5 SPG).

2022-23 Mountain West All-Defensive Team and Third Team All-Mountain West honoree Lamont Butler has been superb for the Aztecs this season. Butler leads the team in assists (3.4 APG), while ranking second in steals (1.2 SPG), and fourth in scoring (8.4 PPG).

Fellow senior guard Darrion Trammell has provided a significant offensive spark off the bench for the Aztecs this season. Trammell has started two games while coming off the bench in 14, and he is scoring 7.8 points per game, while ranking second on the team in assists this year (2.1 APG).

ALFORD CONTINUES TO ECLIPSE NEW MARKS
Last season, Coach Alford eclipsed the 650-win mark for his career, and after the Pack's victory over Air Force last Tuesday, he currently ranks 11th among all active Division I Coaches in career wins with

673. Alford also reached 111 career wins in Mountain West play following the Pack's win over Air Force. He currently ranks third all-time among Mountain West coaches in conference victories, and second among active coaches. With Nevada's 2023 NCAA Tournament berth, Alford also achieved another incredible feat, as he became just the fourth coach all-time to take five different programs to the NCAA Tournament.

EFFICIENCY IS KEY
Nevada has been tremendous at taking care of the ball this season, as the Pack has a combined 145 turnovers through 16 games. Nevada ranks fifth in the nation in fewest turnovers per game (9.1), and the Pack has had 10 or less turnovers in 13 of 16 games this season.

DIAMOND HEAD DOMINANCE
Nevada secured their third MTE title under Head Coach Steve Alford with an eight-point victory over Georgia Tech on Christmas Eve to win the 2023 Diamond Head Classic Championship. The Pack defeated Temple, TCU, and Georgia Tech on their way to the title.

GETTING IT DONE IN THE PAINT
Nevada has been exceptional in the paint on both ends of the court this season, as they are currently averaging 31.2 points in the paint per game, while in turn limiting their opponents to just 24.2 points in the paint per contest. Nevada has only been outscored by an opponent in the paint four times this season, and the Pack has held eight different teams to 20 points in the paint or less.

SUCCESS AGAINST POWER-FIVE OPPONENTS
Nevada is 3-0 against opponents from Power-Five Conferences this season, earning victories over Washington (Pac-12), TCU (Big-12), and Georgia Tech (ACC). The Pack is one of two mid-majors in the country that is undefeated against Power-Five opponents with at least three victories.

ROAD WARRIORS
Nevada has been tremendous in games away from home this season, as they own a record of 7-1 away from Lawlor Events Center, including a perfect mark of 3-0 in true road games. Nevada also boasts an average scoring margin of +9.3 in road contests, as well as an average scoring margin of +7.7 in away/neutral games.

BACKCOURT LIGHTING IT UP
Nevada boasts one of the best back courts in the nation with 2022-23 All-MW Second Team & All-MW Defensive Team honoree Kenan Blackshear at point guard alongside fifth-year senior and 2022-23 Mountain West Newcomer of the Year Jarod Lucas. Lucas and Blackshear are combining to score 33.9 points per game, which marks 44% of the Pack's offensive output this season. Lucas and Blackshear both eclipsed 1,000 points for their career last season, and Lucas is approaching 2,000 points, as well as 300 career 3-pointers. After making the transition to point guard last season, Blackshear has tallied 231 assists since the start of the 22'-23' season.

NCAA Champion, All-American, and Olympic Gold Medalist Steve Alford enters his fifth season at the helm of the Wolf Pack program in 2023-24. Alford has completed 32 seasons overall as a head coach, boasting a career record of 673-351.

Alford's career-win total of 673 victories places him 11th among all active Division I coaches in career wins. Alford also ranks third all-time and second among active coaches in career Mountain West victories (111).

