Aztec Head Coach Steve Fisher

Overall: 311-199 (16-Full Seasons) ♦ San Diego State: 127-117 (Eight Seasons)

NCAA National Championship ♦ Three NCAA Final Four Appearances ♦ National Coach of the Year
Nine NCAA Tournament Appearances ♦ 13 Postseason Appearances

Steve Fisher has guided the Aztecs to postseason play in four of the past six seasons.

Steve Fisher has guided the Aztec basketball program to unparalleled heights. In eight seasons, he has taken a program that regularly missed out on the conference postseason tournament, to one which has become one of the best programs on the West Coast and has the Aztecs knocking on the door of the elite teams in the country.

The best news for SDSU fans is that Fisher signed a new five-year contract prior to the 2006-07 campaign that will keep the national championship coach in San Diego for the foreseeable future.

When Fisher arrived on the scene in March of 1999, he found a basketball program that wasn't good enough to be called average. The Aztecs had suffered through 13 losing seasons in 14 years. Members of the school's last NCAA team were in the early stages of middle age. The expectations were set. The Aztecs were expected to lose. The year before Fisher's arrival on campus, San Diego State won just four games.

Now those days are a distant memory. Fisher guided SDSU to the 2002 NCAA Tournament, the postseason NIT in 2003, the 2006 NCAA Tournament and the 2007 NIT last season. In addition, the Aztecs may have their most exciting, most balanced and most experienced team entering the 2007-08 season with nine current Aztecs having been on winning teams that have produced 20 or more victories and advanced to the postseason. Of the nine, seven have been to the NCAA Tournament and eight have won at least one postseason game.

Collegiate Coaching Experience

1979-82 Assistant Coach, Western Michigan University

Coached under Les Wothke, the same coach that hired him for his first coaching position at Rich East (Ill.) High... Team won the 1981 conference championship.

1982-89 Assistant Coach, University of Michigan

In six full seasons as an assistant, Michigan made four trips to the NCAA Tournament and claimed the 1984 NIT championship... Michigan won Big Ten titles in both 1985 and 1986.

1989-97 Head Coach, University of Michigan

Claimed Michigan's only national championship to date in men's basketball (1989)... Guided the Wolverines to three of the school's five national championship game appearances... In eight full seasons, he compiled a 184-82 record (69.1 percent)... His teams made seven NCAA appearances and two postseason NIT trips... One of six coaches to win both an NCAA and NIT championship... Recorded five 20-win seasons, including a 31-5 record during the 1992-93 campaign... Basketball Times National Coach of the Year in 1992.

1999-Present Head Coach, San Diego State University

Authored one of the greatest turnarounds in college basketball history by taking a San Diego State program that won four games the year before his arrival to a pair of Mountain West Conference Tournament championships, an MWC regular season title, two NCAA tournament berths and two appearances in the postseason NIT... Team went from 5-23 his first season (1999-00) to post five .500 or better seasons: 14-14 (2000-01), 21-12 (2001-02), 16-14 (2002-03), 24-9 (2005-06), 22-11 (2006-07)... Won 14 or more games in six of the last seven seasons... Top four single-season home attendance marks have been set in last five seasons.

The ingredients for a successful basketball program seemed to have arrived at San Diego State at approximately the same time Fisher did.

Cox Arena is one of the glaring athletic upgrades on the west side of campus, and its opening signified the new-placed emphasis on basketball in the Aztec athletic department. The program moved from the aging San Diego Sports Arena on the west side of the city to an on-campus home located just steps away from fraternities and sororities.

After the arrival of Cox Arena, one important ingredient was lacking.

On March 26, 1999, San Diego State announced its arrival on the basketball scene in a news conference to introduce its new coach, Steve Fisher. Fresh from a stint with the Sacramento Kings and with three appearances in the Final Four and a national championship in his pocket, he rolled up his sleeves and went to work. And work was needed. It looked to be a daunting challenge and yet the man with one of the highest winning percentages in NCAA Tournament history had no reservations.

"We have everything here that we need to be successful at the highest level," Fisher said. "We have a great campus in a great city. Cox Arena is as good of a facility as you can find. Our league is very good and getting better. Who wouldn't want to play here?"

