UNLV (5-5/3-3)

at

San Diego State (3-7/3-3)

Saturday, Nov. 25, 2000 • 4:07 pm

Qualcomm Stadium (71,400) • San Diego, Calif.

Television: SportsWest (Ch. 4 SD) • Radio: KOGO (600 AM)

Series: Aztecs lead, 5-4

TELEVISION: The UNLV at San Diego State game will be televised live by SportsWest with local telecast on Channel 4 San Diego.

RADIO: San Diego State's two remaining games can be heard live in San Diego on KOGO (600 AM). Jim Stone calls the action with "The Coach" John Kentera handling the color.

Logjam In the Middle

- San Diego State enters the season finale as one of four teams tied for third in the Mountain West Conference with a 3-3 league mark. Those four teams are the only four in action this weekend in the Mountain West. UNLV visits San Diego State and Brigham Young faces Utah. The two winners will share third place in the league race.
- The Aztecs are now 6-7 in their two years of Mountain West Conference play. A win over the Rebels would improve SDSU to .500 in the league and provide SDSU with its first home win of the season.

Tollner-Robinson

- Saturday's coaching matchup should merit some attention in California. It is the second battle between Ted Tollner and his former boss John Robinson.
- In November of 1982, Tollner was named the successor to Robinson at Southern California. Tollner spent one season (1982) as the offensive coordinator and running backs coach at USC under Robinson before serving the next four seasons as USC's head coach. Tollner was also quarterbacks coach under Robinson when the two were with the Los Angeles Rams during the 1992 and '93 seasons.

So Long, Seniors

- Saturday's game marks the final appearance in an Aztec uniform for San Diego State's small senior class. Pregame recognition for the senior class will include introductions of deep snapper Jason Asbury, linebacker Brian Berg, linebacker Mac Cleary, receiver Bill Hammett, quarterback Jack Hawley, defensive tackle George Heather, receiver Sean Pierce, defensive back Brian Russell, punter Justin Sisco, kicker Nate Tandberg and offensive lineman Chris Williams.

Seniors, Again

- Four seniors, running back Larry Ned, defensive end Akbar Gbajabiamila, lineman Zach LaMonda and tight end Gray McNeill will not be introduced with the rest of the class. Each of those players are hopeful to return to the squad next season. Ned and Gbajabiamila are expected to receive a "second senior season"

Aztecs Don New "Unis"

San Diego State will usher forth a new era in Aztec football this season as SDSU will take the field in completely redesigned uniforms courtesy of Russell Athletic and Schutt Sports.

The new home uniform is, as tradition dictates, mostly black. However, a solid red panel that flows across the shoulder pads now replaces the shoulder stripe inset. A new "Aztec design" jacquard trims both the neckline, sleeve and pant leg, and SDSU's "Monty" logo has been added to the sleeve.

The Aztecs' head gear also received an updated look. Though the decal on the side of the helmet remains the same, an air-brushed dusting of black paint around the face mask, ear holes and back of the helmet completes the unique design.

due to academic successes and LaMonda and McNeill are hopeful for another year due to time lost to injuries. LaMonda was SDSU's starting center entering fall drills but was injured prior to the opener. McNeill, the all-Mountain West tight end a year ago, was lost to a knee injury on the first play from scrimmage in the second game of the season.

Youthful Glow

- How young are the Aztecs? SDSU's two-deep entering the Air Force contest listed just six seniors among the Aztecs' top 44 players. One of those players, Brian Russell was listed at two positions. The following is a breakdown of SDSU's top 44 players by class:
 Freshmen . . . . .5
 Sophomores . . . . .9
 Juniors . . . . .21
 Seniors . . . . .9

First Timers

- San Diego State's game at Air Force saw three Aztecs score the first touchdowns of the season. James Truvillion rushed for a score, and J.R. Tolver and Brian Gelt caught the first touchdown passes of their careers.

Offensive Numbers

- The Aztecs enter the season finale coming off one of their better offensive games of the season. The Aztecs registered 350 yards of total offense, their third best total of the season. SDSU had its best offensive half of the season with 282 yards at halftime.

More Numbers

- San Diego State averaged 6.5 yards per snap at the Academy, a season high for SDSU. The average comes just one game after the Aztecs generated a season low of 183 yards and 3.0 yards per play in the win at New Mexico.