Over his four seasons at the Wolf Pack helm, Alford has mentored three Mountain West Newcomers of the Year (Jarod Lucas, 2022-23; Grant Sherfield, 2020-21; Jalen Harris, 2019-20), the program's first Mountain West Freshman of the Year (Darrion Williams, 2022-23), a Mountain West Sixth Man of the Year (Nisré Zouzoua, 2019-20), two Mountain West All-Defensive Team selections (Tre Coleman, 2022-23; Kenan Blackshear, 2022-23), and nine All-Mountain West selections, including first-teamers Harris and Sherfield.

The 2022-23 campaign displayed Alford's ability to tap the full potential of his roster. After losing 58.1 percent of the scoring output from the previous season to the transfer portal, and losing seniors K.J. Hymes and Hunter McIntosh to injury at the beginning of the season, Alford led the Pack to a 22-11 overall record, fourth-place finish in the Mountain West, and the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance since the 2018-19 season. The 22 wins marked one of the biggest turnarounds in all of Division I, as the Pack increased their win total by nine from the previous season.

Nevada had an impressive outing at the 2022 Cayman Islands Classic at the beginning of the season, claiming a third-place finish in the outstanding field. Nevada earned victories over Tulane and Akron, while only suffering one defeat at the hands of Kansas State, an 87-96 overtime loss in the semifinal round to the Wildcats who went on to win the tournament.

Nevada produced an exceptional record of 14-1 on their home court, and the team earned back-to-back victories over ranked opponents at Lawlor for the first time in program history, beating #25 New Mexico (1/23/23) before taking down #22 San Diego State (1/31/23).

Nevada also had a stellar season in Mountain West play, securing a conference record of 12-6, earning a fourth-place finish at the conclusion of the regular season.

The Pack matched a program record following the completion of the regular season, as five different players earned All-MW recognition. Nevada also set a program record by obtaining seven different All-MW awards by players only.

Lucas, an offseason transfer from Oregon State, was named the Mountain West Newcomer of the Year, in addition to garnering All-MW Second Team honors after producing the best season of his collegiate career. Lucas scored in double figures in 28 of 33 contests for the Pack and he finished the season ranked tied for second in made 3-pointers, and fifth in points per game.

Blackshear, playing point guard for the first season in his entire life, was named to the All-MW Second Team while also being recognized as a member of the All-MW Defensive Team. After making the transition to point guard in the offseason, Blackshear had a breakout year under Alford's guidance. He finished the season ranked fourth in the Mountain West in assists per game, sixth in steals per game, ninth in free throw percentage, 13th in points per game, and 13th in minutes per game.

Center Will Baker garnered Third Team All-Mountain West honors after averaging 13.6 points per game on 56.0 percent shooting from the field, 35.5 percent from behind the arc, and 84.2 percent at the free throw line.

Darrion Williams was named the Mountain West Freshman of the Year for the first time in program history. Williams played in all 33 games while making 30 starts, and he finished the season ranked first on the team and third overall in the Mountain West in rebounding, averaging 7.3 boards per game.

Tre Coleman earned All-MW Defensive Team honors, marking the first time in program history that all five Wolf Pack starters garnered All-MW recognition.

Nevada earned their 10th NCAA Tournament berth in program history following the completion of the regular season, marking Alford's 12th career appearance in the tournament. The selection also signified the fifth different school that Alford has taken to the NCAA Division I Tournament, making him just one of four coaches throughout history to accomplish the feat (Lon Kruger, Rick Pitino, Tubby Smith).

Alford was named the NABC District 17 Coach of the Year at the end of the season, and Blackshear garnered First Team All-District honors while Lucas was named to the All-District Second Team.

In the 2020-21 campaign, Alford also showcased his ability to make the most of his roster. Entering the season returning just 20 percent of the scoring output from the previous year's team, Alford's young Wolf Pack squad opened up by capturing the Golden Window Classic title, highlighted by a last-second victory over Nebraska on the Cornhuskers' home court.

Nevada would navigate the challenges and turns of a season operating under the increased safety protocols as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, going 16-10 overall and reaching the Mountain West Championship semifinals.