Coming off a 4-22 season, not much was expected of the Aztecs in the new coach's first year. The Aztecs finished 5-23 but never stopped working. The last game of the season was a near upset of UNLV in the first round of the MWC Tournament. The eventual champions bested the Aztecs in the final minutes.

"We worked hard - we just weren't good enough," Fisher said of his first group of Aztecs. "They tried to do everything we wanted, but we spent the year dodging bullets."

It was year two, the 2000-01 campaign, when Fisher and SDSU served notice that better days were ahead and some, in fact, had arrived. The Aztecs were one of the nation's most improved teams, finishing the year at 14-14 and in the process, ending several less-than-flattering streaks, including a long road losing streak, a long conference losing streak and an overall losing streak. Attendance jumped by an astounding 73 percent and by spring, the stars of tomorrow became more receptive when Fisher and his staff came calling to talk about Aztec basketball.

And then came year three. An indifferent start gave way to a down-right slow beginning to conference play. But the Aztecs then unveiled a trait that has become synonymous with Steve Fisher teams. They played their best when it mattered most.

The Aztecs roared down the stretch, winning eight of their final 10 games and climbing to .500 in Mountain West play, a major step for San Diego State basketball.

Then came March, a month that has always been magical for Steve Fisher.

The Aztecs headed to Las Vegas and picked up three straight wins to claim their first Mountain West title, including victories over top-seeded Wyoming and home-standing UNLV.

The season ended with a 21-12 record and continued the upward surge of the program. And SDSU was close to so much more. The Aztecs dropped three overtime games, lost a hard-fought battle at Utah and went on the road to push Duke. San Diego State reached 21 wins for the first time since the 1984-85 season and returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since that same '84-85 team.

Along the way there were more glaring landmarks. SDSU picked up its first win at New Mexico since 1984 and swept the Colorado State-Wyoming swing, considered one of the toughest in college basketball, for the first time ever.

However, it is what lies ahead and not the past that continues to drive the energetic Fisher.

"I have never said I wanted the program in a certain place by a certain time," he said last year. "You just work hard, prepare well and try to get lucky. We have probably done a little bit of each."

The Aztecs proved that they were more than a one-hit wonder in 2002-03 by returning to the postseason and claiming their first postseason victory in 33 seasons at the Division I level. San Diego State concluded its third straight season with a .500 record by going 16-14 and advancing to the second round of the NIT. Along the way, the Aztecs played before two sellout crowds in Cox Arena en route to shattering the home attendance average (7,172).

Although SDSU struggled the following two seasons, Fisher and the Aztecs enjoyed one of the best seasons in school history in 2005-06. Expectations were high from the outset as the conference media picked

Steve Fisher

2002 NCAA TOURNAMENT ▶ 2003 NIT ▶ 2006 NCAA TOURNAMENT ▶ 2007 NIT

SDSU as the team to beat in the MWC, something that had never happened in the Scarlet and Black's Division I history. In addition, the league media also bestowed on SDSU the titles of player of the year (Marcus Slaughter), first-team all-conference (Slaughter and Brandon Heath) and newcomer of the year (Mohamed Abukar).

And that was just the beginning. San Diego State won a Division I school-record 24 games, the regular season conference crown and the league tournament title en route to a bid in the NCAA Tournament. At season's end, Brandon Heath had been named an AP honorable mention All-American, the MWC player of the year and a first-team all-league selection, while teammates Marcus Slaughter (MWC tournament MVP, first-team all-MWC) and Mohamed Abukar (second-team all-conference) also garnered attention.

The success from the Aztecs' magical year continued in 2006-07 as SDSU went on to win its first eight games, marking the best start to a season by a Fisher-coached team, and posted its second straight 20-plus win season with a record of 22-11, something that had not been accomplished on Montezuma Mesa during the Aztecs' time as a Division I program. In the process, San Diego State earned a spot in the MasterCard NIT and captured its first Division I postseason road victory before falling in the second round.

The immediate future looks just as bright with all-conference performer Lorenzo Wade, returning point guard Richie Williams and two-time letterman Kyle Spain returning for their junior seasons. And with the addition of Ryan Amoroso and a strong recruiting class, many feel the program is in great shape.