Sheriff Steps Up

- In eight starts as the Aztecs' quarterback this season, sophomore Lon Sheriff has passed for 1,835 yards on 138 completions.
- Sheriff has also led the Aztecs to a pair of fourth-quarter comebacks this year at BYU and New Mexico.
- The Santee product has passed for at least 239 yards on four occasions, including 269 yards and two scores at Air Force last week.

- After struggling to cope with New Mexico's blitz early on, Sheriff settled down in the second half, connecting of 9-of-12 attempts for 129 yards after intermission to lead the Aztecs back from a 16-0 defecit.
- Against Colorado State, Sheriff registered his best performance as a quarterback, connecting on a career-best 30-for-46 passing (65.2 percent) for a career-high 393 yards and a touchdown. His 393 yards passing were the most by an Aztec QB since Billy Blanton threw for 395 versus Fresno State in 1996 and the most by a sophomore since Blanton totaled 447 against FSU in 1994. He also posted a career-long completion (71 yards to Tolver) and a career-long touchdown pass (64 yards to Lewis).
- Sheriff's numbers weren't eye-popping at BYU, but the sophomore made big plays at crucial times and did not turn the ball over. Sheriff finished the game 14-for-30 passing for 239 yards — the third-most productive outing of his career — and led SDSU on the game winning drive with 46 seconds to play.
- Sheriff had his second-best career outing in start No. 3 at Wyoming, completing 19-of-27 passes for 317 yards, including scoring strikes of nine and 40 yards.
- In the last four games, Sheriff has also been able to do something the Aztecs have tried but struggled with all season — stretch defenses. Of his 14 completions at BYU, five went for more than 20 yards. He also had five completions of 20 yards or more against CSU to go with a pair at New Mexico. Last week at Air Force, Sheriff completed passes of 50, 47, 24 and 22 yards.

Jomar Butler : He Just Makes Plays

You won't find him in the San Diego State media guide, but there may not be a bigger impact player or a better story in the Mountain West Conference this season than SDSU's Jomar Butler. An unlikely hero who missed all of the 1999 season after an injury-plagued freshman campaign, Butler has exploded on the scene from his weak-side linebacker position. Consider the following:

- Despite not starting the first three games, Butler enters Saturday's season finale versus UNLV as the MWC leading tackler with 107 tackles, 86 of which have been solo stops, and eight tackles for loss.
- Butler has been the Aztecs' leading tackler in six games this season and has recorded double-digit tackles in six of SDSU's last seven games, including an amazing 19-tackle performance at Air Force and 17 stops at New Mexico.
- In SDSU's last seven contests, Butler has averaged nearly 14 tackles per game, including 16 at Brigham Young and 13 versus Colorado State. He also had two pass break-ups, three tackles for loss and a sack versus the Cougars.
- Against Utah, Butler finished with a game-high 11 tackles (two for loss), and an interception. The junior also was credited with a forced fumble and a fumble recovery when he stripped Ute running back Adam Tate and then pounced on the loose ball.
- Butler made his first start this year at Arizona, finishing with seven tackles and knocking down an Ortege Jenkins lateral that was recovered by safety Garret Pavelko.
- The Carson, Calif., product posted his first double-digit tackle performance at Oregon State, recording a team-leading 11 stops (seven solo). Butler was also SDSU's leading tackler at Wyoming with seven stops.

Go-To Guy

- Wide receiver J.R. Tolver has been like 7-11 so far this season — always open. The Mountain West's leading receiver in receptions per game, Tolver ranks 35th nationally in receptions per game (5.6) and 37th in receiving yardage per game (74.8). He has also accounted for over 30 percent of all SDSU receptions (56-of-177) and 34 percent of the Aztecs' total aerial yardage (748-of-2173).
- Last week at Air Force, Tolver finished right at his average, hauling in six receptions for 75 yards, including his first touchdown reception of the season. The sophomore has now registered at least five catches in eight of 10 games this season. He has led SDSU in receptions in each of those games.
- Tolver may have had his best game of the season against Colorado State, hauling in seven catches for a career-high 146 yards, including a 71-yard bomb from quarterback Lon Sheriff that stands as the Aztecs' longest play from scrimmage this season. His performance against the Rams was the second time this season that he cracked triple digits in receiving yardage — 129 yards at Wyoming was the other.