Sherfield, an offseason transfer from Wichita State, was named the season's Mountain West Newcomer of the Year as well as to the All-Mountain West First Team, while fellow guard Desmond Cambridge, Jr., in his debut season with the Pack after transferring from Brown, earned a spot on the Third Team.

Sherfield paced the Mountain West in assists (158 total and 6.08 apg) and steals (42 total and 1.62 per game), while finishing second in scoring (18.6 ppg) and assist-to-turnover ratio (2.16), and third in free-throw percentage (85.5 percent). He was also in the conference's top 10 in field-goal percentage (43.3 percent, eighth).

He posted 12 20-point games this season, with 15 performances of at least six assists.

Sherfield also created key moments for the Pack in his debut season, hitting game-winning shots in the final seconds in wins over Boise State (74-72) on Feb. 5 and Colorado State (85-82) on March 5.

Cambridge, Jr. scored in double figures in 19 of 26 games, including eight 20-point performances and a season-high 31 points in the Mountain West Tournament quarterfinal win over Boise State.

He averaged 16.4 points a game, fifth-best in the Mountain West, and also ranked in the top 10 in 3-point field-goal percentage (34.8, fourth), 3-pointers made (69, third), and field-goal percentage (40.9, 10th).

The 2019-20 campaign was highlighted by Alford winning his 600th-career game Jan. 25, 2020, when Nevada defeated New Mexico 96-74 at Lawlor Events Center. The win made him, at the time, the 16th active NCAA Division I coach to reach the 600-win mark.

Alford became the first coach to win two Paradise Jam titles as the Pack swept the field, winning all three games by double figures in the U.S. Virgin Islands. In 2012, he led his New Mexico squad to the title. Junior Jalen Harris was the MVP and was joined on the All-Tournament Team by Jazz Johnson.

Four members of Alford's first Nevada team garnered postseason honors led by Harris. Harris was named to the NABC and USBWA all-district teams after leading the Mountain West in scoring at 21.6 points per game. He was also a Mountain West coaches and media first team selection. Three times he was named the Mountain West Player of the Week, and on Feb. 9 was the Oscar Robertson Player of the Week. He scored 30 or more points six times including becoming the first Pack player with four-consecutive games of 30 or more points.

Johnson was named to the Mountain West coaches second team and media third team. Senior Nizre Zouzoua was the Mountain West Sixth Man of the Year as selected by the coaches and media. Johnson earned the Sixth Man of the Year honor in 2019. Another of the Pack seniors, Lindsey Drew, was named the Mountain West All-Defensive team for the second time in his career and was an honorable mention pick by the coaches and media. He was named the Mountain West Player of the Week the first week of the season.

On April 11, 2019 University of Nevada director of athletics Doug Knuth announced the hiring of Alford as the head coach of the nationally-ranked Wolf Pack men's basketball program.

Alford, a highly successful coach with 11 NCAA Tournament berths and four Sweet 16 appearances, signed a 10-year deal to lead Nevada.

"There is no better coach than Steve Alford to continue the rise of Nevada basketball and we are excited for the next chapter," Knuth said. "To get a leader of Coach Alford's caliber is a testament to the support of our community and our University. There is a great tradition of Wolf Pack basketball and the future is even brighter."

Alford is the 19th coach in the history of the Nevada program. Alford has a career record of 622-320 (.660) in 29 seasons as a collegiate head coach and is 544-290 (.652) in 26 seasons as a Division I head coach. Over his 25 previous seasons as a Division I head coach, Alford's teams have averaged 21 wins per year with only two losing seasons.

"To be able to continue my career in a tight-knit community that has demonstrated its support for the basketball program is exactly the opportunity that Tanya and I were looking for, and we are thrilled to be in Northern Nevada," Alford said. "I can't wait to get to work as we look to build off the established tradition and momentum of this great program. I want this to be the last stop of my coaching career."