Steve Fisher arrived in San Diego after spending one season as an assistant coach with the Sacramento Kings. However, he is best known for his efforts at the collegiate level. He became a household name at Michigan, where he transformed a prominent program into a perennial national championship contender and winner. Returning to the college game was returning home.

"I enjoyed the NBA," Fisher said. "It was all basketball all the time. But I always felt I belonged in the college game. If I have a calling, it is as a teacher. I enjoy teaching basketball. I think it is what I do best."

That point would be hard to argue.

No head-coaching career, at any level, started quicker than that of

In November of 2002, the University of Michigan chose to vacate a number of games from the 1992-1999 time period. Because of this, the NCAA no longer recognizes those contests and thus lists Steve Fisher's career coaching record differently. The chart above and all references in this publication include all games.

The Steve Fisher File

Birthdate: March 24, 1945

Hometown: Herrin, Ill.

Family: wife Angie, sons:

Mark (29), Jay (20).

Education: Illinois State Univ. (B.S. in 1967 and M.S. in 1968)

Steve Fisher. Six games into his head-coaching career he was undefeated and sporting a national championship ring. And the success didn't stop with the national title.

Fisher spent eight-plus seasons, won an NCAA title and an NIT championship and carved out one of the most glamorous periods in college basketball history during the Fab Five years.

Under Fisher, the Wolverines won at least 20 games four times and finished among the top three in the powerful Big Ten Conference five times. In 1995, Michigan set a league record by holding opponents to just 39.4 percent shooting from the floor.

Fisher and company raised the bar even higher in the postseason. His seven NCAA Tournament teams combined for a 20-6 record on the court for a winning percentage of .769 in the national bracket. Three of his teams advanced to the Final Four.

Just seven head coaches have led schools to the championship of the NIT as well as the NCAA. The others to accomplish that feat are Bobby Knight, Adolph Rupp, Joe B. Hall, Al McGuire, Dean Smith and Jim Calhoun.

Add to the accolades the fact that Fisher coached perhaps the most famous group of players in modern NCAA history. In 1991, Fisher and Aztec assistant head coach Brian Dutcher inked a recruiting class that would later be known as the "Fab Five." The group included Ray Jackson, Jimmy King and NBA stars

In just his third season, Steve Fisher guided SDSU to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1985.

Juwan Howard, Jalen Rose and Chris Webber. They were the heart, and indeed the starting five, of two consecutive NCAA runner-up teams in Ann Arbor. For his efforts with that group, Fisher was named the 1992 national coach of the year by Basketball Times.

During his stay in Michigan, Fisher coached seven players that would be taken in the first round of the NBA draft, including the three members of the Fab Five.

His accomplishments may be even greater at SDSU. In 2001-02 he led the Aztecs to the postseason for the first time since 1985 and for just the fourth time ever. The 21 wins were second most for the school as a Division I program and the most since 1985.

That was followed by an appearance in the NIT in 2002-03 and the Aztecs' first Division I postseason victory.

The fact that those numbers came in his first four years at SDSU signifies what is one of the great recent turnarounds in college basketball.

Steve Fisher was born March 24, 1945. He grew up in Herrin, Ill., and played his college basketball at Illinois State University, where he earned two varsity letters. He was a member of the university's Division II Final Four team as a senior. In 1967, he completed work on his bachelor's degree at ISU in physical education and math. The following year he earned a master's degree in physical education.

Fisher began his climb up the coaching ladder in Park Forest, Ill., where he served as an assistant coach and later became head coach at Rich East High School. In eight years at the helm of the program, he built Rich East into one of the top programs in the Chicago area.

"I probably could have stayed in the high school ranks my entire career and been happy," Fisher said. "I coached basketball and taught math and that was fine with me."

In 1979, Fisher moved into the collegiate ranks at Western Michigan. He spent three years as an assistant under Les Wothke, who had hired him at Rich East. He helped build the Bronco program into a conference champion in 1981.

In 1982, he moved across the state to Michigan where he helped Bill Frieder lead the Wolverines to a pair of conference titles. As he was in high school, Fisher was happy sitting in the middle of the bench, removed from the spotlight. A career as an assistant would have worked just fine.