- Tolver entered the 2000 season with just nine career receptions for 101 yards.

Dialing Long Distance

- After a stellar sophomore campaign, junior Derrick Lewis got off to a slow start in 2000. However, the New Orleans product has returned to form in the last four games, posting triple-digit receiving yardage performances three times.
- Lewis was back at his big-play best at Air Force, recording four receptions for a career-best 138 yards (34.5 ypc), including catches of 47 and 50 yards, with the 50-yarder leading to an Aztec score. He also had a 41-yard punt return that led to an SDSU touchdown. It was the fifth triple-digit receiving performance of his career.
- Against Colorado State, Lewis finished with four receptions for 104 yards (26.0 ypc), including a season-long 64-yard touchdown catch.

COACHES CORNER

Aztec Head Coach Ted Tollner

- Ted Tollner is in his seventh season as head coach of the Aztec football program. In 1998, Tollner was recognized as the Western Athletic Conference Pacific Division Coach of the Year for his efforts in leading SDSU to a 7-5 record, a share of the WAC Pacific Division title and a Las Vegas Bowl berth.
- Tollner has compiled a 40-39 (.506) record at SDSU. His career record stands at 66-59-1 (.528) and includes four bowl appearances.
- In the spring of 1996, Tollner signed a 10-year contact with San Diego State University, an agreement unprecedented in the California State University system.
- Prior to being named SDSU's 14th head football coach, Tollner served eight years as an Aztec assistant (1973-80) under Claude Gilbert. The 60-year-old Tollner also served as head coach at USC from 1983-86 and spent seven years as an NFL assistant coach (Buffalo Bills - 1987, San Diego Chargers - 1989-91, Los Angeles Rams 1992-93).

Rebel Head Coach John Robinson

- Robinson is the nation's ninth-winningest active coach with a career record of 112-48-4.
- Robinson had two stints as head coach at USC with the first lasting from '76-82 and the second extended from '93-99. While with the Trojans, Robinson won the 1978 national championship with a 12-1 mark and led the Trojans to three Pacific-10 titles and five postseason bowl appearances. Also, from 1978 through '80, USC posted a school-record 28-game unbeaten streak.
- In 1983, Robinson headed to the NFL to take over the Los Angeles Rams. His tenure in pro ball produced the most victories (79) in Ram history. During his nine years with the club he reached the playoffs six times and twice advanced to the NFC championship game ('85 and '89).

- The previous week at BYU, Lewis posting several huge catches against against the Cougars, including a 39-yarder over the middle in the final moments that set up SDSU's game-winning field goal and a 46-yarder to the Cougar 2-yard-line that led to an Aztec touchdown. In all, Lewis registered four receptions for 129 yards (32.3 ypc), his best performance since he hauled in four balls for 134 yards last year at Kansas. Lewis also had a game-opening 57-yard kickoff return at BYU that was a career best.
- Lewis' 21.0 ypc average versus New Mexico improved his season yards-per-catch average to a team-leading 20.5. Last season, he averaged 21.2 yards every time he touched the ball.
- Even more impressive is Lewis' average on touchdown receptions. Though he only has two this season — a 40-yarder at Wyoming and the previously mentioned 64-yarder against CSU, none has been shorter than 36 yards. In fact, Lewis' six career touchdown receptions now average 55.7 yards,

Carrying the Load

- After playing sparingly for the 19 games of his career, sophomore Garric Simmons has emerged as the Aztecs' feature back in the last two games. With Larry Ned lost for the season with a shoulder injury and James Truvillion limited due to a neck injury, Simmons has rushed 42 times for 136 yards (3.2 ypc) in the last two games.
- Simmons became the 22nd Aztec to make his first career start this season when he opened the New Mexico game at running back.
- Simmons showed no first-time jitters versus the Lobos, however, toting the ball 28 times for 88 yards — a season-high in yardage for an Aztec running back.
- The 6-2, 220-pound sophomore was especially effective during the fourth quarter at UNM, rushing 14 times for 53 yards.

Gelt Gets One

- Tight end Brian Gelt may have only accounted for 12 receptions this season, but he had a huge one during the second quarter at Air Forces, giving the Aztecs their only lead of the game on a 17-yard touchdown catch. The score was the first of his collegiate career.