Seven years after his hiring and on the verge of the NCAA Tournament,

Big games have become the norm under Steve Fisher at San Diego State. The four largest home single-season averages have come in the last five seasons. Above, Fisher and Texas Tech coach Bobby Knight, two of the 12 active national championship coaches talk prior to the game at Cox Arena.

STEVE FISHER ◀ COACHES

AZTEC BASKETBALL MEDIA GUIDE

Frieder accepted the head-coaching job at Arizona State and Michigan athletic director Bo Schembechler quickly moved Fisher to the end of the bench. Fisher then moved himself into the national spotlight.

He assumed the role of interim head coach with no promise of a future. However, he made a strong case for the job when he promptly led a team that finished third in the Big Ten race to the national title. Included in that run was a win over Illinois in the national semifinals. The Illini were considered by many to be the best team in the country. The title was the first and remains the only championship in Michigan history.

The 1991-92 and 1992-93 seasons were the fanatical years of the Fab Five. Not only did the Wolverines achieve cult-like status, but they were the most successful group of underclassmen in the history of college sports.

In the years before the early entries into the NBA and before high school stars spent their lunch hours with agents, Michigan's successes were even more impressive. Two straight trips to the NCAA title game with five freshmen and then five sophomores in the starting lineup marked an incredible accomplishment. Michigan set a school record in 1992-93 by going 31-5.

In all, Steve Fisher carved out the most successful period in Michigan basketball history. His final club in Ann Arbor won the NIT. However, he is now clearly planted in Southern California.

"My family and I are elated to be at San Diego State," he said. "This program has unlimited potential. I have a responsibility to make sure the potential is realized."

Fisher's first full recruiting class was ranked among the nation's top 40. His second group was a consensus top-25 crop and the Aztecs keep moving up the chart. Potential no longer seems like a bad word.

The season-ticket base is rapidly swelling. The community has an interest even in the off-season. Steve Fisher has led the Aztecs from the wasteland to the throne room.

Fisher, the 14th head coach in Aztec history, is married to the former Angie Wilson, another former teacher at Rich East High School. They have two sons. Mark, 29, is a Michigan graduate who is in his first year as an assistant coach and sixth season overall at SDSU. Jay is a senior at the University of Southern California.

- ▶ With its win over Missouri State in the first round of the NIT, SDSU recorded just its second postseason tournament win in school history.
- ▶ The Aztecs won 20 or more games in consecutive seasons for the first time in program history at the Division I level.
- ▶ San Diego State defeated (13/11) Air Force and (21/22) BYU, marking the third time in the DI era that the Aztecs have defeated a pair of nationally ranked teams in one season.
- ▶ Brandon Heath was named to the all-MWC first team, while Mohamed Abukar earned second-team honors. Forwards Lorenzo Wade and Jerome Habel were placed on the honorable mention squad.
- ▶ Heath finished his career as the all-time leading scorer in school and MWC history with 2,189 points.

Brian Dutcher

Assistant Head Coach - 9th Season at San Diego State Minnesota '82

One of Steve Fisher's first moves as head coach at San Diego State was to hire Brian Dutcher as his top assistant. Dutcher, 48, was a regional scout for the Sacramento Kings before assuming the role of assistant head coach at San Diego State.

Dutcher served as assistant coach and later associate head coach at Michigan under Fisher. He spent 10 seasons on the Wolverine staff, establishing himself as one of the nation's top assistant coaches. His first year in Ann Arbor was 1989 and resulted in a national title for Michigan as he assisted then-interim head coach Steve Fisher on the bench.

The Bloomington, Minn., native headed up UM's recruiting efforts in 1990-91 when the Wolverines inked Juwan Howard, Ray Jackson, Jimmy King, Jalen Rose and Chris Webber. The "Fab Five" is considered perhaps the best recruiting class in NCAA history. Dutcher helped lead that group to nearly 100 wins, two berths in the NCAA championship game and a regional final over a four-year period. He was also on the Michigan staff for an NIT championship and a Big Ten tournament title (1998).

Dutcher's recruiting prowess, however, was demonstrated by more than just the "Fab Five" haul. Michigan had the nation's top-ranked recruiting class in 1993-94 and in 1994-95, with a group that included Maurice Taylor and Jerod Ward. The accomplishment marked the first time that a university had the nation's top class in consecutive years, according to recruiting analyst Bob Gibbons.

His efforts at SDSU have quickly gained accolades as well. The first full-year recruiting effort by Steve Fisher, Brian Dutcher and Company resulted in a class that was a consensus top-40 group. Their second effort resulted in a top-25 recruiting class without counting a pair of high-profile transfers. Four seasons ago, Dutcher helped the Aztecs attract SDSU's first McDonald's All-American. In 2003-04, Aztec freshmen Brandon Heath and Marcus Slaughter earned starting spots en route to earning all-league recognition and this season, once again, the Aztecs have a much talked about incoming class.

Dutcher is firmly entrenched as one of the nation's top recruiters after showing that his rapport is as strong with potential student-athletes on the West Coast as it was in the vaunted Big Ten Conference.

Dutcher was born Oct. 30, 1959, in Alpena, Mich. He attended Bloomington (Minn.) Jefferson High School and went on to earn a bachelor's degree in physical education from Minnesota in 1982. While an undergraduate, he worked for his father, then-Minnesota head coach Jim Dutcher. He then spent one season in the prep ranks at Apple Valley (Minn.) High School before becoming a graduate assistant at Illinois, where he earned his master's degree in physical education and athletic administration.

While in Champaign, Dutcher helped Lou Henson lead the Illini to a Big Ten championship, two appearances in the Sweet 16 and one regional final.

Dutcher's first full-time coaching job came at South Dakota State, where he spent three seasons helping turn around the Division II program before departing in 1988 for Michigan.

His final season in Ann Arbor ended with the Wolverines claiming the first-ever Big Ten Tournament championship.

Dutcher and his wife, Jan, have two daughters, Erin (19) and Liza (17).

Justin Hutson

Assistant Coach - 2nd Season at San Diego State CS Bakersfield '94

Justin Hutson enters his second year at San Diego State after helping the Aztecs reach the postseason for a second consecutive season. Hutson is instrumental in player instruction, skill development and assisting in all areas of the program.

His duties as an assistant coach include on-court coaching, opponent scouting and recruiting.

"We are excited to add Justin to the San Diego State family," Fisher said at the time of his hiring. "He brings tremendous enthusiasm and passion for the game as well as the unique ability to communicate with student-athletes. He won a national championship as a player, had a very successful high school coaching career and recruited extremely well at Cal Poly. He has great contacts all over the West and is a wonderful addition to our staff."

In his first year on Montezuma Mesa, Hutson helped the Aztecs to a 22-11 record and a berth in the postseason National Invitation Tournament, where they advanced to the second round. It marked the second straight season in which SDSU posted 20-plus victories and advanced to the postseason.

On the recruiting side, Hutson was instrumental in the signing of San Diego State's nationally-recognized incoming class, which includes Kelvin Davis, D.J. Gay, Tim Shelton and Billy White.

When not on the recruiting trail, Hutson is busy on the practice court where he is working with the team's guards. Last season he helped Richie Williams rank first in the Mountain West Conference in steals, second in assists and sixth in assist-to-turnover ratio. He was also instrumental in Brandon Heath ranking second in scoring, sixth in assists, third in steals and three-point field goals made per game and seventh in assist-to-turnover ratio.

Prior to arriving on campus in July 2006, Hutson served as an assistant coach at Cal Poly in San Luis Obispo, Calif.

The Mustangs went 10-19 in 2005-06, doubling their previous season's win total, and were tied with NCAA Tournament participant Pacific with 3:19 to play in the semifinal round of the Big West Conference tournament. He was responsible for recruiting the 2006 Big West Conference Freshman of the Year and landing two freshmen on the Big West all-freshmen team, along with bringing two first-team all-Big West selections and the defensive player of the year to San Luis Obispo in 2006-07.