Stalwart Statement

- Defensive tackle Jerome Haywood has been a model of endurance during his 2.5-year Aztec career, starting every game. The junior, who prepped locally at Castle Park, made his 33rd consecutive start at at Air Force last week.

Robles Rules

- Junior outside linebacker Dylan Robles posted one of the best all-around games by an Aztec this season at New Mexico. Making just his fourth start, Robles was credited with 15 tackles, including four for loss, and a pair of sacks. He also caused a fumble and recovered a fumble. For his efforts, the junior was named Mountain West Conference defensive player of the week.
- He came back last week at Air Force with seven tackles, including a six-yard sack and now has 56 tackles (40 solo) on the season. The Aztecs sixth-leading tackler, Robles is second on the squad in tackles for loss (9.0-34 yards) and the leader in sacks (5.0-31 yards).

Demps the Man

- Junior safety Will Demps continues to emerge as one of the MWC's top defensive backs.
- The Aztecs' third-leading tackler with 83 stops, the former walk-on was credited with a career-high 17 tackles last week at Air Force. It was his third double-digit tackle performance of the season. Demps also had double-digit tackle performances versus Arizona State (15) and BYU (11).

MOUNTAIN WEST TELECONFERENCE

The Mountain West Conference holds its weekly teleconference on Tuesdays. The call is open to the media only and features coaches from all eight schools. To access the teleconference, call (719) 457-2657. The following are the time slots for each MWC head coach (all times PDT):

- The junior registered his second career interception return for touchdown at New Mexico, sparking SDSU's come-from-behind victory over the Lobos with his 43-yard pick.
- Demps was named the Mountain West Conference's inaugural defensive player of the week Sept. 4, after accounting for a career- and game-high 15 tackles, including 10 solo stops, versus ASU. He also registered three tackles for loss and seven of his 15 stops resulted in gains of two yards or less.
- Demps had 40 tackles for the entire 1999 campaign.

Russell Earns Academic Award

- San Diego State's "do everything" Brian Russell has done it in the classroom as well. Russell has been named as an academic all-district pick to the Verizon-CoSIDA team. As a result, Russell will appear on the academic All-America ballot.
- Russell owns a 3.41 GPA and is majoring in kinesiology.

Russell Does it All

- Senior Brian Russell enters his final game as an Aztec listed as SDSU's starter at cornerback and as the backup at quarterback. Not wanting to burn a redshirt season for one of the Aztecs' freshmen signal callers this late in the season, coaches had Russell begin taking snaps in practice prior to SDSU's game versus Utah.
- Russell started the first eight games of the season at free safety prior to making consecutive starts at corner versus New Mexico and Air Force.
- Russell was switched to defense midway through last season. SDSU's starter at quarterback for the first two games of the '99 campaign, Russell ranks fourth on the team in total tackles this season with 64.
- He had his first career fumble recovery against Illinois, returning the ball 12 yards to set up San Diego State's only touchdown of the game. He came back to register his first career interception at Arizona. His biggest play of the season may have come at BYU, when the senior made a diving break up on a deep pass intended for Margin Hooks with less than two minutes to play.
- Russell posted a career-high 10 stops in game two versus Illinois.
- Russell made three starts in the Aztec secondary a year ago and was a 10-game starter at quarterback in 1998.

Looking Sharpe

- Sophomore Ricky Sharpe posted his first career interception and touchdown on the same play against Colorado State, returning a Matt Newton pass 57 yards to paydirt during the second quarter. It was the Aztecs' first interception returned for score since Will Demps' 73-yard return against Wyoming on Nov. 27, 1999.

- Sharpe also has 61 tackles on the season (SDSU's fifth-most), five pass break-ups and three fumble recoveries.

Becoming a Factor

- He has been SDSU's first option in nickel packages all season, but junior Garret Pavelko is beginning to see more and more time in non-nickel sets of late. Against Colorado State, Pavelko posted eight tackles (six solo). The effort was good enough to earn him his first career start at New Mexico. Against the Lobos, Pavelko posted a career high 10 stops.
- The junior college transfer also had a stellar outing at Air Force, recording nine tackles, a pass break-up and his first career interception. Pavelko now has 55 tackles on the season — the seventh-most on the team. Tough in blitzing situations, Pavelko also has three sacks on the year and forced a fumble on a third versus Arizona.
- Pavelko is scheduled to make his third straight start this week versus UNLV.