Before arriving at Cal Poly, Hutson served as the head varsity coach at Bakersfield High School where he led it to a CIF Central Section Championship and four appearances in the playoffs in four seasons. His 2004 team was ranked as high as No. 22 in the nation and fourth in California and his 2003 squad finished the season with a 25-5 record and won the section title. Prior to entering the high school ranks, he was an assistant coach at his alma mater, Cal State Bakersfield, for two seasons (1999-00).

As a collegiate player, Hutson enjoyed a storied college career, winning two NCAA Division II championships at Cal State Bakersfield. In the 1993 championship season, the Roadrunners were undefeated with a 33-0 record and followed that up with a 27-6 record during the 1994 season.

A native of Bakersfield, Hutson earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1994 and teaching credential in 1995 from Cal State Bakersfield.

Mark Fisher

Assistant Coach - 6th Season at San Diego State Michigan '01

Mark Fisher enters his first season as assistant coach at San Diego State. The son of ninth-year San Diego State head coach Steve Fisher, Mark Fisher takes on assistant coach duties replacing former assistant Gregg Gottlieb.

Fisher's responsibilities will include on-court coaching, opponent scouting, player development and recruiting.

Fisher, in his sixth season on Montezuma Mesa, just finished his fifth year as the team's director of basketball operations.

As the director, Fisher handled many of the day-to-day operations, including scheduling, summer camps and organizing all aspects of team travel. He represented the basketball program with the athletic administration.

During his time supervising scheduling, the Aztecs have played high-profile games against Arizona, California, Providence, Iowa State, Washington and Washington State among others. In addition, he has arranged San Diego State to play in the BP Top of the World Classic in Fairbanks, Alaska, and the Shamrock Invitational in Moraga, Calif., in past seasons. This year, prior to being named assistant coach, Fisher scheduled the Aztecs to play in the World Vision Classic in Fresno, Calif., and the John R. Wooden Classic in Anaheim, Calif.

In previous years, when San Diego State had two assistant coaches, Fisher officially took on coaching responsibilities, including conducting individual workouts and off-campus recruiting.

Fisher, the oldest of Steve Fisher's two sons, graduated from the University of Michigan in December of 2001. A member of Psi Chi, a psychology honors fraternity, he graduated with a bachelor's degree in psychology.

Around basketball a majority of his life, Mark Fisher has amassed a variety of experience in a short period of time.

From 1998-2001, Fisher worked in a variety of capacities for Lincoln High School in Ann Arbor, Mich. He served as the varsity assistant head coach, head junior varsity coach and the head freshman coach during his tenure, assisting in all areas of the program.

He served as associate head coach for an Ann Arbor AAU team in the summer of 2001. Many of the players on that squad went on to play college basketball. He has also assisted in numerous camps, including the Steve Fisher Basketball Camps - both in Ann Arbor and in San Diego.

Fisher is single and lives in Carmel Valley.

Matt Soria

Director of Basketball Operations - 8th Season at San Diego State
San Diego State '02

Matt Soria begins his eighth year with the San Diego State basketball program and his first as the director of basketball operations.

This past fall, Soria was named the director of basketball operations after Mark Fisher, who previously held the position, was promoted to assistant coach following Gregg Gottlieb's departure.

Soria will handle day-to-day operations, including scheduling, summer camps and organizing all aspects of team travel.

Prior to this season, Soria was the basketball program's director of player development, a position he held for three years.

Soria assisted the basketball coaching staff with video breakdown, travel, community service and handled many of the day-to-day office duties.

During his three-year tenure as the director of player development, the Aztecs went a combined 57-38, won the 2006 Mountain West Conference regular season and tournament championships, earned a berth to the 2006 NCAA Tournament and advanced to the second round of the 2007 postseason NIT.

Before being the director of player development, Soria was a three-year manager for the Aztecs where he served as the team's head manager for the 2001-02 and 2002-03 seasons. Both of those seasons SDSU advanced to postseason play.

Soria graduated from San Diego State with a bachelor's degree in political science in December 2002, and earned his master's degree in educational technology from SDSU in December 2006.

Soria played collegiate basketball for two seasons at Cabrillo College in Aptos, Calif., before transferring to San Diego State.

Soria, 28, is married to the former Melissa Schuetz and resides in San Diego.