Senior Leader

- If there has been one player on defense that has stepped forward and accepted the role of leader, it has been Brian Berg. Berg, who has started all 10 games thus far as the Aztecs' middle linebacker, enters the UNLV game second on the team in tackles with 84 (59 solo) after being credited for a season-high 13 stops against Air Force. Berg posted 12 tackles in the opener against Arizona State, however, he may have had his most productive outing of the season at Wyoming, finishing the game with six tackles (five unassisted), an 8-yard sack and a forced fumble. Berg made two starts last year in his Aztec debut, finishing the season with 23 tackles.

Tandberg Climbing Charts

- After booting field goal and three extra points at Air Force, senior placekicker Nate Tandberg enters the UNLV game with 233 career points. That figure ranks him third in kick scoring and fourth in career points at SDSU.
- With his fourth-quarter field goal at New Mexico, Tandberg has now tallied the final points in two games this season. He posted perhaps the most critical three points of his career earlier this season at BYU, when he drilled a 35-yard field goal with just 0:01 to play to lift the Aztecs to victory. It was his second career game-winning kick. As a freshman in 1997, Tandberg booted a 24-yarder in overtime to give SDSU a 20-17 victory over UNLV.

- With his pair of field goals versus Colorado State (35 and 25 yards), Tandberg has now notched three multiple field goal games this season and 13 during his career.
- After opening the season with a pair of misses versus Arizona State (37 and 47 yards), Tandberg has connected on 11 of his last 13 attempts, including 3-of-6 from beyond 40 yards.

Just for Kicks

- Sophomore kicker/punter Brian Simnjanovski just keeps getting better and better. Simnjanovski, who walked on at SDSU prior to the 1999 season, earned the Aztecs' kickoff duties shortly after arriving on Montezuma Mesa last fall. This year, the sophomore has also won SDSU's punting job. New to the skill, Simnjanovski has taken to it like a fish to water and ranks 15th nationally with a 42.9 yards per kick average.

SDSU-UNLV Connections

In addition to the Ted Tollner-John Robinson link, there are several other connections between the Rebel and Aztec programs:

- Fifty Rebels call California home with four, freshman offensive lineman Jimmy Zoll, junior wide receiver Charles James, sophomore defensive back Jamal Wynn and freshman wide receiver Michael Johnson, hailing from the greater San Diego area.
- SDSU's Marcus Levi attended Las Vegas' Western HS and is the only Aztec to call Nevada home.
- Aztec freshman defensive tackle Sagan Atuatasi and Rebel redshirt freshman quarterback Ryan Hanson both attended Los Alamitos HS.
- SDSU sophomore defensive end Ryan Iata and UNLV freshman defensive lineman Charles Jones played together at Long Beach Poly High School.
- Three players between the programs attended California's El Camino Real HS. SDSU junior safety Jay Kos and redshirt freshman safety DeAngelo Nedd played with UNLV redshirt junior offensive lineman Greg Hulett.

Game 10 Recap

AIR FORCE 45, SAN DIEGO STATE 24

Nov. 18, 2000 • Falcon Stadium • Colorado Springs, Colo.

Falcons Use Big Second Half to Get Past Aztecs

COLORADO SPRINGS — San Diego State's drive for sole possession of second place in the Mountain West Conference came to end when three turnovers led to 21 Air Force points in a 21-point Aztec loss.

The Aztecs and Falcons raced up and down the field in the first half of play. San Diego State held a one-yard advantage in total offense at halftime (282-281), but trailed on the scoreboard, 24-21.

The Aztecs' first two possessions of the second half resulted in a punt and a turnover as Air Force gained control of the game for the first time.

Following Garret Pavelko's first interception of the season, the Aztecs pulled to within 31-24 on an 18-yard Nate Tandberg field goal with just four seconds remaining in the third quarter.

However, San Diego State was outgained in the fourth quarter, 199-11, as the Falcons pulled away.

Three San Diego State players, J.R. Tolver, James Truvillion and Brian Gelt, all scored their first career touchdowns in the loss. Junior receiver Derrick Lewis had the best game of his career with four catches for 138 yards and a punt return for 41 yards. Two of his catches and his punt return set up Aztec scores.
